THE RELEVANCE OF EASTER

By the REV. CANON C. CAREW COX

EASTER is not a word for an idea. It is the word for the Spirit-impelled expression of Life. As an idea it is accepted, and welcomed, for the opportunity to enjoy a brief holiday; and a multitude of people, among them even some professing Christians, will be content with that superficial conception of it. But as the expression of Life it takes us back to the Garden of the Resurrection of Jesus Christ and throws an unearthly light on the path of men from that moment, which path is such a see-saw mixture of joys and sorrows, of hope and fear, of care and recklessness, of toil and rest.

For life interpreted by Easter means so much more than just living out one's allotted days on a circumscribed planet, surrounded all the time with spectacles of mortality. Mortal we are, but Easter is Easter because it proclaims the fact that 'mortality is swallowed up of life.' As from the Easter Dawn shines the lovely truth of the words once spoken to a woman mourning for the dead, and not only to her but to all those who have ever looked down speechlessly into a grave—'I AM the Resurrection and the Life.' Music indeed to stir the human heart!

'All, all that we ever loved, though it sleep in the silence, At the touch of the Master shall wake and be music again.' And though 'Memento Mori' remains true, it is met today with the Christian challenge 'Memento Vivere,' founded upon the proclamation

'Jesus lives! Thy terrors now
Can, O Death, no more appal us;
Jesus lives! By this we know
Thou, O Grave, canst not enthrall us.'

Yes. While Death inevitably must come to all, it is now the Gate to Life. That is the revelation of the Christian religion by the power and Love of God Incarnate. The stone before the tomb is rolled back by no human hand, never to be replaced. The voice of Him Who lives and has the keys of Hell and of Death speaks to the Church in time until time shall be no more: 'I have set before thee an open door and NO MAN can shut it.'

Consider then the abolition of controversy as a characteristic of the Resurrection life, visible in the movements of created Nature, which are so often unthinkingly accepted by many. But the trees, for example, break into foliage unhindered by controversy. No human arguments will make any difference to the wonderful expression of the Spring. St. Paul's words can have a place here—'Without controversy great is the mystery of Godliness.' For their are no controversies at the entrance to the Empty Tomb, because life itself is no subject for controversy.

How much more then ought this characteristic of the true life to be seen in the movements of man! Man, who, as it would seem, intoxicated with scientific knowledge, is endeavouring even to overcome the law of gravity!—a possibility which is unthinkable except in the spiritual sphere, where the Risen Christ becomes the Ascended Christ. So the prophecy 'I, if I be lifted up from the earth, will draw all men unto me' has the Easter quality. Hence, the Church on earth which exists as the spiritual medium between God and man has an undying function, not to convert the material into the spiritual, but to resurrect the spiritual in man out of the tomb where the tendency is to bury it and seal it down.

Let this be applied to the belfry and all ringers. Easter is to be the expression of life in the belfries; where movements are not mechanical, but the effect of human wills and emotions; the effect of personalities—however differing—uniting to share in the perfecting of an art and science which turns the bells into resounding handmaids of the triumphant Gospel.

So the belfry is to be no sort of tomb where anything can corrupt, enthusiasm decay, or controversies disintegrate fellowship. It is the little world, for the time being, in which ringers live and associate to serve; to give of their best. Where difficulties are only difficulties that are to be overcome; where the experience of failure can be turned into the joy of success; where any feelings of despair can be transmuted into confidence and new effort; where the individual becomes absorbed into the team—the few, maybe, as were the first apostles of the Resurrection—but the nucleus of a persevering, painstaking witness to the whole Exercise of the truth that as the bells are uplifted in the steeple with tongues to speak, so the Risen Christ is uplifting the minds and hearts of the men and women who move those tongues to proclaim Sunday by Sunday the Easter Anthem of the unconquerable Church.

Canterbury Pleasure Maximus.—5,016 at Canterbury on May 24th, 1930, by the Kent County Association.

A few methods have been rung to peals on handbells, and not yet on tower bells, viz.: Single Norwich Court Royal (lapping), Spliced Twelve Plain and Little Plain Maximus, Plain Bob Fourteen and Kent T.B. Fourteen.

To the best of my knowledge, the schedule beginning on page 699, 1958, and continued on pages 767, 67 and the above, contains all those methods rung to peals, Triples and above, with the exception of regular Plain Major and Surprise methods.

If anyone knows of other methods or earlier performances than those listed above, will they please send details to me, in order that the schedule may be concluded, with the regular Plain Major and early performances in Surprise methods.

[To be concluded.]

The bells of St. Ambrose's Church, Bristol, will be heard in the West and North Home Services on Low Sunday, April 5th, prior to the Family Communion Service at 9.45 a.m. Mr. Reginald Hooper is captain of the ringers in this tower. The same day and at the same time will be heard the bells of St. Margaret's, Westminster, on the Home Service. The London veteran, Mr. W. H. Hewitt, is head ringer here.

The footnote to the peal at Twynning, Glos (see page 169) should read 'Rung as a 21st birthday compliment to Mr. Martyn Hawkes,' and not as submitted. Martyn's brother rang the second and his father the third.

Stratton ringers are still progressing, and for Sunday services now ring three methods—Grandsire Triples, Stedman Triples and Bob Major—thanks to an encouraging captain, the ever-popular Charles Sangwin.

Mr. A. G. Clark, of Tadworth, adds to the list of gramophone records 'Victory Day, 1945' (H.M.V. B 9417), which covers five towers and includes some well-struck Triples from Westminster Abbey.

Mr. P. D. T. Cattermole, of Droitwich, who recently climbed Wychbold (Worcs) tower to tighten the bearing bolts, informs us that all the bells are dated 1889. The footnote to the peal rung there on October 19th last is therefore incorrect.

Hackington Imperial Bob Major (C.C.C. Plain Major, No. 239) has been rung to a peal for the first time in the Loughborough Bell Foundry Campanile. The name is appropriate as Hackington is a suburb of Canterbury, which has the only octave in the city. The method is Double Bob with Canterbury places in 5-6 when the treble is at the back.

BELFRY GOSSIP

It is hoped to create ringing history on April 4th when, for the first time ever, a complete band, organised by Mr. Robin G. Leale, are flying to the Channel Islands to attempt peals at St. Anne's, Alderney, and St. Michael-du-Valle's, Guernsey. The other five are Messrs. A. P. Cannon, W. Deason, P. Mehew, E. J. Munday and J. D. Rock.

