THE MOTIF

THE annual reports of the Kent County Association, since Mr. G. H. Spice has been honorary secretary, have always been something more than a catalogue of events. The prelude to Mr. Spice's report delivered at Canterbury on Easter Monday was again a useful contribution to ringing literature. His observations were as follows :

'Once again it is my privilege to report on the work of our Association, and by tradition to preface factual matter with thoughts of a more abstract nature. My theme last year was the teaching mission of all ringers, and the challenge which comes to us as individuals of passing on to a younger generation that love of bells which has been our own inspiration. This year let us think of ourselves as an Association, and endeavour to discern a motif for our corporate effort.

'With what thrill we come to Canterbury, its glorious cathedral telling of the richness of our Christian heritage. Here is no mere fossilisation of the past, but the pulsating heart of a world-wide Communion, sharing a common allegiance with generations of men and women through the centuries, yet always going forward with new vision and creative energy.

'"Who's that old fossil?" is a question thrown out about some elderly person rather old-fashioned in dress or manner, but the true answer would probably be enlightening and very different from the one implied. Outward appearances can indeed be quite misleading, and their fixation into ceremonial is really a means of preventing them from obscuring the inner view. We must ourselves be careful to distinguish these two levels of vision when looking at our Association. On the outside are our rules, our organisation, our meetings, our varied activities, all of which have crystallised out of past experience, and which proceed along with a momentum almost of their own. On the inside is our real motive power, the faith which gave us birth, the love which sustains us, and the loyalty which guides our way.

'Only a few days ago a very great and gracious lady passed from our midst. She was born in 1867, thirteen years before the foundation of the Kent County Association, yet at the age of 85 she possessed a freshness of outlook which is an example to us. Many thousands of words have been written of her, and spoken of her, but Queen Mary's faith in new ideas of art and culture, industry and home, was the quality which shone out. Yet this was not at the expense of the rejection of the old, but was a realisation that only by an inward freshness of meaning could the outer pageantry be preserved. So with our Association, for even in only 73 years it has forged traditions worthy of preservation, but only for so long as its heart is young, and its innermost scene damp with the morning dew.

'So, too, with our Exercise at large; so, too, with our nation. And in this Coronation year of 1953, when the bells everywhere will ring wildly forth to honour the crowning of our young Queen Elizabeth, we shall do well to remember that God's plan insists on an inward faith making the fullest demands on the talents with which He has endowed us. That surely is the motif for our corporate effort in the Association, the idea of an abiding enterprise of outlook embodied in a sustained loyalty.

'Translated unto the terms of every day, what does this really involve? Simply that we should foster the creative impulse, should recognise the value of new thinking about our art, and should expect to witness the rise and fall of our own generation as the main originators. Then, as the sparks of enthusiasm seem to fly from younger and still younger exponents, let us bask in the sunshine of our traditions knowing the future of the Association to be in the safe keeping of guardians determined that its brightness shall not dim.

'It is in this light that we begin to appreciate the past achievements of our Association. But wisely we do not seek their origin in the printed reports, or the minute books, or even in the code of rules, but in the years of devoted and enterprising service of individual members who number many. To-day, however, we shall think of one member in particular, one who not only has been the inspiration of his own ringing chamber for very many years, but for a quarter of a century has held the highest offices of the Association. To Frederick M. Mitchell I proudly dedicate this report.'

GILLETT

AND

LIMITED

No matter in which corner of the country you happen to be, as likely as not you will come across Gillett & Johnston bells or tower clocks. Gillett & Johnston craftsmanship is embodied in an all-embracing service—as much in the preservation and restoration of old rings of antiquarian interest as in the installation of new.

THE NEW QUARTER

We are still enrolling new postal subscribers for this quarter. Subscriptions to Mr. J. E.
Jeater, c/o Mrs. Peters, The Square, St.
Keverne, Cornwall. Rates: Quarterly 6s., half-yearly 11s. 8d., yearly £1 2s. 6d.

Mr. Harry Lofthouse is retiring from the post of hon.
secretary and treasurer to the Leeds and District Amalgamated Society of Change Ringers, a post he has held for 30 years.
We shall miss his regular contributions to our columns.

Six children, aged 11½ years, 11 years, 10½
years, 10 years (two) and 9½ years, ring Radley
Church bells for Catechism each Sunday.

We regret to hear of the passing of Mr. G.
Stacey, of Minehead, on March 28th. A quarter peal to his memory was rung at Dunster on March 29th.

With reference to the touch of 120 Stedman
Triples on page 235 our correspondent repeated the row 1532764 S in which Queen's appears.
Will conductors please amend their copies. We thank readers who called attention to the error.

The Rev. J. V. Pixell, Vicar of Radley, is seriously ill in hospital. The band which rang a peal on the Radley bells on Easter Monday wish to associate his name with the peal. Mr.
Pixell stood in at a previous attempt.

Regarding the figures of a peal of 13,280
Cambridge Surprise Major, a correspondent writes: 'If the introduction of singles is to be allowed, as suggested by Mr. Speed, the whole foundation of the C.C.C. and its principles go "flop." A 5,000 is as much as is required for the purpose of proficiency in any method.'

Mr. Roger O. Fry, of 5, Morford Road, Bath, is the new secretary of the Bath and Wells
Diocesan Association; Mr. Leslie W. Pullin,
Clevedon, hon treasurer; and Mr. H. J. Sanger, Evercrech, peal secretary. The Association presented a handsome pipe, tobacco and a cheque for £35 to the retiring secretary, Mr. J. T. Dyke.
We hope to publish a report of the meeting in our next issue.

BELFRY GOSSIP

On Easter Sunday the bells
of St. Botolph's, Aldgate,
London, E., were rung to a quarter peal of Stedman Triples. The bells had not been rung for about 20 years previously,

and there were two ringers on the 28-cwt. tenor.
The band was A. A. Hughes 1, W. Williams 2,
T. G. Fox 3, D. G. Clift 4, J. Hill 5, J. A.
Crampton 6, F. E. Collins (conductor) 7, J. S.
Mason and M. V. Chilcott 8.

