THE MESSAGE

A PHRASE frequently heard is to claim that Charles Dickens immortalised Christmas in the homes of our country. But its roots are far deeper. The 'Mass of Christ' is first mentioned in the Philocalian calendar, drawn up at Rome A.D. 336, while the Christmas carols date back to the 15th century. The first printed collection of carols came from the press of Wynkyn de Worde in 1521, and contained the famous 'Boar's Head Carol,' which is still sung at Queen's College, Oxford, on Christmas Day. Charles Dickens, however, made a notable contribution by bringing to the ordinary people the spirit of goodwill. The secular side of Christmas is firmly enshrined to-day and is to a large degree commercialised. Such comments as 'a good Christmas,' referring to the amount of the business turnover, are frequently heard, or the term 'good' is measured by the degree of festivity—that little extra to eat and drink and the other things that gladden the heart of man. These aspects of Christmas are inescapable; they surround us on every side. We do not condemn them. The essence is the true perspective and remembering that these are all subsidiary to the main reason for the Feast of Christmas taking such a prominent part in our lives.

As these lines are being written the hoar frost has covered the countryside with its magical whiteness. There is a stillness over the land. Such a silence is good. It is an escape from the artificiality of modern life, provided almost mysteriously by Nature's unseen hand. The mind goes back to that same silence in the hills above Bethlehem nearly 2,000 years ago, broken in such a miraculous manner by the heavenly hosts proclaiming the birth of the Saviour with the message, 'Peace on earth; goodwill towards men.'

Such will be our responsibility to proclaim to our day and generation as we ring on Christmas morning. There is a purity in the sound of the bells when heard over a frosty countryside. The trebles become prominent, soaring their music above the hum of the tenors. In the stillness everything is accentuated; the least imperfection is at once detected. Let there be nothing false in our ringing this Christmas; may the message of goodwill be rung with that true sincerity.

We hope that a correspondent will not write to the Editor and say: 'My village was denied the heavenly message of "goodwill to all men" because the ringers were absent.' If ringing means anything more to us than a pastime or a game of football, we should be in our places in the belfry. The whole world will be waiting for the Christmas message to lift its thoughts from the paganism that in places surrounds its life, and where the bells are silent there is a spiritual tragedy. Ringing on such occasions in life is the fundamental purpose of the Exercise. This is the purpose of all our ringing: the masses of technicalities that at times seem to loom so large are mere trivialities compared with the Message. First and foremost we ringers are His servants and members of His Church.

For the bells to give their spiritual message of goodwill something more than the individual skill of the ringer is required. One essential demand is sincerity and belief in the purpose for which we are ringing. Goodwill in our own hearts is required. A preliminary is the casting out of that spirit of nastiness, distrust, petty fault-finding and self-glorification. The goodwill must start in our own tower and extend to the district and Guild or Association. Christmas is the time when we must throw off all that is worst in our characters and conduct and put on all that is lovely and of good report.

With such a spirit in our hearts we shall descend from the belfry and join with other members of Christ's family in the worship and adoration of His Son, Who was made carnate that through Him we may have life. Then the immortal gift of the love of God will transcend into our hearts and we can take courage with the thought:

Earthly kings their tributes brought Him,
Gifts of gold and spices sweet,
But as precious were the offerings
Humble men laid at His feet,
Simple shepherds' adoration,
Little children's wondrous love,
These were counted costly treasures
By the Lord of Heaven above.

OBITUARY

MR. FRED HINDLE

The Blackburn Branch of the Lancashire Association has lost one of its oldest members in the death of Mr. Fred Hindle, of 58, Anvil Street, Blackburn. He was a ringer at Blackburn Cathedral and joined the Association in 1907.

Mr. Hindle was also secretary of the Branch for many years, carrying out his duties in a most efficient and cheerful manner. One of the most even-tempered of men, he was always a great help to beginners. Of late years, owing to his illness and his inability to climb the belfry steps, he has done very little ringing. In all he rang about 120 peals.

He was laid to rest in Plessington Cemetery on December 1st.

MR. CHARLES WILLIAMS

One of the oldest ringers of St. Martin's Guild, Mr. Charles Williams, died on November 30th in his 82nd year. The funeral service was at Harborne Parish Church on December 4th and cremation took place at Perry Barr.

Gratefully Acknowledged

[They had just been augmented from three to eight. The Vicar, the Rev. H. B. Woolley, was the father of one of the most able ringers of the present day, Mr. C. W. Woolley, and taking part in the dedication service was the Rev. H. G. Hooton, father of Mr. W. H. J. Hooton. The peal was also the 200th by the Rev. W. C. Pearson, Vicar of Henley, Suffolk, and founder of the Cambridge University Guild, 93 of them having been on his own bells.]

ISLEWORTH, MIDLX.—On Nov. 30th, 1,280 Yorkshire Surprise Major: Mrs. S. E. Charnley 1, Miss E. Farrell 2, Mrs. O. L. Rogers 3, S. Croft 4, F. D. Bishop 5, T. E. Davies 6, D. Charnley 7, H. W. Rogers (cond.) 8.

WEATHER HAZARDS IN LONDONJoint Meeting of Middlesex Association and Cumberland Youths

The South and West District of the Middlesex Association was to have joined forces with the Cumberland Youths on December 6th for a meeting in London. Steeplekeepers kindly co-operated but the weather was forgotten. Keen frost and thick fog were a splendid combination to upset anyone's plans and the only ringers who ventured in from the south and west suburbs (and beyond) were the Ringing Master (Mr. R. D. Price), the secretary (Mr. F. W. Goodfellow) and Mr. Sansom, of Heston!

