

THE RINGING WORLD

OFFICIAL JOURNAL OF THE CENTRAL COUNCIL OF CHURCH BELL RINGERS

'The Ringing World' was founded in the year 1911 by John Sparkes Goldsmith, who remained its proprietor and editor until his death in 1942.

No. 2133 Vol. XLVIII.

FRIDAY, FEBRUARY 15, 1952

[Registered at the G.P.O. for transmission as a newspaper] 4d.

THE PASSING

RINGERS by their vocation, are very close to the heart of the Nation. To the majority of us this week has fallen the melancholy task of proclaiming to the people the passing of King George VI. It is our responsibility to give an audible expression of the Nation's sorrow. We look back over the past 16 years of the King's reign with a sense of thankfulness to the leadership he gave the Empire in a period of unparalleled difficulty. His death, so unexpectedly, leaves a blank difficult to fill. He gave to this country two things in particular—a sense of courage in adversity and an unshaken belief in the divine hand of God. There were many examples in his broadcasts, but one we will quote again given in the blackest days of the last war: 'Let us go forward as one man, a smile on our lips and our heads held high and with God's help we shall not fail.' Those words are equally applicable to-day.

The sympathy of Church Bell Ringers throughout the land has been expressed in a telegram sent to Buckingham Palace by Mr. G. W. Fletcher, secretary of the Central Council of Church Bell Ringers, and a gracious acknowledgment has been received. Every man and woman in the land and the Commonwealth is conscious of a personal loss; since Wednesday, February 6th, a quiet and reverent Nation has gone about its normal avocations with a feeling of gratitude to one who, though neither born nor trained to be King, was called upon to ascend the Throne under circumstances which must have been particularly painful to him. His strong sense of duty and the assiduous manner in which he attended to the affairs of State won for him a place of deep affection in all hearts.

We also think of our King and gracious Queen as those who delighted in knowing and understanding our people. At times we ringers feel that we are the unseen section of the community and, providing the bells are rung, we do not enter into the general picture of things. There were, however, times when ringers were brought into close contact with the Royal Family. There was a memorable occasion at Chester when the ringers were introduced, and also quite recently when the Queen deputised for the King in a visit to Manchester. Her Majesty went out of her way to chat to the ringers. Probably other tower captains can remind us of similar incidents.

On such occasions as this the question is naturally asked what is the correct procedure—should the bells be rung half muffled or fully muffled? At the passing of King George V. there was no measure of agreement and more than one writer made a request to 'The Ringing World' for a ruling from the Central Council on the subject. A school of thought then advocated that for the passing of the King the bells should be rung fully muffled and for other personages half muffled. While we at Guildford do not in any sense wish to give the correct interpretation of the procedure to be adopted, our observation took this form. On the day of the King's death and on every other day before the funeral, except for the day of the Proclamation of Queen Elizabeth II., the knell was tolled on the tenor at noon. On the evening of the day of the King's death the bells were rung fully muffled to touches of Stedman with the exception of the tenor, which was half muffled. This was followed by the 'whole pull and stand' for the late King's age. The same procedure it is proposed to adopt for the memorial service.

The late Mr. J. Armiger Trollope, who in many respects was an authority on matters of procedure, when approached for his opinion as to whether ringing should be half or fully muffled, said there was no way more correct than another; the only question was which sounds the best. He added, 'Probably the most effective is to ring the "whole pull and stand" half muffled very slowly, with a whole pull on the tenor alone between each change and varying the order in which the bells are rung. To do this properly you would want a good band. When changes are rung either in touches or peals, half muffled is infinitely superior to fully muffled, but quick ringing ruins the effect, and Major is preferable to Triples. . . . The tolled bell is the only official way of commemorating Royalty. Fully muffled ringing is not much more than 200 years old and half muffled considerably less.'

Whether the ringing adopted in your tower is half muffled or fully muffled, we sincerely trust that every band in the country will recognise its special responsibility and ring on the day of the funeral and at any local memorial service that will be arranged. The clergy and the public expect it of us and also there is our own personal desire to be associated with the Nation in the tribute to one who was held in such affection by us all.

The World Freedom Bell

Gillett & Johnston can rightly claim to be the only firm fully equipped to take care of the complete installation in the Church Tower. As founders of bells and makers of tower clocks and of all electrical and mechanical bell operating mechanism, we accept undivided responsibility for the satisfactory completion of each project. Some of the most famous and largest installations in the world have been carried out entirely within our organisation. We specialise, too, in the preservation and restoration of old clocks and rings of antiquarian interest.

SALISBURY DIOCESAN GUILD Salisbury Branch

The annual meeting of the Branch was held at St. Paul's, Salisbury, on February 2nd, 40 members and visitors being present from 18 different towers.

The secretary and treasurer (Miss Y. Eloie) presented the accounts for the year, showing a balance carried forward of £21 15s. 1d., a slight increase on the last year. Six towers had been visited during the year for meetings and practice. Guild certificates for proficiency had been gained by eight members, and two peals had been scored in the Branch.

The chairman (Mr. H. A. Roles) spoke of the need of increasing co-operation between the ringers and the clergy, saying that he had found in his experience that if the ringers tried to fall in with the wishes of the incumbent, he in turn stood by his ringers and co-operated with them. He also referred to the marriage during the year of Mr. Frank Harris and Miss Jean Brown, to the recording of Sarum St. Thomas' bells and to the rehanging of Broadchalke and Donhead St. Mary bells.

The Branch officers were re-elected:—H. A. Roles, chairman; W. Chalke, vice-chairman; Miss Y. Eloie, secretary and treasurer; H. Roles, J. Mussell and H. Abrahams, Ringing Masters; C. Haines and A. Haines were elected to the committee. Seven new ringing members were elected including Raymond Haines, aged seven, of Wilton.

The business meeting was preceded by the Guild's service in St. Paul's Church, conducted by the Rector (the Rev. N. Ashenden), who gave an address on variety in unity—different members of the body working together.

The bells at St. Paul's were kept going during the afternoon and evening, and St. Thomas' and South Newton also in the evening, from rounds and standard methods to Double Norwich and some Cambridge, Bristol and London.

BATH AND WELLS ASSOCIATION Presentation to Retiring Chairman

In spite of bad weather conditions which prevented, amongst others, the Ringing Master from attending, there was a good attendance at the annual meeting of the Ilchester and Merston Branch held at Martock on January 26th. Proceedings commenced earlier than usual to enable the retiring chairman, Preb. G. W. Saunders, to get to his new home near Bridport.

The Association service was conducted by Preb. Saunders assisted by the Vicar of Stoke-under-Ham, the Rev. Douglas Ballard. Mr. Shepherd was the organist.

The first business of the meeting was a presentation to Preb. Saunders to commemorate his 32 years in office. This consisted of a specially- and beautifully-bound copy of the 'Bells of All Nations,' by Mr. Ernest Morris.

The new Vicar of Martock, the Rev. L. E. Walsh (a ringer), was elected chairman; other officers re-elected were: Mr. T. Setter, vice-chairman; Mr. F. Farrant, secretary; and Mr. W. H. Poole, Ringing Master. Somerton and Stoke-under-Ham were places chosen for the year's meetings. Several new members were elected from Somerton, Martock, West Coker and Haselbury Plucknett.

After tea, which followed the meeting, the bells were kept going until 9 p.m. F. F.

GRATEFULLY ACKNOWLEDGED

RINGING CUSTOMS AT DALLINGTON

Special ringing at St. Mary-the-Virgin's, Dallington, in addition to ringing for matins and evensong, includes:—

Ringling in the New Year.

Easter: 6.30—7 a.m. and after communicating for 8 a.m. communion; also after evensong.

Ascension Day: Evening service.

Whitsun, Harvest Festival and Armistice Sunday (half-muffled) after evensong.

Dedication Festival, 6.30—7 a.m. and after communicating ringing for 8 a.m. communion; also after evensong.

