HUMANUM EST ERRARE

IN the memoirs of James Agate, the music critic, there is an anecdote that tells of a gathering of famous pianists at a private dinner party. The select company of experts, having eaten and drunk, grouped themselves round the wireless set and listened to their fellow artist, Rubenstein, playing in Beethoven's 'Emperor' Concerto at a London concert hall. To this great work, which each one present knew so intimately, they devoted themselves purely for the whimsical amusement of trying to detect any mistake their friend might make in that massive score. And it was during this diversion that Mark Hambourg, one of the distinguished company, was constrained to remark that Rubenstein could not play a wrong note if he tried.

It was magnificent hyperbole, for Mark Hambourg knew quite well that Rubenstein was a great enough executant to be able to play even wrong notes if so he desired; but it was also a spontaneous and generous tribute from one superb artist to another, while the incident as a whole may serve to remind us both of the humanity and the infallibility of even the most immaculate performer.

Reflections upon one art frequently develop into parallel thoughts in a sister art, and, although there would appear to be little in common between the solo pianist and the change ringer, yet thoughts not unprofitable may arise in the consideration of the astonishing heights of perfection to which the competent technician may ascend and the human fallibility that leads even him into occasional error.

The vague records of early change ringing activity leave us perhaps with an over-enhanced respect for the brilliant successes of the ancient leaders and an insufficient knowledge of their failures; and so it may fall out that Annable or Gross may loom as giant figures in an era of unbroken success. It is, of course, in the doggerel of Lawton that we find evidence to suggest otherwise. The pages of our ringing journals have provided for most of us a more sober judgment of even the greatest of our leaders, and so, while we see in their remarkable deeds the brilliance of Cox, the uncanny ability of Haley, the genius of Washbrook, we are made fully conscious of their errors, their human failings, and their lapses from high estate. Yet the occasional fall from grace, the manifestation of frailty, even the plunge into gross error, cannot deny these men their place among the ringing immortals.

Most of us who have moved reasonably freely in change ringing circles have been privileged to know (and sometimes intimately) many really great ringers, conductors and composers, and it must often have been our pleasure to marvel both at the heights to which they could rise and the consistency with which they maintained themselves at a high standard. To think of Maurice Swinfield missing a bob in Stedman Triples, or to think of Harold Poole failing to pick up a trip, would be to consider a remote contingency; and among our modern geniuses there are men who continue to astonish us by the unvarying accuracy of their ringing and conducting. So we may be led to cry, in the words of Mark Hambourg, 'Old So-and-So couldn't make a mistake if he tried!'

But these men, like the men of old, can indeed err, for they are human, and to err is human, and particularly so in a very exact and exacting pursuit like change ringing. Doubtless Maurice Swinfield occasionally missed his call; doubtless Clement Glenn discovered that a mistake had got past his guard; possibly more than one peal directed by Harold Poole came to grief.

These are perhaps commonplace thoughts, and the only virtue in them would seem to lie in any lesson they may teach. It has rightly been argued that there are instruction and edification in the observation of a good ringer in action. To this may be added what is not so readily perceived, that it is worth travelling some distance to see a first-class ringer make a mistake. For in this simple, if unusual, phenomenon the beginner will find a world of comfort for himself and considerable profit in the observation of the great man's reaction to his own lapse. And since to err is human, so to forgive is charitable, and therein lies the reason for the patience and forbearance of the really first-class ringer. As for the erring expert he, like Rubenstein, will not be troubled by the criticism, good-humoured or otherwise, of his fellow artists, for he, like them, is conscious of many mistakes in the past and undisturbed by the possibility of occasional error in the future.

The band who rang the peal of Stedman Cinques at Lincoln Cathedral in honour of Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Freeman's golden wedding also wish to congratulate Mr. and Mrs. M. E. Bennett, of Spalding, on the birth of a daughter. The new grandfather (Mr. Stanley E. Bennett) rang the sixth in the peal.

The quarter peal at St. Mary-the-Virgin's on May 10th (see page 363) was rung with a non-ringing conductor.

On June 6th a peal of Yorkshire was specially arranged at Horsham for the wedding of that popular Sussex ringer Leslie Weller; but alas, the only female member of the band after nearly two hours' magnificent ringing lost her 'tongue.' We hope she won't make a habit of this!

By a sad coincidence, the first half-muffled peal on the bells at St. Nicholas', Liverpool, was for the former Rector (Rt. Rev. Robert Nelson), who was responsible for the installation of the bells. He died in tragic circumstances, and was loved and respected by his parishioners.

In connection with the peal at Hitcham, Bucks, on May 23rd, the conductor would like the name of Mr. W. H. B. Wilkins mentioned as he conducted George Gilbert's first peal at Bobbing, Kent, on May 23rd, 1903. W. H. B. is still going strong at St. Ebbe's, Oxford. Does he remember that he rang Superlative Minor in that peal, i.e., Cambridge Reverse?

This year is the 25th anniversary of 'The Great Adventure,' and Mr. G. W. Pipe hopes to arrange something in Melbourne to mark the occasion. At St. Paul's Cathedral the company are practising Double Norwich. At the Roman Catholic Cathedral a St. Patrick's Society has been formed after a lapse of many years.

BELFRY

GOSSIP

Bells will be heard prior to the service to be broadcast from Bromley Parish Church, Kent, on Sunday, June 28th, at 9.45 a.m. in the Home Service. The Vicar (Canon W. H. Murray Walton) will conduct the service.

Twice during their Whit Monday outing into Cornwall, Stratton ringers had to pass the hat round for broken stays. Some of the party could not forget their own 21 cwt. tenor.

'At least two of the party know each other a good deal better than they did when they came' is our correspondent's concluding comments on the University of London Society's Whitsun tour. Hitchin was the headquarters.

Despite many previous attempts, the peal of Grandsire Caters at Surfleet on June 6th was the first tower bell peal by the Cambridge University Guild. However, 17 handbell peals have been rung there by the Guild since 1920.

The first peal on the recently-rehung bells at Brewood, Staffs, was rung on June 6th. Mr. and Mrs. R. Hawksworth kindly provided refreshments for the band after the peal. In the evening the parish held a barbecue to raise money for the cost of the work (£300).