That is not to say the meeting was a fiasco. Far from it. There was a good sprinkling of Youths and many provincial visitors, bringing the total attendance to 40 or so. In the absence of Mr. George Cross through illness, ringing was in charge of Mr. T. H. Francis for the Youths, and Mr. Price for the County Association, and ranged from rounds to Cambridge Surprise on eight, ten and twelve bells.

Thanks were accorded to the steeplekeepers for meeting the visitors, and it was a great honour to shake hands with England's newest film star, the Wizard of Westminster—William H. Hewett. Due notice of the première of his film will appear later.

Ringing took place at St. Giles' and St. Martin's—both 'in-the-Fields,' and it was almost believable in that fog—and at St. Margaret's, Westminster. F. W. G.

NORTH KILWORTH, LEICS.—On Nov. 30th, 1,260 Doubles, being 240 Norfolk, 240 April Day, 360 Plain Bob and 420 Grandsire: C. N. Bennett 1, P. J. Thomas (cond.) 2, J. S. Haines 3, K. H. Rowland 4, D. Allsop 5. Rung for the Patronal Festival.

The Christchurch Cathedral
Bellringers' Society, Christchurch, New Zealand, have forwarded to the Editor a Christmas card with their good wishes to all ringers in this country.

The clock at Chester Cathedral has neither hands nor face—'only bowels.'—Clockwise.

Oxford University Society's annual lunch will be held on February 7th, 1953.

Heard in a Gloucestershire tower:—The new recruit having broken the treble stay moves on to the second, looks round and says 'Look,
three seconds going—gone.'

Mr. W. Kingscott, of Wrington, has had the unusual distinction of ringing the tenor of Exeter Cathedral from both positions—as a
'strapper' and now as the tenor man.

Owing to masonry work in the bell chamber at St. Margaret's, Leicester, there will be no further practice or Sunday service ringing until early New Year.

Mr. William Rose has had to wait 30 years to get his first peal at Walpole St. Andrew, Norfolk. His previous attempt to the successful one on December 1st was in 1920. This peal was lost in the last 720.

The peal at Lamberhurst, Kent, on November 29th, was arranged as a triple birthday compliment to Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Bassett and Mr. Albert Relfe. The bereavement of the Vicar by the death of his brother necessitated the ringing being half-muffled.

A small number of Mid-Devon members spent a very pleasant evening on a recent Wednesday when they visited the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Lilley, which is at Perry Farm, Highweek, Newton Abbot. Grandsire Doubles and Triples and Plain Bob Minor were creditably rung on handbells after which Mr. and
Mrs. Lilley kindly provided light refreshments.

BELFRY GOSSIP

The peal of Stedman Cinques at Exeter Cathedral by the Society of Roving Ringers was rung as a birthday compliment to Mr. T. J.
Southam. The band would like to express its grateful thanks to Mr. Fred Wreford and Mr.
Cyril Deem for their trouble in arranging the attempt and preparing the bells.

The handbell table of the Peals Analysis Committee for 1951 will be published in our next issue.

'Tis said that Mr. Harold J. Poole had to dial 999 to invoke the aid of the police in ringing his 999th peal. The 1,000th has duly followed. Congratulations on a unique record.

Mr. Geoffrey Hemming, Master of the Eyesham Guild of Ringers, is in Evesham Hospital undergoing an operation. We wish him a speedy recovery.

Mr. J. E. Jeater is spending Christmas in France from December 22nd to December 30th.
Remittances arriving at his address between these dates will not be acknowledged until his return.

Mr. C. Woodcock, of Ipswich, informs us that the clock in the church tower at Stoke-by-Clare was, according to tradition, built by the village blacksmith about 1490. It keeps good time and has an hour hand only.

Mr. John Checksfield, of The Firs Farm,
Tenterden, who has been sidesman and churchworker for several years, wishes to thank the Ashford band of ringers who so kindly rang for his 101st birthday on December 6th.

The band that rang the peal at Heanor on December 8th are indebted to the local ringers, who although not yet peal ringers themselves, gave the visitors a warm welcome and provided cups of tea and cakes after the peal. It was a grand gesture and very acceptable on a cold
December night.

TWO RINGS RESTORED IN LONDON

St. Mary's, Bow—St. Dunstan's, Stepney

LONDON, as is well known, suffered more in proportion to any other large city in loss of bells as a result of enemy action. This has considerably retarded progress in the art and has severely crippled the activities of the College Youths. Facilities for practice and peals have been very limited—only three practices per month being possible and opportunities for peals very few.

There are indications that a more hopeful state of things is coming about and on Sunday, November 30th, the Bishop of London rededicated a very nice ring of eight at St. Mary's, Bow Road, E. The church was crowded to capacity and there are signs that the sound of the new bells has reawakened interest in church life.

The tower of this church received a direct hit in 1940 and the bells, which came from the Whitechapel foundry in 1760, were irreparably damaged. Recently the top position of the tower has been rebuilt and Messrs. Mears and Stainbank have installed a delightful new ring of eight (tenor 14 cwt.), hung with modern fittings in a teak frame. The ringing room is now on the ground floor and the bells are easily handled from that position.

Arrangements are being made to control the volume of sound heard in the vicinity so that the bells will not cause any inconvenience to people living nearby. During the ringing for the dedication, people living in large blocks of flats near the church threw open their windows so as to appreciate the full beauty of the tone of the new bells.

Another restoration, which has been much appreciated by London ringers in general and the residents in particular, is that of the famous ring of ten at St. Dunstan's, Stepney.