Christmas: 11.15—11.45 p.m., 6.30—7 a.m. and 10.30—11 a.m.

Ringling out the Old Year (half-muffled).

In addition five quarter peals and one peal (one peal lost after 41 120's owing to rope breaking) were achieved by the local band.

RINGING RHYMES

No. 3—Covering

In method ringing every stroke
Succeeds a different bell. No cloak
Can muffle clashes, made so oft
When ringers let their minds go 'soft.'
How find we then the bell to follow?
(Beginners sometimes here find sorrow !)
Well, first the ear will tell the sound
To make you instantly glance round
And check with eye, 'gainst falling rope,
The stroke you're making. In the hope
That you may progress towards this end
Some 'covering' practice best may trend.

So, while a steady pull you keep
Behind all others, list! And peep!
Thus find each new, successive bell;
But listen hard, to cover well.

Llandaff Cathedral bells have been removed by Messrs. Mears and Stainbank to be tuned, quarter turned and rehung. These bells have not been rung since the disastrous blitz of 1941, when the tower was rendered unsafe for ringing. A large team of young people is now learning to ring at the local parish church of St. John.

The meeting of the Winchester District of the Winchester and Portsmouth Guild at Hursley has been postponed to February 23rd.

Mr. Arthur V. Pearson informs us that the asterisk against his name in the peal of Lincolnshire Surprise Major at Lye on January 16th, should read '100th peal of Surprise Major.'

London ringers visiting Leeds for the Chelsea v. Leeds United cup-tie will be welcomed at the Leeds Society's meeting at St. Chad's, Headingley.

Mr. Charles Haylings has completed 25 years as sexton and clerk at St. Mary's, Ripple, Worcs.

The rings of six at Tywardreath and Lelant, Cornwall, have been removed from the towers and sent to Loughborough prior to being rehung by Messrs. J. Taylor and Co.

Great pleasure was given to the band who rang the quarter peal at Dartford, Kent, to have Mr. Harry Hoverd back with them after two years' illness.

His many friends in the Exercise will join the All Saints', Maidstone, band in congratulating Mr. E. Spiller, their captain for the past 29 years, on completing 50 years as a ringer. Mr. Spiller rang his first peal in 1903 and although he has many peals to his credit it is as a Sunday service ringer that his sterling qualities have been directed. Seldom absent, never late, always ready to help beginners and to welcome visitors, he is, indeed, one of the pillars of the Exercise.

BELFRY GOSSIP

The youngest ringer in the Salisbury District is Raymond Haines, aged seven and a half, who was elected to full membership of the Salisbury Diocesan Guild at their recent annual meeting. His father, Mr. C. F. Haines, of 17, Shaftesbury Road, Wilton, says that Raymond was his easiest pupil and can now, after only three months' tuition, ring 120 of Grandsire with very little prompting. Raymond rings regularly for Sunday services at Wilton (tenor 8 cwt.) and has already started 'tower snatching' with about a dozen rings to his credit.

The Snowdon dinner will be held at York on October 25th.

Titchfield, Hants, has a promising local band which should go far. They record their first of London Surprise Minor.

A novel memorial picture appeared in 'The Birmingham Post' of Mr. George E. Fearn, Ringing Master at Birmingham Cathedral, tying a muffle on the clapper of one of the bells.

Miss Brenda, M. Smith, who will be 17 in March, has rung the 36-cwt. tenor at Evesham bell-tower (behind on the back eight). Has any other lady ringer handled this weight of metal at this age?

Mr. F. W. French, of Bourne, Lincolnshire, celebrates his jubilee as a ringer this year. He chimed the bells of Market Deeping Parish Church at the age of seven. For three years he was a district ringing master of the Lincoln Diocesan Guild.

Sixteen-year-old Miss B. M. Vidler, of Marden, Kent, was warmly congratulated by the band who rang with her in her first peal on eight bells—Double Norwich Court Bob Major—at Brenchley. She started ringing 12 months ago and her opportunities to practise Major have been very limited.

TO A BELOVED KING

THE SYMPATHY OF THE EXERCISE

The sympathy of the ringers of the Nation in the death of H.M. George VI. was expressed by the following telegram sent by Mr. George W. Fletcher, hon. secretary of the Central Council of Church Bell Ringers, to Buckingham Palace on February 7th:—

To the Private Secretary, Buckingham Palace.

On behalf of the Central Council of Church Bell Ringers I beg to offer to your Majesty and your family our deepest sympathy in the grievous loss you have sustained through the passing of our beloved King.

Fletcher, Hon. Sec.

The following acknowledgment has been received:—

Hon. Secretary, Central Council of Church Bell Ringers.

Her Majesty has deeply appreciated your telegram of sympathy.

Private Secretary,

SUDDEN DEATH OF DR. J. C. E. SIMPSON

The sudden and unexpected death on February 7th, at the early age of 43, of James C. E. Simpson, M.Sc., Ph.D., has removed from the Exercise a well-known and brilliant conductor and ringer.

He was taken ill on January 20th at his brother's house at Wrexham and was removed to Wrexham Hospital for what was expected to be a routine operation. It was discovered that the trouble was more serious than had been anticipated and more than one operation was necessary. He appeared to recover from the operations and was considered to be out of danger when he collapsed and died.

The funeral service was at St. Oswald's Church, Chester, on February 9th, when, in addition to the family mourners, the Archdeacon of Chester, the Master and general secretary of the Chester Guild and several of his ringing friends were present. Cremation followed at Landican Crematorium where more ringers had gathered to bid a last farewell to their friend. At an appropriate place in the service a well-struck course of Grandsire Triples was rung by a band representing four branches of the Chester Guild.

Dr. Simpson was born at Wallasey, Cheshire, on Aug. 14th, 1908, and after studying at Liverpool University and a stay in America of two years, he took up an appointment at the University of London. Subsequently he returned to Liverpool to take up an appointment with the School of Tropical Medicine and on the transference of his department to Manchester he went to reside there and was appointed Honorary Lecturer in Organic Chemistry at the University of Manchester.

Of a shy and retiring nature his influence was usually indirect but he could and did speak in a very forthright manner when the occasion demanded it. He was an excellent conductor and had made a speciality of all the different one-part long course 5,024's of London Surprise Major by G. Lindoff, and had only recently completed this task. He called the first peal of Spliced Surprise Major in Lancashire for the Lancashire Association, and, in Cheshire, the first peals of Loughborough Bob Major, St.

Lawrence Bob Major and several Surprise Major methods.

In the field of Spliced Surprise he was the first to call a peal in five methods and six methods in which all the bells do all the work of all the methods and he conducted the present record of Spliced, 8,032 at Frodsham, on December 30th, 1950. The attempt for 9,568 made on December 29th, 1951, failed and a peal of Ealing, his last peal, was rung instead, conducted by him. This failure was a great disappointment to him and it had been hoped to make the attempt this year. Whether this will be done or whether, as has been suggested, the record be left as a tribute to his memory is something which his friends will have to decide.

In spite of his slight build he was a first-rate heavy-bell ringer and it was here that his scientific training showed itself for he carefully considered each tenor he rang and the amount of energy he needed to put into each pull to do the job well. His finest feat was, in the opinion of many of his friends, to ring Beverley Minster tenor to an almost perfect peal of Cambridge Royal during which he never saw the ringers of 6, 7, 8 and 9, for he had his back to them, and yet he placed his bell impeccably. Other fine performances were turning in Wells Cathedral tenor to Cambridge Royal with John Worth as strapper; St. Nicholas', Liverpool, tenor, and Durham Cathedral tenor to Cambridge Major.

He had the gift of getting the best out of a band without speaking a word. One felt that seeing him at work on the box the least one could do was to support him up to the hilt. Among his many performances one might single out the first peal of Cambridge Maximus in the North of England (Liverpool, in 1928), the first peal of Cambridge Maximus in Ireland (at Dublin) and the 15,480 Cambridge Royal at Worsley on December 15th last. His ringing of the eighth to that peal was masterly and his attention to small details of striking, a marked characteristic of his, was never more apparent than in the way he kept the eighth off the tenor in the 08's at the back.

