INSTRUCTING THE PUBLIC.

Bell ringing, which to the public has been in the past a somewhat mysterious craft, is beginning to receive a more intelligent publicity in the Press than it used to do. It is true that there are still some weird and wonderful notions abroad as to what change ringing really is, but, taken as a whole, newspaper reports and comments on bell ringing are now of a more enlightened character. In our view this is all for the good of the Exercise. If the public know that what we do in the belfry has behind it something more than a mere mechanical method of making a noise; that change ringing is an operation based upon scientific principles and requiring brains, a quick perception, concentration and a vast amount of patience and practice, some at any rate will have a greater appreciation of what is performed in the belfry.

But apart from the columns of the Press, interest is being aroused in other ways, and in many instances lectures on the subject, given by ringers, have not only spread knowledge among the lay public but have found an appreciative reception in widely varying circles. Quite a new departure, so far as we are aware, is, however, to be made in the Cheshire town of Wallasey, where, at the invitation of the Vicar, the Rev. F. L. Edwards (Hon. Sec. of the Salisbury Guild) is to preach on Sunday week on the subject of 'The Mystery of Triple Bob Major.' The Vicar has arranged this sermon specially because he desires that his congregation should learn something about the origin, use and purpose of church bells, about which, he admits, many people have very hazy notions.

It would be a good thing indeed if all congregations had the opportunity of enlightenment from a practical ringer like the Rector of Kington Magna, but, unfortunately, we have not enough parsons of his type to go round. There is still in many places an entire lack of interest in the ringers. If the choir were absent from their places, or if the organ were silent, all the worshippers would at once be making inquiries as to what was wrong. But the absence of the ringers or the silence of the bells is passed over without comment. In these days, when it is the object of those who have the interests of the Exercise at heart to have the bells rung regularly for the Church's services, something is needed to bring home to the church-going public not only the importance of the work which the ringers undertake, but a fuller realisation of what it involves. Bells provide a many-sided study—practical, scientific, historical and what not—but outside the ranks of the ringers themselves the majority of people are ignorant of it. The bell sermon at Wallasey is one way to educate the local public, and we should like to see the example followed in other places. A wider, general interest would almost certainly lead some to a closer investigation and a desire to learn something of the practical side of ringing, and in this way the Exercise is likely to make a direct gain. Any means by which the interest of the public can be stimulated is worth cultivating.

FIFTY YEARS A RINGER.

RETIREMENT OF MR. JOHN LAWSON, OF LIGHTCLIFFE.

An interesting event took place on Saturday, September 24th, at St. Matthew's Church, Lightcliffe, Yorks, when a presentation was made to Mr. John Lawson in commemoration of his retirement on the completion of his fifty years' services as ringer and conductor. Mr. Lawson was one of the eight who rang the first peal at Lightcliffe in 1881, and is the only survivor of that team. He has officiated for the past 35 years as conductor, and has taken part in every peal that has been rung on these bells since that date, an achievement of which Mr. Lawson is justly proud. The Vicar, Rev. H. L. Taylor, the wardens, Church Council and the congregation determined to mark their appreciation of Mr. Lawson's services, and on Saturday afternoon a short service in the church was held, at which the Vicar officiated. A handsome tablet was unveiled by the Vicar's Warden, Col. R. H. Goldthorp. This tablet was inscribed, 'To commemorate the faithful services of Mr. John Lawson as bellringer and conductor, 1877-1927.'

An adjournment was then made to the schoolroom, where tea was served to the local ringers and friends from other towns and their wives. Afterwards, the Vicar presided and said they were assembled to express their hearty appreciation of the valuable services of Mr. John Lawson, who for 50 years had willingly given his services as bellringer, and for 35 years had been conductor. He considered bellringing was quite an important part of the church services, as it sent out an invitation to people to attend the church.

Col. Goldthorp, in making the presentation, said he thought this was a unique occasion, and spoke appreciatively of Mr. Lawson's services during the past 50 years. He understood, however, they were not severing their connection with Mr. Lawson altogether, as he was still remaining a member of the church; in fact, 'he was coming out of the belfry tower to attend the church.' He had very much pleasure on behalf of the congregation in handing to Mr. Lawson a handsome timepiece as a small token of the esteem in which he was held by them at St. Matthew's Church, and he hoped he would live long to enjoy his well-earned retirement. The inscription on the clock was, 'Presented to Mr. John Lawson by the congregation of St. Matthew's Church, Lightcliffe, as a mark of their appreciation of his services as bellringer 1877 to 1927, as conductor 1892 to 1927.'

In acknowledgment of this and other gifts, Mr. Lawson returned thanks, and for the kind words of the appreciation of his services. He said that change ringing was a very healthy occupation, and he certainly had got a good deal of pleasure from it. He hoped that more young men would come forward and learn the interesting art of change ringing. For his part he was willing to render all the assistance he could, and would gladly give them every possible encouragement.

A short miscellaneous entertainment followed, at which Miss Norwood, Mr. Clegg and Mr. Lawson took part. Touches on the church bells were rung in the afternoon and evening.

DEATH OF THE DEAN OF NORWICH. A TRUE RINGERS' FRIEND.

The announcement of the sudden passing of the Dean of Norwich (Dr. J. W. Willink) on September 22nd came as a shock to his friends in all parts of the country. Only on the previous day he was present at the celebration of the Holy Communion and Matins at Norwich Cathedral. He also attended evensong, and was a guest at the luncheon of the Norwich Rotary Club, while that night he preached at St. Matthew's Church, Thorpe Hamlet.

