JOSEPH HATCH, BELLFOUNDER

By NICHOLAS DAVIES

JOSEPH HATCH was the son of Thomas Hatch, of Ulcombe, near Maidstone, who cast several bells in Kent at the end of the 16th century. It is probable that Joseph served his apprenticeship to Thomas at an early age for, when his father died in 1601, leaving him in charge of the foundry, he was still a young man. During the 37 years of his working career, however, his business can fairly be described as enormous; in spite of hot opposition from two other local bell foundries, not to mention the Metropolitan and itinerant founders, he must have almost enjoyed a monopoly over his rivals. Thus, of the 210 towers in Kent that at present contain five or more bells, records show that at least 58 have contained specimens of Joseph's work, of which 36 are still represented (i.e., about one-sixth). The fraction would be even greater if one excluded 'modern' rings of bells in churches erected after Joseph's time. Two hundred and five of Joseph's bells have been brought to light through records (doubtless there were originally many more), of which 128 are still giving service; a handful of his bells may also be found in East Sussex.

A diary of the most important events of his working career presents an interesting reflection on this successful business man of yester-year.

Joseph's earliest casting is, without doubt, the third of the four at Waltham, dated 1602, on which he uses his father's trade stamp. Two bells at nearby Egerton, also cast in 1602, are obviously later examples, since they bear Joseph's own circular three-bell medallion.

In 1605 he cast a ring of five for Chartham, all of which remain, and these are five majestic bells that would do credit to any founder. They now form a ring of six (tenor 13½ cwt. in E), a treble having been added in 1728. The same year he may have cast five for Willesborough (tenor 12 cwt.), but the tenors were recast 20 years later.

In 1606/7 the five heavy bells at Cranbrook were recast (tenor probably about 28 cwt.), but none of these remain, having been superseded by a lighter ring of eight. Joseph was obviously far in advance of his time in his business dealings here: the churchwardens were given a period of seven years to settle the debt—a kind of primitive hire-purchase agreement! Also during this year he was commissioned to recast a bell at Canterbury Cathedral, and it may well be that while engaged on this job he met his wife-to-be, for on December 20th, 1607, he married Jane Prowde, of Canterbury, at St. Paul's Church there.

In 1607/8 he cast rings of five at Lydd (tenor 13 cwt.) and, probably, Woodchurch (tenor 15 cwt.); two of the latter remain, but none of the former. Five bells were cast for High Halden in 1609/11, but the tenor was recast in 1620. Three of these bells still ring out from this wooden steeple. 1610 also saw him further afield at Brenchley, where five bells (tenor 18 cwt.) probably materialised. Three of these were still intact until 1925.

In 1612 five mediæval bells at Mersham were recast, and the new bells remain as the back five of the present octave (tenor 13 cwt.).*

1620 saw him casting his only ring of six, when the heavy mediæval five at Ashford were recast into six (tenor 23 cwt.); two of these bells still give service. Two years later, in 1622, five bells (tenor 10¼ cwt.) were cast for Sturry, three of which remain.

Two rings of four were supplied by him in 1624, to Wouldham (tenor 9½ cwt.) and Boughton Malherbie (tenor 10 cwt.). In both cases three bells remain. Also during this year, Joseph made what was probably his largest casting when he recast the fourth bell of the Arundel ring at Canterbury Cathedral, which weighed about 33 cwt. We can imagine the pride that was in his heart to be honoured with a recasting for such a renowned edifice when we see that he went to the trouble to reproduce the inscription of the old bell, which was dated 1408. In the following year five bells (tenor 16 cwt.) were cast for Sandwich, which, tradition asserts, were hung for many years in the Oxford (S.W.) steeple at Canterbury Cathedral. There may be some truth in this as the present tower at Sandwich is of a much later date than Joseph's bells, but all had been recast by 1779.

The authorities at Sevington had four bells (tenor 9 cwt.) made in 1630, and, apart from the treble, which was recast in 1885, these still render service. In 1631 he returns, probably with some nostalgia, to Waltham, where his first casting is hung (see above), and recasts the other three bells. Perhaps, for the sake of tradition, he deliberately tunes the new bells to sound like the old, for the notes are Nos. 2-5 of an octave.

In 1632 the bells at his local tower, Ulcombe, required attention, and five bells (tenor 14 cwt.) may well have been supplied once again, but only three remain in testimony. At about this time his nephew, William, is taken into apprenticeship, and some of his subsequent bells bear the initials 'W.H.' as well as Joseph's name.

His last complete works materialised in 1635, when rings of four were cast for Fordwich (tenor 8 cwt.) and Reculver (tenor 14 cwt.). All the bells at the former church are still in existence, but at Reculver the church was pulled down c. 1805, when two of the bells were preserved for use in local churches, whilst the others were destroyed.

* These bells were recast on the spot, outside the church.

CENTRAL COUNCIL OF CHURCH BELL RINGERS

Great Yarmouth Meeting

RINGING TOURS

WHIT SUNDAY, JUNE 2nd, 1963:

Depart Great Yarmouth 1.45 p.m. Ringing at Beccles (10), Redenhall (8), Diss (8) and Pulham Market (8). Arrive back at headquarters at approximately 9.30 p.m.

Cost per person 12s. 6d., which includes tea at an hotel.

WHIT MONDAY, JUNE 3rd, 1963:

Depart Great Yarmouth 9.15 a.m., through Broadland country to ringing at Aylsham (10) and Marsham (8). Hot lunch, followed by ringing at Wroxham (6), the gateway of the Broads. Then a 2½ hour cruiser trip through some of the loveliest Broads, with light tea served on board, landing at Ranworth (6), the Church of the Broads. The party will be met here by the coach, calling at Acle (6) on the return to Great Yarmouth.

Cost per person, including lunch and tea, 21s.

Please send names and remittances for either or both of these tours to Mr. H. W. Barrett, 'Fernhill,' Loddon, Norwich, NOR. 21W, AS SOON AS POSSIBLE, so that options on transport, etc., can be confirmed.