FIRST TRIBUTES

Since the sad news of the death of King George VI., in most cathedrals and churches there has been muffled ringing for the King's passing, as a mark of respect and affection to a beloved Monarch.

At St. Paul's Cathedral, London, the procedure which has been adopted since the death of Queen Victoria was followed. Immediately on the news of the death of the Monarch, Big Tom is tolled, and this sad observance took place on Wednesday. To-day (Friday) the whole pull and stand will be rung on the twelve bells, half-muffled.

Appended are first quarter peals to hand:

ARDLEIGH, ESSEX.—On Feb. 6th, 1,260 Plain Bob Minor: F. Southgate 1, F. Erith 2, A. Cole 3, T. Cole 4, G. Barnes 5, P. G. Barnes (cond.) 6. Rung fully-muffled on the back six.

DARLINGTON.—At Holy Trinity Church, on Feb. 6th, 1,272 York Surprise Minor: Mrs. W. N. Park 1, J. T. Titt 2, Miss D. M. Killingley 3, M. P. Moreton 4, W. N. Park 5, R. Park (cond.) 6. Rung half-muffled.

EASTBOURNE, SUSSEX.—On Feb. 6th, at the Church of St. Mary, 1,260 Grandsire Triples: F. Waymark 1, J. W. Rollison 2, L. Baldock 3, R. W. Percy 4, P. H. Rollison 5, F. Dallaway (cond.) 6, H. G. F. Reynolds 7, R. W. Pankhurst 8. Rung fully-muffled with tenor open at back stroke.

EAST CROMPTON, SHAW, NEAR OLDHAM.—On Feb. 6th, 1,260 Minor (36 Plain Bob, 504 Kent, 720 Oxford Treble Bob: J. Butterworth (cond.) 1, J. R. Buckley 2, R. H. Byrom 3, T. Ogden 4, F. Butterworth 5, G. Abbott 6. Rung with the bells fully muffled.

FAREHAM, HANTS.—On Feb. 6th, 1,260 Grandsire Triples: Miss R. Marwood 1, G. Privett 2, P/O E. A. Marsh, R.N., 3, Miss B. M. Ball 4, A. H. Sturges 5, J. W. Meade 6, J. H. Hunt (cond.) 7, F. W. Burnett 8. Rung fully-muffled.

HALSALL, LANCs.—On Feb. 6th, 1,440 Minor (720 Oxford Bob, 720 Plain Bob): Barbara Haldane (first quarter) 1, Vera Draper 2, W. Core 3, J. Pounds 4, H. Sergeant 5, A. Mawdsley (cond.) 6. Rung half-muffled.

LYME REGIS, DORSET.—On Feb. 7th, 1,260 Stedman Triples: Mrs. C. W. Powell 1, Canon C. C. Cox 2, C. W. Powell 3, G. S. Morris (cond.) 4, G. H. Whitmore 5, R. Keeley 6, W. Rogers 7, H. G. Keeley 8. Rung half-muffled.

NEWMARKET, SUFFOLK.—At All Saints' Church, on Feb. 6th, 1,440 Plain Bob Minor: D. Moon (first quarter) 1, R. C. Sharpe 2, S. Ward 3, S. Howlett 4, J. A. Acres (cond.) 5, A. E. Austin 6. Rung half-muffled.

SOLIHULL, WARWICKS.—On Feb. 6th, 1,367 Grandsire Caters: W. Leeson 1, C. Dale 2, V. W. Rigg 3, T. Warner 4, E. C. Shepherd (cond.) 5, N. D. Lane 6, H. Bragg 7, J. Bragg 8, C. Bragg 9, T. Abbotts 10. Rung half-muffled.

SUNNINGWELL, BERKS.—On Feb. 7th, 1,260 Doubles (240 each Southcrops Pleasure, Clifford Pleasure, Reverse Canterbury, Plain Bob, April Day and 60 Grandsire): Miss J. Jones (first quarter) 1, Jas. Honey 2, Jonathan Honey 3, D. Wilks 4, W. Cudd 5, J. Wilks 6. Rung half-muffled.

TITCHFIELD, HANTS.—On Feb. 6th, 1,440 London Surprise Minor: Miss S. Wickens 1, A. Page 2, P. Page 3, F. C. Love 4, G. Barton 5, T. Page (cond.) 6. First quarter peal in the method by all, on the bells and by a local band. Rung half-muffled.

DR. J. C. E. SIMPSON.—Continued

His peal total must be in the region of 550 but when his peal book has been obtained a detailed analysis will be made.

His unexpected death has stunned his friends who considered him to be the fittest man among them, for among his other interests were tennis, badminton, fell walking and singing. It is hard to believe we shall never see his lithe figure nor hear his quiet voice again but one thing, I feel sure, all his friends can do, is to strive to reach the standards of performance which he would have had us reach.

An attempt for a memorial peal at Macclesfield in 12 Spliced Surprise Major methods (he called the first one in Cheshire) failed after 1½ hours' good ringing, but a memorial peal of Stedman Triples was rung at Liscard.

THE CURFEW IN ENGLISH LIFE

By ERNEST MORRIS

In many parish records the curfew is described as 'Bow-bell.' Shakespeare, who must, one would suppose, have been familiar with the sound of the curfew tolling from many various steeples, nevertheless refers to it as indicative of the most unusual hours. In 'Romeo and Juliet' (Act IV., Sc. 4), Lord Capulet says:—

'Come, stir, stir, stir, the second cock hath crow'd,

The coufrehw bell hath rung, 'tis three o'clock.'

In 'Measure for Measure' (Act IV., Sc. 4) occurs the following:—

'Duke: The best and wholesom'st spirits of the night

Invellop you, good Provost, who call'd here of late?

Provost: None since curfew rung.'

In another of his plays he fixes yet another hour. Thus in 'Tempest' (Act. V., Sc. 1), Prospero says:—

'You, whose pastime

Is to make midnight mushrooms, that rejoice To hear the solemn curfew.'

And in 'King Lear' (Act III., Sc. 4), Edgar exclaims:—

'This is the foul fiend

Flibbertigibbet; he begins the curfew and walks to the first cock.'

Milton in 'Il Penseroso' (74/75) speaks of the curfew:—

'Oft on a plot of rising ground,

I hear the far off curfew sound

Over some wide-watered shore,

Swinging low with sullen roar.'

ONE ACRE FOR THE CURFEW

At Byfield, Northants, we read: 'A bell is rung here at four in the morning, and at eight in the evening, for which the clerk hath 20s. yearly paid to him by the rector.' In Dorset at Mappowder there is mention of land being given 'to a man to ring the morning and curfew bell throughout the year,' also at Ibberton is mentioned, 'one acre given for ringing the 8 o'clock bell, and £4 for ringing the morning bell.'

At Claybrooke we read that 'the custom of ringing curfew is still kept up, has probably obtained without intermission since the days of the Norman conqueror' (Macauley, 'History of Claybrooke,' 1791). It is probable in the Middle Ages some superstitious regard was paid to the ringing of couvre-feu, for we often find, as shown by the examples quoted—land and money left for its upkeep. This feeling does not appear to have been altogether extinct even at the close of the 16th century. for in Bishop Hall's 'Fourth Satire' occurs the following:—

'Whoever gives a paire of velvet shoes

To th' Holy Rood, or liberally allows

But a new rope to ring the couvre-feu bell

But he desires that his great deed may dwell.

Or graven in the chancel window glasse,

Or in his lasting tombe of plated brasse.'