The 11th bell at St. John-the-Baptist's, Cirencester, is now back from the foundry and in good going order. Sunday ringing is at 5.30 p.m. and all visitors are welcome.

We are informed that at the meeting of the Swansea and Brecon Guild at Aberavon on March 7th the tea was supplied by the ringers of St. Mary's Church, Aberavon, and not as stated on page 188.

The first peal on the restored ring at Radley was of interest to Commander R. G. Cross, R.N., who, during one leave, helped to teach four of the ringers to handle a bell, thus forming the nucleus of the present band.

Members of the Wyggeston School Campano-logical Society, after a very successful term's ringing, would like to express their sincere thanks to Mr. Peter C. Wright for his help and support during his short stay as a student master. Three peals of Plain Bob Major have been rung, two of the members of the Society ringing their first peals.

On April 4th, at the wedding of his granddaughter, Miss Myrtle Ridout, to Mr. Geoffrey House, at Hazelbury Bryan, Dorset, Mr. Frank Ridout and his five sons rang 120 changes each of Grandsire, Bob Doubles and Reverse Canterbury Pleasure. They all belong to the Okeford Fitzpaine team. Mr. Ridout has been a ringer at this North Dorset tower for over 62 years.

NORWICH DIOCESAN ASSOCIATION

Panel of Instructors Desired

The annual general meeting was held in Norwich on Easter Monday. The bells of Mancroft, St. George Colegate, St. Giles', St. Miles' and St. John de Sepulchre (but not St. Andrew's owing to dust on the ringing chamber floor) were open during the day. The Rev. H. Lillingston, Rector of Marsham, preached at the annual service at Mancroft.

The business meeting was held after lunch in Mancroft Parish Hall. At this the Rev. A. St. J. Heard (absent through illness) was unanimously re-elected president, the Rev. A. G. G. Thurlow general secretary and treasurer, Mr. Nolan Golden Ringing Master, the vice-presidents were re-elected with the addition of Bishop Belcher, Vicar of Diss, and Mr. George Fletcher was re-elected hon. auditor.

Presenting the accounts, Mr. Fletcher noted that too many subscriptions remained unpaid from last year, and a searching appeal is made to all to pay up and do their share of supporting the Association.

The 1952 annual report was stated to be nearly ready. The general secretary said they were to receive a bequest of £50 from the late Herbert Morley. It was agreed to pay this handsome bequest into the Belfry Repair Fund.

The revision of the Association's rules, as recently carried out by the Standing Committee, was passed, except that the date of the annual general meeting is to be described as 'determined by the Standing Committee,' as it is felt that a better attendance may be secured by having it on a Saturday, perhaps the last Saturday in April, in future, instead of on Easter Monday.

Warm tributes were paid to Mr. J. G. W. Harwood, who has resigned after 21 years as secretary of the East Norfolk Branch, and encouragement was offered to Mr. Peter Newstead, his successor. The meeting stood in silence in honour of Mr. William J. Eldred, hon. secretary of the West Norfolk Branch, who had recently passed away.

The Rev. H. Lillingston asked if the Association could organise more instruction for beginners in outlying towers. The general secretary said a panel of instructors was very necessary and any who would form such a panel would be most welcome. He added that in certain conditions the local education authority would sponsor a scheme for an instructor to give a course where desired.

Thanks were given to Canon Waddington and the other local clergy for the use of their bells, Mr. Coleman for playing at Mancroft, Mr. Lillingston for preaching, and the vergers for his help.

BRISTOL CITY BRANCH'S DINNER

The fourth annual dinner of the Bristol City Branch of the Gloucester and Bristol Diocesan Association was held on March 4th at Redcliffe Community Centre, Bristol. Nearly 80 ringers and friends attended including visitors from the Bristol Rural and Swindon Branches of the Association, the Bristol University Society and the Bath and Wells Diocesan Association.

Immediately following the dinner the loyal toast was drunk. The chairman, Mr. F. G. Leaker, then proposed the toast of 'The Church,' in which he emphasised the ringers' duty to both Church and clergy and expressed his gratification at the co-operation he had received from incumbents throughout the City during the past year.

In replying, the Rev. T. P. Tindall, M.A., referred to the spiritual uplift ringing brought about among the public, particularly to the aged and infirm, to whom the bells were a message of hope and faith in resurrection. He hoped ringers would, by means of their art, assist many to declare their loyalty to our Church and Queen this Coronation year.

Mr. S. S. Woodburn, from Bath, gave the toast of 'The Bristol City Branch,' and conveyed the very good wishes of his friends there. He commended the Branch officials on their work at the St. John's Ringing School in persevering with the teaching of learners.

Mr. E. F. Hancock replied and, on behalf of the Branch, accepted Mr. Woodburn's good wishes.

The Branch secretary, Mr. A. Bennett, welcomed the visitors in giving the toast of 'Ringing Friends' and in the final speech of the evening. Mr. L. Derrick, from Nailsea, replied, recalling his earlier visits to the city some years ago and the welcome he was given. He was pleased to find the welcome still there when he was able to visit some of the city towers.

During the course of the evening entertainment was given with change ringing and tune ringing on handbells, and 'The Music Makers Ladies' Choir,' who concluded the evening's programme. P. P. A. B.

MISS MURIEL REAY'S 200 PEALS

Miss A. Muriel Reay includes 26 Surprise Major methods in her list of 200 peals and 25 peals of Stedman Cinques. She rang her first peal in Lancashire in June, 1948, and her second with Mr. G. E. Fearn's band in Birmingham a week later. Most of her peals of Surprise have been rung with the Birmingham band, many of them without previous practice. Miss Reay feels that the credit for her Surprise peals must go to the Birmingham ringers rather than to herself. Without such capable and experienced ringers she would not have had such a list. Details are appended:—

Doubles.—Grandsire 1, Two methods 1.

Minor.—Plain Bob 5. Three methods 2, Four methods 1, Cambridge Surprise 2.

Triples.—Grandsire 12, Stedman 5, Plain Bob 1.