In connection with the peal rung at Tamworth in honour of the christening of the Vicar's first grandchild, it is interesting to note that the child's mother, formerly Miss Molly Smith, was, before her marriage, an active and esteemed member of the Tamworth band.

The peal of Double Norwich C.B. Major at Leiston was rung on the anniversary of the 11,040 rung there in 1909, in which Sid and Jim Bailey took part. They are the only surviving members of the original band. Incidentally, Jim has 'circled the tower' 14 times. After the peal the band were hospitably entertained by Mr. and Mrs. Bridges.

PETERBOROUGH DIOCESAN GUILD

Annual Meeting at Rothwell

THE even tenor of life at Rothwell in Northamptonshire was stirred on May 9th, when ringers to the number of some 200 converged on the town for the Peterborough Guild's annual meeting. Early arrivals set the bells going and provided a welcome.

On this occasion the Guild president (Canon G. F. Turner) was 'at home' and obviously enjoying himself pointing out the interesting details of his beautiful church. Later he conducted the new form of service in the spacious nave. The Diocesan (Dr. Stopford) had promised to preach, but was unable to do so because of an engagement requiring him to preach at a service in East Berlin the next day. His place was taken by the Rt. Rev. W. H. Stewart, assistant bishop, who held the close attention of his hearers.

After taking tea with members the Bishop said that the size of the congregation had exceeded his expectations, and remarked on the number of young people present. He also commented on the singing during the service and said that if they could ring as well as they could sing then they must be pretty good.

The largest hall in the town was almost filled to capacity, where a band of ladies, led by Mrs. York, provided an ample meal. The business came afterwards, with the president in the chair, supported by the Master (Mr. P. I. Chapman) and the Rev. C. J. W. Faulkner, Rector of Harlestone. Also present were Mr. R. G. Black, former general secretary, and Messrs. E. E. Whitmore and B. P. Morris, former Guild Masters.

The officers were re-elected for the coming year, with thanks for all that they had done. An election for the Central Council representatives returned Messrs. P. I. Chapman, G. W. Jeffs, E. G. Orland and B. Austin.

From the Bell Restoration Fund the meeting voted £140 to five parishes where restoration or augmentation work was to be carried out. These were Desborough, Woodford, Marston Russell, Collingtree and Creaton.

NEW FIRST PEAL CERTIFICATES

Some months ago the material used in the first peal certificates became unobtainable and alternatives were not thought to be suitable. The matter had been under discussion by the committee, which eventually decided to ask one of its members, Mr. B. Austin, to design a new certificate entirely. This was shown to the meeting and adopted, with thanks to Mr. Austin.

For the next annual meeting it was decided to visit Pottersbury, when the Towcester Branch will be hosts to the Guild. Members were reminded that the next Guild function, the summer festival, will be at Daventry on September 5th, the Daventry Branch in this case offering a welcome to everyone.

The vote of thanks was proposed by Mrs. P. E. Clarke, of Oundle, who recalled the many people to whom they were indebted for the success of the day. Mr. A. Mansfield, of Green's Norton, seconded, and this was carried with resounding applause. Another chapter was thus added to the fame of Rothwell, for this was the first time that the Guild annual meeting had been held there.

The town and its church are becoming widely known by reason of the orchestral concerts which have been given in the church for several years past. On June 5th the London Philharmonic Orchestra was conducted by Sir Adrian Boult in a concert of music by Beethoven, Mozart and Vaughan Williams.

RECORD ATTEMPT AT QUEX PARK

Dear Sir,—Notice is given that an attempt will be made to ring 13,280 Cambridge Surprise Major at the Waterloo Tower, Quex Park, Birchington, Kent, on Sunday, June 28th, commencing at 10 a.m. The composition is appended.—Yours sincerely, ROBIN G. LEALE.

Next Week's Issue Unlikely

Unless a settlement is reached before Saturday in the dispute between the Printing Trades Unions and the Newspaper Proprietors Association and the British Federation of Master Printers, the publication of 'The Ringing World' next week is uncertain.

Will correspondents please continue to send in reports, peals and quarter peals, so that production can recommence as soon as this unfortunate dispute is ended. The inconvenience to readers and advertisers is regretted, but it is outside the control of 'The Ringing World' Committee or its Editor.

REDEDICATION

Heswall, Cheshire

The bells of St. Peter's, Heswall, Wirral, rang out again on May 31st after the rehanging of the back five. The bells hang in an oak frame in the old Norman tower. The tenor was originally cast by William Clibury in 1627. No. 5 and No. 4 (which bears the inscription DULCINE VOCIS CANTABO TUA NOE) were the work of William Scott in 1672. These three bells were recast by John Warner in 1881, another two were added in 1884, and a new treble was mounted over the second in 1955.

The work of rehanging was entrusted to Messrs. Mears and Stainbank. All the ironwork was renewed, new wheel-rims and pulleys fitted, the cast-in clapper-staples cut out, and the bells drilled for new staples. Finally the bells were rehung on ball-bearings and certain adjustments were made to the treble.

On May 29th a company of experienced ringers from the Wirral Branch came to inspect and try out the rehung bells. Some good ringing was enjoyed and everyone expressed satisfaction with the 'go' of the bells, and also with the resetting of the ropes, which now form an almost perfect circle. Mr. Harry Parkes, who had carried out the work of rehanging, also joined in the ringing.

On the following Sunday morning the Rector (Rev. Kenneth Lee) held a short service of prayer in the belfry before Matins, and during morning service asked a blessing on the bells and on those who ring them.

ST. MARY'S, SWANSEA, BELLS RING OUT IN JOY

With the Queen Mother sitting among the congregation, more than 1,200 were once again united in hymn singing in the historic St. Mary's Parish Church, Swansea, which was reconsecrated by the Bishop of Swansea and Brecon (Dr. J. J. A. Thomas) on May 28th.

The hymn sung, 'All people that on earth do dwell,' epitomised the representation of the congregation. Members of all religious beliefs were present. It was an impressive service, and the glorious singing filled the church with sound—for the first time in 18 years.

When the Queen Mother left at 12.25 p.m., the bells of St. Mary's rang out over the town, proclaiming the joyous news that once again the church which had been destroyed had risen again.

The eight bells—with the tenor weighing just over one ton, in the key of E—are a fine example of co-operation between the architect, church and bell-founder, the result being a very beautiful ring of bells.