Charlton Kings ringers are proud of their pupil, 'Penny' Tyler, whose first quarter was rung faultlessly and is reported in this issue. 'Penny' had her first ringing lesson last October.

The 'Readers Digest' for April has a well-written article, 'The Joyous Ringing of Bells,' by Anne Decreson and Barbara Wace, in which there are many quotes from Mr. A. A. Hughes on ringing in general and bell-founding.

The composition by Miss Stella Hughes, of Walsall, which we give on our back page this week, has the merit of being the first we have published from a woman composer. Have the Ladies' Guild records of other women composers?

The Guild of Clerical Ringers are touring Kent for their week, which starts on April 4th with headquarters at Ye Olde Bull Hotel, Sittingbourne. The party will consist of the Revs. J. H. B. Andrews (Chittlehampton), E. G. Benson (Presteigne), A. C. Blyth (Cambridge), N. F. D. Coleridge (Tatworth), Canon C. C. Cox (Whitechurch Canonicorum), Preb. E. V. Cox (Axminster), S. E. Evans (non-resident, Rams-gate), J. B. T. Homfray (Cheltenham), C. J. B. Marshall (Leatherhead), P. T. Robbins (non-resident, Prestwich), G. Ruming (Prestbury), F. A. Sanders (Overton), R. D. St. J. Smith (Astley Bridge), W. H. R. Trehwella (Crantock), H. F. Warren (Exford), E. B. Wood (Leatherhead).

PRELIMINARY NOTICE

The third session of the 23rd Council (62nd Annual Meeting) will be held on Whitsun Tuesday, March 19th, 1959, at the Palace Hotel, Southport.

In accordance with Rule 13, notices of motion, signed by two members of the Council, must be received by the Secretary not less than six weeks previous to the meeting, i.e., by April 7th, 1959.

E. A. BARNETT, Hon. Secretary.

HEADQUARTERS

Palace Hotel, Southport; some accommodation still available.

SATURDAY, MAY 16TH

Conducted tour over the 'S.S. Carinthia,' a 22,000 ton Canadian liner, lying in Mersey Docks. Light refreshments will be provided on board. Inspection of the Mersey Tunnel in the afternoon. Early application to Mr. F. Dunkerley is advised, as it was only possible to arrange for 24 people to participate.

SUNDAY, MAY 17TH

Two coach tours.

(1) Depart Southport 9.45 a.m., to Tarleton, Whalley, lunch 12 noon at Assembly Rooms; depart 1.30 p.m. for Lancaster, Kirkby Lonsdale, tea 5 p.m.; to Billsborough at 6 p.m., arriving back at Southport 8.45 p.m. Approx. cost 24s.

(2) Depart Southport 10 a.m. for Preston, Whalley, Clitheroe, Chatburn, Downham; lunch at Assheton Arms; depart 1 p.m. via Barley and Newchurch-in-Pendle for Burnley, then via Moorland Road to Bacup; light refreshments at Duckworth Hall, returning to Southport direct at 5 p.m. Approx. cost 17s. 6d.

MONDAY, MAY 18TH

Two coach tours.

(3) Depart Southport 9 a.m. for St. Anne's, Fleetwood; lunch at Heald's Café; depart Fleetwood 1.30 p.m. for Lancaster, returning to Southport for 5.30 p.m. Approx. cost 15s.

(4) Depart Southport 9.30 a.m. for Blackburn Cathedral; depart 12 noon via Wiltshire, Langho, Whalley to Downham for lunch; depart 2 p.m. for Haslingden; light refreshments at Duckworth Hall, returning direct to Southport at 5 p.m. Approx. cost 17s. 6d.

It is hoped to arrange ringing at local towers on all four tours. Applications for (1) and (3) tours to Mr. N. M. Newby, 45, Oakwood Drive, Ulverston, and for (2) and (4) to Mr. C. W. Blakey, 133, Ormerod Street, Accrington.

A dinner has been arranged for Central Council delegates and Lancashire Association officials, 7 for 7.30 p.m., to which each representative is invited to bring one guest along.

TUESDAY, MAY 19TH

An invitation has been extended to delegates by the Southport Publicity Committee for afternoon tea at 5 p.m.

The Lancashire Association invites all members and friends to a Social (dance and running buffet) in the Palace Hotel Ballroom at 8.30 p.m.

RINGING

Peals and general ringing arrangements for the three branches adjacent to Southport are in the hands of the following, to whom application should be made direct:—

Liverpool.—Miss G. I. Howlett, 10, Green Lane, Seaford, Liverpool, 21, Lancs.
Preston.—Mr. L. Walmsley, c/o Leyland Motors Ltd., Leyland, Lancs.
Wigan.—Miss M. E. Ridyard, 16, Vaughan Road, Birkdale, Southport, Lancs.

Ringling outside the above area is in the hands of the Branch secretaries concerned, i.e.:

Blackburn.—Mr. C. W. Blakey, 133, Ormerod Street, Accrington, Lancs.

Bolton.—Mr. J. Thornley, 50, Carlton Street, Farnworth, Lancs.

Furness and Lake District.—Mr. N. M. Newby, 45, Oakwood Drive, Ulverston.

Fylde.—Mr. J. F. Turner, 3, St. Bedes Avenue, South Shore, Blackpool, Lancs.

Lancaster.—Mr. R. F. Eccles, 22, Walton Avenue, Bare, Morecambe, Lancs.

Manchester.—Mr. G. D. Fearnough, 14, Belgrave Avenue, Manchester, 14.

Rochdale.—Mr. P. J. H. Hudson, 67, Bel-field Lane, Rochdale, Lancs.

Rossendale.—Mr. J. Porter, Chesham Green Cottages, Chesham, Bury, Lancs.

Application should again be made to the above, direct.

E. A. BARNETT, Hon. Secretary.

SHARESHILL RINGERS DISBANDED

The Rev. E. R. Roe, Vicar of Shreshill, Staffs., has disbanded his ringers, states the 'Wolverhampton Express and Star.' He has taken this action because the ringers, who are all, with one exception, teenagers, do not combine ringing with church worship. There had been no unpleasantness, but for some months he had felt that the position was unsatisfactory.