PEAL ATTEMPTS

Members wishing to have peal attempts arranged for them are asked to notify Mr. Barrett, at the above address, as soon as possible. Peals of Minor and upwards will be arranged if required.

E. A. BARNETT,
Honorary Secretary.

By this time Joseph was obviously an elderly man, and must have made more than enough to provide for himself in his retirement, for he also owned much land in many parts of Kent, and he may well have left the management of the foundry to his nephew since no more major recastings are recorded.

In 1635-36, however, the authorities at Canterbury Cathedral decided to have the great 64 cwt. tenor of the Arundel ring recast into two new trebles to make a ring of six, and Joseph was called in once again to supervise the recasting. Doubtless the Dean and Chapter were more than satisfied with Joseph's previous recastings for them, for they also gave him the job of rechanging the augmented ring in a new frame, which he entrusted to his own hanger, one Thomas Crust.

Joseph's last bell is apparently the treble of the ring of three at Stourmouth, dated 1638, but a bell at Herne, recast in 1781, also bore this date. His nephew William's first casting is the singleton at Trottscliffe, dated 1639, and this may well have been cast when Joseph was still alive.

Joseph died, childless and wealthy, in September, 1639, being buried in the little church at Broomfield (the adjoining village to Ulcombe, where Joseph owned much land) next to the tomb of his mother and brothers. In his will he bequeathed the foundry to William, who kept it going until 1664, while the remainder of his considerable estate was shared in the main amongst his wife, brothers and other relations.

Appreciation

Mr. Tom Roach, of Norman Park, Brisbane, Queensland, writing to a friend, says:

'I have just received my "R.W.s." They come two at a time, and I get enormous pleasure from them. They are so English. It is the cleanest and most instructive magazine that I have ever read, and to read of ringers having tours all around, the lovely people they meet, the wonderful co-operation of wives and sisters makes me wish I could be with them.

'When you next enter your tower have a thought for an old Londoner who loves bells.'

HERTS COUNTY ASSOCIATION

The meeting of the St. Albans District at St. Stephen's, St. Albans, produced some good ringing, including most of the usual Surprise Minor methods. The service was taken by the Vicar, the Rev. Hart-Synnot, and an excellent tea, served by Miss Christine Rimmer and her helpers, was unfortunately not fully eaten as Chris had kind-heartedly catered for the nameless ones who did not materialise. Mr. Penny, in proposing the votes of thanks, said, 'Never before have so few eaten so much.'

In the absence of Mr. W. Ayre, Mr. H. V. Frost, the Association's president, gave a short talk on the history of St. Stephen's bells. Mr. G. Auton told how he had led the drive to have the old bells restored and then played a recording of them, which was almost drowned by the creaks and groans of the wooden frame.

Mr. J. Cull thanked the speakers, and ringing was then resumed on the new and safe bells. J. O. C.

DERBYSHIRE ASSOCIATION

Seventy ringers sat down to tea at Ilkeston on February 23rd, when the Ilkeston and Derby Districts held a joint meeting with the Society of Sherwood Youths. The meal had been prepared by Ilkeston ringers and ladies, and the Vicar, the Rev. A. G. Robertson, in his welcome, said it was the first bellringing meeting he had attended.

Mr. D. Carlisle, chairman of the Ilkeston District, presided over the meeting; the Sherwood Youths held a short business meeting after which they departed to the tower.

The Ilkeston and Derby Districts began their meeting with a short talk on bell control by Mr. G. A. Halls, which was afterwards open for discussion; this proved to be a success. It is the intention of the Ilkeston District to have these talks at the monthly meeting.

Since the collapse of the Ilkeston District ten years ago it has been under the management of the Derby District officers and all the meetings have been jointly with their District; now that the District has been reformed and has its own officers, it was decided to hold the meetings separately from the Derby District for a trial period of six months.

Hearnor ringers have published a monthly newspaper called 'The Belfry News,' copies of which were sold at the meeting. It is hoped it will be circulated to all Districts of the Association in the near future.

Ringing continued until 8 p.m.

WORTHING, SUSSEX.—At St. Botolph's, Here. on Feb. 20th, 1,280 Double Norwich Court Bell Major: D. W. Weaver 1, R. Wake 2, A. W. Bond 3, H. C. Weaver 4, B. J. Stone 5, B. G. North 6, L. Stilwell 7, R. P. Wood (cond.) 8. First in the method for 1, 5, 6. Rung as a 73rd birthday compliment to Mr. Leonard Stilwell.

APPLETON FOURTH OF MARCH FESTIVAL

THE 145th anniversary of the opening of the original ring of bells at Appleton was held on March 2nd, and on this happy occasion a larger number of ringers than ever before were present to eat, drink and enjoy themselves.

In the morning the traditional peal of Grandsire Caters was attempted, but unfortunately 'fired out' after 45 minutes. An inquest was held in the evening.

At 6.30 p.m., everybody having gathered in the Village Hall, the real business of the day began, and over 100 ringers sat down to an excellent supper and to listen to the speeches.

Richard Blackwell, proposing the toast to the Church, paid tribute to the Rector, the Rev. Dr. A. Tindall-Hart, for his unflinching help and support of the ringers. Canon C. E. Wigg, Master of the Guild, welcomed the union of Methodists and Anglicans, and said the addition of Methodist ringers would be most welcome.

Mr. Frederick Sharpe, president of the Central Council, making his 39th appearance at the festival, gave the history of the Appleton bells and spoke glowingly of past and present Appleton ringers. He pointed out that the Appleton Society was unique in that no minute book or other such time-wasting devices existed and yet their traditions were stronger than ever. Appleton still held the Grandsire and Stedman Caters record lengths, and in Frank White they had a wonderful craftsman.

Frank White replied, and said he'd rather make a bell frame than a speech. He thanked the Appleton ringers for their attendance on Sundays and practice nights, particularly the over 70's. The company then stood in silence in memory of Frederick White, who passed away last year, a very great loss to Appleton.

The Rector welcomed the visitors, one of whom came from New Zealand, and the toast was replied to by John Camp, honorary secretary of the Oxford University Society.

