INSTRUCTING THE BEGINNER

The series of articles which is being published in our columns for the benefit of beginners in the art will, we hope, prove of benefit to those for whom they are specially intended. They have been prepared with a great deal of care by our correspondent, and we feel sure that his work will be appreciated. It is not easy to write upon a subject like the theory of change ringing in such a manner that the veriest tyro can understand, but we believe that any young ringer who will take the pains to study 'Minormania's' articles will find his knowledge of the science considerably advanced. These papers are not things merely to be scanned, if their contents are to be understood and put to profit. They require serious attention and steady application, and as they develop the beginner will, we hope, find a new appreciation of the theory opening before him.

We are pleased to print this week a letter from another correspondent, advising ringers to preserve these articles for the use of future recruits to the Exercise. We would like to emphasise his point that it is impossibie to reproduce, in a journal which has to cater for the news of the day, elementary instructional matter. We have often been blamed for not catering sufficiently for the interests of learners in the art. In a way, we are all learners, the only difference between us being the degree of knowledge which we have already acquired, and it could be argued with justice that we might as well be perpetually trying to teach ringers how to ring Surprise methods or call Stedman Triples, as continually endeavouring to explain to beginners how to ring Grandsire Doubles or call a touch of Plain Bob. For this kind of thing ringers must, perforce, put their main dependence upon the text books of the day. Actually our task in this matter is to acquaint the Exercise with the various advances made and the new developments which arise. The difficulty of providing instruction for learners in a paper such as ' The Ringing World ' is that, to carry it out effectively, we should have to begin a fresh series in every issue, for the reason that somewhere or other new recruits are entering the Exercise every week.

There would be, we feel, more justification for attempting: to instruct Grandsire ringers how to ring Stedman, or in endeavouring to carry Bob Major ringers up to the Surprise standard, because there is a large group already in existence in both these categories to whom this might be of advantage, and we hope, perhaps, when 'Minormania' has finished his talks, that we may be able to do something in this direction, if there is any desire for it. In the meantime, the 'Theory for Be(Continuted on page 562.)

ginners 'is a valuable contribution to the educational side of ringing, and we hope that 'old hands' everywhere will encourage their beginners to study the papers. It is not to be supposed that every youngster will be able to assimilate entirely each succeeding article as it appears, but by preserving them, and pursuing their study in the forthcoming winter, the beginner will not only have a valuable collection of material at his hand, but will have acquired at any rate a useful knowledge of some of the 'mysteries' upon which change ringing is founded.

Bassett-Kerr, M.A. Vicar and Rural Dean, odficiated, assisted by Rev. F. Seel-Yates, M.A., Vicar of St. Peter's, Becting, and Kev. R. Williams, assistant curate af Braintree. Au inspitiag semmon on' 'Dignity of Service' was preached by Rev. Cano! H. A. Lake, M.A., Rector and Sub-Dean of Glelmsford Cathedral. Mr. C. If Foward read tie lesson.
Tea was served in the Masonic Hall, about 120 ringers being present from forty fracishes. The Vicar presided, supported by his wardens, the secretary of the Parochial Church Council, Mr. G. T. Bartram, J. ${ }^{2}$. CA. chairman of the Braintree 'Urban District Council, and Mr, Frye, organist of Chelmsford Cathedral. The Vicar gave a wearty welcome to the large company of visiting ringers, many of whom had come from a freat distance, on such an auspicious occasion. He expressed the appreciation of the parishioners and hinself of the from the ancient tower (which dates from 1199). He laartily thanked the trustees of the Barron Bell Trust for their generosity in providing the money to defray the whole cost of the undertaking.
A vote of thanks to the ladies and others who had provided the tea was proposed by Dr. Spencer-Phillips.
The Master of the Wssex Associatio
The Master of the Essex Association (Mr, C. H. Howard) gave a Wief adeount of the history of the bells, mentioning that originally they were a ring of five (tonor $20 \mathrm{cwt} 2 \mathrm{qr}$.4 lb .). In 1858 they were recast into a rimg of six (tenor $12 \mathrm{cwt}$.1 qr .2 lh .). In 1899 two trebles were added to complete the oclave. For some fem ycars the 'go' had heen wery indifferent, and on Now Fear's Eve of last year the gudgeon of the Fth broke, nud ringing had to be suspended. Early in tha ance to rehang ihe whole peal, and they very generously offered to provide the whole of the money. Hitierto the treble and 3 rd lad hong in a frame above the otilers, and the ropes fell in very irregular order, while the trebles were inalidible in the tower and all the bells struck false. The bells now hang on one level in an iron frame, with selfaligning ball bearings, and steel headstocks. The ropes fail in an excelint circle, although the bella hang only 12 ft , above the ringing can bo very distinctly heard in the tower. The tone is much improved by the tuning, and the "go' is absolately perfect. The work reffects great credit on Mr. A. Bowell, of Ipswich, who has carried ont the contract under his personal supervision, with great success. Hitherto in Braintree tower was not so pleasurable as it might hate been. This stigma is new completely jemoved, and Braintree bells may be dassed among the best going in the county.

During the afterroon and evening short tonclies were rung in all the standard methods from Boh Major to London Surprise, and every visitinf tinger had an opportunity of trying the bells.