Last year he had told them of his views, and had given them time in which to decide whether or not they were going to take a more active part in church life. The time was now up and there had been no improvement.

'I feel it is wrong for worshippers to see that the people who have called them to church are not staying for the service. I have no complaints about their abilities as ringers. Indeed, they are probably better than most teams of their age.'

Mr. Roe said that he would be pleased if the head ringer, Mr. H. Butler, about whom he had no complaints, decided to form a new team. In the meantime, Mr. Butler is carrying on by himself.

Ten Bells For Carbis Bay In Completed Tower

WHEN, in 1927, the late Archdeacon Hockley laid the foundation stone of the yet unfinished Church of St. Anta and All Saints, Carbis Bay, he referred to the adventure being part of a romantic story. A wooden mission church was then used for worship, but the local committee had rather daringly accepted a plan for a building which would still need for its completion four bays of the nave and the top stage of the tower with battlements and pinnacles. The tower was planned for the south-east corner, over the Lady Chapel sanctuary, and when the plans were submitted to the then Bishop of Truro (Dr. W. H. Freere), he queried the wisdom of spending money on what was to be a part of the tower carried up to a few feet beyond the level for the bells, with a temporary roof. The minute book shows how adamant the building committee was in its decision, although there was no suggestion for bells. The one ting-tang from the mission church was hung to a roof beam.

The Rev. A. S. Roberts was appointed priest-in-charge of the Conventual District in 1940. In 1946 a ring of eight (tenor 9½ cwt.) was installed, on which 26 peals have been rung. Sunday ringing is, of course, regular. In the summer many visitors pay a visit to the tower.

In May, 1957, a gift of £500 was made towards the completion of the tower. The challenge was accepted and the fund built up, but as the church is built of Cornish granite the same plan had to be followed, and it was realised how great the cost would be. At first it seemed to be a stumbling block, but nevertheless the effort continued. A few months ago the four pinnacles on the tower of Pendeen Church, near Land's End, had to be taken down and could not be replaced. These were generously given by the Vicar and Church Council to Carbis Bay. Each pinnacle weighs about 15 cwt. A Penzance firm of coal importers generously performed the major operation of transporting these the 15 miles to their new home. The problem of the high cost of dressed granite was still a real one until there came the wonderful gift of a large disused mine building on a farm at Trencrom, two miles from Carbis Bay Church. This was owned by Mr. J. Lionel Rogers, of Penrose, Helston, a leading layman in the diocese, who gave one of the bells at Wendron when the ring was restored in 1937. He readily consented that the building be demolished and the granite used for the church.

This has now been done, and some 250 cubic yards of large blocks are being transported to the church site. This is a quantity not only sufficient to complete the tower but to build the four bays of the nave also.

SOUND CONTROL

The Church Council has recently accepted a tender for the tower. Preparatory work has begun, and it is hoped that the dedication will be in the late summer. All the sound of the bells will escape through the tower roof. The present four sets of louvres are to be reused to form the lantern louvres, and the shutters behind them are to be reused in the lantern also. There are to be no openings in the tower walls. A white Cornish granite cross, six feet in height, will be built into the centre of the east wall, and the clock face raised to the centre of the south wall. It is considered that the experiment for the escape of sound will prove satisfactory as the greater part of the parish rises from the church, and with houses being built both opposite and behind the church the modification will be appreciated. It may well be that the experiment will prove a good example of what a bell tower should be, especially in residential areas. The planning has been most happily carried out, as the architect, Mr. K. E. Rundle, of Truro, was at school with the Vicar.

A further joy is that two trebles are to be added for dedication with the completed tower to make a ring of ten. The order has been placed with Messrs. J. Taylor and Co., who provided the present eight. The Church Council is happy to know that the only ten in Cornwall outside the Cathedral at Truro will be in the newest tower of the youngest parish in the diocese. Carbis Bay was created a parish in 1948.

With this work in hand it will mean some curtailment in ringing over the next few months, but due notice will be given in 'The Ringing World,' and it is hoped also to give good notice of the dedication so that those taking holiday in the far west may be able to include the occasion in their visit.

BURNHAM, BUCKS.—On Mar. 14th, 1320 Plain Bob Major: G. Cousins 1, M. Hatchett 2, Miss M. R. Jaycock 3, R. I. Shepherd 4, H. Orlesby 5, R. E. Dean 6, G. W. Debenham (cond.) 7, G. W. Limmer 8. A 72nd birthday compliment to Mr. George Gilbert.

A NEW DERBYSHIRE FIVE DEDICATED

The hilly, rather tumbledown region that lies between Burton-on-Trent and the rocky knolls of Charnwood Forest is sometimes called South Derbyshire or just Swadlincote. It is an odd countryside of clay pits, kilns, collieries and tips, shattered in places by mining subsidence, but it has several rings of bells: for example, the eights at Overseale and Netherseale, the sixes at Newhall and Lullington, and the derelict five at Hartshorne.

Church Gresley is one of the bigger centres of industrial population, but the 14th century embattled sandstone tower, standing at the north east corner of the Church of SS. George and Mary, had never held a ring, only three, possibly at one time four, old bells from the Nottingham Foundry. Even they had not been sounded for some years, as the timbers were riddled with death-watch beetle and the tower strained by subsidence: the church stands on a hill top almost surrounded by the great Gresley Colliery.

But at last, through the generosity of several local benefactors, the tower was restored, and Messrs. J. Taylor and Co. were commissioned to tune the three old bells and hang them in canon-retaining headstocks in a new steel frame. Two new bells were provided to complete a ring of five: one provided by the church and the treble by Mr. C. E. Robinson. Mr. H. Robinson enabled the tower, and Capt. Cyril Collingwood and Mrs. Frances Collingwood the bells, to be restored.

The long-awaited dedication day came on Sunday, February 15th, when the Lord Bishop of Derby, the Rt. Rev. A. J. Rawlinson, who is shortly to retire, paid what was probably his final visit to Gresley to perform the ceremonies during Matins. After the clergy and choir had processed to the tower, and the Bishop had sounded a bell and dedicated memorial plaques, the bells sounded out for the first time in rounds rung by D. P. Jones (ringing instructor) treble, D. Eames (13) 2, C. Heafield (13) 3, W. Woodward (Netherseale) 4 and J. W. Cotton (Overseale, secretary of the Midland Counties Guild) tenor.