We find the curfew mentioned as a common and approved regulation in most monasteries and towns of North Europe, the intent being to prevent accidents by fires. All the common houses at this time consisted mostly of timber, and Moscow, for instance, being built of this material, generally suffered once, at least, in every twenty years. That this happened in London, Fitzstephen proves:—'Solæ pestes Lundonia sunt stultorum immodica potatio et frequens incendium.'

IN SCOTLAND

The 'Saxon Chronicle' also mentions the frequent burning of towns, which might be expected for the same reason, the Saxon term for building being zerimbian. The Hon. Daines Barrington tells us:—

'Curfew is written curphour in an old Scottish poem, published in 1770 with many others from the manuscript of George Bannatyne, who collected them in the year 1568. It is observed in the annotations on them that by Act 144, part 13, Jam. I., 'this bell was to be rung in burghs at nine in the evening, and that the hour was afterwards changed to ten, at the solicitation of the wife of James the Sixth.'

There is a narrow street in Perth, Scotland, still called 'Couvre-feu Row' leading west to Black Friars where the couvre-feu bell gave warning to the inhabitants to cover their fires and go to rest, when the clock struck ten.

In 'The Fair Maid of Perth,' referring to this same street in February, 1396, Sir Walter Scott says:—

'Curfew bell, then rung at seven o'clock at night: the custom has long ceased, but the street in which the bell was situated, and where The Fair Maid lived, is still called Curfew Row.'

Mr. Jesse Salisbury in his 'Glossary of Words and Phrases' used in S.E. Worcestershire, 1893, states:—

'The curfew bell is rung at Pershore at eight o'clock in the evening from November 5th until Candlemas Day. It was formerly also rung at five o'clock in the morning, but owing to the old Sexton—named Blake—who for many years performed the duty of ringing the curfew bells, making a mistake as to the time on one occasion, and ringing it five hours too early, the practice was discontinued.'

Bell's 'Weekly Messenger,' September 28th, 1895, quotes: 'The curfew bell in old St. Giles, Cripplegate, which has been allowed to be neglected, and almost forgotten, has now been replaced in the cupola of the ancient church. It has been remounted in a strong English oak frame, and can be seen from the surrounding district. There can be little doubt that the old bell which has been restored was the same which rung the nightly signal when Milton lived under its shadow.'

NORTH OF ENGLAND CUSTOM

A custom which still lingers in the north of England shows the true meaning of the word curfew, and the reason why the curfew was rung. It is usual to keep the kitchen fire burning all night. About nine p.m. in the winter, and rather later in summer, a quantity of 'raking slake' was shot out of a wooden coal box upon the fire. The box was like a big wooden shoe or slipper, with a handle on each side. Then water out of a lading can was thrown upon the fire to make it 'crozzil' better. About five in the morning in summer, and six in winter, the fire was revived by putting in a few sticks. Owing to the increased price of coal and also the invention of matches, this custom has generally become discontinued, but it is remembered by old people. In some houses in South Yorkshire the fire is still 'slaked' and kept burning all night in winter to maintain warmth. In earlier times, when wood was burnt, a big log of wood, once known as the 'head brand' or 'hearth stock,' was put at the back of the fire and then 'slaked' or covered up for the night, by pulling this big log down and raking other pieces of wood on it.

Amongst Greeks and Romans it was a sacred obligation for the master of every house to keep up the fire night and day. Woe to the house where it was extinguished! Every evening he covered up the coals with ashes to prevent them becoming entirely consumed. In the morning the first care was to revive the fire with a few twigs. On these grounds we may conclude that the curfew bell was rung as a signal—at least, where the above customs prevailed—not to put the fire out, but to keep it in by 'covering up with slake' and so to bed.

In Worcestershire also it is a custom for cottagers to keep the fire burning all night in this way. Henry Kirke White alludes to it in his 'Description of a Summer Eve':—

'The mistress sees that lazy Kate

The happing coals on kitchen grate has laid . . .

In 'The Ringing World' (1930) was given notice of a bequest for curfew to the parish of Sturminster Newton. The testator, Mr. Frederick Giles Symonds, a retired bank manager, who died on May 10th of that year at the age of 83, left estate of gross value of £14,707. By his will he left £100 upon trust to pay the income to the Vicar and churchwardens of Sturminster Newton towards keeping alive the ancient custom of ringing the curfew from Michaelmas Day to Lady Day, any surplus to be paid the Vicar for the Sick and Needy Fund. He left other bequests to the church and parish.

CHERTSEY ABBEY BELL

We have shown how Shakespeare and Milton refer to the curfew and many other allusions could be repeated from our best-known writers and poets. It may not be generally known that the story told in the poem 'The curfew must not ring to-night,' is, in all probability, true. It is stated that the bell which the heroine, Bessie, prevented from ringing to save her lover's life, still hangs and rings in the belfry of Chertsey Parish Church. It is known as the Abbey bell, because it was originally made for Chertsey Abbey, but was preserved and given to the Parish Church on the Dissolution of the Monasteries in the 16th century. But even if the poem be not true, the bell is interesting (1) because it was tolled for Henry VI. when his body was taken to Chertsey Abbey for burial, and (2) because it was cast in 1310 and is therefore one of England's oldest bells.

Longfellow thus speaks of the curfew in 'Evangeline':—

'Thus passed the evening away. Anon the bell from the belfry

Rang out the hour of nine, the village curfew, and straightway

Rose the guests and departed; and silence reigned in the household.'

Longfellow also has this to say about it:—

'Solemnly, mournfully,

Dealing its dole,

The Curfew Bell

Is beginning to toll.

Cover the embers

And put out the light;

Toil comes with the morning,

And rest with the night.

Dark grow the windows.

And quenched is the fire,

Sound fades into silence—

And footsteps retire.

No voice in the chambers.

No sound in the hall!

Sleep and oblivion

Reigns over all.'

THE BENEVOLENT FUND PROPOSAL

'We are glad to see that the suggestion that a Ringers' Benevolent Fund should be established is being seriously considered in many parts of the country. . . . The Kent County Association is leading the way and the scheme put forward by the honorary secretary, the Rev. F. J. O. Helmore, as the result, we are proud to think, of the question being opened up in this column, is receiving enthusiastic support in all the districts, making it almost certain that at the next annual meeting Mr. Helmore's proposals will be adopted. . . .

[The Kent County Association's Benevolent Fund has now a balance in hand of some £370. Over £500 has been paid out since it was established.]

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR

THREE SISTERS IN A PEAL

Dear Sir.—While congratulating the three sisters, the Misses Proctor, on ringing their peal together at Claybrooke, not forgetting congratulations to the conductor, this has already been accomplished on several occasions by members of the Johnson family.

The first occasion was a peal at Offenham (Worcs) in 1931, when Rosalie, Amy and Florence took part with their father and two brothers in a family peal. Later, Amy (now Mrs. J. Thomas) conducted a peal of Grandsire Doubles with Margaret and Kathleen, and a second one with Florence and Kathleen. Still later, Amy, Margaret and Kathleen took part in a peal of Grandsire Triples with their elder brother, Joseph—these last three peals on handbells.—Yours faithfully,

DAPHNE J. MARTIN (Mrs.).

Sedgeberrow, Worcs.

Dear Sir.—At the Church of St. Mary Magdalene, Ditchat, Somerset, on April 19th, 1949, three sisters, Misses Vera, Audrey and Beryl Look, rang 2, 3 and 4 respectively, to a peal of Grandsire Triples.—Yours faithfully,

H. C. LINTERN.

Shepton Mallet, Som.

A PERFECT SQUARE ON AN EIGHT-BELL CHANGE

Dear Sir.—Once again I had much enjoyment from Kewsett's Christmas Quiz, and the least I can do is to answer his S.O.S. in a recent issue of 'The Ringing World' to find a change on eight bells that is a perfect square.

Here are all the changes on eight bells that are perfect squares:—

13527684	=	3678 ²
34857216	=	5904 ²
65318724	=	8082 ²
73256481	=	8559 ²
81432576	=	9024 ²

Yours faithfully,

T. G. HAWKINS.

Stoke Poges.