Major.—Double Norwich 15, Plain Bob 8, Kent Treble Bob 2, Oxford Treble Bob 1, Kent and Oxford Treble Bob 1, Little Bob 1.

Maximus.—Cambridge Surprise 4.

Total.—200.

MORE CORRESPONDENCE FROM AMERICA

The letter from Mr. E. A. Barnett, which appeared in 'The New Yorker' of February 28th, to which we referred a few weeks ago, has brought him several more interesting letters, in one of which Mrs. T. Grantmyre, writing from Nova Scotia, mentioned that her uncle, Robert Duckworth, who is now in his 76th year, was a ringer at Deane, Lancs, before going to Canada in 1911. Among the peals in which he took part was a 12,000 of Kent Treble Bob at Deane on June 4th, 1908.

Father Charles Keenan, S.J., of New York, Managing Editor of 'America,' a Roman Catholic weekly review, asked to see a copy of 'The Ringing World.' Mr. C. McK. Lewis, also of New York, inquired for 'some publication or source from which I could get a more detailed explanation of just what this change ringing really is and just how it is carried out.' Mr. Gerald Marion, of Fort Wayne, Indiana, also asked for a copy of 'The Ringing World,' and details of subscription rates, as did Mrs. Grantmyre.

From the University of Chicago, Mr. A. L. Putnam wrote that 'along with many other Americans, I acquired a taste for change ringing from Dorothy Sayers' "Nine Tailors," to which Mr. Marion also referred, while, like Mrs. L. R. Wells, of Evanston, twelve miles from Chicago, he asked where, in Chicago, bells were hung for ringing. According to the 'Bellringer's Guide' this is in the University itself, but evidently they are not used for the purpose.

Mr. Brian Price has kindly sent a copy of the articles on ringing machines which he contributed to this paper during 1950, to be lent to Mr. J. Kiefer, of Cornell University, who, it will be recalled, is engaged with a colleague in constructing a machine of this nature.

LLANDAFF & MONMOUTH DIOCESAN ASSOCIATION

Annual Meeting Approves of Division Into Districts

ABOUT 70 members and friends attended the annual meeting at Cardiff on Easter Monday. At 1.30 the bells were set going by early arrivals. The Master (Miss Jacqueline Evans) was in charge of the ringing arrangements and saw to it that everyone had a chance of a pull.

Owing to the heavy agenda the service was brought forward one hour in order to give more time for the business. In the unavoidable absence of the Vicar (Canon T. M. Hughes) the service was taken by the curate (the Rev. J. Lewis), who extended a hearty welcome to the visitors.

The visitors were afterwards invited to St. James' Guildhall where tea which had been generously and amply provided by Mrs. Lewis and her lady helpers was awaiting them. On the proposition of the Rev. I. J. Richards the ladies were duly thanked.

The Rev. J. Lewis took the chair at the business meeting which followed. Before the minutes were read members were asked to stand in silence for a few moments in memory of Mr. Fred Way, of Porthkerry, and Mr. Sam Jones, of Caerleon, who had recently passed away.

The balance sheet showed a healthy financial position. There was a balance on the year's working of £7 19s. 9d. and total cash in hand of £72 16s. 9d. The treasurer asked permission to cash savings certificates which were in the name of a previous treasurer, and to re-invest them in the Post Office Savings Bank. It was decided this should be done and the amount increased to £50.

The secretary (Mr. F. J. Hannington) gave a short report on the year's working reporting that 31 peals were rung during 1952. There were 276 fully paid up members and 42 towers in affiliation.

DIOCESAN DISTRICTS

Next came the recommendations of the special committee which was appointed at the last annual meeting to draw up suggestions for the division of the Association into Districts. These were presented by the Master and it was decided to accept the committee's proposal that there be two Branches, one to be known as the Llandaff Branch and the other the Monmouth Branch, each to be coterminous with its own diocese.

The same committee put forward proposals for the revision of the rules, which, after a good deal of debate, were, with slight amendments, accepted by the meeting. One alteration in the new rules is a change in the title—Church Bell Ringers being substituted for Change Ringers. The full title is now 'The Llandaff and Monmouth Diocesan Association of Church Bell Ringers.' The committee were thanked for their services.

Officers elected were:—Master, Mr. Robert E. Coles; secretary, Mr. F. J. Hannington (re-elected); auditors, Messrs. T. M. Roderick and R. H. Addis.

Progress was reported from Bedwellty tower by Mr. Ryan Price, where the young band are now ringing Bob Triples.

Mr. L. H. Jones said he is going to Llangatloc to instruct a new band there. Mr. R. Lucas said it was hoped to form a new band at Peterstone Wentloog. Progress was also reported from the new band at Radvr.

MONMOUTH BELLS READY FOR CORONATION

Restorations was the next item and Mr. L. H. Jones reported that Monmouth bells would be ready for the Coronation. The secretary reported that Llandaff bells had been rehung but it would probably be some time before they were dedicated because the Dean wanted the whole of the work dedicated together. Caerleon bells, which had been recast and rehung, were to be dedicated on Whit Sunday. Coity bells, which have been rehung, are ready but there is some roof work to be done before they are rededicated. It was proposed to hold the next annual meeting at St. Woolos', Newport.

The Association badge was next considered. Miss Jacqueline Evans submitted three designs she had obtained from the makers. One, a bell in blue enamel with the name of the Association in silver lettering inscribed on it, was chosen. It was decided to purchase 100 studs and 50 brooches.

The secretary was asked to write a letter of congratulation to the Vicar of All Saints', Newport, on being made Archdeacon of Newport, and also a letter of greeting to Mr. J. W. Jones, who was unable to attend owing to illness. The Rev. I. J. Richards moved a hearty vote of thanks to the Rev. J. Lewis for taking the chair and so ably conducting the meeting.