After supper came the handbells, and tunes by the Appleton ringers, and what is always the top of the hit parade, a 'lapped' course of Grandsire Caters: four Whites and Fred Sharpe, solemnly sitting with knees together, passing handbells to each other with faultless rhythm. And then the old songs. The first in praise of Appleton bells and ringers, written by the village schoolmaster 145 years ago and sung by Fred Sharpe, 'The Farmer's Boy' by Bill Hibbert. 'There's a hole in my bucket' by Sir Basil Blackwell, 'Old butter and cheese,' which sadly reminded us of Fred White, who used to sing it. 'The ten thousand' and all the rest: ringers' songs with a chorus and harmony, if you can manage it.

A very enjoyable and memorable evening, and so to bed with another Appleton festival over until next year. J. R. C.

50 YEARS AGO

'R.W.' March 14th, 1913.—

In mediæval and, indeed, in much later times singular criminals have fallen under the ban of the law. Not only animals but even inanimate objects such as bells have been brought to trial and sentenced to most grotesque punishments.

Bells, for having been tolled at inopportune times, have on more than one occasion suffered, and Rouvel, the famous Rouen bell, was sentenced to many years' silence by Charles VI. The bell of Uglitch, which at the time of the assassination of Demetrius, in 1591, knelled the alarm, was, with all the other actors in that gruesome episode, brought to trial, when it was sentenced to be mutilated, knouted, and sent into perpetual exile. Over 250 years later, in 1847, it was pardoned. Reconsecrated at Irkutsk, in Siberia, by the Bishop, it was, amid general rejoicing, bedecked with flowers.

NOTTS CHURCH GUTTED

The Parish Church of St. Mary, Eastwood, Notts, was tragically gutted by fire on the night of March 5th.

Fire engines from five neighbouring towns responded promptly to fight the blaze, and, with the main part of the church and roof well alight, the firemen worked hard to save the tower. Flames, having consumed the belfry floor, were licking round the clock face, where the fire was brought under control, just before reaching the bell chamber.

There being no resident ringers of late, the bells were used occasionally by the young team from Heanor, Derbyshire, who always conscientiously serviced them before ringing. A peal had also been rung there recently by the Derbyshire Association.

The bells, although in need of attention, did not go too badly, and were undoubtedly the most musical eight in the District. Having been snatched from destruction, it is to be hoped that before very long Eastwood will be hearing them again from a restored St. Mary's. D. J. B.

ENDING THE INCARCERATION

Four car-loads of ringers from four towers in Bath and North Somerset, armed with thermos flasks and shovels, ended the enforced incarceration since Christmas by an outing into Wiltshire on February 9th.

Ringing started on the beautiful ground-floor six at Heddington, followed by Yatesbury, with its cracked third which did not sound at backstroke and gave the ringing a peculiar cha cha beat. Here we were joined by our fifth car, bearing friends from Bristol.

The best ring of the day was thought to be at Broad Hinton, where the church overflowed with flowers brought down from Covent Garden for a recent wedding.

We would prefer to draw a veil over our ringing at Wootton Bassett, except to say that we did manage some respectable Grandsire Triples. However, we seemed to excel ourselves on the easy going, well-tuned six at Lyneham. The last tower, Hilmanton, was reached dead on time. Apart from its lovely altar and chancel, this 15th century church has a beautiful oil-fired boiler and equally beautiful radiators! The 15 cwt. six here are due to be rehung. A fresh young band is starting; we wish it luck.

Much appreciated were the hot pasties and liquid refreshments on the homeward journey. We made new friends at every tower visited, and to them and the incumbents we extend our thanks. M. H.

UNIVERSITY OF WALES SOCIETY

For the 1963 Rag Week tour the University of Wales Society chose the coldest, snowiest week-end in February. We started on Friday, February 15th, with great expectations after a slight thaw the day before, but by dinner time it was snowing hard again. The road to Ebbw Vale tried the nerve of our most stout-hearted drivers, but it was worth it to ring on these beautiful bells.

After travelling the same road back to Abergavenny, in well nigh blizzard conditions, it was decided to forgo a peal attempt at Llanfeigan. A lot of snow can fall in three hours, and nobody relished the idea of digging the cars out after a peal! So we contented ourselves with an hour's ringing on the fine 10 at Abergavenny.

The next day it was decided, with regret, to cancel the first two towers, which were up in the mountains, and to concentrate on the area round Newport. The Aberystwyth contingent arrived rather late at Llanfrechfa, due to the treacherous road conditions, and found that the Swansea contingent had been telephoning the R.A.C. for news of them. A short ring was enjoyed on the highest eight in Wales and afterwards we were entertained to refreshments, laid on by the local ringers, in the beautifully warm Parish Hall. We were very grateful indeed for their kindness.

A short meeting was held here. Colin Lewis, of Aberystwyth, was re-elected Ringing Master for the session 1963-64, and Christopher Bainham, of Lampeter, was elected secretary. It was noticed with regret that there were no members from Cardiff present.

Then on to Caerleon, where another party joined us, having come from Lampeter and Aberystwyth that morning. These bells are again a light eight and have a sweet tone. By now we had managed to catch up with ourselves and arrived at All Saints', Newport, on time, that is all except one car which took a minor road out of Caerleon and got stuck in a snowdrift! All Saints', Newport, bells are a good eight and Stedman went well here. The bells at St. Woolos' Cathedral are the only ring of 12 in Wales. Here the Society rang its first touches on 12, Grandsire and Plain Bob, and we were pleased with the attempts.

The roads were quite clear by this time and we were not delayed on the way to Usk. Here we found that the local ringers are repairing the belfry themselves and we had an enjoyable ring on the good eight, surrounded by ladders and cement. We shall have to go back and see the finished result next year! The last official tower was Llanover, near Abergavenny. It was dark by then and it took us some time to find the church, which looked very pretty in the snow. We also needed Wellington boots to get to the church: several people got wet feet. The bells are a nice little five and went well to a variety of Doubles methods. Here the tour proper ended and we said, 'Goodbye, until the summer,' but one party managed to ring at Llangatock and Glasbury on the Sunday morning, before their trek over the mountains home.

