MEN WHO LEAVE THEIR MARK.

Death has, of late, been exceptionally busy in the ranks of ringers, and the Exercise has lost a number of loyal members in the last few weeks. In this issue we record the passing of several men who in their respective spheres have given devoted service to the art, and to the Church. The Reaper has been no respecter of age. Among those who have failen by the way are a ringer of 31, a victim of the juvenile malady of measles, another of 41 carried off by that dread disease cancer; at the other end of the scale, a long life has closed at 92, when nature has run its course. And so the toll goes on, but we gain consolation from the fact that there are among the men who have been taken from us those who have left an influence for good behind them.

London has lost a valued member of the ringing fraternity by the passing of Mr. John D. Matthews, for more than twenty years Master of the Royal Cumberland Youths. Mr. Matthews' services to the art were given, in his younger days, in many parts of the country, but in London he did extremely useful work in reviving the fortunes of the Cumberlands at a time when they had In this century, at any rate, the reached a low ebb. Cumberlands may not have been so much to the fore as their old friends and rivals, the College Youths; but, thanks largely to Mr. Matthews' efforts, they were saved from a condition bordering on atrophy if not of actual extinction. In face of limited opportunities and growing restrictions Mr. Matthews put fresh vigour into the old Society, although, with a retiring disposition, he never sought the limelight. The fact that for so many years he retained the Mastership of the Society, together with the respect and esteem of the members, is proof of the appreciation which they held of his services. John D. Matthews was a Master without prejudices and with a deep sense of duty. He brought to bear on ringing affairs a broad commonsense, which those who knew him best appreciated most, for he was not given to airing his views in public. In an unassuming way he has done much for the art of ringing and the Society which he has so long piloted has lost an admirable officer.

And what of the example of William Taylor, of Wrotham, Kent, who has been gathered to his fathers at the age of nearly 93 years? He had been a ringer for 75 years; a chorister from boyhood until, at the age of 84, feeling that his voice was going, he resigned from the choir and became the organ blower. For more than eighty years, therefore, he was a devoted servant of his church, ready to perform the humblest of tasks and doing the work that lay nearest to his hand with all his heart.

soul and strength. This is an example we would commend to the luke warm ringers; the men who, failing to recognise that, having become members of a band, they owe it to their colleagues and to the Church to be punctual and regular in their attendance. There is no worse drawback to the progress of a company than the man who cannot be depended upon either to be on time or, even, to be there at all. A man may not be a brilliant ringer, but if he is dependable his value to his company is above price. William Taylor, of Wrotham, was always dependable, and the death of such a man leaves a gap not always easily filled.

To the Editor.

Dear Sir,—Mr. Amos is wrong to say that I would prejudice another's rights. The point is, I don't think it is 'right' to write letters to 'The Ringing World' which contain personal thrusts. No one, except those concerned in the grievance, known to whom they are income to the same of the sa aimed, and, therefore, all members of an association are tarred with the same brush.

Mr. Amos assures us that the grievance is purely a personal one Mr. Amos assures us that the grievance is purely a personal one and one which should have nothing at all to do with ringing. He should, therefore, keep it out of his letters, which are to a 'Ringing World.' I take my paper, 'The Ringing World,' to read, not just to see my name in a peal report now and then, and the articles, letters and reports are of interest to me, but I do hate to see the brotherly spirit (which, after all, is one of the things ringing associations are formed to foster) 'blighted' by letters which are written in what seems a bickering ione.

MR. AMOS' 'DISMISSAL.'

Dear Sir,—As the controversy between Mr. Amos and the Peterborough Diocesan Guild has assumed a personal aspect (on his side only), I feel it is time a few points should be made clear.

The Guild was formed on January 5th, 1924, by the union of as many of the existing societies as could possibly be obtained, with complete approval and consent of the Bishop of Peterborough. Since that time all other areas have been linked up with the exception of the Could covers this is a wonderful one. Considering the large area the Guild covers, this is a wonderful achievement on the part of all officers concerned.

It has for its objects: (1) The recognition of the true position of ringers as church officials; (2) the due care and use of church bells and belfries; (3) the cultivation of the art of scientific change ringing;

and also a rule which reads:—

'The chief endeavour of the Guild being to instil greater reverence for God's House and worship among its members, any member misconducting himself may be dismissed at the discretion of the Central Committee, who shall report same to the annual general meeting, and such member shall forfeit any payment which he may have made to the Guild.'

After most committee, meetings and payment talks to Mr. Amos which he hay have made to the Guid.

After many committee meetings and personal talks to Mr. Amos by some of the chief officers of the Guild, whose advice was always ignored, Mr. Amos' case was brought before the Central Committee, and the result was his dismissal from the Guild on June 6th, 1927.

