DIOCESAN OR COUNTY STATUS?

One of the things which exists in the organisation of the Exercise, and which no one counts as curious, yet it is a little odd, is the fact that our large associations are divided almost evenly between those having diocesan and those having county status. They grew up side by side, nearly all of them within about the last fifty years, yet, having objects in common, they bear titles which to the outsider would appear to divide them into two distinct sections, the one associated with the Church, the other purely secular. The art of change ringing began originally, without a doubt, as a secular pursuit, and it has been due to the work of the associations over the last half century that it has become so largely recognised as a part of church work. Formerly bands of ringers cared little about the service ringing, and in many parishes the bells were rung only on those special occasions when payment was forthcoming for the services rendered, or when the ringers desired to practice or attempt a peal for their own amusement.

The steady plodding of the reformers has almost entirely altered the attitude of ringers towards the use of the bells, and in these days it is nearly, if not quite, universally recognised that the primary use of the bells is for the services of the Church. There is no doubt, too, that ringers, in the mass, are better Churchmen than their predecessors, and in their turn the desire and are entitled to be regarded as church officials. Why is it then, that more of our associations do not take diocesan titles? There are, of course, a variety of reasons. In some cases the territorial names cover an area which includes parts of more than one diocese; in others they cover only a part of a diocese, but there can be few instances, we think, where a county title is retained solely because there is any objection to a diocesan name.

Ringers give their services to the Church, and in return they are entitled to expect opportunities to practise their art and to ring peals, but whatever their opinions may be as to their 'dues,' it must not be forgotten that they depend upon the good will of the Church authorities to pursue their art. It seems, therefore, a matter of some importance that ringing associations should become linked as intimately as possible with the Church through a diocesan organisation, and the time may come when, to receive full recognition, ringers' societies will have to be diocesan in character. Not merely may this have to be so in name, but in actual practice the various associations will have to be more closely allied to the Church. Indeed, it does not need a great deal of vision to see that this might some day prove a source of strength to the societies and a protection to our art, if ever there should be an attempt made by legislation to suppress church bell ringing. The difficulty of any change over in names at present would be, in many cases, because diocesan and county boundaries are not coterminous, but we believe the time will come when ringing societies will see that it will be to the advantage of the Exercise to be organised on diocesan rather than territorial lines.

IMPROVED ATTENDANCE AT FYLDE BRANCH MEETINGS.

A meeting of the Fylde branch was held at Holy Trinity, South Shore, on December 4th. Fourteen members were present, being a much larger number than usual at this six-bell tower. This was the third meeting of the winter season, and all three have been much better attended than in previous years, leading one to hope that perhaps, at last, the faithful few will reap a reward in increased membership and attendance after many years of pationt plodding and struggle to keep alive the cause of change ringing in the district. Touches of Plain Bob, Oxford Treble Bob, Kent and Woodbine were successfully brought round, also 240 Cambridge Surprise, being the first touch of Surprise at a meeting to be rung for many years, the ringers being: W. Burkes I, A. Hague 2, G. Sharples (conductor) 3, E. Atkinson 4, J. Heckingbottom 5, W. Wikde 6.

The wardens kindly provided tea in the schoolroom. The Vicar (the

He was sorry only one of his own ringers was present. Four of the ringers were also members of the Sunday School football team, and were doing their duty in that

It was decided to hold the next meeting at St. Anne's-on-Sea in January, and a hope was expressed that Double Norwich would be thoroughly mastered by many present, and the first touch rung by the Fylde branch.

Votes of thanks to the Vicar for the use of the bells, to the wardens for so kindly providing such a splendid tea, and to the ladies who so ably attended to the distribution of the good things provided, brought a successful meeting to a close.

PRESTON BRANCH SOCIAL.

The sixth annual social of the Preston branch was held at Chorley on Saturday, December 4th. The proceedings commenced with ring-ing on the Parish Church bells during the afternoon, after which all adjourned to the Church Institute, where full justice was done to an excellent tea by nearly one hundred ringers and friends from Preston, Brindle, Penwortham, Whittle-le-Woods, Leyland Parish, and St. James', Eccleston, Coppull, Standish and Chorley.

Tea was followed by a short whist drive, and the rest of the evening was spent in dancing, interspersed with songs by Miss H. Rimmer and Mr. Holme, also handbell selections by Mr. J. Booth and Miss Booth, of Standish, the crowning item being 'The Blue Bells of Scotland,' given by special request.

The M.C.'s were Mr. H. Fisher and Mr. John Bowling.

During a short interval, Mr. James Bowling, the Institute secretary, in welcoming the ringers and friends to Chorley, said he hoped all present had enjoyed themselves, and hoped to see them on many other occasions. He also thanked them on behalf of the Institute committee occasions. He also thanked them on behalf of the Institute committee for their generosity in allowing the proceeds of the social to be devoted to the special effort to clear the Institute from debt.—Mr. Wm. Nelson, of Leyland, expressed the feelings of those present by remarking how pleased they were to come to Chorley, and with the splendid manner in which they had been catered for and entertained. He had the greatest pleasure in thanking all those who had contributed to the success of the rathering. success of the gathering.

The secretarial duties were carried out by Mr. F. Rigby and Mr. H. Southworth.

ACKNOWLEDGMENTS FROM NEW ZEALAND

To the Editor.

