PROMISE OF THE FUTURE.

Although the year that has just closed has produced no record-breaking peal lengths, it cannot be said that 1938 was without notable achievement. There was, for instance, that great performance of the six spliced Surprise Major methods on handbells, while in six-bell ringing the number of methods in seven complete 720's was raised to 84. It is impossible yet to say how many peals, in alt, were rung during the year, but they number over two thousand, for only the third time in history; while peals in new methods also show an increase. These are signs of real vitality in the Exercise, but most promising of all is the number of young men who are coming into the forefront, and showing ability not merely as ringers but also as conductors. The future of the Exercise depends upon the youth of to-day, and in various parts of the country there is a strong element of young men who, if they keep their keenness, will do much to maintain the standard of ringing. That, however, is not to say that efforts to encourage new blood can be even temporarily relaxed. There are many gaps which remain unfilfed; many bells that are unrung. We hope that in the year before us there will be renewed endeavours to fill the ranks and to bring in young people of the right type who will treat their ringing not merely as a hobby but as a contribution to the work of the Church.

In a letter which appeared in our last issue a correspondent wrote that those ringers who only go about from tower to tower to ring peals and practise to suit themselves are no good either to the Church or to other ringers. This is a drastic statement with which many will disagree, but there is considerable truth in it, although, happily, it applies only to a small minority of ringers. In every walk of life a purely selfish element is to be found, and ringing is no exception. But the vast majority of ringers render loyal and generous service to the Church and acknowledge the debt which they owe to it, for does it not provide the instruments without which it would be impossible to follow the art? On the other hand, it must be appreciated that those who gain practice and experience by peal ringing can render the best service in the belfry by the higher standard which they are able to set. Those ringers who think of nothing but peals and their own convenience render very little real help to the cause of ringing, but the ringer who fulfils his duty on Sundays and takes his peal ringing in tis stride, as it were, is a valuable asset to the Church and to the Exercise. We hope that in the coming year service and peal ringing may be combined in a happy blend which will raise still higher the status of the ringers and add lustre to the art.

REPORTS OF PEALS.

May we ask those responsibla for sending in reports of peals to do so lmmediately after the peals are rung, and mot to dalay them, as is often done, for a week or even mora? It adds to our difficuities, and is unfair to thoss who maka a paint of forwarding thair reports promptly.

Also, we would request those who send reporte of peals ta copy the form always used in . Tha Rigging World, It will avaid the omission of essential details and consequent dialay in publication.

MR. C. W. CLARKE'S ACHIEVEMENTS IN BEDFORDSHIRE RINGING.

To the Editor

Dear Sir, As one who has been closely acquainted witik Mr. E. W Clarke, of Bedford, for more than 30 years, $I$ feel that the arcount of his ringing career, which appeared in 'The Ringing World ' recently, did not give him anything fite the credit he deserves, but no doubt it was owing to his own reticence in not sending fuller information of his ringing activities.
As regards peals for the Bedfordshre Association, in addition to the Bob Minor at Biddealiam you mentioned, he called the first peal of Bob Triples, Bob Kajor and Toyal, Grandsire Triples and Caters Stedman Triples and Gsters, Treble Bob Major and Roynl, Double Norwich and Superlative, and took part in the fret of Cambridge Surprise Major. He aroo called the longest peal yet rung by the association, 10,176 Keat Treble Bob Major rung at Irthlingborough a. 6,000 in nime Minor methods at Harrold, 7,200 in 10 methods at Bromham, and 10,080 in 14 methods at Emberton. The latter peal han been attempted three weeks previously, but was lost through a rope breaking after five hours. Charles Clarke never likes leaving anything unfinished, so he made arrangements for another try, whieh was uccessful.
When one ronsiders his only means of travel, a push bike, and the condition of the roads at that time, especially in winter, one can only admirs the wonderful enthusiasm be displayed. No matter what the weather was like, if he had promised to meet he would always be there. You referred to biw in Belfry Cossip once as the grand old men of Bedfardshira. It was a splendid compliment to hing and one that he fully deserved. It would be good for the Bedfordshire Association if someone was coming along who could fill his place, now that advancing yenrs prevent bim from doing as he used to do in former years.

AN OLD CUSTOM AT DARLINGTON.

The custom of ringing the bells at St. Cathbert's Parish Church, Darlington, Co. Durham, on Christrase Eqe, while the citizens are doing their Christmas marketing, has long been kept, with the oxception of the war years, and again two years ago, when the bells were away for recasting. Last Cbristmas Eve a quarter-peal of Grandsire Triples was mung by W. Oliver 1 , Roland Park (conductor) 2 , T. Cooke (first quarter-peal) 3, F. Newton 4, J. Gibson 5. F. Tinslev 6, W. A. Pack 7, L. Vemus 8. Ringers of 1, 2 and 7 belong to Eoly Trimity band, the rest to St. Cutlibert's.

SUSSEX COUNTY ASSOCIATION.

A HASTINGS TOWER TO REJOIN.
A mecting of the Eastera Division was held at St. Clement's, Hastinge, on Saturday, December 17th, when members attended from Hailsham, Eastbourve, Heathield, Rotherfield. Etchingham, Battle, together with the local ringers. The Master of the association (Mr. H. R. Butchar) was also present, The service was conducued by the Rector, who gave a mast interesting address. Afterwards be presided at the tea and busjucss meeting
At the commencement of the meeting he referred to the death of Mr. A. Hobden, of Waldror, who had been a member of the association for a great many years, and, as a mark of respect, the members stood for a few moments in silence.

It was with great pleasure that tige secretary (Mr. A. C. Pankhurst) announced that Christ Church, Blacilands, wisthed to be affilated in the New Year.

A vate of thanks was proposed to the Rector for the use of the bells, conducting the service and for presiding ab the tea and meeting, also to Mr. Piper, of Eastbournc, for bearing the whole cost of the tea.
The raembers then went on to All Saints' tower, where they were joined by three menbers from Forsmonden, and the bells were kept going until after 8 o'clock.

WEDDING BELLS AT ARMLEY

BRIDE A YORKSHERE RINGER.
The wedding took place at Ghrist Church, Upper Armiey. Leeds, on Saturday, December 24th, of Miss Olive Tentom and Mr. Harry Whitehouse. The bride hed been a keen and regular ringer at Christ Church for the past 12 years and is a member of the Ladies Guild nnd the Yorkshire Assaciation. The loeal company, kindly assistad liy members from Feadingley, Bramley and Rothwell, rang for about an hour previous to the ceremony, and as the happy couple left the church snme very well-strack Queen's and Firing completed the proceedings

At the ceremony, which was conducted by the Vicar, the Rev. J. S. Hollingworth, M.A. LL.D., one of the bride's fellow-ringers offeinted at the orgar. The Vicar epoke very appreciativaly of the bride" services as a ringer and of the other wavs in which she had played her part in the work of the Chureh.
A reception was held in the Co-operstive Hall, attended by about 70 greats.
On Sunday for evening kervice a 720 of Kent Trable Biob Minor was rung in honour of the event: Jos. Thackray 1. F. Tindall (Ripon) 2, James Hey 3, A. Fieldhouse 4, J. Benten 5, F. Raymeut (conductor) 6.

NEW YEAAR BELLS.

WHAT THE B.B.C. GAVE US.

A New Year's Day feature of the B.B.C. pragrammes wos the recorded 'greetings' from many European countries, in aative Irnguages, followed in eacli cuse by "il peal of the most famous belle in that land.

Those who listened must have been disappointed. They heard words spoken in uthnown tongues and, in most cases, a jangie of bells, but they bad fittle or no jdea from which countries they came.
There wore two or three carillons, upon which a few chords were heard; Englatud was represcnted by call changes, apparently at St. Clement Danes, the rest was the usual Continental claghng of large and small bells \{except for one or two instances of the tolling of single belis).
'After this,' one non-ripger exid to us, "no one need write to "The Ringing World " shout hed striking in this country."
St. Clement Danes' bells formed a good deal of the basis on which the programme of 'New Year Greeting;' heard just before midnight on Saturdag, was built up.

To the Editar.

Sir,-May 1 egain pay tribute to the wonderful sadustry with whicil Mr. Trollope otill pursues his researches. I have often made inquiry from wy Bristol frionds is reference to their Elisabethan Society of Ringers. The article in your last issue tells us mach, even if, here and there, we read between the lines. Mr. Trollope always gives us much to ponder over, so that we shail amait the concluding acticle with added interest.
I hava been particularly struct by the company's old rule (No. 80 ) alopted when, according to Mr. Trollope, it was founded in 1820 . This sternly enjoined every Companion to kneal and pray, on enterisg the belfry (not the ringing room, I observe). If we, to-day, had but the courage of our forefathers! There is, however, one point re this rule upon which Mr. Frollope might sindy enlarge, tiz. : Why, though be concurs with Toulmen Smith that it is probably a medirval one he is etill so Eure that this mewly-formed secular body coldly adopted it (is I may be forgiven the paraphrase) with the same nonchalenct As they m绍ht one ahout Grace before food? I. feel coma doubt an to this. And I cannot remember any rule like it in those of other contemporary aecular ringing bodies.
'Ringers and singers are Jittle home bringers." One is tempted to sam, with a amile, in view of this then current gibe. Did they put the rule in for $j$ tust 'eye-wash ' $?$
In reference to what I might term the two rivers of ringing : (1) Service reverential, and (2) secular bcientifictum-jotlity, Mr. Trallope has not zet commented upon the Master's quotation from Spenser st the Collega Youtha' tercentenery. I would like to take this opporthe College Youtha tercenter, ealeo Edizabethan and rather significant : 'All, into Service let us Ring' (1600 or before).

LEADING CONDUCTORS-52.

WILLIAM SHORT.

On the 25th of this month, Mr. William Short, towerkeeper and coaductor at Clant, Worcestershire, will reach the jubilee of his first paal as conductor, which he rarg at Hagley, where, only two montbs before, on November 24th, 1888, he scored his first peal. Both these were Grandsire Triples. Since that time Mr. Shorr bas speet 50 years in oncouraging and helping others in the art of change ringing. He Was Deputy Kinging Master of St. Martin's Guild, Birmingham, from 1899 to 1906 , instructor to the Hereford Diocesan Guild from 1902 to 1915 , and Master of the Worcesternhire Association from 1934 to 1838. He represented the asaciation on the Central Council for nine years, was a member of the CentraI Committee for 25 years asd has heen a member of the association for 51 years. This is an honourahle and enviable record of service in the interests of change ringing, and in recognitson of all he had done for the Worcestershire Association he was made the first - Freeman ' and a lay vicepresideat.

In addition to all this, however, Mr. Short has helped to make history in ringing, for lie has stared in a number of record performances as well as other notable peals. He conducted the record peal of Stedman Cinques, the 17,111 at St, Martin"s, Birmingham, on December 2sth 1901, and took part int the record lengtho of 14,112 Lendon Surprise Major, тung at King's Norlon on May 1lth. 1903 : also in the records of 10,176 of Double Oxford
Major at Brierley Hill, Major at Brierley Hill, Staffs, on Decerober z7th. 1909, and the 9.728 of at Glent on December 26th, 1810. Mr. Sthort called the first peal ever rung on the sea, a peal of Stedman Caters on handhells while orossing from

MR. WILLIAM SHORT. Dublin to Halyhead on May $20 t h, 1901$, after in toin in which he had conducted the first true peal of Kent Treble Bob Royal in Ireland and had taken part is the first Surprise peal rung ant of Ergland.
Ten Jears esrlier, on October 24th, 1891, Mr. Short hac nug in a peal af Grandsire Triples at Windsor Castle, the only one on the bells during last century. On Auswat ist, 1898, lie rang in the only pesl of Stedman Cinques on the old twrive et St. Chad's, Shrewsbury, and to do this he cycled there and back, a diatance of 90 miles.
He conducted the only perl of Stedman Cingues on the old twelve at Worcester Cathedral, and the last peal on the old ten at Birmingham Cathedral, this latter having been rung in 1903, although the bells were not recast until more than 30 jears inter. Mr. Short conducted the last peal on the old ten and the first on the new at Warwich, both Stedman Caters, in 1900 and 1902 respectively. He conducted in 1897 the first peal of Donble Norwich and in 1899 the first of Double Oxford Mejor rung in Birmingham, and in 1907 the first of London Surprise in thet city.
He was one of the first, if not the first, to ring perls on all numbers of bells from five to twelve, which he completed in 2912, and among the tower bell peals which he has rung have beea miant peals of Stedman Triples and Cambridge Surprime Major. On handuelts he has mong Stedman from Triples to Ginques, including 8,888 Caters, which, when it wha rung on March 23 ra , IB98, was the record length is the mathod "in hand.'
Rorn at Pershore, Worcestervhire, on April 12 th, 1868 , Mr. Short. despite his to years, is gtill activa in peal ringing, and has now runc 919 peals, of which he bas conducted 329 . They have been spread over 24 counties in England, Ireland and Wales. and have been ruag for aleven essocietions.

A. HALF P PEAL.

At. Alf Gatnts Church, Kingston, for watelnight serwice, a half-penal of Grandsire Thiples was rung in 1 hour 45 minutes: E. Farker ${ }^{1}$, C. C. Rayaer 2, G. C. Goodman 3, W. Massey 4, B. G. Andtrws 5, F. W Barrett. 6. F. F. Hawtharne (conductor) 7. W. Maxwell 8. ringers at this church. It wns the longest length by ringers of 1,2 end tepor.

CONDUCTORS AND CONDUCTING.

HINTS ON CALLING PEALS.

The following article has been specially contributed to ' The Ringing World ' for the benefit of wouldbe conductors.

The conductor's job is threefold. He has to call the bobs at exactly the right time and in the right place. He has to make sure that throughout the peal the bells are ringing the correct changes, and to stop it when once things have gone wrong. He has to correct mistakes and trips to the best of his ability.
The last is the most spectacular of the three, and many people judge of a man's capacity as a conductor zimply by his ability to pounce on a ringer who has made a lrip, or by the way ho can dirag a band out of a mess or sare a peal when moore than half the bsind are hopelessly lost.
Actually, however, these are the least imporiant of a conductore duties. The correcting of trips is a job which belongs to any one of the band and not exclusively to the conductor, though uaually he is the one best fitted and best able to do it; but whether it is a good thing to eave a peal after nearly everybody has lost himself is one of those things which are upen to nrgument. Give one good fro and do as I tell you' is good advice when your object is to pile 1:p as many peals ns possible, but in these days when peals are so many and comparatively so easy to get, it is lbetfer to have a highor standard and to stop before things get as bad as that.

The young conductor is justified in takiug up the attitude that it $^{2}$ is not his business to ring all the bells in the tower, and if the others can't ring the method withont, losing themselves they ought not to have the oredit of scoring a peal.

BOE CALLERS WTMH LMTTATIONS.
In bygone diays it used to be considered sufficient if a mas could call the bobs at the right pluces and if, now and again (say at the part endsh, he could see that the right changes came up. Some could not do even so much as that. They called the bobs at the right places as far is they were able, but they did not know in the least whether as far is they wpre able, but they did got know in the least whether the bells wers right or not, sind often went on perhaps for an lour or two right to the end of the peal before thoy discovered that anything was wrong. These peaple were contemptuously termed hobcallers and not conductors and the breed is not yet extinct. There is, however, this to be gaid that many a good peal has been rung in this way. It means that everybocy in the band has to ring his own hell and not make too many trips ar the peal cannot be rung at all.
Jasper Snowdon in his Ropesight: (which every ringer should own and study even if he think Plain Bob is too elementary btulf to bother much about), gives some directions [or calling Bob Major and teils us how zo good average enductor calied his peale 50 yeara quo. Thing have edvanced since then and to-day the standard is much higher and the oonductor ought to know a good deal more than Snowdon thought mecessary

It very often happens that a young conductor has to call as his first peal one of Grandsire Triples. This th rather unfortanate, bessuas Grandsire Triples is one of the most difficalt of all methods to call properly. It is mucl harder thar, say, Superlative. That is the reason why although there are seoren of available peals in the method practically only one is ever rung. It used to be Hott's Ten-part; now执 is Parker"s Twelve-part. There is, of course, the Original, but thet stands in a class iny itbelf.

BFNTS ON DOUBLE NORWICH.
Bob Major is the best methou to learn conducting in, as it is the best method to leara to ring ins, but many companies think it rather beneath tinem and the young condrctor will perhaps have to call his first peal in a more adwanced metliod. WYe will sippose it to be Donble Norwich. The first thing be shonld do is to write out clearly a fall plain course-not merely a lead. The next thing is to choose a peal to call, and here he will do well to gelect s gimple peat, and there is mo better for the purpose than the six-part which ustually goes hy J. F. Priteliard's name, though it has beer composed by quite a number of people, including Henry Joknson.

HOW TO LEARN A COMPOSITION

He should write oat the whole of the peal and not merely one part as given here. Thea he must dende which bell he will ring himself. He will probably pick tho tellor, because it is the observation bell and at first is the easiest to call from.
Now let him turn to his plein course and study, first, what positiona the will the in when he has to call the bobs and then exactly where he will meet the bells which are in second's, third's, fourth's, fifth's and aixith's at the course ends. The sixth's place bell is the oue he dodgea with at front and behind; the fifth's place bell is the one that comes to the seventh after he leaves that bell. Those are easy to see. The ohiners are not quite so ensy and he need not bother at first abott all of them, but sarne are impartant. After the course end before he makes his far places from behind he should take particular notice of the bell the dodges with in $3-4$, which will be the second's place bell. As ho goes to dodge on the front or behind with the sixth's place hell he should take particular notice of the bell which las been dodging with that bell, which will be the fourth's place bell.
He can then learn the calling of his peal, which will not take him a coaple of minutes-Five and two Sires, One and three Sixes, One and two Sixes, five times repeated-and if he has a good memory that can be the thing he mainly relies on for calling. But the wants to know a good deal more.
He must learn the sixtli's and nifth's place bells throughout the peal. It will not take a great deal of dong and it will enable him to know et very short intervals whether two at least of the belle are in their rigits places. The sixth place bell is fixed for the whole of a part and he cannot miss that.
He must notice which hells are affected by the bobs at $1,4,5$ and 6 . The bob at 6 does not shift either the fifth's or sixth's place bellis, and as one is called in every course except the first (where there is - 5), he will have no difficulty sbout them.

The bob at 1 alters the fifth's place bell and puts into that position the bell which was in second's at the last course end. So what the conductor must do is to nolice which bell he dodges with as he goes to make his far places from behind; if it is the one he wants for his new fffth's place bell lue must call the bob at 1 .
When lie studies the figntes of his composition he will notice that there is one bell (the second) which throughout is never in fifth's or sixth's, but it does a very regular work. It is at lome at the pazt ends and it is always a fourth's place bell whenever a hob at 1 is called:

GALJING FROM A WORKLNG BELL.

In the same way the conductor can find out many things which will enable him to see at. once whether the bella are in their right places, without having to depend on noticing any particular rows which sometinces are not too easy to read. It is a mistake, however, to try and learn too much at first. Enough should be known to give frequent checks of different bells.
It may be that a conductor cannot ring the tenor and las to cats froms another boll. He can cloose the seventh, whicil is as much on observation bell as the tenor, or he can call from one of the workidy bells.
Good conductors will ring ary bell and call from the tenor just as if they were ringing it themselves. Better conductors still will ring sny bell and call from the prositions of all the hells. Tut those things take practice. A berinner calling from one of the working bellis can learu the work of that bell at the bobs and so call his bobs, checking himuself by the position of the tenors, which he can notice by sight and snund. Some people seem to think that this is not a lesitumate way of calling, hut it is a perfectly sound and sefe method, the oaly oljeetion being that it takes some amount of trouble. Some men caill peals from a working bell by counting the number of leads between the calling positions. That method is not to be recomnended.
The best plan is to know always what position your bell is in at the course end and what effect ary bob will have on it. Suppose you are ringing the second and have to call 1.6 in the first course. At the 1 you will make the bab which will make you a fifth's place bell. At the 6 the fifth's place bell has just faished its near places from behind. It is not a great takk to find out what every bell is doing when any bob is cailed, and, when yon are ringing a workink bell, directly you call a bob you car work out where you will be at the next bob.
This is a most exeelfent method of calling, and if you learn it for Bob Major you will find that it applies in exactly the same way to Saperistive, Cambridgo, Lonclon, Yorkshire or any other method which has second's at the plain lead and fourth's at a bob.

NEARLY A FAMILY AFPAIR.

Five out of six of the ringers of a quarter-peal of Grandsire Doubles on December 27ths at Wicken, Northants, belonged to one family: Mist K. Green 1, A. J. Green 2, James A. Green 3, F. Green 4, J. A. Green (conductor) 5, R. Carr 6. It was the first quarter-peal by ringers of treble and tenor.

LADY'S PEAL RINGING RECORD.  MISS SYLVIA BOWYER HEADS 1938 LIST.  Other Interesting Pertormances.

The year 1938 witnessed a great deal of peal ringing activity without the incentive of any uational rejoicings such as had been provided by the Coronation in the previous year. It is not yet possible to say exactly how many peals were rung in the twelve months, but the number is likely to exceed 2,030 , the highest since 1932 , whent 2,199 peals were rung. Indeed, on only one other occasion has the atal heen moza than two thousand, and that was in the record yerr of 1913 , when 2,359 peals were rung.
For the first time in history a lady heads the list of peal ringers, Miss Sylvia Jowyer, of $\mathrm{I}_{\mathrm{pswi}} \mathrm{ch}$, rang no fewer than 68 peals durng the year.
Ansong athers of the pounger generation who have been busy in this direction are Mr. P. A. Corby, who rang his 50 th peal of the yenr on the last day of December, and some of the members of tho Crayford band.
Some of those, too, who have reachen the veteran stage have not lost their youthrful ardour for peals. Mr. Frank Beapeit, of Brighton, for instance, rang 56 and conducted 30 ; Mr. G. R. Pye, of Cladwelf Heath, rang 51; MT. J. H. Shepherd, of Swindor, scored 32 peals between Scotland aed Cornwall and mosantred many more benorg whilo Mr. George Willimes Master of the Winchester and Porismantily Diowesen Tuild. who vas 81 last May, rang 36 pests, of which De conaucted 12. Fliey mincluded peals of Boh Major and Royal, Dowble Nerwicl Major: Kent Treble Rob Mejor, Royal rad Manimus, Stedman Triples, Ceterg and Cmques Combriuge Sumprise Major snd Royel. and London, Bristol, Forkshire, Euperlative and Norfolk Surrfrise Major What a recotl Cor an octovenarian! But then. Mr. Wilhanse is only 81 years young.
There are many ringers, of conlrse, with frixls for tlie jear belween 25 and 50, or evea over, and amosg the most nolable performances have been those lyy the Fertfordslire example, is the liet of Mr.

MISS SYLVIA BOWYER. Earold Gashmore, whos as conductor of the talented company ringing the spliced Surprise peals on handhelj, bas acheved such great distinction. ln 1938 he rang 28 peels, of which le comducted 24. They included the following 12 Surprise melloads rune for the first time: Ickleton, Hpsley, Kendal, Fitchin, Southall, Sedhergh, Raunds, Woodstom, Deluow, Ferilam, Tileburst and Mewhury, There were hleo two others, the first by all the band, Miesmere and Deben, and, in addition, a peal of Cumadsire Caters, one of Superlative, two peals of London and Bristol Surprise, and on fiandhelfs a peal of Bristol, two in Four Splicad Surprise methods, one in five mothods and oue in six methods. The mere list almosi makea ane dizy
These peals in new meihods are prit af the increase made in new methods rump during the year. Altogether there were perls in 19 net Surprise Najor methods, one aew Surpriee Royal method and one of Msjor and one of Royal in plain methods. In 1937 fourteen new Surpriss Major metlods were rung and three new plain Mrjor methodss Hr. and Mas. Rupert. Richerdson rang the most peals together of any martied couple last year. They were in 32 peala togetfer, and, in addition, fir". Richerdson rang four others.
AThs Bowyer's ringing career has been meteoric. Bhe legan miging exactly four years agra and rang her frst peat on February 8 h , 1936. In that vear she rang eight peals, but in 1937 she scored 42 and incidentally set up a record for a lady. Her 62 peals last year is, of course, a new remed. It is a comprelvensive performance, and ber 51 pegig for the Suffoik Guild is the highest number rung in one year by in member of the Guild. She is the only lady to ring peals in eight fifferent Maximus methods, including six Surprise methods, and she is the first lady to call peals of Cambridge or 6, 8, 10 and 12 bells. She conducted them all in 1938. She has rang perls of Kent Trehie Boh on $6,8,10$ and 22 bells, and of Yorknhies Surprise on 8,10 and 12 bells.

PEAL NOTES.

PEALS, WEATHER OR NO.

Ringers, particularly in the East and South-East of Fingland, who had peal arrangeraents at Cluistmas and had to travel, were faced with some of the worst weather conditions for years, but, judging from the reports that have cume in, most of thens, at any rate, kept their engagements.
An interesting name appears among those who this week are recorded as having rumg their fizst peal. Paul L. Taylor, who rang the treule to a peal of Bob Minor at Loughborouth Bell Foundry, is the Youngest. Enn of the late Mr. John W. Taylor, and has entered the busincss which bas been in tlee family for meny generations.
Three peals of Stedman Cinques were ruag on Boxing Day. Lancashire and Cheshire men scored one at Liverpool, members of the College Youtlos, drawn from London, Surrey, Sussex and Sorerset as Well as Oxford, rang one at Clurist Church Cathedral, Oxford, and the Roval Cumberland Youtha were successful at St. Martin's-in-tne-Fiedias, London, where peal ringing upportunities are restricted to an attempt only on the morning' of Boxing Dry
At Oxford, a 5,001 Stedman Ginques by C. W. Roberts was rums for the first time. It siarts with a quick Exx:1234567890 $\quad 5 \quad 6 \quad 19$

The peat of Stedman Ginques at St. Martin's-in-the-Fields was Mr. 5. S. Goldsuith's 50tls peal on twelve bells. They lave been runf in 27 towers and are mado up of Stedman Cinques 37, Grandsire Cinques 1, Kent Treble Boh Maximus 1. Cambridge Surprise Maximus 9, Spliced Cambriãe and Superlative Surprise Maximus 2.

A peal of Stedmant Cinques as one's first peal on tower bells is au unasual performance, but Mr. A. I. W. Hugbes distinguished hingelf in this way by ringing the 7tla at Si. Martin's.
The last of the peals in honour of Mr. and Mrs. Albert Walker's 40th weddryg anniversary was to have been a 5.040 Stedman Cinques at St. Martin's, Birminghan, ou Deceaber 20th. Owing, however, to uravoidable circumstances, the band mef one short and a peal of Stedman Caters liad to be subalituted. However, it gave Mr. S. O'C. Holloway the opportunity to complete peals of Stedman from Doubles to Cinques.

HOW CINQUES WAS BOILED DOWN TO MAJOR.
The peal at Leicester Cathedral on Cbristmas Eve was birthday compliment tis Mr. TT. Taylor, towerkeeper at St, Msrtin's, who attained the age of 80 years a fetw days previously. A peal of Stedman Cinques had been arranged, but a fumeral service in the Cathedral did not allow sufticient tine. The Coroner's Officer was fotthwith relessed to attend to his official duties and the Lancashire lad was packed off to Lancashirc. A peal of Caters wris then decided upon, but as one of the ringers put in a sery late appearance, this also had to be abandoned. Two more ringers were shunted and the peal of Ginques 'boiled down' in the end to a peal of Major on the light eight. But the seven visitors to the tower did not have their journers in van. A peal arranged in honour of the birthdary of H.H.H. the Duchess of Glouecster was rung at freat Baddow, Fssex, on Boxing Dey. One of the band waz Pat Spencer-Plilipz, son of the Master of the Essex Association (Dr. Spercer-Phillipat, who rang his frst peal of Double Norwich at the first attempt. Ho only learned to handle a bell a year yivo and has rumg his first three peals in three methods. Those who have rung with him predich a brilliant ringing fature for this youg ent husiast.
Mr. Percy Green, the ronduntor of this peal, would fike to thank Mr. F. J. Wansfield, of Maldon, and Mr. A. H. Viverett, of Boreham, who very sportingly turined up in spite of the extremely bad weather.
Three ringers travelled from Newchatlo-on-Tyue to Bradford, Yorkshire, to take part in a peal of Kent Trable Bob Royal at the CatheCral on Bexing Day. They ware Messers. C. E. Lawsov, W. J. Davidson and Adam Deas. The peal was srranged for them, and, deapite the weather, they kept the "date.

JIINND RENGEK'S AOHIEWEMEND
The golden jubilee of sit. Davin's Clureh, Banqor, North Wales, was celebrated witlı 2 penl of Bois Major on December 18th.
The tourth liell was tumg by Mr. Grrald Bromiey, who has been bind from birth. It twas his first peal and he struck his hell admirabiy thronghout. Mr. Bromley gradiated FA . af Oxiord and now rimeg at Elandudno. He has mastered four standard methods and is learning Double Norwich.
After the peal the hand were entertained by Mr. and Mis. A. E. Pegler. whose kinduest was much appreciated.
The birthday of Mr. Wesley Wytson, a veteran anong Essex ringers, was celehrated no December 20th, when a peal of Superiative Surpsise whe rung at Romiford. It was also a hirthday compliment to Mrs. E. J. Butler, wife of the hen. secretary of the South-Western Division of the Feser Association.
A peal of Stedman Triples was rugg at Bishop Ryáer's Church, Birmingham, on Christmas Fve, in connection with the centenary celebrations of this church and as a compliment to Mr. Jemes George, who reached his 85th hirthday on November 27 th.
Mr. Gearge is Ringing Master at Bishop Ryder's, but being, unfortuntelely, still in hospital, was unable to teke part in the peal, which wss conducted by Mr. W. .3. Cartwright, of Risg"s Norton, from the tenor. Mr. Cartwright has now called a peal of Stedmay Triples Erom each bell in an octave.
After a band had mel slort tor a peal of hob Rogat at Wig*ne Lancs, on Boxing Das, a peal of Grandsire Triples was ring on the back oight.
Mr. Lewis Tyldesles lans pat in 53 vears as a ringer at Christ Church, Southport, Lancashire, and io celehrate this lone service a peal of Stedman Triples was rung on the bells on Boxing Day OFF TO THE FAK EAST.
Petty Officer H. T. Chandler, of Herefordshire, who has recently made his home in Devonport, is shortly leaving for service in the Far Fanf. A farewell peal was rung for him at New Radnor, Radnorshire, on December 27th. Tluis peal of Grandsire Doables whs his 25th peal on six bells end his 25 th penl for the Hereford Dromesan Guild.
The peal was origibally arruuged for Toxing Day, but Mr. J. Butler, who had to cycle over 50 mites from Shtewsburv, atrived three hours late and the attempt had to he pestponed to the following day. We understand, however, that it. was not the distance that cansed Mr. Butler's delny, but a certain wedding at a famous Shrewsbury chureh.
Five mombers of the Dobbie family wans a birthday peal for Mrs. Stanley Dohhie at their home tower, chtinghourne, on Decembar 27th, when Clarence Dobbie, whose peal ringing experience is very wide, rang his frest peal as conductor on tower bells.
The Rev. W. N. Mayze las completed 40 years as Rector of Wistaston, Cheshire, and on Decemher 27th a pea! of Minor was zing at the Parish Church to celebrate the event. It was the 50th peal on the hells, and Mr. Albert Crawley. who called it has the distinction of having rumg in all of them. Messrs. R. T. Holding and G. H. Crowley. Who took part in the 50th peal, also rang in the fret peal on the bells.

PEAL NOTES.

Mr. Ernest Stitch, of Port Talbot, Glamorgan, cang his 250th peal on December 27th at Llangibby, Monmouthehire. It was a peal oi Bob Major, is which Messrs. Hogford and Tyler, of Bristol, toals pert; and the conductor (Dowald Clife) and Mr. George Popnelf rang cheir fortieth peal together.

On Boxing Day at Newhall, Derbyshire, Mr. J. W. Cotton, hon. eecretary of the Burton District of the Midand Cotinties Association, rang his 100 th peal, and on the following dey, when the first tet-bell peal since the recesting of the belle et Duffeld by Messrs. Taylor and Co. was rung, he scored his century for the association.
At Newhall, Mr. Ronald Dove, a former secretary of the Burton District and now living at Headingley, Leeds, rang his 150th peal, which, by a coincidence, was lis 50 ch peal for the Midlaud Counties Aseciation.
Saffron Walden snd the neme of Pitstow are bymonymour in connection with ringing. In a peal of London Surprise Major rung there on December 27th, three members of the family took purt.
The first peal at Sherburn-in-Elmet, Yorkshire, by a local band was rung on December 27th. The company included three ladies.

The frrst peal on the bells at Uplowman, Devon, since they were rehung by Messre. J. Taylor and Co. was ruug on December 27th. It was 42 six-scores of Grandsiro Doubles and Frederick Alderman's first peal as couluctor.
Mr. C. H. Harding rang his 50th peal when he took part in 6 geven Minor methods at Mauden, Bedfordshire, on December 27 th .
The penl at Wombourue, Staffs, on Christruas Eve, was a birthday compliment to Mr. Chris. Wallater, of Willenliall.

RINGERS MOVE UPSTAIRS.
The peal of Minor rung at Ibstock on December $15 t h$ was specially arranged to celebrate the removal of the ringing chamber from the ground floor to a beautifully fitted belfry 2lft. nearer the bells. This has meent the fitting of a filse foor suitably packed with sound resisting material, and althougl the ringing is now done immediately below the bells, there is no unnecessary noise.
The ringers wish to couple the name of Mr. J. W. Hopkins with the peal, as this grand ald majl, now well in his elghties, finds it impossible to climb the steps to the ringing chamber, ind has, therefore, been compelled to retise after many years' faithful serwice. The peal was also e birthday compliment to Mr. J. W. Cotton.

On Christmas Eve, a peal of Major was to have been attempted at Hughenden, Bucks, but, meeting short, six of the band rang a peal of Bob Minor instead
Not everybody had a holiday on Boxing Day. A good many ringers took part in two peals in the one day, but what about the three onthusiasts who rang Stedman Cinques for three hours and 38 minutes at Liverpool and also three hours and 32 minutes in a peal of combined Oxford and Kent Treble Boh Royal at Wrexliam in North Wales?
A number of Kentish ringers also spent a very bug\% time daring the two bank bolidays that followed Ctristmas. They rang two peals ons Boring Day and two on December 27th. We admire their enthusiasm especially in such wenther. Into their bag went two peals of Camhridge, and one each of Superiative and Double Norwich.
The peal at Crayford on Boxing Day was $\pi$ silver wedding complimont to Mr. and Mrs. F. G. A. Murphy, parents of Mr. Geofirey V. Murphy, wio, on the following dey, rang his looth peal for the Kent County Association and his 50th peal with that other youthenj enthusiast, Derek Sharp.

Sewen ringers took part in all these four pents, and there were ald heads as well ss young hands amorg them.
The peal of Grandes Caters at Str, John's, Leicester, on Boxing Day, was rung on the tenth anniwersary of the opening of the bells afier inving been angzoented to ten, the two trebles being the gift of that old Leicester stalwart, Mr. William Willson. All who have had the pleasure of ringing at St. John's know what a perfoct "splice" the founders made,
Mr Jemes Hunt, of Taunton, rang his 550th peal on Boxing Day, when he called a peal af Bob Major at Timberscombe, Somerset. Mr. John Pugsley, who took part, is the first resident ringer of the Dunster Dennery" to ring an 'ingide" bell to a peal of Major.
A peal of Stedman Triples was rung at All Saints'. Daresbuny, Cheshire, on Boxing Day, as a welcome to the new Vicer (the Rev. F. W. L. M. Protnerowe). An earlier attempt for the peal failed through the clapper of the tenor falling out while ringing was in progress.
Mr. W. T. Beeson, who is a member of the Surrey Constabulary, ravg his 50th peal of Landon Surprise Major on December 27th when a band, incidentally drawn from three counties, visited Pulborough, Sussex.

DON'T SCRUB YOUR HANDS!

Cleanse and preserve your skin this simple way

To many people, the problem of getting the hands really clean without harming the skin is a serious one. Grease and grime, which become deeply ingrained into the pores of the skin, are extremely difficult to remove, and ordinary washing with soap or even scrubbing will fail to remove them completely. Housewives, particularly, who complain that their hands get ruined by the nature of their work, will find the preparation called DERMAFOAM a real "godsend." DERMAFOAM just smoothes away dirt and grease without effort. It gets right down into the pores and removes every particle of grime, leaving skin beautifully supple and healthy.

Men, tho-when you've finished that dirty job on the car, DERMAFOAM will quickly banish all grease and oil from your hands. It acts almost magically-working under and around the nails and into every minute crease, removing all trace of dirt in a flash.

Engineers, Painters, Car Mechanics, Printers - everyone - will welcome DERMAFOAM, the modern method of cleansing and protecting the hands.

WHEN THE PUBLIC COMPLAINS.

Not infrequently a member of the public finds church bells a source of annoyance, and ventilates some of his wrath by 'writing to the papers' about it. A Shrewsbury gentleman, the other day, found an outlet for his grievance in a London newspaper, which invites readers' views on any subject under the sun, and gives replies to their letters. These replies are usually packed with sound common sense, and the answer given to the correspondent on this occasion, which we print in another column, reflects very accurately the position with regard to the ringing of church bells. The complaint from Shrewsbury is that the writer is awakened at ' 6 a.m. every Sunday by the hideous din of church bells ringing.' People who grumble at the ringing of church bells are, as a rule, prone to exaggeration. Generally speaking, there are no 6 a.m. services in our churches, except upon the great festivals, and it is quite possible that ' $6 \mathrm{a} . \mathrm{m}$. every Sunday' in this case was the isolated instance of Christmas morning. While the gentleman concerned may have resented having his slumbers disturbed even upon such an occasion when, above all others, the public like to hear church bells, he can probably be counted with those who make mountains out of molehills, like the artist who recently complained that a chime in Regent Street kept him awake all night, when actually the chime is silent from $10 \mathrm{p} . \mathrm{m}$. to $6 \mathrm{a} . \mathrm{m}$.

However, allowing for the feelings of those who do not love church belts, most of whom have no love for the Church either, there is something to be said in favour of curtailing the long chiming of a single bell before an early service. It is seldom the service ringing of a peal of bells that creates amoyance or remonstrance; it is the tedious repetition of a dissonant clang that causes trouble. But when this is the case, bells in general come in for the scourging dealt out in newspaper correspondence. The rubric requires a bell to be rung before service, but the long unbroken spell of a single bell is irritating to the nerves, and every effort ought to be made to reduce this kind of thing to a minimum in populous areas.

But, alter all, we live in a peaceful country, despite our early service bells. On New Year's Day listeners heard the type of "ringing' which prevails in some other lands, a noisy discordant jangle, which can be heard frequently in the early morning in many continental cities and towns. Compared with this, the bells of England are musical and even soothing to the ear with their rhythmic pealing, and a single bell is but a gentle tinkle. Those who complain that their rest is disturbed in this guiet land of ours are fortunate that they do not live within earshot of some of the noisy clangour set up by the bells in such countries as France or Italy.

DEATH OF MR. J. W, GOLDING

MEMBER OF CELEBRATED WESTMINSTER BAND.
We regret to anyounce the disath of Mr. Iolu W. Golding, which took place last Frinay in the Sussex County Hospital, Brightor. Mr. Goldiug bad suffered badly from asthana for some years and it was this dietressing complaint that lod him to remove from london to the Susser Coast, and eventually debarred him from auy active participation in ringing
Mr. Golding was one of the brilliant band of College Youths who, at the endi of last and in the early years of this centary, rany at St. Stephen's Westuinster. They rose to great fame by their an'ilievemente, the peak of which was probably the silent pesl of London Surprise Nejor ruag at St. Stephen's on 及anuary 5th, 1901. In the previous year they rang the first peal of St. Stephen's Surprise Major. Among other jinteresting performances in which Mr. Goldag took part were the first 'name" peals of London Surprise and Stednain Cinques. The 'Jolm ' peal of Loudon was ruag at St. Stepheu's iu 1004 and the Stedman Cinques (the only peal on twelve bells rung by a band of the same Cluristian namo) at St. Giles', Cripplegate, in 1912 In 1913 Mr . Golding rang in the finst silent peal on twelve tower bells, a peal of Stednan Cinques by the College Youths at St. Micheel's, Corshill.
Mr. Goidine served for a year as Master of the Ancient Socrety, being elected in 1902. He was able, with considerablo effort, to attend the society's tercentenary gatheriag in 1937.
The funeral took place at Portslade Cemetery, Sussex, on Weduesday, after a sarvice nit Aldrington Church.

YORKSHIRE ASSOCIATION.

FASTERN DISTRICT FAVOURS BELFRY REPATRS FUND
The quarterly meeting of the Eastern District of the Yorkshire Association was held at Eelby on Saturday, wheu there was an attendance of 30 ringers. Athough rather lower than usual, this number was considered very satisiactory consilering the wretalied weather cunditions that prevailed.
Choral evensong in the Abbey, at which the Vicar (Canon Solloway) gave the address, was attended by members.
Tea, in the Hawdon Institnte, was followed by the business meeting. over which the Vicar presided, supported by the viec-presideut i31r. F . Cryer) and other officials.
Five new members were elocted: Messrs. M. Grundy and G. Varley, of Selby, I. Bradley nud EI. Bradley, of Sherburn-in-Elmet, and R. A. Reed, of Eastleigh, Hants.
Goole was decided on as the place for the antual district ureting in March.
A discussion took place on the suggrested Bell Repaira Fund, and after Mr, F. W, Dule, who made the sugyestion, lund explained his srieme and others had spoken, Miss K. I. Bowling, proposed nud Mr. I. W. Kneeshaw seconded that the meeting agree in principte to the schome, and this was carcied by a large majority.
Mr. Fox moved and Miss Bowling seconded a voto of thanks to the Wiear, choir and organist, and, in his reply, Canon Solloway gave the association a very hearty welcome to Selby, and said he was niways very pleased to be with the Yorkshire Association at their gatherings. A collection on behali of an appeal for funds for the bell, restoration at Brontley Parish Glurch, Zreconshire, realised 155.
Tlie towers represented it the meeting werc Arksey, Far Headingley, Goole, Hemingbrough, Hessle, Howden, Hull, Kirk Et', Market Weight toh, Pontefract, Sherhurn-in-Elmet, Sutton-on-Hull. York Miuster, Bererleg Minstor and the local campany. The methods rung were Grandire and Stedman Triples and Caters, Plain Bob and Trcble Roln Major and Royal, and Double Norwich Major.

BATH AND WELLS DIOCESAN ASSOCLATION

FALUE OF A GOOD SERVICE TODCH

A quarterly meeting of the Bath and Wells Diocesan Association was bold at Westan-super-Mire on Saturday, when nembers from Bath, Taunton, Nailsea, Churchifl, Frome, Long Aghtnn, Congresbury, Wrington, Binegar, Badgworth, Drayton, Wedmore, Upliill and Chilcompton were present. The eight bells were raised at 3 p .m., and were kept going until 4.30 , the touch before the service, tecording to custom in this association, teing rung by the best band avainale. This consisted of three courses of Stedman Triptes, which were so goad that even the secretary did not gramble about them. It was the late Master of the Guild who originatly asked that this should be done, and the jdea has been faithfully carried out ever siace. It gerves two purposes. It reminds the members of a beloved priest, and because to is rung when all the people who attend the maeting have nothing to do buty listen, it cannot fail to get a standard of striking which is worthy of smulation.
Service was conducted by the Rev. Preb. Porclier, who welramed the ringers present. After the service he accompanied them to tea at Brown's Cafe, where the subsequent buainess meeting was beld.
rown' Cafe, where the subsequent buiness meting was bele.
Tho Master (the Rep. W. M. K. Werren) presided. Belfry elections were confirmed, ana Mr, and Mrs. Rupert Racherdson as life members, and Messrs. F . Mathews, $y$. Bass and G. Ashford as non-resideri ringing members, were accepted by the meeting.
An omnibus vote of thanks to the Vicar, to Mr. Minifie, the local brancb secretary, who arranged all the datails incident to the meeting, and to Mr. W. Popham, steeplekeeper, was proposed by Mr. J. Hunt. and carried with acclamation
The two first named replied briefly, and the members then adjourneed to the tower, where practice from romis to Surprise Major toak pince. The absence from the meeting of Mr. D. G. Taylor, hon, nulditor, was commented upon, and thu meeting heard with regtet that be was confned to bed with a cold. Hopes were expressed that soon he would be fit again. Ne ringer attenis meetings more assiduously, and always his car is full of ringers who otherwise would be unable to attend.

BELERY GOSSIP

Messre. John Taylor and Co. have in hand the lehanging of the rings of six at Cheadle Parish Church, Staffs, and St. Giles' Catholic Church, Cheadle, Staff. Both peals are to be rehung in new frame and the Catholic Church hope to add two more bells to make eight It is very seldom that two peals in the same town are restored simultaneously.
It was not Miss Sylvia Bowyer, after all, who beaded tho list of peal ringers in 1938, but 'Teddy' Barnett, of Crayford, who scored 64. It does not, howeser, detract from the merit of hiss Bowyer's performance of 62 peals.

We mentioned in our article last week the activities of some of the younger generation at Cragford, and we leara that Derek Sharp was a close third in the disi; his total was 61. We are much obliged to Mr. P. A. Corby for thy ibformation. The reason we did not have it last weak is due, we fear, to an insufficiently addressed inquiry sent to Crayfori.

Mr. Joln Jaggar, of Warley, Birmingham, whose counection with beils goes back Eomething like 70 years, to the time when he was a choirboy at an Oxford chnreh, was 78 years old on January 3rd, and duly celebrated the event with his friends of St , Martin's Guild. Mr. Jaggar was one of the Burton-on-Trent hand that made Surprise ringing listory in the 'eighties of last century.
On Ohristmas Day ho and some colleagues played handbell tures to the patients in West Bromwich District Hospital. They have dome it every Christmas Day since 1906-never once in that 32 years have they failed to contribute this entertainment. We hope they will be eble to continue if for many years to come.

As Chertsey bells are undergoing repair, the sinual meeting of the Chertsey District of the Guildford Guild on January 21at is to be held ab Hersham,
The ringing visitors who signed their panes in tle visitors' book at, St. John's Church, Blackpool, in 1938, numbered exactly 100. The number of changes rung in touches for Sunday services was 38,887 a reduction on 1937 of over 1,000 changes. The methods were Double Norwich, Kent Treble Bob Major, Bob Major, Little Bob Major, Stedman Triplea, Grandsire Triples, Bob Minor, Kent Treble Bob Minor, Oxford Ireble Bob Minor, Stedman Doułles and Grandsire Doubles.

Mr. J. H. Swinfield and farnily wish to sincerely thank all those who have written to express their sympathy with them in thoir recent bereavement. Owing to the number of letters received, it was not possible to reply individually.
The most recent reports upon two well-known invalids, Mr. T. Maude, of Pudsey, and Mr. W. H. Fussell, of Slourg, are that botb are "about the same."

THE EARLY MORNING BELL.

In a recent issue of the 'Daily Mirror,' the following letter appeared mader 'Live Letter Box from Mr. $\mathrm{F}^{\prime}$. V. Party, of Shrewsbury:"Every Sunday I am awakened at 6 a.m. by the hideons din of cinurch bells ringing.
"Now, if I went out into the street at this unearthly hour ringing a whopping great bell, I'd probably get six montly.
"Sunday is supposed to be the day of rest, but how the heck can a fellow rest while this infernal shindy is going on?

- Don't you think you wise old guys could get together and do something about it ${ }^{3}$

This "Daily Mirrox's' answer twas :-
"Nomsir! This is YOUR pigeon. Legally, the ordinary niaging of bells for morning nad eveling selvice is not a nuisance.

- But injunctions have been granted in some cases to stop tong practice ringing at odd times, though the plaintiff doesn't get a lot of sympathy for attempting to stop bellringing at cervice times.
"Oyr own opinion is that the prolonged jangle of bells is pretty unmecesary in a town.
'In the country, where people have to be called across hills and diles, it's another matter.

FRAMSDEN" $1 S$ "LOUGHBOROUGH.

 ONE METHOD: TWO NAMES.Even when a method bas beon published and named there is, apparently, a risk of it comiag from another sonree and being unsuspectingly rong under a differeat name. A case in point has just arisen. Mr. A. G. Driver, of Belvedare, writes:-

- The method rung recently as Framsden Surprise and published in your issue of Dec. 23 rd is not new. It was rung about 18 monthe ago and named Longhborongh, the figures appearing under that name in "TThe Ringing World " of Aug. 20th, 1937. This is, however, the first peal in ths method, as it was previonsly one of seven methods rung in a spliced pesl.'
The spliced peal referred to by Mr. Driver was rung at Wigston Mapna. Leicestershire, on May 12th, 1937. Al] the courses were rang with a lead each of Wigston, Leicestershire, Loughborough, Crayford, Huntingdon, Bognor and Buckingham in that order. Loighhorough and Bognor were methuds by Mr. J. S. Carter, of Wigston,

We have to thank Mr. K. A. Roe, of Wigston, aud Mr, F. W. Tipler, of Luterworth, for gimilar information.

LEADING CONDUCTORS-53.

PERCY SWINDLEY.

Cheahire has often luad among its leading singers men of real enterprige, who atrike away from the beatet track, and the record of Mr. Percy Swindley, of Chester, shows that he is anong those who are still keeping alive this commendable spirit in that corner of England. He bas conducted peals in various splived plain Major methode and is one of the little band that has just campleted the ringing of an extent of every Minor method in the Central Council Collection.
Mr. Swindley was born at Handbridge, Chester, on July 31 st, 1899. His fathe is towerkeeper both at St. Mary's, Handbridge, and Chester Cathedtal, and Mr. Percy Swindley is one of the regular ringers at botl places. He was taught to ring during the war, but, owing to the shortage of hands, made very little progress. Then, in 1917 , he joined the Mnchine Gun Corps, and it was not until February 4th, 1921, that he had his firsi opporfubity to ring the treble to a peal of Grandsire Triplea, at the Church of St, Mary-Within-the-Walls Chester.

It was pot, however, untit 1928 that he took geriounly to ringing. Fis first pea! of Major was Plsin Bob, but his secoud was Loudon Surprise on a boh bell. His first pes] ins conductor was one of Boh Major at St. Mary's, Handbridge, on August 2nd, 1930. Since then he has conducted the only perls runs by the Chester Diacesen Guild of Spliced Double Norwich, Dnuble Oxford, Plaim ant Little Bob Majof ; Splicef Dauble Norwich and Plain Bob: Spliced Platn and Little Rob: peals of Latile Oxford, Bob Major and Hereward Bob Major, as well as the ouly peals in Wales of Little Albion Treble Bob Major and Hereward Bob Major. He also took part in the onfy peal in Wules rung by fathers and sons, and in the only peal of Spliced Grandam and Grandsire Triples, an arrangeramt by the late Mr. Farry Wilde, Grandam being Grand sira rung bickwards.

MR. PERGY SWINDLEY
Although Mr. Swindley has conducted a fair proportion of Surprise methods, he much prefers ringing plain methods. His peals, which namher 170, of which he has conducted 54, have been rung on six to twelve bells in 48 towers in six counties,

FOR WATCHNIGHT SERVICE.

Five ringers rang their first quarter-peal of Bristol Surprise Major on New Year's Eve for the watchnight service at St. Mary's, Willes den. It was rung with the bells half-mutled by E. H. Kilby 1, A. Cutler 2, E. B. Hartley 3. Mrs. J. H. Botham 4, C. C. Marne S J. H Botlaam 6, FI. Kilby 7, E. C. S. Turner (conductor) 8. First quarterpenl in the method by ringers of $1,2,3,4$ and 6.

LADY'S FIRST QUARTER PEAL.

Miss Doreen Lister, of Shipley, Yorkshire, rang her first quarter-peal at. the Parish Church for morning service on Christmas Day, It was a quarter-peal of Roh Minor, JHag hy Miss Doreen Lister 1, w. Fox 2, T. B. Kendall 3, Miss Mary White 4, K. Simpson 5, H. Simpson (conductor') 6.

meny yeers in adyance of "The Ringing World,' it is suftient to ask if it is not strange that every other territorial association in the country zas, for more than 60 years, been fabouring under the same failacyp Would it not be truer to say that if the London Coundy Asgociation imposed an annual subseription it would lose a great part of its menbert?
Finally, whether such articles will increase the circulation of this paper or not, is beside the point. Admittedly "The Ringing World' aeeds the support of ringers, but it has never yet hesitated, for fear of losing support, to express honest convictions on any subject which it cansiders of interest to the Eaercise; and while the present Editor is responsible it is not lizely to do so.

THE LONDON COUNTY ASSOCIATION

SEORETARY'S REPLY TO 'THE RINGLNG WORED' ARTICLE. To the Editor
Dear Sir-It is rather astounding that "The Ringing World ' ehould have to resorf to interference with en association's internal aftairs for its front page news, the contents of which show how easily the Editor is led, and with the assiatance of another writer whose defeat at inter ference this year can be seen in this.

As for making one"s own question by endeavouring to eause disiuption, and then not liking the reply, to wit, 'obvious side-stepping ' in connection with towers bolonging to any nesociation, and to buggest that this does not mean the steuctute, is childish talk
Our pasibion is in no wiay curious, nor does it require the attenbion of "The Ringing World ' in this respect. Its position in London is well defined, see a copy of 'The Hiatory ent Rules of London Connty Associstion

This association has in no way ever ignored its title, and now paints the figger of scorn to the Editor and the Diocesan Association of which he was the instigator ebcroaching on the areas allyeady covered by other associations.
Another point, of which we have seen the fallacy many years ago, and which the Fditor still pretends to be blind to, is that of ntnual snbscriptions. Our experience puts us many years in advance of "The Ringing SWorld.

Pibaly we cannot see that such articles will increase the circulation of the paper, which wr have been told wo much requires atteution, wher our suggestions for its improvement are so igrored.
T. W. TAFFTNDFR, Hon. See.
P.S.-Writh the puslicetion of this concludes our comerpondence.

THE EDITOR'S COMMENTS

The above reply to the leading article, which appeared in our issue of December 23 rd , reminds $u 8$ of the ald principle which some mem bers of the legal profession wero said to ensploy, "If you have a bad case, abuse the opposing alitorney; and that is what Mr. 'l"affender has sought to do in his letter.

It may be as well to cepeat what lias been so mans times said, that the object of the leading articles in : Tha Ringing World ' is so durect attention to matters of interest and to encournge others to think. The position of the London County Association is a matter of interest to many outside the association itself, and its actions ave of more than purely interaal conceras, when it eneroaches unon the areas of than purel intoraal conceraz, when it eneroaches upon, the areas of originally intended to serve.
In view of certain of the statemonts made by Mr, Taffender, we feel it necessary to give a cetegorical reply. First, the Faitor had no assiatance fromis any other writer in songection with this article, noither was jt prompted by anything eacept by what transpired at the London County Association's own meeting at Kenningtor. Up to the present the Editor lins been entirely capable of formiog his own opinions and uriting his own articles. Incideutally, lie is a member of the Eondon Connty Association.
It is interesting to motice that the London County $\Delta$ ssociation ' now points the finger of scom to the Fditor and the Diocesan Association of which he was the instigator, encroaching on the areas already covered by other associations.' This inmendo is an indication of a bitherness whel is unworthy, both of the association and its secretary but most editors are used to being shol at and they are fatyly welt able to judge the quality of the ammanition used againat them. Therefore, as far as we are concerncd. we proposo to ignofe ib. But its application to a Guila with which the Editor has been closely assaciated is something which cannot pars entirely unnoticed.
The Guildford Diocesan Guild, which is olviously refertel to, is in no way concerned with the controversy which has now been raised or with the Editor in his conduct of this paper. The reference to it, therefore, is not anly out of place and uncalled for, but is in the worst possible taste. Indeed, we imagine the members of the London County Association will resent this opprobrious expression, to nnother friendy organisation, being used by their secretary in their name and without their authority.
It may, however, under the circumstances, be as well to give the facts of the formation of the Guildford Diocesan Gaild for the henefit of Mr. Taffender, particularly as the Editor of "The Ringing World seems, in his opinior, to be the villain of the piece.
Afthough the Editor of "The Ringing World ' became the first secretary of the Guild, he actually opposed its formation at the time it was first mooted, so it cannot be said he was the instigator of it. But the Guildford Guitd, founted after the severance of the Guildford Diocese from the Winchester Diocese, started upon its carcer, not as a pirate, or even as a poocher, but with the utmost goodwill of the parent association. It has mever attempted to extend its raca of operations beyond the strict limits of the diocesan boundary, and does not muscle in upan the towers of other established societijes beyond its worders. Although this has nothing to do with the point at issue, it must be said in justice to the Guidjord Dincesan Guila.
As to the question of annual subscriptions, to the failacy of which Mr. Taffender says the Editor still pretends to be blind and upon which subject the experience of the Iondon County Association is (Continued in previous colvma.)

ST. MARTIN'S GUILD, BIRMINGHAM.

HEALTHY FINANCLAL POSITPION\section*{Proposal for New Committee Defeated}

The annual mesting of St. Martin's Guild for the Diocese of Birmingham was held at headquarters, the Tamworth Arms, Moor Streetr, Binmingham, on Saturday last. The bells of St. Martin's Church were available from 4.30 p.m. and were made good use of in various methods until 6 o'clock, when an adjourument was made to the club room at the Tamworth Armas, where so many amoul meetings of the Guild have taken place. Owing to the inclement weather and his advanced age, the Master, Alderman J. S. Pritchett, M.A., was unable to be presert, and Vice-President Conncillor 1. Paddon Smith was, therefore, voted to the chair.
Arising out of the minutes of the previous meeting, Mr. M. J. Morris moved a resolution "That $a$ committee representing the towers affiliated to the Guild be appointed in addition to the usual officials to conduct the ordinery business aud affairs of the Guild.' He thought this wes necessary, as, in his opiniou, the Guild was qoing back, losing uembera and losing towers. After Mr. Fred Dickens had formally seconded it, a very interesting diecussion took place.
The secretary, Mr. T. H. Reeves, pointer out that there was already a rule appointing such a committee as was now suggested, and the reason the committea bad not been called together was that the officers had not thought it necessary to do so.
Mr. Dickens stated he had been down to the Bull Riag several times on a Tuesday night when there had been no practice. That did not obtain in the old days, and he thought something should be done to keep the weekly practices going.
Tho Ringing Master, Mr. F. E. Haynes, said he attended most I'uesday bights. Conditians lad altered somewhat in recent years, members were living further out from the city; in addition there were now regular ringing practices taking place at the Cathedral and Aston Parish Church. He did not think he ought to be expected to send out circulars io menbers in order to get them to come in.
Mr. A. Walker did not agree with the resolution. In his opinon, the Guitd wns progressing and the present offcers were doinf their worl atisfactorily and world contiwue to do so if supported by the members.
The resolution, on being put to the oueting, was lost by $a$ hig majority.
It was unanimously decided that the next quarterly meeting be held at the Parish Church, Astors, on faturduy, April Ist, and that the bi-quarterly neeting be held at the Earish Cluweh, Cojeslisil.

The hon, treasurer, in presenting tha balance sheet, stated that the Guild's fmances were in $n$ very healthy condition. When he beard mombers anying that the Gnild was grint hack be failed to see any evidence of it. The membership was greater than ever it liad been, and members' subscriptions during the past. year were $£ 6$ more than in the previous year, while the balance in hand was nearly $& 8$ more than at this time last year. The Guild's fiasnces were in a very healthy condition and he had much gleasure in presenting the accomes. -The auditors, Messrs. J, Preston nnd IF, Price, having given their report, the balance sheet was accepted and passed unanimouslr.

MASTER'S RESIGNATION REFUSED.

Mr. Frank Perrens proposed the re-clection of all the officers for the current year. The secretary, however, reported the recejpt of a fretter from Alderuan Pritchett, in which he stated that on account of lis health gnd advanued years (he was 84 on the 8 th inst.), he felt The time lad come for him to resign the office of Master with which i. he Guild lad honoured him for so long. He much regretted laving to take this course, but he had bad a long inntngs and timo and tide wait for no man.
The Chaiman (Conncillor Paddon Smith) said they all regretted the alsence of the Master and they must realise that owjog to lis advanced age he would not be able to attend their meetings in the future as in the past, but be thought he was expressing the wishes of all the members when he said they could not accept the Master's resignation Althougli physically he was not so active, yet mentally he was as keen as ever and still had the well-being of the Guild at lieart. He was an ornament to the Guild, and whilst he bad breath in lis body should continue to be their Master.
The resolution was seconded by Mr. Fred Dickens and supported by Mr. Albert Walker. On being put to the meeting it was carried เมп표imously

The secretary was instructed to write Alderman Pritchett acquainting him of his re-election and tendering to bim hearty congratulations and best wishes on heving reached the 84th annivereary of lis birthday.

The hon. secretary and truasurer, Mr. T. H. Reeves, thonght the Hime had arrived when they should appoint a successor. He had now completed ten years as their secretary, and although he knew his predecessor lad served 90 yerrg, he would point out that Mr. Smith started minely younger than he did, and so he placed his resigation in the liands of the members
Mr. Alhert Walker proposed the ze-election of Mr. Reeves. He Had given entire satisfaction to 99.9 per cent. of the members aud he had their support.
This was seconded by Vice-President J. H. Shepherd.
The Chirman remarked that not only had he been secretary for 20 years, but his two previous predecessors had held the position for 27 years each, so they certajnly could not let Mr. Reeves resign until be also hitd completed his term of 20 years.

The resolution, us being put to the meeting, was carried unamimously.
Mr. Reeves, in acknowledging lis re-election, said he would accept it for another jear, but could not acept the chairman's senterce to another ten years.
Mr. Perrens' resolution that the remaining oflicers be re-elected was seconded by Mr. W. C. Dowding and ameried unanimonsly.

HENRY JOHNSON COMMEMORATYON DINNER.
As previously arranged, the Henry Johnson Commemoration dinner is to take place an Saturday, February $25 t h$, at the Imperial Hotel, Temple Street, Birmingham, and the chair will he taken by the Rev, Canon Stuart Blofeld, vicar of Edghaston. All furlher arravgements were Ieff in the hands of the officers.
Urder the ivem "Any other business, Mr. G. F. Swann, librariay, suggested that the Master should have a badge or chain of oftice to weax an the dimer and at meetings. Fie did not sugatat anything very expensive; in fact be had a recallection that many years ago Mr. Galimore, of Lichjela, zresented $\bar{a}$ locket, which contained ab lock of Hezry Jolmson's hafr, to the Guild fas the Master to werr. Did avy member know what had become of it?
Mr. Walker and Mr. Dickens hed some recollection of such e locket, but neither had any idea whers it nnw was. It was suggeated that possibly Ahderman Pritcheth might know itg whereabouls, and the secretary was instructed to write lim on the matter.
The remaizder of the dvening was given up to friendly interconrse and rigging on tho hendbel.s. Many were the recollections recalled, The very room itself had shades of past warthy ringers of St. Martin's, guch as Tom Reynolds, Harry Baclable, John Day, Sam Reeves, Rouk Small, W. H. Godderr, Toun Thussam agd John Carter. Thera were scveral notable absentees [rom the meeting, among them Fom Milfer, James George and Harry Withers, It was recalled that it was tho 50 th adniversary af the amblgamation of the St. Martin's Youths and the Holt Society of Aston. Among the reminisceuces retold were the visits of tive Gind to Exeter many pears ago and to the attempl for the peal of Boh Royal at the Cathedral. Tom Miller, who was silting in the tower, was called to relieve Arthur Peglar on the tenor, who tras then up behind. Some minutes afterwards the peal collapsed, and in the words of Tom Mrller ' he freenlieeled the tenor down to lend, but could not get the perisiner back again. Atrother recollection was the first peal of Major or Frdington Parish Chureh bells, when the strilsing was so good that a local resident went to the verger and asked him if he had forgotters to turn the engine off, thinking that such good ringing must be mechanical. Nor would he believe it when the werger tated to assure lim that there were men at the ends of the ropes. And so tho evening went on untill the cry of "Tiuse' brought snather snccessful annual meeting to a close.

FIRST PEAL OF MAJOR AT FROME.

INTERJEFLNG LTNK WITH 18th CENTCRY BELL FOUNDER. Mr. J. E. Lewis Cockey, formerly of Sheffield and now residing at Harrow, has had the distincrion of ringing to a peal a bell cast by ane of his ancestors more than 200 years ago. This was at Frome, Somersel, on December 3lst, when a peal of Double Norwich Major Was rung on this heavy eight-the first peal of Major on the bells. Mr. Comey can clam descent from Willian Cockey, bell founder, of Frome has a fine peal of louls lung in two tiers and of mixal dates, the most recent hell dating from 1792 and the oldest from 1524 : The tenor, measuring 55 inches, was cast in 1062 by John Lott, of Warminster, Wilts. ryhe bells have receatly beez rehuag in bell bearings by Messrs. Gillett and Johnston, and this was only the third peal on the bells with the tenor rung single-handed, the first lag ving been Stedman Tuiples in 1908 , with Mr . J. H. shepherd ringing the tenor, and the second in the early 1920's, with Mr. S. J. Hector on the tener Previous to the peal on New Yaar's Eve the Vicar (the Rev. W. J. Torrancel recited suitable preyers in the beliry, others present beside the peal band including Mr. J. O. Lewj, Miss D. E. Cockey (cousun of Mr. J. E. Lewis Corkey), Mrs. Reeg "Pazdora" of the "Sunday Times '! Mresers. W. Bishop (eaptain), W. Flower and E. H. Nash of the local company. It was particularly kind of the Vicar to give special permiegion to ring through the 6 p.m. evensong, owing to a later start than lad been intended. But for thes, completion of the peal mould have bean impossible, as it did not come rollad until 6.20 p.m.

The band wonld tike to thank the Yicar for kinaly giving permission for the peal attempt, Mr. J. O. Lewis for Mis assistance with the arrangements, and Mr. W. Bishop for his belp with the ropes and opening the tower.
The ringers, who travelled from Readiag in two cars, also rang at Calne, Wilts, and Beckington. Frmerset, the latter tlirough the kindhess of Mr. E. H. NaEh, district secretary, who also engerly took names (and subscriptions) of the soven ringers elected members of the Bath and Wells Association before starting the peal

On the way home, Mesars, N. Golden, A. S. Richards and A. P. Cannon lad the pleasure of rimging the old year out at Beenharn, Berks, where the local band gave them a pleasant welcome. Incidentally this was the 183 rd tower in which Mr. A. P. Cannou rang during 1938, and the eleventh rombty in which he rang a peal.

PEAL NOTES.

OLD-YEAR PEALS.

A number of peala mere rung on New Your's Eve and finished just hefore midnight. At Buxton, Norfolk, after a peal of Minor, the hour was tollet mad the customary ' firing ' welcomed 1939.
Some of the peals were rung half-mufiled to bid farewell to the old year. Where it is done, it is just a lacal custom, bur we ran see $n 0$ sontimental reason for it. For instance, 1938 can have given us very little reason to mours jts depgrture.

We referred last week to My, Rolott J. Maynard's 'ong agenciation with ringing in Walthamgtow; how for of years lise has ruug for tho Christmas festival and on 65 occasions (two were cut out in the war years] has rulg the uld year out and new year in. Last New Year's Eve lue took part in a peal of Stedman Caters at St. Mary's Church. He is over 80 years of ago and puts in much of his time in these days in tilling his trell-kept allotment.
It was fitting that the names of thres generations of the family should lave been aswociated with Mr. Bdwin Bamett's 450th peal, rung at Crayford, Kent, on December 34st. He condncted a peal of Doutble Norwich composed by his father and in it his son took part. It wus Mr. Phil. Corby's 50th peal in 1838.

A peal of Bob Major at Euville, Staffs, on Decmber 31st, was the first peal on the bells since they were l'ehung on bull beariligs anel the tenor was recast.

Another fusf peal since the relanging of the bells was rung on New Yoar's Evo at Over, Cheshire. Messrs. j. Taplor and Co. carried out the restoration.

> RESTRICILONS LIFTED ON NEW YEAR'S EVE,

Dodiderlill, adjoinmg Droitwich, Worcestershive, possesses an excellent octave (iustalled 1932), on which, however, chere are severe peal rastactions. On the lasi day of the old year these restictions were lifted, and four of the locul band, with four others from Claines, tane a peal of Gxiord Bob 'Friples there. It is said that one of the hacel band sat up lualf the previous might "swottivg up" Darlaston only to be disappointed when he arrived at the fower to find tire method bad been burned into the Western Branch formula-Oxford Tob! It was a quick peal (2 hours 50 minutes on a rine with ma 181 cwt. tenor), the "back-enders" apparently being of oute mind ins geting a rast hick ' fronn the dying yeat.
A yeal of Grudsine Tripies at Hughenden, Bucks, was rung for the prssing of the old yent and to nisher in the new, the bells coming count at 12.5 arn. Stanley Bedwell, who rang the treble, started to learn ringing an Jume 14 th, 1938 , and he rang well in this, his first peal. Alf the land are regular Sunday service ringers it Fuglienden, except J. W. Willins, and they are grafeful to him for standing m. Mr. Wilkins is nearly 76 years old and lind about four miles to walk home in tine early bourv of the moming
Denis Scott, of Darley Dale, Derbyshire, who is only 14 years of age, scored his first peal on New Year's Eve, when he rang the treble tn a peal of Oxford Bob Triples and handled his bell most eteditablo With the excepliat of Mr, V. E. Taylor, of Mathock, all ithe ringers belong to Darley Dale.
A. peal of Grandsire Triples at Overseale, Derbyshire, on the last day of the year was a birthday compliment to Mr. Harry Boswell, of Blakernal! Wolverhampton.
The band that rang the half-muffed poal of Supevative Surprise Major at Guidford Cathedral for the wassing of the old year consisled of past and present members of Holy Trinity Sunday band.
The half-muffling of the bells for a peal of Grandsire Triples at the Church of St. Mary-within-the-WTalls, Chester, on December Jlat, was for a doוble purpose. It marked the passing of the old year and whas an expression of decpest stmpathy on the death of Doumgs Barnet, ous of the lenmery at this tower, who died on Cluribtmas Day at the age of 16 years.
The first peat on the bells at Himrartou, Wiltshire, was rise rung on the lact day of the old year. It consisted of 42 extents of Grandsire Danhles.
Kennetil Mayer rang his 5nth peal on Dencmher 27tk, wher le took part in seven Minor methods at Barnby-in-the-willows, Notts
The peal of Bob Minor at Ma?inslee, Shropshire, on Boxing Day, was a birthday compliment to Mr. Denmis Woodvine, son of Mr. H Woodvine, captain of the Malimalee hand, and also of Mr. John Stainer son of Ar. J. L. Stainer, who took part in the peal

Mr. Jacls Brat rang his 300 th peal on Denember 29 th when lie called the first peal of Trimles (Grandsire) on the bells at Turton-onstather Parish Church. which were nugmented to elght about a vear ago.
The handhel! peal of Minor Fing it Levergtock Green on Decembe 4th was frr the Hertford Countr Association and not the Hereford Diocesan Guz̉ld as printed
The peal of Boh Major nt Bromley Common, Kent, on December 19th. was specially arratged as a birthdar compliment to Messra, Whitiam Grace. Edmund Mounter and Jofnc E. Liddiard, it being the lrai-named's first neal of Major as conductor.

Fonrteen nfethods were rung in a peal of Surprise Minor at Mnrket Deeping on December 10th. In one 720 six methods were spliced. in three others two mothods were spliced, and in each of the other three the extent was rung in on single methed. The peal was a birth day marmpliment to Mr. Harry fithard's daurhtor

A batch of eight peals whs rung in East Cheshiro during Christmas week, six of them on Monday and Tuesday. Tho orgalisers must have got auite busy, for no fewer blun 28 ringers took part, some of them ringing their first peal and many theur first on some fresh number of bells. Seven of them rang a peaf of Gruadsire Caters and a peal of Bob Maximus on Boxing Day, and on the following day Mr. Joseph Whittaker rang a peal of Bobl Major and oue of Bob Minor on tower bells and one of Bob Major ou handuels.

East Chashire on haliday' ; thus were the peals headed when sent to us, an I prething could better describe it, The way in which the bands were mixed un and the success whick attended them not only indicates the progress that is being made, but the splendid spirit that exists among the rmgers in the ajes. Men who liave rung peals in mors than 80 Spliced Minor methods stepped down to lelp others ying such thingg as Plain Bob Minor and Grandsire and Bob Doubles.

Daring this 'Joliday, Mr. John Worth rang his 250 thin peat, ead completed peals of Plain Bob as conductor from Minor to Maximus; Mr. Joseph Whittaker rang his 50 th peal for the Chester Diocesan Guild, and Mr. G. Kemneth Lewis complefed calling Graudsire from Doubles to Cinques. Messrs. Lewis, J. A. Milmer aud G. W. Biddulph have rung peals of Plain Boh from Minor to Maximus, and three ringers rang their first peal on handbells.
At Marple, whele only five ringers turnod up, a peal of Boh Doubles instead of Mitor was rung, and all the band except Mr. C. K. Lewis Fere local men. It was not ontr a successful holiday, but will doubt less prove a great incentive to further efforts in East Oheshire.
The 'bag ' consisted of Grandsire Caters, Bob Maximus, Bob Major, Boh, Minor, Beb Dorbles and Double Norwich Major on tower bells, and Boh Major and Grandsire Doubles on handhells.

Here is the composition (cung for the flrst time) of the peal of Boh Major on handhells. It is $5,150 \mathrm{Ty}$ Mr. C. Kenneth Lewis.

The rimger of the 5th in the peal at. Newhall, Derthenire, was Tom Hariott and it trAs his first neal of Treble Bob Mitor, as it was hy the trehle ringer.

DON'T SCRUB YOUR HANDS!

Cleanse and preserve your skin this simple way

To many people, the problem of getting the hands really clean without harming the skin is a serious one. Grease and grime, which become deeply ingrained into the pores of the skin, are extremely difficult to remove, and ordinary washing with soap or even scrubbing will fail to remove them completely. Housewives, particularly, who complain that their hands get ruined by the nature of their work, will find the preparation called DERMAFOAM a real "godsend." DERMAFOAM just smoothes away dirt and grease without effort. It gets right down into the pores and removes every particle of grime, leaving skin beautifully supple and healthy.

Men, tho-when you've finished that dirty job on the car, DERMAFOAM will quickly banish all grease and oil from your hands. It acts almost magically-working under and around the nails and into every minute crease, removing all trace of dirt in a flash.

Engineers, Painters, Car Mechanics, Printers - everyone - will welcome DERMAFOAM, the modern method of cleansing and protecting the hands.

SUCCESS OF THE IPSWICH SOCIETY

There are few local societies in the Exercise that have had the long unbroken success which has attended the St. Mary-le-Tower Society, Ipswich, and there certainly is no local company that has to its credit anything like the variety of twelve-bell performances that this Suffolk tower can claim. Year in, year out, almost as long as living memory goes back, a band, not only efficient but enterprising, has been keeping up a record of service and peal ringing in this tower that has been unexcelled, and last year's performance of successful touches and peals, running to 161,222 changes, of which nearly one hundred thousand have been rung in touches for practice and service alone, is almost amazing. Peals in half a dozen different Surprise Maximus methods, as well as Double Norwich Maximus, were rung in the tower, and nowhere else in the world has Maximus ringing reached such a high standard. Older ringers will recall the foundations so well and truly laid by such men as James Motts and William Catchpole, who in the eighties of last century laboured so splendidy to build up the company, and set an example which successive ringers at St. Mary-le-Tower have ably and consistently followed. The first peal in every one of the Surprise Maximus methods has been rung at Ipswich, beginning with Cambridge in 1908, and the methods which are constantly rung, both for practice and service, show that these peals are not merely a llash in the pan but constitute a part of the company's regular repertory."
One of the things, in these days of ups and downs among ringing companies, not least remarkable is that throughout all these years Ipswich has been able to maintain such an efficient, indeed an increasingly efficient, company. In many places where twelve bells are installed they become almost a white elephant; seldom, if ever, rung as a peal of twelve, unless by visiting bands. Indeed, it is doubtful if, in more than a dozen of the fifty odd twelve-bell towers in the country, a twelve-bell company is regularly maintained, and yet Ipswich, which is no better, even if no worse placed, than other cities and towns, has not only kept a full company for sixty years or more, but has gone from strength to strength, and with young blood in the ranks has every promise of still going on.

There must be reasons for this success, and one for certain can be stated-the society has never sat down and waited for recruits to turn up. It is true that good ringers will gravitate to a tower where they can get good ringing, but at Ipswich they have made ringers as well as having others come to them. They have never let their numbers be depleted．That is the first reason for their present strong position．Then they have had sufficient keenness and enterprise to get out of the rut．They have nos been content to stick at a single method so that in－ terest wanes．And beyond this，and probably quite as important，is the fact that they have never had to rely upon just a single conductor．They have encouraged their members to take an interest in conducting and given them opportunities to call peals，and they，therefore，have in the tower a number of ringers capable of conducting any of the methods they ring．Thus the maintenance of change ringing and success in peals or touches do not rest upon the shoulders of one man only，as it does in so many places．Ipswich is the most brilliant example we have of how a twelve－bell company can be maintained．

PEAL NOTES.

A YORKSHIRE RECORD.

The longest length of Surptise Major by the Xorkehire Association and by all the band was rung at Batley on Jsnuary 7 th , when Mr. William Barton ealled Arthur Knights' 6, 144 of Superlative (No. 39), which contains the 30 course ends. The composition had not been previously rung.
Peals in the four standard methods have been rung at Broadclyst, Devon, since they were rehung, the first pesi of Grandsire Iriples on the bella, of Jamuary 5th, completing the quartet. The perl was arranged by Mr. A. Lovering, and the band, while thanting him for his action, regret that loe did not take part. He arranged for a spare man to be present and then unselfishly stood out himself. The ringers came from seven different towers: East Budleigh, Exmouth, Foniton Clyst, Exeter (St, Sidwell's), Highweek, Littleham, St. Sidwell's avel Broadelyst respectively.
After meeting bliort for a peal of Caters at Worsley, Lance, on Januery 5th, a peal o[ Kent Treble Bob Major was aubstituted.
A peal of Bob Major at Wcodbridge, Suffollt, on January $7 \mathrm{th}_{1}$ was a birthday compliment to Miss Phyllis Tillett (the first of the two joung ladies who have been elected Master of the St. Mary-le-Tower Society, Ipswich) and Mr. W. J. G. Brown. The present Master, Miss Sylvia Bowyer, rang her 100th peal for the Suffolk Guild.

A peal of Double Norwich at Marsham, Norfolk, on Jandery 7tin, was a compliment to Messus. It. W. Curson and Henry Tooke, whose birthdays fall an the 7th and 8tly respectively. It was not only a joint celebration, but, inther appropriately, their fotis peal together.
The birthday of Mr. Oharles Belsey, captain of the ringers at Rainham, Kerth, was celebrated by s peal of Grandsire Triples on January 11 th.
Mrr. Ithomas Clissold, captain, and for 45 years a ringer at Upton St. Leonards, Gloucesterabire, hes recently passed away, and a laalfmufled peal of Grandsire Triples in his memory was rung on January 7th. It wes conducted by Mr. Leslie Barry and whs his $100 t h$ peal.

FATHET AND MOTHETE IN DADGHTER'S FIRST PEAL.
Miss Enid Fichardson, dauglier of Mr. and Mrs. Rupert Richardson, of Surfeet, rang her first peal on Saturday, and, at the age of 14, is one of the youngest gigls to ring a tower-bell peal. Sle isiso joins a very select few amony the ladies who have rung a peal with both father and mother.
Indeed, the peal was somathing of a family affair for two of Mr. Richardsan"s nephews, Neville Hollingworth and William A. Richardfors, also toak part, fud the composition rung was one by the "Deputy. Futher" whom Enid adopted during the Fisit to Australia.
It wes Enid's first athampt for 4 peal and naturally she was delighted with her success. She admitted that slse had got a hlister, but that is ay loyourable decorstion for a first, pealer. Was she tired? Not a bit of it. Typical of the younger generation, she went almost straight from the tower to a dence.
Twenty methods were rung in a peal of Spliced Treble Boh Minor at Disley, Cheshire, on January 7 th , when Mr, Joln Worth rang his 176 th peal as conductor.
In three of the cxtents of Minor ming in a peal at Barnby-in-thoWillows, Notts, ou Jatuary 10 oh, 'splicing was employed aud altogether there were 33 changes of method. The peal whe zuag with The bells lalf-muffled as a token of respect to 8 highly csteemed pariblioner, the late Miss O. Walton, sister of the Vicar.
The first peal of Royal on the bells at Rickmansworth, Herts, was rine on Salurday. It was Cambridge Surprise and Mr. Herold Cashniore's first peal of Royal as conductor.
Messers. Harold Jackson and Alfred Barnes rang their 100th peal togetber of January I2tb, when they took part in a bandbell peni of Boh Major at Stockport. It was knocked off in less than two hours.
Peals oi the rather tuneless octave at Hunglet, Leeds, are not frequent, and prior to the one recorded elsewhere, only two heve bean rung on these bells since 1910, the previous one being in 1922. Despite adrerse condition and the fact that since their installation over 70 years ago little or nothing appears to have been done to the bells, they run surprisingly well, apart from a tendeacy to "drop' oceasionally, for the design and construction of the bell frame and method of banging violetes every conceivable modern theary and practice.
The band wish to aspociate with the peal congratulations to the Western District secretary of the Yorkainire Association, Mr. Frank Ruyment (who rang in the peal), on the birth of a daughter.
Mr. Farty Overton rang his $100+h$ peal on the last day of the ald year. This was the peal of Kent Treble Bob Minor at Acton, Cheshire, After less than a year's ringing experjence, Mr. John A. Acres, of Nemmarket, Cambs, has scored his first peal by ringing the tenors to a handbell peal of Bob Major. The peal was rung it Saffron Walden on January 2nd.

It is often lamented that local bands auffer by the departure of members to otiver districts. North Mimms, a rapidly growing Bertfordshire district, has, however, nothing to complam of in this reepect, The advent of ringers Like Messre. A. W. Coles (Master of the Middlesex Association) and T. J. Lock bas helped to strengthen the company, and some of the eridence of this is to be found in the ringing of the first peal of Stedman at st. Mary's Cturch by a local band no January 2nd.

MR. J. W. JONES' 500th PEAL

The peal rung at Cacrieon on Saturday was tpecially arranged and rung as a jubilee peal. On January 12th, 1889, the first, peal was rang on these bells, Tayior's Sir-part. Grandsire Triples, and was the first peal for all the baud. Of that company there are now only three Eurvivors. One of these, Mr. J. W. Jones, the pregent hon. secyetary of the association, rang the 6th bell in 1889 and again on Saturday, and by a coincidence the time taken was exactly the same on both cocmsions. The 1889 peal was Mr. Jones' Girst, and the peal on Saturday his 500th. This was the first peal of Stedman on the bels rung by resident association members.
Mr. Jones Las been hon. secretary of the Llandaff and Monmouth Diocesan Association since 1903, and his friende throughout the conatry will congratulate him upon the happy double event of the golden jubilee and his 500 th peal.
Mr. John Jaggar's 78th birthday on January 3rd wrag cejebrated on the following day when a peal of Kent Treble Bob Major was rung in bis honour nt Hagley.

BLIND RINGER'S PEAL.
Mr. John Sliepheard-Walwyu who is blind, reng his second peat on January 7th, when he took part in three 780's of Kent Treble Bob and four of Plain Bob at Rettendon, Essex. It is amaring how he has overcome his handicap; his striking was yemsrkably good.
The first peal on the bells at Ightham, Kent, since the tenor was recast by Messrs. Taylor and Co. in Marcla, ISti (tibe old bell wes cometimes called "变 frying pan'), was rumg on January 7th, when Mr. R. G. Rasfold conducted lis first peal of Mirar. The peal would not have been possible on this date if lihat veteran ringer, Mr. ㄱ. Goodwin, of Plaxtol, had not kindty stepped into a breach at a minute's notice. It was his first peal for several years.

Crawley. Sussex, is ons of the few places where Sunday peals are a matter of custom. They started the year well with a peal of Cambridge Surprise on the fitst day.
Members of ithe National Police Guild on Saturday zang a peal of Grandsire Triples at Miles Platting to honour two of their members upon thei- retirement from Manchester City Police Force-P.C."s John Mulliner and George Pye.
Ex-P.S. Peter Crook, of Bulton Borougly Force, who was one of the band, rang his 200 th peal. Of these he has conducted 79 nad ruag one 'sflent.' Other intercsting details in Mr. Crook's record are that the peals were ring in 58 towers in 11 courties, with 395 ringers, 54 of whom were firgt pealers. One peal was rung with a band cansisting of four fathers and four daughters, and one comprisirg five fathers and five dnughters. The peals were also rung in eleven methods and on all uumbers from Doubles to Maximus.

A pal of Stedman Caters at Waltham Abbey on Saturday thy the College Youths wus rnag after meeting short for Cinques, Mr. C. W. Roberta tindiy standing out. It was Mr. Frank E. Darby's 150th peal and he was the conductor.
It is naver too late to begin ringing, even poal riuging. Mr. Eustace Vessey, of Sutton-on-Trent, has just rung his firgt penl. He is 65 years of age. This should be a freat encouragement to those who think they are too old at 40 to statt peal ringing.
It was efter a much delayed start owing to the snowy conditions that the penl of Double Norwioh Major was attempted at Enderby on the evening of Thurbday, January 5th, and to the amazement of bis fellow-ringers Mr. "Ted. Whitehead, who incidentally was last man, complaned of the stuffy conditions inside the belfry and forthwith put the electric fan into action. This was soon overruled and the peal was successfully brought zound just in time for the last bus home. Congratulstions are exteaded to the brothers Walter and Leonard Whitehead upor scoring their 100th pea! together.
This peal was a "firste ' birthday compliment to the baby son of Mr. W. P. Whitehead, and it is the hope of anay thut the junior will follow father's footsteps in learning the art of change ringing. He will certainly bave a good tutor.

MR. A. J. HUGHES' THANKS.

Mr. A. J. Hughes, of Windy Way, Wyke, Bradford, who las been iil since last whitsuntide, but who is now progressing gatisfactorily, writes: 'I should like to express zmy thanks and good wishes to those many old riaging friends who Jave written to me both at hospital and at home. This also includes the one who tald me be was in a hurry for post and what I couldn't read I bad to whistle. I also wish a speedy recovery to those of our ringing friends who are still borm-de-combat temporarily.

- The whistling instruction reminds mo of a tale Tom Miller used to tell, after the 40 chieves had rung a peal of Bob Major at Earboume. When the ringers came out they found old 'Boxer' asleep on one of the gravestones, and Tom sald he was sporing at land and whistling at back Etroke."

MEMORIAL TOUCH.
At Hugglescote on Janury 8th, a quarter-peal of Grandaire Triples was rung as a token of reppeot to the late Mrs. Woolerton, senior church councillor, of Hugglescote: T. Aldread 1, A. E. Rowley 2, G. Hadtheld 3, G. Walker 4, E. J. Tovell (first quarter-peal ns conductor) 5. J. Cadle 6, H. Moult 7, H. O. Over 8.

LOUGHBOROUGH SURPRISE.

To the Editor.

Sir,-The method whioh we rang and named Tramsden escaped aur obscrvation when it was published as Loughborough, but as it has been rung in that name we are quite willing that it sloould go into the records as Loughborough. Who was the first author of the method is open to question, $8 s$ no doubt it is several jears since Mr. Q. Lindof produced it. Perhaps the Analysis Committeo of the Central Council will kindly alter the nente to Loughborougli ea as to evoid any confusion in recording it.

DEVONSHIRE GUILD

EAST DEVON MEMBERS FAVOUR RESCLNDING RULE.
A well-attended meeting of tho East Devon Bramch of the Devonshire Guild was held at Sidbury, near Sidmouth, on Saturdey, when about 50 members and friends wore present in spite of a wet efternoon
The pine toned ring of six belis, in the spire-capped church tower, in good going order, were fully employed in ringing various methods before the service and after the meeting
The Rev. J. A. Prendergast (Vicar) apd the Rev. W. S. Airy conducted a service in St. Gilea' Church with choir and organ. In bis address the Vicar gave an imarginary word picture of what happened in A.D. 550 during the Roman occupation, when a Christian missionary first came to Sidbury, buitt a rude hut witl an altar, and men offered to help by clanging two pieces of metal together to call other to worship. Thus was a belliringer the priest's first helper.
In the Village Hall, after tea, the Rev, E. W. Cos deputisig for the Rer. A. A. F. de Salis, who wes unable to be present, presided over the business meeting. At the outgat, it was resolved to send a message of sympathy to Mr. J. II. Godfrey, the branch secretary, who was kept away by illnes. Mr, C. Turner resd the minutea of a provious meeting at Harpford, which were confirmed.
Introduced by Mr. W. G. Rurrow, nine members of the newly-formed Awliscombe band were elected Guild members, gs were also one esch from Buckerell and Harpiord. A certificate was presentad to Mr. E. W. Chenning, of Sidbury. A motion of thanks to the lacal elergy, choir and lady belpars was carried with acclamation.

The Chairman read his letter to the meeting giving notice of motion to rescind the Guild rule that no member shall fake part in eny competitive ringing. Questions were asked and answered, and a show of hands revealed tnat a majority of members present were in favaur of the mation.

DEATH OF A SUSSEX RINGER
MR. ALBERT FLEST, OF BILLINGSHURST.
It is with regret we announce the death of Mr. Albert Fest, of Billingshurst, Sussex which occurted or January 4 th after a short illness, at the age of 63.
Deceased had been an actjve member of the Western Branch for 43 yearg, always willing to belp in every way, and his expertence Fras of great value in Helping to develop the present young band at Billingihurst into the ringing of the higher methods.
The interment took place on Monday, Jamuary. 9th, when the bells were rung half-muffled as the funeral cortege wended its way to the church and as the monrners returned. Handbells were also rung at the graveside by H. Wood 1-2, R. Wood, jun. 3-4, R. Wood, sea. 5-6, W. Charman 7-8. Among the foral tribites was one from his iellow. ringers

Mr. Fiest, who will be cadly missed in the belfry, had rong about 50 peels.

FIRST 1939 DATE TOUCH.
At St. Wilfrid's Courch, Calverley, Forks, for evening service on Sunday, January 1st, a date touch of Kent Treble Foh Major (1,939 changes) was rung in honour of Mr. Charles Pratt, who has been a change ringer at this church for 63 Tears: Cbarles Pratt 1, W. Popplewell (conductor) 2, W. Stanhope 3, S. Keighley 4, S. Wheatley 5, F. Waller 6, G. Thompson 7, W. Lee 8.

LEADING CONDUCTORS-54.

JOHN A. FREEMAN

Lincolnshire is, in these days, one of the foremost counties in the Exercige ; it is blessed with ringers of ability and enterprise, and its peal ringing is by no means limited to a few enthusiasts. They are spread over many towers in this large county, and it is not the least gratifying feature of this happy atate of affars that in the heart of the diocese, at the Cathedral itself, there should be a band which worthily sets a high standard, both in ability and enthusiasm. In no amall measure this is due to the able Master of the Cathedral Company, a company which in lineal descent is one of the oldest in the xingdom. It has not always been conspicuous for its change ringing standards, but it took on a new lease when the bells were increased to twelve, and aitet Mr John A. Freeman wrs called the frist peal at the Cathedral ever rung by a Cathedral band. Since that time, under his guid. ance, they have established themselves as one of the most accomplished local companies to be found anywhere
Mr. Freeman Was forn at Markot Deeping, Lincs, on November 21st, 28 e4. and there he learned to ring a bell. At the age of 15 he went to Ewerby where a new peal of tel hells lad then recently been installed, but, alas, the local band corld only ring a plain lead of Grandeire Triples and the same of Grandsirs Caters. After being for four years gt Ewerby, he went to Grantham for one yenv, but did no ringing. Then be went to Lincoln and in 1907 joined the band at St Peter - at - Arches Church (whicls lus since been pulled down), where they rang Plain Bob+ Kent Treble Bob Major and Grandsire Triples. On October 14th, 1908, he rang his first peal, Kent Treble Bob Major, conducted by the late Rev. H. Law James. After ringing several other peals in the same methud, coaducted by Mr. İ, W. Kirton, Mr. Freeman rang his first peal as conductor, Stedman Triples, on October 18th, 1911, being his own and several of the band's firat peal in the method, and the first peal of Stedman Triples in Lincoln by a lacal band. In the same Jear lie was elected Ringing Master uf the St. Peter-at-Arches Company. He joined the Lincoln Cathedral band, who could then only ring Grandsite Triples, in April, 1914.

Berides calling bis first peal of Stedman Triples, he aleo called bis first peal of London Surprise Major, the first peal in the mettrod by all the band and for the Guild; lis firsti peal of Bristol Surprise Major, the first peal in the method for the Guih by a resident band; and his first peals of Cambridge and Superlative Surprise Major. He has also called for the Lincoln Diocesan Guild the first peals of Spliced Surprise Major in fonr and six methods, Stedman mad Grandsire Cinques, and Stedman Tripleg 'in land,' this last being the first peal in the method in hand 'by a resident band. All these first peals for the Guild were the flrst in tive methods by all the baad.
Mr. Freeman also took part in tho first peals of Cambridde Surprise Maximus and Superlative Surprise Royal br, the Guild. the latter being the first peal of Strerlative Royal for 100 years. He has also called Cmmbridge Surprise from Minor to Maximus Altogetiner he has rung 128 peals and conducted 77 . He has been Finging Master of the Northern Branch of the Lincoln Diocesan Guitri since 1922 and is $\Omega$ member of the Guild Commithee.

HUDDERSFIELD AND DISTRICT ASSOCIATION

Huddersfield and District Association held a meeting at Not thowram on January 7th. There was a meagre attendance for tea but more members arrived in the evening, and what was lacking in numbers Tas mada up by the quality of the ringing. The bells have been recently overhauled and run splendidly, and various touches of Kent, Oxford, Plain Bob, Grandsire, Double Norwich and Stedman were bronghturd in fine style.
Members attiended from Elland, Brighouse, Halifax Parish Churcz All Souls', Halifax, Lindley, Ripponden, Lightclife, Bramlef, Queemhury and Northowram.

NORWICH DIOCESAN ASSOCIATION'S RECORD

FWE THODSAND PEATS.
Mr. Nolan Golden, general secratary of the Norwich Diocesan Association, writes that the fivo thousandth peal recorded by the Norwich Diocesan Association wes rung on December 17th lost. It would be ol interest to learn how meny associations have exceeded this total, and for such information lie would be grateful
Without baving exact particulars, it í impossible to sey precisely where the other associations sland, but we think we are correct iu asying that thy Norwich Diecesan Associakion, which was established in 1877, is the first to reach this fine total.
Some of the other great associatious are hard upon the heels of Norwich, but we do not think they have quite touched the number.
Tho Midland Counties Askociation appears to be the nearest, with a Eosal somewhere round 4,550 to the end af 1938 , followed by the Kent County Assovialion with approximately 4,850 peals. Yorkshire's aggregatz is also among those over 4,000 , and Lancashive very nearly that cotal. With Oxford comirg along well into the last hundreds of the fourth thousand.

THE LATE MR. J. W. GOLDING.

BRLLIANT RTNGING CARETE IN YOUTH,
The funeral of the late Mr. John W. Goiding, who, as recorded in our last issue, died at Brighton on January 6th, took place on Wednesday weak, the first part of the service being held in Alazington Parish Church and attended by numerous relatives and friends from London Reigate and Brighton. Among the ringers present were Messts. A. B. Peck (hor. seeretary) and W. H. Pasmore, representing the Ancient Society of College Youths, of which My. Golding was a past Master, and Messra Keith Hart and Frod Page, of the Sussex County Association. The interment took place ot Portslade Cemetery, where Graudsire Doubles were rung round the grove by three of the deceased's brother Freemasons, and was an impressive farewell to an ald friand.
The late Mr. Golding was 58 years of age, his birthday being on Hoxing Day, On the Sinday ofter this death the ringers at. St. Poul'e Gatheiral stood for ofew moments in silence ut their ropes as a tribute of respect to an ald colleague, far Mr . Golding had done a good deal of service ringigy at St, Prul's and bad taken part in four peals there, including the Cambridge Surprise Maximus in 1925.
Ha begen his ringing career early; in fact, soon alter lie left school, when be used to go to the home of the brothers Pasmore to lean handbell ringing. Between them u close and lasting friendsbip sprung up, only broken by the death of Harry Pasmore.

John Goldint rang his first pen! at few duys before his 17 th birthday and associated with the band at St. Stephen's, Roclester Row, Weatminster, then rising to brilliance, he had before he was 21 taken part in, smongst other things, three Surprise peals (London, Gambridge and Superlative) in a day, rung by the sane bard in three different counties, had rong in non-condwsted peals of Londoal and Canthridge Surprise, and in two peals of Superlative Surprise on handbells, one of them the very firat Surprise peal "in hand." All these were in the year 3901 . John Golding was a fine heavy beli rimger, and took part in the peals of Superlative on the back eight of St Michael's, Cornhill, and St. Saviour's, Southwark, and in Loudon Surprige on the back oight at Baw, Oheapside. In 1905 he rang in three peals of Lonton Surprise by the same band in one day in tha three counties of Bucks, Berks and Middlesex, mul in 1507 was one of Those who rang the first peal of Londen Surprise Royal at Stepmey. ${ }^{\text {John }}$ W. Golding was one of the great ringers of his day and London was robbed of the services of a valued and accomplished member of the Exercise when jll-health kept him from the belery
In all, Mr. Golling rang 165 peals; on tower bells, Grandsire Triples 3 Grandsire Caters 5 , Stedman Triples 13 (conducter Stedman Caters 6, Stedman Cinques 10 (including ome non-conducted), Bob 3ajor 3, Kent Treble Bob Major 4, Rayal 5, Maximus 4, Oxford Treble Bol Maximus 1, Double Narwich Major 4, Royal 5, Superlative Surprise Major 16, Cambridge Surpise Major $I 1$ (includitag ane nonconducted), Royal 2, Maximus 4, New Cambridge Surprise Majar 1, London Surprive wajor 42 (conducted 7 aud I ron-canducted), London Surprise Roral 1, Westminster Surprise Major 2, St. Stephen's Satpriso Major 1, total 143. ## 102 EXTENTS IN 54 METHODS

YOUTH HELPS IN ROCK FERRY RECORD.

The vear 1938 wras a record for the band at St. Peter's, Rock Ferry Cheshire. During the twelve months exteats in 54 methods, inchuding the 46 Surprise methods, have been rubg by bands consisting entively of Sunday service ringers.
Surprise methods Nos. $42,43,44,45$ and 46 were rang for the first thme in the Wirral Branch and hy all the band.
It is believed that this is the first time the $4 f$ Surprise methads have been rung by an entirely local band.
Of the 102 extents rung during the year 96 have been rung for Sunday service.

There is a company of 12 ringers and the average age of geven of them ig onty 3. There are two others who are learning.

GUILDFORD DIOGESAN GUILD'S POSITION STRAIGHT WORDS TO LONDON COUNTY ASSOCIATION.

Do Not Corrupt the Allegiance of Our Members.

Ths controversy between Mr. T. W. Taffender, hon, secretary of the Lontion County Association, and 'The Ringing World ' was the principal theme at the annual cinner of the Guidford Diocesan Gmild at tize Lion Hotel, Guildford, on Saturday. Mr. J. S. Goldsmith (vice-president) proaided over one of the largest gatherings in the anmals of the Guild, and the company inciuded Mr. F. E. Da
Mr. G. L. Grover, bout, secretary of the Guildford Guild, in pro posing the toast of 'The Visitors, said those who lhad read this week's 'Ringing World ' would appreciate that Mr. T. W. Taffender, hon. secretary of the London County Association, had coufused the identity of Mr. J. S. Goldsmith, former secretary end vice-president of the Guildford Diocesan Guild, with Mr. J. S. Goldsmith as editor and proprietor of 'The Riuging World.' Mr. Taffender, in his letter to The Ringing World, charges the Guildford Diocesan Guild with encroaching on uither peoplos territory. He would like to give Mr. Dawe a message to take back to the officers of his association that this Guild difi not desiro to enter into & wordy warfare with the officers of the London County Associaition. They also requested Mr Dawe to take back a message of appeasement and goodwill to the members of the London County Association and say that the Guildmord Diocesan Guild wishes to live in peace and charity with its neighbours.
teel I must add,' continued Mr. Grover, "that the Guildford Diocesail Guild is part of a diocesan organisation and is ever ready to take in every tower in that diocese, but it has never poached outside that area. In spite of that fact we do not challenge the right of any other association. There is plenty of room for every association, such as our friends the Surrey Association, to work in our towers so long as they do nat usurp the authority of the Guildford Diocesun Quild in its area or attempt to corrupt the allegianco of mombers to our Guild.
Gupporting Mr. J. S. Goldsmith wero the Archdeacon of Derking (the Ven. E. J. Nowill), the Rev. F. A. Woodard, Mr. W. Herrison vice-president), Major J. I. B. Hesse (Master), Mr. J. Corbetg (hon treasurer), Mrs. Qorbett, Mr. G. L. Grover (hon. secretary), Mrs Grover, Mr, and Mrs, A. A, Hughes, Mrs. H. C, Renshaw and Miss Q. M. White.

The toast of 'The President, Vice-Presidents and Fon Mombers' whs gubmitted by Mr. J. Corbeth, who regretted that their president the Bishap of Gullaford, was not abie to ha present on accanin of heing ethgaged on Church work overgens in India. Me mentioned the interect faleu in the Guild by the vicepresidents-the Archdeacon of Dorking Mr. W. Hurrison and Mr. J. S. Goldsmith-and spoke of the Guild's uadebtedtess to hon. members, who helped them not only to pay their way, but to msistr in such things as bell restorations.

The Ven. E.J. Newill, in reply, suid Archdeacons sometimes had very anxions molnents ill inducting a ciergyman to hys new jume Wher they had gone to the end of the church and the new ineumbent had locked the representatives of the laty out of the church he had to go and ring the bell. Fe had anxious moments at Ranmore recently whes he lad to go to the reacue of the incumbent as the beld was swinging and nothint bappened.
The Rov. G. Aylmin Woodard, Ficar of Horsell, also replied. FEE NEWLST HON. MEMBER.
At the suggrastion of Mr. Harrison the company drank to the newest honarary, member, the little lraby boy who arrived at Horsell Vicarage the previcus day

The Chairnar, in propasing 'Long and contimued success and prosperity to the Guififord Diomenan Guild, congsatulated the company on the excellent attendance. It was a gleat encouragement to the officers to see sucle or gathering, ms it showed the spirit belind the Guild was manifpst in a large number of towers in the diocese. This Fas a Guildford Diacessn Guild, and be wanted them to realise that it was not an emyty title. They tried to take the diocesan spirit into the Guild and enmollmge ringers not to confine their ringing to the four walls of thetr own tower

There were Jany ways they souglat to help the members wnd the tawers. One was by astablishjurz combined practices, but in some cases these had fallin a litile Ant. He was wondering if fhere was samething else they tobld try, and that was that individual towers thould invite their neighbours to put in an evening's ringitg and ofterwards spend a sockal lour together (hear, heer). He was conwinced the morn singers mix together in ard out of fhe tover the better it was for ringing (hear, hear)

FFE PRACTICAL MAN
Goupling the 口ame of Major Hesse with the toast, the Chainman said he lad scived then from the dry the Guild was founded. He was the practical math thtie jetad of theas orgatisation, but he did a great debl behind the sceneg, whin maty of thom did mot know. He acted in an advisory capacity to thase who sought jnformation about the condition of their hells, and that to the djocese was a very valuable work. The long-promised seat he was to have bid on the Diocesan Advisory Committee had not come, although it was promised before the Guild was founded. It did not matter, however, whether he got that official place so long as he was called in and recognised by the authorities. #e wished the Diocesan Committen would recognhe him and let him sit on that committee rather as an assessor than to appear before them as an advocate against architects and antiquariea or sometimes the two combined (hear, hear).
The Chairman concluded with an expression of deep appreciation of the services rendered by Mr. Grover.
Majar J. H. B. Hesse congratulated the chafrman on his birthay which was the previous day. Referring to the activities of the Guild the Master soid that 20 peals were rugg lest year, the conductors being lyesars. A. H. Pulling (6), C. E. Smilh (2), J. S. Goldsmith (2), C. W. Deuver (1), A. E. Harman (3), A. Pink (2), A. E. Winch (2), J. A. Trollope (1). There was a peal ruar last shaturday ak Ord Woking when two of the local men eccomplished their urst peal. Among the peals rung wis Torkshive Royal at Haslemere, conducted by Mr. Smith, which was the firgb in the method for the Guild. There was also a peal of Bristol Surprise Major rang at Hersham, conducted by Mr. Winch, and Messrs, Adams, Hobden and Cheseman rang thear first is the method.

MPORTANCE OF PEAL RENGTNG

am told that I an a peal ringing maniac, added Major Hesse, but I maintain that ringing never pets to its true pitch for service ringing unless those ringers ring peals.
Shortly, said the Major, anotion peal not far from there would be put in order, and he hoped that it would be the means of atarting another band. He felt that they were progressmas. The Beaevolent Fund stood at 250, und the Cathedra Bel Fund at about e18. He looked forward to the time whea the Cathedra! bells were jingiag and they had a good peal ihere.
The Chairman extended the congratulations of the compuny to the Leatherhead men upon having rung the first peal ever aocomplisued of Panswick Surprise Royal, which Mr. Harman condueted.

The toast of "The Visitors " wes submitted by Mr. G. L. Grover, who mentioned that the attendance had only once been exceeded-on that memorable ocegsion when their prodigal Eecretary returned from his adyentures in the Southern Soa (laumber). Since tinem the hemesman ant experienced quartermaster who launched the ship on the high seas bad given way to an inexperienced anateur. It was in conffort to thet amateur that his predecessor in affec had been elevated to the bridge and paced up and down with hig weather eye opes, always ready to help. Mr. Groper extended a weleome to Canon Coleridge, Master of the Oxford Diacessen Guild; Mr. A. A. Hughes, representative of the Ancient Society of College Youths: Mr, Gordon Oross (Greenwich) : and Mr. F. E. Dawe, Iepresentative or the Central Council of the London County Associabion.
Canon Coleridge, in reply, expressed the hope that before long they would see the tower of Guildfori's ouw Cathedral, and that the belis would be ringable. "I have had some experience of afchitectis who have ne experjence of the comfort af ringers, he sifid. I wus asked by an architect and Ficar what a new tower shouti be Iike. I wrote:
(1) That the entrance of the tower should be brond enough to bet an ordir, bry percon out.
(2) That in the spiral staircase there must be room for a person
(3) That the ringers nust be a certmin distance from tho bells if are to hear the bells strike properly
(4) That all sound should came out from the top and no opethings om the sides.
The erchitect wrote thanking him most wamply for lis juvaluable advice. 'I went to the opening of this peul,' added the Canon. 'It was with the greatest dificuity I got into the doorway; it was equally difficult to get up to the belfry, and when I got there I found the bells were just overhead. At the same time the architect fuad pat in bour wets of the overthead. At the same time inse architect uad patin thing was spailt. I hope it will not happon in the new Cathedral. Mr. F. E. Dawe submitted the concluding toast, that of Chairman
During the evening a musical progiamme was contributed to by Mrs. Hurhes (handbell solos), Mr. H. Platt (sangs) and the Misses $\mathbb{S}$. and G. Harman (instrumental mrusic) A touch of Stedman Triples was rune on handbells by C. Hazeldene 1-2, A. H. Pulling 3-f. R. Philpott $5-6$, and A. A. Hughes 7-8. The artistes were thanked by the chatirman.

BEDFORDSHIRE ASSOCIATION

BEDFORD DISTRICI TO HOLD FEWER NEETTNGS

The annual meeting of the Bedford District of the Bedfordshire Association took place at Bedford on Saturtay and Was wery well attended. The bells of Str. Peter's Church were arailabie, Mr. W. Stapleton saw to it that all had a pull to their liking and the bella were kept very bitsf゙. A short serfice whs conducted by the Rectox (the Rev. F. M. Squibh), after which an excellent tea was very kindly prepared by Miss E. Steel in St. Peter's Hail.
The business meeting followed, presided over by the Rector. The balance sheet was presented and passed; the Beliry Repair Fund, too, was found to be ua vers healthy condition.
The election of officers restled in Mr. Frank Tysoe being re-elected hon. district sectetary, and Mestrs, P. Inskip, R. West, J. Hilson and W. Stapleton to sarve on the committee.

A discrssion took place on the adrisability of the district roverting to the of 1 method of holding quasterly meetings, and it was finally decided to hold a meeting every two months.

Votes of thanks were tendered to all who hal heiped in any way to make the meeting in success.

STEDMAN'S BELLS.

ELY ASSOCLATION'S MEETING AT CAMBRIDGE.
The ammal meeting of the Ely Hranch of the Ely Diocesan Association was held in Cambridge oll Saturday week. Good use was made of St. Beme't's bells from 3 p.m. until service time, the service touch being 180 Steduat Doubles.

The new Vicar of St. Bene't's, the Rev. A. M. Ramsay, instituted by the Bishep of Ely on the prewious day, took the service, and it his address of welcome expressed the wish to be great friends with the ringers, and hoped that he would often see them.
Mr. T. R. Dennis tock the chair at the momal business meeting, which followed tea at the King's Parade Restanrant.
Mr. E. G. Hibbens was elected District Ringing Master, thus reliewing th3 district secretary of some of his duties at the meetings.

The District Gommittee was re-olected for the ensuing year
Votes of thanks to the Vicars of St. Bene't's and Great St. Mary's were passed on the proposition of the chainman.
Most of the ringers had the opportunity of a puil at Great St, Mary's in the evening, while further ringing was carried on at St, Bene't's undil gbout 8.15 p.m.

The youmger generation was well represented at the meeting, and their keenness is a great encouragement to the district officers and angurs well for the future of the association.

St. Bene't's wher' the meeting was held, is the chureln witil which Fabian Btedman was associated and where in 1931 the bella were restored to commemorate the tercentenary of lis birth. The wolls dono on that oceasion, at the exponse of the ringers of Great Britain Ireland and overseas, was the preserpation of the Saxob tower and the complete rehanging of the beilg at a lower level. Cracks in the walls threatened the safety of tho zower. These were grouted with cement and the structure banded fogether with a concrete corbel course, on which tho bell frame row rests, 12 ft . below ifs former position. The frame, except for strengthening and the replacement of one or two decayed members, remains much as it did in Stedman's time.

It is not certain whether there were six bells in the tower before Stedman's dny, hecause the present trehle beare the date of 1663 . The second is dated 1588 . The fourth was recast in 1825 , and the other threa bear the following inscriptions, that on the tenof being particularly quaint:-
3rd: Of al the bels in Rennet I ann the best and fet for my casting the parish paide lest 1607 . TW WB GB TB NC NS TW RS MC TH.

5th: Non unmen fero ficti sed nomen Bemedicti 1610. RS.
Tenor: Iohm Draper made me in 1618 as plainly doln apeare. This bell was bronke and cast agaive wich tyne chirch wardenea were Edwarde Dixson for the one whoe stode close to his facklin and be that wes his partner then was Alexander Iacklyn.

There is a reference to bells at Str. Benedict's Church amollg the archives of more than 660 years ago. In 1273 a composition was made between the Rector and the Chancellor of the Tniversity for the use of the ehurch bell, and for this the Uriversity paid the sum of 6s. 8d. annually until 1663.

DEATH OF MRS. ATKINS.

FICE-PRESIDENT OF LADIDS GUMD.

Tho deatli vecurred on Saturday, in her 75th year, of Mrs. Atkius, wife of the Rector of Isham, Northants, and mother of Mr. E. Maurice Atkins.