THE RECORD PEAE OE TREBLE BOB

COMLMEMORATJVE TABLEV. UNVEILED AT HEPTONSTALL.
A maetinc was leeld on Saturday, August 27th, at Heptonstall, when a peal tablet recording the 17,824 of Oxford Treble Bob Major was dedicated by the Right Rev. Bishop Frodsham, Vicar of Halifax and Rural Dean. A service was held in the church, and the Bishop delivered a very appropriate address. chney had come, the said, to dedicate a tablet in memory of a noble achievement made by ringers on Faster Monday last, when they locked themselves in the tower and did not leave it again nntif they had rung 17,824 changes, known technically as Treble Bob. All the changes were carefully worked out, and one vistaike would have ruined the whole peal. The Lancashive ringers comanenced to ring about eight o'clock in the morning, and did not lave intil after geven at night. All that time they were swinging masses of metal, weighing from 7 ewt. to over 18 cwt., at the rate of over 27 changes per minute. It was a very remarkable example of bodily strength and mental concentration on the part of all the men, who had to be alect, prompt, and exact. No team of footballerg or cricketers thad to be so upited in their efforts as a tean of bellringers. There was no room for a selfish man in a band. Someone in Halifax, said the Bishop, had asked him, "What good does the ringing of bells fo?' What good does any sport do that demands strength and skill, sucl, for instance, as boxing, which he had supported afl his life? This had to be trained for, the same as belluinging. Conceafratiop was also maining for life. The Bishop went on to refer to some of the different uses of bells, remarking that almost every interest in daily life was associated with their use.
After the servide, the ringers assemblet in the sclool, where about 84 sat dowin to tea. Seven of the recora band were introduced to the Bishop, who congratulated them on their ringing

DEATH OF MR. WILETAM H, GODDEN

 FORMER SECRETHRY OI ST. MARTMNS GUILD.We regret to amounce the death of Mr. W. H. Godden, whith took place on Sunday, August 28th. For many years he was a leading digure in Birminghom and Midmnd ringing ciscles, having been hon. secretary of St. Martiu's Guild faj twenty yearg, retiving from that office in 1909. He also represented the Guild at one time on the Central Council.

Born in Southampton in 18A9, he came to Birmingham as a boy in lis ${ }^{2}$ teens, delermined to seek his fortane in u distant place, owing to differences with his stepmother. He soon found employment in is merchant's office, and after one or kwa changes le obtained a situation with James Barwell, Itd., with which firm lie remained to the endthe long period of fifty-four years. Such longthy serwice speaks for itself, and it is almost unnecessary to sdd that his employors placed implicit confidence in him. Fis judgmenti in business matters was inrariably sound, and he was eventinally appointed to tho responsible position of secretary to the company
It was dry. Godden's connection bell foundry as part of their business in tione tls, wha ren a clurchinto touch with belluinging amel he soon loowledge of the sril would be of immense value to him in the business. At the age of twenty-six, or thereabouts, he learnt to haudle a bell, but did not ring his first pal until le was thinfig
He became a good, steady vinger on eipht betls, fairly safe on ten, but was newer really happy on twelve. Athough ho joined the St. Martin's Sunday batid, he never lost his nevvonsmess in this direction, and was always glud when a spare man turned np, which enabled him to stand out. Mr. Godden rang a large number of eight-3ell penis, mostly Stedman, about twenty peals on ten hells, and two peals of Stedman Cincues.

He was a jovial sonl, and the social side of the Exeraise always appealed to him nowe than the actual vinging itself. In this coneection it may be recorded that his denth removes the last of al littio coterie of men who, for many years, were to be fomd on Tuesday evenings oncupying a certann comer of the smoking room at the Tamworth Arme Hotel, then the meeting house of the Glild. These mea, whose pames were household words anong ringers, came to the Bult Ring on practice nights, but instead of going vep the tower went into 'the annexe. The party comprised Samuel Reeves, William Rock Small, John Gar ter, William Painter and W. H. Godden. By the Younger nsen who rang firgt and adjounned later they were known as the Ministerialists, or, alternatively, as the ' the whisky enmer: Often they were joined by that frequent visitor to Birmingluatr, Clatrles Henry Hatters ley, and on those occasions the writer mould bo busier than usual, and the lagghter more boisterous.

Happy days! Alas, all the 'old bops' have now gone to their long rest, and the joungsters of that day, who nsed to lefer, perhaps, somewhat irreverently to the 'old 'uns,' aud beseech them to keep quiet while they rang Stedman Cinques double-handed, are fast becoming the ' old 'uns' to the next generation.
Apart from a little bronchial trouble in his latter years, Mi. Godden enjoyed mood trealtl, and the end came quite suddenly, He had erranged to take his usual stumer holiday, and had clemred up at tho works to get away when he was taken ill. He was remover to hospital, but nothing conld be doue to prolong life. He was conscions up to the last, and was wisited, nmong others, iby Mr. James E. Groves and Mr. James George, the latter seeing him only twentr-four hours and Mr. James before tine end.
The finmeral took place at Handsworth Cemetery on Wednesday August 31st, and was atteaded by Mr. Arlhur Brrwell and Mr. Cecil Barwell (employers), athcl a large number of employes of James Bar. well, Ltd. The Guild was represented by Messra. J. E. Groves, G. F. Swann, A. Walker and A. Paddon Smith, who also rang a course of Grandsire Triples roumd the eravo at the conclusion of the ceremony, The bells of St. Martin's were rung muffled on Tuesday ovenitg, and a peal of Stedman Triples was rumg at Handsworth Parish Ohurch Saturday, as a last mark of respect to the memory of a man who, his urbanity, never-failing good humour, anti uprightness of character had endeared himself to all with whom le came in contact.

Though I be all-forgetting, yet shal! I not bo forgotten, but con tinue life in the thoughts and deeds of those I loved. "Samuel Butler

Mr. Gutsforth, in proposing a vote of thenks to ald who had assisted the band to success, and also to the Bishop for his services that aftaracon, said although this record peal was crenlited to tho Lancashire Association, they borrowed the bells of a Yorkshire church, the ropes weve borrowed from the Ashton Church, and now they lad horrowed a Forkshire Bishop to dedicate the tablet. Surely a victory with bar rowed plumes?

Mr. Gabriel Lindoff (Dublin) seconded the vote of thants, and endorsed all the proposer had said.
The Bishop, replying, said how pleased he was to be associated with the Lancashire ringers in their grand performance. It should, he said, ereate a great revival amongat the fingers of these fwo counties, especially with the younger section.

The tower bells weve open for ringing during the dity and were fully ntilised. The gathering was a most suocessful and pleasant one

LONDONDERRY SURPRISE MAJOR.

BY GEORGE BAEET?
The frst peal in this method was rung by members of the Middlesex Combty Association at St. Giles-in-Lhe-Fields, on Friday, Seplember 2nd, conducted by Mr. Wiflian Irye. The composition was Middie tou's peal of Cambridge, which appears to be the only paal which will rinu tilue to the method.

A GIGANTIC CLOCK.