Sir,—May I through your columns express appreciation for the publication of Clarendon Surprise Major in your issue of September 10th; to the Norbury band who rang the first peal in the method; to Mr. George Baker, of Brighton, for pointing out that an earlier version if the method did not quite conform to symmetry of construction, and for suggesting, in effect, that if the second half of a treble lead was reversed to first half symmetry would result.

THE NEW BELLS AT S. NICOLAS' CHURCH, GUILDFORD

Messrs. Taylor and Co.'s work on the bells of S. Nicolas' Church, Guildford, has given the greatest satisfaction, and it says much for the work which they carried out in the tower as long ago as 1880 that the frame which they then put in has been again utilised, and the 'go' of the bells is perfect.

The old peal of eight had a tenor of 12% cwt., which Messrs. Taylor and Co. recast and made into an octave with tenor of 22% cwt. These were hung in a new frame. Two trebles were added by the Whitechapel Foundry in 1894 to make a ring of ten. The recast tenor is 221 cwi. The following are the inscriptions on the re cast bells:

Treble.—'A.M.O.C. Nos Societ Sts—Semper Nicholaus in Altis. Recast by the ringers of this church, 1926. Taylor, Loughborough.' 2nd. 'Subvenial Piera.' Taylor, Loughborough.' 'Subvenial Ditna-Bonantibus nas Katerius. Recast 1926.

BARNSLEY AND DISTRICT ASSOCIATION.

A monthly meeting was held at Horbury on Saturday last. The meeting was not so numerously attended as is usually the case, but the attendance was sufficient to ring the bells and to make it of such social character as to please everyone concerned. The methods rung were Oxford, Kent and Violet Treble Bob Minor, Grandsire Triples, Stedman Triples and Kent Major.

A business meeting was held in the tower—with Mr. R. Thicketts in the chair. Apart from nominations of officials for 1927, the business was of a require character.

Messrs. Moxon, Panthers and Potter are the suggested names for president, treasurer and secretary respectively, but other names are invited before the annual meeting to be held in Barnsley on Jan. 8th.

A very hearty vote of thanks was accorded to Canon Hill (Vicar), the churchwardens and local company for the hearty welcome, and all possible attention freely given.

The new ring of hells placed in the tower at Holy Trinity Church, West Hill, Wandsworth, by Messrs. Taylor and Co., were dedicated by the Bishop of Southwark on Saturday, November 27th. There is, of course, an entirely new framework, and fittings of the latest type have been supplied. The sound of the hells inside the ringing chamber is practically ideal. In view of the fact that there is a hospital adjacent to the fower every endeavour has been made to reduce the sound of the fower every endeavour has been made to reduce the sound of to the tower, every endeavour has been made to reduce the sound of the bells outside, but although these measures have been taken and satisfactorily carried out, it is doubtful whether permission to ring peals will ever be granted. DEATH OF MR. A. J. LE CLERCQ, FARNSIAM

Through the death of Mr. Alfred John Le Clercq, the Farnham (Surrey) band have lost one of their oldest ringers.

The deceased, who was 72 years of age, passed away at his residence, Weydon Hill, Farnham, on Wednesday, December 8th, following pneumonia, after only a week's illness, leaving a widow, one son and three daughters to mourn their loss.

Mr. Le Clercq was a native of Guernsey, but had resided in Farnham acc boyhood. He was a carpenter and joiner by trade, and only resince boyhood. He was a ca tired from work in July last.

He joined the Farnham band of ringers in 1883, and had been a member of the Winchester Diocesan Guild from that time. He was steeplekeeper at the Parish Church for a number of years, and was always a very regular Bunday service ringer, until he resigned the position of steeplekeeper about a year ago, owing to reasons of health.

The funeral took place at Faraham Cemetery on Saturday, December 11th, and was attended by a large number of relatives and friends, the ringers being represented by Messrs. Prior, Clapshaw, Hasted, King and T. Upshall.

In the evening, as a last token of respect, with the bells muffled, an attempt was made for a quarter-peal of Stedman Triples by the local band, but this proved unsuccessful. Afterwards, 700 Grandsire Triples was rung: H. Prior I, J. Reed 2, C. Wells 3, S. Meadows 4, H. Kemp 5, T. Upshall 6, R. Hasted (conductor) 7, A. E. King 8.

A 'spliced' peal in three Cater methods has now been rung for the first time, a composition including Eriu, Stedman and Grandsire, by Mr. A. J. Pitman, having been hrought round at Walthamstow.

A former attempt for this peal, in which Messrs. E. Barnett, senior and junior, took part, was lost after upwards of two hours' ringing, and the hand desire to associate these ringers with the peal, and to express their regret at the cause of their absence. They wish the former a speedy and complete recovery.

Mr. Tom Beadle, of Isleworth, late vice-president of the Middlesex County Association, has been confined to his bed for six weeks past, and his illness is likely to keep him there for some time yet. Mr. Beadle is 76 years of age, and he will be glad to see any of his ringing friends, especially those of his earlier days.

The peal of Bob Triples rung at Tunstall, Kent, on Saturday week, was rung at the third attempt, and it is requested that 'A.H.P.' will please nufe.