Mrs. Atrins was a ricc-president of the Ladies' Guild and will be remembered for her haspitality et meetings held in lsham of both the Ladies' Guild and tha Peterboraugh Dlocesan Guild, as well as to many inclividual riagers and especially members of the Cambriduce Uuiversity Guild during two ringing weeks, when Isham Rectory was the headquarters.
This was the fiftieth year of the Rev. and Mrs. At inns marriage and much syuphathy is felt with the Rector

THE PEAL OF MAJOR AT FROME. TRIBCTE TO THE RINGENG. To the Editor.

Six, 一Having hoard that an attempt for a peal of Major was to be made al Frome on Decemher 31st last. I was most interested, as it was here I learmt to ring Grandsire Triples and conducted my frst peal in that method. I rang in the two peafs mentioned is "The Ringing World' when the tenor was zung Eingle-handed.

I deeided, if it were possible to bear some if not all of the Double Nortsich attempt. I succeeded in liearing one hour and three-quarters of it. I was delighted, as I have only heard them sung to shorib touches of Major, in which I have taken part,

Knowing tho bells as I do, 1 can ear they are not a model penl on which to ring Major. I heartily congratulate the band on their splendid performance, especially Mr. P. Cannon for the masterly way in which bo turued the tenor. He rang it with a beautiful beat. I leard one or two slight trips, or miss-biows, which is not to be wondered at, one or two leads not quite to my liking, which might lead to altering the pace and rhythm, but not so with Mr. Cannon. He kept up that heautiful timing; the rest of the band heard it and treated fit with the greatest respect.

DON'T SERUB YOUR HANDS!

Cleanse and preserve your skin this simple way

To many people, the problem of getting the hands really clean without harming the skin is a serious one. Grease and grime, which become deeply ingrained into the pores of the skin, are extremely difficult to remove, and ordinary washing with soap or even scrubbing will fail to remove them completely. Housewives, particularly, who complain that their hands get ruined by the nature of their work, will find the preparation called DERMAFOAM a real "godsend." DERMAFOAM just smoothes away dirt and grease without effort. It gets right down into the pores and removes every particle of grime, leaving skin beautifully supple and healthy.

Men, too-when you've finished that dirty job on the car, DERMAFOAM will quickly banish all grease and oil from your hands. It acts almost magically-working under and around the nails and into every minute crease, removing all trace of dirt in a flash.

Engineers, Painters, Car Mechanics, Printers - everyone - will welcome DERMAFOAM, the modern method of cleansing and protecting the hands.

Sold in 6d, and 1/- Tubes

NORWICH ASSOCIATION'S ACHIEVEMENT

Some striking statisties have been worked out by a correspondent, Mr. A. J. Corrigan, prompted by the announcement made in our last issue that the Norwich Diocesan Association had recently rung its five thousandth peal. The association has always stood high in its peal ringing activities, and its peals, rung during the sixty years of its existence, give an average of over eighty per annum. Actually, of course, the number rung in the early years was comparatively small, about twenty or so being the yearly total. This only goes to prove how consistently, as time has progressed, the Norwich Diocesan Association has upheld its position, a position, indeed, worthy of the association which includes in its area the tower where the first recorded peal was rung.

The analysis which Mr. Corrigan has made shows how high is the average of peals rung in the Norwich diocese per head of the ringing population compared with some other centres, and his comment on the number of peal conductors and the variety of methods is alike enlightening and well worthy of attention. The fact that the association has rung over a hundred peals a year in the last year or two shows an ever increasing enthusiasm, and this, as those who know Norfolk are aware, is coupled with a loyal attention to Sunday service ringing at a very high percentage of the affiliated towers. It must not be overlooked, either, that when the Suffolk Guild was formed, after the severance of the diocese of St. Edmundsbury and Ipswich from Norwich, the association lost many of its peal-ringing bands, so that the recovery which has been made is all the more gratifying to those who have the welfare of the association at heart.

The letter from our correspondent directs attention once more to another question about which some people, we think, occasionally exhibit unnecessary concern. Mr. Corrigan shows that the ringers of Norfolk keep their own bells fully occupied, and suggests, in associations where there are folk who object to peal ringing by 'unattached' ringers, that they shouid go and do likewise. There is a good deal in the view that ringers who do not care, or are not able, to ring peals themselves should not stand in the way of those who wish to do so, even if, for some reason, they may not be attached to any particular tower. Every ringer should, if possible, associate himself with a tower, so that he may do his share of service ringing and at least repay the debt he owes to the church as a whole for his opportunities of indulging in peal ringing, but that is not to say that a ringer who is attached to no particular tower should be excluded for that reason alone. There is, of course, not much excuse for people (Continued on page 50. ) who ring peals to satisfy their own ambitions and do not raise a finger to help in promoting the art in other directions; who, as it were, take all there is to be got and give nothing in return; but these are not the only folk to be blamed. There is just as much selfishness on the other side of the account, where ringers act in the spirit of dog in the manger, and, while they do not care about peals themselves, put every possible obstacie in the way of others enjoying the use of the bells in their towers. The Norwich Association seems, happily, to suffer little from either cause, and the result of this excellent state of affairs is manifest in the success which follows their efforts. Associations will lift their hats to Norwich upon being the first to reach the great total of five thousand peals.

INTIERESTING DETALS ABOUT PERFORMANOES

The peal of Bob Major mung on handbells a& Pudsey, Yorkshire, on January 17th, was a composition by Mr. George Lewis with the full combination of 4,5 and 6 in $5-6$ in the mininum number of courses (36) and changes ( 5,008 ). It was rugg for the first time and is believed to be the first ever produced with tbese qualities.
Not many peals ate rung nowadays at Handsworth, Birmingham, which was once upon a time a lappy hunting ground for members of St. Martin's Guild. On Jamaly 14th, however a peal of Grandsire Triples was rung there, with three of the band scoring their firgt in the methot. The coaductor, Mr. P. G. Rainey, rang bis first peal of Triples and completed peals of Grandsire from Doubles to Ginques.
Mr. Albert Crawley, of Orewe, rang his 90th peal when he took part in Grandsire Triples at Barrow-in-Furnesa on Jnauary 14th.
Five out of the band rang their first peal in seven methods when a peal of Minor was ring at Frant, Sussez, on January 14th
The Rev. E, Bankes James' arrangement of 5,040 Cambridge Minor was rung for evening service at Wormingford, Essex, on Sunday, January 15 th.
A half-mufled peal of Bob Major was rung at Brierlep Hill, Stafe, on Jansary 17th, in memory of the late Mr. George Allport, at one time a ringer and for many years sexton at the Parish Church.

A peal in seven Minor meihods at Rippingale, Eincs, was a birthday compliment to the conductor, Mr. Cuthbert TF. H. Bradley, of Folkingham. The peal was rung on January 14 th.
The first time that twelve Minor methods have been rung in a pea! of sever extents by the Bedfordshire Association was at Maulden on Tantary 16th. There weve five methods in the first $72 a$.
Mr. W. Thormley, jun., scored his first peal as conductor, when, at stapleford, Notts, on January $14 t h$, he rang his $25 \mathrm{th}^{2}$ peal, It was in three methods of Minor.
The long service of Mr. F. T. Jewell, who has been for 55 years steeplekeeper at St. James' Church, Bristol, was celebrated on Jamary 18th, when a peal of Bob Myjor (which was substitufed for Roym when the band met short) was rung in his honour.

AN ANNIVERSARY PEAL

The peal of Grandsire Caters a& North Stoneham on Jamuary 17th was, in effect the celebration of the Rev. E. B. James' first peal, rung 50 Jears ano last month. A peal had been arranged on the ectual amiversary, but the weather conditions of snow and ice made it impossible for the band to meet.
Last weak's peal was rung on the 55th amniversary of the firgt peat by the Wiachester Guild in Hampshire (one had previously been rung in Surrey), in which Mr. Gearge williams toak part. Now, at 81, he bas called this peal of Grandsire Caters.
Jobn R. Faitlifull, of Sonthrmpton, who rang the treble is only just 14 Fears of age. He deserves the bighest commendiation upon the way in which he rang. His only other peal has been the trable to Cambridge Surprise Major.
Mr. Maurice Hibhert, who took part in the first peal of Queensbury Surprise Major, which was rung at Buskey on Jamaary 19th, has now rang 50 different Surprise methods or extensions on $6,8,10$ or 12 bells, and is, we believe, the first to do so.
This list is made un of pesla of Kajor in 39 methods, Splieed Surprise in two to sir methods, seven Suprise Minor methods, London Minor, Cambridge Minor, Royal and Maximus and Yorkshire Royal.
A local band at Drayton, Somerset, raug a peal of Grandsire Triples on Tanary 14th-the first pail on eight bells rung by a band residing in Irchester Deanery
The peal of Treble Ten at stt. Mary's, Stafford, on Seturday, January 21 st , was arranged to give Mr. T. Warrilow, the respected seeplekeeper at this tower, and his son, Mr. R. J. Warrilow, the opportunity of ringing their first peal of Royal.
The Ficar of St. Mstthew's, Walsall (the Rev, H. J. Carpenter), bes been appointed to a Prebendal stałl in Lichfeld Cathedral, and on Thursday of last week, ringers of the Archdeaconry of Stafford rang a peal of Stedman Cinques at Walsall in honour of the preferment. Mr. George W. Hughes rang his first peal as conductor, nad he is the fourth member of the lacal band to call a peal of Stedman Cintaues in the tower.
Mr. Stanley Copling, of Loddon, Norfols, rang his 100th peal when he took part in a peal of Snperlative Surprise Major at Redenhell on Saturday, January 2lst.

A peal of Minor in spen methots was rung by the local band at Deeping St. Njeholas, Lincs, on January 17th. It wes a birthdsy compliment to Mr . C . Perkins, and was the first peal on an "inside" bell in seven methods hy the conductor, Mr. Frank Taylor.

It is interesting to note that Mr. Ronald Shepherd has ring his firet peal as conductor. Tbis was Grandkire Triples at Coleshill, Warwickshire. He has been ringing only about two yeers and is a roost promisine member of the Aston hand. We look forward to a great ringivg fitture for this ronnte enthusiast.
Archia Leck, jun.. made his first attempt to call a peal on Jamary 12th at Wickham Skeith and was successful in conducting seven 720's in threg methods.
Another new conductor is Mr. J. Meadowcroft, jun., of Newhey, Lancs, who on Saturday ealled a peal of Grandsire Triples in his home tower.

Mr Plowright was one of the original members of the bond who rang at Willingham when the bells were increased from three to five and subsequertly to six in 1805.

Mr. J. Williams of Morriston, earned the thanks of a Swansea and Brecon Guild band by making up the company for a peal of Minor at Lasnelly, Carmarthenshre, oz siturảay, when all the other ringers, except the conductor, scored their first peal of Minor.
What is believed to be the quickest peal rung at St. Mary's, Woolwich, was brought round on Saturday in 2 hours 52 minutes. The tenor is 13 cwt . The peal of Oxford was Mr. Geoffrey Murphy's firat peal of Treble Bob as conduchor.

To celebrate the birthday of Mr. W. Onikes, the "grand nid mann" of Trill, Somerset, who has rcached the age of 76 years, the first peal of Minor on the bells at Pituinster was rung on Safurday. It was in this tower that Mr. Oakes learned to ring.

Another birthday peal was that at St. Peter's, Nottingham, where a peal of Minor in three methods on the front six of this ring of tea celebrated Mr. Thomas Jenvison's 65th anniversary.
Seven out of the eight ringers who scored a peal of St. Clementa Bob Mejor at Tarporley, Cheshire, on Saturday, rang their fret peal in the method. The erception was Mr. Robert Sperring, who was one of the bava that some rears ago frst exploited some of these departures from the commonplace.

WINCHESTER AND PORTSMOUTH DIOCESAN GUHLD.

SOUTHAMPTON SECRETALY'S APPEAL TO DEFICIENT BANDS.
The annual meeting of the Southampton District of the Winchester and Portamouth Diocesan Guild was held at Southampton on January 14tb. Over 70 members and visitors were present from most of the towerg in the district and from places as far away as Ryde, Portsmonth, Salisbury and Bournemouth, and included Messrs. G. Wilhams, F. W. Itcgers, W. Andrews, W. T. Tucker, F. Romaine, etc.

The sorvice was held at Foly Rood Cburch, the Rev, G. H. Goodall officiating, and the ringers had tea in St. Miohael's Fall.
At the business meating, the Rev. G. H. Goodall presided.
The fecretary (Mr. G. Pullinger) peesented the accounts, whicin showed a very astisfactory state of affairs., Although the total nembership was four below that of last year, beiag 116 againgi 120, increaged balances were paid to the general treasurer and also carried forward. Several towers in the district, the secretary said, were below strenglh, St. Mary's, Sputhampton, being one.

In every case where there was an shortage of ringers Sundey gervice ringing suffered, the services of the church suffered and the reputation of the Guild suffered. Every effort would have to be ravale to remedy this by bringing in new ringers who would treat their ringing as an contribution to the work of the church. Irregularity and unpunctuality on the part of same ringers, which made Sunday service ringing but a half-hearted affair or ruined a practice, was often the cause of bands falling apray. He appealed to all concerneil to remedy this. At Bomsey monthly prsetices had been arranged and this effort was making sterdy progress. At Upham a course of instruction was being given. Mogt promising of all, bowever, was the number of keen young ringers, both men and women, who were coming along in various parts of the district.
No restoration work liad been carried out in the district during the year, and, generally speaking, tho belis were in good order.
The Rev. R. A. R. Spread (Vicar of St, Michael's) thanked the ringers for their work and paid a tribute to Mr. Pulinger.
The district officers were elected as follows: Chairman, the Rev. G. T. Trittou; Ringing Mnster, Mr. G. Williams; hon. treasurer and secretary, Mr. G. Pullinger; suditor, Mr. G. Fray; representatives on Frecutive Committee, Mr. R. Brown (Southempton) and Mr. W. Viney (Romsey).
District meetings were arranged as follows: Bishopstoke, February $18 t h ;$ Fawley, May 20 th ; Sherfield Eaglish, July zend; Upham, October 88th ; anual (Sontbampton), January 13th.
During the afternwon and evening ringing took place upon the bells of St. Mrry's, Holy Rood, and St. Michael's Ghurcher, and ranged from rounds and call changes to Surprise Royal.

IEEDS AND DISTRICT SOCIETY.

"FAMLY' GATHERING AT PUDSET.
The society's first meeting of 1939 was held at Pudsey. The bells were rung isp soon after 3 p.m., when a happy couple, who lind just been merried, had the sound of the bells to add to tine feative occasion. Tea was eeryed at the Parik Hotel, where the geacrous epirit that always prevails when Pudsey is visited was again in evidence. Ample justice was done to the provisions, and while the later arrivals were having tea, the sectetary was busy writing aut the notes of a new ballad, in whicin all voices joined in the opening words of "How much do I owep*
The business meeting was presided over by the Rev. J. H. B. Andrews, and members were present from Armley, Batley, Birstall, Bradiord Cathedral, Calperley Drigklington, Elland, Headingloy f$t. Cami's and St. Michael's), Idle, Liversedge, Leeds Parish Church, Pontefract, Rothwell, Selby, Sherbusn, Shiplay and the local company.
At the outset the President asked the members to stand for f few moments in silence in memory of the late Mr. Harry Lockpood, for 60 year rimger at Leeds Pariah Ghurch and ons time president and trustee of our bociety.
Four new members were elected, viz., Messig. E. Baldwin and B. Hodgson, of Liversedge, C, Brown, of Pontefract, and G. Vasley, of Selby.
A comprehensive vote of thanks to the Vicar, churchwardens and the local company wes proposed by Mr, Johnson, who, in thanking the ringers for their continued generasity sit this meeting, wondered whether they should not call it & family gathering. Many ringers made a apecial effort to be present at Pudey, and if the association did not wisit Pudisey, there would be many faces they would not sce. The wholo gathering was warmed by the friendliest feeling and camaraderie, and, judging by the numbers present, the efforts of the local company were sppreciated. Ho boped their efforts would continue for another 98 years.-Mr. W, Barton, replying for the Pudsey ringers, said he would see what they could do with regard to the time mentioned by Mr. Johnson, and me hoped Mr. Jolinson would be Prasent at them all (laughter).

The next meeting is to be held at Liversedge on Tebruary 25 th.
Tho secrelary gave a detailed siatement with regard to the socibiy's jubilea meeting, to be held at Leeds Parish Church on March 25 th . The bella would be open priar to in eervice, which would be followed by a hot-pot supper and entertainment (Is. gd. per head) at Sherwin's Eestaurant, Lande Lane.
Good use was made of the handbells, with further visits to the tower until 9 p.m. Afterwierds handbell ringing at the hotel brought another wonderful meeting to a close.

BELYRY GOBGIP.

Bristol United Guilds contemplate issuing another edition of their vaiuable 'Ringers' Diractory' this year.
We understand, also, that they will organise another of their "ringing' Weeks in August. Those held in the past have been highy successful. These excursions are not peal ringing expeditions.
The ringers at Doncaster Parish Church are very eager to get their bells restored. The Vicer called a meeting of the ringers, to discuss ways and means, on a recent Sunday at 7.45 p.rn., after the evening service. One of the ringert was so keen that he arrived at the church for the meeting at 7.45 a.m.
Last Saturday, Mr. James Hunt was alected Rituging Master of the Taunton Deanery for the twenty-frat time.

The gertleman (we presume it was a gentleman and not a lady) who Ieft his pipe on the table after the Bristol dinner on Saturdey can have it by applying to Mr. Edgar Guise.

Certain Landon ringers who vifted Bristel on Salurday end wont to Long Ashton on Sunday roorning to get their shoes soled and heeled came away disappointed. An arm of the law was atanding by to gee thet tho Shop Hours Act was observed.
Mr. Ben Gough, who has been stayirg in the Beeches Nursing Home in Wolverhampton for a considerable time, sfads his greetinggs to all old ringing friends, and would be pleased to seo anyona who can make it cobvemient to pay him a pisit.
The members of Newcastle Cathedral Guild wers delighted on Sunday to welcome brek to the tower after his recent illaess Mr. W. H. Barber, whoge many friends throughout the country will bo glad to know he has recovered sufficiontly to climb again the belfry steps.

DEATH OF AN EDENBRIDGE RLNGER.

Many ringers who have been associuted with the Kent County Association, and especially with the Edenbridge tower, will be sorry zo hear of the pessing of Mr. 'Jimmy' Heasmen.
He was a meuber of the Edenbridge stoney baud which joined the Kent Association in 1896, and started to learn change rimging-

For over 50 yearg ho was a regular service ringer at Edenbridge, for many years held the post of captain, and spent endless loours in teaching youngsters. He rang at least, 39 peals in his own lower and many otliers elsewhere,
Ho composed severaf peals, and many touches of his are still rung for service in the district. He taok part in the ringing when the beila of Edenbridge were broadeast a few years ago allhougt mearly blizd.

He died at Chingford, Essex, on January 15th, 3 ni was huried at the cemetery at Edenbridge on the 19th. Foir of bis brother ringers, Messrs. G. Malyau, E. Leish, W. Leigh and E. C. Leigh, acted as bearers. The floral tribubes included a wreath fram the Toabridge District of the Kent County Association.

The bells he loved so well wore rung half-muffled during tho evening.

LINCOLN DIOCESAN CUILD.

LADI FLECIED RINGING MASTER OF GALNSBOROUGH DISTRICT
The axmual mecting of the Gainsborough District of the Lincoln Diocesan Guild was held at All Saints', Gainsborough, on Sathrday, January 21st. After a belated stari, due to the late arrival of some of the members, the fine peal of eight were set going to various methods.

Service was conducted by the Vicar, Canon E. A. G. Whitworth, and tea was served at the Tudor Cefe.
At the business meeting the district secretary took eyerybody by complete surprise when he announced that he felt he could no longer hold office. Much to the regret of all, his resignation liad to be accepted aifter two years of excelient work.

Considarablo discussion Followed on the dificulties of secretaries, and after much persuasion the Ringing Master agreed to resign that office and take over the duty of secretary. Ir acknowledting his election, he said it was not the work entailed that he was dinking of, but he felt he was taking over it "sinfing ship.' "If: he said, the district would make es eupreme effort to improve the prantices and ringing generally, he would do his part.
Mrs. E. Gray a popular lady ringer af Gainsborough, was unanimously elected Ringing Master.

A discussion then followed on the pros and cons of ataring a Belfry Repair Fund to assist towers in the district where schemes for restoring or sugmenting their belis- were started. It was saggested that a collection should be taken at enels meeting. Erentasily this was agreed to and the first collection made. In wiew of this it was impossible to help the restoration fund of Bronlly, for which an appeal had been received.

Votes of thank were pessed and a return made to the tower. Unfortwately, owing to an impartand function in m meighbouring chapel, ringing had to cease at 7.30.
Methods risp during the day ranged from Grandsire Triples to Cambridge Surprise Major, a course of Londan coming to grief two leads from home.

The towers represented nucluded Blyton, Lea, Uphon, Willingham, Gainfiorougls, Retford, Lincola, Sartieet, Bolsover, Treeton and Folkingham.

LEADING CONDUCTORS-55.

FRANK W. PERRENS

A ringers' 'strike' was the cause of Mry. Frank Perrens' entry into ringing and giving the art one of its most able exponents. While he was living at. Willenhall, Staffs, in 1910, the ringers there went on strike, because the church authorities would not provide them with new ropes. The Viear appealed to members of the Young Men' Club, cannectad with the church, for recraits to leain to ring. Mr. Perrens happened to be one who was persuaded to volunteer, It was a circumstance that has had gratifying results. It was not long, indeed only November 5th in the seme year, before he rang his first peal, which was one of Grandsire Triples at'St. Peul's, Wood Green, Stuffa, where, incidentally, he slgo rang his first Surprise perl (Cambridere) nearly five years later. His first peal as couductor was also Grandsire Triples at St. Giles', Wiltenlall, on October 30th, 1913, in which there Trere four other "firsts." It was also the first geal on the hells by a locs1 bend, although the bells were increased to eight in 1873. Mr. Perrens' connection prith Willenhall lasted until 1915, but out of this period be spent his college days in Landon, where he had many beppy meatings with ringers ant he has pleasant recollections of the kindness extonded ta himl From 1915 ta 1921 , intorrupted by war service with the Ir.A.F., Mr. Perrens rang at Sution took an early opportenity of visiting st. Martin's, Birmingham, where landbell ringing, was then going strang, He became grently interesied in this phase of ringing and took it up with enthusiasm. His first handbell peal was Stedman Cinques, the first handbell peal on twelve bells in the city of Birmingham and for St. Martin's Guild. Ont of the 45 peals which Mr. Perrens ralg in this period. 26 of them were on hanabels.
Since 1921 Mr. Jerren bas been connected with All Saints', Allesley, Corentry, a six-bell tower, and

MR. FRANK W. PERRENS. t. was not until some time afrer gain a conduchor really started. In 1903 he called his first peal of Major (Cambridqe Surprise), and although his peal ringing since then lias been a little more rapid, he has only on two occaeions rung more than 20 peals in a year; but they have gone to make up an interesting reeord.
For instance, Mr. Perrens conducted the first peals ever rung of Lincolnshire, Warwickkhire, York, Wigeton and Stratford Surprise Major, and called the first peats for the Warwickslire Guild of seven Surprise Minor methods. New Cambridge, Ipswich, Yorkshire, Staf fordshirc, Pudsey and Ashtead Surprise Major, New Cambridge Royal and Duffeld Major, and the first handbell peals of Stedman Catera and Cinques. Mast of the Surprise peals were the first in the method by nll the band, and, with one exception, were rung at the first attempt without any prepious mractice. In adidition, Mr. Perrens conducted the frrst peal of Canbridge Surprise Maximiss for the Oxford Pincesan Guild and has rusg in the first peals of Cambridge Maximus in several counties, including the great performence at Exeter Cathedral on October 15th, 1932. He has taken part in the only two peals rang at Buckfast Abbey, the first being rang from the narrow gallery round the central tower. Other of his interesting peals liare been the Ars: peal of Erin Chaques on handbells, a silent peal of Stedman Triples, and a silent peal of Stedman Cinques on hardibells, in which the position of the ringers of the first five pairs of bells was drawt out of a bat.

H: Perrens las rang 322 peals, of which 69 have been on handhell=, and he lias conducted 121, of which 25 have been "in hand." Practically all the peals that he has conducted have been called from working bells, a polict which he frolds should be instilled into hudding conductors. His peals have been rung in 82 dilferent towers. including 21 twelve-bell towers, in 20 counties and for 18 differents societies and guilds. They inciude well over one hundred prals of Surprise and over a hundred on twelve befls, as well as a good ambler of peals of Minar up to seten Surgrise methods.

THE NORWICH ASSOCLATION'S RECORD

SOME SIGNIFICANT FACTS.

To the Editor.

Dear Sir-I am sure that the Exercise as a whole will wish to cougratulate Norwich very beartuly on jts magnificent pertormance, the completion of a " peal of peals.

There are some striking fentures about this achievement that Mr. Golden with characteristic modesty does not commeat upog. First and foremost must be the part that he limself aud the presert geveration of Norfolk rimgers have played in producmg the grand total, for the men of Norfolk are not riding on the shoulders of pust giants: they hava for the kest two years at least rung over a century of peals in the twelse months on their own account

Next is the extraordinsry average put up by the Norfolk men of to-dry in tine matter of peal rillging. Their membership is sambl325 performing members in the 1837 report, who. Jet, rang 108 peals invotvilu 812 ringers, which works out at participation in 2.3 peals per head of the ringing population within the compuss of a single year. This is surely not alone a contemporary record, but it must be somethisg like an ali-time record as woll. How 山igh the figure is may be judged by the following comparative firures, representing the "pead index' for 1937 unless otherwise stated for the guilds named. Wint chester and Portsmouth, 0.42; Bristol, 0.38; Bath and Wells, 0.26 ; Guildford (1936), 0.36; Devon (1935), 0.031. Even the energetic Soubbampton ©istrict (whiol inciudes North Btonebnan, a peal ringing tower of no mean order) cond only score 1.25 for the Corouation year. All figures are based on zusideut membership alone
There is much still to be sath about Norfolk. There wete in the 1937 report 31 peal contiuctors, an average over the whole membership of ore peal conductor to every eleven members approximately, so that the honours of the bjg figures must be spread very widely indeed over the county The variety of the melliods rung is well kHown and needs wo comment but the most significent fact of all remains to be stated, It is that all the 1837 peals (and I 1.hink all the 1938 as weil) were rung by resident members alone, with a few very tritling exceptions. No visiting bands helped to swell the total-Norfolk did it all tinaided.

I heve called this last the most sigpificant fact of all, since it has eo great a beariag upon the sporadic controvery that aceuptes your columas from time to tine. Unattacled ringers ring no peats in Notfolk, not because they arc deliberately opprosed by anybody concorned, but simply because the ringers af Norfolk keep their own bells fully occupied. Those who object to 'umattached peths ehould go and do jikeryise. If they do not use their owa luells they must not be surprised when otber people do it iustead, and they should put the blame where it belorgs-upon their own inconpeterce or indolence -or both.
May the ringers of Norfolk long contiuue to show us how it is done
Bitton, Brisidol.
A. J. Corrigan.

NO RINGING AT PRESTBURY FOR VISITORS.

GHESTER QLILD ASEED TO CONSIDEA FIGAE S REHUSAL.
The Macclesfield Branch of the Chester Diocesan Guild held its gencral meeting on Saturdizy, Janazary 144n, and despite tontenta of rair in the evening was very successtul, Promptly at 3 oclock the early arrivals conmenced to riug up the temor of the magnificent pell of twalve bells at the Parish Church, and it was not. loog before the Ringing Master had all his work cut out to provide for all iastes, both highbrow and lowhrow.
The special Guild service was conducted by the Vienr of Macclesfield (the Rev. N. A. Vesev), who is also the chtirman of the lraneh, and a very inferesting address was given by the cutate (the Rev. K. Lee), which touched on the words of the special hymu for riugers, par ticularly the lost verse, 'Our lives, like bello, while changing, an ordered course pursue."
Tes was served in the Alexandra Cafe, when 31 members assembled. The business meeting followed, and apologies for absence were read from the Vicars of Chelford and Cbrist Charch and the Rector of Gawswarth. The Ficar of Bosley and the Rector of Alderley had intendedi to be present, but were prevented at the last miarte from attending.

The secretary was congratulated upon an excellent report, which revealed that there had been an increase in membership oner 1937 of three honorary and 13 ringing meabers, Ringing meetinge treve been very well attended, the sverage being 27 por meeting. Twenty-me members took patit in 44 peals for the Guild, ten members rang their [irst peal, nime at the frst attempt, two their first on eight bellia and two their first on ten. The offeers for 1938 were re-clected can bloc for 1939.
The secretary pointed out that the ringing meeting proposed for July at Prestbury would have to be cancelled owing to the fact that the Vicar would not sllow the bells to be used at any time by visiting ringers.
Arter some discnssion it was decided to place the mafter in the bands of the Guild secretary as an item affecting Guild principles. Threa further ringing members were elected, and the meeting concluded with votes of thanks to the chairman, secrefary and treasurer, also to the organist for presiding at the organ for the service.
Further the of the bells was then made, and before fionghing time sereral more stragglers found their way into the ringing chamber to complete the happy gathering.

BRISTOL UNITED GUILDS.

LARGE GATHERING AT ANNUAL DINNER. Need for Recruitment in Belfries.

The annual gathering organised by Bristol United Rivging Guilds ontimues to grow in popularity and interest. Last Saturday ringere were attracted to Bristol not anly from the immediate counties of Qloucestershire, Somerset and Wiltshire, but from zlaces far distank among tham Iondon, Sinefield, Manchegter, Birmingham, Hereford Newport, Smansca, Port Talbot, Plymouth and Southmmpton. The gathering has become more than the formal dinner with which it began 18 Jears rgo. It has developed into a 'week-end,' and visitors find the warmest hospitality extended to them. On Saturday aiter noon, iu addition to the usual ringing at a number of the dity churches an excursion to Bristol Zoological Gardens had been arranged, and there was also afternoon ter for all who desired it at gt. Thomas Parisla Rodma Thas trip to the Zoo was thoroughly intereating, and over 30 wisitors, who were talten by motor-coach, availed themselves of the opportunity to inspect the specimens. Of course, there was not lacking the wit who said that the animals also enjoyed the enfertainmeat provided for then. Clifton Zoo has been in existence more than a hundred years, aud the visitors had the advantage of being couducted round tha rardens by Mr. Ralph Guise (brother of the hon. secretary of Eristol United Guilds), wha is one of the Zoo offeials, but who fo some six months has been incapacitated from work through one of his arms being badly manglnd by at gorille. Happiy Mr. Guise is now recovering from lis severo injuries. The wwo things which probably most interested the ringing visitars were the opportunity of tondling a lion aub ouly five weeks old, and inspecting a giant garilla weighiug 28 stones-which they lowd no desire to fondle. This gente man, bowever, was apparently more interested in his afternoon meal of banangs and raw onions then in the public

After the tour of the gardens the visitors were entertajned by the Onited Riuging Guilds to "tea and bun " in the Parilion and went on to ring at Clifton Parish Church.

BIG DINNZR PARTY.
Dinner twas served in the Ball Room at the Grand Hotel and over 280 sah down, During the mesl they were entertanimed with limht music, provided by an orchestral quintette. The chair was taken by Mr. E. J. Brown (St. Philip's), who was accompanied by Mrs. Brown, and he was supported by the Von. Archdeacon of Bristol and Mrs. alford, the Rer Canon E. S. Swame (Vien of St. Mary Redcliffe) Canon E. J. Phillips, the Rev. M. Paterson (Vicar of St. Thomas') tho Rev. Noel Hope (Vichi of Chedworth and Mater of the Gloucestet and Bristol Diocesar Association), Mr, and Mrs, S. H. Woed, Mr A. A. Hurines (London), Mr. and Mrs J. F. Smallwood (Bath), Mr O. Read. Mr. anc. Mrs. W. Emery, etc. risitors were Br. J. T. Dylie (hon, secrotary of the Broth and Well Diocesan Association), Mr. J. W. Jones (lron. secretary, Llandafi and Monmonth Diecesan Absomainn), Ms. W. H. Shuker hon. secretary Lencasinte Association) and Mrs. Shuker, Mr. S. F. Palmer (hon treasurer Yorkshire Assaciation), Mr. M. Wilson (hon. secretary Sbeffield Dis(rict Society) and Mrs. Wilson, etc. Apologies for absence were received from, anong others, Mr. and Mra. A. Walker (Birming ham), Mr. J. P. Fidler (Loughborough), Mr, and Mrs. S. Romani (Gloucexter) and Mr. Charles Thomas (of the Ancient Society of St. Stephen's Ringers). After an enjoyable meal, the Mastor submitted the loynd toast

PPEAL TO RINGERS WHO FAVE DRIFTED
The Chairman, in proposing the toast of "The Church; said, as ringers, they owed a great dea! to the Church and particularly to the especially for the course to begraterul wo the clergy in many ways, other than their own fory they showed when ringers visial chuche or ringers" outiags ? ?rgely for their own gratificution, but mevertheless enabling them to practise their art in a far broader sense than otherwise they could do. Ringers were arare, too, of the kindy willinguess of the clergy to co-operate with ringing associations when those associations held tbeir periadical meetings. The Chairman proceeded to appeal for a closer hond between clergy and ringers, and said he thousht it could be strengthened if the ciergy showed a litle more interest and went to the belfry sometimes and got to know their tingers better. He knew there were some who took a real interest a that branch of church work, but in many towerg an occasional visit from the Vicar, with perhapa a word of encollragement now and egaim, would not only go far to make ringers feel less out of things, but would liave a definite eflect for good, parkicularly among young ringers in the learmer stage. He also appealed to those zingerg who had for some reason or other drifted from the belfry and no langer took a rope on Sundey. Their absence constituted a serious loss to the Chareli and to tho Exercise, particularly in these days of depleted bands. He appealed to those ringers, diffeult though it might appear at first sight, to try and sins any dierrences ther might have and retarn to the belfry and rejoin their brotherr in what, aftar all, was their daty and sarvice to the Church; keeping uppermost in their minds that service to the Ohurch was a service to God (applause)

The Archderton of Bristol, who responded, referring to the chair man's description of the clergy as "the stalwarts of the Church," said he disagreed with him in that. He always felt that the stalwarls of the Church were the laity aud the people who backed up the clergy in every possible way. What the incumbents would do without the belp they got from the laity, men and women, we shuddered to think. It was just hecause they had round them such bands of willing helpers as the ringers and other lay workers that they were able to carry onContinuing. the Archdeacon Teferred to the anxjous thanes in which we are now living, and said be hoped the bells, in the words of the poet, would ring out the old bad things in the world and that the ringers would translate jato their sounds the messafe of peace. Tingers could do something as evangelists : they monld tell the world that some of the old ideas are wrong ; they could tell the world they did not want to talk of war, but wanted to lalk of peace. They needed to ving the bells of peace throughout the world. He thought the Church slould take a far greater lead than ghe did in talking of peace and of the things that would bring about peace. They prayed for peace when there was an emergency, as there was last September, and then went on telling people to bepome A. R P. workers, 38 if they aid not believe God had broucht, them neace in answer to their prayers. He was not a pacifist-be liad been for 17 pears a chaplain in the Forces-but something was wrong with what the Church taught. Every onte of them, however small a part they played in the work of the Church, thould try above all things at this time to preach peace. He wondered whetluer they could take away a message that night, and in foture, through the bells, lift up their woices for peace, In that way in city and country the 250 who were there that night might, go out and be a power for good. It had got to start from somewhere; it might well be that it could start there-the gespel af peace, becalise they were rinpipg the bells of peace (applanse)

RELATIONS OF CLERGY AND RINGERS
The Rev. M. Paterson, who proposed the toast of "The Ringing World,' said the ringers of Bristol were, lue knew, grateful for what they at st. Thomas' were able in a small way to do for them, but he somatimes wondered whether they gave gratitude wheve it ought to be given. They oftem thanked him, but their gratitude should roally 5y to the churchwardens, Lagt year, he contanued, he was allowed relationships that existed between the clergy and tha ringers. He hinted, they woud remember, that although there might be faufts on the sids of the clergy, there also magt be gome faults ou the side of thase jmmoculate people, the ringers (taunter). If the clergy and ringers were to come closer logether there must be atvances not only by the clergy, but also bre the ringers. Many rears ago when wo wh a young curate he went to a church where there were bells, and ringers who rang Suuday morning and evening alld on one evening in the wrel for practice, but, so ar as he cauld sef, so long ge the tower and bells were preserved, they would not have troubled if the whole church was burned down They ware mitirely bloof from all parochia] activities. It might have been his fault, aud probably it was, bechuse he was not so old or so wise then as he was gow, ard shown any interest, even a small interest in what interogted him, if they had made some adurnce to the young curate who came amongst them, lae wonld lave been a ringer to-day.

Contimuing, Mr. Paterson sajd that was the sixtcenth dinner of the Bristol United Guilds that he had attended, aud he was beginaing to wonder whefher here would we, for him, a seventeenth or an or ater years hncy and placed lis speech in a prominent piace in their promsame, but be felt that now he liad sajd to them all be had got to say. Moreover, had to confegs that, mith his advancing pears, more and more did he value the nuiet $\mathbb{S a h u r d a y ~ e v e n i n g . ~ H e ~}$ did most earneatly hope that they would be able to get gome younger clergyman into the towers of Bristol and that he woutd be abie to speak to them with raore power and influence than he (Mr, Paterson) had been able to do. If that happoned he could assure thern that he would read that greech in "The Pinging World." Mr. Goldsmitb knew perfectly well that he esteemed him, bat the zingers of Bristol knew far better than he (the speaker) did the work Mr. Goldsmith did for ringers and the value of the paper (applause)

Mr. Goldsmith, in replying to the toast, gaid he sincerely hoped Mr. Paterson cid not intend that speech to be bis swan song. Tbey almays appreciated Mr. Paterson's witt and wisdom, and hoped he would long be spared to join them at that gathering and enlighten and cheer them with his words (applause). Of the valse of Mr. Paterson's speeches on those omsaions they had proof last vear, when as the outcome of what he said on the relations between ringers and clergy. the Archdeacon made reference to the matter in his charge (applause).

MORE RECRTIITNG NECESSARY

Mr. F. J. Smallwood submitted the toast of "The Gloucester and Bristol Diocesan Association and the Bristol Onited Ringing Guilds.' He said they had to thank the Bristol United finging Guilds for the work they were doing in creating unity zmong the ringers of the west country. They were proud of the wark that was being done, and thase gatherings were a great testimany to the efficiency with which it had been done. They had that day provided eztertammant for their visitore ks usual, but there mas a subtle humour about the proceedings. He was very puzzled about the Zoo busiaess. He under. stood that they were accompanied by ons of the members of the Guild's Committee, and it was only with the sreatest difficnltr the arthorities could be persuaded to let him come Rway (taugzter). A resolution had been moved that afternoon at the 200 in the following ternos: "Wo, the animals housed at Cliftor Zoo, desire to place on record our appreciation of the action of the Bristal Duner Commattee in nuranging for their visitors to be brought to our Zoo to-day. We thisk they were a most interesting selection of the laman species, and we shonald like to see more of Uhem. (Sighed) U. B. Chimpans (latsiter).
Continuing, Mr. Smallwood said be asked the secretary for the number of performing members in the assaciation at the present time, and 组 got a slight ghoule when he found it was less than it was in 1928. He thouglit that calfed for a good deal of ivward reflection by them all. They ought to consider this question of recruitnent of ringers more seriousjy. He threw out the hint to those people who had any infuence with the authorities how useful it would be to get into the towers the choirboys after their voices lad brokell. They ought to rope them in and they might also rearuit from the boy scouts. He thought there would be a useful field for recruitment there. They must not orerlook the fact that they mast recruit or their art would become a dying one. Meteoric performanees were interesting to ald timers, but the great thing they bad to work for was the contiouance of this wonderful art, and they could only secure it by contifualy recruiting young blood into their ranks (applatase), HIGHER STANDARD SHOULD BE AIMED AT
The Rev. N. E. Hope feplied to the torst and said when he shonidered the nffee of Master of the Gloucester and Bristol AssociaLion he felt it was a great responsibility, but he had come to find that. it was a nice responsibility, for much of it was taken from him by hieir excellent secretary (applanse). Then he had absolutely no finaucial worries, because ho bad Mr. Williams, the treasurer, behind him. He tather trembled wlien to looked at the list of former Masters and saw among them so many great riugers sueh as he could nol hope to follow it that respect. Thu associstion was formed 60 yeurs ago, and be was born in a Gloucestershire village shorthy afterwards. There was a six-bel! tower there, and in it he was taught the intricacies of Grandsire Donbles. He was sorry to say that ringing at that tower hud nol ddvanced. They were stul rimging Grandsire and Bob Doubles (laughter). They could not do withoul those methods, but surely by this time there ought to be rome advance. He would ask them all, whatever their stendard, to try and go one better than 1 hey were at present in all their towers. There was, he thougfit, no art in the world that roquired so much concentrationthey could not stop in the middle of at peal, for instance, to have a cigarette (laughter)-and they must do all they possibly could to keep up that art. Roferring to the objects of the association, which were the refornt of the beltry and the cultivation of change linging, the apeaker said these thogs went very utuch hand in hand. They could often tell the quality of the ringing at a tower by the state of the belfry. No good chaike ringing band would tolergie an untidy belfry. Recruiting was a frequent subject at ringers' dinners. There were two sides to the question. The old ones blamed the youth of the day with regard to bellrilsing because they would not stick to it, but if they had an enthusiastic trainer he would spread enthusiasm, and that was where there must be give and take on the part of the older men and the younger men. They had scen what had happened at Ipswich. The success there had been due to the fact that they never allowed the band to get under streltgth; they were always wying to toarn something new and to train and give a chance to the young conductors, so that it was neter a one man job. Those were three points which could always well be borne in mind.
BEST FTRMS SHOULD BE EMPLOYED FOR RESTORATIONS.
Arother matter to which he would like to refer was that the association wha always prepared to give expert advice whare hell restoration was concerned. He would asle the members, if they were having anything done to their bells, to ensure that it was dove by un expert firm. He knew of cases where money lad been spent but the best people had not been employed and the result was that the bells did not go well It was one thing that was important to the clergy, and if they were having anything done to their bells ther should get the Vicar to see that the best firms were employed. If they could not do that, thep should write either to tho secretary or to him. Mr. Howe added that he boped ringers would not forget that the bella belonged to the Vicar or Rector, as the case might he, and they should, therefore, make friends with the incumbent. They wanted ca-operation between incumbents and ringers, and the ringers ghoulf also see that they liad one of their number on the Church Council (applause).
'The Vice-Chaiman proposed 'Eindred Societies and Visitors, and referred to the fact that such an occasion as that afforded a waluable opportuuity for fingers to make contact with members of other societier. As secretary of one of the Bristol towers he bad often had to make artangements for ringing in towers covered by other associations and had always been treated with kindvess and comsideration. He welcomed the members of other associations at that gatbering and hoped for even closer contact in the future (applatise).
Mr. A. A. Hughes, in acknowledging the tonst, said the Bristal gatherings pot better and hetter every year, and that day the visitars had been given a wonder[u] enterfainment. The social side of ringing was Fery important and without it he thought ringing would not go very far. He knew of two towers in his own experience where the ringing consigted of going into the tower and ringing on practice neghts nnd Sundays, and the men saw nothing else of each other all (Contjaued on page 63.)

the week. By virtue of a little influence they wera got logether mociatily, their enthusiasm for ringing increased and with it the quality of their ringiag. They must: said Mr. Hughes, nuway strive to seep the social side of ringing going, and such reunions as they had that evening did a wouderful lot of good (applause).
The toast of "The Artistes " was proposed by Mr. Brian Huddiestou (pro-vice-chairman), who thanked them for their sarvices, nud this was zeplicd to by Mr. George Spikes.
A feature of the proceedings int this gathering is the contertainment which follows the dinner, and once more a programe of great variety was offered. There wore songs by Miss G. E. Sailer and Mr. Georga Spikes, Billie Fields and his partner provided some extremely amusing dialogues, Mr. Farold Lenker, at son of one of the United Guilds' officiuls, mystified the audience with clever conjuring tricks, and a company under Miss Edie Ryan provided cabaret turpas. St. Thomas' Guild of Handbell Ringera again greatly delighted the large company with their selections of tunes. The commitree of the United Guilds, and particularly the energetic hon. secretary, Mr. Edgar Guise, deserve hearty congratulations upon the success of their great efforts.
On Sunday many of the visitors enjoyed zinging at churches in and around Bristol, and they said farewell after a lunch-time reunion at the Radnor Hatel.

DON'T SCRUB YOUR HANDS!

Cleanse and preserve your skin this simple wayTo many people, the problern of getting the hands really clean without harming the skin is a serious one. Grease and grime, which become deeply ingrained into the pores of the skin, are extremely difficult to remove, and ordinary washing with soap or even scrubbing will fail to remove them completely. Housewives, particularly, who complain that their hands get ruined by the nature of theit work, will find the preparation called DERMAFOAM a real "godsend." DERMAFOAM just smoothes away dirt and grease without effort. It gets right down into the pores and removes every particle of grime, leaving skin beautifully supple and healthy.

Men, too-when you've finished that dirty job on the car, DERMAFOAM will quickly banish all grease and oil from your hands. It acts almost magically-working under and around the nails and into every minute crease, removing all trace of dirt in a flash.

Engineers, Painters, Car Mechanics, Printers - everyone - will welcome DERMAFOAM, the modern method of cleansing and protecting the hands.

Sold In Gd. and $1 /=$ Tubes

PLAY THE GAME.

The report of the committee of the North-Western District of the Surrey Association reveals facts which are, we are afraid, common to many of the associations throughout the country. An analysis of the attendances at the district meetings for the past year indicates that their success has chiefly depended upon the consistent support given by a limited number of members. This is no new factor in the affairs of an association, and at least one secretary in an adjoining guild has in the past severely admonished his lukewarm members upon their failings in this direction. When, as in these two instances, a record of attendances is kept, there is no colouring of the truth, and it really is lamentable that so many ringers fail to do their part in supporting their associations by personal effort. They think they have done all that is necessary when they have paid their annual subscription; whereas that is only the first thing that is due from them. It ought to be equally a matter of honour to give personal support to the association by attending the meetings arranged for their benefit and in their interest. Only this week, arnong our notices, is an intimation that, failing better attendances, consideration will have to be given to the dissolution of one of the branches of the Ely Diocesan Association. Moreover, there is another strong reason why ringers should feel it a duty and a privilege to atlend the meet ngs. They expect their officers to work for nothing; the officers in turn, are entitled to en couragement by having the support of the members; while it is an act of discourtesy to the clergy at the churcbes visited, to put them to the trouble of arranging a service unless the response is worthy.
Sorne secretaries also have cause for complaint, not only frons the indifference with regard to the meetings themselves, but in the attitude of some members who, while being ready to criticise, do very little, if anything, by rendering help. The District Secretary is often handicapped by lack of local assistance when it is needed, and then, if things go wrong, has to shoulder the blame. One of the things which some ringers seem to forget is the voluntary nature of the secretary's services. It is due from every member that he should contribute his share to the work of his association in any capacity in which it can be given; and not overburden the willing horse, who doesn't even get his keep out of the job. We are quite well aware that there are plenty of district secretaries whose work is appreciated by their members, but the appreciation would be more practical if it were manifested in deeds. Secretaries work very hard and it is not too much to ask of the rank and file that they should 'play (Continued on page 6 . 1 the game ' by supporting the meetings arranged for them and by giving their practical help in every direction where it is needed. It shows an extraordinary lack of interest when men do not attend a single district meeting from one year's end to another, and in every association there can be found many such. Yet, as a rule, it is these very people who complain that they get nothing out of their association. In any case they don't deserve to do so, but how can they expect to? As has so often been said before, unless you put something into your ringing you cannot hope to get anything out of it. It cannot be all taking and no giving.

A FALSE PEAL

To the Editor.
Dear Sir-I very much regret to say that the peal of Grandsire Caters rung at St. John's, Leicester, on December 26th, 1938, was false. I offer my sincere apelogies to those who rang in the peal.

PEAL NOTES.

ALE THE SUSSEX ELGHTS AND TENS

Mr. Frank Bennett callod a peal of Kent Treble Bob Major at Balcombe on Jawuary 26 th. It was the frst pesl on the bells since the trebles were added in 1936, and completed for the conductor a peal on all the rings of aight and ten bells in Sussex. The county has three peals of ten bells and over fifty of eight, including a ring of steel belis at Hastings.
Mr. Rupert Riciardson is reaping the fruits of patient work in buiding up a local band in the litite village of Eurfeet, and these Young mea ars calling as well as riuging peals now. A peal of Bob Major rung there last week was condueted by one of the pupils. It is not often that ang really original composition of Double Norwich Major is mung nowadays but the peal composed and called by Mr. Nolan Golden last Saturday ab Saxlinghem Nethergate has distinctly novel features. In 5,216 changes it has the course ead catent of $4-5-6$ in $5-6$ with the bith the extent at home in the minjmum mumbar of courses, and is the first to be rung in the method with these qualitjes in less than 46 full courses.

TWO HUNDRED YEARS WITHOUT A PEAL

The belli: at Stanford-in-the-Vale, Berks, bere been in the tower for 200 years, but it wha not until January 21 st, in the presant year of grace that a peal was rurg on them. The bells are in the origioal frume, though with sontevpati later beadstocks. Originally tley were a grand six but the second and fourth ara now cracked and the atteations of a bellfonnder would definjtely improve thinge.
We record also this week the first peal on the bells at Colaton Raleigh, Devon.
Mr. Alarn Pink, who lately left Middesex for Oxford, called a peal of Superlative on Saturday at Thame. It was the looth tower in Which he bas rung a peal. Walter Hunt at the second scared his first peal in any methed aud rang very well, A fine performance.
The Tonbridgo District of the Kent County Association lately decided to inaugurate a quarterly peal for the district, and the first (one of Grandsire Triples) was rung lact Salurday at Tonbridge. On the same day alld in the same methot, a quarterly peal was rung for the Exeter Brancla of the Devonshire Guide at Bradninch
The peal of Kent Treble Bob Major at Gorton on Jenuary 24il Was arranged as $\pi$ compliment to $\mathrm{Mr}_{\text {. Willian Brammer, the ringer }}$ of the third, on lis 7oth tirthday, and by a liappy coincidence jt was his 100th peal. It was Mr. Frank Reynolds: $25 t \mathrm{~h}$ penl and Mr. D. Fincent's 75 tl peal, It was also a birchday compliment to Anme Brown, the four-jear-old daaghter of the conductor.
Last Armistice Day a peal was rung at King's Norton, Leicesterhire, and tonches at Gaully on very hard going belle. This prompted Mr. Frask K. Measures to say that he could ring Brateglton Astley tenor to a peal, and on January 27st he did so, to the great satisfaction of his companinns. It was tha frst peal in seven methods of Doubles hy all the hand and the e5th presi that Mesers. Willim A. Wood and Frasla F. Measures have rugg together

TEE BROMLEY YOUTHS.
Tha Bromley Fouths who rang a peal of Grandsice Triples on January $25 t^{2}$ are an old and fanous society dating from the 18th centurp. Their firgt peal, rang in 173, was a "lialf-quarter peal
 Chapman was their leader, und when he died in 1817 the first mufled five thonsand on record was rung in his memory.
The peal of Cambridge Earprise Minor at Rushall, Staffs, on January $18 t h_{\text {, }}$ was rung in celebration of the golden wedding of Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Reed. Called in at short notice to complete the brud, John Luck ran; the treble fery creditably, for he bad never before tuag any Trebie Bob, and it was his first attompe for a peal of Minor. The report of another new Surprise Major method appeara this week. It was rung by Mr. Cashmore and his friends, but for the Middeapx Association, as it was at Pinner within that county, on Jan. 28th. Last Cliristmas time the band met at Pincer for Pinner Surprise, but met short, and ab the method then chosen was afterwards rune as Queensbury Surprise, Mr. Caslmmora had to work out nother method, Which, incidentaly', contains some rather unusuml gad amkward false course ends.
The Leicester 'Thursday hand of peal "epatchers' visited Market Farborongh on January 19th to attempt a peal of Double Norwich in hogous of the birth of a son to Mu, and Mrs. Charies Marelzall, of Sonth Wigston. The geven members of the bend who went by charabanc weve kreated to a nice Eurprise. Upon reaching the church they found Mr. "Ted" Whitehend had defied the weather and cyeled over an hour carlier to have everything in readiness. With the above nrmed on the tenor, bot pace was set at the commencement and nrmed on the tenor, hot pace was set at the commencemont and another good peal was brought home goad time for refreshmeat afterwards.
The charabanc party, fowever, then got another surprise and not such a pleasant one. Upon reaching their conveyance it was discovered that some kind person had aboolutely "jammed" the gears, which necersitated seeking a skilled mechanic, who was occupied for an hour in putting matters right.
To the ringer with the "big " wife waiting for him the remainder of the party tendered their sympathies and also offered to escort him to hy doorstep, brt no further, flthourg they were willing, if he apened the door and threw in his hat, to writ and sea if it was throwe out aprin.

The pea! of Doubles at Whimple, Duvon, on January 18th, was the firgt on the bells and the first in two methods by all the band except tha conductor, Mr. C. R. Lilley, of Plymoutb. 'lhe others belong to the Fonitan Clyst band.
Deais Bayles celebrated his 17 th birthday by ealling a peal of Minor at Acle on Jan. 21st, the first in eight methods on the bells and by four of the band. Kent and Oxford Treble Bob wore rung in the first 780. Another mothod was Chilkwnll, the first extent of it by all the ringers. The peal, zung in 2 hours 36 minutes, was the quickest on the bells.
Tho peal of Minor at Seale, Surrey, on Jan. 2lst, was rung in honour of the birtli of a daughter (on the previous Wednesdey) to Mrs. E. J. Brapg, wife of Sergt. E. J. Bragg (Grewadier Guards) stationed at Wellington Bartacks, London. Sergt. Bragg is a membar of the Aldershot company and his wife is elder daughter of Mr. W. Denjer and sister to MLssts. O. W. ntud T. E. Dethyer, all of whome took part in the peal.

Another studert at Kelham Theologicaif College has scored his first peal. On Sunday week, Mr, Norman Torrington rang 12 to a bandbell peal of Bob Minor. It was rung in St. Wilfidis Church, which lies within the srounds of the college, about 80 yards from the House of the Sacred Mission.

The R2nd snniversary of the wedding of Mr. and Mrs. F. A. Sulter, Janaary 21st. Mr. Salterated by a peal of Minor rung at Trowel! on Janiary 21st. Mr. Salter took part in the pea!.

OLD WOOLWICH PEAE RECALLED.

Apparently the claim that the peal at St. Mary's, Woolwich, fuag on Jansary 74 th in 2 loours 52 minutes, was the quickest pal on the bellg, cannot be sustained. On , Ianuary 19th, 1936, a peal of Bob Major was rung there in 2 hourg 51 minutes, conducted by Mr. B. W Aldridge, captain of the local baud, who rang the tenor
But an even quicker parl than this has been ruag on the bells-a peat of Grandsire Triples is 2 loours 50 minutes in 1887.
Two of those who took part in this peal were Mr. R. T. Woodley (now of Lowestoft, but formerly gecretary of the College Youtlis) and Mr. W. W. Gifford, ot sjatisbury
The peal had an amusing sequel. The band enjoyed the bospitality of Mr. Gifford, and then he and Mr. Woodjey walked to the Dockyas'd Station in tinle to sea tho last train departing. They had to walis back all tite wav to Pimlico, a disithece of some 13 milea.
Mr. Leslie Wightnaan, of Helminghan, was the first to ring 50 diferent Surprise Major methods and extensions. He was two in front of Mr. Waurice Eibbert when the latter reached whe hald-century post. Mr. Hibbert added anuther method last Saturday at Tonbridga, so the race is on.

All, except the conductor, who took part in the peal of Doubles at Maiser Hampton, Glaucestershira, on Jan. 21st, scorea their first pea] and gave added merit to it by ringing it in sis methads. Edward Peare, who rang the treble is only $15 \frac{1}{2}$ years of age, and he and Norman Peare, who rang the tenor, had not abtempted a peal before.
The recording of a neal as a birthdty compliment is oftom on afterthought, but seldom is it mentioned as such. Wilth periect frankness however, the record of the peal of Doubles in four methods int Norton Canon, Hevefordshire, on January 21st, hes been sent us with the note, After tha peal it was agreed to recordit as a birfhday complimeat to the conductor." Host birtirday peals are merely coincidences, but it is often made to mppes as if the birtladay celebration was the purpese of the peal, whereas it is not nintil afterwards that the fact comes out.
In this cese the conductor was Mr. J, P. Hyett, and it was the 150th peal he lad called.
At Fordinglridge on Satiruny week, Mr. Willjam Storey, J.P., of Newcastle Cathedral Gnild, tuok prit in a peal of Guandsiré Triplesto celebrate his 79th lirthday. Mr. Storey usually winters in Bournemouth, and while there takes an active part in local ringing.
Mr. J. W. Whittaker has Jow rung each bell at Sutton, Macelesfleld, to a peat. He completed this on Saturday, Wanuary 21st, when peai of Treble Bob Winor in 29 methods was rung-
Three Darlington ringers put up a specinily fise performance on Jan. 20th, when, for their first peal on handbells, they, rang seven surprise Minor mefbads. It was tlie first handbell peal in Darliagton and is believed to be the first peal of Surprise Minor on bandbells by the Durbam and Newcastle Diocesan Association.

ROMNEY MARSH GUILD.

The amaal meeting of Romney Marsh end District Guild was held at Appledore on Saturday, January g2st. The attendance was much below the average. Ringing took place during the afterngon and evening, and service was conducter by the Vicar, the flew. A. S. Mayne. The Vicar also prenided aver ihe basimess meeting, ut which the secretary's repott and baisnce sheet were adopted.
The officers blected were: The Fov. A. S. Maynt, president; Mr. C. WV. Everett, Master; Mr. P. Page, hon, secretary and trensurer.

WINCHESTER AND PORTSMOUTH DIOCESAN GUILD.

PORTSMOUTH DISTRICT

The annual meeting of the Portsmouth District was held at St. Mary's, Portamouth, on Saturday, January 21st, members attending from Alverstcke, Bishopstoke, Bishop's Waltham, Curdridge, Earaham, Fambledon, North Stoneharm, Portsmanth (Cathedral and St. Mary's), Byde, Southampton, Soberton and Swnimore. The Guild service was held in the Lady Chapel, at which the Vicar of Portsea oficiated. An ercellent tea was served, after which the business meeting whes held, fhe Ficar (Canon H. C. Robins) being voted to the chair.
The gecretary (Mr, A. T. Greeawood) read the district report for the year and aiso the accounts, which showed a very successful year. Membership liad incressed from 113 to 187 . The balance to the general treasurer amounted to $29 \mathrm{4s}$., while the balance in hand for the district was 813 I 5 s . 8d. Reatoration work had beon caxried out at Soberton, for whicla a grant of 555 . had been given from the district funds.
The district officers were elected m f follows: Chairman, Mr. W Linter; hor. secretary, Mr. A. T. Greenwood; auditor. Mr. T. R. Taylor, rapresentatives on Central Committee, Messis. F.S. Bayley and E. J. Stone.

If was resolved that the annual meeting be held in Portsmouth every year, at altermate towars. Tho next anmual meeting will be at the Cathedral on January 20th, 1940. Votes of thanks were atecorded the Vicar for the isse of the bells and officiating at the Gervice and presidimg at the business meeting, to the organist and to the caterers for the splendid tes.
Members then raturned to the tower for further ringing, which renged from rounds to Surprise Major.

ST. GEORGE'SIN THE-EAST.

The first quarter-peal on the bells of St. George-in-the-East, London, since bey were rchung was ruag for eveniag service on sunday Jantiar' $29 t h$, as a farewell to the curate, the Rev. S. T. Andrews, who is leaving shortiy for Portuguese East Africa.
The method was Bob Major, and the ringers were R. G. Cousins 1 , H. Mackiader 2. A. J. W. Hughes 3, A. S. Richards 4, P. A. Corby (condactor) 5, G. W. Fogden 6, A. P. Canvor 7, J. G. A. Priar 8.
The ga' of the belts is now excellont, althougla it is fortunate that the conductor has the naturnl cutowment of e powerful voice,日s there is a great deal of aoise in tho tower.
Good progress is iveing made in the training of the local band under the lenderslip of Mr. J. G. A. Prior.

PETEREOROUGH DIOCESAN GUILD.

 WELLINGBOROUGH BRANCH.The aenusl meeting of the Wallingborough Brancil of the Peterborougln Diocesan Guild wes held at Finedon on Saturday, January 21st. Towers rcpresented were Wellinghorough, Higlarn Ferreas. Mr. J. F. Funnisett, for many years teader at St. Mary's, Ealing, luas retired from business and is going back to Eastbourne, where be was many years ago a member of the Christ Church band. He takes with him the good wishes of his Midalesex friends.

Last Wednesday whs the anniversary of the death of Beajamm Anriable, who died on February $1 s t, 1756$.
One hundred and gixty-one years ago to-day the College Youths rang 5,040 changes of Double Bob Royal at St. Dionis Backchurch. The bells were afterwards removed to All Hallows', Lombard Street, and are now awaiting a new home.
A year later on the same date the Sherwood Youths rang thieir first peal, Grandsire Triples at St. Mary's, Nottingham.

It is alonost 50 years ago that Mr. James George, of Birmingham, rang his first peal. On Fbbruary 16th, 1889, he rang the tenor to a peal of Grandsire Triples, with members of St. James' Society, at St. George's, Camberwell. It was called by Dick French, and Mr. George is now the only survivor of that band.
It is urfortunate that Mr. George's health will prevent him orgarising or taking part in a commemorative peal, but some of bis friends will probably like to make suitable recognition of the jubilee on or neax the date
Mr. George, who is now 85, was first tanght to handle a bell by his father at Pinner, when he was only eight years of age, but it was not until he was 35 that Mr. George tonk up ringing seriously. In this last 50 years he has rung 1,27 peals in 399 different towers in the British sles. We hope he will soon be back at the rope end again, Councillor Arthur E. Sharman, of Dungtable, hon. gecretary of the Bedfordshire Association and a member of the Central Council, has heen elevated to the aldermanic bench.
Mrs. Elsie Ingram, wife of Mr. Dick Ingram, of Perry Barr, Birmingham, has sustained serious head injuries through being knorked down by a Corporation bus and is now in hospital. Both Mr. and Mrs. Ingram are ringers and much sympatily is felt for them.

WARWICKSHIRE GUILD

SUCGESSFUL MEETING AT NUNEATON.
A quarterly meating of the Wurwickshire Guild was held at Nuneaton oit Saturday, January 21 st and was well attended by members and friends from Allesley, Arley, Barwell, Birmingham (St, Martin's and St. Clied's), Chilvers Cotou, Church Law (ord, Keresley, Rugly, Stoke-in-Coventry and Wolvey, together with the local band.

A service was conductod by the Rev. Purves \{curate), the Guidd's form being used, and the bymns, 'Lead us, Heavenly Father' and 'Fe seryants of Goa,' sung. Tea followed in the Parish Hall. Among those who attended were Mr. Jrmes George, recently out of jospital, Bnaj Mr. Albert Walker. They received a hearty welcome.

The Rev. W. H. Trickett (Rector of Church Lawford and a ringing member of the Guild) presided at the business meeting
The following meeting places were fixed: Exhall for February and Brinklow for March; Coventry for the manual meeting in April (under Rule 7). The election of the following new members was confirmed: Hesgrs. W. H. Fussell (Slough), T. Belton (Barwell) and W. E. Box (Birmangham) as non-resident ringing memberg, and J. Lifoyd, Chilvers Coton, a resident member.
A diseussion arose regarding the reports to be prepared for the years 1937-38.
It was finaily decided to retain the form of the previous report with the exception of the non-resident members' list. In the forthcoming report only the names of those joining and of those ringing peals duting the perior covered by the report are to be included. It was also decided to include the figures of new compositions.
The meeting closed will votes of thanks to the incumbent, the curate, the organist and the ladies who arranged the tea
Handbell ringing followed, those taking part being Messrs. F. W. Ferrens, F. E. Pervin, W. H. Hooton, A. Walker, J. George and D. H. Argyle, Kent Treble Bob Major nnd Royal and Stedman Caters being rung.
A return was then made to the tower, where ringing in farious methods, also rounds, concluded a happy and successiul gathering.

A WERRD SIGHT

STORM EFFECTS AT PARISH CHUROH
On Weinesaray evening, January 25th, eight ringers assembled at St, Martin"s Church, Cheriton, to attempt a latf-mufled peal in memory of Kent's oldest bellinger, Mr. Charles Slingsby, who, as already recorden lias died at the age of 101 years.
The tower was found to be in sach a lamentable condition that all thoughts of a peal bad to be abandoned. The gale bad evidently seriously damaged the roof. Snow and rain wers driving in, water was pouning down the walls inside and throngly two of the bellrope guides. The efectric lipht showed signe of failure and candles had to be brought into tuse. The bells, however, were rung for a Eliort while as a parting tribute, some having to ring with luste and coate on. A most weird sight, but one that pill rematn in memory. The following ringers took part : Messer. F. Slingsby (Cheriton) 1, R. Birch (Hythe) 2. W. Kitchen (Folkestone) 3, F. Crooke (Folkestone) 4, T. Anderan (Folkestene) 5. W. T. Bidnell (Hythe) 6, C. Turner (Dover) (conductor) 7, C. Swan (Hythe) 8 .

JAMES HUNT

One of the best knowa ringers, not only of the West, but of all England, is James Hunt. Indeed, the Contral Council meetings would bardiy be themselves without his presence sud his speeches. Not that everybody aiways agrees winh all be says, hut everylody recogrises tive sincerity of his opinions and the fact that they are based on real experience and knowledge. For Mr. Hunt has had a wide experience of riuging in many parts of the country, and is not only a first-class ringer limaself, but has associated with some of the leading men of the last 40 yonrs and more.
His outstanding performance was the record handbell peal of Stedman Caters rumg at Guildford in 1912. There was at the time in that town a baud who rang peale of Stedman Triples and Catere almost on every evening in the week, and it was only natural that thes should think of ringing the record peal in hand. This they did by ringing 14,031 clanges, but, not satisfied with that, they proposed to bent all records on handbells or in the tower, and staried for a jength of 22,220 changes. But they began rather late, and so when 11 o'clock came and they had passed sll prewous leagths, they not unnaturally thought they liad done enough and let the bells came round at 19,738 changes. Mr. Hunt rang $7-8$ to this perl, which, we imagine, witl not be beaten for many years. It was lis greatest performsoce, but he has taken part in many other good which 158 have been on frandbells and of which 190 has conducted 94. At onc period he rang 61 handbel: pesals in suscerssions without a tower bell peal intervening.
Mr. Hent is a Devon man, born at Tiverton on May 29th, 1871. For maur years the was one of thic leading ringers in the Guildford district. ${ }^{\text {He }}$ then removed to then removed to Lamdon, where lie was employed by John Warner and Sons, the a complets band of ringers. associated with St. James'
mong the many interostin a "grandfather's peal of Stedmsn Caters by members of the Royal Cumberland Youths, the first peal of Stedman Caters by a resident bend for the old Winchester Diocesan Guild which he called, the first peals of Double Norwich Major and seven Surprise Minor methods for the Bath and Wells Associstion, the first peal of Cambridge Major by a rebident band west of Bristof, and tive first peal of Bristol Surprise Major by a band resident in Sumerset
He is a ramber of the Adrisory Comaittee of the Bath and Wells Diocese, his subject being, of course, belis, and the is also a member of the Towers nud Belfiries Committee of the Contral Council, He has represented the Bath and Wells Association on the Council since 1920 and has been Ringing Master of the Taunton Deanery for 20 years.
Mr. James Funt is one of those men on whose exertions and work the very existence of the Exercise depends. Besides being, a pea: riseger and a conductor, he has done a great deal of teaching, has always made a point of ringing twice ou a Sunday whenever possiblo, and has been a sidesman and a member of the Parochial Church Conncil for many years.

PEAL BOARD UNVEILED AT EALING.

On Sunday. Tanuary 2gth, a peal board was erected in the church porch at St. Stephen's, Ealing, to record the ringing of four peals, one each of Superlative, Cambridge, Treble Bab and Plain Bob. The Ficar, who dedicated the board, caid that when he first came to Ealing he inquired if there were any bolls at his new charch and was sorry to kear that there were. However, the ringers had agrecably disappointed his expectations. Owing to the charch being in a resicfential neighboathood, the Parochiat Church Coumcil had decided ihnt there should be ratrictaci Sunday riaging and no peals, and it wes only the excuse of the annual summer Tete which elrabled these peals to be rang. The church paid for the writing on the board, which was supplied by the subceriptions of the ringers.

SURREY ASSOCIATION

MORE INTEREST DESIRED

The Norib-Western District of the Surrey Associntion held their ammual meeting at St. Peter's, Croydon, on Saturday lasit, when 50 members attended from Banstead, Beddington, Bentiltors, Croydor (both churches), Epsom (Christ Charch), Kingston-on-Thames, Leatherhead, Lourdon, Merton and Mitchaw, with wisitors from Balcombe, Sussex and Bockenham, Kent.
Ringing during the afternoon was followed by short evensong, conducted by the chrate (the Rev. C. J, Hawkworkh), who welcomed the assaciation to St. Peter's on behalf of the Vicas.
The business meeting was presided over by Mr. D. K. C. Bitt (Master), supported by Mr. D. Cooper (District Master). Before the oflicial busiress commenced the meeting stood in silellce for a moment as a last tribute of respect to the memory of Mr. Jesse Be日ms, of Ewell, who passed away on Janusry $15 t+1$. He lkal been a member of the association for nearly 40 years
The following new members were clected: Mus. Pagden (Crordan) Miss Harrington (Erell) and Messrs. G. Howard (Clirist Church, Mitcham) J. B. Hessey (Chertsey), G. W. Massey (Christ Church, Epsom), M. E. H. Pitstow (Banstend), G. Reed (Benliilon), and the efections of three new compeunding mombers, reade in Beckenham belfry on Boxing Day, were confirmed.
The District Committee's report was adopted,
COMMITTEE'S REPORT
The committee stated that although they could not record any outstanding or spectacular performances in the district during the past jear, some very good work has been put in iyy menbers in the gecuring of recruits, the instruction of beginners, and the building up and the maintenance of local bands. The results of this stondy work could now be seen in most of the towers in the district, where atiend. ances on practice nights and for Sunday service riaging had, gencraly speating been rery good indeed. The custam which lind grown up in the district of ringers visiting each other's' tower's on practice nights had not only helped to maintain a high atandard of striking, but had also produced beneficial results in what might lse termed the social side of ringing. By way of contrest, there wate towers where very little progress, if any, coubi be recorded. At these towers the committee found a gheral clackmes and lack of interest amonge loral members, who did not turn up regulely for prectices, and failod to "play the game, as members of a feam. This kind of thing nullified the efforts made by keener men to build up a band, and inevitably led to stagnation. The committee haped that, wherever such conditions existed, efforts would be mace to improve matters during 1959.

Five district meelings, two corabined mpetings with three or more neighbouring associations and six joint meetings (five wilh the Lixdies' Guild and one with the Leatherhead District of the Guildiord Guld) had been held with average attendances of: District mectings 43 , combined meetings 70, joint meetings 34 .
A perasal of the signature book of members whe land attended district meetings during 1938 disclosed some ideresting facts. The same names as representing the same towers constantly recurred. whilst some towers were seldom represented, at all, and when they were represented, then by only one or, perhaps two members, Roughly, the ringers who attended district meetinga regularly might he divided into two classes, i.e., the expert or peal ringers and the novices arxious to make progress. The commitce would like to sec more interest taken in the work of the association by members generalit. After making all due allownmen for the evils of orer lapping, an average attendance at meetings of 43 , in a dintrict of over 200 resideat members, could not be regarded as entirely eatisfactory

MEMRTERSFIP

The jear 1988 began with a district membership of 185 . During the year five honorary members and ge ringing memhers were alectad." Ont the other hand, they had lost one membot by death, sewen membera had allowed their subscriptions to lapse, and the games of three members were being transferred to the companding list, leaving a total distrint memhership of 201, made up of: Honorary members 9. ringing members (representing is towers) 163, rinting members (1, in attached) 29, fotal 201, being an net increase of 16 members.

The treasarer's statement of accounts, showing a balance in hand of e12 6 s 4 a . (an itrerease of 18 s . 8d. on the blimee in hand at the beginning of the year), was approved.
The following places for meetings for 1839 were elioscm: Easter Mondiay, Evell, Epom and Asintead (whole day) ; Saturtlay. June 3rd, East Molesey; July 29th, Rammore: September 30th, Claplnm Park or Kennington or Lambeth; November 25th, Benliiton : Janalary 27 h Beddington or Streatham.

The district officers wete elected as follows: Master. Mr. D. Cooper treasurer, Mr. H. W. Simmons; secretary, Mr. F. G. Woodiss auditor, Mr R. A. Simmons: representatives on committee, Mrs. C. I Kippin, Messrs. Charles Pothecary and H. V. Young.

All the retiring genernl officers with the exception of the assistant general secretary, were nominated for re-eleckion at the annual general meeting of the association. Mr. A. E. Cook, of Merton, wiss moninated to fill the vacancr caused b 个 the resignation of Mr . John Fobden from the oftice of assistant geperal secretary.

Tea was serwed in the Parish Room, having been prepared by members of the congregation, who were afterwards uhanked for thei kindness. A vote of thanks was also passed to the Rector of the Wokingham churches, the pregetuer and the organist of St. Paut's.
Canon G. $r^{2}$. Coleridge, chairman of the branch, presided at the annual meeting ani the sectetary welcomed visitors from Bagsinot, Oxford, Padworth, Reading, Cheveley, Milehurst and Stoke Poges,

The hon sectelary and treasarer (Mr. W. J. Paice) presented the report and bulauce shect, hese latter showing a balance in trand of e7 Os. Gd. Tlie bramel restoration fuud now stood at elt 8s. 2d. including the callection of &1 118. that afternoon.
There were 29 honorary merabers and 150 ringing members, mrking営 total of 179 in the branch.
He referred to the losg to the branch by the death of the Rev. L. R. Majendie, Miss Wedderhurn and Mr, H. W. Boyles

The secretary also reported that 13 meetinga had been leld, attended by 309 ringers in all, 238 from the branch and 71 wisitorg
The report was adonted with heerty thanles to all those who hud rendered assiatance.
Canon Coleridge was enilusiastically re-elected chairman and Mr. W. J. Paice hon. zectetary and tremsurer. The followisg branch representatives on the Guna Commitee were aiso reelected Mirssta officials were thanked for their past gervice
On the recommendation of the Brancli Committee, it was decided for one year to hold bi-monthly meetings and combined practices in the intervening morths,
The position of old members who by force of circumstances were unable to contiune their subscriptions was sympathetically discusseut with a wiew to makian ham homorary numbers, and finally hie secretary wrs instructed to briug the matter before the fortheowist meeling of the Guild.
Mr. R. T. Fibbert (Guitd secretary) and Mr. A. D. Barker (Guld Creasurer? both addressed the meeting and expressed symprothy with the suggeftion that old nembets should be relpeved of their financial responsibilifies to the Gnild.
The Chairann expressed congratulations on the adnirable way in which the meeting had been carried out

PROGRESS AT LICHFIELD COLLEGE

TUDENTN' FIRST QUARTER-PEAL  FIRST QUARTER-PEAL.

Tho first step towards quarter-peal of Gramdsite Doubles with the fallings: Richardang Brodibibl I-2, Makola C. C. Melville $3-4$, Wichael M. K . Warren 5 This was the first muarter-penl for Messrs. Brodribb and Warren, and Malcolm Netvile's first quarter-peal as condactor on a pair of working bells. It was nlso their first attempt for a quarter-peal and was rung only nine dayz after riugine their first 120 double-handed. Richard Brodribl had nat rung lamdiells matil he came up to the sollege last Angust; Michael Wirricn is the present riugirg mester at tho college
There are about 15 members learning or who have learat to haudle a bell, but tower bell ringing is very restricted and the members have progressed no further than zood roumds.
They have an excelleni libury of books about, ringing, preaented by readers of "The Ringing Warld" through the energies of Mr. S. H. Wood and Mr. E. H. Lewis, and the lagudbells were tie generous gif of the Rev. W. G. Pearson, of Henley, Ipswich

It is practical help stach as this that is so encouraging to us, writes Mr, Melville (who before going to college was hon. seeretary of the Warwiteltire Guild), "and urges us to become as proficient as we can during our short stidy at the college; so that, when we go out into our parishes, wo nusg know at least something of a very important aid to our work, Damely, the roice of the Cturch to the warld at large

Mr, H. V. Young called attention to the very low state to which ringing had dropped in the Scuthern District, as evidenced by the last meeting liedत in that district. He suggested that, while present conditions costinned to exist, they should omit the printing of useless moatter in the yearly repoits, aud spend the unoney thus saved on the trainige of bands in the Soukliern District.

After some discussion, the matter was referred to the General Commithee for deeision
The meeting concluded with the itsual voter of thanks to the Ficar of St. Peters for the use of tho bells; to the Rev. C. J. Hawkswarth for conducting the servieg and givjng the address; to Mr. H. W. Siramons for making arrangyment for the meetiag; also to Mr. H. Wills for having everything in readiness for the comfort of the members and for tile conduct of the ringing during the afternoon.

ARCHDEACONRY OF STAFFORD ASSOCIATION

TRST METYTING AT BILSTON 7MOR 51 YEAFS

A quarterly meeting of the Stafford Archdeacoury Society was held ah. St. Lecuard's Church, Bilston, on Saturday, January 14th. Affisted towers of the society were wrell represented. It was just 51 yesrs since a meetiog was wold there, the reason given in answer to mquiries being that loesl tradespeople objected to Saturday ringing. However, this abjection seems to have been removed, for the Viuns the Rev. S. Garrett, M.A., not only gave the members a warm welcome but gaid ho hoped they would pay another visit in the near future. He also said he was pleased to say that lis son Lad taken part in the ringing during the aifternoon, and that his father had been a Finger before him, le (the Vicary having broken the chain. The foregoing remarks prefaced a very interesting address. Perfecticn wis tios theme which the Vigar strebsed-inz Hinging as well as in daily fife. He mentioned that he had purchased a capy af ' Bahs Throurh the Ages ' to taka his discourse from, and paid a compliment to the suthor of the book.
The Rev. O. H. Barker, L.Th., cterical secretary and trensurer, read the lesson, and Mrs. Garrett kindly presided at the organ.
On arriviug ut the Parish Room, members found a aubstantial tea in readiness, and it was mucls appreciated by the company of 40. an apology for absence was recerved from Mr. Tom Hughes, of Wednesbury, in which he expressed fis thanks to the members for their kindy help in makity it possible to erech a tablet in Wednesbury tawer to the momory of his father, tho late Mr. George Huglies.
Moved by the Rev. C. H. Harker, a vote of thanks to the Vicar for his address, the use of the bells, etc., to Mrs. Garrett for presiding at the organ, and to all who helped to make a such is happy gathering, was received with npplanse

BARNSLEY AND DISTRICT SOCIETY

CHANGE IN HON. MEMBERS' KUBSORIPTIONS.

The annual generul meeting of Barnsley mad District Eociety was held at Barnsley on Snturday, Jamuary 14th, when members were pregent from Cawthorme, Darcon, Doncaster, Eastwood, Felkirk, Hoylandswaine, Bolsterstone, Sandal, Shelley, Wath and the lock company.

DEATH OF A LIVERSEDGE RINGER.

MTR. WILLII: THOMAS' PART IN CONTESTS

The death occurred, it sudden circmmstances, on January 13th, of Mr. Willie Thomas, at the age of 57. Mr. Thomas was for many years attached to the belfry at Liversedge Parish Clutch. He had not enjoyed the best of heallh for a few years, but lad not been confined to his louse. He had been out duriag the evening, and when be arrived about 10.30 p.m. he went to bed as usual and died alnost immediately.

The Cuneral took place at Heckmondwike Cemetery on Tuesdny, Janurry 17 th, the chief mourners being the widow and only son, with other relatives and friends. Bingers were presert from Earlsheatom, Birstall and Liversedge.
Mr. Thomas never aspired to peal ringing and his total was only eight, but lie was always interested in contest ritiging and had taken part in a great mumber of competitions, About 1922 ringers were scarce at Liversedge, and Mr. Thoman rallied together six jouths to teach them the art of clange ringing. Tliree nights a weck were put in for practice, and how Mr. Thomas made those six learners atand in a ting with a handbell each, ringing Plain Bob, only talase who Were takirg part can realise.
As time and ability progressed and the landbellis were discarded for the fower bells, Mr. Thomas saw to it that those Jearners were targht the art of listening to the bells and strikigg them. He was respected by all who tnew him. Aithough Mr. Thenas had not taken part in ringing for some jears, he still maintained interest in the hells, and it is hard to realise that never again shall we meet to disciss this subject of ringing which whs ever in lis minu.

SALISBURY DIOCESAN GUILD.

CCESS OF SALISBURY BRANCH

Practice Meetings to be Organised.

Ringers from the city churches of St. Thomas, St, Martin and St. Pata, and from the neighbouring pariales of Brition, Wilton, Wylye, Berwick St. John, Fovaut, Duton, Coombe Biesett, Martin, Damerbam, aic., attended the annual gencral meeting of the Eajisimry Branca of the Sulisbury Diocesan Guild, held at St. Thomas' Churbh, sabisbury. Ringing took place during the afternoon at St. Thomag' and St. Paul's, and the bells at St. Martin's were also available-duting the evening.
'Ihe Guidd gervice was conducted by the leev, P. J. Hayes (Vicar) who gave a brief address, tho lesson being read by the Rev. $N$. E. W Bralyll-jolmson, Rural Dean of Wilion and Vicar of St. Paul's Other diecesan elergy in the congregation included the Rev. F Llewellyn Edwards (general secretary) the Ret. H. W. Moule (Damerham) und the Rev. T. W. Fage Philfips (Coonsbe Bissett)
Tea followed at Osmond's Cafe, and the branch chairman (My E. G, Caple) presided over the subsequent business meeting. supporied by the district secretary (Mr. F. W. Romeine), the geaejal secrotay, the Rev. N. E. W. Jredyll-jobnaon and Mrs. Hiblberd.
The Rev fradyli-Jolnson ussured the members of his sincera symmathy with rimgers. He felt they were not getting the recognition they deserved, and there shotld be more social and spiritual fellawship end muteal support smong the various pheses of church life.
Tlie balance shect was presented hy Mr. Romaize aud showed an income of 81488 . $6 d$, an expentilure of fil 6s, gd. and a balance in hand of $£ 315.9 \mathrm{~d}$., as against 820 s , 6 d . for the previous ycar. The accounts were adopted on tho proposition of ar. Figgures, geconded by Mr. Chalk.
Tliere were two nominations for the branch chaimenship, Mr. F. Wright proposing the re-dection of Mr. E. G. Caple. This whs Figarures. Mr. Figeures, howuver, declitued to stand, und ofr. Caple Wha unacimorrsly re-elected.

ONCE DEAD, NOW MUCE &LIVE.
Mr. F. W. Romaine whs re-elected tranch secietay and treanarer and, in thanking the members for ye-eleeting him, neutioned that he had held office since 1923. At that time the branch was conpletely detd, no meetings having lecen lield for muny years. The laranch was very much alive to-day, and with the active support of the members would continue so.
Two of tho three retizing Ringing Masters, Messrs, L. Harris and W. Roberts, were re-elacted. Mr. F. C. Snith did not saek re-blection and Mr J. Figgures was selected in his place.
The committeo as now constituted comprises Mesers. Norton, Fitarares, F. Wright aud the Rev. R. S. Smith and Mrs, Hibberd.
Tho Rev. T. W. Page-Phillins was clected an hon, life member, and Mr. B. Churchill (shortly lexving for Egypt) a life ringing member. Mr. Jobn J. Bailey was elected a performing member, aftached to Danerham tower.
Qumrterly meetings for 1939 will be at St. Martin's, Domhend and Hiudon, an dates to be arranged by tie secretary. St. Martin's meeting is to be held when the treble bell, shortly to be providen, has been installed. and Mrs. Hibberd very kindly ancounced that ghe wonld invite the branch to ten for that meeting.
Thare wes conaiderable discussion on the subject of practice mpetings, Mr. J. Figgures remarking that the quarterly meetiags afforded little opportunity for young learners to receive instruction. He, dorefore auggested that monthly practice meatings be held throughont the branch, each tower being taken io turn, plovided the tingers required asjisinnce in learning change ringing.
Eventually a resolution was carrien that the secretary sionld write the correspendents of the vurious fowers, stating that practice meetingrs would bo Leld on Saturday afternoons and evenings and that those bands renuiring assistance and instruction should inform the secretary and the towers would be visited in rotation.
The Rev. H. W. Moule (Damerham) stated that the secretary uped not trouble to write to him, as he promptly accepted there and then, and his ringers would welcome instruction at eny time.
Mr. F. Wright (Dinton) said his ringers also would be plassed to tavo instruction, provided they conld be given a date in the winter, as practics wha diffenlt to arrange during the summer months, owing to agricultursl activities.

THE PRACE BELT.

The general secretary (the Rer. F. Ll. Edwards) expressed his gtent pleastro at seeirg so mach young blood among the members, and congratulated the bramel on its heathy position, its onewetic secretary and the 50 per cent. increage in the balance jo hand. Fe wislied the general funds of the Gnild could boast of a similar increage. ## MIDDEESEX COUNTY ASSOCIATION.  OUTH AND WRST DUMRTCI'S SUCOECSTUT SOCIAL

The anarual supper of the South and West Distyict of the Middiasez County Association and Londoy Diocesan Guild wes held at the Villuge Hall, Heston, on Saturday, Jalumry 14h, and was, as usual, eatury euccesgful, About 70 members and frience including a large propurtion of jadies, wera present.
The supper was preceded by rugging at Heston Parish Church, the methods rung includiug Grasdsire and Stedman Triples, Treble Boh, Double Normich and Cambridge Sutprise Major
The supper, excellently arrataged by the local caterer, was presited oyor by the Vicar of Heston (the Rey. G. Craggs, supported by the Rev, Preb. Cole Sheane, M.A. R.D. (Yjoar ol Twickenham und president of the association), Mr. J. A. Trollope (rice-prasident), the Rev. A. W. Stade (curate at Hestoli), and the oticers of the association.
Following the toast of 'The King'' Mreb. Cole Bheane proposed 'The Middleser Association,' which he described as a model to all associations, and streased its advantages to riagel'g, haviag its headquartere in London, the ringing centre of the world,
Mr. F. W. Goodfellow, in replying for the associatiou, emphasiaed that its strength lay not so nuch in itself as in the strength of the local bands, and he made several suggestions as to keeping this strength up, bused upon his experience. Ee melntioned how ut Hilfingdon they lrad, at one time, inserted a noticg in the local paper stating that they were giving an exhibition of change ringing and inviting the public to attend. Sinme oida attend, und this resulted in aine or ten recruits, for whom thet arranged a spectul princtice night, and in the end obtajned about three ringers from these, which he supposed was about the average. Mr. Goodfellow also stregsed the advantages of anmual outings in keoping a band together, altd appealed for better support of the assoctation meetings by individual members
Mr. J. Herbert proposed 8. lnearty vote of thanks to tho Supper Chandler, of Heston realjed.
At tho sacial which followed, Messis. F. W. Goodfellow and W. H. Coles proved energetic gind eaterprising M.C.'s. Tlse programine opened to the tures of thie 'Lamheth Walk' had "Chestnat Tree, " 3 y Framophone and amplifier, bindly provident by Mr. Norman. The games were auch enjoyed, aud these were atersplsed witlı damentr. A darts competition was won hy Mr. H. Cooper (Heston) for the gentleman with a score of 92, and by Mrs, F. E. Hawthorme (Tlames Ditton) for the ladies, with a score of 77
The baudball competition between Ealing and Hillingdon was wou by the latter, who were mesented with the "cup" by the Victu". They have now won it three times in succession. The blindiold dressing competition was won by Miss E. Bedford, and an item, 'Selling the gee-gee, with a touching comnentary by Mr. W. H. Colea, cansed mucl entertainment. A tongue twister bee, on the lipes of the recent B.B.C. nfort, was very snecessful and entertaining, the Misses Redford and Lidbetter scoring 11 points each, Mh: E. C. G. Tumer acted ats 'announcer,' and Messrs. Jt. A. Trollope and J. F. L. Cockey as judges. A tombola resulted in A large basket of fruit being won by one of the lady helpers and a large cake by Mr. R. W. Darvilh.
Tea and coffee were served turiag the ovening, and at 11.15 the proceedings closed with the singing of 'Anld Lang Sybe.' The association is greatly indebted to Mr. H. C. Chandler, the Feston comparg, and the M.C.'s for their untirimg eforts to minke the gathering tio success it was.

world 1 may add, some Years ago there was a resolition by the Guid that thas practico should be encouraged throughout the diocese. in our parish we raise and fall a bell, and then ring the Angelias. I remember some years ago when I was in Egypt, as I was standing on the quay at Pari. Said, the brill nit the Frateiscan Church thele ratry for the Angelus, and I could not help feeling impressed with this witness to the Christian rellgion in a country of Arabs and Maslemss.'
The Rev. Kl. Edwards also referned to the passing awey of the first Master of the Salishury Guild, the Rev, A. Du B. Hill. The Guild wns formed in 1884 and the Rev. Hill lived matil a few weeks ago. when he passed away, at the age of 87 . To within tiree rears of his death lie was still teaching chadge ringing in Hertfordsliire; lijs was a prand record. 'And we have here to-day' said the Rer. L1. Fiwards, "anothel link with the past in the pereon of Mr. W, Foot, the oldest performing memher of the Salibbus Guild, Mr. Foot was present at that firgt. grecting on September "4th, 1882, whem the Gutit was formed. and was atill a ringing member at Berwick St, Joln, A quarter-peal was runy on October 8th last, Mr. Foot's 80th birthday, and he himself took part in that numater-penl-truly another grand record.' Finally, Mr. Famards proposed a bearly wote of thanke to The Rev. Hayes for conducting 1 he Guritr service that day and for the use of St. Thomas' bells, and to the lady who so kindly presided at the organ anti to the caterers.-This was secorded by the Rer Fage-Phillips and uranimously carried.

Before the meeting commenced, at the invitation of the chairman, the memhers stood in Eilence for a few moments as a tribute to thr merwory of two ringers who have died recently. Mr. W. Wright, of St. Thomas', and Mr. S. Kite, of SYt. Pazl's.

DON'T SCRUB YOUR HANDS!

Cleanse and preserve your skin this simple way

To many people, the problem of getting the hands really clean without harming the skin is a serious one. Grease and grime, which become deeply ingrained into the pores of the skin, are extremely difficult to remove, and ordinary washing with soap or even scrubbing will fail to remove them completely. Housewives, particularly, who complain that their hands get ruined by the nature of their work, will find the preparation called DERMAFOAM a real "godsend." DERMAFOAM just smoothes away dirt and grease without effort. It gets right down into the pores and removes every particle of grime, leaving skin beautifully supple and healthy.

Men, tno-when you've finished that dirty job on the car, DERMAFOAM will quickly banish all grease and oil from your hands. It acts almost magically-working under and around the nails and into every minute crease, removing all trace of dirt in a flash.

Engineers, Painters, Car Mechanics, Printers - everyone - will welcome DERMAFOAM, the modern method of cleansing and protecting the hands.

Founders

 of the heaviest bells cast in England.
'SYNTHETIC' BELLS.

Bells reproduced from gramophone records and broadcast through amplifiers from church towers are heard in these days in many places. Such imitations are deplored for many reasons, but we have not heard that there has yet been any application for an installation of this kind which has been challenged before a Consistory Court. The apparatus cannot be set up without a faculty, but there are now a number of churches where it is used. It was not until the installation of 'synthetic ' bells was made at St. John's, Weymouth, about a year ago that ringing organisations took any serious steps to raise the question with diocesan authorities, and then the Dorchester District of the Salisbury Guild sent its protest to the Bishop. From recent information it appears that the question has received serious attention in the diocese. The Bishop investigated the subject with his Archdeacons and arrived at a decision which is, perhaps, a fair compromise as far as it goes. In future the Advisory Committee, we understand, will not advise a faculty for " synthetic' bells if a bell or peal is already available in the church.

That, at any rate, is so much gained, but there are other dangers, the chief of which is that, in the design of future churches, architects, with an eye on cost, will content themselves with a shell of a tower, knowing that if the structure will carry a ring of bells the gramophone substitute may be employed. There is nothing. we believe, to stop this being done, because (we write subject to correction) until a church is consecrated the Advisory Committee have no official voice in its building, and the Chancellor has no veto upon such an installation. New churches usualiy go up in districts where there is no traditional interest in bells and no one to take any action in arousing interest. The only course open in regard to new churches is to endeavour to obtain the moral support of Bishops and Archdeacons, so that they may use their influence in securing, where a tower is part of the design of the church, that it shall be a structure sufficiently strong to take a ringing peal of bells, even if, for the time being, such a peal cannot be provided. In these days of economy, churches are too often designed without any tower at all, but where a tower is included it ought not to be too much to ask that it shall be built sufficiently strong to fulfil the original purpose of all church towers. Shams and imitations should not be encouraged in anything to do with the Church, least of all in the buildings in which worship is to be carried on, perhaps, for centuries. Real towers and real bells ought not to be replaced with brick shells and gramophone records. It savours of shoddy and make-believe.

HEREEORD DIOCESAN GUILD.

KINGTON DIETRICT"G ACIVIPIES.
The Kington District Branch of the Fereford Diocesan Guild held their annual meeting at Lyonchall on Saturday, January 28th. Bing. ing toot place in the aiternoon, and the Guild's form of service was conducted by the Ficar of Thtley (the Rer. A. S. Hutchiuson), in the absence of the Rev. Ellison (Vicar of Lyonskail) through illness. The local captain of the ringers (Mr. Brown), who is also organist and Vicar's werden, presided at Ihe organ. Tea, prepared at the Ficarage, was kindly given by the Vicar.

The business meeting was attended by 16 members.
Reference was made to the death of Mrs. Edwards, wife of the Guild Ringing Master, and Lhe clairmen asked the members to stand in silence to her momory.
The district secretary raported that in the past year three meetinss and five combined practices bad been held. Four methods of Doubles snd four of Minor had been rung at the meebiugs and practices. Fight peals of Doubles and two of Minor had been ring at six towerg, two other peal attempts had been made, and meabbers had rung in peals outside the district. The District Ringing Master conducted five peals and two ather members one each, one his first on his $16 i . h$ birthüaj. Five members rang their first peal, three their first of Minor and three their Grsi of Triples. Tbree members had qualified for the certificates of membership, six gew members had been sdmitted to the Guid, inclnding four girls of 13 and under from one tower, and one honorary member.
The district officers were re-elected and a new district committee formed.
The next meeting was arrenged to be held at Weobley in May, uf convenfent, and combined practices at Eardisland and Staunton-onArrow
Fotes of thanks were passed to all who had helped in any way to make the meeting a success.
The tower wis then again visited and ringing took place in various metkods of Doubles and Minor. Owing to the wiatry weather, the attendance was smaller than usual. There are six towers of six bells and one fire-bell tower in the district in union with the Hereford Guild.

The veteran Vicar of Erdiugton (Canon Swindell) celebrated his 84tin birthday on Saturday, and a peal of Stedman luples was rung at St. Barmabas' Churli is lís honour, He has been Vicar of Erdingtou for 49 years.
Albert L. Petcigrem, whose first peal this was, and Alfred J. Allen, who raag his first peal away from the tenor, are young members of the Aston band, stilt in their 'teens. They both rang well and show good promise for the future. Astoll is developing the right sort of material.

The peal at Frestwich, Jancashire, on saturday, was a birthday compliment to Mr. G. A. Bell, who rang lis lirst peal of Bob Major, The peal of Bob Minor at Hope Vihnge, North Wales, on February 4 th, was arranged und rung as a birthdiay peal for the conductor's sotr, who was five tliat day, also to celebrate the christening of J. L. Evans' îrst grandchild. The peal was to have beeu rayg by the Rhyi ringers, but one was prevented from taking part in it, and Mr. H. L. Wait, of Watiord, who is working in the district, kindly stood in and was elected a. member of the ussociation boiore starting, The ringers were flady enteriaincd to tea after the penl by Mr. and Mrs. FuHer, sen.
The company at Ruardcan, Gloucestershire, has lost a much respected member by the death of Mr. Howard Reid. A lalf-mufled peal of Gramdsire Triples as a last token of respect was Tung on Saturday, January 28th.
The first peal of Minor on the bells at Brightwell, Berks, was rung on Smburday on the eve of the patronal festival. The church is dedicated to St. Agatha.
The preal of Superlative rung at St. Feter's, Bournemauth, on Saturday, besides being the first penl of Surprice ever rung in the tower, was also the first in the methad by Nessrs. F. S. Beaumont and A. Y Davis, both memhers of the local company. The bells were recast a year or so fago by Messrs. Taylor and Co.
A peal of Grandsire Triples, composed by Canon G. H. Ridout, of Johannesburg, Soutl Africa, was rung at Sawley, Derbyshire, on アebruaty 21 a .

A peal in seven Doubles methods at Clifford, Hereforishire, on Tanurry $319 t$, was a farewell to Mr. R. J. Gwatkin, who was leaving the district. Previous to the peal the Vicar presented Mr. Gwatkin with a shaving ouffit, in case, in appreciation of his gervices as a parish elerk and ringer, the subscribers being the $\nabla$ icar, churchwardens and riagers.

PEALS TN 14 MINOR MUTHODS.

With 103 changes of method, 14 methods were rung in seven extents at Barnby-in-the-Willows, Nots, on January 28th. Four of the band rang their first peal in 14 methods, and Mr. Jack Millhouse called tis first in 14 methods.

Another peal in 14 Minor methods was rumg on the same day at Old Leake, Lincolnshire. These were all Treble Bob methods, bot splicing was employed only in the two first extents. It was the first peal in 14 nethod by all except Mr. Arthur Young, and it was his first peal as conductor

After the peal of Forkshite Surprise Major at Dartford, Kent, on Jannary 30th, ruag as a birthday complimant to the conductar (Mr. H. E. Audsley) ard Mr. J. M. Bialey, of Lejeton, Suffolk, Mr. John Wheadon was deservedly cangratulated upon breaking fresh ground af an age when wite a lot of ringers are thinking of resting on their laurels. It was Mr. Whesdon's titst peal of Yorkshire.

Anotlyer member of the family of White, of Appleton, has begun his peal ringing career. On Jamuary 28th Frank White rang the troble to a peal of Grandire Triples snd thus Eollows in the long tradifion in this willage, where Whiteg bave been identified with the bells for over a hundred years.
A peal of Bab Minor on Jamary 2sth at Mears Asliby, Northants, was rapg as a compliment to Mr. and Mrs. R. Coleman, of Kettering. whose infant sou, Graham Alfred, was baptised at All Sajnts', Prtchley, on the previous Sunday.
The peal of Bob Major at $$ \mathrm{St}$. Peter's, Nottingham, on Peb, 2 na , was Mr. F. Bradley"s loath. He is a very greatly respected Sunday service member of St. Peter's, always ready to assist young ringers and to give every encouragement to less capable members in the tower, and the band heartily congratulated him on bis achfevement.
It is interesting to record that lis first peal, mung in Janaary, 1924, was Bob Major, also conducted by his friead, Mr. F. A. Salter, and thev have now rung is peals together, Mr. Salter having conducted 33 of them
The treble ringer, Mr. Farold Brown, Tang his first tower-bell peal the previous Thursaby, a peal of Bob Minor at St. Mary's, Notimghars, ant the band also wish to express their spyreciation of the capable manner in which he performed his part.

Few young ringers score a peal of Stedman Cinoues to celebrate their 15th birthday, but Geofrey Hartison, of Loughborough, has had this distinction. He took part in a peal of Stedman Cinques at Leicester Cathedral aE Saturdar: and it was a welcome return to ringing after his recent gccident, when he broke an arm.

TEN EXTENTS OF SURPRISE MINOR.

At Caperhorst, Cheshire, on Suturday, ten extents in as many different Surprise Minor methods were rung, making, of course, 7,200 changes. It was the first peal in ten melhods and the longest peal by all the band. It occupied two minutes under four hours. Mr. G. Ledsham rang his 25 th peal, 24 of which have been rung with the conductor, Mr. 「. Varty.
The secretary of the Leicester Thureday band of P.G.'s being engeged, on Jamary 26th, four of the company met at the Bull's Head, Belurave, Leicester (where Mr. W. Botridl, late of the Metropolitan Police, is "mine host"), asd ramg a peal of Stcdmun Triples in lasid.
Members of the Socjety for the Archdeaconry of Stafford swooped down upoz St. Mary's Ohurcli, Kidderminster, Worcestershire, on February 4th, and carricd off a peal of Stedman Cinques. It was a birthday compliment to Norman G. Leech, who ramg lus first peal on Mr Kichael E., Razey, of Kirkby Mallory, Leicestershire, has just jomed the Royal Nayy. Last Saturday, February 4th, prior to his departure, a farewell peal of Doubles was rung, and he will take Itway with him the pleasant memory of havieg scoved his first peal. It was alsc the first peal on the bells since their andementation to six. Zetland Surprise has row been rung by the Watford balld, who scored the frst peal in the method at Bushey on Saturday. It was Mr, Mauriee Hibbert's 150 hh Surprise pebl
Messrs. W. A. Wooler and J. R. Erearley rany their 50th peal together when they took part in a peal of Kent Treble Bob Major at Wottloy, Yorkshire, on February 4h. The composition, rung for the first time, wes one by Mr. Geerge Lewis, which contains the 4 , 5 and 6 their extent in 5-6, without the and in 6th's.

HE KIDS.

The church at Wychbold, Worcestershire, where a peal in seven Minor methods was rang on February 4th, adjoins Droitwich transmitting station, whose ginnt mosts male the church tower seem puny in comparison.
The peal was rung by the "Kids'-so called because they will go peal smalching and tower grabing when the men' of the bramed are away. The chief "kid, is young. Bill Ranford, alias Pather, who las now rang 449 perts and is in bis 7oth year. Tom Lewis, another of the 'gang, "E megring the two hundred mark, while the others, although a long way helund, have fairiy respectable totals.
Mr. T, E. Some, of Padilock Wood, Kent, rang his 200tin peal as conductor, incuding 75 of Kent, Treble Bob Majar, when at Headcom oun Pebruary 4th he called snother peal it this method by Arthur Knights, which was ruig for the first time. The composition was a 6,336 reduced to $5,024$.
Messts. Frank H. Hicks and Arthur P. Lewry rang their 50th peal together on Janumry 28th at Hellingly
A half-muffled peal of Stedman Doubles was rumg at Trgsull, Stalfordshire, in memory of the late Mr. Martin Burke, a ringer at the Parish Church for over 40 years. The peal was rang on Jan. 25 th. Mr. Victor Morley rang the tenor at Stisted. Essex, to seven $720^{\prime} \mathrm{s}$ of Hinor on sumiay, Jrmury 2and, wal thus completed a peas on aij the belly in the tower.
The peal of Bob Minor at Tendring rung on January 23 rd had several interesting featares. Mr. George Jenniugs, wlo rang tho trahle, las been a ringer at the church for 45 years. Mr. Marvern, wha rang the thind, has been parisli clerk and bellinger for 35 years. This was his first peal and first attempt, and also the first by Mr. Laitt, who, too, has been a riager at Tendring for 35 gears. The ringer of the second, Albert Hales, scored his first peal "inside." The conductor was the only one who did not belong to the locai band. The village of Tendring, it is interesting to remember, gave its name to a famile which produced one of the earliest of composers, John Tendring, Master of the College Toutus in 1659.

The peal of Bob Minor at Draycott on Jan. 28th wiss tEe first in the methoci as conductor by Mr. Andrew Thompson, and was rumg as a birthday compliment to Mr. Harry Hall, the ringer of tho fourth.

SUSSEX RINGER'S DEATH.

The tower of St. Mary Magdalene, Bolpey, has sustaibed a great lass through the death on January 2ath of its towerkeeper, Mr. Willian Wheeler, after a very brief illness.

A member of the Sussex County Assacintion, decensed was one of a band formed at Bolney by the late Mr. George Walder 37 years ago, and was most regilar and punctual at both Sunday sersice and practice ringing He was at one period verger amd sexton at Bolney Ohurch and was also a member of the choir. He liad taken part in a number of peals rung for the Sussex County Associntion,
The funeral took place on Febritary Ist and was attended by several of his hrother ringers, and among the floral tributes was a wreath from the ringers. In the evening touches of Grandsire Triples were rung with the bells deeply muntled.

MIDLAND COUNTIES ASSOCIATION. OLD MEMBERS HONOURED.

A quarterly meeting of the Midland Counties Association was held on Saturday, January 28th, at Hugglescote. In spite of the gevere cold and snowy weather, quite a good company assembled and the eight bells were kept goivg during the aftemoon ard evening to various methods. The committee met in the afternoon and decided to have the annual report printed as before, local secretarios being aaked to include therein a short account of their distriet's activifies during 1938.
Two long-standing members were placed on tha honorary life members' list : J. E. Clarke (South Wigston) and W. E. White (Cot(rave, Notts). A special tribute was paid to the latter, who, during bis long connection with the associatjon, laad so enthuEiastically and conscientionsly filled many offices-local gecretary, chairman of the Notts District, Central Council representative, general hos, secretary and now hon treasurer.
Tea was served at the Castie Inn, and members and friends from Burton, Derby, Loughborough, Leicester, Finckley and Nottingham Districts assembled.
At the general meeting which followed, in the absence of Mr. J. Oldham (vice-president), Mr. William E. White was voted to the chair, and said how pleased they were to meet the Vicar of Hugglescote at the meeting.-The Vicar suitably replieñ, giving the members hearty greeting and welcame.
The eecrotary (Mr. Eraest Morris) presented a loug list of nen members who had been proposed sinee the last meeting. No less than 38 ringing, Eeven rejoining, five life zaid six honorary members were thus duly elected, which speaks well for the association's contimued activities.
Two auditors were chosen to eheck the atcounts for 1938 , viz., Mr, Paul L. Taylor and Mr. Colin Harrisor.
It was reported that on the sulbject of special badges for Midland Gounties Association memberg, a small committee would meet on Easter Monday before the usurl committes meeting to decide exactly what should be done and choose a suitable design.
Hearfy votes of thanks to the vicar for uss of the bells and the local committee for the arrangements mado concluded the mecting. Handbell ringing on the association's laadibells and forther towerbell ringing terminated a successful afternoon's mirk.

LADIES GUILD

EASTERN DISTRICT MFETING SPOILED BE FLOODS.
A meeting of the newly-formed Eastern District of the Ladjes' Guild was hold at Diss, Norfolk, on Saturduy, January 28th. It was a very successful meeting, although only nine ladies attended; but their enthusiasm made up for their smanli numbers. Many, including the vice-president, Miss Hilda G. Snowder, were prevented from attending by the widespread foods and bad weather conditions. Those present ware Miss Sylvia R. E. Bowyer (Ipswich) (hon. secretary of the branch), Miss D. F. Woolston (Ipswich), Miss Vera Gooderham (Stoise 4.h), Mrs. L. Wright (Dedlham), Miss E. Reeve (Ipswich), the Misses D. M. and E. G. Reeve (Hockwald), Miss M. Robertson (Norwich) and Miss A. F. Hillen (Stoke Ash).

In response to the cordial invitation extended to them, men attended in large numbers from Norfolk, Suffalk, Essex and one, in the person of Mr. A. Patrick Cannon, from as far afield as Londen.
The meeting began with ringing on the fine peal of eight (tenor 24 cot . approximately). For the first time in history, a band of tadies rang Diss bells, although it was only to rounds and call changes.
A short service, conducted by the Rector, the Rev. L. Hoit-Wilson, Was held in the church, followed by tea at the Waveney Hotel, when ${ }^{2}$ party of 37, including the Rector, was present.
At the conclusion of tea the sccretary read a letter from the Bronilys Bell Fund, and a collection was made.
Following this the secretary accorded hearty thanks to the Rector, Mr. Charles Cowell (organist), Mr. A. G. Harrison (hon, secretary of the South Norfolk areal and to all who bad helped to make the meeting a success.-In reply, the Rector said how pleased he was to see such a gathering, and hoped that Diss might before long prodice a band of lady ringers.
A Ladies' Guild business meeting followed, Miss D. F. Woolston baing elected to the chair in the absence of the vice-presjdent. Four ringmg members, the Misses. D. M. and E. G. Reeve (Hockwaid), Miss
M. Grimer (Tpswich) and Miss M. Jarris (Ha dleigh) were electen anie M. Grimsey (Tpswich) und Miss M. Jarvis (Haileigh) were elected and one honorary member, Miss M. Bucke (Ipswicl). It was decided 干o hold the next meeting at Colchester, if the bells were availatie, failing that at Braintree.
The kaies then returned to the belfry for more ringing. During the evening some of the ringers visited Palgrave, where there is a light panl of eight.
The ringing during the meeting included rounde, call changes. Planin Bob, Grandsire and Stedman Triples, Bob Mnjor, Kent Treble Bob and'Cambridge and Superlative Surprise.

CHESTER DIOCESAN GUILD.

STOCEPORT BRANCH PEAL RECORD.
The smual meeting of the Stockpoit Branch of the Chester. Diocesan Guild was held on Saturday, January 28th, at St, George's Church, Stockport. The fine peal of ten beils was set going goon after tifree o'clock and touches in various mothods were rung prior to the service, at which the usual Guild form was used. It was conducted by the Vicar (the Rev. A. du T. Pownall), who also gave a yery fine adazess, taking as his text in few words from the Gospel for the following day, 'Why are ye so fearful?'
Considerable time was spent after the service in examining the magnificent organ, which was installed about two years ago at tonsiderable expense aud which is considered to be one of the fnest organs in the North of England. It is a most interesting instrument both from a musical and mechanical point of view, all the stops being electrically controlled, and it has a superb tone.
Tea was seryed in the adjoining Parish Hall under the supervision of the local ringers' wives and a very enjogable meal was speedily disposed of. The business meeting followed under the chairmanship of the Rev. Frank Bonner (vice-clairman of the branch), the Vigar being unable to stay to the meeting owing to parochina actirities.
The Chairmans said he had been assured by the Ficar of a wavm welcome to St. George's, and he was sure the ringery appreciated the opportunity of visiting this beautiful church. He referrecl to the presence during the afterncon and at tea of Mr. A. E. Perler, of Bangor, and Mr. H. Parker, secretary of the Northwich Branch.
The amual report and statement of accoints were presented and showed a good state of affairs. Membership lade increased by one. The number of peals rang in the branch was a record, 41 , langing from Stedman Caters and Bub Royal to Bob Doubles, and includmg the first peal of Rochester Surprise Major for the Guild and in the county, ns well as the 84 Minor methods peal, An erccuraging feature was the increase of conductors, these numbering eight, wbile eight was the increase of conductors, these numberimg eight, wbile eight members rang their first peal. Tho finanoini side of the branch was also very sound.-The repost and stalemont of accounts were adopted and the secretary thanked for the frouble exponded in preparing them. THE BLEESTON LIBRARY.
The Beeston Library report was presented, ard an appeal was made for Hreater use to he made of this valuable collection of books given to the Guild by the late Rev, A Meestou. The librazian, Mr. to the Guild by the late Rev. A. A. Beestoll the librarian, Mr. work started by Mr. Beeston of keeping a recold of all the new methods rung
The election of officers for the year followed, and in view of his inability to be presert at meetings, on the advice of his doctor, Mr. Wolstencroft did not wish to offer himself for election ms clairman of the branch, and it was unanimously decided to elact the Rer. Frank Bonner, with Mr. T. Wilde as vice-chairman.
The secretary was instructed to write to Mi. Wolstencroft expressing their regret at the cause of his resignation and their best wishes for Lis spedy retura to health. The remaining afficers were re-elected Attention was drawn to the notice in "The Ringing World" regarding non-residant members of the Guild, and members were asked to point this aut to any nou-resident member they might come into contact with.
Tour new members were clected, Messrs; W. Barlow, H. Figginbottom (St. Mary's, Stockport), and S. Wyatt and S. Goulden, of New Mills.
It was decided to send a letter lo Mr. Hongla and Mr. Marshall, hoth of whom have served the branch in office and in other ways, expressing regret at their absence and hoping that they would coon be restored to biealth.
The secretary welcomed Mr. C. Edwards, Master of the Hereford Guild, who bas cone to live at Bowdon, and hoped that lie would be very beppy amongst them.-Mr. Edwards, in lis reply, said he would do all in lis power to belp the Guild, and only requested that they should not ashe too much of him.