Mr. R. C. H. Connolly, Watford, also replies and adds no change on eight bells is a perfect cube, fourth, fifth, sixth, seventh, eighth, ninth or tenth power.

TOUCHES OF GRANDSIRE TRIPLES

Dear Sir—I thought that one of your readers more expert than myself would have pointed out that the touch of 476 Grandsire Triples on page 64 is false.

It would appear that rounds has been produced from Whittington's by grafting on the corresponding part of the 308 on the same page; unfortunately this entails three consecutive bob leads.

I subjoin one possible alternative which runs again to 476:—

275346
642537	2S
326475	3S
753642	2
267453	1
234567	2P

Yours faithfully,

ROGNVALD ST. C. WILSON.

'IN PLAIN ENGLISH'

Dear Sir.—In reply to Mr. Stafford Green's comment on the Guild of Devonshire Ringers in your issue of February 8th, I shall be pleased to give him opportunity to air his criticism in plain English at our annual meeting at Combe Martin on Easter Monday.

E. V. COX, President.

Guild of Devonshire Ringers

DUTY AND SERVICE RINGING

Dear Sir.—In our village we have five bells. For the last two years or more we have had six ringers. Of these, one is a policeman and usually on duty; one is the postmistress and, believe it or not, works quite hard on Sundays; and one is a country doctor who is, of course, always on duty. Of these three, all can, with an effort, usually attend for half an hour's ringing, but they could not manage the extra hour if they stayed to the service. But we ring twice every Sunday and every ringer stays to either morning or evening service.

We also ring for three services on Christmas, Easter and Whit Sunday and, of course, we ring the Old Year out and the New Year in.

I gather from some of the correspondence in 'The Ringing World' that it would be better if our bells were silent.

I dislike anonymous letters though I am obviously one of the ringers mentioned, and sign my name so that those who feel they are entitled to can 'cast the first stone'.—Yours truly,

C. N. VAISEY.

Freshford, Somerset.

Dear Sir.—Please grant me a small space in our esteemed paper to respond to the front page article re ringers and church by F. E. H. The action of those Swanwick ringers seems to me to be very much flavoured with that dreadful monster, Communism. I uphold to the utmost the action of the incumbent. I myself experienced the very same thing in my parish—seven young men twice weekly at practice but never once at divine service.

I understand church bells are consecrated for the purpose of calling people to worship and to our God. I feel that when men talk and write about their rest, their foremost thoughts are upon themselves. Who to-day is overworked, when worship is rest? If anybody is overworked is it not the clergy, supposed one day a week men? Come in ye weary ones and take a rest. Have not and are not the present-day clergy pulling their weight both in belfry and in ringing meetings, etc., uplifting the moral and spiritual wants of both sides?

It appears to me that F. E. H. has a foot in each place. Be bold, sir, and favour no tender treatment of such men. Try and picture, if you can, all towers taking the action the Derbyshire men have done. They would very quickly be ringing their Nunc Dimittis.—Yours very humbly,

E. W. F.

Dolau, Llandrindod Wells.

AN HONEST INTERPRETATION

Dear Sir.—Any Rector has, of course, the right to tell ringers who have the honesty to admit that they are interested in ringing primarily as a mental exercise to build secular towers and ring in them—just as any ringer has the right to tell such a Rector to man his ropes from his regular congregation, but where is the gain? History shows that such intolerance leads to aridity and not growth.

Sanctimonious attempts to show others 'the light' often lead to harm, and in my own experience have driven out of ringing those who can probably be of great value, that is church-going ringers. It is one thing to choose your course of action—another to have it dictated to you.

It seems to me that F. E. H.'s article is an honest account of the attitude of the majority of ringers and his reasonable arguments much more likely to recall those who are not churchmen to a sense of their obligations than the inflamed exhortations of some of your correspondents, which will only reaffirm the converted in their piety—a pleasing, but fruitless occupation.—Yours faithfully,

MADLINE M. CROFT.

Southampton.

IRREGULAR METHODS

Dear Sir.—I was interested to read M. R. P.'s criticisms of my letter of December 21st in a recent edition of 'The Ringing World.' May I be permitted to make the following observations on them?

(1). Campanological Balderdash.—It is, I assume, the duty of the Editor and the Editorial Committee to present to their readers, among other things, a true cross-section of opinion, and so will publish many letters whose views do not coincide with their own. In such circumstances it is inevitable that certain material will appear falling into the category I mentioned. If M. R. P. or any others have not read that which they consider comes under this heading, then their gullibility must be greater or their perspicacity smaller than most people's.

(2). Cartwheeling.—To a simple question, a simple answer—Yes! Logic is our strong point.

(3). Woodbine, etc.—Woodbine with 5ths when the treble is behind ceases to be Woodbine and becomes Neasden. Oxford with 5ths in a similar place becomes Sandal. Is Sandal better than Oxford? Should Oxford not then be rung? Oh, I had almost forgotten. The comparison is unfair. There is the small matter of irregular lead ends. But you already have my views on that subject.

(4). 6-5's at backstroke don't matter.—The phrase quoted by M. R. P. has been removed from its context, and as originally written: 'Here, with close leads, even 6-5's at backstroke don't matter . . . ' is not a matter of opinion but a plain statement of fact.

(5). I am not aware, nor do I find on re-reading, that my letter stated, or contained the suggestion, that 'The Central Council' consisted of a 'band of theoretical nobodies.' Nor can I find any sarcastic references to them in my letter. I have the greatest respect for the Central Council: I was, after all, once a member myself! What I said was that many of them have but 'an academic interest in the subject.' This, I am afraid, is still true. True, also, they can't compel anyone. But if they refuse to recognise Minor peals containing methods with irregular lead ends, this amounts to practically the same thing. No, I think that the Central Council should realise that in excluding these methods it is robbing Minor ringers of interesting and useful material and should, therefore, take steps necessary to remedy the injustice.

My list does not include M. R. P.!—Yours faithfully,

H. CHANT.

Wakefield.

P.S.—All good wishes to 'open leaders' and others for 1952.—H. C.

AN EXAMPLE FROM SHEPTON BEAUCHAMP

Dear Sir.—Although not wishing to uphold the attitude of non-church-attending ringers (I should think their consciences coupled with moral duty should tell them which is right), it is evident that the fault is not all theirs. Is sufficient encouragement with tact given from the other side?

Shepton Beauchamp Church has for many years had the fullest support from its ringers; each succeeding Rector has enjoyed their co-operation both inside and outside of the church and belfry, and I believe this is due in the main to the following reasons which have been in operation for many years. Two ringers are members of the Parochial Church Council, two are servers, several are members of the choir and all are regular churchgoers. If their attendance in church was missed, the Rector would say so tactfully, without an ultimatum. I think your correspondents would do well to ponder awhile and say 'Are they wholly to be blamed?'—Yours sincerely,

R. BEALE.

Shepton Beauchamp, Somerset.

SOUTHEND & DISTRICT GUILD

An encouraging first year was reported upon at the annual meeting of the Southend and District Guild held at St. Mary's, Prittlewell, on January 26th.

Ringing was brought to an abrupt end shortly before the service by the snapping of the rope of the third bell.

The service was marked by the dedication by the Vicar of a Credence Table, the gift of the ringers of St. Mary's, in appreciation of the Vicar's work in the parish.

After tea in the Guildhall, attended by 60 ringers and their wives, the Vicar thanked the ringers for their gift to him and said that during his 35 years at the church there had been other gifts made to him but what inevitably happened was that the donors told him that they were going to give him a gift and then immediately asked his wife what she would like. He thanked Mrs. B. Sadler who had presented an iced first-anniversary cake to the Guild, and also the ladies who had prepared the tea.