On Thursday morning he seemed in his usual health, but in the afternoon, when he was preparing to leave home for Badwell Ash, Bury St. Edmunds, where he had promised to preach at the harvest festival, he was seized with severe pains round the heart. Medical aid was summoned, and the Dean was removed to bed, but he passed away at six o'clock from angina pectoris.

Dr. Willink had always been a man of boundless energy, and was greatly beloved by all who knew him. From 1885 to 1891 he was Vicar of St. John's, Sunderland. In the latter year he accepted the Vicarage of St. Helens, Lancashire, where he remained until 1904.

In 1904 Dr. Willink became Vicar of Great Yarmouth, and in 1912 he accepted the Rectorate of Birmingham. There he remained until May, 1919, and it was as Rector of Birmingham that he became known to the majority of ringers through the close interest he took in the St. Martin's Guild. As all good ringers know, St. Martin's is the Parish Church of Birmingham, and one of the first things Dr. Willink did was to visit the belfry and make the acquaintance of his ringers, of whose doings he had heard from Mr. Dennison Hayward, of Great Yarmouth.

Ever afterwards he kept in close touch, visiting the belfry nearly every Sunday, and frequently bringing with him members of his family or friends.

He took the chair at every Johnson dinner but one held during his Rectorate, and on one occasion he rose from a sick bed to be present, in order, as he said, that he should not miss the most enjoyable evening of the whole year.

Those who attended any of the dinners over which he presided will remember what a splendid chairman he made, with his fine upstanding figure, rich, powerful voice, and never failing good humour.

Birmingham has been singularly fortunate in its Rectors, but never more so than when Canon Willink (as he then was) accepted the position.

In him ringers had a true and sincere friend. With him they were not 'out of sight—out of mind.' He took a particularly keen interest in them and their doings, and his own ringers of St. Martin's were frequently invited to spend a summer afternoon on the Rectory lawn.

It was a sad day for Birmingham when he left to become Dean of Norwich, but he continued his interest in our art, and was soon elected president of the Norwich Association (now the Norfolk Guild). In this capacity he attended numerous meetings of the association, and he presided at Easter over the Jubilee gathering.

A largely attended memorial service was held at St. Martin's on Tuesday, September 27th, at the time the funeral was taking place at Norwich, and the bells of which he was so fond were rung muffled before and after the service and again in the evening.

A. P. S.

At Fakenham, Norfolk, on Sunday morning, September 25th, 1,056 changes of Bob Major were rung, half-muffled, as a tribute to the late Dean of Norwich: P. J. Alfray 1, F. Gaut 2, S. Cooke 3, G. Dye 4, C. S. Tuthill 5, Geo. Cooke 6, Harry Cooke 7, Robt. Cooke (conductor) 8.—Also on Tuesday evening, the funeral day, 800 changes.

At Diss, Norfolk, on September 27th, touches of Oxford Treble Bob Major were rung at St. Mary's Church, with the bells half-muffled, as a last tribute to the memory of the late Dean of Norwich, president of the Norfolk Guild since 1919. Those who took part in the ringing were W. Wiskins, E. Youngs, J. Souter, A. G. Harrison, W. Steggall, W. C. Chenery, G. Archer, C. J. More and C. Goodman, the touches being conducted by C. J. More and G. Archer.

DURHAM & NEWCASTLE DIOCESAN ASSOCIATION.

A joint meeting of the Eastern and Western Districts of this association was held at Chester-le-Street on September 24th. The attendance was somewhat disappointing, but the fine peal of bells at SS. Mary and Cuthbert's Church were kept going during the afternoon in Grandair, Kent Major, Stedman, etc. After an excellent tea at the Crown Hotel, Mr. F. Sheraton presided over a short meeting, and, on the motion of the president (Mr. C. L. Routledge), Mr. R. L. Patterson was elected vice-president for the Eastern District for the coming year, and Mr. W. F. Pattison, of Chester-le-Street, for the Western District.

Mr. R. L. Patterson supported Mr. H. Tyson in expressing the regret of the members at the impending departure of Mr. J. W. Smith, of Winlaton, for Sydney, Australia, and wished him every success and happiness in his new home.—Mr. Smith feelingly replied.

Mr. E. Ferry, the secretary of the association, sent a message urging the members to do their best to make the 50th annual meeting at Durham on October 29th a great success.

The company then adjourned to the belfry, and the bells were kept going until about eight o'clock.

BELFRY GOSSIP.

Messrs. Smith and Sons, the well-known clockmakers of Derby, have secured the order for a new large chiming clock and carillon to play on 10 bells for the new Derby Cathedral. Other important work just completed includes a new Westminster chiming clock for St. Mary's Church, Finchley, and two large clocks and bells for Canada.

'Great Peter,' the 10½ ton bell for York Minster, which Messrs. Taylor and Co. have cast, was safely hoisted into its massive frame in the north-west tower on Thursday last. The rededication will take place on Saturday, October 22nd, when the Minster ring of twelve will be open, and a welcome extended to all ringers.

The band at Bucknall, Stoke-on-Trent, who some time since rang a peal of Minor consisting of seven different 4th's-place Delight methods, have now rung a peal of seven different 3rd's-place Delight methods. Each was the first of its kind by the North Staffs Association.

If anyone asked the late Mr. Isaac G. Shade how many peals he had rung, he used to say, 'I don't know; you must ask Jack Lamb, my secretary.' Mr. Lamb kept a careful record of Mr. Shade's peals, and he has now just completed another big task of the same description, having been through the volumes of the ringing press and extracted particulars of the more than 700 peals rung by Mr. J. H. Cheesman. Perhaps it would be well if we refrained from publishing Mr. Lamb's address, for fear of his being inundated with requests from other ringers who want their peal lists compiled.