After the service, visitors from Coventry, Lichfield, Burton and other parts of the Midlands had an hour's ringing on the new bells, which all agreed form a very pleasant-sounding and easily-handled ring. The ringers of the second and third at the dedication were two of a dozen or so local lads who have been trained at Overseale, and now ring good call-changes twice each Sunday without assistance. At the Wednesday practice, 7.15 to 8.30 p.m., they are learning the first steps in proper change-ringing: those named can already hunt the treble to Grandsire. In addition, they have put in much work to convert a gloomy and dirty ringing chamber into a bright, clean and well-appointed one.

DETAILS OF THE BELLS

Treble.—John Taylor and Co., founders, Loughborough, 1958. Given by C. E. Robinson in memory of his parents, Benjamin and Sarah. 3 cwt. 3 qr. 18 lb.

Second.—John Taylor and Co., founders, Loughborough, 1958. 'Thanks to God.' 4 cwt. 3 qr. 22 lb.

Third.—'God save our Church.' (Shield of Henry Oldfield, Nottingham, c. 1600.) 5 cwt. 2 qr. 18 lb.

Fourth.—'God save the Church.' 1639, 6 cwt. 1 qr. 19 lb. in A.

Tenor.—'I sweetly tolling men do call to taste on meats that feede the soule.' (Shield of George Oldfield, Nottingham, 1639.) 8 cwt. 3 lb. in G.

At Evensong on February 15th, the Vicar (Rev. K. Roy Upton) enrolled the young band, handing each ringer a membership card.

The following Saturday, February 21st, was the open day for visitors, and many came from as far away as Desborough to ring a large variety of Doubles methods, to partake in a short service conducted by the Vicar, and to enjoy a lavish tea provided by the Mothers' Union, organised by Mrs. Upton. Among those who sat down was the headmaster of the Secondary School, attended by most of the ringers. Ringing continued till 8 p.m.

Sunday ringing is at 10.30 a.m. and 6 p.m. Practice night is Wednesday at 7.15 p.m. Correspondence to the Rev. K. R. Upton, the Vicarage, Linton, Burton, or to D. P. Jones, c/o Castle Gresley Secondary School, Burton, Staffs. D. P. J.

MR. A. SMITH'S NOVEL 100

Mr. Alfred Smith, of Leeds, has an exceptional list for his first 100 peals. It reads:—

Maximus, Plain Bob 1, Cinques, Grandsire 1, Royal, Plain Bob 1, Yorkshire 6, Cambridge 5, Pudsey 1, Treble Bob 1, Caters, Stedman 1, Surprise Major, Yorkshire 14, Cambridge 16 (c. 2), Pudsey 2, Superlative 21 (1), London 3, Bristol 4, Chiltern 2, Painswick 2, Runnymede 1, Lincolnshire 2, Belgrave 1, Rochester 1, Four methods 3.

Major.—Double Norwich 3, Treble Bob 2, Plain Bob 4.

Treble to 7 spliced 1, and 5 spliced 1.

BARNSELY & DISTRICT SOCIETY

Fourteen towers were represented at the monthly meeting at Wortley on March 14th. The afternoon's ringing was followed by cups of tea served in the School. The Vicar (Rev. T. V. Robinson) presided at the business meeting, and extended a hearty welcome to the Society. Members stood in silent tribute to the late Mr. Harry Nutt, of Friezland, a member for many years. Mr. Noel F. Moxon reminded the company of the many good services to the Society by the late Mr. Nutt, and expressed sympathy with his family and the Friezland ringers.

Two new members—Carl Hible and Peter Dixon, of Ecclesfield—were elected, and Wragby, near Wakefield, was selected for the meeting on April 11th. A comprehensive vote of thanks to all who made the meeting so successful was proposed by Mr. N. F. Moxon. Further ringing followed.

Gratefully Acknowledged

The Editorial Committee acknowledge with gratitude the following donations towards the cost of producing 'The Ringing World':—

Peals.—Cookham 4s., Rochester, Staffs 4s., Hartpury 1s. 6d.

Quarter Peals.—Clare 3s. 6d., Friezland 2s., Epping Upland 3s., South Petherton 2s., Clerkenwell 2s., Stratton 2s., Brampton 2s., Charlton Kings 4s., Wimbledon 2s. 6d., Streatham 2s., Barrow-in-Furness 4s., Aston Clinton 5s., Heston 3s. 6d., Breendon-on-the-Hill 2s. 6d.

THE LADIES' GUILD

South Wales District

The annual meeting of the South Wales District was held at St. Mellons on February 21st and was well attended. The service was conducted by the Vicar (Rev. Gower-Rees) and Mr. R. Addis read the lesson.

An excellent tea was served in the Church Hall by Mrs. Gower-Rees and her helpers. Mr. R. E. Coles most sincerely thanked these kind ladies on behalf of all present.

Welcomed at the business meeting was the District's oldest member—Mrs. Young, of St. Mellons—who has been ringing at Rumney and St. Mellons for more than 40 years. The secretary gave a favourable report for 1958. During the year ten new members had been elected and there was a paid-up membership of 48.

Miss Dorothy Atwell (All Saints', Newport) was elected vice-president. The secretary, Mrs. J. S. King, was re-elected. Committee members elected were Mrs. F. Bailey, Mrs. A. Whitworth, Miss Marion Davis and Miss Ann Scorrer. General committee: Mrs. R. E. Coles and Miss Dilys Hulbert. One new member—Miss Jennifer James (All Saints', Newport)—was elected.

Llantwit Major was proposed for the next meeting, with Whitchurch as an alternative.

Western District

The annual meeting of the Western District was held at SS. Philip and Jacob's, Bristol, on March 14th, and was well attended. After ringing in the afternoon a service was held, conducted by the Vicar (Rev. W. H. Frost).

Some 38 members and visitors were present at tea, which was followed by the business meeting. Two new members were elected—Miss Margaret Tate and Mrs. Elizabeth Bowden. The officers were elected as follows: Vice-president, Mrs. E. M. Parfrey; secretary, Miss B. Johnson; committee, Mrs. Bennett, Mrs. de Jong, Mrs. Massey and Miss Williams.