The bells were rung on the opening day by the officers and members of the Diocesan Guild, and on May 30th, after an unsuccessful peal attempt, a quarter peal of Grandsire Triples was successful, particulars of which have already appeared in 'The Ringing World.'

A PEAL OF ROYAL BY ERNESTS

A very 'earnest' band of ringers met at Loughborough Bell Foundry on June 6th, travelling from long distances as far apart as Tunbridge Wells, in Kent, to Birkenhead, in Cheshire, from London and Macclesfield as well as Long Buckby, Northants, and surrounding places in Leicestershire. Ernest was introduced to Ernest in a bewildering but amusing way, and then the ten of them ascended the well-known tower to go for a peal of Bob Royal.

Placing the right men at the smaller end, where the bells are somewhat 'tricky' for strangers, they started at a slow pace but with determined effort to ring the first 'Ernest' peal on ten bells. The treble man, affectionately known to many both in and out of the belfry as 'Uncle Ernest,' had in 1926 called the first 'Ernest' peal of Major, and later on the late Ernest E. C. Turner called one of Kent Major. Ernests are not so prolific as Johns, Williams or Thomases, so all were highly delighted when the peal came round successfully. They all departed on their long trek home pleased and elated, and thoroughly satisfied that the effort in getting together was fully justified.

Thanks are due to Mr. Paul Taylor for granting permission and arranging for the tower to be available.

Gratefully Acknowledged

NORWICH DIOCESAN ASSOCIATION

Encouraging Prospects

The annual meeting of the Norwich Diocesan Association was held at Norwich on May 23rd, being again well supported by members and friends. The bells of Mancroft (12), St. Giles' (8) and St. George's, Colegate (6), were available during the afternoon and evening.

The service was held in St. Peter Mancroft Church, when the Vicar (Rev. K. Wilkinson Riddle) welcomed the Association to Norwich and thanked them for their service to the church, which they could be assured was greatly appreciated by the clergy and the congregations.

Following tea at the Chantry Hall, the business meeting was opened with prayer, and the company stood for a moment's silence in memory of those who had departed to higher service since the last annual meeting. The president (Mr. Nolan Golden) took the chair, supported by the Rev. H. G. Lillingston, Mr. H. Tooke and Mr. A. G. Harrison (vice-presidents), Mr. H. W. Barrett (Ringing Master) and Mr. W. Love (general secretary and treasurer). Apologies for absence were received from the Rev. R. G. E. Dodson, the Rev. A. G. G. Thurlow, Messrs. E. Goate, N. Harding, W. G. Heyhoe, L. Last and J. R. Smith; also Mr. J. G. W. Harwood, who was in hospital.

Votes of thanks were accorded to the Revs. K. W. Riddle, D. E. Rae and A. Paget for the use of their bells; the organist, the verger of St. Peter Mancroft, and the ladies for supplying and serving the teas.

The president said how sorry they were to hear of Mr. Harwood's illness, and proposed that a letter be sent to him conveying their good wishes for an early recovery. In his review of 1958, Mr. Golden congratulated the members on the steady progress that is being made in the activities of the Association, and thanked all for their support during his first year as president.

EDUCATION COMMITTEE'S SCHEME

The general secretary and treasurer (Mr. W. Love) reported that despite a slight fall in membership, due to various causes, the strength of the Association had been well maintained. It was pleasing to note that recruitment of young people was steadily going on. Attention was drawn to the Norfolk Education Committee's scheme of providing instructors in centres where it is possible to have at least 12 learners. Forty-seven new members were elected, made up of 26 resident ringing members, 3 honorary and 18 non-resident life members. Unfortunately, 50 members were lost: 43 lapsed through non-payment of subscriptions and 7 died. He was pleased to say that this loss had been made good by elections during 1959.

Restorations had been completed at Wiveton and Dickleburgh. At the former tower a new band had joined the Association. Dickleburgh bells had been augmented to six by the addition of a new treble. The new ring of 12 at St. Nicholas', Great Yarmouth, had been cast, and would be opened during October, 1959. Other restorations in the future were planned at Aylsham (10), Attleborough (6), Norton Sub-course (6) and Kessingland (5).

A summary of the recent Sunday Service Ringing Survey of the diocese had been included in the report, which required serious thought of all responsible ringers.

Presenting the balance sheet the treasurer, reporting an excess of expenditure over income of £47, said that this had to a great extent been foreseen by the standing committee, by the extra travelling expenses of the Central Council representatives of the Dublin meeting, rising printing costs, and the decision to donate towards the cost of the president's travelling expenses. Grants of 5 guineas had been made from the Belfry Repair Fund to Aylsham, Dickleburgh, St. Michael-at-Coslany, Norwich, Saxthorpe, Wiveton and Great Yarmouth. The General Fund account stood at £148 78s. 3d., with the addition of the value of 51 handbells at £100.

114 PEALS

The Ringing Master (Mr. H. W. Barrett) reported that no records had been produced during the year, but from his own observations, and the reports from the Branches, it had been very satisfactory. The peals total again exceeded three figures, reaching the grand total of 114, 160 members taking part. The leading conductor of the year was the president, with a total of 31. The peals were rung in 50 different towers. Branch meetings continued to be well supported and a good standard of methods and striking maintained. This was, in his opinion, a very healthy sign for the Association, when it was noted the number of young people who were taking part with great enthusiasm. He made a strong appeal for proficient ringers owning cars to make the effort to visit outlying towers, where there were struggling bands not in union with the Association but who continued to ring their bells for Sunday services, and who needed instruction in change-ringing. He was sure that membership could be greatly increased if this was done.

All the officers were re-elected, with the addition of the Rev. K. Wilkinson Riddle as a vice-president.

Mr. Barrett gave a report on the Central Council discussions, and it was noted with some concern that 'The Ringing World' would be in serious difficulties in the near future if the anticipated rise in the cost of printing came about. A proposition that each affiliated Association to the Central Council should make a yearly donation from their general fund to 'The Ringing World,' and that this Association should take a lead with a donation of £5, was put to the meeting for a vote. This proposition was defeated. It was felt by some that the Central Council should take the lead in this matter and not an individual Association. An earnest appeal was made for increased circulation, preferably postal subscribers.

Mr. Nolan Golden (hon. librarian) appealed for gifts to the library and information from members about books that were for sale which would be of value to build up a worth while library.