Since that date he has been continually trying to create dissented to the continually trying to create dissented.

GOOD MEETING AT HACKNEY.

GOOD MEETING AT HACKNEY.

For the last meeting of the year, held on November 18th, the North and East District of the Middlesex County Association visited the Church of St. John of Jerusalem, South Hackney, and that this was a popular choice was shown by the attendance of some 40 or more ringers during the afternoon and evening, although the weather was not up to its previous 1933 standard. Punctually at 3 o'clock the bells were raised, and between that time and 5 p.m. were kept going to a great variety of methods. At the latter hour divine service was held, conducted by the Rev. — Morris, in the unavoidable absence of the Rector (the Rev. H. Cecil) through illness.

Afterwards an excellent tea was served in the Church Hall, which Afterwards an excellent tea was served in the Church Hall, which was followed by the business meeting. The death of Mr. Joseph Waghorn was referred to by the hon. secretary, who stated that the deceased gentleman had been a member of the association from its commencement. He was also a member of the old Middlesex Association, and took part in the first peal for that association, which was rung at Tottonlam on November 1st, 1889. Mr. Coles also referred to the death of Mr. John D. Matthews, Master of the Royal Cumberlands, and at one time a member of the Middlesex Association. He asked the members present to stand in silence for a few moments to show their respect for the deceased gentlemen, and as a mark of sympathy with the relatives, and to the members of the Royal Cumberland Youths on the loss of their Master.—This was accordingly done. Other business included the election of three new members and the choosing of Edmonton as the years for the next meeting on January

Other business included the election of three new members and the choosing of Edmonton as the venue for the next meeting on January 27th, the annual meeting of the district.

The Chairman (Mr. W Pickworth) proposed a vote of thanks to the Rector for the use of the bells, coupled with an expression of sympathy with him in his illness; to the Rev. Morris for conducting the service; and to Mr. A. Riley for arranging the meeting.—This was carried, and Mr. Riley replied.

The proceedings terminal with a total of Stellage Willes.

The proceedings terminated with a touch of Stedman Triples on handbells by Mrs. E. K. Fletcher, W. Pye, G. R. Pye and G. B. Collins. Afterwards another visit was made to the tower, where, under the direction of the District Master (Mr. A. W. Coles), the tastes of all present were considered, and nobody need have gone away without having had ample opportunity of ringing any method desired, whether it was Grandsire Triples, Bob Major or Surprise, rung singly or in the now increasingly popular 'spliced' fashion.

DEATH OF HIGHAM FERRERS RINGER.

The death took place on November 4th under tragic circumstances of Mr. Horace Cecil Dunkley, one of the younger members of Higham Ferrers belfry. He was only 31 years of age. A few weeks ago his five-years-old son contracted measles, and shortly after both father and mother were affected. In the case of Mr. Dunkley, pneumonia mid mother were affected. In the case of Mr. Dunkley, pneumonia supervened, from which he died.

Mr. Dunkley was not a great peal ringer, but was a most loyal and regular Sunday service ringer, and his loss will be greatly felt in the helfry.

In addition to his ringing, Mr. Dunkley was well known in the district as a cricketer. He had played regularly for Higham Ferrers for the past nine years, in no fewer than seven of which he topped the batting averages. Two years ago he captained the side, and during last season was vice-captain.

during last season was vice-captain.

He began his ringing as Chelveston Parish Church, where he was also for a number of years a member of the choir. He joined the Higham Ferrers band on going to live in that town seven years ago. On Tuesday, November 7th, touches of Stedman and Grandsire Triples were rung at Higham Ferrers with the bells half-muffled, and Mr. G. D. Deighton, a member of the belfry, was one of the bearers at the funeral, which had taken place earlier, the others being a member of the Cricket Club and two of the deceased's fellow-workmen. The ringers also sent a wreath.

Much sympathy has been expressed with the widow and little son who are left in bereavement.

A meeting of the Grimsby District was held at Scunthorpe on Saturday, November 4th. Members attended from Barton-on-Humber, Bigby, Burton-on-Stather, Elsham, Ulceby, Barrow-on-Humber, Grimsby and the local members, Mrs. E. Brittain, Mr. Lunn, of Lea, and Mr. G. Lindoff. The bells were kept going during the afternoon and evening.
The service was conducted by the Vicar (the Rev. Charles Steele), Members then adjourned for tea, to which 26 sat down.

The president (the Rev. Canon H. T. Parry) presided at the business meeting, at which one new member was elected, Miss Vera Blood, of Barton-on-Humber.

A collection for the district bell fund was taken.