Henry Hubbard died on October 9th, 1881. He was born a hundred and twenty years ago this year, and rendered a great deal of service to the Exercise as a writer and composer.

Holt's famous ten-part peal of Grandsire Triples was rung at Shore-ditch for the first time on October 12th, 1754.

CHURCH DESTROYED BY FIRE.

Fire destroyed All Saints' Church, Eastbourne, on Thursday evening last week. All that remains standing, except the ruined walls, are the tower and two vestries. The clock in the belfry struck seven o'clock while the church was in flames.

The tower contains a ring of eight bells, and there is a regular Sunday service band there. There has been little peal ringing, however, on account of the situation of the church. The first peal on the bells was a muffled peal, rung for the funeral of Queen Victoria, and the second a peal for the coronation of King Edward VII.

SUTTON VENY BELLS. NEED FOR RESTORATION.

When the new Church of St. John-the-Evangelist, Sutton Veny, Warminster, was built by the generosity of the widow and family of Mr. Joseph Everett, of Greenhill, and dedicated nearly sixty years ago, in 1868, a faculty was obtained to move the 6 bells and bell frame from the old Church of St. Leonard. A pleasing link was thereby kept with olden times. The old bell frame is by now in so poor a condition that it is unsafe for ringing, which had to cease at Easter, 1927.

An attempt is now being made to raise funds to repair the frame or to rehang the bells in a new frame.

The bells, which are of interest, will not be altered, except that the treble, which is sharp, may perhaps be tuned, if this can be done without injury to the bell. Only five of the six bells are the original ones from the old church, as in 1886 the third bell, which had been badly cracked, was done away with. To make the peal more in harmony, the old fourth was tuned to take its place and a new fourth cast. This new bell bears the inscription of the old third, with the names of the Rector and churchwardens at the time of casting added.

The inscriptions on the bells are as follows:—

Treble.—'L.C. 1696.'

2nd.—'L.C. 1696.'

3rd.—'Mr. R. Bailey, Rect. Jef Long R. Exten c.w. 1695.'

4th.—'Mr. Noah Wilkins and Mr. John Best ChWds 1749. Recast 1886 G. F. Powell, Rector, R. Elling, Jas. N. Farham, Churchwardens.'

5th.—'Saml and Stepn Long Church Wardens, Robt and Jas Wells Fecit 1793.'

Tenor.—'Mr. Stephen Long and Mr. John Rundall ch wds. Wm. Cockey Cast Mee 1723.'

KENT COUNTY ASSOCIATION.

The autumn meeting of the Canterbury District was held at St. Lawrence, Thanet, on Saturday, October 1st, when the following towers were represented: Canterbury, Littlebourne, Wingham, Dover, Sturry, Wickhambreau, and St. Nicholas. Tea and the business meeting, over which the Rev. Canon F. J. O. Helmore presided, were held in the Parish Hall.

A proposition that a bye-meeting should be held at Faversham on December 10th was carried.

The sad loss which the St. Lawrence parish had recently sustained, owing to the death of the Rev. A. G. Wilcox, was mentioned, and the meeting decided to send a letter of condolence to Mrs. Wilcox.

The meeting closed with a discussion concerning the advisability of again continuing the mid-week evening meetings, but no propositions were made.

A BEGINNER'S THEORY.

The tenth article of this instructive series, by 'Minormania,' will appear in our next issue.

LLANDAFF & MONMOUTH ASSOCIATION. QUARTERLY MEETING AND UNVEILING OF PEAL BOARD AT CHEPSTOW.

A quarterly meeting was held at Chepstow on Saturday, October 1st, and, although the day provided one continuous downpour of rain, a splendid muster put in an appearance from the towers of Monmouthshire and Glamorganshire. The bells, a fine old eight, tenor 21 cwt., by Evans, of Chepstow, were made good use of during the afternoon. The Vicar (the Rev. D. Hughes), contrary to what was expected, was able to be present, and conducted service in the church at four o'clock. Immediately afterwards he led the way to the ringing chamber, followed by the members. When all had assembled, the Vicar asked the hon. secretary (Mr. J. W. Jones), the conductor of the peal, to unveil the board which had been erected, recording a peal rung a few years ago as a farewell to Mr. John Prickett, who for several years had been leader of the local ringers and who is now in South Africa. The Vicar read the dedicatory prayers, and after a few remarks invited all present to join him at tea in the Church Rooms.

Tea over, the business meeting followed, with the Vicar in the chair. The hon. secretary read several letters received relating to the minutes, including one from Mr. Denison Taylor, of Loughborough, acknowledging a vote of sympathy, and another from the Vicar of Tredunnoch, which explained the reason why the meeting was held at Chepstow instead of Tredunnoch.

There were no restorations or proposed augmentations to report, but Mr. Jones reported excellent progress in instruction at Penhow. Four months ago this tower was ringing call changes. The hon. secretary has visited there each week with one exception, and with the assistance of an occasional visit of one or two others, call changes have disappeared (and the boards), and the band are now doing half-pull ringing.

The place to hold the next Monmouthshire meeting was left until the annual meeting.

A number of new members were elected, including the verification as life members of the visiting experts who had recently toured and scored so many peals in South Wales.

The item 'any other business' was taken advantage of by the hon. secretary to read the leading article in 'The Ringing World' on 'Loyalty.'

The usual vote of thanks was accorded the Vicar for his kindness and hospitality, and the meeting closed.