Members were asked to note the date of the annual outing—Saturday, September 12th.

Ringling afterwards included an all-ladies' touch of Grandsire Triples.

BATH AND WELLS DIOCESAN

Taunton Branch

About 40 ringers attended the quarterly meeting of the Taunton Branch, held at Rockwell Green on March 14th. The Vicar (Rev. L. Naylor) officiated at the Association form of service.

Tea was held in the Church Hall, followed by the business meeting, with the Vicar taking the chair, supported by Mr. A. F. Reed (secretary) and Mr. G. Coles (vice-chairman). Eleven towers were represented, together with visitors from Bridgwater, Cannington, Chipstable, Spanton and Portsmouth. Altogether 14 new members were elected. It was agreed to send a letter of appreciation to a former member of the Wellington band—Mr. F. W. Slocombe—for the services he had rendered the Branch.

The meeting stood in silence to the memory of Mr. J. Grant, of Taunton, who died shortly after the annual meeting held at Milverton in December.

A vote of thanks was passed to the Vicar and to Mr. F. Taylor, of Rockwell Green, who had made all the arrangements. G. W.

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR

CANON RIDOUT

Dear Sir,—The mention of Canon Ridout in the article 'Let Loose in Africa' recalls happy memories of some pleasant hours spent with him 24 years ago. From 1897 to 1899 he was curate of St. John's, Gainsborough (1), and during that time local records show he did much ringing in and around Gainsborough. It was, therefore, understandable that when Lea bells were to be rededicated in 1935, and the rector, his old friend, being on holiday in England, he should want to come. He wrote to Canon Forbes and was invited to spend a few days with him.

Now Canon Forbes was something of a character and 'ruled' Lea for 53 years. He was a likeable man, never varied his ways, and lived with his charming wife and daughter in a huge, old-fashioned rectory with 2 acres of garden immaculately kept without help.

The day he arrived a short note was sent to me saying would I go down to the Rectory that evening to meet a very famous ringer. This I did but rather nervously, my only attribution being enthusiasm. However, as the writer pointed out, we were on common ground there, and he talked and talked and simply fascinated me with his stories and explanations. After two hours I was politely told by Mrs. Forbes it was time for Canon Forbes to have his supper, but if we liked we could continue our talk the next evening. That night I eagerly looked forward to and thoroughly enjoyed. The following night was the dedication service. He read the lesson and took part in the ringing afterwards; and that was the last I saw of this fine gentleman, whose enthusiasm was certainly infectious. —Yours sincerely,

GEO. L. A. LUNN.

Gainsborough.

THATCHED CHURCHES AND TOWERS

Dear Sir,—While reading C. Messent's book on the Round Towers of England, I discovered that the Church of St. Lawrence, Ingworth, Norfolk, has a thatched portion of a round tower. The tower fell in the 1820's, and the base was rebuilt and given a conical thatched roof. The one bell hangs in a gable cote on the western gable.

There are many thatched churches in Eastern England. Hales, Heckingham, Acle (6) being good examples. Perhaps one of the loveliest of these is Holy Trinity, Barsham, Suffolk—a gem of architecture standing in a lovely wooded setting in the valley of the Waveney. The little round tower with spirelet is, in part, pre-Conquest, and considered by Julian Tennyson to be one of the most perfect round towers. It contains a very pretty ring of five (Mears, 1893, with a pre-Reformation 'Alphabet' bell as the fourth), with a 64 cwt. tenor in B flat. These lovely bells are now, alas, no longer allowed to be rung, and have only been rung to a peal twice (two methods in 1912 and three methods in 1956).—Yours faithfully,

PAUL CATTERMOLE.

MULTI-METHOD SPLICED EXTENTS

Dear Sir,—A peal of Spliced Minor on February 21st, rung at Fryerning, Essex, contained a 720 which was described as being in '14 methods, by C. K. Lewis.' This 720 was a rearrangement of a 720 of mine published a few weeks previous to Mr. Lewis's and was, in fact, thus described by him in the letter which accompanied, and was published with, his figures.

Although there is no doubt that the rearranged version is superior to the original, it would seem more logical to describe it as 'H. Chant, rearranged by C. K. Lewis.'

The whole subject of Spliced Minor ringing and particularly the theoretical aspect of arranging (or composing) is worthy of the closest study, and a thesis by some authority such as C. K. Lewis, under the auspices of the C.C., would make interesting reading. The development of some of the extents is quite fascinating—even exciting. Take, for instance, the one which now contains the greatest number of methods (26).

After starting life as an unassuming extent in a few plain methods it was gradually built up by Mr. C. K. Lewis over a number of years to a 720 containing 19 plain methods, who then by the original concept of combining Treble Bob with Plain reached a total of 22 methods. There it stood for a few years when, by the additional inclusion of Alliance and Little Methods, I managed to push it up to 23, and later to 24 and (by the inclusion of a bob lead) to 25.

C. K. Lewis then made an arrangement based on this to include 26 methods which, although I have not possession of his figures contains, I understand, the tenors coursing the 'wrong way' for a complete course. Working on a plan which owes much to a 720 by A. G. Driver, I made an arrangement in 26 with the tenors the 'right way' throughout.

In view of my expressed opinion on 6-5's, it should be clear that anyone who prefers my arrangement to Mr. Lewis's will incur my eternal displeasure but, in the event of it being rung and published, how should it be described? H. Chant's arrangement of C. K. Lewis's extension of H. Chant's extensions of C. K. Lewis's extent?

It is idle to pretend that my extensions would have been possible without the original 22 or (I like to think) Mr. Lewis's final arrangement without my own efforts. Quite frequently the addition of even a single method requires more thought (sometimes—if there be such a thing—original thought) than all the compiling that has gone into the extent before. Sometimes, indeed, quite a lot of hard work, much midnight oil and many sheets of foolscap (singularly appropriate!) are required to turn a bob lead into a plain one. So much we owe to the work of our predecessors that it is sometimes difficult to distinguish that which is original from that which is not, or to tell a transposition from an older extent.

It would, therefore, in many cases probably be better to describe a 720 with two names coupled together in the manner frequently adopted in musical composition: Corelli-Kreisler, Arne-Sargent, etc. In the case of a 720, the name of the person who had contributed most to the compiling of the composition could be followed by the name of the person who had made the final addition, transposition or arrangement.