Perhaps the weather will be kinder to us next year, or perhaps the University will move Rag Week to the summer, but whatever happens we will always remember Rag Week, 1963.

Leeds Society replies to Mr. Dove

Dear Sir,—Having read Mr. Dove's article on page 109, and Mr. Hodgson's remarks on page 141, I feel that it is my duty, as secretary of the Leeds and District Society, to point out to Mr. Dove that our Society holds no such 'stupid rule' as stated by him.

Our Society's rule is: 'That the Society shall meet for ringing on the last Saturday in each month, except December, at any tower within a ten mile radius of Leeds, or at one having four or more members.'

Mr. Dove ought to have been aware of the above rule, as the Society's rules were amended on April 26th, 1958, at Leeds Parish Church, the home tower of Mr. Dove.

May I also point out that the ringers of Meanwood are welcome to ring with and join our Society, and the next meeting will be held on March 30th, 1963, at Rothwell; and the April meeting will be held at St. Chad's, Headingley, on April 26th, on the approval of the church authorities.—Yours truly,

ANGELA M. SKIDMORE.

Batley, Yorks.

Dear Sir,—The 'stupid rule' referred to by Mr. R. H. Dove, in his article about Meanwood bells (page 109), is incorrect. The rule states that the Leeds and District Society will visit any tower within a ten mile radius of Leeds and any other tower with four or more affiliated members. It is thus apparent that no rule prevents the Society from visiting Meanwood.

If the Leeds and District Society were to hold a meeting at Meanwood, it would, I think, receive little support from the majority of the members, who only attend the meetings held at ten bell towers or the more popular 'eights', providing, of course, they are not ringing a peal on the same day.

The ideal way of visiting Meanwood would be for the Yorkshire Association to hold a meeting at Leeds Parish Church, with Meanwood as an additional tower, say during the afternoon.

However, the Yorkshire Association have already been refused permission once to hold a meeting at Leeds and the Society, which was formed by previous ringers of Leeds with the Parish Church as its headquarters, has been virtually banned from the tower.

One begins to wonder who is Vicar of Leeds—Canon Fenton Morley or Mr. R. H. Dove!—Yours faithfully,

IAN NORTH,
Ringing Master,
Leeds and District Society.

The late Sam Hector

Dear Sir,—Thank you for your leading article about my old friend, the late Sam Hector. For five years I was an assistant to a firm of auctioneers and surveyors in Trowbridge, with offices next door to the White Swan Inn, where Sam was the ever-genial host.

Before going to Trowbridge, as an architectural student in London I had done a fair amount of ringing at St. Giles-in-the-Fields and St. Clement's Danes. It was Sam, however, who really taught me what method ringing I have managed to acquire.

Though it is now forty years ago, I shall never forget the delightful evenings spent in Sam's company. A party of us would bundle into Sam's car, and he would take us out to towers in the neighbourhood—and what glorious churches and melodious bells there are in that part of Wiltshire. Steeple Ashton, Edington, Bratton, Westbury, North Bradley and many others we used to visit. Sam was always the life and soul of the party, a giant in stature, with the warmth and affection of a child.

Looking back to those days, I think my years at Trowbridge were among the happiest in my life, but the most vivid memories that I carried away with me were those evenings spent ringing with Sam. He was a grand fellow, a splendid ringer and an example for others to follow.—Yours faithfully,

GEORGE E. HUBBARD (Rev.)
Melton Malsor Rectory.

Coventry Cathedral Rally

Dear Sir,—I am extremely sorry that the Coventry Cathedral Rally clashes with other meetings of Guilds and Associations, particularly as it affects our near neighbours—Leicester Diocesan Guild, Derbyshire Association and the Gloucester and Bristol Association. I am sure Mr. Rouse will appreciate that it is literally impossible to arrange any meeting so that it would be clear of all other Guild meetings.

Owing to the pressure of visitors to the Cathedral, particularly at the week-end, we have had to accept the date given to us by the Cathedral authorities. May I also point out that the invitation to this rally does apply to individuals as well as Guilds and Associations. The response so far has been very gratifying and tickets will be sent out as soon as possible to those who apply.

Finally, arrangements for ringing facilities will be published later.—Yours sincerely,

J. L. GARNER-HAYWARD.

5, Burges, Coventry.

Congratulations to Sapcote

Dear Sir,—It is good to read in your columns of peals that have been rung by Sunday service ringers in their own towers, and when such a band rings a peal of 24 Spliced Surprise Minor, the ringers can feel justly proud of their achievement.

JOHN FAIRCLOTH.

West Wickham, Kent.

Kirkby-in-Ashfield Quarters

Dear Sir,—In a recent issue of 'The Ringing World' I read about the accomplishments of the South Wigston band. It may be of interest to the Exercise to know that at St. Wilfrid's, Kirkby-in-Ashfield, Nottingham, 25 quarter peals were rung during 1962. Nine of the band took part, and the conducting was shared between M. J. Kirk (11), J. A. Harrison (9) and E. A. Harrison (6). The majority of the band are under 19 years of age. Methods ranged from 1 to 14 methods.—Yours sincerely,

MARTIN J. KIRK.

Kirkby.

Design of Stays

Dear Sir,—I must agree with Mr. Hall's that, in principle, a spring loaded trip on a stay is an attractive idea. However, in view of the large amount of energy to be absorbed, I rather doubt if such a device is realisable in practice. The springs that would have to be used would be very large, and very expensive. Economics, and not technical difficulties, would prevent the general adoption of the idea. One could, I think, buy quite a number of stays before recouping the price of a spring trip.

Another writer on page 141 states, 'Woods other than ash have been tried.... but ash is far superior and cheaper in the end.' While I must admit that, given the size of stay as fixed by the socket, this is true, it does not necessarily hold as a general rule; subject to the not very stringent requirements outlined in my article any wood can be used if the stay dimensions are suitably chosen.