The bells were afterwards rung in Grandsire, Stedman, Plain Bob and Double Norwich. Despite the inclement weather, the meeting was a huge success. Opportunity is now taken of thanking Mr. E. H. Sims (the local leader) for all the trouble and kindness shown, and to him is due the thanks for the very nice and fitting peal board erected.

THE RESTORATION AT FARNDON, CHESHIRE.

As announced in the 'Belfry Gossip' column last week, the ring of eight bells at Farndon, Cheshire, which have recently been tuned and rehung in a new iron frame by Messrs. Taylor and Co., of Loughborough, will be available for ringing on Saturday, and a hearty welcome is extended by the church authorities to all ringers.

The details of the restoration scheme are interesting. A mishap to one of the bells nearly two years ago led to the tower being examined by experts, with the result that it was pronounced to be in a dangerous condition, and all ringing was, of course, suspended. The parish, although only just having completed, at considerable cost, the restoration of the church roof, immediately tackled a more serious one, which has cost them something in the neighbourhood of £1,200. The work on the masonry was entrusted to Messrs. Morrison, the builders of Liverpool Cathedral, while Messrs. John Taylor and Co. were given the work in the belfry. All is now completed, and the opening of the bells, which has been delayed for some little time through a case of serious illness near the church, is looked forward to with keen interest.

The Rev. S. P. Gray, himself an honorary member of the Chester Diocesan Guild, and his parishioners are to be highly congratulated on their noble efforts on behalf of their ancient church.

THE LATE MR. B. FOSKETT.

The last peal the late Mr. Benjamin Foskett took part in was one of Kent Treble Bob Major at St. Mary's, Willesden, on August 9th, 1924. He rang 17 peals at this church.

In memory of this grand old gentleman, and as a last token of respect, the 'whole pull and stand' was rung by: G. M. Kilby 1, E. Lankester 2, R. G. Ilstey 3, W. G. Matthews 4, E. H. Kilby 5, T. Lock 6, J. A. Trollope 7, H. Kilby 8. He was one of the most lovable of men, and those who knew him will never forget his beautiful character.

KING'S LANGLEY, HERTS.—On Sunday, September 25th, at All Saints' Church, for harvest festival morning service, a quarter-peal of Grandsire Triples (1,260 changes): J. Graney 1, Miss R. S. Cook 2, A. E. Dollimore 3, J. W. Lane 4, R. S. Cook (conductor) 5, E. J. Rowe 6, A. Hill 7, J. Hayward 8.

LANCASHIRE ASSOCIATION.

NEW PLAN FOR ELECTING COUNCIL REPRESENTATIVES.

The annual meeting of the Lancashire Association was held at Wigan on Saturday, September 24th, when representatives from over 50 towers met at the Parish Church at 4 p.m., after ringing at the five towers in the district. The service, a shortened form of evensong, was much appreciated, the hymns being led by the organ and choirboys. The preacher was the Ven. Archdeacon Howson, of Liverpool, the warden of the Liverpool Diocesan Guild. He took as his text, 'Whatsoever thy hand findeth to do, do it with thy might.' He said the Church now looked on the ringers as a ministry in the church, although it was not always so. He hoped they would not do anything to disgrace their calling.

Tea was partaken of in the schools near by, following which, in the next room, the business meeting was held. The members found themselves in a peculiar position. Their president is somewhere in Africa, and their vice-president in a nursing home in Manchester. They therefore asked the Archdeacon to take the chair, which he very kindly did, and gave them a welcome into the Liverpool diocese.

The secretary read the committee's report and balance sheet, the ringing secretary gave his report, and the auditors told how well kept they found the books, vouchers, etc., that go to make the business side of an association.

There were only sufficient nominations for ringing secretary and auditors to fill the posts, so these were confirmed.

The office of vice-president brought six nominations, two of whom retired. The other names were voted on by ballot, and while the votes were being counted a notice of motion from last year was taken and discussed, and in a new form was passed, viz., 'That the election of Central Council representatives be by ballot before the annual meeting, and the result be declared at the annual meeting.' It was thought that as many members could not get to the annual meeting it would give them a chance to vote for those they favoured. It was also suggested that the nominees should state their willingness to stand before their names were put on the paper.

The tellers having arrived with the result of the election of vice-president, Mr. J. H. Banks was declared appointed for the next two years.

The General Secretary suggested that it was the turn of Fylde Branch to find a place for the next annual meeting, and Blackpool was proposed and carried without a second place being mentioned.

The vote of thanks took the form of an omnibus vote, including thanks to the Rector of Wigan, for church, bells and school, to his curate for arranging the service, to the organist and choir, to the authorities of other churches for the use of bells, and to the Archdeacon for his sermon and for presiding over the meeting.—This was responded to by the Archdeacon and Mr. J. Grounds, the local secretary.

This terminated the meeting, and allowed the Archdeacon just five minutes to catch his train. The rest of the evening was spent among the bells and in social intercourse between old and new friends.

The committee reported that 129 new members and 15 non-resident members were enrolled during the year. The association lost 12 by death and 31 through arrears, leaving a grand total of 1,543. A balance of £5 5s. is shown on the year's working, but £12 15s. had been taken out of the funds for new emblems, which were on view and sale at the meeting. With the emblems in stock, the association is worth £37 13s.

The sympathy of the meeting was sent to Mr. Rollerson, the vice-president, in his illness, together with best wishes for his speedy recovery.

THE MEMORIAL TO THE LATE SIR A. HEYWOOD.

THE NEW GUILDFORD DIOCESAN GUILD. A SERIES OF DISTRICT MEETINGS.