The meeting then split up, the Monmouth people to one room and the Llandaff people to another, to choose their own Branch officers and arrange their first meetings. Miss Jacqueline Evans was elected Branch secretary, and Mr. A. Ryan Price Master of the Monmouth Branch, and Mr. R. E. Coles secretary and Mr. A. J. Pitman Master of the Llandaff Branch. The first Branch meetings were proposed to be held at Abergavenny and Cadoxton Neath. Thus ended a very successful and enjoyable meeting.

THE BELLS OF WEYBRIDGE

The Church of St. James, Weybridge, Surrey, was dedicated in 1848, after erection on the site of a much older church. The tower contains a ring of eight, tenor 12 cwt. 1 qr. 2 lb., cast by Mears and Stainbank in 1875, but owing to the situation of tower, much sound descends to shops and houses nearby which curtails the ringing of lengthy touches.

The spire has outlets for the sound to ascend over the tops of buildings in the vicinity, but the louvres are too open and a nice-toned octave is not heard at its best in the near neighbourhood.

The entrance to the tower is via one of the pews at the west end, and after seeing a well-kept church one is not greatly impressed with the ringing chamber, a place seldom open to the Diocesan Guild or County Association. Very few peals or quarter peals have been rung on these bells, and they need rehanging after 78 years' service in the tower.

Weybridge had 'ij bells in the steeple and a sauns bell' in 1552, and prior to 1875 three bells of different dates, all from the White-chapel foundry, formed a ring of three as follows: Robert Mot 1597, Thos. Mears 1798, and William Carter 1614. There appears to be no record when the bells were increased from two to three, but it is recorded in the 1623 accounts: 'Pd for drinke for the Ringers upon the Prince came out of Spain and at other tymes £00 02s. 08d.' This refers to the return of Charles I., then Prince of Wales, after his journey to Spain in search of a princess.

November 5th was observed in many towers by paid ringing, and Weybridge seemed no exception judging by an entry in 1667, which tells us: 'Item given to the ringers one gunpowder treson day 1s. 0d.'

Thirty years later, in 1697, is recorded: 'Sept ye 16 gave ye ringers for Joy of pees £00 04s. 00d.' This event was the peace signed at Ryswick, which ended the war between Great Britain and her several allies against France.

For many years very little method ringing has taken place here, and it is a matter of regret that none of the ringers will join the Diocesan Guild or the County Association, both of which operate in nearby towers. Sunday service ringing is irregular here on account of insufficient ringers, and the bells are seldom rung on practice nights.

WILLIAM SHEPHERD.

LEEDS AND DISTRICT SOCIETY Mr. Lofthouse Retiring After 30 Years as Secretary

The March meeting was held at Christ Church, Armley. Ringing started at the advertised time and was enjoyed until the break for tea at 5 p.m. Tea was served in the Parochial Hall and the business meeting was held in the same room. Mr. T. W. Strangeway (vice-president) presided, and members were present from Armley, Bramley, Drighlington, Giseley, Headingley (St. Michael's), Leeds Parish Church, Ossett, Otley, Pudsey, Rothwell, Thorner, Woodlesford, Collingham and Doncaster.

The vote of thanks to the Vicar, churchwardens and local company was proposed by Mr. J. Gibson and seconded by Mr. L. Drake. Mr. Lofthouse replied for the Vicar, wardens, local company and the ladies for service at the tea tables, and promised to see all the individuals concerned and pass on the Society's thanks.

The next meeting is to be held at Leeds Parish Church on April 25th. The local company have arranged a tea (cooked meal), price 3s. 6d. per head, for all who notify their intention to be present to Mr. I. Slack, 25, Hollin Park Terrace, Leeds 8, by April 22nd.

The following nominations for next year's officers were received: President, Mr. T. W. Strangeway; vice-presidents (three required), Messrs. S. H. Barron, L. Drake, W. Dixon, H. Lofthouse and J. Gibson; Ringing Master, Mr. L. Drake; secretary and treasurer, Mr. I. Slack; auditors, Miss M. Rhodes and Mr. J. Roberts; trustees, Mr. H. Lofthouse and Mr. J. Gibson.

Mr. J. Gibson proposed and Mr. J. Roberts seconded a vote of thanks to Mr. Lofthouse for his services during the past 30 years as secretary-treasurer. This was supported by Mr. T. W. Strangeway and Mr. L. Drake.

On return to the tower the bells were kept ringing until 8.30 p.m.

EASTER MONDAY IN CORNWALL

On Easter Monday, despite the almost wintry weather, about a dozen ringers from Cornwall, Devon and Dorset had an extremely pleasant outing amongst the six-bell towers of S.E. Cornwall. The party met at Menheniot, where the Rev. E. M. Thomas, himself a ringer, welcomed them and also stood in for a touch. The organiser was severely reprimanded for his unavoidably late arrival, but all enjoyed this lovely ring of bells (tenor 11½ cwt.). Will any change ringers within reasonable distance please note that the Vicar is keen to start a 'scientific' band and would be grateful for offers of assistance in doing so.

Leaving here, Mr. Wilf Panter assumed the role of guide and after taking the party on a conducted tour over a reliability trials course brought them safely to Pillaton (tenor 12 cwt.). After three-quarters of an hour's ringing and an alfresco lunch a move was made to St. Mellion (tenor 7 cwt.), where further ringing was enjoyed. Landulph Church, the next stop, is close to the River Tamar and was found to have lovely bells with a tenor of 10½ cwt., and an hour's ringing here was much appreciated. After a sumptuous tea at the Cecil Arms, St. Stephen's-by-Saltash (kindly arranged by the Vicar) a move was made to the tower opposite. Here it was found that the best wine had been kept for the last and no one really wanted to leave these fine bells (tenor 15½ cwt.) and over an hour's ringing passed far too quickly before the goodbyes and dispersal for the long trips home.

During the day five Doubles and two Minor methods were rung but the chief objective was good striking and this was, on the whole, achieved. Best thanks are due to all incumbents for permission readily given and to those locals and the two Vicars who met the band and extended such warm welcomes.

