THE UNIVERSITIES

THIS week we feature the dinner and reunion of the Universities Association. While the universities have their own societies as a stimulant towards recruiting and for securing a recognition of the art of change ringing among the activities of a university, in no sense is there a desire for their ringing to be regarded as something apart from the main sections of the Exercise to be found in the guild and territorial associations. Throughout the speeches there was an admission of indebtedness to the ordinary ringers in university cities for their co-operation, not only in the loan of towers but in providing instructors. Ringing is in no sense the exclusive enjoyment of one section of the community, although to the outer world it is often bracketed with the sexton and grave-digger. No, servants of the belfry embrace men and women of all classes—from the trades and learned professions. And let it not be forgotten that however erudite the individual may be there is in the ringing chamber one yardstick by which the individual is judged—his ability to ring his bell accurately and in perfect rhythm with his companions.

Fortunes of university Guilds fluctuate in accordance with the freshmen coming up each year. Reports to hand indicate that, while the Oxford Guild is holding its own, Cambridge is having a struggling time, although history in regard to the emancipation of woman was made in this university as recently as December 19th, when Miss A. B. Stockdale, of Girton, rang the trebles to a handbell peal of Plain Bob Major and became the first woman to ring a peal in hand for this Guild. Bristol is developing its ringing well. Here leadership is in the hands of a member of the medical school, and it is exceedingly fortunate for the advancement of ringing to know that the same guiding influence will operate for the next two years. London is also making headway; Sunday service ringing is divided between two churches, but so far the Guild has not a belfry which is exclusively its own.

At the present time the Universities Association has a membership of 265, and interest in the organisation is revealed in the fact that in response to the recent dinner notices 150 replies were received. This is an unusually high percentage, and it does indicate the interest taken in the Association. Of the members, 89 per cent. come from Oxford, Cambridge, Bristol and London; the other 11 per cent. come from Reading, Durham, Birmingham, Sheffield, Liverpool, Manchester, Leeds, Nottingham, Wales and Edinburgh. It was regarded as no little honour when at the Central Council meeting at Birmingham affiliation was granted to the University Association, and they were allowed one representative. The question of Central Council representation is again in the melting pot. A report on this subject is promised for the York Conference, and the universities submit a plea that this recognition will be continued and that the Central Council will not model its new constitution on the Parliamentary pattern and abolish plurality representation. This would lead not only to the universities losing their members but would affect also the Ancient Society of College Youths and the Society of Royal Cumberland Youths. But that is another subject.

AN ASSUMPTION.

With reluctance we have assumed that those few readers who have not forwarded their subscriptions to Mrs. E. K. Fletcher, The White House, Caister-on-Sea, Great Yarmouth, do not desire 'The Ringing World.' Unless received forthwith their names will be removed from our subscribers' register.

Photographs were taken of the Ven. W. Palin, Vicar of Skelton-in-Cleveland, and the ringers who took part in the peal in honour of his 25 years' ministry on the Tees-side, in the belfry before ringing started on December 18th. Afterwards the Archdeacon entertained the ringers to dinner, when compliments were extended to him on his silver jubilee.

Mr. H. W. Knight, of Wrington, has now rung Stedman from Doubles to Cinques.

Bournemouth Ringers' Rally has been fixed for May 7th at Christchurch.

May we repeat the reminder in last week's issue, that we are hoping to publish a list of those who have rung 40 or more peals during 1948. We require number rung in tower and hand and number conducted.

Most ringers are interested in church architecture. Liverpool Cathedral Picture Book (price 2s. 3d. post free, from Canon C. F. H. Soulby, Residentiary Canon Treasurer, Liverpool Cathedral) is a particularly impressive production.

Mr. A. C. Hazelden, conveyer of the Biographies Committee of the Central Council, is in St. Luke's Hospital, Guildford, having had to undergo a serious operation. The good wishes of his friends for a speedy recovery are extended to him.

Naseby bells were rung to a peal for the royal christening, thus redeeming the failure for the royal birth. It is probable that this is the first peal on the bells which have been five since 1640, and were hung by Messrs. J. Taylor and Co. in 1939.

Mr. T. E. Sone has called Holt's Original five times 'round the circle' of Brenchley tower. Mr. F. J. Lambert, who rang in the peal on December 18th, will be 82 next February. His last peal of Grandsire was over 20 years ago.