Votes of thanks were accorded the retiring officers, the Ficar and wardens, the local ringers, the ladies who prepared teas, the organist and all who had in any way contributed to the success of the meeting. Firther ringing was enjoyed on tower bells and on handbells. The resence of many memhers of the Macclesfield Branch, amongst them the Ringing Master (Mr. J. Worth), was very much eppreciated.

OHAVGFS IN CREWE BRANCH'S OFFICERS

The amual meeting of the Crewe Brancli of the Cliester Diotesan Guild was held at Christ Church, Crewe, on Januaty 21st. There was an excellent attendance, 54 memhers being present, representing Acton, Alsager, Barthomley, Wistaston, Nantwich, Citwe, Church Lawton, Kidsgrove, Newcastle, Norton-in-Hales, Draycott, Market Draytout, Marbury, Lower Bebingion, Bowden, Cbeaile, Longton and Northwich.
In the znayoidable absence of the Vicar, the Rev. Sydney $T$. Steveme. the service was conducted by the Vicar of Marbury (the Rev. G. C. Dickson), and a most inspiring address on "Unity i was given by the Ticar of Acton, the Rev. Charles Parry-Williames, Tes whs afterwards served in the Schoolroom, kindly given by the Vicar and wardens.
The Rep. G. C. Dickson presided at the busilhess meeting. Fe explained that be was taking the place of the Rev. S. T. Steyens, chairman of the Crewe Branch, who had suffered a great blow in the loss of both his mother and father in the same week. He knew that the whole of the branch sympathised with their chairman, and the mecretary $\quad$ mas asked to send a letter of condoleace from all of them. The Rev. 8. T. Stevens was re-elected chairman, Mr. R. D. Langford hon, gecretary, and Mr. W. I. Holding hon, treasurer.
The resignation of Mr. alhert Crawley from the position of inatructor to the Crewa Branch was accepted with much regret, and Mr. R. D. Laggiord was elected in his place.
Mention was made of the fact thet Mr. Grewley had only missed two snaual meetings since he wes made a member, in the year 1902, whea be was away at the South Africnn war, and this year; truly a wonderful record.
Mr. George Biddulph resigned from the position of Ringing Master, and Mr. J. Brough was elected to the office.
Ringing again took place after the business meeting, and touches of Grandsira Caters, Stedman Caters, Bob Major, Cambridge Major, Superlativz and London Surprise Major were all enjoyed.

WIRRAL BRANOH CONGRATULATES ROCK FERRY BAND.
The annual meeting of the Wirral Brasch of the Chester Diocesan Guild was held at Rock Ferty (St. Peter's) on Seturday, January 21st. Io spite of the miserably inclement weather, there was a fairly ropresentative number of monbers present and also a good sprinkling of riaging frieads from Liverpool, to whom a bearly welcome to Chester Guild meetings is alwrys extended. Ringing in various Minor methods took place in the afternoon, and service was conducted by the Vicar (the Rev. J. D. Pearson), who gave a very interesting and thourht-provoking address based ou the meaning of the word "sincere.' Ten followed immediately after the service, wlyen between forty and ffty sat down to a splendid repast kindly prepared by Mrs. Cooke and her daugliter, and which was much elljoyed
During the course of the sarbsequent meetiog hearty congratalations were extended to Mr. J. Cooke and his bagd of ringers at Rock Ferry on their meritorious record for the past twelve monthg, details of which were published in "The Ringing World' of Janurry 20th. Two points warthy of pore than passing interest in this record are that out of the 102 Minor extents ruag during the year, 96 were rung as service touches, and that the average age of seven of the band of twelve is ouly $17!$ It was also stated at the meeting by the chbirmaster of St. Peter's that all the younger element of the band were either choirboys or ex-choirboys-a truly spiendid record!
After thy election of officers and other routine business bad heen disposed of further ringing took place, all tastes and copabilities from rounds to Surprise methods being amply catered for anik a very enjoyabls gatheriug brought to a close.

DEATH OF MR. JESSE BEAMS.

ONE OF SURRET ASSOCLATION'S OLDEST MEMBERG.
By the death of Mr. Jesse Beams, of Ewell, the Surrey Association has lost one of its oldest members and the Guildford Diocesan Guild onn of its foundation members.

Deceased, who was 62 Fears of age, was pensioned from the Post Office only two years ago.
Mr. Beams had been a regular Sundny service ringer since I8a3 untii last July. Although he was suffering before that time ha did nat give in, but early in Septomber he was aumithed to St. Thomas Hospital, London, and three weeks later wis sent home again, his complaint being found to be too sorious for oneration
Mr. Beams had rung 14 peals. He was laid to rest in Ewell ChurehJard on Janumry 19th, about 40 postmen fining each side of the pathway to the church, while four postmen scted as bearers. Many beautiful flowers were sent, and the Guildford Diocesan Guild and Surrey Association were represented at the funeral. The church bells were rung lalf-muffled on the following Sunday for both servicen, and on the practice night a quarter-peal of Grandsira Triples was rung with half-muffled bellg by Miss Harrington (first quarter-penl) 1 , F. G. Woodiss 2, J. E. Bemms 3, J. Beams (conductor) 4, A. Hadley 5, H. E. Good 6, E. Grave 7, W. Poplett 8.

Despite an enlarged edition this week, we rearet we aro compelled to hold over a number of contributions.
Middlesex County Council have granted the use of the Middlesex Guidhall Council Chamber for the Central Counctl meeting in London on Whitsun Tuesday.
The meeting of the Kent County Association at Maidstone is to be held on Saturday. February 18th, and not on the lith as advertised lest week,
The Lord Mavor and Lady Mayoress of Birmiagham have promised to attend the Henry Johason Commemoration Dinaer, which is to be held at the Imperim Hotel, Birmingham, on February 25th. Early application should he made for tickets.
Two centuries gag, on February 19th, 1739, a notable peal was rung at St. Saviour's, Southwark, winen 'the first true and Compleat Pesl of Five Thousand and forty Bob Major Royal otherwise Ten In ever performed on these bells was complested in 4h. 10 mi . " It was rung by the Society of Uajon Scholars and called by John Denmead.

The tenor, which weighed 51 cwt, 2 qr. 9 lb ., was turned in singlehanded (for the first time) by Philemon Mainwaring, one of the greatest heary bell ringers of all time. The bells had heen cast in thousand of Caters, the other an bight thousand of Cinques. In both theso three men had been put to the tenor.

THE DIOCESE OF DERBY.

SUGGESTED NDW GUFLD.

To the siditor,
Dear Sir,-I should very much like to bring to the notice of all bellringers in the Diocese of Derby the question of forming a Diocesan Guidd, to embrace all tawera in the diocese.

It has been suggested sevetal times lately by more than one wellknown ringer that a meeting might bo held at some suitable tower where ringing could take place in the afternoon and the whole question discussed after tea.
Ringing at the moment is at a vary low enb, and it is the feeling of many singers that the time is now opportune for such a step to be talen.

I myself attended what should have been a meeting at a local tower recently and wes one of only three visitors, the only other ringer being one of the local band; consequently, the meeting did not mature, This occurred at a church where the new Rector pergonally attended to extend his weicome to the singers, and I feel an epology is due to him for such a poor attordabee.

This has been the case at several meeting in the last faw years, and it is surely up to every individual ringer to do his utmost to inprove this copdition.

A very hearty welcome would be extended to ali jncumbents of parishes in the diocess who would be interested in such a move and whose help wauld be greatly appreciated,
I shall be extremely obliged if you will have this jebter published in your valuable paper in order that it may be brought to the notice of all ringers in fibe diocese.
If those interested will communicate with ree, suggesting date and place of meeting - this to be letd as early as possible in tho yearwill do all I csn to meke arrungements. SAM SCATMERGOOD.

ST. PAUL'S CATHEDRAL BELLS.

To the Editor.
Dear Sirs-In vour issue of November $18 t h, 1938$, you were good enoush to pablish a letter of mine, which raised some doubt as to whetiner or not Lord Grimitorpe did astually order a peal of tweive with a three ton tenor in $D$ /lat, as stated by Mr. F. E Dewe.
I have now been able to get a sight of the eighth edition of "Clocks, Watches mand Bells" (1903), from which, in your issue of December 2nd, 1938, Mr. Dawe quotes as follows: "All the five largest bells are only on the 14 ecale of thickness, and they would have been better on the 13 scale, but the tenor inconvenjently heavy to sing."

Tursing to the table of diameters and weights on paze 346, I read that a tiree ton bell on the 13 scale of thickness would be in B with a diameter of 55 t . 7 zi ib . On the 12 scale a bell having the same diameter would be in D flat and would weigh 66 cwt. On the came page I read: 'Single bells and especially small ones should alweyg be on the I2 geale, or very near it; but the tenors of poals on the 13 scale." Lord Grimthorpe was of the opinion that the 13 scale agreed more nearly in weight than any other simple proportion with that used by the old bellfounders in the large bells of peals.
Discussing sizes of pesls, Lord Grimthorpe, on page 340, 1874 edition, page $\overline{5} 4,1903$ edition, eshrs: 'If you will have 12 belle the tenor Bhould not be higher than G. . . . A ' $\mathbf{B}^{2}$ bell would probebiy be the best for such a peal "; and on page 354,1903 edition : "The tenore of Exeter and SE. Paul's are B dat; bot both would have been on a better scale of thickness if they had beer B with the same weight, or more like the $B$ bell at Manchester."

This $B$ bell at Manchester Town Hall was 5ft. 10in. in diameter and weighed 71 cwt .
Considering these facts, there can be no doubt that Lord Grimthorpe intended thet St. Panl's tenor should be a B bell and not D fat a stated by Mr. Dawe.

ALBERT RELFE.

A good deal of quiet, unobtrusive work in raising the standard of chamge ringing in the Kent and Sussex border towers has beer done by Mr. Albert Relfe, of Lamberhurst, Kent. It is not an eass task. ju what is mainly a rural area, but much of the interest which has been maintained in recent years in that neighbourhood has been due to Mr. Relfe's efforts and the enthusiasm he has been able to encourage in others.
Mr. Relfe is a native of Lamberhurst, where he was born on November 27 th , 1889. He started his ringing career in 1909, in the six-bel tower of his village, and after the bells were rebung in a new frame in 1925, became Jeader of the local bayd.
His first peal was Bob Minor, rung at Lamberiurst on November rang at camberlurst on November ductor was rung in the same tower less than a year later. This was a pral in eeven Minor methods on October 28th, 1912, the first by the local band. Since getting restarted after the war they have done some notable things.
Mr. Rello Fas the first to conduct a peat in 38 Surprise Minor methods, but ho laad previously called the first peni in 14 metEods and the first in 14, 21 and 26 Surprise methods and the first peal of Alliance and Little Mivor for the Kent County Association; indeed, he was a pioceer of Spliced Surprise Minor zinging in Kent. He alsa took part in the first peais of st. Clement's Bob Major, Double Bob Major, Erin Caters and Cauterbury Pleasure Royal rung by the Kent Connty Association.
He las rung in two peals of Grandsire Triples non-conducted, and in one peal of seven methods of Minor, in which each ringer called one 730 and one patt of the last 720 , which was Plain Bob.
Not the least meritorious feature of the peals of Minor specially mentioned above is that they were all rung at Lamberhurst by the service ringers at that church.
Mr. Relfe's peals total 223, of which he has conducted 112, and they range from Doubles to Royal. They have been rung in 62 towers in Kent and Sussey.

BROADCAST RINGING.

Sir,-When I heard the excellent ringing from Croydon Parish Church, which whs broadcast on Sunday morning, I wondered if it would be possible to arrange that the names of those taking part in this and simitar ringing to be published in your paper. Many ringers know roughly who the ringers are, but it would be interesting to see if these broadcasts are by the same ringers on each occasion or if different ringers get opportunities to take part from time to time. If they do it shows the confidence which the more proficient piace in the progress of nthers, as, very paturally, the best is required on such occasiones.
But there is another side. We see 60 many yames of those who ring peals or touches, but we do not hear the ringing. Having heard broadcast ringing, it would be nice to see the names of those who took part and the bells which they rang. Some bands might then ask the belp of others to make their efforts more perfect when they send their ringing over the air. A. S. ROBERTS.

PEAL BOARD UNVEILED AT BISHOP AUCKLAND

At the invitation of the Ficar (the Rev. Canon A. B. Parry-Evans) eight ringers who took part in a peal of Kent Treble Bob Major at Bishop Anckland on Oetober 15th, 1938, wisited the tower on Saturiay, January 28th, on the occasion of the unveiling of a peal board commemorating the peal. The peal was rung in honour of the wedding of the Rev. C. J. Patry-Evane, son of the Vicar, to Miss C . S . Kingdom, organist and à former ringer at St. Andrew's Church.

After the unveiling ceremony, Canon Parry-Evans and his son tharked the ringers for ringing the peal, and they were supported by Mr. Jackson Pallister (charchwarden), who has been a member of the Durham and Newcastle Association for 54 years.
Mr. W. N. Park responded on behalf of the ringers.
The company were entertained to tea by the Vicar, and, after ting ing several touches on handbells, the ringers retarned to the tower and rang a quarter-pen] of Stedman Triples. Thoso taking part were S. Bryant 1, G. W. Park 2. G. W. Peverell 3, J. T. Titit 4. R. B. Robinson 5, W. N. Park B, ‥ Park (conductor) '?, R. Bisbly 8 . This was this first quarter-peal of Stedman for the ringers of treble, 3rd and 44 .

LONDON COUNTY ASSOCIATION.

NORTHERN DISTRICT MASTER RESIGNS.
General Secretary Asked for Explanation of Letter
The ancual meeting of the Northern District of the Louden County Association was beld on Saturday, January 21st, in the City. Ringing took place at St. Lawrence Jewry in the afternoon, aud the business meeting followed in the choir vestry.
After the cash statement for the year had been presented and accepted, thu District Master (Mr. J. A. Waugh) gave his report for the year. He strongly criticised the central body of the associnEion for the andagonistic sititude they were adopting towards other societies. Mr. Wragh said that it was quite useless to try to run the society on a territorial basis, with its present constitution. There wins, he added, probsbly some justification for the extension of the old St. James' \{ociety into tho London Councy Association, but the fruits of the extension were far from being apparent, Shart of a return to the St. James' Society status, riofbing but ${ }^{\circ}$ completo alteration of the type, scope and attitude of the society could preserve it from degerverating into a. museum spacimen

After seme debate the report was accepted.
A lengthy discussion then took place regarding the general secretary's recent letter to "The Rinping World" in reply to the leading article of December 23rd about the association
Tho District Secretary (Mr. J. G. Prior) said that, in his opinion, Mr. T'ffender's letter could have no other effent than to cause bad Feeling against the society. The thinly veiled allusion to the Guildford Diocesan Guild and its late secretary wha partictlarly regrettatile. He liad writien a letter, which he proposed, with the coasent of the members, to send to "Tho Ringing World," to the effect that the members of the Worthern District wished to dissociate themselves from Mr. Taffender's letter.

In the debate that followed, it was found that zone of the members were in agreement. with Mr. Taffender's letter, hat on a vote beipg taken as to whether the secretary's proposed letter should be pert, there was only a majority of one in favout, Those who were against the motion feit that to send the letter would canse unnecessary controversy.
It was decided that the district sectebtary should write to Mr. Teffender to ask him for an explanation of his letter, that the matter should be dizcussed further at the anuual meeting of the association (which is to be lield on Saturday), end to hole aver the proposed letter to "The Ringing World.
The election of officers then took place. Mr. J, A. Waigh, who hat been an offeer of the district for ten years, two as secretary and eight as Master, declined to accept reelection, and Mr. C. A. Hughes was elected Master in lis place. Mr. J. G, A. Prior (hon. secretary), Mr. R. G. Cousins (treasurer) and Mr. E. E. Holman (steward) were alj re-elected. Mr. G. W. Cecil and Mr. L. J. Fox were elected to the com.mittee.
It was announced that a montlily practice was to be held on the third Wednesday jn each month at St. Duastan's-jn-the-East, beginning on February 15th.

Leytonstome was chosen for the April meeting, with Holloway as the altervalive tower
Votes of thanks to the incumbents and to the steeplekeepers brought the unusually lengthy meeting to a close.
Ringing in the evening took place at St. Duastan's-in-the-East ith methods up to Iontion Surprise Major.

SOUTHERN DISTRICT.
Than anmonl meeting of the Sonthern District of the Londnn County Association, held at St. Luke's, Chelsea, on Saturdar, January 2Ist, whs not welf attended. there being only some 35 memners and lriends presenk during the afternoon and evening: This भौas not altogether murprising, there was a counter-atisaction in the same millage in the shaps of a football cup-tie, which fecounted for 70.000 of the aumounding populations, but it was extremely disappointing to the offcers of the associafion, who take great pains to organise fhe meetings. There was, however, one consolation at tea time, when the 28 people who sat down found 50 substantial less at their disposal. Thet the task was too much for them was not their fault, but what wrould have been said if there had been only four teas for the peopla who had sent postcards?
Fingirg commenced at 2.45 j3.m. and continued until 8 p.m., with a break for service, tea and busimess meeting, touches up to man including Onminidge Ropal being rung with mized strceess. In the absence of the Rector, a short serfice was conducted by the Precentor, the Rev. W. H. Wilson, who was afterwards a welcome guest at ten.

The business meeting resulted in the re-election of all the officera and the acceptance of the balance sheet.
Tho hon. secretary, Mr. N. H. Manning, in his annual report, commented favoutably on the increase in the number of mew members and athendances at the district meetiags, hut stated there pas sill room for improvement.
It was decided to apply for St. George-the-Martyr, Sonthwark, for the next meeting on March 18th, and to leave the committee to prepare a rata of towers for the subsequent meetings. The secretary stated that this procedure, which was adopted last year, las proved very satiafactory. and as a result of early application for towera he had been able to obtajn the necegsary permission without any diffenlty. (Contrinued on next pa&e.)

NATIONAL POLICE GUILD.

SURRET SDPFRINTENDENT ELECTED PRESIDFNT

The annual meeting of the National Guita of Police Ringers was held in London on Jienuary 28th. Forty-five members and friends made the journey from Manchester and district, and they were joined by in further 17 members at Leicester. An interesting item was the presentation of a wrist watah to P.C. G. Pye, of Mameliester, by his fellow police rinmers on his retirement. The presentation was made by Supt. F. R. Witlianas with tho best wishes of all for a happy and jengtly period of retirement.

On reaching Lundon many of the party enjoyad the privilege of a conducted tonr through the Houseg of Parlianent. Thjs was kindly arranged by P.C. N. Bagwortls, of London Lumeh was then taken at the Euston Tavern, at which Capt. R. H. D Boltor, superintendent of the 'E' Division, presided, and to which 84 members, friesds and vieitors sat down. A telegram was recsived from the Eaitor of "The Ringing World' regretting that influenza deprived him of the plensure of attending.
Capt. Bolton expressed his pleasure in attending and in a very happy speech welcomed the visitors to Londoa and exhorted them to behave end enjoy thenselvos and to visit Bow Street if they wished, but met to occupy the accommodabion, which was usually limited on Sulurdar nights. In reference to the bellg, he expressed the hope that they would never beve to rang again in ang war atmosphere, but always in permanent perce.
He was heartily thanked by the Guild president (Supt. Williams, of Manchester) for presiding.

The business meetiug followed, with Supt. Williams in the chair. He referred in sympathetic terms to tho absence of the very efleient and worthy secretary of the Guild, Inspector Harold Poule, through indisposition. If the goodwill expressed on all hands can be of any belp to him, then he is assured of a
In his temporery absence, Sgt. Jenney undertook to keep the flag flying hut with seriwus doutht of mantaining the degree of efficncy displayed by the "Man of the Guild.'

SUPT, WILLTMM RETIRTS FROM PRESIDENCY

Mr. Williams rame with his hardy anyual in regard to Ironoars going round und so intinidnted some of his ardent supporters on the journey up that he had his way without the difficultiea of previous years, and Supt. C. Filton, cl Surey, was unanimously alected president for the forthcoming year
Mr. Wilhans, qxfiupt, nind D.C.C. A. Wiggius and ex-Chief Ingpector Buttrill ware manimously olected vice-presicelits
Mr. Williams assured the members that his interest in the Guild (for which lie lias done ereat thingrs) would be fully maintained. He congratulated Sorg. Smith, of Higli Wycombe, on his promotion to Inspector, and P.S. Ford, of #anchester, on conducting his first peal. Good wishes on his recent retirement wele also expressed to Mr, Wiggins.

Supt. Hilton thanfed the memhers for the lomour of veing elected presithent, and said lie would be glad to be of nny service prossible to further the interests of the Guild.
A discussion as to the wenue of the next mating braught suggestions that the andual meetings wouht be more successitn] in the summer, and it was evertially resolved that the next meetirg be held at Hanlury on May 25 th. 1940.
During the meeling some of the patty of weighty proportions made a determined ffort to reduce hy hiking fron the Tavera to the herrt of the West Find and baek. No tests ware made as to the results, but in at least ane ense the effents were not too good the next day. Ringing in the various towers, including the famots 'Bow Bells,' was cartied no during the day with many distinguished rongers assisting.
A return to the Taveros was made in the evening for social enterdarme the day was the presence of Mr. and Mrs. Huperf Richardson, an old friend from Wales, Mr. J. W. Among the apologies for absence was one from the Rer. IR. P. Farrow, of lage Lulworth, owing to the illness of bis wfe, and a messige of Eympabhy is to be seat to him with best wislies for Mrs. Fancow'g tecovery.
The Chairmili made feeling reforence to the death of Mr. R. N. Drwees a kean supporter of the branch and chairman for many year's, and read a letter from Mrs. Dawes thanking the members for the beantiful foral hell sent on the day of the funeral and ror the special muffied peal that was risng.

VIEWS ON 'SYNTHETIO' BELLS

The Hon, Secretary recglled the resolution passed by the branch in regaed to synthetic bells and suid that not only was it repartad in the London papers, but in otiners that had come from America and South China. Fe read a letter from the Bishop's chaplain, Canon W. J. Barton, tatiog that the question of syathetio bells came beforo the Bishop nnd his Arcbdeacons at a meeting held at the instance of the Advisory Committee. 'The generul outline of the palicy approved (wrote the Ganon) was that synthetic bells should never be accepted in at church where bells were hanging in the tower. In the particulas case unier consideration it was stated that there was no peal of bells and that the tower of the charch could iot take a peaj."
Tha hon. secretary also read a letter fron Mr, Fosiah Oldicid, M.A., D.O.L., Oxford, senior physician to the Lady Margaret Frinitarian Hospitan, Doddington, Kent, ariaing ont of the protert marie by the braneli against synthetio bells. In his letter he wrote: - At all conts mechanical prayer or praise shonld be left to the primitive savages. It is they who idealise and venerate praying mnchincs and it will be a sad day for our idenls of the worship of God when we replace devotional praise, devotional singing and devoLional Elummoning to worship by mechanical metlods which enatle us to sit and do nothing olirselves.

INCREASED MEMBERSHIP.
In hin annual report the hon. secretnry said the branch had eccornplislad in year of good work, and was matked by a large attendasce of members and friends at the meatings. He regretted that there was no restoriation to report, parlicularly in regard to the tower ni Wykr Regis, where the beantifal peal of eifhi-the only octave in the Wesmouth deanery-had to romain silent until the necessary funds were forthooning. The membership of the branch showed an increase of 20.
The golden wedding on March 2lst lasi of Mr. and Mrs. R. N Dawes was recalled in the report. In an personal tribute to the late Mr. Dawes, the hor, eceretary mentioned that he was brauch chairman for 20 years, and his efficiency, good humone and great interest in the Guild endenred him to the members.
On the financial side the receipts for the past year totalled 53169 10d. and the expenditure 517 18s. 8 A ., learing a balance of 81388.2 d ., as compared with if 2 s . 6d. at the beginning of the Jear.
The quarterly moefings were fized to be held it Maiden Nemton, Upwer. Preston and Bure Regis, and the annual meeting at Dorchester Besides the four quarterly meetings and the annual mecting, the hon. secretary said he hoped to arrange some practice meetings durfig the anmmer months, and it was asked if it was possible to hold a meeting at Milton Abbey.-The hon. secretary promised to do his best to obtatil permission.
Officers were elected as follows: Chairman, the Rev. A. W. Markby vice-chairman, the Rev. R. P. Farrow; Ringing Master, Mr. C. Smast (Upwey) - deputy, MJ. P. ## FACTS ABOUT MEAEBERSFIP

In preserting the association's ford annual report, the President draw attention to fbe fact that the membershio now stood at 1287 This was a wet, decrease of six against last yearis total. He wished to point out, however, that 75 now ringing members had been elected durigg the year, while 15 had lapged and 13 had Eied. Careful revision had algo been made of the liat of ant-county members, which hatit resuitted in striking off a good many names.

In presenting the peal secretary's report, the President drew attenfion to the dent of gratitude the association owed to Mr. Bartors. It wns a skilled work which called for close attention to detail, and Mr. Barton luad now completed 18 years' tenure of affice. He felt he could not continue indefinitely, and rated for the members to comsider appointing a successor. He was willing to continue in office until a gascossor could he found. statistics from the report showed that 93 peals liad been rung during the jear at, 52 tifferent churches and one fingdbell centre. Trwenty-three members had rung their first peal and four han scored their first peal as conductor

The adoption of the report, was moved by Mr. W. E. Iloyd, seconded by Mr. G. Homer and carried.
In prosenting the halance sheet, the treasurer reported that there liad been a neb losy on the year's working of f39 139. 6d., which wrs. aceounted for by the cost to the associetion of the Central Council meeting in Lecds. The total cost of the mecting wais 55013 s . 9id. otherwise there would bave been a paiz duriag the year of fll 0s. 3id.
The balance sheet was adopted and the auditors thanked for their Wark ena report.

After considerable discussion, an amendment to Rule 9 was carried in the following terms, on the motion of Mr. W. Batom, gecouded by Mr. P. J. Johneon : Any proposition dealing with the disposal of the funds or with the constitution of the rssaciation can only be put to the wote at a general meeting after a notice of the intention to move sancl, remolution has boen given at the previaus general meetins, umlesg stich a proposition las been considered and recommended for approval by the General Committee, in which case it may be put to the vote at the next genernt meeting following the conumititec mecting at which it has been considered.

A 5 GUARANTEE.

A discussion then fuol place on the Central Council's contemplated book on Sinprise methods. The General Secretary explained that it was the intention of the Council to publish a comprehensive baok, but that the cost would on more than the Council conld suarantes without the knowledge that they could readily dispose of a minimum number of copies, If had been sugested, therefore, that the various associstions be approached with a view to undertaleisg to purchase a number of copies.
Mr. J. F. Harvoy said he fett it was a work which was neened, sut? had pleasure in norjng that the association guarantee to ptrchase a consigrment to the valne of 55 . This was seconded by the General

WINCHESTER AND PORTSMOUTH DIOCESAN GUHLD.  BASLKGSTGKE DISTRICIIS SUBSTANTTAL GIFT TO BELL

Tho anmual general meeting of the Basingatoke District of the Winchester and Portsmouth Diocesmy Guild was held at Basingstake of Januaty 28th and drew a record abtendnnce of ringers who were anzious t, try the ring of eight at St. Michael's Clarch, Tluich have recently been restored. The service was conducted by the Vicar of Basingstoke, and an address was given by the Rev. D. L. liaard. Rector of Wolverton and a former secretary of the district. The church was the seens of a dignstrous fro last mutumin, when the rooi, which was being repaired, cauglat fire and caused the destruction of the orgen. The chtirch wes still in scafolding, and temporary lighting and a minature organ were in use.
There were 106 ringers present at the meeting, which was condacted by the district chairman, the Tev. G. H. Jeudwine.
The secretary (Major J. G. Stilwell), in his report, said that there had been a sliglat decline in meanbership during the year, but if there had been e decline is quantity there bad been a corresponding increase in quality. The district had at last returned to the peal-ringing arela. Four peals liad been rung by Basingstoke (minly men from St. Michael's), and one, the first, peal of Stedman in the district, by Yateley. The record of the St. Michael's men was interesting, for they had no tower of their own at the time, yet they could ring peals on tower bells and ewen provide a brass band (of bandbells) to leal a procession at a quarectly meeting. There semad to be a moral to be firawh-io leave the ropes alone sometimes and study on the hand. luells.

A brief ncconnt followed of the steps leading to the decision io recast the treblo, 3nd and 4 th leells in addition to the and and tenor, and how tite district decided to adopt the 3rd in memory of Mr. Heary White and Mr. Federick wilzon at the cost of 819 Ios.
collection was then taken towards the cost of the Ath bell and mmounted to 52 2s. ©d. It is hoped that the Guild will walse a coutribution for the same parpose, as it is the Guild's fubilee year and its nursery was Basingatoke.
Quarderly meetings lagd been wall maintained, with an average attendance of 38 , and two combined practices with the Audover District had been hefd.
Quarterly meetings were arranged for April 22 nd , July 8 th and Soptember 23 rd at, Yatelev, Silchestor and Overtom respectively. The annual moeting will be held at Butingetoke on January 27 th , 1900 .
All the offcers were re-clocted and a sumber of new mombers were elected.
After the mecting furthas ringing took place at St. Michael's and All Saints' towers, and methods ruls ranked from Grandsire Triples to a courso of London Surprise Major, which, unfortunately, camo tu grief one lend from Homs. Nearly all the towers in the Basingstote District were represented and there were many visiting ringens, ineluding Mr. George Williams, the Master of the Guila. Those present expresserd pleasime and satisfaction at the improved tone and 'go' of the bells al. St. Michael's since the restoration, which was carried aut by Messrs, Taylor and Co, of Loughborough.

Secretary, who said that thic number of towers in the colnty where Surprise ringing was being taken up was steudily on the increase, and he felt sure that the book, when published, wonld Gind a ready fale in Yorkskire. The proposition was cerriet.
On the motion of Mr. J. F. Harvey, seconded by Mr. W. O. Talbot, the follawing were elected cepreseatatives on the Central Counci] The president (Canon C. C. Marahall), the gemeral secretary (Mr. L. W. G. Marris), the treasurer (Mr. §. F. Palmer) and Mr. P.J. Joliñson.
In moving that Canon Warshall be re-elected president of the association, Mr. $\boldsymbol{P}_{\text {. J J Johncon paid warm tribute to the scrvices that }}$ Canou Marslabll had rendered to the association for over 20 years. This was an long time, nud lbeir thanks were due to Canon Marshall for the able manner in which he had steered them safly throzgh the vicissitudes of so long a period.-The motion was seconded by hir. G. Lewis and carried with applause.

The elertion of the peal secretary followed, and as was pointed out in the report, Mr. W. Bartor found he had not the time to spare lie formerly had, but as no successor had been found, he was willing to carry on for anather year. His re-ehection was carried enthasiastically, several members voicing their apprechation of the work which Mr. Barton had so efficiently cnrried out for the past 18 years.
Miss 3. Fisher, of St. Nichaol's, Feadirgley, Miss K. Marsh, of Bramiev, Miss Elsie Brolbwell. of Rotherham, and 3fr. P. Woodhean, of Felkirk, were elected members of the association.
3r. F. G. Sherwoot, representing the sub-committee that had heen set up to deal with the presideatia] chain of office, reported that a meeting had taken place and that the matter was proceeding.

A heatiy vote of thanks to the president for presiding at this busy meeting was moved by Mr. H. N. Imeson, seconded by Mr. E. Hadson and carried unadimoxisly.
Further ringing followed, bringing to a close a successful, and enjoyable mecting.

THE BELLS OF NEWCASTLE-UNDER-LYME

MAYOR'S GIFT OF ALE TO TEE RTNGERS. Mutton, Turnips and Apple Dumpling.
Under wintry conditions a meeting of the North Staffordsinire Association was held at Newcastle-under-Lyme on Saturday, January 7th. Thirty members were present fram Bursiem, Crewe, Draycott, Cheadie, Fenton, Hanley, Langton, Leek, Newcastje, Stone, Stafford, Stoke-on-Trent and Wolstanton. After tea had been partaken of, the Rector of Newcestle (the Rev. O. J. Watkins) extended a hearty wclcome to all present. The usual vote of thanks was proposed by Mr. A. W. Hall, supported by Mr. T. Hurd, and Mr. E. Steele thanked the ladies for their help in preparing tea. The Rev. Father McDonald, of Chesdle R.G. Church, was elected an honorary member.
The New Castle to which the borough of Newcastle-under-Lyme in the caunty of Stafford owes its name, and probably its existence, was built by Ranulph Gernons, Earl of Cliester, in Steplien's troubled reign. The obvious security which the castle afforded against the prevalent rapine and disorder induced several familjes of traders to make their homes by its walls, and between the feasts of micheelmas 1172 and 1173 they were given a charter by Henry II. At this time they numbered about 160 , and it was these people who, in this reign built themselves a new church on the neighbouring hill, and dedicated it to St. Giles, the patron saint of the woodland. Of this their church only the tower survives to-day, and it is to this, the finest specmen of medisval architecture in the district, that I would turn your attention in this monogTaph.

The tower was built, together with its churcliz and probably replacing a Emall Normau building on this site, in the $13 t^{2}$ century, and in the style known as Early English. It still Eurvives after nearly 700 years as the base of the present tower. ln the 14th century the tower was raised, periaps when the new church in the "Decoreted style of architecture was built. The midde courses of the tower now standing are wade up very largely of 14tly century masonry. It is in this church that we first hear of bells, the actual date being 1503. It is recerded thit the ropes for the bells were supplied by craftemen as part pay ment for acquiring the freedom of the boraugh. At the Reformation the inventory of the church goods was mads, and under the date 'tile Vthe of May Anno Septimo Edwardi Sexti ' is to be found:-

NEWOASTEKL

Fyrste iijj belles in the Stepuil and a Sanctus bell" and iifj bells in the Stepull and a Saunce bell safely to be kepte untitl the Kinges Majestjes pleasure be therin furder knowen.

I, as a ringar, was particularly gratified to find bhat the Commissioners had introduced their reference to the bells with the word 'Fyrste.' The church clock was mentioned in 3589, and in 1864 there were chimes in the tower, The bells were increased to five in 1665. It is remarkable that no alterations were made to the fowar phen in 1721 a buildiag in the atyle typical of tarat decadent period was erected, and perhaps it is even more remarkable that it is to this period of spiritual stupor that we owe the recasting of the old five belts into a fine pual of eigit, which now form the heaviest eight of the present peal.
The ring was cast in 1738 by Abraham Rudhall, one of the famous Rudhalls of Gloucester. The befls were brought from Gloucester to Bridgnortis by the River Severn and from Bridgnorth to Neweastle by raad-a difficult task in the days when roads were mere tracks. In 1873-6 Sir Gilbert Scott built the present church, the fifth one to be erected on the present site, one corresponding in style and character to the tower, and formed the edifice which we now see. In 1894 Sir Trancis Stainer completely recased the tower, and Mr. Turner rehang the bells. In 1928 the bells were overhauled and retuned and two new srebles were added by Messrs. Gillett and Johnston, of Croydon.
The dimensions of the pian of the tower are considerable. It measures 32 ft . by 32 t . 8 in . externaliy at the base, exclusive of buthresses, is five stofers high, and measures 110 ft. from the level of the ground at the western entrance to the parapet,

In the well-kept ringing chamber are a get of handbells, 54 in number, and a set of 'RULES to be observed by RINGERS in this steeple

If that to Ring you do come here,
You must Ring well with hand and ear,
And if a Bell you owerthrow,
Four perice is due before you go,
And if you ring in Spur or Het
Sixpence you pay, take care of that.
But if you either swear or curse,
Twelve pence is due, pull out your puree,
And for a pledge to make it sure
Four Hat shall be the forfeiture.
Our Laws are old they are not acw,
Therefore the Clerk must anve his due.
The belfy belonge to the farly 15 th century, the areat belfry building ers, and the bell framing is of ofd timber and, together with a small steel frame, holds the tep belis.

The older bells have the following inscriptions:-
Treble-Peace and Good Neighbourlood.
2nd.-We were cast at Gloster by A. Rudlall.
3rd.-John Ridyway and Edward Vernon, Churchwardens.
4th-John and Thomas Rideway, Baliff,
5th.-Thomas Fenton, Esq, Steward.
6th.-Rev. Robert Fenton, Gyrate.
7 th.-John Feliton and Ralplh Avdley, Justices of the Reace, Gentm. Tenor, Jemes Taylar, Esq., Mayor, Gentm.
And two bells cast in 1928:-
Treble.-Two trebles added by Churchralk and townspeople, Decenber, 1928. R. Beresford, Mayut. L. J. Baggatt, Rector. G. Eceleston, C. H. Bayley, Wardems.

2nd.-We two were cast at Croydon, 1928, Gillett and Johoston, Croydon.
But perhaps the most singular thing about Neweastle-undar-Lyme from a ringer's point of view is the extraordinary relationship which existed between the borough and the Parish Church riagerg. From very early times the Mayor and Corporation liad almost complete management of the church, and so of the bells. It was the Meyor and Corporation who, in 1732, had the "back' eight cast; and it was from the tower that the tenor tolled what was called 'Rump's Passing Peal '- the signal to berin the demolition of the Nonconformist mecting house in 1715 , a riot aided and abetted by the Mayor, fown clerk and many of the burgesseg.

There are several references to the bells and the beliringers in the Lown records. of these lgive the mast interesting:

1628 June loth. Also it is agreed that Thomas Harrison the Church Clarke shall not suffer any Peal to be rung upon the puin of twelve pence without the consent of Mr. Mayor or his Deputy for the time except to Prayers and Burials and that sparingly.
1657 November 7th. Isak Fartison at this Assembly was chosen Clerke for this Borough by the consent of the Company and Mr. Hall and he is to pry Widow Silleto $49 / \mathrm{s}$ and enter at Christmas next and that the Fell Ropes shall be found and provided for by the Town and $33 / \mathrm{s}$ d deducted out of the Clerke wages for provision thereof yearly.
1725 November 1st. Agreed that Thomas Colligr beve the pight bell at. Christmas next and that in consideration of his taking care of the Bops in the Galleries whipping the Dogs oul of the Clurch and atifend to walk the Fairs that he have a) /s quartarly paid to him by the Receiver.
1732 November 1st. Ordered and agreed thet the Articles made with Mr. Rudhall of Gloucester for new Casting the Bells lse sealed with the Common Seal.
1733 February 20th. Ordered that John Sneyd the Bell Banger be paid his Bill for repaining the Floore where the 8 new bells are to be hung being es and that Ralph Foulton and Thomas Lounds be paid their Bill of Ell.15.0 for work done at the Roofe under the new Leads on the top of the Steenle and that both be paid by the Receiver.
1737 J Jily $22 n \mathrm{~d}$. Ordered and agreed that for the future the Ringers Fees shall he es hereinafter follows that is to say For riuging the Passing Bell 6d. The Bell to the House 6di. and 4d, an Hoar for every hour they have orders to toll and if any person will have chiming in the morning and before the Corpse are to be interred to pay $2 / 6$ to the Churchwardens towards the repair of the Ropes and $2 / 6$ to the Ringers.
In common with other Newcastle ringers I long for those days not much more than a hundred years ago (i.e. prior to 1825) when our predecessors received from the Mayor, the Sunday after he was elected, 48 quarts of ale, a leg of mutton, turnipa and apple dumpling. On the Monday they recelved about a quart of ale each, and when the Mayor went out of office on the Sundey the ringers had 48 quarts of ale, followed by 24 querts next day. They also received 12 quarts of ale on November 5th. The pbotograph shows the "Mayor's jug' which held the ale

To-day Newcastle-nnder-Lyme is wholly modem in appearance, its streets broad and busw, and all that remains of itf 'new castle' is a grassy mound: yet in the midst of her changing life is still to be seen a reminder of the age when men, with but little thought for chnnge or hurry, buift such glorious houses for the worship of God. QUAM DILECIA! KENNETH THACKER.

NORWICH ASSOCIATION'S RECORD

fa the Elitor.

Dear Sir, Mr. Cortigan's letter makes intetestinf reading, tut I an afraid he lias drawn lergely on his imagination in leading your geaders to believe that the area covered by this association is a ringers paradise. The Norwich Associstion is in as bad a plight or worse then most others, a good deal of the frouble being, as elewhere, lack of recruits.
The huge peal total of this asaociation can be definitely attributed to its hoyday, when a large part of Suffolk (including lpswich) was area.
I find affliated to the association mre 39 towers, viz, 2 twelves 2 tens, 14 eights, 15 sixes and 6 lives, There are a very large number towers with no singers and consequently mnaffilated. The two twelves are seldom heard, the two tens arc moribund, and I can call to mind ten eight-bell towers in ringing order without ringers. These hells are occasionally used by the comparatively small number of peal enthusiasts.
The membership atfached to the 39 towers is 291 ; there are 51 unatteched resident members and 10 unattachad non-restdent mombers. These members, together with 25 life members non-resident, IRng 108 peals, roughly 3 of a peal per member.

The peal ringivg is confined mainly to a comparatively few attached nembers of the North and Sonth Branches; in the North Branch there were 52 peal ringets whe rang an average of 5.77 peals each. Eist Branch 28 peal ringers, who ratig an average of 2.78 peals each. South Brancll 23 peal ringers with an average of 10 peals each; and West Jranch 24 peal ringers with an average of 2.45 peals each, a total of 127 ringers who took part in peals, which represents only 36 zer cent. of tho reaident membership. Seventeen resident unatached mombers rang an average of four peals each, four unattached mon-resident members averaged five peals each, and os life members averaged 1.8 peals each.

Mr. Corrigan's statement that unattached ringers ring no peais in Narfolk is obviously incorreet, also the statement that Norfolk ringers keap their own bella fully occupied is very far from the fact
There is no diggnising the truth that ringing in Norfolls is not in a alronger position than otber parts of the counlty, but is much worse lian in many Get to it, Norfolk, and show how it can be done?
NORFOLK DUMPLING
THE 5,000th PEAL

Albert Barber, of Gresspuhall, was re-efected a performing member.
Mr. F. Nolan Golden (general secretabr and tueasurer) gave n dotailed account of the association's work during ble past year, and referred to the 5,00013 peal rung by the association. He anmonnced that that weal was mus at Winterton on Decomber 17th alld was conducted by the association's youngest conductor, Mr. Denis Baylis, of Acla.
Mr. Golden, on behalf of the members, proposec a hearty vote of thanks to the Fiear of WFmondham for allowing the members to visit Wymondiam once ayain for their athatal branch meetixg, also for the ise of the bells.-In replying. Mr. Jarvis referred to the excellent support the church received from the wymondham ringers The ringers not only rang the bells when they wanted to do so but were alwajs willing to ring when the church wanted the beils rung.
Members attended from Attieboronga, Burton, Banliam. Burgh Apton, Diss. Gressenhall, Garboldisham, Hethersett. Norwich, Shel fanger, Winfarthing, Great Yarmouth and the local company, anc Suffolk frients from Yaxley. Members of tise North Norfolk jlinnch wish to conver treir deepest sympatl2y to Mr, and Mrs. M", Claver and family, of Wymondignm, in heir recent hereavement

'THE COLLEGE YOUTHS'

A History of the Society

by J. ARMIGER TROLLOPE

- This is one of the very fow boots I have read which seem to me might, with adventage, bave been considerably longer.'-The Dean of St. Paul's.
- Mr. Trollope has achieved more than his immediate purpose of writing a history of the Eociety of College Fouths. So closely has the guild been identifed with English clange ringing that jts history is to a very large extent en account of the ancient aport of ringing developed into an elaborste ert.
"Throughout bis book Mr. Trollope takes his readers into a strange and fascinsting word whose traditions so peculiarly Rogish deserve far more popnlar attention than they usaaly receive."-The Guardian.

DON'T SGRUB YOUR HANDS!

Cleanse and preserve your skin this simple way

To many people, the problem of getting the hands really clean without harming the skin is a serious one. Grease and grime, which become deeply ingrained into the pores of the skin, are extremely difficult to remove, and ordinary washing with soap or even scrubbing will fail to remove them completely. Housewives, particularly, who complain that their hands get ruined by the nature of their work, will find the preparation called DERMAFOAM a real "godsend." DERMAFOAM just smoothes away dirt and grease without effort. It gets right down into the pores and removes every particle of grime, leaving skin beautifully supple and healthy.

Men, tho-when you've finished that dirty job on the car, DERMAFOAM will quickly banish all grease and oil from your hands. It acts almost magically-working under and around the nails and into every minute crease, removing all trace of dirt in a flash.

Engineers, Painters, Car Mechanics, Printers - everyone - will welcome DERMAFOAM, the modern method of cleansing and protecting the hands.

Sold in 6d. and 1/- Tubes

A VINDICATION.

The London County Association, at its Annual Meeting on Saturday, took the only reasonable and honourable line open to it in regard to the unwarragted aspersion it had thrown upon the Guildford Diocesan Guild in a letter sent, on the Association's behalf, to the 'Ringing World' a month ago, wherein the finger of scorn was pointed at the Guild for encroaching upon the areas of other associations. It would have been an unfortunate departure from good manners to introduce such an expression into a matter in which the Guild bad no concern, even if the allegation of encroachment had been true, but when the accusation had no shadow of foundation, or when, as must bave been the case, no attempt was made to verify the facts, it was not only grossty unfair but lacked even the elements of decency in public letter writing. However, amends have now been made and the honour of the Guildford Diocesan Guild vindicated. It was, nevertheless, only done after a stiff fight to evade the issue on a point of order. Had this attempt succeeded it would bave been a great pity, but the Master, in whose hands the matter lay, wisely permitted the motion (proposing that the offending paragraph be withdrawn) to be discussed, and afterwards showed his appreciation of the untenable situation into which the Association had been led by the letter, by accepting the facts as presented by the mover of the resolution and counselling a retreat.
The discussion that took place was not at all times edifying, but neither was the letter that was written to the 'Ringing World.' When personal feeling enters the door good sense sometimes flies out of the window--if we may adapt an old adage. There is a moral to all this, and we bope it may be taken to heart in those quarters-and there are many-where personalities are inclined to enter into a controversy. Abuse gets nowhere in an argument; it only leads to bad tempers and retorts that go deeper to wound than there is any need for. Particularly does courtesy demand that Associations dealing wilh other like bodies should be scrupulous in the statements they make. It is often fatal to jump to conclusions, and things written in haste are often repented at leisure. There can be hard hitting without personalities, and a controversy conducted without animosity can be enlightening as well as entertaining. It is always a mistake to asslame that you have landed a knock-out blow when you have said something nasty about an opponent. This type of argument has an unpleasant habit of recoiling. It is good, sometimes, that the fresh air of criticism should be let in upon the methods and actions of organisationseven ringing organisations-and any discussion, which (Continued on page 102.)

DEVONSFIRE GUILD

MEETING AT BRIDGERULE.

Bridgerule, where s meeting of the North-West Brazth of the Devon Guidd was recently fold, is a combined parish which, till the Rectification of Boundaries Act in 184t, was one half in Colnwall and the other half in Devon. The Tamar divides West Bridgerule from East Bridgerule, and, even to-day, there are separate ratings and councils for the divisions. In anctent times a court was held on the bridge, whero the jurors of magistrates met. In case of a dispute between the two areas, six men were chosen from either side and then stood facing each other across the midde of the bridge. The side which pushed the other across the bridge won the case. Hence may be ascribed the word Bxidgerale.
The chairman of the branch (the Rev. W, H. Ravenlifl) was supported by the Rev. E. F. Cox. president of the Devan Guitd, with members from Halsworthy, Bradworthy, Marlund, Petrockstowe, Poundstock, Plymoutli and the local bend.

A service iu the ancient church was conducted by the Rector (the Rev. J. H. Kingdon), assisted by the Rev. W. H. Ravenhill, who read the lesson.
Tea, prepared by lady frieuds of the local baird, was served in the Parish Hall.
At the business meeting which followed, the Rev. W. H, Ravethill (chairman), Mr. J. W. Sangwin (hon, secretaryh, Mr. W. J. Shears (treasurer'), Mr. F. Sangwin (Ringing Master) and the Kev. W. E. Smale, Mr. A. J. Metters, with Mr. F. Sangwin, were all thanked for their services and re-clected for the ensuing year.
The president made a statement regarding his proposed deletion of Rule 12, "That no member shall take part in any competitive ringing. -After some discussion it. was dected that the branch should eupport the metion.
Petrockstowe was fixed for the aunual mecting of the branch on October 7th.
Votes of thanks were accorded the Rector for his serrice and the use of the bells, the organist and the ladies who assisted.

BRANCH MEETING AT TOTNES.

The ancient borough of Totneg, with its very fne church and peal of belks, was the venue of the annual meeting of the Mid-Devon Branch of the Devon Guild of Ringers on February I1th, when an exjoyable time was spent. Ringers attended from Exeter, Bramplord Speke, Petrockstowe, Dawlish, Nawtom Abbot, Buckfastleigh, Torgtay, Paigrton, Collaton St. Mary and Torquay.
After ringing in the afternoon, a service was conducted by the Rev Preb. J. Heywoon Waddington (Vicar), assisted by the Rev. O. L. Willmott (curate). The Rev. Willmott, who is il member of the branch, gave a very able address.
Following tea at the Commercial Hotel, the business moeting was presided over by the Rev. E. $V$. Cox (president of the Guitd) in the unavoidable absence of the branch chairwan,

The secretary reported thet the collection, which was to be devoted to the fund for the provision of a peal of bells at Sl. Aadrew's Chureh, Northampton, incounted to 7s. 6d.
The secretary's report, which was adopted, showed that at three meetings held during the pasto year the attendances lisd not been quite so satisfactory. Four peals had been rung iu the brapel, whilst a number of new members lual been elected and a number withdram.
Tho trassurer's report sitoved that althongh there was still a artisfactory balance in hand there was a decrense of 6 s . 10 d . on the year's working.
The following officery were wanimously elected: Chairman, the Rev. W. R. D. Mills; secretary, treasure and Finging Master, Mr. A. L. Bennetd; auditor, Mr. C. R. Walker three representatives on the General Conmittee, Messrs, C. B. Waker, H. ©. Collyer and R. Whiting.
On the proposition of the chairman, e very bearty vote of thanks was accorded to Mr. Bendett for his past work in the branch.
It was resalved to hold the next meeting et St. Saviour's, Dartmouth, on Juve 10th, subject to the necessary pernission being abiained.
Mr. E. J. Taylor, af Torquay, was traneferred to the list of honorgry members.
Mr. Bensett proposed a very hearty vote of thenks to the Ficar of Totnes for the use of kis bells and for conducting the service, to the Rev. O. L. Willmott for his address, to the organist for leer belp, and to the lacal stepplekeeper for having everything in readiness.-The Ficar, in a humorous speech, very suitably replied, and welcomed the visitors to Totnes.

At this juncture the president had to leave the meeting to falfil another engragement, and the chair was occupied by Mr. O. R. Walker another engagement, and the chai

A letier was read from the president. stating. that at the next committee meeting he would nove thet Fule 2, which debars members from taking part in competitive ringing, be deleted from the Guild rules, and after a general dixcussion it was decided to jniorm tha preaident that no objection would be offered by the branch.

The mambers then retarned to the tower for further ringing. The methods rung during the afternoon and eveniag were Grandsire Priples and Stedman Doubles and Triples.

PEAL NOTES.

SPLICED SURPRESE IN TEN MAJOR METHODS.

The Liccaln ringers have achiered another very fine performatce, by ringing a peal of Spliced Surprise Major in ten methods at the first attempt. This is the mare meritorjaus in that they had never hed the opportunity of practising all the methods in one touch. The practices at the Cathedral are always so well attended that there is no opportunity of ringing anytbing of ten method lengtls.
The peal was rung al Metheringham, where the bells, a rather poor old lot, are rung from the ground loor, with a long draught of rope and no guides.

The greatest number of Surprise methods spliced into one peal of Major up to the present is 12, rung by the Middlesex Assocjation under the conductorship of the late RIr. William Pye.
Two more new Surprise Major methods this week by the Bertford shite band. Bedford Surprise, a method published in "The Ringing World' on April 7th, 1911, wag rung for the first time on Thursday week at Bushey; two days later Forthehurch, named after the village in which it was rung.
The peal of Bediord was rung to a Treble Bob composition by Arthur Knights, and the Nortioburcin to a composition which uas been used mang tintes and belongs to no one in partiaular.
The peal at Northchurch was Mr. Firancis Kirlc's 150 th peal and Mr. Edwin Jenaiags" 25 th $^{2}$ Surprise Major method.
By the way, it was said in these notes last weck that the peal of Zotland was rung by the watford band. It is a mistake to call this compang a Watford hand, for, although most of them live not far from Watiord, they are none of then attached to Watford tower. Zelland was rung by fve members of Busbey tower, one cach from Orhey and St. Ajbans, and une unattached.

HSWICE SOCIETY'ת NEW AOHIEVEMFNT.
Meanwhile St. Mary-le-Tower Society have added to theiy harels by ringing yet another method of Surprise Maximus, which is the seventh in which the society has been first to score a peal. This was York Surprise, a method by Mr. Qahriel Lindoff, and was rung on Saturday. Mr. W. F. Garrett has taken part in all seven of the first pealg, the first of which was Cambridge in 1908. The frst plain course of York was rung as recently as 「anuary -25th, aud only five courses have been rung in all, white no bob in the Macimus had been called previous to starting for the peal.
The method can be highly reconamended for its regular extension from Minor upwards, and it is more masical than Cambridge. Care must be exercised in peals of Major, as in this there are five false course-ends. Royal aud Marimus, however, have a clean proof scale, By the peal on Saturday Mr. Charles A. Catchpole brought lis total to 300 , and Mr. Harty R. Huper completed 100 peals for the Suffolk Guild.
Members of the Chester and Ctewe branches of the Chester Diocesan Guitd rang a peal of Eria Caters at Christ Church, Grewe, on Eaturday. It was the first peal in the method for the Guild by a resident band, and the ringers wish to thank Mr. W. Edge, the towetteeper for having everything in rcadiness for the peal attempt.
The composition, a $5,007 \mathrm{by}$ Mr. Joseph W. Parker, of gunderland, is a musical and interesting one:-

Six members of the band rang their first peal of Stedman Caters and one his first peal in the method at Shefteld Catledral on Saturdav. It was Mr. John Thorpe's 50th peal on the bells.
His friends in Hereforishire are lookimg forward to Mr. Whinam Symonds' 100th peai. He rang his g9th on Saturday at Lemminster. A peal of Stedman Triples at Worsley, Lancashire, on Saturday, Fung after meeting short for Caters, was a birthdar compliment to Mr. Fred Grundy, of the locnl company, Mr. Arthur Janaes, who rabg the tenor to the peal, and Mr. Dick Newton, of Boton, U.S.A., for merly a well-known Lancashire ringer.

A PROMISING YODTH.

Alberit Tyler, who calied a peal of Stedman Caters at Bristol on Satiarday, and thits rang his first peal as condactor, is a son of the late Mr. Jesse TYier and a nepliew of Mr. Johu Thomas. Still in his tepus, be is one of the most promising youngsters in the West of England.
Mr. H. F. Dakin, of Tarmwarth, who, Bt Chilvers Cotan, Warwickshire, on Febnary 4th, rang his first peal, has been ringing for the part 25 years, and has made nearly, if not quite, 40 previous aftempta. past a years, and has mede neari, surely is a case of perseverance rewarded, although tardily.

Wrirgtan of the composition of the peal of Boh Royal, runy at Wrirgtan on Satarday, blew in through our office window un Mondsy. It is a very grod comprosition with the siath at bome for the last 24 courses. Since we asked this question we have learned that the ariginal composer was Mr. G. H. Cruss. So there is really mo मeed for the inquiry, but we will let it go.
The peal was rung as a birthday compliment to Miss R. E. A. Knirat, whose father took part in the peal
The composition of the peal of Superlative-a one-part by J. W. Washbrook-rung ab Wicken on February 11th, was frst rung as a 6,048 at Drayton, Berkslive, on July 30th, 1887, and was published in 'The Bel? News' September 10th that year. It was the first composed with the 4 th and 6th their extent in 5-6 and the 4 th, 56h and 6th only in sixth's place at the course-ends.
The quarterify peal of the Westem Branch of the Worcestershire Association was rung at Uptor-on-Eevern on Satulday, Februars 11 th, Mr. Eruest F. Cubberley, a member of the Eempser (six-bell) band, rang lis first peal of Oxford Bob Triples.

Charles Camm, Brameh Ringing Master and conducior of the peal, is in charge at Upton. He crcourages the six-bell ringers to vigit his tower on Fridays for eiglnt-lyell practice, with the result that several who would otherwise still be six-bell ringers can now ring several Triples methods.
As Charlie keeps 'open house' at Jpton, 弦is apen to members of the many six-bell towers in the vicinjty to prowe that they wish to progress. Incidentally, it may he remarked that "Hercules' hark i5 99 times worse than his bite

The first peal of Erith Little Bob Royal on tower bells was rung at Sonthend on Saturday.
Mr. R. Hayes, of Haslemerc, Surrey, and his son Douglas rang their first peal together on Febriary 8th, when they took part it a peal of Kent Treble Bob Major at Guifdord Cathedral. Mr. Dicir Hayes has beor peal ringing ior many years and his son has takea part in seteral, but they bad not hefore this been in the came peal band.

ESSEX ASSOCIATION.

SUCGESSFUL MEETLNG AT WALTHANSTOW

A mecting of the Soutln-Western Division of the Essex Association was held at St. Mary's, Walthamstow, on Saturday, February 4th, attended by some 35 members and iriends from Leytonstone, Leytor, Wansteed, Woodford, Romford, Brentwood, South Weald, Bentleý, Colchester, Maldon, Sontlogate, Bishopsyate, Wimbledon and the local band.
After a good spell of ringith in the afternoon, a short servico was conducted by the Rev. Watts, at which lee gave the sssociation a hearty welcome to St. Mary's, and expressed the Vicar's disappointment of his imbility to be with them, as he was just recowering from a severe cold.
Tea, kindly arranged by the local brad, was then partaken of, followed by the business meeting, presided over by Mr. J. Chalk Master. In his opening words, the Master referred to the proposed Benevolest Fund, saying ho was fronkly disappointed with the way in which his proposition bad been received by some members of the Central Committee, and, therefore, intended writing to every tower affiated to the association, elrelosing copy of suggested rules, asking each one to give their own opinion, aud he hoped to havo something further to report at the rext district meeting.

Eight new members were elected, and North Weald was selerted as the place for the next meetins, to be held on Saturday, $\Delta$ pril 29th.
A hearty vote of thanks to the Ficar for allowing nes of tower and bells, to Mr. Watts for couducting the service, to the organist for accompanying the hymns, to Mr. F. C. Maynard and the St. Mary's band for $I$ sking all the necessary armengements, and to the !adies for aerving the tea, was carried with acelamation.
Mr. F. C. Maymard replied aud expreased his pleasure at seaing such a Food number. He hoped the Essex hasaciation would not leave it so long next time before they paid a visit to St. Mary's.
After some handbell ringing, the members returmed to the tower where touches in varjous methads from Grandsire to Gambridge, including a well-struck course of Forkshire, were brought round.

WELCOME TO NEW RECTOR.

On Tueskay, January 17 th, it St. Lawremce'a Parish Church, Chorley, Lancashire, a quarter-peal of Bob Minor was rung as a welcome to the new Rector, the Rev. Canon A. Boddington, who was recently inducted. Enit. Fisher 1, wH. Southworth 2 *T. Lucas 3. J. H. Gartside 4, *F. Keareley 5, F. Rigby (conductor) 6. Longest lencth of Minor.

DEATH OF A TAUNTON RINGER.

It is with great regret that we have to record the death of Mr . Sydnoy Wyatt, of Taunton, who passed away on Tebruazy 6th at the age of 63 years.
Mr. Wratt had been a ringer and member of the Diocesan Association for 45 years. An excellent striker and saîe ringer, decessed rang about 40 peals, eonducting one. He lad beem in business aboat 45 years as a nurgeryman.
Ha wes laid to rest in Wilton Churchyard on the gth inst. amid many manifestations of regret and respect, After the funeral represankatives of the three churches in Taunton rang haif-muffled touches of Stedman Triples on Wilton bells. Amongst the numerous floral tributes wat one in shape of a bell from liis brother ringers of wiftor and one from St. Mary's band, to which be was attached for a number of years.
Deceased leaves a widow, a son and two daughters, also his father, to monrn their loss.

RINGERS TRIBUTE TO FRIEND

OLD CHORISTER'S DEATH AT SUTTON-IN-ASHFIELD
Oo Tuesday, January 31 st, Mr. Harry Dseroit, a pillar of the church and a chorister for more than 50 years at Sutton-in-Ashfield, Notts, was laid to fest. All who knew Mr. Dseroft were drawn to him by his unique personality. Here was one of nature's gentlemen, a man to whom everyone looked with respect.
A hogiery worker, he had a heart attack about of week before his deaih and died, lapmented hy all who attended St. Mary's and a large circle of other friends. His deatla leaves a gap in the parish which will not easily be filled, and the ringers, who rang a half-muftied quarter-peal in his memory, wish to tender their sincere sympathy to the bereaved widow and family.
Although Mr. Oseroft was not jutimataly connected with ringing, he always had a kind word for the ringers and their ' applied mathematies "as he so ofter termed them.
The quarter-peal was of Mob Minor, and was the first by all the band. it was rung by Wilfred Stocks 1, Colin Ewans 2 Clifford Beebv (conductor) 3, Johm Beehy 4, Frank Bradley 5, Cyril Eeathcote 6 .

NEARLY ALL UNCLES AND NEPHEWS.

What hiad been jntended as an uncles and nephews' performance at Waltham St, Lawrence on Jantary 19th did not quite materialise. One of the nephews was unable to keep the appointment at the lust minute and his place was filled by Mr. T. Tilley. The following tang a 720 of Plain Bob Minor: $$$. Darvill (first of Plain Bob) 1, W. Pearson (first 'inside') 2, A. Pearson (first 'inside') 3, R. Dervili (conũuctor) 4, V. Darvill 5, T. Tilley 8 .

MR. NOLAN GOLDEN'S PEAL OF DOUBLE NORWICH.

To the Editor.

Dear Sir,-Mr. Nolav Golden has an unfortunate habit of making for liis compositions clainas which he would bave great diffeulty in substantiating; his latest are as well rather difficult to understand.
If he means that his 5,216 of Double Norwich is the first to be rung in less than 48 sever lead courses, in which all the courseends with 4-5-6 in 5-6 and those with the 6 h at home appear, may I say that I called a 5,184 with similar qualities, and with no other changes used, on December 2nd, 1936. Having doubts of its originality, I put it dovnn as 'arranged and conducted,' and subsequentiy Mr. C. W. Roberts informed me that it had been published by Edgar Wightman il 1901. Whether it Jad bean ramg in the intervebing period I do not know.
E. A. BARNETT.

Crayford.

QUALITIES DTFFCULT TO OBTALN.

Daar Sir, -I wis interested to read in 'Peal Notes ' your description of Mr. Nolen Golden's 5,216 of Double Nonvich Court Bob Major. Although the wording describing the qualities of the peal is rather vague, I imagine that the romposition contains the full combination of $4.5-6$ in $5-6$, with the 6 th the extent at home, and that only 48 course-ends are introduced. If this is so, Mr. Golden is to he congratulated on his production, bui I should like to poini out that the late Edgar Wightman composed a 5,184 with these gnalities, which is the shortest peal yet obtained on these lines. Possibly Mr. Golden's peal contains some additional qualities not present in the 5,184, and this would pirce it in a class by itself, as peais in 48 coursea onfy, with these course-end qualities, are extremely dificult to obtnin. I ana sure that this peal will be weleomed by conductors who apprecinte musical exmpositions.

GHARLES W. RORERTS.

SOMERSET AND EONDON.

Al atteropt was rasde to ring a quarter-peal in Somerset for morning service and in Landon for evening service on the day after the Bristol Wnited Guild's dinner by two of the London contingent. They sacceeded in the morning ab Bryrow Gurney, but the evening effort at St. Andrew's, Holborn, was not so successful.
At Barrow Gurney, a quarter-peal of Stedman Triples was rung by J. S. Hawkins (Landon) (conductor) 1, W. Townsead 2, P. E. Cark (Liondon) 3 , W. Tend 4, d. W. Martin $5, \mathrm{~W}$. C. Rose 6, R. G. Gilhert 7, T. Boreham 8 .

His Eriends tbroughout the Exercise, aad they are legion, will extend thas हympsthy and good wishes to Mr. Knighte in his illness.
There is good news of Mr. W. H. Fussell, of Slough. He was able to leave Windsor Hospital on Tuesday after having beep a patient there for more than six weeks. The operation on him has been Huccessful
He thanks the many frionds wha wrote to him for their cympetiy. Their letters have been very helpful to him and reminded him of many a happy day in distant belfries. He regrets that ho has oeen unable to answer them individually, but be is grateful to those who wrote him. The interment of the late Mr. C. S. Burden, at Numbead Cemetery on Monday, is a reminder that another great London ringer of an earlier generation lies buried there. John Cox, who died on January 29th, 1885, was interred at Nunkerd on February 7 th.
One of the longest lengths of Bob Major on record was rung 150 yeary ago yesterday. On February 16th, 1789, St. Martin'e Youths reng a peal of 14,24 at Aston in 8 hours 45 minutes.
Fifty years xgo to-morrow the first peal of College Single Major was rung at Warnham, Sussex, and there is still in harness at that tower one who rang in the peal, Mr. Walter Charman.
On Sunday, another interesting anniversary occurs. Henry Haley, one of the most celebrated of a past generation of Londan ringers, wa born at Betlmal Green on February 19th, 1819. Henry Haley rang 182 pesis. of whici he conducted 155 and composed 105.
He conducted at Philadelphia in 1850 the firat peal rung in Ameriob, where he went with a handuell concert party. He was first a member of the Cumberland Youths, but joined the College Youths in 1854 and took part in many bistoric performanees.

We regret we are compelled to hold over geveral letters to the Editor.

ST, PAUL'S CATHEDRAL BELLS.  To the Editor.

Dear Sir,-After the publication of my letter in your issue of December ind last, I was astonizhed to see a furkher communication on the l3th inst., still arguing the pojnt, and can only in reply again refer your correspondent to my previous letter. I am also surprised to fud that anyone pins their faith entirely on the book mentioned (I have a copy of it), seeing that, at the time, it was merely zegarded as an overlooked printer's error! Anyhow, I have abundant evidence ins to the sccuracy of my previous sfatements, as the order wis ns to the sccuracy of my previous statements, as the order wiss defingly given for in ring of 12 bells baving a 5 ton tenor epealing the note D flat.'
Your correspondent is cntirely wrong when ho says that I have quoted words from the book in question. I have never done anything of the kindl By remerks are ford for word from a much more reliable letter I received on the subject from the only gentlemen who know anything at nil of the matter
The late Mr. J. W. Taylor, sen., once told me "they let Sir Edmund have kis own way as regards the rings of eight at Burtou, Ossett and Doncaster, but could not under any circumbtances do so in such an important ring of bells as that of St. Paul'g!'

WHAT LORD GRIMTHORPE SAID IN 1874.
Dear Sir,-I heve a copy of Lord Grimthorpe's work, 1874 edition, in which, on page 340 , he says: "There is a project for a large peal of ten or twelve bells for St. Paul's Cathedral, and I buwe recommended a $B$ tenor of 3 tons for it.
This seems to settle the question.

DEATH OF MR C.S. BURDEN.

MEMBEA OF ST. PAUL'S CATHEDRAT COMPANY.
We much regret to annoupce the death, which occurred on Wednesday of last week, of Mr. Charles S. Burden, for many years one of the ringers at St. Paul's Cathedral. For some time past Mr. Burden had been in failing bealth and unable to take part in ringing, but he will be much missed by his colleagues.
He did not aspire to fanciful heights in the art of method ringing, but what he did was done to perfection, and it can be said without exaggeration that he was of fine ringer. Never was there a hindiat or more wassming man, and all who met him realised that in him was one of tature's gentlemen.
Mr. Burden was a gative of Wiitshire and learmed to ring at Potterne well over 50 years ago. He had, however, lived in London for a long period and was a very old member of the College Foutios, in which society he was beld in high esteem. He served as Master for a year, being elected to that ofice in 1509.
Mr. Burder had lived in Bermondsey, and the first part of the funeral service on Monday was held in St. James* Guruch, where once he used to ring. The interment took place at Nunhead Cemetery and many of his Mesonic and ringing frientis were at the gravesido. After the committal, four of his brother ringers of St. Paul's rang a course of Stedman Triples at the graveside: Messra. H. Langdon A. B. Peck, T. H. Taffender and E. G. Fena. Other ringeri present Fere Mesqrs. C. F. Winney, F. M. Butler, H. Hoshins, J. E. Davis, P. F. Darby, G. W. Debenham, etc.

JACK BRAY

Anoug the many enthusiastic ringers to be found in the Lincoln Dioceatir Guild is Mr. Jack Bray, of Burton-on-Stather, who has for a number of years done a great deal in many directions for ringing in North Lincolnshire. In his owa villuge, for justance, be bas for a number of years been the manstay of the ringing eompany and was largely responsible for getting the bells augmented to eight ebout a yeer ego. But bis interest in the Church has extended beyond the velfify, and for 14 years be has been a member of the Church Council and for nine years he has been a representative on the Rurf-decana Conference
Mr. Bray bas liwed all his life in Burton-on-Stather, where be was born on Jume 30th, 1900. He rang his first peal on March $86 t h, 1904$ a peal of Bob Minor at Barton-an-Humber. Less than two montha later lie rang his first peal es conductor; it consisted Bob Doubles, at Burton-on-Stather. 1t. wis Eung ringens and was the first by all except the conductor.
Largely by Mr. Bray's efrorts the quelity and variety of peal ringing in North Lincolnshire has been grestly extended, and he has given great impetus to handbell ringing. of the three hondrent peals be has rung, exactly one hundred have been on handbells, and of the tota he lias conducted 152. His peals liave heen rung in 52 towers witl 190 ringers, and they range from Grandsiva Doubles to Gambridge Surprise Manimus. He lias taken part in peals or Minar up to 53 methods and :n a vumber of Major methods which have been firsts for Lincoln Diocesan Guild, includiug Gainghorough Little Bub, St. Clement's, Lourl borouffl, winchester, Wy and conducted the Gainsborouglz and Winchester. He was also in the first peal of Bristol Surprise Major by a resident Limuolnshire band Among his Landbell peals hava been peals of Minor up to 19 methods and he conducted the first peal rung in six Major methods in hand. This was a great achievement, for there were no fewer than 378 chenges of method to be called, as well as the 145 bobs and four gingles. Mr. Bray's handbell peals also jaclude peais on all numtrers frome Doubles to Maximus, and he conducted the Lincoln Guild's first handheli peals of Cirques and Maximus. It is, of course, extremely interesting to note flat in many of the peals Mrs. Bray has also taken part.
Mr. Bray hes served the Lincoln Guild in various capacities. He bas been Grimsby District Rivging Master simee 1929, Northeru Branth hon. sccretary gince 1937, and a represemtative on the Central Counci] since 1936.

PLAYING THE GAME

Ta the Editor

Dear Sir,-Your leading article in "The Ringing Warld ' of Eebruar 3rd must make a great number of ringers think of the neglect which is evident in many guilds. During the perion wheu I was just mother 'at meetings I noticed these same faces alwuys there to do the rirht thing; and now, in the role of Ritging Master, I sce for Duself those same faces holding the meetings together
Most meetings are lield at eight-bell towers, and the thing wlichz strikes me most is the good work dane by six-bell ringers. I know several of such who have refused the chance ta atand in ten-bell peals, but have been 'playing the game' at ten-bell meetugs.
The $18 \sigma_{0}$ of a register can do a lot in giving facis of atendances, but je is not a methad which 1 am inctined to support
If there are to be any bouquets in association work, hand them to those who do play the game; by this I mean the learner who tales notice of the more experienced jinger, and the latter who is ready to impart knowledge to the "timid follow."
In a recent report on attendances, several names came up for ful] marks; there were also medals for the "runners-up." Crrtainly, the majority were worily of the praise, but lwo things struck me as wery un!air. Several of the rezular attendants luad not rung anything at neetings to warrant their names being montioned, and in one case a ringer hed not rung 1,500 changes throughout the fear's 12 mectings.
In the second instanco no less than six names were forgotten, because they had missed more then two meetings, yee they, in their own associntion, are among those who make their presence felt in the tower.

I do not think that your article will be forgotten in a hurry by a grsat nimber of our fraternity, but until rimgers realise the importance and privilege which is before them by their presence in the church, association work will be held up to ridieule by a few and used by others to satisfy their omu selfish desires.

BOB TRIPLES.

LLANDAFF AND MONMOUTH DIOCESAN ASSOCIATION

 FIRST MEEPING AT EBBW VALEEbbw Fale extended a hearty welcome to the members of the Liandaff and Monmouth Diocesan Association on Saturdity last on the occasion of the first ringers' mecting ever beld there. Early in the afternoon members arrived by bus, car and railway. To those who had not previously been to the tower it wis a joy to find such a spacious and well-kept ringing chamber and a magaificent ring of bells, with a tenor of 25 cwt., installed by Taylor and Co. $i 7$ months ago.

The local loader, Mr. R. Alsop, cordially welcomed eweryone. Various methods were rung until 4.30 . Service was then condurten by the Ficar (the Rev. Oliver Davies), who also gave the ringers a welcome to Ebbw Vale and delivered an inspiring address.
Tea followed in the adjoining schoolroom. This had been most kindly provided by ledies of the parish, the Vicar chatapioning these ladies as "the very best of all.'

The business meeting followed, the Vicar taking the clisir, Instructors' reports, restorations and augmentations were reported upon and several new members were elected.
A proposition put forward by Mr. E. Stitch was unamimously carried that a record be made in the minutes of what recently appeared in "The Ringing World" with regard to the hon. secretary ringing his first and lis 500th peal on the same bell in Carleon tower with a span of 50 years.
The best thanks were accorded the Ficar and his warders for the magnificent effort they made in procuring such a grand aew octave of bells, thus givirg the members of the association anotber ring of eight for their activities.-The Vicar, in reply, gave the history of how he originated the ifea

After the ugual votes of thanks to all concermed, the meeting closed and the bells were afterwards rung in methods ranging from Grandsire to Cambridge. The meeting proved a huge success.

NORTH STAFES ASSOCIATION

ETGFT-BELL RINGING MASTER TO RETIRE

A meeting of the North Staffordshire Associntion was held st Longton on Saturday, February 4th, when 44 memhers attended from Burglem, Crowe, Gheadle, Derby, Draycatt, Fenton, Hanley, Kidsgrove, Kiagsley, Lawton, Longtor, Leek, Newcastic, Repton, Stake-on-Trent. Stone, Stafiord, Wistaston and Wolstanton.

A short gersice was beld, at which the Rev. T. H. Brookes (Rector of Longton) officiated. He extended a hearty welcome to Longton, and paid tributes to the former leader and leader of Longton tower.
After tea at the Dorothy Cafe, the Rectar, in welcoming the representative gathering, said a meeting like thet must be of great ralue to ringers. He added that he missed meeting lis friend, Mr. J. H. Swinfield, of Burton-on-Trent.
Mr. Ainn D. Steel thanked the Rector and ringers for the way the meeting was prepared and the very ingpiring eddress given by the Rector. He also referred to the advaveemsat of Longton ringers during the past tluree yenre.
This was supported by Mr, Arthur W. Fall, and Mr. Edward Steele, leader of Lougton, expressed his gratitude in having five more roembers present than last year.

The Ringing Master for eighthell towers (Mr. Alnu D. Steel) inti mated that he wished to resign this position after the March meeting.

AN UNFOUNDED ACCUSATION.  CHALLENGE TO THE LONDON COUNTY asSociation.  Offending Paragraph to be Withdrawn,

There was a sequel on Saturday, at the annual mecting of the London County Association, to the letter which appeared in The association, and written in reply to a leading article whicla appeared in our issue of December 23rd. Notiee of notion lad been given in the following terms: That tlis association desires cmphatically to dissociate itsalf fromithe insinuation of ith secretary, mir. . Taffender, made aqainst, the Guildiord Diocesar Guild, in his letter to "The Ringing Worla," publisbed on Jansery 15th last, and calls upon him to withdraw, tlarough the same channel, the expression used in the zame of this associntion.'
The meeting was held in St. Clement Danes' Parish Hall, and was attended by $\begin{gathered}\text { gome } 60 \text { or } 70 \text { members. The Master (Mr. T. H. Taffender) }\end{gathered}$ presided, supported by the principal officers of the association. In lhe minutes of the quarterly maceting held on January 2nd, which were read and confirmed, it was stated that tha leading article in - The Ringing World ' relating to the association was considered and a letter in reply wiss put before the meeting. Objection was iaken to some of the contents of the letier and an anocndment maveri that these should bo deleted. The amendment was lost and a resolution carried that the letter, as drafted, should wo sent far publication. A YOINT OF ORDER.
Mr. J. S. Goldsmith propased ihe motion, of which he had given notice, and at once Mr. A. H. Keighley rised a point of order that action at a quarterly neeting and its decision could not bo altered. Several members immediately rose to protest, and Mr. F. E. Hawhorme said there were mainy instances in which minute made at one meeting was altered at a later meting. There was nothirg in the rules Bn d there mere no standing orders that prevented any subject deaft with at a guaterly meeting being broaght up again at the anoual meeting
Mr. N. H. Manning (assistaut sectetary) suid this was not a question of the correctness of a minute, but the reopeting of a inatter that had already been settled.
Mr. Goldsmith appealed to the meeting not to let the subject be sidetracked on a subterfuge. Au injustice had been done to a friendly neighbouring Guild, and they ought to have courage enough to admit the mistake if it was ploved that a mistake dad been made. They came to a conclusion at the guarterly meeting without knowing the facts.
A member shid that the Guildford Guild had semt them from their annual meeting, throrggh Mr, Dawe, message of goodwill, and he thought they should leave it at that.
Mr. Goldemith said it did not come from the annual meeting, but was expressed in an after dimner speech. Members of the Guildford Guild, with whom he had spoken, felt strongly about this matter. Miss E. Bedford said althongh the Guildford Guild had sent their good wishes, the London Counfy Association had not sent their good wishes back.
The Master said the association wonld be only too plased to do sop they wishod to remain it friendly relations with all societies. It was no rood digging up the hatchet sgan.
Mr. Worboys said it was not a question of digging up the hatchet. The letter, he contended, was not a fair representation of the vjews of the association. Who were they to point the finger of scorn at anybody? It was up to them to withntaw it and to apologise. He asked who was responsible for the letter.

The Master said the letter was approved, after discussion, and the whole general body of members whs responsible.
Mr. Worboys : May I then suggest that as a body they also make an apology?

SLUR ON THE GUILDFORD DIOGESAN GUILD

After further discussion, Mr. Keighley, who sain that although be was pregent at the grarterly meeting and did not afree with all that the lotter contained, sobgested that the chamman should exercise his preragatire and mile the motion out of order, even though it might be umpopular, or take al vote upor whether it should be proceeded with. The latter might not have represented the views of a mejority of the asociation, but it whes pissed by a majority present at the guarterly meeting. If the other members were not satisfed with what was done at quarterly mectings, they should attend them all. Fventually the Master ruled that Mr. Goldgmith should be allowed to state his case.
Mr. Goldsmith said when lie heard the minutes of the quacterly meoting read he was amazed to learn that i body of men could have been indneed $i^{\circ}$ assent to such a letter as was written in their ame: they conld mot have realised its true import or all its jnputations. He rgaretted that it should be necessary to bring this motion, but he had felt compelled to do so for two reasons. Finst, the paragraph of which ha complained cast an unwarrantable slrir upon the Guildford Diocesan Guild, and it cast an equal slur upou the conduct of the London County Association blat the statement should be pllowed to stand in its name withont a full and complete justification. He pointed out that all he was concerned with on that eceasion was with the reflection upon the Guidford Guild. This was what this rffersive paragraplı sajd:-

This association (the London County Association) has in no way ever ignored its title and now points the finger of scorn to the Editor and the Diocesan Association of which he was the instigator encroaching on the areas already covered by otjer asseciations.
It passed bis comprehension, he said, why the associntion should have gone out of its wey to insult the Guildford Guild, which was neitber concerned nor interested, as a guild, in the affairs of the London County Association or the subject which led to the letter, But whatever the reason the motion would give the association tire opportunity esther of justifying or withdrawng the reference to the Guildford Guild. He propased to give them some facts to assist them First of all there was the accusation that the Edilor of Tha Ringing World " was the instigator of the Guildford Guasd. Nothing Was further liom the fact. Whell, in 1926, it was proposet to split up the flocest of Winmebester, a meeting of the Guildford District of the Winchester Diocesan Guild discussed the formation of z Eeparate ribging Guild for the new diocese. He ( $\mathrm{Mr}^{1}$, Goldgmith) opposed it at that sfage, but a proposition that the Guild be formed was carried. Dut 8 g it was the decision of the majority that a separate Guild be formed, ha did not sulk in a corner because be did not get lis own way. Realising that the Guild, if it were to be a success, must hafe everyone's suppoti, he, like may others, pulled his weight to achieve this end. "here was nothing dishonouruble in that and cerbainly nothirg that justified pointing the finger of scorn (applause)

ATTITLDE OF THE WINCHESTER GUILD.

Then with regard to the encroashment upon the arens of other assoniations. 'lhat accusation was equally untrue in the sense in which it was intendod in the letter. The Guildfort Guild took over from the Wiachester Guita only that territory which had been severed from the diocese of Winchester to form the diocese of Guildford. They took over not an inch more, nor had the Guild made any attemptr sigec io do so, and there was no inteution of extending its boundaries. As a matter of fact, the change whes one more of organisation than of lerrttory, and it was prompted by reasons similar to those which led to the division of the dioceste itself
What was the atLitude of the Winuhester Diocesan Guild to it? The Winclester Guild at its annual meeting in 1927 passed several resolutions on the subject. One was: "That, as meelings of both Guildford and Yorktown Districts of this Guild have passed resolutions in fayour of forming a separate organisation for the diocesa of Guildford, as from Januery 1st, 1928, subject to the approval of the Bishop of Guildford, a separate Guila be formed For the diocese of Guiddord and that zintt of Surrey as may be foumd convenient, and that the remainter of the Guild be formed into olle or more diocesan organisations as the resideut members may desire.
It wand be roted, Mr. Goldsmith contimued, that an even Further division of the Winchester Guild was contemplated at that time. At the same meeting another resolution was passed providing for a reciprocal arangement, by which members of one Guild coula become componnding members of the other upon the nominal payment of one slzilling, and, what was more, it was resalved to divide the funds of the Wizchester Guild proportionatelw with the nev Guild: while a fumher resolution was passed specificaty stating that these arrangements were made from a general desire that when the old Wincliestor Diocessn Grild eussed to function it should be in the most friendly and fair way possible.

Doos that," asked Mr. Goldsmitk, "look as if the Guildford Diocesan Guild did anython whicl deserves the tinger of scorn being

Fointed RFIATEIONS WITEI SURRET ASSOCIATION

He then dealt with the relations with the Surrey Association. He pointed ous that the Winchester Guild was founded in June, 1879, bat that the Surrey Assopiation did mot come on the stene until Ottober, 1890. In so fat as there was any encroachment, therefore, it was on the part of the Surrey Association, but he did not blame them For that. In those days the number of interested ringers was smail, that pait of surroy was a long way from the centre of the diocese and no doubt the Sintey men thought they wowld get mare advantages from their owy connty associntion than froft the Diocesan Guila. But when the Guihford Guild was contemplated there were only six towers in that comer of the dinoese which were really concerned in the overlapping, and iu those sis towers in 1927 the Surrey Aesociation hed 32 memhers. Wlyen the scheme for the Guildford Guild was pute before the Surrey members it whe made plain that there wes no desire that thes should give up their allegiace to the Surrey Association, and he quoted the following from the official statement laid hefore a meeting ab Leatherhead in October, 1927: "The Organising Commitee desire to make it as plain as they possibly can that is coming into that district they did so with no desigas whatever mpon the Sarrey Association. They recognised the loynlty which many towers in that area had given to the County Association, but as they were organising a diocesan Grild and that area was within the diveese, they would be failing in their duty, and they would be unable to claim to be a truly diocesan body, unless they set up their organisation in that district as in the ofter parts of the diocese. Wlatever miglat be the nutcome of future negotiations, the earnest desire of the Guildford Committee was that the two associations, which bad common interests, phould work amicaty side by side Again I ask you," said Mr. Goldsmith, ${ }^{\text {E }}$ is there anything in that action which merits the pointing of the finger of scorn? He added that the very happiest relatiols fad always existed between the Surray Arsociation and the Guildford Guild. They held joint meetings and raitg peals together; in fact, there were in tho area in 1927, shirtythree menhers (aut of 39 in Guildford Guild and 36 in the surrey Assariation) who were members of both.

On these facts be acked the meeting to judge whether there was any ground for the ankind remarks made nu the letter with legard to the Guildford Guild, and sard that the least trey could lonourably do was to withdraw them ant to express regret (applause)
Mr. Keighley suid Mr. Goldsmith had put up a convincing case that there had never been any encroachment by the Guildford Guild, but when the letter was sent to him as Editor of The Ruging World," knowing the facts, le thought he should bave returned it to the secretary, puinted out the error and asked for its withdrawal. Instead, ho now come there in his personal capscity and asked the Inssociation to appologise. He thoughi it was inconsistent and that hr. Goldsmith was equally to blame for allowing it to appear.
Mr. Goldsmith said the latter was a reply to an article in 'The Riuging World ' and it was not for him to interfere with it. If be fred done so he would probebly have been accused of acting unfairly.
Mr. J. G. A. Prior (Northern District secretary) seconted the motion and asked what the association would have caid if Mr. Goldsmith had refused to publish the letter. He asked the meeting to talse into account the opinion of tho Northern District meeting Not one of the members present at that meeting was iu favour of the secretery's lotter and he hold they should withdrew it.

MASTET COUNEELS WITHDTAWTE

The Master gaid he was sure they would be satisfed with Mr

 Galdsmith's statement-personnlly ho was satisfied and ine thought they would agree that that portion of the letter should be withdrawn hear, hear)Mr. Worboys asked at whose dictation the pharase 'points the finger of scom 'was put into the letter.
The Master suid lie did not think any ugetul purpose would be served by pursuing tirat point.
Mr. Worboys: It is a reasonable question and I shotid like an日nswer.
The Master said the letter wes approved by the quarterly meeting, ad thoso whe woted for it agreed to it,
Mr. Worboss pressed for an answer.
Mr, Manning said the question had been snswered.
A Toice. We are not in Germany or Russia (laughter)
Tho Master: I am in favour of that portion of the letter belug withdrame. It mast be understood it was mot intended against any association. Wo wish to work with everybody in a friendly sparit.

Hr. Worboys: If it was not directed against any assmation, who was it directed against? There must have beem sometody in mizd. The Eibitor we know, but who was the Diocesars Association to which wre pointed the finger of scomp Yon cannot get away from it, if it was pointed at nnyous it was pointed at the Geildford Guild, Mr. Master, may I hive an answer to my question?
The Master gaid he saw no queful pupose in going on with the discussion. To continue it would only cause bad feelimg.
Mr. Worboys: As a momber of this associstion the writing of that letter puta part of the responsibility on me. Who were we pointing the finger of scorn at: I think I ought to have an answer?
No answer was forthcoming.
Mr. Heazell said if the assaciation liad made a mibstake amd had done something with which the majority of members disagreed, would it rot be well to apolagise? He proposed that that portion of the letter be withdramn and an apology sent

PRACTICALLY UNANTMOUS VOIE

After further disetission, Mr, Geldarsith agreed, with the consent of his seconder, to withdraw his motion, an condition that the association, through 'The Ringing World,' withdrew the offending paragraph and expressed regret to the Guildford Guild for its publication.

On this being agreed to by a practically unanimons vote, the secretary wes understond to say tbat he declined fo send the withdrawal.
Mr. Worboys said it was the secratary's business to do as be was instructed. He was instructed by the quarteriy meeting to sead the ietter which cansed the tronble, and he did so, and how that it wes the instruction of that meeting that the paragraph should be withdrawn it was the kecretary's job to do it. He should either get on or get out (hear hear').
The Master said this form of discussion did not help the association. The mattor was settled.
Mr. Worboys: The secretary has refused to write the letter-I think that is what he says, That shows personal animosity

The Master: We have other secretaries who can do it
Mr. Worboys: The person who wrote the first letter should send this one, or withdrew from his office.

The Secretary: You are quite welcome to $i t$.
The Master said they must realise he disagreed with the Editor on his article relating to the association, but he agreed with him in a thousend and one of his other leading articles. Only the previous week there was one relating to the work put upan sacretaries. They did not realise the work their secretary pit in. He put in five nights in the previous week. It was volundary wark. Were ther going to kepp caning thoge people who tried to do all they could for the association?

Mr. Workoys continued to press for an answer to his question as to whether the secretary would send the withdrawal, and eventually the Master replied in the affimative and this alosed the debste.

TOWER DLFEICULTIES.

In his report, the secretary said the district olficers looked back over the rear 1938 will mixed fochage. The activities were fully maintained, and in some directions exieaded, but against this has to be set the dificulty experienced in soma vowers of ubtaining the iull support of all lits ringera.
The ringiag memberslip had increased by nine and bolnorary medberghip by five, the total now being 159 ( 127 ringing and 32 honorury), us compared with 145 in 1937. This sounded very satisfactory, he said, but unfortunately success coubl sot be entirely proved by the number of mernbers who pay their subscriptions. If membership were comnted on the regular attendance of ringers at service riagiag, practices and Guitr raectings, the number would be considerably reduced. However, they still hoped for improventent in this direction, and looked forward to the time when a ringing membership of 127 would mean 127 keen, enthesiastic yingers, eacli doing his or lier utmosi to help in the affairs of the Guild.

Financially they were stifl in a sound posision. The balance in hand, although down on the previous year, was substantial, and the increased expenditure was partly accounted for by the donation of 1wo guineas to the Cathedraj Bells Fund. Tle Benevoleat Fund boxes had yielded only es Cs. 2d. and this amount came from six towers. It might be suggeated that several towers were not puiling their weight in this matter. If one member in each tower were to be responsible for bringing the collecting box forward at practices and meetings, and if each ringer would put one bulfpenny or one perny in each week, the result would be very belpful in swelline this worthy fund. The Cathedral Bells liund liad also received varying sums from their towers.
The average attendance at the six districk meetings was 31. As usual, the district contributed their shere in attendances at Guild fuctions, and this thes must keep up. It would be much more encouraging to Guild offinals if more fresh faces were seen at these meetings. At a district committee meeting held at Aldershot towards the end of 1938, nine towers sent represpntatives. These committee meetings appeared vory popular, and the snggestions and criticisms put forward were extremely helpful.

Organised combined practices are not held, but in the future it was thought that considerable assistance would be given if each tower were visited once or twice on its regular practice night. They were asked not to leave it to one or two memhers to visit these belfries. It was everybody's duty to support these efforts.
Peal ringing was not one of their strong features. Four attempts were made, but only one was successful

WEDNESDAY MEETTNGS.

This was the first year they hat held wedresday gatherings. That at Grordall in May was a remarkable stecess, but the Aldershot midweck meeting was not so well attended. If mid-week meetings were to be continued, those memhers able to attend on Wednesday afterroons must give wholeherrted support. It was not intebded to arrange Wednesday meetings if buccess must depend on the Saturdag supporters, who could onity show up in the last hour in the evening.
The report concluded with words of encouragement to the less erperienced rirgers, who were urged not to get disheartened becanse they did not appear to make much headway and not to be aversensitive when mistakes were corrected. 'Only by coatinually grind

DON'T SCRUB YOUR HANDS!

Cleanse and preserve your skin this simple way

To many people, the problem of getting the hands really clean without harming the skin is a serious one. Grease and grime, which become deeply ingrained into the pores of the skin, are extremely difficult to remove, and ordinary washing with soap or even scrubbing will fail to remove them completely. Housewives, particularly, who complain that their hands get ruined by the nature of their work, will find the preparation called DERMAFOAM a real "godsend." DERMAFOAM just smoothes away dirt and grease without effort. It gets right down into the pores and removes every particle of grime, leaving skin beautifully supple and healthy.

Men, tho-when you've finished that dirty job on the car, DERMAFOAM will quickly banish all grease and oil from your hands. It acts almost magically-working under and around the nails and into every minute crease, removing all trace of dirt in a flash.

Engineers, Painters, Car Mechanics, Printers - everyone - will welcome DERMAFOAM, the modern method of cleansing and protecting the hands.

THE NEED FOR YOUTH.

The question of recruitment for the Exercise is an ever present problem and a correspondent again brings the matter to notice in this issue in amplification of a speech made at the anmual dinner of the Bristol United Ringing Guilds. There is constant need for bringing in new material to make up inevitable wastage, as well as removals by death, and this state of affairs has existed probably from the beginnings of ringing. With the passage of time prosperous areas-prosperous, that is, in the ringing sense-fall upon evil days, while others get out of the slough of despond, and by their energies and success make up what is lost elsewhere. But on balance it does appear that there is now danger of a setback in numbers, unless a serious and concerted effort is made, in the near future. From time to time associations report net losses on membership, not wholly accounted for by the deaths of members. Numbers lapse through unpaid subscriptions, usually the result of lack of interest, which goes to indicate that there is a weak link somewhere in the organisation of the Exercise. There are, indeed, many factors which show that the majority of ringers are only lukewarm in their love of the art. Association officials know only too well that it is the "faithfu] [ew" who keep the ball rolling at their meetings; that half the towers are undermanned for service ringing, and that, in the majority of belfries, there is little effort made to keep up the strength of the personnel by consistent recruiting.

That determined action, as suggested by our correspondent, is necessary, to safeguard the future, no one will deny; the real difficulty is to prepare an effective plan. One of the obstacles is that, among many ringers, there is a rooted objection to outside interference and suggestions from associations are, if not resented, at least not acted upon. Any improvement that may be effected has to come from inside rather than from without. It would be extremely interesting, as well as enlightening, if associations could arrange to take a census of all towers in their areas, irrespective of their own membership, to ascertain what is the real strength of bands in relation to the number of befls. It is possible that a tactfully worded letter to incumbents would elicit the information, which wotld be invaluable as the basis of a drive to get depleted bands filled up. The difficulty always is to reach the worst cases, because it is these cases which are the most indifferent, and any effort to make an impression is usually wasted. But this does not mean that a great effort to improve the general position, as suggested by our correspondent, is not worth (Coñtinued on page 118.)

while, and the Central Council might well discuss the matter to see what action can be taken. What are needed are practical suggestions for getting a new interest into those places where, for one reason or another, there are complacency and indifference which are leading or have led to decay. The future of everything in our social organisation depends upon the constant stream of youth, and we know of no activity that needs this source of strength and invigoration more than the art and science of ringing.

PEAL NOTES.

QURCKEST PEAL ON CHURCH BELLS.
The quickest peal on church bells was rung on Saturday on the light ring of six at Buckland, Surcey. The seven 720's of Bob Minor occupied only 2 hours 1 minute. The only place where a quicker peal on tower bells has bean rung is Loughborough Bell Foundry. the tenor is $6 \frac{1}{2}$ cwt. and at Buckland the tenor is given as 6 cwt . Tho peal st Buckland was rung for the Ancient Society of Coliege Youths, whose records now include the guickest and the longest peals on church bells: 2 hours 1 minute at Bucklaud; 12 hours o s minutes at Appleton in 1922.
Nesta Smith, who rang her first penl (at tha fourth attempt) at Wonston, #ants, on Fridey, is orily 14 years of age. She must be one of the youngest, if not the youngest, girls to ring a peal for the Wincheater and Port amouth L'iocesan Guild.
There must be a yood deal of enthusiasm for ringing at Wonston Lionel Marks, anothar young beginner, and son of Mr. W. Marks, who rang in the peal, sat in the tower all through the performance. Perbaps he was there to keep dad right?

Three peals to welcome new incumbents are recorded this week. The Rev. A. W. Wallace, formerly of West Ham, was instituted Rector of Latterworth, Leicestershire, last November, and a pea! of Stedman Triples was rung at the Wyclife Church of St. Mary on Saturdey, the first oceasion upon which a hand could be obtained.
To welcome the new incumbent of Mortimer, Berks (the Rev, L Whitmill), a peal of Grandsire Triples was rung at the Parish Church on Saturday. It was Mr. Percy J. Dyke's 50th peal.

The new Ficar of Dalton-in-Furness, Lancs, was aiso welcomed with a peal on Snturday, after induction on the previous day. The peal of Bob Royal was the first peal by five of the ringers. Fight of the band belong to Dalton. They were suppleraented by Mr. N. M. Nowby, hon. gecretary of the Furness and Lake District Branch, and Mr. A. Capstick, of Ambleside.
Mr. Walter Farley's birthday was celebrated with a peal of Grandsire Triples at Old Hill, Staffordshire, on Saturday. It was elso the quarterlf peal for the Dadley and District Guild.

The porl of Grandsire Triples at Selly Oak on Saturday week was rung by the Sunday service ringers at St. Mary's Church, exeept Mr E. W. Blake, who kindly filed a gap at the last moment and rang the tenor.

ESSEX VETERAN'S BIRTHDAY.

The Essex veteran, Mr. W. J. Nevard, of Great Bentley, has recently celobrated his 83 rd thirthday, and in honour of the event he arranged a peal at Great Holland on' Febraary 1ith, choosing a band representative of eight parishes.
They were U. W. Wilduney, Kirby-le-Soken; G. M. Rashbrook, Colchester; 3Irs. W. A. Rouse, Great Holland; D. Eliott, Sudbury ; W.J. Nevard, Great Bentley; G. Waterman, Harwich: H. A. Wright, Clactoa-on-Sea; and E. E. Davey Little Clacton. Messrs. Rekhbrook, Elliott and Wright first rang with Mr. Nevard 50 years, 48 years and 40 years ago respectively.
Tea was kindly provided by Mr. Nevard after the peal, whichs was Elso a farewell to the Rector of Great Holland (the IEv. G. A. Barstey), who is leaving for Cromer.
It was rather strange that while the first peat of Erith Little Bob Royal on tawer bells sloould have been rung at Prittlewell on Saturday, February IIth, another peal in the same method should have been rung at Norwich only three days Iater. This secoud peal was composed and conducted by Mr. Nolan Golden and contains the 72 course-ends with the extent of 4,5 and 6 in 6 th's.
On the following day Mr. Golden conducted the first peal of Pershore Bob Major for the Norwich Association and the first by all the bard. This was rung at Wymondham.
Seven 'stars " were awarded in a peal of Bob Maximus, rung at High Wyeombe, Bucks, on Wednesday week, amony those so decorated being at least, two men, each of whose peals of Surprise Maximus number aver eighty.
It was Mr. J. C. E. Simpson's 300 th peal and was a birthday compliment to Mr. James Beznett, of London, who, unfortunately, was unable to take part.
A peal of Grandsire Caters (No. 161) by Mr. Arthur Kigighta mas ruag for the first time on February 14th at Worsley, Lancs. It has all the $5-6^{\prime}$ 's and $6-5^{\prime}$ gin the tittums and handstroke positions.
Mr. Burlev P. Morris, of Warkton, Tang his Thth peal when he took part in a 5,040 of Bob Minor at Weekieg, Northants, on February $13 t h$,
A half-navfled peal of Minor, es a token of respect to Sir Prancis Astley-Corbett, former squire of the village, was rung at Elsham, Lincs, on Febrnary 11th The third bell, which bears Sir Francis name, was given by him when the befls were jncreased from three to six in 1924.
A penl of Bristol Surprise Major at Sandbach, Cheshire, on February 11th, was rung on the eleyenth anniversary of Mr. Ernest Beanett's first' peal.
Minor ringing of the more advanced tupe is going alhead by leaps and bounds in Lincolnshire. A band in the Eastern Branch has now ruig a peal in 21 methods. Splicing was used in oniy five of the extents, bat there were 71 changes of method. Only one member of the band had previously rang a pea! in 21 methods. He is Mr. Arthry Young, and this was his 60th peal. The peal was rung at Freidon on February 18tl).

Morpebl, in Northumberlati, possesses one of the few "secular" ringt of bells in the country, and it is nat often a peal is rumg on them. Last Saturday, however, a peal of stedman Triples was brought round there. In the tinging chamber is a slab bearing the following quaint couplet:

Have you heard the Morpeth Wonder ${ }^{\text {Ch}}$  Church and steeple a mile asunder.

Other places in England where there are peals of bells not attuched to © church are Manchoster Town Hall and Quex Parik, Kent, whero there are rings of twelve; the Imperial Institute, London, and the Bell Foundry, Loughborough, with rings of ten; the Curfew tower, Windsor Castie, with a ring of eight, and the Carfar tower, Oxford, with siz bells.
The first peal of Erin Calers by the Lancashire Association hns followed close upon the heels of the first for the Chester Guild. It was rung on Saturday at Manchester Cathedral. The band wisle to thank Mr. W. C. Bridgford, of the Cathedral company, for making wrcangements for the attempt, and they also wisle to couple with the peal the names of Messrs. G. R. Newton, of Liverpool, and R. Sperring, of Chester, who wers prevented from takiag part in the peal through illpess. They wish them a speedy recovery.
A peai of Stedman Triples was rung at Twerton-on-A von, Bath, on Saturday, as a birthday compliment to Mr. Theo Grant, the esteemed local secretary of the Eath and Wells Diocessan Association.
The Arat peal on the hells at St. Michael and All Angels' Church, Basingstoke, since the recent restoration by Messrs. Taylor and Co. was rung on Saturdey. Four of the band rang their first peal of Major.
Three twelve-bell peals in eight days is not bad going. Messire, G. R. Pye, C. T. Coles and G. W. Steere, having stored a peal of Cambridge Maximas, as recorded last week, at Croydon on February 11th, and rung in the peal of Bob Maximus at Higl Wycombe on the 15th, completed the week with a pral of Sterman Cinques at Southwark Cathedral on Saturday. Mr. Leslie Morris came from Leede to call this peal, and Mr. Jim Riding came from Crewo to take part. A NEW SUFFRAGAN SEE.
An Order in Council creating the Suffragan See of Dorclester in the Diacese of Oxford revives one of the oldest episcapal tities in Eagland after neerly 900 years' disuse. The Rt. Rev. Gerald Buztors Allien, Archdeacon of Oxiord aud Asyistant Bishop, has hean appointed to the office. He has interested himself in the woxk of the Oxford Diocesan Guild sitree he returned to live in Oxford in 1936.
In honour of the establishment of the Sufragan See, a peal of Boh Major was rung at Dorchester Albhey Cburch on Febramry 13 th.
Nome of the ringers except the conductor in the perl at Easf Budleigh, Devon, on February 14th, had ever before ring a 720 of Bob Minor. Despite this fact, the striking was good throughout. The ringer of the treble belongs to Litilebiam (Exnoutb), the second to East Budleigh, the third, fourth and fifth to Withycombe Raleigh, and the tenor to Brampford Speke.
To celebrate the jubiler of Mr. James George's first peal, rung at St, George's, Camberwell, on February 16th, 1889, a peal of Stedman Triplas was rung on Saturday at Bishop Ryder's Church, Birmingham, where, at the age of 86, he is still Ringing Master.
The peal of 50 years ago was Grandsive Triples, and Mr. Georre, whose peal total is now 1,277 , is the only survivor of the band.
After the peal at Bjshop Ryder's. Mr. George entertained the ringers to tea. The Vicar (the Rev. C. A. Williams) was also present and expressed appreciation of Mr. George's services, while all the luand wished him a speedy return to health, hoping that be may shortly be once more ringing in a peal, instead of listening, as on Saturday.
Members of the London County Associetion also commemorated the jubilee of Mr. George's first peat, with a peali of Stedman Caters at St. Magnus", Lordon Bridge, on Saturday. It was with the old St. James' Society, out of which the London County Association sprang, that Mr. George rang his firsi pebl.
Three students of Lichfield Theological Collego rang a peal of Grandsire Doubles on handbells on Sunday. It whe a memorahle performance, becanse it marks a new stage in the efforts to get these future clergy interested in the art of ringing.
The peal was conducted by Mr. Malcoin Melville, formerly hon. secretary of the Warwickshire Guild, and was his esth peal, but the other two ringers were making their first attempt.
Mr. Melville's peals, which range from Doubles to Marimus, and inclade one in four Spliced Surprise Major methodk, have heen rung in 19 towers, in seven counties, for nine guilds and associations and with 116 different ringers.
Mr. C. J. Sedgley, of Ipswich, who is amang the leading conductors of Surprise Maximus methods, called his first peal of Bob Minor on February 13th at Hintlesliam, Suffolk.
Woodhouse Eaves is in Leicestershire, not Worcestershire as printed in a peal report last week. Our eyestght must be getting a little wenk.

STEPNEY SCHOLARS

The progress of the Stepney Scholars is bgain marked by the first quarter-peal of Grandsire Caters rang by the Guild. The average age of the band is only $23:$ H. Groves 1, L. Fox (conductar) $2, \mathrm{~A}$. Strachey 3, H. Thompson 4. T. Fox 5, T. Burns 6, J. Boomsma 7, H. Pinchbeck 8, A. Jarvis 9, C. Audus 10. It was rung for evening service on Jamary 15th.

ST. PAUL'S CATHEDRAL BELLS.

To the Editor.

Dear Sir,-Mr. Dawe in your issue of the 17th inst, now tells us that he is "garprised to fini that anyone pins their faith entirely on the book mentioned.... seeing that, at the time, it was merely regarden as an overlooked printar's error' ! This is truly amazing mows. I have never yet heard of a whole book being regarded as a printer's error. Still, it is astonisbing what information can be gaited if a point is argued. However, if Mr. Dawe means (although He does not say so) that the ' $\mathrm{B}_{r}$ ' in the reference to \& B tenor for a peal of twelve bells, is a printer's error, then my only comment is that there must be an uncommonly large number of printer's errors in the book.

I note Mr. Dawa denies having quoted words from the book in question ('Clocks, Watchas and Bells'). The quotation appears on page 780 of your issue of December 2nd tust in what purports to the the substance of a letter from Mr. Dawe.

I do not intend to bore you further on the subject.

DEATH OF YOUNG NORTH LINCOLNSHIRE RINGER.

 LOES TO BURTON-ON-STATHER.Ringers in the nortlera part of Lincolnshire were shocked to searn of the death on Monday, February 13 th, of Mr. Bernard Gillatt, jur., st his home at Burton-on-Stather, at the early age of 77 . He succumbed, after only a few days' illness, to pheumonia which developed from a chill. His family bave a long convection with church life in the parisl, and it was notural that young Bernard, as he was nffectionately known, should join his father as a ringer at St. Andrew's Church. He was also in the choir aud wes a member of the Church Council. A keen cricketer, he kept wicket several times for his county.

He rang his first peal on June $13 \mathrm{H}_{\mathrm{h}}, 1929$, and weat on to ring 68 peals, all for the Lineoln Diocesan Guild, in a variety of methods. Ho rang in soversl Efirsts for the Guitd, including Gainsborough Little Rob and Loughborough Bob on tower Jetls, Spliced Major, Spliced Royal and the first of Maximas rung on handbells.

Under the shadow of the cld church tower je was laid to rest on Wednesday whek, four ringers acting as besrers. A number of ringing Friends from Burton-on-Stather and Scunthorpe, also Mr. and Mrs. O. McGuiness, of Lincoln, were among the mourgers. Afterwards a quarter-peal of Grandsive Triples was lung with the bells half-muffed bJ J. Bray (conductor) I, Frank Lard 2, Enest Brittnin 3. A. Tomliven 4, H. Judd 5, G. Hobbins 6, P. Barnes 7, F. Jeffery 8.

DEATH OF MRS. E. M. TAYLOR.

YOUNG FAMLLY BEREAVED.
We regret to record the death, at the early age of 39 years, of Mra, Evelyn M. Taylor, of Maidenhead, a warzn supporter of St. Peter'a Society, Burnham, sud a member of the Oxford Diocesan Guild, the Ladies' Guild and the Royel Cumberland Youtbs.
Tragedy lies behind this aunonncement. Only three jears ago bar husband, Mr. William E. Taylor (then foreman ringer at All Saints', Boyne Hill) đied, leaving Mrs. Taylor with a family of three children. Since then she bed had a hard strugyte to bring up her family. On February 3rd she was admitted to Maidealiead Hospital, suffering From pheumonia and in a serious condition. She passed away only two and a guarter hours later. The home has had to be broken up and the chiddren scattered.
Mrs. Taylar was a regular service ringer at St. Peter's, Burnham, and had rung one peal at this church, a peal of Grandsire Triples. Her smiling face, which covered a load of sorrow (ahe hat never properly got ofer the loss of her husband), will be sadly missed on Sundays in the belfry.
Of the three children who ate left, the eldest is a ringer at Burwbim, and Hilda (aged 8) is a member both of the Royal Gumberland Youths and the Ladies' Guild The youngest child is Cemil, aged three. The two latter have been taken for the present ander the guardianship of Mrs. Taylor's brother, Mr. J. Cox, of 60, Royal Road, Ramsgate, Kent, who, although be has a family of his owa, has taken the orphans umder his root.
The funeral took place at Maidenhead Cemetery on Tuesday, Fobruary 7th, when 4 rs. Taylor was laid to rest with her husbagd in the preseace of relatives and ringing friends, amove them Mrs. A. Sinith, of Thateham, memhers of the Sit. Peter's Seciety, Mr. Thomas J. Fowler, Rivging Master, East Berks and South Bucks Branch of the Oxford Diocessan Guild, etc.

A recquest was made that no flowers should be sent, but, owing to the ghraitened circumstances in which the orphans were left, it was asked that the money be forwarded to the guardian of the two younger children to aid in their support.
The sad oircumstances in which these childran have been loft should eppeal to the hearts of ringers, who aro alweys generous in cases of distress, and this is an instance in which belp is really needed. Mrs. Taylor's ringing friends can have any information they msy require from Mr George Gilbert, c/o Roberts' Stores, 40, St. Luke's Road (North), Maidenhearl. We are asked to say that should any ringers write to Hilda they are requested to remember that she does not yet know of her mother's death. The news will be broken to her leter on,

ALAN R. PINK.

A conductor of initiative and enthusiasm, Aian 录, Pink, who has reently gone to live in Oxford, has had a considerable slare in the rimging of new Surprise methods. He has called the first peals in 13 of them aud has earabled anmber of associations to record their first peals in mayy more. New methods and fresh compositions have been his nobby, but, despite thik, be is at rimger who does yot mind haw humble the methad, as logg as someone benefits.
Mr. Pink, who was born at Ripley Surrey, on December 5th, 1805. is a member of the staft of the Westminster Ballk, which he joined at Pulborougli. It wass while living in this Sussex collntry town that he Jearned to liapile a hell, and rage his first peal (Granisire Triples) in December, 1926. His first, peal as conduclor was one of Bub Minor at Perranarwartliat, in 1929, while on a holiday in Cormwall.
Wheu he was translerred to Dorking, Surrey, he rang a goni deal with the Leatherhead District, and it was there that he really laid the foundations of what was to follow. Ineidentally he became hor. secreDistrict of the Guildford Diocesan Guild aud did some excellent work in the eurly days of that or gantsetion. Whels, later, found man enger and capable band in the district, and, backed by the genins of Mr. A. G. Driver, they had a long series of successes. Among other things they rage peals in 25 Sur. prise Majol methots, and Mr. Pink conducted a least one of each, including the 13 which rere the 'first ever.' It is notewortlly that, very nearly all these peals were mans out eny previous practice.
The first peals in the method vilich Mr. Pink has called have been Painewick, Windsur, : Chilterı, Berkshire, Truro, Eumbymele, Bovenef, Belvedere, Melbotrne, Sandringham, Lutterwortli, Cranbourne and Pyrford Surprise, and Pyrtord Surprise, MR. ALAN R, PINK. shire, Superlative and Cambrifge Surprise, and Ashbourne Coilege Bob. He rang in the first peals by the Guildford Diocesan Guila of Bob Mnjor, Stedman Triples, Ganterbury Pleasure Major, Now Cambridger Kent, Inswich, Ashteati, Chilem, Pyrford and Hoveney Surprise, and conducted the last tiliree. He also called the first peals of Kent, Ipewich and Ashtead Surprise for the Surrey Association and took part in their first peal of Yorkshire Surprise.