On December 17th, 1810, a peal of 8,448 Oxford Treble Bob Major was rung in 5 hrs. 1 min. at Richmond, Surrey. Among these who took part were William and John Platt. Their family had been connected for many years with ringing in this district, and Robert Platt had rung in a peal in the same tower in 1767.

rung in a peal in the same fower in 1767.

The first peal of Canterbury Pleasure Major was rung at Warnham, Sussex, on December 17th, 1883.

A peal of Bob Triples, composed and conducted by Benjamin Annable was rung at Southwark on December 19th, 1730.

Ninety years ago next Monday, on December 20th, 1836, John Cox conducted the first peal of Stedman Caters rung at Southwark. This was for the 'Junior College Society.'

We are pleased to be able to state that the latest report of Mr. Edwin Barnett, sen., is that he is progressing as well as can be excepted.

CARILLONS' 'PEACEFUL PENETRATION.'

To the Editor.

Sir,—Any ringer who read the article headed 'London's first eavillon' in the 'Daily Chronicle' of December 10th might be excused for thinking that the 'peaceful penetration' of England by carillons had commenced. Mixed with unstitted praise of Beigian carilloneurs and correctly tuned bells, which, according to this article, can only be obtained in two places in England, are the following remarks worthy of note by change ringers:

'Expense is the only reason against erecting carillons in England,' All over England there are bells which are silent because their supporting structure is too weak to admit of their being rung.' This is followed by a reference to the stationary carillon which does not 'strain the tower.' 'The speed with which the hells can be played, and the heautiful chords that can be sounded, amaze those who are accustomed to change ringing.'

the only reason against creeting carillons in England.' No other reason apparently being necessary to throw aside the centuries-old service of the change ringer, and this after hell restorations running into thousands of pounds have been carried out up and down the country. Having heard three or four carillons, I am by no means against them, and recognise that the march of progress cannot be stayed, but I venture to draw attention to this article in the daily press because of the unfavourable comparisons drawn against change ringing. The first tune on the new Bond Street carillon should be Bach's 'Sleeparawake,' for assuredly the time is upon us when the time-honoured revice ringers will be displaced by the paid 'bell organist,' or, worst still, asked to stop ringing while the neighbouring tower 'sprinkles' the ar with popular airs.—Yours faithfully,

'OUT-OF-COURSE.'

TO ADVERTISE 'THE RINGING WORLD.'

To the Editor.

Sir,—I frequently notice in the columns of 'The Ringing World' reports of ringing meetings where ringers are urged to give your valued paper more support by many more ringers than at present taking the paper regularly.

As a means to this end, may I bring to the notice of committees of our many ringing organisations what is done by the committee of the Winchester Diocesan Guild, and that is, to place at your disposal gratis, as a small token of appreciation of the service of 'The Ringing World' to ringing in our area, a full-page advertisement in our annual reports.

World 'to ringing in our area, a full-page advertisement in our annuar report?
While I do not claim that all that can be desired results from this, it at least brings prominently to the notice of all our members that such a paper as 'The Ringing World' exists, and I believe that 'f this was done by all the ringing societies increased circulation of your paper would result in the long run,—Yours, etc.,

G. PULLINGER.

The largest sell ever east in England, and the tenth largest in the world, was shipped last week by the Croydon Foundry to America. This hig bell is to be creeted in Philadelphia at the great Wanamaker

The net finished weight, after tuning, is 15 tons 11 cwt. The weight of the bell—before tuning—exceeded that of Great Paul at St. Paul's Cathedral. The total weight of bell, headstock and clapper, is approximately 18 tons. The diameter of the bell is 114 in., and the height 7 ft. 9 in. The actual casting time was 10 minutes from the moment the pouring of the metal began until the mould was filled.

The ornamentation and inscription have been cast in bas-relief, and were designed by Mr. Walter Gilbert, who has been responsible for the sculpture at Liverpool Cathedral. The ornament running round the upper part of the bell represents 'wave sounds coming out of the helfry,' and a feature of the inscription is the reproduction of a fassimile signature of the late 'John Wanamaker,' whose son, Rodman, ordered the bell; whilst the wording is that of the motto evolved by the first owner of the famous store, and still in use by the Philadelphia House. delphia House.

The actual tuning occupied three working weeks. The hellfounders and rtook to make a hell weighing just over 15 tons, and to be tuned accurately to International Pitch—'low D'—and having its harmonies, viz., the hum-note (the octave below the strike-note), its mominal (the octave above the strike-note), its fierce (third) and quint (fifth)—all in correct tune with the strike-note. This has been accomplished, and the hell is the largest in existence that has been accomplished, and the hell is the largest in existence that has been tuned on these lines. It is lower in pitch than Great Paul by half a tone, and lower than lig Ben by a whole tone.

The hell left the hell-foundry by lorry on Tuesday evening last week and proceeded to London Docks during the night, in time to sail on Wednesday, on the 'Ascania,' for New York, whence it will be transported by road to Philadelphia. It was originally arranged to ship the hell on the 'Olympic,' but the engineers discovered that the hold of the ship could not take the hell.

It is intended to ring the bell on the roof of the Philadelphia Store,

It is intended to ring the hell on the roof of the Philadelphia Store, where it is to be installed at a height of 300 feet above ground level, for the first time at midnight, on December 51st, and it is hoped that this ceremony will be performed by a distinguished American.