BELFRY GOSSIP

First peal on the augmented Lyndhurst bells was by several noted

Bournemouth personalities. The conductor reports a long draught of rope plus the oscillation of the tower made good striking difficult. The peal was a very creditable performance despite the unusually high number of blisters collected.

The first peal of Lincolnshire Surprise Maximus has been rung. The honour goes to Birmingham and not Lincoln.

By ringing a peal at Tettenhall, Staffs, Mr. H. W. Bates has resumed peal ringing after a break of 18 years. His last was in August, 1930.

One better is Mr. N. L. Walker, of Stoney Stanton, Leics. It is 40 years since he rang his last peal. The peal was in honour of the 50th anniversary of the dedication of the bells, and he started ringing soon after the installation of the eight bells.

December 13th was the 80th birthday of Mr. S. Jones, sen., towerkeeper at Eccleston, Cheshire, since 1907, and a ringer for over 60 years. At the age of 10 Mr. Jones lost his left hand, but he had no difficulty in managing the fifth at Eccleston in the quarter in honour of his birthday.

Mr. H. E. Hammond rang the third to a quarter of Superlative Surprise Major at Braintree, Essex, for his 83rd birthday. The company was H. Pratt 1, H. E. Collins 2, H. E. Hammond 3, G. Wiffen 4, G. Lindridge 5, R. Suckling 6, L. W. Wiffen (cond.) 7, H. R. Felton 8.

Mr. W. W. Worthington, of Lichfield, patron of the living of Seale, Derbyshire, and president of the Midland Counties Guild, had his 77th birthday honoured by a peal of Cambridge at the Parish Church, Netherseale. The hand wish to thank Mr. Worthington for his hospitality after the peal.

THAKEHAM, SUSSEX.

A new treble, making a tuneful ring of six at Thakeham, near Pulborough, recently dedicated by the Rector, the Rev. G. R. Barnett, before Sunday morning service, has an interesting story.

It belonged to Hollycombe Private School (now a Council School), near Midhurst. The bell became redundant, was taken down, and left in a field. The Education Committee gave it to the Bishop of Chichester, to be given preferably to a new church built in West Sussex.

There was no apparent demand for it. Bishop Hordern, then Bishop of Lewes, told the Rector of Thakeham about it, and he approached the Bishop of Chichester and the Director of Education, Chichester, who gave him permission to acquire the bell. It was collected from a muddy location and taken to Messrs. Gillett and Johnston's Croydon Foundry, reduced from 5 cwt. to 3½ cwt., and tuned to F sharp.

A meeting of the Western Division of the Sussex County Association, held on the Saturday following the dedication, attracted about 60 ringers, who were entertained to tea by the parishioners of Thakeham.

HILLSBOROUGH, CO. DOWN.

The ring of eight bells of St. Malachi's Church, Hillsborough, Co. Down, was rededicated on December 26th, 1948, by the Right Rev. W. S. Kerr, Bishop of Down. After the Bishop completed the rededication, he ordered 'Let the bells ring,' and immediately the bells pealed forth for the first time since V-Day. The bells were cast in 1773 by Rudhall. The restoration was carried out by Messrs. Taylor and Co., of Loughborough.

After the service the bells were available for ringing, and those taking part were very pleased with the 'go' of them. The ropes now hang in a proper circle, whereas previously the tenor rope dropped into the centre of the circle formed by the other seven which meant that the tenor ringer had to be continuously 'on the move.'

It is interesting to record that only three peals have been rung on these bells, all by visiting teams of ringers from England. In the first of these, Mr. James George rang the third to a peal of Stedman Triples conducted by William Pye. This was on September 15th, 1904. On September 15th, 1909, William Keeble called a peal of 5,056 London. James Riding called 5,088 of Kent on September 8th, 1931. We hope that ere long peals will be rung there by resident ringers.

Amongst those in the congregation were the Earl and Countess Granville (Governor of Northern Ireland), the president of the Irish Association, Mr. W. Pratt, Messrs. F. E. Dukes, general hon. secretary, J. T. Dunwoody, district secretary, and H. Brown, district Ringing Master. The opening ringing was by a team of local ringers, which included: F. McBride (captain), 1, D. Rogan (hon. secretary) 2, W. McBride 3, N. Johnston 4, V. Silcock 5, R. Walker 6, N. Boreland 7, and W. Dewart (vice-captain) tenor.

