Octogenarians celebrate Royal Wedding with quarter peal, lunch and a pint

The announcement by HRH Prince William and Miss Catherine Middleton of their betrothal and subsequently the date of their wedding posed a question for four members of the East Derbyshire and West Nottinghamshire Association inasmuch as should they or could they, ring in celebration of the wedding.

Previously in 1947 the four had rung a peal together celebrating the wedding of Princess Elizabeth and in 1981 they had rung a peal on the occasion of the wedding of HRH Prince Charles and Lady Diana Spencer. So the question now was, what about attempting to ring a peal to commemorate the wedding of the third Heir to the Throne of England?

Sixty-four years on from ringing their first wedding peal at the age of sixteen and after much discussion, the prospect of the four attempting to ring a further peal to commemorate this event gained little support. So, an alternative plan needed to be hatched. It was decided to celebrate and commemorate this Royal Wedding in a different way. By visiting and ringing the bells at three local towers during the day and to take lunch in a local hostelry. By so doing the parishioners of South Wingfield, Swanwick and Crich would hear their bells ringing out as part of the national celebrations.

On approaching the Vicar of St Mary's, Crich, the Revd Phillip Brooks welcomed the idea, especially as a parish picnic was being planned, and if possible could we please ring prior to the village event around 4pm, as the bells ringing would add much to the ambience. This we readily agreed.

So, anchored to ring at Crich at tea-time and four, Eric Sterland, Brynley Richards, Peter Wright and Glyn Holdgate invited David Palmer to join them. David is a few years younger, and a ringer we taught to ring at Morton in the 190s, and who regularly rings with us at our weekly practices. To make up the band we invited Jim Heading, a longstanding ringing friend and fellow EDWNA member. Both Jim and David most willingly and very kindly agreed to join us for the day.

Meeting at All Saints Church, South Wingfield mid-morning we rang touches of Cambridge and Norwich Surprise Minor before moving on to St Andrew's Church, Swanwick where the heavy six were rung for an hour. Next we retired to a local hostelry for a leisurely lunch and a pint before continuing the short distance to ring the back six at Crich. We soon got the six ringing to a good pace in Plain Bob Minor and Bryn, who was conducting, as he had in the earlier peals, called an extent and followed with a further touch of 540 changes to obtain the 1260 changes and a quarter peal.

For the four octogenarians, ringing the quarter peal was as the icing on the cake. All were delighted to gain this quarter especially, as there must be few ringers that have had the privilege of ringing for the wedding of three subsequent heirs-apparent to the Throne of England and in such a truly English tradition as English Change Ringing. The very art form that the East Derbyshire and West Nottinghamshire Association was founded to promote in 1887.

Oxford Society

With many Royal paid ringing events on the calendar every year members of the Oxford Society knew that the wedding of Prince William and Catherine Middleton would mean we'd have a busy day. A programme of ringing was arranged in conjunction with the various authorities in the colleges, the city council, and local churches. With time to watch the wedding in the Royal Blenheim we rang at eight Oxford towers including Tom Tower where Great Tom was swung immediately after the wedding – the first time since funeral of Dean Chadwick in June 2008.

The day started with a pre-wedding quarter peal at St Thos and ended at New College at eight o'clock. Around twenty-five ringers were present at various times during the day and the survivors posed for a photo before heading off for a curry down the Cowley Road.

There was some press interest too. A photographer joined us for paid ringing for the Election of a Fellow at Magdalen on Wednesday evening which illustrated an article in the Oxford Times and the Oxford Mail www.oxfordtimes.co.uk/news/royal_wedding/9000067.Beautiful_music/. During ringing at Lincoln College the Ringing Master was interviewed by Phil Mercer of BBC Radio Oxford for a programme that was broadcast later that day and snippets of ringing at Lincoln and Merton were heard.

Steeple Aston

The ringers at Steeple Aston, Oxon. marked the royal wedding day with general ringing at 8.30am. BBC Radio Oxford broadcast the ringing live and Graham & Dorothy Clifton were interviewed. The interviewer was most interested by all the royal events we had rung for over the years. In particular the fact that the ringers were all on standby when Prince William's birth was expected and within 10 minutes of the announcement the bells were ringing at 9.45pm for 15 minutes.

Later on William and Catherine's wedding day a quarter peal was rung followed by all the ringers getting together for dinner and reminisce on the days events.