A gigantic electrically-driven clock has been constructed to strike the hours on the bell, and accurate time will be broadeast once daily from the powerful station on the top floor of the store. It will be the largest bell in America.

Mr. Howard, before the meeting closed, reported with regret the death of the Rev. H. T. W. N.E. BRANCH MEETING.

The annual meeting of the North-East Branch was held at St. Pater's, Tiverton, on Saturday, December 11th. There was a splendid attendance, about 70 ringers being present. Every tower in the branch was represented except Holcombe Rogus, and visitors came from Cristow, Chipstaple, Exeter, Exmouth, Minehead, Nowton Abbot, Seuton Tallaton and Thorverton, and included the Rev. E. S. Poweil president of the Guild) from Holbeton and Mr. Laver (general retary) from Exeter. Service was held in St. Peter's Church. The Rector, the Rev. E. During the business meeting the members heard with regret of the Rev. E. J. Barton's decision to resign the chairmanship of the branch, and passed a hearty vote of thanks to him (proposed by the Rev. F. Carter) for the interest he has shown for the N.E. Branch by acting a its chairman ever since the formation of the branch in 1920.

The Rev. G. E. F. Molineux consented to fill the vacancy, which :a cause for much satisfaction and a good augury for the progress of the Exercise in this branch. Miss M. Hauson was re-elected secretary, and Mr. J. Elsworthy was re-elected Ringing Master.

The secretary's reports were read. In spite of a new associate hand (nine members at Bradninch) having been enrolled during the year, the number of performing members has decreased, being 97, as against 98 in 1925. This was not considered satisfactory, but good progress was reported from Silverton and Calverleigh, while the Bradninch band will soon be able to claim some certificates. Quarterly meetings have been held through the year, with an average attendance of 47. Six certificates have been awarded during the year.

The financial statement was satisfactory, and showed a total balance if £23 17s to 3d.

The next meeting was fixed for April 23rd at Huntsham, subject to the approval of the Rector.

Mr. Powell spoke a few words of encouragement and advice. praised the successful efforts of the past year, and urged the ringers to keep up their numbers by finding and training recruits, and to keep up their own interest by mastering new methods.

Votes of thanks were passed to the Rector for the use of the church and tower, and to Mrs. C. Knowles and all her able helpers who were responsible for the tea.

Many ringers returned to the belfry after leaving the Church House, and touches of Kent Treble Bob, Bob Major, Stedman Triples, and Grandsire Triples and Doubles were brought round.

Many thanks are due to the head band for helping to carry out ad-arrangements, especially in the Church House, and to Mr. Elsworthy for his indefatigable efforts to give every ringer a pull—nn light task, as, perhaps, only those who saw the congested condition of the beliry

SUSSEX COUNTY ASSOCIATION. EASTERN DIVISION.

A quarterly meeting of the Eastern Division was held at Chirist Church, St. Leonards, on Saturday. Twenty-eight members attended from Battle, Brighton (St. Peter's), Brightling, St. Saviour's, East-bourne, Blacklands, Rye and Salchurst. Mr. C. Player was also present from Stone-in-Oxney, Kent. Ringing commenced at 5 p.m., and good practice was had in various methods until 5 p.m. An excellent tea was provided through the kindness of the members of the local tower, and this was followed by the business meeting, the chair being occupied by the Master of the Association (Mr. T. Thornton Rickman).

The place for the next meeting was discussed, and the members were asked to choose between St. Mary's, Eastbourne, and Hailsham. On being put to the meeting, St. Mary's, Eastbourne, was chosen.

The Chairman then brought to the notice of the meeting that the association had sustained a loss through the death of one of their neembers, the late Mr. W. Coleman, the local secretary of the St. Mary's Branch, Easthourne, and it was resolved that the local secretary should write a letter of condolence to the family.

Mr. W. D. Smith proposed a hearty vote of thanks to the chairman for presiding at the tea and meeting, and also to the incumbent for the use of the bells. He stated that he also wished to thank the members of the local Guild for providing the splendid tea, and in giving the members each a good welcome.—The Chairman responded, as also did Mr. Kennett for the local band,—This terminated the meeting.

The members returned to the tower and kept the bells going until 7 p.m., when they wended their way to Christ Church, Blacklands, where ringing was continued until 8.30 p.m.

NOTES BY THE WAY. WHAT IS A METHOD? BY J. ARMIGER TROLLOPE.

Why men should try and get extensions of popular methods is easily understood. There is a prestige belonging to a method like London Surprise which no new one can ever possess. Every one would admit that a peal of London Surprise Royal is an outstanding performance. A peal in the same method under another name would pass almost unnoticed.

But, in trying to produce these extensions, composers had little knowledge to guide them. They had the sample methods as models, but these did little more than show, apparently, that these extension of a complex method like London or Superlative or Bristol is a different thing altogether from the extension of Plain Bob or Stedman or Kent. Composers were therefore reduced to working by experiment. They took an eight-bell method, analysed it, found what they considered its important features, and then tried to reproduce them as nearly as possible on ten bells. Of course, they were prepared to justify their results by much argument. They could give abundant reasons for everything in their extensions. But it is quite fair, I think, to say that in all cases the ligures were got lirst and the arguments afterwards.