The president, Mr. F. B. Lufkin, who presided at the business meeting, apologised for any shortcomings there might be in the books, as the secretary had been taken to hospital, and Mr. Grimwade, the assistant secretary, had endeavoured to make a report and draw up the minutes of the last annual general meeting from what facts he could accumulate at little more than 24 hours' notice.

The assistant secretary presented the secretary's report which stated that during the last year there had been six ringing meetings—at South Benfleet, Downham, Leigh, Great Wakering and two at Rayleigh. There had been an average of 27 members at these meetings with the highest attendance at Downham, with 35 members. Two services had been held at South Benfleet and Great Wakering. The main object of the Guild was to help learners and the accent on the meetings consequently had always been on easier methods. The week's ringing holiday in Oxfordshire, Gloucestershire and Buckinghamshire had been a great success and 35 towers had been visited.

Mr. B. Sadler presented the treasurer's report which showed a balance of £2 2s.. This, he said, was mainly due to the fact that all the stationery had been presented to the Guild.

The president informed the meeting that Mr. Coombes, the secretary, was unable to stand for re-election owing to his bad health and Mr. Grimwade, the assistant secretary, was also unable to stand as he was due for National Service.

The following officers were elected:—President, Mr. F. B. Lufkin; Master, Mr. G. Blower; Assistant Master, Mr. B. Sadler; secretary, Mr. P. Sadler; assistant secretary, Mrs. C. Woodgate; treasurer, Mrs. B. Sadler. Mr. Oliver, of Downham, Mr. Sharman, of Thorpe Bay, and Mr. Sparrow, of South Benfleet, were elected to the committee as tower representatives.

The meeting closed after Mr. Sparrow had proposed a vote of thanks to all retiring officers in addition to the vicars and tower masters who had allowed the ringing meetings to be held at their churches. A social evening followed.

5,040 CAMBRIDGE MAXIMUS

Dear Sir,—Referring to 'Belfry Gossip' that the peal of 5,040 Cambridge Maximus at Macclesfield was the third with this number of changes, I wish to state this was the fourth. On April 12th, 1930, 5,040 New Cambridge Maximus was rung by having the first lead Primrose thereby bringing up the wrong and cutting out the preceding leads.

On November 30th, 1932, the same number was rung of Cambridge Maximus by making the 6th bob bell three times, cutting out 240 changes.

Both were rung at St. Mary-le-Tower's, Ipswich, conducted by Charles J. Sedgley and yours truly.

Ipswich.

GEORGE E. SYMONDS.

WHEN YOU MEET SHORT

The President's Suggestions

The following Foreword Mr. E. H. Lewis, president of the Central Council, appeared in the January issue of 'The Belfry,' the quarterly magazine of the Maidstone District of the Kent County Association.

Many years ago I knew a tower where practice was timed for eight o'clock. The ringers waited outside the tower and if, when the clock struck, there were not eight ringers present, there was no practice. Probably such a custom does not prevail to-day.

It is not always possible for a full band to be present at starting time and I would like to mention a few ways of filling in any time occupied in waiting for a full company. If handbells are available, as I think they should be in every tower, you can begin as soon as number two arrives. There are at least thirteen methods of getting the 24 changes on four bells, though only three of them without more than two blows in a place. They all make good practice for a beginner. As soon as number three arrives turn over to Doubles or Minor, and to Triples or Major when the fourth turns up. A start could also be made on tower bells. If it is an eight-bell tower instead of ringing the front four or the back four, very good practice in striking can be had by using treble, 4, 6, tenor. This, if properly struck, sounds very well outside the tower.

When the numbers reach five I would suggest that occasionally, for variety, Doubles be tried on the front five bells of six without the tenor. It is good for a beginner who can use his ears because the music in a minor key, while rather pleasing if well struck, is completely ruined by bad striking.

As soon as the sixth ringer appears a good practice can be had whatever the number of bells in the tower. Again for variety I would suggest in an eight-bell tower that Minor be sometimes rung on treble, 3, 4, 6, 7, tenor. At Frodsham we used to call this the 'Irish' six as the notes are the same as in 'Wearing of the Green.'

In ten-bell towers there is a good choice of the front six, the back six, or 3, 5, 6, 8, 9, tenor. Better still to learn how to hold up the trebles, and for musical effect ring Minor on treble, 2, 3, 6, 8, tenor.

All these hints on what may be done when 'meeting short' I have tried when teaching and found them useful.

I would like to congratulate those responsible for 'The Belfry' on their production and wish the paper a long continuation of its high standard.

EDWIN H. LEWIS.

WINCHESTER & PORTSMOUTH GUILD

Christchurch District

About 35 members assembled at Christchurch on January 26th for the annual meeting of the District. The Vicar of Christchurch, Canon R. P. Price, M.A., conducted the service held in the historic choir of the Priory and also presided at the business meeting. He was supported by his churchwardens and Mr. George Pullinger, Ringing Master of the Guild.

The hon. secretary presented his report on the year's activities and also a balance sheet which showed a slight increase in the balance in hand.

The following District officers were elected:—Chairman, Mr. David Reed (Ringwood); hon. secretary and treasurer, Mr. Arthur V. Davis (Bournemouth); Joint Ringing Masters, Mr. William E. Cheater (Ringwood) and Mr. Daniel T. Matkin (Bournemouth); representatives on committee, Mrs. F. J. Marshall (Bournemouth) and Mr. R. Marlow (Fordingbridge); hon. auditor, Mr. R. Hurst (Bournemouth).

It was proposed and carried unanimously that the South of England Ringers' Rally and George Williams Commemoration Dinner be held on May 3rd at Bournemouth. The following were elected to the committee to make the arrangements: Mrs. F. J. Marshall, Mr. F. Price, Mr. R. Hurst, Mr. D. T. Matkin and Mr. W. Whitworth with Canon R. P. Price, M.A., as chairman, and Mr. A. V. Davis hon. organising secretary.

Quarterly meetings for the year were arranged and it was decided to hold the next annual meeting before Christmas—December 13th, at Christchurch. After a vote of thanks had been passed, with acclamation, to the Vicar and churchwardens and to the lady organist, the meeting was adjourned.

Ringing took place on the Priory twelve bells in a variety of methods until 9 p.m.

The dinner committee met at Christchurch on January 30th and decided to hold the dinner at the Devonshire Hotel, Richmond Hill, Bournemouth.

COVENTRY DIOCESAN GUILD

Youth in Evidence at Nuneaton

The first quarterly meeting of the year was held at St. Nicholas', Nuneaton. 45 members from all parts of the area attending. A noted feature was the presence of youthful ringers at all stages, from round ringing to Spliced Surprise. The Vicar of Chilvers Coton (president of the Guild) joined the members for tea and the beginning of the business meeting but his commitments in his own parish curtailed his stay. The Master, Mr. F. W. Perrins, took the chair. Apologies were received from Mr. and Mrs. Hinde, Messrs. R. J. Edden (Stratford District secretary) and J. H. W. White.

The report of the committee meeting regarding the issue of handbooks instead of printed reports, to reduce cost, was adopted and the hon. secretary was asked to proceed with data for the handbooks and obtain quotations from printers to present at the annual meeting. The date of this was to be April 19th, and it was announced that an invitation had been received from the Mayor of Coventry to take tea with him in the Council House and to use the Council Chamber for the business meeting. Ringing would take place at Stoke and Allesley. New members elected were Miss Norma Hope and Mr. Donald Govan, both of the local tower.

Congratulations were extended to Mr. R. J. Edden, hon. secretary of the Warwick and Stratford District, together with his assistant, Miss H. Purkiss, both of Ladbroke, near Southam, for their great efforts in the Southam area on behalf of the Guild. What was once considered a dead area was now producing most encouraging results.

KENT COUNTY ASSOCIATION

Lewisham's 22 New Members

The Lewisham District's quarterly meeting was held at SS. Peter and Paul's, Bromley, in conditions eminently suitable to the season!