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR

ARCHDEACONRY OF HALIFAX GUILD

Dear Sir.—The formation of the Archdeaconry of Halifax Guild should be welcomed as a step in the right direction. The idea of a ringing guild working within the same boundaries as an Archdeaconry is something new in Yorkshire, and its name more closely allies its work to that of the Church. Furthermore, the object of the Guild, 'To encourage the art of change ringing in the service of the Church,' is worthy of notice and certainly reads much better than do the objects of many older guilds, e.g., 'To promote belfry reform and the recognition of bell-ringers as church-workers.' 'Belfry reform,' whatever it may mean, is outdated and ringers are now regarded as good church-workers by all right thinking people.

Since the last war several district societies have been formed in Yorkshire to meet a need not provided for in the organisation of the County Association. The many district organisations are not affiliated and hold no allegiance to the Yorkshire Association, but all work for the betterment of ringing in their respective spheres of influence and so, ultimately, for the good of the Yorkshire Association. Indeed, I think it is true to say the district societies are the backbone of the Yorkshire Association.

If the position in Yorkshire is examined a little closely it will be seen the areas covered by several of the district societies conform, more or less, to archidiaconal boundaries. Thus:—

Cleveland & North Yorkshire, Archdeaconry of Cleveland.
Beverley and District, Archdeaconry of the East Riding.
Selby and District, Archdeaconry of York.
Doncaster and District, Archdeaconry of Doncaster.
Sheffield and District, Archdeaconry of Sheffield.

An amalgamation or affiliation of the first three may result in the formation of a diocesan organisation (York), and as the Doncaster and Sheffield Societies cover the Diocese of Sheffield it will be seen the Halifax people, intentionally it is to be hoped, have started something and given a lot of food for thought in Yorkshire. The seed has been sown. Will it grow, by a process of evolution, into a Yorkshire Association of Diocesan Guilds?—Yours faithfully,

HAROLD WALKER.

Clifton, York.

THE OLD BELLS OF CHOBHAM

Dear Sir.—W. Shepherd is wrong when he says Chobhamers do not desire the tone of their bells improved. Much has been done to beautify the old church in the last five years, much, including the bells, remains to be done. In any case would a recast be justified in view of their historic value? They are not nearly so bad as he implies.

Further, in my opinion, it is the 1892 bells which are bad! There has been no clock bell in the tower for many years, the clock uses the ringing bells.

I have returned to Chobham recently after two and a half years at Farnham and hope to start a team of change ringers shortly. The present ringers use cards, but most are old and have no desire to learn anything else. My hope is to train a team, while not interfering with the old team's service ringing till they can no longer muster enough. Some of them have been ringing over 50 years at the tower and their numbers are rapidly dwindling.

I hope W. S. will visit us one day to bring his information up to date.—Yours faithfully,

ROY COLLINS.

BOB MAJOR WITH THE TENORS PARTED

Dear Sir,—It is gratifying to know that I am not alone in my opinion that Bob Major with the tenors parted produces some very fine music. (Letter: W. J. G. Brown, Ipswich. 'Ringing World,' March 27th, 1953, page 203).

Whilst realising that to part the tenors for so long a period, 20 courses out of the 42, is highly unconventional, I do feel that to depart from convention occasionally is very advantageous in that, in this case, new music, equally as good, is produced and also one is awakened from a sound sleep by the fact that the invariable coursing order, 8-7, is broken. Had we been 'weened' with the tenors parted would it not be unconventional to keep them together in so many of our compositions?

I agree with Mr. Brown that having the tenors reversed for two leads reduces the musical value of the composition but feel that this is a very minor point in view of the music that follows. In any case, this is only a means to an end and not an end in itself, and may we overlook this discrepancy as it is of such short duration? Had a similar occurrence taken place at any of the W's in the composition the waste paper basket would certainly be the place for it. An illustration of this occurs in the following 384 Bob Major:—

234567	W	5	In	M
526374	—	x	1	—
357246	—	x	1	—
234567	—	x	1	—

In conclusion, perhaps the following 5,056 Bob Major, by myself, would prove of interest to those who are not averse to ringing with the tenors separated:—

234567	W	5	4	B	In	M	R
237546	—	—	—	—	1	4	3
527346	—	—	—	—	—	—	3
357246	—	—	—	—	—	—	3
632547	—	x	—	—	—	1	3
532467	—	—	—	—	1	—	3
432657	—	—	—	—	1	—	3
523647	—	—	—	—	3	—	—
235647	—	x	—	—	—	—	—
324567	—	—	—	2	—	—	S

Repeated

This composition gains where the 5,024 loses, in that the tenors are not reversed. On the whole, though, I feel that each is worthy of as much merit as the other.

I would like to write privately to Mr. W. J. G. Brown, if he would kindly let me have his address.—Yours sincerely,

FRANK C. W. KNIGHT.

'PROFESSOR OF CAMPANOLOGY' AT RUGBY

Dear Sir.—The account of the unique performance of a 'Professor of Campanology' given by W. S. in 'The Ringing World' of March 20th was interesting and rather intriguing. The bells at Rugby at that time would be five in number, the same five as are being rung at present, being the bottom five of an octave (s, f, m, r, d in the sol-fa notation) and it would be interesting to learn how the 'Professor' could play 'God Save the King' and other popular tunes of the day with such a limited number of notes at his disposal. There seems to be no local knowledge of the event and one would like to know the source of the information.—Yours faithfully, Rugby.

G. A. PECK.

Into a Midlands belfry walked a young visiting ringer recently. 'And your name?' inquired the captain. 'Maurice Stout,' came the reply. 'How peculiar,' remarked the captain. 'I know of two other bellringers named Edward J. Beer and Mansfield Ginn!'

A PEAL OF GRANDSIRE TRIPLES, 5,040 CHANGES.

Holt's Original.

Charles Hazelden . . . 1-2

Alfred H. Pulling . . . 3-4

*John S. Goldsmith . . . 5-6

Conducted by Alfred H. Pulling.

* First peal of Grandsire on handbells. Rung to commemorate the 20th anniversary of J. S. Goldsmith's first peal, rung on April 8th, 1893.