The sympathy of many friends is extended to Mr. R. W. Grimwood, of Hersham, Surrey, in the death of his wife. The funeral was on January 3rd.

Kent County Association

RESTORE FAMOUS MEMORIAL STONE.

Dear Sir,—To preserve the memory of James Barham, of Leeds, Kent, famous during the latter part of the eighteenth century for his activity and endurance in peal ringing, including 40,320 changes of Bob Major, rung at Leeds, Kent, on April 7th and 8th, 1761, the Kent County Association have once again restored the headstone in the graveyard of Leeds Parish Church.

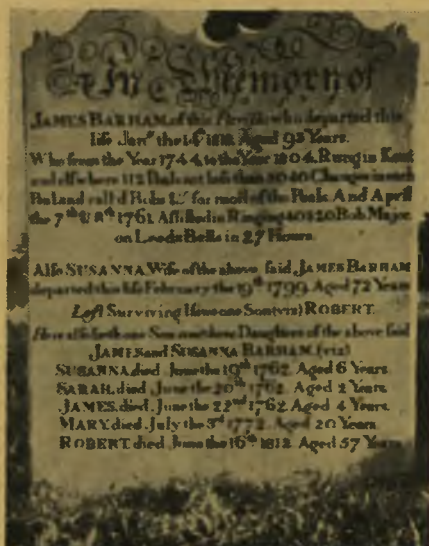

To ringers throughout the country who, by references in past issues of 'The Ringing World' and the activities of the Leeds (Kent) Youths as recorded in Morris' 'History and Art of Change Ringing,' may be interested, the photograph reproduced below, taken after the recent restoration, shows the front of the headstone.

On the reverse of the stone is the following inscription: 'James Barham, deceased January 14th, 1818. Aged 93 years. This stone was restored by the Kent County Association of Change Ringers A.D. 1913.' It is hoped in the near future to add the date of the last restoration.—Yours sincerely,

Sutton Valence, Kent. F. S. MACEY.

Salisbury Diocesan Guild

NORTH DORSET BRANCH.

There was an attendance of 45 members at the annual meeting of the North Dorset Branch at Mere on December 11th. The opening spell of ringing was followed by the Guild service, which was conducted by the secretary, and the address was given by the Vicar of Mere (Rev. N. E. E. Johnson).

At the business meeting the officers elected were: Chairman, Rev. R. M. Taylor; vice-chairman, Rev. F. Ll. Edwards; secretary and treasurer, Rev. William Uphill; Ringing Masters, Messrs. W. C. Shute, L. Perrett, B. Ridout and J. Gray; branch committee, Messrs. J. Ralph, B. Ridout.

The following new members were elected: Marnhull, Rev. J. Collins, Messrs. W. H. Frampton, F. Arnold, F. Caines, C. Frampton, D. Hannam, G. Plowman, M. Plowman, T. Trew, V. Fudge; Yetminster, Messrs. J. Chant, H. C. Vowles, W. Bennett, J. Eliass, B. Jessop, L. Partridge, Misses P. Symes and M. Baker; Hazelbury Bryan, Messrs. J. W. Hutchings, J. Bird, L. J. Fish, J. Hutchings, W. Long, H. Hunt, W. Symes, Misses D. M. Fish and I. Carter; Long Burton, Messrs. E. Wallbridge, A. Light, E. Osmet, J. T. Ware, A. Riggs and Miss M. Farthing, Lt.-Col. G. D. Young (honorary); Stalbridge, Messrs. C. Walter and C. Elliott; Mere, Mr. F. C. Stone.

Places of meeting for next year are: March, Yetminster; June, Stourton; September, Iwerne Minster; December, Sherborne.

The thanks of the ringers were expressed by Rev. F. Ll. Edwards to the Vicar, the church organist and choir and to the ladies for providing the tea. More ringing followed.

ROYAL BIRTH PEALS

Dear Sir,—I wish to draw your attention to an inaccuracy in 'Belfry Gossip' for December 10th. The oldest to ring a peal for the royal baby is said to be Mr. Josiah Morris, aged 81, but Mr. J. W. Jones, Master of the Llandaff and Monmouth Diocesan Association, who rang the 2nd at Llanfreccha (published December 10th), was one month short of 83 years of age.