The church was founded 1,000 years ago by St. Dunstan and the parish extended from the eastern boundary of the city to Barking. It included the parishes of Shoreditch, Bethnal Green, Whitechapel, Bow and what is now Limehouse and Poplar. Incidentally, the parish of St. Mary Bow, East, was one of the first to be carved out of the old parish of Stepney. The present church is a fine example of 15th century architecture and in the chancel is preserved a stone carving of the Crucifixion dating from the latter part of the 12th century.

The tower contains a ring of ten bells cast at the Whitechapel foundry in 1806 to replace a heavy ring of eight. The tenor was originally given to the Priory of Holy Trinity, Aldeate, in the 14th century and was sold with three others to St. Dunstan's, Stepney, about 1540.

The church was badly damaged by bomb blast on more than one occasion and the upper part of the tower was found to be unsafe. The treble, 4th and 8th bells were found to be cracked. These have been recast. The others have been sandblast and retuned and the whole ring rehung with completely new fittings in cast iron framework. The upper part of the tower has been completely rebuilt. The weight of the tenor is 29 cwt.

At a recent meeting of the College Youths great satisfaction was expressed by all at the improvement in the tone and 'go' of the bells. The work was done by the Whitechapel foundry.

Opportunities for the College Youths to practise on these two restored rings will provide greater scope for advancement in the art.

OXFORD UNIVERSITY SOCIETY

The following officers have been elected for the Oxford University Society:—

Master, R. G. Turner (Jesus); secretaries, J. M. Wilson (Trinity) and S. M. Clayton (Somerville); treasurer, R. J. Cook (University).

TRIPLES AT NEWPORT (SALOP) After a Lapse of 22 Years

The rededication of the eight bells of St. Nicholas', Newport, took place at a special choral evensong conducted by the Rector (the Rev. P. H. L. Bradley).

The second and sixth bells of the octave have been recast by John Taylor and Co., of Loughborough. All the bells have been rehung on ball bearings, the old oak frame has been strengthened and J. B. Joyce and Co., Ltd., of Whitchurch, have installed new hammerwork for the clock chimes, the whole work costing about £550.

During the service the Rector gave a brief address in which he said that it was a happy coincidence for the bells to have been prepared in time for the celebration of the patronal festival that same evening. St. Nicholas was not only the patron saint of children, but also of those engaged in fishing and sailing the seas, and seeing that Newport, many centuries ago, was a small fishing port situated by a great inland lake, long since dried up, it was only natural that St. Nicholas should have been chosen as patron saint of the Parish Church. He concluded by thanking the bellringers for their loyal services over the years and all those who had subscribed towards the cost of the bells. 'People will bless this work for years to come.'

During the hymn 'For all the Saints' the choir proceeded to the west end of the church under the tower for the blessing of the bells by the Rector, who, immediately this had been done, chimed the second bell for a few moments. As an act of thanksgiving the choir, ranged in front of the altar steps, sang the 'Te Deum.'

The bells were soon pealing out their merry sounds throughout the small market town situated in the Shropshire plain. Visiting ringers were welcomed from Market Drayton, Gnosall, Lilleshall, Hadley and Chetwynd, including Mr. G. L. Hewitt, of the Shropshire Association, and all paid complimentary remarks on the 'go' of the bells—a fine tribute to Horace Myatt and Roy Marsden, of Messrs. Taylor and Co. Methods rung were Grandsire Doubles and Triples, Bob Major and Cambridge Surprise Minor. Mr. Tom Talbot, the tower captain, and his brother, Mr. Sam Talbot, will long remember this occasion as it presented them with the opportunity of ringing Grand-sire Triples after a lapse of 22 years.

The inscriptions on the two recast bells are: Second.—Commemorating Golden Wedding George and Mary Jones. P. H. L. Bradley, Rector. A. O. Talbot, I. Armstrong, Churchwardens. D. Keddie, Hon. Sec. P.C.C. Recast 1952.—Taylor, Loughboro'.

Sixth.—

Ring out the darkness of the land

Ring in the Christ that is to be

Ring on in happy memory of Charles

Hughes Lomax

And Ann his wife who died February A.D. 1949.

Recast 1952.—Taylor, Loughboro'.

BELLS OF MAGDALEN, OXFORD

John Betjeman has written a poem on 'The Bells of Magdalen' which has been published in the winter number of the Cornhill Magazine. It was inspired by hearing the bells from the Botanic Garden, Oxford, on St. Mary Magdalen's day (July 22nd). Two of the eight stanzas are:—

'A grassy kingdom sweet to view

With tiger lilies still in flower

And beds of umbelliferæ

Ranged in Linnaean symmetry

All in the sound of Magdalen tower.

Before the spell began to fail.

Before the bells have lost their power,

Before the grassy kingdom fade

And Oxford traffic roar invade.

I thank the bells of Magdalen tower.'

YOUNG RINGERS JOINING THE NORTH STAFFS

Association's Annual Meeting

The annual meeting of the North Staffordshire Association was held at Stoke-on-Trent on December 6th and was attended by representatives from the following towers:—Astbury, Bucknall, Cannock, Newcastle, Stafford, Wolstanton, Norton, Broughton, Hanley, Brown Edge, Leek, Biddulph, Kinsley, Stoke, Longton, University College, Keele.

Tea was provided in the Church Hall at the invitation of the president, the Ven. P. Harthill, Rector of Stoke. He was supported by Mr. R. S. Anderson (chairman) and Mr. W. Carnell (secretary).

The annual business was conducted after tea and the secretary reported that twelve ringing meetings had been held during the year with an average attendance of 35. Thirty-nine peals had been rung, 19 on tower bells and 20 on handbells. The conducting had been shared by the following ringers:—F. W. Grocott 19, M. O. Slaney 5, F. W. Wilshaw 3, W. P. Deane, W. Hazeldene, G. H. Hall, Miss J. M. Henshaw, D. Knox, C. H. Page and P. Border one each.