Seventy ringers and friends attended and the recently-installed octave from the Croydon foundry was much in use during the time available. Mr. H. Hoverd, Ringing Master, had an exacting task fitting in the many requests and the belfry was probably the busiest spot in busy Bromley that afternoon!

The service was held in the temporary church, the Vicar (the Rev. Murray Walton) officiating. The lesson (the 150th Psalm) was read by Mr. E. Barnett (Crayford) and Mrs. Mary Walker was at the organ. The Vicar's address was very much enjoyed; it was, indeed, what its subject matter concerned—a 'cheerful noise.' The proceeds of the collection were paid to the rebuilding fund for Bromley Church.

After tea, at which the Vicar presided, the business meeting was held in the church. Mr. P. A. Corby was elected to the chair. Twenty-two ringers, including 14 from SS. Peter and Paul's, were elected members of the Association, and the elections of two members previous to peals were ratified.

Mr. A. S. Richards (West Wickham) read an excellent report of proceedings at the committee meeting held at Maidstone on November 24th, prepared by the reader and Mr. J. Dafters (Lewisham).

An invitation from the Rector of West Wickham to hold the next meeting at his church on April 26th was gratefully accepted.

It was agreed to hold the annual joint meeting with the N.W. District of the Surrey Association at Eynesford on October 11th, when it was hoped the attendance would demonstrate conclusively that there was a demand for these combined meetings.

Votes of thanks were accorded the organisers of the social meeting held at Christ Church, Erith, last December, and it was decided to hold one at the same place on December 6th this year.

Mr. J. Dafters urged that members should support much more fully the various activities of the District during the coming years.

The chairman moved a cordial vote of thanks to the Vicar, the organist, the verger, Mr. I. Emery and Mr. P. Spice for all they had done to ensure such a successful meeting, and extended a warm welcome from the Association to the newly-formed bands at Bromley and Chelsfield. This was carried with enthusiasm. Further ringing in the tower followed.

BEDFORDSHIRE ASSOCIATION

Presentation to Mr. C. J. Ball

The annual meeting of the Biggleswade District was held at Biggleswade on January 12th and 48 ringers sat down to a good tea provided and served by the wives of the local ringers.

At the business meeting the secretary (Mr. C. J. Ball) gave his report on the year's working which was satisfactory both on the ringing and financial side. He announced he was not seeking re-election owing to ill-health and was sorry to retire after 30 years as secretary of the Biggleswade District which was in a stronger position now than it was 30 years ago.

Miss E. Steel, of Bedford, spoke in appreciation of the work Mr. Ball had done for the Biggleswade District and hoped she would meet him at many more meetings.

Mr. C. J. Ball was presented with a chiming clock, suitably inscribed, by Mr. W. Wagstaffe, one of the oldest ringers of the District.

Mr. L. H. Bywaters was elected secretary; Mr. C. H. Harding chairman; committee—Messrs. C. J. Smith, M. Lockey, A. W. Dilley and C. Main. Mr. C. H. Harding proposed a vote of thanks to the ladies for an excellent tea, and to the Vicar for the use of the bells.

Ringing during the afternoon and evening ranged from rounds to Surprise Major.

THE YORKSHIRE ASSOCIATION

Sheffield's Warm Welcome

A very successful general meeting of the Association was held at Sheffield on January 19th, when by kind consent of the respective authorities, the Cathedral bells (12) and St. Marie's R.C. (8) were at the disposal of the members.

The committee meeting was followed by an excellent tea served in the Wolstenholme Hall.

In the unavoidable absence of the president, the chair was taken by Mr. P. J. Johnson at the business meeting which followed. Apologies for absence were received from the president and Messrs. H. Walker, B. Sutton, R. B. Smith, H. S. Morley, A. E. Sellers, F. W. Dale, E. Hudson and T. W. Strangeway.

After the confirmation of the minutes a hearty vote of thanks was passed to the Provost of Sheffield and Cathedral Authorities for the use of the bells, coupled also with the authorities of St. Marie's R.C. Church. This was moved by Mr. F. Cardwell, seconded by Mr. F. A. Staveley. A similar vote of thanks to the local companies for making local arrangements and providing such an excellent tea was carried unanimously on the motion of Mr. N. Chaddock, seconded by Mr. D. Smith.

Mr. S. F. Palmer replied, saying that most of the work had been done by Mr. and Mrs. H. O. Chaddock, who had spared no effort to make the meeting a success.

Mr. Chaddock said that this was the first general meeting to be held at Sheffield for some years, and it had been a real pleasure to try and maintain the traditions associated with Sheffield and the Yorkshire Association.

The chairman announced that the committee had considered a kind invitation from Wakefield to hold the next meeting there, but felt that to accept would mean that two general meetings would thus take place successively in the same Division, which was contrary to Rule. The committee therefore recommended that the next meeting, which was the annual general meeting, be held at Bradford on Saturday, May 3rd, if the necessary arrangements could be made. Mr. D. Smith moved, and Mr. A. E. Marsh seconded, that the committee's recommendation be accepted, at the same time expressing appreciation and thanks to the Wakefield members for their kind invitation. This was carried.

OXFORD DIOCESAN GUILD

Sonning Deanery Branch

About 70 members with visitors from Reading attended the annual meeting at Wokingham on February 2nd. Ringing commenced on the bells of St. Paul's Church at 3 p.m., after which a service was held in the church conducted by the Rector, the sermon being preached by the Rev. W. F. Cornell, Rector of Easthampstead.

The annual business meeting followed tea, the Branch chairman, Archdeacon Shaw, presiding. The secretary, in his report, mentioned a successful year's work, with good attendance at meetings and with all towers well manned for Sunday ringing. Twelve peals had been rung in the Branch during the year, mostly by resident members, eight of whom had rung their first peal.

All the officers were re-elected for 1952 as were the representatives to the general committee. A most encouraging feature of the meeting was the formal election of 16 new members.

On the recommendation of the Branch Committee £5 was voted to the Guild Memorial to Canon G. F. Coleridge, at Oxford.

During a discussion on rising Guild finances a resolution from the Branch that the annual subscription be increased was carried. After arranging meetings for the coming year the meeting closed and all dispersed to All Saints' and St. Paul's Churches for ringing until 9 p.m.

The secretary read a letter from the tower secretary at Bridlington Priory intimating that a festival week was to be held in June to commemorate the 50th anniversary of the Priory bells, and asking if a preacher could be found to represent the Association. It was unanimously agreed to forward the letter to the president of the Association, who, unfortunately, was unable to be present at the meeting.

THE HON. TREASURERSHIP

The chairman announced that the committee had received with much regret the resignation of the hon. treasurer, Mr. S. F. Palmer, to take effect from the expiry of his triennial term of office at the annual general meeting. Mr. Palmer felt that, owing to advanced years, while he was still physically fit he could not foresee what might take place during another triennial period, and as it was against his principle to cling to office until something happened, he would prefer to hand over now to a younger man and be available with any advice or help he could give to his successor.

The chairman said that while Mr. Palmer, who had served the Association faithfully and well for many years, had regrets, equally so had the Association, and he hoped that Mr. Palmer would long be spared to come among them. At the appropriate place and time, a much fuller reference to Mr. Palmer's services to the Association would be made, but at that stage it was necessary to ask for nominations for the office which by Rule could be received, duly proposed and seconded, by the general secretary up to a month from the date of that meeting.

SNOWDON DINNER

The chairman reported that the committee had considered a kind offer from the York Minster Society to hold the Snowdon Dinner again at York, and had pleasure in recommending that the offer be accepted with thanks. It was unanimously decided to accept same, and in order to avoid a possible clash with other meetings, it was agreed that the Dinner take place at York on October 25th.

Miss Elizabeth Bate, of Handsworth, L. D. Holland and L. E. Bouan, of All Saints', Sheffield, Pauline M. Hall, of Horbury, and Stuart Carter, of Marsden, were elected members.

This concluded the business meeting, and an adjournment was then made to the two towers where further ringing was enjoyed.