His method of reducing stay breakages has much to commend it; although it increases the breaking load, most stays are so weak that the increase is most unlikely to be dangerous.—Yours faithfully,

JOHN M. McCLENAHAN.
Christ's College, Cambridge.

Stay Designs

Dear Sir,

Your correspondent J. J. McClenahan ('R.W.', page 100), writing about the design of stays, stated that replacements are required at the rate of one a fortnight in his tower. This can only mean that bell control is not being properly taught.

The purpose of a stay is to enable a bell to be left in the 'up' position when not being rung. It therefore follows that the minimum size stay required is one which will support the small turning moment exerted by the bell when 'set' just over the balance.

This gives the minimum requirement, but for practical purposes (noting the large number of bad handlers that ring, hitting the stay at 'back' and 'hand,' and, believe it or not, even when ringing changes) a stronger stay is necessary, but must still be the first part to fracture.

The safe maximum size of stay for any particular bell is probably best found by equating the kinetic energy of the rotating mass to the strain energy in the stay at the moment of impact. It should be pointed out that when the bell is being correctly rung the kinetic energy is zero at the beginning and end of its travel (i.e., Angular Velocity zero).

Kinetic Energy = $\frac{1}{2} W \dot{w}^2$. 'W' is the weight of the rotating parts, 'k' the radius of gyration, 'w' the angular velocity, and 'g' acceleration due to gravity.

Strain Energy $U = \frac{P^2 l}{6EI}$ where 'P' is the load on the end of the stay, 'l' the length of stay, 'E' the Young's Modulus of Elasticity, and 'I' the 2nd moment of area.

This strain energy formula is assuming the stay to be a cantilever and of rectangular cross section with a gradually applied load (not strictly true, and the stress may be double that calculated).

From simple beam theory $\frac{f}{y} = \frac{M}{I}$ where 'f' is the stress in the extreme fibres of the material, 'M' the applied moment, 'y' the distance from the neutral axis to extreme fibre, and 'I' the 2nd moment of area. Note $M = P \times l$.

Substituting in Strain Energy Equation for P^2

$$U = \frac{IBD}{18E} f^2 \quad \left(\text{NOTE: } I = \frac{BD^3}{12} \right)$$

K.E. = Strain Energy.

$$\frac{1}{2} W k^2 \dot{w}^2 = \frac{IBD}{18E} f^2$$

From this equation, values of width 'B' and depth 'D' can be determined for any stay if the weight of the rotating parts, radius of gyration and angular velocity of the system is known. (A little guesswork here would assist!)

The foregoing is only intended as a guide to a complex problem, but should give your correspondent a new approach.

The answer to another question is that the Ultimate Tensile strength of bell metal is about 34,000 lb./sq. in., and Young's Modulus of Elasticity 17×10^6 lb./sq. in. I would also like to point out that I would expect my Mild Steel bolts to have a U.T.S. of at least 28 tons/sq. in (commercial quality M.S. to B.S.S.15). Yours sincerely,

HALF PEAL

OLDHAM, LANCs.—On Feb. 2nd, at the Church of St. Mark, Glodwick, 2,520 Plain Bob Minor: B. D. Holt 1, J. F. Barlow 2, J. B. Thorp 3, D. Ashton 4, G. Nield 5, J. Brannan (cond.) 6.

ADDINGTON, SURREY.—On Feb. 3rd, 1,260 Minor (St. Clement's and Plain Bob): P. Lewsey 1, R. Rayfield 2, Ruth Perrin 3, C. H. Macve 4, P. J. Milton 5, A. M. Macve (cond.) 6. Also on Feb. 26th, 1,260 Plain Bob Minor: J. D. Faircloth (first 'in hand') 1—2, R. G. Crosland (first 'in hand' on working bell) 3—4, A. M. Macve (first of Minor 'in hand' and as cond.) 5—6.

ALDRINGTON, SUSSEX.—On Feb. 24th, 1,260 Plain Bob Doubles: R. Gilbert 1, Stella Rice (first 'inside') 2, Valerie Mephum 3, Frances Gilbert 4, Diana Gough (cond.) 5, V. Gough 6. A compliment to Pam (former member) and Ian McGill, on the birth of their second daughter, Fiona Margaret.

AMERSHAM, BUCKS.—On Feb. 3rd, 1,260 Plain Bob and Grandsire Doubles: Frances Proctor 1, Mrs. E. G. Swift 2, Rosalind Hicks 3, H. Baldwin 4, J. E. Camp (cond.) 5, P. E. Penrose 6. For Confirmation service, also as a wedding compliment to Mr. Lance Kent and Miss Valerie South. Also on March 3rd, 1,260 Grandsire Doubles: Frances Proctor 1, Anne Collins 2, Mrs. E. G. Swift 3, Rosalind K. Hicks 4, B. Collins (cond.) 5, P. E. Penrose 6. An engagement compliment to Rosalind K. Hicks and Mr. Edward Benfield.

ASHTON-UNDER-LYNE, LANCs.—On Feb. 17th, at the Church of St. Michael and All Angels, 1,280 Yorkshire Surprise Major: J. Clegg 1, W. Harrison 2, P. J. Mallock 3, J. F. Barlow 4, D. J. Marshall 5, L. Hill 6, R. M. Edwards 7, F. Shallcross (cond.) 8. By the Sunday service band for Evensong. First quarter peal of Surprise ever rung by a St. Michael's band.

BALCOMBE, SUSSEX.—On March 3rd, 1,260 Plain Bob Triples: A. A. Hilton 1, S. H. Wood 2, D. J. Laker 3, E. H. Knapp 4, F. J. Roberts 5, J. H. Gardner 6, A. E. Laker (cond.) 7, R. E. Stoner 8. For the first birthday of Mark, son of the ringers of three, and for the second anniversary of the Rector's induction.

BALDOCK, HERTS.—On March 3rd, 1,264 Plain Bob Major: A. Buck 1, C. Dear 2, J. I. Dear 3, L. Scot (first as cond.) 4, D. Salisbury 5, E. Buck 6, P. Black 7, J. S. Dear 8. For Parish Communion.