WHITCHURCH MLECFANISM AND LOUGEBOROUGE BELLS FOR SHANGHAI.
The enormous clock which Messis, i, 13. Joyce and Co., of Whitchurch, have made for the uew Gustoms House ut Shanghai is now on its way to the Far East, where it will be orected under the personal supervision of Mr. Norman Joyce, one of the directors, who gaila noxt week, and expects to loe awry from this country for six months.
The chock is a magnilicenti piece of work, and does greab crodit to the limm. It has four faces, each of which is 18 feet in chameter, and it will gtrike the hours and Weatmiuster chimes on live belle, whose tofal worght is ton tons, the largest, or hour bell, weighing 64 tons. Each of the faces weighs 1i tons, and the buge hends, made of gin metal and copper, weigh about two ewts. per pair.
The dials fare beatifully designed. The spaces between the hour figures are glazed in flashed white glass, and the centres in flashed amber glass. The dials and most of the fron castings have been marle by Mestrs. W, H. Smith and Co. At their Whitchurch foundry, Tha frame is divided into three parts, in each of which have been set the three separate 'trains -the hour train, the train operating the escapement is after the Lord Grimthorpe patiern ; the dowblo threalegged gravity, and the wearing parts are jewellod as in watch. The pendulum is fiftean feet long, weiglas foul cwts, and beata with a swing of two secoeds' duration each way. The hour bell weighs six and a quarter tons, and the four quarter-lonm chimes weigh four tons. The strifing lammer for the hour lyell wiglus two aud a quarter ewts. The hells have teen cast by Messra, Taylor and Co., of Loughborough.
Some idea of the fine craftemanslip that hans leen past into the constuuction of this great timepiece cari lue gathered from the fact that it is guaranteed not to lose more than 15 seecnds per month. It is the largest clock that has been turned oul of hile famous works of Mesarg. 5. 13. Joyce and Co., and it is for the new buildiog arected by the Chinese Maritime Custome, at Shamglai, at a cost of about a million gad a quarter sterling. This building is of alty-fomper design, consisting: of owenty or thirly stories, and the clouk will stend in a tower several bundred feet from the gronme.

Packing the clock for shipment preseuted no light task. The giess fo" the dials alone is in some 2,000 pieces-to replace breakages in transit Eve complete dials have bern despatched-and, together with crates, etc, samething life 14 tons wete sent from Whitchurgh. Tho bolls were despatched direct from foundry in stip, and weigh anotiser 16 tons when packed, so that altogelhor", clock, bells and paoking weigh samewhere in the meighbourhood of 30 tons.

BELERY GOSSIP.

The antumn ringing holiday with Mr. G. Williams' party starts at St. Wooles ${ }^{2}$ pro-Catiedral, Newport, on Saturday, Sopternber 17 th . Eight days will be spent cavering four counties, siz., Monanouth, Glamorgan, Carmarthen and Pembrokeshire.
The youngest membar of the ringing family of Bibby, at Frodsham, Las now passed the 'teething' stage. Last week he won E500, firsi prize, in a "eross-word' puzzle competition.
We wonder what the result would be if a similar prize wits offered for the best 'diagran ' for extending Surprise Major to tho higher number of bells, the decision to be made by a commititee of peal ringere?
The Lord Mayor of London does not believe in the 'Diek Whittington' legend, and suggests that there were no cais in England at that period. There has now been discovered in Sussex, near his loidship's home, an ancient paving tile with an impression of a cat's feet.
The owner of tire scooter, mentioned last week, writes to siy that he was not the cause of the collapse in Cormhill. This catastrophe was uadoubtedly caused by the "lutrgwidge' of the 'langwyns, exchating, of course, the jumaculate 'arb. The same witer recommends for Uncle Joe's aukle the 'ile' purveyed by all good honest lawyers. [i outward application fails, try drinking it.

Uncle Joe' writes, in reply to last week's inquiry: 'Yes, my 42563 course-ead has come up, and I shall this week call "the gth in and out at 2," aud rounds will come up at Valby Gasworks, Copenhagen, Donmark, where $I$ expect to receive my " limaing World "dated September 9th, 1827.
The meeting which was arranged for thacers to bear and try Tekleton's new peal of eigltt has been postponed to September 24th.
The Bishop of Whitby will preside at the Buowdon Commemoration Dinner at York on Saturday week.
That active Eirmingham youth, Mr. James Gcorge, is on the last lap for his thousand peals. He started on Saturday to polish off the last 50 On the prevtous Wednesday he rang his 200 th peal of stedman Triples. This is pretty good going for a lad of nearly 74 .

Charles Middicton little knew, when he produced his fanous compcsition, how really wonderful its structure was. Ee pit together not only the maximum lengtin, but the only possible peal of Cambrictge Surprise Major with the tenors together. Now, it appears that it is the only composition that wil go to Londondorry Surprise. We believe the composition was actually got out by Middleton for London Surprise, and it was not until lator hat its unique application to Cambridge was diseovered. Middleton died on September 14 th, 1886.
Tareaty years ago next Thursday, at Llangollenz Bertram Prewett called the first peal of Superlative in Wales.
William Shipway composed and conducted the first (and, for all we know, the last) pea! of Imperial Place Major. This was rung at St. Mary's, Islington, on September 13th, 1802.

The Crowfield Society rang a peal of 'Gathrine' Triples at Coddenham, Suffolk, on September $10 t h, 7741$. This is bow supposed to have been Garthon's peal of Grandsire Triples, which was frrst rung at St. Peler Maneroft, Norwich, in 1715.

SERIOUS ACCIDENT TO MR. A. H. PULLING. MOTOR SPILL NEAR HATFIELD.