Mr. J. Bury, District Ringing Master, then extended a welcome to a visitor who now is living in the district in the person of G. Lindoff, (Continued in next column.)

Then, when the peal was completed, he came to congratulate them on their success and good striking. This is an example which other clergy might copy.

BROADCASTING CHURCH BELLS:

To the Editor.

Dear Sir,—I have on several occasions heard the president of the Central Council very vigorously pushing the pamphlet on 'How to hold a repe, etc.' Undoubtedly a worthy object, but I would like to know if it is possible to pile another job on to one of the Central Council committees, namely, 'special instructions for bands who engage in periodical Sunday evening broadcasting.'

One hears many opinions of bells and ringers from the great outside public, and, while some of the bands put over real striking, there are, unfortunately, some who do not seem to realise their responsibility to the Exercise, indeping from the indifferent striking which nevertates to the Exercise, judging from the indifferent striking which penetrates thousands of homes on Sunday evenings.

We had a movement some time ago to confine broadcasting to eight bells, as being more easily understood generally, but should we not have a movement to discourage indifferent striking being put on the ether?

I will mention no names except the monks of Buckfast Abbey, who did show many of the change ringing bands how to strike, and suggest that where a band of strikers cannot be obtained, two ropes should be hung up in preference to broadcasting an exhibition of 'clips' and 'gaps,' which exposes the art to ribald criticism from outsiders the next morning.

The remaining officers also acknowledged their election to their respective offices. Mr. C. W. Roberts (junior steward) took the opportunity of urging the members, especially the younger ones, to support the eight and ten bell practices better than had been done during the past two or three years.

SHERBORNE ABBEY BELLS.

OLD BOYS RECAST TENOR.
The bells of Sherborne Abbey, Dorset, are now being relung in new bearings and fittings, and are now being reclappered and retuned by Messrs. Mears and Stainbank, and, as many ringers will say, not before they wanted it.

The bells thomselves are exceedingly interesting, and weigh as Tenor.—45 cwt. 1 qr. 1 lb. J. Warner, 1865.

7th.—29 cwt. 0 qr. 1 lb. J. Warner, 1903.
6th.—23 cwt. 2 qr. 6 lb. G. Mears, 1858.

2rd.—10 cwt. 2 qr. 18 lb. G. Mears, 1858.
Treble.—9 cwt. 1 qr. 16 lb. G. Mears, 1858.
The tenor originally was the gift of Cardinal Wolsey, and was brought from Tournal with other bells. It became cracked and was recast by Thomas Purdue, of Closworth on October 20th, 1670. It recast by Thomas Purdue, of Closworth, on October 20th, 1670. It became cracked again and was recast in 1865 by Warners. original 3rd and 7th were cast by Robert Austin, of Sherborne, in 1652. The tenor is about to be recest again, and the old inscription will be reproduced with the addition of the present Vicar and churchwardens' names and the foundry stamps. The inscription runs:

By Wolsey's gift I measure time for all.

To mirth; to Grieffe; to Church I serve to call

The new bell will probably be slightly heavier than the old. The tenor was always reputed, in old days, to weigh 46 cwt. 1 qr.

Sherborne and the neighbourhood have raised a great deal of money in the last six months, including £1,000 for the Lady Chapel. £200 for Dr. Barnardo's Homes, and the amount required for the rehanging and the retuning. The recasting of the tenor appeared to be out of the question, but Major J. H. B. Hesse, an Old Sherbornian, took an intense interest in the scheme, and made an appeal to other old boys of the school.

He wrote: The tenor hell of the peal of eight at Sherborne Abbey was originally given to the Abbey Church by Cardinal Wolsey, and is called the Wolsey Bell. She became cracked and was recast by the famous old bell founder Purdue, of Closworth, a few miles from Sherborne, and was again recast by a London founder in 1885, having became arrested for the second time. become cracked for the second time. A considerable amount is wanted to recast this bell again, not because she is cracked, but because she is the worst bell in the Abbey peal. The bells are now undergoing relianging and retuning, and no amount of rotuning will cure the fault in the tenor, because she is the wrong shape. Recasting, a very expensive operation, which is not needed in the case of the other bells, is the only cure. I cannot expect all who read this appeal to look on it as I do, because I could ring a bell hefore I went to Sherborne School, and have been a keen change ringer ever since. I feel the Abbey and the dear old school are bound up together. Our commemoration services were held in the Abbey. The Abbey clock chimes the quarters on the Abbey bells, the hours are struck on the Abbey tenor bell. So the Abbey bells have marked time for us, and how many of us have seen the chapel doors closed become cracked for the second time. A considerable amount is wanted struck on the Abbey tenor bell. So the Abbey bells have marked timo for us, and how many of us have seen the chapel doors closed on us at the last stroke of the hour? May I ask you to give a small donation towards the recasting of this bell. As the bell is now she is out of time in herself and the rest of the peal. This old-world Abbey is worthy of a better tenor bell, and, if recast, the difference will be enormous to any musical ear. A large sum has already been collected for the restoration of the hells, £1,000 for the completion of the Lady Chapel and £200 for Dr. Barnardo's Homes, all within the last six months, and from the town and neighbourhood. This is my reason for appealing to you. No matter how small your gift is, may I ask you to give something?'