Congratulations were offered to the band who took part in a peal of Royal in eleven methods on handbells.

The following officers were elected:—President, Archdeacon P. Harthill; chairman, Mr. R. S. Anderson; vice-chairman, Mr. A. Hall; secretary, Mr. W. Carnell; Ringing Master (6 bells), Mr. W. Hazeldene; Ringing Master (8 bells), Mr. A. Moore. A tribute of respect was paid to the memory of the late Alfred Ryder, who had been a regular member of St. Edward's, Leek, for 47 years.

The following towers are to be visited during 1953:—January, Longton; February, Burslem; March, Wolstanton; April, Cheddleton; May, Leek; June, Swynnerton; July, Broughton; September, Uttoxeter; October, Hanley; November, Bucknall; December, Stoke (annual meeting).

The president in welcoming the ringers, said that this year he noticed an appreciable increase in the membership of the association and was pleased to note that this was mostly among the younger generation. This was the largest attendance that had been at Stoke during the period of his presidency which had now lasted 18 years.

The chairman moved a vote of thanks to the Archdeacon for his very kind welcome, which was seconded by Mr. D. R. Whalley.

The company was entertained after tea by the following junior handbell ringers:—A. Pessall, A. Lambert, J. Wootton and J. Ratcliffe, who reminded us of Christmastide by the tunes of the usual carols. Much credit is due to Mr. F. Wilshaw for their training.

Ringing continued on the tower bells under the direction of the Ringing Master, Mr. Arnold Moore, until 9.15 p.m. D. R. W.

DUDLEY AND DISTRICT GUILD

The quarterly meeting was held at Sedgley on November 29th in very wintry weather but in spite of this 25 members attended. The curate (the Rev. D. Skelding) conducted the service in the unavoidable absence of the Vicar.

After tea Mr. Fred Bennett presided at the meeting. The appointment of a new secretary was again postponed until the annual meeting in April. Mr. Colclough, the present secretary, would be pleased to receive nominations for same.

Members then returned to the belfry for further ringing. The thanks of the Guild are due to Mr. Ben Fullwood for making all the arrangements.

SWANSEA AND BRECON GUILD*Southern District Annual Meeting

Over 30 members and visitors attended the Southern District annual meeting at St. Catherine's Church, Gorscmon, on December 6th. The members represented Aberavon, Porthcawl, Cadoxton, Neath, Sketty, Llandilo, Cefn-Coed, Gorscmon, Duffryn, and the visitors were from Winchester and Stoke-on-Trent. Mr. Slaney, who is now teaching at Llandovery College, was accorded a special welcome.

The service was fully choral with some of the young ringers in the choir. The Rev. J. E. Lewis conducted the service and gave a very suitable address.

Tea was served in the Church Hall and as usual all were pleased with the good things provided. A vote of thanks was accorded to the ladies for preparing the food and service.

The chair was taken at the meeting by the Rev. J. E. Lewis, who welcomed the ringers to St. Catherine's. Mr. Arthur Hoare, hon. District secretary, and Mr. Trevor M. Roderick, hon. District auditor, were again elected for the ensuing year.

After much discussion it was decided to accept an invitation to Aberavon for an open practice to commence at 3 p.m. on March 1st. This is to take the place of the usual Guild meeting.

It was unanimously agreed to go on with the outing for 1953, and a proposal by Mr. Roderick to hold it on June 20th was carried. The route and chartering of bus were left to the committee.

With the object of encouraging young ringers Mr. Roderick proposed that after they had passed certain elementary preliminaries they should be introduced to the Master of the Guild at a quarterly meeting and that their names should be entered in a minute book. A rider that a suitable ringing book should be given to members was also carried.

Four life members and one ordinary member were elected. A vote of thanks was accorded the Rev. J. E. Lewis for presiding and for conducting the service, and to the organist and choir for assisting at the service.

It was regretted that Canon W. J. Thomas was unable, through illness, to be present. This was supported by Mr. J. T. Williams.

The Rev. J. E. Lewis, in his reply, said he would convey their sincere wishes to Canon Thomas.

A return to the tower by all kept the bells ringing to rounds, Grandsire, Stedman, Double Norwich and Cambridge until 8 p.m. J. A. H.

SALISBURY DIOCESAN GUILD*Mr. Lathey Retires After 21 Years as Secretary

The annual meeting of the West Dorset Branch was held on December 6th at Lyme Regis, it having been proved not practicable to hold it this year at Bridport; and though Lyme is at the western extremity of the District, over 30 attended and there was no fog in this county to impede transport or dull the proceedings.

An hour's ringing on St. Michael's eight (destined for the foundry early in the New Year) preceded the service. The lesson was read by the Rev. A. Wheeler, Vicar of Beaminster, and an address was given by the Vicar of Lyme Regis, Canon C. C. Cox, based on the words from Psalm 122, v. 8: 'For my brethren and companions' sakes I will wish thee prosperity,' referring also to words from the lesson, I. Peter, 2: 'Honour all men, love the Brotherhood, fear God, honour the King.' He mentioned a talk given recently to ringers at a village meeting by the Bishop of Salisbury, when he spoke enthusiastically of the freemasonry and good fellowship among ringers and wished that the secret of its attainment could be passed on to other branches of Church work.

Tea followed at the Church Hall, arranged and served by Mrs. Cox and the wives of local ringers, and who succeeded in providing a very good meal at very nominal cost. Their efforts were very much appreciated by everyone.

A business meeting followed. On the proposition of the Rev. O. L. Willmott, Vicar of Lodors, Canon Cox was unanimously re-elected chairman. The Rev. O. L. Willmott was re-elected as vice-chairman.