On Triday last Mr. Alfred H. Pulling, of Guildford, zmet with a serious accident while motoring on the Great North Road, and is now lying in the County Hospital at Hertford in a critical condition, sultering from a fracture at the base of the skull.
Mr. Pulling was on his way from Guildford to Peterborourh to Fetch his wife, who had been stayiug there on a holiday. He was driving his 'trusty Triumpin' with a sidecar attached, and the spill occurred between Pobter's Bur and Hatfeld. At the moment it is not known exactly what happened, but after the aceident it was seen that he was bady burt, and he was hurricd off the hospital, and his wife hastily summoned.
Examinetion slowed that his most serious iujury was a fracture at the base of the skull, and his condition still gives rise to the deepest concern.
The news of this misfortune will be received witls the greatest regret by his numerous ringing friends in many parts of the country, who will also deeply sympathise with Mrs. Pulling in her great anxiety.
Only last year, Mrs. Pulling herself spent some weeks in Sherborne Hospital as the result of a spill. on the opening day of the Somerset tour, and now Mr. Pulling is the victin of a serious accident. The motor-cycle and sidecar had done many bundred miles during tbis summer vacation, and, after the faur in the West, Mr, Pulling took his wife to Peterborough, while he returned to the Royal Grammar School at Guildford, where he is caretaker. On Wednesday of last wrek he visited Southampton, where be conducted his fiftieth peal of Landont Surprise Major.
On inquiry at the Hertford County Hospital on Wednesday morning we were informed that Mr. Pulling's condition was unchanged, and tiat he was stifll in a critical state.

A BEGINNER'S THEORY  HY 'MINORMANLA.

This is the sixth of the series of articles which have been speclally written for beginners by 'Minormania,' to explain to tham the theory of change ringing. These articies are not merely for perusal. If they are to sarve the purpose for which they are intended they must be studied.

INTERNAL TRANSPGSITION.

By the same form of transposition that we use to determine the lend-ends (from tive first lead-head and lead-end), we are able to discover what any internal row will be. By 'internat row' is meant any row letween the lead-head and the lead-end rows.
We have found that the paths through each and every lead, from head to end, are monlded upon the paths througli the first lead. All feats being the same, it follows that any corresponding distance travelled in two given leads will likewise be symmetrical.
In anothe: way, pall the lead-head ${ }^{4}$ Station $A$, and the lead-end Station $B^{\prime}$ " as we hare doce before. Any row in between theso two all 'Station C.
The trains travel by set rails from $A$ to $B$ in every lead, and whatever the number of the train may bo the ronte from the platform at A to the one at $B$ remains unaltered, as we have discovered. Tben, if our trains pass through a station in between $A$ and $B$, which wo howe called "Station $C^{\text {, }}$ " it follows that the platforms at $C$ (througlt which they pass in the first lead) will be the same platforms as those as Station C in any lead, becatse the rails (or paths) are identical in every lead.

Therefore, by tuasposition from the first lead-head to any row within the firgt lead we can find a corresponding yow from any other lead-head. It is merely the black and red cards transposition; there we have called the black row (underneath) the 'lead-end,' instend of row No. 9 (or whatever it may be) that we xequire here.
For example, we have a lead-hend in the first part of our 720 of Bob Minor, 145362 . We have got to find out exactly what the row will be in that lead when the treble bell makes her frst blow behind (that is, in sixih's place in the row). The eorresponding row to this, in the first lead, is row No. 6 (counting rounds as the first row), that is, 645231. Our example for transposition, then, is thus: We place in black cards, 123456 , with 645251 under, th the usual way. We then cover 123456 with a red row of the leadhead under consideration (145362), and proceed to transfer exactly as hefore, but in the order t.f 6-4-5-2-3-1 The only difference js that 645231 has taken the place of our uswal lead-end. The result will be 236951 in red underneath, which is the row we are looking for.
This trapspogition is exactily similar to that of the lead-ends. It may not appear to be so, hut, nevertheless, it is so. The lead-ends are just as much one of the rows in the lead, as is 645231, but they have to he transferred bodily to the row above, because they are ALSO the lead-teads (like 145562 above).

BACK゙ WARD TRANSPOSITION

We have been studying the formard transposition, from lead-heads to the rows following, and before we leave the subject we must touch upon the transposition from rows BACK TO lead-hcads. It is necesanry, upon occasion, to determine the lead-head of a particular lead which a wertan row will appear.
We wish to find the lead-head of the lead in which 236551 will appear 9 the eixth row. The correspouding row in the first lead (row No. 6) e find to be 645231. For example, we ave just reversing what has some before.
Place the known row and head side by side, the figures spaced fairly apart, $6-4-5-2-3-1 ; 1-2-3-4-5-6$. Under tha known row place the nuknown row 2-3-6-4-5-1, and draw vertical lines between all of the fgires. Yeu will how have:-

\begin{array}{ll}
\text { Rows. } & \text { Heads. } \\
645231 & \text { I } 23456 \\
23641 &
\end{array}

Now fill in the spaces umder 123456 with figures which will make the SAME PAERS READ DOWNWARDS, Re those pairs read downwards in the two rows, and your finished result will be:-
Rows (Station B).
645231
Heads (Station A).
236451
123456
and we may know that, becanse 645231 is the sixth row from 123456, then 236451 is the corresponding row from 145362 .
The reason far this is fairly simple, in view of what has been saiti of stations and platforms. The row 645231 is Station B, platform 1 heing oconpied by No. 6 train: opposite is Station A (123456), where No. 6 train occupies platiorm 6, its proper place in the row. In Station if undermeath ( 236451 ), platform 1 is occupied by No. 2 train: therefore, at Station $A$ the No. 2 train goes back to the same platform ag did the No. 6 abovo it. That is to say, No. 6 and No. 2, occupting B1 (the 6 above and the 2 below), they both go back to where the 6 above eoes-to A6.
In effect, we pick up the downward columns hodily (one column at a time), and put them down again in "rounds arder" first the column headed by ' 1 , theu that whicl lias ' 2 ' at the top, followed hy W. then ' 4." etc., etc.

We can see the column effect, if we take the sixth row in the

Abstract

Sixth Row:- Comes from leari-head:- 645231 426351 234561 23456 $\begin{array}{lllll}1 & 3 & 5 & 2 & 6 \\ 1 & 5 & 6 & 4 \\ 2\end{array}$ We should notice that the treble mast bo in the same place, in the two rows under consideration. It she is nob in the same place in both of the rows, then the result will not be a lead-hend. Suppose we tried to find the lead-leads, taking rows 645231 and 234156 , the result would be:-

> lRows. 645231 234156

aud, of course, 615342 is not a lead-herd at nill.
We now luve the groundwork for applying transposition lo any method, upon any mumber of bells, as the foreguiug general principles may be used in most cases. Any exceptions there viny be will uppear as we progress.