This appeal had the result of bringing in the necessary funds for recessing the tenor so that the restoration can be made complete.

This appeal had the result of bringing in the necessary funds for recessing the tenor so that the restoration can be made complete.

When the bells were being removed from the Abbey, the boys of the Preparatory School, whose ages range between 7 and 14, and numbering about 60, went down to the Abbey to see the tenor lowered from the tower. They arrived there just as the bell was being lowered on to the trolley, the rope of which was trailing up the aisle. These youngsters pulled the bell up as far as the west door. Then there was a steep incline to negotiate on planks and there were not enough hands to get the bell out. This happened at 5 minutes to not enough hands to get the bell out. This happened at 5 minutes to II; the school break takes place between 10.45 and 11, and Major Hesse managed to get hold of about a hundred of the boys from the school itself, and they made very short work hauling the bell up into the Abbey Close. It was quite a pretty and interesting sight, and it was unfortunate that no photographic record was obtained of the event, for such a thing is unlikely to happen again in connection with the school in the lives of any that were present.

Those who are familiar with Sherborne will know the glorious old Abbey, with the school and cloisters adjoining; it is a peaceful and beautiful spot, and in future the bells will be in keeping with the old and interesting surroundings.

A PLEA FOR MODERATION.

To the Editor.

Sir,—There has for some time been a growing tendency in the correspondence addressed to yourself in 'The Ringing World'—a tendency which no reader can fail to have noticed, and one which I feel sure must be deplored by a large majority of ordinary ringers who realise that their primary function is to ring to the glory of God, and not merely to talk about ringing and other ringers in an uncharitable spirit.

I submit, sir, that the ordinary ringer-in-the-belfry is tired of the bitter and aerimonious tone of the disputes that seem to be constantly raging in your paper. It is a fact well known even to those outside raging in your paper. It is a fact well known even to those outside the Exercise that beliringers are a singularly good-natured and kindly race of men and women. A stranger might be forgiven for supposing exactly the opposite were he to open almost any number of 'The Binging World' and read the correspondence. I can speak freely, as I am personally unacquainted with all the protagonists in the recent arguments to which I am referring. They can, therefore, be assured that this letter is in ne way personal. I am certain that in their private and public lives they are all as charming and good-natured as those ringers whom I do know. It does seem a pity that when they put pen to paper they forget moderation and, in some cases, decency and common courtesy, and aim only at being clever, facetious or bitter at the expense of their opponent. I know that their letters do not represent their true characters.

do not represent their true characters.

The majority of us do not write to 'The Ringing World,' but I am sure that there would be general sympathy from the whole Exercise sure that there would be general sympathy from the whole Exercise with an appeal for a more generous spirit. I do not say among ringers as a whole, nor even among certain of your correspondents in their private and public lives, but only on the occasions when they address themselves to you. Let us not try to be too clever; let us get on with the joh as well as we can, and, if we have the opportunity, help the other fellow along the way too.

help the other fellow along the way too.

There must, of course, be occasions when we have a bone to pick with a fellow-ringer. Would it not be a good idea if on all such occasions we adopted the admirable suggestion of Mr. Amos contained in your issue of November 3rd? I refer to the last paragraph of his letter on page 694. Two purposes would thus he served: valuable space would be saved in your columns, which could then be devoted to items of interest to your readers, and also we should be spared the humiliating necessity each week of having our dirty linen washed in public.

This is the first time, sir, that I have addressed you. I hope that my views represent the opinions of the majority of those ringers who, though they may not be very ready with their pen or their tongue, yet constitute the main body of the Exercise. They may not be given to expressing their opinions, but this does not mean that their opinions do not count.

KENT VETERAN'S DEATH.

LONG SERVICE TO WROTHAM CHURCH.

Many ringers in the Kent County Association will regret to hear of Many ringers in the Kent County Association will regret to hear of the death of Mr. William Taylor at the grand old age of 92½ years. For many years and until he was 26 he took his turn on the ropes of the bells of 8t. George's Church, Wrotham. He joined the Kent Association in 1882 and was a member until 1925.