[Though he will always be remembered mainly as the founder of this journal, Mr. Goldsmith was an excellent practical ringer. Beginning when very young, he reached 100 peals in March, 1899, with a peal of London when just 21 years of age, an outstanding record for the time. In all, he rang 463 peals, one of which was the first of Spliced London, Bristol, Cambridge and Superlative Major to be accomplished.]

GRANDSIRE DOUBLES AT HARTEST, SUFFOLK

Dear Sir,—I read with interest the account, in your issue of 27th ult., of the rededication at Hartest, but may I point out that Roan, who was Master of the College-Youths 300 years ago, is credited with the invention of the method, about 1650, and that it was to his friend, Richard Duckworth, that he contributed matter for the latter's famous book, 'Tintinnalogia,' 1668.

Duckworth was appointed Rector of Hartest in 1650, where he probably met Stedman, who published his work and then, later, his own more ambitious work, the 'Campanologia,' 1677.

Robert Roan was one of the King's Court and so it is more likely that his methods were first rung in London than at his friend's tower, Hartest, down in Suffolk.

We are indebted to the research of both Trollope and Morris for much of the above. But the mention of the Rev. Mr. Drake, Rector of Hartest in the 18th century, joining the College-Youths, caused me to look up the Roll, where there seems to be no record of his name. I was disappointed to find that the name of so famous a ringer as Duckworth is also missing therefrom.—I am, Your obedient servant,

E. ALEXR. YOUNG.

THOMAS POWER

Dear Sir,—With reference to 'Thomas Power, Gent.,' it would appear that this Thomas Power was the man who made a lantern clock about the same period inscribed 'Tho. Power de Wellingborow Hoc Fabricavit.' and a basket-top bracket clock of a little later date inscribed 'Thos. Power, Wellingbrow.'

Beyond this nothing appears to be known regarding this maker but a search of the registers at Wellingborough might well reveal interesting information.

COUNTY HISTORY BOOKS

Dear Sir,—The article by Mr. Shepherd mentions Dorset as one of the counties without any reference books on its bells. 'The Church Bells of Dorset,' by Canon Raven, with an appendix by Miles Barnes, was published at Dorchester in 1906. Many of the inscriptions were obtained by the three brothers Hughes D'Aeth, who went round on bicycles to explore the various towers.—Yours sincerely,

OBITUARY

MR. J. H. BLAKISTON

An Appreciation

I was interested to read the letters of Mr. Semmens and Mr. Peck regarding Mr. J. H. Blakiston, of Middlesbrough, and perhaps I may be permitted to advance a little further information. Jack Blakiston, as he was called, was the son of Mr. William Blakiston, who was, I understand, the cashier to an old-established Quaker ironfounding business in this town and which ultimately developed into one of its largest commercial undertakings. As a young man he moved to Middlesbrough and took up a post with another predominantly Quaker concern, the owners of the Middlesbrough Estate, with whom he served until well advanced in years.

He was born in Darlington and learned his ringing at St. John's Church, joining the Durham and Newcastle Association in 1880, three years after its formation. He relinquished active membership of this Association when the Cleveland and North Yorkshire Association was formed in 1898. He was a founder member of this Association and was credited with forming the band of St. Hilda's, Middlesbrough. He continued an active member for ten years and then, in 1908, he retired from the Middlesbrough tower and transferred his affections to the Northern District of the Yorkshire Association. The following are the peals in which so far as is known he took part and the figures in brackets are those he conducted:—Durham and Newcastle Association 38 (19), Cleveland and North Yorkshire Association 29 (24), Yorkshire Association 20 (13), a total of 87 (56).

My father recalls that Mr. Blakiston took part in his first attempt for a peal at St. Cuthbert's, Darlington, in the early nineties and in my boyhood days I rang with him on one or two occasions at Yorkshire meetings.

W. N. PARK.

MR. ERNEST PARKER

The death occurred at Holt, Wiltshire, on March 29th, of Mr. Ernest Parker, aged 73. A native of Bleadon, Somerset, where he learned to ring, he was for many years conductor of the band at St. John's, Weston-super-Mare. On retirement, 16 years ago, he came to live in Holt and from then until the time of his death was a regular member of the Trowbridge band, cycling the four miles each way in all winds and weathers until the last few months to ring for morning and evening service and the weekly practice night.

He was a Ringing Master of the Devizes Branch of the Salisbury Guild for 12 years. Although not a great lover of peal ringing he rang quite a number of peals in all standard methods and was always willing to stand in if needed. On several occasions he had conducted Holt's Original, the last time being on his 70th birthday, at that age a performance of which any ringer might well be proud.

After the funeral service at Holt, attended by many ringers of the Devizes Branch, he was buried at Bleadon, and a muffled peal was rung at Trowbridge in the evening. He leaves a widow, to whom the deepest sympathy is extended. In the course of a friendship of 30 years he showed himself to be a devout churchman who conscientiously adhered to the highest principles and he won the respect and affection of all who came in contact with him. He was a true Christian gentleman.

YATTON, SOMERSET.—On Mar. 31st, 1,260 Grand-sire Triples: M. O. Davis 1, G. K. Westlake 2, Miss P. Barnard 3, L. W. Pullin 4, R. H. Brice 5, D. E. Vowles 6, H. A. Price (cond.) 7, J. W. Baker 8.

MR. WALTER CLIFF

By the passing of Mr. Walter Cliff at the age of 81, Tenterden has lost a good tradesman. He was a member of the Ancient Society of College Youths and the Kent Association of Change Ringers. He rang for Queen Victoria's two Jubilees and covered several peals of Grand-sire Triples (5,040 changes).

Mr. Cliff joined the parish church choir when a boy and only resigned a few years ago on account of ill-health. He was chief officer of the Tenterden Fire Brigade for many years and was held in high regard by all who knew him.

The ringers of St. Mildred's Church, in the evening of the day of his funeral, rang half-muffled.

MR. SIDNEY PALMER

The death has occurred of Mr. Sidney Palmer, of Swindon, after a short illness, at the age of 82. He was a native of Potterne, near Devizes, where he learned to ring and had been a member of Swindon Parish Church band for nearly 50 years.