Tho members then adjourned to the Church Fall, where a splendid tea was provided liy lhe Vicar ant Mrs. Tames, and full justice was done fo all Lhe trice things.
The business meeting folsowed, at which the Vicar presided. Gorsoinor: was chosen for the next quarterly meeling, to the liekl the tirst Saturtay iu Dacember.

One lion. member was elccted, and a disctassion bok place over the price of the Guiki's certificate. It was agreod that a charge of 9t. should bo trate.

Votes of thanks were accoried to tho Ficar and Mrs, James far providing such a bountiful tea, to the ladies for looking after the visitors, and to the Vicar for his address and wolcome apd for use of the bells, whioh were made good use of rluring the afternoos and evening.
The Vicar, in responding, said how plensed he was to welcome the Guild, and hoped it would not be long belone they came again.

Mr. J. P. Fidler, from Loughborotigh, was present, and tater in the evening he was able to lave a pull at Baglan.

PRESENTATION TO MR. G. H. CROSS.

RECOGNITION OF FIS WORK IN NORFOLK

A pleasing furction took place in the leelry of St. Poter's Mancroft at Nonwich on August 30th. When Mr. G. IH. Cuoss, who is now resident in London, was presented wilz a gold albert and merlalion suilably inscribed.
Mr. A. L. Coleman, geveral secrelary of the Norfolk Quitd, who made the preseatation, said the gift was a spontaneous one from some 60 subscribers in ginteful appreciation of hic. Gross' work for ringing in the Guild's area. He also voiced the hearty congratulations of MM' Gross' many friends on his having obtnined 4 peremanent position in the Civil Service, and wishat hin every success in his new sphere of work.
Mr. Coleman also gave purticulars of Mr. Dross tinging career from thic time he was elected a monber of the Norfolk Guild, April 12th, 1909, up to leaving Norwich in March last, bringing out the fact that be lad been instrumental in helpina many young ringers throngh their first tonches and peals. He ltai, lie said, done grat serwice fru young ringers in Norfolk.

The meeting hartily endomsed all that Mr. Coleman had said, and Mr. Cross made a brief reply, saying that he deeply appreciated the gift, and thought too much had been made of what he had done, whien was entirely a labour of lave.

After a vote of thanks had been passed to Mr. Coleman, the proceedings closed.

SUPERLATIVE SURPRISE MAXIMUS.

To the Edilor.

Dear Sir, -On August 12t, you were gooul enough to publish a letter fam mo ut the subject of Superlative Surprise Maximus, in which [ naked the Rev. H. Law dames fagive the Jxcreise an explamation as to why, in his opinion, the method runy at Ipswich is not as good an "xtension of the Major as Mr', James' extension to Maximus of Shipusy's Ropaj, and also why in his variation he makes 4th's place at the fist cross-section in the Maximus (as in the Major), when he has twen compelled to make 6thre in the Royal.
$U_{p}$ to the present Mr. Janies lias not replied. It may be To is taking u well-earmed haliday; it cannot be that lie has no answer to the thestions. Perhaps he will be able to reply in an early isstue of the Ringiag World, for I know of many others beside myself who are iterested in this subject.
What I really want to learn is why the Ipswich melhod is not superfative, when, as far as my limited howwedge goes, it is (judged $h_{5}$ Mr. James owa standard of place making, i.e., calculating tlie phaces from the front or back), exactly the same in its place making as Superlative Major, exactly the sarne in the order of its work, and extectip the same io its diagram, allowiag, of comrse, for tha fact that there are twelve bells instead of eight:
Mr. James, in his article in your issite of December 24th, sticssed the point that a method which is an extension should have the same canrsing order as the original, nad, according to his working the 2685 counsing order of the injor shonld beome 2680 te 95 in the Mnxi2685 coursing order of tha Major should become 2680 e 95 in the Mrximins. But why reed it do so? The coursing order of the Ipswich mus. But why need it do so? The courging order of the Ipswich mothod, surely, is int least equaly correct. It is $260 t 95$, and, examined wibh the Major, it follows the same sequence.

In the Major, the only place where course bells come together is at the long dedge. The other hells, instead of being in Brab Major order, are in albermats order, as, for instance, afler the lirst long donge in front, in which 6-8 are together, the ordel is 8 (miss 7) 5 (miss 3) 2 , 4 (for the long rodge) (migg 6) 8 (miss 7) 5 , etc. The Lpswich Maximus follows axacily tie same rule. After the liose long dodge by 0-t, Wa have t (miss e) 9 (miss 7) 5, (miss 3) 2 (miss 4) 6,8 (for the long dodge) (misa 0) $t$ (miss e) 9 , etc. It therefore seems to me that the argument in favour of the Ipswich coursing order is, at least, as strong fss the olher. But I may be mistaiken; and when Mr. James auswers the inquiries in my first letiter perbaps be will kindy reply to this point as weil, and say why the Shipwny Mraximus coursing order is light and the Ipswich Maximus conrsiug orter is wrong.
[ hope Mr. George 悔aker will not consider me discourteons in not laving yed writen to him privately for the figures he kindly oftered, hat for the moment I prefer to remain to everyone, Xours faithfully,

A FLAIN RINGER.

$HERWOOD YOUTHS IN LEICESTERSHIRE.