The proof of a pudding is in the eating. Not only has the experimental method of working failed to show how methods as a whole extend, it has utterly failed to produce one undisputed extension of any one method. In the case of London each composer who has tried to extend the method has produced a different version, most of them have produced more than one, and each version has, in its turn, been given to us as the one and only correct London Surprise Royal.

The experimental method of working stands, then, condemned, and we must find out some general law based on the essential nature of ringing; or, failing that, we must come to the conclusion that outside the few methods I have mentioned there is no such thing at all as extension.

Inside the Method Committee one or two attempts were made to find such a law. The attempts failed because they were based on the assumption that places are the important things in Method Construction, and that all else depends on them. Thus, we argued, Plain Bob Minor is produced from the Plain Principle by moving inward an External Place. Plain Bob Triples is produced by adding two fresh places. Therefore, they are not the same method. But the general experience of the Exercise and the individual experience of all of us in the tower is that they are the same method, and the one a true extension of the other. Places are not the one essential thing in a method, and we must look elsewhere for the basis of our law.

In trying to settle the question of extension two questions must be answered at the outset.

1. What, exactly, is it that you are going to extend?

2. What, exactly, do you mean by extension?
1. What is a method? Probably no term in ringing is, for all practical purposes, less ambiguous or less liable to be misunderstood than the term 'method.' It hardly needs a definition. But when we come to a question like the one before us we must have something much more definite and exact than will serve "for all practical purposes." A method is not a collection of symbols or figures. It is not an arrangement of places. It is not a collection of rows. It is not a particular relationship between a number of rows. It implies all these things, but essentially it is what its name states, a 'method of ringing changes.' It is so much work, so much hunting, dodging and place making. It is so much movement of the bells. You may express this in mathematical or philosophical terms, but for all purposes of the science, as well as the art of change ringing, a method is nothing else than so much movement. As I have proved elsewhere, ringing is essentially movement and movement, which must be cyclical in form.

Therefore, what you have to extend is not a group of figures; not an arrangement of places; not a collection of rows, but a series of cyclical movements. And it can hardly be denied that if you can do this you will have produced just what the practical cinyar again for duced just what the practical ringer asks for.

2. What do you mean by extension? Most men answer something in this way. In extending a method they say you take it on one number and reproduce the same thing on a larger number. They assume that an extension differs, from its original only in scale.

But this is what can never happen. You cannot treat two rows like 123456 and 12345678 as if they were two lines of different lengths. If you have two lines, AB and CD, of different lengths; and if on AB you erect any geometrical figure; you can project that figure on to CD. The figure on CD will be exactly similar to that on AB, except that it will be on a larger or smaller scale. But you cannot do a similar thing with two rows of unequal length. The reason is that a line is made up of an infinity of points, but a row is made up of a definite number of bells. Any line can be divided in any proportion, and, therefore, any two lines can be divided in the same proportion. But no two rows of inequal length can ever be divided in the same proportion. You cannot divide a row which has seven extreme bells in the same proportion you can a row containing five extreme bells. divide into two equal halves both a row containing eight bells and one containing ten bells; but since the half of one contains an even number of bells, and the half of the other an odd number of bells the division is not really proportionate.

In Stedman Doubles the 3-bell work occupies three-fifths of the whole space; in Stedman Triples it occupies three-sevenths; in Stedman Cinques three-elevenths. The result is that the work of the bells differs in many respects. In Doubles a bell runs straight through from back to front, and from front to back; it does not do so on any other number. Similarly, there are ways in which the work of Kent Major differs from that of Kent Minor. You can never get exactly the same thing on a higher number that you do on a smaller number. This is true of the simplest methods, and quite obvious of the more complex.

Some composers, recognising this, say that extension means getting the nearest possible result on a higher number. But that won't do. It is altogether too haphazard. What one man would consider the nearest possible another man would probably hotly dispute. If there is such a thing as extension at all there must be a definite mathematical relationship between the different variations. You must be able to say definitely and without qualification that such and such is an extension, and such and such is not.

NOTICE TO CORRESPONDENTS.

Owing to Christmas falling in next week, the 'Ringing World ' will be published one day earlier.

Correspondents are, therefore; reminded that all communications must reach this office by Monday next if they are to appear in the issue of December, 24th.

Conductors of peals rung on Boxing Day are requested to post the reports the same night, in order that they may / appear in the succeeding issue.

Take rounds on all numbers of hells to infinity :- 123-1234—12345—123456—etc. What is the exact relationship between these rows? How does 1234 differ from 123? It is not by the addition of anything fresh. course, in writing out the figures which represent the rows you do add a new figure; and in the tower you add a fresh bell. But so far as a method is concerned, which is the added figure or bell? Not the treble, for the treble on one number is the equivalent of the treble on all numbers. Not the tenor, for the tenor on one number is the equivalent of the tenor on all numbers. Equally, every individual bell in the row 123456 is an equivalent of a boll in the row 12345.

The only relationship between the rows in this series is that of a mathematical progression, and it follows that if on these rows equivalent methods are constructed the relationship between them also will be a mathematical progression.

WASHBROOK'S OR DEXTER'S?

To the Editor.

Dear Sir,—Having read with interest remarks on the question of the ownership of 'Dexter's Variation,' for the benefit of your readers I append the calling of Mr. Washbrook's peul, which is not, in ny opinion, a transposition of Thurstans' but a peal built up on Thurstans' foundation, and so constructed that it contains neither extras nor wait.