A peal at Caerleon, on the eve of his 83rd birthday, is published in your issue dated December 24th.—Yours faithfully,

LESLIE F. G. BAINHAM.

Newport, Mon.

GLOUCESTER AND BRISTOL ASSN.

Ringers from the counties of Berkshire, Gloucester, Oxford and Wiltshire attended the annual meeting of the Swindon Branch at Christ Church, Swindon, on December 11th.

The usual ringing was followed by the Association form of service, conducted by the Vicar (Canon J. Gilbert), who also dedicated a peal board recording a peal of Plain Bob Royal rung to mark the election of the hon. secretary of the Swindon Branch as Master of the Association.

The company was entertained to tea by the Christ Church ringers, and a collection for the Belfry Repair Fund realised £1 7s. At the business meeting the retiring officers were re-elected, and it was proposed to visit St. Mark's, Swindon, South Marston and Rodbourne Cheney during the next three months.

THE UNIVERSITIES ASSOCIATION

REUNION DINNER A POPULAR FUNCTION EXTENSION OF LONDON SURPRISE MAJOR A MOTION
FOR THE CENTRAL COUNCIL FOURTEEN UNIVERSITIES SHARE MEMBERSHIP

THE reunion dinner of the Universities Association, held at the Three Nuns, Aldgate, on December 30th, was a popular function, members coming from all parts of the country to make the event a success.

To the Exercise at large was the announcement of a peal attempt of an extension of London Surprise, to take place the following day. As the extension is not recognised, the suggestion was made that the peal, if successful, should be called 'London Surprise Royal U.A.' A motion dealing with Surprise extensions is to be submitted at the next meeting of the Central Council.

Mr. E. H. Lewis (the president) presided, and he was supported by Dr. Hatcher, the Revs. C. Elliot Wigg, K. W. H. Felstead, A. G. G. Thurlow, and A. Davis, Maj. A. H. Jones, Lt.-Comdr. and Mrs. R. G. Cross, Mrs. E. E. Davis, the Misses J. Holdsworth, Margaret Fidell, Betty Spice, Mary Kennelly, Anne B. Stockdale, Frances Edgar, Dorothy Richardson, Hilary Steer, Rachael Dodd, Margaret Green, Jean Askew, Jean Southerst, Marie Cross, Jill Brittain, Jan Fulford, Barbara Podger, Mary Bliss and Pam Woolley, Messrs. Paul Taylor, John Richards, R. Clouston, P. Gray, A. York-Bramble, D. Layton, P. Layton, J. Wrenbury, W. H. J. Hooton, A. Jones, G. Beynor, W. E. Court, C. T. Brown, W. Moreton, J. Worrall, S. E. Darmon, C. G. Woodhead, L. C. J. Watson, F. Hayes, F. J. Roan, A. Fabian, P. J. Robbins, M. E. H. Barrow, R. B. Meadows, P. W. B. Semens, F. S. Macey, V. J. Benning, Geoffrey Dodds, A. A. Hughes, George Cross, P. Layton, D. E. Parsons, E. J. Lindley, F. S. Poole, G. Carter, E. M. Atkins, P. Parrott, Wm. Gray and T. W. White.

After the toasts of 'The King' and 'The Church' had been proposed from the chair, Mr. A. Jones submitted the toast of 'The Universities Association.' The first occasion he was permitted to join the Association as a guest was at Worcester four years ago. On that occasion he was of some use as he stood behind some of the younger members trying to coach them through a plain course of 120 Grandsire Doubles. Those same people were now ringing Spiced Surprise.

He did not think they could let the evening pass without paying tribute to the great work of John Spice, who laid the foundation of the Association. A couple of years ago Mr. Lewis had occasion to pass some adverse criticism on the striking. Those who heard the ringing that day would agree that it was of a higher standard, and there were three excellent leads of Treble Ten. It was certainly up to the standard of any diocesan or Guild meeting. He felt that the Association had a great future in front of it.

CHESTER WEEK POPULAR.