FISTORIC PEAT COMMEMORATED.
On Snturday, September 3rd, a jovial party of Sherwood Youths, taEcthel' with their 'lassies and 'ofispring,' had an enjoyable outing Is that out-of-the-way, but historic, place called King's Norton (or NGrton-by-Gaultay), Leicesterşife. Beautiful weather attended them, and an poing through Leicester they picked up certaia. Leicester Scholars who were deputed to slow the driver the best way to this 'olf-bhe-beaten-track' village. Although bo who took aft his book in the historic peal said he knew it, somehow or ather le mislaid it, And irrelevantly blamed 'Joe's' cigar. After having sfopped a stray cyclist and the hon. secretary, S.Y., had got oft to soun certain signposts, evendually the party arrived quite safely, even if a little shook ${ }^{1}{ }^{1}{ }^{\prime}$. They were welcomed by the Rector and ringers from Billesdon, Syston, Sileby, Leicester. The "Master ' lirst wished tho serious part oit the business over, and this included photos of the peal band, then another 'all on,' and, by special request, one of the lomb of Wor Forbrey, Esquire the monificent squite who rebuilt the two churehes and gave the bells. The latter having been pulled ap, a special touch F. Blood 1, A. Coppock (concuctor) 2, Fs. Moryis 3, W. 13. Whitehead 4 W. H. Clarke 5, IF. A. Salter 6, I. W. Bailey 7, P. Price 8.

The Master then called upon the Rector to dedicate the peal Lablet, which he did, amd in a few well-chesen words welconced the risitors and expiossed his appreciation of the vigit to bis church, as such an eveat was one to be remembered by all. He referred to the Sherwood Youths peal-the firstr ever rung on these peals as long ago as May 28th, 1776 -and said how fitting it was that the modern Shersoor louths should thas commemarate their ancestors' doings by a simila Ferformance, such as this tablat recorded 150 years afterwards
December 4til, 1925.
The Master, in reply, explained the objectg in reviving the: ancient society, and said that whatever else had been clone, the outstanding ieature was that tifo records of these early performances, which were in danger of being lost, wero now recovered and safely stored. Fe wus protid and happy to have with them that day the ouly actual living link with the ancient society, in the person of Mr. A. Areher, who had presented the society with his handbells, which bhey alse had with them. He further thanked the general hon. secretary of the M.C.A. for lis painstaking work in writing the tablet so beantifully
After further riaging, an adjommment was mate to the old house formerly ocupied by Squire Fortrey, where an excelient nucat tea was done fall justice to. Then a course of Grandsire Caters on the handbells, followed by a 'little, Surprise, when Joe's midget handholls suddenly appeared from nowhere in particular. On these, the lightest bolls ever ang to a peal' (tenor 3oz.), an excellent course of Stedman Triples was rang. The church was again visited, and a few rentura some spirits also walked to Ganlby to try the peal of six there, fun for the M.C.A. secretary to verify his transcriptions of the bell in scriptions. Finding the 4 th rope missing, the rest were pulied up, and a weird six-score or so ruag. Like all other good things, this afternoon's proceedings came to an end, the Sherwoon' Youtha' hon. secretary afterwards nysteriously checking pp certain dacuments and nartary alterwards mysteriously checking up certain dacuments and marshalling his party. The return journey was made quite happily and unerentfully, but thoroughly enjosed by all.

DUDLEY G DISTRICT GUILD.  \section*{MBETING AT KINVER.}

quarterly. meeting of this Guild was held at St. Peter's Chnrch, Kinver, Staffs, on Saturday, August 27th. The weather was all that conid bo desired, and a good number of members availed themselves of the oppurthaity of being prosent and visiting this noted country $\qquad$ The bells were at the disposal of the members from three clock, and they were kept nerrily going in varions methods.
The beautiful torm of service used by the Guild at its meetiugs was contheted by the Vicar of Kinver (the Rev. T. A. Cooper-Slipper), who also gave a very eloquent address, in which he gave a hearty weicome to the Guild.
At itha business meeting which followed, the Vicar presiding, the Secratary announced apologies from Mr. B. Fullwood, Mr. B. Gough, M1, II. Kason aud others.
After business of a routine claratter had beot disposed of, several hey inembers were added to the roll.
was proposed to hold the next meeting at St. Murtin"s, Tipton, uljecet to the usual permission being obtained.
Tho guarterly peal is proposed to bo atterapted at Kinver, and the date, time nud other arrangements are left in the hands of Mr. Alraham Greenfield, of Netherton.
At the close of the meeting, 2 hearty vote of thanks was accorded the Viear for his ready permission to hold the meetiug at his church, for conducting the serrice and his inspiring address, for the use of tho fower and beils and the yestry in which to hold the meeting, and for his courteous conduct in the chair at the business meeting. Thanks Were also accorded to the organist for the musical part of the service. Tharks are also due to Mr. F. Lee and the local ringers for baving orerything ia rea diness for the comfort of the visitors.
The Yienr, in replying to the vota of thanks, ssid it was a great pleasure to him to welcome the Guild there that day, and hoped that at some future time he might have the pleasure of welcoming them again. He then closed the meeting with proyer.
Aftorwards, scveral members adjourned to tho belfry for further ringing, whilst others spent the time in rambling along the beatiful Fdge and lanes of this beautiful country village.