The 20 parts are arranged as follows:

A. A. A. B. B. B. В. В. В. В. 7.8 A. is 3.4 3.4.5.6 S. at 2 12.13 Thurstans' standard calling: 3.4 7.8 3.4.5.6 12.13 5.6 S. at 14 B. is 5.6

Mr. Dexter has simply changed the blocks containing Singles, starting with the three C. blocks, and calling the A. blocks in place of C. later on, so I leave your readers to judge to whom the peal belongs.

Taunton.

LEARNT IN ONE LESSON.

Sir,—May I point out to Mr. Cave that he is a 'terminological inexactist'? There is such a peal as Dexter's Variation, one that has enabled at least half a dozen conductors to call Thurstans' and have no sleepless nights, and any fool who can ring Stedman can learn how with one lesson at Stuart Street.—Yours, A. FLAT.

WINCHESTER DIOCESAN GUILD.

On Saturday evening, a meeting for combined practice on the 12 bells at Winchester Cathedral was held, when representatives were present from Portsmouth, Fareham, Southampton, North Stoneham, and the local hand, the result being a good practice of Grandsire Cinques and two touches of Stedman Caters. Two or three of the hand who took part had never pulled off on 12 before, but they made an excellent show for the first time, and it is hoped these practices will become more frequent, and that the local men will become interested in them.

LEICESTER.—On Friday, November 12th, on handbells, 1,344 Boh Major: W. P. Whitehead 1-2, E. R. Whitehead 3-4, H. Morgan 5-6, L. H. Whitehead 7-8.

SALISBURY DIOCESAN GUILD. EAST DORSET AREA.

The annual meeting of the branch was held at Poole last Saturday, and was attended by about 40 members representing Bournemouth (St. John's and St. Peter's), Corfe Mullen, Dorchester, Poole, Ferddown, Swanage, West Moors, and Winshorne. Touches in the standard methods, including Double Norwich, were brought round before the service, at which the Rector (the Rev. C. Egerton-Williams) and the Rev. H. Ball officiated. A brief and earnest address was given by the Rector on "Service." Rector on Service

Rector on 'Service.'

After tea, the business meeting was presided over in the Church Roum by the Rev. C. Carew Cox (chairman of the branch), supported by the Rector and the Ringing Master (Mr. F. W. Townsend).

A telegram containing greetings and good wishes from the North Dorset Branch, assembled in annual meeting at Mere the same day, was read and warmly received, the chairman being instructed to convey the thanks of the members to the North Dorset Ringing Master.

Much regret was expressed at the absence of the branch secretary (Rev. C. A. Phillips) owing to illness. Sympathy also went out to Mr. W. Chester, who could not be present owing to bereavement.

The report on the year's work recorded a satisfactory carrying out of the programme of monthly practices, notwirthstanding the difficulties caused by the general strike. Steady practice was going on, and two peals have been placed to the credit of the branch, viz., Kent Treble Bob at Poole and Stedman Caters at Wimborne.—The balance showed a balance in hand of £4 8s.

Treble Bob at Poole and Stedman Caters at Wimborne.—The balance sheet showed a balance in hand of £4 8s.

Both the report and balance sheet were unanimously agreed to.

The officers were all unanimously re-elected, and Messrs. Bennett, Eishop, Hart and Townsend were chosen to act as a sub-committee for drawing up a programme of monthly practice. Quarterly meetings were arranged for Cranborne, Sturminster Marshall and Swanage with the annual next year at Wimborne.

Cordial thanks were given to the Rector for his welcome to the Guild and for his address at the service.

Members afterwards revisited the tower for further ringing.

OFFERTORY GIVEN TO GUILD FUNDS.

The monthly meeting of the Devizes branch was held on Decamber 4th, at Holy Trinity Church, Bradford-on-Avon, and was largely attended. The Guild service was held, conducted by the Vicar, Rev W H. M. Clarke, B.D. Tea followed, to which about 40 sat down A short business meeting then took place, Mr. C. D. Heginbothom pre-

The Chairman reported the death of Mr. Thomas Raddon, of Potterne, one of the oldest members of the branch, and the company stood in silence for a few moments as a mark of respect.

The Chairman reported that the sum of £2 had been received from the Vicar and churchwardens of Holy Trinity, Bradford-on-Avon, and they were thanked for the same, and also for the use of the bells. Thanks were also accorded to the organist.

The Vicar, in reply, said he would convey the thanks to the Parochial Church Gouncil, who, he said, were unanimous in giving the collection for the funds of the branch, and thought it was the way to express their thanks to the ringers by encouraging them in their work. An apology was received from the Rev. Wyndham Noel, Vicar to Christ Church. The following towers were represented: Trowbridge, Bratton, Bishop Cannings, Melksham, Westbury, Devizes, St. John'and St. Mary's, Bath, Warminster, Rowde, Holt, Hilperton, Camerton, Chippenham, Bathford and Bradford-on-Avon, Holy Trinity and Christ Church.

Ringing took place both in the afternoon and evening at Holy Trinity Church, and also at Christ Church. Touches of Kent Treble Bob Major, Plain Bob Major, Stedman and Grandsire Triples were rung, also some Cambridge Surprise Minor.