THE LADIES' GUILD

The annual general meeting of the Ladies' Guild was held this year at Southport, and members shared in the warm welcome extended by the Lancashire Association to the Central Council. Although the change of date had been approved by most Districts, there were some who thought it an unwise move, but in spite of their forebodings a most successful meeting was held.

The Vicar of Christ Church (Rev. F. Pickering) took a shortened form of Evensong for the Guild at 3.30 p.m. Tea followed in Christ Church Schoolroom—a wonderful meal prepared by Miss Margaret Ridyard and her helpers—when the members were joined by the Vicar and Mrs. Pickering, and also the secretary of the Lancashire Association, Mr. F. Dunkerley.

Before the men left, the president (Mrs. K. Lock) expressed grateful thanks to all those who had helped to make it such a successful day: to the Rev. F. Pickering for taking the service and for permission to ring at Christ Church, and to the organist and verger; to the Rev. Bryan Crane for permission to ring at Emmanuel Church, to the tower-keepers at these two churches, and also to Miss Ridyard who had made all the arrangements.

In welcoming the Guild to Southport, the Vicar said how pleased he was to see the lady ringers, and hoped they would enjoy the sunshine, the sands, the shrimps and the sea, a remark greeted with some laughter, as most members never did undertake the long trek across the sands which was necessary if one wished to see the sea.

After the usual preliminaries of an annual meeting—the minutes of the last meeting, the apologies for absence and the election of new members—there came the important item of the election of the president. Mrs. Lock, the retiring president, had been in office for three years—the maximum term allowed under the Guild rules—and therefore was not eligible for re-election. During those three years Mrs. Lock has visited many of the District meetings and has travelled many miles in order to meet as many of the members as possible. She was warmly thanked for all she had done.

Three nominations had been received, but one member stated she did not wish to stand. On being put to the vote, Mrs. J. Staniforth was elected president and took the chair for the rest of the meeting. The other officers were re-elected.

The treasurer's announcement that last year income exceeded expenditure was greeted with enthusiasm, and plans were promptly made to spend the excess! It was agreed that a report should be published next year giving the names and addresses of members and other relevant information for each District, to be available at the next annual general meeting.

As the Guild covers the whole country, the annual meeting is held in a different area each year, working on a definite rota. For 1960 the Districts concerned proposed that the annual meeting should be held in Bath, and this was agreed.

After the meeting members dispersed to ring at the various towers also open for Central Council members. Ten of the Guild's 13 Districts were represented at this meeting which, in view of the distances to be travelled, was considered very satisfactory.

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR

EVERCREECH AND B.B.C.

Dear Sir,—In reply to a recent correspondent and a number of inquiries, may I say that all the bell recordings heard on Sunday mornings opening the B.B.C. Light Programme are of St. Peter's, Evercreech, bells.

For those who save their 'Ringing Worlds,' all the details regarding the making of these records appeared in a letter of mine on February 27th, 1953, page 139.

For those who cannot turn up this letter I would say briefly that the records comprise Grandsire and Stedman Caters, Double Norwich, Grandsire and Stedman Triples, Double Court Minor on the front six and Grandsire Doubles on the back six. Obviously a very young local band, as mine was then, could not be expected to cover this wide range. The following were therefore invited to take part: Mr. J. T. Dyke, who conducted all the ringing, Mr. and Mrs. T. Kimber, Messrs. R. G. Beck, V. Savage, J. Topp, G. W. Massey, E. Chivers and P. Hull, with A. White and myself, of the local band.

As a point of interest, the bells are now on at 8.52 a.m. immediately before the weather forecast.—Yours faithfully,

H. J. SANGER.

PEALS OF BRISTOL

Dear Sir,—The peal of Bristol Surprise Major published in 'The Ringing World' of June 5th, 1959, as the composition of Mr. W. Eric Critchley was first rung at Brentwood on July 29th, 1911, as the composition of Arthur Knights. It appears in the Middlesex County Association's report for 1910-11.

Some of your readers may recall an article which appeared in your paper early last year in which I criticised certain peals of Bristol, among others, which had appeared under various people's names about that time, on the grounds that they could not possibly be original. True, I could not quote chapter and verse: in the present instance I am able to do so. I hate to cross swords with my good friend Mr. Critchley on this issue, but I am quite convinced that no original two- or three-part peals of Bristol, with orthodox calling, can possibly be obtained, and that those who are publishing them so freely at the present time are merely plagiarising the work of others—inadvertently, of course, but the correction never catches up with the error. I have not the least doubt that the peal in question will be rung many more times as the composition of Mr. Critchley.—Yours sincerely,

E. A. BARNETT.

Crayford, Kent.

[Mr. C. W. Roberts also writes confirming that the composition was rung at Brentwood. He also adds that the composition was rung twice by the Kent County Association in 1931, the figures appearing in their 1932 report, page 102, peals Nos. 3,693 and 3,725.—Ed.]

A REVERSE

Dear Sir,—May I point out that the composition on page 356 (No. 3a, 5,056 Treble Bob) is the reverse of a peal by Henry Johnson (see Treble Bob Part II, page 35).—Yours faithfully,

C. KENNETH LEWIS.

Timperley, Altrincham.

PREVIOUS HANDBELL PEAL FOR BIRMINGHAM U.G.

Dear Sir,—Mr. Brian Woodruffe may be interested to know that his handbell peal with Messrs. Simpson and Webb on May 7th was not the first to be rung by members of Birmingham University in the Guild of Undergraduates Union.

In the year 1951-52 a group used to practise handbell ringing in the Union quite regularly, but never formed an official Society, there being only three or four of us. Nevertheless, John Mayne, Harry Poyner and myself rang a peal of P.B. Minor for the Universities' Association ('R.W.', February 15th, 1952).

Wishing all success to the new Society.—Yours faithfully,

P. C. RIDGWAY.

Laleham, Middlesex.

'THE RINGING WORLD'

Dear Sir,—Our 'Ringing World,' mine and yours. Is it? Or do you borrow one, or just get a look at one? Or does your tower have one, between 6, 8, 10 or 12: if so, how do you expect our highly specialised paper to pay?

What is your 'real' interest in ringing? Merely ringing peals, or meetings, or just ringing? Do you do anything to keep alive and stimulate the Exercise and keep its paper going?