For the Kent Assomiation he called their first peal of Painswici Surprise, and for tire Middlesex Association their hirat peals of Ash tead, Painswick, Truro, Belvedere aud Crabbourae Surprise, as wel as Splited Pinin Tob and Double Norwich and Asbbourne College Boh, this last being the moly peal yet rung in the method.

His contribution to Oxford Guild records hag been to call their first peale in twelve Surprise methods, including eight rung for the firsf time; their first of Spliced Cambridge and Superlative, and the first ever rugg with Painswick, Yorkghire, Superiative end Cambridge spliced into one peat. He also calied their first peal in which Donble Oxford, Double Norwich and Plain Bob were spliced together

Anong other interesting performances tave been a 'colour' peal of Superlative at Erith in 183I, which the conducted and in which the names of the ringers fore all different colours; and the firse pesl by members of the Banking prafession, a peal of Bob Major at Sit. Olave"s, Hart street, Landon. Ont May 6th, 1935, Mr. Pink rang the tenor to a peal of Bob Major in the Curfew tower at Windsor Castle in honour of the Silver Jubilee of King George V. This was the first peal of Major on the bells and only the founth peal rugg on them

Altogether Mr. Pink has rung 228 peala in 100 towers for ten asso ciations, and has conducted 115 of them.

To the Natitor

Dear Sir, -In accordance with the instruction of the annual meeting of this association held on Saturday last, lebrualy 12th, it is their wish now to withdraw from the letter of January zud lasi to the Editor of "The Ringing World," and to express vegret for 1 ts juclusion, thie following sentence: " and now points the finger of scorn to the Editor and the Diocesma Assomation of which he was the instlgator encrosching on the areas already covered by other assoriations.

AN UNSATISFACTORY POSITLON."

Dear Sir, I read the report of the last atumal meeting of the Loydon County Association. as puiblished in jour issue ol the 17 h ingt, with intense disappointment and disergt. It appears that resentment, truculebeg and personal animosity followed each other in rapid buccession; the net result of the mecting being that an apology, entirely dewoid of repentance or any real renret, is to be sent to the Guildford Diocesan Guild im vindication of honour. That was all. $\Delta$ pparently nothiag was done wilh regatd to the move smportant question of overlapping, and no assurance given by the officers us to the conduct of the ectivities of the association in the future, A most unsatisfaclory position, which gives rige to certain misgevings in the mind of the ordinary Sunday gervite riuger.
It geoms that we are now left with oniy ond remedy for this kind of thing, and that is the removal of all temptation to trespass or muscle-n at any tower by sny assaciation, guid, society or clique, This could be echieved by the formation, uader the auspices of the Contral Council, of a Nationa! Association possessing wide executive powers for the parcelling out of the conntry into regions and districts; the regions electing-represantatives to the Central Conneil, on the basis of membership, as at present, It would not then he possible for some ringers to be represented two or taree times over, and ragers from one region or distrjet should not twe permitted to interfere in the mangeracht of another. ## STANDARD METHODS

To the Edithr

Sir-There is still in use among ringers tha term 'Standerd' methods, applied to the methods which once were almosh exclusively rung and even now are extensively practised, because they are the foundations upon which ringers generally build. But the teryn docs not always mean quite the amme growp of methods. One reads from time to thime of "the four Standard methods," menning Grandsire, Stedman, Plain and Treble Bob, but manar ringars also induda Douhle Norwich as a 'Standard" method. Can myone imform your veaders Whence came the term "Stauderd" in this connection? Was it introduced by Snowdion, when he purblighed "Standard Jechods," becanse in that case it is by no means limited to the methods mientioned? His wort, as everyone knows, covers on ruch wider lield and ineluded, im addition to many Minar methods, three Surprise Major methots. It would be interesting to khow how and when this expression came into use, and what purpose, excapt ns the tible of Snowdon's usefu? book, it now servos.

The Canterbury District of the Kent Cownty Associafion held ins frat meeting of the year at Walmer on Seturday, February 11 th. This meeting is more usually called 'the spring moetiog,' and, though a triffe early for epring, it was in warm sumshine that members gathered during the afternumn for ringing apon the pal of eight bells at this clurch. Service was conducted by the Vicar (the Hev. Canon C. F". Tonks), who also gave an eddress. Presiding at tle organ, as is usual, was Mr. W. E. Pitman, Mus.Bac.
Tea was held in the "Upper Room' of the Parish Hall, and, more members turning up than was anticipated, things were o trifle warm towarts the close of tea. Therefore, for greater comfort, the meeting was held in the hall Itself.
Mr. H. Whitehead occupied the chair and presented a report of the asscciation's centra] comaitiee meeting, held in November
Sir naw members were elected, and for the next by-meeting three towers were propord, viz., Teyham, Elham and Chilham, the latter tower being selected.
A votu of thanks was passed to the Vicar for the use of the bells, for conducting the sarvice and for his address, and the membera then rettirned to the tower for further ringing.

RINGING IN NORFOLK.   THE HILP OF UNATTACHED MEMBERS

   THE HILP OF UNATTACHED MEMBERS}Dear Sir, -It looks as if juur correspondent, "Norfolk Dumpling," and I are rather at cross purposes. He las gone to a great deal of trouble to say over again what I have said, since, when lie states that every member of the Norfolk Assaciation rang . 3 of a peal-that is formed about otte-third of a peal band-it is the same thing as saying that the members twok part on the average in 2.3 peals exch duning the year, except that it is stated in a somewhat different way. His figures and mins agree, as they were bound to do, being calculated from the same original-the 1.537 report, so that I feel justafed in taking exception to his statement that I have drawn apon my imagmation.

The point of his analyeis of the peals into districts is very elusive If he wishes to draw attention to the fact that some districts rang no peals it is all the more credit to the members who, in spite of that slackuess elsewhere, contrived to amass their splendid total That two-thinds of the members did nat help seems to a plain, unimaginative person like myself to emphasise the energy of the ather one-third. In no way whatever can it be considered to derogate from the performance of the latier

Moreover, I am sorry that in his anxiety to remove the impression my letter is supposed to have conveyed-the term ' ringer's paradise was his, however, not mine-your correspondent should so pointed deay to the present generation of ribgers any credit for the 5,000. It cannot possibly be truc that ilue 'peal of peals' was rung in the heyday of the association, when Noriolk and Suffolk were one, so lont as the rimgers of 1937 and 1938 wero able on their own account to scote more than 100 peals it jear.

May I remind your carrespondent (1) that I was writing to you upon ope specific matter-ilie 5,000 peals, and (2) that I ram cot a Noriolk ringer, hougl I wis one for five very pleasant montlas at Norwicl and Yarmouth: It was not for me to enter into a getreral discussion upon the position of Norfolk ringing to-day (though "Norfolk Dumpling ' may be cualified to do so), and it would have been an ill-return for the spontaivens welcome I met with everywhere in East Anglia if I turned to criticise my hosts.

Nevertheless, as he has brought up the subject, I car only agree with your carrespondent about the dereliet areas of his hame county not alone from the rimging standpoint, but from the agriunltural shandpoint as well-the connection between the two is intimate. When all the young people go off the land they leave the village towers. I was also saddened by the thought of those moribund rings to which Nerfolk Dumpling refers. every day of the five months I saw the fine tower of St. Andrew's in the very heart of the city, and thonght of that ten rotting or its frame; and it is only one silent ring in the city of Norwick. It is to be remembered that, chicfly owing to the egricultural depression, Norfalk is one of the poorest associations in money, however wealthy she may be in other ways, and reatoration work suffers in consequence. But it must be confessed that there is not much paint in restoring rings, that cannot be manned, and there are few enough to go round as it is with the present arailable towers.
The chief item of ofience in my letter sppears to bave been my etatement about unatfached ringers. Here I have to admit that I did not make my noint elear; I should have been mare careful to say that 1 referred to mattached peals-peals by bands of ringers attached to no towers anywhere who go round snatohing peals where they can. I bave no particular feeling on this question, pit many other Jingers have, and, as I said, they write about it from time to time. Unattached ringers, however, are or may be in quite a different category. There are many rensons why a man romains unattached, thaugh that need not and often does not mean that he does no ringing. Of this class there are many in Norwich, and during my stay there a never on a single occasion rang anywhere, for service or practice when there were not some of these technically unattached ringers in the band. Soms of them attend twice every Sunday and every Tuesuay night at St. Feter Marneroft; one of them in addition rms another tower in the city and keeps the bells going there; athers attend as often as busimess mamits. aty association tort har a hundred or two of such unattached members would be very fortunate indeet

With these facts in my mind I feel that on this matter Norfolk Dumpling "has mot been quite fair to bis fellow countymen. Fe must know as well as I do that practically all the unattached ringers to whom he refers in his letter as taking part in a number of the peals rung during 1837 were of this class. They are technieally unattached certajaly, but much more assiduous in their service ringing and attendancs at practice than many of the attached. As a matter of fect, they take so active a part in the ringing life of the association that when I was looking over the report befove writing my previous letter I did not realise thev were unattached. It is only now, in seeking to identify the unatached ringers mentioned by your correspondent, that I find they are the people with whom I rang regularly week by weet.

There is one ather thing that must be said. and it is suggested by the fact that for to apparent reasan "Norfolk Dumpling " chooses to write urder a nom-de-plume. The inevitable conclusion wonld be, of course, that your correspondent is not quite sure that his own services to bis comnty association are ssmiduous or regular enough to justify him in criticising others. I hope that is not the case, for (Continued in next column.)

DEATH OF CIRENCESTER RINGER

FIFTY YEARS AT THE PARISH CHURCH

The death took place, on Janury 30th, fiter a tery brief illness, of Mr. F. W. Band. Deceased had been a ringer at Cirencester Parislt Church for ahout 50 Tears. He had rumg petls of Grandsire and Stedman Triples and Grandsire Caters, and was very proficient on the treble in rising and falling in peal.

The ringers sent a wreath, and several attended the funeral service on February 2nd, but a very oid friend, Mr. John Austia, was unabla to be prosent owing to illiness.

In the eroning, as a last tribute to the memory of Mr. Bond, members of the band rang if Guarter-penl of Grandsire Triplef with the bells half-mufled: A. W, Baldwin 1, F. J. Lewis, sen. (cumductor) 2, F. J. Lewis, jun. 3, H. S. Parsons 4, H. L. Cooke 5, H. Lewis 6, W. H Havxard 7, F. T. Bloxham 8. Tnmidentally Mr, Bond introduced tha conductor to ribging.

CELEBRATIONS IN TASMANIA

HORART RINGERS KEEP UP ANNEVERSARIFS.

Each year the anniversary of the wisit of the English ringers to Tasmanja in 1934 is celebrated at Hobert, and an enjoyable evening was spent by the members of Holy Invity Associntion when they met for the purpose on an evening last Nowember. Interest was added to the proceedines by an exhibition of lantern pietures conceming bells and ringing, which had been kindly seat by Messtr. Gillett and Johnaton and Mesprs. Taylor and Co.
The second anaiversary of the dedication of the fower and bells at St. David's Cathedral, Hobart liss also heen duly celehrated. On December 6th the Precentor entertained the Cathedral and Holv Trimity rigeers and ringing was done on the Cathedral bells. Mr. and Mrs. H. Wilson, wha recently gave a clock to the Cathedral helfry, were pregent as honoured guests. Mr. Wilgnn is brother of Mr. Ray Wilson, the enthusiastie hon. secretary of Holy Trinity Association.

A recent visitor to Holy Trinity has been Mr. W. G. Hall, secretary of St. Patls Cathedral Society, Melbourne, who took part in Tinging Grandsirs Doubles with the lacal men. Afterwards Mr. avd Mre. Hall were entertained to supper.

A photograph of the English members of the Holy Trinity Associstion, taker on the occasion of the Anstralian tourists reunion at Snrficet last Octaber, now occupies an hopoured place in Holy Trinity belfry.

those who do nothing themsefves have no right to express any opinion about the activities of othere a very sound principle that sa many of our self-appointed critics forget. But I am quite sure that I Bm wronging 'Norfolk Dumpling' in this respect, thongh I should have preferred to know whom I was addressing.

But I commend to the Exercise his remarik about lack of recruits. There is mo question more jmportant than this. The bands and associations all over the country are simply wasting slowly nway, yeh we never seem to care. That is, however, far too big a qurstion to be dragged in at the end of a letter that is already too long. Bristol.

RECRUITMENT AND INSTRUCTION.  SKILL AND KNOWLEDGE SHOULD BE POOLED

To the Editor

Datr Sir, It is becoming increasingly evident that the number of those coming forward to learn the art of ringing is dimuishing. Aution on the part of the Central Conacil and the diocesan guilds sceprs to be needed to stimulate recruiting. The day has gone by when all that was necessary was to let youngsters wander into our belfries, jmpelled by curiosity or some other reason. We mast oow go out after recruts. Direct co-operation between associations and incumbents, to rope in youths who have served as choirboys or boy scouts, should yield is goodly tumber of suitable subjects for instruction.
It is very sad to mote that a large mumber of those who have been recruited are lost through varjous reabons, some of which, I believe, could ba removed. One hears of many cases where youngsters get so far as to be able to handle a bell and then give it all up. This is wasted effort for both learner and teacher.
[ wish to make a suggestion trat the Central Counci] appoint a sumall panel of qualified ringers, and request them to get out a small book of inatructions for anstructors, whereby those who have to teach learners might be helped to success. Clear cut instructions, in present day language, pointing out not only how to teach the technical part of ringing, but also dealing with the various known reactions of different typeg of learners, might heip the ingtructor to keep the pupil's interest.
[ am not suggesting that we have out already got a large number of proved atd skilled instructors up aud down the country-I know many such, and I am quite sure that the type of instructor I am thinking of would welcome any hints from any reliable quarter whereby his work coutd be made easier. What 1 have in mind is that we should pool tho skill and knowledge which we already possess in our ranks and use it to greater advantage. Unless we get right down to this problem of making the period of instruction more positive and attractive, our mumbers will so diminish that the position will become very serious. become very serious.
The question may be asked-who will pay for the production of the book? Well, $8 D$ far as 1 rma ablo to observe, there is no marised shortage of fuads-either in the Council or in the Guilds. We should do well to got rid of this "savings socioties" idea, and, instend of hoarding up money in investments, spend it now, and so make an pffort to ensure the continuance and strengthening of our art.

NORTHERN ASSOCIATIONS MEET

A. PRE-LENT GATHERING AT WEST HARTLEPOOT

The pre-Lent meeting of the Durham and Newcastle Diocesan Association was held as a joint meeting with the Cleveland and North Forkshire Association at West Hartlepooh on Saturday. The ring of ten bells of St. Oswald's Church, with a 21 cowt. tenor, by Warner, and the ring of tight of St. Aidn'm, with a 15 cwt , tenor, by Taylor, were placed at the ringers' dispossl, and during the afternoon and evening touches of Grandsire and Stedman Cater's, Treble Bub Royal, Double Norwich, Grandsire and Steximan Triples and Bob Major were Tea was partaken of in St. Oswald's Parish Hall, where upwards of 40 persons sat down. The president of the Durham and Newcastle Association (Mr. M. D. Oubridge, of Gosforth) welcomed the members of the Cleveinat and Nortla Korkshire Association, but said he would have liked to have seen more of their members present.
Responding, Mr. F. E. Pollard, puesident of the Cleveland and North Torkshro Association, sad lie believed that all the Cleveland men present were also life members of the Durham and Nowctstle Association, which placed them in a zather invidious position, but, nevertheless, they were pleased to be present

Mr. C. L. Routledge thanked the church zuthorities for the use of the bells
The Rev. Rowlandson, curate at St. Aidan's, replied. Fe said that the clergy appreciated the work of the ringers, and they were pleased to grant the use of the bells.
Mr. J. T. Titt proposed a vote of thank to the ladies who had ministered to tho needs of the "juner man."
Mr. Oubridge appealed to the ringers to endeavour to improve their striking, a comment which did not appear to be too popular in some yuarters, but it is to be hoped that the appeal may not have been wasted.

SUSSEX COUNTY ASSOCIATION.

A meeting of the Western Division of the Sussex Association was held at Stortincton on Saturday, Febriary 11th, when ten towers were represented by 28 members, Ringing during the afternoon and evening ranged from rounds to Canbridge Minor.

The service whe conducted by the Rector (the Rev. A. R. H. Faithfoll! the address being given by the Rev. W. Bramwell (Rector af Wiginholt).
After tea the members atood in silence as a mark of respect to the late Mr. A. Teist, of Billiggshurst.
At the business meeting two new members were elected, viz., Messre. F. Short, of Goring, and H. Bentinck, of Lyminster.

A vote of thanks was accorded to the Rector of Storrington for the use of the hells and for presiding at Ehe business meeting.

CAMBRIDGESHIRE VILLAGE WANTS MORE BELLS.

HAMPTON HOPES TO HAVE SIX.

The willage of Rampton, Cambridgeshire, has just completed somé importants work of restaration to the church. The tower, belfry, porch and south-west wall have been restored and the bolls increased to four, as the preliminary, it is hoped, to raising them to a ring of sir, a frame for this number having been provided. The new treble has been given by the Rev. C. H. Evelyn White, who was Rector of the parish from 1894 to 1928, and a new third bell has also been sdded. The present second was cast by Thomas Newman in 1713 , and the Pourth, a pre-Reformation belf, weighing 4 cwt .2 gr .23 lb, bears the inscription, "Sancte Osmalde Ora Pro Nobis inte four bells have been hung with new fittings in a new teak wood frame, the work having been cartied out by Messrs. Gillett and Johnston.
The dedication of the work took place on February and, the Bishop of Ely (Dr. B. O. F. Heywood) pertormikg the caremony, The service was conducted by the Rector (the Rev. T. L. Havers), and Bishop Price read the lesson.
The Bishop, in his address, congratulated all who bad been concerned in the enterprise, and in the course of his address upon Christinn worship said the question, "Wly do people go to churchp. was a more usefui subject for discussiou than the question, 'Why don't cortsin people go to cburch?
Although the work of restoration, which has cost about e700, has been completed, some $£ 330$ has still to be raised, and donations will be gladly welconed by the Rector.

MIDDLESEX COUNTY ASSOCIATION.

SOLTH AND WEST DESTRICT WANTS MORE RECRUITS.
The annual meeting of the Soulh and West District of tho Middlesex Combty Associnlion and Loudon Diocesan Guild was held at Isleworth on Saturday, Februn'T $4 t h$. Ringers were present from Brautiond, Camberwel] (St, Eiles), Ealing (Charist Church, St. Mary's snd St. Stephen's), Heston, Hillingdon (Sto Andrew's and St. John's), Isleworth, Kingstou-on-Thames, Leighton Buzzard, Norwood Green, Tuislip, Twickenlam and Westminster (St. Margaret's). Ringang included touches of 'Triples and Catera.

A short service was conducted by the Rev. Canoli Wright, the lesson being read by the wice-president, Mr. J, A. Trollope.
Tea in the Churcy Jnll was followed by the business nreetirg, with Mr. J. A. Tratlope in the chair.
The annual report was presented by the sccretary, in the course of whicin it was slated there had been an average atteadance of 42 at the six districk meetings. It was better than in the previous year, but it wess still capabie of improvement. T'ower secretalies Were urged to try and arrange for at lenst two or three of their bands to attend each meetiug, especially alsy learners, who would receive avery help and encouragement. 部ree joint meetings with otwer associations were held, and they were insebted to these associations for armaging these successful gatherings. He thought further such meetings shond be arranyed. Gratitude was expressed to the Heston band for their efficient and stocessful efforts in arrangirg the annual supper. Eigintecn pesls had been rung in 12 towers and 35 guarter-peals. Service ringing ind been Kept ath about the same level as last year, but it was regrettable that there were fow bands who could muster their full strength legularly For Sunday ringing, The position with regard to rectuits was unsatisfactory, only live ringily and one bonorary life menber and two hife riuging members having been elected 3 1938. He made a strong appeal to towers ant to indiwidual members to find recruits.
The financial position was bettor than last year owing to the more prompt payment of subscriptions, but he conld not see this improvement continaing unless the menbership increased. They started fhe year under the reorganisation scheme, and with their very offecent general secretary, Mr. C. T. Coles, in general charge of the associathon, it whs up to every member to give him support and holp to make the association second to nome. In concirsion, the report tharked the vatious district officers for their ready help.
The financial statement by Mr, T. Collins (treasurer), which was alsa adopted, showed a rather better pasition than the prerious year. Mr. H. C. Cbandles presented the report of the Supper Committee, who were thanked for all that they had done, and the comnitiea was zeconstituted as before.
Mr. W. H. Coles (Hillingdon) was elected Ringing Master and Mr. G. M. Kilby (Ruislip) depufy

It was regretted that Mr. W. H. Ellingham (Heston), last year'a deputs, was too it to accept office, and it was decided to send him a letter of sympathy.
Mr. J. F. Lewis Cockey (Faling) was re-elected hon. secretary, and Mr. W. G. Wilson (Ealing) assistant secretary. Messrs. T. Colling (Tuislip) and C. H. Chandler and C. S. Bird (Heston) were eleched to the Central Committee; and Messrs, E. C. S. Turner (Ealing) and C. S. Bird (Heston) were appointed auditors.

Two new members, Messra. M. W. Norman (Heston) and W. Wigginton (Twickenham) were elected.

It was decided to hold the nest annual meeting at Twickenham, and the usual joint meetjors during the year with wearby kocieties.
a heartr vote of thanks to the Vicar of Isleworth, to Canon Wright, to the lady helpers at the tea and to the Iocal company closed the proceedings.

GUILDFORD DIOCESAN GUILD.

Smith (Ringing Master of the district). Among othelk preseut were the Rev. L. Starey \{Rector of Merrow), Mr. J. S. Goldsmith (vice-president), Mr. G. L. Grover (general sectetary) and Mr. F. Corbett (Guild hon. treasurer:

The following efficers were elected: Han. secretary, ut. W. F. J. Cope: Ringing Master, Mi, O. E. Sntith: hon. wuditor, Mr, C. Tezelden: members of the Executive
F. Cherryman fud $R$. Whittington.

Tine balance sheet showed a ctedit lalance of 225 Bs. 3d., an increase of E 3 Os . 3d. Subserjptions froni ringing mewhers realised sl5 11s., honorary members paid El, and 22 2s. was subscribed by life ment bers. Fippenditare totalied 81510 s .92. , atd included 510145 . Gd which was vemitted to the Guild treasurer.
The secretary sumgester that thes shoult donote f5 to the New Cathedral Bells Funt. It was possible that two lowers in the distriet, Merrow and Bramley, might have their bells seen to, and they should also suhscribe to surl vestorytinns as were fortheoming.
The Clairman thonght they should give money to places like Tiramey and Merrow rather than to the Cabliedral Fells Find.
Mr. T. W. White supported the seeretary's proposition that as be given to the Cathedral Bells Fund
Mr. A. H. Pulling thournt that the motey should be given to the luilding rather than to the helils.
It was eventually decided to ahtain mantion from the Guid anmul meeting to donate 85 to tho new Cathedral bells, and that money should be subscribed to the restarations when they occur.

PAST AND FUTER:
Mr. C. E. Smith (Ringing Master) stuled that 1938 was not. an eventful year far the disirict. He lan paid a number of visits to towers, and in noost inslances promress in service and practice ringing had lyeen maintained. He bad lone adrucated the idea of towers in proximity to eaclo other amalgamating for practices, and stated that Godalming and Witley aud Haslemere and Cliddingfold regularly oxehanged visits. He aproualed lo members to maintain practices, which was the only way to kpep up ine slandard of Sundyy sorvice Which was the only way to kep up lie slaudard of Sunday sorvice rinaing. Steady prowress had heen made at Eramley, who had rejoined tho Guild, and the Witley bsurl had heen revived owimg to the radegvons of Sergt. Hagley. In Tals, Fwharet bells were nug mented from six to eight, and Major Hesse liad played a proninent part in Hat work. He would jike to see mare local ringers atlending mectings at their tower. Eleven peals were rung in Elie district during the year, which was eight less than the previons year.
In presenting his first report, the sectetary (Mir. W. F. J. Cope) thanked all those who had supported tima, especially the gemeras secretary, Mr. G. L. Grover. He was sorry that there was not the hapedfor increase in "new faces." Tha average attendance at the five district meetings was 37 . Althorghin that might be considered satisfretory, the arearage attendrace of Guildford district membera was only 21. When it was considered that there were 157 ringing members in the district there was roand for improvement. Tile fact thet the flistrict meetings were fairly well attended was due to the support given by the Farminan district ringers. He appealed to the tower ameretaries to see that their towers were represented at meetings, Tho district memberslip was 157 ringing and eight honotary me hers, compared with 153 and 10 in the previous Year.

They welcomed back Bramley into the Guild, and the mewlw-Formed hand there was taking an active interest in district and Guild affairs. Their secretary, Mr. Martin, laad recruited six honorary members. 'Tlie drive for fonoriry members had been fairly successful, two life and eiglit new lonoraty members heing secmed.

The accounts, said the sectetery, showed a balance in hand of $£ 25$ is. 3 d. . and he thouglit they might with advantage consider spending a little of the surplus during the year. The New Cathedral Eells Find shonld receive attention.

Athough the general oullook appeared bright there remained a lot to he done before they could feel properly satisfied. The merious dncline in the humber of ringing nembers bad for the present been arcested. On the other hand, they were not represented at Grayshott, Hascombe, Merrow, Oekham, Puttenham and Shere. If during 1839 they conld bring at least one of these towers back into the fold, strp in the right direction would have heen made.

Feather and R. Jackson (Bramleg), A. J. Mitehell (Dunsfold), L. Wallis (Olandon) and L. Hill (Old Wohing).
Mr. J. Mackman urged the practice of lamblueli riuging ia connection with district meetiuss where possible. In these days, when the art was up against so much autaje attraction, the practice of doublelanded rimgmg would help considerably to kee! bands together and interest keen.
The secretary approved Mr. Mackman's suggestion, renurking that sucli an arrangement would relieve congestion at the tower.-At Mr. C. E. Smith's suggestion, the matter was left to him and the secrefary

Mr C Hazelden proposen a vafe of thanks to the Rector on S Nicolas' far the ure of the bells and the clumedh, and the Rev. W. BOOM IN LIONORARY MEMBEITS.
One of the results of the drive far lonarary members in the Guild ford Diocesan cuia was revealed at tite annusl moeting of the Leather head Dintrict held at Lentharlead on Saturduy, Fehruary 11th, when 31 were elected. Ringing commencod soon after 3 a'clack will grandsire Doubles. Later the Vicur (the Rev. G. H. If. Coleridged, sup ported by the organist and choirhoys, couducted the Guild's form of service, and gave a pointed address on the challenging message of the bells.
Tea was served in the club roon of the Duke's Head, but although 29 notitications Jad been sent ju, only 25 sat down to tho meal, so the secretary lias been wondering if others besides the Guild's treasurer had beeu struck dowri with * flus. The Vicar presided over the business Decting. The first act was fo observe a silence upon the rocent death of Mr. Jesse Beama, of Ewell.
The fistrict's reply to the appeal for mare Lonorners mewhers made in last year's reparb bronglit $\mathrm{in}^{4}$ honorary and seven life memhers, Mr. James, of Cobhan, being responsible for securing 29 of bhese. Four ringing menibers were also elected.
The balance sheet slowed un increased balance of $10 s_{\text {s }}$, it now beang as 19s. 6d., and the report matked a gteady progress in ringllag and including the first over of Pajaswick Surprise 退oyal, which nisde a total of 25 firsta in a new method. The report concladed with ant append to monbers to majntain the inctessed attendances at mentings, rewinding them of the wide rialuge of methods the meelings offered them, and also of the fact thet the officers also had to leave jobs in homes and gardcens to attend the meetings.-Entls balamee sheet and report were arcepted wilhout camment.
The retiving district officers were re-elected, viz., Messrs. A. Harman, Ringing Master: A. F. Smith, hon. seceretary ; and W. J. Whiting hon. auditor, The Rev. Coleridge, Mr, G. Marriner and Mr. A. I Adams wete elected representatives on the Geweral Executiva Committee, no other apainations having been made, and with their consent o draw resulted in their serving A. J. Adams one year, the Rev. G. H. B. Coleridge two years, and G. Marriner three years. Al the retiriad gevemal offeera were renominated, Mr, R. Whittington being added to the list nominated for Central Council reprePlates selected for meeting during the year were Newdigate, Ranmore, Cobham, Epsog and Dorking, with Letatherhead for the next annual meeting
Mr. Grover reminded the meeting of the waning interest in the Benevolent Fund boxes, the lacts of subscriptions towards the New Cathedral Bells Fhnd and the towers' affiliation fees.
The meeting closed with a hearty vote of thanks to the organist and choirboys, and to the Vicar for his continued interest and his varied setrices that day.
Ringing was then resumed intil 9 o'clock, methods ranging from the aforementionod Grandsire Doubles to Triples. Major, Caters. Plain Bab, Treble Bob and Sirprise Royel. Members were present from Ashtead, Banstead, Cobhan, Ewell and Leatherlead, with wisitorb including the geners 1 secretary, from &uildford. ## DON'T SCRUB YOUR HANDS!

Cleanse and preserve your skin this simple way

To many people, the problem of getting the hands really clean without harming the skin is a serious one. Grease and grime, which become deeply ingrained into the pores of the skin, are extremely difficult to remove, and ordinary washing with soap or even scrubbing will fail to remove them completely. Housewives, particularly, who complain that their hands get ruined by the nature of their work, will find the preparation called DERMAFOAM a real "godsend." DERMAFOAM just smoothes away dirt and grease with out effort. It gets right down into the pores and removes every particle of grime, leaving skin beautifully supple and healthy.

Men, tho-when you've finished that dirty job on the car, DERMAFOAM will quickly banish all grease and oil from your hands. It acts almost magically-working under and around the nails and into every minute crease, removing all trace of dirt in a flash.

Engineers, Painters, Car Mechanics, Printers - everyone - will welcome DERMAFOAM, the modern method of cleansing and protecting the hands.

Sold in 6d, and $1 /-$ Tubes

AN INTERESTING QUEST.

The letter which appeared in our last issue, asking for information with regard to past performances of Grandsire Caters, is a reminder that, although a great deal has been done to recover and collate the peals of distant years, there is still much that might be done to enlarge our knowledge. The history of methods is not made up entirely of the records of ringing performances; there is a good deal that might be learned about the development of the art if it were possible to discover the compositions that were rung, showing the advances that have been made in peal construction. This has been possible at any rate in regard to such methods as Grandsire and Stedman Triples, in which the researches of Jasper Snowden brought to light a great deal of most interesting material; and there can be little left in this direction that is not now well known. Treble Bob Major, too, has been investigated. The Surprise methods are for the most part too modern a development to provide much field for research. Nearly all is known about them that can be known, and already Mr. J. A. Trollope has written a fairly exhaustive history of early Surprise ringing, that is waiting publication with the book on Surprise methods which the Council hopes eventually to print. But because the text books on ringing which have been published deal little with methods on more than eight bells, there still seems to be scope for investigation into the development of ten and twelve bell ringing, such as that which Mr. Edgar Shepherd is conducting into Grandsire Caters.

What little we know of the past we owe mostly to the peal boards that have been preserved in the towers up and down the country and to the records of the old societies, where they have been preserved. But while these have saved for us some account of peals that were rung, and the names of the men who rang them, there are very few instances where, except perhaps in the case of Holt's peals of Grandsire Triples, there is any record of what was rung. There are a few examples to be found where the course-ends of the peals are painted on the boards, and thus preserved to us; but, generally speaking, there is nothing to tell us what compositions were used when those old peals were rung.
Our forefathers did not set the store upon these details that we do to-day, when many societies go to the expense of printing compositions in their annual reports, and there is little hope that much can now be found to heip us. But it is worth while making an effort to get together such material as is available and building up into a more or less cohesive whole what fragments bave been spared to us. Mr. Shepherd has embarked upon the (Continned on page 134.)

interesting quest in connection with Grandsire Caters, and, despite all that has been done in various directions, there are other similar fields which could occupy the attention of the studious and interested ringer. Too much of the history of ringing is buried in the limbo of the forgotten past, and such morsels as can be salvaged for the benefit of the present and future generations will be well worth the labour of collecting. No one, we believe, has yet written a comprehensive history of the Plain Bob method. It may not be so interesting a task as some of the rest, but it is all part of the history of ringing, and something that needs doing. If it is done well it will be much more than a mere collection of records of early peals.

PEAL NOTES.

COLLDGE YOUTHS FONOURED.
Four old members of the College Youths were honoured on Saturday whon, th celebrate their respective birthdays, a peal of Stedman Cinques wha rung at Cornhill. They were Messrs. S. E. Andrews R. T. Hibbert, H. R. Newton and A. B. Peck (the hon. secretary of the socioty). The three last named, who rang in the peal, hewe passed through the chair, Mr. Newton for the first tinue as long ago as 1898. The Acting Master (Mr. E. G. Fenn) and another past Master (Mr. W. H. Pesmare) also took part in the peal.

Mr. Ernest Whiting rang his 70th peal of Superlative Surprise on Saturday, whea he called a composition by Edgar Wightman at Buagay, Sufolk
Mr. Sydney Brown 'completed the circle' of the tower at Church, Lancushire, when he rang the second to a peal of Bob Major on Saturday.

As a birtiday compliment to Mr. Gearge Dent, the esteemed Master of the company at Harlow Common, Essex, and also to Mr. F. Clark, churchwarden, a peal of Kent Treble Bob Major was rung at this church on February 13th.
In konour of the visit of H.M. the King and Queen to Newcastle, a peal of Stedman Triples was gung on the Dizon eight at the Cathedral on February 21 st. The extre bell provides an octave with a tenor of 17 cwt . in G flat.
The 25th anniversary of the consecration of the first Bishop of Chelmsford was marked by a peal of Bob Royal at Bishop's Stortford on Saturday.

The first peal by a local band on the bells at Mursley, Bucks, was rung on Saturday. It consisted of 42 extents of Grandsire Doubles snd was the first attempt for a peal by four of the barid. It was rung as a welcome to the new Rector (the Rev. G. E. Oliver).
Another place where, on Saturday, the first peal by a local band was rung was Keresley, Warwickshire. This, too, was Grandsire Dotables. Thomas W. Beker, jun., tang his first peel at the first attempt for his 2lst birthday on February 22nd at Milton Regis, Kent.
The Bishop of Winchester tast week returaed irom a tour in Indin, and on Sunday consecrated an extension of North Stoneham burial ground. In honour of these events a peal of Bob Major was rung on Saturday
Miss Alice Scott, who rang tho treble, made her first attempt for a peal. She is one of the 'Guides' who bave recently been enlisted into the band at St. Mary's, Southampton, and has been ringing for six months only.

Another composition of Treble Bob Major by Mr. George Lewis was rumg on Saturday at Thorne, near Doncnster, for the firat time. It contains the 6th its extent in 5th's and the 4, 5 and 6 their extent in 6 bh's. It was the first peal of Kent rung on the bells.
The peal of Grandsire Catere at Worsley on February 14th took 3 hours 33 minutes, not 2 hours 33 minutes as printed.

BRISTOL SURPRTSE ' IN HAND.

Aftor Spliced Surprise peals ¿ouble-handed, a peal of Bristol Surprise on handbells may yot sound extravaraut, but it is a notable performance ell the same. The Hertiordshire celebritieg rang a peal of it 'in hend' ' last Fridey.
On the previous day the tower-bell party had rumg a peal in four Surprise Major methads, and Mr. Edwir Jennings scored his 200 h peat.
The peal of Grandsire Triples rung by members of the College Youths at Thatcham, Berks, on Saturday, was a birthday compliment to Mr. Arthur H. Brown, who made his first attempt for a peal and afterwards kindy ontertained the band to tea.
The fret peal of Kent 'Freble Bob Minor by members of the Ashford District of the Kent County Association was rung on Saturday at Willesborough. It consisted of seven one-part extents with $5-6$ the right way throughout and it was the first peal of Kent Minor by alt the band.
Mr. Horacs Hough. late of Melbourne, Derbyshire, and now residipg in Worcester, rang his first peal last Saturday at Claines. It is not so very long since he returned from Canada, where ha worked for severel years. He was able to too a little change ringing before ha went out to the Dominion, and las made rapid strides since his return. Reg. Woodyatt, who is a member of the Chaines band, calied his first peal of Major and at the same time completed tha circle in his own tower, Sunday service ringers at Beaconsfield, including their Rector the Rev. B. F. R. Routh), rang a peal of Stedman Triples on Saturday, the first in the method at this church by a local band.

AN OLD SURPRISE MINOR METHOD.

A peal of seven 720's of Annable's London Surprise Minor was rung at Stisted, Essex, on February 19th, the first peal in the method by all, in the caunty and for the Essex Association. This method, one of the earliest Surprise Minor methods (if its name goes for brythingl has beldom, if ever before been rung exclusively in a peal
Thas Was the 50th peal for two of the bund, Messrs. R. G. Simmonds and Ralph Bird, and it was the latter's 35th as conductor. Comparatively few ringers can have called so targe a proporion of their first half-century of peals:
(Continned in next column.)

LINCOLN DIOCESAN GUILD.

THE BELLS OF ST. ANDIEW'S, GEIMSBY.

The annual meeting of the Grimsby District of the Lincoln Diocesan Guild was keld et St. Andrew's Church, Grimsby. After very nearly six years of silence, the bells did not go badty, especiailly in view of the fect that they have been in the tower 51 years without being rehung. Members attended the meeting from Bigby, Barton-on-Humber, Scuntiorpe, Burtoll-on-Stather, Barrow-on-Humber, Ulceby Killingholme, Mablerhorpe, Louth, Waltham, Old Clec, and Mr, nad and Mrs. Bramwell, of goxhiln, and some of the local members were alse present. The bells wene rung to various methods during the afternoon and evening, and service was conducted by the Vicar (the Rev. A. H. Howard), who gave an interesting address. Mr. L. Mingay presided at the organ.
Forty mambers lad tea in the Church Hall. The president (Archdeacon, Parry) presided, supported by Canon Marsden (Vicar of St. $^{\text {James }}$ James') snd the Rev. A. H. Howard (Vicar of St. Andrew's).
The reports of the secretary and Ringing Master were read, and both were thanked for the reports and their services.
All the officers were re-elected. Mr. N. Dale, of Old Clee, was reelented a ringing member, and Mr. F. Cook, of Mablethorpe, and Mr. S. Neave, of Goxhill, were also elected.

The collection for the bell fund of the district amounted to 12s,, and it was decided to give it to St . Andrew's to start a beil restoraton furd.

The District Bell Fund accounts were presented end accepted, Future meetings were arranged as follows: May 13th, Mablethorpe; June 10th, Bigby; June 22nd, Elsham; Scptember 16th, Ulceby; October 28th, Scunthorpe; and combined practices as follows: Thebruary 25th, Thornton Curtis; March IAth, St. James', Grimaby ; April Ist, Barton-on-Humber.
It Wrs with deep regret the secretary reported the death of Mr. Fred Overton, sffectionately known amongst his fellow-ringers ss "Little Fred." He was taken suddenly ill on January J2th and passed away in the Grimsby and Diatrict Hospital on January 16ith, at the aga of 56 years. Ee was an ald member of St. Andrew's company and for the last six years a member of St. James'. He will be greaty missed by all who kuew bim.

The secretary also reforred to the passing of Mrs. Eushby, wife of Mr. Harold Rushby, the district organist, after Foars of suffering. To show their deepest respect, members stood in silence.
A vote of thanks was accorded from the chair to the Vicar for conducting the service and for his excellent address. Archdeacon Parry hoped that when possible the rimgers would sally round him and get the bells going again. The Chairman then thanked Caron Marsden for his presence at the mecting, also Mrs. H. Mingay for giving them splendid tea at such amall cost. He also thanked the organisu.
The Vicar, in reply, said how glad he was to welcome the Guild at St. Ardrew's. Now that he had settled down he hoped that they wrould soon get a band torether sgain. He thanked the secretary and Mrs. Bromfield, who had done so much to get the bells and belfy in order again.
After a vote of thanks to the president for presiding, members returned to the tower for further ringing.

The first peal on the bells at Burlescombe, Devon, was rany on February 19th. The bells ere now a ring of six with a tenor of about 17 cwt.
St. Durstan's College, at Catford, S.E., owes its origin to the historic City Church of st. Dunstan-in-the-East, Mr. Dougias Brown, who rang the treble to the pueal of Double Norwich it St, Dunsern' on Saturday, is ant old boy of the college and is almost certaiuly the only old boy of the school tan ring a peal at the church
At Barn by-in-the-Willows, Notts, on February 21st, Messrs. Jack L Millhouse and John C. Fessey rang their 25th peal logather, uad F, ( Hooper rang his 25th jueal. It consisted of seven different Minor methods, but what makes the performance more noteworthy is that the brothers Kenneth and Eric Willoock scored their frat poal and their first peal 'inside" respectively at the first atterapt.

Until a short time ago they were members of a sfoney luad at the five-bell tower at Balderton, near Barnby. They are to be congratulated upon their rapid progress in change rioging. Prior to this peal Eric had never previously struck a blow in either Orford Bob or St. Clement's.
Mr. J. H. Crampion, who bad the gratification of calling Lif wife's first peal of Royal on February 18 th at West Ham, conducted a peal of Kent Treble Bob Major et Woodford on February 00 th to cele5rate his own birtiaday.
Mrr. E. E. Trendel! has been elected presideat of the Canterbury Cathedral company, and as a compliment to him a peal of Bob Major was rung by members, at Hermluill, Kent, on Saturdny. It mas the Cathedral company's Brit peal since 1933. It was also bindtay complinert to Mr. F. G. Brett.

The 70th birthday of Mrs. W. E. White, wife of the popular hoo. treasurer of the didland Counties Association, was celebrated by a peal of Minor reag at Cotgrave, Notta, on Saturday, and afterwerda Mr. and Mrs. White entertained the ringers.

DOUBLES AND MINOR METHODS.

NEW EDITPION OF TEE OENTRAL COUNCLL'S COLLECTION.
A new edition of thet invaluable book published by the Central Council, the "Collection of Doubles and Minor Methods," which has done 60 much to encourage the devclopment of six-bell rimging, has been completed and is on sale this week. Tbe work has been thoroughly revised, and, although it covers the whole field of Doubies and Minor in a thoroughly eficient way, the elimination of unnecessary material, the rearrangement of the methods and compos!tions and the inclusion of a selection only of Alliance methods, bas reduced the size and, consequently, the ptice of the book, which is now issured at 2s. Moreover, the economising of space in these directions has made it possible to include a much expanded section on spliced extents, with numerous compositions, which will be welcomed by that rapidly growing seetion of six-bell ringers who find a new intarest in multi-method ringing. There are also larger number of othar compositions, and compressed into the ninety or so pages ringers will find a nost comprehengive work, the outcome of long oxperience and painstaking and patient labour. The Methods Committee have carried out their task well, and ringers, whether they possess the previolls editions or not, will find this new book essential to them if they are interested in any degree in five or six-bell ringing. Even those who seldom concern themselves with Doubles or Minor should add it to their library, for it is just one of those books that may be unerpectedly peeded at some odd moment,

A DISCLAIMER.

Fo the Editor.

Dear Sir-I understand that recently an application was made in my name for permission to use the bells of St. Peter's Church, Belgrave, Leicester, for a peal attempt, the application being mede by telephone on Sunday for the following Thursday.
As I had mo knowledge of this at all, I most strongly deprecate sach liberfies being taker, and as it is possible that similar applications may be made elsewhere in the future, I wish to state that any bona-file application from me will be made either personally or by letter on the printed notepaper of the association.

Any incumbent or towerkeeper receiving an applicetion by 'phone purporting to come from me is respectfully asked to withhold the necessary permission.

A Jundred and sixty years ago: 'On Shrove Tuesday a complete peal of 10,260 crandsire Caters wes rung upon the deep melodious peal of ten bells at St. Mary's Chureh in Nottingham, being tize first and only attempt mate for the same. The above performanee continued 7 hours and 20 minutea and was periormed by eleven of the Notitingham Saciety. The tenor, as customary with bells of that weight, was rung by two men and the other nine single-handed. St, Mary's beils are the leaviest penl of ten bells within 100 miles of the place, York Minster excepted.' Thus the "Cambridge Chronicle ' of March 7tla, 1778
Slirove Tuesday in that year whs on Mrich Srd and tho peal mas called by W. D. Grofts.
The two peris of Erith Little Rob Royal four days apart bring to miad os similar coincidence 47 years ago this month, in which the graudiather of the conductor of the Prittlewell peal was concerned. On the Thesdey the late Mr. E. Burnott, gen. called the first peal of Double Norwich Por the Kcat Counly Association and on the Kollowing Thursday Mr. Lindoff called a peal of it at Gillingbam. Neither conductor knew of the ather's intention.

Tis a sinall world after all. When the Englisls ringers were in Austratia in 1934 they visited St. Augustine's Ohureh, at Juley, Adelaide, a new and imposing builaing, and were presented with souveair buttons bearing a miniature picture of the chureh.
The Vicar of St. Aagustine's at that time is now Vicar of Liversedge, Yorkshire, where a meeting of the Lewds and District Soctety was held on Saturday. Mr. Joe Hardeastle produced his souvenir button, to the amazement of the Ficar-and then fongues wagged. At St. Augustine's the Fiear raised 816,000 for the new church, and allhough he saw the building faished, he left before they gat a bopedfor perl of bells.

GOOD FRIDAY RINGING.

To the Editor

Sitr-I never can understand why so few of our bells al's rung on Good Friday. It seems to nae to be the special accasion wheu good mulfied ringint would have a direct appeal.
Mny ringers, I imagine, lave not heard the solemn effect of doable muflad ripging, with the tonor open at back-stroke.
I venture to recommend this method. WILLIAM STORY.

QUICKEST PEAL ON CHURCH BELLS.

To the Editor.
Sir, I note with interest in "Peal Notes" the peal of Minor Tung at Buckland, Surrey, in 2 hours 1 minute, and reference made to a quicker poll having been rung ah the Beli Foundry, Loughborough. If my memory gerves me aright, the Loughborough peal wrs rung on the front six of the ten. It is ingeresting to note on the game page in 'The Ringing World ' as the Buckland peal a peal of Minor rung on the back six at the Bell Foundry, Loughborough, tenor $6 \frac{1}{} \mathrm{cwt}_{\text {. }}$ in 2 hours 21 mimutes. The Buckland peal would laze looked much better with another 720 tacked on to it. C. H. WEPB.

NEWCASTLE CATHEDRAL RINGER'S DEATH.

Newesstle Cathedral Guild have lost ano of their ariginal members by the death of Mr. John Foreman, who passed away on February 13th. He had been steeplekeeper for many years, during which time be carried out his duties most efficiently and always bad everything in perfect order for ringing on all occasions.
As a Sunday aervice ringer be was one of the keenest, and many will also remenlier him ringing peals, which totalled 55 . Most of them were rume for the Durham and Newcastle Diocesan Association, which he joineá in I901. Unfortunately, indifferent bealth kept him out of peal ringing recsntly. At the gravedide atter the inneral service the handbells were rugg as a last token of respect br C. L. Routledge (Ringing Master, Newrastle Gathedra! ## SWANSEA AND BRECON GUILD

NORTHERN DISTRFCT AT BRECON.
The annual meeting of the Northera District of the Swansea and Brecon Diocesan Guild took place at Brecun on Saturday, Febraary 18th. The bells were made good use of until service time, when the Bishop's Hessenger conducted the Guild's special form, also presided at the organ and geve the sddress, the Vicar (Canon Roberts) Seing in the congregation. Tea was partaken of at the Church House, 31 sitting down ass the guests of the Vicar. Yisitors aitended from Fbbw サale and Tredegar, and the Guild Ringing Master (Mr. J. Hoare) and the general secretary (MLr. D. F. Williams) were also present.
The Vicar presided orer the business meeting, at which the officers were all re-elected with the exception of the district auditor, who will be lenving duting the summer. The Rev. J. C. Hill was elected in his place.
The usual yotes of thanks concluded the meeting and the ringers returned to the tower.

RECRUITMENT.

AN ANNVUAL CAMPAIGN SUGGESTED.

To the Faitor

Dear Sir,-Your leading article ard the letter of your corfespondent in last week's inste of "The Ringing World' on 'Recruitment are timely, for I think that wnless something energetic is done to fill the deplewed bunds of ringers all over the country, the Exercise will be faced with a most serious prospeci of decadence in the near futare!
The instruction of beginmers is a most diffieult and disappointing task, and even sfrilied ringing ingtrnctors admit that. the percentage of successes is low. However, this would be of small import if recruits came formard in large enouga mumbers. In this respect I feel that recery rimper could help a lot more llam be does, and sliould not just leave the maiter to the captain of lis band.
It seema to me that it canmot be beyond any ringer's capscity to introduce at least one new perion to the beliry each year, nad to gecure his interest sufficienly for lim to commence learning. If every ringer were to do this each Jcur and even if only 10 per cent. of the recruits so obtained became successful ringerg, in nine years our numberg would be doubled, rings of bells now silent would ve pealigg, and, emongst other things, the circulation of "rhe Ringivg World would increase!
Nay I sugrent that au annual campaign should be launched through the medium of Yuun valuable paper in any agreed month, reminding ringers that it is time they brought their recruit to the tower. This campaign coutd be followed by a series of articles giving insinnctions to instructors at the various siages of the leatuer'g phayress. Enywards Heatb. Sussex.

DEARTH OF RINGERS AT ADWICK.

REGTOR'S REGRET AT SILENGF, OF EELLS
A meeting of the Doncasler and District Society wis held at Adwick-le-Strect on Saturdey, Feloruary 25th, and the peal of six bells was rumg to a large varielf of methods during the aftermoon aud evening. Sevanteen members and frends sat down to tea in the Ohd Schnool.
The business meeting which followed was presided over by the Rector of Adwich, the Rev. S. A. Thylor.

Tho Rector welcomed the somiety 'from selfish motives.' Adwiek bells, he eaid, had been silent for a long time, aud hie thought perhajis when the bells were once more heard ringing out, enfficient interest might be aronsed among the people of Adwick to keep them going and the preaent state of affairs brought to an end, it was no fault of his own ringers that this had come abouts "Ihey had brought leamers in, taught them and then for one rewson or abothen they had dropped out, and the band had heen gradially depleted till it hiad fimished altogether. For the first time since ibey were jnstalled the bells failed to ring out the old year and welcome the new year. A number of the reaidents, he said, were continually asking the reason the bells were not rung, and he gssured tho meetivg that, despite tho criticism they got sometimes, the bells were sadly nissed when they were silent.
Mr. Lloyd said it was a peculinr fact that winle Adwick had the hells nul no ringers, Doncester had the ringens and no bells. In addition to a first-class company, they bad a band of Learners comiug on very well. who were being taurlat on handbells till the tower bolls ghould be put, in order. Among these were a number of young ladies, and Mr. Lloyd pointed out to the Rector that if lie could not get young men lie must get young pomell.
Mr. Clark endorsed Mr. Lloyd's remarks. He ssid in many places they lad ank old-fashioncd prejudice against girls and women in the helfry, but in his experience he found that they were treated with extreme courtesy. He mentioned the fact that there wis such a thing es a Ladics' Guild with a large membership, and that Donemster digtrict towers bad quite a number of lady tingers. He advised the Hector to try this remedy. He went on to say that gince be first canse to the district he knew there bad been a struggle to keep thingr going at Adwick. Then for a short time they had a first rato band capable of ringing, and striking, a large number of methois, and now they had none. Ho hoped that tiis position would soon be altered.
Tickhill was decided upon the vedue of the next meeting, to be beld on Saturday, March 25 tig.
Fotes of thanks to the Rector and wardens for the use of the belle anil to the ladies for providing tea brought the metiag to a clobe, and the handbetts and tower bells were set going once more.

JOHNSON COMMEMORATION DINNER.

REPRESENTAI'IVE GATHERING AT BIRMINGHAM.

Lord Mayor's Appeal tor Cathedral Worthy of the City.

The memory of Henry Johnsan, most famous of all Birmingham ringers, who was horn 130 years ago and died nearly 50 years ago, was honoured ayain ast saturday, when tive city, under the auspices of St. Martin's Guild. Those who knew or rang with Henry Johnson are a fast dwinding band, but there were seven annong last Saturday's company who had met him in life.
The dinner, which is the chief event in the commemorative proceedings, was altended by the Lord Mayor and Lady Mayoress of Birmingham, and apart from the fact that the Lord Mayor sprang a Eutprise by revealing that he was the son of a former wel-known pull a bell, he made a notable speech urging the building in Birmingham of a cethedral worthy of so great a city.
Ringing took place at St, Martin's, the Cableedral and Aston in the afteruoon, and a company of nearly 140 gathered at the Imperasi Hotel in the evening under the genial chairmanship of Canon 5 . Blofeld, Ficar of Edghaston. He was accompanied by Mrs. Blofeld and was supported by the Lord Mayor (Alderman James Crump) and tine Lady Mayoress, Councillor A. Paddon Smith (vice-president of the Guild), Mr. T. H. Recves (hon. secretary), Mr. F. E. Haymes (Ringing Masler), the Provost of Birmingham (the Very Rev. J, H. Whichards), the Archdeacon of Aston and Mrs. McGowan, the Rey, W. S. Power (Vicar of Erdington), Col. J. W. Danielsen (church: warden of Erdiggton), Messts. F. W. Stevens and E. B. Tomlinson (churchwardens of Edghaston), Mr, and Mrs. F. B. Yates (King's president) Bn Mrs. Walker. The visitors inctuded Mr. W. Shor (Ringing Masier of the Worcestershire Association), Mr. F. W. Rogers hon. searetary, Winchester and Portamouth Diocegan Guid) and Mr. R. Plilpot (Porismouth), Mr. R. Richardson (Master of the Lincoln Diocesan Guidd, Mrs. and Miss Richardson, Mr. H. Knight (hon. secretary, Archdeaconry of Stafiord Society), Mr. E. Guise (hon. secretary Bristal United Guilds) and Mrs. Guise, Mrs, Wilkins, Mr. Williams and others from Bristal, Mr. J. F. Smallwood and Mr.
 (Gloucester), Mt. J. Williams (Newent), Mr. W. Sauiders (Coalbrookdile) Mr. T. P. Fider (Laughborough), Mr. F. W. Porrens and Mr. Whd Mrs, F. E. Pervin (Coventry), Mr. snd Misk Griftin (Walsall), Mr.
E. Nash (Mells, Somerset). Mr. S. Holt (Warcester), 3r. Bishop (Ruardean, Glos.), Mr. W. Viggers and Miss E. Pascoe (Aldershot), etc. There was also a representative company from nearly all the tower in the diacese.
Aftar an excellent repast, the toast of 'THe King' w'as given by the chairman.

BIIMENGHAM'S CONTRYBUTION TO HISTORY

Mr. F. E. Haynes proposed the combined toast of 'Charch and state and 'The City of Eirminglam. He said opinion had been growjes in recent years that the terms Church and State should have a universal applieation. When they talked of the State thoy meant 4, World Stater and when they talked of the Chureb they mernt a Church that would embrace the whole world, but for himself he found that wide application of the words was very unsatisfying and diffeult to understand. When he spake of Church and State he thought, and he believed most of those present also thought, of the Church as it more strictly concerned themselves and of the State as mors matrictly concerning the British Isles. He thousht it would he a pity if they allowed their jdeas of Church and State to become less definite, because much of the progress of the word that had been made in every aspect had been due to the rivalry between nations and the feeling of each ane of them was that their own State and their own Church was the best. If they took that as their idea of Church and State, they mast admit that iney owed a debt both to the Church and to the state, but whereas they were compelled to perform in some degree their duty to the Siste, the Church made no such compulsion upon them. If, therefore, the church and State were to exist side by side, and prosper as they would wish them to, it was obvious that they depended upon them as individuals to make them successful. It was in that connection that they welcomed the sddition of the words " City of Birmingham" to the toast that night. It was added in appreci&tion of the great honour they felt had been bestowed upon them by the risit of the Lord Mayor (applause). When they looked back through the history of the country the City of Birmingham hed played no mean part, both in regard to the State and the Church. Many men conmected wish Birmingham were among the famous churchmen, statesmen, inventors, artists and so on of the past, and at no time had the City of Birningham ever deserved better of the State than at the present moment. They were all proud to think that it was a citigen of Birningham who was now piloting the Ship of State (applause). IThe Lord Mayor, who first responded, thanked Mr. Haynes for his references to the City of Birmingham and expressed his great pleasure at being. present at the dimner as the guest of the Guild. Birminghsm was a city that had helped to make the country famous throughout the world, and that week they were bolding in Birmingham part of the British Industries Fuir. There was no prouder man than he was on Tuesday morning when he was presented to Queen Mary, on her visit to the fair, ane she said to kim, 'I want to congratulate you on the Birmiogbam exhibits at the fair this year. I am pleased to see that they have got such a fine exhibition.' That, said the Lord Mayor, was a great compliment, abd he was delighted to pass it on to the peopls of Birminghom (applause).

LORD MAYOR SPRINGS SURPRISE.

Proceeding, the Lord Mayor surprised the company by informing them that he was once gssociated with their calling. When my secretary sajd to me that I had an invitation to the bellringers dinner and added, "You cannot do it. You are booked at tine British Industries Fair for lunch, again for ters at 4.30 and anotber ore at 5 ," I wold him,' said the Lord Mayor, 'that I was going to the bellringers' dinger and that if they wanted me at the B.I.F. they must bring their time table forwerd (laughter and applause). They did that," said the Lord Mayor, "and candidly if they hadn't I ghould have missed those teas, because I wanted to be here " (applause)

I go back,' he continued, "& long number of years, 55 or more, when I uged to go regularly with my dear old dad to St. John's Church, Bromsgrove, whero he was a ringer. I heve been with him bere in Birmingham to meeticgs at St, Martin's Church, and accompanied him to many other churches in the Midlands where there are bells. I think I can say I took an interested part in ringing, because my father was treasurer of the society; but he was treasurer in name only, because I did the book-keeping (laughter). I still have in my possession an interesting emblem whicli commemarates a record in bellringiag. This is what it says, "The Worcester Diocesan Association of Change Ripgers. On Saturdey, February 2nd, 1884, was Tung in the tower of St. Jalm's Church, Bromsgrove, a true and complete peal of Grandsire Triples, comprising 5,040 changes in three loan's seven minutes, conducted by Elijah Crump," One of the rimgers was Jimer Hinton, who was stone deaf, and Mr. Allautt stood by the side of him and gave thim two taps when a bob was called and one for a single (hawgliter). I did that many times myself,' said the Lord Mayor, "but that was for ordinary ringry and not for a penl. Now I crn't tap tham even once for a bob (loud taughter). That peal was unigue and it states on the bottom of tha card that it was a record for ringing at that time (applause). At a leter date they tried for a peal at Eanbury with Mr. Hinton, who was deaf and Mr. Hughes, who had only one arm, but near the end the conductor forgot to call bob and what would have been a further record was lost, Once," continued the Lord Mayor "I hed to walk to Stoke Prior, where they had just got a new bell, and I remember going to the schoolroom to have tea. Afterwasds my father used to go to Stoke Prior to teach the roung men how to ring, and I bad to accompany him, hail, rain or snow (laghtar). I Was not much of a ringer myself, said the Lord Mapor, "but I used occasionally to help ring the peopfe into church and tell them it was church time (applause).
We used to kep the handbells at our house nad they were humg on a brommatick across a wooden bedstead so that we could tap them (laughter).

A WORTHY CATHEDRAL WANTED.

'It is this far off connection with your bellinging, said the Lord Mayor, that mede me tell my secretary that I was going along to Four dinner (laughter), Both the Lady Mayoress and myedf are delighted to be lere with you, and we shall watch your progress with interest and, I hope, listen to many peals. My only regret is that We do not posaess is cathedral worthy of our great ciby. There is plenty of money in the country and they could do it if only the wauld get down to it (applause). Braninglam is worthy of it. While we Birmingham to say, "That is our Cathedral" (applauge). Why cannot we do as other places have doke, make a bold bid to build a cathedral? If there is ansthing I ean do to help in that direction I shail be only too delighted to do it (loud applause). I don't profesa to be a goad man, becanse I sanould be a hypocrite if I did, for I've been a lad in my time (loud lauginter), but 1 am quite serious when I say that anyone who has lived any length of time in Birmingham must agree that we ollghi to have a cathedral wortby of our great city ${ }^{2}$ (applause).
The Chairman, who also replied, said he hoped the order of the toast would always be preserved. It should be the toast of 'Churcin and State, for thint was how best they could mark the walue that the Church could be to the Stata. He was grateful to the Lord Mayor for what he said about the Cathedral (applause). He was not going to dwell upon it, but it must be at the heart of lots of people in Birmingham that they should have a cathedral worthy of their great city.
The Chairman went on to cay how proud they were in Edgbaston to have such a fine peal of bells, the finest in Birmingham, he added, and such a devoted leader and team of ballringers. He spoke of the co-operation necessary in ringing; it was necessary for each one to do his bit and to face the correction of mistalkes. The niessage of the bellis, of harmony and mot discord, was a message for the whole of life. He referred to the introduction of machinery in rearly every depertment of life, but ing lhaped it would be long before the human element was removed from bellringing and the sound of the bells reproduced by machinery (applanse). They could not put the clack back and wachinery was necessary where a lot of hands were not available, but in the case of bells he hoped the human element would ever remaic, because bellringers were fellow-workers with God. They were not in the belfry simply doing a job; they were sharing in the kind of work that maby of them were called upon to do, work for God and His purpose He concluded by remarking that he walued the privilege of bein , in the chair on that occasion, and he hoped the Guild would go on always with that end fn front of it, which was Guild would go God's hatmony.

HENRY JOHNSON'S LETTERS.

Mr. F. Dawe, who was one of the seven in the room who kacw Henry Johnsan in the ferb, proposed the toast to the mamory of the famous old Birmingham ringer. He said he liad been present ato nearly all these dinnerg, which had bean held during more lasn 50 years, and attended the first one on Henry dohnson's goth birthday. Hwenty-seven years age he had the honour of being chairmar. He would never forget, on the oxcasion of the first dimer, the touch of five courses of Stedman Cinques rung on harabells. It was the most perfect handbeil ringing be had heard, but to-day there was only one of those six ringers lett, and that was their ald friend Ton Miller, who was with them that night (applausc). Mr. Dawo went on to sey that he knew Henry Johnsou personally for about 11 years. Athough there was so much difference in their age, they wero real chums and zo one ever knew the reason except that he had a matvellous respect for such a wanferful old man, who even in his ater ygars was clear in intellect, very vergatile, with a fund of anecdote and ygars was ceear in intelect, very versatite, with a fund of anecdote and as sharp as a neede. He wns a wonderful personality. He went to work before lie was nine years of age, so be got no college education, but he had great natural gifts and was a botr mathematician. The problems which came before him the could solve in lisa owti peculiar way. At onc of those early dinners Professor Thompson produced an instrument which was called a decadaliedron, by which he could prove any peal af Treble Bob Major up to 8,000 odd. On this ocension he spent several minutes proving a peal, which was known to bo false, and showing where it was wrong. Henry Johnson boakod at it and told them in 30 seconds where it was false.
Continuing, Mr. Dawe said that. for some years he had had it in mind to hatd aver to ringers of the present day some of the leteers he had received from famous men of the past, He had bronght with him that day some hwenty or so of Johason's letters writfen to him, and some of various other individuals, who were shining lights of those distant drys, together with several of Jolmsom's original compositions. He wanted to hand them over to the esteemed secretary of St. Martin's Guild for prespryation in the sotiety's records (applause). He regretted that he had been unable to find for the moment a packet of loters that he had recejved many yenrs ago from their secretarr's father, Mr. Sam Reepes, who was a friend of his 60 years ago and was Master of the College Youths when lic was clecled a member of that socicty. He zisn now regretted that many years ago he madn thres gifts from among his lothers. Some, contaning some of Johnson's proof scales, lie passed on to Jasper Snowdon and whers he gave to Sir Arthur Heywood, but there weve included among the letters he had brought a peal of Grandsire Caters which Johnson composed in 1886 on a somewhat new plan and whici he (Mr. Dawe) called at St. Mary's Cathedral, Edinhargh, in Augast of the same Frar-hbe frgt ter-bell peal exer rung in Scotiand. Another letter was one inviting him to call the last peal on the famous bells at St. Michael's, Coventry. Unfortunately he was unable to leave London on the date selected and the peal was called by Harry Bastable. Among the letters were two or three from Fenry Johnson's son, one dated January 8th, 2890, telling him of his fatler's deatl: on the previous day. He (Mr. Dawe) was the first ringer in London who had the mews, and le arranged a munfled peal of Double Norwich Major, which was rugg in memory of this grand old patriarcla of ringing. He was perfectly certain Johneon mever had an enemy and he aften felt his motto must have been " $A$ soft answer turneth away wrath." Men like Fenry Johnson, concluded Mr. Dawe. Were the bachbone of the Frercise in their day, and it was onty fiting they should do honour their memory.
The toast was drunk in silence, and afterwards a conrse of Stedman Cinques was rung on handbeils by membefs of the Guild,

THE GUILD'S LONG HISTORY.

Mr. Albert Walker proposed the toast of "Continued Prosperity to St. Martin's Guild.' They all regretted, he said, the absence of the heloved Master. Alderman Pritchett, who for many years nad proposed that tons, in the course of which be had given them a resume of the activities of the Grill. For the benefit of the non-ringing friecds who were present, Mr. Walker pointed out that the Guild was formed as long ago as 1755, when the society was called St. Martin's Youths, and rang their first peal at Et. Philip's Church. From that time the society had been prominent in ringing circles, not only in Birmingham and district, but further afeld. In 1814, for instance, they opened the new peal of bells at St. Nicholas' Chirch, Liverpool, and were awarded a silver cup for ringing 3.000 Grandsire Cingtes. In the reass which followed they had among them many celebrated ringers, including such men as Thurstans and Cooper, and, later, Henry Johnson. The pame of the society was, some time durity that period, changed to St. Martin's Society and later St. Martin's Guild was formed, its fnnctions having chiefly to do with the ringing at St. Mertin's, St. Plailip's and Aston. Then, after the formation of the Diocese of Birmingham, tha society bectame the St. Martin's Guild for the Diocese of Birmingham. The society Lad cristed since 1755, with all its old traditions and histary, and when it came to the formation of a diocessn guild, they could not leave out St. Martin', which they at that time and still thought was the proper title. St. Martin's Soctety existed as long ago an 1755 , where䢸 the djocse of Birmingham was aot formed until 1905.

The Guild, he continued, had been fortunate in finding very capable mes to carry on its affairs, In the early days they were national heroes; to-day they had some very efficient men who deserved every help and support that could be given them. During the past year the Guild ramg 31 peals and 80 ringers took part in them. A most gradifyigg thing was the youth that wes now in their ranks, and in this they were particularly fortunate at Aston, which now had a very capable band, induding a namber of young zingers. They had rumg a twelve-bell peal with their own band, and their outsfanding performances Lad been peals of Stedman Triples and Caters "in hand (applange). Among the tower-beli peals by the Guild lua been one rung at fanchester Town Hall. It had been a featare of the Guild that they liad in the past been able to eo to many palts of the British Isles and ring peals. Anoher notable peal wes a peal of Spliced Surprise tung by a mixed company of that Guild and Worcestersiure armbers. They wece fortunate in 孔aving round them territoria! associations like the Worcestershire, the Warwickshire atd the Archdeaconry of Stafford, with all of whom they lived in perfect harmony and friendly zivalry (applause). In this connection Mr. Walker referred to a fetter which appearen in'The Ringire World on the previous day suggesting a National Association. Ha thought such an ascocintion individuality would be lost. and it was much bettor that they should hare sepazate diocesan or territorial associntions and live in harmany with one another (beer, hear). In conclusion, Mr. Walker referred to tho work of the secretary, Mr. Rebves. They greatly appreciated his work, ho said, and hoped he would live for many years to he their segretary (applause

HIGH STANDARD OF STRIKING.
Mr. T. H. Reeves, who replied, first thanked Mr. Dawe for the gift of Heury folmson's letters to the Guild. They would valuo them very mach; they woulh road thom with interest and they would be taken great care of in the archives of the Guild. He permonally would afso be very happy to hrve the letters written by his father." Having next thanked tise artistes for their contribution to the programme, Mr. Reeves went on to say that he would like to sece more member at their quartarly metings, and Mr. Haynes would be very glad to see more members af the bi-quarterly meotings, which were beld for the improvement of the art of change ringing. In spite of that, however, their good old Ginild was going on; it was making progress and was held in Lighar esteem to-day than ever before (applause). They could go about the country ringing in verious towers and were respected. Othar people expected somethins rood from thems and he thought he could truthfully say they gave jt. It was one of the traditions of tho Guild lhat they did give good striking (hear, hear). In spite of what they sometimes heard gbout the good old ruen who used to ring at St. Martin's, he believed thoy were still getting equally gond stuking in the Bull Fialg on Staday mornings (applause). Ho believed that the spirit which permeated the Guild would maintain the standard of rimging expected of it. They had a happy band of offcers and the members gelierally gave them wholeliearted support. While he sometimes felf that the work of secretary was becoming a little bit irksome, yet he did get a lot of pleasure in carrying on the daties, and le appreciaced the honour of being the secretary of such a Guild (bear, bear)
Mr. A. Paddon Smith snbmitted "The Visitors" and welcomed on behalf of the Guild the first citizen and chief macistrate of the second largest city in England and the sirth largest in the British Empire. They were vory pleased that the Lord Mayor and Lady Mayoress had been able to find time, among their many uctivities, to grace those proceedinge, altd when in future in the Council Chamber he looken at the Lord Mayor, where he sat in majesty in the seats of the mighty, he would remember that he was a very fumaz man (applause) and that he had associationg with bellringerg, which doubtless explained what a mellow nian lie was (langhter and applause). Mr. Smith extended a welcome to the many other visitors, whom he mentioned by mame, sayimg they included their old friend Mr . John Austin, of Giocuaester, who, at 76 years of ape, had been abla to mase the journey because Sergt. Joseph Williams, aged 66, had promised to come to take eare of him (latghter and applause)

BTRMINGHAM'S ATMRACTION FOR RINGERS.

Responding to the tonst, Mr. C. F. Johnston expressed the visitors' thanks for the cordiality of their welcome, and said thay were delighted to come to Birmingham beoase of its famons ringore, its frst-class ringing and goad bells. Those of them who had also been able to visit the Brijkh Industries Fair had seen whet an astonishing exposition that whs aydi what British engineers could do. Altogether he thought Birmingham must he a rood place to live in, for on his way from Aston be hed noticed a great placard which said, "We dou't etst prices, we murder them ' (laughter)
ME. J. F. Suallwood nlso replied, but sail he did not feel that he was a visitor, for he was bred and ham in Birmingham and learned his ringing there. Unfortunately he had been exiled for many years, but he was always very pleased to come back year after year to that gathering. E. Fearn, in proposing the toast of "Tho Ringing Worid.' spoke of its indispensability to the Txercise. Without it he said, it would be almost impossible to arrange successfully such in gathering

LADIES GUILD

LONEDON DISTRICT TO FOLD MONTHLT PRACTICES

A very successful meeting of the London District of the Ladies Guild was held at Leyton Perish Church on Februry 11th, when 35 ringers were present, of whom 16 were members of the Guild, The handy ring of eight, just perfect in weight and "go " for a dadies; meating, were rung to a weriety of methods, iuchiuding Forksinire Surprise Major.
The short service was conducted by the Yicar (the Rev. Robert Brea), who extended a warm welcome to the Guild. The legson was read by the general secretary (Mrs. G. W. Fletcher)
At the conclusion of the service the Fiesr invited everybady present to look round the ancient charelt, which possesses a number of $1111-$ uaual treasures, amongst them a very worderinl old hour-tass, an even finer example than the one in the Victoria and Alberk Muscum. Tho illuminated monument of a former Vicar, reposivg under a glass cover at the foot of the chancol, was also revealed to the risitors.
Tea, by kind invitation of the Ficar, was held in the Old Vicarage, now used as a Church Hall, but actually the residence of the Wicars of Leyton in former daye. In a short speech, the vice-president (Mrs, H. F. Dealj thanked the Vicar and Mrs, Bren, Mr. C. A. Hughes, the organist and everybody else who lud beiped to make the meeling a success

At the business meeting which followed three new members wiele olected : Miss L. G. Grayling, of Limonton, and the Mkstes E. Bridge and C. Clinnery, of Orsett, Essex
Beaconsfield was chosen as the place of the next meetimg to be lield on May 6th. It will be remembered that this tower was io hare been risited last October, but the meeting was cancelled at the Rector's request owing to the crisis.
The nnnual meeting of the district is to be held at Et. Gcorge's-in-the-Borouglh on Saturday July lst.

A surgastion was made that the Guild should hold a monthis practice it St. George's (which is the lueadquarters of the Ladies' Gnild) on the first Wednesuay in every month.
The proposition having been enthusiastically received, wednesday, March 1st, was chosen for the first practice, commencimg at 7.30 13.13. The members weve asked to bear in mind that the annual general necting of the Guild would be held at Ipswieh on Saturday, July 81 h.
Furtier finging took place after, the meting, an outstandug iten being nn exceilent course of Cambuidge Major rung entirely by ladies.

WEDDING BELLS.

On January esth, at the Parish Clurch, Whitbourte, Hercfordshire the wedding took place of Mr. E. C. Devis and Miss Eleanor dokes. Mr. Davis is a member of the local band, and a quarter-peal of Doubles in three methods, Flatin Bob, Canterbury and Grandsire, was rang in 44 minutes by J. H, Grimiths 1, Fred Davis 2, E. Jones 3, G. Tones 4, R, F. Caswell 5, W. Morkis 6. The conductok was G. Soley, who was unable to talte a rope. Afterwards the riagers were enter aived by the bridal pair.

THE JOHNSON DINNER

as that. They wore, lie said, sometimes inelined to forget some of the services rendered week by week by varioss men in the Fxeteses. for the very reason that they went on so regularly that they gob insed to them. The success of a newspaper depended entirely tupon fts editor, and in that respeet they were fortunate in haviag a man such as Mr, Galdsmit]s as Editor at "The Ringing World.' He liad been rarrying on for nearly 28 years, and during that time he had written tretween 1,400 and 1,500 leading articles. They must realise that it was a colossat task to find something fresh to talk about every week concerning one gubject over to loug a period. Ther hoped Mr. Goldsmith mould continua as aditor for al. least anoller 28 vears (laughter and applause)
Mr. Goldsmith acknowleaged the kint receplion given to the toast, and Mr. W. C. Dowding then subraitited "The Chairmsn' in a felfotous speech. He spoke of the pleasure it gave them all to see Canon Blofeld in the chair on that occasion; it was not only a compliment to lim, but it was a compliment to the Guild to have him in that position, As their chairman he brd upheld the traditions of nany distinguished predecessers (applanso). Mr. Dowding spake nf tho hospitelity' which the Guild glways received when they visited Fdgbaston and of the homely addresses which they receired an those occasions from Canon Blofeld. He hoped he would be spared tor many years to carry on lis good work at Edgbaston Parish Church and to join them af that amual dinner (applause).
The toast was drunk with musical honours, and the Chairman laving briefly replied, the proceedings terminated with the National Antliem.
The musical items of the evening were provided by the Catbedral Quartet, whose singing was greatly enjoyed and warmiy applauded.
Many of the wisitors who stayed the night took part in ringing at various charches on Sunday, and there was at mid-day a gathering of the clans" at the headquarters, the Tamworth Arma, where St, Marifu's Guita were the hasts. Altogether the week-ent furgished another of tho bappy reunions claracteristic of this anmual commemoration.

COLCHESTER BELLS RESTORED.

The Bichop of Chelmsford (the Rt. Rev. H. A. Wilson) performed the rededication ceremony of the bells of St. Peter's, Colchester, after restoration, on Tuesdey evening, February 21st. The service was conducted by the Vicar (the Rev. R. B. Bertin), assisted by the Rev. J. H. Hickinbotham.

After tlre dedication, the heils were rungs previous to the address, by the Bishop, who comgratulated the parish in having raised the neeessary falt for the renovation. Thanks were, he seid, also due to another member of the congregation for having the belfry and approach cleaned up and painted.
The bells have been eatirely refitted with iton stocks amd loung on ball bearings. After the ceremony, touches of Bob Major, Double Norwich. Cambridge and Superlative were rung by the local carnpany: Mesars. F. L. Burmpstead, G. Boyden, G. Birch. R. Cadamy, W. Chalk, E. P. Duffield, V. Kerridge, H. T. Pye and G. Rashbrook, assisited by the following visitors: W. J. Nevard, E. E. Jahnson, 0. Snowden and Miss Hilda Snowden (secretary of the Northern Divigion of the Essex Association\}. Messry. Bumpsteade, Birch. Cbalk, Pye and Neverd were present 25 years 昭o when the new bells were instailed.

CAPTAIN AND STEEPLEKEEPER FOR FORTY YEARS. DFATH OF MR. JOHN SUMPTER, OF BARNET.
Yet another veteran has passed on in the person of Mr. John Sumpter, captain and steeplekeepar at Baraet Parish Church for 40 years, and a number of the Parish Church Guild for over 50 yeare. Prior to this ho was a member of the Hadley Church band.
Mr. Sumpter was one of the originsi members of the old NorthEast Middiesex Society. which afterwards formed part of the Midplesex County Association. He was also a member of the Hertiord County Asnociation and Royal Camberland Youtha.
Of a very genial disposition, he was well known to many of the older generation of ringers.
The funeral, which took place at Barmet on Mondsy, February 6th, was attended by many ringing friends, including Mr. G. Lucas, who is also ore of the original Middlesex members, and past and present members of the Hadles and Bamet bands, also Mr. and Mrs. Normen Tomlinson, of Southgate
On Sunday, February 5ith, a quatter-peal wns rung with the bells half-mufled by the Barnet band as a last tribute of affection and respect.

DON'T SERUB YOUR HANDS!

Cleanse and preserve your skin this simple way

To many people, the problem of getting the hands really clean without harming the skin is a serious one. Grease and grime, which become deeply ingrained into the pores of the skin, are extremely difficult to remove, and ordinary washing with soap or even scrubbing will fail to remove them completely. Housewives, particularly, who complain that their hands get ruined by the nature of their work, will find the preparation called DERMAFOAM a real "godsend." DERMAFOAM just smoothes away dirt and grease without effort. It gets right down into the pores and removes every particle of grime, leaving skin beautifully supple and healthy.

Men, tno-when you've finished that dirty job on the car, DERMAFOAM will quickly banish all grease and oil from your hands. It acts almost magically-working under and around the nails and into every minute crease, removing all trace of dirt in a flash.

Engineers, Painters, Car Mechanics, Printers - everyone - will welcome DERMAFOAM, the modern method of cleansing and protecting the hands.

Sold in 6d. and $1 /=$ Tubes

Founders

 of the heaviest bells cast in England.
EDUCATE THE CLERGY.

Speaking at the annual meeting of the Surrey Association, at which he presided on Saturday, the Master (Mr. D. K. C. Birt) put in a word for the parsons, about whom ringers so frequently complain that they seldom visit the belfry. Mr. Birt has had a recent opportunity of addressing a Ruri-decanal Chapter with a view to enlisting the clergy of the district in the work of the ringers, and one result has been that the parsons, in their turn, had the chance of putting their side of the case. There was no lack among them of sympathetic interest for the ringers, but when they went into the belfry they feel themselves, as it were, strangers in a strange land. Mr. Birt made an appeal to ringers to add to the welcome given to the clergy a spice of ealightenment, so that they may know at least a little about what they see and hear in the belfry.

That is a reasonable request. It is difficult to become interested in something one does not understand, and if ringers want the clergy to do more than come among them and tell them what jolly good fellows they are, then it is certainly necessary that their visitors should be given some idea, not only of the ringers' difficulties about which they do not hesitate to unburden themselves when opportunity occurs, but of the rudiments of the art, and the many things which go to make up its attractiveness for those who share in it. A little helpful explanation of what is going on while ringing is in progress, given by the ringer best qualified for the purpose, might be the means of implanting a deeper interest in at least some of the clergy. Where, for propaganda purposes, members of the public have at some places been invited to the belfry to see the bells and the ringers in action, interest thus created has led to useful results in obtaining recruits. A proportion, at least, of the clergy who are similarly brought to the belfry might be expected eventually to take a practical part in the ringing. That would indeed be a valuable gain, but if it only leads to a greater sympathy with the ringers' activities and ambitions it would be something worth doing. Without some personal acquaintance with all that the art and the practice of ringing involves, however, no complete understanding is possible. As one simple illustration of the ignorance that exists among non-ringing parsons about the technical side of ringing, it can be asserted with some assurance, we think, that not one in ten has actually seen a bell while it is being rung, and the rest possibly have little more idea than the lay public of the mechanical side of bells in movement.

In these days we need not only to draw youth into the belfry but also to educate the parsons. The lack of cooperation between the east end and the west end of the church, which we so often hear of, is not always all the fault of one side. There is a great deal in the point made by Mr. Birt, and when the clergy come into the belfry for anything longer than a 'flying' visit, every effort should be made to interest and instruct them if their knowledge of ringing, as so many of them often confess, is nil. Indeed, would it not be a good plan for the ringers at every church to invite their clergy to spend a practice night with them-a carefully planned practice night, when perhaps the whole gamut of a ringer's education could be explained and demonstrated? Such an evening, we are sure, would be well spent both by the ringers and the parson.

A meeting of the North Staffordshite Association was held at Fenton on Saturday, March 4 th, when a company of 35 were present from Eurslem, Cheadle, Drajcolt, Kingslef, Longton, Leek, Fenton, Nowerstle, Stokeon-Trent, Stone, Stafford and Wolstanton. The riagers wera welcomed to Fenton by the Rev. N. Turner (curate) on behali of tine Ficar (tise Rev. J. Howse), who ntitonded later.
Mr. A. W. Fall proposed a vote of thanks to the Vicar aud ringers of Fentou for tiair welcome and hospitnlity. This was supported by Mr. A. D. Steel and eccorded unanimously.
A letter of apology was received from Mr. E. A. Sherratt (leader of Fenton ringers), who is ill in the North Staffordshire, Royal Infirmary. He stated that May 4 th would be the 40 h anniversaty of the opening of the bells at Fonton, and this was ile first time he had missed a meeting there.
It was decided to write to Mr. Sherratt wishing bim a speedy resovery.
The meeting that showld have taken place at Wolstanton on April I5th has been cancelled.
A committee meeting was held after tes, with Mr. A. W. Hall in tha chair, supported by Mr. Andrew Thompson (hon. secretary).
A report of the Dinner Committee was read by the recretary and unanimoully adopted. As a result the dinner will be beld at the Geprge Hotel ox Saturday, April 15th, at 6.30 .
It was decided that a grant ise made to the restoration fund at Cheadle R.C. Church, where the bells are being rehung and two more being added. The sam of three guiness was roted.

CORNWALL'S HEAVIEST SIX INCREASED TO EIGHT

 PROBUS BELLS RESTORED.A complete restoration scheme liss been carried out in the tower of Probus Parish Church. For many years this fine tower, the highest in Cornwall (apart from the Cathedral spires) and the most magaificent, could boast of possessing the heaviest ring of six in the county. The tenor weighed $20 \mathrm{cwt}, 3 \mathrm{qr} .10 \mathrm{Ib}$., but also for many yeara the ringing conditions were bad. Things got gradually worse, and eventrally it became dangerous to ring et least one of the beliss. Soven years $\mathrm{agO}_{3}$ in 1932 , \& meeting of the Truro Branch of the Diocesan Guild was held at Probus, and the Vicar (the Rev. T. G. Fammond) promised then that something would eventually be done to the bells, but with other things needed in the church it was a big undertaking to set out to raise nearly 8800 . But this promise has now been kept ard within seven months fi780 has heen raised and only about $£ 80$ is still needed. The Ficar himsel leas given a generous lead for the new treble bas been given by lim and the two churchwardens, and the new second in memory of Mr. F. Burnard-Lewman, a jate headmaster of Probus Echool, by old boys of the schoal to increase the peal to eight. Unfortunately the old fifth was found ta be cracked and had to be"recust, but the whole of the work bas been carried out by Messers. John Taylor and Co. of Loughborouglz, in their usisal effient mancer. They have hung the bells in a complete new metal frame with entirely new fittings.
The worls was acelicated to the glory of God on Saturday, February 25th, by the Bishop of Truro (the Rt: Rev. J. W. Hunkin), who, in luis sermon, pointed ous that bolls were g purt of the equipment of God's house. In Probus, he said, they had a great heritage in their parish churet, and every clurech of this preatness should have a very fine peal of bells.
The particulars of the bells are as follows:-
Treble.-Taylor, 1938, 5 cwt. Ad majorem Dei gloriam. T. G. Hammond Vicar, and W. Mitchell and IL Iresawna, Charchwardeng.

2nd.-Taslor, 1938, 7 cwt
In memorjan F. Burnard-Lewman. At quondam alumbig scholae Probif.
3rd.-Ruahall, 1721, 8 ewt. Mr. Wm. Smith, Vicer, 1721.
4th-Rudhall, 1721, 9 cwt. Peace and good neighbourhood
5th. -Rudhal, $1721,11 \mathrm{cwt}$. Abr. Rudhall, of Gloucester, cast us ali, 6th.-Pennioglon, $1783,12 \mathrm{cwt}$. Samuel Seccombe, Vicar, Joseph Seccombe, Winliam Kessell, C.W., 1.P., C.P., 1783
7th- Rudhall, 1721, 16 cwt. God save the Church and Kine. Recast by John Taylor and Co., 1938.
Tellor.-Rudball, 1721, 21 cw . Mr. Stephen Earris, Mr. Edwerd Kemp, Churchwardens.
It is interesting to note that Probus Church is dedicated to SS. Probus and Grace, and the ninth belj at Truro Cathedral, only about four momes distant, is also dedicated snd inscribed to these two saints, May Probus bells rizg long, far and wide, and may God's bleasing rest upon the parish. A noble work has been completed. A.S.R.

PROGRESS FROM CO-OPERATION

The first quarter-peal of Triples on the bells at Ewhurst, Burrey, was rung on March 1st, The ring was augmented to eight about a year ago, and this quarter-peal of Grandaire was rung ag the result of the co-oparation between the Ewhurgt and Cranleigh bands, who practise together, four members of each tasing part: Ming Dorotey Denyer 1, T. W. Denyer 2, W. Beeson, sen. 3, H. Tidy 4, L. Waraer 5, F. Whitington 6, H. Charman (conductor) 7, H. Hatherhall 8. It was the first quarter-peal by Miss Denyer and H. Hatherhall. The members of the Ewhurst band rang the treble, 2ad, 5th and tenor.

PEAL NOTES.

A BUSY BAND

With less than nine weeks of this year of grace gone by, fye peals have been rung in Bushey tower. They include the first peals of Queensbury, Zetiand and Bedford Surprise, a peal in four Spliced Surprise methods and now a peal of Bristol. Thit's good gaing.
This is not ail that members of this Fertfordshire band bave done this year either. They have rung the first peal of Pinner Surprise at Pinnes, and four of them liave just rung a couple of bandbell peals of Bristol Surprise within a week.

A peal of Bob Royal wrs ruag at Quex Park, Kent, on Saturdey. It is the first time a peal has been rung on these bells for a considerable period. There has been a ring of twelve bells in this tower, the private property of the owner of Quex Park, for over 100 years.
Mr. B. J. Luck, hon. secretary of the Canterbary Distriet, who took part in the peal, bas nove rung peals of Plain Bob from Minor to Maximus. Eight others of the band also reng their first peal of Bob Royal.
The six ringers in the peal of Grandsire Doubles at Hillfaryence, Somerset, on Saturday, belong to six different parishes, and four of the band, the riggers of treble, 2nd, 5th and tenor, are captains in their respective towers.
St. Devid's Day was colcbrated by a peal of Minor at Tempaliord, Bedfordshire, as a compliment to the new Rector, the Rev. A. Jones Phillips, who is a native of Wales. With the exception of Mr. A. C. Sinfield, who belongs to Maulden, all the band are Sunday gervice ringers at Tempsford, It was Mr, Binfield's $25 t h$ peal.

FIRST PRAL IN 210 YEA 角S

The gix bells at Clalgrove, Oxon, have hung in the tower for 210 yeary, and it was not until February 25th that a peal was rung on them. They were made into six by Tudhall in 1729 .
The first peal of Minor on the bells at Kingston-on-Soar, Notts, which were asgmented to six in commemoration of the Coronation of H.M. King George VI. and Queen Plizabeth, was ruag on Febtuary 25 th as a birtbday compliment to Mr. J. W. Booth.
Another peal was rung on Saturday at Broadelyst, Devou, where the bells were recast and rchung just over twelve months ago. Tho of the band were drawn from the Exeter District and the remajeder Werg from South Devon, and they were congratalated on their eacellent striking by various people after the peal was finished
It was unortunate that at the last minute Mr. Walter P. Whitehead was prevented flrough business reasons from taking part in the peal of Stedman Triples at Numeaton on Mar, 2nd. However, thanks to Mr. Ronald Swazn for flling the gap, a good peal was brought into rounds just in time for the Leicester party to catch their last frain home. It was ot Noneaton that the conductor, Mr. Frank K. Measures, home. his was at Noneaton that
At Bartan Stacey, Hantg, on March 2nd, four members of the band of Longparish rane their first peal of Minor. Their previous achievements have been limited to Doubles.
One of these ringers, Mr. F. Tonge, deserves an extra sized "star." Leaving work at 6 p.m., be cycled seven miles to the tower and rang in the peal minus his teal Some of the panpered ones might take a. lesson from this.

The bells at Barton Stacey were restorcd and a treble added on March 3rd, 1934, and this peal was rung to celebrate the fifth anniversary.
March the fourth is Appleton's $\operatorname{\text {Freetday}}$ and on Saturday before the dinuer, which always marks the occasion, \& peal of Grandsire Caters was rung in which no fewer than eight members of the White family took part. It was the anniversary of the opecing of the lyells, Which took place 121 years ago, and there bave been Whites among the singers ever since.

LEEDS SOCIETY'S JUBILEE.

The Leeds and Diatrict Society is this month celebrating its golden jubilee, and on Saturday two peais were rung in honour of the event. A peal of Bob Major ab Burlep was rung by past and present oflicers of the soriety, and Mr. Willinm Barton, a former secretery, called a peal composed by the finst president of the society, the lete Mr. Tom Leckwooi.
The gecond peal was rung at Bingley, Yorkshire, where the zecretary of the Yorkshire Associntion called a peal of 5,024 Superlative ( musical compasition by Mr. A. J. Pitman), which contains 21678 -8 a backstroke, the greatest number yet obtaned in a peal of this lengtb.
The composition has only once before been rugg and that was in 1924 when Mr. Ernest Morris called it at Lougbborough Bell Foundry.
Bingley, where the peal has now been reperted, was the first Yorkshire tower in which Mr, Leslie Morris ramg, and this was his 50th peal as conductor for the Yorkshire Association and the first perl of Superlative on the bells.
The first peal of Erin Triplea in Nottinghamskire and by the Midland Commies Association, as well es by all the band, was rung at Sutton-gn-Trent on Saturday. Composed by Mr. Joseph W. Parker, of Sunderland, it contained 300 bobs and $\overline{270}$ singles and was Ting as E compliment to Mr. and Mre. G. W. Chamberlain, of Aghletgh, Maidstone, whose birthdays occur on March 2nd and 4th respectively.

The Rev. John P. Pelloe, who has recently come to Loudon from Sunderland, took part on Saturday in a peal at Haslemere, Surroy, and all the band were very delighted to meet him for the first time since he took Holy Ordere, Mr. Pelloe's father wis formerly Rector of the neiglabouring parish of Chideingfold.
A peal in 30 Minor methods was rung at Belchamp St. Pasi's, Essex on Sunday. It was rung with the bells half-muffled as a last mark of respect to five pariehioners who have recently died. Messrs. F Morley sand R. G. Simmonds rang their 25th peal together.
Mr. H. Rowley, a ringer at Horbury, Yorkshire, for nearly 50 years, has been chairman of the local Urban District Council for the Last twelve months, and a peal of Treble Rob Minor was rung in his honour on Saturday and aiso as a compliment to Mr. R. Thickett, who has aiso been a ringer at Horbury for nearly half a century. The peat wes D. Smith's and R. Hill's 25th together.
The pesl of Bob Major at St. Mary's, Woolwich, on February 25th, was rung in 2 hours 57 minutes, not 2 hours 47 minutes as published.
The peal at Broadstairs, Kent, on Tebruary 25 th, wes a compliment to Mr. William J. Fairbeard on his retirement from the police, and to Mr. E. F. Spickett upon his joining the Force.
After having met shart for a peal of Steduan Caters at Notingham on Saturday weak, cight of the party rang a peal of Grandsire Triples. Another wand that assembled for a peal of Treble Bob Major at Hocester, Staffordghire, on the same day, also found themselves shorthanded and mang a peal of Minor in three methods instend. It was Mr. A. W. Hell's 50th peal.
The Gunday eervice band at the neighburing church at Sandiacre rang a peal of Minor in five methods at Starton, Derbyshire, on Satırday week.
Mr. John Brotbwell on Fob. 25th rang his first peal with his two sons. This was at Whiston, Yorkshire. By a coincidence Miss Fasie Brothwell made her first attempt for a peal on this occasion, but she is no relation to her namesakes. Slie has been ringing only six months and is & pupil of the conduetor, Mr. Norman Chaddock, and Mr. John Brothwell.
A peal of Plain Bob and Grandsire Doubles was mang at Chiddingly (called by Sussex people Chiddin'lye) on Baturdny week. It was the frst peal on the hellg for 19 years and a local man rang the tenor and his first peal. The dedication of the church is unkeown.

The first known peal on the bells at Coleshill, Berks, is recorded this week. It was rung on Feb. 25 th in memory of the late Hon. Mrs. Pleydell Bouveric. The bells were augmented to six by Mr. $\mathbf{R}$. White, of Appleton.
The quickest peal on the bells at Asmbrittic, Somerset, was ring on Feb, 25 th when 5,040 of Grandsire Doubles was hrought round in 2 hours 39 minutes. The tenor is 9 ewt.

A VILLAGE RINGING FESTIVAL.

THE 'FOURTH OF MARCE' AT APPLETON.
The pictoresque old village of Appleton, Berks, was a lively placa on Saturday, March 4th, when the 1218st anviversary of the bells was celebrated. A good peal of Grandsire Catars was rung in the morning by rine of the Jocal band, only ane visitor, Mr. J. W. Wilkins, of High Wyconbe, being there in time to take a rope. The tower was, as usual, open all day, or, at least, until 4.30 p.m., when dinner way served in the Thatched Tavern. & compary of forty-four sat dowa to an eajoyable masi, after which, the tables having been cleared, hendbell ringing and harmony prevailed. The tune ringing by the seven brothers White was, as usual, muci appreciated by the visitore, and it would be a difficult thing to say whether these items aro enjoyed most by the old 'stagers' or by the people who virit Appleton for the firgt time. The great diFerence probably lies in the fact that the "old 'uns" fonow they will bs pleased and the newcomers are more or less filled with amazement that the source of auch an entertainment can be kept alive in such a small place. Then some of the old Berkshire folk songs, aever heard anywhere else, are not easily forgotten.
The Deputy Mester of the Oxiord Guild (the Rev. C. Eliot Wigig) proved a graat success as chairman, helping the evening, as his predecessor, the tate Rev. C. W. O. Jenkyu, used to Ro, by singing his song and telling soms nice little yarns.

The usual loyal and patriotic toasta were druale, and "The Appleton Society' was, as usual, a popular toest, and ably responded to by Mr. Richard White, who said he was pleased to say things were going on the right why, as threo of a younger generation had scored their first peals of Grandsire Triples and Caters within the last fow weeks. They מow had a band in the village who were beginniag to ring Etedman Covers again, and it was hoped that it woukd be only a short time before peals uf Stedman Caters were rung at Appleton agein by the village ringers of the same quality as the Grandsire Caters of that morning.

On Sunday morning, just to slow that all the ringing is not done on Marcls 4th, a quarter peal of Crandsire Caters was called by tha vetcran, J. W. Wilkins, and for evensong anothar quarter-peal was called by $G$. Holifeld, and a comment on the bells by one of the Fisitors was, "Well, the more I lyear them the better I like them." One great pleasure to the writer was to ring two quarter-peals with Mr. &. F. White, who toak part in his (the writer's) first peal of Etedman Caters 51 years ayo, and who is now a young man of 78 and also to include in the band two of the coming members of the family aged 19 years. May the Whited and Holifields never fadel

GOOD FRIDAY RINGING

To the Editor.
Sir,-I was very interested is the letter of your cotrespondent, Mr. Stary, on the subject of ringing on Good Fridey. I would like to say that his letter shows a deplorable lack of knowledge of the litargicel traditions of the Church.
If he will turn to any of the medinval sarvice books-the Sarum, Horeford or York Misasis, etc.-he will find the following yubric after the 'Gloria in Excelsis' et the Mass of Maundy Thursday: "During the Gloria, the bolls are zung, and that being done they ara ailent until Holy Saturday, as is there noted, while a aimilar rubric at tha Holy Saturday Masz gives instructions for the bells to be rung gegun, (I quote from my copy of the Sarum Missal).
From the foregoing, it will be seen thet any athempt to introduco Good Friday ringing would be to break one of the fow remanning ancient traditions of the Anglican Churcla, and in my humble opinion the sound of bells on such a saicied day would completely mar its solemnity.
In the case of my own tower-St. Chares (R.C.) Calhedral, Birming-ham-the bells are completely silent affer ringing for Vespers (evening service) an Palm Sumday untif the morning of Easter Day While on the aubject of bells in the ascieat liturgies, a further note [rom the above quoted Sarum Missa! may be of interest. At the Masg of Easter Dry the rubric ruus: "Before the Msas, let all the bells be rung togetber in a clash, then shall the choir begin the Ohrigt being raised, etc. These three places are, I believe, the only ones where belle are specifically mentioned in the Church's Liturgy.

MEMORIAL TABLET UNVEILED AT LEIOESTER.
Prior to the usual practice on Friday evening, February 24th, at St. Margayet's, Leicester, a memorial peal tablet was dedicated by the Ficar (the Rof. E. N. Ducker M.A.). This records the first peal of Maximus on the belle, first by alil the band, in the diocesa and by the Midand Counties Association. Althorgh the preal wits rung so long ago as 1922, and wes a memorial to the late T. Henry Hardy, a chorister and ringer of this church, the tablet is a worthy record. It was unreiled by Ronald Harey, the deceased's son, and nitre of the original band were present. Aflerwards touclues of stedman and Grandsire Cinques pere futg called by the conductor of the peal, Emiest Morris.
The tablet, supplied by Messrs. Caspar and Co., is a bandsoma addition to the ringing room. Beantifully executed in opalites, it bears the following record; The Midland Counties Association of Change Rincrers. On Saturdny, April 2 nd. 1922 , in 4 hours 6 minutes, a peal of 5,088 changes, Kent Treble Boh Maximis. F. Edward Norman treble, Harole J. ## AISINFORMED

Dear ctir, In seply to the letter that was publisled in last week's issue, may I tase this opportunity of informing Mr. Perkins that the application to use the belis at St. Peter's, Belgrave, was made by zine to the Rev. Llewellyn himself and in my name.

Hed Mr. Perkins communicated with any one of the band that stood in the peal, instead of listening to people who were annoyed because they were not asked to ring in the peal, he would have received more truthful information.
The telephone call whe made on the Friday previours and not on the Sunday; in addition, ove cannot understand why the name of the district secretary was ever mentioned in the metter.

From my end the subject is now closed.
sed.
W. AtTHUR RTDDINGTON.

HUDDERSFIELD AND DISTRICT ASSOCIATION

The anmual general meeting of the Fudderefield and District Assoctation was held at Longwood. There was a good attendance, also sotne gond ringing, and some not so good, and the meeting was much enjoyed. A short service was held before tea, nt whica tio Vicar
After tea the Rer. A. K. Minns proposed a vote of thaniss to the Finur, the ringers, the onganist and the ladies for making the meeting surli a success. to which the Vicar and Mr. A. Rothety, of the local ringers, replied.

The business meeting followed, and there was a slight change in the officers of the association, riz. : President, the Rev. H. W. Hodgson, Firar of Cross Stones; vice-presidenta, the Rev. A. L. Minns (Birkby) and the Rev. T. Mathieson (Elland). The secretary (Mr. F. Linfoot), the treasurer (Mr. W, Spencer), the Ringing Mester (Mr. F. Rhodes) and Assistant Ringing MIaster were all re-efected.

FRIEND OF KINGSTON RINGERS

SAW BELL RESTORATION CARRIED THROUGH

Mr. $\mathrm{R}_{\text {. T. Hesketh, for the past } 13 \text { yenrs an earnest worker and }}$ churchwarden at Al] Saints" Farisls Church, Kirgston-on-Thames, died at his home, 47, Duriston Read, Kingston, on February 28th, after a comparatively' brief illness. Fe wha an hon. member of the Surrey Association.
He was particularly interested in the restoration of the ring of ten bells at Kingston, nid was enabled to see the work carried through to completion and the heavy outlny discharged.

Mr. Hesketh has been a fery great friend of the Kingston ringers, and he will be missed. In spite of the fact that he was pearly 80 yenrs of age, he velT often climbed up to the ringing chamber to see them and give them those few words of encouragement wlich go a long way to help make thinge move amienbly.
The funeral service was held on Saturday, and at noon the bells were rung half-mumed by eight members of the company as a last thkerl of jemembrance and respect.

LONDON COUNTY ASSOCIATION

To the Editor.

Dear Sir,-Tle protest of Mr. J. S. Goldsmith against it paragraph in a letter publiched in your paper on January 13th was, in my opinion, well justified, and he has my siacero congratulations on haring obtained a withdrawal of an attack which was an outrage on all sense of decency.

The letter reforreul to, however, calls for further comment. Thero is a reference to & person, unnamed, who is stated to lape jed the Editor into his so-called interferonce with the intermal aflaiss of the London Courty Association. As the Editor gave a categorjcal denial of having received any such assiatance, or any such prompting, this unfounded charge should also be withdrawn.
The letter also states: "This association bas in no way ever ignored its title, etc.' In 'The Ringug World' of April lat Iast a letter appeared, signad by an official of the association, statine that the operation and infuence of the association embraces the whole of the administrative county of London within a radius of ten miles from St. Clement Danes, Strand. The lother went on to state iliat tho Morthern District comprises the N.W. N. E.C. and E. postal districts, and the Southern District the S.E., S.W., W. and W.C. postal districis. In view of this clam, how can any menber of that nssociation make the nbsurd statement that "this association has in no Was ever iguored its titlo'? Most of the postal districts referted to extend fer beyond the administratjve county of London (the London Couvty) into the geographical nud adminigirative counties of Fissex, Kent, Middlesex snd Surrey.

I witl not at this stage trouble you with any further illustracinns of how this association consistantly ignores its title, but will ead with the expression of a hope that the whole of tho latter published on Jenuary 13 th will be withnrawn.
P.B.-Following the example set by Mr. F. G. Woodiss, I will add that the riews expressed above are entirely my own, and not necessarily thase of any other member of the association of which 1 am secretary-

RECRUITMENT  SUCCESSFUL PLAN IN DUTHLIN.  To the Editor.

Dear Sir,-I was particularly interested in your " Leader " in "Tlse Ringing World, No. 1,457, on 'Recruitment.' We in St. George's Parish, Dublin, experienced similar iroubles ten yeurg ago.

With ouly a faithlit] few lefi nine years ago, we saught the permission of the then conductor to teacli somo of onr friends to ring the bellis. Having abtained thei permission, we proceeded to collect somo poung ladies and young mon, taught thom to ring until, about six months later, we lad the eight bolls ringing regularly for Sundey service, and in the years 1931, 1932 , and 1933 wo laad 100 per cent. of eight's, We started athiking club, a cycling club and a concert party in 1931. These were supported by cur non-riuging friends, and bise fotal number of members during these years byeraged 22 ringers and 14 friends. I had to go to Corl on business in 1934, 1935 and 1936. Some members died; some married, and othors changed residence, with the result that there was again only a few left. I retumed late in 1936 and ret the whole thing going again. This time We formed, in addition to the above clubs, f swimming elub and a Christmas caral party. These were again well supported by our nonringirg fiende, and at the present timo our ringivg members total 23 and aetive friends 22
The Christmas Garol Parth were out for ten nights at Chrishone tide, and collected i2g 10s. Gid. in fairly poor quarters. The Cancart Tasty made 525 (clear) in three concerts, and also entertained patients in one of the larerest city hospitals. The zingers also took a practical part in the parsh missionary salo of work, at which over E2SO was made.
In St, George's parish, Dablin, there aro sixteen organisations. You can assume that it should be hard to collect a team of ringers for practice on a suitable wrek-night, yet, in spite of all these calls and so much amusement in the city (there is a cinema seat for every one in ten of the population) we have an averrge of twelve ringers for our eight bells each practica night
I attribute the flourishing state of St. George's to the other irstercsts of our society, and I strongly recommend towers that are in a bad say to experiment on the same lines. I have no doubt as to the probable results.

FRED E, DUKES,

Hon, Conductor, St, George's, Dublin.

GIRL GDDDEA TAKE DP RTMGING
When Sorthampton Girl Guides attended Gt. Mary's Church, Southempton, recent], for the annual 'Thinking Day ' gervice, which is held to celebrate the joint birthiags of the Chief Guide and the Chiof Scout, five of them were among the bollringers who rang before the servire. It is hoped, in the near future, to have a complete team of Guide ringers. An sppeal is being mate by fhe Divisional Commissioner, Miss Willis Flemizg, for more Guides to take part, and rolunters are asked to apply to the Guide Shop in Cranbury Terrace.
Assisted by mombers of the St. Mary's team, the lerder of whom in training the Guides, the fiva enterprining heginuers made a remarkably good job of their bellringing.

SURREY ASSOCIATION.

CLOSER RELATIONS WITH GUILDFORD GUILD PROPOSED.

The Question of Young Ringers.

As an carnest of the good relations existing between the Sarrey Association and the Guildford Diocesan Guild, in the eres where they overlap, it was suggested at the annual meating of the Surrey Association on Eaturday at Southurark that each society thould elect a representative to the general committee of the ather, and the pro posal is to be considered by the respective execotives.
The mecting was attended by about 60 membera, who were present from Ashtead, Battersea, Balham, Banstead, Beddington, Benhilton Buckland, Camberwell, Croydou (St. John's and St. Peter's), Epsom Ewell, Göalning, Leatherhead, Reigate, etc., and there were other тingers from Eagware, Hampstead, Hilingdon, Isfeworth, London, Lewisham, Leytonstone, Maidstone, etc
A layge part of Surrey is in the diocese of Southwark, and on this occesion the association retirned to the mother church of the diocese. Finging was enjoyed upon the glorious peal of twelve at St. Sariour's Cathedral. Where the members attended the evensong, snd were wel comed, on behalf of the Provost and Chapter, by the Vice-Provost Canou N. C. Christopherson,

The Master Mr. D. K. O. Birt, presided at the business meeting held in thr Chspter House, and was supported by the hon, secretary (Mr. E, G. Taloot) and othor officers.
At the outset a letter was read from Mr. W. Massey, announcing the death of Mr. R. T. Fesketh, people's churchwarden of Kingston-on-Thames and on hon. member of the association. &r. Fegketh had been instrumental in havine the bells at Kingston rehang, was a great friend of the ringers and his loss would be deeply felt. The fureral mas trking place that aftemmon, end the local company were ringing the bells hali-mufled as m mark of respect.
The Master expressed the associakion's regret at the death of Mr Hesketh and tho members stood in silence for a short time.

The hon. secretary prescated the balance shect. which showed receipts for the year amounting to n25 9s, 4d., including s16 19s. 4d. from the North-Western District, 561 s . 6 d . from the Sonthern District, & 210 s . from compounding members and 8 s . 6 d . interest The expenditure was £53 14s, leaving a balance in hand of $£ 2345$. 3d., compared with 930 18s. 11d. at the beginning of the gear, but tho reduction, the gecretnry explained, was dhe to certain non-recurring expenditure.-The accounts were adopted.

PQSITION NOT TNTIRELY SATESFACTORY.