As a preliminary to the general meeting which is to be held on November 19th, a series of district meetings have been arranged in order to discuss the organisation of the proposed Guild for the new diocese of Guildford. The first of these meetings was held at Guildford on Saturday, and was attended by some 50 ringers from various towers in the neighbourhood. The business was preceded by ringing at the pro-Cathedral of Holy Trinity and St. Nicolas' Church, and by a tea.

The meeting was held in St. Saviour's Hall, presided over by Mr. Walter Harrison, churchwarden of St. Nicolas', who has long been interested in ringing, and who presided at the meeting in November when the formation of the new Guild was definitely decided upon. Among those present were Canon E. C. Kirwan (Holy Trinity), Rev. Sir Paget M. Bowman (Shere), Rev. H. Hamilton Jackson (Shaftford), the Rev. J. M. La F. McAnally (Haslemere), Admiral T. P. Walker, D.S.O. (Woking), etc. Ringers were present from the pro-Cathedral and St. Nicolas', Guildford, Ash, Banstead, Cranleigh, Dunsfold, Farnham, Haslemere, Leatherhead, Merstham, Ockham, Shaftord, Shere, Thursley, West Clandon, Wotton, Worplesdon.

At the outset the Chairman proposed a vote of sympathy with Mr. A. H. Pulling in his accident, and this was at once endorsed.

A report of the Organising Committee was read by the hon. secretary pro tem. This detailed the steps which had already been taken to organise the Guild, which will come into being on January 1st next. The Guild had the cordial support of the Bishop of Guildford, who had promised to become president and to give the Guild his personal interest. In the diocese there were at present three 10-bell towers, 27 8-bell towers, 24 6-bell towers, and two 5-bell towers. The committee had been able to secure the welcome co-operation of the Winchester Diocesan Guild in their project, and they acknowledged the friendly and even generous spirit in which their proposals had been received by the parent society. At the annual meeting of the Winchester Guild a resolution was passed agreeing to the splitting up of the area as from January 1st next, and voting 25 per cent. of the funds then in hand to the Guildford Diocesan Association, an action which at once demonstrated the friendly feeling which animated all sections of the Guild.

RELATIONS WITH THE PARENT GUILD.

In order that the intimate relations between the old members of the Winchester Diocesan Guild may be preserved, a motion was also carried that a reciprocal arrangement be made whereby any resident member of the present Guild on January 1st, 1928, may become a compounding member of any of the associations into which the present Guild may be divided (other than that in which resident) upon payment of 1s. to each such association, if application be made during the year 1928. This arrangement was originally suggested by the Guildford Committee, and they attached considerable importance to it. They recommended that the necessary resolution to give effect to the proposal should be passed by the Guildford Diocesan Guild at the proper time. At the request of the Surrey Association, a conference took place between the officials of that society and the Organising Committee to consider the question of amalgamation. As the Surrey Association had no proposals to put forward except that of complete absorption of the Guildford diocesan area by the Surrey Association, the committee informed the deputation that no definite reply could be given until after the Guild had come into existence in January next, as it was a question that could only be dealt with after the Guild had been established.

The committee have given considerable attention to the drafting of a set of rules, which members were invited to consider, and which, subject to any amendments which might be made, would be submitted for approval at a later preliminary general meeting of the whole Guild, and for adoption at the inaugural meeting.

The committee had mapped out the diocesan area into four districts, and in doing so had two considerations in view: (1) To make them workable in size, and (2) convenience in regard to means of inter-communication between the towers in each group. One of the questions which the members were asked to consider was whether they would accept the Winchester Guild's recommendation that life members of the Winchester Guild should automatically become life members of this Guild without further payment. A decision on this and other important matters would have to be made when the preliminary general meeting was held on November 19th, and it was hoped that in the meantime members would also carefully consider whom they desired to see holding the various offices in the Guild. The success of the Guild would depend largely upon the manner in which its organisation was now moulded and the officers who were entrusted with its administration. The committee would welcome proposals which would add to the efficiency of the Guild and further its objects, and they therefore invited suggestions from those who would become its future members. It was proposed that all those who joined by the date of the inauguration should always be distinguished as foundation members, and be so described in the records. It was hoped, therefore, that all who contemplate joining the Guild would become enrolled by January 1st next. The committee desired to enlist the support of every ringer in the diocese in making the new Guild one of the best ringing organisations in the country. There were sufficient ringers in the diocese to make a strong and virile Guild, and before the Organising Committee laid down their work for a permanent executive to take over the task, they hoped to see in being a Guild worthy of the diocese and worthy of the Exercise of which it would form a not unimportant part.

The report was approved, and the following resolution was unanimously carried, on the motion of the Rev. Hamilton Jackson, seconded by Mr. R. Hasted: 'That this preliminary district meeting approves of the formation of the Guildford Diocesan Guild of Church Bellringers, to come into being on January 1st next, and pledges itself to do its utmost to support the objects of the Guild and further its interests.'

The proposed rules were then considered serialim, and a few alterations suggested.

On the motion of Mr. J. S. Goldsmith, seconded by Canon Kirwan, it was resolved to support the proposal that 'members of the Winchester Diocesan Guild, residing in the dioceses of Winchester and Portsmouth on December 31st next, be admitted as compounding members of the Guildford Diocesan Guild at any time before December 31st, 1928, upon payment of one shilling.'

On the question of life members of the Winchester Guild becoming life members of the Guildford Diocesan Guild without further payment, the meeting regretted that it could not support the proposal.

Suggestions were invited for promoting the successful conduct of the Guild, and a discussion took place as to the best time for the annual meeting. Eventually a proposal was carried that it be recommended that there should be an annual business meeting early in the year and an annual festival in the summer.

A vote of thanks to the chairman concluded the meeting, which revealed an extremely gratifying interest in the scheme for the new Guild.