RINGERS' OUTINGS

A SUNDAY SERVICE RINGING TOUR
A decided change from the usual outiug was undertaken by the Dunstable Prior'y baud this year. Owing to the employment of several nembers, it wus found ihut Sunday was the only day ufon which all could get away, so, wilh the permission and sanction of their own church autlorities, Sunday, August 28 th , was chosen for a service Minging tour in Esser. The ghod offices of Mrt, C. F . Howard, Master of the Essex Association, were enlisted, and an ambitinus programmo druwn up. Dunnow, to ring from 10 to 11 , was the first on the list. As this lower meant a 45 niles' run, it wns necessary to be away early, and let it be said that everybody was purnetal and ready for a 7.30 anm. shart. General regret was expressed that one at the ringers hat decided to be on the sick list, und so could not join in the excursion. However, is answered the roll, and a fine rum made, Dunmow being reached at 9.50 . The church lios wide of the town, and took a liitle finding. An elderly gentleman on being asked if the church was in the vicinity, caused lots of laughter by saying: 'Elk, guv'nor, it's a big 'inn, too. It'll hold all on yer." A sharp walk hrought the visitors eventually to the chureh, where they received a cordial welcome front the Vicar and several local men. The bells (tenor 21 cwt .) are a lovely peal, ana the ringing was much eujoyed, the touches being 336 Double Norwidh, 168 Graudsire, 112 Bob Major, and 252 Stedman Triples. Everybody having had a pull, aud service time having arrived, tracks were mede for Felsted, where permission had been obtained for ringing after service. Noon had been the hour fixed, bat owing to the service lasting longer thau wns expected, it was not possible to begin until 12.20, which curtailed the ringing, and only two touches weres passible, 288 Kent Major and 231 Grandsire. The bells there go well, bist are rather inferior in tome-a striking contrast to Dunmow. Dinner at Brainlree was next on the list. Here the party were met by Mir, C. F. Howard. Bocking was next on the prograinme, zad the betis there were awailable from 3 to + p.m. The visitors wore joined by Mr. L. W. Wifen and several of the Braintree band. The bells are a good peal, but owing partly to disuse didn't go too well, annl distinctly wanted pulling. Stedman wis attempted, but lost, tho only tonch throughout the day to 'go West.' A good 432 was, however, rung, followed by a good course of Cambudge Surprise Major, MessrsWiffen aut Howard standing in this, and then theourse of Doublr Norwich. A run back to Braintree for tea was followed by a 12 miles trip to Finchingfield to ring for evensong, Mr. Howard, in lis war, being the pilot.
Finchingfeld has a very fine church with a good peal of bells, nurf soveral touchas were rung. The sorvice tonch was to have been stedman, but ouly a few sixes had been tapped off when the second rope brofe, and put "paid to it. However, 360 Cambrifge Minor was trouglit round, time not permitting another rope to bre put on. A hasty glauce at this pretty and ancient wilage was all that could b. allowed, as ringing at Ware after evensong was the next objective, and Ware was nearly 30 nales away. A pretify jun was enjoyed via Thaxted and Dunmow, where 'Good-bye' was said to Mr. Howard. A nasty spill which had occurred on the road outside Bishop's StorlCord delayed the party a little. After seeing what help could bo rendered, and several of the stalwarts hat lifted a combination out of the hedge, tho journey was resumed, and Ware resched 30 minutes late. Here they were met by Mr: C. H. Barker and the local foreman (Mil. Greenway). The bells are a vory fine peal (tesor 22 cwt.), butopinion scemed to be divided as to whether these or the bells at Dummow where the best ring met with daring the day. Owing to the late lionr, only two touches ware rung, viz.. 224 Doubte Normich and 231 Stedman Triples, Mr. Greenway standing in the latter. To be ready for home at nine had been the order, but for the first time during the day orders were disregarded. When the band that had rung the last touch descended from the tower, tho rest wero lost; whey the rest turned up the others were lost; but erentually all stragglers put in an appearance, and the 24 miles rua home beyan, Dunstable being reached at 11 p.m., after a most enjoyable tay, which opiniou voted "the best ever." Everywhere the party met with the warnest of welcomes, which, with the happy spirit of comradeship right through ture band, halpert to make everything suceessful. The band desire to thank a!l who helperd to this end, especinilly Mr. Howard, who made all the arrangements for the ringing in Essex.

HARWICE RINGTERS' TRIP.

On Saturdzy, Augusi Eth, the St. Nicholas' Guild, Harwich, hud their annual outing to Long Melford and Clare, Suffolk, and Sible Hedirgham, Essex, in splendid weather. The party, numbering 12, left Harwieh by charabanc at 9.15 a.m. At Tang Melford they were met by Mr. C. Bixby; and after some light refreshment the hells were set going to Grandisire Triples and Kent Treble Bob Major. After a stay of two hours thes proceeded to Clare, where an excellent sprear was awaiting them. Dimer over, the handbells were brought out, and a few tunes and touches of Bob Major and Grandsire Triples were rungAt the church, touches of Bob Major and Grandsire Triples were brought round on this fine riag of eight (tenor 28 cwt .), and the company afterwards inspected the fine church, Which is noted for ite stone carvings inside. In a glass case by the door stands a large earthenware beer jar made for the 'Clare ringers' in 1729. There were many other items of antiquarian interest. Afterwatds, is start was made to Sible Hedingham, where, after tea at the White Horse, the visitors were met at the churdi by Mr. L. Wiseman. Touches of Kent Treble Bob, Plain Bob and Grandsire Triples were duly tapped wfi, with some of the local ringers taking part, after which the hameward journcy was begun, via Sudbury and West Bergholt, Earwich being reached at 11 p.m., after a most enjoyable day. The Guild wish, through the medium of "The Ringing Work," to thank the incumbents of the churches visited for the use of the bells, also Messis. Bixby, Martin, Gridley and Wiseman for making the necessary arrangements, which made the outing so successful.

ESSEX MEN ACROSS THE ITHAMES.

The members of St. Michael's Guild, Braintrce, accompanied by their wives and a few ringing friends, had their annual outing on SaturNay week. Zeaving Braintree at 8.15 a.m. by charabanc, they jour neyed to rilbury and crossed by ferry to Gravesend, to spend the daj With their Kentish friends, and a very enjoyable day it was. St. George's, Gravesend, was the first tower wisited, and the ringing ppened with a well-struck touch of Double Norwicls, suceeded by Orange, and Rochester Gathedral was reached at 2.30 p.m. A touch Of Stedman Caters was brought round with the assistance of two loual nen, followed by a course of Grandsire 'Friples and Cators for the tovices. The party then proccedea to Gillingham, where an excellent course of Oembridge Sarprise was brought round on this handy ring, the lady member, Miss Pottit, ringing the pecond. $\Delta$ touch of Treble Bob followed. Hurrying on to Ghatham, touches of Grandsire and Double Norwich wero brought round, aud then the party made fur their last tower, Frindsbury, and found bells ready for their use. Only Bob Major and Stedman Triples could be attempted here before a hurried good-bje had to be said to keep the tea appointment at Gravescud. The Guild wish to thank Messrs. E. Hadlow, W. Haigh, E. Allen, G. Gilbert, and the towerkecper of Chatham for their tind nssistanco and lite excellent arrangements made at the rarious places, which teaded to malse one of the most enjoyable outings in the annals of the Guild.