Although having reached my three-score years and ten, I have only been ringing these last 30 years—but what very happy years. I have always taken 'The Ringing World' which, like ladies' fashions, has not changed much—similar articles and opinions, bob and singles, perhaps a few new compositions: I have several times received a good caning.

'The Ringing World' has just managed to keep its head above water. We have had an increase in price, but even we pensioners have had to have increases in almost all our sources of income, so we cannot say we cannot afford the modest 6d., ridiculously cheap for what it contains—other than ringing matter—the making of friendships.

I would not like the Editorial Committee's job. When a week or two ago I spoke to my printer's foreman about soaring prices, he replied: 'What do you expect, I have just received an increase in wages of 37s. 6d. a week.' The Editorial Committee have given us the remedy to increasing the price—greater circulation; but we shall not achieve that if so many continue to borrow, or 'just have a look at someone else's'.

If your real and/or only interest is just ringing, you have missed one of the greatest pleasures—and blessings—of life, friendship.

We ringers do not like living hand to mouth, neither should our 'Ringing World' have to do—even worse than that, live dangerously.

We know what it was like during the war, without the bells: it would be much worse without our 'Ringing World'.—Yours, etc.,

Crewe.

FRANK STENSON.

FOUR-SPICED RUNG SILENT

A peal of Spiced Surprise Major in four methods was rung strictly silent and non-conducted at Dore, Derbyshire, on June 6th.

'RINGING WORLD' CIRCULATION

Dear Sir,—The report of 'The Ringing World' Committee for last year, as published in last week's paper, makes most interesting reading.

There are, in my view, two conclusions to be drawn from it:—

- (1) The circulation of the paper has hardly risen at all in the last few years, but the cost of production has risen alarmingly.
- (2) Unless more funds are made available to the paper, we ringers may find ourselves without a weekly journal.

This would be quite catastrophic as the paper plays an immensely important part in the binding together of our ringing fellowship. One disadvantage which immediately springs to mind is that Associations would have reduced attendances at their meetings, as many ringers would not receive notification of meetings.

Various methods of raising money were suggested at the Council meeting, and none seem to have met with much success.

Personally, I am not interested in the numerous peals that Mr. A. P. Cannon has rung, and therefore strongly support the motion that a peal levy be imposed and not, as Mr. Cannon suggested, that the cost of our paper be raised from 6d. to 1s. or 1s. 6d., which is quite ridiculous.

If there was a drop in the circulation of 8 per cent. when the cost of the paper rose from 4d. to 6d., I dare not think what the drop in circulation would be if the paper became twice or three times as expensive as it is now. And if the paper was still 25 per cent. peals, as it is now (whether mine or not) I, for one, would not buy it at such a price.

I agree with Mr. Joyce that a paper is useless if full of peals, and suggest that a restriction be placed on the space occupied by peals in the journal. Why not print them in the same style as the quarter peals? More space should be given to general news, not only of non-peal ringers but also of peal ringers' activities.

I do not think that a levy of 6d. per member should be imposed on Associations: many send contributions towards the cost of producing the journal, and those that do not cannot afford to, and doubtless could not afford the proposed levy, unless members' subscriptions were raised by 6d. to include the levy.

Mr. Chaddock is quite right about postal subscribers—some are too lazy or busy to buy a postal order once or four times a year. May I suggest that some make out bankers' orders?

The Editor and Committee are doing sterling work for little or no return: let each and every ringer make a concerted effort to increase the circulation of our paper and bring in more money so that we are able to retain the weekly publication and also give the Editor and Committee more financial assistance.—Yours faithfully,

ADRIAN C. WEDGWOOD.

Wavendon, Bletchley.

LETTERS—ContinuedMR. FREEMAN BALL

Dear Sir,—In its list of virtually unknown past members of the Central Council the Biographies Committee mentions the name of Freeman Ball.

A gentleman bearing this appellation conducted the first peal—Grandsire Triples—on the old bells of St. Chad's Cathedral, Birmingham, on February 20th, 1878. The peal is commemorated by a tablet on the west wall of the ringing chamber, although, strangely enough, the name of the conductor is not actually stated thereon.

I recall the late 'Tom' Miller saying, in about 1938, that Freeman Ball was the conductor and that he originated from Chester, also that he was a bearer at the funeral of Anthony Druce, tenor man in the same peal, who died in, I think, 1879.

Sorry this information is so scrappy, but it may give a lead in tracing more facts of the ringing career of Freeman Ball.

Incidentally, could one of your more erudite readers settle a question over which many words have been said and even more beer drunk—is our belfry at St. Chad's Cathedral unique in that one ascends the south-west tower to ring in the north-west tower?—Yours sincerely,

W. E. BOX.

Harborne, Birmingham.

MILES GRAYE'S BELLS

Dear Sir,—According to 'The Church Bells of Suffolk' (Canon J. J. Raven), there are still a great many of Miles Graye's bells in this part of the country. He gives a complete list of about 80 bells in Suffolk, including those mentioned by Mr. Lafin in his letter, also 16 in various towers in Ipswich.

There would not appear to be any complete Miles Graye rings in Suffolk.

Canon Raven states: 'There are a few Miles Graye bells in Norfolk, 17 in Cambridgeshire, one in Sussex (Chiddingfold treble), a good sprinkling in Hertfordshire and Bedfordshire, and of course very many in Essex. His most distant work is the tenor at Newcastle-upon-Tyne, which he cast at Colchester in 1615.' I should think that this list still holds fairly true.

Just over the border from us in Essex is the ring of five at Pentlow, mentioned in correspondence in 'The Ringing World' last year. There was here a complete ring of Miles Graye bells, but the treble was recast by John Thornton in 1711. The other four still remain.

If Mr. Lafin would care to have it, I should be pleased to provide him with a complete list of the Miles Graye bells in Suffolk, as given by Canon Raven.—Yours faithfully,

ROSEMARY J. SEABROOK.

Clare, Suffolk.

GREAT LEIGHS' A MILES GRAYE RING

Dear Sir,—In his letter of May 22nd, Mr. Peter Lafin wonders if there are any complete rings of Miles Graye bells left. The five bells at Great Leighs, Essex, are, I believe, all by this founder. Hung in a beautiful round tower, they form an anti-clockwise ring of most pleasant tone and 'go.'