Where the last person had merely made a rearrangement his name could be placed in brackets, thus: Driver (Lewis), etc. In fact this idea could be extended or adapted to other numbers of bells; e.g., Thurstans (Heywood), Middleton (Johnson), etc., and the procedure more or less standardised.

So far has Spliced Minor advanced that it is reasonable to expect that before long it may be possible to ring more methods in seven 720's than was rung in the present record of nine 720's. In order to achieve this it may be necessary to include extents which contain in certain cases methods with

(c) 'Singles' in Treble Bob.

The Central Council has no ruling on these points and there are, no doubt, arguments for and against accepting them. Personally, although I am not happy on the subject, I am bound to admit that a method is only decided in the final two rows of the changeover from lead-end to lead-head, and that this must be the criterion in deciding whether a certain method has been rung or not. E.g., Reverse and Double Bob (Minor) are differentiated at the lead-end, lead-head by a 6th and 2nds place respectively, therefore if in the case of an arrangement which contains (say) plain leads of Double a 6ths place 'single' is made, are we entitled to call this lead 'Reverse'? (It certainly is not Double, which has a 2nds place 'single'.)

It would be interesting to find out other people's opinions and to get a ruling from the C.C. on these points.—Yours sincerely,

H. CHANT.

SWANSEA & BRECON GUILD

The Southern District's meeting at Gorseinon on March 7th attracted many visitors, two being from Leeds. The newly-formed University of Wales Guild, the St. David's and Llandaff Associations were also represented.

Mr. D. G. Williams presided at the business meeting; he asked all to stand in sympathy with the family of the late Mr. Frank Gordon. In answer to questions, Mr. A. Hoare assured the company that on the occasion of the visit of the Queen Mother for the opening of St. Mary's bells there would be opportunities for ringing for all. The vote of thanks to the ladies for the tea was proposed by Mr. Chris Hawkins, and the Vicar was thanked by Mr. A. Hoare.

SALISBURY DIOCESAN GUILD

Devizes Branch

The March meeting of the Devizes Branch was held at Great Cheverill. Owing to illness, arrangements for tea had to be cancelled at short notice. Ringing commenced at 5 p.m. and the service at 6 p.m. There was a good response from the members, 30 turning up, with visitors from the Swindon District. Owing to the illness of the Rector, the Guild service was conducted by Sir C. Chitham, who gave a welcome to all present.

It was good to see a large number of young ringers present. Methods rung ranged from rounds to Cambridge. S. C.

CONTEST RINGING IN NORTH OF ENGLAND

By NOEL F. MOXON

MANY ringers today recoil with horror when the words 'a ringing contest' are heard, for memories and stories of misdemeanour in bygone days are recalled. It must be admitted that their misgivings are not without foundation, as the prize ringings of the past century were frequented by men who were not loath to descend to unscrupulous methods to gain the handsome money prizes which were presented to the victors. Alas, many of the contestants were men who although good and consistent service ringers had scant respect for the Church and rarely attended a service. Unfortunately, the ill fame of the prize ringing of last century has been passed down to the present day, and the ringers who now arrange and participate in contests for which there is little or no tangible reward for the winners are still frowned upon by many of our leading ringers: the true reward of our present day contest ringers is the satisfaction that they are promoting good striking, an art which is sadly neglected in many towers.

The earliest record we have of a contest is in 1786, when on September 22nd the ringers of Oldham and Ashton-under-Lyne competed at Leeds Parish Church for a wager of 40 guineas, the test piece being Holt's peal of 5,040 Grandsire 'Tripples.' Oldham rang the peal in the forenoon in 2 hours and 46 minutes, and Ashton followed on with the same peal in 2 hours and 30 minutes. It was discovered that the last peal was some 400 changes short, so victory was pronounced in favour of Oldham. The Oldham and Ashton rivalry lasted into the next century, for these two towers rang against each other in 1808 at Flixton, near Manchester, for 40 guineas. The test was the same, Holt's Grandsire 'Tripples,' and Oldham were again the winners, the Ashton conductor making a miscall. Prior to the contest each team had rung four peals at neighbouring towers as a preparation for the great event.

Although there appear to be no more records of contests in the 18th century, such functions were fairly common, as a biographical sketch of Barnsley describes some rivalry. 'A public house in Barnsley now known as "The White Hart" was once "The Six Ringers," but was usually called "The Darfield Ringers." In 1787 the host, Thomas Kenyon, was a native of Darfield, a nearby village, and being a zealous ringer of that place did not care who knew it. He erected a massive sign, on which were gaily painted the portraits of the Darfield ringers, and proved a powerful attraction to the votaries of Bacchus but a sad annoyance to the Barnsley ringers who regarded it as a menace, there being warm contests between the Barnsley and Darfield ringers for the palm of superiority.'

BARNSELY CONTESTS

The earliest recorded contest at Barnsley took place on April 28th, 1810, when ten bands competed for two silver cups. This was a 6-bell contest, the test piece being three extents of 720 changes. The first prize was won by Wath St. Ann's College Youths, with Holmfirth as runners-up. Darfield, Birstall, Royston, Huddersfield, Eckington, Ecclesfield, Horbury and Darton also competed.

On June 5th, 1815, a prize ringing took place at Horbury, near Wakefield: the first prize a silver pint tankard and the second prize half-a-dozen silver spoons purchased by subscriptions by the gentlemen of the town. Thirteen companies assembled and took turn by ballot to ring 'two treble peals of 720 changes each.' Teams taking part with faults incurred were: Elland 47, Holmfirth 75, Birstall 43, Darton 126, Silkstone 51, Calverley 130, Dewsbury 21, Wath 26, Mirfield 90, Royston 72, Almondsbury 136, Sandall 123, Darfield 30. Dewsbury were awarded first prize and the second to St. Ann's Youths, of Wath, near Rotherham.