BLAWY, YORKS.—On March 3rd, 1,260 Minor (Oxford T.B., Plain Bob): Miss F. Chester 1, F. J. Jackson 2, R. A. Smith 3, Miss G. Brown 4, P. W. Bret 5, A. Jewitt (cond.) 6. For Evensong.

BENHILTON, SURREY.—On Feb. 25th, 1,280 Spliced Surprise Major (London, Rutland, Bristol, Cambridge, Superlative, Yorkshire, with 34 changes of method): S. F. Kimber (cond.) 1, Olive D. Tester 2, Jean L. Lavender 3, R. J. Talbot 4, J. Schofield 5, R. E. Finch 6, R. W. Hinde 7, F. E. Darby 8.

BINGLEY, YORKS.—On Feb. 24th, 1,260 Plain Bob Minor: J. Cox (first quarter) 1, W. Preston (captain) 2, E. H. Simpson (cond.) 3, E. Cox 4, R. Preston 5, G. Winup 6. For evening service, and to mark the anniversary of the long peal of 8,640 changes rung in this tower by the local company on Shrove Tuesday, 1826, in 5 hours 11 minutes.

BISHOP'S STORTFORD, HERTS.—On Feb. 23rd, 1,260 Grandsire Triples: Miss V. Perkin (first in method) 1, Mrs. L. Goodman (first 'inside') 2, G. Goodman 3, R. Hayden 4, W. Aley 5, H. Bird 6, D. Kingston (first in method as cond.) 7, E. Rochester 8. Rung for the baptism of the daughter of the conductor.

BISHOPWEARMOUTH, CO. DURHAM.—At St. Michael and All Angels', on Feb. 23rd, 1,260 Plain Bob Minor: Felicity Dickinson 1, Janet Somerville (first 'inside') 2, Janet Cleeve 3, I. Booth 4, L. Pizzey 5, P. Newing (cond.) 6.

QUARTER PEALS

BLANKNEY, LINCs.—On Feb. 21st, 1,260 Grandsire Doubles: J. F. Hoodless 1, Mrs. M. Short 2, C. R. Muxlow 3, R. Hunt 4, T. Warrington (cond.) 5, F. Hugh 6. Rung half-muffled in memory of W. Maltby, churchwarden.

COTGRAVE, NOTTS.—On Feb. 22nd, 1,260 Plain Bob Minor: Ruth Blackshaw 1, W. L. Ratcliffe 2, H. Hanson 3, R. Winstanley 4, M. W. Harrison 5, D. Stainsby (first as cond.) 6. Rung half-muffled a token of respect to George Simpson, ringer and chorister for 66 years, who died on February 17th.

DEDDINGTON, OXON.—On Feb. 27th, 1,260 Plain Bob Doubles (with 1 and 2 leading): D. A. Smith 1, J. K. Pratley (first quarter) 2, H. N. Pratley (first quarter) 3, Miss D. French 4, C. C. Clarke 5, W. Ivings 6, E. E. Pearson (cond.) 7, J. D. Cowley 8. Rung half-muffled in memory of J. G. Bletsoe, a churchwarden.

DONCASTER, YORKS.—On Feb. 10th, 1,260 Plain Bob Triples: Janet Staveley (first quarter) 1, W. E. Critchley (cond.) 2, C. Toynce 3, E. Dalingwater 4, F. A. Staveley 5, H. Wagstaff 6, J. McCluskey 7, G. Graham 8. Also on Feb. 17th, 1,260 Grandsire Triples: Janet Staveley (first in method) 1, T. D. Spencer 2, W. E. Critchley (cond.) 3, E. Dalingwater 4, F. A. Staveley 5, G. Graham 6, J. McCluskey 7, H. Wagstaff 8.

DANEHILL, SUSSEX.—On March 3rd, 1,260 Doubles (Grandsire, Reverse Canterbury, Plain Bob): W. J. Sale (first away from cover bell) 1, Peggy M. Butcher 2, A. W. Fuller 3, Betty M. Butler (first in three methods) 4, A. J. Butcher (cond.) 5, D. Gaston (first quarter) 6. For Evensong.

DUFFIELD, DERBYS.—On Feb. 16th, 1,260 Minor (Cambridge and Plain Bob): D. W. Parkin 1, Doreen M. Murfin 2, D. J. Murfin (first of Cambridge 'inside') 3, B. Dawson 4, W. A. Morley 5, J. F. Murfin (cond.) 6, J. A. Dodd 8. Rung after meeting short for a peal of Grandsire Triples.

EALING, MIDDx.—At St. Mary's Church, on March 3rd, 1,260 Grandsire Triples: F. Bishop 1, P. Felton 2, A. M. Stacey (cond.) 3, S. Croft 4, M. Sprackling 5, A. H. Fulwell 6, W. G. Wilson 7, N. Felton 8. For morning service.

EAST RETFORD, NOTTS.—On March 3rd, 1,260 Plain Bob Minor: R. G. Fanthorpe 1, Mrs. D. Metcalfe 2, Miss J. Taylor 3, D. A. Whetton 4, P. Smithson 5, J. A. Coates (cond.) 6. For morning service, and a compliment to ringer of third, on her engagement to Mr. P. Davison.

ELING, HANTS.—On Feb. 24th, 1,260 Grandsire Doubles: Anne Akroyd 1, Ronda Purkess 2, M. D. G. Northway (cond.) 3, P. R. Parsons 4, R. Buchanan 5, C. M. White 6. For Evensong.

ELSTOW, BEDS.—On Feb. 22nd, 1,260 Plain Bob Minor: Miss F. Poole 1, Miss S. Law 2, Miss M. Pettitt 3, S. R. Huckle 4, R. H. French 5, R. F. Law (cond.) 6. A birthday compliment to the tower captain, S. R. Hucknall.

EYNSHAM, OXON.—On Feb. 18th, 1,260 Doubles (eight methods and variations): A. Harris 1, H. Floyd (cond.) 2, A. Hicks 3, D. Floyd 4, C. Bennett 5, W. Floyd 6. A birthday compliment to Prince Andrew.