A similar meeting is to be held at Leatherhead to-morrow.

STAVELEY'S LOSSES.

DEATH CLAIMS RECTOR AND CAPTAIN OF RINGERS.

During recent weeks, Staveley churchpeople, and the ringers in particular, have been very hard hit by death. On August 26th, the beloved Rector (Canon Molineux) passed away and was buried at Lewes, Sussex. Canon Molineux had a seizure three years ago, and since that time had been an invalid, having lost his speech and the use of his right side. He held the living of Staveley for 40 years, having been appointed in 1887, and during his rectorship had done a vast amount of good work in the parish, and was loved and honoured by everybody with whom he came in contact. He died at the ripe old age of 83 years, mourned by all, and especially the ringers, to whom he had been such a good friend, and in whose doings he took a big interest. Almost the last meeting Canon Molineux attended before his seizure was a meeting of the Sheffield District Society, held at Staveley in 1924, and in his address, when speaking to that gathering, he said that his clapper was nearly done. It was little thought then how soon his words would come true.

The bells were fully muffled, with tenor open only at back stroke, for all services on the Sunday following his death, and a quarter-peal of Grandsire Triples rung in the evening. Two of the ringers were among the bearers on his removal from the church, which he had loved so much, and in which he had laboured for so many years, to the train which bore him away on his last journey. One of those was Mr. Samuel Smedley, who had been captain of the ringers for many years, and a ringer at Staveley 41 years.

He was suddenly called to his rest on Sunday, September 11th, after only three days' illness. Of him it can truly be said he did his duty nobly and well. He was seldom absent from the tower, and never late when there was any ringing to be done. It did not matter if it was to ring the old year out or to ring for 6 a.m. Communion service on Easter Sunday, Sam was always present, and regularly took his rope, which was usually the 7th. He has left an example to all young ringers.

Not only was he a ringer, but he had taken his place in Staveley Church choir for the past 61 years, and he did his duty in that position as he did in the tower, being regularly in his place on Sundays and on practice nights.

Of a quiet, unassuming nature, he lived a good life, and worked at his trade as a blacksmith right up to the last. He had been employed by the Staveley Coal and Iron Company nearly 58 years.

He was carried to his last resting place by four of his fellow ringers on September 14th, and the 'whole pull and stand' was rung at the graveside, and 672 Bob Major after the funeral, with the bells half-muffled. On the following Sunday, a half-muffled peal of Bob Major was attempted as a last tribute to his memory, but owing to indisposition of one of the band had to be brought round at half-way after 1 hr. 40 mins. splendid ringing, much to the regret of all.

Samuel Smedley had passed the allotted span, having reached the age of 73 years. He had rung 32 peals, chiefly of Treble Bob and Bob Major. He was a member of the Yorkshire, Midland Counties and Sheffield District Associations. He was a good ringer, and will be greatly missed.

F. E. P.

STAINES.—A quarter-peal of Grandsire Triples was rung in St. Peter's Church on Wednesday evening, September 21st, after the institution and induction of the new Vicar, the Rev. W. H. Flecker, M.A., D.C.L.: W. R. Shorter 1, J. Phillips 2, J. Lamb 3, A. J. Hiscock 4, G. Walsley 5, W. E. Butler 6, W. C. Parker (conductor) 7, F. W. Smith 8.

STANLEY BRAGG.

DEATH OF WELL-KNOWN ST. MARTIN'S GUILD MEMBER.

To those of us who, like the writer of these few lines, had known him for something like 30 years, it seemed impossible of belief that the ruddy-countenanced, plump-checked, jovial-spirited Stanley Bragg could really be dead, but there it was in cold and unrelenting lettering on the tablet.

The falling leaves skirled and whirled, the skies wept, and all around seemed hushed in pity and regret, as, in the last few hours of 'Summer time' of this year which has seen no 'summer,' all that was mortal of Stanley Bragg was lowered into the bosom of mother earth on Saturday, October 1st.

On his bold visage middle age
Had slightly pressed its signet sage,
Yet had not quenched the open truth
And fiery vehemence of youth:
Forward and frolic glee was there,
The will to do, the soul to dare.—Scott.

Mr. Bragg had been a member of St. Martin's Guild, Birmingham, for about thirty years, having learnt to pull a bell at his native place, Solihull.

For many years he had been towerkeeper, during which period the well-known ring of ten have gone like the proverbial fiddle, and Solihull has been one of the favourite places with members of the Guild for meetings and peals.

'Stan,' as he was familiarly known, became a very safe ringer and good striker, and rang numerous peals on 8, 10 and 12 bells in the standard methods. He had been a regular attendant at the 'Johnson' dinners for the past twenty-five years, and his ready wit and hearty laugh will be sadly missed by many.

He was present at the last dinner, but had only then just got about after an attack of 'flu.' A few weeks later he complained of what was at first thought to be indigestion, and after going to the sea for a change he seemed to be improving, but rapidly went back again. Specialists were called in, and an operation advised, which was performed in a private nursing home.

The doctors did not seem to be too sanguine, however, and later, at his own request, Mr. Bragg was removed to his own home, where, although he had the best of attention and nursing, and everything that medical science could do was done, he gradually sank and passed away in the early hours of Thursday, September 29th.

The funeral took place at the new cemetery at Solihull on Saturday, October 1st, the service proper being held in the Parish Church, conducted by the Vicar.

The organist and choir were present, and the beautiful old church was nearly filled by relatives and friends of the deceased and the family who came to show their respect for one who had been cut off in the very prime of life, one who had everything that man could wish to live for.