Besides being a ringer, he was for 75 years a member in the church choir, and when, at the age of 84, he felt his voice going, he blew the bellows of the organ.

Outside his church work he was a dogged cricketer, and always went in first for the Wrotham side. A devoted follower of the county team, he was known to walk to Canterbury, nearly 40 miles, to see a day's cricket. When well over 80 he walked to Gravesend and back, a distance of 20 miles, to follow his county team.

Had 'Old Bill' lived one more month he would have completed 70 years of married life. He leaves a widow (90 years old), two sons and five daughters.

He has gone to rest with the affection of all who knew him. They feel that a link has been broken in the life of the English countryside. After the funeral the members of the local band rang a half-muffled touch as a farewell tribute to their old friend, and it is hoped that the Kent Association will attempt a half-muffled peal shortly as a last token of respect.

SUSSEX COUNTY ASSOCIATION.

A meeting of the Western Division was held at Lyminster on Saturday, November 18th. Ringing commenced at 5 o'clock, and members afterwards attended a short service, conducted by the Vicar of Lyminster (the Rev. S. P. Duval).

Tea was kindly provided by the Vicar, who was present, and presided at the business meeting which followed, when the following members were elected: P. Lowe, of Heene, G. Lee and A. V. Aylmore, of Lyminster, and Mr. H. F. Wisdom, of Chichester, bon. member.

A hearty vote of thanks was accorded the Vicar for his kindness in providing the vecellent tea and graphing the vica of the helds, also to Another move was then made to the belfry for further ringing.

THE LATE MR. J. D. MATTHEWS.

MASTER OF THE ROYAL CUMBERLAND YOUTHS.

As briefly amounced in part of our last issue, the death took place at his home, 6, Gatwick Road, Southfields, on Wednesday week, of Mr. John Daniel Matthews, Master of the Royal Cumberland Youths. Mr. Matthews, who was 57 years of age, had been for many years a Mr. Matthews, who was 5t years of age, had been for many years a well-known and active figure in London ringing circles, having previously pursued the art in several other parts of the country. Early this year his health began to fail, and he had done no ringing since June. Of a cheery though somewhat retiring disposition, Mr. Matthews made a host of ringing friends, who greatly deplore his death and extend to his widow and family their deep sympathy.

Mr. Matthews was born at Fenny Stratford, Bucks, and learnt to ring a belt at his Parish Church whilst a choirboy of about 12 years of age. His first peal, Grandsire Triples, was rung at

In the following year he con-ducted the first peal by a ducted the first peal by a local band at Kettering for over half a century. Migrating to Bristol in the early part of 1898, Mr. Matthews joined the St. Stephen's Youths, and took a rope in the first peal of Double Norwich rung by the society. Going to Bath in 1899, he became conductor of St. became conductor of St. Mary's Guild, and called the mary's Guid, and called the first peal on St. Mary's bells. From Bath, Mr. Matthews went to Leamington, where he again was active in ringing, and eventually went to London in November, 1903.

In 1911 he was elected

Parker occupied the office. He put new life into the ociety, and under his leadership many peals were rung, including Cambridge Surprise Royal and Maximus, for the first time by the Cumberlands. Among the notable peals in which Mr. Matthews has shared have been a family peal on handbells, with his daughter and two sons (1915); a handbell peal in a railway train between Paddington and Strend (1923); the first Surprise peals in the counties of Louth, Armagh, Down and Antrim, during a tour of Northern Ireland in 1904; the 'John' peal of Stedman Cinques at Cripplegate (1912); Stedman Caters by grandfathers, at Shoreditch (1927); and Stedman Cinques by six fathers and six sons at Shoreditch (1928). He was instrumental in ringing for the society Cambridge Maximus (conducted by limself), Cambridge Royal (conducted by Mr. G. H. Cross) and Cambridge Major (conducted by Mr. J. H. Cheesman), at St. Martin's and Shoreditch. Mr. Matthews had also rung in various Masonic peals, including Cambridge Major, Stedman Cinques, Treble Ten and Treble Twelve, all of which he conducted.

In February, 1916, in co-operation with the Rev. 'Dick' Sheppard, the formation of the St. Martin's-in-the-Fields hand was undertaken, since when the ringing generally has made great strides, both at St. Martin's-in-the-Fields and St. Leonard's, Shoreditch. Under Mr. Matthews' able guidance many peals have been rung at both churches, and he was never more delighted than to see asterisks under a peal report, denoting first peals on twelve. Many ringers throughout the country have appreciated his efforts in this direction, which enabled them to make headway in twelve-bell ringing.