Dr. Hatcher, in reply, said their main activities of the year were the annual dinner and the summer ringing week. All of them who went to Chester last August (40 members from eight universities) came away refreshed and inspired and would like to express their great appreciation of the friendliness and welcome given them in Cheshire, North Wales and Lancashire.

At the present time the universities were ringing relatively few peals, and as far as the Universities Association was concerned the peal analysis would show a further decrease over 1947, the number having dropped from eight to four. In six years the Universities Association had rung altogether 53 peals, never more than eight in any year except in 1946, when 23 were rung. Thus the fall from 23 to eight in 1947 was not so much a decline as a reversion to something like normal. Among the 12 conductors only two had more than four peals—John Spice 21 and Richard Speed eight.

During the present year 37 new members had joined the Association, bringing the grand total to 265. Among new members they were happy to welcome representatives from Liverpool, Nottingham and Edinburgh. They had in all representatives from 14 universities.

The toast of 'The Ladies' was humorously proposed by the Rev. A. G. G. Thurlow and responded to by Miss Dorothy Richardson.

Miss Marie Cross gave the toast of 'The Exercise.' She had a special word of thanks to people in university towns who did so much to help them. In connection with the Chester visit they were especially indebted to Mr. Clarke and Mr. George Newton, of Liverpool. In their ringing that day they had to thank Mrs. Davis at Bishopsgate, Mr. Fox at Stepney and Mr. Gregory at Holloway.

TEACHERS OF THE FUTURE.

The President, in his reply, said he thought that ringers up and down the country were beginning to recognise that the Association was doing very good work and was going to do more in the future. There were a number of districts where there were young people anxious to learn to ring, and there was a lack of competent instructors. He hoped they would be the teachers of the future and would always remember to begin at the lowest rung, i.e., that people should handle well and ring good rounds before starting method ringing.

He felt sorry he could not join them at Chester. He spent eight years and lived at Frodsham, where he was largely responsible for getting the two trebles added. He looked on the Bibbys as his pupils, and he was able to help Mr. George Newton with some of the higher methods.

THE BUSINESS MEETING.

The business meeting then followed. The accounts, which showed a balance in hand of £9 11s. 8d., against £10 0s. 2d., were adopted.

The election of the following new members were ratified: Oxford, P. Fabian, F. J. Roan, P. T. Robbins, Miss H. Steer; Cambridge, A. S. Watt, C. G. Woodhouse; London, D. E. Parsons, P. G. Parrott; Bristol, Miss J. M. Brekenridge, Miss P. M. Coster, H. G. Jones, Miss M. Kennelly, K. E. Pinney, D. B. Palmer, Miss R. Sanger-Davies, I. H. Trueman, J. R. Worrall, L. C. J. Watson; Manchester, R. D. Airey; Nottingham, W. E. Court; Edinburgh, R. St. Clair Wilson.

The meeting decided to hold the ringing week at Exeter from August 13th to 20th, and accepted the offer of the registrar to provide accommodation in St. Thomas' Hall. A condition was a guarantee of 35 members.

It was decided to hold the next annual dinner on January 4th, 1950, at Croydon.

LONDON EXTENSION.

Mr. A. York-Bramble said the Central Council had never recognised the London method rung on a ring of bells past eight—London Royal and London Maximus. There had been peals of London rung as Royal, but they had not been recognised as such. The immediate interest was that their Association was to attempt a peal of the extension of the original London method to Royal. This extension had never been rung and had never been published, but there were members of the Association who considered that it was a straightforward extension for several reasons.

This was hardly the place to go into reasons, but he was grateful for the privilege of saying one thing. As they all knew quite well, in any hunt-controlled or treble-dominated method there was a turning place when the treble leads and a turning place when the treble lies. In Plain Bob the turning place is seconds. In Reverse Bob the turning place when the treble lies is seconds, and that is the main axiom for all hunt-controlled methods. In London, either Major or Minor, they had seconds place for the turning place, and they had when the treble lies fourths from behind.

In considering this axiom in application to Royal they had this turning place at fourths from behind in the sevenths place. One of the reasons why they wanted the method to be attempted was, that it had the axiomatic feature at the half-lead. If the peal was successful on the following day they understood it would not be recognised and it might not be published in 'The Ringing World' as a peal of London Royal. They had taken the precaution of calling it 'London Royal U.A.'