The committer, in their ennus? report, said that the past year could not be said to have produced any outstanding features, but & peruan of the records showed that the membership of the association was on the increase and the standerd of ringing in the towers was heing fairly muintained. In making this statement, however, the committed had been made iy some caspg it could not be demied that in some instances lack of interest lad been diaplayed. It was hoped, therefore, that those members who had the responsibility of furthering the interests of the association would make special eforts in the present yonr, where necessary, to arouse the enthusiasm of the mem bers to take a more retive part in the affains of the association. The committee strongly recommended that members who did not do so should risit neighbouring towers" on their respective practice nights, and, wherever possible, quarter-peals shosid be attempted at frequent intervals lys local bands. If these were attempted on Sundsys, especially in the eveninge, it was unlikely that exception would be taken either by the incumbent, or by the parishioners. This practice Fould be found to be of grent help in keeping a band togother and the canducting was shared. In those cases where a local band wes nat strong enough to attempt, a quarter-peal on its own account it Whas sumgested that on oceasion ringers from a reighbouring tower be allowed to complete the necessary number. In ather words. the时ronger tower, When opportunity permitted, shonld assist the woalser. five in the Southern pistrict, and in this connection the committee would like to see greater support given by the members, as it was by this means that interest int the art and in the association was mitrengthened. Twenty-four penls weve rung for the essociation during the rear, an increase of one over those of the previous year, and, whilst the nimber was not high, it had to he remembered there was not the particular incentive as in the pear of the Coronation.
An analysis of the peals showed that eight had been rung at Beddington, $\operatorname{nid}$ special mention was made of the peal of Bob Mivor ruge at Limpafield Chart, wherein the average arge of the rimgers of the front five was 17 years and the peal was their first rung at the frst attempt. The association extended congratulations to these ringers and to their conductor, Mr. L. A. Tidy.
Fefering to the anoual dimer hold last October, at which the hon, mecreanry was presented with an oak wall clock, to mark the occasion of his marriage, the report sain that although the international situation which immediately preceded the event was not conducive to a suecessiul fincition, it had to be admitted that the support was tather disappointing. Of the 56 tickets sold, orly 15 were disposed of outside the Crovdon area. There was a small deficit of 7s. 9d.. and jt would appenz that the function was one which did not appeni to the majority of the members. The membership of the associatiou showed a fair incresse, and the number of annual subscribing members now stoad at 297, as egainst 277 in 1937. The commithee, in conclusion, extended then very warm thanks to the many members who bad given their support during the pest jear

MASTER'S TALK WITH CLERGY

Commenting on the report, the Master said one of the thinga that ringing was apt to suffer from was sedility. They were apt to get too old and to go on in their towers with very excellent people ringing for many years and not getting young members. Then somathing happened and the ringing went nop in the tower. The moral of that was, surely, that what they wanted was jouth and they wanted to encourage the young ringers in every way they could. Young ringers were encouraged at the district meetimgs, and, provided they onme, they gab just the thing they wanted, and the ringing mastara made a point of trying to find out whet sujted each ringer. He hoped the older members woald also try to bring forward young cor ductors. That was another important point upon which ringing was apt to stick. He welconed the recommendation in the report about the ringing of quarter-peals; he thoumht they would help promising young ningers who did not get much chance of ringing peals.
During the year, continued the Master, he laad been in touch pith the parsons of the Rural Deazery of Reigate. He was asked by the Bouthern District to speak to them at their Ruri-decanal Chapter about what they could do to help ringing, and it was a very jnteresting mecting thet they had. What he found himself up ayainst was that the parsons themselves were spt to feel strwngers in their own belfries. They, came into the belfry with the bestintentions in the world, but they knew nothing about ringing, and, when they gat down to watch the proceedings, they wondered what it was all about. The ato of ringing was a closed book to so many people among them the parsons. If they could find a way to lielp thera out of that and get them to understrnd a fittle bit of what was gonge on it wauld be m.great help. They had all herrd of parsons not laking an interest in ringing, but when the poor men went into their own belfries there was nobody to explain in uutechnical langunge which they could understand what was going on and they went ont of the belfy saying, 'Yes, that is all right, but it is not for me." Then the ringers complained that their purson did not take aum interest in their ringing. He sppealad particularly to captains of towers to try to help the parsons ta understand what was eoing on when the bells wer being rang, because there were accasions when the pareons could be of immense help to the ringers. He assured them that the parsons as that Ruri-decanal Chapter went away intending to do what they could (applause)

Mr. A. A. Hughes, referring to the recruiting of young ringors, quoted from his own experience at St. Lawrence Jewry, where he started a band a few years ago from members of the choir with most esccessful results. It was, perlzaps, not always possible to do this, he said, but there were many choirs where they could interest the boys in ringing when they lost their voices. If they could attract them to the tower and interost them in rimging st was an advantage not only to the belfry, but to the charch &s well, by keeping their interest is charch work
The Hon. Secretary said one useful suggestion for remniting was contrined in a letter from Mr. Overy in "The Ringing World ' on the preceding day. It was suggested that every ringer should abtain one new member every year. Even if they did not all continue their interast, he was sure it would bring in more members than tho haphazard way in which most towers were recrujted at present.
Tha repart was adopted
Mr. B. F. Baker, of Maidstone, was elected a non-resident memher of the association, and Croydon was chosen for the next anhual meeting, the other places suggested being Leatherhead and it. Matin's, Epsomiz,

SUGGESTED 'LTALSON' WITH GUILDFORD DIOCESAN GUTLD,

 The gemeral officers of the association were elected as iollows, there being no other nomimations: President, the Bishop of Soutbrark; Master, Mr. D. K. C. Birt; her. freasurer, Mr. H. F. Wallis: hon, saretary, Mr. A. G. Talbat; assistant secretary, Mr, A, J. Cook; aurlitor, Mr. G. W. Steere.The Mester thenked the members and said the offcers and committee wonld do then best to make the association useful in accortance with its objecte to foster ringing in each district. They would continue to do that and also to cultivate the most friendly relations with all the othor ringing associstions and guilds in their neighbourhood (hear, hear). They were, he added, sofry to loge the services, as assishant secretary, of Nr. Holden, but they welcomed Mr. Cook in hits place.
The Bishop of Croydon and Mr. Arthur Dean, of Leatlerhead, were elected vice-presidents, the latter in recognition of his long services to the association. He is now incapacitated from ringing and is ftest one short of a total of 200 peals rung for the assomiation.
Messrs. D. Cooper, W. Claydon and C. F. Kippin were re-elected representatives of the associazion on the Central Coutacil.
Mr. Kippin said in view of the good feeling existing between the association and the Guildford Diocesan Guild, which he trusted would ever continue, he would sitgest that the committee consider the possibility of asking the Guildford Guild whether they would agree to a mutual arrangement by which the Guild should elect a member (Continued on page 163.)

DEATH OF MR. ARTHUR KNIGHTS.

A GREAT COMPOSER

One of the best known men for something like two generations is lost to the Exercise by the death of Mr. Arthur Enights, of Chesterfield, who, as briefly recorded last week, passed away on March lst at the advanced age of 79 years. Mr. Knights, not marely as an enthusiastic ringer throughout his long life, but as one of the most talented composers of our time, has earned a lasting place in ringing history, for his contribution to the science in the realm of fugures has been a colossal one. He was widely known in the Midlands and Yorkshire and held in the lighest esteem among ringers, not only for his gifts, but for his kindly and genial disposition. His death leaves a gap which will be diffeult to fill.
Arthar Knights was a great composer and few men can claim the authorship of more peals than he has produced. He composed peals in many methods, but Treble Bob was his particular interest. He first produced peals in this method nearly 60 years ago, bri, strange as it may seeno, it is only within the legt two or three years that some of his early composifions have begn rung. In the meantime he comprosed literally humdreds of peals. and his work has been emong tho most popular of any ringer's and in great denand among the conductors. He composed about 430 original purts of Treble Bub Major and over 300 of Treble Boh Royal. But he hed a great many peals of both Grmndsire and Stedman Oaters and Dinques, andi in other methods, too. Iedeed, therg luave been nerrly 1,200 of his peal compositions rung, includ ing some of the reverse variations of peale of Treble Bob.
Mr- Knirnts had a lifelong internst in bells, for he was not. yet nine years old when he learneid to chime the bells at the church of his native village of Brome, near Eye, in Suffolk, where he wes born on December 17th, 1859. As he grew up it wes ouly natural that clange ringing should attract bim, and be rang Firs first peal on May 196 h , 1879 . It wes at Diss, Norfolk, and was the first peal of Kert Treble Bob Mnjor by the Norwich Diocesan Associstion.
Soon after this he removed to Chesterlield, where he had lived ever since. From tho first lee was associated with ringing at the Parish Church, with its famous crooked spire, and for many years was lender of the hamd there, until the condition of the tower and bells caused ringing to be stopped. He made preat efforts to secure a restoration, but for years, to his great disappointmeat, the bells have remnined silent

It was in this tower that Mr. Knights rang his first peal ag eonductor on July 15th, 1882, when he called one of his own compositions of Kent Trehie Boh Major. Mr. Knights had rung well over 60 peals and had conducted considerably more than 200 . Of this total some 390 have been peals which he compoged, nearly all of which were rung for the first time. With the exception of Holt's Original and Davis' ter-part peals of Grandsire Triples, Mr. Knights never called the same peal twice, and very rerely lias he even rung the same compusttion more than once.
Fis peals included Grandsire Triples, Caters and Cinques, Plain Bob, Little Bob, Kent and Orford Treble Bob Major, Royr] and Mazimus, Doubla Norwicl Major, Caters and Royal, Camhridge and Forkshire Major and Royal, Superlative, London and other Surprise Major methods.
Although living in Derbyshire and being a member of the Midland Counties Associntion since 1890 , Mr. Kniphts rang a large number of peals for the Yorkghire Association, which he joined in 1880. He had rung over 300 peals for each of these associations. He rang in the flrst peals for the Yarkshire Associstion of New Cambridge. Bristol, Peterborongh and Norfolk Surprise Major, Demble Norwich Caters and Royal. Little Bob and Cambridge Surprise Royal, and the first and only peal of Oxford Treble Bob Maximus on tower bells in York-
 Treble Bob Major, Tung on May $19 \mathrm{th}, 1900$, to celebrate the relief of Ladrgmith.

BEDFORD SURPRISE.

To the Editor.

Sir-My method of Bedford Surprise rung by the talented baad at lushey and published in your assue of February 18tb is one of a few methods with e perfect extension to Royal and Maximus. There is only one false course-end for Major, viz., 24365 , therefole all peals of Troble Bols on all numbers cay be used, with bob made in 4lh. If the bob is made on the three back lolls, pests with the 6th its extent tall be had.
It may now be noted why the method whs called "Bedford. While 1 was a member of St. Stephen's Sociely, Rochester Fow, Westminster, Mr. A. B. Peck, the present secretary of the Ancient Society of College Youths, was also i mpmber, A few years before he ha coms to London from Bediord. The method niw appears to have heers dedicated to the secretary of the College Foutios.

SUREEY ASSOCIATION.
to the Executive Committee of the Surrey Association and the Surrey Association should elect a merpber of the Executive Committee of the Guildford Guild, with the object of keeping the two bodies in close touch. The two associntions were so bound together that it would always be ureful for one association to know what the other was doing.

The Master said the rolationg between the two societies had been and he hoped always would be close and cordial, and any arrangemeat whicta would draw them closer would be welcome. Whether it could be done in the form suggested by Mr. Kippin le did not know, but the committec would be glad to consider it.

Mr. C. E. Smith (Ringing Master of the Guildiond District of the Guildford Guild) said, personally, he welcomed the suggestion. A menting of the Guidford Guild Committee was to be held on the following Wednesday and he would raise the matter there. He thouglt Mr. Kippin's suggestion was a good one.

Mr. W. Hewetit: It seems to me that in the future wa shall have a Surtey Association with a Guildford Diocesan branch and a Southwark Diacesan branch.
In repiy to Mrs. Kippin, the Master said the committee would consider the quegtion of holding another association dianer.

It was resolved to anthorise the committee to make a contribution to the expenses of entertaining members of the Central Council when they meet in Landon at Whiteun.
The Master proposed a comprehensive vote of thanks to all concerned in the arrangements, and particularly to Vice-Provost Christopherson for his welcome in the Cathedral.

A vote of thanks to the retiring officers concluded the business and further rimging took place at the Cathedral.

DON'T SCRUB YOUR HANDS!

Cleanse and preserve your skin this simple wayTo many people, the problem of getting the hands really clean without harming the skin is a serious one. Grease and grime, which become deeply ingrained into the pores of the skin, are extremely difficult to remove, and ordinary washing with soap or even scrubbing will fail to remove them completely. Housewives, particularly, who complain that their hands get ruined by the nature of their work, will find the preparation called DERMAFOAM a real "godsend." DERMAFOAM just smoothes away dirt and grease without effort. It gets right down into the pores and removes every particle of grime, leaving skin beautifully mupple and healthy.

Men, too-when you've finished that dirty job on the car, DERMAFOAM will quickly banish all grease and oil from your hands. It acts almost magically-working under and around the nails and into every minute crease, removing all trace of dirt in a flash.

Engineers, Painters, Car Mechanics, Printers - everyone - will welcome DERMAFOAM, the modern method of cleansing and protecting the hands.

YORKSHIRE AND THE DISTRICT SOCIETIES

The vast area of Yorkshire presents its special difficulties to the County Association, difficulties which, in some ways, have not been entirely overcome. There are at least two hundred and fifty rings of bells in Yorkshire, the majority, of course, in the crowded industrial areas of the south and west; but no insignificant number, also, in the widely scattered districts north and east. They have their own differing problems. In the first instance no one organisation can hold meetings at all the churches in either of the populous districts with that degree of frequency which, in ordinary circumstances, keeps' a tower in close touch with its association. In the case of the scattered towers there are all the handicaps of isolation and distance, magnified in Yorkshire beyond most areas. In this territory, another association exists, but few of the sixty or so towers show anything like a full membership of either.

This apart, the Yorkshire Association retains among its members an entlusiasm unexcelled anywhere in the country, and it occupies a position both in nurabers and finance that is a hallmark of successful administration. Part of this success, we think, has been due to the smaller societies which have long been working within the area and which, while attempting in no way to sap the allegiance of members of the Yorkshire Association, have in fact proved a recruiting ground and have kept local interest alive when the task might have been beyond the power of the county organisation. If at any time this overlapping has produced friction, it has been only trivial and personal. Officially the relations between the smaller societies, like the Leeds, the Sheffield and the Barnsley District Societies and the big brother have been cordial and helpful.

Recently a new society has come into the field in the Huddersfield area, and it is gratifying to read of the cordiality that was evinced at a joint mecting with the Yorkshire Association on Saturday. Indeed, a vice-president of the Halifax Society spoke of his organisation as a "nursery' for the larger association, and if this spirit prevails the existence of the one within the other can have no result but good. The local societies can help the cause of ringing not only by expending their energies in their own particular areas, but by encouraging loyalty to the county association which brings them all together in one larger brotherhood. There are many ringers who are inclined to take too narrow an outlook. They cannot see beyond their own tower, or their own district, or their own association. This restricted vision hampers their own activities, and is a drag upon the (Contitued on page 166.)

wheels of progress throughout the whole Exercise. In Yorkshire, however, the smaller societies do not look upon themselves as rivals to the county association. They act almost as self-contained branches which, in the long run, bring support to the parent organisation. That the new Huddersfield District Society will follow this line seems assured after last Saturday's meeting, and will, we hope, prove a source of strength rather than of disintegration, as some may have feared.

DUDLEY AND DISTRICT GUILD.  ANNUAL MEETING AT DUDLEF.

The anmusl meeting of the Dudiey and District Guild was held at Dadley oa Saturiey, March 4 th, and, in spite of the inclement weather, was well attended The bells were kept merrily going in various methods prior to the service, which was conductedi by the Vea. A. P. Shepherd, D.D., Archdeacen and Ficar of Dudiey and preaident of the Guild. The Rev. W. H. Waring (curate) gave a very interesting address.
A substantisl tea, provided out of fands collected by the secretary (Mr. Herbert Sheppard) From promirent members of St. Thomad congretation and other friends, wos gerved in tha school Hall. It Was prepared and served by ringers' wives, daughters and other friends. Upwards of 90 members gat down.

At the business meeting which followed, the Archdeacan presided, supported by Mr. W. R. Edwards (people's warder), the Rev. W. H. Waring, Messrs. Herbert Steppard (aecretary), Johm Godiman (tresaurer) and W. E. Barry (ex-warden).

The President gave the members a heaty welcome to Dudley and said how pleased he was to be with them geain.
The hon. treasurer preaented the balance shect, which showed total receipts of 119 Os . 7d., which included the balance of 813 11s. 1 d . From last year. The expenses had been E6 gs. gd., leaving a balance of f10 10 s .10 d . iv the treasurer's bands, which was considered very gatisfactory.
The following were again elected wice-presidents: The Rev. E. L. Warren (Vicar of Nethertob), the Rev. Prebendary H. W. Jones (Vicar of Weanessury), the Rev. 工. Wilson (Vicar of Old Hill), Dr. P. S. Biaker, Mesary, J. W. Nayler, C. E. Llovd, A. E. Meredith. Arthur Spittle, A. Winbow, W. E. Barry, J. McDougal Tait and Arthur Spittle, W. R. Edwards. Walter Farley, of Stourbridge, was unanimously elected Ringing Master and Mr. Herbert Sheppard secretary. Mr. John Goodmen was re-elected treasurer, ard Messrs. G. T. Guest and T. H. Justice auditors and thanled for their services. Mr. T. Colelaugh was reelected representative on the Central Council.
Several new members were added ta the moll and it was decided to hold the next guarterly meeting at Gfent, subject to the usual permission being mbtained. It mas proposed to attempt the annual peal at Dudley, the arrangements being left with the Ringing Mester.

A ter eome discrasion it was decided to continue the monthy practices at Dudlep Parish Church (ten bells) on the firgt Monday in eqch month at $7.30 \mathrm{p} . \mathrm{mm}$.
Mr. Sheppard proposed that the best thanks of the meeting be given to the Archdeacon, to the Rev. W. H. Waring, to the organint, to the donors of the tea fund, to the ladies who presided at the tables and prepared and served the tea, and to all who had in any way assisted in making the meeting a happy and successful one. The Archdeacon briefy replied on behalf of all concerned and then closed the proceedings with prayer.
Furtior ringing took place in the evening and brought an enjoyable meeting to a close.

QUICKEST PEAL AT ASHBRITTLE.

To the gatitor.

Sir, The last peragraph of 'Peal Notes' in your last issue etates that the quickest peal on Ashbritile bells was rung in 2 hours 39 minutes on Febrnary 25th. This is incorrect, as a peal was rung on the same bells in 2 hours 32 mituter on Apri] 18th, 1920.

PEAL NOTES.

METHODS ON A NEW PLAN.

A band wuder the conductatship of Mr. Nolan Golden, the indefatigable hon. sectetary of the Formich Diocesan Association, has just geored the first peal in two new Major methods, which are a combimation of Little and Alliance. The treble is a dodging bell in $1-2$ and $3-4$ and a plain hunt bell in $5-6$. When it reaches 6 th's it turns round sind goes dowh so that it is never in 7-8. The leagth of a course is 140 changes and both methods bave a Gth's place bob.

The flrst of the two methods was Ohechendon, $a$ peal of which was rung at East Dercham on March $4 t h$, and the second Nothrepps, rung ot Marsliam last Saturday. Both pealg were composed and conducted by 3 . Golden, and s.e another interesting departure from the beaten track which seems to offer exteasive variety.
Here is half a lead of each method:-

Another band has broken into Spliced Surprise Major ringing. Ringers from Earls Colne, Halstead and Jraintree Jinve been practising together, and last Saturday at the third attempt a peal in four methods wns accomphished, inder the couductorship of Mr, Lewty Wiffen, at Bocking

The successful band wish to associate with the peal the names of Mr. F. Felton, of Braintree, who stood in a previous attempt, Miss pr. Pettit and Mr. W. Arnold, who have attended the practices. The fret attempt for a peal was lost after 2 hours 30 minutes, and in the second the ringing lasted two hours.
The peal on Saturday was the fiftieth which Mies Bilda Snowden and her brother, Clande, hove rung together

The peal of Stedman Priples rung at Christ Clatch, Eustbourne, on March 6th, was a 16th birthday compliment to Miss Betty Rayfield, who scored her first peal. It was afterwards dibcovered to be a birthday compliment to the ringers of the 5th and tenor (Messrs. Pankhurat and Faulkner), whoge birthdays are March 7th and 8 th regpectively, there being exactly half a century between the ages of -ntes Rnyfield and Mr. Faulkner. The peal was also rulle almost on the 80th anniversary of Mr. Frank Beanctt's first peal-Grandsire Triples at S. Nicotas', Guildford, on March 2nd, 1800.

TWO BANDS RING FHER FIRST PEAL OF ASETEAD.
sll the wand who took part at Erith, Kent, on March 7th, ramg their first penl of Ashtead Snrprise without previous practice. It was the first peal in the method on the bells and for the Kent Caunty Association. The comporition by Mr. A. G. Driver was also rung for the first time, and has the 4, 5 and 6 their extent in 56 at course ends.

Another band last week also rang their first peal of Ashtead Surfrise at the first attempt withost baving rung the method before. This wes at North Lopham, Norfolk, on March $94 h$, and was the first in the method in the diacese and for the Norwich Diocesan Association

At North Lopham the tenor is $10 \%$ cwt., but the peal did take 3 hours 28 minutes (as recorded in our peal columns) and it djd contain only 5,088 changes. Ringing on the ground floor makeg it diftieult to hear the bells a very fine-toned ring by Mears and Stainbank. which 'tell a fine tale' when rung slowly-without opening the trap door-and nobody thought of that on this occasion. However, the record time for the slowest 5,088 in this tower was when the redoubtable Joha Sonter called a 5,088 of Oxford Treble Bob Major and rang the tenor for 3 houra 34 minutes thirteen years ago. Incidentally, the conductor of the peal last Thursday week rang the lenor to seven extents of Miror in 2 hours 22 minutes on October 25th. 1930.

The peal et St, Nicholas', Deptiord, on March 6th, was a birthiay compliment to Mr. J. Dafters, of Lewisham, the ringer of the 7th. It was a compliment well earned and the reward of mach perseverance. The go ${ }^{3}$ of the bells is not good and the 7th is about the worst. Mr. Dafters' attempts for a peal at 'St. Nick's' have been spread over 16 years, and this is his firt success.
In the game peal, Mr. Walter Hunt, who recently rang Superlative is his frat peal, rang the 2nd, mn oddstruck snd mwlward-going bell, sery well to score his first peal of Bob Major.

Some of the young men in the Crayford district aro filling up their odd momenta with handbell ringigg, and we record this week three peals conducted by Derek Share. One of them, rulig on Mareh 3rd, was his 150th perl.
Four members of the Guidlord Diecenan Guild (Mengrs. A. H. Pulling and W. J. Robinson, from Guildord, anil Hessrs. J. H. B. Hesse and E. J. Ayliffe, from Haslemere) made the long journey to L-oughborough and back on Saturday and enjoyed a peal of Stedman Caters on the glorious bells of the Parish Church. Messrs. Fred Dexter and Harry Broughton, of Leicester, who alsa took part, both finished the "circle" of the tower.
The peal at Barking, Essex, on Saturday, was the first there for six years. The excellent "go" of the bells testifies to the care mond attention they receive at the hauds of Mr. Galeb Femn. The ringers of 2,6 and 7 are of the local company and two of then rang their first peal of Treble Bob. The reat of the band were from North Kent. The composition, by the late Mr. Arthur Knights, was luug for the first time
Barking is the 50hl tower in which Mr. Avkur Richards, of West Wickham, Kent, has rung a peal. The fact that it was his 99th perl shows that he lias gone in gearch of ringing rather than allow hmself to stegnate in one district.

A JUBILEE PEAT.

The first peal of Triples at St. James' Ohurch, GEimsby, was rung on Eaturdiay, Marcl 4 th, 1889, and among those who took part was Mr. A. B. Sheppard, who rang his first peal. Mr. Sheppard is still a. member of the loral band. und the Grimsby District ringers offer their best wishes to those still living who were in that peal of 50 years ago. On Saturday, March 4th, 1939, a peal of Grandsice Triples was rung to celebrate the jubilee.
There are some people-and some quite good ringers, too-who do mot like Stedman, but on occasion they have to come to it, if they want to ring. Last Eafurday a band went to Debeaham for a peal of Major (in the best East Agglian tradition), but, meeting one short, they fornd a tenorman in ifr, William Last and rans a peal of Stedman Triples. Stedman Cinques last weck and Stedman Triples this week-I don't know what we cre coming to,' writes one of these Stedmanophobes.
As a compliment to Mr. Hiram Meakin, Master of St. George's company, Stockport, for his 72nd birtuday, a peal of Oxford Treble Boh Royed was rung an handbells by Stockport company on March Sth. The five ringers who took part in the peal of Stedman Doubles at Eeathield, Som., were from five different towers. Saturday's pes! was rung as a welcance to the rew Rector (the Rev. J. H. Davies), who has recently been inducted to the living of Halse with Heathfield.
As a last tribute to the memory of the late Mr. Arthur Knights, a peal of Cambridge Surprise Major was rung with the bells halfmuifled at Southport Lancrshire, on March 7th.
Enderby was the spot chosen by the Leicester "Thursday-ites ' on March 9th. and in their 'lucky' tower were bappy to record anothar success when they rang a pent of Kent Treble Bob Major under the couductorship of Mr. Walter P. Whitehead.
St. Mary's Church, Pembridge. Herefordshire, has a detached tower. The quickest peal on the bells, which have a 16 cmt . tenor, was rung on Marcls 1Ith, 5 , 040 of Doubles in three methods being brought round in 2 hours 47 minutes.

Two of the local ringers at Aymesircy, Hereforashire, James Owen and William Marsh, wers so inherested in seeing how a peal whs rugg that they gat in the tower for nearly three hours on Sunday while members of the Diocesan Guild rang a peal of Doubles in five methous. Wo hope next time a peal is rung at Aymestrey their interest will have carried them far enough to onable them to take part, in it instead of being merely spectators. This peal was Mr. 3. P. Hyetto $150 t h$ as conductar for the Hereford Guid.
A peal of Minor rung at Springfield, Eesex, on March 7 th, wes a birthday compliment to Rosamond Lavia, youngest dsurghter of the Rev. and Mrg. R. C. Collwyn Margresves, and to Mr. R. TuTner, a member of the locr! company.
The first balf-mufled peal on the belis at Felkirk, Yorke, was rung on Merch 9th in memory of Mr. Arthur Knighte. It consisted of seven epliced extents of Treble Bob Minor in 14 methods.

OXFORD UNIVERSITY SOCIETY.

MEMBERS MEET AT LUNCH.

The annual Tubch of the Oxiord Tniversity Saciety was held at the Randolols Hotel, Oxford, on March 2nd. The president, the Rev. O. F. Widy (Kolle), presided and 21 members wete present. The guests of the society were Alderman C. H. Brown (president, Oxford Society), Mr. V. Benmett (secrebary, Oxford Socicty) and the Rev. A. G. G. Thurlow (Cambridge University Guild).

After the loyal toast had been proposed by the president, Alderman Erown proposed the taast of "The Oxiord Unirervity Society." The treasurer of the society, Mr. Mr. C. G. Heyter (Christ "Cburch) tesponded
'The Visitors and Kindred Socjeties" wes proposed hy the Master, Mr. R. D. St. Jt. Mmith (Jestrs), and to which the Rev. A. G. G. Thurlow responded.

After lumch, members of the saciety, accompanied by Mr. Bennett, went on to New College. where, by kind permission of the Warden, the bells were rang during the afternoon. Gremisire and Stedman Triples and Plain Bob Major were zung, in addition to rounds on the ten bells.

ESSEX ASSOCIATION.

NORTHERN DIVTSION DISOUSSES PROPOSED BENEVOLENT

 FUND.4 meeting of the Northern Division of the Essex Association took place at Coggeshail on February 25th, when 40 ringers atterded from 18 parishes, inciading the local company.

A short gervice was conducted by the Rev. F. N. Brown (Vicar), who, in the course of his address, gave the ringers a hearty welcome.

Tea was afterwards servad in the Co-operative Hall, Heving been micely prepared by lady churchworkers.

At the business naceting which followed, with the District Master (Mr. F. Ridgwell) in the chair, four uew ringing memberg were elected, and it wos decided to hold the mext meeting ont Stisted on April 1st.

The District Master reporled the proceedings of the recent Central Commithes meeting, and much discussion ensued on the question of the proposed Renevolent Fund.

Mr. Ridgwell briefly explained the suggested rules that Mr. Chafk hed undertaken to send out for conkideration.

A hearty vote of thanks to the Wicar, the organist and the ladies for preparing the tea was proposed by the Master, and, in reply, the Vicar said lie hoped the ringers would visit Cogigeniall mary more times during his ministry there. The ringers then zeturged to the tower for further ringing.

THE BELGRAVE INCIDENT.

Tu the Editor.

Dear Sir, With reference to the letter under the heading "Misinformed' in your last issue, how very convenient for Mr. Riddington to consider the matter closed after making an aceusation which was unfounded. Who the disappointed ringers are I have not the faintest idca or ever intereat in.
The information that I had applied for the bells for the peat referred to anmo from tho Vicar humself, who very definitely wes under the impression that the partjcular application was from mybelf as secretary of the Leicester Branch, otherwise permission would not beye been given at such short notice. This transpired during a convergation in which $I$ wBs making arrangement for a ring meeting at Belprave. Of course, having made no such application, I informed the ticar accordingly and apologised to him for someone having taken such liberties without my knowledge. The Vicar has ance informed me that the application was mede on Sunday evening as stated in my previons letter.

LADIES' GUILD.

NORTHERN DISTRIOT'S GOOD MFETING IN CHESHIRE.
In spite of poor weather, there was a very good abtendauce at tha querterly meeting of the Ladies' Guild (Northern District) at Norbury, near Stockport, on Marcli lith, There was a satisfactory number of mambera, representing towers is far spart 8.8 Ashtog, Manchester, Hazel Grove, Todmorten, Leeds (Sth. Chad'g and Amme⿹) Sherburn-in-Fimet, Macelesfield and Stoke-on-Trent.

Rivging in the aftermoon was followed by a shart service, conducted by the Vicar of Norbary (the Rev. A. J. Humplireys), assisted by the Rov. Frank Bommer, After the splendid tea which was served in the schools, a very liearty vote of thanks was passed to the Vicar for his words of welcome and his very interesting address, to the ladies who so kindty prepared tea, and others who belped to meke such a successful meeting.
In fis reply, Mr, Humphreys admitted that he had only recently learned of the existence of the Ladies Guild but hoped that it would not be long before another such meeting was held at Norbury.

At the short business meeting which followed there wera many expressions of regret at the iliness of Mra. Kelly and of hope that she will soon be well enough ggain to ring.

Twa new members were alected, and everyone was asked to males a note of the annual meeting of the district, to be held on June 10tut at St. Chad's, Tar Headingley, Leeds.

Mrs. Wolstencroft proposed a vote of thanks to the Vicar for bis kinduess, to Mrs. Fernley and other ladies who land done so much in praviding tea, and to Mr. Fernlay for his heip as organist at the service.-This was carried unanimously and Mrs. Fernley replied,

Further ringing, botk on lazdbells and in the tower, comeluded a most enjoyable meeting.

DEATH OF A YORK MINSTER RINGER.

For 27 yenrs a member of Yors Minster company, Mr. Charlea William Fountain has pessed away at the age of 87 years, to the deep regret of all his calleagues, among wham his conscientious discharge of his duties made him zighly valued,
Two years ago Mr. Fountain, who was a bress finisher at the Carriage and Wagon Works, York, retised from the gervice of the L. and N.E. Railway.

He began his ringing at St. Mary's Church, Birhophill Senior, and joined the Yorkshire Association in 1906.
The Minater bells were rung muffed after the funeral.
The deceased leaves a widow, two sons and two datighters in berearvement.

8th March, 1939.
Messrs. J. Taylor & Co.

Dear Sirs,

The dedication of the bells took place on February 25th. About 20 towers were present, and we bad ringing for about 7 bours. All expressed extreme pleasure both at the tone and quality of our restored peal and at the ease in ringing, and were loud in praise of the work you bad done and the way in which it was carried out. I should like to add my own appreciation, which is quite unqualified. We are all extremely grateful to you for enabling us to bave what must be one of the finest peals in the country.

Yours most gratefully,
(Signed) T. G. HAMMOND.

BELERY GOSSIP.

One of the longest continuou bell broadcastis was that made from the Cathedral of the Eoly Rosary Vamcouver, ou New Year's right, when the bells were on the air for 27 minutes 17 seconds. In this time well-struck ghort touches of Grandisire Triples were rullg conducted by Mr. George Roberts, who formerly Eved in Bristol and Who saw the bells, now in the tower at the Cathedral, before they left the Bristol foundry of Llewellin and James.

After several years of valuable work as joint hon. sedretaries of the Winchester District of the Winchester and Portsmouth Diocesan Guild, Mr. George Noice and Miss Noice have retired and their place is being taken oy Mr. W. G. Goodchild, of 139, Stanmore Lane, Winclester.
The sannal meeting of the Guildford Diocesan Guild has been fixed for April $29 t h$ and witl be held, es usual, in Guildford.
Mr. George Horner, the popular secretary of York Minster Society, who reentiy uaderwent an serious operation, is, we are pleased to Bay, making a good recovery and is now at home convalescing.
Mr. and Mrs. Frank B. Yates, of King's Norton, are being entertajned to dinner by some of their Birmingham ringing frients on Saturday at the Crown Hotel, Corporation Street.
To-day that old London worthy, Chailis F. Winney, a member of St. Pau!'s Cathedral Society, celebrates his Blot birthiay. His friends everywhere will extend their learty congratulations to him, Yesterday one of Mr. Winney's oldest ringing frieuds, Mr. Francis E. Dawe, celebrased his 77th birthday and attempted a peal at his birthplace, West Meon, Hants. We hope he was successful. Mr. Dawe is the only man who has been five times Master of the College Youths. He was first elected in 1888.

"RINGING UP.'

INEXPERLENGED BAND SEEKS ADVICE.

To the EXAtor

Dear gir, We ring up badly in our tower, and are not likely to make much improrement, because we cannot agree among ourcelves as to what is tive cause.
The peal is a recently rebung ais, tenor 17 cwt , My own feeling is that the treble does not get ahead fast enough at the atart, after the frat dozen pulls so that tho back bells have to pull down again from their normal swing. I base this contention on the reverged position when ringing down, for in this case when the bsek bells are almost down to cuiming position the front bells are still well up in comparison. The other mportant point I consider to be that the bells should be really close together in the eatly stages.

Another point bearing on this is thet ane member says the tenor does not atart chiming aud ringing up soon enough. 1, who usually ring it up. heve always been taught that the bells should chime round by degrees, firat the treble and 2nd, then 1,2 and 3 , with the other belis heing added at approximately each whole pull. This allows the front bels to get up a jittle before the teror starts, which, in my opinion, is the correct position for a good 'up,' so long as the trebles keep up.

As none of us in the tower is an expert, and each backs his own opinion, could we have some guidance-not necessarily from an expert change ringer, but from someole who knows what is wrong and can help us put it right.

CLTRGY IN THE TOWER

A YORESHITE YICAR'S VIEWE

The March meeting of the Barasley and District Society was held at Kirkthorpe, neвr Wakefield, on Saturday. The attendance wat very poor, as only about a dozen members were present representing Barnsley, Felfirk, Sandal and the locel company. No doubt the wet weather was to blame.
The bells were rung in the afterncon antil 5 p.m., when those present adjourned to the Parigh Room for an excellent tea.
The busimess meeting took place, with the Vicer (the Rev. J. Willoughby) in the chair.
The prasident of the association (Mr. C. D. Potter) opened a discussion on the editorial erticle in "The Ringing World" of March loth on the subject of educating the clergy, and it was the genersl feeling of the meeting tbat the ringers in the various towers should invite the clergy to join them on prectice nights and do all in their power to mate them understand what the art really is, and enable them to feel at home.
The Vicar said while he agreed with the principle of the suggestions, he thought a Vicar was too busy to take part in actral ringing on Sunday. Even if be could, he thought it was not possible for him to come out of the belfry after some mistake had been made or something had upset the mind, and to conduct the servics with the same reverence. He fully agreed with co-aperation of fingers and clergy, and pointed out that although the bells wers the freehold property of the Vicar, he thought where tbere was harmony it wad best not to interfere.
Horbury was chosen for the next meeting, to be befid on saturiay, April 8th.
The Vicar offered the bells of Kirkthorpe for the society's annos? shield content, to he held in July, and this was accepted with thenks. After the usual wote of thanle, further ringing followed.

LEADING CONDUCTORS-62.

ALBERT NASH.

It is not always the number of peals that a man has rung and called that pats hins in the forefrom among ringerb, bat his ability in the tower as a leader and his skill as a conductor, Measured by totals, the record of Mr. Albert Nash, Ringing Master at Rotberbsm F'arish Church, is modest one compared with some, but his capacity and versatility as a conductor lave placed him in e position with few equals in the County of Broad Acres, where, during the more than 60 years of tho Yorkshire Association's existence, there has been a wider tendency than in most areas to share the calling of peals. Although the association peal records now reach a total well over four thousand, the present resident members who have called over a lundred peala could, we believe, be numbered upon the fingere of ore hand. Mr. Nash's total of 84 peals conducted, most which Association, show him, therefore to be among the most actire of the conductors in the county.
He prss born ot Wath-onDearne on April 27th, 1885, and in 5904 concucted the first peal he rang-a peal in seven Treble Bob Minor methode. He slso con ducted his first peal of Major Treble Bob rung iu 1905. Al though bis peals range from Minor to Cinques, he has alway had a keen baterest in six-mel ringing, and has rung at one time or another every Minor metilod in the Central Corncil's collection, and scores besides, which are now looked upon as unorthodex.

Mr. Nash's peals total 188, o Which 36 have been on haniduells, four. He took part in 1906 in the

MR. ALBERT NASH.

11,232 Kent Treble Bob Major, Jung at Wortley, the longest peal ruag in Yorkshire. He conducted a peal in ten Surprise Minor extents at Crofton in 1930, and at AlI Sajnts", Fotherbam, in Jenuary of the next year, conducted another Yarkshire record of 10,800 of Surprise Minor, made up of 15 extents in different methode But Mr. Naslis activities as a conductor have by no means been limited to Minor, and he has called penls of, mong otier methods, Bristol, London, Pudsey, Rutland, zud Superlative Surprise Major and Cambridge Major and Royal.

Fis record would doubtless have bean a longer one had it not bean that business kept him out of ringing from 1912 to 1916 , and then he was blown up and seriously incapacitated for forther arven years, in the first four veats of which he underwent many operations. Indeed, the marpel is that he was ever able to return to ringing and avlheve such a measuro of fresh euccess.

THE POPE'S CORONATION

In honour of the Goronation of His Holiness Pope Pius XII., the following ringing was done at the Church of St. Francis Xevier, Liverpool, on Sunday, March 12th, before evening getwice: 656 Bol Major: T. W. Hammond 1, G. R. Newton (conduetor) 2, T, Egan 3 , C. S. Benwelt 4, J. W. Meldrum 5, T. W. Gilmour 6, F. Caunce 7 P. W. Cave 8. After evening service, a quarter-peal of Stedman

After morning service at St, Marie's Church, Norfolk Row, Shetield, to mark the occasion of the crowning of Hes Holiness the Pope, a quarter-peal of Grandsire Triples was rung by George Holmes (canductor) 1. J. Osyuthorpe 2, F. Brightmore 3, M. E. Wilson 4, IH. Chaddock 5, R. Herrison 6, E. Thorpe 7, P. Lowe (first quarter-peal) 8, By a coincidence, it was also the 60 h anniversary of tne couductor's membership of the Ancient Society of College Youths and of his first perl.

LONDON COUNTY ASSOCIATION.  To the Bditor.

Dear Sir-It was with regret that I read the letter in your issue of March loth from the pen of Mr. C. T. Coles re the London County Association.
I should have thought that any thinking person wonld realise the bitterness and ill-feeling which will be caused if this matter is allowed to go any futther
$T$ could eay much, if I expressed my own personal feelings, but I do feel that the interests of both guilds concerned and of the Exercise generally will be better served if the matter is speedily forgotten. W. SMMMONDS

GOOD FRIDAY RINGING.

Fo the Editor
Sir, With refereace to Mr. Box's letter on the above subject, I, in common with probably 98 per cent, of your readers, plead guilty to his charge of ignorance of the liturgical traditions of the Church.

Whether adhereace to these traditions is applicable or advisable coder present conditions is a mather of opinion. It may be possible that they have become obsolete, like many ather ancient usages, owing to the cannge and progress of hamen thought aud ideales.
My suggestion as to ringing on Good Friday is, I think, is definite accord with the Archbishop's appoal for a nationat *Reball to Religion. The only order with regard to exiling the people to the services of the Church I can fiod in the Book of Common Prayer is in ise Preface, as Eoltows: "The curate ... shall cause a bell to be tolled thereanto a convenient time before he begin that the people miny come to hnto a conveniett time before he begin
The mode of ringing on certan special occasions is, I presume, ander the direction of the Yicar of the parish, where I am conteat to leave it.

MISSALS DO NOT PROHIBIT MUFELED RTNGING
Sir, -The letter from Mr. Box on the subject of Gued Friday is most interesting, but the rubrics of the ancient Missels cannot be regarded as prohibiting muffled ringing. The "silence" enjomed obviously refers only to open ringing, es mutiled ringing was then unkロown

For ing own part, I strongly advocate a maffled peal on Gond Friday, to mark the solemaity of the day. One of the most impressive effects that I have ever heard was that of eight balls at Bath Abbey rung muffed at a late hour on Good Friday and again on Easter Eve. It is interesting to find that St. Chad's, Birmingham, has adopted the modern Anglican eustam of refraining fram opel ringing all through Holy Week, as well as on the two days named in Mr. Box's letter.

The 24 bells of Sevile Cathedral are still rung at the Gloria on Easter Even.

TRADTTIONG MUST SOMETMMTS T3E BROKFN

Dear Sir,-How prone we are to try to convince the "other' fellow thes he knows little or nothing or that je 'shows deplorable lnck of knowledge' should he make a suggestion. That word eradilion too, how often is it misused es a birgun to blow in constructive scheme to atoms. It usually means, "Weve never done it befores or "We always used to do-
Mr. William Stary is at presant in Bournemouth and we enjoy bis assistance at the Parish Cburch tower, but curiouly enough he was not amaxe that we had adopted his suggested practice of full mumod ringing on Good Friday eevaral yesra ago.
The 'traditional " methor at St. Peter's was to tolit tho tenor 33 times at the close of the three hours devotion. The muffled ringing was adoptea to remind the general public in this holiday resort of the solemnity of Good Fridey. From the apprecintive comments we lave heard concerning the practice I thinle we can say it has gained its objective.
To move with the times, ancient traditions and eustoms must sametimes be broken, and no institution has found this to be so more than the Cbursh. That is why Mr. Box is forced to refer to the few remaining ancient traditions ${ }^{\prime \prime}$ A few years ago Bournemouth was mainly a residential iown, to-day it is a very popular holiday resort; demanding a very different administration from its citizena.

A CHURCF OCCASION FOR MUFFLED RINGING.

Dear Sir,-I agree with Mr. Story that Goad Friday is the special oscasion for muffed ringing and, indeed, the only dayy in the Chrirch's year. The muffles are used for nationat and personal occasions, but bever, I believe, for a church occasion.
In some churches, to emplasise Easter, the bells are only ohimed during Lent, but if they were rung fully mutited on Good Friday this would have the same (it not greater) effect and may save the ringers the monotony, etc., of chiming. As Mr. Box, in your issue last week, does not mention muffled ringing, I canclude te is referring to open ringing, which, I think, would be out of place on Good Fridey

MUFFLED BELLS ADD SOLEMNITY

Sir,May I remind Mr. Wiffred E. Box that this is the reign of George VI.-not George I. In the days when the books be referg to were written, muffled ringing was something unheard of; but to-day few things stir the feeling of colemnity among the poople more than do manted bells, particularly filly muffled. From the day I took up ringing 18 years ago to the present time I have only heard bells rung fully mufled once, on the der of the death of H.M. King George V., and on that occesion I heard more outside commente of appreciation of bells than ever before or syer since. The King's passing was a memorable event in itself, but there was something about hearing the bells rung fully monfled which added to the (Continued on next page.)

DIBTRICT ASSOCIATIONS IN YORKSHIRE

HELPFUL TO COUNTY ORGANISATION.  Smaller Societies' Useful Work.

Another page in the history of the Forkshire Association was commenced when the Westera District held a jojnt meeting with the aewly-formed Hudferslield and Dishrict Association at the Ohurch of St. Mewy, Ellawd, on Saturduy; March 11 th. In spite of Ebe vary unsuitable weather, for it was bitterly wold and rained incessantly throughont the aftermoon and eveling, there was a very good attendance ard a representative gethering of between 60 and 80 was present.

The bells, a fne peal of eight with e tenor 153 cwt., are really in remarkable condition when it in remembered that they are consderably over 100 years ald and comparatively little has been spent on thom for a mumber of years. They are repufed to be one of the fast peals cash by Dobson, of Downham Markct. The bells were raised in pual about 2.30, and during the day a large variofy of methods was rung, ranging from Plain Bob to Cambridge rend Superlative Sumpise, At fimes the capacity of the bower was tamed, to jbs utwost, but good feeling prevailed and touches were kept as short as possible.

A short service was beld, condereted lyy the Rev. T. Mathieson and the Rev. A. L. Minns, both vjee-prosideats of the Huddersfield and District Asociation, and this was greatly appreciated by the large gathering plesent. Afterwards a splendud tea was served in the Parociaial Hall, abollt 60 members sitting down.
A rafter lenethy but important business meeting of the Western District was lucld in the Church Soliools, at which itre vice-president, Mu". P. I. Jahnson, occupied tha chair, supported by the rssociation presideut, Ganon G. C. Marshall, N. A. One rew member, the Rev. A. L. Minns, of bt. John's, Dirkby, was elected.

As this was the enmual meeting of the district, varions olicers were due for re-election. On the motion of Mr. H. Lofthouse, seconded by Mr. I. G. Sherwood, the viam-president, Mr. $P$. J. Johnsom, was unamimously re-elected for a further period of three years, and tribute of his unfiring efforts and eficiency in conducting the meetinga were endorsed.
In answering a question regarding the attendances of the reting memberg of the committes, the secretary pointed out that he was not jugtified in putting one member's name forward for ro-clection, as only 25 per cent. of tho meetimers liad been ettended. It was pointed out that when offeers were elected, it was expected thet the fullegt suppout would be civen in uttending the neetimgs.
Mr. W. H. Senior and Mr. E. Armitage were sccoringly re-elected for a furthar period, and Mr. Is. Drake, of Burley wag elected to fill the remaining vacincy. Mr. Armitage was alwo re-elected to berve on the Generel Committee.
Oring to pressire of other business, it whas intimeted that, Mr $\mathbf{R}^{\prime}$ Bottomey, of Keighley, had been compalled to zeaign his office, and Mr, John Cooper, if Silsien, mas thereupon elected to fill the racamey and complete the period of affice.

BELL KFSTORAHION FLND APPROWED.

The Chairman brought forward the quegtion of a Bell Repsires Find, a proposal which had been made by a member from another district. At the previous meeting no definite decision was made, and the matter bad been left open for further cousideration until the present meakigg. He explained that the committee bad given this careful thowght. and lad put forward a propossi that the selueme be aereptex in mrinciple, but thas the coltections be confmed to the anntal ajatrjet meebings and the $\quad$ aeneral meetings only.

Congiderable disenssjoa arose. Mr. Barton thought the eollections slould be takers at all meetíngs, for as with no ather hobby, bells costing anything between 5500 and 21,200 were provided free of charge for ther enjoyment. He rsked the members to あe honest with thomselves and ask if they really ring tha balls golely bacause of their love for the ©hurch? W hatever lrobby one took up, the fees and conth wrare preatly in excesg of that of ringers.

The President gaid that, in his opinjon, the geheme was sound in primeiple, and he hoped it, would be adopted. They were perlaps wreparing something for the next generation, as it would undoulbtedly toke sereral jears before the fund could be ased, but be was sure that when ouce it was started, they would find otmes wiys and means of extending it if $\quad$ ecessary.

Various other views were ventilated, but, on a rote bejng telen, the recommendation of the committee was passed by an oferwhelming majority.
The Ohairman, in puting this to the meeting, emphosised the fact that aithough the matter was now agreed in principle, the whole question would be reviewed together with the reportg fram the other districts, and the General Commitise would no datibt report more fally at a later general meeting.

As no invitation had been received for the Tune meeting, it was proposed thet the meating be taken to Gargrare if possible, and be held on the last Saturday in Jane, so as not to clash with other meet ings which were being arranged.

A hedrty rote of thanks to the Rector and wardens for kindly gravting the uee of the belis, and also to the local company for their aplendid arrangements, and to the organist who kiadly geve his Eervices dirims the sar rice, was proposed by Canon Morshall, who snoke appreciatively of the lieart welcome they had all received. Thais was becolded by ifr. W. H. Senior and carried.

The Rev. T. Mathieson, in replying, said how very pleased they were to welcome the association, and expressed his regret tuat the Rector was uadble to bo with fhem, owing to another engagenont which had clashed. He was extremely sorry tlaat the weather was not very kind, and kindly offered the use of the Institute in the Parochia! Hall for those whe were unable to find room in the cowar. He hoped that everyone wotld thoroughly evjoy themselves und thet they would come again at some future time.

NEW DISTRIOT ASSOCLATION WELCOAIED.

The Chairman expressed his pleasure at the arrangementa for the joint meeting with the Huddersheld sud District Arsociation, and pointed out that such meetings were all to the good of change ringing. He wa particularly pleaged with the attendance from the surrounding district and also with the fact that the two vice-presidents were present. He thought that any differences of opinion there were between the two associations were more imaginary than real, and hoped that the members would como along to the other meetings more frefuently, 50 that they could all understand one another berter. He thought the Church wes passing through a difficult period owing to shortages of ringers, but when one remembered that during the wir a whole generation of ringers was swept away, it was easily understood. He concratulated the two vice-presidents for the interest they were taking in looking after the young ringers, and was sure that success w attend their efforts.
Canon Marshall also spoke of the very amicable relations which existed between the Yorkshire Associntion and the many district societies, and was plasged to extend a welcome to the newly-formed Fuddersfield and District Association. Their county was very large, and it was sometimes very diffcult to give the attention needed to ElI the areas. This wes where the smaller socictics coutd do the most useful work, and he promised them evety support. Their existence Was really necessary to maintain the progress required by ringers, and he hoped they would continue to be a help to the larger county assaciation. As their president lae wighed the association every success and hoped that this first joint meeting would be the first of many
The Rev. A. L. Minns, in replying said he felt this to be a great day, when their County Association had come with such great pleasure to give their blessing fo the newly-formed association. Although they were ay infont socioty, they were erowing, and ho fele that ther numbers now were really encouragigg. He hoped the Yorksinire Association would look upon them as a uergery preparing the young ringers for the larger County Association. By theil meetings, which Were arranged frequantly, they were trying to give that encouragement and opportunity to the younger ringers. Fe thanked the president for his words of welcame and encouragement, and assured him of their unswerving logalty.
Mr. Barton mentioned the great regret which they all felt at the passing of Mr. Arthur Knights, who, althougly mot a Forkshireman, in the work of the assaciation, and when it was remembered that some 460 alifferent compositions of his had been rung in the county, they would realise what beneft this must have treen to them. The members then stood in silence es a last token of yespect.
This comeluded the husiness of the meeting, and after bandbells had been erjoved the tower was agsin visited and further ringing took place until about 9 oclock. A plessing feature was the presance of so many young rimgers, and this augurs well for the continuance and promress of the tuewly-formed assaciation soiemnity of the day. I ventare to say the effect would be the eame on that dey wher the Church aunually commemorates the deatla of the King of Kings.
The following towers were represented during the dny: Addingham, Arroley, Batley, Bradford Cathedral, Bramley, Brighouse, Burley, Filand, Halifax. Headingley (St. Chad's and St. Michael's), Huddersfield, Tale, Kirkburton, Leeds, Lindley, Liverredge, Longwond, Mytholmroyd. Nothowrim, Meltbam, Pudsey, Queensbury, Ripponren, Tothwell, Silsden and sowerby

Until I heard fully mumled bells I must confess I had no ider that fully muefled ringing could have such a soothing and beautiful effect more so, to my mind, than half-muffled (though I like to hear belle mong in that way); and far more so than fully muthled with tenor open at back stroke, which Mr. Story advocates. The latter, I contend, sounds neitier one thing nor the other. If we are going to have single bells tolled, let us liave them as such, not mix the two things and spoil good music by one hell banging out above all the others. Fully muffled ringing is generally considered a symbol of extra sorrowfulness, and open ringing a sytubol of rejoicing. What, then, can be mare in keeping with the two great davs then to hear the former ou Good Friday and the later on Easter Sunday?

A VANCOUVER VETERAN.

DEATH OF MR. EDWIN CASHMORE

Helped to Build Carter's First Ringing Hachine.

There has reccntly passed away in Vancouver, B.C., an old ringer who was an interesting liak. with ringing in the Birminguam district more than 70 years ago. Edwin James Cashmore, who, with lits wife and young family, emigrated to Canada about 50 years ago, has died at the advanced age of 87. He was the eldest son of Paul Cashmorer of West Bromwich, gunsmith, and leader of the ringers ab West Bromwich Parish Chureh.
Edwin Cashmore, who as the age of eight became a chorister at West Bromwich, and afterwards developed a fino tenor voice, weat first to Toronto and about 30 years aro went furtber west to Vanconver, where he established a successful sports business. In his youth in Eggland it was, of course, only patural that, as soou as he was abie, be should lemrn to ring, and bis tutors were his father und his uncles, Edwia Cashmore, Samuel Marsh and Simson Marsh. In Tolouto thet'e was no church bell ringing to be had and he turned his ettention co handibells, end he aud a pariy which he tanghe became celobrated for their tune ringing skill with over 50 hells.
In Vancouver be became an active member of the band at the Cathedral of the Holy Rosary, and continued until age and rheumathm prevented further participation, but only $s$ few montha rgo, when visited by four of his former ringing collengues, he was able to ring 1-2.3-4 to a course of Grandsira Iriples, a tuing which very few ringers, even in constant praclice, are able to do.

Edwin James C'nshnore, however, had another interesting association with ringigg. Wlen be worked in lis father's gun and pistol factory, there were, among the employes, two other youths, one of them named John Carter, and John Carter, like the rest of the peoplo who worked for Haul Cabmore, learned to xing. He also, being a born mechanical genius, turned his attention to constructimg a ringing machiue, and it was in Panl Cashmore's workshop that the invention bort in Jolm Carter's mind first took practical shape. Paul Cashmore was interested in it and enconraged Carter ; and Edwin James Cashmore and Sidney Smith, the other of the two youtlis mentroned above helped him in the work, which was oiten done, with full approval, In theit mastor's time as well as in their own. The macline which they built, however, is not the ane now housed in the Sauth Keusiagton Museum, Carter scrapped the original, after maining from it much knowledge and experience, which he incorporated in the later model

Edwin Cashmole eraigrated to Canada; Sidney Smith married his master's daughter, and one of their sons is Mr, A. Paddon Snailin, who whs yon. secretary of St. Martin's Guild, Birmingham, for 20 years and is now one of the vice-presidents.

Paut Cashmore, who died in 1894, and is buried in the 'Cashmore Cornes' where generations of the family lie in the beatiful churchyard attached to West Bromwich Parish Church, was, of course, cor temporary with Fenry Johnson, and many letters written by the later to Paul are still in possession of a member of the fanily.
It the time when John Carter was working for Paul Casbmore, abont 60 years ago, the letter omployed in his Fest Bromwich factory, amongst others, a band suficient to man the ropes at the old Chirch, mod, when the "old man" felt like it, he would call the band togeluer luring working hours and adjoutn to the belfry, which was only a few minuteg away, for the purpose of riaging some farourite touch or other. The Vicar at that time had no objection to the bells being so rung, provided no services or funezals wefe taking place, and there were very few houses with the exception of the vicarage itself and one or two old cottages in the imanediate ricinity of the church. One of the nearest houses was the hanse of refreshment known then, as uow, as the Ring o' Bella, where it is still bumprously clamed they sell beer by the pound. This is, of course, quite true es one of the old-fashioned 'pounds' (an onclosure for straying horaes or cattle) gtill standis in front of the house.

Mr. Edwin Cnslmore last visited Figiand in the summer of 1928 and bsd a pull at West Bromwich, although the bells there or ary are not thoge he knew in his youth, for they wore recast about row years ago. He was an excellent striker in such methods as he could ring.

Wherever he settled Edwin Ceshmore heome a chorister, for he was an ardent as well as an excellent wocalist, aum in Vancouver was a member of the choir at St. Baviour's Angliean Church, in connection with which he was aleo a lep reader. He was an netive Fremason, past master of his lodre in Toronto, a Ropal Azch Mason, past illustrious master of the Gryptic Rite and a member of other lodet.

Mr. Casimore ant his wife, who predeceased him, celebrated their diamond weddigg anciversary in 1936, had surviving him are four danghters and three sons.

TRURO DIOCESAN GUILD.

COUNTY TODR TO ENCOURAGE PEAL RINGING.
It was suggested at the annual meeting of the Trura Diocesan Guild, held at Truro, that a peal ringing tour in Cornwall, to last a week or ten days in June, slould be organised among the members of the Gnild. Although the past year bad beer, in some respecte, a disappointing one, there is still a great doal of onthusiasm for ringing in CornwaII, in the view of Dr, J. Symons, president of the Guild, wllo welcomed the members.
The hon secretary, the Rev. W. H. R. Trewhella, Truro, reported that Landewadnack and Wendron both joined the Guild duriug the year
The Rirging Master, Mr, W, E. Southeard, Truro, said they bud brd a disapponting year at Prizance, but he felt sure that the branch wauld again come bakk to full strength. Five ringers had been awarded the $M$ class medal, and four the $B$ class medal. A ringiug tour in the county proved very successiul. 15 peals ant of 17 being rung. Some of the visitore had rung peals in Corawall before, and savera! local ringers were invited to stand in. He would like to sed more ringers brought into touch with visiting parties. This year he was going to try to arrange a tour in Carnwall rmongst themselves, to last a weok or ten days in June. There would be zinging to suit all ringers, and it would give them a chance to learn something from each other.

DEPLETED FONDS

Tho lon, treasurer, Mr, H. Dunstan, St. Ives, reparted a balance of $8 \mathrm{~s}, 9 \mathrm{~d}$. , as against 5412 s .9 d . Fast year. They were not, he saind recaiving the full amount in fees from the branches, one branch not having paid maything for two years.

Mr. Cyril E. Lsmxon, Truro, pasls secretary, reported an increase in the mumber of peals, but it was not due, ne said, to the work of the Guild. Fifteen peals were rung by wisitors. Since the formation of the Guild 125 peals had been Fung.
Lt.-Col. C. F. Jerram said titey were indebted to the visitors tor allowing local riugers to take part in their peals because it gave them an opportulity of doing something different
The reports were adopted.
There was a discussion ns to the provision of medals for ringers. It was stated that owing to the depleted funds of the Guild the cost of providing medals ought yot to fall upon the Guild, but ahould be borre by the recipients.
It was decided that a suggestion be made to branches that in futura the eost of mednle should be met by the towers of which the recipients of medals are members.
It was decided to hold the annual festiva] at Helston, and an invitation by the Rev. F. F. Gilbert to hold tho next annual meeting at sit. Stepnen-iu-Brannel whs accepted.
The officers elected were: Patron, the Bishop of Truro; president, Dr. J. Symons, Penance; Col. Jertam was added to the vicepresidents Ringing Master. Mr. W. H. ## WINCHESTER AND PORTSMOUTH DIOCESAN GUILD.  ALTON AND PELERSFIELD DISTRICT.

The annual meeting of the Alton and Petersfield District of the Winchester and Yortsmouth Guila was hold at Peterbfield. Those present included Rev. E. C. A. Kent (Vicar of Petersfield), Rep. F. G. Eyreas (district chairman), and ringing members from Alton, Blacknoor, Hawkloy. Lisa, New Alreaford, Petersfield, Portsea, Ryde and SteepThe bells were rung in the aftermon and evening to the statadard methads. The Guild's servieb was conducted by the Rev. E. G. A. Kent, who offered a warm welcome and gave a ghort and encouragiag address. Tea in St. Peters Fall was followed by the business meetitty presided over by the district chairman. The how, secretary read his report and also the balance sheet, which showed a balance jn hand of E 1114 s .
Mr. George Hall, jun., and Mr, Reginald Thorrett, both of Blackmnor, were elected ringing members. Mr, A. H. Fisher, late of Petersfild, was elected a compounding member, The meetiog learned with regret that the Rev. F. G. Eyres (district chairmen) was reagning His oftice, and also that the vice-fhairman (the Rev. C. Minton Senhouse) was rasigning as he had left the district. Votes of tionks were accorded in each case.
The oficers were then elected as follows: District cheirman, the Rev. E. C. A. Kent; hon. secretary, Mr. C. E. Bassett, Ioon. auditor, the Rev. T. N. Rethbone-Griffn; district representatives on commitiee, Mr. W. Read and Mr. A. Fardiman. The next anmual meeting at Alton was fixed for Jenuary 27th, 1940, and the next quarterly meeting on April 15th, 1939, at Blackmoor.
The usual votes of thanks were accorded at the close of the meeting.

WORCESTERSHIRE ASSOCIATION.

WDSTERN BRANCH SECRETARIAL PROBLEM SOLVED

To everyone's satisfaction, a solution was found to a problem that had become acute, namely, that of finding a successor to the retiriag secretary (Mr. G. E. Large), when the Westerr Branch of the Worcestershire and Districts Association held its first meeting of the year at Hallow on Saturday weak.

The parigh of Hallow lies on tine west bantr of the River Severn, some three miles from Worcester, and the Church of SS. Philip and James possesses a fine octave (tenor 21童 cwt.) installed by Taylors in 1900 and rehung in 1937 by Mears and Staiabanit. Eighteen of the 26 towers affilated were represented, and there were visitors from the Northern and Sauthern Branches, as well as from the neighbouring county of Herefordshire.
Ringing during the afternoon was followed by a well-attended service. The Ficar (the Rev. C. M. Stickiners), in his address, welcomed the members, and said in all his 35 years in the ministry, at home and abroad, he had never addressed a gathering of ringers before. He admired their constancy to each Sunday's duties, and asked them not to be discournged ir their efforts faifed to bring mu increase in the attendance at church. He felt sure those who beard the bells were reminded of their duty to come and worship, and could not ignore the message entirely.

An excellent tea, served in the Parish Hall, had been generously provided and served by a band of ledies, which included tlie Vieer's, churehwardens ${ }^{\text {a }}$ and lockl ringers' wives. Some 71 members and friends sat down to the repast, but even this number failed to put away afl that was provided. The Vicar presided and was sapported by his churchwarden (Mr. G. H. Loak), who is en hon. member, Mr. L. Clay (leader of the local band) and the branch officers.
Mr. T. G. Green was proposed as the conductor of the quarterly peal to be rung at Hallow. Mr. Green is a talented member of the local band, but infortunately his work provents him from taking an active part in ringing apert frow his own tower.

NEW SECRETARY ELBCTED.

Mr. G. E. Large (retiring secrelary) proposed the election of Mr Ernest $F$. Cubberley, of Kempsey, as secretery and treasurer of the branch.-This was seconded by Mr. E. Wilson, wherenpon Mr. R. G. Knowles sprang a surprise by proposing Mr. Edgar O. Barber, of Malvern Link, but as the intter found ino seconder the first mamed was elected.
Mr. Cubberley acknowledged his election azd said he would do his best to serve the branch.
Mr. S. T. Holt (Master) said they could not iet the occasion pass without thanking Mr. Large for his services duriug his term of olfice. It was, ho said, almost entirely due to him that the branch had now a membership never before obtained. Not only that, but Mr. Large had given valuable halp in tatoring bands at soveral towers and they were sorry he had to give up.
At a later atage Mesgrs. R. G. Knowles (vice-prestident) and H. F. Martin also spoke in eulogistic teras of the retiring secretary
In his reply, Mr. Large said lie was thankful his services had been acceptable, and acknowledged the support he bad received from members. He hoped they would give the new secretary thet same support, and more; and at the end of three, five or twenty yenrs, if Mr . Cubberley wished to resign, he trusted he would not have the same difficulty over a successol as he himself had had.

Seven new performing members were electer-four from Onbersley, two from Shelsley Beauchamp and one unattached.
The chairman was proposed as an hon, member by Mr. Clay, and this wres eatried with rpplanse.
Int riew of the recent affiliation of the Slelsley Beauchemp band, Who now muster eleyen members, it wes not surptising that tho summer meeting was proposed to be held there-a popular and unanimous vote.

A recommendation from the Central Committee regarding a new minute relating to the Belfry Repairs Fund was debated. Mr. J. D. Tohnson (general secretary) explained that now the Southern Branch had come into line with the other two branches it was thought desirable to bave the Eame mimute on the three branch books. The new minute stated: That collections be taken at the quarterly meetings at the discrelion of the incumbent and branch officers, and that such we given to the Belfry Repairs Fund.

Mr. Holt, eaid he woadered how that would affect them if they at Eome time desired to heve a collection for a member afflieted by illness. Would it allow them to have a becond collection?

This point was discussed further by Mr. Johnson, Miss Boyle and the retiring eecretary, after which Mr. Holt proposed an amendment that instead of 'That collections be taken :.? the motion read, ${ }^{5}$ That a collection. ${ }^{\text { }}$ etc. -This was seconded by Miss Boyle and cerried. 'Any other business,' as usual, brought a host of questions. Mr. Fi. F. Martin (Bromsgrove) exterded a hearty welcome to the members when bis hranch (Northern) held them summer meeting at Hartlebury in Jinne. The Hartlebury ringers, he said, had received tuibion and assistance from Western Branch members, and he thought it would be aice if the latter joined in.-Mr. T. Hemming (Brieriey Fill) bipported this and extended a welcome to Southern Branch members, too.

After compreliensive votes of thanks, further ritrging took place at both the churches at Hallow and Grimley (a nearby Fillage).

DON'T SCRUB YOUR HANDS!

Cleanse and preserve your skin this simple way

To many people, the problem of getting the hands really clean without harming the skin is a serious one. Grease and grime, which become deeply ingrained into the pores of the skin, are extremely difficult to remove, and ordinary washing with soap or even scrubbing will fail to remove them completely. Housewives, particularly, who complain that their hands get ruined by the nature of their work, will find the preparation called DERMAFOAM a real "godsend." DERMAFOAM just smoothes away dirt and grease without effort. It gets right down into the pores and removes every particle of grime, leaving skin beautifully supple and healthy.

Men, too-when you've finished that dirty job on the car, DERMAFOAM will quickly banish all grease and oil from your hands. It acts almost magically-working under and around the nails and into every minute crease, removing all trace of dirt in a flash.

Engineers, Painters, Car Mechanics, Printers - everyone - will welcome DERMAFOAM, the modern method of cleansing and protecting the handis.

LONDON RINGING SOCIETIES.

It was not surprising that, at the dinner of the Society of Royal Cumberland Youths, on Saturday, some reference should be made to the relationship between London ringing societies. Every expression of opinion that was heard was a plea for the extension of the spirit of good will and of the desire that energies should be devoted to furthering the cause of ringing instead of to petty quarrels. This view was particularly emphasised by Mr. E. H. Lewis, and will be echoed by all who have really at heart the cause of ringing in general and of London in particular. We have constantly urged, in this column, that the time is long past when the old feuds and jealousies should be allowed to govern the policy of those responsible for ringing, which should no longer be the subject of rivalries, as it was in the days when it was purely a secular pastime and bands of ringers were out to get the better of their competitors, not only in the peals they could ring, but in the towers they could monopolise.

In London that spirit took a long time to die, even if it can be said to be entirely dead to-day. But the extinction of this spirit is not in itself sufficient. What is wanted is a new outlook, demanded by the change in the attitude which the vast majority of ringers have towards their craft. No longer is bell ringing to be treated as a purely secular occupation, although it still suffers in many places from the fact that service ringing is done by paid ringers, whose jealous eye on the tiny loaves and fishes is often a stumbling block to progress. The reformation which has come about in the last half century has changed that view. Most ringers treat their services as a contribution to be made to the Church and in that respect rivalries which give rise to jealousies should have no place. Yet they will come to the surface from time to time. But the more ringers mix and rub shoulders the quicker will their differences disappear. Joint meetings between societies operating in the London area have begun to break down barriers in the metropolis, where the old feeling has persisted longest. There is a good way further to go yet before the ideal situation is reached, and we look forward to seeing brought about in the near future the joint meeting between the College Youths and the Cumberlands, suggested once again on Saturday. It would be another step in the right direction towards that goal which we believe to be obtainable if unlimited good will prevailed, not only officially, but in the backwaters of London ringing, a goal which would bring about not only a better understanding, but a genuine collaboration that could result in some, at any rate of London's dilapidated and neglected peals of bells being brought into action again.

THE IRISH ASSOCIATION.

ANNUAL MEETING AT ARKLOW

Ladies in Winning Competition Toam,
The annual mecting of the lrish gssociation was beld in Artiow on St. Patrick's Day, March 17th. The weather was summorlize and 104 ringers were present from Arklow, Bray, Dublin (Christ Chureh, Cathedral, SS. Augustine and John, St. George's and St, Patrick's Cathedral], Kilkenny and Waterford.
The Murpbit Cup competition for the best striking commenced at 11.30 a.m., When the following six towers met in if yery keen compotition: St. Patrick's Cathedial (holders), Christ Clurch Cathedral, St. Gearge's, Bray, Arklow and Wateriord.
St. Geot'ge's, Dublin, won the cup for the first time, with only nive faulta; they were thus the first tean including lady ringers to win the tropby. St. Patrick's Cathedzal were second with 13 [aults.
Lunch was very kindly provided by the local company in tho Marlborough Hall. I'le business meeting followed, with the president, Mr. J. C. Cherry, F.R.C.S.I., in the cliair.
The annurl report was read by the essistant yon. secretary (Mr F. E. Dukes) and included a new feature, viz., reports from loca] companies for the interest of other societies. The following are come pointa from tho report: The annual subscription was increaged by 3d. to 1s. 3d. per member, in order to pey for the printing of the annual report. This is the first year of the increase, end the committee decided that, as the report for the present year (1939) is not due until 1940, not to priwi a report this year, but instead to go ahead with the printing of Mr, Lindoff's pamplitet of 'Instructions on Change Ringing, ete, for Beginners.'
Only one peal was rung during the past year-that at Limerick on Auguat 1st.
Weterford Cathedral bells are at present being rehung by Messrs. Gillett, and Johnghon, Croydon.
Mr. Thomas Bayd, for 50 years connented with St. Canico's, Kilkenny, paszed away during the year. His loss is keenly felt.

Bray and St. Patrick's Cathedral, Dublin, both broadcast from Radio Eireann in the series "Bells Around Ireland" last September. The former rang a touch of Plain Bob Triples and the latter Grandsire Triples.
The total membership at present is 323 . The general fund shows a credit balavee of 175 . 5 d. and the boll restoration fund a balance of E83 10s. 3 R.

The association were invited to St. George's, Dublin, for luncheon and their annoal meating in 1940 by Mr. F. E. Dukes on behalf of that society.
Mr. J. B. Torgh (Bray) was elected president for the coming year. All otlaer officers were re-elected as tollows : Hon. Treasurer, Mr. D. Gibson: how. secretary, Mr. Gabriel Lindoff; Bssistant hon, secretery Mr. F. 'E. Dukes, GradiI.E.F., M.I.E.T. ; Ringing Master, Mr. R. S. F. Murphy, P, © ; representatives on the Ceatral Conncil, Messrs. Murphy and Lirdoff.
Mr, Tough thanked the association for the higls honour they had conferred on him, and put forward the following rozolution : That the resolution of 1906 be altered to read, "that the business year of the Irish Association end on the 31st Decenaber," instead of on the 25th Marcli as at present,' This was carried unanimously.

JUDGES REPORT.
Mr. I. C. Cherry (president) presented the Murphy Cup to the wimers, St. George's, Dubliu, handing it to their conductor, Mr. F. Dulres He also presented the same tower with the cluallcnge shield for Sinday service ringing. They won it for 1938 with 99.87 per cent. Christ Chorch Cathedral, Dublin, were runners-up with 99.75 per cent. The judges of the rompetilion, Messrs. G. S. Gibb snd B. N. Wolfe, of Kilkenny, in their report, said they had a hard task, as the standard of ringing wits so higly. The common fault was open leads. too close leading, gaps in the changes, clashine and failing to get bells. The winners, they said. had perfect leading and the riaging was most unform. The winning team was F. Dukes 1, Miss A. Dukes 2, Miss I. Evre 3. A. Woriell 4. G. McGregor 5. W. MeGregor 6, D. MoGregor 7. W, Hall 8

The Eresidert made an eppes! to the meeting to support 'The Ringing World, which was the bellringers' newspaper. His remarks were gupported by Mr. Dukes, who said that some towers had never seen the paper and it only cost 3d. a week, duty free.
Votes of thanks were passed to the Rey. W. Carroli, Rector, the ringers and ladies who so kindly lent the belis and the ball and prowided the Juncls and tea, The Rector suitably replied.

Thanks were also passed to the outgoing president and to the judges of the Striking Competition.
The bells of St. Saviour's were put to plenty of use, after the maeting had conchided, umtit a late hour, when touches of Grandsite Doubles and Triples, Plain Bob and Stednun Ttiples were rung for the benefit of the less proficient in the art.

MR. C. F. WINNEY'S BIRTHDAY

A5 an Birthday compliment to Mr. Challis F. Winney, who attained his 81st birthday on Marcli 17th, a quarter-penl of Grandsire Triples was ring et St. Andrews, Holharn, on minaday evening, by H. C. Norton 5, A. G. Darnell (conductor) B, T. Bannister 7, C. H. Vit)er 8.

PEAL NOTES.

CIVIL SERVANTS' PEAI

A number of peals have been rung in the past by men all angaged in the same profession or craft. We recall peais by bankers, gerdeners, railwaymen, to say mothing of Masons, Foresters, Oddfellows, Assuciation Secretaries and others. The Civil Servants tinye now achieved success in this direction.
Tha idea of such a peal arose many years ago, but until now it was impossible to get a bead for the parpose. On March 16 th, however, an excellent peal of London Surprise Major was rang at St. George's, Southwark.

Mar. Willian Bottril!, now living in Leicestershire, who was formerly a chief inspector in the Metropolitan Police, and, while a member of the Force, took a leading part in the formation of the Metropolitan Guild of Police Ringers and also the National Police Guidd of which he is a vice-president, rang his first peal of Stedman as conductor on March 16th at Lourhborough Bell Foundry. In view of the considerable number of peals on from six to Ewelfe bells which Mir. Bottril has rang, this will prabably come as a surprise to melly, but there are quita lot of capable rincers who, for one zeason or another, hide their light under a bushel.
A band at Darley Dale, Derbyshire, all, with one exception, members of the local company rage their first peal of Litile Bob Major on March 15th. Little Bob is an interesting step betwech Plain Bob and Treble Bob and more musical than the latter. It is rather sur prising, therefore, that it is not practised by more bands up and down tho country. The compasition rung at Darley Dale was a ten parl by Fdward Franeis, although, when the peal was compesed, Littlo Bob had never been thought of Mr, David Yiacent, of Hale, Cheshire, who rang the tenor to a peal of Bob Minor at Daventam on Merch 13 th, has now rang peals of Plain Bob from Minor to Maximus. It was a birthday compliment to Mr. Harry W. Heward, who rang tlie treble, and to K. Parker, son of Mr. Earry Parker, who rang the third.

LADY'S PEAT OF LONDON 'IN HAND.

a peal of London Surprise Major has been rung on liandbelis at Enffid, in which Mr. and Mus. G. W. Fletcher took part. Whis is an achievement of more than pasging noteworthiness, for Mrs. Fletcher is the first lady ever to ring a peal of London 'in hand.' The peal whs rung ou March 14 th.

Actaally this was the fifth attempt which the baud had made for the peal but three of them were maute sone months ago. It was onlv about a fortnight before their successiul attempt that they renewed their cfforts.

Apatt from Mrs. Flcteler, Mrs. Frank Hairs is the only jady to have rung a Surprise Major peal on handbells. Stes rang l-2 to a peal of Superlative.

At Calverleigh, Devon, on Mardi 14th, a peal of Grandsire Doubles was rung It was the first peal by all the band, which included three young ladies who ture still pupila ot Ingleside School. Congratulations are well deserved for this performance. It was the first peal on tho bells since they were rehung.

Messrs. F. G. Geary and J. H. Bluff rang their 25th peal together on March 11 th at Exton, Rutland, where the latter called a peal of Oxiord Bob and Plaja Bob Minor.

The aame of tho ringer of the treble in the poni of Cambridge Surprise nt Tunlridge Wells on March thin was Donald M. Findlay, not Swindley as printed.
The peal of Sterman Triples at Gilmorton, Lcicestershire, on Saturday, was a birthday compliment to the riager of the teadr (Mr. P. W. Bempett), who stood in at a moment's notice, after the rest of the tund, whe met for a peal of Major, had waited in rain for an hoer for the absentee. It was Mr. Ernest Tipler's 70th peal.

Mr. W. B. Cartwright lins now ming a peal on each bell in the Worcestershire tower of King's Norton. He 'campleted the circle ' on Saturday, when a peal of Grandsire Caters mas rung.

A GRANDFATHERS' PEAL.
Eight grandfathers rang a peal of Grandsire Triples at Willeahall, Stafis, on Saturday. It is not the firgt grandfathers' peal that has lyen rung, but it is, nevertheless, an interesting performance.

The tenorman, Mr. Arthar E. Reed, is a greet-grandfather and the peal was arranged in honour of his golden wedding at the first. opportunity that occurred at his own tower since the auspicious event. was celehrated on Januncy 8th last. It was aleo a birthday compliment to Mastar Johu Ravenscraft, grandson of the conducter, Mr. Clris. Wallater, and was the Gret peal of Grencsire on Wiltenbali belis sine they were recast.
Four members of the Desborough, Northants, band took part in a neal of Rot Major on Saturday, two of them, Raynoond Idle aud Denis Yeomame, are only 14 years of atge, Lewis Eibbourn rang his first peal of Major, and Arthim Ide his first peal on aight bells. It had been arranged in honous of the latter's 2lst birtliday and had leen attempted on the previeus Snturday, but lost owing to n "shift." After the attempt the two boys rang a good cansse of Cambridge Surprise Major witheat having previousis struck a blow in the methot':

Desborough shows ewery promise of turaing out a good band of rimgers, in spite of a rather poor peal of bells. Incidentalty it may be remarked that the peal on Saturday was Mr. B. J. Saddingion's 50th.

Another 'coming of age' cefebration on Saturday was the peal at Milarow, Lanesshire, the compliment being extended to Mr. Hatty Byrom, and he amd two otheys of the band rang their first peal of

Bob Major. The peal was also rulg on the amnversary of the wedding of Mr. and Mrs, Ivan Kar

The first peal of Triples ever vung ly members of the Calne Branch of the Silsbury Diocesan Guild was accomplished on Saturday at Woatton Bassett, Wilts. Tho trebleman rang his fres peal, the tenorman and four otiners rang their lirst peal of Triples, and the conductor had not called a peal of Triples before. An excellent performance.
It was rung as a comphment to Mr. I. A. Wilson, the branch gecretary, who was the ouly one of the band not to achieve something new by the peal.

A TREBLE BOS MAXIMUS COMPOSITION
Tho first peal of Maximus at the Town Hall, Manchester, was runc on Saturday. Mr. John Worlh, of Macclesfield, who called a somposition of Treble Bob Maximus of lis own, rung for the first time, turned in the 42 s cwh. fenor in 3 hours 40 minutes. Here is the composition:

23456 M W H
$\begin{array}{llll}\overline{62534} & 2 & 1 & 2 \\ 36245 & 2 & 2 & 2 \\ 32465 & & 1 & 2 \\ 64235 & & 2 & 2 \\ 35426 & 1 & 2 & 2 \\ 45236 & & 2 & 1 \\ 25456 & & 1 & 1\end{array}$
Messrs. C. F. Bayar und R. W. [Barbet, who took part in a peal of Bob Maximus on Saturday at St. Nicholas', Great Yarmonth, have now rung every heil in the lower to at peal.

At anpher tower, Warbielon in Eussex, where there are six bella, two of the luand that rang a peal of Cambridge Surprise Millor on Saterday also "compleled the circle." They were Messrs. W. A Kitckenside and F. F. Hicks.
Lest Saturday e peal of Double Norwich Major was rung at Little port, Cambridgeshire, and the eight ringers travelled an average of 55 miles each to take part. The newly-inducted Rector (tho Rev Mr. Payne) welcomed the ringers and expressed his and the Diocesan Bishop's pleasure at the ringing.
Three mew grrival trere celebrated by a peat of Minor at Thorpe-jeSoken, Essex, on saturday. A son has been born to Mr. Hud Mre E. J. Durraut, a danghter to Mer, and Mrs. L. E. Sharp and a son to Mr, and Mrs. WW. F. Downs. The three proud fathers, who nre local ringera, all took part in the peal.

The birthday of Mr. H. Bloor, a ringer at Longton, Starfa, was celebratad by a peal of Kent Treble Bob at his parish church on Saturday. Eie did not, however, take part in it.
In the peal of Grandsire Triples nh Staplehurst, Kent, on March 18th, Ralph Wenlian, who is only 17 years of age, ranc jis first peal at the frat attempt. Ho is the son of the conductor, Hr William Wenban, and is to be congratulated upon tion way in which He struck bis bell throurgout the peat.
In pur notes on March 10th we referred to a peal of Superlative Surprise by Mr. A. J. Pitman, and said that, apart from it having been conducted by Mr. Leslie Morris on the previous Saturdsy, it had only once before been rung, when it was called by Mr. Ernest Morris, We are now informed' that the composition mas called from en 'ingide bell by Mr. Harold Cashmore on Augast Bank Holiday

SOUTHIERN DISTRICT ANNTAT HEETTNG

It was decided to hold the mext quarteriy meating at Wath on Saturday, Jure 17th.
Feference was made to the death of Mr. Atthur Knights. Mr. Lewis said that, slthongh an out-coubty member, Mr. Knights had nlways been in close contact with the assomiation and whs held in bigh esteen by all its mombers.-As a token of respect, the maceting stood in sitence.

Ringing natil nine a'clock broutght a very stacesssful menting to a close.

A NEW ESSEX PEAL.

DEDICATION AT STANFORD-LE-HOPE.

One Ball Given Ey Methadists.
Latat shturday was a great day in the parochial life of the bittle town of Stanford-leHope, Easer, a new peal of bells being dedicated in the Perish Church by the Lord Bishop of Chelmaford.

Previously the tower had contained an almost unique peal of six, instałled by Moore, Holmes and Mackenzie, of Redenhall, im 1886 . Tuis frm is reputed to lisve only one or twn other rings to their credit. The frame was of great interest, being amongst the earliest wrought jron frames ingtalled in the Eastern Counties, and was of most unusual degigu, It consigted of a silugle cross lathice arrangemosit, with the bells in two rows on the tips of these members. The etrain on the tower, with all the bells thus swinging one way, was very great, and this was one of the chisf reamona why a restoration berame necesgans. The tone of the old bells also left mucle to be desired, and it was wieely decided to make a clean sweep.

The final result has been a new preal of eight with a tenor of 11 cwt. 2 gr. 5 lb ., humg in a modern steel frame by Messrs. Taylor and Co., of Loughborough, wha are to be congratulated upon a really fine peal. The pesition of the frame in the tower has been lowered some feet below the lourres, and the circle of ropes in the ringing chamber is exceptionally good.

At the dedication service the clurch was packed with parishioners and ringers, end many, who weve unable to ointain admittance, heard tho servica relayed by loud-sipeaker van outside.

The service wins conducted ly the assistant curate of the parish, the Eev. L. S. Bewers, who had been chielly responsible for the carrying through of the augmentation. The dedication cerermony was carried out at the bottom of the tower by the Lord Bishop of Chelmeford, after which a course of Grandsire Triples was rung by a hand from St. Mary's, Prittlewell. During this the congregation remained stonding, listening for the first time to the complete peal.

In the course of his address the Bishop anid he was very pleased to be present on such an occasion, and he congratulated the parish upon What it had done. Several of the bells had been given in memory of past churchworkers, which was a very nice ection, but the ope that tmpressed him mast was the 7th, which bears the following inscription: "To the Glory of God and an expression of the Dnity in devotion to our Lord and Master, Jesus Christ, from the Methodist Church in this Parish.'
The Bishop thanked most heartily the authorities comcerned, and sadd he wished there could be many more such actions to brank down differences and lielp then all to realise their common purpose, holy worship. He went on to comment on the large congregation, and esked why it was not always so, for, he said, he was under no delusions about the normal attendances. Slackness, he was convinced, was due to indifference and not to disbelief in a call which alane could gave the world in the present troubled times.
After the gervice the tower was open to visitivg ringers, and good use was made of the bells until $4.45 \mathrm{p} . \mathrm{m}_{\text {, }}$ when about 70 ringers sat down to tea in the Parish Hall. Afterwards the Rov. L. S. Buwens said how pleased he was to welcome so many memhers of the Dessex and mejhbouring associations, and said that he hoped the association would do all in its power to lhelp his ringera.

Mr. J. Chalk, Ringing Master of the South-West District of the Essex Assaciation, congeatulated the parish on what it had done, and thanked all who had taken part in the service aud the ladies who had provided the fine tea. He was pleased to see so many ringera there, and hoped for great. things from the Stanford ringers, now ihat they had such a fine peal.
Mr. Howel] replied on behalf of the Stanford ringers and thanked Mr. Chalk, He looked forward to as nuch assistance as the association could give. They bad 16 ringere of their own, bat they tid not yet do method ringiny.
The tower was revisited at 6 o'clock and ringing continued until 7.30, many methods being rung.

The opinion of those who sliould know was thet an ifleal job had been made of the founding and hanging. It is the hope of SouthFast Essex ringers that this is the firat of many needful restorations in the area.

SUFFOLK GUILD.

EYE BRANGH WELCOMES YOUNGSTERS.
A successful meeting of the Eye Branch of the Suftolk Guild was beld at Faxley oo Saturday. Owing to e misunderstanding, the service was abandoned and the belis at Faxiey were not available, but good use was made of the rings at Brome, Oakley, Thornham and Stoke Ash. Oee ringer was heard to remark that it was his gisth fresh tower, in six counties, this year.
Ringers ettended from Suffolk, Norfolk, Essex and Cambridgeshire nnd a party of about 30 sat down to tea, under the chairmanahip of the Rev. H. Drake, of Ufford.
Nine new members were clected, the Chairman welcoming so many youngsters. Ho also asked the memhers to stand in silence as a mark of respect to the late Mr. Arthur Knighta, of Cheskerfield, who was born in the village of Brome.

A few words of welcome ta those living beyond the Suffolk borders, and an expression of thanks to the incumbents for granting permission to ring their bells, hromght a very pleasant meeting to a close.

CHARLES R. LILLEY

jew ringars have been able to spread their ringing activities about the country as Mr. Oharles R. Lilley, now of Highweek, Devon, has done. His occupation bas taken lime to many centres, and wherever lie has getiled he has found an outlet for his energies. This bas lrought him into close contact with a large number of ringers, especially with the alder members of the Exercise, and the experjence ho thus gainad has made him not only a capable ringer but an excellent zimstructor. Meny young ringerg owe to him their opportuanities for their first peals.

Mr. Liliey was born on April 8th, 1874, at Candles5y, Lincofmshiro, where his father was for many years a churchwarden. He inherited his love of ringing however, from his great-arandfather, witian Fant, of Freiston, aud still possesses his ancestor's ringing books. Mr Lilley learnt to ring in Lincolnshire and his first peal was in 12 methods of Doubles at Wrangle in peal as conducior or August 7 th, 1897 ot BenAugost 7 th, 1897 , qut Bencatled seven 720's of Bob Minor. In 1697 lie moved to Bedford, where he was associated with Mr. Chatles Clarke, who, as Mr. Lilley describes it, put the fimishing touches on him. About this time the belles at St. Paul's, Bedford, made into ten, and he took pert in some of the frat peals on this augmented ring, including the first peals of Kent Treble Bob Royal and Bob Royal as wel! as Superlative Major for the Beds Asseciation. Aftorwards Asseciation. Artorwards
Mr. Liliey moved to varjous places, including oxfordshire. where he took of Double Norwich Majox part in the fanols 17,084 rung at Eidlington in 11 hours 12 minutes on May 22nd. 1899. conducted by James Washbrook.

He went to Sbrewsbury

in 2913, where be com-

ducled the first peal of Stedman Triples in the town at St. Alkmund's and was afterwards appointed Fiaging Master and Towerkeeper at St. Chad's. The bells tinere were then in bad order, and Mr. Lilley urged thair restoration, which was oventually carried out by Messre. Taylar and Co., who recast the bells into what Mr. Lilley considers the finest twelve in England. He conducted a number of first peals on theae bells, including Grandsire and Stedman Cinques and Plain and Treble Bob Maximus, and was possibly the first ringer to condict peals in the four standard methodg on twelve bells in his own tower. In this tower he brought along a youmg band until they could ring Cambridge, and he also served for some years as a sidesman in the clurch. On ove occsion at Wem in Shropshire be conducted a peal of Grandsire Triples, ringing the fifth in the frat hali and the serenth to the second balf. The seventh was going badly and the change over was made to relieve the man who had started on her.

Since be has been in Devon Mr. Lilley has devoted much time to teaching, and among other performances has called the first peal of Oxford Treble Bob Major in the West, the first peal of Triples at Truro Cathedral and the first peal of Double Norwich Major by resident Devonshire ringers.
Atogether Mr. Liliey has rang 710 peals, of which be has condunten 463. They have bean rang in 360 towers, ineluding ten cathedrals; in 32 cannties, and among them have been 34 handbell penls, of which he has conducted 33 .
He represented the Shropshire Association on the Central Counct from 1924 to 1926 and has been chairman of the Exeter Braych of the Devart Guild.

YOUNG BAND'S PROGRESS AT ASTON

The steady progress of the woung bind at Aston was further marked on Sunday week, when seven of them rang their first quarter-peal of Sted̈man Cinques ( 1,311 changes) before morming service at the Parish Church. ## GOOD FRIDAY BELLS.

MRR. BOX THANKED.

To the Editor.
Dear Sirs-Will you please sllow word of thanks to Mr. W. L. Box for his letter, partzcularly for his reference to the ancient cervice books, which, to many of us, are indeed a closed book, because we have no access to them.

There is no doubt that, both as regards liturgy sud tradition, Nr. Box is right, although ot one place many years ago we used to ring the bells haif-muffled on Good Iriday. At another Parish Church it became a custom to toll the tenor bell 35 strokes at the end of the three hours devotion. This custom, I believe, was continued for about 20 years. In lath cases, however, the ringing is now discontinned, and I believe that the ruling, no bells from Palm Sunday to Easter Day, including also the sjacriag and the Angelus, is mote generalty observed.
Your correspondent's reference to the Sarum Migsal is very interesiing. It confirms to some extent what I hava long suspected, that the use of bells in peal, to which we are accustomed in England, must have its origin in some use connected with the Liturgy, while other uses of bells, mostly of single bells, have to do with jmportant heavenly visitations For instance, the Holy Presence at the time of the Sacring bell, and the angel of the Salutation at the hours of the Angelus. So, reasoning from the known to the unknown, it is reasonable to suggest that the use of bells in number together may lave begun in a commemoration of the visit af angels in great numbers; "a multitude of the bearenly host, singing together their Gioria in Excelsis.

Mr. Box's reference, however, strips this fiea of some of its glamour, because he seems to transter it from Ghristmas, where one might expect to find it, to Easter, which feast, although it does, indeed, celebrate a visit of engels, bas no mention of arcat multitude, nor does the traditional Easter Day atory say that the angels sally their tremendous news. Cond yous sir, peralace Mr. Box to kindiv look up for us the Rubrics in the Sarum and other Missale for the Chrast mas festrival?

ANGIENT CHURCH ORDTER BELLS TO BE SEENT*

Sir, May I take tilis opportunity of thanking those of yomr readers who have reptied to my letter on the above, but, as I feel that my ideas have been misunderstood, I propose encroaching upon your columns again.
Allow me to begin by staling that I am not the sametimonious, solf-righteous individual some of your correspondents apparently think me, but I do, honestly, feel that Good Fridas ringing would be en unfortunate break with aucient Church bradition, which view I have already set forth in your columns and endeavoured to support by quotations from the beautiful ancient "Uses, which were the only forms of prayer and services known and used in this land of ours before the Reformation.
Surely enough of these old "forms and ceremonieg, so dear to our forefathers in the "Ages of Faith," were lost daring the jconoclastic times of the Reformation, without the few remaining being slattered to-day, especially when the Anglican Church is endeavouring to get back to the 'godly ancient issage,' as the Prayer Book says, of formet days.

To pute broader view on the matter, I am quite aware that these are the times of George YI not George I, as Mr. Amns rather antlessly puts it, but we ringers have 52 Sundays in the year on which to make ourselves heard without ringing on its most sacred day, on Which, es I have tried to show, the ancient Church expressly orders the bells to bo silent.
Let us get our bells rung well sind regularly for Sunday gervices before wa begin ringing on Good Friday. The guestion of the appropriateness of mufled ringing, an 18th century innopation, is, af caurse, beside the poind, but the old rabrics seem to enjoin completa silence. With regard to the eustom of silemee during Holy Week at the R.C. Caihedral Church of St, Chad, Birmingliant it is neither "modern " nor "Anglican," but simply good menners and respect for that solemin season; furthermore, as the ofice of Tenebrae is Eajd each evening during the week it wauld be quite impossible for us to ring.
In conclusion, may I say that this in my last word on the matter, but we shall be very glad to welcotne any of your correspondents tó ring at SSt. Chad's, whether they show 'deplarable leck of knowledge of liturgical tradition' or not.

WILFRED E. BOX.

ROYAL CUMBERLAND YOUTHS.

THE ANNUAL DINNER

Plea for Go-aperation Among Ringing Sooieties

A merry party, including a number of ladies, gathered at the Old Bell Eestaurant, Holborn, on Saturday, for the enmual dinner of the Society of Royal Cumberland Youths. There were nearly a bundred present, ant the Master (Mr. Cenrge H. Cross), who presided, whs sizpported by Mrs. Cross, the Rev. Henty Cecil (Vicar of St. Leonurd's, MI: E. G. Fean (Master of the Ancient Sacioty of College Youths) Tho offers present included Mr. Q. W. Steere (hon. secretary), Mr T. Bevan (genior wteward). 3r. R. Heazel (junior steward), Messrs A. Hardy and C. J. Matchews (trustees). Among the veterans were two octogebarians, Mr. G. Williams (Southampton) and Hr. W. J Nevard (Great Bentley), and there were others present whose membership goes back hali a century or more. The attendance included Mr. A. A. Hughes (hon. treasurer of the College Youths), Mr. G. W Fietcher (1oon. secretary of the Central Counci), Mrs. Fletcher (hon secretary of the Ladieg" Guild) Mr. and Mrs. James Parker (Exmon ton), Mrs. J. D. Matthews (widow of the late Master), the Rev. J Pelloe, Mr. A. Narborough (Notijugham), Mr. G. Pullinger (Bishopstoke), Mr. R. Philpott (Southsea), Messrs. A. F. Pulling and W. . Eobinson (Guildford), Mr. G. Gilbert (Burnham) and memberg from College Youtlis. An excellent dinner was enjoyed, after which the torst of "The Kjng' was hovoured.

RINGERS DUTY TO TEE CHURCH

M's. E. K. Fletcher, in proposing the toast of "The Clurch," saiv Whey, as ringers, were included in the tomst because they were part of the Chureh and were doing a wrork for the Chureh. Slie asked, bowever, whether they wele doing that work as they shoutd do it sometimes it came to them, she thought, thet perhaps they were not doing it as well as they might. At a meeting of the Ladies' Guild a few weeks argo the Vicar of the church they were attending said that what amazed him was that if he wanted ringers to ring for a wedding in the mid-week they could always raise a full team, but on Sundeys they could not find enougla men to ring all the bells for the services. That state of aftajrs, sald Mrs. Fletcher, was wrong. Some times they complained that the clergy did not come up into the tower to meet them. She thouglit the renson of cen was that the clargy werg ufraid to come. If they did go into the tower they heard ail sorts of mysterious orders given, which they did not understand and which no one attempted to explain to them. Tjey might even think the ringers ware mad and when they went downstairs they decided they had had a marvellous escaps and would not go up again (laugbter). "We do not meet them half way, said Mrs, Fletcher We expect them to come the whole way and we do not interest then in our work. On an occasion like this, she continued, 'we should think of all we owe to the clergy. A lot of our ringing, and especially our penl ringing, is done for pleasure. It helps us to jmprove our striking, but it is primarily done for pleasure, and if the clergy withdrew their permission to us to ring tine bells a lot of our pleasure would be lost. We shontd thinh, therefore, of what we owe them, for their interest and the kindliness they show us in many ways particularly in allowing us to hold meetings and in taking the services tor us. Butt the greatest fhing of all for us to remember to our primary disty to the church as belizingers. Our duty is to ring the wells for the Sunday bervices, and it is up to us, in the Church, to pull our weight and to do our utmost above all to keep the bells going on Sundays. The ringing which we do for pleasure we shall enjoy very much more if we fee we are not failing in our duty to The Church on Sunday (applaise)

SHOREDITCH WANTS A REGULAR BAND.

The Rev, Ermest Cceil, who replied, said be felt himself rather remiss in not climbing the stairs to the belfry at Shoreditch as often thas he should have done, but he did know some of the ringers who wante occasionally to ring the bells and be wanted to say how much thrise services werc appreciated and they would like them to come more often. Recently the bells gad been silent for many months on nccount of the restoration of the tower and steeple, but now this work load been completed he haped vary much that the ringers would come and belp them more. They had the first ringing, since the tower was restored, on the preceding Sunday, and whle perhaps they did not have any more people at church they ceriainly came earlier through herring the bells instead of coming in at the lasi moment, and the atmosphere of worship was thereby enbanced. Many pebple had said how mice it was to heat the bells again. It seemed to him a great pily they bad not got a regular band of young men at Shoreditch who could seltle down to learn the art of ringing (hear hear). He lonew it was diffealt, for those who at present came to ring, to come unore often than they did, but they wonld be glad ta see then, and he and the church officers and Church Council were tremendously grateful to them for what they did (applanse). The Bector went on o explain the work that had been donp to the church and tower and mentioned that while it was in progress they found serions cracirs in the eupola on the top of the towor which might have resulted in it ronsing crashimg to the ground in a violent storm. That cost them an adiational $E 700$ to put right, and altogether they had spent 82.500 on the restoration scheme. He was giad to $\begin{aligned} & \text { gey the work had been }\end{aligned}$ well done and the ringers could come there and ring their longest pral in perfect safety (amplause).

THE CALL TO YOUTH

Mr. Walter Ayre proposed the todst of The Society of Royal Cum berland Youths. It had been lis privitege, he caid, to bo a member for the last 20 years, and he had al ways met with the greatest kindnes and courtesy from the society over since he first came to London as a. real country bumpkin. Continuing, be said we point was being much stressed of the need for youth and it lad always been a very strong point with him, but it came as a great surprise to lim that night to see so many young people in that getlacrirg, both yuung men and young ladies (applanse). It was rather difficult in thes days to fird new members in London itself, and he felt it was the duly of the provincial mombers to do what they could to reeruit the ranks of the society. He suggested they ghould make it their busines in tho country to rope in some new members so that they could continue to add new life in fbe society. Ho wrs sure they did not make enough of their society of which they should be proud (hent hear). They should pride themselver on being Cumberlands ane should "boost, their society more; they should get more new member and make it stronger. It would not be long before they celebrated their bicentenary-they were founded as the Royal Cumherland Youths in 1745-and he thonght that in the next sis years they onght to be able to increase their membership consideralaly. The old member cund not carry on indefinitele they most have support and it "en ouly gouth that could give them that support (epplauso). It was, he knew, diffeult to carry on in London, but he thought ft would b a very fine idea if the Cumberlands would take on more towers fo regular ringing. There was, for inbtamee, Shoreditch, with a fan peal of bella, that yeeded a repular Sisniny gerviee band and thare wer one or two other towers where the bells were very geldom rugg, which the society might make an effort to man, so that they might get more people who were on the spot to ring the belis of the churches for the purpose for which they were placed in the towerg, mamely, calling people to worship (applause). He reatised, from his own experience hu ais own association, that it was becoming more and more dilfent except in a few centres, to get youth to come in to fill up the ramk as the stalwarts dropped out, and he knew many places where the rauks were not beine filled, but he felt that an effort in this direction should be made and would be found wortlk while (applause). If in the area of greater London and outside they conld get more members for their wociety, some wera bound to gravitate to London and if they were already members of the society they would naturally com to headquarters to take part in its activities aad thus eventually be able to belp ring the bells that ware at present silent (hear, hear) Mr. Ayre concluded by telling the company that they lind mmong them that evening the first lady to ring a peal of London Surprise double-handed. She was a memher of their society, and in their name he heartily congratulated ber upon ber performance (apulause).

MEMBETSHIP ON UP GRADE.

The Maticr, who replied to the toast, first thanked the hon, secte ary (MT. Q. W. Steere) and the late han. seoretary (Mr. N. Summer hayes) for the axcellent arrangements they had made for the dinner and went on to mention tha receipt of apologies from, among otherg, the Rev. W. Pennington Bickford (St. Clement Danes), the Rev. G. L.
Davey (St. Martin's-in-the-Fields), Mr. W. F. Fussell (Slough), Mr. A. F. Martin Stewart (Wimborne), etc. The Master contmued that he had recently been looking hack over the memhership of the societ and he found that between 1933 and 1938 the membership had increased by 50 per cent., so that instead of there haring been a decline thay were well on the up grade (applanse). He menthoned the recent fine performance of a peal in 30 Minot methods nung by Essex members upon the schievement. Witli regard to Sunday ringing he said the maintained the rimging at St, Martin's on Sundny mornings and for the broadcast services, and they also rang at shoteditch, when th bells were ayailable, ance a month and sometimea twice, and they lad also zong at St. Bride's and St. Olave's. Hart street. It had been suggested to lim by Mr. Ayre, the added, that they might tr to nrange a joint meeting with the College Youtha, and the officera would certainly see what could be done in that ditection (epplanse) Perhaps, too, Mr. Fens would bring the matter to the notice of his society. In conclusion, the Master said he had recelved a leiter ivom nn old member, Mr. W. Kecble, who, as most of them knew, had been for a long time in hospital at Severalis, Colchester. Mr. Keeble would welcome a wisit from nay ringets who could call nud eee him Tbe Master added that he thought it would be a kindly geature if from that meeting, they could sepd a practical mark of their sym pathy to Mr. Keełde. Keable.
Mr. J. W. Comford submitted "The Fisiters' and atid he wes pleased to see so large a number present that night. The dinner in that romm. he said, took him back 20 . years, when, in the same place the annual dinner of the society was inalugrated and he saw feces now present who were with them on the first oceasion (applause) There were members of many kindred someties present, societies who, with theip own, were once looked upan as antagonistic. But those rasys he wag glad to say were past: the gocial side of ringige had brought them together as one big family (applause). They land ringers present from many distant places, inciuding some from Notlingharn and some frons Southampton. They particnlaty weleaned Mr. E. H. Lewis, the president of the Central Council and past Master of the College Youths (applanse). Some were present, no doubt, to greet old friends and to talk of the peals they rang together years ago, perhaps in the 'gay nineties ' (ianghter). Thea there were some of the strong men with tiem with their eyes gred on Lirerpool tepor. He wished them luck (lauyhter and applause). But for whatever reason they were there, there was, behind all, the love of ringing, of meeting old friends and of doing hoveur to that grand old society (applause).

MISPLACED ENERGY.

Mr. E. II Lewis, in responding, mentioned that he had spent some hours that afternopo on the river bank watching the "Head of the River' races, and he went ou to draw analuries hetween the team work required in rowing and in riaging. The mach of the crew, he said, cond say exactiy what he likad to the men and what be thought about them, and no member of the crew dared to reply or even to look surly; if he did be would be chucked out of the poat. He thonght it would be for the good of ringing if they could have a little more of that spirit in the tower. He oid not mean to say they should use the sanae kind of language inside a sacred building that was used on the towpath (laughter), but the idea should be that whoerep was conducting should be in complete charge and should say what he thougint about the striking, without the person spoken to fecling any ill-will at all. That was the spirit they wanted to get into the tower (applanse).
Thare were many probiems to which ove might rafer on that occagion, continued Mr. Lewis, but it jad been guite clear in the past year or two thet. Lewis, bocieties the bea quite clear ith the past energy that fiad heen misplaced. They eried out for recruits and no society coutd be successial unless there was a contiauous flow of youmg ringers, but what lad struck him was that in some quarters a lot oi energy had been spent, is quarrelling about overlapping, which miglt have been more useluly turutd into another direction, that of teaching young tingers (hear, heary). In his own couthty assaciation, a number of whose members weve present that night, if the energy spent in qualrelling over the rules had been put into teaching young ringers, the essociation would have been a great deal botter off (applause). In Kent there were only just over 50 per cent. of the towers in mion with the association, and in many of those towers the etriling, to say the least of it, was very far from perfect. that reason fe thought a lot of the misplaced energy should have been turned into the right direction, for they should nat be satisfied until they had every tower in the county in union with the association and the striking everywhere fit to lse brosdeast (hear, bear). That could only be dome by getting young ringers, teaching them careinally from the start and maying attontion to every little detail, from the proper way to hald the rope, onvard. It was details such as the holding of the rope and the handling of the bell which did so much cowards accurate striking at a later date. It was upon such things as this bhat they shonld spend their time and energy instead of quarrelling about the definition of districts or the exact meaning of mules. The best societjes were those which were worked on a basis of friendship and rules should not ho required at atl (taplause). conclusion. Mr. Lewis on behalf of the visitors, aud the rivgers of England, which, as president of the Central Coumcil, he could ciaim to represent, wished the Royal Cumberland Youths continued prosperity.

SUGUESTED JOFNT MEETING OF COLLEGE YODTFS AND

 CUMBERLANDSMr. N. Summerliayes proposed 'Kindred Soctetjes.' He said London Was rmique iu this respect that it was covered by four or five or more societies, and he supposed it was ineritable that small questions and disagzeements-small compared with the ideas belind rugingshould ciop up, hut piolent controversy and acrimonious argiment could do nothing at all to improve tho position. Everything could he settled in a friendly manner: if it was not it would only bring discredit on the lixercise and breed bad feelitid among riugers (henr, henr). They often hearo that Eo and so would not ring with somenoe cise, and you cauld not have this may in a perl if you had thet man. effectively to organise ringing and particularly Sundav service tinging. Their abject should ge to wark together in a friendly way. During 1038 the Cumberland Youths beld two joint meetings. One was with the Middlenry and Essex Associntions at Shoreditch, Bethmel Green and Hart Street. It was a terrifie success, $n$ nd 8 , at least, attended athough it was on the Sabarday that followed the cribical week in September. They also beld a joint meeting with the London County Association, Which was also a success. At the meeting at Shoreditch one or two mentioned the idea of a joint meeting with the Ancient Society of College Youths. He thotght if it could be done it would create a tremendous impression, and he was sure it would be as successful as either of the other meetings. He would like to reiterate the desire of his society to co-operate with the other societies in the London areas: they were always delighted to welcome members of any other society at their meetings and practices. Fe coupled with the toast the rame of Mr. E. G. Fens, Master of the Ancient Society of Collere Youths
3r. Fonn. who was corditally received, satd there was one thing lie had noticed about the kindred sacieties in the provinces and that was the brotherhood ondi good fellowship that cxisted between them. It was gatherings such as ther were holding that evering that kept thes bratherhood going, and he doubted if there was any other art in the world which could produce the brotherhood and good spirit That was to be found in ringing to-day (applause). The Ancient Society of College Fouths was pleased to welcome any zingers, to Whatever society they belonged, whether they were Cumberlands, or the Ladies' Guild, or what not. Mr. Fenn went on humorously to remark that as the men conld not join the Ladies Guild, perheps the next best thing was to marry a lady ringer, although that might have its drawhacks their wives might know too much sometimes (laughter). On one occasion after a peal, he said, he wellt home early. He arrived at eight o'clock and his wife exclaimed, 'What's the matter, aren't you well?' (laughtor). The mext fime he did not get homa until balf-past ten, and when asked for un explanation he said thay lad had ten more changes to ring (Amughter). "But," said Mr. Fchn, "you couldn't tell tlanto tald to your wife if she was a ringer ' (laughter). Proceeding Mr. Fenn said the College Youths once played the Cumberlands at cricket; he now understood there was a team wanting to play the Cumberbiands at darts (lauglater and applause). With regard to the joint meeting of the iwo societjes which had been mentioned he would cortainly bring the matter up at their next meeting. It rested, of conrse, with the members to say if they were in agreement with the guygestion. For himself he was in favour of it, as sach meetings did ereata good fellowship between ringers (applause).

LADIES CHALLENGE

Later the Master read a note, thut had been handed up to him, that the Ladies' Guila would challenge the winners of the matcla between the Collere Youths and the Cumberlands in a darts competition (laughter aud applanise).
Mr. C. J. Malthews proposed "The Press,' and, speaking from his own experience in contiection with newspaper production, gaid he was sure very few ringers understood the grest smonnt of work Mr. Goldsmith put into "The Ringing World 'for their benefit every week. The Ringing World ' was indiaponsable to the Exercise, but Mr Goldsmith was indispensable to "The Ringing world. Ho wished saccess to "The Ringing World" and hoped Mr. Goldsmilh would long be gule to carty on
Mr. Goldsmith, whose name had theen received with musical honours, responded. and, in thanking Mr. Matthews for his kindly remerks, waid whether or not he was indispersable, the time mast inovitably como when lie would no longer bo here to carry on, and his great desire was to see sufficient support given to the paper to ensure its continuation in the interests of ringing. Mr. Golasmith referred to the position of ringing in London, where within five miles of Charing Cross, he said, there were something like 80 fowers, while regular service rimging was carried on in probably less than 20 of them. Thare was plenty of scope for improving this position, he added, if onty the various societies would get together in a friendily spirit of coliahoration (applanse).
During the evaning the company were entertained with soligs by Miss M. Dawson and Mr. Walter Ayre; Mr. George de Sell mystified the gudience with some extrnordinarily clever tricks; and there was also handbell ringirg which incmand courgas of Stedman Caters and Double Norwich Major, the cajoyable evening condraing with community singing.
photograph was taken of tio dinner party, and details as to the price of copies, etc., can be lad [rom the hon. secretary of the society, Mr. G. W. Steere.

LONDON COUNTY ASSOCIATION

Dear Sir-The Exercise will, I Whink, agree with Mr. Simmond's letter io your last issue as to the undesiratality of causing bituernegs and ill-feeling belween the Guildfort Diocesan Guili and Ele London Connty Association lyy a contimance of the corregnondence relating particularly to those two associations.

But a re-reading of Mr. C. T. Coles' letter in ' The Einging Worla' of March loth will show that, apart from a reference in his opering paragraph. Mr. Coles does not refer to this mather at all. The withdraval of the remarks retating to the Guildford Diocesan Guild has. it is hopen, Anded thas questron.
Mr. Coles $\frac{1}{}$ etter relates solels to two otier points contained in Mr . Taftender's fist letter- (a) 'the assistance of pnother writer ' in lagding the Edilor, and (b) 'this association (the J.C.A.) las in no way aver ipnored its title."

With regard to (a), you, sir, have denied any such assistance, and $\eta$ agree with Mr. Coles ihat, if the charge canoot be substantiated, it should be withdrawn. $\mathrm{O}_{5}$ the muestion of the L.C.A. tot ignoring its title and yet laving claim to the postal districts of London, I am irresistibly reminded of the linader of the Third Reicls, who has 'no more territorin? amhitions "util he springs his next surplise on the world. As Mr. Woodiss said in his letter published on Februaty 24th, nothing has been done 'with regord to the more important question of overlapping " and 'as to the condret of the activities of the association in the future. It is interesting to note that a former district master of tho L.C.A. (Mr. Waurb) has anid that it is ' quite useless to try to End the society on a torritorial basis, with its present constitution " ('Ringing Worid,' February 10th, 1939). Preaumbly he speaks from experience.

Everyone who knows Mr. Coles knows that he bas spent the whole of his ringing career in trying to promote the welfare of the Frepcise and goof faelive among the associations and their membets, ath for Mr. Simmonds to imply arathing else is quite unjnctifiable. The two poinis in Mr. Coles letter were guite cleary nothing to do with the relations between the Guildford Diocesan Guild and the Landon Connty Association.

- RINGING UP.

RINGERS OFPER SOME UEEFUL HINTS.

 To the Editor.Dear Sir,-In answer to 'Yokel's' leiter as to "ringitg up,' I stundd like to offer the band some advice on this subject. Your correstondent says his bead caulot agree on what is the cause of their failure, but some light on the culprit is tbrown by your correspondent when he says the back belis have to pull dowil from their normal swing, whel is abviously wrong and planly points out that the treble is not raising his bell. This checkiug on the back lualls is a guide to the leader thet he is at fault.
In the next paragraph I am with the tenorman in his opinion on ralying his ownt bell.
My afivice to this band is to get to some tower where the beils arts raised as they should be; if not, get some expert ringer to coach the band, for I am sure in our great fraternity someone would be oniy too pleased to assist.
Fire is some advice to the band on raising:-
The leader should always be raising, but only gradually.
2. The front bells keep as close as possible at tne commencement of the ries.
3. No. 2, you are setting the rhythm, Bee to it fhat you keep it.
4. Do not try to follow a bell thist is not in its place, buit keep your ears oper and see that your bell is spealking at its proper time.
5. Gradually open out when nearly up. The treble and second here play an important part,
This peal, with a tenor of 17 cmt , should take at the least five minates to raise ; a fittle longer would add to the beautiful effect of a grood rise.
friconelusion, I consider these tells an ideal six to raise in peal, for, hasing been recently rebung and with a tenor of that weigit, they shinld go well and have some tone in them.
J. E. HOBRS

Watrail, Notts.

ANOTHER "TIP

Dear Sir, - Yokel ' has hit one nail on the head when ho snys 'the lnetls should be really close together in the eerly stages." That gives thin back strokes an opportunity of fating into place without aleshing
The other point I have found invaluable in my experience is this The trebleman should keep an eye on the tenor, and as soon as possible toarch "sally" and end "in opposition to his rope. Then, if that others are keeping their proper places, the result should he entirely sii 1 isfactory

NORTH NOTTS ASSOCIATION.