After 21 years' service to the Branch as secretary and treasurer, Mr. C. H. Lathey's resignation was very regretfully received. The chairman paid tribute to the efficient manner in which he had piloted the affairs of the Branch, expressing the thanks and good wishes of all members to him. In his place Mr. J. Barrett, of Beaminster, was unanimously elected.

Mr. H. D. W. Bishop was re-elected Ringing Master, and Messrs. G. S. Morris and A. Scott were elected Deputy Ringing Masters. New members elected were Mr. F. Good (Loders) and Mr. J. Rattenbury (Lyme Regis).

Quarterly meetings were arranged for Netherbury, Hawkechurch, Evershot and Litton Cheney. It was decided to hold the next annual meeting at Beaminster. Thanks were accorded Mr. H. Sanders, organist, of Lyme Regis, for his accompaniment at the service.

Following the meeting a selection of carols was played on handbells by the Lyme Regis ringers. Further ringing then followed on the tower bells, and later, at Axminster, call changes and touches of Grandsire and Stedman Triples, Plain Bob, Cambridge and London Surprise were rung.

JOINT MEETING AT BECCLES

About 40 members attended the joint meeting of the Norwich Diocesan Association (East Norfolk Branch) and the Suffolk Guild at Beccles on November 15th. Ringing on the lovely ten bells consisted of Plain Bob, Kent and Cambridge Royal, Stedman and Grandsire Caters, Bob Major, Grandsire Triples, and rounds for beginners.

The service was conducted by the Rector (the Rev. W. P. F. Hares), with the Rev. A. S. St. J. Heard (president of the Norwich Diocesan Association) reading the lessons.

After tea at the Co-operative Society's Assembly Rooms the president proposed a vote of thanks to the Rector and to Mr. E. R. Goate for arranging the tea. The next meeting (annual) of the East Norfolk Branch will be at Gorleston-on-Sea on February 28th.

GUILD of DEVONSHIRE RINGERS*South-West Branch

Thirty-two members and friends attended the annual meeting of the South-West Branch held at St. Andrew's, Plymouth, on December 6th. Full use was made of the glorious ring of ten bells and touches of Plain Bob, Grandsire and Stedman were brought round. In addition, numerous plain courses of Grandsire Caters and lots of rounds were rung for the less experienced.

The Vicar, the Rev. W. H. A. Cooper, conducted a service in St. Andrew's Chapel at 4.30 p.m. and gave a short and inspiring address based on the apostle Andrew. Tea was served at 5.15 p.m. in the lower Abbey Hall by Mrs. Chaff and her helpers.

The business meeting which followed was presided over by Mr. H. H. Thomas, Branch chairman. The hon. secretary's report and the balance sheet for 1952, showing a balance of £14 0s. 2d. in the General Account and £3 6s. in the Instruction Fund, were unanimously adopted. The election of officers resulted in the unanimous re-elections of Mr. H. H. Thomas, chairman; Mr. T. G. Myers, hon. secretary and treasurer; Ringing Master, Mr. T. G. Myers; hon. auditor, Mr. H. O. Thomas. Representatives to serve on the general committee, W. G. Lavers, J. P. Sims and S. O'Shaughnessy. The Rev. J. D. Wakeling (Vicar of Emmanuel, Plymouth) was elected as a performing member.

The programme agreed upon for 1953-54 was: April 11th. Tavistock: Whit Monday. Annual Meeting of the Guild, in Exeter; June 27th. Joint meeting with Mid-Devon Branch, at South Brent; September 26th, Kingsbridge; January 16th, 1954 (annual meeting of the Branch), Plympton St. Maurice; all subject to permission being obtained.

Mr. T. G. Myers raised a discussion about a booklet by F. S. Worth on 'The Rings of Church Bells in the City of Plymouth,' and considered the Branch should assist the sales. The result was a decision to purchase 24 copies at 2s. each to resell to members and friends at the same price.

The Ringing Master urged members to consider doing extra for Coronation Year and suggested a deal attempt in each of the towers in union with the Branch to include as many locals as were prepared to make the effort. A lengthy cross-talk, rather than discussion, ensued, and it was finally agreed the secretary make the necessary inquiries and arrangements.

The chairman moved a sincere and grateful vote of thanks to the Rev. W. H. A. Cooper for allowing the Branch to hold its meeting at St. Andrew's.

T. G. M.

RINGERS' SERVICE AT MITCHAM

Twenty-one ringers from eight towers attended the annual ringers' service at Christ Church, Mitcham, on November 16th. The bells were rung from 5.30 to 6.30 p.m. and for a short time after the service.

Owing to the illness of the Vicar (the Rev. G. S. Johnston) the service was conducted by the Rev. Mr. Rush, of Tulse Hill, who also preached. The lessons were read by Mr. E. Jones and Mr. G. Pidwell, who were for many years members of Christ Church band. An appropriate carol, 'Ding, Dong, Dell,' was sung by the choir, and a course of Grandsire Triples was rung on handbells by members of the St. Leonard's band, Streatham.

In his address on bells Mr. Rush said the ringing of bells was a ministry. If St. Paul had been alive to-day he would have said: 'Some are called to be administrators, some are called to be bellringers and members of the choir and teachers, all for the work of the ministry and for the perfecting of the Saints.' Bell-ringing was a vocation done not only for one's pleasure and satisfaction, but for the glory of God and for the benefit of His Church and for the benefit of mankind.

After the service the ringers were kindly entertained to light refreshments at the Vicarage.

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR

WHAT CONSTITUTES AN ORIGINAL COMPOSITION?