Some nine years ago Cambridge Maximus was precised, but in a

Some nine years ago Cambridge Maximus was practised, but in a few months at least ten of the band moved from London. A peal of Crmbridge Royal was rung at Epsom on March 17th, 1928, the first of Surpriso Royal for the society. In 1928 Mr. Matthews had again gathered together a band who under his excellent leadership were soon ringing Maximus. On November 17th, 1928 (just four years ago), he achieved his ambition of conducting a peal of Cambridge Surpriso Maximus at St. Leonard's, Shoreditch, no fewer than eight of the band ringing a peal in that method on twelve for the first time. On Boxing Day in the same year Cambridge Maximus was again rung, at St. Martin's, this being the first Surprise peal on the bells.

From that time onwards Cambridge Maximus was rung practically every Sunday for service at both churches.

Mr. Matthews was a very popular Master of the Royal Cumberland Society, as witness his election for so many successive years, and in January, 1929, at the annual meeting, was the recipient of a presentation clock from the members as a mark of appreciation of his work and his long tenure of office. For many years he was one of the society's representatives on the Central Council.

At the beginning of this year Mr. Matthews' health began to fail, and he was compelled, under medical advice, to take things easily. It was hoped that rest would again restore him, but he gradually grow worse, and last Wednesday week he passed peacefully away.

Shoreditch bells are at the moment awaiting some little repair, and, therefore, a peal cannot be attempted there.

MR. MATTHEWS' PEALS.

Mr. Matthews had rung 214 peals, of which he had conducted 95, his last having been a peal of Stedman Caters at West Ham, which he conducted on February 25th of this year. On Monday, November 20th, the bells of St. Botolph's, Bishopsgate, were rung half-muffled to the memory of Mr. J. D. Matthews, the following ringers taking part: A. Pye, C. T. Coles, H. Hoskins, J. Davis, J. Marks, J. G. Prior, E. Brett and C. W. Roberts.

ACKNOWLEDGMENT.

Mrs. J. D. Matthews and family wish to thank all ringers and friends for expressions of sympathy in their recent hereavement.

DEDICATION OF BIRSTWITH BELLS.

NEW OCTAVE IN YORKSHIRE VILLAGE.

Birstwith, a pretty Yorkshire village situated in beautiful Nidderdale, was the scene of great activity on Saturday, November 4th. The Parish Church of St. James had previously possessed a very moderate peal of six bells, and on this day a new peal of eight were dedicated by the Suffragan Bishop of Knaresborough. Five of the old peal were given by the founder of the church, Mr. Frederick Greenwood, in 1860, a treble was added and the bells rehung in 1905, all this work being carried out by Messrs. Warner, of London.

As a result of a public meeting held in the village, it was decided to appeal for funds to recast and restore the peal. A most generous response followed, over 70 per cent. of the sum required being subscribed within four days. The remaining sum has now been raised, when the remaining sum has now been raised, when the remaining sum has now been raised, practically every parishioner subscribing, and the bells were dedicated free of debt, a remarkable achievement for a comparatively small parish.

Every seat was occupied when the dedication service began with the processional hymn, 'The God of Abraham praise.' There were 14 processional hymn, The God of Abraham praise. There were is surpliced elergy present, the accommodation in the choir stalls being insufficient to accommodate them all. Amongst the congregation were ringers from Bradford Cathedral, Headingley (St. Michael's and St. Chad's), Tadeaster, Guiseley, Thirsk and Ripon Cathedral. The bellfounders (Messrs. J. Taylor and Co.) were represented by Mr. J. P. Fidler.

Immediately after the singing of the processional hymn the Vicar the Rev. R. Brittain) read a brief account of the history of the bells. This was followed by the singing of the Versicles and Psalms exxi.

This was followed by the singing of the Versicles and Psalms exxi. and cl. The lesson was taken from I. Chronicles xxix. During the singing of the hymn, 'Ye watchers and ye holy ones,' the Bishop, Vicar and other clergy proceeded to the ringing chamber, which is situated on the ground floor at the west end of the church.

At the request of Capt. Greenwood (churchwarden), the Bishop dedicated the hells, after which a few rounds were ring by the local ringers: J. Ewbank 1, F. Whitwarn 2, J. C. Lofthouse 3, A. C. Ewbank 4, G. Wainwright 5, R. Morley 6, G. Gill 7, H. Burrells 8. After further prayers the Bishop and clergy returned to the chancel, while the hynn, 'Fling ye bells your songs to Heaven,' was sung. The Bishop preached an eloquent sermon on the message of the hells from the text Psalm xix.. 3 and 4.

from the text Psalm xix., 3 and 4.

The service concluded with Tonnyson's 'Ring out, wild bells,' sung as an offertory hymn.