MEETING AT BATRNBY-LN-THE-WILLOWS

A very enjoyable meeting of the North Nottr Association was held on Saturday, March 11th, ai Barnly-in-the-Willows, near Newark. The light sir, with a tenor of $6 \frac{1}{2}$ cwt., went well, end after a late stact the bells were kept going by the 24 ringers present. The towers represeated were Sutton-on-Trent, Ordsall, Sonthwell, Lincoln Cathedral, St, Giles', Lincoln, and the home tower. The members were mlsa pleased to welcome a Warwichshire ringer from a tomer near Caventry.

The ringing included the ustal Doubles, and Plain, Treble Bob and Surprise Minor methods, ald the striking was quite good. One or two toeches were rung rather guickly, and a little of the jov of ringing and beanty of tone seemed to be lost at the greater spyed.
Tea in the Schoolroom was, as usual at Barnby, aur excellent meal. At the meeting afterwards the Rev. H. Walton took the chair and weiromed the association very beartily to his church
Mr. J. Pearsob, of Branston, was nlected a non-resident liPe member.
The secretary siggested that the ansual meding be held at Retford on cither April 15th or 22nd. and the meetige was asked to ktate which date was preferable. April 15 th wes put forward as a recommendation to the committee meeting. which will be held on April Ist.
The Rer. R. F. Wilkinson shia it had heen strgested that the annital meeting be held at Retford and Newark alternateify. In the case of Newark, the date would have to be Laster Montay. This will be borne in wind in future years.
Fates of thanks were passed to the Vinar for the use of the bells and to the ladies for preparing tea.-The Rev. Walton replied in humorote pein to both these votes.
Further ringing toak place afterwards.

gELLS AND BROADCAST SERVICES

To the Eatitor.

Dear Sir, - I had the pleasure of ringing at St. Margaret's. Lee. recently, and I was very surprised when I heard that the hells will not be broadcast on Faim Sumday. This charch bas had quite a number of services broadcast, but not ance have we heard the bells. I am sure there are other churches, as well as that named, which never are luroadicast and yet ring previous to the broadcast service. I hope we shall try to get theso peals broadenst if passible. I am sure that Churchyard Bob would sound better aver the air than some of the 'firing ' we hear.

Wimbledon, S.W.

DON'T SCRUB YOUR HANDS!

Cleanse and preserve your skin this simple wayTo many people, the problem of getting the hands really clean without harming the skin is a serious one. Grease and grime, which become deeply ingrained into the pores of the skin, are extremely difficult to remove, and ordinary washing with soap or even scrubbing will fail to remove them completely. Housewives, particularly, who complain that their hands get ruined by the nature of their work, will find the preparation called DERMAFOAM a real "godsend." DERMAFOAM just smoothes away dirt and grease without effort. It gets right down into the pores and removes every particle of grime, leaving skin beautifully supple and healthy.

Hen, too-when you've finished that dirty job on the car, DERMAFOAM will quickly banish all grease and oil from your hands. It acts almost magically-working under and around the nails and into every minute crease, removing all trace of dirt in a flash.

Engineers, Painters, Car Mechanics, Printers - everyone - will welcome DERMAFOAM, the modern method of cleansing and protecting the hands.

FIELDS STILL TO CONQUER.

Within the next few weeks many of the leading ringing associations wild hold their annual meeting, and, in addition to the yearly election of officers, will be called upon to make the triennial appointment of representatives to the Central Council; while only two months ahead is the meeting of the Council itself. It will be a time of generaf stocktaking, and, perhaps, from the statistics, which it is proposed to gather in connection with new elections to the Council, it may be possible soon to get some clue to the real strength of the Exercise. From time to time there is somewhat disquieting news that, in this or that district, ringing is a dying art for want of new blood. On the other hand, there are many places where an optimistic view prevails, for one finds a good sprinkling of young ringers at meetings and reads of the election of useful numbers of new members, such, to quote one instance, as the twenty-two fresh names added to the Sussex County Association at a district meeting a fortnight ago. Judged merely on expressions of opinion, the optimists seem to cancel out the pessimists, but now that the Council has a plan for obtaining reliable statistics it should be possible to gauge much more accurately where the Exercise, as a whole, stands. It is, however, the duty of the individual associations, in their own interests, to examine closely the position in their respective areas.
There are very few parts of England, now, where ringing organisations, to promote the interests of the art and draw together individual companies in a common purpose, have not been in active operation for fifty years or more. Despite all their labours through half a century, however, there remain a vast nurnber of towers unconnected with the associations, either because there are no ringers, or because such ringers as there are have no interests outside their own belfry, if, indeed, they have more than a casual interest inside it. One of the most successful territorial organisations in the country is the Kent County Association, yet the vice-president (Mr. E. H. Lewis) admitted the other day that only half the towers in the county are affiliated. And that, we imagine, is not an unusual state of affairs. The same conditions obtain in many parts of England, and, even if the figures which will presently be available through the Central Council should show that there is no falling off in the aggregate membership of the affiliated societies, it will be no reason for complacency. After fifty years of work, the associations still have fields to conquer, and those societies which are now about to meet to discuss their domestic affairs, might well devote some of their attention to formulating schemes, not only for raising recruits, but for bringing into their organisation the towers which remain outside and which, between them, must have a very considerable number of ringers of sorts. Success will not be achieved by waiting for these people to come in of their own accord. It is necessary to go after them; to create interest, to use persuasion and, if possible, get it backed by the influence of the clergy. Why should not a start be made now in every territoriaj society to take a census in its area of the ringers inside and outside its organisation? It would provide some mosl useful material as the start-ing-point of what could be a general campaign, which sliould supplement the drive for young ringers.

GOLDEN WEDDING CELEBRATION AT LEATHERHEAD.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Dean, of Leatherhead, celebrated their golden Mr . and Mrs. Arthur Dean, of Leatherhead, cetebrated their goiden wedding on Gaturday, havarg been maxied at Langrish, Hants, on March 25 th, 1889 . Mr. Dean has given long service to ringing at Leatherhead and was prominently identified with the Surrey Ascociafion, of which he was elected an wise-president at the anlual meeting a few weeks ago. For the past two or three years Mr. Dean has名 few weeks ago, fror he past two or three years inc. Dean has and, being unable to climb the belfry stairs. he sits at lome and listens to the ringlog. It is unfortunate he is unable to take any further active part in ringing, as le needs only one more peal to eomplete his double century for tho Surrey Associntion.
An attermet was made for a peal to celebrate the golden wedding, tust unfortuately it was lost after 2 hours 25 minates singing. Two quarter-peals have, however, heen rung, as follows: A quarterpeal of Double Norwich Major (1,eso ehanges): A. C. Otway $1, \mathrm{~A}, \mathrm{H}$. Winch 2, W. J. Whiting 3. G. Martiner 4, A. H. ## STAFFORD RINGER'S DEATH

It is with much regret that we record the death of Mr. Willian Fiarola Jones, deputy head ringer of St. Mary's Cliurch, Staford, who passed eway at his residence, 17, Marsh Sitreet, on March wist. The fueral took place on Setorday, when sis of his fellow-ringera bore him to the grave.
Mr. Jones, with the exception of his service in the Great War, was a regular member of the Sumday band at St. Hary's for some 25 yeard and did much to help forward the art of finging in the district. His fellow-ringers, as a Inst tribute of respect to a rery loyal corarade, rang with the bells half-muffed touches of Stedman Triples, Grandsire Triples and Plain Bob before both morning and eveming services on Sunday. The Rector, at evaning service, referred to the work of Mr. Jones as a ringer, and at the close of the service tho organist (Mr. G. P. Mntthews) played Chopin's 'Funeral March.?

The Bristol United Guilds' week of tours by motor-coach, from August 14th to 19th, promaises to be of unusual interest. Gloucester. shice, Somerset ant Dorget will provide the happy huntisg ground, and, as at present planned, the tours will cover approximetely 800 miles, with ringing at some 36 or 40 towers, and all for a fare of two guineas.
Forty years ago next Monday, on April 3rd, 1899, members of the Kent County Association rang a peal of 15,072 Double Norwich at Erith in 9 hours 24 minutes, under the conductorship of the late William Fye. At the time it was the record length in the method, but it wrs only six weeks later thst the Kidlington peel of 17,024 was rucg, conducted by J. W. Washbrook,
To-morrow is the annivergary of one of the earliest 'long peals" ou record. On Apri] 1st, 1727, a 10,080 Oxford Treble Bob Major was rung at St. Michael Coslany, Norwich.
The Earl Sbilton "Handbell Quartet,' who recently broadeast in an 'Industry Entertains' programme, will be 'on the ari 'again in the Children's Hour programme, Midland Regional, on Saturday, April 8th. All the quartet are members of the Midand Counties Association.
There will be no practice of the Ancient Saciety of Collage Youths until Thesday, Apri] IIth, when there will be ringing at St. Mary-leBow, Cheapside, with the waul business meeting at headquarters afterwards.

GOOD FRIDAY RINGING.

To the Editor.
Dear Sirs-I was pleased to resd Mr. Story's letter urging muffled ringing on Good Friday. What is the purpose of oburch bell ringing? Is it not to call people to church and worship, to remind those who go estray and to bring them back, to witness for Jesus Christ to the outside world? If this tis correct, I consider Good Friday is one of the most important days of the year when the belis should be rong (muffled or balf-muffied), especially at the present time, when the plensure caterers' voices are often heard above the church sad the meaning of Good Friday forgotten. Ringers, do your bitl Nortis Shields.

SURPRISE RINGING ON HANDBELLS.

To the Editor.
Dear Sir - F should like to offer my congratulstions to the talented band wha recentiy rang the peal of London 'in hand,' and particularly Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Fletcher, with whom I have had the pleasuze of ringing on a few ocengions.
W. KELBLT:
[Mr. Keeble was onc of the band, the others beirg the brothers Pye, who, in 1904, rang the first peal of London Surprige on haed-bells.-Eniror, 'Ringing World.']

FIRST CIVIL SERVANTS' PEAL.

To the Editor.

Dear Sir,-The peal of London Surprise Major published in "Tha Ringing World " of March 24 th cannot be claimed to the the firat for the Civil Service.
A peal of Kent Treble Major, conducted by Mr. T. H. Taffegder, was rung at St. Mery's, Lambeth, on Jaruary 30th, 1937.
The ringers weze all of one branch of the Civil Service-the Post Office.

A peal board has been placed in the tower recording this fach

LONDON COUNTY ASSOCIATION.  SOUTHERN DISTRICT MEETING.

A meeting of the Southern District of the London County Association was held at St. George the Mrartyr, Southwark, on Saturday, March $18 t h$, and was attended by some 30 members and friends.

Ringing commenced at 3 p.m. and contimued till 5 p.rn., when the Rector (the Rev. E. C. Cook) conducted a short service. He welcomed the association and stated that in spite of complaints from the wearby residents he was always very pleased to heve tingers use the bells on a Satarday afternoca.

The District Master (Mr. P. A. Corby) presided at the business meeting, held in the vestry, and stated that arrangements hari been made for a combined practice with the local band at St. Luke's, Cbeises (ten bells), on Tuestay, Aprit 18th, at 7.15 p.m. The next district meeting Fould be held at Streatham on Saturday, May 20th, with Fingiag at St. Leonarde in the afternoon and at Immanuel in the everiag. He urged all membera to support both these meetings.

The proceedings ended with a hearty vote of thanks to the Rector, and ringing was resumed until 8.30 p.m., methons ap to Camhridge and Superlative being rong. $\qquad$

BISHOPS VISIT,

At St. Mary ${ }^{1}$, Chatham, on March 5th, in honour of a virit of the Bishop of Rochester to this church, a querter-peal of Grandsire Triplea was rang for evening bervice: C. E. J. Norris 1, R. Nortis 2, F. Padwick 3, F. Jarrett 4, W. Walker 5, H. Springate 8, W. A. J. Knigltt (condtctor) 7. D. Harfield (firs quater-neal) 8.

LEADING CONDUCTORS—64.

ERNEST C. S. TURNER.
Among the most brillient of the younger generation of conductors mist bo piaced Mr: Eruest C. S. Turver, of Ealimg, for, although still in the 'tyenties,' he has to his credit a number of notable achievencents, not least among them the peals of Sipliced Surprise Majar, reuching up to mine methods, several of which he lias composed as well as confucteri.

Mr. Turner wus born on May 23rd, 7910 , and while still at school was introduced to ringing by his friend, Wilfred Wilson, who was then one of a band receiving ingtruction from Mr. J. A. Trollope. The two youtlis lost no opportunity of ringing in neirhbouriag towers, and on most eveuings cyaled to charches in West Middlesex for practico. Although be only began to ring in March, 1927, Mr. Turner rang his first poal im the following October, this being seven extents of Bol Minor on handbells at Ealing. His first tower-Dell peal was Bob Major on December 20th, 1927, at Willesden, where the encouragement Mr. Turner's enthusiasm has received from the Willesden baud from the Willesden baud, Mr. H. Kilby, has enabled him to talie part in and frequently conduct a letro prortion of lis peale, especially those in the more advanced methods. Six weeks before Mr, Turner rang his frrst he conducted a handbell peal of Bob Major. Mr. Turner is one of those gifted conduetors who. can call anything from any bell, and all the most difficalt things ho has dowe bave beer called from a workiug bell, including the ten Spliced Surprise Major peals in 4, 5, 6, 7 and 9 methods. Among some of his other interesting performances be condutcted the first and, at presert, only peal of Isieworth Boh Roysi, and what was probably the first pasl of Double Court Triples. He called an 'Ernest' pedi of
Kent Treble Bob Major al

MR. ERNEST C. S. TURNER. Kent Treble Bob Major a Galleywood, Essex, in 1934, and rang in the first peals of Ealing and Pioner Surprise Major. He also took part in q peal of Minor at Deeping St, James, Lincolnsive, in which 28 Surprise methods were splicerd into seven extents.

Mr. Tutner bas rung 215 poals altogetber, 189 on tower beils and 24 on handbells. Of these he hes conducted 75 on tower bells and 12 " in hand,' while the church bell peals have been rung in 79 towers in 20 counties of England, Weles and Ireland. One hundred and fortyfive of tire peals have been rung for the Middlesex County Association, in which he was Ringing Master of the South and West District from 1933 to 1937. Mr. Turner's mathematical and professional training has given him a great command of figures, and it is only natura] that, iotimately associated with Mr. T. A. Trollope, he should have dereloped an extensive knowledge of composition. In this field he has already rendered great service as a member of the Methods Committee of the Centra] Comeil, haviny been elected as an honorary mittee of the Centril Colme

ELY DIOCESAN ASSOCIATION.

CENTRAL BRANCH MEMBERSHIP INCREASED.
A very successful meeting of tire Central Branch of Ely Diocesan Association was held at Wilourion on Saturday week, when members were presert from Cambridge, Ohatteris, Exning Fulboura, Sawston, Swavesey, Trumpington, Haddenham and the local tower. Mr, S. Shipp welcomed the visitars to the church on behalf of the Wilburton ringers. The ringing Fas of high stamdard, some very good London, Cambridge and Norwich Surprise being rung, es well as methods down to Plain Bob and Stedman Doubles. Twenty-one sat down to tea at the Royal Dak, after which the business meeting was presided over by the Vicar (the Rev. H. C. S. Tale).
Orer was selected for the next meeting, and Cottenham for the answing quarterly meeting.
The mew Ficer of Wilburton mas made an honorary member of the mssociation, and it is pleasing to note the branch memhership is larger than last year
Fotes of thanks were accorded the Ficer, who suitably replied, and to Mr. H. Sharpe for laring the belle in readiness.

GUILDFORD DIOCESAN GUILD.

CHOBHAM'S ANCIENT BELLS

The Pride of the Parishioners.

A rery eutcestul meeting of the Chertsey District of tho Guildford Diocesan Guild was held at Chobiem on Saturday, at the invitation of the Vicar (the Rev. F. T. Robinson). A few months ago the belle ot the Parish Church of St. Lawrence were rehung and placed ou ball tearings by Messrs. Mears and Stainbank and a great improvement wes thus effected but of the belle themselves the less said the ment was thus effected, but of the bells themsedves the less sard the parishiguers, who readily subscribed to their restoration. No fewer than five of the eight are gcheduled for preservation on accaunt of their antiquity, and eyen if the Chobham people theraselves desired to improve the bells, which they do not, it would be impossible without providing at least five new bells.
The sixth is a pre-Reformation bell, cast by William Culverden, brezier, of London, who died in 1522 , and is dedicated to SL . Margaret. The fifth and seventh are bells dated 1597, cast br Riohnrd Eldridge, and the tenor came from the same fouludry wit Wokingham in 1610. The fortrich is dated 1684. Chobliam has thas good reason to be proud of the antiquity of sts bells.

Last Saturday's meeting was attended by nearly 40 ringers, but most of the tounhes rumg were of tho ' educational " wariets, althongh the methods included Cambridge, and in this way moth good work was done. What was equally gratifying was the fact that the majowty of the Chobham ringers joined the Docesan Guild for the first time and they were tiven a specially warm welcome by guild afficials. The Vicer was also elected an honorary membet

Prior to the tea and meeting, gervice was held in the Parigh Chutch, conducted by the curate. The Wicat presided it the organ and gave an address, in which he welcomed the Guild to Chobham. Going on to speak of the place which bells took in the life of the parish, he said that in Chobham the belle were rung muffled on Gnod Thiday, and he added that the belfs were very des to the harts of the people in the village. When it was necessary to restore then there was a wondertul response and he hed never known money coma in easier for any churct scheme. Moreover, it came in largaly from people who could give only small amounts, and while the hells wre silent thoy wore greatly missed in the life of the place.

Proceeding, the Vicar spoke of the qualities demanded by hellriuging. There was, he said, no better illustration of team work than that done by a band of ringers, and the work was one of gelfeffacement in which the individual had to suhordinate hinself to the interests of all. He spoke of ringing as a valuable piece of regular church work and referred with gratitude to the conscientious work of his own band. They wanted the traditions of their churel towers maintained, he added, fol deep down in their hearts nen knew that the bells stood far the union between God and man

At the close of the meeting Mr. R. Whittington inguired the natura of the ringing at Chobham on Good Fridays, and tras informed that it was now half-mufled before the services. Formerly it wis full mufled, with the tenor open at backgtroke. It was a very old custom, and the Vicar said there was no question that it edded to the solemnity of the day and at least made people think. That was important when there was a growing teadency to convert the most solemn day in all the Christian year into a public bolides.

MORE HONORATY MEMBERS ELECTED

successful meoting of the Guildford Dishrict of the Guildina Diocesan Guild was held at Worpleadon on Saturday. Mrrch 181h, when over 40 members and visitors attevded. The gathoring jucluded the general secretary of the Guild (Mr. G. Grovar) and Mr. C. W. Dellver (Farnham district secretary). An apology for absence was recenved from the Guild Master (Mrajor J. H. B. Hesse).
The looal band had had the bellry renovated for the occesion, and its spick and span appearance was the subject of many favourable comments
The Rector (the Rev. G. J. Chity) conducted the service, and at the commencement of his interesting and topical address said he had been given a friendly warning not to preach about bellringing. In any case, the did not believe tiat it was alwayg policy to 'enlarge on the occrsion.
At the business meeting. which followed tea in the Church Hall, the Rector presided, and, amid applause, was elected a life member of the Guild. Mr. H. Rance, of Worplesdon, also received a special cheer for having recruited four hozorary members.
The following were the new members elected: Homorary members, MessTs. W. V. Maore and S. J. E. Davy (Bramley), the Misses E. and W. A. Thompsoघ, Mr. H. G. Rance and Sir L. E. Halgey, K.B.E (Worplesdon); ringing members, Messrs. F. Priddle, 표. Steer, C. Steele and $G$. Whittle (Godalming)

The announcement that througl the efforta of the general secretary the Guild would shortly have a strong representation at Shere was greeted with enthusiasm. It was decided to hold a meeting at that tower during the sammer.
The general secretary proposed the 4881 al votes of thanks, and said that although these formal expressions of gratitude tended to become alereotrped they were none the less sincerc.
Mr. O. E. Smith, the District Ringing Master, had a busy aftermoon and evening catering for learner and expert.
Thanks to the kindness of Mr. J. R. Mackman, handbell ringing. miner his direction, was enjoyed by it mumber of members.

MIDDLESEX COUNTY ASSOCIATION.

THE FUTURE OF CHANGE RLNGENG.
A very successfal mbeting of the Middlesex County Association and London Diocesam Guild was held at Actolz and was attended by over 60 rimgers, together with most of the association's princjpal onitera. The special service wis conducted by the Rector (the Rev. P Gough), and the lesson was read by Vice-President J. A. Trollope. Turing the gervice a course of Grandsire Triples was rung in the clancel lyy Messrs. E. C. S. Turner, G. W. Fletcher, J. Herbert and J. Thomes.

This Rector, welcomint the change ringers as old friends, to whom he lad spoken in his garder during the summer, assured them of his hight appreciation of the service they gave, not only to his church, hut to churches throughout Middlesex. The nation had a silent service proarding its coastg, but the bellriugers were the unscen service of the Clurch. They represented one of the remaining crails that uned to ho so largely assuciated with, the sacial lifo of the world and of the Church.

The Rector weut on to refer to the dendening effect of the decline, expecially in an age of machitsery, in the aids to religious feeling that used to slound on ell sides in symbolism and other forms of appeal to our spiniturl nature. Unless people weat into a church tiey hardly ever now came into contact with the outward anal visible signs of religion. Change rimgers were the guatdians and stewards of an important farm of symibolism, that of appealing sound, one of the very feng forms of symbolism left co remind the prisser-by of the things of Gol, life and death, ame the great hereafter.

CO-O1'ERATION BETYWEYN RINGERS AND CHURCH aUTHORITIES.
At ten, served in the Parish Fall by wonsen parochial workers, Preb. W. P. Cole-Gheane, of Twichenlam (aresident of the association, was in the chair, and moved a vate of thanks to the Rector for lis much appreciated clurch service, hindness and good feliowship.
Mr. J. A. Trollope (vice-president), silpporting the vote of thanks, said that elhwelt beltringers inherited two great traditions. Accotding to an ofd Latin writer, they sounded the trumpets of the Feavenly King, and they were also elnurdiworkers. Change ringing was one af the fitest sports ever invented. They could not makn any gift worthy of tho service of the Church unless they loved it for its own sake.
The futhere of change riaging depended upon low far they could Geep in toncli with the Clurch authorities aud eo-operate with them, and how far those anthorilies could co-pperate with the ringers. The Charch authorities formerly did not tronble so much as they ought to have done ahout the hellingers, who were not always regruited from the right people.
During jiss 50 years' experience, the improvenent in the status of riagers and in the coopperntion with the Church had enormomsly increased, and that was due to associations like theirs. Let them qultivate $\mathrm{co-operation}$ between themselves as ringers aud co-operation with the Church authorties (applause).
Mr. C. T. Coles (gencral secratary) said fhat as the facilities for ringing were not so great as they used to be, co-operation wes all the mare essential.
Mr. if. Es. L. Cockey (secretary for the South-West District) said they were always sure of a warth welcome in Acton.
Yhe vote of thanks to the Rector was carried with anclametion, and the Rector, in turn, called for a hearty round of applause for the indy helpers at the tea.
Stednan Caters were vung on handhells by Mr. and Mrs, (i, WY. Fintelier and Messis. च. Thomas, E. C. S. Turmer and J. A. Trollope.

Further ringing on the tower liells took place afterwards.
OLD TRLAATE AND YOTNG MEMBERS AT FNNCHLET An enjotalile neeting of the North and East Distriet of the Widdlesex Connty dssociation and Lendon Diocesan Guild wis held at St, Mary's Clurch, Finchley, on Saturdaw, March 18th. Ringing, whir.in commenced directly after 3 p.m., ineluded rounds for the heginaers and methods ranging up to Surpise Minme. Tlie method chosen for particulas atheution, Doulble Court Bob BFinor, was rung by several of the company. some ringing a course for the first time.
A short service was held, at which the Rev. Gawne officiated, the theme of his address being that ringers and other churchworkers should elways rememher the higls calling of their duties,
Tea was served to a paity mambering nearly 40, and incuading the Res. Gatwe, who appreciated his fitst experieace of being amongst a rompant of ringers.
At the bukiness meeting which followed, fhe Rev. A. B. Roberts was elected to the chajr, in the rare absence of the vice-president. Mr. G. W. Floteher. A reference was made to the death of a forndation member, Mr. I. Sumpter, of ßarnet, those present standing in silence for a few moments.

Two elentions were confirmed and three new members were elocted.
Harcow Feald was chosen for the place of the pext meeting, on Batirday. May 20th.
Remret was expressed at the absence of the Rector of St. Mary"s (the Rev. S. F. L. Rernays), who was indisposed,
Further ringing took place, and a gratifyung feature of the meeting was the attendance of the 'nld frigade, sipported by several young members, which gave excourngement to the newlvelected Ringing Master and secretaigi Messrs. A. Culter aud T. J. Lork respertively.

ANOTHER NEW MAJOR PLAN.  EXTENDEL STEDMAN.

 To the EditarDear Sir, I was rery interested in the two methods on a new plan in your issue of Murch 17th, Checkerdon and Northrepps Major, and I congratulate Mr. Nolay Golden and hiss colleagues upon tlieir acbievement.

As I have a new plau for producing Stedman extended to eight bells, it may interest your readers to give a lead here:-

It will be seen that the method is a combination of Plain and Stedman Principles. The trehle in a plaiu lunt from lead to gith's place and back to lead, the othor sovent working bells doing Stedman, altermately quick and slow, with $7-8$ up and down donble dadge betwees, plus 2 intermediate sixes between last 3rd's and $7-8$ up, and also between 7-8 down and trista 3rd's (in slow). By this extra world it will be found tliat. all charges ate friple clinnges, with mat more than twa blows jo any one place. The work of the sevca inside bells is divided jato sizes, rs in Stedman, but the method brented as a plain method for all oiher pryposes. There are 12 changes to a (treble) lead, 84 to a course, and the method can be extended to Royal and Maximus.

ENGLISH RINGER'S VISIT TO AUSTRALIA.

TOUCHIS IRUNf: AT MELBOURNE CATHBDRAL.

3fr. C. H. Walker, tower secretary at St. Mury's, Luwisham, has just retunted from a visit to Australia and New Zealand, where he spent a most enjoyable time and took part in minging boih in Syntrey and Melbourne. In the latter city particularly he was able to spend some time with the ringers, for he delayed lis departure a fortnigit and was thus abla to ring at St, Pan's Cathedral on two Sundays and on the practice night.

He received a great welcome fron the ringers and brought hack with hing warm grechinga to the mewbers of the English proty who toured the Commonwalth in 1934. Unfortunately, Mr. A. A. Sevuge, who formerly as secretary of St. Paul's Society did so much towards the success of the English tour, is at pregent doine no ringiag, but in Sydney Mr. Walker found Mr. R. F. MacDonald, "father' of the band at the R.C. Basilica nud now approaching, if not already past, Ita age of 80 , "very muth alive.' Mr. Walker s visit to Sydrey was brief and in the slort time avalable le was only able to ring Doubles at St, Mark's, Dasliut Point.
In Melbonrne, however, lye was able to take hat in Grandsire Triptos and Caters at the Cathedral on three occasions, aud it ia interesting to learn that a 504 of Triples rung on practice night was cabled by Mr. James Muray, who conducted the firsi peal ever rung in Australia, a peal of Crandsire at St. Phitip's Sydney, in 1890. This touch of 504 was rung by A. Recder 1, W. Waynorn 2, J. Murray $3_{\text {, }}$ J. Spencer 4, H. Ross 5 , C. H. Walker 6, F. Bolyglan 7, T. Trotter 8 .

For morning service on Sumay, January 22nd, 270 Grandsire Caterg was rumg after a quarter-neal had been lust near the end,
In the evening a quarter-peal of Cirandsire Triples was successfully rung, called by Johr Spencer : A. Reeder 1, W. Preston $\mathbb{Z}$, J. Murray 3, F Boughton 4, F. Ross 5, C. H. Walker 6, N. §nencer 7, T. Trotter 4.
On the following Sunday morning 504 Giandsite Caters was brought round by A. Recder 1, G. Wheeler 2, W. H. Waghorn 3. W. Prestom 4. J, Murray 5, J. Spencer (culuductor) 6, H. Ross 7, C. H. Walker 8, T. Trotter 9, E. Krott IO.

Of the above ringers, Messrs. Murag, Spencer, Boughton and Knott took part in the peal of Grandsire Cingries, with the English ringers on Armistice Day, 1934.

PEAL NOTES

Forly-two six-scoles of Grandsire Doubleg rung on the five hells at Bury Port, Carniathenshire, on March 18th, are believed to he the firat peal rung in the tower
Mr. Pat Camon rang his gotla peal as coaductor when he callud a peal of Double Norwich at Wilby, Suffolk, on Sumday weck. He lass now 'turned in' 80 different tenors to peals.

He raade as sure as possible of the Witby jolb (and we don't blame limi). All the rest of the hand were Surprise Maviuus tingers.

After this peal the hand went on to the neighbouring tower of Stradbroke and ragg a course of Superlaive for evensong. These bells, it was found, go very badily. The lact pral on them wes mag in 1903. We hope there witl not be another one until they have heen reatored. The tenot is 24 mwt .

PEAL NOTES.

LADF'g FINF PERTORMANCE
Miss Hilda Suowden, of Halstend, Fssex, las more thay once Elown lier ability ot the ' loesvy end,' but nothing slas has done in this way has, we think, equalled ber perbormance olt Stuturdiy, when ghe rang the $2 t$ ewt tenor at Dunnow to a peal of Bristol Surprise 3ajor.

When it is remembercd? that there is is dratight of 70 feet of rope at this tower and that Miss Snowf den had never previously even struck the bell in ronnds, the feat in all the more, noterarthy all the peal was aa excellent one and we sre not surprised to bearm that Miss Snowe den received the licarty congratulations of tho of her members of the ly upon ler performance.

It was a litting celeliration of her birthiday, tor which the peal was arranged, and associated with it also is a complis ment to Miss Sylvia Bowyer, of Ipswicl, whose birthdey wes on Monday,

On her birtladey last Yeas Miss Snowden rang the 18 ewt. tenor at the $18 \frac{1}{2}$ cwt tenner
Bocking 10 a peal Dosble Norwich Hajor.

To celebrate the bittlday of Mr. G. H. spice, hou. secretary of the Rochester District of the Kent Connty Association, a peal of Kent Treble Bols Major was rung at Tum हtall, Kent, on satnrdey Athough Hr. Spice dili nob himself take part in the peal, the family was well represented by his father and his son

The composition of the peal was "uom "The Clavia," by an maknown githor, althouglz it is now thought to have been the work of Rabert Baldwin, the author of Tnion 'lriples. It was the first peal of Major rung, the Dnion Scholars ringing it at St. Dunstan's-in-the-Fist on December 27tin, 1718.

One of the most remarkabla things about this composition is thet, allhowgh it was not intit 50 ycars later that the necessity of proving the interior rows of the ipads in Preble Bab was discovercd, the porl is true. The calling is $4 \mathrm{~B}, 2 \mathrm{~W}, 2 \mathrm{R}$, Cour times reperifed.

The peal of Stedman Triples at Kirtlirgton, Dzon, on Saturday, was arrarged to enabie the eight officers of the Oxford Guild (who opeaed tho bells after mehanging by John Taylor and Co. ${ }^{\prime}$ to ring the first peal on them since the restoration. The treble and 7 ln were recast, the former by the eflorts of Mr. F. Sharp, by the Oxlord Diocesan Gild, aud an maseription on tize mew bell records the fact.

At the comclusion of f Food peal the Vicar (tie Rev. R. W. Benmett) and several lotal ringers congratulated the hand, and the Vicar sad数was a most anspicious day for the peal. Not only was it Jady Day. hut e smle of wark in the willege had rearnlted bin gattisg quite enough money to pay of all liabilities incurred by the restoration of the hels.
${ }^{2}{ }^{x}$ le minjsterial golden jubilee of the Rev. W. O. Vateghan, Vicar of Loppington, Sincewshurf, wns eelebrated at Siverdale, Stafordchire, where he was formerty Vicar, by a peal of Grandsire Triples ou Saturday.

GHESTER GULD'S GOOD DAY.

Mr. Richard T. Holding, of Grewe, ranf his $200 t 13$ peal and Mr G. H. Crawley his 100th for the Chester Guild when they took part in a peal of Oxford Treble Boh Majar at Sandbach, Cheshire, on Satmrday.

Another peal of Osford Treble Rob Major was rung for the Cliester Guild on the same day at Alsager, and another Crewe ringer, Mr. H. F. Holding, scored his 150 h peal. It was a birthday peal for the Alsager towerkeepar, Mr. G. Whalley, who sindly had the hells ready for the visitors.
Acturlly the Cheshire Guild did well on Saturday, with two peals of Oxford Treble Boh Major, a peal of Stedman Triples at Gresford and a peal of Bob Minor at Poyaton.
Meeting short for Kent Treble Bob Roval at St. Margaret's. Leicester, on Saturday, "hard hearted' Arilur wanted to turn it into a practice for Cambridge Major, but 'kind-laearted' Arthur suggested a peal of Plain Major- somethjog we can mag wefl, betfer than scratching about on comething we cant.' Besines being a wedding peal for two prominent. churrinworkers mad a birthday compliment to the bridegroom Mr . J. W. Dayman) it. also noincided with the birthiay of Mrs. A. Cattell (our Edie), so naturelly there werc plenty of compliments Bying about. It was the first peal of Major on St. Margaret's heavy eight.

Messra. J. W. Jones of Newport, and Donald C. Clift, of Bristol, rang their thirtietls peal togetlier when they took part in a peal of Ntednay Caters at St. Stephen's, Bristol, on Saturday. It is interesting to note, in this conmection, that Mr. Jones tanglit Mr. Clift's father change rimging practically 40 years ago.
Mr. Banables G. Key rang duis 100th peal on March 20 th, wheh lie took part in a peal of Mivor ab Aldridge, Staffordslire.
A penl of Minor, which included ove 700 in which Oxford and Kent Treble Bob were com?ned, was rumg at Newhey, Lanceshive on Saturday, for the silver wedding of Mr. and Mrs. R. Byrom.
Mr. Frank H. Mitehell rang the tenor to aneal of Grandsire Triples at Bexles, Kent, on March 10th. It was kis first peal for 30 years, his fant laving becn at Appledore, Kont. We congratulate him and hope it will not be as lons before be rings his next peal. The three ringers who scored their first peal are ulso to be culgratulated on the way they rang looth their bells and the method. They learned to handle a bell orly tem montlis ago, aud Mr. H. A. Holden degerves great credit on the building of a line young band.
The Vicar of Deane, Hants (the Rev. F. S. H. Marle) took part in a peal of Minor on the bells of lis own church on Saturday anu scored lis first peal in four methods, as did all the rest of 1 lie band. Indiced, the Ficar had not previously rung a peal in more than one method.

FIRST PEAL OF MAJOR AT 76.
Mr. Wiltian Story, J.P., of Newcastle, took part in a peal of Bob Major at Poole, Dorset, on Saturday. He celebrated his istio birthday a few weeks ago. Ancher veteran who rang in tive peal was Mr. Chavies Forfilt, of St. Peler's, Bournemonth, who is in his 7ith year. Althougla Mr. Forfitt has rimg maly peals, this was his first of Major. The band wish to express their thanks to Mr. Townseud for preparing the belis and A1r, 3. I. Davis for nssisting and turning uF as ' ninth ' man.
The first peal on the light, ring of fivo at. Tinaswould, Kent-the temor is less than six cwh-was rung on March 24th. It was attemed by more than ussal good forturse, for the rape on the third broke as the bell was being lowered ufter the peal.
Seven 720 's af Bomme Surprise Minor were zung in a peat at Stisted. Essex, on March 19th, in honotr of Mothering Sinday. It is the first thene a peal had been rung exclusively in this method in the county and for the Essex Association, as well ns by alf the hand.
All those who rabs a peal of Bob Minar at Rishton, Juncs, on March 2lat, are service ringers at the Purish Church. It was Mr. Fichard Balderstone's 75th peal and Mr. Albert Yates' first peal as conductor.
A peal of Minar was ring on the front six bells at st. Peter"t. Nottitaginan, on Uarch $16 t h$, as a birthday compliment to Mrs. Barratt, mother of one of the xingers, oul lier $78 t h$ birthday. It was Mr. Frenk I3radley's l00th penf for the Midland Coundies Associabion. 250 CHANGES OF MT:FHOD.
The peal of Spliced Plain Bob and Little Bob Major at Downham Manket, on Sulday weelt contaned the 120 course euds with the tenors together, in extetly 5,600 changes. It was composed and conducted ly Mr. Nolan Golden, and, with 250 changea of mothod, ihe peal contanned 400 calls.
The peal at Hartleburs, Worcestershire, on March 18th, was arrenged for Messrs, Farley, Whatmore, Smitit and Hiandey, of Stonrbridge and Walhaston. it was to have been Stodman Triples, but, alas! it was not a. Stednan day. After twa abortive abtempts, Oxfard Bols was substituted, atnd a composition (Parber's No 13) was taken from stock and dusted. Messrg. Farley, Smith and Handloy rang their first peal in the method, while Mr. Whatwore resumed acquaintance with a method he had not rung for very many years. By a happy coincidence this peal attempe wha rung on Mothering Sunday.
To ving a peal in 20 Treble Rob methods in the first attempt for A. 'spliced " peal is no mean achievement, and Mr. Tom Cullingworth, of the Barnaley Society, will be congiatulated upon bis success. Tho peal was rung at Felkirk on Murch 23 rd.
The goldes: jubilee of the bells at Holy Trinity Church, Burnlcy, Lancs, was celebrated on Sunday with a peal of Kent Treble Tob Major.

The peal of Minor at Perlethorpe, Notts, on Saturday, was fung to weleone back to the district Mr. Fed Flint, who liad been away and out of ringing for two years.
In connection with the peal of Cambriage Surprise Mitor at Darlington ruag in honeur of the consecration of the new Bishop of Durham, it is interesting to note that Mr. G. W. Park has now radg tine ereble in thin tower to a peal for the first time. despite the frot that he jas rung here upwards of 48 years and has tahen part in overy peal rung on the bells, which thimber over forty. Mr. W. H. Thomas, of Bristol, and Mr. S. Bryant, of Shildon, took pari in the peal, which was rung on Saturdey.
By taking part in a neal of Bob Minor on handbells at Westerinan on Sunday week, John Weller and Geofirey Mirphy have now rumg and Derek Sharp lias conducted peals of Plain Bob Erom Miaor Lo Maximus "in land.' Joln Weller began with Maximus and worked downwards, thas reversing the usual process.

About 50 ringers attended from Henbury, Mangotsfield, Staplotot, St. Ambrose, Coalpit Heath, Westerleigh and Westbury-on-Trym. The bells at Alnoadsbury are a very nice ring of eight and were well employed during the afternoon and evening.
A short service was conducted by the Vicar (Ganon Mayall), who gave the visitors a brief outline of the interesting history of the church

At the mentiug, beld after tea at the Monmoutli Cafe, 3y. Gould, of Henbury, tempozarify presicid.
Mr. C. Harding, of Henburs, was then unanjmonsly slected chairman of the branch for the ensuing pine months, and, on taking the clair, thenked the members for electing bim. He said it would be leis aim to see that all the ringers who attended the meetingg had a fair slanre of the ringing; to create interest and comradeship and in this way to promote the art of clange ringing.

A resolntion was cartied that a peal be attempted for the branch rach quarter, those members wishing to tako part to sead thejr mames, and the method they wish to ring, to the chairman, who will make elrangemeuts as to time, place etc. It was thought this would create interest amongst the younger memllers.

Thanks to the Vicar for the use of the leells, aiso to Mr. G Capewell for having everything in readiness, were passed.
The tower was again wisited alld touches of Grandsire, Stedman nad Plain Bob were brought round before the successful and pleasant Heeting came to an end.

DON'T SCRUB YOUR HANDS!

Cleanse and preserve your skin this simple way

To many people, the problem of getting the hands really clean without harming the skin is a serious one. Grease and grime, which become deeply ingrained into the pores of the skin, are extremely difficult to remove, and ordinary washing with soap or even scrubbing will fail to remove them completely. Housewives, particularly, who complain that their hands get ruined by the nature of their work, will find the preparation called DERMAFOAM a real "godsend." DERMAFOAM just smoothes away dirt and grease without effort. It gets right down into the pores and removes every particle of grime, leaving skin beautifully supple and healthy.

Men, too-when you've finished that dirty job on the car, DERMAFOAM will quickly banish all grease and oil from your hands. It acts almost magically-working under and around the nails and into every minute crease, removing all trace of dirt in a flash.

Engineers, Painters, Car Mechanics, Printers - everyone - will welcome DERMAFOAM, the modern method of cleansing and protecting the hands.

in England.

For the second time since 1913-the last occasion was in 1932-and for only the third time in history more than two thousand peals were rung last year. The increase of 133 over 1937 came, too, without any incentive of a national occasion for bell ringing. These 2,035 peals are a prodigious total and the vast variety of methods included among the number leaves no doubt as to the strides which the art continues to make. A study of the tables prepared by the Analysis Committee of the Centras Council and the further statistics contained in the report will be found of great interest, and there will be some readers, doubtess, who will ask themselves, whither is this development of peal ringing leading us? Is it doing anything to further the Exercise in its relationship to its primary duty to the Church, or is it merely satisfying the ambitions of those who take part in the peals?

It will not, we think, be serjously disputed that peal ringing does improve the standard of striking. Taken by and large the peal ringers set a higher value on striking than the non-peal ringers. Peal ringing requires a more sustained effort in the command of one's bell; it demands more concentrated attention upon the method than shorter lengths, and these two things in combination lead, at any rate in the long run, to better ringing on all occasions. That is one and perhaps the chief of the many things to be gained from peal ringing. A poor ringer has got to improve his striking if he desires to ring peals, otherwise he soon finds he is not wanted; a good ringer keeps himself keyed up by his peal ringing activities. Another important thing to go to the credit of peal ringing is the fact that it is one of the means of creating and keeping interest in the art. It is a goal to which young ringers are, or should be, encouraged to look, and the proportion of beginners who drop out after reaching this stage is nuch less than those who are lost before they have rung a peal.
What is being done to encourage young ringers in this direction? The committee's report tells us that in the course of the year 552 ringers rang their first peal. That means that there was, on an average, a 'first' in $\mathbf{2 7 . I}$ per cent. of the peals rung. Looking back over the last five years we find that this is below the average. Stimulated by the high percentage of 34.5 in 1935, the percentage over the period has been $29 \cdot 7$, and it appears as if we are slipping back a little. It happens that the highest number of peals rung in any one year was in 1913-exatctly a quarter of a century ago. In a total of $\mathbf{2 , 3 5 9}$ peals, there were 710 ringers who rang their first peal, which works out at one 'first' in $3^{1}$ per cent. of the peals. The falling off is, therefore, not a very heavy one, but it is, we feel, a decline that ought not to be allowed to continue. The 'first pealers' of to-day are the ringers upon whom this side of the art has to depend in the future. What proportion they form of the total number of peal ringers it is impossible to say, but it would be interesting if the associations would get out their individual statistics on this point, so that they might be collated. Spread over a period of years this information might prove exceedingly useful. At any rate, the figures we have quoted indicate that more opportunity generally should be given to young ringers to ring their first peal.

BELERY GOSSIP.

Fonanimy Ertablishad A.D. 1670 (19th year of reign of Elizabeti).

The prayers of all ringers are earnestly desired for the recovery of Mrs Paul Field, of Ridouts, Stoke Wake, Blandford, who is 日eriously ill.
Tho suggestion that the College Youths and the Gumherlands should hold a joint meeting is to be adopted. Last week the Colkege Youthe, at their meeking, decided to accept the invitation, and the probability is the gathering will be held at Groydon, where there is within easy reach a peal of twelye and two fings of ten.

There bas been some rearrangement of the times that bellg will be available in connection with the Herts Association's annual meeting ut Fertford. Owing to weddings, Bengeo bells will not be avail able until 3.30 p.m., hut Fatfield bells can be wsed from II a.m. to $1 \mathrm{p} . \mathrm{m}$, in addition to the other times advertised.
In conmection with the invitation to tea extended to members of the Gloncester and Bristol Diocesan Association by Mr. O. Heuer Percy, of Cowley Manot, when they meet at Cowley on April 15th, it is interesting to recall that Henry Bret, Lord of the Manor of Cowley, was Master of the College Ycuths in 1701.
One of the sequels to the handbell ringing done $b_{y}$ memberg of St. Mary's Cathedral Society at the Empire Exhibition at Glasgaw last year was a request of the loan of a set of handbells for Scout 'Gang Show,' which later ran for a week at Glasgow Theatre Royal. After some tuition they turned out 'The Musical Morgans,' who geve a very creditable exhibition of tune ringing, aithough they had never previously geen hambells.

GOVERNOR OF BRITISH COLUMBIA VISITS BELFRY.

INSPECTE VICTORIA OATHEDRAL BFILSS.
The Lieutenant Gorernor of Britisin Columbia and Mrs. Hamber visitcd Christ Church Cathedral, Victoria, on Mareh $10 t h$, for the purpose of inspecting the bells. They were welcomed at the Cathedral steps by the Rt. Rev. H. E. Sexton, Bishop of Columbia, and the Wery Rew. S. H. Ellidet, Dean of the Catbedral.
The bells were rutig to welcome the visitors and were ringing isg they arrived at the Cathedral and ag they climbed the spiral ataircese to the ringing chamber. As the Lieutenant Governor entered the ringing chamber the ringers 'fired ' the bells in his honour, and then eet them.
After being introduced to the ringers and hawing the method of chnnge ringing explained to him, His Honour climbed up into the belfry and inspeated the bells. He expressed particular interest in tze tenor and 7th bells, which were named by gracions permission of Her Majesty Queer Mary. The tenor is named "King George $\nabla$." and inscribed:-
'God save the King,'
Obrist Heaven's King be pleased with this ring.
The 7th bell is named 'Queen Mary':-
God bless Queen Mary,
I hail the Festa! Day.
While His Honour was in the belfry, short touch of 42 changes of Grandsire Triples was rung so that he might see the movement of the bells, and on his return to the ringing chamber the ringers rang a touch of 350 ehanges. His Honour was then conducted xand the Cathedral by Bisfop Sexton and Dean Eliot, when he inspected the chancel rails, which are of special interest, being a gift from Westminster Abbey, and are those in front of which their Majestaes King George W. and Queen Elizabeth knelt during their marriage service.
Those taking part in the ringing were E. W. Izard, Miss Margaret Izard, A. C. Melivish, R. Lane, W. Sampson, A. King, A. Lomas, T. Guest, J. Huthbints, E. J. Merrett and D. Boniface.

On Tuesday, February 28th, well-struck quarter-peal of Grandsite Triples was rung by E. W. Izard, Margaret Izard, A. G. Melhuish, R. Lane, W. Sampson, A. King, A. C. Lomas and J. Hutchings. This was the first quarter-peal by Miss Izard, R. Lane and J. Hutchings

PETERBOROUGH DIOCESAN GUILD'S LOSS.

BRANCE PRESIDFIVT'S DEATH

The Wellingborough Branch of the Peterborough Diocesan Guid hilve sustained a great lass by the death of their president the Rev. A. G. Begslaw, Rural Defin and Vicar of Finedon, who died very suddenly on Tuesday, March 28tb.
For the past four years the deceased gentleman had been president and attended most of the branch meetings, making fhers bright and cheery by the most effcient way be had of presiding
The bells were chimed before the funeral service, held in Finedon Parish Church, and again as the large procession made jits way to the cemetery.

Aboat 50 clergy took their places among the mourners
Mr. R. G. Black, general secretary, and Mr. A. Bigley, branch Becretary, were present to represent the Guild, and several ringers Froma Irthlingborough, Mr. D. Dejgbton, Rushden, and Mr. O. Payne, of Irchester, together with the local ringers, were also present. A wreath in the shepe of a belt, from the branch, and one from the local band were emong the great number of forsl tributes. The branch wreath was inscribed: ${ }^{\text {W }}$ With deep sympatliy end great respect to our esteemed president. His valued work among us and his kindly way will be rememhered by all.'
Finedon and Irchester bells were rang, half-muffed, later in the cvening, as a last mark of respect.

LEADING CONDUCTORS—65.

WILLIAM H. HEWETT

One of the best known and most versatile of London ringers is Mr William H. Hewett, who has been towerkeeper at St. Margaret's, Westminster, since 1916 and has rung at that famous church, which stands in the shadoy of Westminster Abbey, for over 800 weddings, two coronations, every opening of Farliament durimg the time he has been attached to the tower, the election and re-election of every Speaker of the House of Commons and many other State occesions, In addition he has helped to make gramophone recordg of St. Margarct's bells, some of pure change ringing and some with choir and organ; he conducted the last item on the programme of the old British Broadcasting Company and the first of the new British Brosdcasting Corporation, when he called a touch of Stedman Triples with the bells mufled on old year's night at Bishopagate, and then, after Big Ben had struck the hour, another touch with the bells open. He rang at Westminster Abley on Armistice Day, 1918, the last time the old six bells were rung, and was among those instrumentel in the renowation of the Abbey bells; for, after this occnsion, his gdvice was bought by Sir Edward Kaapp-Fisher and finally the bells were rehung and made into a peal of aight. That record alone maikes Mr. Hewett's ringing eareer olle of more than ordinary intercts. Beyond this, also, be must bo given the credit of being the first to suggest the holding of joint neetings between associations. Mr. Hewett was born at Camborwell on June 4th, 1886, and was taught to ring it bell at St, George's Chureli, Cambermained a "stones" rineer maned Gt, George's and St at ilest, George's and St, Giles' Cumberwell, and natil 1906, when, a band having met one ehort, he rang the tenor at St. George's to a peal of Etedman Triples with William Pye. His interest kindled, per lost no fime taking up clinge ringing, and in the following year, so apt a pupil was he, that he rang ten peals, which included Grandsire, Treble Bob, Stedman Caters, Double Norwich and Superlative, and became a member at St. Margaret's, Westminster, and St. Jolnn's, Waterloo Road.
He did not, however, ring his first peal as conductor until 1920, when he celled a peal of Double Norwich Major at Beeding, Sussex. He has now rung 465 peals ( 39 on bandbells) and conducted 91 . These include the 7,392 Cambridge Surprise Maximus at St. Mary-JeBow, Cbeapside, and the 10,440 Cambridge Surprise Royal recorit at Walthsmatow. An unusually large proportion of Mr. Hewett's penls have been rung on ten and tweive bells. There liave been 80 on twelve belle, including 35 of Surprise Maximus (Cambridge, Superlative and Yorkshire), and 155 on ten bells, including 70 of Surprise Rojal (Cambridge, Yorkslire, Middlesex, Landon and Pudsey). He has taken part in five 'William' peals, and rang in the only peal (Doubles) on the pre-Meformation ring at St. Bartholomew-the-Great, Snithfield, for the 800th anniversary of St. Barts.

Among the interesting peais which Mr. Hewett has conducted have been the only peal of Pudsey Surprise Royal, the first peal of Double Norwich Royal in London rung with the bells in the tittums position; Cambridee Royal on, at the time, the heaviest and lightest rings on which it had been rong, Southwark Catiedral and Cudham, Kent. He calied the first peal of Yorkshire Royal in the South of England, st Beddington, in 1928 , and the only peal of Cambridge Royal rung at All Hallowr', Lombard Street. Indeedi, Mr. Hewettrs record includes the first peals of Cambridge Royal in meny churches in and around London. $\mathrm{H}_{0}$ conducted a peal of Stedman Cinques at Shoreditch rung br six Oumberlands and घix College Youths, and he also called the first peals of Stedman Cinques and Cambridge Maximus for the Surrey Association.

A FIRST 720 OF LONDON MINOR.

On Fridar, March 24th, at St. Mary's Olturch. Norton Subcourse, Norfolk, 720 Londou Surprise Minor was ruag by A. Wapole 1, B. Barber 2, F. Warman 3, S. Fenn 4, G. Walpole (couductor) 5, E. Lasg 6. This is helieved to be the first extent in the method on the hells, and is first extent by all the band, who are all local ringers.

SILENT BELLS IN HOLY WEEK.

To the Fditor.

Sir,-In his letter publislıed in your issue of March 24th, Mr. Boa controverts a previous statement of mine by asserting that the suppression of ringing throughout Holy Week is noither 'modern nor "Anglican," As a matter of historical fact, there is strong reason to believe that his atatement is incorrect, and that on two grounds, First, the pre-Reformation rubries, to the best of my kilowlecge, Gave no direction to that effect, but only as regards Thursday and Friday. Secondiy, in other countries, where medimval usages hava contiaued without a break, one still hears belle rang up to Wednesday in Holy Week. I heve in mind such strongholds of ancient Catholiciem as Seville and Malags. Wha custom of silencing belis except for chiming-during five days appears to lave been introduced in England alone-and firt in the Established Church-during the 19th century.

Kington Magaa.

A WEFK APART

Dear Sir, Mr. Scott seems to forget that Holy Week is the most sacrea of all weeks in the year, and surely ringers can forego thenr ringing for a week. I quite agree that bells are to call the people to worship, but not in this one week in the yoar. This is kept apart from all others. There are some churches that do not allow ringing iu Lent, mostly in the Roman Catholic churches. And, may I add, I think ringers do their bit all through the year without wanting to ring in Holy Week.

DEATH OF MR. A..B. BENNETT.

FORMERLY SUSSEX ASSOCIATION SECREIARY
A former hon. secretary of the Sussex County Association, Mr, A. B, Bennett, died in London on March 30th, at the nge of 75 years

Barn at Felpham, near Boganr, Mr. Bennett was later in business as a miller at Midturst, whore he lenrued to ring in 1889 . He rang his frst peat at Hursley, Hants, on Boxing Day, 1890, and afterwards scored about 50 more, mostly of Minor, of which he wes a proficient canductor, in the towers on the Sussex and Hampshire border.

He was fon. searetary of the Sussex Association from 1900 to 1907, and froni 1903 to 1905 represented the association on the Central Council. In 1907 the retired from busjuess and went to reside in Loudou, where he joined St. Mary Abbot's Gnild, Kensington, of which he later became breasurer, and had remained a member ever since. Mr. Bennett was a bachelor, and had made his homo for many yeats in a Kensington hotel.
The funeral service took place at St. Mary Abbot's on Mondsy morring.

LONGEST LENGTH AT GREAT BEDWYN. WILTS,

 BROKFN CLAPPER ENDS PEAL ATTEMPTOn Saturday, April 1st, during an attempt for a peal of Minor at Great Bedwyn, Wilts, three 720 s were ruvg, viz., Double Court, St, Clement's and Oxford Bob. In the fourth 720 (Camhridge) the clapper of the 5th broke, with a noise like a small bomb?" The ringers were Comdr. Poynz, IR.N. 1, W. Hunt 2, Miss M. R. Cross 3. R. Gordon Cross (conductor) 4, Rev. C. E. Wigg 5, A. P. Cannon 6. The tenor is 26 cwt. in D , and the time for the wliree 720 's was 1 bour 30 minutes. This is the longest length on the bells, the 'go' of which is considered rather bad, but there seems lititle lope of getting them rehugg. The bella are a fire-toned peal, but the noige in the ringing chamber is excessive. The bells are so close overhead that the falliea fo round the wheel at backstroke, There are no windows in the Belfry so artificial lighting has to be employed during the day tinme.

Another attempt is to be made at a later date, when, providing no olappers or ropes break, the band are confident they can score the first peal on the bellis.

THE LATE MR ARTHUR KNIGHTS' COMPOSITIONS,

Dear Sir, One of the last, wishes of the late Mr. Arthur Knights, or Chesterfield, was that we should book up sill lois peaí "compositions" which are rung for the first time, as he had dove. Wil] conductor: please include tha mumber of the peal they call in their report to 'The Ringing World,' or, if they care to, correspond with tis so that Mr. Knights wishes may be carried out?

RINGER'S SUDDEN DEATH.

At St. Giles' Churgh, Desborough, on Friday, Marely 31st, a halfmuttled quarter-peal of Kent Treble Bob Major was rung as a token of respect to Mr. Arthur Manning, of Desbovough, who died suddenly on the previous day. He bad been 5 regular ringer and the tower keeper for many years: A. Jdele 1, S. Burajt 2. R. Idle 3. R. Law 4, D. Teomans 5, F. Kilhorn 6, L. Brown 7, L. Kilborn (comaduetor) 8. First quarter-peal of Kent Major by all.

LEEDS AND DISTRICT SOCIETY.  GOLDEN JUBILEE CELEBRATIONS.

Presentation to the Hon. Secratary.

The golden jubilee of the Leeds and District Amalgamated Society was celebrated on March 25th. The inauguration meeting was held on March $24 t h, 1889$, withiu sixty yards of Leeds Parish Church, where, with a visit to the tower, the jubilee celebrations commenced. The day's proceedings were not only very enjoyable, but marked with much enthusiasm.
Ringive took place from 2.30 to 4.30 p.m. in a variety of methods from 羊ajor to Cingues. Service was then held, to which all ringers were invited. The lessons were read by the president (the Rev. J. H. B. Androws). A special anthesn, composed from the Gloucester Cothedral Bell Chimes by Mr, Lee Willimas and set to the words, 0 God, our help in ages pastr,' was finely rendered by the choir.
Before the Ficar (Canon Askwith) began the sermon, he gave a hearty welcome to the society and congratulations upon attaining the golden jubilee. He also woudered how many of the original members Were still aljve, and how many were still able to ring. He himself was not a ringer, he said. He was not sure why, but he thought it was either the weakness of his mathematics or the weakness of his arm or back which made him give up the art. The text of the sermon was taken from I. Corinthing wij. 28. While reading through the verse he came to the word "helps, and lie thought that this exactly fitted the bellingers, who by their regular meatings made themselves efficient helps in forming a luand of workers who were not of tan seen, but were contributing a valuable and important work to God and His Kingdora.

EOT-FOT SUPPER.

The vext part of the programme was a 'hot-pot' supper and entertainment, beld in Sherwin's Restaurant, which was enjojed by 111 members, their wives and friends
The Fresident alterwards geve the loyal toagt, and apologies for absence were then muounced from the Vicars of Bramley (who attended the service), Burley, Feadingley (St. Michael's), Hunslet, Holbeck and East Ardsley, also from the Editor of 'The Ringing World, the president of the Barnslay Association and Mr. C. E. Lawson.
The tonst to "The Clergy' was ably given by Mr. J. F. Harvey.The Vicar of Leeds replied in a humorous vein, and after this second hearing in a short time ju cntirely different atmospheres, one must upprecinte what an acquisition Canon $A$ shwith js, as luead of the Church in Leeds
Mr. P. J. Jchason gave the chief toast of the evering, "The Continued Prosperity of the Leeds and District Society. Ho sajd he had during his ringing career rung with every secretary of the society from the first to the present holder of that office. He spoke of the time when ringing contests were advertised as open to all England, and faid that, in ons such conlest held at St. Chad's, Headingley, the ringing continued through the night and finished on Sundey morning. Continuing, he said he thought the Leeds Society were the ploneers of montli]y practice meetings. Referriag to the primary object of bellringing, he said the societies were mado for helping service ringers to be more efficient, and he did not like to see the number of people, who werg unatiached to any tower, poing round the country ringing who werg unatiached to any tower, poing round the country ringing distant when chimes were heard fram towers instead of cinnge ringing hut he would stress the point that learners should he thoroughly taught befnre being allowed to ring and often spoil peals and in some cases mabe themselves a public nuisnnce. As an ex-presidene of nebrer 30 than 20 years aue, he would remind the younger ringers that they were havide passed on to them 50 years of work, and he was pleased to say he could look round with confidence on the people who were to hold office in the future lapplausel. He coupled with the toast the name of the Rer. J. F. B. Andrews.

Mr. Andrews, in tharking Mr. Johnson, said the reply would be given by the secretary, but before that was done he would call on Mr. Charles Pratt, of Calverlev, wio is the earliest ex-officer living (baymg been vice-president in 1892 and 1894 , president in 1895 , also gecrefary in 1902 ) to make a presentation to the secretary aud his wife (Mr. and Mrs. Lofthouge).

SECRFTARY'S GOOD WORK.

Mr. Prath, with well-chosen wards and a delivery of speech which is enried by much younger men, spoke of the secretaries lie had known and tho amonnt of work put in hy them, and said he was pleased that the committee had thonght fit to mark the golden jubilee by a presentation to Mr. Lofthouse. Having known him for a number of years, he was able to testify to the good work put in and duty

Well done, and in the nome of the Leeds Society he had great plessure in presenting to Mrs. Lofthouse a cut-glass rase, and to Mr, Lofthouse a gold watch suitably inscribed.
The gifts were handed to the recipients amid applause, and Mrs. Lofthouse thanked the members for their kindness.
Mr. Lofthouse said lis first words must be to say "Thark you for the generous gifts they had received. Ever since the first whusper that this presentatiou was to be made he wondered. what lie had done to deserve it. He, as secretary had not built up the society on his own, because the members made or broke e society. He felt very much like a navigator who, having set a course, was dependent on other people for carrying out the work. He also felt that he coutd not let an occasion like that pass without acknowledging with grateful thanks the support and advice he had received from Mr. Strangeway, Mr. W. H. Senior, Mr. L. Drake and, earlicr on, Mr. J. W. Baxendale and Mr. C. E. Lawson, for with euck people constantly attendiag, the ranning of a society was ensy.

Replying to the toast, Mr. Lofthouse gave a list of officials who had kept the flag fying during the past 50 years and also a few details of interest, comparing the present gathering of 111 with the tinner held in 1894, when the attendance of 29 was described se auything but satisfactory. Pudsey had been waking the societoy wetcome with their wonderful Lospitality gince January, 1902, and the members were deeply grateful for this continued kindness. At the society" 21st. annual meoting, the secretary lad reported that some meetings were not a suctess owing to the pleasure-seeking fever of the members. 'I wonder,' said Mr. Loithouse, 'what his report would have been ta-day, when we do not sec same members from one year's end to the other: I give a kindly wolcome to those whose atteudances are rare and invite them to come more of ten to the meetings' (applause). Mr. Andrews, interpoaing, said, in spite of what the secretary had saje he had not done, the members knew that the flourishing state of the society was due to his efforts (applause).

CHURCHWARDEN'S RECORD
The toast to 'The Visilors' was proposed by Mr. W. Barton, who, as an ex-secrefary, welcomed the visitors and snid it was dificuft indeed to name all, becallse some, who might be described as visitors, were really members of thrir society. The nemes of a few who needed no introduction were Canon Marshall (president of the Yorkghite Association), Miss Bowling (rice-president of the Ladies Guild) and Mrs. Gotterill, Mr. Dan Snith (gecretary of the Bernsley Association), Mr. F. Hodgron (secretary of the Falifax and District Society), Mr. Mr. W. A. Waoler (Bteffield Distriet Society), Mr. Davenport, who lived so mear the boundary that one wondered whether to call him Yorkghire or Lancashire, also the Revs. A. L. Minn and T, H. Mathiseon (the two vice-presidents of the Huddersfield Society). Mr. Minn was a ringer, tut Mr. Mathieson had not yet reached that higher plane which comprised the ringing-clergy. Another notatile visitor was Mr. H. Bacon-Smith, churchwarden of Leeds Perish Church. Mr. Barton said he was gorry the Vicar of Leeds lied had to leave early, because les deaired him to know that they were grateful for the manner in which the Parish Chmreh authoritieg had always met the society whelever they wished to ring or hold a meeting there. Passing on to two very old friends, Mr. Prat Cordingley and Mr. Tom Daude (who were inable to be present owing to indisposition), Mr. Barton said these two had heen supporters of the societs over a large number of veats, alld even now, though not able to visit thens, were stil! interested iu their welfare
Mr. Bacon-Smith, in acknowledging the toast, said that although he was not a ringer, he was interested in bells and bellringing, and he thought he conld claim a record that not many mingers could, and that was that he had heen ap every eathedral tower in Fingland, Scotland and Wales. In conclusion, he said that he hoped the vounger ringers would see to it that clango ringing mever ceased to be practised.
The toast to "The Yorkchire Association' was proposed by the president (the Rev. J. H. B. Andrews), and acknowledged by Canon Marshall (president of the Yorkshire Association).
During the evening artistes who provided entertainment included tenor and baritone vocaliats. conjuror, ventriloquist, comedian, lightning artist and pinno-accordion.

BROTHERS＇ONE HUNDREDTH PEAL TOGETHER

The brothers William and James Feruley，of Norbury，Cheshire， rang their l00th peal together on March adth，when they took par in a peal of Londan Surprise Major at Hyde．It was a birthday compliment to Mr．Tom Wilde

The Chester Diocesan Guild thus had an even better day for peals on Saturday，March 25th，than our reports last week indicated，for in addition to the four peals recorded，this peal of London also goes to the Guild＇s credit．
A handbell peal of Grandsire Doubles at Mere，Wilts，on Mareh Z7th，was the first peal rung＂in hand＇for the Sulisbury Diocesan Guild for 25 years．In this peal two ringers rang their first peal on liandbells，and a lady，Mrs．E．Coward，rang her first peal．

A composition of Stedman Caters（No．26）by the late Mr．Arthur Knights was rung for the firgt time on March $25 t w$ at Manchester Cathedral．It contains the 6th its extent in 5th＇s place in the tittums and inverted tittums positions．It was Mr．Johs Booth＇s 150th pea！ and was a birthday compliment to Mrs．N．Fieaps，wife of the canductor．

Mr．Thomas E．Sone conducted another of tho late Mr．Arthur Knights＇compesitions of Treble Bob（No．379）on Saturday ats Wrotham，Kent．It was rung for the first time and was the $150+11$ different compesition which Mr．Sone has called．Mr．W．A．Oldfield rang his 25th peal．
Miss Sylvia Bowyer＇s hirthday on March 27th was celebrated with a peal of Minor in four methods rung et Burgh，Suffolk

On the procediag day there had been a joint celebration at Harke－ ton，when Miss Bowyer called a peal of Minor in four methods， specially arranged as a birthday lonour for Miss Hilda Snowden， Mr．Lewis Last and hergelf．The three birthdays fall on sinccessive days，March 25th，26th and 27th．
A bandbell peal of Bob Major at Rotherlzam on Mareln 28th mas Mr．Harold Cliart＇s 100 h peal for the Yorkslire Association．
Mr．Fred Brinklow，one of the Hertfordshire hand who have made so murh liandhel！peal history in recent yearg，rans his 300 h peal on Fridny，when he malled a peal of Bristo Surprise＇in land at Bushey：It was airthday compliment to his wife．

Mr．Brinklow jas now called a peal in eacla of the four most papular Surprise methods－London，Camhridge，Superlative and Bristol－both one tower and handbells．Certainly a notable perform－ suce－Ineidentally this peal was also the 150 th which Mr．Chris． Woolley lasd rung on handbelts．

ALL FOOLS＇DAY

Tho first peal of Napsbury Surprise Major was rung on Saturday， also at Bushey．But Tho Footnote says it was to celebrate All Fools＇Day！We cannot find＇All Fools＇in the Church calendar． And Napsbury is not on our map，neither chn we find it in that comprehensive ERzettecr，the Post Oftice Guide．However，perhaps that doesn＇t patter；there is no penalty attached to using a name not printed in our reference books．But，maybe，the joke is in the footaote and not in the peal．We hope so，for the saly of our reputation
Two lads of 14 rang the treble and fenor at Meoplam，Kent，to a peal of Grandsire Doubles on Saturday，and are to he congpatalated upan the way they acquituci themselves，for the go of the bells leaves a lot to be desired，and，we are told，the bend had to do some＇bell lunging＇hefore they started to ring

These two yaing ringers scored their firat peal，the trebleman at the first attempt，the tenorman at his secoud，the later having pre－ riously lost a peal on the tomar at Northfees，throush no fault of his own，after finging for two and a guarter hours．
The peal was arranged for Mr．George Turner，who，at 45 years of age，has only，jost taken up ringing，and was able to fing his frst peal．The other five ringers belong to Northfleet．
Two ringere rached their first peal century on Saturday．Mr．H．J． Mansfield rang his looth peal when be took part in the guickest peai of Major（2 hours 55 minutes）yet rung at Pritilewell，Essex；and Mr．A．S．Richards scored his 100 th with a peal of Dosble Norwicls at Ospringe，Kent．
The peal of Cambridge Surprise Minor at Milton Regis Keat，on March 29tk．was a bithday compliment to Walter H．Dobbje．Five of the six ringers who made up the band rang their first peal of Cambridge Minor．
The first peal on the bells at Farpford，Devon，relung about three Fears age，was rung on March 27th．It was an erent of some im－ portance in the parish，and two of the local ringers（Hessrs．T． Holland and L．Baker）took part and scored their first peal．The Vicar（the Rev．Greensiade）gand several parishioners looked in to watch the progress of the ringing and afterwards to congratulate the ringers．Later the Vicar kindly provided refreshments and said how pleased he was that some of his own singers had taken part．Three of the other ringers belong to East Budleigh，and the conductor （Mr．O．R．Lilley）to Highweek．
Last Friday，by ringing his first peal of Superlative Surprise as conductor，Derek Sharp reached lis 50th peal at Crayford，Kent．He bas rung them in the short space of two and a half years．You can＂t hold the lads in these days．A generation ago 50 peals in one tower in a lifetime would have been considered good going．

SPLICED MINOR．

UKE OF＇OPPOSITE＇GROUPY

To the Editor

Dear Bir－I Iave perused with interest the now edition of the Central Council＇s＇Collection of Doubles and Minor Methode，＇and would like to congratulate the compilers on their excellent worts particularly in regard to the space allocated to＂spliced＂compositions． Nevertheless，I lave been nabale to filud in the latter any allusion to the infusion，into one true and complete 700 ，members of the opposite groups，the sa－called Oxford group，viz．，Capel，Kingston， London Scholars and Sandal，and the opposite group，Skipton，Chep－ stow，Balmoral and Fotheringas．
Two or three years ago（when I speut more time on such matters） I compiled two $720^{\prime}$ s practically on the same plan，except one had 2nd＇s and the other 6th＇s at the lead end（or head）cothaining these eight methods together with one or two more．
As I think they may be of use to the Exercise，I am forwarding them to you for publicetion．I may add that I hope to gather to gether a team to ring them（aud many olhers）before long

DON'T SCRUB YOUR HANDS!

Cleanse and preserve your skin this simple way

To many people, the problem of getting the hands really clean without harming the skin is a serious one. Grease and grime, which become deeply ingrained into the pores of the skin, are extremely difficult to remove, and ordinary washing with soap or even scrubbing will fail to remove them completely. Housewives, particularly, who complain that their hands get ruined by the nature of their work, will find the preparation called DERMAFOAM a real "godsend." DERMAFOAM just smoothes away dirt and grease without effort. It gets right down into the pores and removes every particle of grime, leaving skin beautifully supple and healthy.

Men, too-when you've finished that dirty job on the car, DERMAFOAM will quickly banish all grease and oil from your hands. It acts almost magically-working under and around the nails and into every minute crease, removing all trace of dirt in a flash.

Engineers, Painters, Car Mechanics, Printers - everyone - will welcome DERMAFOAM, the modern method of cleansing and protecting the hands.

REFLECTIONS ON THE ANALYSIS.

The vagaries of peal ringing show themselves every year in the Peals Analysis and few definite conclusions can be drawn from a detailed comparison between one year and the next. It is only when taken over a series of years that it is possible to form any worthwhile jugmont upon the advance that is being made. In any one year the activities of a single band may influence the tables unduly in some particular direction, and may lead to a false idea of individual relationships such, for instance, as the growth or loss of popularity of any method or group of methods. In this way, too, it is easy to be misled by such statistics as those relating to the number of people who have rung a peal in (for them) a fresh method or on a different number of bells. In this category in 1937, $x, 240$ were included, a decrease of 194 compared with the previous year. In 1938 the number rose by 84 to 1,324 . This, in itself, however, is little guide to the progress of the Exercise as a whole, when, for example, one band rang fourteen Major methods for the first time, and in these peals alone added 1 in to this particular total. It is a tribute to these ringers' skill and capacity, but it does not necessarily indicate that the Exercise in general is advancing. Again, these figures may include such things as a first peal of Minor by a band who have rung dozens of peals in the same method on eight, ten or even twelve bells. There was a time, perhaps, when these particular statistics did indicate a measure of general progress, but today they are largely the result of individual ambitions achieved, down, as well as up, the scale. That does not make them uninteresting, but goes to prove our point that, taken from one year to another, too much weight should not be attached to details of this description.

There is one direction, however, in which the tables show us that ringing has improved little in recent years and that is in the number of peals of Doubles rung in one method. Even allowing for the restricted field on five bells, it is surely a sign of lack of enterprise when in each of the last three years, and perhaps longer, the peals of Doubles have included over sixty per cent. rung in only one method, and the bulk of these, also, rung in towers where there are six bells. It seems a reflection on those who ring these peals that so many of them seldom get beyond a peal in one method and do not do more peal ringing, when the opportunity occurs, in Minor methods. It cannot be said that the limitations are inposed by the desire to enable ringers to score their first peal, because examination of the individual performances shows that a great many of these peals have no claim to include a 'first peal.' A peal of Doubles in one method may be a useful first step, but it would seem that there are too many ringers content to stay on this first rung of the ladder instead of using it as a starting point to reach higher things. There is a striking lack of initiative and enthusiasm in the men who are content to stick at one method of Doubles when they have six bells at their disposal.

PEAL NOTES.

JOINTS ABOUT PERFORMANCES
Mr. J. W. Cornford 'completed the circle' on the wwelve bells it St. Leonard's, Sthoreditch, on April 1st, when he toole part in a pea! of Stedman Ginques. The Lower at Shotediteh has baen recently pestored at very considerable expense.

By calling a peal of Minor at Milton Regis, Fent, on April 2nd, Mr. G. A. Naylor brought his total up to 50 . It was luis first peal in four methods as conductor and the first in four methods on the belle, as well as by three of the band.

The costom of attempting a peal at the Church of St. Masaus the Martyr, Lonion Bridge, on Easter Eve, las been trept up for a good many years, and last Saturday a peal of Kent Treble Bob Roghl was rugg there, It was much regretted that Mr. W. H. Ficsell, who has frequently made one of the band for this occasion, liad not suffictently recovered from his recent illness to stand in this year's peal. The peal was made a birthday compliment to Joan Darby, the gix-yearoid daughter of Mr. F. E. Darlyy, who rang the tenor to the penl
An early Easter Day peal was ring at Ashbrittle, Somerset, to commemorate the 24th anniversary in the ministry of the Rev. T. L. Bullock at the Parish Church. The peel was rung bufore moruing service and all the ringers are members of the Sunday service band.
The first peal of Maximus at Saffron Walcen was ring on Monday. It is 25 years since the bells wers made into a ring of twelve. It was a source of regret that Mr. Fred Dench was uneble to take part in the peat. He is only just recovering from $\pi$ serious jllness, which fiss Ind him aside for the past two months. He was out on Sundity for the first time.
The first peal of Graudsire Caters on the bells at the Parish Chutch, Preston, Lancs, was rimg or Monday and seven of the band also scored their firgt peal of Grandsire Caters, although the tenorman (Mr- Charles Sharples) had previously ung an insido bell to Grandsine Cinques, in far off Melbourtie.
A peal in seven Surprise Minor methods was rung an Mondsy at Tiorington, Tssex. It wes notable for the fact that it was the first peal of this kind by all the bnat, and in the Nerth-Fastern Disision of the Fsser Association, in which all the ringery yeside.
For the cliristening of Brian Frederick, infant son of Mr. F. H. Crawley and gratatson of Mr. Albert Crawley, a peal of Minor was runt at Wistaston, Cheshire, or Manday. Three memberg of the fanily took part in the peal, inclading the proud father, who called it.
Mr.J. B. Wood, of Mrople, Cheshire, has just retired from ringing after 55 years of devoted service with the local band. A penl of Mnor in three methods was rung in his honaur an Saturday. Two extenls anch of Kent and Oxford Treble Bob were included. Previously Mr. T. B. Gardiner, who rang the treble, had never struck a blow in an Treble Bob method, and Mr, J. B. Gardingr, who rang the second, had never toucheif Oxford.
Seven Burnham Cumberland Yauths and the Oxford Guild Brauch Ringing Master ( $a$ 'Collegian ') rang a peal of Bob Major ot Burnham on Moaday. It was arranged for the brothers Peter and Martin Blamey, now of the R.A.F., who were home on Ieave from Cranwe!l R.A.F. Depot.

Another peal in seven methods was rung at Eigham-on-the-Hill on April 1st, when Mr. A, R. Rowley got together a band and revisited his native place. The last peal was rung kwo years ago ms a farewell to Mr. Rowley when he left to take up residence at Ibstock.

SHROPSHIRE ASSOCIATION. PROMISING YOUNG IRINGERS.

The Shropshire Association visited Maling Lee on Saturdey week. when company of 30 enjoyed the welcome and hospitatity exteaded by the Malios Lee bsud and the Rev. T. N. Crowther Green.

Members of the recently-formed Dawley band wers present and received some instruction in Grandsire Doubles. Three are gtill of school age and should learn quickly. Stedman Doublea, Plain Bob and Oxford Bob, Kent and Oxford Treble Bob werg rung, menbers being present from Sifrewbury (St. Chad's), Coalbrookdale, Wellington, Stockton. Moreton Corbet, Madeley and Wolverhampton.
The Rev. T. N. Crowther Green, who is treasurer of the association, conducted the service, and, in welcoming the visitors, spoke of the escellent serrices rendered to his charch by the local band. He appesaled to ringers to consider it part of their duty to sttend service after ringing an invitation to athers, Tea had been prepared by a ladies' committee, and aiterwards in short business meeting was held, at which Sidney Douglas, Peter Nelson and Margaret Nelson (Davleg) and Jenes Ellis (Malins Len were elected membors.
Corresyondence from the Bridgnorth Branch of the Hereford Diocesan Guild was read, in which regrets at their inabitity to be present was exprersed. It was also stated that tineir racot meetiner elashed with the Weflington date, but, on hearing that Apri] $29 t$ f, was the anly possible date for Wellington, it was decided to adhere to this arrangement and to arranga a joint meeting later in the Fear, at Coalbrookdale if possible.

Further ringing in the tower aftermiarda took place.

THE KENT COUNTY ASSOCIATION.

proposed memorial to the rev. f. j. o. HELMORE.  Annual heeting Rejects Suggested New Rule.

The Kent, County Association, one of the most active and succesfind of all the ringimg organisations, held its annua meeting at Eritho on Frith, a nemply-constituted borough ou the banks of the Thames, has become a busy industrisl town and forms part of an area which is fortanate in being well equipped with bells, There was, herefore, no lack of ringing facilitios for visitors ou Monday, and ringing took no lack of ringiag facilities for visitors ou Monday, and ringing took place at a number of towers in the morning, as well as in the afteruoon and evening after the busiuess meeting.
At noon service was leeld in the ancient parish church, with its quat tower, surmounted lyy a shingled spire. The Vicar (the Rev. If. Thombitil) ufficiated, the lesson was read by the Mhyor of Eiritla (the Rer. J. W. Wilkwsou), and the Archdencon of Rochester propounced the Blessing.
The address was given by tho Ficar, who hegan by saying it was ${ }^{2}$ great privitege to welcone the association to the elurch. He spoke of the toam work necessery in relivion and bo the part whith ringerg played in it. They were, he said, au essential part of the team in chuich work. Tho parson in the church ewuld only appeal to those who were prescit ait the service the magers con 'mayide pulpit, from which they proclaimed their message.
As ringers, conlinised the Ficar, they supplied the one link with the greet traditions and the great legacy left themi in the pagt, In these days of strident medranical roises, the church bells were the one thing that publicly linked them with the past. He Joped trose who licard them ring would ciften, in this changing world, be compelled to put up the old prayer, " O Thou who changest not, abide with me." Ringers, the preacher proceded, were privileged to have the opportunity of the preacher proceded, were privileged to have the opportunity of consecrating to God a Eervice which was one of tingir main intelests in life. Ringing was an all-absorbing interest, a scicnce and an art, which was a vocation and a ministury. Tha object of their service that duy was to help them to get thieir motires right, to get their spirit right, and he lopeed they would all be lueped by it in their ministry to sorve God morto fath andy; to work g cher
Over two hundred sat down to lunch in Str, John's Hall, the Mnyor presiding, supported by the Archdencon of Mochester, Canon Rylep (Rochester), the Vicars of St. John's and Christ Chureb, Erith, Mr. F. M. Mitchell (hon. secrelary of the association), der the ova tosst, hr. E. A. G. Alen gave The Arehbishop and the Clergy of Kent." It was due to the clergy, he said, that they were ahle to run their asociation, and they were indebtiod to the clergy for the welcome they were offered and the facilities given them for ringing-

AN ERTTE LECEND.

The Archdeacon of Rochester (who was formerly Vicar of Erith) replied to the toast and spoke of the legend of a bell which was kupposed to ring with the rising and falling of the ide in "Church Hole,' a spot in the Thames near Frith Church. The bell, the legend waid, was stoleu and dropped into the river. If they wanted to prove the story they could go to Church Hole with grappling irons and fish for the bell (laughter), But tif they found it he warned them it would be clamed by tile Vicar of Erith Parish Churels (laughter). Bellbe claimed by the Vicar of Erith Parish Church (laughter). Bed-ringers, continued the Archdeacon, wore one great brotherlood and sisterhood; indeed, they were more: they were ft family. In Frith they were very proud of the fact that their towerkeeper, Fred Cullum, Was the third gencration in succession in his family to hold that. affice: and uow his dauglter was a ringer (applause). He supposed sha held the promise of being towerkeeper in succession to ber father (laughter and applatuse). The Archdeacon concludied by hoping that those gatherings of tiue association, which had now gone on for more then 50 years, might continue in the future and that they might keep the bells through these critical days ringing out alrays their message of peace and goodwill (applause).
The hoa. secretary proposed the toast of "The Borough of Erith," and said they were honoured in laving the Mayor with them. They Wers grateful to him also for having read the lesson at their service. It was many years since such a thing as thet hai happened.

The Mayor, in reply, welcomed the associabion to Erith. It was not, he said, the first occasion he had joined them, or their predecessors, at their annual meeting, for he remembered attending such a function in the early 'twenties' when he was a curate at st, Nicholas, Deptford. The Maybr referred to his own experiences as a ringer,' when he pulled a bell nt Cliffe at Hooe which lifted him constdersbly off his feet, and at Christ Church, Deptford, where be ofter had to chime the single bell. He went on to remind the company of the record peal of 15,072 clanges rugg et Enith on April 3rid, 1899, in 9 hours 24 minutes, and said he was filled with astonighment that men could keep it up for that lenpth of time. He noticed that tha names of the Ficar and churchwardens were on the record, but he did not know what they had to do with it, unlers it was that they liepped to supply the refreslments (laughter).

The Mayor weut on to say be Fondered whether the number of ringers was incrcasigg in this present wave of economy, when fewer church towers were going up, and some clurches were being only half or oven quarter fimished, so that towers and steeples aud bells: seemed not to be arriving in the profuseness of the days of our grandfathers. He hoped the present generation would remember that when they erected churches they should build steaples and put up bells.

VICE-PRESIDENT'S ADVIOR.
The business unecting then proceeded, with the Mayor presiding. Among the apologies for absence wrs ane trom Mr. E, H. Lewis, vicepresident, who wrote: "Will you please make my apologies for nonattendance at the anual meeting on Monday. I ma intending to spend Baster with my family in Scotland this year, an I see less and less of them as time goes on.

I should have liked to be with you in order to state my views on the proposal to change the rules, which is forecast in "The Ringing Worid" of February 17th. I sincerely hope that no chango will be made. It seems to rae that the proposal grises from a single incident iu one district, and thst it should be possilule to settle any differences in that district by other means. If all the energy spent in guarrelling were spent in temching beginuers, the association would tro ahead quickly towards the idesl of full servica ringing in every tower in the county. All best wishes to the assocation for an amicable and fruitiful maecting.

Apologies were also received from Messrs, F' White (CTanbrook) and Staford Green (Snouthborough).

PROPOSED MEMORIAL TO OANON HELMORE.
The anmual report opened with reference to the death of the late hon, secretary, the Req. F. J. O. Helmore, The position the association lolds to-iay, it ssid, both from its place in the ringing world and its fmancial stability, is undoubtedly due to the untiring energy and devotion whicis Canon Helnore showed during the 38 years he held offee ac hon. sectetary, The Belfry Repairs and Benorolent Funds were mstituted duciug lis period of office, and have both grown to be in a sound financial position. 'By his cheery disposition, his liuduly interest in all, and his devotion to duty he earned the love and respect of all members," coatinued the report, "and we trust the example of his life and work will be an incentive to those who have been deputed to carry on the work and build on the foundation he so firmity set.

It is proposed to raise a memocial fuad to perpetuate the memory Canon Helmor
Within a few weeks of our late secretary's passing, another foundation member was called to rest, Mr. Charles Slingsby, who hed attanined the wonderful age of 101 yegis. Another link with the past cone-but leaving an example for all to emulate.

With the passing of the older ringers, one is apt to bear at times that the ideals of the association are not upheld by the generations that follow. It can safely be said that the objects of the nssociation are carried out more stropgly than ever by the vast majority of ite members. The first of our objects is Sunday service ringing and we know that is uppernost in the minds of all ringers. 'Duty to God surely comes first. Peal ringing is only an effort. to perfect surselves to give of our best to God when wo ring the bells for His service. Let us put aside the personal feelings iu such trivial taafters that appear to be existivg in souve quarters and ask ourselves, 'Are we giving our best to God's service? Let us set a good example to those who are coming along to help us in our work and do all in our power lo foster a brotherly spirit and righteotigly uphold the cense we slould have at heart. What better example can we beve than by trying to follow in the fontsteps of our late doar friend, Conon Helmore?
The report added that there were 121 towers in umion, Bexley having joined, but Deptrord (S. Nicholas'), Dover (St. James), Sandintret and stonting lapsed for various reasons. The life members totalled 28 ; honorary member: 70. Of practising maembers exacti, $1,000 \mathrm{pai}$ their subsmptions as follows: Adults 933 and juniora 67. Fifteen nou-resident life members jained during the year

Thirty-one quarterly and by-meetings were held during the wear, snd to la $\geqslant$ incumbents who cenducted the sorrices and made it possible for these meetings to be held gratefu! hisnks were tendered as well as to those who exterded hospitality on these occesions.
Owing to the lamented death of Mr. W. Smith, a wacancy in the Lewisham District representation occurced and Mr. E. Baraett was elected to again represent the district. The resignations of Mr. A. Waddington, Maidstone District sectetary, and Mr. W. Wenban es representative were received with regret, and Mr. R. G. Rapfield. of Ightham, Jad bees elected secretary, and Mr. W. T. Grice as representative. Best thanks were offered to the retiring officare, esperally to Mr. Wadidigton for his gallant efforts in the district during the past four years.

STRONG FINANCIAL POSTTION.
One hundred and fifty-one peals were recorded for the association during the past rear-nina more than 1937 - 146 on tower bells and five in hand. "The peals were as follows: on 12 bella, 2 ( 1 in hand '\} ; on 10 bells $3^{\prime}$ ( 1 'in hand '); on 8 bells, 119 ( 2 'in hand '): on 6 balls, 25 ( 1 'in hand ' L ; on 5 bells, 2 . They were rusg in 66 towers it Kent and one in Landon. Hsidbells, 3 at Brasted and 2 (Continued on next prge.)

BENEVOLENT FUND'S PROGRESS

at Crafiord. Twenty-four members rang their first peal and 136 rang their first in a method. The conducting wes slared by 51 membersi 3 conducted their firsi peal and 15 the first in the method. One new mothod has been added to the list of first performances, via, Painewick Sarprice Major.

It is pleasing to note the progress the youth of the county are making,' added the report, 'not only in the methods rung, but elso in conducting. Mr. P. A. Corby, who heads the list of conductora, is a strikigg example in this direction. Many more young ringers are coming to the fore as conductors than in past yesra, and this is an encouraging sign, as we shall not have the fear that existed in the past, when the conducting was in the jands of a comparative few:
The balancs sheet of the general fund revesled an excess expendiure over income of nearly $\mathrm{El0}$. This was no ceuse for alarm, as the extra expense was oceasioned by annafl and district commitments. It was e clear indication that members were taking a keener intereat in the association's affairs by atteading the meetings in larger numbers than heretofore. The balance in land is 561 178. 6d.
From the Belfry Repairs Fund 85 was patd to Bexley, and the bulance in the fund wad increased to 8144 FBg . 6 d .
The Benevolent Fund had justified its existence during the year es \&38 3s. was distributed to six aged membera and two widows. Four of these members could claim between them over 180 years' gervice for the association, and it was only fitting that in their declining faars they should be enabled to obtain a little extra nourishment from a fund which every member must be proud to know the associstion possesses. Sa stable bad this fund become that it was pleaging to record that nearly the whole of the amount granted was paid out of income during the year, which was again assisted by collections at meetings to the extent of $£ 1114 \mathrm{~s}$. 10 d . The balsnce in this fund is $£ 2964 \mathrm{~s}$. 8d., and the total worth of the association, as shown by tha balance sheet, is 9983 17s. 7d.
The report nnd bslance sheets were adopted, and the president, vicepresidents and comaittee re-elected.
On a vote for two trustees, Mesars. F. White and W. J. Jefferies were elected, Mr. E. Barnett being unsuccessifl. Mr. G. H. Cross was re-elected auditor and Mr. F. M. Mitchell hon. secretary and treasuter, Appreciation of Mr. Mitchell's work was oxpressed by Mr. G. A. Ambrose, who proposed his re-election, mad by Mr. J. W. Steddy who geconded.
A ballot took placo for four representatives on the Centrat Council, and at the end of the meeting the Mayor antounced that the voting had been as follows: Mr. F. M. Mitchell $130, \mathrm{Mr}$. G. H. Spice 105, Mr. F. J. Cullum 97, Mr. T. E. Sone 91, Mr. T. Gruombridge, sen., 75 and he declared the first four elected.

BENEYOLENT FUND AS MEMORTAL

The hon. secrebary submitted a recommendation from the committee tlent a memorial to the late Rev. F. J. O. Helmore should be provided. He said they all knew what is lot Mr. Helmore didi for the association, nnd the committee thought it was fitting they should institute a memorial fund. They recommended that fund should be innugurnted, to be tnown as the 'Helmore Memorial Fund,' and that the whole of the amannt raised hy subscription sliould be invested anil the interest accruing be praid iato the Benerolent Fund of the associafion, and that the mount, fogether with any sum secessary, be paid annually from that fond, and be known as the "Helmore grant,' to an old and deserving nember of the associntion, whose name had been on the books for not less than 25 years, the recipient to be determined by the Berlevolent Committee.
Canon Ryley asked to be allowed to second the recommendation, beamse, he said there was no one in that hall who knew Mr. Helmore as long as he did. He first made his acquaintance as a small boy in the year 1881. He could see him now in that stwdy at Canterbury, and again later in life with the huge desk with the silver bell in the centre that was pregented to him by that association. That was the proudest piece of furntoure that Mr. Helmore possessed. His heart was in the Cathedral and few knew what ho meant to the Cathedral but, ontside that, the first place with him was held by the association of bellringers. He (Canon Fyley) eaw him only just before he died and ho talked then, as always, about the ringers of Kent.
The motion was carried unanimously.

TROTBTE IN LEWISHAM DISTRIOT,

The Lewishiam District submitted the following for incluston in the rules of the association

A member whoge conduct is, in the opinion of his or her distriet, prejndicial to the well-being of the aesociation shall be reported to the committec.

A member so reported is to be given the opportunity of attending when the renort is investigated by the committee and of explaining his or her condnct.
If it is fourd outt the report is justified, the committee shal have power to remove the member's name from the books.
Mr . E. Barmett, in proposing the motion, said they would no doubt realise that there were occasions when such a rule wis desirahle. He did got interd to enlarge upon it, for the motion spoke for itgelf. It was submitted from the Lewisham District, and, as one of the district representatives on the committee, he wis deprited to introduce it.

Mr. F. J. Cullum, as another representative of the district, seconded and emphasised the fact that the motion came from the district and not from any individual.
Mr. W. J. Jefferies said he would like Mr. Barneft to preface the motion, as he prefaced it at St. Nicholas', Chislehurst, by giving the rexson for it. Everybody there shouid know it.
Mr. H. Hoskins said a member of the association was brought before the Genersi Committee and censured for his corduct. He was ased to resirn from tine association, but it was pointed out thewe was uo rule which permitted them to ask an man to resign. The member, knowing the vote of censure had been passed on hims retained his memberahip; hence the need for this rule.
Mr. G. F. Spics (secratary of tho Rochester District) strongly opposed the motion. He was grieved that it chauld bo thought the assaciation peeded a rule to furn out sae of the members of the 'family" which bad been referred to that day. The motion was born in the Lewisham District, where there had been trouble for noumber of years, a crouble that, had it been nipped in the bud and the people concerned lad met each other fifby-hity over the job, conld have been eliminated so that the prasent postion naed never lave arisen. Mr. Lewis, who was thfortuaately not able to be present that day, had been trying to mediate in the matter. It worid, he thought, be a disgrace in the absence of Mr. Lewis to put up a rule that would besmirch the rules of the assaciation (applause). He suggested the motion shond be windrawz, or, at athy rate, postponed until Mr. Lewpis had the opportunity to pour oil on the troubled waters, Their oresent rules served thon well and they did nof want to quilbble over them but inctead to ret or with their wort as oburcharkere He appealed to those presentio to defont the motion if it was put. 'It is wrong," he added, amid applause.

DISTRICI BEING 'STRANGLED.'

Mr. W J. Rawlings said they must not lose sirgat of the dificulty which they had had for five Jears in the Lewisham District. They had eadoavoured without success to settle the mattar amatably by persuasion but they had now come to a serious position, They had at the head of ove of their towers a man who removed from his tower one of his rimging membera for no apparent reason except that that member disngreed with his captain at a district meeting. He felt sure they would agree that caplains of towars should not Inave that right. That was a serions problem for the fubure if it was allowed to erow. The passing of this proposed new rule was the only hope they would have in the lewisham District, wherc they werc being strangled by the efforts of one man. The Lewisham District asked for aupport in this trouble. If a member was censured for his cenduct, did that not call for some district nction? The rule was defiritely required for tho welfare of the association, otherwise the trouble was going to grow.
Mr. Battin said they did not what the rale. The associathon had lived for 59 years without if and had never wanted it. Even if they passed the motion and got rid of the member, they could not make him keep os man in lis tower. They wonld only mako the position worse. He conld not understand why they were biying to pass the rule at that neeting. There were five diatricts who lnew nothing about it until they came there that day, Why had it not becr brought up at the annal district meatinger"

AN ASSOCLATION OR A DICTATOR?

Mr T. Groombritge, sen., suid each distriok gent two representatives to the General Committee, nind if they had reported to the districtis what had transpired at the comnittee meeting the districts would lave known about the proposnl. It was not the frult of the Lewisham District if the menabers dju not know. Ha was afraid a great many District if the menabers did not kuow. Ha was afraid a great many of them did not lenow what had happened in that district. They in the Lewisham District wanted to know whether they were to fun it as an association or by one man as a dictator? Mr. Groombridge went on to state that a wish of the fistrict to lrold a neeting at St Jolnn's, Deptford. was frastrated by the infuence of this member with the Ficar and alleged that the member complained that the district warted to interiere with his tower. "We do not mant to interfere with any tower in the association," said Mr, Groombridge. -The towers are in union with the association, and we do not faterfere with the internal working of nny tower. But because this member could not bawe his own way he called some of the clergy together and ciscussed the associations hurizess with them without any representative of the association being present. What right has be, as an individual. to call a meeting with the clergy of the district and disouss our business withant may officer of the association being present? Tho result is he is going to keep five or six towers closed egainst tha association for good. Are we to be ruled by tha merbers of the नistrict or by a dietator?"
Mr. A Richardsom (secretery of the Tonbridge District), opposing the motiou, suid the question of using the towers rested with the incumbent and churchwardens. It did not rest with the ringera or the association

Mr. G. F. Rawlings said he was the member who was called upon to leave the tower, where he had long been a regular service ringer, becausa ho disagred with Mr. Jeferles outside the tower. He had a right to his own opimiong, and hecamge he aid not agree with Mr. Jefferics at a meeting fe was practically compelled to leave. That was not the sort of thing the association wanted to foster.

MOTION DEFEATED

The Fon. Secretary $\begin{gathered}\text { rid } \\ \text { the discussion was very distasteful to him, }\end{gathered}$ fter what he had said in his report appealing to them all to show a brotherly feeling. In view of something which he knew, but which the members did not know, he asked them for the time being either definitely to reject the motion or hold it in abeyance. He hoped by mediation they would get over the trouble. They all had their faults and he thonght by it litile tact matters might be smoothed out, Mr. Lewis and he were working on the matter and he hoped before the next annual meeting the trouble might be amicably bettled. He moved that the motion be now put.
This having been seconded and carried, the motion was submitted to the vote and dofeated.
Afterwerds Mr. Mitchel] thanked the mambers for asein re-electing bim as hon, secretary. As he had told them before, he would try to do kig best, but he fad a very diffeult task sometimes. He hed bean their secretary for ten years and thought he ought to give a iittle account of his atewardship. The number of practising mornber was still about the same. When he was elected their total funds were e954 18s. 4d. The balances now amounted to 8963 17s. 7d. The thing he was most proud of was their Benevolent Fund. He had put in a good deal of fime for that and they should be proud of the fact that they hal been ahle to pay out exs in one year almost out of revenue (applanse). He thourht that was a wonderful thing to bave dome. Ho thanked the members who liad subscribed to the fund at the He thank.
Mr. Mitchell went on to thank Mr. Lowis, the vice-president, Mr, Grean, who anelysed the peals, and all the district secretaries for all the work they put in (applause). Ho also thanked the Vicar of Erith for the service and for lis splendid address, and the ather incumbents who had placed their bells at the disposal of the members. He concluded by thanking the Mayor for presiding.
Mr. E. Barmett seconded, and, the motion maving been oarried, the Mayor replied and the meeting terminated.

LEADING CONDUCTORS—66.

ALBERT HARMAN.

While it is peal ringing priscipally that bringa conductors into the imelight, there are many among them who, while turning their ability to grood account in this direction, make their most valuable contribu tion ta the advancement of the ringing by the work they do quietly in their owl and neighbouring belfries, keeping tle Sunday service ringing going, assisting struggling bands, organising practices for advanced methods and helping lane dogs over stiles. These ringerg and happily there are many of them, are the greatebt asset which the Exercise holds. Amoung them is Mr. Albert Harman, Ringing Master of the Leatherhead Distrief of the Guildford Diocesarn Guild, who has devoted a ereat deal of his laisure to fostering clonge ringing in many towers in lis district and to whose efforts, in no amall measure, a company has been raised to the Spliced Surprise" level the Leatherliead area
Mr. Farman was born on September 9th, 1888, at Burstow, Surter. And it was there, in his yonth thet he learned to ring. At one time Burstow was requently "in the news" for six-bell performances that took place there, and Mr. Farman's first peal and his firsl as conductor were both rung there, although by that time Graudsire Doubles was the best that could be dane. His first peal was on April $6 \mathrm{tl}_{2}, 1908$, and that as conductor two years later.
Mogt of Mr. Harman's early peals were rung in Susser with the Crawley

MR. ALBERT HARMAN. asd Brighton bands, and Harman beltled in Leatherhead, and for the Surrey Association, for which lie has rung 146 peals, conducing 54 , and later also with the Guildford Diocesan Guild, has put in some excellent work. Among the peals which he has conducted have been the first of Ashtead and Leathorhead Surprise Major and Painswick Surprise Royal. These were rung for the Guildford Guild, for which society Mr. Harmen bas already rung 82 peals and conducted 53 . Altogether his peals total 312 , of which he has conducted 111.
In addition to having been Ringing Master of the Leatherhead District ever since the formation of the Guildford Guild, he has repregented the Guid on the Central Council during the last three years.

GUILD OF CLERICAL RINGERS.

RINGING WEEE IN DEYON

The clerical ringing week, which usually takes place immediately after Easter, begins next Monday, the visit this year being paid to Devon, with headquaters at Bovey Tracey.
The party will meet at Brampford Speke, where the Rev. E. V. Cox, hon. sectetary of the Guild of Clerical Ringers and orgapiser of the towr, is Ficar, After tea at the Vicarage, a wisit will be paid to Chudleigh before poing on to Bovey Tracey. On each of the nucceeding four days there will be a peal attempt in the moming and ringing at varinus other towers. The peal attempts are at Bovey Tracer, Bucifastleigl, Highweek and Moretonhampstead. The annua) husiness meeting of the Guild will be held on Thursday evening.

Thp following ara expected to join the party for the week, or fome part of it: The Revs. J. H. B. Andrews (Heeds), B. G. Beneor (Burghill, Hereford), H , Benson (Quinton, Glos.), Canon G. F. (Eysm, Derbys), with, of course, the Rer. E. V. Cox Mrs. Palmer, Mrs. Powell and Mrs. Richards will mecompany the party.

"RINGING UP.  GOOD COMPASS NECESSARY.

To the Editor
Sir, In "raising ' or 'failing' a peal of bells, the great consideration is that all the bells sinotid be kept fogether in a proper compass r or 'beat,' as in all ringivg.

At the commencement of a 'rise' the bells should be struck very close together-in a small compass-and as they get higher should be gradually apened out antil they get into the ardinary" compass" of rownds. The treble-man ehouht very gradually let luis rope eoils out as he finds the belle rising, and mot let ont severnl inches of rope at a time
On some heary peals of bells a good treblerrann finds it necessary to come down a trifle when the belfs are 'bean-high'-hati-way upto improve the clappering of the back bells, and then proceed graduully up. Care should be taken to very granually briog the bells to the hand-8troke lead when fully up. There will not be a good 'rise ${ }^{\text {s unless every ringer strikes his bell at the proper distance- }}$ neither too wide nor tao close all the wity up. Adistakes in this direction must be corrected. In the case of jeavy peals the back bells should be brought into the rise after the front bells have had several pulls. A good 'rise,' therefore, depends on all tho bells being kept together in a correct 'compasst and the freble-man, whilst listening carefully to the bells, gradually learding them up is, \& whole.

The first essential for a good ' $\mathfrak{a}$ all' is to get the belis into perfect rounds. It must be thoroughly naderstood that there cannet be i good 'fall" "umless the bells ave kept together in good rounds-or a good compass-before attempting to lower the peal. A good leader will, therefore, jnsist on good rounds as a prelimimary, the same as a good conductor will insist on good rands before attempting chandes.
Having gab good rounds, the back boils shouth ke gridually closed in, und as all the bells get into a smaller' compuss, the freble-man should follaw then down, not attempt to lead them down. Acfaally the treble-man should correct ang belf not keeping the proper distance in the 'comunss' and let the treble strike after the temor. When the hells are rearly down and the back thells get iato the chimina position the trable-man should very gradually britg his bell and all the resk into chinriug
It shonid be remembered that the belis will lowar themselves if nllowed to do so. Only gridance and sufficient putl to ensure that every bell is kept in its proper position in the "compass," with tant ropes, is therefore necessary, and not the tremendous ligging and checking that we see in some towers.
The chiel drawhack to sucuestial raising and falling is the totally unnecessary lugging at the salliss an some jingers. Prebjemlly oll the putigg in the lower stages ehould be done on the end of tho rope and only a steadying hand given to tho sally, except when the bells are nearly up.
To sum up: Every ringer striking his bell correctly in the compass all the way up or down, and a treble-man who liss sufficient ear to grasp the compass of tine bells at all stages, and move accordingir are the requitites for good raixing or falling in peal. Such a treblemat is not found on every street corper
Maral: If you have e good treble-man, keep him, but let hisn teach others as a reserve.
I hope this will be of some service to "Fokel," as from one yokel to arother.
Bridstow, 耳erefordshire.

MPORTANCE OF GOOD TREBLEMAN

Sir, I, too, regretted that only two correspordents lian replied to this very interesting subject, because it has to be performed in some way or other every Sinaday in the year by most of the bnnds in the churches where there are peals of bells.
However, I have often given the mattor some thourlut and have noticed how sometimes we get ferr 'rings up' and manv times we get poor moes. I have also noticed that whea, gay, "Fred, leads up on the treble it is invariably e better 'ring up" than when "Tom' is on, or any of the others. The resson for this is, I thisk, that Fred lias that Fnack of keeping a constant speed of rise all the time. He doesn't put that almost imperceptible check to bis bell, balf-way up which is so mmplified down at the heave end and so prompts the remark which we hear occasionally, "They are coming down again."
Also, when they are nearly up and grembody is beginning to feel that they lave done a good one, there iss't that jumble with "Fred" during the transition stage of just short of being on the halance and full control when they are on the balance. Many of our "rises" aro spoiled that way.
I certajuly think that from my bell, 6 or 7 , the slightest change in speed of the treble is very noticeable.

I daressy some will say it is the tenor which controls the apead of ringing up. Well, in ons case the captain always rings the tenot up. He is an elderly man and, I am afraid, thinlis he is the only man who car do it. He also aiways keeps the onoductiog to himself. No ong else must presume to thrt, the most interesting part of ringing.
 does not do his best to puli in or put a little cstra weight on to meet it. Oh, no, if he is ip first or if the rest are up before him that is: no. concern of his. They should ring to the tenor, that is his standpoint.

THE LIBERTY BELL OF AMERICA.

PHILADELPHIA'S CHERTSHED POSSESSION

Among the famous balls of the world not one has been associated with events of so great importance as the Liberty bell of America, which was rung before the first reading of the Declaration of Independence, in 1776 .
In 1751 the bell Was ordered througls the Colonial Agent of the Province of Peonsylvania in London, Mr, Robert Charleg. The letter conveying the commiasion to him was as follows

Fespected Fricnd, Robert Charles,
The Assembly havirg ordered us to procure a bell from Fogland to be purchased for their use, we take the liberty to apply ourgelves to thee to get us a good bell, of about two thousend pounds weight, the cost of which whesume may amoant to one hundred pounds sterkivg, or perhaps with the charges something more.

We hopo and rely on thy care and assistance in this afiair and that thou wilt procure and forward it by the first good opportanity, es ols workmen inform us it will be much less trouble to hang the bell before thefr scafiolda are struck from the buiding where we intend to place it, which will not be done til the end of next summer or beginning of the fall.
${ }^{\text {Let }}$ the bell be castu by the best workmen and examined carafully hefore it is shipped, with the fotlowing words, well shaped in large letter round it, viz.:-

By order of tha Assombly of the Province of Pennsyivania for the State House in the City of Philadelphia, 1752." and undarneath:-
Proclam Lihorty thoughout, all the land unto all the inhabitants thereof.-Lev. sxv. 10. "
As we have experiencer thy readineas to scrve this province on all occasions, we desire it may be our excuse for this additional trouble, from thy assured friends, Isaac Norris.

Let the package for trampportation be examiged with particular are and the full valute insured thereon.
This boll was east lyy Thonzen Lester, and arrived at Philadelphia in 1752, and wrs hting up on trusses to trv out its sound and it be camo cracked. It was recast by Pass and Stow, "two ingenious workmen of Philadelphia.
In recesting, the Fnelish bell was broken up and the same metal was used with the addition of an ounce and one-half of American copper to the pound of the old bell metal to make the bell less hrithle. The game form nnd lettering were preserved with substitution of the names of the founders, the place and year of recasting.

The Liberty Bell was recast by Pass and Stow twice, the second fime being satisfactory, and is the bell we know to-day. It was hang in the steeple of the State House, where it remained until 1781, when it was lowered to the brick tower and the steeple was taken down. It remained in this place until 1846, when it was placed on exibition in Tndependence Hall.

On July 8th. 1776 , the bell was rang to call together the peopie far the first puhlic readirg of the declaration of Independence, as it was rung for all public affairs. On September 18th, 17T7, when the British Army was about to occupy Plifakelphia, it was removed to Allentown Pa, and on Tune 27th, 1788 , if was returned to the tower. On July 8th, 2835 , it was heing rung for the funeral of John Marshall, then Chief Tustice of the Ënited States, when it cracked again.
The hell is now preserved in Indeperdence Fall, where it remajns ats a silest, symbol not only of "Liberty throughout all the land,' but throurhout the world.

The partientars of the lell are fallows: Circumference around the lip, 12ft. circimference aromad the crown, 7 ft . 6 in ; lip to the crown. 3ft.; height ower the erown, 2ft, Jin.: thickpess at lip, Jin, ; thickness at crown lim.; weight, $2,080 \mathrm{jb}$; length of clapper, $3 f t .2 \mathrm{in}$, ; cost, 960 I4s. $5 d$.
The inscriptions, in capitats, on the bell are:-
Proclaim liberty thromghout all the land unto all the inhabjtants thereof. Lev. Kxy. $10{ }^{3}$. and
"By order of The Assemblr of the Province of Pennst?rania for the Etate House in Philada. Pass and Stow, Philada MDCGLIII.

RINGING UP.

(Contimued from previous page.)
I don't think thet is right. It is the team effort which counts, and so my rules for ringing up can be expressed thus:-
Treble: Keep a steady pace, have an eye on the rest as you go up. Never rheck yomr bell.

Lighti bells 21p to the 6th: Pack in close to the one in front at the gitart. Keep a steady pace, checks get worse as they ere transmitted downwhyds. Open oint gradually. No gaps, leaving a gap is as bad as stritiog on.
Serenth and tenor Get in close at the start frotil there in a Ewing an and then rise up to suit best those in front,
These are my jueas, suitable to a ring of eight with a 14 cwt. temor.
When I see a tenor-man tugging away regardless of whet the otherg sire doing it reminds me of the squad of soldiers who were ell out of step bar tour Patrich."

LEICESTERSHIRE'S KING'S NORTON.

FIRST PEAL OF TREBLE BOB IN 200 XEARS

On November 6th 1938 , a band was successful with the first peal of Major on the bells of St. John the Beptist's Church, King's Norton, Leicestershire, and ever since that momentous day Arthur with the 'Big Feart ' (Debo) has been taking strengthening medicine to enable bim to turn the tenor in to a peal of Treble Bob,
His perseverance in getting a band together brouglt its reward or April zad, when an attempt for a peal of Kent Treble Bob Major was specially arranged as a birthday compliment to his mother. The personnel of the band, with the exception of the ringer of the 7th, was exactly tha same as on November 6th last. Each one rang in the sama position.
The day had been carefully planned, and, keeping to the programme, the party arrived first at Gaulby, which is parted fram Norton by two or thres fields, in good time for breakfast! New ropes had been brought along for three of the bells, and the 'gang " was soon in the bell chamber exchanging ropes and also quenching the thirst of the bearings with a long averdue dose of oil. The attempt for Minor, bowever, was short ilved, the tenor rope breaking and coming down on 'Our Arthur.' This happened after the attempt had been in progress for about half an hour, and even during the first 720 one of the ringers snggeated the bearings had been given glue where oil would have done the job in half the time. However, this was unfortunate, as time was too short in which to make a further attempt.
Lunch whs again very hindly provided at the Rectory by Mr. and Mrs. Dawis and everyone fully appreciated such hospitality. Mr. Davis, who came to King's Norton and Gaulby in November last, had previously resided in Canada for 25 years. He is, however, a mative of Leicestershire, having been born at Hinckley.
After lunch the party hiked their way to King's Norton and were soon again very busy in the bell shamber, and this time 'oil' was used
From the commencement of the peal a good beat was found, and the way in which "Ted" and "Deb" turned in the tenors was a resl tonic for any one of the band on the lighter end who was feeling nervy at the amount of rumbling caused by the bell frame ap above. It was not until 6 o'clock that the hand finislied their "Ifbours, and a real country fall was soon to be heard.
Mr. Ted Nourislt very kindly invited the ringel's to tea, for which further thanks were heartily accorded.