While casting my thoughts into Essex, may I take this opportunity of apologising for my mistake over Manuden, which Mr. Peter Bond so kindly pointed out. Two of my fellow tourists have since confirmed that there are only five bells there, but my records were inexplicably altered to read six.—Yours sincerely,

RONALD K. RUSS.

P.S.—If Mr. Lafin would like a photograph of Great Leighs tower, I should be most pleased to provide it.—R. K. R.

NORTH WALES ASSOCIATIONAnnual Meeting

The annual meeting of the North Wales Association was held at St. Matthew's Church, Buckley, Flintshire, on May 30th. A very nice day brought together what seemed to be a record number of members and friends.

The service was conducted by the Vicar (Rev. J. T. James), assisted by the Curate (Rev. P. J. Blake). The theme of the Vicar's address was 'Urgency,' and he said it was urgent that the people should realise their duty and obligations to Almighty God, and when the bells rang out on Sunday it was to remind them and call them to His worship and that they had half-an-hour in which to do this. When the five-minute bell rang they had to hurry or they would be late for their appointment with God.

Over 70 members and friends sat down to a salad tea with cakes made by the wives of St. Matthew's ringers and served in the school dining room.

The Vicar presided at the business meeting. Officers re-elected were Mr. W. Cathrall, secretary and Mr. Fred R. Evans, Ringing Master; the president and vice-presidents were re-elected; Mr. Dennis H. B. Millward, Wrexham area secretary; Mrs. Lewis S. Griffiths, Llandudno and Rhyl area secretary; area instructors—Wrexham, Mr. F. R. Evans; Llandudno and Rhyl, Mr. L. S. Griffiths.

Mr. Dennis H. B. Millward (C.C. representative) gave a summary report of the C.C. meeting at Southport and informed members that a full report was printed in 'The Ringing World.'

Before the meeting concluded, the ladies were asked to come in, and Mr. Albert J. Hughes, of Bangor, proposed a hearty vote of thanks to them for the splendid way they had attended to the company's needs; to St. Matthew's Church company for providing tea, to the Vicar for the service, and to all who had helped in any way to make the meeting such an outstanding success.

The peal book was on show, and the work of bringing the entries up-to-date is being beautifully and skilfully done by Dr. Woodcock, a Hope lady ringer.

Towers represented were Bangor, Llandudno, Rhyl, Wrexham, Hope, Buckley, Gresford, Chester, Dodleston, with visitors from Hodnet, Bebbington and Liverpool, and a lady from Southampton.

Members were delighted to have with them Mr. Albert J. Hughes, of Bangor, who has been poorly for a number of years.

SPALDING RINGERS VISIT ST. ALBANS

The programme said 'Spalding Corn Exchange, 6.30 a.m. depart.' Well, we were only three minutes late in leaving through waiting for the organiser. Sorry, Jack! And with the coach driver—our regular, of course—in good form, we were off to a good start and in fact arrived at our first tower, Stevenage, with ten minutes to spare, so we enjoyed these bells for longer than we had expected.

Off in good time and on to St. Albans, where we enjoyed ringing in three towers—St. Peter's, the Abbey and St. Michael's, with an excellent lunch timed between the last two. A pleasant hour was spent at Hatfield, and then on to Hertford—first at St. Andrew's, more refreshment, and finally to All Saints'. Journeying on again to Hoddesdon completed our ringing activities.

Back towards home and the usual stop at Huntingdon for supper and liquid refreshment. Still an hour or so to home, and so the handbells were made good use of. The Corn Exchange was reached just before midnight, and goodbyes were sounding in all directions, along with many thanks to Jack for a very well-organised day.

STRIKING CONTEST IN NORTH HAMPSHIRE

In order to give an incentive to towers in the Andover and Basingstoke Districts of the Winchester and Portsmouth Guild to improve their striking, a handsome cup has been presented by Mr. A. W. Alliston, of the Andover District. The first competition for it took place at Overton, Hants, on May 30th, the judge being Mr. C. H. Kippin.

Teams from Andover, Basingstoke, Highclere and Overton took part, being required to ring 240 Grandsire Doubles. For most of the competitors this was a new experience. Overton bells are not the easiest to strike well, and this, coupled with competition nerves and the keen ear of the judge, gave large totals of faults in the score! This was, Overton 124, Andover 160, Highclere 178, Basingstoke (St. Michael's) 186.

The result was announced before the tea, which was provided by the local band and served by wives and friends. Mr. Kippin spared the feelings of individual ringers by maintaining a firm silence on their performance.

The cup was presented to Mr. P. Holmes, deputising as captain of the Overton band for Mr. B. Garrett, who was prevented by illness from ringing. Mrs. Sanders, wife of the local Rector, was asked to present the cup. Since her husband and daughter were members of the team the whole proceedings had a suggestion of being a family affair.

Suitable speeches were made, thanking Mr. Alliston for presenting the cup and Mr. Kippin for judging the contest.

SOUTHWELL DIOCESAN GUILD

Most of the party, consisting of about 22 ringers from the Nottingham District and their friends, piled into the chartered bus at St. Peter's Gate, Nottingham, on May 30th at 8.15 a.m., and the rest of the party were collected on the way to our first tower of the day at Earl Shilton in Leicestershire. We found the delightful eight bells here already raised, and a very enjoyable half-hour was spent in short touches of standard methods before going over the border into Warwickshire.

Chilvers Coton, Nuneaton, was the next tower, where Mrs. Beamish welcomed us, and here not only the ten bells but the church itself claimed our attention. It was heavily damaged during the war and is being beautifully rebuilt and restored.

After all-too-short a stay at Chilvers Coton, we returned to Nuneaton, where we enjoyed an excellent lunch at the Newdigate Arms Hotel. The six with a 12 cwt. tenor at Wolvey was then visited.

A pleasant run through the lanes brought us to Newbold-on-Avon, where about an hour was spent in many different touches before going on to the ancient town of Lutterworth, with its associations with Wyclif, the translator of the Bible, who later suffered martyrdom in this town. Here we enjoyed a grand tea at the Central Café before raising the heavy eight at the parish church. Some good striking was achieved here before proceeding to the last tower of the day at Claybrooke St. Peter. This ring was thought by some to be the best of the day and was much enjoyed before the bells were run down at 7.50 p.m.