It was suggested that the annual meeting should be held at Devizes on Saturday, January 1st, 1927.

FIFTY CONSECUTIVE SURPRISE PEALS.

LEISTON'S RECORD.

LEISTON'S RECORD.

A new record must have been set up at Leiston, Suffolk, where there has just been rung the 50th consecutive Surprise peal on the bells. No other method has been attempted since June 8th, 1922, when a peal of Stedman Triples was rung. It has therefore taken 4½ years to complete this half-century. During this time there have been several visitors, some of whom have been successful and some not, hus nothing else has been asked for but Surprise methods. The following methods have been rung: Superlative 2, Cambridge 6, New Cambridge I, Bristol 12, Guildford 2, London 17, Sulfelk 2, Lancashire 1, Edinburgh 1, Rochester 6: total 50. All the peals have been conducted by Mr. Charles F. Bailey.

AN OLD CUSTOM.

Sir—The old custom of ringing the church bells on three Monday mornings before Christmas is still carried on in some villages, yet no ringer I have asked can give me a satisfactory reply as to how it originated. They know it is an old custom and that's all. Can any reader enlighten me on the matter?—Yours truly,

Northampton.

METHOD EXTENSION.

To the Editor.

Dear Sir,—The obvious retort for me to make to Rev. H. L. James would be: 'There are none so blind as those who won't see.' Instead, let me point out to him, once more, that a method is the same when the round blocks are the same, plus the additional round blocks on the higher numbers.

I have a mass of material on hand waiting the time when I can afford to have it printed, and nothing more need he said except to point out as follows:

(1) When Mr. James has learned how to find the round blocks of a method or principle he will be able to prove for himself the fallacy of his present position.

(2) He will also be able to prove that Shipway's so-called Superlative Royal is not remotely related to Superlative Major.

(3) That the irregular extension of Royal is the same method as Superlative Major.

(4) That the real Maximus (Superlative) is a single method, because

(4) That the real Maximus (Superiative) is a single method, because the extreme behind has to be left out to bring up a regular lead head.

(5) That, as a consequence, the nearest double reciprocating extension of Major to Maximus is the method discovered by the late Mr. Catchpole, by Mr. H. W. Wilde and several others.

(6) He (Mr. James) will also be able to prove that Bristol Surprise extends perfectly from Minor to Infinity.

(7) Finally, he will learn that arbitrary definitions are no good at all.

Yours faithfully,

GEORGE BAKER.

· WRONG COMPARISONS."

To the Editor.

To the Editor.

Dear Sir,—As 'a common or garden variety' of ringer, and one who has followed the various articles in 'The Ringing World' with interest for some time, may I be allowed to pass a humble opinion on the Rev. H. Law James' statement re reciprocal relationship?

Here he gives us the plain hunting course on six bells, and shows which bells he considers to have reciprocal relationship. It is all very interesting, but I think it is also all very wrong.

He is comparing 1, 2, 3, 4, 5, 6 (rounds), which is a back-stroke, with 6, 4, 5, 3, 2, 1 (the 5th change), which is a hand-stroke, and also with 1, 3, 2, 5, 4, 6 (the 11th change), which is also a hand-stroke. This is a wrong comparison, as the 5th change does not complete a half-lead, nor does the 11th change complete a full lead or complete cycle. The nor does the 11th change complete a full lead or complete with the temperison for relationship lies between the back-stroke when the treble leads, and the back-stroke when it lies behind.

I give again the figures of the plain hunting course as the Rev. H.

I give again the figures of the plain hunting course as Law James gave them.

The dividing line in the middle is just as he gave it, and is quite in the right place, but we must compare the first row in the first half with the first row in the second half, and not with the last row in the first half, as he does. The same with all the other rows: 2 with 8, 3 with 9, 4 with 10, 5 with 11, and 6 with 12.

If we do this we find that in each case one row is exactly the reverse of the one it is compared with, and that the relationship every time is between 1-6, 2-5, 3-4. We must compare a hand-stroke with a handstroke, and not with a back-stroke, or vice versa.

The Roy. H. Law James is drawing the wrong comparisons, and it is like telling us that a lead-head is a lead-end, and a lead-end is a lead-head. I don't say which of the two it is, but it certainly can't be both.

lead-end, and a lead-end is a lead-head. I don't say which of the two it is, but it certainly can't be both.

To say that 4 and 7 are not reciprocal in Superlative Royal is equivalent to saying that 4th's place is not reciprocal to 7th's place. The same thing applies to the Major. If 3rd's place in the method is comparable to 6th's place, and 4th's place to 5th's place, then it is quite obvious that as the method is just the same from the back as it is from the front to report the reciprocal relationship lies between it is from the front, so must the reciprocal relationship lie between 1-8, 2-7, 3-6, 4-5, as stated by Mr. Buker.

That Mr. Baker is right, and has given us the correct extension to Superlative Maximus, although it has been produced before, is the

THE EXTENSION OF METHODS.

THE EXTENSION OF METHODS.

To the Editor.