HOGHTON RINGERS IN CHESHIRE

On Saturday, August 27th, Hoghton ringers had their annag out ing, on which they wero joined by Mr. E. Jenniugs, of Kendal, and their wives and firiends. The party, which numbered 25 , journeyed ilorough Brindle, Leyland and Ruford to Ormskirk, where a halt was mate for a mull. Those who wanted to ring lad a touch of Grandsire Triples and Bob Major. The party fhen proceeded to Liverpool, and arossed by fery to Birkenhead, where they were again picked up by the charabanc, and reached Port Sunlight by 11.30 . Fere they visited the Art Gallery and the War Memorial. After dimuer at tha Bridge Inw, the ringers went to Christ Church tower, where they found a grand peal of eight bells, and rang touches of Grandsire Triples and Treble Bob Major, this being the firat touch of Treble Bob Major for $\mathrm{L}^{2}$. Jennings. After being photographed by Mr. Jennings, the excursiouists journeyed to Chester, and while some looked round the ancient city, obhers visited St. Mary ${ }^{\dagger}$ s Within-the-Walls for a pull, and lrang toudhes of Grandsire and Treble Bob Major. After tea, they went on to Frodsham, wher they were met by Mr. Wm. Bibby, and - ajoyed further ringing on what, in the opinion of all, were the best bells of the diy. Touches of Grandsire and Treble Bob were rung, and, afterwards, assisted by Mr. Bibby, his son and daughter, an attempt was made for a touch of Stedman, the band induding two lady ringers, Miss Clayton and Miss Bibby. The return journey was made throngh Runcorn, Warriagton, Wigan and Chorley, Hoghton heing reached at $10.20 \mathrm{p} . \mathrm{m}$, after a most enjoyable day. The ringers wish to thank the clergy and local ringers at the respective towers for he use of their bells and having all in readiness, especially Mr. Scholicar at Ormskirk, Mr. W. J. Battle, of Birkenkead, Mr. R Sperring, of Chegter, and Mr. Wm. Bibby, of Frodsham, for their assistance.

On Sunday, August 28th, a quarter-peal of Grandsire Triplos was ung for morning service as a farewell to Mr. Jennings: H. Mar4, J. Brown 5, G. Hooper 6, J. Moulding 7, J. Harrison 8

RATNHAM RINGERS NT THE RANF

On Saturday, August 20th, in a "slight' shower that lasied all day St. Margaret's Society, Rainham, Kent, had their anmual "rur round for a 'busman's holiday.' At $7.30 \mathrm{a}, \mathrm{m}$. a 28 and an 18 -seater moved off loaded, the Yicar, Rev. W. A. R. Ball (biting his tongue becarse la could not join the party) giving them a hearty send-off. The first stop was at Leeds, where many had their first ring on ten belis, Graudsire Caters being the limit. Then on again to Wye, where good fouches of Kent Major, Stedman and Grandsire were brought round on a heautiful cight. The next move was to Ramsgate for lunch, afternoon enjoyment, and an early tea at the Commercial Hotel. Picture palaces, Pavilion and Ploasure Land were fisited, it beigg too wet for anything else. A party had arranged to go to St. Lawrence for a pull tin the ten hells, but St. Lawrence had the misfortune to lose their Ficar, who died on the day previous after a very short illness. In the evening the parly proceeded via Sandwich to Wingham, and another beantiful eight (all olf bells) were rung in various methods. On again to Ospringe, where, after about an hour's rimging, the party costinued to Ospringe, where, after about an hour's rimging.

their homeward journey, arriving about 10 p.m. The only compensation the party had was that the towers risited contained some of fhe finest and most musical rings in Kent. The younger element kept things alive with their chornses. Anyway, all hope for a better day next, year. The party would like to take this opportunity of thanking alt incumbeats and ringers at the various towerg for having erery thing in readiness, which allowed the programme to be worked to the clock.

BATH RINGERS IN WILTSHIRE.

On Thmosday, August 11 th, the All Saints' (Weston, Bath) ringots held their annual outing, when they were accompanied by the Rew. R L. Watson, Mr. R. D. Pointing (chuvchwarden), Miss N. G. Williams Miss Roe, and Mrs. Broome. Travelling by charabanc through Wile shire, Holt was the first stop. Various methods were brought round, and then, after a splendid drive through lovely scenerg, Market Lavington was reached. After tea, steps were made for the tower, where Mr. Merritt met the party, and the lovely ring of six were sef goirg to various methods. Seend was the next stop, and here the party were met by Mr. Baras, Mr. Heginbothom and other riagers. After various touches having been rung, they proceeded to Mefksliam, where Mr. W. West was awaiting them, and after choir praotice the bells were set going to Doubles and Triples. The mothods rung during the outing were Grandsire Doubles and Triples, Stedmau Doubles and Bob Minor. Home was reached at 10.35 , after a very successful out ingr, in the conrse of which the party were fortunate to dodge the ratn, which seemed to liave preceded them.

The zingers wish, through 'The Ringing World,' to thank the incumbents and tower masters for their kindness in allowing the use of the bells, and laving everything in readiness. Every fower wisited was found in splendid condition end "go " of bells excellont.

BECCLES RINGERS' FTRST 12-BELL ENPERIENCE

On Saturdiay, July 16th, the Beceles ringers, with friends from the adjoining towers, held their annual outiog. Journeying by charabanc, the first stop was at Ufiord, where the Rer. H. Diake welcomet them, and short touches were rung. The next call was at Woodbridge, wherc Mr. Cutting had everything in readiness, and the fine peal of eight were saon going to Stedman and Treble Bob, after which lunel quas partaken of at the Crown Hotel. Henley was then wisited, the parqu being welcomed by the Rev. W. C. Pearson, and short touches rumg on the light peal of eight, much time, unfortunately, being lost owing to a broken rope. The next stop was at Ipswich, where Mr. Gillingbam met them at St. Margaret's before tea, and after tea came the grand finale at St. Mary-le-Tower, where, with the kind belp of mem bers of the tower band, two courses of Stedman Cinques were rung, this being the first ring on twelve by nost of the company. Although the weather was not as kind as it might have bees, a most enjoyable day was spent by all, and they reached home, tired and happy, about 11 p.m. Tha best thanks of the company are due to the warious rectors for the use of the bells, ane the many ringing frieuds who helped to make the day a success.