The ringing during the day was under the care of Mr. A. S. Colton, and all tastes and ringing abilities were catered for. Thanks are due to Mr. S. Adams who made all the arrangements.

WORTLEY, YORKS.—On May 30th, 1.296 Oxford Treble Bob Minor: T. Tarbutt 1, H. Rusby 2, F. Cowling 3, D. N. Stables 4, N. F. Moxon (cond.) 5, H. Mann 6. To mark the 50th year of the Barasley and District Society.

RINGERS' OUTINGS

REDDISH RINGERS AT LOUGHBOROUGH

Reddish ringers, with friends from Gorton and Marple, visited the Loughborough Foundry for their outing on Friday, May 22nd. Mr. J. P. Fidler was an entertaining guide. The unusual lightness of the bells attracted the younger ringers, but the visitors felt they did not do justice to them.

On the way to Loughborough there were stops for ringing at Leek (10) and Ashbourne (8). The best bells of the day were encountered at Duffield (10), where the Surprise ringers showed their prowess. Oxford T.B. went well at Matlock (8), and Darley Dale's 8 proved a nice ring of bells. Here Spliced Minor ringers showed how easy it is, and even Grandsire Doubles ringers had an enjoyable time.

CHISELDON, WILTS

For the second successive year, Chiseldon (Wilts) ringers chose South West Wiltshire for their Whit Monday outing, when eight members travelling in two cars visited seven towers.

Two ground floor rings came first—Dinton and Chilmark. After lunch, local ringers and a friend from Somerset joined in the pleasant ringing at Hindon. A steep, 'slippery ladder' had to be negotiated at East Knoyle, having an excellent anti-clockwise ring. Donhead St. Mary's bells were approached by an unusual wooden spiral. Coombe Bissett and Broadchalke concluded the programme. Methods rung were Grandsire, Plain Bob and All Saints' Doubles, and Plain Bob Minor. Thanks are specially accorded the two drivers, George and Tony.

A DAY IN EAST HANTS

A party of ringers and friends from Guildford, St. Albans and Ashted had an enjoyable day in East Hampshire on May 23rd. They rang at St. Peter's, Farnborough, and on the anti-clockwise six at Crondall—in this village the Morris dancers offered the company cake 'baked in the Devil's kitchen,' to keep all cares and worries away.

Thus a care-free party rang on the little-used six at Froye, and at Old Alesford joined the Winchester and Portsmouth Guild's practice meeting, with a course of Cambridge. Bishop's Sutton (5), Ropley (5), Tidbourne (6), Blackmoor and Bramshott were visited before having a short ring at the Guildford Diocesan Guild's practice meeting at Bentley.

ST. MARY'S, READING

The Cotswold country was visited by St. Mary's, Reading, band for their annual outing on May 30th. Before reaching Cheltenham there was ringing at Stratton St. Margaret, near Swindon, and Coln St. Aldwyn. An excellent lunch preceded ringing at St. Mary's, Cheltenham, where Cambridge Maximus and several good courses of Stedman Cinques were brought round. Mr. Dyer met the party, and others there were Mr. and Mrs. David Beacham, David Marshall, Ivor Goulter and Peter Warren.

At the late John Thomas' tower, Hinton-on-the-Green, the band had time to admire a beautifully-inscribed Bible given in his memory. It was nice to see flowers in the belfry, and at Cheltenham, too. A course of Glasgow was rung on this well-kept ring of eight.

The route to the last tower, Hook Norton, was past an ancient monument known as Rollick Stones, near Great Rollright. Like a miniature Stonehenge, the stones form a large circle and are of Bronze Age origin, circa 1500 B.C. Pagan rites were observed with a course of Grandsire Triples on Jenny Davies' 'door bells' in the centre of the ring before an audience of sightseers. At Hook Norton ringing concluded with a touch of eight-spliced. R. K. R.

LITTLE MISSENDEN, BUCKS

On Whit Monday a party of ringers and friends from Little Missenden and neighbouring towers had their annual outing to the Cotswolds.

The towers visited—all rings of six—were Charlbury, Bledington, Great Rissington—a heavy-going anti-clockwise ring, Bibury, Lechlade—the best ring of the day, where a course of Norwich Surprise was rung, Stamford-in-the-Vale (here, despite local predictions, Bob Minor was achieved), and East Hendred, a tower to be remembered for some time, with its 22 cwt. tenor, and long draught with no guides. The standard of ringing gradually improved, and in the coach the handbell enthusiasts found ample opportunity to test their ability.

Thanks are due to the indefatigable organisers, and to all incumbents and tower captains.

ROTHERHAM RINGERS VISIT LONDON

For their annual outing this year Rotherham ringers came by train to London on May 23rd. At St. Clement Danes', touches of Grandsire Caters, Little Bob Royal, Double Norwich and Plain Bob Major were rung, and the bells were lowered in peal just in time for the 'oranges and lemons' chimes to be heard at noon.

After an enjoyable lunch, arranged by Mr. A. A. Hughes, the party spent an enjoyable hour with the bells of St. Lawrence Jewry, which seemed to bring the best out of the ringers. Good use was also made of the little eight at St. Olave's, Hart Street. An hour-and-a-half was available for sight-seeing before boarding the appointed train for home. Thanks are accorded to all who made this happy visit possible.

HILLINGDON

St. John's, Hillingdon, Society for their annual outing on May 30th went into Essex. A start was made at 7.30 a.m. for Barkway, where the eight bells were enjoyed. On the fine 12 at Saffron Walden the ringing consisted of rounds for beginners, and touches of Treble Bob Maximus and Stedman Cinques. Visits were also paid to Thaxted and Dunmow, and on the latter bells a touch of Spliced Surprise Major in five methods was achieved. Good striking was maintained throughout the day, and all the touches rung came round. Hillingdon was reached at 10.30 p.m. after a very enjoyable day. T. G. B.

STRATTON, DEVON

Stratton ringers had their share of travel adventures on the narrow roads of Cornwall on Whit Monday. At St. Mawgan's, St. Mawgan-in-Menceage, the first tower visited, a 335-degree corner had to be negotiated.