FARNBOROUGH, HANTS.—On March 2nd, 1,440 Alnwick Surprise Minor: R. H. Mills 1, G. S. Joyce 2, D. P. Treble 3, V. M. Cox 4, R. C. Kippin 5, P. J. Joyce (cond.) 6. First in method by all the band, Rung in honour of the birth of a son to Dr. and Mrs. Wright.

GRANTHAM, LINCs.—On Feb. 24th, 1,187 Grandsire Caters: Mrs. J. E. Cook 1, Elizabeth Holmes 2, J. Vinters (first 'inside') 3, Beryl Stannage 4, T. Rel 5, D. A. Frith 6, C. Maccartney 7, H. R. Woods 8, J. E. Cook (first of Caters as cond.) 9, J. Holmes 10. For Evensong.

HERSHAM, SURREY.—On March 3rd, 1,260 Middlesex Bob Triples: Miss D. Colcombe (first of Triples) 1, Miss G. May 2, Miss J. Smith 3, Mrs. P. Bird 4, H. Colcombe 5, C. H. Chinnery 6, J. King (cond.) 7, V. Smith 8. First in the method by all the band. For Evensong.

HEYTESBURY, WILTS.—On March 2nd, 1,260 Grandsire Doubles: V. Bull 1, L. Hawkins 2, N. G. Knee (cond.) 3, P. Roynon 4, E. E. Norris 5, T. E. Mallard 6. Rung by Warminster ringers as a 21st birthday compliment to Susan Perrett, of Heytesbury, who is a member of Warminster band.

HORSLEY, DERBYS.—On Feb. 27th, 1,260 Plain Bob Doubles: Jennifer Lockwood 1, N. V. Coghill (first 'inside') 2, J. F. Murfin 3, D. J. Murfin (first as cond.) 4, J. Ashmore Dodd 5, G. A. Halls 6.

HULL, E. YORKS.—On March 2nd, at Holy Trinity Church, 1,280 Cambridge Surprise Major: R. Ducker 1, H. Gibson 2, K. Goldthorpe 3, A. B. Cooper 4, J. Hobson 5, I. G. Campbell 6, R. Gibson 7, D. S. Johnson (first of Surprise Major as cond.) 8, First of Surprise Major 2, 3, 6 and 7.

HUTTON, ESSEX.—On Feb. 24th, 1,260 Doubles (All Saints', Plain Bob): E. A. Jones 1, P. Friend 2, C. E. Hill 3, W. T. Hill (cond.) 4, R. G. Jones 5. For Evensong.

IRTHLINGBOROUGH, NORTHANTS.—On Feb. 23rd, 1,280 Cambridge Surprise Major: G. Wright 1, Margaret James 2, I. M. Hall 3, A. S. Sansom 4, Shelagh R. Collins 5, M. Staley 6, G. Watson 7, D. W. James (cond.) 8. First of Surprise Major for 1, 4 and 6. A birthday compliment to Michael Staley.

IVER, BUCKS.—On Feb. 27th, 1,320 Doubles (Reverse Canterbury and Plain Bob): H. Chadwell 1, R. J. Foster (first 'inside') 2, G. Riglar 3, W. Birmingham 4, H. Oglesby (cond.) 5, D. G. Rowlands 6. Rung prior to Ash Wednesday service.

SS. PETER AND PAUL'S, EAST HARLING

By Dr. Paul Jonason

THE Church, including the tower, of SS. Peter and Paul, East Harling, Norfolk, was built on the site of an older church in 1449—some 47 years before Christopher Columbus discovered the New World.

A church with four acres of land belonging to it is mentioned in Domesday Book. The whole parish was then two miles long and two miles broad. The parish changed hands many times. Earl Warren, as feudal lord, leased the property to the Bigots, of Felbrigg, and from them it passed to the Bournes, of Long Stratton. One of Nicholas Bourne's daughters married Sir Thomas Jenney, and a Margaret Jenney married John de Herling, who died and was buried at East Harling in 1392. The Herlings, after whom the village is named, were living here previous to this date, but only became concerned in the Manor in 1350 owing to the marriage with Margaret Jenney.

Sir John de Harling, knight, her son, married Cecily Mortimer, and their son, Sir Robert Herling, married Joan or Jane, the rich heiress of the Gonville family. The tomb of this Robert Herling, who died in 1435, is to be seen in the Herling Chapel, concerning which there is still a good deal of mystery.

Sir William Chamberlain, K.G., of Gedding, in Suffolk, married Ann, the only child of Sir Robert Herling, and it is thanks to Sir William's generosity that the church was built into its present magnificence in 1449. He lies buried in the north chapel, in a magnificent tomb, which forms part of the north wall of the chancel.

The tower itself is probably circa 1300, built of flint, with very symmetrical buttresses (clasp buttresses). There are tall niches in the west buttresses at the level of the west window and knapped flint work used here as ornamentation.

The west window, cusped intersected tracery, illuminates the ringing chamber. The belfry openings are cusped-Y-tracery, with a stone watercourse continuously surrounding the tower, reminiscent of an 'eyebrow.' The tower is surmounted by fine freestone ballisters, with the blank shields encompassed by the garter cut in the stones (Sir W. Chamberlain) and the unicorn's head and heraldic bird of the Lovells and Herlings. There are four pinnacles, one at each corner and four central figures looking outward. The whole is surmounted by an oak spire lead covered, arising upon flying buttresses from an eight pointed crown.

DESIGN FOR ST. PETER MANCROFT

This graceful fleche, as it is called, was probably erected in 1475, and is the most unique feature of the tower, being the first object which catches the eye when one approaches the church from whatever direction. From this Mr. Street, the architect, obtained his design for the spire of St. Peter Mancroft Church, Norwich, in 1888. In February, 1910, when the Church Council were making plans for rehanging the bells, Mr. A. H. Green, who was then diocesan architect, stated, 'The spire is unique in design for E. Anglia and there is nothing like it in Norfolk. It should therefore claim exceptional care in treatment and restoration in order that its beauty may be jealously preserved and its graceful lines continue to charm the eye.'