Dear Sir,—There is no need for Mr. Topp to apologise for having published a peal which someone else had produced; that has been done many times before and will, I suppose, be done again. An apology is really due from me for not having made my figures more public than just publishing them in a Yorkshire Association report. Incidentally, I make no claim to the composition which appears on page 780 of 'The Ringing World' but I shall be surprised if it is passed unchallenged—the scope of Lincolnshire Surprise is so small that I rather think all the possible peals on that plan will have been worked out.

Mr. Topp is to be commended for so graciously withdrawing his claim. Composers of bygone days were not always so ready to do that; they preferred to wrangle over the ownership of the peals they produced and their letters to 'The Bell News' and 'The Ringing World,' bitter and acrimonious though they sometimes were, provided interesting and amusing matter for the readers of the ringing press.

In at least one instance the rival claims to a peal of Superlative Surprise Major broke a long friendship between two eminent composers and the estrangement lasted a lifetime. Mr. Charles Henry Hattersley claimed that a 5,056 23-course block of Superlative produced by Mr. Arthur Craven was a variation of one of his peals. Mr. Craven objected on the grounds that his peal could not be extended whereas Mr. Hattersley's peal could be lengthened by the insertion of either one or two sets of three bobs at Home, and the same musical qualities maintained, as Mr. Hattersley's 'packing courses' were not of the same nature. The argument was carried on by a series of letters through the post, not in the columns of the ringing press, and some years afterwards I was privileged to read the letters which Mr. Craven had received—there were seven or eight of them. An indication of how the friendship between these two very likeable men deteriorated is provided by the type of address which Mr. Hattersley used: the first letter opened 'My dear Arthur,' the last one just 'Sir.' I think it was the reading of those letters which made me realise how right two men with opposite views can be and how difficult to say whether a composition is original or not.

One of the most difficult tasks I had to undertake in my long period as peal secretary of the Yorkshire Association was to decide whether certain compositions should be credited to the composers named or whether they should be classed as variations of some other men's work. I have always maintained that there can be no hard and fast rule on what constitutes an original composition and what is a variation.

Mr. Speed and Mr. Golden seem to suggest that all peals of a certain nature should be credited to the composer who produced the first one. If that is done the whole system of peal classification will break down: most twin-bob peals of Stedman Triples will have to be credited to Thomas Thurstans—or should it be William Hudson? Benjamin Annable's name will claim all the 82 variations his three-part peal of Bob Major is capable of producing; the Bob and Single peals of Grandsire Triples will belong to Vicars, perhaps John Garthorn; and John Carter will no longer be entitled to the peals of Stedman Caters and Cinques which appear in his broadsheet. Who will be named as the owner of all the many 5,056 23-course peals of Surprise Major (Superlative, Yorkshire, Pudsey, etc.) that have the basic calling W.M.B. wrapped up in Q sets I do not know, and when we come to Treble Bob Major it seems to me that someone is going to be credited with a terrific amount of compositions he never saw and never even thought of.

If such a scheme is allowed to become operative all that a composer will need to do, provided he has the ability, is to produce one peal in one of the few channels still left unexplored and then sit back and let other people produce the variations of that peal, then he claims the lot. What the late Mr. Arthur Knights, that delightful personality whom I always regarded as one of the most able, certainly the most prolific, of composers the Exercise has ever known, would have said to such a suggestion I hesitate to think; by it, most of his life's work in peal composition would be taken from him.

It has been suggested that compositions should be numbered and not named; that would be one way out of the difficulty of course, but what a loss of tradition and personality there will be if ever that course is adopted—Yours sincerely,

WILLIAM BARTON.

Pudsey.

TANS, SINES AND COSINES

Dear Sir,—Reading of the Mirfield Tan being used as a call, I would like to point out that the call of 'Tan' has been in use in our Society for a number of years, though it is usually preceded by the call 'Black and.'

You may be interested to learn that we also find it useful to employ 'Sines' in appropriate situations in the belfry, with the usual response of 'Cosine,' but we have never yet been driven so deep into the trigonometry textbooks as to have to use 'Cosecants'; it is probably felt that this would be unfair on the members who read subjects other than mathematics.—Yours faithfully,

R. J. COOK.

Oxford.

AN EXTREME

Dear Sir,—Regarding the 'Mirfield Tan.' Another call sometimes inserted in these parts is an 'Extreme.' With treble at lead the bell in 5-6 up makes a Double Norwich Bob and the two back bells, normally the tenors, make three dodges.

Also there is the 'Treble Extreme' where the Treble turns back at 5-6. No doubt these variations may be useful when no other method but Kent is rung. Far better, however, to learn the elementary principles of Plain Bob, Treble Bob, Norwich, Grandsire or Stedman and then follow and fit in for service or practice ringing. We must appreciate the fact that all parties of ringers are made really welcome at Mirfield and it is only fair to let the older generation carry on in the old sweet way. In fairness to the younger generation, the better plan would be to teach them in a manner to stand their ground with other ringers instead of staying at home with an inferiority complex.—Yours faithfully,

A. W. BOND.

Lindley, Yorks.

ROTHERWICK CHURCH AND CHERTSEY ABBEY

Mr. J. Morley, of Reading, calls our attention to a possible association between Chertsey Abbey and Rotherwick Church, Hampshire.

The third of the six bells at Rotherwick is of the 14th century and is believed to be the second oldest bell in Hampshire.

The lettering resembles that seen on bells cast at the famous Wokingham Foundry, of which the Chertsey Abbey Foundry was the parent. John de Rutherwyk was Abbot of Chertsey from 1307 to 1346, and possibly he sent this bell as a present to his native village.

When Burghfield ringers had their annual outing this year they rang at Rotherwick. Our correspondent writes: 'We didn't stop very long as the bells went badly, the ropes cracked like whips and bits of dust and twigs dropped down our necks, presumably from jackdaws' nests.'