Dear Sir,—Is it not a fact that when the experts disagree as to the proper extension of a method, the practical ringer comes to the conclusion that the method will not properly extend, and all the arguments and theories in the world will not make it do so; and any extension that is claimed as the 'nearest' should not be allowed to use the name of the original? 'Take the case of 'Bristol' Surprise Major. The 'nearest' extension to Royal found by the author is that known as 'Clifton,' but I have no doubt that if he attempted to call 't' Bristol' the experts would again disagree.

The arguments are, no doubt, interesting to a few, but to the majority of your readers they are a big waste of space.

THE DUDLEY AND DISTRICT GUILD.

A PLEASANT AFTERNOON AT ROWLEY.

The quarterly meeting of this Guild was held at St. Giles', Rowley

The quarterly meeting of this Guild was held at St. Giles', Rowley Regis, near Birmingham, on Saturday, December 4th, in benutiful autuum weather. The hells were kindly placed at the disposal of the members from three o'cluck, and good use was made of them.

The beautiful form of service used by the Guild at its meetings was conducted by the genial Vienr of Rowley, Lt.-Col. the Rev. F. J. Cheverton, who also gave an appropriate address on the use of the bells in the olden days, which was greatly appreciated. An adjournment was made to the schoolroom, where a hountiful tes was in readiness, and upwards of forty members and friends sat down.

At the business meeting which followed, the Vicar occupied the chair, and he was supported by Mr. H. Mason (vice-president), Mr. J. Goodman, jun. (Ringing Mester), Mr. S. J. Hughes (treasurer), and the secretary.

secretary.

The Chairman gave the Guild a hearty welcome to Rowley, and thanked them for the help that had been given to his ringers by some of the members,

of the members.

The Secretary referred in very feeling terms to the loss the Guild had sustained through the death of one of their oldest members, namely, Mr. W. A. Pugh, of Stourbridge. Mr. Pugh was one of the oldest ringers in the district, and he (the secretary) said he felt sure he was voicing the feelings of the meeting when he said that their sympathy went out to the bereaved family.—Mr. Mason also apoke feelingly of their late friend and brother ringer, and referred to as unassuming manner and his readiness always to fill a gap in a hand for a peal.—On the proposition of Mr. Mason, the secretary was asked to forward a letter of sympathy from the meeting to the deceased's family, the motion being received in silence by the members.

Mr. Mason then proposed that the secretary send a letter of congratulation to Mr. James George, 'of England,' upon his attaining his ford birthday.—The motion was received with loud applause, and the hope expressed that the redoubtable veteran might be spared for many

The arrangements for the quarterly peal were left in the hands of the Ringing Muster. The next meeting, which is the annual one, will be held at Dudley.

One honorary and nine performing members were added to the roll. One honorary and nine performing members were added to the roll. Other business of a routine character having been disposed of, a hearty vote of thanks was accorded to the chairman, proposed by Mr. Mason and seconded by Mr. S. J. Hughes, for his great kindows in granting perhission to hold this meeting at Rowley, for conducting the service, for his elegaent address, and for the use of the tower and bells. The vote also included thanks to the donors of the tea and to the ladies for preparing and serving the meal; also to Mr. J. H. Barusley and his ringers for making the necessary arrangments, and to all who had in any way assisted in making the meeting a most hanny and successful one.

to all who had in any way assisted in making the meeting a most happy and successful one.

The Vicar replied on behalf of all concerned, and briefly closed the meeting with prayer. Members then adjourned to the belfry, where the bells were kept merrily going in various methods, including Stedman, Plain Bob and Grandsire, until nearly nine o'clock.

The opinion was expressed on all sides that it was one of the best meetings that the Guild has had for some years.

NORTH BUCKS BRANCH MEMBERSHIP.

A quarterly meeting of the North Bucks branch was held at Stony Stratford on Saturday, December 4th, when a representative gathering was present from the following towers: Bletchley, Beechampton, Fenny Stratford, Newport Pagnell, Shenley and the local tower. There were also visitors from the Peterborough and Towester and District Associations. The hells were set going at 2.30 p.m. A short service was held, the Guild form being used, and an address given by the Rev. W. Payne, Vicar of St. Many's, Stony Stratford. After the service, the members were the guests at tea of the Vicar (Rev. E. A Steer), whose hospitality was very much enjoyed.

After tea, the Secretary (Mr. W. Scar) announced that he had no special business to bring before the meeting, but he wished to inform them that, after rendering his statement of accounts and membership to the general Guild, he very reductantly had to state that the Dranch was not so strong as the previous year, owing, of course, to the fact was not so strong as the previous year, owing, of course, to the fact that several towers had not paid their subscriptions, and he feaced the loss of them. He would, however, continue to try and keep them in union with the branch. He also stated how pleased they were to have the company that day of the Guild officers, Rev. C. W. O. Jonkyn, Mr. Wright, and Mr. R. T. Hibbert. He would ask them to address the meeting.

This they did, giving sound advice, and appealing to the members to retain the younger ones as much as possible, and to try and create to retain the younger ones as much as possible, and to try and create enthusiaam by getting more young members to join if possible. The same apathy was being experienced by other associations at the present time, and it was up to all to try and maintain a high standard of

The usual vote of thanks was passed to the Rev. E. A. Steer for so kindly welcoming the branch to Stony Stratford, and this brought a very pleasant meeting to a close. Further ringing was then indulged in, the methods rung ranging from Grandsire and Stedman Triples 22 Cambridge Surprise Major.