The worst experience was after Penzance. A quarter of an hour was spent without luck in trying to negotiate a corner, with two other cars waiting. We were then directed into a field and told we could join the road through a gate at the other end. Alas, there was a steel spike sticking out of the stone gatepost which stopped progress. Up the steep slope of the field we went again with the back wheels spinning on the grass. Reversing out, we tackled the corner again. After nearly having to lift the back end of the coach round we succeeded with only a few scratches to the paintwork. Great praise is due to Sid Marden, the driver.

As to the towers visited, there was St. Mawgan's, Truro Cathedral, Penzance, Gulval, Meldon, Phillack and Bodmin. Methods were kept as simple as possible. Thanks are due to Henry Trewin, the organiser, and Sid Marden, the driver. A. A. J. B.

BALDOCK, HERTS

A coachload of ringers and friends set off for Surrey on May 30th. Having passed Wembley Stadium and Hampton Court we arrived at Chertsey, where one of the bells, was the subject for 'Curfew shall not ring tonight.' The admonition is hardly necessary inside the church, though the bells are audible outside.

At Old Woking, the octave is quite noisy in contrast to the previous ring. On to Guildford for lunch, and ringing at the (old) Cathedral and St. Nicolas'.

A true ringers' tea was provided at the Prince of Wales, Leatherhead, then there was more Caters and Royal ringing at SS. Mary and Nicholas'. For the first time that day, we kept to time and enjoyed the octave at Ashted. Some Dutch visitors were most interested in the ringing, and asked many questions.

An additional pleasure was that of meeting and ringing with old friends. The enjoyable outing was marred only by anxiety about one member who was unwell. J. S.

BANSTEAD, SURREY.—On May 31st, 1,260 Grandsire Triples: Ann Buchan (first quarter) 1. H. N. Pistow (cond.) 2. G. R. Smerdon 3. A. F. Spooner 4. N. Hobden 5. T. Norman 6. A. E. Cheesman 7. M. F. Layton 8. A 70th birthday compliment to T. Norman.

OBITUARY

MR. ALFRED BARRATT

We regret to record the death of Mr. J. Alfred Barratt, of Daybrook, Notts, on May 21st, after a long and painful illness, at the age of 72 years.

The funeral service took place at St. Paul's, Daybrook, on May 25th, previous to interment at Redhill Cemetery. The bells of St. Paul's were rung before and after the service. There were many ringers present, and the many floral tributes included wreaths from St. Peter's, Nottingham, and St. Paul's, Daybrook, bands.

Alf was a safe ringer and a good striker. He had rung a good number of peals and conducted quite a number of them, mostly Grandsire and Stedman, Triples and Caters. A lovable character, he will be remembered for his genial company and willingness to stand in to help the younger members. F. A. S.

MR. WALTER A. GAMMAGE

The sudden death of Mr. Walter A. Gammage on June 2nd came as a great shock to the many friends who knew and loved him.

The last function that he attended on May 30th was that of the 75th anniversary of the ring of eight bells at the Church of St. Edmund, Northampton, where he was a ringer for over 50 years, and held the position of secretary and tower-keeper for a good many years.

A very young 72 years, he was able to mix with young and old alike, not feeling out of place, and kept pace with the younger generation. He always had an amusing story to tell, and his advice on matters of importance, when required, was always at hand.

W. A. G. had held various offices in the Northampton Branch of the Peterborough Guild since its formation, and his loyalty, service and personality will be very much missed.

His work for St. Edmund's Church, where he was a member of the P.C.C. and sidesman, was outstanding, and his outside activities numerous. He was indeed a gentleman who was held in respect by all.

The funeral service took place at St. Edmund's on June 5th, where a large congregation was present to pay its last respects. Cremation followed at Milton. Northants.

Following the service, short touches of Grandsire Triples on the half-muffled bells of St. Edmund's Church were rung by members of the Peterborough Guild, and in the evening a quarter peal was rung in tribute. G. F. R.

MR. H. NEWNHAM

A former captain of Alresford ringers, who had been a bell-ringer for close on 60 years, Mr. Harry Newnham died last month, aged 85. Born at Leatherhead, he was stationmaster at Alresford, retiring 25 years ago. Closely connected with the church, he had held appointments as churchwarden and secretary of the Parochial Church Council.

To his memory, 1,260 Grandsire Doubles (with three cover bells) was rung half-muffled on May 31st by Miss K. Tremmer 1, H. Shaw 2, C. Dando 3, J. E. L. Cockey 4, L. A. Tremmer (conductor) 5, P. Shipwith 6, G. Allen 7, W. Smith 8.

Ladies' Guild At Feltham

For most of the members attending the Central District meeting at Feltham on May 30th it was their first experience of this light musical ring of ten. About 24 members and friends had tea, but numbers were increased in the evening. A course of Grandsire Caters was rung by members, and other methods up to Cambridge Surprise Royal by those present. An interesting report on the Guild's annual meeting at Southport was given.

KENT COUNTY ASSOCIATION

The ancient brick tower of Warehorne is well known to the peal ringers of the Ashford District, but it is 12 years since the Association last held a meeting at this tiny, secluded village on the edge of Romney Marsh.

The new Rector-designate (Rev. J. E. V. Davies) welcomed the ringers, and at the service he read the poem 'To Ringers' from G. K. Chesterton's 'Hymns to the Five Guilds'. An excellent tea was served by Mrs. R. Spicer.

Eleven towers were represented at the meeting. Visitors included Mr. Leonard Stilwell, from Worthing, Mr. G. Huckstep, from Crayford, and Mr. T. Cullingworth, who called the first peal on the bells and who has not missed a District meeting since the war. Ringing reached Cambridge Surprise Minor.

SOUTHWELL DIOCESAN GUILD

About 40 ringers from 12 towers attended the Mansfield District meeting at Warsop on May 23rd. The Rector (Rev. J. G. P. Hapgood) conducted a short service and presided at a brief business meeting as the District chairman, Mr. S. W. Fossey, sent an apology for absence owing to shift work.

Hopes are being entertained of a joint meeting with the East Derbyshire and Notts Association and the Chesterfield District of the Derbyshire Association on July 25th at Clay Cross, with Eastwood as an alternative tower. The Bell Fund collection amounted to 15s. Mr. D. H. Rooke was elected the local correspondent for 'The Ringing World'. The customary votes of thanks included a special one to the ladies for providing tea. D. H. R.