Gonductor ' Walter ' had remembered to bring handbelta, and ringing was again in evidence after tea, and touches of Grandars Triples, Caters and Stednan Trizles wero much appreciated by Mr. Nourish and friends.
Such days quickly pass and it was getting late when this plucky eight decided it was time to make tracks for bome, happy in that they had aclieved their object with the first peal of Treble Bob on bells nearly two centuries old. "Here's to the next time," and, according to "Our Arthur,' arrangements are aroady well in hand for a further wisit for new records.

SOMERSET BEGINNERS' RAPID PROGRESS.

Shiplam bellribgers on March 30th passed their test for chonge ringing to enable thems to become full members of the Bath and Wells Diocesan Association, by ringing 360 Grandsire, called by the Finging Master, Mr. E. Avery. Great credit must be given to this band, as they only began learning in Mar, 1938 . Their rapid progress is largely due to the gractice and capable instruction given by Mr. G. Gilling, of Churchilh, to whon the band gives its warmest thanke.

RESTORATION OF HAWARDEN BELLS.

INTERESHING HISTORY OF A OHESHIRE RING. BY J. W. C.
The bells of Eawarden, the picturesque village famous as the home of W. E. Gladstone, bape a history of more than passing interest. Moreover, it is a history which can be read with comparative ease becanse of the meticulous care with which the vestry and wardens" records have been kept, for, at more than one period, lusinesg concerning the beils occupres more space in the accounts than angthing else.
The 14th centwry church bas a central tower, and an inventory of 1563 records a peal of five bells and a 'little bell,' suggesting that the church was even in those days considered of some importance. With the restorstion of the Movarchy in 1660 , tho bells were among the first of many items of church fabric to be set in order. The bells were evidentiy, in the opinion of the wardens at any rate, in such a stata that recasting was desirable, and the accoumts record $£ 414 \mathrm{~s}$, 1 d . as paid for our charges and assistance in goeing to Wiggon,
The reault of that journey was that Scote, of Wigan, was commis sioned to recast the bells, and the work was immediately commenced Whether Scott was pressed to return the bells as early as possible and 50 forwarded the firgt five evailable, or whether pressure of work caused some confusion in the fourdry, it is hardly possible to ascertain, but certain it is that all Hawarden bells were not recast. Some years ogo, two of them-as proved by their inscriptions-were discovered in the tower of the little moorland church of Ledshatm in Yorkshire! Dotrbtlesg Scait wisely kept his own counsel in that matter 1
However, five bells arrived at Hawarien in due course and wera hum in the tower, the workmen being liberally treated.

Meats and drink and horse Meato
Paict to John Bradey for beare to yo ringer
Paid for drinke for them that lasiped ye ringers
Tho weight of the tenor was $1,658 \mathrm{lbs}$.
It would appear faom subsequent entries that the hanging was never very satiffactory, for each year brought a host of paymentu for repairs, and ropes seem to bave been wom out at such a rate that finally an economist endeavoured to put a clieck to this conatant drain on parish funds.
In 1712 it becarne necessary to recast the tenor. The Wigan foundry was now in the hands of Ralph Ashton, who had reopened it in 1703, two years after the death of William Scott, The wardens, however, decided on a change and consulted Gabriel Smith, of Congleton. Titere wera seversl meetinge between founder and wardons, ayd it was not until 1714 that ngreement was fine!ly reached, Smith contracting to recast the bell for ع12, and the wardens made the journey to Comgleton to see the casting carried out,
In 1735 the bells were rehung in a new frame. The name of the firm responsible for the job is not recorded, but the bellhanger's name is gived as Wrigby, while Aldarmar Comberbach, of Cliester, supplied the timber, and Mr . Cheswiss, a smith, made tho eew iron work nebersary. The tatal cost was $£ 48$.
Five years later an event which brought grent rejoicing to Hawarden brought disaster to the bells. Willet's 'Memoirs of Hawarden' (1822) gives an account of the affais. "In the year 1740, on the birth of a son end heir to Sir John Glynne, Bart., the ringers, in their expreszion of joy, cracked some of the bells, the recesting of which cost s150. To defray the expense, the parishioners borrowed 80 much school money, for which they pay the master jnterest to this day." Actually the money was borrowed from the Trustees of the Grammar School, and come 5500 was paid in interest before the debt was discharged!
The work was done by Ahel Rudhall, who recast the whole ring and added a treble. The trasaction throws some light ou costs of those days. Rudlall's price wes f365 19s. 6d., but be &greed to allow one shilling per pound weight for the old metal, by which e2e8 was recovered.
The parishioners must have been delighted wikh the new ring of six, for Ruflall provided a fine example of his craft with a tenor of 13 cmt .
The church was bady demaged by fire in 1857 , but the tower and bells miraculousiy escaped. Two yebrs later, Mears and stainEank relumg the bells in a new onk frame, and fupther repalis were executed in 1879. Since that date notaing eeve miner repairs has been done matil reccntly, when considersble restoration work on tower end spire, as well as other parts of the church fabric, became necesEary. The oak of the bell frame was found to be in perfectly round conction and hag been re-erected, quarter tutned from its original position, in order to bring the tenors to the efroggest side of the position, in order to bring the tenors to the gtrongegt side uf the provided and the frame strengthened by tie-bolts. The bells bave been tuned, quartor tumed and eleazed and hong with cannonsetaining lieadstocis on ball betrings. The tenor turns the scale at $12 \mathrm{cwb}, 3 \mathrm{qr} .6 \mathrm{ib}$.

On then advice of the founders, the louvres have been completely blacked np and new apenings constructed at the base of the rebuilt spire by which the eound of the bells has been considerably ethhanced. Messre. Mears and Stainbank are deserving of congrabulations on the (Oontinved for next colump.)

DON'T SCRUB YOUR HANDS!

Cleanse and preserve your skin this simple way

To many people, the problem of getting the hands really clean without harming the skin is a serious one. Grease and grime, which become deeply ingrained into the pores of the skin, are extremely difficult to remove, and ordinary washing with soap or even scrubbing will fail to remove them completely. Housewives, particularly, who complain that their hands get ruined by the nature of their work, will find the preparation called DERMAFOAM a real "godsend." DERMAFOAM just smoothes away dirt and grease without effort. It gets right down into the pores and removes every particle of grime, leaving skin beautifully supple and healthy.

Men, too-when you've finished that dirty job on the car, DERMAFOAM will quickly banish all grease and oil from your hands. It acts almost magically-working under and around the nails and into every minute crease, removing all trace of dirt in a flash.

Engineers, Painters, Car Mechanics, Printers - everyone - will welcome DERMAFOAM, the modern method of cleansing and protecting the hands.

SUCCESSFUL ASSOCIATIONS.

Three, at least, of the principal associations that met for their annual meetings on Easter Monday were able to show increased membership during last year. They were the Kent, Worcestershire and Norwich Associations, and it is a satisfactory indication that, despite the 'slump' under which some associations seem to be suffering, there are others that have every reason to be satisfied with the numerical progress they are making. It was revealed at the Worcestershire meeting that the present membership is the highest on record. The gratification at this result must be the reward of those whose efforts have made it possible, but those responsible deserve congratulations. There will always be ups and downs in the progress of associations, but the case of Worcestershire goes to prove that consistent endeavour will, in the end, compensate for the disappointing periods which, from time to time, must necessarily be faced. Wisely, however, the Worcestershire Association emphasises that the effort to maintain membership must not be slackened, even at this high tide level. It is easier to slip back than to go forward, and not only must endeavours continue to be made to bring in those ringers who still remain outside the association, but individual towers must be unremitting in their endeavour to maintain their ranks. And this applies, of course, not alone in Worcestershire, but everywhere.

In addition to its increased membership the Kent County Association is also very happily placed in regard to its financial position. Its monetary affairs have been extremely welf managed in the past and in its various funds the association, which, be it remembered, contributes liberally to the expenses of members attending meetings, has accumulated nearly a thousand pounds. If, at the moment, the association in one respect is not so happy as it might be, its steady progress shows that at the core it is sound. The members at their annual meeting faced a delicate problem, and it is to be hoped that the negotiations at which the honorary secretary hinted will culminate satisfactorily. It would be a thousand pities if a 'canker ' developed in the very district which is richer in the promise of youth than almost any other district in any association in England and were to lead to decay. But the Men of Kent and the Kentish Men have in the nearly sixty years of the association's history shown themselves capable administrators and are not likely, we imagine, to let personal feelings disintegrate such a splendid structure as that which they have built up with so much care and fabour. In the meantime the association has the numerical and financial scope to (Continued on page 246.)

SUDDEN DEATH OF MR. N. SPINDLOW.

RINGER AT DUCKLINGTON FOR FIFTY YEARS

The death occurred suddenly on Thursiay, April 6Lh, of Mr, Nabel Spindlow, of Ducklingtan, Oxon, a very well-linowu and lighly respected member of the Oxford D'fotesan duild.
Mr. Spindlow was foreman of the tower badd at Duckington, mear Witney, and had been a ringer at the church for upwards of 50 years. He was also sexton there for over 30 years.
Decensed was a man of great pergonabity and patience, and was atways willing to help a baid of youngsters and teach then the art of change ringing.
The funeral took place at Ducklington on Monday, April 10th. Fine boily was borle to the church by Ducklington ringers, while the belfs were puag fully muffled with the teaor open at back-stroke only. After the interment, a well-struck quarter-peal of Grandsire Doubles (with ten callings) was rase with the bells half-muftied by W. T. (Hint ten callings) was rag with the bells hali-mufted by W. T. ductor) 5, G. Farris 6 .

SUSSEX RINGER'S DEATH

The funeral of Mr. Alfred Gripps tonk place on Salurday last at St. Audrew's Church, Steyning Suscex. Formerly an old Shipley, Sussex, ringer, Mr. Cripps was obliged. to give up ringing some 20 years ago, owing to denfness, but remained at work until nine months ago, then an interna! complaiot caused him to take to his bed and be pasged away on Wedrigstay of last week at the spe of 64 years.
Family monirners at the funeral included the deceased's widow and darghter, His brother, Mr. F. W. Cripps, was wahle to be present owing to illness. Ringers who attended were Mr. I. M. Cripps (nephow) and Mr. Keith Hart, of Brighton.
In his early daya, Mr. Alfied Gripps conducted the first peal in seven Surprise Minor methads for the Sussex County Asociation ond rang peale in the popular mothods of that time on six, eight and ten hells. For some years lie was leader of the Shipley band and a regular Sunday aervice ringer.

PEAL NOTES

(Gontinued from aext column.)
Mr. Nolan Golden, of Norwich, with some other visitots, paid a successful visit to the Bristol district lest week-end end acorad a peal a day for three days, The Doubie Norwich on Saturday was composed over Junch. It proved to be e very masical composition, with $S$ at 1 , S at $3, S$ at 5 and $S$ at 8 in every part. It also proved the Norwich Association's secretary to be an adept with figures.

YOUNG RINGERS SUOGESS.

To ring sevell extents of Spliced *urprise Miuor in 14 mefhods 138 one's first attempt for a peal is a notrble achievenuent, to say the least of it, Two yonng ringers at Rock Ferry, Cheshire, did this on April 11th, when what is believed to be the first peal of Spliced Surprise Minor for the Chester Guild by a Sunday service band was rung. Of the two young ringers, James Cooke is only 15 and Alec Martin 18.
Some other youtbin] ringers, three of them scoring their first peal, took part in a peal of Grandsire Doubles on the front aix ett St, John the Divine's Clurch, Leicoster, on the same day. These three, R. V. Hubbard (aged 18), J. Hurst (16) and S. R. Hayues (19), are all ex-choirboys, while Jolm Hill, who had previously rung a peal on the tenor, is only 15 and still a member of the choir. They bave been under the tuition of Mests. W. H. Clarke end S. Farrison, who completed the band. John Fill and John Hurst shared the conducting.
It was the first peal of Doubles on the bells. The original eight were installed in 1902 and the peal augmented to ton in 1928 by the generosity of Mr. William Wilisor.
A North Stafordshire hand is indebted to the Rector of Norton-inHales for permitting them to attempt a peal at a minute's nolice on Easter Monday. It bad been intended to go for a peal of 10,050 Treble Bob at Brouglaton, but illoess at the Fall nearby necesgitated its abandonment. The Rector of Narton at once gave congent to the use of his bells for a peal, and 5,120 of Kent was rung. It, was the first peal at Norten by the North Staffordslire Association.
The first peal on the hells at Salford, Lancashire, since they werg rehung, was rung on April 13tin. The peal celobrated tho birth of a daumbter to Mr. nnd Mrs. A. Bell, brother-in-law and sister to the cancuctor, Mr. F. Reymolds. Grandsire Daunles was rung at Publaw,

A peal of Plain Bob and Somerset, by the local band on Easter Day, in honour of the festival. It was the first time that a peal in two methods had been rung ou the bells.
Bermard Browa, of Pykekley, Northasis, celebrated his 14th hirthday by ringing bis first peal at the first altempt. He rang the trehle to a peal of Grandsire Doubles on Easter Monday and rang well.
It is estimated hat the band who rang the peal of Lamdon 'Surprise at Ambleside on Easter Monday travelled not less tlan 1,800 miles for the job (including the returu joarney). Some of the band are prepared, for a mominal fee, to give tuition in the techaque to be used with ticket collectors when travelling by ardinarg braing with special excursion tickets. For reagons of modesty they prefer to remain clothed in anonymit

RINGERS WEDDED

Mr. George Burrelt, abe of the Lincolnshire record Minor batd, was maried on Caster Monday, at Trimpton, to Mis Lois Neal, who for the past fivo years han bem a regular service raliger at this tower. A peal of Cambridge Eutprise Mroer was rung after the wedding in honour of the event.
Mr. J. R. Kemp bas now fung a peal on ull the bells in Frampton
Mr. W. EI. Deacon, of Maphull, Lancashire, rang bis first peal at the frst attempt on Easter Monday nt Seftod, and also conducted it. This was an excollent pertormance, for it was a peal in six Minor methods
The first peal on the bells at Welwyn, Herts, was rumg on Easter Monday. It consistad of seven different Minor melhods.
The peal af Yeovil on Enster Mouday included four visitore, Messrs. E. G. L. Coward, of Mere, H. C. Vowles, of Tetminster, and two from Birminghan, P. N. G. Rainey and W. C. Dowding. Tlue latter, incidentally, rang his $150 t h$ peal and first as conductor on ten bellg. He bud never proviously made a call in Grandsirc Caters.
Six of the clnires band, with the assistance of the Association Master (Mr. S. T. Holt) and Mr. J. J. Jefferies (who formerly had connections with the towery, paid tribute to the late Mrs. E. Thomas by ringing a hall-mafled peal of Grandsire Triples following upon the interment in Clainea Churchyard on April I1th.
Her bon, Mr. F, P. Thomas, is a rice-president of the association, and in 1927 wrs respensible for haviug the treble of the ald five recast and thras new bells added to make the octave, as a memorial to his father (some time Mayor of Worcester).
Mrs. Thomas lived to the tipe age of 99 and took a great intereat in the ringing at Claines on Sundays-ringing which she was able to henr if the wind was ju the right guarter. Her gon, though not a ringer himsolf, is keenly interested in bells, and lias done much towards various restorations in Worcestershire, while ringers in and aronth Worcester, as well as the Birmingham ringers, have at several times enjoyed his hospitality.
A Suffolk Guild hand pulled off a couple of peals on Faster Monday, Kent Treble Bob Major at Elveden, and Double Norwich Major at Mildenhall
The peal of Bob Major at Ali Saints", Hereford, ou Easter Monday, was Mr. W. H. Symonds' 100 th peal.
Another early composition by the late Mr. Arthur Knights bas just been ung A peal of Grandsire Caters (No. 21), which he composed in 1885, was called on Snturday at Maidstone by Mr. T. E. Sone, who las now called 75 dfferent compositions by Mr. Knighte, the first time they have been rung.
(Gontinued in previous column.)

EAST DERBYSHIRE \＆NOTTS ASSOGIATION  OHANGE OF PRESIDENT．

The annusl meeting of the East Derbyshire and Nottinghamstitite Aseociation was leld at Ripley on Easter Monday．Ringing was cur－ tailed in the efternoon owiug to several weddings taking place，but advantage was taken of every interval，and the＂go＇of the bells leaven nothing to be desired．Tea wha served in the Co－operative Cafe and was followed by the business meeting．About 45 were preseat．

Mr．John Hobbs plesided，supported by all the officers of the asso－ cintion，but the Vicar of Ripleg（the Hev．H．P．Hargreaves）was umavoidably absent．The balance shest pras accepted as very satis－ factory，as was the auditor＇s report，presented by Mr．H．Doughty．

The presideat（Mr．Wilson Dobb）having intimated lis desire to be relioved from the cares of office，the meeting unanimously ap－ pointed Mr．John \＃⿴囗丷．hs，who expressed his apprecstion of the honour and sascured the meeting of his intention to do all in his power to further the intereats of the association．
Mr．Wilson Dobb became vice－president，and the Finging Master and Central Council representative（Mr．Tom Clarte），the ircasurer （Mr．O．M．Heathcote）and gecretary（Mr．J．W．England）were re－ elceted．Messrs．J．Machin and H．Dongbty were elected auditors and the zollowing appointed on the Exacutive Committee：Messrs． E．A．Ashman，A．Elliott，T．Jennings and J．Bleby，

A resolution was carried placing on record the appreciation of the services rendered to the association by the retirine president，Mr． W．Dobl，during the period of nine years in wluch he has held this ofice．
Mr．Dobb and Mr．J．Swain werc alected hotworay life members of the exsociation．
The Jubiles Shield，which is swarded annually to the most pro－ gressive tower，was banded to Mr．J．Bleby，captain of the Sutton－ In－Ashfield ripgers．

The secretary reported an increase in membership，and it was decided to institute a bell reptir fund．

The ammal dinner held in November last year was considered very successitu，and it was agreed to continue this flenction，voting resalking in Alireton afais being selected．

One honorary member and 13 finging members were elected．
Meetings were arranged for 1959 as follows：Quarterly meetings at Ashover，Swanwick and Hennor，and the next monual meeting at Sutton－in－Ashifield on Easter Monday，1940．A bearty vote of thanks to the Vicar of Ripley for the use of the bells and his interasting address，to the organist and local band was accorded on the motion of Mr．R．D．St，Joln Smith，secouded by Mr．T．Clarke．

BEDFORDSHIRE ASSOCIATION．

RETIREMENT OE THE HON．SECRETARY．
Aiter 18 years of valued service to the Bedfordshire Assaciation as hon．seeretary，Mr．A．E．Sharman，of Dunstable，retired from the office at the annual meetimg or Easter Monday，much to the regret of the members．The meeting was held at Bedford，where the bells of St．Pau＇s and St．Pefer s Churches wer＇s available during the dey．Ringers from all parts of the county arrived during the after－ noon，and by tea time 50 members and friends made their way to St，Pater＇s Hall，where Miss Steele and Mrs．Tyzoe bad prepared a splendid meal．
The business meting followed and was prasided over by the presi－ dent，the Rev．Canon A．Rust．
Ganor A．Iust was re－elected president，aud the vice－presidents， hon．auditor and representatives to the Centrat Council were all re－ elected en bloc．
Mr．A．E．Sharman，the general sccretary，nnuounced that owing to business reasors he was unable to carry ou the work and thought that the office should be filled by a younger man who would be able to devote the necessary time to the association．He wemt on to say how much he regretted having to ralinquish the secretaryship，but that he was vary pleased to propose that the presert Luton District secretary，Mr．F．J．Plummer，be elected general secretary．
The Chairmen spole of the very efleient why in which Mr．Sharman had run the association during his i8 years in office and ssid how sorry they all were that he saw fit to resign．He wrand like to take tho opportunity of thanking him on behalf of the association for the woric lie had so well doge（applause）．
Tha nomination of Mr．Plummer was seconded and earjed without opposition．
Mr．Sharman tern explained the Central Council＇s attitude about the publication of a book on Surprise Major methods，and said that each association wris approached with the ider of guaranteeing the finance of tha vonture．Miss Steele and himself，who attended the last Council meeting，voted againgt the proposal，and Mr．Sharman went on to say that they were still of the same opintos．He then explained the reasons，frgtiv that there would be no demand for tho thook in Beiffordshire，as the county was chiefly a five and git－bell county；secandly，that the Comoil should nof draw on the zeserves of the associations to finance their publications，and，thirdry，that tho book would probably be nily the first of a series requiring financial assistance．
The business meeting thien closed with a wote of thanks to the Vicarg of St．Paul＇s and St．Peter＇s 「or the use of the hells，aud many of the ringers returned to the towars for further ringing．

BELERY GOSSIP

The friends of Mr. Traac Emery (leader of the ringers at SS. Peter and Paul's, Bromley, Kent will be sorry to hear of au unfortunate accident which befal him on Wednesday of last week. While cycling he was involved in a collision with a motor-wan and sustained a fracture of the left collarbone, laceration of the right arm aud head bruises. He was takeo to Bromley and District Hospital and debainac,
After the wedding of Miss Doris White at Moorlynch Church, near Bridgwater, racently, the bells were rung by her father, Mr. John White, of Fursland Farm, and her seven brothers, Mescrs. Jack, Erle, Jim, Tom, Reg, Sam and Charlie White.
Mr. Fred Pearmaia, of St. Mary's, Wimbledon, was 69 mn Sunday last, and uatil three ybars mgo had not toucked a rope for 40 years. His fellow-yingers will wish him many more happy ringiag pears. He started lis ringing at Donmow, Essex, when there were only six bells, and the band were all the same name, Pearmain.
The Hertfori County Association pisited Hertford for the anmual meeting this year for the first fime sirce April 7th, 1890. Among those present on Easter Mondey who were also at the meating 49 years ago were the hon, secrataly (Mr. G. W. Cartmel) and Mr. ©. B. Lucas, of Walthamstow.
The explanation of the abseuce of two peals in the Norwich Diocesan Association's record in the Amalyais tables is that these two pesle were sent in for publicetion in "The Ringing World ' without the name of the association. This is one of the points upon which conductors should be particularly careful in forwarding reports.

But, having given the committee's explanation, perhaps we ought also to print the censure passed upon us. One of the committee responsible for this portion of the Analysis 'tells uf off ' thus: 'If any subsequent alteration was published mone of us noticed it, but that, of course, is not unlikely, for, as we all complain, you insert tho mmendments in suck uperpectedly odid corners!'

We shall have to $\varepsilon$ ee what can be done about in future, but we aluars thought the members of the Analysis Committee, above ail people, read" The Ringing World 'fron end to end.

The tenor of the ring of five at Earl Stonham, Suffolk, is badly cracked, and the ringers now welcome the congregation to cinurch by ringing handbells round the font.
Bronlifs, in Brecknockshire, now bas a ring of six bells, the old five haviag been restored and a treble added by Messrs, J. Taylar and Co. Bronllys Church fas the only detached tower with six bells in Wales. Many ringers were present at the dedjcation of the bella on April 8th.
We regret that owing to pressure on our space many reports have had unavoidably to be held over.

SPLENDID WORK BY GIRLS.

HANDBELL RINGING AT MALVERN WELLS. To the Riditor.
Dear Sir,-Possibly some of your readers who remember the tate Rew. H. 8. T. Richardson, of Haralorid, will be glad to bear of the excallent work being done by his daughters at the Abbey School, Malvern Wells. They have, whthout any help, taught a band of their follow-pupils, all under 15 years of age, to ring handbello-doublehanded, of course-with good striking. During the spring torm 24 differently enlled extents of Plain Bob Minor have been rung by nine ringers, all under 15 years of age. Ome 720 of Double Bob Minor was rugg and two courses of Plain Bob Major. One of the Plain Bob ertents was rung in 7 minutes 15 seconds. The ringers taking part in these touchos were Dorothy Fichardson, Margaret Eastwood, Hazel Weall, Patsy Price, Jil] Budden, Aphra Roberts, Joyce Tarry, Rose mary Taylor and Anne Herper. Brenda and Monica Richardsen are a #itutle older and deserve congratulation on this splendid young band.

LEADING CONDUCTORS-67.

THOMAS B. WORSLEY
One of the stalwarts of the Lancashire Association is Mr. Thomas B. Worsley, of Bolton, He has served the association in varjous official capacities for many years, and in addition to bis peal ringing activities he is known throughout the Exercise for his worls as a composer. His compositions are of outstanding merit, for he has aimed at quality rather than quantity.
Mr. Worsley was bonn in the parish of Deane, near Bolton, on September 30th, 1886, and, while bow attached to St. Mary's, Deane began his ringing career in 1909 at the six-bell tower of St. Bartholomew's Church, Bolton. His first peal, however, was rung at Deane; Graudsire Triples on February 20th, 1911. and his first as conductor was also rung there, when be called a peal of Grandsire Triples on Agril 18th, 1913.
He bas taiken patt in some memorable performances, including the 11,232 Superiative Surprise Major at St. Peter's, Bolton, and the 17, B24 Oxford Trable Bob Major at Heptonstalk, rung in 10 hours 51 minutes, Both these were conducted by Edward Jenkins. Then, too, be took part in that other preat record of 15,312 Cambriage Surprise Maximus, rong in 11 hours 33 minutes, at Ashton-under-Lyue and conducted by William? Pye. He rang in the first Spliced Surprise peal by the Lancashire Ansociation, Superlative and Amsociation, Superiative and and later in the same year was the first Lancashire ringer to ring a peal of Spliced Surprise in four methods. Ea did this unter Willian Pye's conductor-slip at Romiord, Esesez
Mr. Worsley's conducting bas been done rather by Force of circumshances than from inclination, but he has been greatly assisted by that other well-known Lencashire ringer, Titus Barlow, with whom he has rung over 180 peals, and Fiward Jenkins. Of the 315 peals which Mr Woraley las rung, 282 have been for the Lencashire Assotistion, and he has conducted 88 . His peals have been rugg in tawers in eight counties.

Mr. Worsley has been a member of the Lancashire Association Committec almost contiruously since 1915, was vice-president from 1933 to 1935 and has been one of the association's representatives ont the Central Council since 1936.

DEVONSHIRE GUILD

EAST DEVON BRANCH GROWING

The East Devon Branch of the Devon Guild held their annual meeting at Awliscombe on Easter Monday. There was an attendance of 70 , including 30 visitors, two of whom were Erom Notts and Essex. The bells at Awliscombe were recently incrensed from five to six by the addition of a treble, and the rebanging of the old ring took place last year, and a stubstantial raised oak floor, for the convenience of the ringers, has been installed.
Full use was made of the bells during the afternoon and evening in various methods, with Mr. W. G. Burrow in charge.

A short service was conducted by the Rector (the Rey, E. G. Manington), who extended a hearty welcome to the ringers.

T'ea in the Parish Room, arranged by Mzs. Bishop and helperg, was followed by the business meeting, over which the Rev. A. A. Falis De Salis (Honiton) presided, supported by the Rev. E. V. Cox (Brampford Speke). president of the Guild.

Mr. J. H. Godfrey (Ottery, hon, gecretary and tregsurer, who was cordially greeted on recovery from illness) presented an encouraging report and anticipated that before long the membership would be 100 .

A balance in hand of $£ 1816 \mathrm{~s}$. 5 d . Was reported.
Ottery St. Mary was chosen for yext yeer's annusl meeting, and Luppitt for a gatherisg on August 26th,

Two new members were elected, the Rev. W. I. Airey (Lidford) and the Rev. E. G. Mannington (Awliscombe). Eight certificates were presented, six recipients being members of the Broadhembury band (Mensrs. W. P. Ploese, W. Churchill, E. Squires, R. Mathews, W. Jevell, O. Eveleigh), and the others Messrs. F. Warren (Honiton) and Nelson Owen (Ottery St. Marv).

NORWICH DIOCESAN ASSOCIATION.

A YEAR OF PROGRESS.

Too Many Ringers Still Outside.

The 6end annual meeting of the Norwich Diocesan Association brought almost a hundred ringerg to Norwich on Easter Mouday, when the bells of St. Peter Maveroft, St. Giles-on-bhe-Hill, St. Michael at Coslany and All Saints' were available from 10.30 fim . A large variety of methods was rung, including Cambridge Surprise Royal, Dufied Fhoyal, Londan, Superlative and Cambridge Surprisa Major.
The service in St. Peter Mancroft was sonducted by the Vicaz and president of the association (the Rev. Hugh McMullars). The Rev. E Witliam Blyth (Rector of Northrepps and an enthusiastic rigging member of the association) gavo the address from Isajah lii., 2. He spoke of the messege broadcast by the bells as warthy of all the slill the ringers cauld put into their ringing Luncheon was served at the Castic Hotel, when 83 members and fijends sat down.
At the business mecting which followed, the president was supported by the Revs, E. W. Blyth (Northrepps), A. Si, Joln Heard (Bergh Apton), J. M. La F. Mcanelty (Hethersett), J. E. H. Willinms (Aeley, Mr. Artbur L. Coleman (vice-president), Mr, F. Nelan Golden (general secretery and trensurer), Messis. W. L. Duffein, J. A Godfrey and W. J. Lee (branch chairman), J. G. W. Harwood, A. G. Harrison and H. Tooke (branch secretaries), and diocesan members from Acle, Alburgh, Attleborough, Bergh Apton, Buxton, Cromer Dickleburgh, Diss, Fakeuham, Gressenhall, Halvexgate, Hethersety, Lodrion, Lowestoft, North Elmham, Northrepps, Norwich, Pakefield, Pulham, Reedham, Redenhall, Rocklend All Saints, Shelfanger, Suet Pulbam, Reedham, Redenhall, Rocklend All Saints, Shelranger, suetWymondham. Messrs. A. E. Austin Newmarket), A. H. Holliday (Mristol), E. F. Poppy (Stoke Ash), W. C. Porter (Oxford) and J. Mayes (Thornbrm) were very welcome wisitors.
The President referred to the great loss the association, in company with the diocese in general, had suffered by the death of Canom Ci. M'. MacDermote, their late president. He was a man unversally helowed and to the ringers wns a very sircere friend, known and loved by eacl, ono of them individuslly. Canon MacDermott, was always out to do his begt for ringing generally in the diocese.
Mr. R. T. Woodley also referred to the loss the rivgera had sustained y the death of Canou H. J. Furaght, of Lowestort
The members rase and stood for a moment sus a mark of respect the memory of these gentlemon.

RECORDS BROKEN.

Tise anamal report commented upon the very satisfactory attend ances af the district meetings, in comparison with the support given during former vears. In evary branch lecords in this direction hac been broken, while a greater variety of methods had baen rung, which was another healthy gign. Membership totals showed an increase of 24 over the previous year, and the annual subscribers now exceeded 400. During the yeur 68 members were elected- 10 homorary, 8 twot resident life members, and 50 members of the genus labelled at werforming" so delightrully in the rules '-but losees by death and the rou-payment of subscriptions gave a net gain of only 24. The balunce sheet showed a balance of only fil 18 s .5 d ., but, the end of the finencial crisis appeared in sight.
The associstion was the first to reach the exireordinary total of 5,000 peals. In the past year 103 peals were rung, a decrease of five on the record set up in 1937, but the cuality of the peals had insproved. Cambride Surprise Royml and Double Norwich Court Bob Royal appeared in the list after a ragret table absence of many yents, and Pudsey Surprise Major, Belgrave Surprise Major, Real Double Superntive Surprise Major, Painswick Surprise Major, a peal of Spliced Plain Bob, Double Bob, Hereward Bob and Double Dxford Bob Major, aud peals of Minor ir 15 methods in seveu extonts had been rung by the association for the first time. Ome hurdred and eighty-four ringers and twenty-geven conductors took part in the peale.
The report concluded with thanks to the branch secretaries for their successful labours, and added that 'in spite of record attend. ances at the several meetings, there are large numbers of ringers who do not put enough into the association and who could profit much by regular attendance. In too many instances the sulccess of a meeting has depended on the suppert of a few enthustasts whose sphere of activity is nof confined to any one branch. The welfare of the essociation is every member's concern, and his act of membership is not concluded by a simple paymert of two or five shillings. We need his support at meetings, his surgentions and constructive criticism for improving our activities in the ringing warid. In particular, we want to help him, if it is in our power, to improve his striking, and thus the effciency of his service as & churchworker, Again, though our membership is riging, many ringers in the diotese are outgife our renkg-and we and they are the poorer for it. Let us not, then, get together and congratulate ouraelves too enthusiactically on our past schiavements, but get to work to improve still further our tandard of ringing and to augment the number of our associates,"
The President, moving the adoption of the report, congratulated the assaciation on one of its best reports of recent years. He satid it was very gratifying to him, as president, to see they were on the upward grade in the matter of members. Speaking for the dioceser-

WORCESTERSHIRE ASSOCIATION.

NEW MEMBERSHIP RECORD Decline in Peal Ringing

A record membership was reported at the agnual meeting of the Worcestershire Association at Worcestor on Easter Monday. The tota present grown to etivg in the College Hall, the president (Dear present at the maetwg in the casiege Hall, the presiden (Dean yift. Since we met last year,' the Dean said, I have spent same tour months away, two of them in India. While I was there my Lhoughts did go back ta this association, because I remembered the last nnnual meeting and hoped to bo able to attend this one. I want to ask the association to accept a small present I got while in Indiawhick indeed reminded me of you. It is an elephant's bell an orderly gathering, sD that if do not suppose a bell is needed. This is the kind af bell slung over the shoulders of the elephants, one belh-bigger than this one-langing on each side.'The Dean presented it to the secretary (Mr. J. D. Johnson) on relalf of the association, and suggested, amid laughter that it be recorded on the minutes that if this elephant bell should become a white eleplant ' it might be sold without hurting lis feelings, and anything oblniued from the sule might be given to the tower fund

The mewbers expyessed their hearty nppreciation of the gift.
The annual report presented by the searetary, after referring to Lhe activities of the year, said the outatanding feature of the year liad been the alection of the reraarkable number of 106 new performing members The report added:-

Dospite this number, aud maling allowance for lapses, removals and losses through death, our pait-up membership for 1038 does not reach the higin tevel which seemed possible earlier in the year. For Le fourth time in saccession, the Western Branch records an increase this year of 26; the southern Branch shows an increase of 11, but two latter braches geveral hands whose subscriptors for 198 are autstanding, but we feel contident, these will be forthcoming early in 1939. The net, yesilt is a total of 510 , 15 more than lakt year, and 14 above our previous hathest number for ang one year. The asgociation records reven the peculiar fact that each peak year jns been immediately followed by a slump. May we express the hope thai everyone will worl together in an effort to avoid history repeatiog sell? in 1939

The General Fund glows a credit balance on the year's work of 45 10s. $3 d^{-}$, and no calls having been made on the Belfry Repairs Fond, its value has been increased by 811 &s. The total worth of our funds is now £9948. 2 d.
Tho committee reported that grants of es ench bed been approved towards the restotation of the bells at Hanbury and Wollaton, and that it had been decided to advance the coet of twelve copies of the dentral Council's publication, "The Collection of Surpriso Major Methods.

FALLING OFF IN PEALS

The peals qnalygis anü points table, compiled by Mr. J. Pigott, lescribed 1838 as rather dieappointing so far as the number of peale was concerned, only 48 being rung and being one of the leanest of recent years. This compared very unfeyournbly with a year or two ago when they nearly topped the century, and they could not but feel tliat it in some measure reacted on their efficiency. They mould like o see all towers in wmion making en effort to secure at leakt one peat during the year, and thnught finis could be done im most instances, eren if it nevessitated calling is a libtle neigibbourly assiatapes.
The number of members laking part in peais was 132, of which pine rayr their first peal and $70^{\circ}$ accomplished something they had not prevtously done. The conductors numbered 16 , among whom \{here wns only one nem one, while it was regretted that no handbel\} peal was recorded ovar the year
The peals, which were made up with 13 on six bells, 32 on eight and threo on 10. were distributed es follows: Northern 16, Western 15, South 7. and Mixed 10, and the order of merit was as under Claines, 1,167 paints; Brierley Fill, 1,072; Upton-onSevern, 739; Wollaston, 615 : Selly Oalk, 593; Hiuton, 574; Worcester Cathedral 556; Clext, 415; Kitderminster, 413; Crowle, 336; Hartlehury, 330 King's Norton, 222; Suckley, 203; independents, 1,174. Twenty-two owers scored less than 200 points, their zotal being 1,812, and meking the grand total 7,407 points, this showing over last year a drop of nearly half, which was not too encoureging
The balance sheet for the year showed receipta 873 15s., which included $\mathrm{f8} 12 \mathrm{~s}$. brought forward. and $\pi$ aredit balance of $592 s .3 \mathrm{~d}$. with $£ 5$ deposited in the savings bank at the end of the year
Recripts on the Belfry Rapliirs Find account totalled 250 17s. 40 . and there remained a credit balance of 88 4s. 6 A . (compared with debit balance of 8 s . 9 d .).
The report and balance shaek were approved
The Secretary pointed out that the feature of the report related to the memhersbip. Since it was drafted there had been 20 back subscriptions paid, so that pow the membership read 530 , which was 34 more than they ever had before (applanse)

Mr. J. R. Newman, Severn Stoke, voiced the pleasure it gave him 18 former secretery to note tite progress the association wns making. fie felt it remarkeble thint a county liko Worcestershire, which was by no means big, should have such a membership. It showed great keennes, and a lot of work put in by the officials, to whom gratulations were due.
It was decided to hold the essociation's cimner annually on the last Saturday in September, with a subecommitteo of two from each branch to make the arramgementa.

The members toot in silence as a nark of respect for members who had passed awny during the year, and a vote of sympathy was cimi larly expressed with the Rev. J. F. Eastiogs, of Martley (a vice president and former clerical sectetary), on the loss of his wife, sna to Mr. E. P. Thomss, of Claines (vice-president), on the death of his mother. Both Mrs, Thomas and her son heve been the generous donors of new hells to several towers in the diocese.

OFHCERS RE-ELFCTED

All the officers were re-eleted, ibeluding the Dean as plesident Mr. S. T. Holt (Crowle), Master; the Rev. G. W. Webb (Longdon) clerical seoretary i Mr. J. D. Johnson (Evesham), lay aecretary; Mr W. H. Johnson (Timberdine), hon. treagurer'; Messrs. E. E. Barbel and J. R. Newnzan, auditors. The following were also elected to the Central Commitice: The Rev. J. F. Hestings, Messes. E. P. Thomss, W. B. Cartwright (hon, members), S. T. सolt, J. D. Johysor, C. H Woodberry (Central Council representatives), J. Pigot (peals analyst) C. W. Cooper (librarian), R. G. Knowles and W. Short.

The arrauging of the aunual peal was left in the lundes of the Master, Mr, W. Short, Clent suggesting that it be rupg for an gmunent Wrrcestershite man, the Bishop of London Dr, WinnipgtonIngram. Mr. Short mentioned that he understood the Bishop was resigning on September 1st. His father was a Rector in the Worcester diocere for 54 years

This was unanimausly agreed, and the Masfer asked the Doan if the Dean and Chopter would ailow Ehe pend to bo rumg on the Cathedral bells for such an occasion
The Dean intimated that he would bring the matter hefore the Chapier.
The meeting discussed the venue for the uext annual meeting. The , iew whe put formard by somic members that a changa would be good for the association, aud Mr. C. H. Woodbery, atating that he lad noted the small attendance at thas meeting, moved that next year it be held at Stourbridge.
It was pointed out that, if the meeting was held in the north one year, ju justice it should go south the followiry year, and after further discussion a resolution pias carricd that Worceater again be the venue next year, the voting being-for Stourbridge 15 , fot Worcester 29.

Thnnks were accorded tho Dean for presiding, to the incumbents of cily churches who had that ing put church bells at the disposa] oi the assaciation, and to the officers.

A STRIKING ADDRESS

The members atteuded choral evensong in the Cathedral, at which the preacher was the Rev. J. R. Bamber, Viear of Wollaston. In the course of his address he sait be very much appreciated the honour of being invited to preach at that service, but lee had no special qualifications to do so, other thar his lave of bells and gratitude the men who rang for service and spent their leisure hours in practice. On such an occasion a non-ringer could do one of two thimgs; le could preach a geveral sermon with a peasing reference to bells, or he could take his courage in both bands and from his slight knowledge of ringing draw a few simple lessons applicable to everyday life, and this he proposed to do. Taking his text from Patles 150, - Praise Him upon the well tuned cymbals: praise Him upon the loud eymbels, the preacher said this was ting nearest reference he could find to bells in the Bilile. From the cymbals of the Bible, two crude piates elashed together by hand, they had progressed to the carefuly cast, carefully tumed avd carefuly hung bells demanded by madern change ringitg And in the ringing chamber was a band of ringers working together it a carefully arralked plan. Not avery one of the bard know the whole of the plan, but depended on the ame made by the leader There mosid pe pandamonium if no the took any notice and each decided to please bimself. If there was one place on earth where co-meration was required, and where the leader should expect oberlience, that place was in a ringiag chamber. Was that not the parable of the world at largep The change from the oymbrals was similar to the chauge in mode of life. There was geed for more co-operation betweelt man and man; need of a great beader to guide them in their dodging; place-making and hanting to tive end of the peat. Men and womon everywhere were seeking a leader they hed that leader in Chrint, but how meny of them obeyed and followed the calls He made?
As they knew. a well-tumed bell had diferent notes, all in larmony one with the other. It had its strike note, and its hum note, which registered an exaot nctave below its strike note. All Christinns would do well to ase thenselves if their lum note was in harmony with their strike nate. Or did they sound one note in the presence of God ead another elsewhere? Was their Christian skrike note on Suzdayg in harmony with the hum note of their weekday life?
Jesus Christ was the only Leader for the world, but before Ne could lead we must allow Eim to take us into Eis foundry and to ture us until eat hum notes were in harmony and syapathy with our striks notes.
Ringing took place daring the day nt the Cathedral, All Saints'. St, John-ic-Bedwardine, St. Nicholes' and St. Swithum's

HERTFORD COUNTY ASSOCIATION.

HON. SECREIARY'S FIFETETE YEAZ OP OFFICE

The annus! meeting was heid at Eertford on Easter Monday

 the last meating was beld at Hertford on April 7th, 1890, speruiation was rile as to the measure of surcess it would meet with. Gladuened by a glorious spring day, members came from every divisiou of the county, and the committee dave reason to be satisfied with the resulte, with one exception, the cheery welcome and speeches from ino Dens of St. Albans and other clerical supporters were missed. The Rector of isengeo was the only clecic present, for a brief stay, and Mr. A. Purkiss Ginu, of Hertford, a member of the College Youths. Between 79 and 80 sai down to tea in St. Nicholas' Hall, kindly leut. by the authoritiee of St. Andrew's Church, hefore which they gathered in chureh for a sliort service, conducted by the Rector (the Rev. N. T Gsrdser). He preached from the text ' Go ye, therefore, and tell my disciples," and said thet was the conmission the ringers carried With them as they climbed the steps of their belfries and rang the bells for divine service. He also feelingly referred to the death of Mr. George Gray, of Fertford, who, he said, had done an immensely waluable work for bellringing in Hertford.The busimerg meeting was presided over by the retiring president, Mr. A. E. Coalte, of King's Langley, who recarded his pleasmre derived front his presidency for the past year, and expressed the hope that the meeting would have far-reaching success.
Mr. G. F. Debenham presented the accounts, which showed a credit balance which had increased during the year frome \&1 0s. 2d. to £2 19s. IOd., Lut he explained that, as he had had to drow ex from resntres $f$ a loss on the year of El ons. 4d. had really been incurred. Although receipts from subscriptions had riseu by £4 19s. Gd, this Whs largely accolnted for by the payment of subscriptions in arrearsThe Bemavoinnt Fund showed a credit balance of f25 18s. 3d., bat £2 of this wrs paid nut furing the previous week to a necessitous member. The sum of $8813 \mathrm{~s}, 5 \mathrm{~d}$, staod to the credit of the Voluntary Bell Find, and it was agreed to grant three guiveas from this to the onst of the restoration of the balls of St. Mary's, Hitchin. The treatures exptessed the hope that next year the accounts would be very easy, tor with the increaged subscription and a good set of affieers this was possible.

The stalement was received on the motion of the treasurex, seconded by Mr. D. Mears.
'he secretary prosented his anntial report, which was adopted upon the motion of Mr. G. E. Debenlam, duly seconded, with ifanks.

HON. SECRETARY'S REPORT

In his ammal report the hon. secretary said that of the 50 pesib rung on tower bells, 28 had been Surprise methods, 14 Jnaving been tulag for the first time, which was an acrance on anylhing hitherto bedred. Three peale had been rung upon handbells, Tla forst peals of Erin Cinques and Bob Maximus rung at St. Albans Cathedral constiluted anoiher record. He also drew attention to the great advance mado at the Apsley tower, where peals in 25 and 24 methods had been rung. Tlierc tad been 14 conductors, and seven members lind rung thoir first peal, which was very small. Nearly all the panls have been funt in the western side of the county bot he trusted ere long they would hear of advance being made in the Eastern ard Now they would District mpetions, continued the hon. gecretary, have been numerous, some of which buve been joint with neighboring assowiations, and very usefut work has ben dane both hy this and combined practices. One also walcones the continuance of the short sorvice which the clergy so readily arrange for the meetinge. These simple services, with the homely address, are an inspirntion to the ringers, and form an ahting ink with the clergy.
Our buemleership keeps normal, which is not satisfactory. We need some forward movement anangst the younger memberg of our churches to filf up gaps. It may meed some sacrifice of time, but this always brines compertation if undertaken in the right gpirit. May I comand this thongint to erery tower leader?
At the Inst. Easter meeting, owing to financial restrictions, as resalufion war phased raizing the sultsorption by $6 d$. a year. For 54 years the subscription has remsined at the low level of one shilling: but with incrensed clarges all round, the committee had no other option. As the incrense is only bd. per month, I feel sure you will shoulder this small increase in the interests of the association, and support the domands of your district socretaries at the beginning of each year when they become due.
May I commend to your notice ont Benevolent and Voluntary Bell Funds. Both are most useful adjuncts to our society, and deservo our best support, Aiso, if you are keen, buy 'The Ringing World and hee what others are doing, for we represebt a treat brotharliond. Don't lose sight of this fact. It is vifal for success of ens ringing seciety.

After refersing to the sarions bell reskorations that had taken place during the year and the loss of members by death, the hon. sectetary went on to refer to the exceltent wark of the districh secretarins and expressed great regret that fathing heailh had caused the retircment of Mr. W. H. Lawrence (Eastern Division).
The report gave exiracts from the report of the distriet sectetaries and contained reference to the articles, under 'Leadior Conductorg, whith hare appeared in 'The ritging World," in relation to three members of the essociatiols. It concluded

- Our thaules are to all who have farthered the interests of the essociatiou, not ouly during the past year, but for many yoars. The Cathedral authorities, the incumbents of our willage and towu churches, our honorary mem bers, our district secretaries bat forcetdog the many who keep the beils in riurict rim I tumet that this meetina will send wou forth belt jn with the inspiration to carry on yaur church work as heliriagers with a greater enthusiasm and success. That you will all endeavour to see the loest only in each other, atid not the worsi eide (for we all passess both), and if dissensions do arise, as sometimes they do, get together and put matters straight, eves renvembering your caling, "Warkers together with Him.
Mr. H. Symons, of Hitchin, was alected a member, and confrmation of provisionsl election of Mrs. F. W. Housders and Mrs. P. Himphreys was also agreed to.
Mr. W. Ayre moved tlat the association be responsible for 12 copics tho 'Colloction of Surpribe Major Methods.' Fe pointed out that the sals of the 12 copies would give the association a profit of 38 and that the book would not be advertised for geveral zale untal the arsoniations had the fullest opporthoity of disposing of their coples. Mr. G. E. Deberhmm secanded, and this was agreed to.

THE NEW PEESIDENT.

Mr. G. E. Dehenham proposed that Mr. A. Day, of Harpendem, ha president for the ycar, and in doing so emplasised the capabilities of Mr. Day as at rimgen, together with his great interest in the asaciation. This was scconded by thie secretary and carried unazimously.

Mr. Day, having been invested tuith the badge of office, said the day was tho greatest moment in lis ringing career. His endeavour would be to carry out his dities to the satisfaction of ail, and he mould strive to give his support to the districh secretaries by attending as matay meetings ang porsible.
Mr. G. F. Debenhim was elected treasirer and proposed Mr. G. W. ## DON'T SCRUB YOUR HANDS!

Cleanse and preserve your skin this simple way

To many people, the problem or getting the hands really clean without harming the skin is a serious one. Grease and grime, which become deeply ingrained into the pores of the skin, are extremely difficult to remove, and ordinary washing with soap or even scrubbing will fail to remove them completely. Housewives, particularly, who complain that their hands get ruined by the nature of their work, will find the preparation called DERMAFOAM a real "godsend." DERMAFOAM just smoothes away dirt and grease without effort. It gets right down into the pores and removes every particle of grime, leaving skin beautifully supple and healthy.

Men, too-when you've finished that dirty job on the car, DERMAFOAM will quickly banish all grease and oil from your hands. It acts almost magically-working under and around the nails and into every minute crease, removing all trace of dirt in a flash.

Engineers, Painters, Car Mechanics, Printers - everyone - will welcome DERMAFOAM, the modern method of cleansing and protecting the hands.

'SYNTHETIC' BELLS FOR CHESTERFIELD?

It is not surprising that members of the Midland Counties Association, at their annual meeting, heard with some alarm that a proposal is on foot to use 'synthetic ' bells at the Parish Church of Chesterfield. It seems almost incredible that a church with a ring of ten bells should toy with the idea of installing a gramophone and amplifiers in their place. Chesterfeld is famed for its crooked spire, and it was once the centre of great ringing activity, when the late Arthur Kaights had charge of the belfry. Then came doubts about the stability of the structure; the bells were stopped on the architect's advice, and, as far as ringing is concerned, have been silent for a number of years. A large sum was spent in the restoration of the tower, but still, apparently, consent to ring the bells is withheld. If, now, a gramoplane is to be substituted, well may the people and friends of Chesterfield ask, "Was it for this that we restored our tower?' It can hardly be imagined that when the structure was repaired it was not made safe for ringing, and why the bells are still silent seems to us something of a mystery when there are so many ringers in the district who are anxious to get them groing again.

When the matter was discussed at the Midland Counties Association's meeting, the president expressed the opinion that the proposal was only a suggestion, in view of the known sympathy which the Vicar of Chesterfield has with ringers. We hope that this is all there is in it, and that it will not be for a moment entertained. The installation of the gramophone apparatus would probably be the end of all hopes of any early restarting of the celebrated peal, which have been the pride of Chesterfield. If there are still doubts in the mind of any of the responsible people about the stability of the tower, would it not be a wise plan to call in further advice before the bells are condemned to eternal silence and a 'tinned" substitute employed?

If there is a case for the use of a gramophone and amplifiers at churches which have no bells, there seems to us not the slightest excuse for installing the apparatus where a fine peal of bells aiready exists; and if the scheme is seriously put forward, it is to be hoped that it will be successfully opposed. It would be far better that Chesterfield's own bells should be merely chimed for the services than that alien bells, recorderl on discs, should be broadcast from the church where the celebrated peal hangs mute. When the views of the Midland Counties ringers are put before the Vicar of Chesterfield, we trust they will prevail. What would be interesting to know is exactly why, now that the tower is restored, the bells cannot be rung. Is it that the restoration has not been sufficiently extensive to make it safe to use the bells? Or is it for some other reason? In any case, it would be an extremely unfortunate happening if the suggestion to instal the gramophone, to replace Chesterfield's own bells, were allowed to materialise without the most determined opposition.

NORTH NOTTS ASSOCIATION.

A DIOCESAN GOLLD FOR NOTTINGHAMSHIRE?

Tho 53rd annual meeting of the Nortio Notts Association was held at Ratiord on Saturday, April 15th, when the bells of the three Retiord towors wero at the ringers' disposal during the afternoon and evening. Ringing conmenced at 3 p.m. on the ten ot the Parist Churuh and on the six at Ordsall, but West Retiord was not visited until after tea. The strikigg was weak at first, but with the advent of more talent jt improved and the variety of methods with its. There were about 35 members present and beveral visitore, including the Masterg of three eocieties and the treasurer of one of the tluee.

A short service was held in East Retford Church, which the Vicar (the Rev. D. Jones) conducted, while the Rev. R. F. Wilkinson, of Ordsall, gave a short address. He chose the words, "Be not weary in wall dongs, for his text and mentioned the distractions and substitutions which are constantly being met with. He called for pergonal service fot the cburch, particulanly in the tower where young men should be trained to ring and ring wel!. Not every tower Gourished at any ont time, eaci laving its ups and downs; it was the assoctation's duty to mainiain the balance as ovenly as possible.
Tea followed the service, in the Ehsworth Hall, which the Parish Church suthorities kindy Ient, At the meeting the Rev. D. Janes expressed his refret at not boing able to stiay and preside. The Rov. R. F. Wilkinson therempon proposed a vote of thanks to himand and over tha duties of chairman.
The balasee sheet and report were passed. The sceretary explained certain items on the balance sheet and poimted out that the gurnber of ringing members who had paid their subscription for 1938 had risen by screll to 136 , and all expenses except for printing were down.

WORK SLOWED DOWN

In his report, the sccretary said the association's work appreared to have slowed down sonewhat during 1838 . He had three reasons for making this statement, firstly the attendare at meetings had dropped, secondly the cup contesti faited to materialise, owing to lack of support, and, lastly, fewer towere were having a regular practice might. He apprecinted that evergae seemed to lead a busier life nowalnys, particularly since the National Service schemes had come into operation, but it was regretable that the art all over the country was oll thr wane. There werc, in their own associntion, certain points to offset this, among obhers scveral towers had gained recruits, and ringers hat wisited of her towers to assist learners. However, to those who had nat already done so, be yecommended that (1) the interest, active if passible, of the clergy be obtained: (2) choirlhoys, when their bervices ate no longer required as such (and only theu), be reernited as learners; (3) every ringer obtaing a copy of "Standard Methods" and learas how to read it, and (4) a regulay practica bo held and new methods attempted. The number of peals, the report added, was down to 16 , of which 15 were of Minor and one at Triples. There were five conductors ; the number of first peats was sever; and 21 members zang other "frsts." The secretary urged a larger attendance at neetines, expressed the hope of a good cup contest this year (it is to take place at Cuckney on June 10tb), and concluded by thaning all who had lelped him in the past year.
All the officers were re-elected en bloc for the year 1939-40, and ten now menbers were elected, eight from Worksop Priory, one from Warsog and ane from Sutton.
The Chairman reforred to the question of a Diocesan Guild for the whole of Nottinghamshire. If such a guild were formea, the North Notts Association would form an excellent Nonthern Distriet. However, no resolution was made as to the furtherence of the idea, and the position so far as the association is concermed remains as before.
The Chairman also referred to the sad loss Sutton-on-Trent has sustained in the passing of their popular Yicar, the Rev. W. O. Bates. The association's sympathy went out to the payishioners and ringers of that village
After the meeting ringing continued unti] 9.30 p.m. Minor ant Doubles pealed nut (almost, as regularly as clackwork on occasions) from West Retford and Ordsall, while at Elast Retford Minor (on the hack six to Roral methods, such as Kent, Stedman, Grandsire, Cambridge, Double Norwicl, Dulield, Little Bob and Plain Bob mere rung. Only one touch failed to come into rounds at this tower during the afternoon and evcning; two false starts were due to a misunderstanding and, on the whole, the day's ringiug was thoranghly enjoyable.

SCOTTISH ASSOCIATION.

Tlse annual mecting was held at St. Paults Cathedral, Dundee, oll Saturdey, Appil 15tl. The ring of eight at St. Paul's has recently been relming by Messes. Mears and Siainbank. The Freat improvement in the "go, of the bells was commented on by all present.
The meefing did not attract so many members as usual mainly owing to the lones journey, but 30 wele present. Touchea of Grandsire, Stedman and Erin Triples and Kent Treble Bob were brought round. The Prorast of the Cathedral, the Fery Rer. Sutherland-Graeme, welcomed the ringers and conducted the sarwice.
At the business meeting which followed the ringers from Ergland, Miss Kirton and Mr. E. W. Fates, fomerly of Worsley, were elected members. After tea there was more ringiug at the old steeple.
Mr. Steplhouse, of Liverpool, and Mr. Leach, of York, were visitors.

The meeting of the Bridgwater Branch of the Bath and Wells Diocesan Association ta-morrow is not at Bridgwater as advertised last week, but at Greinton.
Continaing the experiment of mid-week meetings, the Farnमam Districe of the Guildford Diocesan Guild is to hold a mecting at Ash on Wednesday, May 3rd. Thess meetings are primatily for the benefit of those who are unuble to atteod meetings on Saturdayg, and it is Loped they will take advantage of the opportunity.

Miss Sylria Bowyer, of Ipswich, wha et the annual meeting of the Suffolk Guila last Saturday was elected to the committee, is the first ledy to serve the Guild in any official capacity.

A recent report in the "Deily Herald ' that Retty Rayfield, of Eastbourne, was believed to be the only girl beliringer in England, prompted one of the youthful members of the Erith company to write to the paper and point out blat in his band are ibreo girl bellringers, gaged 14, 13 avd 12 years, and five boys, aged 13 (including himself), Who ring regularly each Sunday.
Thers are, in fact, quite a number of young girls now taking their place in the belfries, and anly last Saturday yet another rang her first peal. she was Gladys Willars, and the peal was rumg at South Wigston, Leicestershire.
fiter the anmual meeting of the Midland Counties Associalion at Burton-on-Trent, six very conscientious Leicester members would not deign to wait for the last train home-Nol This would be breaking faith, es they had promised to be home early. Dnforiunately, bowever, the train they boarded took the wrong turning and they arrived at Birmingham, non-stop! Aiter an enforced wait there of over an hour and a baff, a slow train got them to Leicester early-but it was early next morring l
Congratulations to Mr. and Mrs. T. J. Lock, of North Mimms, Herts, upon the birtil of a son and heir. Both the parents are wellknown ringers. Mr. Lock is bon, becretary, having previously been Eingieg Master, of the North and East District of the Midaleser Associetion, and his wife (formerly Miss Kathleen Bradiord) is one of the most accomplished of the lady ringers. Iust before ber martiage she took part in a peal in nime spliced Surprise Major methods at Witlesden
Mir. W. A. Stoke, of Coventry, one of the N.U.T.S. has now rang in over one thousand towers. 'Collecting' new bowers is his hobay, and, as Mr. Stote is only 31 years of age, be has bean quite busy. If you don't believe it, ring in 500 lowers and then see what it means to add every hundred efterwards.
After the meeting of the Midilesex Association in London on saturday, an informal meeling of the Ladies' Guild was found in progresa in another place. Under the circumstances, no oflicial communique wes issued, or expected, when the conference broke up, but it is not anlikely they discussed the failings of the men.
The continued pressure on our space, owiug to the large number of meetings recently held, makes it again necessary to hold over a number of Teports.

ST MARTINS GUHLD

INNOVATION AT ASTON MEETHNG.
A very enjoyable quarterly meeting of St. Martic's Guild for the Diocese of Birmingham wes held at Aston Parish Church on Satarday, Aprit lat. Abont on members and frieuds attended and enjoyed ringing on the peal of twelve bells in various methods daring the afternoon and again in the evening. At 5 a'clock an adjournment was made to the Parish Room, wnere an excellent meat tea was partaken of.

The Guild's form of service in cluuch was dispensed with and instead the assembied company was addressed by the Ficar, the Rev. In, MeGowan, immediately after tea. He firgt welcomed them to Aston and then proceeded to give a short homily on the season of Holy Week, which commenced the next dey, and what Christ's attitade would be to many of the world's troubles to-day.

In the absence of the Mreter (Alderman J. S. Pritchett), the Vicar presided at the business meeting which followed. Messts. J. W. Smith and C. W. Cooper, both of St. Thomas' tower, Stonrbridge, wers elected life members, and Messrs. J. Fifield, of Coleshil!, and J. D. Pratt, of Perry Bart, as country members.

It was decided to hold the zext quarterly meeting on Saturday, July Ist, at Sutton Coldield, and the bi-quarterly on May 13th at Knowle.

Tho hon. secrefary Mr. T. H. Reeves) proposed a hearty vote of thanks to the Aston ringers, who had very kindly defrayed the cost of the tee; to Mr. W. Davies for the excellent mrraggements made: and to the ladies, ringers' wives and friends who hed so ably arrenged and served it.
Owing to the absence of Mr. Devier, who was in bed with an attack of infuenza, Mrs. Davies suitably responded.

Mr. A. Paddon Smith, in proposing a vote of thanks to the Vicar for the use of the bells and his eddress, referred to the innovation of doing without the service in church. He often thought it unreasonable to ask the clergy to arrange a gervice for a mera handful of ringers. On this occasion thero wis quite a good number present, but, even 50 , the charge was a good one. Fe thanked the Ficar for his interestime and helpful address.
This cancluded the meeting, but before returning to the tower for furtber ringing, several good touchea were ruag on the bandbelle, including one of Stedman Cinques.

LEADING CONDUCTORS-68.

GEORGE E. FEIRN

Sowe conductors are bork and mot made, and one such is sutely Mr George E. Feirn, nas of Grasby, Lincoln, who, still only 25 years o ege, has shown un apitude that few can clame. He raug his frst peal only a lirtie ove sis years ago, but je has conducted peals of Minor with up to 53 methods in seven extelts, in the tower, and up to 19 methods in huud, hon also a peal in six spliced plain methods on handbells. Thuse are performances which speak for themselves. He is awother of the men who are putting Lincalnsinice in the verg forefront and one of those for whom the most dificult of ringing tasks eeen to be child's plaf. For example, the first peal of Original Major ever tung witl fourtin's place bobs he composed and called on liandbells from an inside pair. And there were 780 bobs! Men who ean do such things are rare.
Mr. Feirn was born at Bigby on April 10th, 1914, and took up ringing at Bighy tower towards the end of 1951 . He rang his first peal on December 10 th , 1832. This was four extents of Kent Treble Bob and illiree of Plain Bob.
His first peal as conductor wes one of Bob Minor ou band bells, Tung on Juno 22ad, 1933 , and his first in the tower was two days later at Bigby, when be called a peal in three zaethods. Now his penls. which range from Bob hinor 10 stedwanth 29 have been on handwellich 29 have been on hand-

MIDLAND COUNTIES ASSOCIATION.

Association. Chertertimet was a famous tower not only for its wique crooked spire, but also for the record number of peals rung on the bells tbereiu, especially during the timo of the late Mr. Arthur Knights and his cnergetic hand. The bells were silenced some years ago owing to the tower being deemed unsafe, but now that this defect bad been remedied, surely some means aould be brought about for the bells to be rugg in a proper manner, and not to have this zuechanical contrivance installed. Whels was abborrent to atl real lovers of bells. Mr. Siduey Palmer spoke at leagth on the matter, and said that as soon as he saw the article meationed he had passed it on to the president of the Central Coancil end requested him to do all in bis power to avert such a catastrophe, He urged all present to add all their weigit in as strong a protest as possilite, and he would do all in his power to prevent this auggeated scheme being put into action. Mr. Futchinson, of Saviey, also spoke in condemation of such a clicrne.
Mr. W. E. Winte explained that a few years ago a committee of the M.C.A. had met the Archdeacon of Cheaterfield and the churchwardens. Mr. E. H. Lewis lad also taken up the matter with regard to having the bells restored, but as the thon architect had deemed the spire unsafe for a swinging peal, pothing further lad been done.
The President said lae also saw the article mentioned, but pat quike a different construction on the mafter to that of the previous speakers. He promised to have a word personally with the Archdeacon about jt because be knew him to be quite sympathetic with the bellingers and thair side of the question, and that he was most saxious to have the bells rung. This not being, at the moment, deemed possible, he had simply suopested this scheme of graniophone records.
This concluded the meeting. The association handbells were then thed to advantage, while further tower-bell ringing and a convivia] ofterwards terminated a very successfil day's outing-

MIDLAND COUNTIES ASSOCIATION.

ELECTION OF NEW PRESIDENT.

Chesterfield Tower Threatened With Gramophone.

The andual meeting of the Midiand Counties Association wes beld, following the usual rota, at Burton-ott-Treat on Fagter Monday. Taking advantage of the glorious weather, a large number of members and l'menda arrived at an enrig hour and inept the bells of St, Paul's (10), Rolleston-on-Dove (8) aud Winahill (6) going thoughout the day. A variety of methods ware rung to suit all comers, aud, cenerally speaking, the striking was not too Dad. The committee met in the Vieni's Room of 5L. Yaul's Institute, ard, in the abserice of Mr. J. Oldham (vice-president), the chair was taken by Miss I. B. Thompgon, supported by 20 committeemen.

The usual routine duties were cerricd through and it was pointed out that the sub-committee had ajpioved of suilable dessin for special association badges. Hhe matter now rests in the hands of the secretary to get libe design redrewn and estimates fol badges in ailver and bronze.

The annual repolt had been printed and was now in circulation. Four places were chosen to lay before the general meetiog to decide on three for quarterly meetings, and ili was proposed that a by-meeting be held at Staveley in May to revive interest in, and appoint new local officers for, the Chesterfield district.

It was also decided to support the Contral Cowncil's appeal in the matter of the publication of Surprise Major methods.
Tea followed in Sb, PauI's Institute, whet about 100 memberg and friends sut down to an excellent jepast. At the subrequent meeting apologies for Blisence were read from tie vice-pres ident (#1. J. Oldam, of Loughbohough) and mombers of the Kelhaz Theological Collece band. All districts of the associstion were represelsted, viz. Burton, Chegterfield, Derby, Hinckley, Leicester, Lourghorough and Nottingham. Many non-resident members and friend were welcomed, iacludiny Mr, S. Fi. Palmer (how. treasarer of Yorkshire Assaciation), Mr. J. Brothwell and Miss Brotjwoll, wild Mr. N. Cheddock, of the Shefield District Society, and Friendis from Birmiuthmm, Wolverhamptos, Kottering, Hulton Latimer and eisewhere. The mambers were also delighted to have with them the Rev. Canon H, E, Fitzherberb, of Derbr, the Rew. W. R. Lloyd Jones, of West Iallann, sud the Res. A. W. Fathergill, of Slarnford, Hinckley.

The Rev. Canon H. 色. Fitzherbort of Derby, wis unanimousty elected preaident and was received will scclemawion. He said that Mr. Ferguson, of Ropton school, would liave been more fitted for the position, being a practical ringer, but his duties made it fiffichit for him to aftend meetings, and so he had to withiraw lis nominationAlthongla he (Canon Fitzherbert) had not the practical gift of being a ringer, he bad, simee lis ordination, been fortunate enumpli to have been conncted with churcher where there were keen bands of rimgers, nnd he particutariy recalled lappy memories of both Motherseale and Oversenle and the great enthusiesm of his ringers there. He would do all he could to further the art and for the association's welfare.

MR. COLIN HARRISON ELECTDD VICEPRESLDENT.

Fov the post of vice-president, Mr. Colin Harrison, of Loughborough,
 White, of Gotgrase, Xottq, and general loon. secrettry, Mr. Ereest Morris, of Leicester, were re-clected. Fach of the shree last named thanked the menberm for their confidence and support, and pronised to do all in their power for the association's welfare and prosperity.
Foting for four representatives on the Central Council ind meanwhile been taken by ballot; there having been six nominations. It resulted in the Eollowing being elected: Mr. A. A. Harris (Leicester), Mr. J. H. Swinfield (Burton), Mr. Paul I. Taylor (Loushborough) and Mr W. E. White (Cotgravel.
Once again $a$ good Jist of new members was presented, and 21 ringing, four rejoins, two howorary and two life were duly elected. The anmurl report and balence sheot were passed on the proposition of Mr. C. Harrison, geconded by Mr. P. L. Tarlow (anditors). The general hon. secretary npologised for the jatencss of its isste to members this being entirely due to the printer's delay and no faull of the facal or general secretaries.

The Pragident stated that they were delighted to hase witis then two of the origisal members of the association, who joined at iss juception in 1882-57 years ago. Ho congratulated then and trustea? they would contitue to be with bhem for mony yenrs jeh to eome.
Mr. J. Griftin and Mr. J. Jaggar, the "Youngsters' pamed, bath briofly replied, and eome merrjment was oaused when Mr. Jaggar got up, turned to bis old friend and asked, "What slall I tell them, Jop?
Places for next quartery meetings were decided upon as followe Bakewell, June; Newark, September; Earl Shilton, January, 1940. A DISTURBTNG REPORT.
Mr. A. J. Harris rased an intereating and, at, the same tinye, very disturbing matter ilat had been brought to lis notict. It was an artscle in the "Shefficid Daily Telerrapli" relative to the suggested installation of amplified gramophome recotds of bells in the tower of Chesterfield Parish Chumeh. It was with deep concern he had received this newe, and he stressed most strongly the peed that this matter be taten up by the Central Cotucil and members of the Mjdand Counties (Continued in previous column.)

MIDDLESEX COUNTY ASSOCIATION.

ANNUAL MEETING IN THE CITY.
The City of London was the scene of the munal meeting of the Hiddleser County Assaciation and Leadon Diocesan Gaild on Saturday, and the focal point was St. Botolph's, Bighopagate. Hbout hundred members atiended aud there was no lack of ringing in the ariternoon and evcuing. In addition to Bishopsgate bells, the twelve at St. Giles', Cripplegate, and the eights at St. Lawreace Jewry and Sk. Olave's, Hurt Street, were made full use of.
Servive at st. Dotolpn's was comducted by the Rector (the Rev. P. D. Ellis), who gave a striking address based upon the symbolism of the spire and the tower. The president (Prebendary W. P. Cole Slieane) also took part in the service.

Later he presided tht the business meeting, which followed tea, and was supported by the Reetor of St. Potolph's, Mr. 3. A. Trollope and Mr. G. W. Fietcher (vice-presidenta), Mr. C. T. Coles (bon. secretary), Mr. W. H. Oram (hout treasurer) and other officers of the association,

The president first, thanked the Rector of St. Botolph's, who had to lears early, for the servico and his address, aud also for the use of the bells.

MEMBERSFIP DECREASE

The amual repert, noted with sntisfaction a considerable improvement in the attendances at meetings in both districts, and, referring to the joint meeting at shoreditch in October with the Royal CumberInud Youths and the Essex Association, wieu some 80 ripgers attended said it was the first occasion an whivh the ascociation had co-operated in this way with one of the two oldest of the London societies, and the success of the meeting gave much hope for the future. But while the increased support given to meetings caused some satislaction, there was still congiderable room for improvement, 'Too often,' said the report, "it is only the "regulars " who attend, and it is quite apparent that some members never take that trouble. We repeat what we sid last year, "If every member made a point of attending at least one meeting per vear, what a difference it woutd make-especially to thelr

own ringillg

The report proceeded: "Our memberslijp again shows a deerease. We regret that three members have beez lost by death, whilst again a large number have had to be deleted from the baoks through nonpayment of sutuseriptions. Mosk of these occur in the Soutt and West District, fut dit the balance slucet of that district actually shows an increase in income, it is to be hoped that we have reached the stage when no further teletions need be made. Only by a great effort, however, on the part of all members, can this district again attain its former prosperiky. The munber of new members elected duriag the vear was two lonoraty and 58 ringing memberg, and the tolal on tho books st the end of the year was 856.

We aro giad to report some progress ab St. Mathew's, Upper Clapton, where an onlirely new bund has bena formed, which is receiving instruction from Mr. G. A. Pursons. There has also been a considerable actuisition of members at Eamontoy and Enfield (St. Mary's). Several members of the SL, Dunstan's, Stepaey, band have joined us, and we give these lalented liugers a sincere and hearty elcome to the nssociation.
Duriag 1938 exactly 50 peals there rung, in increase of 15 on the previous yewr. Of theae, four were rung on bandbells, and 46 on tower bells in 28 diferent towers. Eight members rang theiz first puals; four their firsi haudbell peals; 68 their first peals in a new method oz on a different muntber of bells; whilst 142 members in all took part in the peals. Thero were 17 conductors, Fhere was a slight increase is the quarter-puals rung, but further improvemenc is still possible. The Soutlgate band again headed the list, both in numbers und in variety of melhods, all thess quarier-peals being rupe for Sunday services. This Heston band, too, had done very well with trelve yupter-peals.
The seport went on to express regret of the associaion at loting the valuable services of Mr. G. R. Goodship, who has left the county for business reasnos. After a pertod of mine years as assistant hon.
sectary, he hecame hon. secretary of the Noith and East District last year. He also did very, good work at Harrow Weald, where lie formed and thught a new band with mach success. It was mainly through his efforts that the peal at that chturch was amgmented to pight a few yesrs ago. "We desire, said the report, 'to place ont recard nur sincere appreciation of his services to the pssociation, and wigh bim success in his new career.'

CHANGES LN OFETCERS.

The report went on do refer to the various changes whicls had taken place anong the offecrs, both in the districts and by the roorganisnthon of the association, and expressed thanks to those who had rendered valuable service in the past, including Mr. T. Collins and Mr. W. H. Oram, the district treasurers, whose offices lave now lapsed. FThe repori enmeluded: We bare ngein to express our indehtedoess to Mr. C. T. Coles for his services as honotary secretary. Mr. Coles long term of offee must, in the nature of things, he digwing to jts close, but we hope to keep him for some time yet. The success of the association has depended very much on the work he liss done for us, and its continnance depends largely on our finding a successor who will carry on the wort in the same spirit.'

The report was adopted on the motion of the hon, secretary, who emphasised tha utmost importance of the prompt payment of members

Under the reorganisation scheme the Central Fund recaived the whole of the balances from the two districts, and the hon. treasurer (Mr. W. H. Oram) presented the statement, which showed regeipts amounting to $99716 s .2 d .$, mado up of 22411 s . 7 d . brought forward, £50 4s. 6 d . received from the Nortli and East District and e13 0s. Id. from the South and West District. The expenses emounted to 22815. 10d, leaving a balance in hand of $E 69$ 14s. 4d. In addition to this amount, the balsace Eheet showed other assets of $27513 s .8 \mathrm{~d}$. 3 . per cent. War Loan Stock and £16 7s. 104, in ibe Bell Restoration Fund transferred from the Soulin and West District.

The accounts were adopted.
Prebendary W. P. Cole sheane was re-elected president, amid applause, and the active vice-presidents, Mr. G. W. F'letcher and Mr. J. Armiger Trollope, ware also re-elected.

Mr. Fletcher expressed regret at the resignation of Mr. A. W. Coles from the Mastership of the assocjation. Mr. Coles, he said, had intimated that, as his work had tuken him out of London, it wos very difficult for him to ettend to the affairs of rlae association. The Central Committee, therefore, felt with regret that they must accept the resigration, as it would not be fair to ask Mr. Coles to carry ou under the circumstances. He had served the association as Mastcr since 1935 and served them very well indeed. Before that be was District Master in the North and Bast District, and the members of that district knew ful! well the excellent work he did, includiug teaching bands at. St. Giles-in-the-Fields and St. Jamese, Clerkenwell. They were all gratefu] to Mr. Coles for the work he harl done through so mauy yars. They felt they could not let the opportunity go by withaui showing him they apprecinted what he had done, and lo (Mr. Fetcher) propesed that Mr. Coles be elected an honaraty life member of the association (applause). That wes the least they could do and it was the only thing they were permitted to do under the rules (applause).

NJW MESTER

The motion leving been carried, Mr. Fletcher zlien proposed the elaction of Mr. Harry Kilby, of Willesden, as Master. Mr. Kilby had all the attributes for tha offee. He lad been member of the association fot 30 years, and mithough le liad not hitherto beld ofice he thought that was ouly because the associution bad not enlled upon bims
Mr. E. C. S. Turmer seconded and said he had known Mr. Kilhy ever since be (Mr. Turner) started ringing, nad he felt sure le would make a very good Master- - ${ }^{4} h \mathrm{me}$ molion was arried with applause, and Mr. Killy, ecknowledging his election, said le would endeavour do his best.
Mr. W. H. Oram was elected bow, treasurer, ald Mr. C. T. Coles, acknowledgiyg his re-election as hoy. secretary, said that was his $29 t h$ year of office and would be his last ('No'). Ho eld intimate to the eommittee that he would like to resign this Fear, but thave bad been several alterations in the offlers, especialy th the districts, and he consented to go wn for another year. He delanitely intended to retire mext year. Will that in prospect the commitice consitlered it would be advisable to appoint an assistant gecretary with a view to carrying on. He thought the commithee's choice was a good one and had much pleasure iu proposing Mr. E. C. S. Turner as assistant bors. secvotary (applase). Mr. Kilhy seconded and the motion was carried.
Mr. G. W. Fetaber tras appainted audilaz, Xessrs. Oram, C. T, Coles and Turcer trustees, and Messrg. C. T. Coles, G. W. Fletcher, J. E. Lewis Cockey aud W. G. Wilson represcutatives on the Gentral Council.
In recognition of their peast services to the association, Mr. F. W. Goodfellow (who thal filled affices since 1929) and Mr. G. B. Lucas (who has betved on the Central Committee sirice 1897 and was for many years Master of the North nad East District) were elected honorary life members.
The new members elected were Messis, F. C. Shorter and G. W, Fogden (St, Lawrence Jewry), A. J. W. Hughes (Streathau), P. Bond (Brasted), A. Jarvis and G. W. Cecil (St. Dunsian's, Stepney).

On the motion of the hon. secretary, it was decided to expend a sum mof exceeding ${ }^{2} 2$ in the purchase of copies of the Central Couycil's mroposed mew book ons surprise methods. which is to be published at. 3 s.
It was decided to hold the next anuual meeting at St. Mary's. Acton,

ATTENDLNCE AT MEETINGS.

Duder "otice busjoess, Mr. Fletchey suid Jooking at the report, ho was struck by the number of nembers they had, lut looking at the atteadences at dietrict mestings he was very struck with the lack of enthusigsm shown lby some members. He felt that overy member ghould attend at least one mecting a rear-ilhat was the minimumand at the next meeting of the North and East District ho should propose that they keep a register of attendances, so that they might be able to see who attended and who did not.
Mr. G. L. Joyce said, if they kept the register, and found out who did not attend, what was wile district going to do ahout it? He thought they should offer some inducement to members to attend the ineetings. It wonld be interesting to hear what could be done to make the meetings more interesting

Mr. T. J. Lack thoughi they could get some valuable inforation from a register. It would be a guide as to where interest in the assamiation lay and eaable them to endeavour to create interest where it did not exist.
Mr. J. E. L. Corkey said an attendance hook was already kept in the South and West District, and the information had been ased in (Continued on next page.)

dzawing up the report．Personally，he would be prepared to go into it further
Mr．C．W．Raberts arged that learmers shauld be excouraged to do more in the way of starlying methods at fonse and gelting practiee before they came ta district meetings．The distriet meetiugs would then tre of greater advantrge to them．
After furtber discossion，in which Mr．E．Holna日n suggested in－ structional courses for begunvers，Mu，Fletciliey suggested that further consideration should be refered to district meetings，and this course was adopted．
Reference was made to the recent dealh of Mr．Arthur Knighto，of Chesterfield，who was a member of the association．Mr．J．A．Trolippe said most of the youngrer people only lnew Aythur Knights by reputa－ tion．He was a maz who，for 50 years or more，had held a position as one of the leading comprokers．He was well on in Jears when he died and was held tn honour．＇We sometimes，＇said Mr．Trollope， sda not altagether realise the deht we，as an Exercise，owe to the men Who have worked with a sirrgleness of mind ror the good of ringing end without very much expertatjon of credit or reward．They investio gate some of those things which are not fully usderstood and give The Erercige the advantage of what they have done in the highest parts of comprsition．It is ton often thought these things just come，some－ how，but Astlur Knights unst have spent ans enormons amount of timo and trovble in huvestigation，and he is one of those men we，as ringerg，ate entitled to be prond of．＂

The members stood in sileace for a few moments as a mark of respect．

The President proposed a vote of thanks to the incumbents of the churches where bellg kad been placed at the disposal of the members， and to the respective steepiekeepers，especially Mr．J．E．Davis at St． Botalph＇s．

The meeting then terminated with thanks to the Editor of＂The Ringing world for his presence，and to the chairman for presiding and his many kindneases throughout the year．

PEAL NOTES.

FATE THEY RTNNG A PEAL

Five Crilompton (Devon) ringers and one from Tiverton rang their IIrst peal' on Aprit 10th, wien a peal of Doubles was brought round on whe back eight of Cullonpton's fine ring of ten, with $46-8$ coverngy: W'e do not want in the least to detract from the performance of any of these ringers or to damp the encouragement which this peal may have given them, but as a matter of principle it would be interesting ho know if it can be snid that two ringers who strike over one bell 5,040 times can strictiy be said to hare rung a pean. hecame others hare done ft before them, but it does raise asain tho doubt which exists in some prople's minds.

Three local men at Lympstone, Devon, also rang their first peal, on April $15 t_{1}$, when they took part in 42 six-scores of grandsire Doublee.
Mr. H. W. Lidbetter a ringer at Isleworth, Middlesex, is moving to Acle, Norfolk. A peal of Stedman Triplos was rumg in his olk towet a April 15th as a farewell.
Mr. Arthur liverett ealled a peal of St. Ctement's Colicge Bob Major from the treble at Boreham, Essex, on Easter Mosday, apd thus omplated the circle" at this towner
The silver jubilee of the jnstallation of the bells at Cumbaey, Notes, wns celeluated on April 9th by a peal of Minor whicle was also a complinent to Mr. Upex. on completing 16 years as verger and towerkecper.
Intil April 15th a peal had not been rung at Addinglam, Yorkshire, for 27 years. A peal in three Minar methods hnoke the spell, and the band wish to thank all those who made this peal possible, and purtieularly Mrs. Mitchell, of Crofi House, for entertajning then to tea after the peal.
To enable three brothers, Reginald Hill, of Shotley, Ipswich, Ravmond Hill, of St. Margarets, Lcicester, aud Jolin Fill, of St. John's, Luecester, to ring a peal together, a peal of Grandsire Triples wh- arranged at St. Margarel's and rumg on tho light elght an April 75th. The long and the short of jt were io be seen side by side in this peal 'Big-hearted arthur,' orev 6ft. of brawn and muscte, on the seventh, and diminutive 15 -year-old Jolin Hill on the tenor. Two of bite brothers rang their firsi peal on cight bells and the ather his first peal of Triples.

a Jubilee

An interegting unniversary was celebrated at Worsley, Lancaskixe, on $\Delta$ pril 17 th , when a peal of Donhle Norwich Major was rung it honour of the jubilee of the first peal in the method rulig in Lancashitre on April 8th, 1889. That carly performance was achieved by the Worsley company, and in the commemoration peal were two sons and a grandson of members of the original company, aud the same composition was rung.
When a band met short for a peal of Spliced Treible Babs at South Kirkby, Yorks, on Easter Monday, one of the local ringers Mr. A. Ĺ. Hartison, was pressed into service at a minute's notice and rang his fist peaj at the first attempt. A penl of Bob Minor was substituted for the Spliced Treble Pob, and aithough he has not called a peal of Bot Minor betore, the coaductor, Mr. Danicl Smith, was not ati a loss. He called seven different extents, which, between them, contained 49 bolss and 144 singles, one 720 contaiving 42 singles.

Owing to the late arrival of one of the band for a peal at quorm, Leicestershire on Thursias, April 20tb, it was unfortunate that the anticipated Major metlod had to he cat out. Fowever, with what time was left at their disposal the haud guickly rang a peal of Stedmaf Triples (2 hours 40 minates). Mr. William Bottrill very nobly uadertook the calling. He had only called this first peal of Stedman a few weeks ago.
The preal of London Surprise Minor at Apsley End, Herts, on April $101 h^{\prime}$, when five of the bard ravg their first peal in the method, was specially arranged as a birthdey compliment to the conductor (Mr. W. J. Randall), as a wedding anyiversary peal for Mr, and Mrs. W. Ayre and Mr. and Mrs. A. F. Good, and to celebrate the jubilee of the diocese of Chelmsford, which formerly belonged to the diocese of St. Albans.
Mr. and Mrs. Wilitam Clarke, of Deeping St. Tames, Lincolnshire, have just celebrated their silver wedding and a peal of Surprise Minor in honour of the event wes rudg on April 10th. Mr. Clarke is a regular eervice ringer at St. James
Mr. Fired Stokes, the popular hou. secretary of Lincoln Diocesan Guild, rang his 200th peal on Saturday, when be took part in a peal of Stedmars Triples at Harmston, Limes.
The newly eppointed secretary of the Western Branch of the Worcestershire Association (Mr. Fa, F. Cubberley) arhieved his first peal of Minar by riuging the treble to a seven-method peal at his own tower at Kempery on Saturday week. Afterwards lie entertained the band to ten, which was wuch appreciated.

Having rung their first 720 of Kent Treble Boff for early celebration on Faster Day, and the first in the method on the bella, five lacal ringers at Farston. with Mr. G. W. Cook as conductor, rang their firkf. peal in the method on Saturclay week
The quarterly peal of the Hereford District of the Fereford Diocesan Guild was rimg on April 15 th at Holme-Lacy. It whs Grandsire Tripies and one ringer rang his first peal at the first attempt and another lis first of Grandsive Triples on an "juside" hell.

FASEX SPLICED MINOR RECORD.

St. Andrew's Guild, Earls Colne, ias put up the Spljced Minor acord of the Essex Ascociation to 34 methods, which were Tung in geven extents at Stisted on Saburday week. There were 13 methods in one 720 and 142 changes of method in the peal.
Another peal of Spliced Minor on the same day was that at 'raxal, Chashire, whero 29 Treble Bob methods were rung

Mr. J. G. Nash was another to ring his 100th Surprise peal on Saturday week. This hedid at Bocking, Essex, when a peal of London was rung, which was Messrs. Fred Ridgeweli and Frank Claydon's 100f. peal together.
Messrs. Mears and Stajnbank insialled the ring of eight at Gray: shott in 1931, but it was not natil Saturday week that eny attempt wes made for a peal there. The vilage of Grayshott in in Surey, but the church is in Hampslire, the centre of the road which passes the church being the county boundary. The parish is in the diocese of Guildford, but for good and sufficient reasons the peal of Super ative was rung for the Witchester and Portsmouth Diocesan Guild.
Alter the preal the Ficar (the Rer. E. (G. Ireland) uame to the ringing chamber, congratunated the ringers and generously offered to provide a boatd recording the merformunce. For this kindness and for the use of the hells he was cordially thanked.
At Bletcliley, Bucks, on April 15th, a peal ul Grandsire Triples wis ung by the Sunday service riogers at the Parish Church,
After an interval of nearly ging years, another peal has been rung on the fine ring of eight at Southgate, Midulesex. There have been difficulties in getting permission, but we hopo it will not be as long before the next is rugg
It is gratifying to note thint the ice lias been broken by the local band, for they were all Sumday service ringers who took part in the peal of Cambridge on April 15ti. Some of them, lowever, seem to be getting a wee bit towards "the sero and yellow leaf" for the average age of the bard is 60. But perhaps it is mot really as bad as it fooks, for one of them, Mr. David Wright, formerly of Croydon, who jomed the Southgate Society twelve months ago, is 78 gears young. If was Mr. John Armstrong's 250th peal and jins 100th Surprise peal. Three Evershot (Dorset) ringers rang their first peal of Triples on April 15th, when with their conductor, Mr. Dennis Pishop, who called his first peal other thar Doubles, they took part in a peal of Grandsire at Bradpole.

LONG SERVICE

Mr. Hary Dickens has completed 53 years as a service ringer at the Parish Church at Efreat Bedworth, Cheshire, where he is 10 w towerkeeper. In his bonour the first peal of Stedman on the bells was rung on Saturday week.
Allother riager with over half a contury of service at one church is Mr. W. A. Fitehford, captain of the tow'er at Wolstanton. StaffordEhire, where he has been a ringer for 53 years. He is one of the foremost inslructors in Staffordshire. On Friday week a pesl of Grandsire Triples, to which he rang the treble, was rung in his honour and as a birthday compliment to Mr. W. Wyluern, churchwarden, on his 70tls birthday. Faxcept for Mrs. F. Milan and Mr. G. E. Kettle, who belong to Newcestle, Staffs, the band who rang the peat are eervice ringers at Wolstacton.
Mr. Fred Hickling, an original member of Sit Arthur Heywood's celchrated baud at Duffield, lias receutly died, and a bali-muffled peay of Grandsire Triples had been arranged as a last token of respect. The band, however, wet shott, and a pead of Bob Minor, with the tenor covering, was substituied, on April 15th.
The first Surprise peal by the-Jocal band at Jeatherhead was ring on April 15th, when Cambridge Surprise was rang in honour of the wedding earlier in the day of thie Rev, $P$. W. Istell-Carpenter, for 2 years curate of Leatherlead. and Miss Manier-williams, By a coincidence it mas Mr. George Marriner's 250 Hly peal and Mr'. A. H Winch's 250 th peal in Surrey as well as his 5hth peal on the bells.
The notes to the peals rung in the Bristol district and recorded last week need correction. The compasition of the Double Norwich should have been given ag containing in each part a courge with S1 S3 S5 B8 and not with four singles as printent. The peal at Berkeley was a 5,040 , not a 5,008 . The time of the peal at Clevedou was 2 lours 56 minutes. In justice to the conductor (Mr. Nolen Golden), we should gay that lie was not responsible for bending in the reports and the errors were not his.
The ringer of the treble in the peal at Sherburn-in-Emet on April 10th was Horace S. Morlev, not Worsley as printed
In tha report of a peal of Kent freble Bob published lest week, Narton-in-Hales was fiven as in Staffordshire 'A Salopian in Exile" informs us that it is in Shropshire, the river Tern, fowing near by, formig the comety boindary.

DON'T SERUB YOUR HANDS!

Cleanse and preserve your skin this simple way

To many people, the problem or getting the hands really clean without harming the skin is a serious one. Grease and grime, which become deeply ingrained into the pores of the skin, are extremely difficult to remove, and ordinary washing with soap or even scrubbing will fail to remove them completely. Housewives, particularly, who complain that their hands get ruined by the nature of their work, will find the preparation called DERMAFOAM a real "godsend." DERMAFOAM just smoothes away dirt and grease without effort. It gets right down into the pores and removes every particle of grime, leaving skin beautifully supple and healthy.

Men, too-when you've finished that dirty job on the car, DERMAFOAM will quickly banish all grease and oil from your hands. It acts almost magically-working under and around the nails and into every minute crease, removing all trace of dirt in a flash.

Engineers, Painters, Car Mechanics, Printers - everyone - will welcome DERMAFOAM, the modern method of cleansing and protecting the hands.

THE CENTRAL COUNCIL'S WORK.

The business before the Central Council at the meeting, to be held in the Guildhall, Westminster, on Whitsun Tuesday, judged by the agenda published in our last issue, will consist largely of elections and reports, but that is not to say the meeting will not be an interesting one. It is, of course, unusual to find not a single notice of motion entered for discussion; it has seldom happened before, but it would seen that the position that has now been reached is that the art of ringing, so far as it needs guidance or ruling, has practically settled dowa to a level which, if it does not please everyone, at least meets with very wide acceptance, aud complics generally with the requirements which modern advances demand. There are, at the moment, no outstanding questions upon which opinion is sharply divided, as it was on some subjects a few years ago. Indeed, there must come a time when, on the technical side of ringing, at any rate, there is little to discuss. Probably that position has now been reached.

On the other hand, however, there are matters of general interest which are of no little importance to the future of the art, and there is no place where they can be better ventilated, in the hope of obtaining representative views, than at a meeting of the Council. The range of subjects in this respect has by no means been exhausted, and, although the Council is only an advisory body, it can speak with collective wisdom and authority. But as far as the London meeting is concerned nothing is on the agenda for discussion.

The meeting, however, bas much business to transact. It is on this occasion that the triennial elections of officers and committees take place, and there is a very considerable list of committees' reports for consideration. These things alone may well produce a full session of business, although it is almost impossible to forecast how much discussion these reports will produce. What is weil to remember, however, is that the most important part of the work of the Council is embodied in these reports. The Council meets for a few hours once a year; the committees are active throughout the year, and some of them almost week by week. The reports themselves seldom reveal the time and labour which individual members of the committees put into their task which, be it not forgotten, is not merely in the interests of the Council, but for the ultimate benefit of the Exercise at large. This is a fact that is often overlooked by many ringers. The work of the committees is never spectacular, but the labours of those who have served on them have, through the years, raised the standard of ringing to a degree not

A TWELVE-BELL RECORD

Recent 'searching Willisin P. Garrett, of Maximat lpswich, bas the highest total of peals of Groun asd he added another on Saturday, which spought the number to 101 . But what makes this record more conand that Mr. Garrett lias taken part in the first peal of every Surprise Maximus method that has beer rung.
Saturday's peal of New Canbridge was called by Mr. Albert Walker, of Birmingham, who rang his first peal in the method on twelve hells Mr. Frayk simallwood, of Bath, returned to Ipswich for the occasion to see that the job was properly done.

A ringer from the four-bell tower of Goxhill, Lincs, Mr. Septimus Neave, rang his first peal on Easter Monday when be took part in seven Mincr extents in two methods at Bartomoon-Humber-a peal rong for the 28th anniversary of the induction of the Vicar, Camon W. E. Varah.

WORCESTHRSHIRE BAND'S FINE PERTORMANCE.

The Worcestershire band, with Mr. Sid Holt as conductor, has achieved another success in surprise ringing by scoring their first peal in aight splicedे Major methods. It was rung at Brierley Hill on Baturday, after an attempt, made without any pravious practice a fortnight ago, which failed after 2 hours 10 minutes' ringing.

The baad had previously rung perls in four, five and six methods. Their chief dificulty lies in the fact that they are an extremeiy scaltored party and cannot meet for practice. The conductor lives in Worcester, Messrs. Matthews and Bass in Sitourbridge, Cartwright and Stanley in Birmingham, Skimore and Hemming in Brierley Bill, and Camm at Uptollon-severn.
Members of the Kent Courty Association raug a peal of Superlative Surprise at Beckenham on April 27 th in honeur of St. George's Day. They wish to associate Mr. W. J. Rawliugs with the peal. After getting everything in readiness, be could not take part, owing to pressure of busimess, and his place was taken by Dennig Brown, who scored his first peal in the method at the firsw attempt.
The peal of Sob Minor at Davanbam on April 10 oth was Mr. Harry Howard's 50th peal for the Chaster Diocesan Guild.
The peal of Stedman Triples reported last week as rung at Great Bedworth. Cheshire, was rlug at Great Budworth.
T.R.H. the Duke and Duchass of Gloucester wisited Southampton on April 26 th to open the Art Gallary. whinch completes the magnificent yew Civic Centre. A peal of Stedman Caters was rung ats St. Mary's Church is honowr of the event, and the band inoluded five visitors from the diocese of Guildford. What was more notatle was tive fact that two of the Winchester and Portsmozth Gaild half of the band included two one-armed ringers, J. W. Faithfull and G. Pullinger. Tha treble was Fung lyy the oldest member of the party, George Wilianm, who will be 82 on Sunday, mand the tenor by the yourgest member, Harold Reed, who is 17 L . There nre few finer tens in Fg . land than St. Mary's, Southnmpton, and the peal was worthy of the bells
To celebrate the completion of 50 years' eervice as a ringer at $S t$ Mary's, Finchley, Leicesterslire, by Mr. George Thompson, a peal of Stedman Triples was ring thore on April 22 nd . It was also a birthday compliment to Mrs. W. Measures, whose son, Mr. Frank Measures, called the peal.

A composition by Mr. G. Lewis, of Oxford Treble Bob Mirjor, was rune for the first time on April 22 nd, when it was called at Campsall, Forks, by Mr. D. Smith.
Mr. E. A. Hall is retiring frous the oflice of sexton itt Peckleton, Leicestershire, aiter 24 years' service. On April 2and he rang the tenor to a peal in seven methods of Doubles, arranged as a compliment to him, and afterwards he and Mre. Hall kindly entertaimed the ringers
Mr. Frankland Rigby rang his 50th peal and Mr. F. S. Beaumont his 2sth peal when they took part in a peal of Keat Treble Bob Major et Swanage, Dorget, on April p2nd.

ANOTHER FINE PERHORMANCE.

The North Liacolnshire band, who have recently been pushing ahead with Spliced Minor, have improved upon their previous 50 methods performance by ringing. last Friday, at Bigby, seven extents in 60 methods. The hootur of Lincolnthire seems to tave devolved on worthy shoulders.
The present record of 84 methods goes to Cheshire. It was rung at Dieley in July last year. The South Lincolnshire band, which seems now to have dissolved, through removals, had previously carrjed the tots t to 80.

Sixty methode in a peal wes rung for the first time in Lincolnghire in August, 1936. Since then the record bas gone up as follows: 61 (Iines), 66 and 68 (Cheshire), 70 (Lincs), 73 (Cheshire), 80 (Lines), 84 (Cheshire).

The first peal of Goudhurst Surprise Major was rung at Bushey Herts, on April 27th. It was Mr. Edwin Jennings' 50th Surprise peai,

The funeral of Canon Humter for many years Vicar of Christ Church, Epsom, cook place on April 20th, and two days later a muflled peal of Grandsire Triples was rung at the church he served with so much devotion.

There is a team of youmg magers at Meldreth, Cambridgeshire, who learned to ring the five bells there when their average age was 14, the youngest being 12 and the oldest 16. That was two years ago. They have now all rung their first peal, three of them on March $96 t$ and the other two on April 20th. On each occasion they were assisted by Messrs. R. L. Lathbury and J. W. Ward. These youngsters are to be congratulated upon their perseverance in loaraing to ring and upon their excellent striking. They are George Newell, aged 14, Wilfred Butler and John Gibson, each aged 15, and Archie Tueh and James Turner, eacli aged 18.

A band of service ringers at Church, Lancashire, rang a peal of Treble Boh on the bells of St. Janes' Church on April 26th, when Mr. Leslie Willians scored his first peal as conductor.
The peal of Minor at Apslev Find, Herts, reporteil last week, was ruag on Aprit 17tls, not the 10th as printed.
The ringer of the treble to the peal of Grendsire Donbles at St, John's, Leicester, was Raymond V. Hubbard, not Reginald as pripted in our issue of April 21st.
Nesta and Richard Smith rang their first peal at the firt attempt on Friday, whem they took part in a peal of Kent Preble Bob Minor at Wonston, Hants. All the rest of the band rang their first peal of Treble Bob Minor. It was the third peal attempt made by Leslie Tremeer and Leouard Knott within a week. They had lose a yeal of London after ans hour and a quarter on the prepious Saturday and a peal of Stedman after a hours 10 minutes on Easter Monday, Another peal in honour of the 25 th anniversary of the enthronement of the first Bishop of (helmsford, which took place on April $23 \mathrm{rd}, 1914$, was rugg on Saturday week at Galleywood.

There is a growing tendency to troak away from the rut in Surprise Mejor ringing, apart from the activities of the bands who are out to ring a new surprise method every time they meet. On Fridny week a peal of Painswick was rung at Grayford, Kent, and the lirst peal it the method in Yortshire was rung at Northowram the next diy. On the same day a peal of Ashtead was rung at Wymondhan, Norfols. All evidence of the progress that is spreading in method riaging.

Ln acdition to being the first. in the county and by the Forkshire Association, the Painswick at Northowran on April 22nd was the first by all the band and was rung at the firat attempt.

Hfiss Gladys Willars, a schoolyirl of 14 years of age, reng her first peal on the eve of St. Georges Day at South Wigstom, Leicestershire. She struck her bell perfectly throughout. Tho peal marked the openinf of the great Leicester Church campaigo.
The peal of Doubles at Nassingtow, Northants, on April 22 nd , was arranged to enable the conductor (Mr. R. G. Black) to ring is peaj on the bells of his native village, which he left in 1889, and where three previous generations of his family have been connected with the belfry. Messes. Strangwood and Fowraris rang splendidy and scolved their first peal. They are the firgi members of the Oundle Branch to Ying a peal. It must also have been almost like a first peal for Mr. Cliarlea Cooper, for he had not pung one since 1914. Further, it was the first peal on the bells.

MORECAMBE BELLS RECAST

CORPORATION'S CONTRIBUTION TO THE COST.

The Bishop of Blackburn, on Pelm Sunday, dedicated the Testored and augmanted hells of the Parish Church of Morecambe, Lancashire. The tower was buitt in 1841 and tate original six bells have naw been recast and two more added. The restoration has cost over 5600 , tawards which the Corporation have contributed s100.

The dedication service was attended by the Mayor and Corporation as well as by representatives of the various religious denominations of the town. The firgt lesson was read by the presideat of the More cambs Free Church Cauncil, and the Mayor's chaplain (Camon Royds) rend the second lesson. After the dedicatory prayers, the Mayor unvelted a tablet commemorating the occasion,
The Bishop, in lis address, compared the harmony of the hells of England with the discord in interantional affairs. After the servica the bells were rumg by J. P. Fidler 1, G. Bosworth 2, E. Swain 3, R. Grisdale 4. J. Srain 5, &. Clifford 6, T. B. Worsley 7, H. Palmer 8. The work has been carried out by Messrs. J. ## OXFORD UNIVERSITY SOCIETY

INCREASE TN MFMBERS.
The annual general meeting of the Oxford University Society wan held on April $25 t h$ in St. Peter's Hall. Oxford. Considerable progress was noted as having been made in the past year under flie able Mastership of Mr. St. J. Smith (Jesus Coplege), and there had been a welcoma increase in the number of ringing atembers.
Mr. P.J. M. Bryan (Sf. Peter's) was elected Master for the ensuing year, with Mr. M. A. C. Frewar (Merton) and Mr. J. Wrigley (Merton) as secretary and freasurer respectively.
It is to bo noted that the retiring Master (Mr. St. J. Smith) has now served both as Master of the Cambridge Unirersity Guilu (1935-7) and Master of the Oxford University Society (1938-9). Such a carecr is unprecedented in the history of either sceicty, and Mr. Smith's many friends will wish him surcess in his campanological and professional rareers.

WARWICKSHIRE GUILD.

STRUGGLING BANDS NEED.

The annusl meeting of the Warwickshire Guild was held at Coventry on Saturday, April 15tl. The bells of Stoke Church were aqailable daring the afternoon and ovening and were kept gaing in rounds and various methods. Service was conducted by the curate (the Rep. E Lucack), the Guild's form being used. Tee was partaken of at the Biggin Hall Hotel, when 35 members gat down.
Tho basizess meeting followed, Mr. F. W. Perrens heing voted to the chair. Apologieg were received from Messes. T. W. Chaproan and D. H. Argyle

The hon. secrelary reported that for 1938 the membership stood at 364 , being made up of 17 honorary members, 189 ringing members and 158 zon-resident members, an incrense of 43 over 1957 and of 71 over 1956. Peals rung during the year numbered six, the lowest total for any year since 1929 . Ten rang their first peal in the method and seven their first peal. The conducting was shared by F. W. Perrans (3) P. Stone (2) and F. E. Pervin (1). The low total is compensated by whe fact that Stratford Surprise Major, Fugg at Nuneaton on April $28 t h$, was the first peal ever rung in the method, and the peal of Ashtead Surprise Major was the first in the method for the Guild.
The balance sheet, showing a balance in hand of 805 19s. 8d., was adopted on the proposition of Mr. A. H. Beamish, seconded by Mr. L. J. Hirde.

The election of officers resulted ag follows: President, the Ven. the Archdeacon af Coventry; vice-presidents, the Fen. tho Archdeacon of Warwick, the Rey. Canon J. L. White, MI.A., the Rey. O. M. Jones, M.A., the Rev. J. H. Dingley; Master, Mr. J. H. White; bon. secretary and treasurer, Hers. D. E. Besmish; hon. nuditor, Mr. A. H Beamish; Central Council representatives, Mr. T. W. Perrens and Mrs. D. E. Beamish
The resalt of the vote for the meeting places for the next three months was: May, Newbold-on-Avon; June, Kineton; July, Solinull. New members elected were Miss O. Moreton (Cbilvers Coton) 5 . Howell (Charch Lawfori), A. F. Barlow (Rugby), Mrs. Vann (Bilton), W. Starley (Southam), G. N. Knitht (Stoke), H. Lewis, O. Waker and G. Edmunds (Brinklow), T. Warner (Solihull) and Miss C. E. Pocock (Arley).
Mr. N. Maskell nsled if assistance could be forllacoming for struggling bands. An oceasional Guild meeting, he said, could not possibly ment the need.
Mr. E. Stone suggested that districts be re-formed and the committee of each district make arragements which would most benefit the hands in that disfrict.

The question was lefb with the Guild Committee to discuss and report at the next quasterly meeting.
The hon. eecretary mentioned the letter received from the secretary of the Certre] Council regarding the "Collection of Surprise Major Methods,' in which the Guild was asked to advance 16 g . 6d. for 818 copies. The letter was well received, sud ten members signified their inteation of purchasing a copy when awailable.
Mr. E. Stome proposed and Mr. I. J. Finde seconded that the secretary write to Mr. M. Melville, secretary of the Guild from 1935-38, to wish him Godspeed in his mew sphere after his ordination by the Bishop of Wincluester
The reports for $1937-38$ having been distributed, Mr. E. Stone proposed a vote of thanks to the non, secretary for preparing them for pualication.-The hon. secretay thanked Mr. F. W. Perreas and Mr. A. F. Beamish for the help they liad piven.

On the motion of Mr. J. H. W. White, a wote of thanks Fas accorded to the Rector, the curate mad organiat of Stoko, and to Mr W. Cox, of the local bend, who had kindy arranged the ten

At the close of the meeting a retura was made to the tower for furbher ringing, and a coctal evening followed at the Biggin Fall Hotel, thus bringiog to a close one of the most successful maetings held in Coventry.

SOCIETY FOR THE ARCHDEACONRY OF STAFFORD

AN ANNUAL DINNER SUGGESTED.

The spring meeting of the Society for the Archdescoury of Stafford Wres held at Cannock on Saturday, April 28nd. A variety of methods was rung before the service, which was conducted by the Vicar (the Rev. J. F. Foster, A.K.C.), who also delivered a helpful address. Tea, which followed at Stanton's Restaurant, was kindly provided by the Vicar
The Rev. C. H. Barker, clerical secretary and measurer, moved a vote of thanks to the Vicar for his generosity and for his address, and to the organist and others who helped to make the meeting a succesg. This was recelven with applause.
Mr. B. G. Key, Ringing Master, suggested that an annual digner should be arranged in the autumy. and the project was supported ly Mr. C. Wallater. It was eventually agreed that the matter should stand over till the annual meeting.
It was decided that the society should guarantee its quoth for the fortheaming publication by the Central Council of Surprise Major Methods."

The annual meeting is arranged to take place at Lichfield on June 17th.
Handbe!ls were brought into bse for tones and rhange ringing, after which the members returmed to the tower.

At the Eent County Assaciation's meeting at Greenwich on Saturday, Mr. W. Berry, now aged 84, put in an aippearavee and took part in several touches. It was, indeed, a pleasure to the members to see and ring with him again in the tower in which he spent so many hours in days gone by.
The number of nembers of the Midlsud Countieg Association, eccording to the annunl report just issued, is 835 ringing members and 158 honorary members. In addition, there are some hundreds of nonresident lifo members.
The subscriptions to the association during 1938 amounted to ${ }_{59} 93$ 11s. 6id., and there was a balance on the year's morking of 88 12s. 9d. The association has $£ 500$ in reserve Yuds, $84744,4 \dot{d}$. halance on appropriation account, and $£ 13$ 6s. Id. in the Bell Repair Fund.

LONDON COUNTY ASSOCIATION.

RELATYONS IN OVERLAPPING AREAS.

1 meeting of the Northern District of the London County Association was held at St. John's, Leytonstoue, on April 15th. It is at this ehurch that the national memorial to that truly great ringer, the late Mr. William Pye, is situated. Two trebles were added to the old six, and the faot is recorded on a tablet in the porch underneath the tower.
Tinging took place from $3 \mathrm{p} . \mathrm{m}$. till $4.30 \mathrm{p} . \mathrm{ml}$., and then a short service was conducted by the Rector (Canan W. T'. Brown), who gave a short but delightiul and rauch appreciated address.
Tea whs served at a nearby restaurant, and Canon Brown extended a cordial welcome to the members. He assured them that he was always very pleased to lave visits at bis church from ringing eocieties. The business meetivg was beld in the ringing room. Apart from the routine busimess, there was only one item of importance, that of a proposed joint meeting with tha North and East District of the Middlesex $\Lambda$ ssociation.
The district secretary (Mr. J. G. Prior) said that, in his opinion, in consequence of certain recont corzespondence in . The Ringing World,' the impression had been giver that the London County Association had no wish to co-operate with the utber London socjetiea and lad no respect for the legitinatee clains of these societies. As far as the Northern District was concerued, this was emplatically not so. सelations with the secieties whose areas overlapped that of the diatrict had, in recent years at least, been quite mood. Speakjag paricularly of the North and Jinst Distriet of the Middlesex County Association, who wero most concerned with the averlapping, he said that as the resuit of exchange of correspoufence between the district secretaries, only once during the last nine years hind there been a clash of meetimes, and that an unavoidable one. He thought that a joint meetive with the Middlesex Assaciation would have a very good effect, and he, therefore. proposad that they be invited to join the district in such a meeting at the Churches of St. Dunstaz"s, Stepney, and St. George-in-the-Tast towards the end of the Fear, probebly in November.-The propositioni whs unanimously adopted.

Fotes of thanks to the Rectar and to Megars. G. Dawson and I. D. 5 mith , of the local band, for making the arrangements, conchuded the business, and further riuging then took place.
It was a highly enjoyable and successful meeting, both socia!ly and technically. Kethods rung during the day ranged up to Spliced Surprise Major in four methods, an unusuai Peature at Londoll County meetings.

WORCESTERSHIRE RINGERS WEDDING

MR. T. W. LEWIS AND MISS FLORENCE JOHRSON
The wedding of two well-known Worcestershire ringers was solemnised at St. Peter's, Hiuton-on-the-Green, on Ssturdey, when Miss Florence A. Johnson, fith daughter of the late Mr. F. J. Johnson and of Mrs. Johnson, was married to Mr. Thomas W. Lewis, eldeat Bon of Mr and Mrs. W. Lewis of Worcester. The whate of the bride's family have been service ringers at Hinton, her brother (Mr. J. D. Jobnson) being hon. secretary of the Worcestershire Association, whilat her mother is an honorary member of the assaciation. The bridegroom's father is towerkeeper at St. John's, Worcester, and both father and son are members of the St. John's and Cathedral Guilda Fully choral and conducted by the Rector (the Rev. G. C. Binyon), the sarvice was attended by many ringers. The bride's dreas was of beapy white satin trinzmed with lace and she was attended by three arnall nieces dressed in frilted net in Vietorian atyle, who carried dolla dressed as replicas of themselves; and a nephew of the groom, Mater Tommy Martin, dreased in white satin and velvet.
Mr. S. T. Holt was best man, and the bride wes given eway by her eider brother, Mr. J. D. Johnson.
A reception was later held in the schools, where, among others, a greatings telegran was received from the ringers assembled at the greozn's home tower, St. Johu'g, for a peal.
The happy couple's future home will be in Worcester, and, as already recorded, a celebration peal of Double Oxford Major was rung at Hinton and a peal of Bob Major at Woreester.

LEADING CONDUCTORS-69.