Psalm 39 was sung to a well-known old chant, and the old words seemed to take on a new meaning as one looked at the casket and had difficulty in making oneself realise that it contained the mortal remains of a man who, only a few months ago, was the very picture of health and looked good for forty years on.

'Lord, let me know mine end and the number of my days; that I may be certified how long I have to live.'

The solemn service of the Church of England for the burial of the dead, than which nothing is more impressive, was reverently conducted by the Vicar, and equally reverently taken part in by the large congregation present. The singing of deceased's favourite hymn, 'Abide with me,' was most touching, and many eyes were wet as the old familiar words were sung—

'Swift to its close ebbs out life's little day,
Earth's joys grow dim, its glories pass away.'

A few minutes of quiet prayer, a few audible sobs, and the organ pealed out to the majestic tune of the Easter hymn which tells of ultimate triumph over death—

'On that happy Easter morning
All the graves their dead restore;
Father, sister, child and mother,
Meet once more.'

A shuffling of feet and the bearers are already taking our friend out of his old Parish Church, in which he sang as a little boy, to his last home.

The cortege that followed the coffin for the three miles to the new cemetery was a long and imposing one, and many were the marks of respect in the form of drawn blinds and bared heads as it passed through the beautiful old Warwickshire village. The chief mourners were Mrs. Stanley Bragg, widow, with her two eldest sons (Robert and Arthur), Roland, Alfred, and Robert Bragg, brothers, and many other members of the family. The St. Martin's Guild was represented by Messrs. E. T. Allaway, J. E. Groves, S. J. Jessop, E. Mansell, Morris J. Morris, Geoffrey Martineau, F. Weeks, F. W. Perrens, T. H. Reeves, G. F. Swann, Albert Walker, A. Paddon Smith, E. C. Shepherd and T. Shepherd.

The coffin was borne to the grave by six of the employees of Messrs. Bragg Bros., Ltd., builders, of which company Mr. Bragg was a director. Many floral tributes were sent, among which was a beautiful wreath from his old friends of the Guild.

A course of Grandsire Triples was rung on handbells round the open grave by A. Walker 1-2, G. F. Swann 3-4, E. C. Shepherd 5-6, J. E. Groves 7-8.

In the evening a muffled peal of Stedman Caters was rung on the tower bells, and will be found recorded in its proper place.

By the untimely death of Stanley Bragg, his wife and family have lost one of the best of husbands and fathers, the business has lost a man of fine experience and sound judgment, Solihull one of its most highly respected inhabitants, St. Martin's Guild one of its most popular members, and the writer of these lines one of his oldest ringing friends. It will be many a long day before Solihull will seem quite the same, and have quite the same attraction for those of us who have had the pleasure of his acquaintance, and the privilege of being numbered amongst his intimates.

'To know, to esteem, to love, and then to part,
Makes up life's tale to many a feeling heart!—Coleridge.

A. P. S.

SOCIETY FOR THE ARCHDEACONRY OF STAFFORD,
TAMWORTH BELLS TO BE REHUNG.

A very successful meeting was held at Tamworth on Saturday, September 24th, when about a hundred members and friends assembled, which is undoubtedly a record attendance for a quarterly meeting. The bells were raised at three o'clock, and were kept going in various methods during the afternoon and evening. Partly owing to the fact that they are hung 'back handed,' also that they need rehanging, the striking was not quite what might be desired. However, stops are being taken to have the bells rehung, when no doubt both these defects will be remedied. They are a mixed lot: 4th by Hugh Watts, 1621; 5th, 1629, and 6th, 1628, by G. Oldfield, jun.; 7th, 1656, by B. Eldridge; the rest by Taylor and Co.

The service was taken by the Rev. C. H. Barker, L.Th., clerical secretary and treasurer, and an admirable address delivered by the Rev. E. H. Rogers (Vicar). A capital tea was provided in the Parish Hall. The Vicar presided, and was supported by the Rev. C. H. Barker, Messrs. H. C. Goostry and P. Findley (churchwardens), R. P. Brindley, G. Chaplin and others.

The Rev. C. H. Barker moved that a hearty vote of thanks be accorded the Vicar for his address, use of the bells, etc., and to Mr. H. C. Goostry for so generously providing tea. The Vicar humorously replied, and gave the party a most hearty welcome.—Mr. H. C. Goostry, on rising, was received with applause, and said he was pleasantly surprised at the large muster, and wished to thank his willing helpers, who so readily acquiesced when he approached them with regard to making provision for tea.

On the proposition of Mr. R. P. Brindley, the Rev. E. H. Rogers and Messrs. H. C. Goostry and P. Findley (churchwardens) were unanimously elected hon. members.

Immediately before the service a photograph of all present was taken on the north side of the church. Although the light was not good, the photographer has hopes of getting a good picture.

The next meeting is provisionally arranged to take place at Willenhall on January 14th or 21st.

SUSSEX COUNTY ASSOCIATION,
EASTERN DIVISION AT SALEHURST.

A most successful meeting of the Eastern District was held at Salehurst on Saturday, September 24th, between 30 and 40 members attending, representing the following towers: Battle; Christ Church, St. Leonards; Christ Church, Blacklands; St. Clement's, Hastings; Burwash; Benenden; Pevensey; Waldron; and St. Saviour's, Eastbourne, together with members of the local band. Mr. A. A. Hughes, of the Whitechapel Bell Foundry, was also present. A short service was held, at which an address was given by the Vicar (the Rev. C. E. Ward), who extended a most hearty welcome to the members of the association.

After the service, an excellent tea was provided at the Old Eight Bells Inn, through the kindness of the Vicar and churchwardens, at which Mr. L. J. Hodson, an hon. life member of the association, presided.