Immediately after the service, and in full view of the congregation, an excellent touch of 504 Grandsire Triples was rung by the following members of the Yorkshire Association: J. Hardcastle 1, R. Thomas 2, F. G. Sherwood 3, P. J. Johnson 4, J. Cotterell 5, F. W. Dixon 6, W. Talbot 7, E. Hudson 8. The tone of the bells delighted both parishioners and ringers, and the ringers were equally pleased with the 'go' of the bells.

A public tea was afterwards held in the Village School, at which over 200 sat down. Touches were rung on the handbells. The ringers then returned to the church, where touches of Grandsire and Stedman Triples, Kent Treble Bob Major, Bob Major and Double Norwich were rung, some of the local ringers managing their first course of

Messrs John Taylor and Co. are to be congratulated on making another very fine addition to Yorkshire's bells. The bells are hung in two tiers of four each, and have a considerable draught of rope. The tenor is 11½ ewt. in G, and the volume of sound inside the church and in the neighbourhood has been pleasingly controlled. The ropes form a perfect circle in a small but comfortable ringing room.

This enteres should wrom a walkable addition to a district in which

This octave should prove a valuable addition to a district in which towers are rather scattered; it is easily accessible both from the sparsely populated North Riding and from the industrial district of the West Riding.

The local ringers, under the captaincy of Mr. Jackson Ewbank, are very keen, and hope soon to master the intricacies of change ringing.

MUFFLED BELLS.

Stubbings 2, L. Hurry 3, W. Stone 4, F. Matthews 5, H. Churchman 6, F. Hurry (conductor) 7, J. Smith 8. Longest touch in the method by 3rd and 6th.

Palmer 4, G. Smith 5, G. D Deighton 6, W. Perkins (conductor) 7, A. Wilson 8. Rung with the bells half-muffled for H. Dunkley, who was a member of the local band.

DEATH OF GUILDFORD CATHEDRAL RINGER.

THE PASSING OF MR. C. N. BURDOCK.

After two years of suffering, borne with the greatest fortitude, there passed away on Tuesday week at his home in Guildford, Surrey, Mr. Charles Nicholls Burdock, a member of the Guildford Cathedral Society and formerly its honorary secretary. Mr. Burdock, who was only 41 years of age, was a victim of cancer, and he leaves in bereavement a widow and a son, six years old, with whom great symbereavement a widow and a son, six years old, with whom great sympathy is felt.

Mr. Burdock was a native of Derby, and went to Guildford with his parents in 1901. He was one of three brothers who learned to ring at Holy Trinity Church, Guildford (which has since become the Cathedral). One brother was killed in the war, the other retired from ringing, but 'Charlie' Burdock retained the keenest interest in it to the end of his comparatively short life. He started ringing when he was about 17 years old, and was admitted a member of Holy Trinity Society in 1911, ringing his first peal—Stedman Triples—in April of that year at Haslemere. Owing to his health, he was not able to take part in peals as often as he would have wished, but he able to take part in peals as often as he would have wished, but he able to take part in peals as often as he would have wished, but he rang 76 in all, among them being a number of Surprise methods. His last was in August, 1931, a peal of Stedman, which was Mr. A. H. Pulling's one thousandth peal, and he always looked back on that peal as one of the finest of his career. Mr. Burdock was always at the light end in a peal, but he was a splendid striker.

From the time of its formation Mr. Burdock was honorary auditor of the Guildford Diocesan Guild, and was honorary secretary of the Holy Trinity Society during the last four years of his active ringing career.

The interment took place at Guildford Cemetery, the committal being said by the curate (the Rev. H. D. Pilchor). At the conclusion of the service, a band chosen by Mr. Burdock himself rang a perfect course of Grandsire Triples in slow time over the open grave. This fitting requiem to a brother ringer fell with impressive heauty on the silence of the November afternoon.

In the evening present and past members of Holy Trinity Society In the evening present and past members of Holy Trinity Society rang a half-muffled peal of Stedman Triples at the Cathedral, and at a meeting of the Guildford District of the Diocesan Guild, held at Woking, a resolution of sympathy and condolence with the widow of Mr. Burdock was passed by the members standing in silence.

There were a large number of floral tributes. On the coffin was one from the widow and the little son, in the form of a bell, suspended in a frame. Among those who sent wreaths were the Guildford Diocesan Guild, Holy Trinity Society, and S. Nicolas' Society, Guildford.

THE LATE MR. J. WAGHORN.

At All Hallows' Church, Tottenham, on Tuesday, November 14th, a quarter-peal of Grandsire Triples (half-muffled) was rung in memory of the late Joseph Waghern, for many years a member of the society: H. #### ECHOES OF THE LAKE DISTRICT TOUR.