BREDON WITH BREDONS NORTON

Dear Sir,—Much as I used to love to hear the bells of Bredons Norton when I was a curate-in-charge (1919-1923), I must correct the dedication given in your report of a peal there on November 28th which was conducted by my good friend and parishioner, Mr. J. Thomas. I do so not that I want to quibble, but because the mistake opens up a matter of interest. The dedication of the chapel of Bredons Norton is unknown; it is one of those rare instances, and I believe the only one in Worcestershire.

It is the Parish Church of Bredon which is dedicated to St. Giles, where as far back as 1624 there was a ring of five.

The treble was by Abraham Rudhall, so was the 4th, but the 2nd, 3rd and 5th are interesting inasmuch as they were cast by William Whitmore in 1624. William Whitmore also, in 1639, cast bells for Frocester, Glos, but whether he was an itinerant founder or had a foundry I have not succeeded in tracing. (Can anyone enlighten me, please?) In my Bredon days these bells were rung but it always sounded as if the tenor was too heavy for the ring and was out of tune.

During my time there, however, there arose a new Rector, who did away with a rood screen in the making, which led to the approach to the belfry, and put a monkey ladder up the tower wall to a trap door on the belfry floor, making it, therefore, impossible for any ringer save the most virile to ascend to the ringing chamber. I believe the bells are merely chimed now, so no more do Bredon bells ring out across the nearby Avon and its lovely meadows. We used to hear the sweet-toned bells of Strensham across the river in my day but these are, alas, now silent.—Yours truly,

F. C. CHAMPION (Rev.).

Hinton-on-the-Green, Evesham.

THE DAYS OF EYE

Dear Sir,—Mr. Claud Rush's account of the Days of Eye is very interesting to me as it was through George Day rehanging the five bells at Brome, Suffolk, in 1886, that I started to ring. There the ringing chamber is so near the bells that the sallies go on the wheels at backstroke.

George was a very enthusiastic ringer in those far-off days. On most Sundays he would travel by train from Eye to Ipswich to ring for matins at St. Mary-le-Tower's, afterwards going to St. Paul's Cathedral, London, for Stedman Cinques in the afternoon.

It is noteworthy that he used expressions many times in conversation. When a lad was rescued from a pond he repeated 'Is he wet?' over and over again.

He also did repairs to pumps but did not like doing so and would say, 'I would rather get killed up a steeple than die down a well.'

The writer contacted him in his later days. On matters of business he would always remark, 'I now leave everything to the boy Fred.' Fred was then about 60 years of age.—Yours, etc.,

GEORGE E SYMONDS.

Ipswich.

CLACTON SURPRISE MAJOR

Dear Sir,—The peal of Clacton Surprise Major rung at Helmingham on February 16th, 1938 (method and composition by the late G. Lindoff), is false. This has been proved by Mr. C. J. Sedgley. Consequently the peal has been withdrawn.—Yours faithfully,

L. G. BRETT.

RINGERS' NOTEBOOK AND DIARY

The fifth issue of this popular publication is now in circulation. From a typographical point of view this year's issue is an improvement on previous annuals. The concise manner in which essential information is provided makes this little notebook and diary the constant companion of all ringers who have aspirations in widening their knowledge of change ringing. It is an ideal Christmas gift.

FOR BEGINNERS—

And a Word to the Older Hands

XXV.

GRANDSIRE IN THREE-LEAD COURSES

Some of the earliest peals of Grandsire Triples were composed on what is known as the three-lead course plan, that is a plan by which the observation bell comes back to its plain course position every third lead. Such peals are not now much in favour, principally on the ground, we believe, that the observation bell never does the whole of the work included in a plain course.

There are only three positions in which it can fall, and these are Wrong (7-6 down), Middle (4-5 up) and Before (3rds place). The observation bell never goes into the hunt or dodges in 5-4 down or 6-7 up, and many people, therefore, look upon such peals as lacking in interest.

Nevertheless, this short-course plan provides excellent music for touches, for it is possible, for instance, by this means to get the full extent of 6-7 together at course-ends in a touch of only 1,008 changes.

Peals on these lines have usually the 6th as the observation bell, but the 5th or 3rd is sometimes used. If you want to keep the 6-7 together throughout your touch you must keep both these bells fixed and you do it by calling a Single at the first lead (bringing the 6th into 4-5 up, and the 7th to make the long 3rds). A three-lead course also necessitates a call to bring 6-7 together behind—it is that, indeed, which makes the three-lead course.

It is easy to call from any bell. Note the course-end, call a Single the next lead; have a plain lead when the 6th comes Before (unless your composition, as it may, provides for a Bob), and call a Bob or Single next lead as required.

When written out the calls may be noted as M., B., W., or 1, 2, 3, the figures denoting the lead of the course. Thus a touch of 168 can be written in either of the following ways:—

234567	M	B	W	234567	1	2	3
345267	S	—	—	345267	S	—	—
452367	S	—	—	452367	S	—	—
523467	S	—	—	523467	S	—	—
234567	S	—	—	234567	S	—	—

This touch can be doubled in length by calling a Single for either of the Bobs, and lengthened again by calling a Single for one of the other Bobs in alternate parts.

You can make up a great variety of touches for yourself, and you can get the 1,008 to which we have referred by using the following:—

435267	S	S
352467	S	—
524367	S	—
423567	S	S

Repeat this five times with a Bob for Single at the end of the third and sixth parts.

If you want a 504 with twelve 6-7s, call the four course three times exactly as set out.

A very symmetrical five-part peal on this plan was composed by Thomas Thurstans, of Birmingham, for ever famous for his Four-Part peal of Stedman Triples. It is based on these four-course blocks.