The usual business meeting followed, Mr. L. J. Hodson being voted to the chair.

Following some discussion, it was proposed by Mr. W. Franks, and seconded by Mr. A. Kennett, that the next meeting be held at Bexhill. This was put to the meeting and carried.

Mr. W. D. Smith proposed a hearty vote of thanks to the Vicar and churchwardens for the use of the bells, and also for their hospitality in providing the tea. He also thanked Mr. L. J. Hodson for presiding at the tea and meeting.—Mr. Hodson responded, both for the Vicar and churchwardens, and himself, and remarked that he was pleased to see such a large number of members present, and assured the company that it had been a great pleasure to be amongst them.

This closed the meeting, and the company repaired to the tower, where excellent practice was obtained, several members ringing their first touches in various methods.

CAMBRIDGE IN CUMBERLAND.

At All Saints' Church, Cockermouth, Cumberland, on Sunday, October 2nd, for evening service, 720 Cambridge Surprise Minor: R. Potts 1, J. Smithson 2, J. Casson 3, W. Bowe 4, F. Tickle 5, Wm. T. Holmes (conductor) 6. This was the first 720 in the method by all.

THE ROMANCE OF THE BELFRY.

Two more well-known ringers, whose acquaintance began in the belfry, have joined their lives in matrimony—Mr. Robert A. Fardon, son of Mr. G. R. Fardon, a former Master of the College Youths, and Miss Ruby Hawksworth, who are ringers at St. Mary's, Acton.

In honour of the event a peal of Stedman Triples was rung by members of the Middlesex Association at Acton on Wednesday week, the band wishing the bride and bridegroom 'long life and happiness.'

WEDDING BELLS AT LINSLADE.

On Monday, September 26th, a quarter-peal of Grandsire Triples was rung at St. Barnabas' Church, Linslade, Bucks, by members of the local band, and friends from All Saints' belfry, Leighton Buzzard, to celebrate the wedding of Mr. Fred Vickers to Miss Ada Payne. The bridegroom has been foreman of the St. Barnabas' tower for the past 31 years, and during the whole of that time has had the confidence and esteem of the many ringers who have been associated with the tower during such a long period. He has done much to encourage change ringing in this district, and has taught the ancient art to many young men. Many of them have settled in other towns, and have become useful members of other bands, but all look back with pleasure to the happy hours spent under his kind and patient tuition. He has made many friends in local ringing circles, being a regular and enthusiastic attendant at most meetings held in the district. Mr. Vickers is continuing to reside in Linslade, and his colleagues wish him and his wife a long and happy married life, and express the hope that he will carry on and score the half-century as foreman of St. Barnabas' tower. The following took part in the quarter-peal: R. Butcher 1, R. Oliver 2, F. Dedman 3, F. Buttram 4, W. J. Jeffs 5, J. E. Arnold (conductor) 6, J. Nicolls 7, W. T. Jeffs 8.

WEDDING OF NUNEATON LADY RINGER.

The wedding took place at the Parish Church, Nuneaton, on Wednesday, September 28th, of Mr. Hayward Billington, of Attleborough, Nuneaton, and Miss 'Pattie' Clarke, who has been for some years a member of the Nuneaton Parish Church band of ringers.

The bride, who is a member of the Warwickshire Guild, and also of the Midland Counties Association, was charmingly attired in a dress of beige georgette and lace, with georgette hat to match. She carried a shower bouquet of red roses, and was attended by her sister, Miss Phoebe Clarke, who wore a crepe-de-chine dress of 'Mary' blue, with beige hat, and carried a bouquet of cream roses.

The bride was given away by her father, Mr. James F. Clarke, who has been for many years a member of the Nuneaton Society of Change Ringers. The best man was Mr. Frederick Billington, brother of the bridegroom.

The service was conducted by the Rev. J. L. White, Vicar of Nuneaton, and president of the Warwickshire Guild.

Owing to the early hour, a band of ringers could not be obtained to ring the tower bells, so handbells were rung by Miss D. E. Lewis and Mr. A. H. Beamish, of the Chilvers Cotton band, as the newly-married couple were returning from the altar.

The honeymoon is being spent in Bedford and London.

'THE MYSTERY OF TRIPLE BOB MAJOR.'

A COMING SERMON.

In the monthly magazine of St. Nicholas' Church, Wallasey, the Vicar (the Rev. A. S. Roscamp) says that on Saturday, October 15th, St. Nicholas' belfry entertains the members of other towers in the Wirral for their monthly gathering. 'Once a year,' he remarks, 'it is our turn and our pleasure to do this. Ringing will take place during the afternoon and evening, and a service will be held in the church at 5.30 p.m., to which anyone and everyone is welcome. The Rev. F. L. Edwards, Rector of Kingston Magna, Dorsetshire, and a member of the Central Council of Bellringers, is coming north to spend this week-end with us, and I have asked him to preach at St. Nicholas' on the Sunday night, October 16th, and tell us something about church bells. I feel sure that some information on the origin and the use and purpose of church bells, and some stories of old customs connected and associated with them, will be very welcome to many, as it will certainly be to me. Not only the great events of the life of each of us, but the great events in the life of the Church and also of the nation are linked up with church bells. I find that people's notions of the causes that produce the effect they listen to are so hazy that I am sometimes asked if one man rings all our bells! Mr. Edwards has chosen for the title of his sermon, "The Mystery of Triple Bob Major"! It sounds like Sherlock Holmes! Who was Bob Major, and why and how was he Triple? I give it up, but shall look forward to being enlightened on the evening of Sunday, October 16th.'