AN 8-BELL CONTEST

Eight-bell contests were also held in Yorkshire, for on August 25th, 1819, Birstall staged a contest to celebrate the opening of their new ring of eight bells, when the following seven companies attended on the occasion and took their turn by ballot in the following order to ring 2,496 or 2,528 changes of New or Oxford Treble Bob: 1, Sowerby and Halifax, a joint company, took the ropes and jumbled out; 2, Liversedge, rang 2,528 changes; 3, Otley and Keighley, rang 2,528 changes; 4, Bradford, rang 2,496 changes; 5, Huddersfield, rang well 2,300 changes but by a mistake lost the peal; 6, Leeds and Wakefield at the conclusion of the day and by candlelight brought round 2,496 changes; 7, Halifax concluded the opening with ringing 2,400 changes and lost the peal. When these elegant performances were over (near 12 o'clock at night), the first prize—a silver tankard value 12 guineas—was awarded by the umpires and censures, after summing up the faults, to the Leeds and Wakefield company. The second prize, a silver pint value 5 guineas, was awarded to the Bradford company.

ALL-ENGLAND CHALLENGE

Prize ringing contests were not always open to all and sundry, for on October 7th, 1812, Birstall and Darton competed for a silver cup at Royston, each team ringing three 720's; the prize was awarded to the Birstall ringers. Challenge contests at this time must have been held frequently, and culminated at Wragby in 1826, when on January 15th Wath ringers issued a challenge to all England for £30 a side. Darton accepted the challenge and won the prize. In the Darton team was John Senior, who died in 1861, having rung for 60 years and helped to win more than 30 prizes. Also in the team was William Johnson, of Mapplewell, nailmaker, who rang at Darton for 50 years; he died in 1845, aged 71. He was the proud possessor of a silver cup awarded for the champion tenor bell ringer of England, and his services were greatly in demand by various companies. Darton had a good team of ringers during the early part of the last century, ringing peals of seven different Minor methods and taking part in contests.

Many years ago a contest was to be held at Sandal, near Wakefield, and Darton were competing. One of the team, Andrew Briggs, was not selected for, being the secretary of a local Friendly Society, it was understood that he would be engaged at the Lodge meeting which was to be held on the day of the contest. Andrew, however, was annoyed when he heard he had been omitted from the team, and on the day of the contest walked to Sandal, a distance of six miles. When Darton were ringing their test piece Andrew, who had secreted himself near the ringing chamber door, called out 'Bob' in a loud voice, thus bringing the ringing to grief. It took some little time for the ringers to realise what had happened, but Andrew had escaped during the confusion and walked back to Darton.

The then Vicar of Darton was constantly making efforts to persuade his ringers to attend the services but without success, one excuse put forward that ringing made dirty hands and no washing facilities existed. The Vicar therefore had placed in the centre of the ringing chamber a wash bowl on a stand: the ringers used this bowl frequently—as a cuspidor!

The prize money for contests appears to have been considerable in the early days, and was usually collected from the gentlemen of the town at which the contest was held: a case in point being one at Wath-on-Deane on October 14th, 1822, when eight companies assembled, each ringing three 720's. Birstall were awarded the first prize, a silver tankard value £7, with Ecclesfield second, receiving £3. Other teams competing were Horbury, Penistone, Barnsley, Darton and Darfield; Kirkheaton received a money prize, having come the greatest distance. This contest must have occupied the greater part of the day or even two days, and ringers had often to take lodgings in the town.

THE BROKEN WINDOW!

A story from George Lewis tells of the Ecclesfield team who had to spend the night in an hotel, where accommodation being limited two ringers had to sleep in one bed. During the night one, being asthmatical, awoke gasping for breath and begged his bedmate to open the window to allow fresh air to enter the room. The man located the window in the dark but could not open it as there was no catch to be found. In despair, the suffering man cried: 'Break it, I will pay the damage in the morning.' Nothing loath, the glass was broken by means of a boot, and the gasping man immediately found relief. However, when next morning arrived the window was intact but the dressing table mirror was smashed to atoms!

When a new ring of bells was opened, the occasion was often marked by a contest, as was the case on May 10th, 1824, when the bells of Pudsey New Church were opened. Each company, on entering the town, rang a practice touch of 224 changes, and at 11 a.m. 11 companies competed for the prizes, the test piece being 1,728 true changes of Oxford or Kent T.B. Major, the time allowed being 62 minutes, with a forfeit of 10 penalties for each minute over or under the time. The contest concluded after 3 the following morning, when the first prize of £10 was awarded to Halifax—58 minutes 99 faults; Huddersfield were second with 58 minutes 111 faults, and received £5.

On April 8th, 1827, eight teams competed in a contest on the noble ring of ten bells in the Parish Church of Halifax, the winners being Oldham and Outram United, with Leeds the runners-up. This may have been a 10-bell contest, although some of the teams competing did not come from towers with more than eight bells.

A new name appears in the list of towers patronised by the prize ringers—High Hoyland, where on May 26th, 1828, eight companies met in a competition. Prizes were awarded to Holmfirth (£5), Darfield (£3) and Silkstone (£1). High Hoyland Church, near Barnsley, stands well away from the village—an ideal venue for peal and contest ringing. Unfortunately, the light six are unringable; several wheels are broken, the third bell is cracked, but the frame appears good. In 1875 a new church in the next village, Clayton West, became the parish church in place of High Hoyland, but ringing continued, as a code of rules dated 1900 hangs under the tower, and as one of the rules refers to intoxication, etc., this seems to point to misdemeanour by the ringers. All six ropes are now attached to the clappers, the being being chimed by 'clocking,' a situation which needs attention, although the Church Council are not prepared to spend money on the bells.

A time factor contest was held at Liversedge on December 28th, 1829, with a test piece of 2,528 changes of New or Old Treble Bob. Out of eight companies the final placings were Dewsbury, Birstall, Huddersfield and Elland.

OBITUARY

MR. THOMAS JOHN FOWLER

With deep regret we record the death of Mr. Thomas John Fowler, of Cookham, Berks, on March 9th, in his 71st year. John had been failing in health for several months, and on February 21st he had a severe heart attack. He was admitted to Maidenhead Hospital, where he appeared to be making satisfactory progress. He had another heart attack on the morning of his death.

John Fowler was known to us all as 'Uncle John,' and no man had so many affectionate nieces and nephews as John, for he was loved, respected and held in very high esteem by all who were privileged to know him.

T. J. FOWLER

By permission, 'The Maidenhead Advertiser.'

Born within the sound of Bow Bells, he came to the Berkshire village of Cookham with his parents when young, and at the age of 10 years joined Holy Trinity, Cookham, choir. Last year he achieved the wonderful record of having been a member of the choir for 60 years. For many years he was a member of the Parish Council; he was secretary to the Parochial Church Council and sat on many committees. During the First World War he served in the Army Ordnance Corps and held the rank of Warrant Officer. He was mentioned in dispatches.