MR. HOGARTH'S REJOINDER. To the Editor.

Sir,—I did not intend to take up any more of your valuable space regarding the tour in the Lake District, but Mr. Jennings in his letter of November 10th asked me to reply. I feel bound to comply with his request, if only to correct a few of his many misstalements. Apparently he is one of those egoistic people who, when criticised, resort to personalities. I did not pen my letter of September 8th through any personal grievance, or any animosity towards Mr. Jennings, but with the hopo that future tourists will not make such a whirlwind trip as the one in question, but will stay a few hours after their peal and do a little 'missionary' work. Surely the Exercise is in need of missionary work at these times. Unfortunately, I could not receive the tourists personally at Keswick owing to business ties, the day being Bank Hoiday, nor could I have taken part in any peal if I had been asked to do so. -I did not intend to take up any more of your valuable space peal if I had been asked to do so.

Our tower secretary was deputised to meet the visitors, and I can assure Mr. Jennings that he did not misinform me with regard to the procedure adopted at the church. I have visited several towers since the tour, and I ask Mr. Jennings if he accepted all the local arrangements in the same spirit in which they were welcomed? My information is to the contrary.

Mr. Jennings leads your readers to believe that I am antagonistic to peal ringing. That is far from the truth. I am against peal ringing which is performed by men of tried abilities who only ring peals where the band is composed of this standard.

Some letters which Mr. Jennings holds of mine appear to be his trump card. I am not afraid of the contents being made public, but can he say the same of his, which I have in my possession, and does he forget that in one of them he asks me to treat them confidentially?

With regard to Sunday trading for profit, a little advice to Mr. Jennings on this point would not be out of place. Be certain of your information before making public statements. Two businesses of the same name and trade can be misleading. My business premises are locked up on Sundays.

Mr. Jennings is quite welcome to visit our tower at any time, as he has dono in the past. The most proficient ringer can acquire a little more knowledge from an unexpected quarter.

TYSON HOGARTH.

'GRAB AND RUN.'
Sir.—Mr. Jennings, in his letter published on November 10th, regarding the Lake District tour, refers to a youth who met them at the church. The said youth, being the undersigned, can confirm the statements made by Mr. Hogarth regarding the procedure adopted by Mr. Jennings and the information that I gave him of the peals previously rung on the hells. He was most anxious to go for a peal of Stedman, which had been previously attempted by a mixed band of Stedman, which had been previously attempted by a mixed some from Windermere, Ambleside and Keswick.

After the peal Mr. Jennings rushed the tourists off to a neighbouring town. No chance was given of seeking any help that could have been asked for from the tourists. The whole procedure was one of 'grab and run,' and not very encouraging for young ringers. Such methods as these do not promote change ringing, but rather leave one with a feeling of disgust. I hope that Mr. Jennings will use a little more discretion when he has the arrangements in hand for another tour.

J. W. BROWNRIGG.

Keswick, Cumberland,

AN OMISSION.

Dear Sir,-With reference to my letter which appeared in your issue of the 10th, I find, on a perusal of my copy, that inadvertently

Issue of the 10th, I and, on a perusal of my copy, that inadvertently I have omitted a few words, which, in conjunction with the sentence from which they are omitted, are of some importance.

It occurred in paragraph 6, re Sunday peals, and following 'trading for profit on Sundays' should have read, 'and, as this is rife in Keswick, I would suggest that Mr. Hogarth would find an outlet for his zeal re Sunday observance if he raised his voice in protest against things of that description.'

One non-resident and two ringing members were elected.

On the proposition of Mr. W. Keeble, it was agreed to hold the next meeting at Witham on February 3rd, 1934.

Mr. L. W. Wiffen proposed a hearty vote of thanks to the Vicar for the use of the bells, his excellent address and for presiding at the tea and business meeting. He also thanked the local ringers for the use of the bells, his excellent address and for presiding at the tea and business meeting. He also thanked the local ringers and their wives for kindly providing tea.—The Vicar, in responding, said it gave him very great pleasure to be with them and to see such great friendship. He was sure the local ringers were only too happy to do what they had done. He was very sorry Mr. Howard was unable to be present, as he had been such an ardent worker for the appropriation, and he heard he wently now seen he reported. association, and he hoped he would very soon be amongst them again

(applause) Mr. H. W. Smith also thanked the Vienr. He welcomed Col. and Mrs. Gibbons and thanked the organist for his services. He extended a hearty welcome to all the visiting ringers and hoped they would soon pay another visit.—Touches on handbells and in various methods on the tower hells, including London Surprise Major, brought a most