He proposed that the meeting consider tabling a motion for the Central Council's next meeting, which would serve to permit a recognition of London Royal in some form or forms. He proposed for submission to the Central Council the following resolution: 'That peals of London Surprise Royal be recognised with London places at the pull and half lead.'

Mr. Wilfrid Moreton seconded.

The chairman said there was no question of the peal, if rung, being recognised as a peal because this method was a good method and one which agreed with all the requirements of a method. It was only a question of the name that was in doubt.

The Rev. K. W. H. Felstead asked whether it would not be better to ask the Central Council to instruct its appropriate committee to go into this extension and submit a report to the Council.

The Chairman: That would be the natural course.

After further discussion, Mr. York-Bramble accepted a motion by Mr. Denis Layton: 'That any treble-dominated method, claiming to be recognised as an extension or contraction of a basic method of the same name, shall exhibit, inter alia, the standard requirement of turning or pivot places (counted from the trebles leading and lying) at full and half-leads respectively, exactly as in the basic methods.'

This was carried.

The meeting concluded with a vote of thanks to Mr. Dennis Layton for making arrangements for the ringing that day.

The service at St. Botolph's, Bishopsgate, was conducted by the Rev. John D. Richards and the address given by the Rev. C. E. Wigg.

OBITUARY

MR. R. J. GOATE.

The death took place on December 19th of Mr. R. J. Goate, of Beccles, Suffolk, at the age of 77 years, after a long illness. He learned to ring at Loddon in his youth, and came to Beccles, where he set up business, over 50 years ago, and since that time had been connected with St. Michael's Church.

Although he rang very few peals, he was most regular in attendance for Sunday service ringing and practices, and was Master and district secretary for very many years. He was also, until his illness, a sidesman and member of the Church Council, and took great interest in all the church activities.

MR. W. LINTER.

Mr. William Linter passed away on December 31st, after a short illness. He had been a member of the Winchester and Portsmouth Guild and captain of the Swanmore band for more than fifty years. He was 91.

MR. E. SWAIN.

Mr. E. Swain, a pioneer of change ringing at Holy Trinity Church, Morecambe, has passed away, after a long illness, at the early age of 41 years.

For some years Mr. Swain was secretary of the then newly-formed Lancaster Branch of the Lancashire Association, and put in much spade work in the scattered area which comprises the branch.

At the interment on Monday, December 27th, ringers were present from Barrow-in-Furness, Ulverston, Kirkby Lonsdale, Manchester and Lancaster. The Rector, Canon A. E. Nock, spoke appreciatively of the useful but unobtrusive service which the deceased had rendered to the church he loved and served in many capacities.

Ernie Swain's kindly and cheerful presence will be missed by everyone and by nobody more than his ringing colleagues in Lancaster and Morecambe. J. W.

ST. DAVID'S DIOCESAN GUILD MEETING AT LLANDILO.

Wet weather and difficulties of travelling did not deter the enthusiasts from Haverfordwest, Llanelli, Burry Port, Carmarthen and Swansea from attending the quarterly branch meeting of the scattered St. David's Diocesan Guild on December 11th at Llandilo. An excellent tea was provided.

Thirty-two ringers attended the service in St. Teilo's Church, which was conducted by Rev. J. Marks, assisted by Revs. J. A. Morgan (Burry Port) and G. H. R. Morgan (Haverfordwest, SS. Mary and Thomas').

The belfry is unique in that the clock pendulum (as large as a 5-gallon oil drum) swings in the centre at eye level. For Grandsire Doubles this does not matter much, but in Minor, especially Stedman, 5 and 2 and 4 and 6 play a game of 'peep bo' with each other and the pendulum in its wood and wire netting cage. Odd drops of rain down the neck of the ringer of the 4th were also unusual. Nevertheless, in the Kent and Stedman, Grandsire and Plain Boh the striking was generally good.

In the business meeting the member for Haverfordwest asked if financial assistance could not be given to instructors to visit branches needing them and to learners to attend practices with efficient bands. His church was 15 miles from St. David's Cathedral and 20 miles from Tenby, and co-operation was difficult. Revs. Marks, J. Morgan and G. Morgan were elected hon. members.

The March meeting will be held at Llanstephan if arrangements can be made.