Mr. Palmer kept no record of the peals he had rung but they must have been a considerable number. Among them was the first peal of Surprise by a Wiltshire band. His last peal was Kent Royal rung at Christ Church, Swindon, in 1945.

On the day of his funeral a half-muffled quarter peal of Grand-sire Triples was rung at Christ Church. The Swindon Branch of the Gloucester and Bristol Association was represented at the funeral by Mr. W. H. Trueman (chairman) and Mr. W. B. Kynaston (secretary). Former colleagues who attended were Mr. E. J. Berry (Master of Christ Church tower) and Mr. C. E. Gardiner, who had rung with Mr. Palmer for 50 years.

SIR GILFRID CRAIG, J.P., D.L.

Ringers in West Middlesex and those of the St. John-the-Baptist Guild, Hillingdon, in particular, have lost a good friend by the death of Sir Gilfrid Craig, of The Grange, Hillingdon. He was for many years an honorary life member of the Middlesex County Association and London Diocesan Guild, and had always taken a kindly interest in the work of ringing.

A churchwarden for many years, he took great pleasure in being associated with the welcome extended to the Association at Hillingdon, and had attended several of the autumn annual joint meetings with the Oxford Diocesan Guild. His modest, unassuming manner and generous disposition endeared him to everyone fortunate enough to know him well. The occasion when, in a gracious and friendly way, he delighted members of both Guilds by personally paying tribute in making the presentation to the late stalwarts J. J. Pratt and W. H. Honor, after they had completed 60 years of service as ringers, will long be remembered.

He married the elder daughter of the late Mr. John Stillwell, who was himself a ringer, and who, in 1911, generously defrayed the cost of the restoration and augmentation of the ten bells at the Parish Church.

Sir Gilfrid, as he was affectionately known, passed away on Easter Day, and the funeral was at Golders Green on Thursday, April 9th.

In the evening the appropriate prayer taken from the Guild's form of service was said in the belfry before the commencement of half-muffled ringing on these bells, a tribute to one of whom it could be truly said, 'He walked with kings—nor lost the common touch.' Deepest sympathy is extended to Lady Craig, with whom we would wish to share this great loss.

RINGERS' RULES (ANCIENT & MODERN)

By ERNEST MORRIS

The following lines, from two belfries of the Welsh border counties, are somewhat different from the 17th century rhymes (although they are evidently adapted from them) and contain some lines of more recent composition. The first version is from LLANFYLLIN, Montgomeryshire.

'If for to ring you do come here
You must ring well with hands and ear;
And if you ring with spur or hat,
A quart of beer is due for that.
And if a bell you overthrow
A shilling pay before you go:
The law is old, well known to you
Therefore the Clerk must have his due.'
(Briscoe, 'Curiosities of the Belfry,' p. 17.)

The next version is from BANGOR-ISCOED in Flintshire:—

'If that to ring you do come here,
You must ring well with hand and ear;
But if you ring in spur or hat,
Fourpence is always due for that;
And if a Bell you overthrow,
Sixpence is due before you go.
But if you either swear or curse
Twelvepence is due—out with your purse.
Our laws are old, they are not new,
Therefore the Clerk must have his due.
If to our laws you do consent
Then take a bell, we are content.'
(Briscoe, 'Curiosities of the Belfry,' p. 18.)

In the belfry of BUCKLAND Church, near Tavistock:—

'We ring the quick to church, the dead to grave;
Good is our use, such usage let us have;
Who swears, curs'th, or in cholerick mood
Quarrels or strikes, Altho' he sheds no blood;
Who wears his hat, or spurs, or turns a bell,
Or by unskilful handling mars a peal,
Let him pay sixpence for each single crime,
'Twill make him cautious against another time.
Now round let's go, and when we've done
let's sing,
God bless our Holy Church, God save the King.
17 Amen 55.'

Similar lines to these were in force at St. Cleer, Cornwall.

In 1849 the following lines were written on a sheet of paper affixed to the wall of the village church of PITMINSTER, Somerset:—

'If Aney one do ware hise hat
When he ringing here
He straitte way then shall sixpence pay
In Sider or Bere.'
(Briscoe, 'Curiosities of the Belfry,' p. 40.)

This is from St. Mary's, ROTHERHITHE:—

'Fear God honour ye King
Whoso comes here these ropes to handle,
Must comply with these rules for buying of candle.
For each oath that you swear or bell yt you throw
Deposit your sixpence before that you go.
These rules are so just and orders so plain,
Who refuseth compliance shall not practice again
Without paying one shilling to wipe off the stain.'

(1). At St. Andrew's Church, PLYMOUTH, were these belfry 'rhymes' dated 1700. with the motto 'Nos resonare jubent pietas mores atque Voluntas':—

'Let awful silence first proclaimed be,
And praise unto the Holy Trinity:
Then honour give unto our noble King,
So with a blessing let us raise the ring.
Hark! how the chirping Treble sings most clear,

And covering Tom comes rowling in the rear;
And now the Bells are up, come let us see
What laws are best to keep sobriety,
Then all agree to make this their decree.
Who swears or curses, or in a cholerick mood
Quarrels or strikes, although he draws no blood:

Who wears a hat, or spur, or overturns a Bell,
Or by unskilful handling mars a peal:
Let him pay sixpence for each single crime.
'Twill make him cautious 'gainst another time!
But if the Sexton's fault an hindrance be,
We call on him a double penalty.
If any should our Parson disrespect,
Or Wardens orders any times neglect,
Let him be always held in full disgrace,
And ever more be banished this place:
Now round—let go—with pleasure to the ear,
And pierce with echo through the yielding air.
So when the bells are ceased, then let us sing,
God bless the Church—God bless the King.
1700.

Almost identical with the foregoing are those at (2) LANDULPH, in Cornwall. Some rhymes bearing the date 1811 are on the walls of the tower at (3) LANLIVERY, Cornwall. They are slightly abridged from those at Fowey (already given).

In the belfry of DREWSTEIGTON Church, Dartmoor.