C. KENNETH LEWIS.

For nany years the Chestor Diocesan Guild has had the good fortune to include in its ranks bands of eaterprising riagers, particularly in the sphere of Mizor ringing. Although in the early days of method splicing the plan was experimented with in various parts of the country, it was iu Chesinire that it was firsi developed on the lines that have led up to the present advanced standards, and it is Cheshire that, at the moment, holds the record for the highest number of methods included in seven extents. There has been in vine docese a steady succesaion of ringers expert in this branch of the art, and there is happily still no lack of them. Sonse lave come to the front very rapidly, and among these is Mr. C. Kenneth Lewis, of Marpic. who, although he rang his first peal only five years ago-by a coincidetce, exactly five years ago to-chy-and did not call a peal until Norember, 1035 (this was in uive methods at Taxal), has already to bis credit the honour of conducting a peal in 73 Treble Bob metlods (the greatest number of Truble Roll methods which is believed possible of jucorporation in seren extents), and the peal in 84 methods, whicl। atands as the greatest number jet rung in sever 720's.
Mr. Lewis first became interasted jn ringing wards the end of 1931, but, owing to the fact that the baud which was gatleered together at Marpie was practically all raw material in change ringing, very Jittle grogress was made. Early in Inly, 1933, Mr. Lawis began to visit Disley, three miles away, and as a result of the instruetion received there he was, by the end of the year, taking an interest in Spliced Mitat. His fitst peal was not rung unil May in the following yenc sisted of Kent Of con sistied of Kent. Oxford and Plajn Bob), luut he hat made several fruitless attempts before that. Fis second peel, two montlis later, wa in 18 methods, and his third, in September, was in 21 methods. He becane a member of the band which, under the conductorship of Mr. J. Worth, was carrying on the work started at Norbury in 1923. To reach the record number of methods the band. of course, have had gradually to build up the total, and the later stages have ineluded peals in $40,42,46,52,66,68,73$ and 84 methods.
But while Mr. Lewis has devoted so much attention to the ligher figltts of Minor ringing, lie lias by no means confined his aftention to this, and among oflyer things lie hes rung almost 50 Surprise Major peals in six methods, peals of Grandsire frome Doubles to Cinques: and of Plain Boh from Minor to Maximas. He rang in the first peal of Rochester Surprise Major for the Chester Guild and in the only peal of Carisbrooke Delight Major, as well as calling the first peal of Stafordshire Surprise Major to be rung by the North Staffs Association in its own territory. Among the performanees which he greatly values is the first peal (Doubles in two methods) ruag at Marple for the Cormation by an entirely local band. Altogether Mr. Lewis has rung 100 peals, of which he has conducted 43.

Borm at Marple on August 23rd, 1913, Mr. Lewis is now secretary and treasurer of the Stockport, Mottram and Bowdon Branch of the Chester Diocesan Guild and an ex-offio member of the Guild Commilitee

KENT RINGER'S DEATH.

Mr. F. G. Burden, of Rolrenden, Kent, died in his sleep on Friday, April 14th. Deceased was 67 wears of age and bad been a ringer for over 50 years and verger for 25 Fenrs. He had rung several peals of Stedman and Grandsire Triples and of Major.

When Mr. Burden celebrated his jobilee as a ringer he broadcast in the B.B.C. featore. 'In Fown To-nighti:' He was a good sportsmatt. kindly and cheerfal. and much liked by all the villagers.
The local ringers acted as bearers at the funeral on Monday, April 17th. On Saturday last a band of the Kent County $A$ ssociation rang a litif-muffled peal of Grandsire Tripies.

CHESTERFIELD BELLS.

To the Editor.

Dear Sir-At a quartery meating of the Oxford Society lield on Saturday evening your loading article re Ghesterfield bells was discussed witle great interest. It was umanimously bgreed that the followint resolution be sent to you for publication:-

Tlat thas society wiews with regret the proposed suggestion to instal an apparatus for " synthette " bells in Chesserfield epire v. BENNITTT, Hor. Sec., O.S.C.R.

SHAMS OR STNTHETICS.

Dear Sir, Is there any real reason why we should play inso the hands of the opposition, by using the word synthetics, when there is nothing like srathesis? The combiration of the recording of the sounds of bells, with a loud speaker, produces a simple reproduction, which may be called a substitute, a slam or a pretence, but can never be a syuhbesis. Moreover, actual synthetic bells are a possibility, sy we had better keep our wrath for them till they appear.
Now to ame people the word 'synthetic' appeals, and produces in their mind the idea of a sturt which they wish to attaoh to their churches So let us avoid the misleading term.
Again there are occasions (such as weddings) wheu some people like shans or pretences. I see no reason why they should not have them, as long as they keep the sound to the room, or other place of enter tainment. But let us keep shams of all kinds away from our ehurches. A further point is the law about these things. Churches have a conmon law or customary right to use the sound of bells. Places of worship not belonging to the Church of England have no such right. But as no one is likely ever agajn to conteat this matier, ona may takg it that the C.E. Common Latr right cowers them also But reproductions are quite a difierent matter. It cannot be claimed that these are customary: and very disagreeable legal procedings are sure to follow these installations unless they be confined to indoors.

RESTORATION OF BRONLLYS BELLS.

NEW TREBL E ADED.

The restored and augmented bells of St. Mary's, Bronlys, Brecknock shine, were dedicated lyy the Bishop of Swansea ald Breconk un Easter livg. Messts. Taylor and Co. have tunet, quarter tumed and rehung the old five and added a new treble. गlue restoration was made posaible by a generous donation by the harron Pell Trust and by various bellriuring friends. Beforo the service the Bishop ascended the towel and inspeated the work and congratulated the Vicar upos the way in which it had been carried out.

The Vicar (the Rev. W. J. Davies) intoned the service and the lesson Was read by the Rural Dean (the Rev. R. W. Lockyer, Glasbiry-omWyo). After the formal dedication the Bistop gave an address ot the words, 'We love the place, 0 God.

The opening ringing was net done until the conclusion of the gervice, Fhen it was carried ont by D. F. Bennett, T. P. Curtis, P. J. Davies, D. A. Witiams, E. D. Daties, J. Owezs and W. Drew.

Ringers were present from Brecon (St. David's), Cefa Coed, Cadoxton, Clifford, Easdisland, Ebbw Vale, Glasbury, Kington, Talgarth, Stauntan-on-Arrow, Iygonchall, Ross-on-Wye, Morriston, Newport and the lacal band, and included Messrs. D. G. Williams (guld secretary), J. P. Hyett (district secretary), A. Hunt (Distriet Master), J. W. Tones (hon, secretary, Llanda and Monmoulli), the Rev. Iror Richards (Lianleanecli) and Mr. J. H. Shepherd (Swindon);
All present expressen their pleasute at the excellent 'go' and tome of the bells, and Messrs. Taytur and Co. are to be congratulated on the work of restoration.

All the wigitors were entertaiged to tea at the school, and Canon Hilary w. Lewis proposed a liearty vote of thanks to tie Vicar and parishomers for their hospitality.
An interesting point about Bronllys Church is that the tower is the onis detached tower jo Wales with six bells. The tenor is 7 cmt .8 lb . Visiting ringers will always be welcome to ring on the Bells, if they will write to the Ficar.

DEATH OF MR. W. ALLHN

FORMER TTCE-PRESDDENT OF EAST DEREFSHTRE ASSOCIATION.
It is with regret we have to record the passing of Mr. Wilson Allin, of Sutton-in-Ashfield, Notts, who died on April 12th at the age of 68 yesrs.

Mr. Allin was $\begin{gathered}\text { a member of the East Derbyshire and Notbinglam }\end{gathered}$ Association and Midtand Counties Association. He was for some time vice-presideat of East Derbyshire Association and always looked forward to the quarterly meetings. He was also instrumental in having three new bells added nas part of the church war memorial and was hoping to see the six made into an octave. This wiel, however, has not heen granted, for he passed away mille the necessary funds were being collected. Mr. Allin was a ringer at Sutton-in-Aslifisld for 40 years, beigg captain and towerkeeper during part of tiat time. His last peal was rung on December i3th, just before his illmess.

GUILDFORD DIOCESAN GUILD.  Gili TO THE NEW CATHEDRAL  Increase in Membership

At their anaual meeting at Guildford ons Saturday, the members of the Guildiord Diocesan Guild undortook to provide the bell that will be necessary for the portion of the new Cathedral which it is hoped to complete in two years' time. This gift will be entirely apart from tha scheme, which has been in operation for some few years, to accumulate a fund towards the provision of a ringing peal of bells when the tower is edded some time in the future. The beil which is now offered will be temporarily housed, but eventanlly will be placed, as a 'sarctus " bell, in a turret over the Lady Chapel.
The meeting at which this fiecision was taken was held in Holy Trinity Parish Hall, and was attended by over a hundred members and visitors from many places outside the diccese. Mr. Walter Harrison (yice-president) presided, supported by the Master (Major . H. B. Hesse), the hon. treasurer (Mfr. J. Corbett), itbe hon. secretary (Mr. G. L. Grover), the Rev. L. Starey (Merrow) who had conducted the Guild's service in the Cathedral, and Mr. J. 8 . conducted the Guild's se

MEMBERSHIP

The committee, in their annual report, said the decline in memberslip in the two previous years had abated, and in 1938 there was a welcome intux of new members, a net gain of 30 having brought the total to 78 honorary end 405 annual subtseribing ringing members. Special thanks were extended to Mr. W. James, of Coblam, for the introduction of sever new life members last year, and a substantial increase of honorary members in the Lentherhead District, which will be apparent in pext year's balaze sheet. The report continued:

In apite of the increake in memberslip, however, the position as regards ringing membars is a long way from being satisfactory, Ono of our distiricts only, varmely, Furnham, is in the lappy position of having members from every towef in its, area. In the remaincug districts there are several towers either with no members at all or with less members than they lave bells. As the belfs of most of the towers which stand aloof are rung regularly there must be many ringers ja the diocese who have yet to be convinced that this Guild ringers ia the diocese who have yet to be convinced that this Guild is not just the plaything of the officers gnd a few experts, but is realiy run with the object of promoting ringing generally throughout the diocese and for the beneft of every individual ringer.

The Benevolent Fund, now with a balance of $£ 58$ 16s. 8d, continzes to crow, and, in connection with the New Cathedral Bells Fund, whick stands nt ferl 7s. 7d., the committee reminds all memhers that they are part of a diocesan organisation getively engaged in a branch of diocesan sife, and as members of such an organisation it should be their plensure, and it is certainly their duty, to contribute as generously as possible to this fund. Perbaps never before bave diocesnn ringers had such an opportunity of leaving for future generations at more obvious witness of their enthusiasm and service ss is now presented to memhers of this Guild. The Cathedral will be built and the towner oventually completed. Other diocesan organisations are already taking steps to provide the furnishing of various parts of the new building, and it is not out of reason to ask thit on you, as menbers of the ringing oryanisation of the diocese, should rest some at ieast of the responsibility of ensuring that the tower is equipped with a ringing peal.

RELATIONS WETH OTHER ASSOCIATIONS
Having referred to the district and joint mectings beld during the year, the report said thess mestings emplasised the very friendly relations which exist between the Guild and neighbouring societios generally. 'With thouglits of further joint meetings in mind,' added the report, 'all members will fee] relieved that the attempt to promote antagonigm between the London County Association and this Guila has been frustrated. The Guild was accused in "The Ringing World " of poaching on the preserves of other societies. Happily, owr vice-president, Mr. J. S. Goldsmith, as a member of the London County Associskion, was able, without involving this Guila in a dispute, to convince the annual meeting of that bodtr of the gross unfairness of the charge, and it has now heen withdrawn fin such a manner as will, we hope, leave no suspicion of animosity betwean the Lindon County Association and orrselves. The Guild was launched and is continued with the approval of the diocessn authorities as part and parcol of the diocesan organisation. There can be no question as to the right of the Guild to embrace every tower and claim the support of every ringer in the diocese. Ascocisthon with Church life in the diocess ahould entail loyalty to that part of the diocesan scheme whith is charged with the care of ringing. This does not mesn that the Guild challenges the right of any other ringing organisation to purswe its legitimate actinties within our borders, but jt does imply that tha allegiance of every ringer resident within the dincese of Guildford is fue first and foremost to the Guild.'

PEAL JRNGING ACTIVITIES.
The twenty peals rung durige the year wes the lowest total ever recorded by the Guild, but the peals included the first peal of Painswick Surprise Royaf ever rang and the first peal of Forkshira Surprise Royal by the Guild. There were only three "first peals" againt 15 in the previous year

The committee, continued the report, 'feels that there is room in the field of peal ringing for greater activity hr the fuild. Nat.
merely ectivity for the primary parpose of inereasing the numbers of peals rung, but activity designed to stimulate the life of the Guild by introducing to the peal ringing brauch of the art a preater proportion of our members and to encourage younger members to aspire to the laurels of conductorthip. If such an effort is to be made, however, more towers must be made available. So muclk has been said on this subject in previous reports, both district and annual, that the committee feels that there is little that can now be aselully added, but tine cammittee members do think that if Iocal ringexd were just a litile more helpful to the officers many towers at which there is mever eny peal ringing would be available for peal attempts occasionally. Local objectors who can remain adamant in refusing requests of comparative strangers are often to be mollified by the efforts of local ringers in personal tounh. The committee suggests too, that no peal organiser shauld be unmindful of the fact that loca ringers arz often inclined to be a little more amenable if some mem bers of their tower are asked to join with visitors in peal attempts.

Since the formation of the Guild eleven Fears ago only thn menbers can chaim to lhave rung their first peal as condnctor, and of these ter only three or four remain on the list of active peal ringers For a Guild which has always bad in the aeighbourhood of 400 rimging members these figures give rise to some misgivings is to the future and the committee appeals to all nembers to assist any efforts to effect remedy.
The report concluded with thanks to the incumbents, the district officers and all who had worked in the interests of the Guild.
The Chamman, in moving the adontion of the report, anomatulated the Culd on the of the Brotent Fum which, entirely due to Major Fesse, who fathered the scheme. There was still plenty of room for further encouragement, bowever. He also expressed gratification at Mr. Grover's auecession to Mr. Goldsmith as genermi shareza
Mr. J. Corbett (hon. treasurer) moved the adoption of the accounts and thanked the Parochial Church Councila, the general secretary and the district secretaried for their sapport.
The following new members were elected: Messrs. G. Hall (Shere), . Parks (Croydon), G. Clobe (Cathedral Church), E. W. Iasard (Canada), A. R. Reed (Eastlelgh), R. J. Balchus, J, and D. Lickford (Chiddingfold), P. Finey (Bramley) and G. W. Massey (attached to Epsom), Capt. D. C. Standem, Miss M. White (Pyrford) and Mrs. B. M. Martin.

Officers were re-elected as follows: President, the Bishop of Guild ford: vice-presidents, Bishop C. \#. Golding-Bird, the Ven. E. J. Newill and Messrs. W. Farrison and J. S. Goldsmith; Master, Major J. F. B. Hesse; Hon. treasurer, Mr. I. Corbett; hon, secretary, Mr. G. I. Grover; bon auditor, Mr. R. Hasted ; Central Council representatives, Mesgrs. A. H. Puiling, A. C. Hazelden, G. L. Grover and A. Harman: committce, the offeers and the Revb. F. A. Woodard and G. H. B. Coleridge, Messrs. W. Massey, E. W. Morey, W. A. Dollimore, $F$. Nre, $T$. Upshalh, $\mathcal{R}$. Whittington, $\mathcal{F}$. Cherrymav, E. J Ayliffe, A. J. Adams and G. Marriner; member of Diocesaz Advisory Committee, Major J. H. B. Hesse.
It was decied to hold the summer festival at Haslemere on July 8th. ENCOURAGING YOUNG MEMBTRS.
Mr. C. W. Denyer (Farnham) moved that 'any district may provide out of funds one bronze Guild badge for any Guild member (ather than a member whose subscriptions are compounded) who after the 1st day of May, 1939, shall ring his or her first quarter-peal.' He said it would enconrage members to progress and use the ladge. The motion was earried.

On the proposition of Mr. J. S. Goldsmith, it wes decided to guarantee El 13 s . to the Central Council in connection with the publication of 'Surprise Major Methods." He considered 梳 was a hook that ahould be made available to members, as it contained a history of Surprise ringing and an extensive collection of compositions, In return for the guarantee the Council would provide twelve copies, which could be sold for 3 , each.

Genction was granted to the Leatherlead District to expend not more than 52 10s. on Davis silencers, and to the Guildeord District to contribute 85 to the New Cathedral Bells Fund.

PROFISION OF BELL FOR CATEEDRAL

Mr. J. S. Goldsmith esked that the Guild should provide a sametus bell for the first part of the mew Cathearal as its donation to the appeal. The bell woald be wsed for services until such time as the tower was built, and he could see no fner gesture than to give it Ther had some two years co raise the money, and a bell of 3 cwt. would cost with all fittings, about 540 . There were over 450 membera in the Guild, and if esch one qave a mlilling a weat for two eama they would iave more than emove a to pay for the for two yeara going to make a real drive to get the money, and would like. if possible, to get half the gmonnt before Christmas and the other half before Iune rext vear. It was hoped to dedicate the first portion of the Cathedral at Whitsin, 1941, but there wonld he no ringing peal in the Cathedral for perhaps 20 于ears.
He did not propose touclsing the Cathedral Bells Fund, and it was an opportunity for them to show the clergy that thay were not merely out for what they could get, but that they were prepared to give something Proviaion had been made for a turret over the Lady Chapel to take a sanctas bell of about 3 cwt., and that was the hell he suggested they should give.-The Chairnan thought they should (Continued on next page.)

NORTH STAFFS ASSOCIATION.

SUCCESSFUL GATHERING AT BURSLEM

There was a successful gathering when the members of the Nortin Stafordshire Association held their second annual dinner on Saturday, April 15th, a campany of 69 spending a most enjoyable evening at the George Hotel, Burslem. During the aiternoon Hanley tower was open for ringing, and the bells were fully employed.

Supporting the presideat (the Ven. Archdeacon Hertill, of Stoke-on-Trent) were Mr. Andrew Thompson (hon. secretazy), Miss Ada Hourne, the Rev. S. F. Linsley (clerical secretary) Mr. Arthur W. Hall (vice-chairman), Mrs. A. W. Hall, Mr. Kenneth Thacker (assistant hon secretary), Miss D. Bull, Mr. W. H. Shuker (bon. secretary, Lancashire Association) and Mrs. Shuker, and ringers and friends from Brown Edge, Stoue, Langton, Kingsley, Norton, Draycott, Leek, Stoke-on-Trent, Fantey ana Tunstall.

After the toast of 'The King' Mr. F. A. Ridgway proposed 'The Clurch, which, be sqia, was concerned with overy important phase of their lives. He ruminded the ringers that their appointment was a divine call. Within a radius of twelve miles of whore he stood thero must be, he said, a population of at least three hundred thousand souls, and. roughly, 300 ringers; only one-tenth of one per cent. Why was it they were content to be shuk of from the world, out of sight, out of mind, yet eager to send forth God's message on the loud crmbals? The suswer was they had got the "urge "which impelled them to do so, an 'urge, which was given them by the Crestor. Let them give, then, the best that lay within them both in atudy and in service. It rested an them to teach and to eveourage those who wond follow after and impart any knowledge they possessed so that the good work might advance throagh the ages.

The President, who replied, said it was becoming clearer every day that the only hope of civilisation for the world was by looking up to the Church. It was only by a rallying of people to the charrela and by the rallying of the Church to its principles that there was asy way out of the political unrest that was present in the world to-day. The activities of the Church, he continued, were tho bighest and best activities of human life. Bellringing was defnitely linked ap with the life of the Church; the best and highest duality of music had always been limked up to the life of the Church. Onfortmanaty during tle last two or three centuries very many of the activitios of luman lifa had somehow or other got separated fromz the life of the Christian world, but there was gtill one activity which remained linled up with the life of the Church, and that was the art of bellringing. It was an art which was ased to call the people to church, and when it was done earnestly it was an art at jts lighest and best.
Mr. E. Steele, who suhmitted the toast of "The Visitors," referred with pleasure to the presence of the secretary of the Lancashire Aspociation and welcomed many new friends.
Mr. C. S. Bowers, who responded, declared himself a friend nat ouly of the ringers at his own church, bat of all the members of that association. He went on to say that bells were like everything else, they never missed them pntil they bad not got them. They had an experienc? of that when the bells of his church were being rehung. A series of complaints reached him, one of them being that when the beils were silent the good ladies who lived near the churel didn't know what time to put the potatoes on to boil (laughter).
The Rev. S. F. Linsley pronosed the tonst of the North Stafford. shire Association, and referred to the valunble work that was being done week after week by the ringers.
The Hon. Secretary, who responded, first referred to the passing oi their old friend, Mr. George Walker, who, had he been with them, mould assuredly have replied to the toast. Mr. Thompson weat on to say it was true of the whole association that they took a keea interest in their work. Dwring the past three years they bad increased their membership ly 60, but they still had a few towers which were left unathended. These could be helped by other nembers of the assoniaevdorse Mr. Goldsmith's scheme with all their seal and fervour and the proposal net with unanimous epproval.

Mr. G. E. Smith brought forward a suggestion, made at the annual meeting of tha Surrey Associstion, that the Guildford Guild shoulit appoint a soember to act on the Surrey committee as the two sacieties overlapped but worked in harmony. The Surrey Association had approved the idea of one of their members servige on the Guildford cuild Committee.-Tite meeting approved the idea im princtple. Mr. T. W. White wondered if it was an appeasement policy or encirclement (laughter).

Mrs. Jessia Kippin: We are not dictators in the Sureey Association.
Mr. T. S. Goldsmith announced that Mr. J. Armiger Trollope had presented the Guild with a manuscript ligtory of Lonten ringing frem In856, entitled 'Angsble and his times.' On Mr. Goldsmith's proposition, a vote of thanks was moved to the donor.
Thanks to the Rev. I. Starey for preaching, the Provost for the use of the Cathedral Church end the chairman were proposed by Major J. H. B. Hesse.

The bells of the Cathedral Chmreh and S. Nicolas' Church were rung before the meeting, while further use was made of S. Nicolas' and Shalford bells in the evening.
tion, apart from those who undertook ollher duties. Referring to peal rioging activities in the association, Mr. Thompson said they were, of coutse, ringing mure peals to-day than they Jad done for the last 20 vears, although their total now only stood at 432 . It seemed to take then a long time to reach their 500, probably longer than it took some of the associations to reach 5,000. Nevertheless, they had the unity and their Sunday ringing, wbich was of just as ruuch service to their Church as the associations who had reached the tatal of peals in the thousends.

The committee, he continued, were very satisfied with the dinner proccedings. When they remembered the conditions they had had to weather and the difficulties that the cammittee had had in obtaining peraission to hold the dianer in the George Hotel, he thought, the results were very gratifying. He hoped all the members of the association would look up to the work that had beea done by the sommitfee. Mr. Thonpson added that he had received apolagies for abseuce from Mr. J. Bourne and Mr. E. A. Sherratt. The latter wes ill in the North Staffordghire Infirmary and wrote wishing the dinver every success. The secretary thanked the Leek ringers and also the Indies from Leek for entertaining them so well. He felt sure the committe: would he lost without the help of the Leek rimgers, the president und the new clerical secrotary (the Fer. S. F. Linsley).

The toast of 'The Press ' was proposed by Mr. A. W. Hall, who first referred to the services rendered to the Exercise by "The Ringing World, ${ }^{3}$ and appealed for wider support for the paper. He niso expressed the indehteduess of thio association to Fhe Evening Gentinel " and "The Dity Times, newspapers for tha publication of reports.
Solections were given on handbells by the Leek ringers, and songs were su刀g by irr. G. E. Plant, pianofarte duet were reodered by Mre. E. Thouger and Miss H. Bamlord, while commanity singing, led by the Rev. 太, Finsley and the Archdeacon, was very much enjoved. A very happy evening was brought to a close with 'Audd Lang Syne

DON'T SCRUB YOUR HANDS!

Cleanse and preserve your skin this simple way

To many people, the problem or getting the hands really clean without harming the skin is a serious one. Grease and grime, which become deeply ingrained into the pores of the skin, are extremely difficult to remove, and ordinary washing with soap or even scrubbing will fail to remove them completely. Housewives, particularly, who complain that their hands get ruined by the nature of their work, will find the preparation called DERMAFOAM a real "godsend." DERMAFOAM just smoothes away dirt and grease without effort. It gets right down into the pores and removes every particle of grime, leaving skin beautifully supple and healthy.

Men, too-when you've finished that dirty job on the car, DERMAFOAM will quickly banish all grease and oil from your hands. It acts almost magically-working under and around the nails and into every minute crease, removing all trace of dirt in a flash.

Engineers, Painters, Car Mechanics, Printers - everyone - will welcome DERMAFOAM, the modern method of cleansing and protecting the hands.

Sold in 6d. and 1/- Tubes

MORE ATTRACTIVE MEETINGS.

There was never a time when so many meetings of ringers were held as there are in these days. Everywhere the associations lay themselves out to provide opportunities for their members to meet and to enjoy ringing. Frequently, however, there is comment upon the unsatisfactory attendances, and it is a well-established fact that the success which usually attends such gatherings is made possible by the faithful few who turn up regularly in their district wherever a meeting may be held, whether the tower is convenient to reach or otherwise. It can safely be said that only a minority of mernbers in any association take any permanent interest in district meetings, and there is no dispute that officials often have legitimate cause to grumble at the support that is given to them.

The other side of the question is raised in a letter, published elsewhere in this issue, by a correspondent who believes that more could be done to make meetings attractive. It is undoubterlly true that many meetings proceed on hum drum lines. Methods are pat on haphazard; the official in charge does his best to suit the capacity of all who want to ring, but often a ringer goes away with his special desire unsatisfied. Speaking generally, we agree that ringing at meetings could be better organised, and in some quarters efforts are being made to encourage progress by giving special attention to the practice of some particular method announced beforehand. But these things cannot, at present at any rate, be run to a syllabus, and it is not always the best attended meeting that produces the best results from the ringing point of view. The bigger the crowd, the less practice can the individual get. Ringing Masters, Jowever, may find some useful suggestions in our correspondent's letter, and his appeal to the experts may well be taken to heart, if there be any who fail in the direction he indicates. Usually the experts are ever wilting to help when they are present, but we would put in a word, suggesting that more of them should ring in the touches of the simpler methods, and even in the 'rounds ' which are sometimes put on. Elementary methods are too often left almost entirely to the indiferent ringers or those with little knowledge, with the result that those who take part get little or no benefit from their experience. More real progress would be made if fewer beginners were included at one time and more touches in the simpler methods rung with the aid of a larger number of competent ringers. In this and in other respects there are numerous occasions when more practical use might be made of meeffigs, but if can only be done by a Ringing Master (Continued on page 294.)

THE THURSDAY-TTES.

The Leicester Thursday-ites were again successful on April 27tle, when at Kibworth Beauchamp they were happy to record a peal of Double Norwich Major.
Thanks are accorded to Mr. Nigel Bolton, who is a member of the local band, for standiag in the attempt at the last minute. Mr. Bolton previously bad had little practice in the mathod, and the way in which he rang his bell fally deserved the compliments that were extended to him. The peal was specially arranged for 'our Arthur," who ecored his first peal of Norwieh, as did Mr. W. A. Wood. Further complimente were paid to 'Ted Y. Ted,' who scored his 200th peal.
The band were delighted, upon their arriwal, to find that Canon H. J. T. Eacott had very kindly got the bells up, and had left averything in readiness for the attempt. Previous to the start he sinceroly hoped the party would he successinal-he certainly heard some good ringing, and at the finish was soon in the belfry congratulating one and all upon their performance.
The party desire to thank Canon Eacot for the personal trouble he took in raizing the bells, furthermore they would have been deliglated to havo him ring in the peal-hut age wilj tell.
The first peal in seven methoda on the five bells at Great Bromiey, Fasez, since April 13th, 1907, was rung on April 2ath.

Miss Sylvia Fleming, a member of the tower at Buralan, Bucke, thoroughly earned her first peal 'star,' when she took part in seven zethods at Finchampstead on April 29th, After ringing 1,100 changes, the attempt came "unstuck ' (through no frult of hers) and anobler start was made, which bappily came to a successful conclusion.
All the ringers belong to St. Peter's Socieby, Burnlam, except Mr. W. J. Paice, the local capthin, and bhe peal was rung as a birthday compliment to lis wife. The ringers were indelfed to Mr. and Mrs. Paice for their hospitality after the peal.

The Rev. Frank Bonner, one of the most petive of the present ringing elergy, has just taken up a curacy at Disley, where come of the Gheshire Guild's Spliced Minor records bave been set up. A peal of Bob Minor was rung there on April $29 t h$ to welcome Mr. Bonner. It was aleo a birthday complinemt to Mr. J. A. Minlwer, who took part in the peal.

Mr. Banner did not ring his first peal until March, 1937, but before the end of that year he had rung, among other things, peals of Cambridge, Bristol and London Surprise Major.

On 'Gallipoli Day,' April 25th, in memory of all who feli there, a peal of Kent Trable Bob Major was rung at Rishton, Lancastire.

A NOTEWORTHY PEFTORMANCE.

Mr. George Williams, Master of the Winchester and Portsmouth Diocesan Guild, received hearty congratulations and good wishes for his B2nd birthdey, at the conclusion of a peal of Cambridge Surprise Royal at North Stonelam, Hants, on Saturday. It is a tribute to his continued amazing keenness and freslness of mind that at ehis advanced stage of 'youth' Mr. Williams not only called the peal, but 'conducted' it in the real sense of the torm. George Williams has forgotten more than many of us know, but to conduct Cambridge Royal at 82 is, nevertheless, is noteworthy performatuce.

Everyone who had the privilege of cinging in the peal was delighted at the opportunity of honouring the veteran, but none more so than one of his pupils, whase first peal of Major Mr. Williams called 46 years ago.
North Stoncham has the liglitest ring of tan bells in a chucch tower, the tenor being anly 9 cwt . 26 lb . The trebles were given by Mr . and the late Mrs. Williams in celebration of their golder wedding some years ago. The very handsome oak sereen, which divides the church from the tower and thus forms an enclosed ringing chamber, was given by Mr. Witliems in memory of his wife.

Three days before the North Stoncham peal, Mr. Williams conducted a peal of Cambridge Major at the vilfage of Soberton. This was the first peal on the bells since they were retuned and rehung in a new frame six months ago by Messrs. J. Taylor and Co. It was at Soberton that Mr. Williams rang lis first peal in 1883. The band that rang the yeal on Wednesday week come from eight different places
A birthdey peal of Kent Treble Bob Major was rung at Rocester, Staffs, on April 29tJ, as a compliment to Miss Ada Bonrne, of Neweastle-under-Lyme. The method was rung after meeting short for Gambridge.

In bonour of St. George's Day, a peal of Grandsire Triples was rung at St. George's Church, Bonenden, Kent, on April 23rd, Arthur Relf, who is only 14 years of 㫙e, rang the treble. It was his first peal and he rang excellently.
It is rather astonishing how a series of successes or failures can ruv in peal ringigg. Mr. Frank Warrington, of Over, Cambridgeabire, called a peal of Minor at Willurton on April 26th; his first peal eince November 2ath, after a string of 18 losers,
The frat peal on the five bells at Walcoti Norfolk, was rung on April 26th.
The first peal oy the bells at Rettendon, Essex, by an entirely local band was rung on April $29 t h$ as a farewell to the Rev. W. A. Norman, who is leaving after 19 years as Rector of the parish.

FLEST PEAL, FOUR HOURS.

The peal of Grandsire Caters at Kidderminster on April 29th was arranged to enable Wilfred E. Davies to attempt his first peal before being transferred to Warrington. It is not often a beginner is called upon to ring upwards of four haurs at his first atiempt, but after ringing for 37 minuter a fresh start was made and the peal rung in 3u hours. It was atso the first attempt for Caters by Messrs. J. Pagett, B. Ashford and Percy Richards.

The frst peal of Bob Major on the bells at Lititleliam, Devon, was rung in honour of St. Gearge's Dry and faur ringers scored their first of Plain Bob on eight bells. They were Messrs. J. Deem (Littleham), B. Pidgeon (Eest Budleigh), J. L. Glanville and E. Sprague (Withycombe).
After the peal the ringers were met by the Rev. H. B. Beckwith, former secretary of the Salop Guild, of which the canductor of the peai, Mr. C. R. Lilleg, was at one time Ringing Master.
After meeting short for a peal of Major at St. Ignatius' Charch, Sumderland, on April 29th, peal of Minor was substituted. Five methods were rung, including 720 of Oxford and Kent Treble Boh opliced.
Oa May 4th, however, a full band met and rang a peal of Cambridge Surprise Major. They were all local ringers, except Mr. T, H. Reeves hon. secretary of St. Martin"a Guild, Birmingham.
The late Bishop of Elandaff, the Rt. Rev. Timothy Rees, was buried in his Cathedral on May 3rd, and on the same day a balf-mufled peal in his mamory was rung at St. Iltyd's Church, Bridgend.
By the death of the Rev. W. A. Sargent, Viear of St, Peter's, Hindley, Lancashire, ringers in that district have lost a good friend. He was a great lover of bells. He was buried at Kiridale on Aprid 17th, end on April 2lst a peal of Gravdsire Triples was rung et Findley with the bells half-muffled as a tribate to his memory.

RINGER'S GOLDEN WEDDING.

The golden wedding of Mr. and Mrs, E. Carpenter, of Chiddingfold, Surrey, was celebrated on Saturday, April $22 n d$, and a peal of Grandsire Triples, in whicy their youngest son took part, was rung at the Parish Ghurch in honour of the event.
Mr. Carpenter has been a ringer at Oliddingfold since he first came to the village about 25 years ago, and, except for illness, has mever been known to miss ringling for e Sunday service.
After the poal the ringers were entertained by Mr. and Mrs. Carpenter at Pitl Cottage. Major Hesse proposed the toast of 'Bride and Bridegroom' and wished them many more years of liealth and happiness. The toast was drunk with enthusiasm, and Mr. Garpenter suitably replied.

LEEDS AND DISTRICT SOCIETY.

ANNUAL MEETING.

The annual general mesting of the Leeds and Dictrict Society was held at Bramley on Saturday. April 29th. The members were slow in turning up and verious regsoni were suggested, such as a whage in the bus terminus owing to a Defence Services Civic Week parade through the main streets of the fown, whicir caused much congestion. The broadeast of the cap fleel was also blamed, but the trutio of tho matter probably whs that there were far too many peal attempto fzed for the meating date
The attendance was much improved after tea, when nembers mare present from Armley, Batley, Burley, Guiseloy, Elimd, Headingley (St. Chad's and St. Michael's), Idle, Leeds Parish Church, Pudsey, Ripon, Rothwell and the local company. Mr. Edward (Ned) Redshaw, of the local company, who fas now reached the age of 84 , was present during the afternoon and evening. Congratulations were offered him on the splendid way he rang in various touches.

The business meeting was held in the tower, the president (the Rev. J. H. B. Andrews) being in the chair. In addition to the minutes of the previous meeting, the record entered in the minute book of the jubilee gathering was read, which, together with the report from 'The Rifging World ' and local Press cuttings, will make a lasting record of this very interestiog and pleasant gathering.
A vote of thanks to the Vicar, churchwardens and the local company wes proposed by Mr. W. H. Senior, seconded by Mr. L. Drake and acknowledged by Mr. S. HelliwelI.
The election of officers for the year 1939-1940 resulted as follaws: President, the Rep. J. H. B. Andrews; vice-presidents, Messrs. W. H Senior, T. W. Strangeway and S. Barron; Ripging Mfaster, Mr. L. Drake: sedrotary and treasarer, Mr. H. Lofthouse.
The balance sheet and the jubiler accounts, audited by Messrs. S. تelliwell and A. Armitage, were aubmitted and adopted.
The secretary's report was read. It showed that the membership was 233 , that 00 peals were rung by the members daring the year. Oniy ten meetings were held, but were well atteaded. The jubilee Fathering filled the other meeting date. Methods rung at the meetings had heen varied and sonse mombers were able to report progress as a result of attendance at the meetings. The financial side continued to improve, although, owing to jubilee expenses, the balanced carried forward were slightly down
The next meeting is to be held at Batley, and the suggested anta is May 27 th.
A special vote of thenks was proposed by Mr. W. H. Senior and scconded by Mr. A. Armitage to Mr. F. Rayment for his work in connection with the presentation made at the golden jubilee celebration to the secretary.

Four new members were elected at the monthly meeting of tho Doncaster and District Assaciation at Barnby Dou on Saturday week. The next mecting wilt be held at Campsell.

The many friends of Mr. A. Stoneley, of Doncaster, will bo pleased to hear he is home again and mating good progress after his operation in Doncaster Royal Infirmary.
ME. John W. Fraithfull, of Southampton, who took pert on Saturday in a peal of Cambridge Royal at North Stoneham, Hants, has only rung two touches of Cambricge on ten bells-and bath were peads. Mr. Fajufinll is are of three peai ringing members of the Winciserfer and Portsmonth Diocesan Guild who surmonnt the handicap of baving only on a arm.
The daughter born last week to Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Bailey, of Dartiford. Is the fifth generation living on her mother's side. Her great-great-grandmother is an active old lady of over ninety, and her great-great-uncle is still a regular reader of 'The Ringing World."
Both tha young lady's parents are active ringers, Mr. J. E. Bailey beivg son of one of the famous brothers who made ringing history at Leiston some years ago. There are three ringers, blso, ou Mrs. Bailey's side of the fumily, so great things-if heredity goes for enything - may be expected in due sourse from the new arrival. Already several ringers lisva oftered to call her first peal.
Mrs. Paul Field, of Stoke Wake, Blandford, is now improving, and it is hoped that she will soon be out of hospital.

LINCOLN GUILD'S BESE PERFORMANCE,

To the Rditor.
Dear Sir,-Although rather late, I would like to congratulate our Lincoln friends on ringing the peal in ten Surprige Major methodg, which, in my opinion, is the best ringing performance for this county up to date on any namber of bells. The fact that Messrs. E. C. S. Turner and John Freerann, jun., have visited our bower, bave just looked ast half a dozen Surprise Minor methods and Lhen rung them quite as well as Minor ringers is enough to malte me realise that qhere is store in the above peal than a 30 Surytise Miror peal.

DUDLEY GUILD FOUNDER.

PEAL BOARD UNFILLED.
On Monday evening: May lst, a peal board was unveiled in the belfry of Dudley Parish Cluurch in memory of the late Mir. John Goodman, sen., wio was known as the 'father ' of St. Thomas' hand of ringers. Mr. Goodman commenced his rimging career about 1871 at Sedgieg, and after a few years identified himself with St. Thomas' Church, where, for upwards of 50 years, he was a regular Sonday service ringer. He rang his first peal in 1872 and had rugg altogether 130 peals.
He wes one of the pioneers in the formation of the Dudiley and District Guild in 1899 and remained a membex until his death two Years ago. His one aim was always that the ringing of the bells and the striking should be nothing short of the best.
It was decided a few months ago tinat St. Thomas comppiny siould perpetuate lis memory by placing a board in the belfry recording the memorial peal rung on April 25zd, 1938. It was unveiled by the Ven. Dr. A. P. Shepherd (Archdeacon of Duiley), who is also president of the Guild. Amongest the ringers assembled in the belfry wore several ol $\eta$ friends of the late hr. Goodman, and the company also included Mr. J. MeDougal Tait and Mr. W. R. Edwards (churehwardens).
After the dedication Mr. Herbert Sieppard, on behali of the Dudley band, presented the board to the Vicar and wardens to be kopt by them in perpetuity, and the Ficar, who gratefully accepted the hoara, handed it over to the care of the churelowardens.
Mr. Sheppard then expressed the ringers thanks to the Ficar for so kindly conomg to perform the dedication service, and to the churchwardens for their preseace. The board bears the particulars of the peal of Grandsire Caters, whish "was rung with the bells half-mufled to the mevory of the late Jofn foodman, sen., on the frst anniversary of his death.'

LEADING CONDUCTORS-70.

JOSEPH D. JOHNSON.

The hon. secretary of the Worcestershirc Association, Mr. Josepin D. Johnson, of Euesham, is a member of a family of ringers and croated a record by ringing and calling on handbells his first peal at the uge of 13 years. This was in peal of Grandsire Doubles rung at his home at Hintan, Worcestershire, with lis fatlier and eldest sister, on Aggust 5th, 1912, the youthiul conductor ringing 5-6. He then tanght his second sister to ring and in December of the same year Joseph and the two girls created a record, wilinh still stands, , , the youngest baud to ring a peal. Their ages were 12,13 and 10 respectively, and the peal, which was also Grandsire Doubles, was independenty witnessed. It was a remarkable nchievement for three children.

Mr. Jolinsan was born at Hinton-on-1heGreen, on March 19th, 1899, and he is atill a ringer at the church in that wilage. It was only natural that the early interest lie developed in ringing should lead him to greater things, and lie has now rung peals on tower bells from Grandsire Doubles to Cambride Maximus, and nn handbells from Doubles to Treble Twelve. We believe he is the only conductor who has called peals 'in hand' on all numbers from five ta twelve and all from morking pairs. His peals now has conducted 111, thase on handbells numbering 51 , of which Ite luas conducted 39. Out of his total Mr. Johrison lias ring 185 peals for the Worcestershire Associttion.

When be was ondy 16 yenrs of age he paid a visit to Birmingham and started on 7-8 for a peal of Stedman Caters without having previously struck a blow in it. The peal fatlen after ahout an tluree days later. Mr. Jahnson conducted the opening peal of Stedman Cinques on the recast twelve at Worcester Cathedral in 1928 and called the first peals ever rung of Persinore Bob Major and Hinton Surprise Major. He also conductad the first peals by the Worcestershire Assoriation of Spliced Treble Bob Minar in 14 methods, Erin Ceters, Combined Kent and Oxford Treble Bob Royal, Bob Mastmus and Spliced Bob and Little Bob Maximus, on tower kells: and Donbles and Minor, Grandsire Caters and Cinques, Bols Royal, Kent Treble Bob Royal and Maximus and Erin Caters on liandbells.

Mr . Johnson, in addition to his peal ringing setivities, bas served the Worcestershire Associabion in a number of offices. He was Southern Branch Ringing Master from 1922 to 1925 , and Master of the Association from 1926 to $198 \%$. Fie became general seeretary in 1935 and is still in office, while he has been one of the representatives of the association on the Central Coumcil since 1831 .

OXFORD UNIVERSITY SOCIETY

TO BECOME INDEPENDFNT ORGANISATION.
The arnuat busimess meeting of Oxford University Bociety was held at St. Peter's Hall on Tuesday, April 25th. In the absence of the president, the Rev. C. E. Wigg (Keble), the Master, Mr. R. D. St. J. Smith (Jesus) presided.
The main business was the election of officers. The Master apd the treasurer. Mr. M. O. G. Hayter (Christ Church), both handed in their resiguations, as they would shortly be leaving Oxford. The secretary, Mr. P. J. M. Bryan (St. Peter's Hall), was elected Master, and Mr. M. A. C Framer (Merton) to suceped him in tle secretaryship. Mr. J. Wrigiy (Merton) was elected treasurer. Mr. R. Tydeman (St. John's) was re-elected on the committee, and two vacant places were filled by the election of Messris. Palmer (New College) nnd Statt (Balliol).

A resolution, which had beon passed at the previous meeting that the society should cease from being affiliated to the Diocesan Guild, was ratified. It was exphasibed that this was not due to nuy disagrevment ar strained relations witil the Diocesan Guild: but it was felf that the time had come for the society to become an eatirely independent organisation.

Ringine arrangements for the term were explained.
A pood deal of discussion fook place on the guestion of the possibility of a summer tour, but no definite decision was reached.

ATTENDANCE AT MEETINGS.

HOW TO ENCOUPAGE LARGER NOMBERS. To the Edicor.

Dear Sir, When, under "other business" at the aunual meeting of the Middlesex County Association, Mr. G. W. Fletcher spoke of the Lack of enthusiasu shown by some members in this respect, I rose to say that 1 suspected thet there wero sonte "tan minutes to spare." I would dwell spon this thought. Il cannot remenalber a bime when there las , been found opportunity to discuss a matter of general intercst an a meeting of this kind. The agend is geverally too loug to allow of it, or the time is too shori ; or, perbaps, matier is not forthconimg. More likely, I happen to inve beet absent when such has been the case.
I reminded the meoting that something of the sort had been discussed wheo the assomation visited Clerteuwell, whd that I had then asked whether the officers were entircty free from blame. There wes no question of attacking the Master. I consider thai Mr. A. W. Coles is the finest Master that ever stepped inte a beliry-the most courteons and helpful ringer who ever endeavoured to pilot me through a sirange method. I offered certain suggestions, which Mr. Goies afterwards said were unworkuble-and he explained why.
The first thing that occurs to me is the necessity lor lopaity, to the Muster, by, a sufficient number of experts who would be willing to stand behind or take a rope during the whole of the ringing time -only to take a rope where it carnot be filled by others. Wach wouid he responsible for the success of the man ringing "his, rope. The Master would encourage members to ask for something they wantedsomething they could not get at lome; sumathing they, in all probability, had conse hoping to get; but which they seldom did get, urd of whiel the experts already (by reason of ther ability) had probably sickened alsewhere. I believe these able men could be found-who does not expand to fattery? Mr. C. W. Roberts, who arged that learners should practise at home, is bhe very type I would choose to ' stand behind ' me!
Can it be doubted that ringers, of all sorts and sizes, fair, indifferent and bad, would flock to meetings where there was an outside chance of trying something they lad 'looked up'? I lind ' looked up 'Some-thing-Triples, for clerkenwell, and was done out of it! I came awny a tiay bit disappointed-of courge I did, and I expect this happens time and again to hundreds of ringers up and down the country.
And I would ask Masters to carry along touclies in the same methad until those wino specially wanted that method had been satisfied, instead of coming back to the method later on. I onee longed for a colurse of Bristol, and asked for it. It was put on at intervala, and mare than one rieger got in two or three ar the courses- $I$ wns uthlucky; unable to grab," I suppose. Ha those courses followed, nobody would have had the cheek to stand in a second one running, unless specifically asked to do so. In this connection I wouli ask the Master to be strong, ard tactfully to point out to the greedy (hut very often thouglatless) ringer that he was getbing too much.
So much for the man who goes mainly to ring. There are, however, many who attend neetings for the sociability of the tea arnd mating. To meet ofd friends, to meet ney faces; to chat over things of mutual interest-peals, compositions, ideas and what not? And there are many who would attend, if something could be put over in tive way of a talk on some mattor, ajter the meating-as witnass the popularity of the radia 'talks.' I should lite to listen to some tips on conducting Stedman-given in a simple manare on the lines of the articles recently printed in this paper; or to a critioism on common mistakes of handling, and their effect ow striking. Aud what about an exposition on the "Proof of Treble Bob,' sullig in Larmony by Messrs. Baker, Joyce, Trollope aud Turner

PRESENTATION TO A SECRETARY.

APPRECIATION OF MR. T. GRANT'S WORK IN BATH DISTRICT. A quarterly mpeting of the Bath Brancl of the Bath and Wells Diocesan Assaciation was bele at Bathampton on May Bth. The Vicar very generously provided a splendid tea in the Village ##all, which was greatly appreciated.
The meeting was made the oncasion of presenting Mr. T. Grant, the esteemed local secretary, with a birthday gift, which consisted of a wallet or notes and a framed illuminated address. Preb. Ross (the chaimans presented the wallet to Mr. Grand. He spoke very highig of the good work he lias done and is stili doing for the association, and sadid how much all the members and himself rejoiced in his help and gaod work.
The Ringing Master (Mr. W. J. Prescott) then handed Mr. Grant the address, whicla he himself bad kindly framed, and read the nantes of the difermbe towers and friends who land contributed so gemerously. He also proposed a hearky vote of thanks to those mho had worked to belp forward the presentation.
It should be added that Mr. Prescott's name slauld be associated with the athers, as he had put in so mach work himself
Mr. Grant suitably respanded and expressed hearty thanks for tive gift, sdding that be was surprised he had so many friends.
The meoting concluded by singing 'For he's a jolly good fellow ' and the giving of three hearty cheers for Mr. Grant.

SUSSEX COUNTY ASSOCIATION. PROPOSAL FOR DIVISIONAL RINGING MASTERS

Future Annual Meetings to be In Brighton.

The annual general meating of tire Sussex Countr Ascociation was held in Brighton or Saturday, April 29th. An attendance of over 80, which is a record for some years past, was representative of 30 afiliated towers and included visitors from the neighbouring counties.During the afternoon and evening the two ten-bel! towers of st. Nicholas and St. Peter's attracted large numbers of ringers from the opening time of 2.30 ㅍutil their closure at 9 p.m. The Good Shepherd, eqght bells, was available in the evening, but, partly owing to tiie bad weather and the recent changes in the town'g transport not a large number was present. Ringing at the towers was generally of a high standard and the bells were kept fully occupied.

The service took place in St. Peter's, and the address uras given by the recently appointed Vichr of Brighton, Canon G. H. Warde, M.A. In the couree of his address the Ficar disclosed the fact that, although nof limself a ringer, both his father and grandfather had been members of tie band at Little Horsted. Previous to his appointment at Brighton, the Ficar had met ringers at similar gatherings at Granthana.
The text was taken from the Gospel for the second Sunday after Faster, "I am the Good Shepherd," and the differeace was pointed aut between the British idea of a slyepherd and that common in the East. There it was a truly manly occupation with many risks to run and dangers to overcome. There the sinepherd never drives his Rock, hut goes in front to protect it from the encounters with wild beasts. In the 2otin century man required more than ever before a leader, a gulde, s shepherd fowards the ideals of harmony and peace. The clergy werg the repregentatives of the Shepherd, and the rimgers' art was a great and important addition to the power of the priest to lreep God in the minds of the people. For this reason the ringers should be prominent in the councils of the Ghurch, so that God was not oaly represented by the parish priest, but alsa by the ringers as shepherds. With this jdeal casried out, the churches should be full to consecrate prayer tu peace.

STRONG FINANCLAL POSITION.
At, the business meeting, which followed tea, the Master (Mr. H. R. Butcher), who presided, was supported by the hom. treasurer (Mr. A. D. Stone), the hon. general secretary (Mr. S. E. Armstrong) and the divisional secretaries. The meeting welcomed Mr. J. T. Rickman, H past Master, and Mr. G. Wijlinms, the Master of the Wirchester and Portsmouth Diocesan Guild.

The Rev FI. E. Collins was elected an honorary life member
Despite heavy expenses by benefits to members for rail fares and teas, the general necount revealen an increased balance of $25 \mathrm{~g}_{5} 7 \mathrm{~d}$. The recejpts included 276 2s. [rom subseriptions. The balance in band at the end of the year was $£ 1315 \mathrm{~s}$. 9d. In addition there is a balance of 250 in the reserve fuad, $£ 88$ 7s. Si. in the Benerolent Fund and ©4 897 d . in the certificate account.
The annual report, signed by the Master and hon. secretary gaid:
The constant cry that the number of ringers is rapidly falling has caused us to examine the mamhership lists in the past reporta, taking As a basis only those rivgers who are definitely atached to towers. The present membership is 681 , with 65 towerg in affilintion, as compared with 694 and 66 towerg in 1934. There has been a decline of only 13 during five years. An even more significant fact emerges When tha number per tower is examined. The 1937 list showed thet there were 10.4 ringers to every peal, or more than enough to man the bells fully on every occasion they are likely to be required. The town towers seem to have experienced a decrease in membership, while those in the country have practically made up the logses. Nevertheless, Wef are forced ta one conclasion: that the main fault lies with the ringers themselves. It should be possible among a body of men united int the practice of such an urt as ringing, which demands the utmost of concentration and co-operation. to avoid petty irritations caused hy unpunctiality and absence, which are almost always the first steps ta digruption.

We are also of the oninion that much more could be done towards the well-being of ringers by the clergy and church officials. The Ficar And churchwardens are often elected as presidents or vice-presidents of a local bind, but there the interest ends. The ringers are generally out of sight, not very accessible, and the sound of the hells is too often rather casually regarded as a familiar and sometimes objectionable noise in the bacleground of religion.

TMPORTANCE OF SUITABLE JFADER
Apart from the question of recruitment, in which church officials could be a rery real help, there still remains the difficulty of leeping a hand together once it has been formed,' proceeded the report. 'On this point we can offer no siagentions. It js purely a matter of select3ing e suitable leader who bas the requisite tact and personality to namy the hand through the diffeulties which are cerfain to arise. It is very often the leader on whose shoulders the burden of making ontside contacts falls, and this is a point to be considered on his election."
The report concluded with thanks to the clerry for help given at meetings, the organists whe had assisted with the musical arraggements, and to the dixisional secretaries.

WATERFORD CATHEDRAL BELLS  RESTORED RING REOPENED.

A Peal That Insuenced Ringing in Ireland.
The fine ring of eight bells at Waterford Cathedral, Ireland, have been completely restored and were reopened on Easter Day, the dedication being performed by the Dean (the Yery Rev, C. Stevenson), who, in the course of lis address, spoke of the joy with which they heard the bells ringipg egain, after several months of silence. He added: I believe this work hes been thoroughly well done, and now the fittings of the bells and the arrangements for the ringers have been moderaised and put in good order, so that for many years to come we shall have no anxiety with regard to our bells. I am thankfulwe all are thankful-to hare this work completed so satisiactorily.
The hells were cast by Mears in 1870 and lave a tenor of 20 cwt . The first peal in Ireland was rung on them by the College Youths at the opening-Grandsire Triples, conducted by J. Pettitt. chis was followed the next year by the first peal by an Irish Socioty, Granisire Triples rung by the local society, conducted by C. Lee, who had been left behind by the College Youtlse as instructor.

In this peal the gecond was rung by $\mathbf{R}$. $R$. Cherry, who lafer became Lord Chief Iustice of Ireland. It was through his influeace that the fine ring of ten were erected in St. Patrick's Cathedral, Dublin, by the late Lord Iveagh, and afterwards Lord Chief Justice Cherry himself presented two trebles to make twelve. He was also the founder of the Irish Assomiation sad its first president, so that Waterfurd Cethedral and its bells lave extended their inftuence to the whole of Ireland.

After about 70 years of continuous work, it wes found that the freme had become very loose in its joints and most of the fittings worn out. The present restoration was therefore decided wpon. The old frame was found to be in sound condition, and has been retained. It Las been stremgthened with angle brackets and vertical tie rods, and refixed on a heavy steel grillage Gft. lower in the tower than previously. The two tenors have been fitted with new steel headstocks and, with the remainder of the bells, placed on ball bearings

The work has been carriel out by Messis. Gillett and Tohnston, of Croydon, in a most satisfachory manmer, both in regard to the 'go. of the balls and the sound in the inmoediate meighbourhood, which is mow modulated, where previously it had been very moisy.

QUARTER CENTURY AS CHURCHWARDEN.

Before evening service, on Sunday, May &th, at Calperley Parish Church, Forks, e quarter-peal of Kent Treble Bob Major was rung in honour of Dr. Fughes, who has completed 25 years' service as Vicar's clinurcharden. The ringers were S . Wheatley 1, W. Popplewell foonductor) 2 W. Stanhope 3, S. Keighley 4, G. Thompson 5, W. Scrimsluaw 6, 0. Scott 7. W. Luee 8.

DISTRICTS REARRANGED.

Contioued from previous column.
The peal secretary reported a fall in the number of peals rung during tha yoar, and Mr. Oliver Sippetts was congratulated on being the 'chanpion conductor' for the year, passing Mr. Relfe's tot fl by one cimost in tiat last days of the year.
The preaident, vice-presidents, Master, hon. treasurer, hon. general secretary and hon. peals secretary were reelected without opposition. The hon. auditors and trustees were again placed in office.
For the better working of the divisions it was decided to transfer Rotherfield to the Eastern Division, and Stoyning and Upper Beeding to the Western. The members at Rotherfield felt that it was not very convenient. under the existing transport facilities, to reach the Northern Division meetings, while a meeting recently held there had been wery poorly attended. The transfer of Steyning and Ipper Beeding was interded to zncrease the number of eight-bell towers in the Western Division

On the motion affecting the place of the next general meeting, an amendment to the original proposition was carried by a large majority, fixing futare meetings in Brighton. It was strongly argued that a long narrow county such as Sussex made it difficult for members to move with facility from one end to the other without great loss of bime anA expense. The jnetances of the meetings held in Chichester A brisk discussion took place on the motion to appoint ringing masters for divisional meetings, some representatives strongly supporting their aecessity, others being as strongly in disagreement. Finally it was decided to alter the rules 50 that such ringing masters could be appointed if the annzal meeting of the division concerned so desiced. The general secretary pointed out that thet was one of the things in which $h=$ would wisis the divisions to decide by their own government, and not for a general meeting to force, either one way or the other.
The final item on the agende was the consideration of a letter from the Contral Councif with reference to a subsidy for the printing of the Surprise Major hoak. The association was asked to guaranfee the purchase of twelve copies, and it was noted that no sindication was given at th what form the book would take, or when it would lof likely to be in distribution. Nevertheless, promises were received for the taking up of 26 copies.

The meeting concluded with a vote of thanks to the clergy of the various churches for their assistance in the arranging of the meeting, and to others who had helped.

KENT COUNTY ASSOCIATION.

BY-MEFTINGS OPPOSED.

The Maidstone District beld a quarterly meeting at Hollingbourne on April 22nd, when 25 members attended from West Malling, Maidstone, Staplehurst, Charing, Linton and Ightham, together with the local band. This heary ring of six were put to good use, both before and after service, in methods ranging from Doubles to Treble Bobs The arsociation service was conducted by the Vicar (the Rev. E. A. Newmen), Miss Thomas being at the organ.

Fea was served in the Parish Rom, kizdly arranged by Mr. Colemen, of the local band, Mrs. Coleman and afhers.

At the businesi meeting, with the Ficar iu the chair, enght new members were elected, two from Wrotham and six from Aylesford. The nexf quarterly meeting will be held at West Malling on July 8th.

A discussion follawed upork by-meetings, Mr. Leeson and Mr. Grice wisliug to wipe them out, pointing out that membors should make every effort to attend the quarterly mreetings. It was said that if the district hald meetings with a disputable quality of ringing, the AntiNoise League would have someting to say in the matter
Mr. Wenban moved an amendment that there was a need for bymeetings. He pointed out that by-meetings were held for the good of the younger ringers so that they could improve their efforts to cacry on change ringity.
On a vote being talken, the amemment was carried by 14 votes to two, and it was decided that Hnnton be wisited for a by-meeting on Saturdey, June 3rd

Mr. Leeson proposed a vote of thanks to the Vicar for the use of the bells, for laking the service and presiding at the meeting; also to Miss Thoman for her services at the organ, and to Mr. and Mrs. Coloman for arranging such a splendid tea.

DRRBY DTSTRICT AT WEST HALLAM

A very successinl meeting of the Derby District of the Midand Counties Assoriation was held nt West Hallam on April 29th. The Rector (the Ror. Lloyd Jones) assisted in raising the helis and rang the treble to the first touch of Grandsire Doubles. Stedmam, Grandsire, Treble Bob and Bob Major were rung during the afternoon and tea followed at the Punch Bowl

At tha business meeting the Rector was voted to the cheir.
Members were urged to uttend the meeting at Staveley on Saturday, May 20th, when it is hoped to re-form the Chesterfeld District. All ringers were invited, but especially members of the Derby and Nottingham Districts
It was decided to hold the noxt monthly meeting at Melbourne on Saturday, Juthe 3rd. Tliree members were elected.
Mr. J. Pagett, of the Cathearal company, moved a very hearty vote of thank to the Rector for the use of the bells and for the welcome extended to ringers at West Hallam.

The Rector, in humorous reply, said he had been told that, before ona could be considered a ringer, he had to break a stay. Well, he had broken one, but he monli hardly consider he was a ringer yet, though he loved to hear the bells and was alwaye pleased whee ringers came to frisit him.
On returwing to the tower, frest errivals were met from Derby, Melbourne, Ticknall, Sawley, Nottingham, Kimberley and Duffid, Learners were well catered for in the simpler methode, and the experts rang some well-struele touches in Stedman, Little Bob, Double Norwich and Duffield.

VICTORIA RINGER'S VISIT

PEAL SUCGESE TOLTOWS TNFORTTT ATE FATLURF

On Tuestay of last week, Mr. Edward W. Izard, of Victoria, British Columbia, who, with Mrs. Izard, is visiting the homeland after 25 years in Canada, taok part in a peal of Grazdsire Triples at Guildford Cathedral It had been arragged to emable him to ring his first peal before returaing to Fictoria at the end of this month. Mr. Izard, who is an engineer by profession, holds on important position in a obipyard at Vfotoria, and he was responsible for hanging the aew ring of eight bells at the Gathedral. The bells, it will be remembered, were cast at Whitechapel Foundry about three years ago, and, before being shipped, were blessed bv the Bishop of London at an impressive Eervice held jin the foundry.
Mr. Izard, whe is a native of Slindoc, Sussex, rang in Glasgow before he went to British Columbia, and has taken up the art aqain sertouly now that there are bells in his own city. He has got round him a band of 20 ringers-some from the old country and others who have been taught there, and they ring Grandsire extremely well. They broadeast tefore the service every Sunday evening.
an attempt for the peal had previously been made three weeks earlier, but had unfortimately to be abandoned after only twenty minutes' ringing becsuse an insecturely fastened shutter in the clock case fell out, owing to the oscillation of the tower, and interfered with the seventh rope. Afterwards a quarter-peal of Graudsire Triples was rung in which Mr. Anthony Trotman, now of Belfast, but who was in Victorin when the bells were ingtalled and the band formed, took part. The ringers were E. W. Izard 1, F'. Bowden 2, J. S. Goldsmith 3. W. J. Robinsan 4, A. E. Trotman 5, Rev. J. P. Pelloe 6, A. H. Puling (conductor) 7, E. T, Aylifte B.

ESSEX ASSOCIATION.

SUPPORT FOR BENEVOLENT FUND SCHEME.

A meating of the North-Western Division was hald at Harlow on Saturday, April $22 n d$, when ringers from Stansted, Brozboume, Hertford, Cambridge, Wansted, Harlow Common, Sawston, Woodford, Exning, Sawbridgeworth, Newmarlet, Roydon and the local company onjoyod touches of Cambridge and Superlative Surprise, Double Norwich, Kent Treble Bob, Grandsire and Stedman on the belis at the Parish Chureh.

A hearty weloome was extended to the curate (the Rev. D. W. Breakey), who conducted the service in the absonce of the Ficar. Tea, arranged by Mr. C. H. Tucker, was enjoyed in the Church Hall close by. An interesting meeting follower, the Rev. D. W. Breakey taking tre chair.
It was decided to hold the next meeling at Littlebury and Elmdon.
The secretary (Mr. W. Wheeler) reported that a joint meeting of tho Essex and Ferts Associations would be Leld at Bishop's Stortford on Saturday, May 13 th, and that arrangements were being made to hold a meeting at Epping early in September.

Mr. J. Chalk (Master of the S.W. Division) was asked to speak on the suggested Benevolent Fund for Essex ringers. He mentioned the coming Gath anniversary of the Essex Association and hoped that it would see the izauguration of a Benevolent Fund. Ho thought that an association with a memberslip of over 700 ringing members should embrace some sort of benevolence. Up to noy Essex ringers had had little opportunity to assist is faithful member when in trouble. A considerable number of ringers were eager to ses a fund established. A whip round by a local band or even a collection at a district meeting could not do justice to a deserving case, but a well-organised central fund, backed up by all towers, could do effective work. Reference was made to the great work the Kent Association had done in assisting many of its old ringers. Was Essex, proud of its members fod their ringing accomplishments, going to ignoce the "humen touch" that characterises practical benovolence?

After hearing the details of the suggestad scheme, a proposition to support it was carried unamimously.
the meoting concluded witli & hearty vote of thanks, proposed by Mr. L. Cordell (Master of the division), to the Vicar for the use of the bellis, to the curats for conducting the service and afterwards for taking tis obair, to the organist, to the ladies for serving ter, and to Mr. ©. F. Tucker for all he had done to make the meeting a success. SOUTH-WESTERN DIVISION'S APPROVAL.
A meeting of the South-Western Division of the Essex Association was held at Norilı Weald on Satarday, April 29th, and, despite unfavourable weather conditions, was well supported by 40 members and friends from Loyton, Lebtonstone, Wanstead, Woodiord, Romford, Hornchurch, Beritley, Harlow Cowmon, Springfield, Little Waltham and the local band. A short service was condacted by the Vicar (the Rey. O. Gerney), who gave a hearty welcome to all and expressed his delight at seeing such a large gathering. Tea, lindly provided by the local ringers, and much apprecisted by all present, was partaken of in the sohoolroom
The District Master (Mr. J. Chalk) presided at the business meeting and referred to the enthusiasm and loyalty of the North Weald band both to the church and the association. Ble tharled the Ficar for his wery warm welcome.
Seven new members were elected, including three from the North Weald band, and Rayleigh was selected as the place for the next meeting, to be held on July 8th.

A lengthy discussion then took place with regard to the proposed Benevolent Fund. Mr. Chalk stated he had been in touch with all towers in the association, snd from what he land heard he feit there was a definite desire for a fund of this nature, and that the inauguration of such a fund this Fear would be a most fitting mark of the celebration of tha 60th anniversary of the association. This was greeted with applause, whereupon Mr. Chalk stated that be hoped the district would give him every support at the innual geveral meeting to be held at Chelmsford on Whit Monday.
The meeting closed with a hearty vote of thanks to the Vicar for the use of the tower and bells and for conducting the service, to the organist, to Mr. King and the local ringers for providing the tea and making all arrangements, and to the ladies for serving at the tables. This was carried with applause and responded to by Mr. King on behals of the Jecni hand.
The tower whs then revisited, whero touches in various six-bell methods were brought round.

FAMOUS PEAL TO BE RESTORED.

ST. MARGARETM, WESTMINSTER, BELLS TO BE RERUNG.
Messrs. Gillett and Johnston have just received from Canon Storr the order to restore the famous peal of bells at St. Margaret's Church, Westminster. The work will consist of rehanging with entirely new ftatings of the latest type, including ball bearings and metal headstocks. The bells alscu are to be carefully tuned. The existing oek framework, which is in sery sound condition, wil] be retained.

In addition, the belfry pindows are to be specially treated so as to modulate the sound of the bells outside the tower, especially on the side adjacent to Westminster $A$ bley.

DON'T SCRUB YOUR HANDS!

Cleanse and preserve your skin this simple way

To many people, the problem or getting the hands really clean without harming the skin is a serious one. Grease and grime, which become deeply ingrained into the pores of the skin, are extremely difficult to remove, and ordinary washing with soap or even scrubbing will fail to remove them completely. Housewives, particularly, who complain that their hands get ruined by the nature of their work, will find the preparation called DERMAFOAM a real "godisend." DERMAFOAM just smoothes away dirt and grease without effort. It gets right down into the pores and removes every particle of grime, leaving skin beautifully supple and healthy.

Men, too-when you've finished that dirty job on the car, DERMAFOAM will quickly banish all grease and oil from your hands. It acts almost magically-working under and around the nails and into every minute crease, removing all trace of dirt in a flash.

Engineers, Painters, Car Mechanics, Printers - everyone - will welcome DERMAFOAM, the modern method of cleansing and protecting the hands.

BEGINNERS AND TECHNICAL TERMS

In a letter in another column, the Rev. W. W. Lucas returns to the question of the use of technical terms in the reaching of beginners. He holds to the yiew that technical terms are used a great deal more than is necessary or desirable, and goes on to suggest that there should be a school of teachers formed from men whocould teach change ringing by the use of the ordinary English language. It would be interesting if our correspondent would give in greater detail what technical terms should be abolished in the teaching of beginners. and what language equally concise could be substituted for them. We realise that when a beginner first hears the terms used in ringing they may sound a strange jargon ; but every pursuit has its technical words, and, if in ringing these are at first less understandable than in most others, it is, we think, not because they are really less intelligible, but because the public are not brought into such close contact with the terms of ringing as they are with those of sport. From early youth the common language of cricket, football and the like, although technical, becomes part of every boy's verbal equipment, as his knowledge of the various games grows. The public read them constantly in books and newspapers, and they become almost part of the general vocabutary. It would be difficult, nevertheless, to get on in these pursuits without the use of technical terms. The need for them in ringing instruction is just as necessary; but they sound strange to the beginner because they have not previously been part of his everyday training, as it were. We cannot believe, however, that the few terms used in connection with the elementary stages of ringing can offer a real obstacle to a beginner of average intelligence, if the instructor will take the trouble at the outset to explain them. It may be that, having been steeped in these terms for years, we cannot see that what they are intended to convey can be more concisely substituted by ordinary words, and we would like to learn how they can be improved upon, bearing in mind that, while ringing is in progress, instructions have to be given in the briefest possible time. In any case, there must come a stage in the beginner's career when he will have to master them.

Nevertheless, we feel there is still much to be desired in the way many beginners are taught. The misforture is that beginners not infrequently get into the hands of men who, however well intentioned, are thernselves inefficient; that is to say, their own standard is not such as to make them competent instructors, and it is difficult to see how this state of aftairs is to be overcome. There are two sides to the teaching of ringing; one is the prac(Continued on page 310.)

tical and the other the theoretical, and if a beginner is to make real progress both these things must proceed side by side. The instructor in one may not be equally competent in the other, and it would be a good thing, although we cannot see how it is to be made easily attainable, if there could be a course of instruction given in the areas of the various associations which would improve the qualifications of those who wish to instruct beginners. These ringers could then be made available for giving lessons in other towers, but we are afraid such a desirable state of affairs is scarcely realisable, and that beginners in many places will continue to be taught by ringers, enthusiastic men without question, but of doubtful qualifications for the task, who will pass on to their pupits their own faults and failings !

KENT COUNTY ASSOCIATION.

TONBRTDGE DISTRICT AT FAST PECKEAM
The spring meetigg of the Tombridge District, was held at East. Peckham on May 6th, and proved a great success.
The bells were put to good use during the afternoon and evening in the standard Minor methods, under the leadership of the Master, Mr. E. J. Ladd, althorgh some difficulty was experienced in getting the members into the beliry, as the urge to evjoy the sunchme and magnificent view was great, Service was conducted by the Vicar (the Rev. F. W. Benmitt).

Tea was partaken of on the lawn at the vicarage by 50 membars. It was kinuly provided by Mr. R. M. Cook, of Roydon Hall.

The business meeting was presided over by Mr. E. H. Lewis, supported by Mr. T. Seunders, the local secretary, Mr. E. J. Ladd, and the district seoretary. Among those present were Mrg, E, H. Lewpis, Mr. A. A. Hughes, Mr. and Mrs. G. ㅍ. Cross and Mr. T. Groombridge. Five new members were elected.
A report of the last quarterly peal attempt revealed that it had been a failure, someone having blundered, after ringing Stedman Triples at Edenbridge for 2 hours and 25 minates.

Mr. Ladd intimated that the next attempt would be for Minor, and asked for names from which to pick a band.
The Chairman thanked the Vicar for his kind welcome, for conducting the service and his interesting adiress.

A rote of thanks to Mr. T. Saunders for all be bad done to help make the meating such a success concluded the meeting.

SALISBURY DIOCESAN GUILD.

DORCHESTER BRANCE TO VISIT MLLTON ABBEY
A very successful mecting of the Dorchester Branch of the Salishury Guild was held at Maiden Newton. It was the first meeting lield thero for about seven years and welcomed the return of this tower to the Guid.

The Gaild Office was conducted by the Rector (Canon D. F. Slemeck). assisted by the chairman of the branch (the Rev. A. W. Markby). The Rector qave the address, and after the service the wembers and friends, to tive mumber of about 70 , adjourued to the Parish Hall, where a suraptuous tea awaited them.
At the busizess meeting which followed, the Rev, A. W. Markby presided, scpported by the Mester of the Guild (the Rev. R. H. Gundry), Canon Slemeck, the Rev. A. A. Godley (Stratton), the Rev. A. S. Bryant (Wpwey) and ilie Rev. R. P. Farrow (Bast Lulworth), vico-chairman of the branch. Several hon. members were present and the following towers were represeated: Bere Regis, Bradiord Peverell, Chariangter, Fast Lulworth, Dorchester, Stratton, Bydling, Shroton, Meidea Newton, Epwey, Wool and Wyle Regis. Welcome visitors were Messrs. C. S. 3ird (Heston), R. Bird (Isleworth), and L. Rumsay (Teddington, Middesex).

The hon. secretary rentinded members of the nauual festival of the Guild, to be hold at Calne on Baturday, May 13th. He also reported he bad been successfil in obtaining permission for a ringers" gatkering at Milton Abbey, probably on Saturday, Jume 17th. It was five years since they visited this glorious spot.
Tho announcement was received with applause.
The quarterly meeting will now be held in July at Upwey.
The hon. secretary whas asked to send a letter of congratalation to Mr. H. H. House, correspondent for Frampton tower, as the meeting oincider with his wedding day.
The Master said he would let them into a secret, A noted ringer, whom they all knew well, was to be married zeat month, and le hoped they wrould ring their bells for the occasion.
Onv new honorary member and one ringine member were elected.
The Chairman gave a hearty welcome to the wisitors, and the ustal votes of thanks were passed with acchantion, especially that to the Rector, and the local band and their wives who provided such an excellent tea. A welcome was given to the locel band on their returu to the fold.
The Rev, R. P. Farrow, as a change ringing parson, said a few words of encouragement to the members, and urged them to study the higher methods of change ringing.
The Hon. Secretary said lie repretted the money had not been forthcoming for the repair of Wyke Regis bells, which were still silent, and kept then all from an eiglit-bell practice tower.
The memaliers afterwards returned to the hower, where this fine light peal of sis were kept going for prsctice for the learners untijl nearly $90^{1}$ clock. Some went on to the neighlouring tower of Cattistock and had a slore fouch, and listened to the carillon of 35 bells.

SURFLEET RINGER'S DEATH

It is with much regret that we record the death of Mr. Foseph W. Flowers, of Surfleet, Limednsinre, who passed away et the Johnson Hospital, Spalaing, on April 21st. after an operation.

The funeral took place at Eurfleet on the following Thesday.
Mr . Flowers had been a ringer at St, Lanarences for 41 years, being one of the first to join up in response to an appeal for rjogers by the late Rey. H. Law James, when he first wont to Surfleet in 1888. During his life Mr. Flowers gerved as sexton for atumber of years and also filled the office of sidesman.

Although he was not a great peal ringer-he rang about. 15 pealshe was regular in his attendance for service ringing until about a year ago. when failing health compelled him to give it up.
It is interesting to note that his grandfather, Mr. Henry Robinson, was in ringer at St. Laurence's Charch for 60 years, so that between them they gave over 100 years' serviee.

SUSSEX COUNTY ASSOCIATION.

The emnual meeting of the Western Division of the Sussex County Association was held at Heene (Worthing) on Saturday, April 22ad, when members were present from Angmering. Arundel, Billingshurst, Brighton Chichester, Heene, Shorcham and Storington. Service was conducted by the Rector (the Rev. E. A. Havitand), who gave the ringers a cordial welcome.
Tea and business meeting followed, presided over by the Rector.
The whole of the ontgotng officers were re-elected, and a wote of tharks was proposed to the Rector for the use of the bells, also for providing the excellent tea.
In the evening both Heene and Tarring belfries were visited by the members for further ringing.

CANTERBURY CATHEDRAL RINGER' ${ }^{\text {O }}$ DEATH.

The deatli oceurred on Easter Monday of Mr. Charles William Brett, who was for many years a member of the band at Canterbury Cathedral. He was $53^{\prime \prime}$ years of age.
At the Cathedral on Apri] 13 thn a quarter-peal of Stedman Caters was rung with the bells half-mufled as a lase tribute of respect: J. Walter 1, G. G. Jenkins 2, F. A. Fairbeard 3, P. F. Small 4, E. E. Trendelf 5, F. G. Brett (composer nud conductor) 6, R. Baldock 7, F. I. Weller 8, B. J. Luck 9, G. Simpson 10.

PEAL NOTES.

METHOD WITHOUT A DODGE.

Double Cosleny Court Major, the first peat of which was rung on Saturday at Twiekenbam, is a method of the beater track. It is a plain method by designation, but by mo means plain to ring. There is not a dodge in the whole of the plain course, and, looking at the diagram, it seems as if the bells hop hither and thither iudiscriminately, to settle for a lead in front or at the back to practice Stedman 'whole-turas.' Aetuaily the method is of the Bristol type, and one of the ringers, mathematically trained, not inaptly described it as ' Bristol Surprise square-rooted.'
But if you would life to know wore of the method, turn up the Contral Council's 'Collection of Plain Major Methods,' where Double Coslany will be fould, as well as a great many other methods well worth ringing.
The peal on Saturday was rung with fourth's place bobs, which brings up repeating work for the bells above. It was, in facti a Bristol Surprise composition doubled by the use of singles, and when a single is calied all the seven working helis are affected. The method can he ruag with a sixth's plene bob if desired.
The first attempt for ar peal in the method was made about 13 years ago at Willesden, but it was lost not very far from the end and a further attempt at that time was prevented ly the general strike (not of ringers) which necurred. Three or four of the band wha were in the attempt in 1926 rang on Saturday
It is not often that Carter's Odd-Boh peal of Stedman Tripies is ruag, anf orly on very few occasions has it been rung on handbells, but Mr. Ernest Turner called it from an inside pair on May 12th ut St. Mary Abbot's, Konsingion.
The first peal on tine bells at Ripley, Derbyshire, since they were rehung, was rung on May 10 h . The method was Cambridge Surprise.
Mr. W. A. Richardson, a nepherr of Mr. Rupert Rickareson, Master of the Lincoln Piecessa Guild, was married to Miss Edns Mattock, of Pinclilyeck, on Msy 6th, and a peal of Kent Treble Bolb Major in bonour of the event was rumg.

THEOLOGICAL COLUEGE STUDENTS' PROGRESE

The progress that is being made in ringing by students at Lichfield Theological College is further marked by another handbell peal of Gramdire Doubles, rund on May 7hlu. It was their second peal, and bolh were rung at the first attempt,
It was called by Richard Brodribb, who, with Michael Warren, who ravg 5-6. began double.handed rioging less than four monthg ago, and neither has done any ringing on tower bells.
A peal of Superiative at St. Peter Mancroft, Norwicl3, on May 94 , and of Painswict: Surprise at Pullam on May 11th, were arranged for Mr. Fred Soager, of Keighley, Yorkshire, who was formerly a ringer at Tibenham, Norfolk.
The puickest peal of Maior on the bells at Wem, Shropshire, was rung on May 6th, when 5,088 of Kent Trelle Bob Major was brought round in 2 hours 56 minutes. The tenor is $\frac{13}{}$ cowt.
Mr. Harold $S h u c k$, of Cradey, rang his first peal of Stedman as ronductor when he called Thurstans four-part at Christ Church, Oldbury. Worcestershire, on May 6th. It was bis first attempl to call a peal of Stedman nud was the quarterly peal of the Northern Branch of the Worcestershire Association.

A peal in seven Surprise Minor mathods, the first by three of the hand, was rung at Felkirlk, Yorkshire, on May 4th, With the exception of Mr. R. H. Dove, all the fand are regular service ringers at the church.
A peal of Double Norwich at Fakenham, Norfolk, on April 30th, was rung to celebrate the 25 th anniversary of Mr. C. W. Ebbersen's first peal, which was rung on the same bell. Mr. R. W. Cooke was also in both pesils.
The first peal of Doulite Norwich on the hells at Holy Rood, Sonthampton, on Way J0th, was only the second peal there since 1892 The bells were rehung not long since, and a peal of Bob Major was rung on them in 1935
Mr. H. D. Lister rang his 150 h h peal when he called a peal of Domble Norwicli Major at Stownarket on Mey 6th.
The footnote to the peal on April 27 th at Clyst St. George is not correct. A peal in two methods whs rung there on May 19th, 1028. QUICK PEAL
At the Belt Foumdry, Loughborough, on Tharsday, May Ath, memhers of the Midland Comnties Association attempted a peal of Stedman Caters, ent it was most unfortunste that it wias lost after 30 minutes ringing. With the shert time left at thoir disposal, eight of the party cuickly tapped of e peal of Grandsire Triples, Mir. John E. Clarke and Mr. Ted Whiteheaid, who were in the attempt for Caters, vers findly consenting to stand nath, The time was 2 hours 14 minutes.

After ringing a peal in seren different Doubles methods at, Bredwardine, Herefordshire, on May 13th, fwo of the band, making their way to Hay, had the pleasure of bearing the mightingale siuging in the stillmess of the night. They stopped to listeu to the enchanting notes.
Of course we dou't know, but the incident may hure explained their very late arrival home. We heard the aightingale a fortuight ago, but it was at two o'clock in the mornigg, and we were not on our way home from a peal either.
Miss B. Fall, of Kiraiord, Sussex, stored hor furst peal at the first attempt on the day before her fifteenth birthday. She rang the treble to a peal of Grandsire Daubles, which bad been arranged as a birthday compliment to her and three others of the band, Messrs. Q . Killner, P. F. C. Duncton nud P. Duncton, The peal was rung of May 5th.
A peal of Grandsire Eriples was ruvg at the famous Church of St . Mathew, Belhnal Green, on May 13 th , as a farewell to the Rectar, the Rev. S. L. Sarel, who is resigning after 22 years as imamoent.

The peal of Stedran Caters at Hygh Wycombe on May l0th was arranged for Mr. W. 互, Plumidge, who rang his first peal вway from the lever.
A peal of Grandsire Triples was ruag at Hurst, Berkshira, on May 13th, to welcome the rew Vicar, the Rev. N. J. Raper, who was inducted on the previous Wednesday. Eo was formerly curate at St Laurence's, Reading, and among the band who rang the peal, and which was drawn trom geven parishes, was Mr. Edgar Hamfrey, of St. Leurence's band. The other towers represented were Pinohampstead, Sonring All Saints', Wokingham, Twyford, Eurst and Sand burst.

Affer making nearly 30 unsuccessful attempts for a peal of Cambridge, Mr. Fragk Measures actually pulled one off whet at Numenton on May llth lie took part in the peal by members of the Warwickshire Guild. While his previous efforts for e peal of Combridge bave been fruitless, it is a noteworthy fact that he bes rung in peals of Superlative, Bristol and London Surprise Major'.
A peal of Bob Minor, rung at Iden, Sussex, on April 20 hb , wa arranged for a member of the R.A.F., Mr. Edwasd Bishop, who was home on leave
The first peal in 14 Surprise Minor mathods in Fertfordshire was rung at Apsley End on May Ist, conducied by Mr. Whatter Ayre. It was also the first peal of this kind by all the band.
peal that had heer 'on the boards" since Boxing Day was evenlitally rung at Chiford, Ferefordshire, on Amril 30th, after having been arranged and vancelled fivo times through illaes and otleer causes. It was a paiz in tiree methods of Doulbles and was arranged to oblige Mesers. H. D. Wright and T. H. YounE.

AN INTERESTING COMPOSITION

Fare is an interosting new compositiots of 5,184 Pudsey Surprise Major by E. A. Brinett. It was rung on May bits at Clifte-at-Hoo. It will be rotioed that 4. 5 and 6 are in combleation in 5-6 at fiftem out of the possible 18 course-ends, and it is beiseved to bo the first rung containing more than nine of these. Incidentally, the romposition will not run true to Yorkshire, Superlative, Painswich, etc.

LINCOLN DIOCESAN GUILD.

SUPPORT FOR CENTHAL COUNCI'S SURPRISE MAJOR BOOK.
The anuaal meeting of Lincoln Diocesan Guild was held on April $29 t h$ at Lincoln. There was the usual good attendance of ringers at the Cathedral to ring on the peal of twelve in the afternoon and at the tower of St. Peter-at-Gowts, where there are six bells. Unfortrusetely the bells of St. Botolph's are at present out of order.

The Desn of Lincoln, president of the Guitd, conducted a special service in the Morning Clapel of the Cathedral, and afterwards upwards of $\pi$ hundred ringerg and frieuds gathered for tea in the Go-operative Hall.

At the meeting which followed, the officers were all re-elected, mamely, the Very Rey. R. A. Mitchell, Dean of Lincoln, president; Mr. Rupert Richardson, Master; and Mr. F. W. Stokes, hon. secretary and treasurer. The Fen. Archdegcon H. T. Parry, Mr. Rupert Richardson, Mr. Jack Bray and Mr. George Chester were re-elected as represeataives on the Central Council for the ensuing three years.
It was unanimously agreed to nccept the Centra! Conncil's invitation to subgeribe towards the cost of printing the "Collection of Surprise Major Methods, and at the clase of the neeting 18 applications for copies of this book were receiped by the secretary.

The question of naming the methods was raised by Mr. J. Bray, one of the Central Council representatives, and although no formal resolution was moved, it was evident that the meeting was overwhelmingly in favour of the Central Council giving nanies to those methods whish were at present unnsmed, and so avoiding the confusion which foltowed the publication of the Minor methods.

The Master, referring to his report for 1938, congeatulated the Gnild on its peal record. Ninetp-nine peals had been rung, against 105 in the previong year, but the quality of the performances had, he thought, been more than maintained. Fe mentioned the loss of the Mjnor record during the year, 84 methods in one peal having been Fung by the Chester Diocesen (Ruild, whom he congratulated heartily on thif achievement. He loped, however, to see the recori come back to Lineclnshire at some foture time.

In his turn, the Mester received the hearty congratulations of the meeting on his compleling his 7ooll peal during the past year.
After the mecting there was more ringing at the Cathedral and St. Peter-nt-Gowts, and, in addition the fine ring of eight at the new Church of St, Giles were available during the eveaing. These bells were formerly at the Church of St. Peter-ut-Arches, which was demolished a few years ago, and were installed in their new home after lying idle at the bell foundry for some considerable time. Many of the pisitors took the opportunity of renewing their acqueintance with them.

AUGHTON'S RESTORED BELLS.

MEMORIAL TO LANCASHIRE RINGER.
On Satarday, May I3th, a joint meating of the Liverpool and Wigan Brancies of the Lancashire Association was held at Charist Chardi, Aughton, when the newly-tuned and rehung peal of eight was enjoyed by nearly 70 ringers. Owing to the bad going ' of the bells for a few years mestings at lihis popular tower have been sadly missed, but this being the first "turn out" gince Messrs. Taylors put them in order, meant that everyone was keen to try them, and no doubt a woilderful job has been done. Immediately prior to the serviee the Ficar (the Rev. J. P. Hobson), assisted by the Church Army Captan Jones, dedicated a peal hoard commemorating the work which lad been done, and at the service gave an interesting address.
No less than 80 partook of tea in the school, and alterwards Mr. Hutton, whose family bad, with Mrs. T. Warlow, defrayed the cost of the repairs to the bells in memory of his fathert said that he felt be could not bave fonnd a more suitable way of showing his gratitude for what bis fathar had done for him and his family than by seeing that the tower housed a fite peal. He sald his father, the late Alderman W. L. Hutton, was both ringer and warden at the church, and while alive hed begun to publish a boak on ringing. All the manuscripta and blocks were still available should any tower wish to accept them.
Mr. Peter Croak, of Bolton, moved a vote of thanks to all who had in any way assistee in making the meeting a success, and sajd he was pleased ta see that a closer co-oparation was being shown between the church and the ringers.
In the evering further ringing was indulged in unti] nearly niue o'clocls, when "one of the old brigade' had to returg home minus his headgear.

The hest thanke are due to Mr. Marsb and his ringers for all the a.rangements.

WEDDING CELEBRATION.

Owing to the sudden illness of Canon A. Rust, it was decided not to attempt the peal of Hob Major arranged to celebrate the wedding of Mr. W. Bowler, a rigger of Fushourne Crawley, on Saturday, Aprit 15th. At the request of Canon Rust, however, a quartar-pend of Bob Mijor was rung: H. H. Smith (Husbourne Crawley) 1, H. B. Whitney (Leightou Buzzurd) 2, I. Newman (Totternhoe) $\frac{1}{3}, ~ \sqrt{F} . ~ J$. Plummer (Leightom Buzzard) 4, J. Churels (Elenlow) 5, R. Howson (Newport Paghell) 6, L. H. ## LINCOLN GUILD'S BEST PERFORMANCE

To the Editor

Dear $ir, I was very much surprised and very borry to read Mr. H. M. Day's letter in the last issue of "The Ringing World.' I think it is a great pity bbat such a lelter was ever written. I am certain there is not one member of tho band who rang in the ten Surprisa Major method peal who would wish it to be proclaimed from the house tops as the best performance of the Lincoln Diocesan Guild.
I an sure that every member of the band rang that peat, note with the spirit of boastfulness, but with the ides of adwancing the art of change ringing in Lincolnshire, and 1 think it very wrong for an officer of the Guild to stari drawing comparisona.

I em very pleased to bey that there is a very united and friendly gpirit throughout the Liacoln Diogesan Guild, and while I an Master I trust that spirit will prevail. Letters like Mr. Day's are liable to cause sparks that might turn into conflagrations and upset the whole unity of a Gutid.
R. RICEARDSON

Master of the Lincoln Diocesan Guild.

RINGING UP AND DOWN.

To the Sditor.
Sir,-Tho letters appearing on this subject have been interesting. but they leave the practical ringer a littie bagy. In the west comntry festivals and certificatB competitions, the competing temms must 'rise' and 'fall' the bolls in peal, and often the results depend finally on how this part of the work is done. As a rule both 'rise ' and "tell" are done quickly, much more so thas with 'method' Tingers. Their method is somewhat as follows:-
Eaving regard to the 'pendulum' lengths of treble and tenor, it is obvious that in any rise the treble must swing off. In six belis, for example, the bells go (a) 123455 ( as close as possible); (b) $1 . . . .12456$; example, the bell (c) $12 \ldots 123456$ ( 12 ) 12.123456 ; (e) 1234.123456 ; (i) 12345.123456 ; (g) 123456123456 when all the bells are in souble tongue,"

Therefore, the treble should be swung off sharply to give place for ' double tonguing,' so that the tenor shall not be reduced to chiming and then if pulled off abarply become 'back-clappered.' Even with a temor a ton woight, the round ringers soldom back-clapper it. Nothing is so digconcerting to a tenor-man as to find himself under, ufter a few rounis. Hence the tenor ghould "tomgue " and 6 wing off et the same time, she must be 'ridden,' and the treble-man must swing off his bell so that she may keep clear of the tenor at hand when the tenor double tongues. The pace at which the treble goes up must depend entirely on the tenor. Usually, at steck-lovel the tresle has to close in a bit for a stroke or two; this will "ease' up the heavier bels. With a band who can "handle, the bells, the methodindicated above almost invariably produces a satisfactory rise.
In falling, the tenor comes away at once ond the pace given will guide the treble. No treble-man can come down well wnless the tenor comes down "seramely. Each of the other bells must be 'mang " down with quite as much effort as when up and ringing changes. If the tenor fall steadily and regularly, and is 'handled' in smartly at the 'chime,' the 'fall " is generally satisfactory.
Perheps the most importani bells in a 'rise' are the third and fourth, because if they be the least bit 'wide' the ring is divided and the back bells swing off, and, at donble-tonguing, the treble " hits' the tenor. A good "rise' depends on a snug initial 'pitch' of the bells thus 123456, as close as passible; if this be at all 'cloppy' the old round ringer would say "it's no rise at all." With eight bella the fifth and sixth musb be in close all the way up. Whatever the pace set by the treble may be, it must be continued all the way up.
F.O.E.

A THREE-FOLD LOSS.

At St. Artrew's Church, Kiggshary, Middesex, on Friday, Mey 12th, a quarter-peal of Grandsire Tripleg was rumg by H. Collier 1 , O. E. Lankester 2, R. G. Spears 3, G. M. Kilby 4, Mrs. J. H. Botham 5, C. Symm 6. E. B. Hartley (conductor) 7, A. Kitchen 8. This was followed by "the phole pull and stand and was rung with the bells half-muffled as a mark of respect to the memory of Reginalif Pike. The loss to St. Andrew's Church by his death is tiree-fold, as he was an altar server, as well as a choirman and bellringer.

LEADING CONDUCTORS-7I.

COLIN HARRISON

One of the most popular ringers in the Midlands, Mr. Colin Harrison, of Joughborough, Leicestershire, who has just been elected to the important office of vice-president of the Midland Counties Association, is a Yorlslhireman and comes of ringing stack, being a san of 3r. Robert Harrison, a well-known Shefleld ringer.

Horm on January 17th, I897, Mr. Colin Harrison learned bo ring at the Parish Church, now the Cathedral, Shefich, when only 10 years old. Four years in the Azmy put a temporary stop to his ringing activities, until demobjlisation in 1919, when, on March 15ill, he rang his first peal, Bob Major, at St. Mary's Church, Ruwnarslı. His first peal as conductor mas also Bob Major, when he turned in the tenor of the licervy ring of eight ets St. Marie's, Sheffield, on December $29 t \mathrm{~h} 1923$. I'his peal was quielry followed by his conducting Holt's Original and peals of Stedman and Troble Bob. For three years he was secretary of the Bhefficld District Society, and he also served on the General Committee of tlie York. Ehire Associstion.
In 2828 Mr . Harrison left. Sheffield to take up an appointment with Messrs. John Taylor and Co, and on the famous ring of bells is the Bell Foundry Campanile 80 of his peale lave been rung. He took part is the first peal of Royal by Eve falliers and five sons, lus rung in a peal in whicls the band ineluded three generations of his family, his father and his son Geoffrey. He lias taken part in the quickest peals on tower bells of Minor (Cambridge, in 1 hour 50 minutes), Triples (Stedman, in 2 hours 8 minutes), and Caters (Stedman, in 2 hours 32 minutes), all rung on the belle st the Foundry Campanite.

Out of a total of 162 peals, ranging from Minor to Maximas and including Stedman Caters and Cimques on handbells, he has conducted 52

For aight years he has been one of the auditors for the Midland Counties Association, and, as mentioned above, hes now been elected viec-president of the association.

TEACHING BEGINNERS.

To the Editor
Sir, Some weeks ago you trere kind enough to insert in your paper a letior from myself, concerujag the continual use of techuical terms in teaching ringing. My opinion is still tle same as it was then, i.e., that tachnical terms are used a great deal more than is necessary or desirable in the teaching of legimners.

Might I be allowef to suggest that a School of Terchers be ormed of men who (1) know helringing well, and (2) could teacl it in ordinary Englisli, and (3) could attend lowert whed applied for and answer questions in oreinary English. There must be many beginners who would like to ask questions and get answers in ordinary language. This would require, not oniy a knowledge of bellinging, but also (1) an adequate knowledge of the Erglish language, and (2) the power to ase it in a fluent and perfectiy simple and uatural way. This would be of litile or no use to experlenced ringers, laut it would be very valuable for beginners, and it would also provide a response to minds who would like to begin by taking a pleasure in mastering the theory of rimging as well as in acquiring the power to ring one or many methods. It wauld be a good thing tu develop the strdy of bellringing theory smong beginmers
It mas be asked, are there not already many good seachers of ringing P My answer would be that very many of them have acquired all the technical terms, jncludiag some whirh are not in the 'Glossary, and, using them always in the tower, they go on using them, without modification, when teaching beginners. Hence the need of e new aim in teaching. W. W. LUCAS.

Drayton Parslow Rectory.

P.S.-If thete werc teaching of ringing theary, there could be certificales for (1) theors and (2) for ringing, and even a ringing centre, somemhere in the country, Fith a hall and bells, where ringers could spend some days as part of their holiday and leara much about ringing and ringers' fellawship.

LADIES' GUILD.

DISCOURAGING ATTENDANGE ST EASTERN DISTRICT

 MEETENG.Tho annual mecting of tho Eastern District of the Ladies' Gaild was held at Braintree, Essex, on Saturday, The attendance was very poor, there being only five members, inclading one new member, present. The blame could not be daid on floods or weather conditions this time, as it was a perfect day. It is discouraging to those who attend, and it is very unsporting of members not to tura up when the meeting is in their district. No doulot other engagenents or peals are much more important, but they could be put aside for just the three or four occasions in the year when meetings are held.
The members present were Miss Snowden and Miss Miller (Halstead), Miss Barelam (Castle Hedinglam), Miss Le Beare (Bocking) and Miss Bowyer (Inswich). The meeting commenced with ringing at Bratntree Church, followed by a serwige, conducted by the curate, the Rev. Carpenter, in the absence of the Vicar, who was ill. Tea was served afterwards in the Clurch Hall to a party of 25, and at tile end Miss Snowden proposed a vote of thanks to the Rev. Carpenter, to the organist, to Mr. Felton who had kindly made uil avrangements for ter, and finally to the men for their much needed aupport.
At the business meeting which followed it was decided to elect new members first, so that they could vote at the ensuing election of officers. The new members were as follows: Miss Herrington (Lavenham), Mrs. Barber (Reedham), Misses A. M. and J. M. Greenhans (Ranworth), Miss A. Miller (Halstead) and Miss W. Elliott (Kelveden), The officers were re-elected, Miss Fi]da Suowden being vice-president and Miss Sylvia Bowyer secretary.
It was decided to lold the next meeting at Lowestoft in August, the date to be fiaally settled by the secretary.
During the evening most of the ringers visited Bocking, where the bells were also available.
The ringing during the day was of a ligh standard. It ranged from rounds througla all tle shandard methods to Londoa and Bristo! Surprise Major.

LONDON DHSTRET MEETJNG.

In glorious weather, the London District of the Ladies' Guild held a meeting on Saturday at lovely Stoke Poges, Eamous for its associaltion with the poet Gray

A merry party went by train from Paddington, and soon after 3 o'clock were welcomed at the cluurch by Mr. and Mrs. A. D. Barker. Ringing is the alternoon, which Faried from romens to Surprise, included a well-siruck coarse of Landon rung entirely by jadies. With the sum streaming through the belfry door, the birds singing outside and the peaceful quidet of the surrounding country, it was a perfect setting for a spring meeting.
At 5 o'clock friends with cars kindly volunteered to transport the ringers to tea at Stoke Green, where they were the guests of the Vicar of Stoke Poges. Over 30 peoplo sat down to tea, at least lalf the number being members of the Guild. The Vicar was duly thanged for his kindness.
At the short business meeting mambers were reminded that the annual district meeting would be held at St. George-the-Martyr's, Southwark, on Saturday, July Ist, and the amoul general meeting of the Guild at Ipswichi on Saturdiy. July 8th. The monthly practices, which were being Leld at St. Gearge's on the first Wedpesday in every montl, were groving very successful. The next would be on Jume 7th at 7.30 .

Furtlier ringing took place until 8.45, when the visifors took their leave reluctantly, after baving ppent a most enjoyable time. Thanks are due to Mr. And Mrs. Barker for the excellent arrangements mado and the kind welcome extended.

A TENORMAN FOR OVER 50 YEARS DEATH OF A PINNER BENGER.

Another old ringer has passed to his rest in the person of Mr r. T. Humphreys, of Pinner, Middlesex. He Fang the tenor to dwo pealis of Grandsire Triples for the Middtesex Associstion, wheu he was nearly 70 years of age, and these were his only peals, but he could be absolutely relided upon to le in his place for all clurch serwices and ols practice tight.

Mr. Humphreys learned to ring at St, Joln's, Hillingdon, in his younger days, walking from his lome at Hayes in the snow for that purpose, as the Hayes ringers of that fime would not be troubled with learners, and he had always been grateful to the Hillingdon men for their help. He afterwards moved to Ruislip, where he jained the St. Martin's band and rang the teror for five sears. Another move took him to Pinner, where he bad been a memaer of the band, and had rung the teaor for over 50 years.
He was laid to his rest in the дew Pinner Cemetery on Wedinesday aftemoon. May loth. within sound of the tenor he loved so much. The Middlesex Association was represeated at the funeral by Mr. T. Collins, and during the evening Pinner bells were rung half-naffled to his memary by a mixed hand from Pinner and Ruislip, the ringers being R. Colyer 1, C. Lord 2, W, Bunce, sen. J, O. Kirm 4, T. Collins 5, O. Johnson 6, J. Dulomore 7, H. Stratford and E. Ware, who rang the tenor alternately. The metlod whs Grandsire Doulles, with 4-6-8 covering.

THE SUFFOLK GUILD.  GROWTH OF PEAL RINGING

Ou th, Saturday aftor Easier, the Suffolk Guild held its amma! meeting at Ipswich. At the sarvice at St . Mary-le-Tower, the sermon was preached by the Rev. Basil Eiden, Rector of Bredfeld. Taking as his text, 'A man bearing a pitcher of water,' he showed how bipeessary to all arrangemeuts, even the most important, were the people who did the small unnoticed things; so ringers ought to feel bow recensury they are to God's work,
Tea was at the Co-operative Hall, and those who sat down-including mora lady ringers than before-made a company which seems to get larger year by yoar. The Bishop of Dunwich presided und said low pleased he was to be there and related some of his former attempts at rimging belly.
The statement of accounts slowed how prosperous the Guild now is, as the balance has nounled up to £ 42 . For this splenilid result, the treasurcr, Mr. C. E. Fisher, was suitably thanked.
In moving a vote of thanks to the Ringing Master for his report, the Rev. H. Drake said that it stated that the Guild had last year rung a record number of peals (116). He said the Norwiels Diocesan Association had also for the first time since they were separated topped th? hundred, and rung 103 peals. He wished to congratulate the ringers of Norfolk and to point out that each of the two societies were now topping a hundred peals a year, a result which, before they were divided, the siagle association always aimed at. Thus they were ringing twice as many peals, although the total number in the whole conetry was much the sarae: that is to say, the two counties were getting twice the share of all penls rume as they did before. He attributed this eutirely to the fact that they were now run as diogesan institutions. He recalled the fact that Mr. Arthur Symonds, whose loss they now had to deplore, was really the originator of the Guild. Mr. Symonds wrote to the speaker and asked for bis help in what they liad just starteci in West Suffolk as the Suffolk County Associathon. He repled that he could only help a Diocesan Association. Mr. Symonds (whose son, Stedman, was with them, assenting to what was said) at once replied that they would change the name, and ever since they had been an integral part of the clocesan work.
All then stood in silence in mernory of Mr. Arthur Symonde, and of Mr. C. I. Tratman, who liad beon responsible for the revival of aingıng in Woodbridge.
The officers were re-elected. The Rev, H. Drake was added to the vice-presidenis and Miss 太ylvia Bowyer to the committee. The Iutter was thanked by the chairman, not only for the record of ringing 51. peals for the Guild last year, but for the oxcellent speech she made in thanking thie meoting for the honour done her.
Mr E. F. Poppy moved that the Report be fuller in future. He said it appeared vory sliripy, and left out a great deal that was in other reports. Mr. Poppy's resolution was evidently largely supporteg by those present, and was seconded by the Rev. H. Drake.
It was opposen by Mr. H. Herhert, the secretary, who said it was absolutely necessary to economise in this way. He pointed out that a naiglibouring Guild published an even smaller Report.
Mr. C. J. Sedgley took the responsilility for the changes whicls had been made, and said that the difficulty was of verification, and that it was better to leave out information than to print what was out of date.
At this stage the Bishop of Dunwich proposed, and it was carried, that this matter be considered by the committee. He was quite sure that the committee would take into consideration all that had been said that day
The meeting concluded with the usual rotes of thanks.
Many diferent methods were rung in the towers of Ipswich. It was good to hear blended together the twelve at St. Mary-le-Tower, and the zeighbouring ormamental tower of St. Lawrence, where there is the only ringable peal of fire which las survived the Reformation, and goes to-dny as well and sounda as beautifully as ever.

NORTH STAFFS ASSOCIATION.

LEEK PEAL COMMEMORATED

A meeting of tho North Staffordshire Association was held at Leek on May 6 tb. ## A TEN-PART PEAL OF GRANDSIRE TRIPLES.

Tn the Eilitor.

Dear sir-T have read with great interest Mr. Lindof's leter in 'The Ringing World ' about the ten-part peal of Grandsire Triples published in your issue of April 2lat, but I wish to point out that the peal, as published, cannot he connected by ordinary singles halfwav and at the end.
To show that this is so, I give the firsb few lead ends of Part 8 and Part 6 on the assumption that an ordinazy single is called half-way. Part 2
246375

Part 6 324567

352746 673452 246573 532746 573684 573624 465273

It will be ceen that the plain lend end followitg the second single in Part 2 is the eame as the first lead end of Part 6, so that the panl would be false. I wourd be gratefn! if Mr. Lindoff conld tell me how he connected the two halves by ordinaty singles.

KENT COUNTY ASSOCIATION．

LEWLSHAM DISTRLCT AFFAIRS．

Tho quarterly meeting of fhe Lewislram District was held at St． Alphege，Greenwich，and 60 membera attended from Deckenliam， Bromley，Bromley Common，Chislehurst，Crayiord，Dartford，Dept－ ford（St．Ioln＇s），Eltham，Erith，Lee，Penge and woolwich，together with some haff－dozen visitors from London．The bells were made good use of during the afternoon and evening．A ring of ten bells，not too easy＇going＇and equipped witl new ropes，afforded an opportunity for most of those present to enlarge their experionce some to＂spot＇ the extra ropes and some to manipulate more intractable materiala than they are used to in their home bowers．Many took advantage of the cliance offered，and under the guidance of Mr．T．Groombridge， sen．（Ringing Master），put up ly no means discreditable performances， although not every touch canae round cteanly．
The association service was canducted by the Ficar（the Rev．T．H． Thonas），with Mr．T．造eux at the organ．Tlie Vicar gave a shorit inspiriting address and welcomed the ssseciation to Greenwich．At the coaclusion of the service Mr．Meux gave an appreciative andience a short recital，demonstrating the resource and scope of his particu－ larly fine organ．
Tea was seryed in the Parish Hall，the Ficar and churchwardens being generous hosts and their ladyfolk kindly disponsing the good things provided． it the busimess meeting，Mr．E．H．Sewell（Vicar＇s warden），who presided，apologised for the Yicar＇s unavoidable absence and extended a wavm welcome from the churchwardens and congregation of st． Alphege＇s．

The district semetary read replies receiven to the questionnare sent to the bauds in the district as iastructed by the last meeting，and gave a hriep sfalistical surver of meetings held durimg the last 15 years．After consideration of the points raised in the letters and the relevant $九$ details as exfracked from the minute book，it was decided that the disirict secretary should write Further to those bands whose previons replies were inconclusive or open to criticism．
One honorary member and flve practising menlbers were olected， involying the welcome reafiliation of．St．John＇s，Sidrup，with the associstion．Tlie elections of two members previous to peals were fatified．

Mr． E ．
Mr．E．Barnett read an report of proceedings of the committee mect－ ing licld at Erith on Laster Monday．This was adopted with a vote of thanks to Mfessrs．Barnett and Cullum for preparing it．
St．John＇s，Sidcup，was suggested as the place of next menting，to be held on Saturnay，was suggested as the place of next menting，to now been made and members are asked to book tle date！
It was decided to matce application to the Berevolent Fund Com－ mittee for further assistance for the widow of a．late member．
Mr．G．H，Cross moved a vate of thanks to Mr．T．Grombridge， sen．，for his many Fears ${ }^{1}$ faithful service as Central Counct repre－ sentative and offered a welcomo to lis succestor in this district，Mr． F．J．Cullum．This was seconded by Mr．L．Barnett and carried with applause－Mr．Groombridge responded．
Mr．H．Hoskins moved a cordial vote of thanks to the Vicar for the use of the bells，ronductivg the service and lis address，to the Vicar and Messrs．F．H．Sewll．Fi，w．Lowe and F．D．Backway（elurch－ wardens）for their generots hospitality，to the ladier for their graerous warceng）for their generons hoppitaity，to the adier for their graenous carried with acelamation．
In his reply，the Chairman stated that he had had a few minutes chat with the Vicar during the afteranon，and had learned that St． Alphege＇s bells were in need of expert attertion．He had made in－ guifies among the ringers present as to what was necessary to be done to put limem in first－elass order，and promised that the Ficar and his fellow－wardens would do all in their power to put a restoration scheme into early effect－he hoped in time for the Kent Conntr Association＇s approval on the occasion of their next visit to Greenwich （applause）
At the instance of the district secretary，a vote of thanks was accorded to Mr．H．Hoskins for his efforts in arranging such a success－ ful meetiag．

LANCASEIRE ASSOCIATION，

The half－yearly meeting of the Lancashire Association was held at Morecambe on Saturday weelk．The hells were kept going frons 2.30 to 9 p．m．With an interval for a contest for male voices at the musical festival close lyy，Members and friends turned up from Barrow， fegival close ly，Members，and iriends turned up irom Barrow， and the local company，and there was a welcome visitor［rom Bradford． Congratulations were offered to the tower eecretary on the birth of a daughter．

Methods rung during the eveaing were Kent Major and Minor， Stedman Triples，Grandeire Triples and Bob Major，most of the toucles coming round．

The new bells in the tower were a great attraction．

RINCING MASTERS

To the Editor．

Sir，－In your leading article of May 12th，dealing with rizging meet－ ings，you say，＂in this and other respects there are qumerous occa－ sions when wore plizctical use might be made of mertings，＂and comment，but it，can only loe done by a Ringiag Master＇！I entirely dissgree with this latter remark．This is a position which I consider is unnecessary in any association．Ringing can quite well do withaut outside dietators，and I am perfectly m sympathy with anyone who will refuse to tolerate their presenco in their belfry．What the world in general is suffering from of recent years is over－officialdom．In politics，zeligion and almost averything one can name atype of people who love the limelight and are trying to dictate to the rest of the world，hence the reason for all the chaos and urames we find in prac－ tically every corner of the earth．
In ringing tu must be borme in mind that meetings are fald only by permission of the incumbent and church authotities．The associa－ tions are hat cutside hodies，and no member of shy issociation， whether he be appointed a Master int what not，ghould rssume that he has the riglit to walk into a lyelfry and talke the phace of the captain of that tower．I know here I shall be told，＂but the towers are in union with the association．＇The towers are unt in union with any association $h_{r}$ and no stoch body has the rifht to think they control all the towers just because two or three ringers there happen to be members of the association．The jurgation over all church Furnish－ ings，ringers slould remember，is vested in the Vicar，wardens and Cluurch Council，and they only．
I know I shall be naked the question，＇What about the tower where there isn＇t a lyand，or where the xingers are only able to do one or two methods？Th all sucls cases it is the duty of the captain to offciate and to see that faimess all round is ensured，and，if not， then the one responsible for arranging the meeting can suggest certain things．In the case of the captain not furning out，and not appoint－ ing a deputy，then it is the job of the serretary or one of the com－ mititee to supperintend the ringing，but not before．

1．AMOS．

Northampton．

MISLEADLNG TWLST．

Mr．amos has omitted，in liss quotation from our article，an essential part of the sentence，and thus gives it a wwist which is nislcading， What we said was ：There are ュumerous occasions when more practical mand＂in tho tower．＂That does not mean that only a Ringing Master can make more practical use of meetings，but that the Ringiog Master，where－there is one，can do it only when he lias the support of the wingere－ of
We know that，to Mr．Amos，anyting like a Finging Naster is mathema and iffat the place of ringing mssociations is outside and not inside the towers，but，when an masociation lus been given by the incumbent the right to use the balls of a church，the association is rearonsilite，thraugla its offactu，for the ringing that takes place，and the local eapain，whether or not ho is a member of the association， is not entitled to assmme command on such occasions．Authority has placed the tower at the disposal of the association concermed，and it rests with flhe association ns to who shall direct the ringing．－Gorror， Ringiny Warld．

RINGERS RAID SURREY VILLAGE． PCTTENHAM＇S CATETING PROBLEM．

Despite heavy raiu showers and thunder clouds， 55 menhers and visitors attended the Guildiord Guild meeting at the pieturesque Surrey village of Puttelnam on Saturday week．The tight peal of six were raised at 3 p．un and the District Ringing Master（ur．C．E
Smith）once again had a busy time seaing that everyone was catered for．Mr．J．R．Mackman kindly bronght along his landbells and did much towards relieving the congestion in the belfry．

With the welcome alaition of specially chosen lywnes，the Guild＇s form of service was canducted by the Rector of Puttenham（the Rev． H．Chapman）．In the absence of an organist，Mr．R．F．Kingham， a visitor from Basingstoke，did his best on the harmonimm，end，it is understood，scored his first in the method．＇
The Rector，in his address，confessed that he knew nothing of bett－ ringing，but added that his ignarance did not prevent his heing fond of nearing tho bells．Fe believed that they should be rung on as many occasions as possible．He emplasized tbat the services rendered br ringers were appreciated，even though that appreciation was not often expressed．
Tea proved to he somemhat of a problem，for only 30 motifications had been received．At the busincss meeting which followed，the filfi－ culties of catering for an unexpectedy large number，especially in a country village，were etressed．
The Rector，who presided at the meeting，pgreed，and jokingly remarked that ther in Puttenhen would probably have nothng left to eat the next day！

Messrs．C．Longliurgt and E．Rapley，of West Grinstead，were elertod compoundirg members．
The Guild general secretary（Mr．G．L．Grover）exprested tie thanks of the meeting to the Rector and to ell who lad helperl in any way．