DURHAM AND NEWCASTLE

A joint meeting of the Southern District and the Cleveland and North Yorkshire Association was held in Darlington on January 12th. The eight bells of St. Cuthbert's Church were available from 2.30 p.m. and after tea. St. John's eight bells were also available.

The meeting was very well attended and was the largest for some time at Darlington. This was mainly due to two reasons. One was the fact that it was a joint meeting and many ringers of the newly-formed Cleveland and North Yorkshire Association were present; the other being that it marked the retirement of Mr. J. T. Titt as secretary of the Southern District after 20 years in office.

Tea was kindly arranged by the wives of the local ringers in St. Cuthbert's Church Hall where about 40 ringers sat down to a very sumptuous meal.

Mr. W. N. Park proposed a vote of thanks to the Vicar, the Rev. G. E. Holderness, of St. Cuthbert's, for the use of the bells. Mr. Titt was then presented with a suitably engraved umbrella by the Rev. E. J. Simpson, Vicar of Holy Trinity, at which church Mr. Titt is a regular ringer. After a short business meeting presided over by Mr. T. Cooke, the District chairman, it was decided that the next meeting should be held on February 23rd at Hurworth-on-Tees.

OBITUARY

MR. ALFRED W. BRIGHTON

Mr. Alfred W. Brighton, whose death was announced in 'The Ringing World' of February 8th, will be remembered by his many friends all over the country for his sterling qualities as a ringer and conductor.

He was born 77 years ago in Norwich and learned to ring with Frederick Knights and other Norwich ringers of the St. Peter Mancroft Society, among whom were J. A. Trollope, J. E. Burton and C. E. Borrett.

Although not so well known by this generation, due to the fact he did little ringing from 1913 till 1946, he was a leading figure in the Exercise in the early years of the century and rang peals in many parts of the country. Despite being small of stature and light in weight, he would often be seen at the 'heavy end' and had few superiors in that department.

His total peals numbered 242, of which he conducted 50. Eleven of his peals were 'in hand,' most of which were rung with the Pye brothers at his residence in Forest Gate. He was at home on all numbers of bells. His peals ranged from Bob Minor to Stedman Cinques and were rung in 160 different towers in 27 counties. He was a member of the Ancient Society of College Youths as well as many other Associations.

He will be remembered most of all for his eagerness to help local bands wherever his business took him, no matter whether there were five or twelve bells. Two peals, which he conducted, and of which he was justly proud, were at Harrogate and Workington, both Kent Treble Bob Major, and in which no fewer than six and seven ringers respectively rang their first peal. Other highlights in which he took part were:—The first peal at Exeter Cathedral; first peal of Cinques by the Middlesex Association; first peal of Double Norwich in the City of London, which he conducted; first peal at the Imperial Institute, South Kensington, rung on the occasion of the Coronation of King Edward VIII. and that great peal of Stedman Caters at Exeter, when William Pye rang the tenor single-handed. It is worth mentioning here that when he rang his first peal of Stedman Cinques at Ipswich, he cycled from Norwich to Ipswich and back on a pennyfarthing bicycle. His last peal was one of Bob Major at Woodford, on December 10th, 1949, on his golden wedding day.

Owing to failing health during the last few months he was not able to get out at all but he continued to take a keen interest until the end.

The funeral took place at the City of London Cemetery on Monday, February 4th. In addition to family mourners, officers of the Essex and London County Associations and fellow-ringers of the Leytonstone band (of which Mr. Brighton was a member) were present. A course of Grandsire Triples was rung on handbells at the graveside by Messrs. J. H. Crampion, T. H. Taffender, R. W. Stannard and E. D. Smith.

And so another great figure in our calling passes on, and we are the poorer for his passing. We shall miss his wise counsel and genial personality. May he rest in peace. J. W. C.

MR. CHARLES LITTLEWOOD

The Melton Mowbray District has lost one of its veteran ringers by the passing of Mr. Charles Littlewood, of Kirby-Bellars. He was within a few days of his 89th birthday.

Mr. Littlewood was born at Kirby where his father was parish clerk and sexton. He learned to handle a bell when quite a lad. A foundation member of the Goscoat Society of Change Ringers, which will celebrate the 70th anniversary of its foundation this year. Mr. Littlewood retained his interest in ringing throughout his life.

On the day of the funeral, February 5th, five of his friends, all members of the Goscoat Society, rang a half-muffled peal to his memory at Kirby-Bellars.

MR. L. J. HINDE

The Coventry Diocesan Guild has lost one of its most loyal members by the death of Mr. Lovelace John Hinde, of Bulkington, at the age of 77 years. He was a native of Brinklow, but had lived in Bulkington since 1913.

For 37 years he was foreman platelayer on the L.M.S. railway, retiring in 1939. He was clerk, verger, chorister and bellringer at the Parish Church of St. James for a number of years. He was connected with the St. John Ambulance Brigade and the Coventry Hospital Saturday Fund. He was a former scoutmaster and, during the war, a Civil Defence warden. Mr. Hinde rang one peal, at the age of 61, the tenor to a peal of Grandsire Doubles, at Bulkington, on March 7th, 1936, when six bells hung in the tower, but was instrumental in obtaining two more bells to complete the octave in 1949.

A number of fellow Guild members attended the funeral on January 30th, the following ringing a course of Grandsire Triples over the grave:—Mrs. D. E. Beamish (Guild general secretary) 1-2, L. Trevor 3-4, E. Sibley 5-6, H. E. Ashley 7-8. A half-muffled peal of Grandsire Triples was rung on the tower bells later in the day, as reported in the peal columns.

MR. HARRY F. DAWKINS

The death occurred on February 3rd of Mr. Harry Frederick Dawkins at Brentwood Mental Hospital at the age of 76 years. He had been a patient there since May, 1940, following a nervous breakdown.

Mr. Dawkins was a regular Sunday service ringer at St. Edward's Church, Romford, for 40 years and rang many peals there with the Pye brothers. He rang his 100th peal on March 19th, 1914, and since then he had kept no records. Always of a very cheerful disposition, he was ever ready to help his fellow men and he was beloved by all with whom he came in contact. He never said a bad word about anyone and was always eager to help a first-pealer. The writer has many recollections of him during the last 44 years. May he rest in peace.

A. B. W.

Mr. Dawkins' peals:—Grandsire Triples 5 (cond. 1, handbells 2); Stedman Triples 22 (cond. 1, handbells 4); Stedman Caters 6 (handbells 4); Bob Major 1; Double Norwich 7; Treble Bob Major 3.

Cambridge Surprise Major 5; Superlative Surprise Major 13; London Surprise Major 24; Bristol Surprise Major 14.

Total: 100.

NORWICH DIOCESAN ASSOCIATION

North Norfolk Branch

The annual meeting of the branch was held at Hethersett on January 19th, and some 50 members and friends attended.

The Rector, the Rev. R. G. Heawood, conducted the service, the lesson being read by Mr. F. Nolan Golden (Ringing Master); Mrs. Alborough was at the organ.

At the business meeting, which followed tea, the Rector was voted to the chair in the absence of the branch chairman (the Rev. E. W. Blyth). Three new members were elected and Buxton was selected for the next meeting. The branch secretary proposed a vote of thanks to the Rector of Hethersett for the use of the bells, the organist and Mr. Lofty, who arranged the meeting.

SHREWSBURY, SALOP.—At St. Chad's, on Jan. 30th, 1260 Stedman Triples 'on the back eight': C. Golding 1, C. Lee 2, G. L. Hewitt 3, F. H. Bennett 4, W. G. Jones 5, L. G. Beddow (first quarter as cond.) 6, C. A. Barron 7, E. F. Willcox 8. Rung half-muffled as a token of respect for Preb. A. E. Lawson, D.D., Vicar of St. Michael's (and Rural Dean of Shrewsbury), who passed away the previous evening.