'The Ringer's Articles

I.
Whoever in this place shall swear,
Sixpence he shall pay therefore.

II.
He that ring here in his hat,
Threepence he shall pay for that.

III.
Who overturns a bell, be sure
Threepence he shall pay therefore.

IV.
Who leaves his rope under feet,
Threepence he shall pay for it.

V.
A good ringer and a true heart
Will not refuse to stand a quart.

VI.
Who will not to these rules agree
Shall not belong to this belfrie.

John Hole, Warden.'

The following is found scrawled at BUTTERWICK, Lincs, with much more to the same effect:—

'All You that hath A mind to Ring
Must to the old Ringer Admission money bring.

Each coult must, sirs, just three and sixpence pay

When our accounts are passed for truth
And you are styled then a College Youth.
So now, my lads, admission money bring
And we will learn [sic] you presently to Ring.'

YORKSHIRE ASSOCIATION

A combined meeting of the Eastern District of the Yorkshire Association and the Selby and District Society was held at Goole on March 21st and was attended by about 30 ringers from various towers in the district. The service was conducted by the curate (the Rev. D. B. Greathead) and was followed by the tea and business meeting, presided over by the vice-president, Mr. A. B. Sellers.

Two new out-county members were elected: Messrs. D. Ladd, of Walmer, Kent, and E. F. Gilbert, of Basingstoke, Hants. These two young men were recently stationed at Leconfield Aerodrome, near Beverley, and the chairman asked the meeting to stand in silence to the memory of the airmen from there who were recently shot down over Germany.

Pocklington was selected as the place for the annual district meeting in June. Mr. L. Woodhead gave particulars of the Selby dinner to be held on April 11th. The usual votes of thanks were passed, special mention being made of Mrs. Taylor, who provided the tea. A collection for the Association's Bell Repair Fund realised 10s.

MARRIAGE OF MISS ANNIE POTTER

A large number of ringers from different parts of Lancashire were present at St. Paul's Church, Walkden, on Easter Monday, for the wedding of Miss Annie Potter, a member of the local band for 25 years and for many years the competent secretary of the tower, to Mr. William McDermott. Her marriage has ended a well-known name in Lancashire ringing circles as her father, the late Mr. John Potter, was one of the Association's stalwarts and a very reliable conductor in any method.

The service was fully choral as both the bride and the bridegroom have been members of the choir for many years. The bells were rung for the service and afterwards they were 'fired' and Queens and Tittums rung.

The bride was dressed in a powder-blue costume and she received from the bridegroom a gold watch.

Immediately after the reception and lunch a peal of Grandsire Triples was rung by a mixed band from different towers in Lancashire.

There was another band of ringers at the station to meet the couple as they left for their honeymoon at Morecambe and to the amusement of the many onlookers they led them down to the platform ringing handbells and continued until the train departed.

SOCIETY OF ROYAL CUMBERLAND YOUTHS

The quarterly meeting of the Society of Royal Cumberland Youths was held at Harlow Common and Harlow Town on March 28th. A lower attendance than usual was no doubt due to uncertainty owing to the royal bereavement.

At the business meeting, presided over by the Master, Mr. G. H. Cross, the following new members were elected; Shirley V. Rymer, Dudley; Joan Beresford, Lichfield; Evelyn M. Fletcher, Birmingham; Alison Clarke, Hampton Hill; Geoffrey Paul, Lincoln; G. D. Ingham, Sunbury Hill; David Hawkins, Hampton; Michael Collins, Hampton; C. E. Brown, Lincoln; John Worsdall, Bassingham; John S. Barnes, Attleborough.

The company stood in silence to the memory of F. Richardson (Chatham), George Dawson (Leytonstone) and the Rev. F. J. Winterton (Barnet), members who had recently died.

The next meeting will be held at St. Albans on July 4th, and Mr. Cross asked all members to give their support.

Hearty votes of thanks were accorded the incumbent and tower keepers of both churches. Ringing took place in methods up to London Surprise Major.

OUTING

DANBURY, ESSEX

On Easter Monday the Danbury ringers and a collection of other 'tower snatchers' met in Chelmsford for their cycle tour of Northern Essex.

Great Easton was reached without serious mishap although some apprehension was felt on the part of two of the young ladies who dragged behind and arrived at Great Easton 20 minutes after the main body of the company. The six at Great Easton were soon swinging and good touches of Cambridge downwards were rung.

Then over the hills to Thaxted, where the tourists were in time to see the traditional folk dancing. The fine ring of eight was soon set going watched by a large crowd of sightseers who had adjourned from the folk dancing. Most of the ringers partook of lunch sheltering behind a large windmill on a hill just outside Thaxted.

Finchingfield was reached in twos and threes as most of the band had stopped in a public house (watching the television!). But the heavy eight at Finchingfield were soon ringing out. The ringing here did not do justice to the bells but some well-struck Grandsire rounded off the ringing here.

After tea at Great Bardfield a tough road led to Stebbing. The six here have not a very good 'go,' nevertheless the best touch of the day (London Minor) was rung on these bells.

About a mile from Felstead the rain came down in torrents and a wet and cold party arrived at the tower. This did not impair the ringing and the eight at Felstead were soon going very well.

Thanks are due to the local bands who helped by preparing their bells and to Peter Came and Joe Roast for so capably organising a very pleasant day.

NORTH MYMMS, HERTS

The ringers of St. Mary's, North Mymms, held a half-day outing on March 21st.

The first halt was St. Mary-the-Virgin's, Harlow, where difficulty was found in ringing touches on the fine eight. The ringers continued to Sawbridgeworth, where the younger members found the heavy ring of eight a little too much for them.

After an extremely good tea at Hatfield Broad Oak the party rang at St. Mary-the-Virgin's. Although difficulty was found in hearing the bells the striking was of a high standard.

The last stop was All Saints', Writtle, where the best ringing of the day took place, an extension of the ringing time was possible and methods rang ranged from Grandsire to Treble Bob.

Thanks are expressed to the respective steepkeepers for their help.

All Saints' Doubles