Starting to ring in 1912, on his return to the village in 1919 he was elected tower captain, an office he held to his death. Cookham was a call-change band in those days, but in spite of strong opposition he introduced method ringing. It was due to his efforts that in 1926 the ring of six was augmented to eight as a memorial to Cookham ringers who lost their lives in the two world wars, one of which was his own son.

A staunch member of the Oxford Diocesan Guild, he was Ringing Master of the East Berks and South Bucks Branch for more than 25 years. For this and his devoted work for the Guild he was elected a vice-president in 1954, an honour well earned and of which he was justly proud. He was also a member of the College Youths.

John Fowler rang 62 peals, from Grandsire Doubles to Cambridge Surprise Major, not many peals at present day standards, but he much preferred to attend Branch practice meetings and to help and encourage those that needed it than to stand in a peal. John was a gentleman of sterling character and very sincere in his views. His advice to all ringers was—handle your bell correctly, listen to your striking, and attend Sunday service ringing and practices punctually and regularly. This he always did himself.

THE FUNERAL

On the Wednesday evening John was received to his beloved church by his Vicar, the Rev. Michael Westropp, where he rested the night.

Many ringers were in the large congregation who attended the funeral service on March 12th, which was fully choral and was conducted by the Rev. M. Westropp. Three of his favourite hymns were sung, including the ringers' hymn, 'Unchanging God who liveth.' In his warm tribute, the Vicar said: 'The guiding principle in John Fowler's life was his faith in God and his faithfulness to God, the latter expressed in a lifelong devotion to his church, in the choir, and in so many other ways; but his great love in service was the church bells: he was never happier than when ringing, teaching young people to ring, or servicing the bells themselves, or after a practice, just discussing them over a pint of beer. It is faithfulness such as this that Christ looks for in His followers, which is such an inspiration and example to others.'

At the interment, after the committal prayer, a well-struck course of Grandsire Triples was rung at the graveside by A. D. Barker 1-2, D. Dean 3-4, W. Lee 5-6, E. D. Poole 7-8.

Before the service the bells, half-muffled, were rung to well-struck touches of Grandsire and Stedman Triples by many ringing friends. After the service a peal of Grandsire Triples was rung to his memory by ringers from his own and neighbouring towers.

Among the many floral tributes were ten from ringers, which included one from the officers of the Oxford Guild and one from the East Berks and South Bucks Branch.

A quarter peal, half-muffled, of Grandsire Caters was rung at St. Mary's, Slough, on March 12th, and on March 18th at St. Giles', Stoke Poges, a peal of Stedman Triples was rung half-muffled to the memory of John Fowler. E. E. G.

AN APPRECIATION

The news of the sudden death of Thomas John Fowler has come as a great blow to me, as I was closely associated with him as a bell-ringer and church worker during my nine years' residence in Cookham in the 1930's.

At the monthly practices of the East Berks and South Bucks Branch he was ever ready to help and encourage beginners and stand behind them, if help was needed. A stranger or a shy and self-conscious person was always made to feel that he (or she) was welcome and needed.

In those days Tuesday practice nights in Cookham tower were, under his foremanship, something of a social occasion. Two or three ringers from Boyne Hill used to come over, and everyone—young and middle-aged—appeared to be enjoying their ringing immensely.

About the year 1933 Tom was responsible for the introduction of unpaid ringing at Cookham. He was untiring in his efforts to get new subscribers to 'The Ringing World,' for the ringer's own benefit, one felt.

'May he rest in peace.'

MR. GEORGE H. HEAD

AN APPRECIATION

The passing of Mr. George H. Head came as a shock to me because we became ringing friends in 1900, when he resided at Poltimore, near Exeter. Before coming to Devon he was a keen ringer in the Eastbourne District, where he took part in some good class peals, so he was an asset to bands in the Exeter District who were struggling to advance in method ringing. We stood in many peal attempts together, including two which came to grief after over three hours, and it was quite by accident that we were invited together in a peal—the only one we remembered scoring—back in 1902.

Mr. Head was fond of flowers, and being an expert he often helped to beautify the approach to a church by planting something which would please the eye. As a ringer he was quiet and unassuming, keen on good striking, and a good, faithful churchman. He generally greeted me with the motto of the City of Exeter, 'Semper Fidelis' ('Always Faithful'), and this could truly apply to George Head. R.I.P.

WILLIAM SHEPHERD.

OBITUARY

MR. ERNEST GLADMAN

There were many friends and parishioners at St. Leonard's Church, Heston, on March 10th, to pay their respects at the funeral of Mr. Ernest Gladman, who died on March 5th at the age of 82. Wreaths were laid for the Heston band and the Middlesex County Association and London Diocesan Guild. After the interment in the churchyard, a touch of Grandsire Triples was rung on handbells by H. J. Eldred (Ealing), F. W. Goodfellow (Hillingdon) and A. W. Coles (North Mimms), all of whom were old friends of 'Ernie,' as he had been affectionately known for almost countless years.

Ernest Gladman's family have been living in Heston for over 920 years, and during his lifetime of service to the church both as chorister and bell-ringer he always displayed great zest for life and never showed his years. He was always the life and soul of any party, as many will remember who have attended Heston outings and the 'Heston' suppers of the South and West District of the Association.

He was one of the two surviving founder members of the Middlesex Association, formed in 1897, and before that was a member of the old West Middlesex Association. He had been a ringer at Heston since 1898 or 1899.

Sympathy is extended to Mrs. Gladman who, badly crippled, relied much on her husband's devoted care and attention. Together with her, his friends will reflect in sorrow on the passing of Ernest Gladman. But, they will remember also with reverence and gratitude his particular quality of life and great service to the Church and ringing.

As a last tribute, on March 10th the Heston band rang a touch of Grandsire Triples half-muffled, and on Sunday, March 15th, a quarter peal of 1,260 Grandsire Triples was rung open. G. W. G.

MR. MAURICE WATTS

Wadhurst has lost an outstanding personality by the death on March 9th of Mr. Maurice Watts, who sang in the choir for 70 years and rang in the belfry for 56 years.