In the first block a Bob at 2 (the 6th Before) is called. The rest is like the touch of 1,008. It brings up the part-end 7 2 3 4 6 5, and that is one-fifth of the peal.

SURREY ASSOCIATION

North-West District

Despite the clerk of the weather's efforts to black out the south-west of London with fog on December 6th, 19 members of the Surrey Association, representing ten towers, found their way to Benlilton (Sutton) tower and by three o'clock the bells were in changes.

At a service in the church, conducted by the Vicar, a very warm welcome was offered. Tea provided by wives of the local band was heartily enjoyed and exceeded the demands of the company as double the number had intimated their intention of being present. The business meeting followed and had to take place without the minutes as the secretary was fog-bound at Walton.

The following nominations for the District officers for 1953 were received: Master, F. E. Collins; secretary, R. Lathbury; treasurer, H. N. Pitsow; auditor, G. Peters and R. F. Layton; committee, E. J. Lindley, A. J. Adams, R. Davies, E. Gosden and Miss J. Smith.

Members are reminded that further nominations, in writing, may be sent to the District secretary up to January 3rd, in accordance with Rule 16.

Two new members were elected and the election of four others prior to peals was notified.

A proposal was put forward for practice meetings to be held in the months when no business meeting is being held and it was left to the committee to give this further detailed consideration at their next meeting.

The Vicar, replying to the vote of thanks for use of the bells and conducting the service, said he remembered very clearly a previous meeting he attended at Benlilton when tongue was served at tea. The next day he had to read the first lesson, which began, 'And he was given tongue.' He always associated the two and was happy to be with the company. He thought they should most heartily thank the local ladies, who had again provided such a sumptuous repast.

Further ringing took place after the meeting when the company was joined by that jovial character, W. J. Rawlings, who was not with them at tea because he could not find the place in the fog. Ringing ranged from rounds to Cambridge Major. W. F. O.

THE RINGER'S HYMN

By J. Campbell, Captain of St. Columb's Cathedral Ringers, Londonderry.

O Thou, who from the call 'Look-To'
And 'Treble's Going—Gone,'
Grant us no false course to pursue
But a true peal to win.

Help us to learn the rules aright,
See that the Treble man
Be one whose power is infinite.
Then lean on him we can.

Lord, hunting up help us to see
Who follows at each pull,
And when we dodge let all be free
From doubt, and strike not ill.

Then when we've run out to the back
And laid the blows behind,
Be Thou our course bell, mark the track
To lead our way we'll find.

Our God the Great Conductor shall
Make all the calls full dear,
We pray Thy help, we may not fall
Nor falter even here.

Then when the great 'That's All' shall sound
And we are all brought 'Home,'
Let each in his own place be found
Lest one of us shall roam.

With Thee as guide and stay through all,
Upholding to the end,
When at the last we're called to 'Fall,'
Then hail us each as Friend.

YORKSHIRE ASSOCIATION

Eastern District at Howden

About 25 members from 14 towers attended the winter quarterly meeting of the Eastern District at Howden on November 29th in cold, foggy weather. The service was conducted by the curate (the Rev. G. Richards).

An excellent tea was followed by the business meeting presided over by Mr. A. E. Sellers. Miss S. Kingdom (York) and Mr. Cromack (Carlton) were elected new members. Google was selected for the next meeting, in March.

Mr. C. Barker asked those present to keep open January 31st, the date of the Beverley and District Society's annual dinner. A collection for the Association's Bell Repair Fund realised 14s. 6d.

The fine ring of eight was kept going during the afternoon and evening.

ONE HUNDRED YEARS AGO

The following appeared in the 'Birmingham Weekly Post' under the heading of 'A Hundred Years Ago.' It was taken from the 'Birmingham Journal' of December 4th, 1852.

Change Ringing

On Sunday evening last, eight members of the Society of Change Ringers of this town ascended the tower of the Parish Church, King's Norton, and succeeded in ringing in three hours and nine minutes a complete peal of Triple Bob Major, in the Kent variations, comprising 5,088 changes, being the first peal in that method rung on those bells. After the falling of the bells the performers were met by Mr. G. E. Clulee, who presented them with a sovereign and complimented them for their talent in striking and their exactness in the compass of the bells. John Perks was treble; John Bannister 2nd; Joseph Spencer 3rd; Robert Yates 4th; Robert Wright 5th; John Robinson 6th; John Day 7th; and William Chattell tenor. The peal was composed by Mr. Thomas Day and conducted by Mr. John Day.

MISCELLANEOUS

GREETINGS FROM BOURNEMOUTH

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Price wish all friends a Happy Christmas Holidays? Plenty of time yet. But read on. The number of ringers among our guests becomes less each season because ringers recommend us to their non-ringing friends, who write first.

Many of our guests wishing to book again for 1953 were requested to write in the New Year; they will, and we shall again be disappointed when ringers are crowded out.

All double bedrooms have fitted basins. Situation ideal; close to sea, buses and shops.

Terms.—January 10th—May 23rd, 16s. 6d. per day (Easter, four days, 18s. per day); Whitsun—September (inclusive) six guineas per week (no vacancies for Whitsun week), all inclusive of full board.

Meal times.—Breakfast 9. Dinner 1, High tea 5.30, hot drink and sandwiches 10 p.m.—St. Michael's, 9, Fisherman's Avenue, Southbourne, Bournemouth. (Tel. Southbourne 46005.) 1798

EXTRA COPIES.—It is an advantage if those requiring extra copies will send their orders at the time copy of peals or quarter peals is submitted.

PEAL CARDS can now be ordered at 5s. a set of 12, post free (minimum charge). Order and remittance must be sent with peal report.