The bells were first put in the tower in 1465. Until 1616 there were probably three bells, each considerably larger than the present tenor. On July 6th, 1616, 'one littel bell by weight, £4 10s. a hundred' was ordered to be cast by John Draper, of Thetford, and delivered to Harling. Total cost, including all fittings—£44 18s. The bell weighed 9 cwt. 3 qr. and is the present 5th. In 1677 the then tenor was melted down and recast into two smaller bells, the 3rd and 4th, by John Darbie, of Ipswich, and Christopher Graye.

Thus L'Estrange records the bells as follows:

- 6 Bells. Tenor G about 12 cwt.
- 1 and 2.—Thomas Gardiner Fecit. 1746.
- 3.—Christopher Graye made me. 1677.
- 4.—John Darbie made me. 1677.

5.—John Draper made me. 1616. Thomas Porter: of: Wilbe: Youne. gave me to make: a: pleasant: sounde:

A BAD CIRCLE

Prior to 1912 the bells were hung in a wooden frame and the ropes did not fall in a circle. Call changes were the rule, and, although several peal attempts were made, owing to the bad arrangement of the ropes even a 720 was a great undertaking.

In 1910, when the tower and spire were surveyed, it was found that not only was the bell frame insecurely fixed but that the spire supports were also in a dangerous condition. H.H. Prince Duleep Singh, then living at Blo' Norton Hall, offered to call in the architect to the Society for the Preservation of Ancient Buildings, and this was gladly accepted. He advised that new timbers should be corbelled into the eills of the belfry windows to support the lantern and spire. Also that a new oak frame for the bells of massive dimensions should be built, the bells quarter turned and rehung with new fittings. The parish magazine at that time records that the following were asked to tender for this work: Messrs. G. Bullock and Son, Ixworth, Suffolk: C. Carr, Ltd., Smethwick; George Day, of Eye; Messrs. Stainbank, of London; and Taylor's, of Loughborough.

George Day, of Eye, presented a most realistic and comprehensive estimate. They advised 'An English oak frame of massive dimensions to be built. The 5th (the one made by Draper in 1616) had lost some of its canons, has a crack in the crown and is not in such good tone as the others, and should be recast.'

'The wheels of oak were much too large and heavy and need to be re-wrought and re-rimmed with new stays, sliders and pulleys. They also recommended that the frame should be built to accommodate eight bells, there being plenty of room in the tower for eight on the same level, and that rope troughs should be fixed between the floors to guide the ropes satisfactorily about the ringers' heads, so that the bells could be rung in a good circle.' The cost £170.

In May, 1911, a fund was opened to collect money for the work and by September a total of £165 15s. had been reached. However, the work on the spire and lantern required an additional £100, so that the Church Council decided to hold a fete in the village and to reconsider the estimate. The fete, held the following year on July 11th, 1912, was an unqualified success. The member for the constituency, Mr. Boyle, opened the function, and in one day £113 9s. 2d. was raised.

TAYLOR'S ESTIMATE ACCEPTED

The Church Council then accepted Taylor's estimate as: (a) It was the lowest at £159; and (b) included the latest type of modern iron bell frame. Work was put in hand immediately and the bells were taken down and sent by rail to Loughborough. On arrival at Taylor's, they then informed the Rev. Baseley Hales Grigson, Rector of East Harling, that the bells were not in such good order as had been previously supposed. It was already agreed to recast the 5th, but Taylor's suggested recasting the other five for an additional £61 18s. If this was not possible the 4th should be recast at a cost £12 10s. The Church Council met and in true East Anglian tradition held firm and would only agree to the 4th and 5th being recast. This was accordingly carried out, and the bells were rehung in a new iron frame. Thus the inscription on the bells is now changed. The original wording has been recast on the 4th and 5th with the additional insignia of the Loughborough Bell Foundry, and the words 'Recast 1912. Taylor and Co., Loughborough Bell Foundry.'

Today, if one looks at the bells, the 1st, 2nd, 4th and 5th are excellent castings of nicely shaped bells. The 3rd by Christopher Graye, in 1677, is a very porous casting, and has some cold chisel marks round the mouth. The tenor is still in its original condition as cast in 1550, minus its canons, which, of course, were removed when the new metal headstocks were fitted. The only part of the mechanism which is perhaps regretted is that of the Hastings stays.

The first peal on the bells was rung on December 21st, 1912, by William Duncan (first peal) treble, Thomas Fitzjohn 2, Sidney Annison 3, Alfred Newson 4, Fred C. Burrows (conductor) 5, Charles Carter 6.

On December 19th, 1962, a 50th anniversary peal was rung by James King treble, Paul Jonason 2, Harry Fuller 3, William Duncan 4, Leonard King 5, Frank C. Phillippo (conductor) 6.

The time taken to ring these two peals was identical—2 hours 46 minutes.

Mr. William Duncan is the sole surviving member of the original peal band, and in 1912 it was his first peal. He was certainly the best and most experienced ringer present in the band, which successfully rang the 50th anniversary peal, and it was considered by all present to have been a privilege to have rung with him.

The band, with the Rector (the Rev. K. Wilkinson Riddle) and Mrs. Riddle, celebrated their success with a well earned dinner as guests of Dr. and Mrs. Paul Jonason, at their home.

Thus the story of East Harling bells is brought up to date. There is still room for two more bells in the tower to complete the octave, but there is even more room in the ranks of the ringers themselves to fill the ringing chamber with eager young men and maidens who are prepared to take part in this peculiar form of worship to the glory of God.

ST. MARY'S CATHEDRAL (Glasgow) ASSOCIATION

The annual meeting of the Association was held in St. Mary's Cathedral on February 28th. Mr. E. Boumphrey was elected captain, Mr. H. Sargent vice-captain and Dr. D. M. Graham-Service secretary and treasurer.

At this meeting Mr. E. A. Stafford, because of ill-health, tendered his resignation as secretary and treasurer. Provost Laming, who was in the chair, spoke very highly of Mr. Stafford's work over the years. He pointed out that Mr. Stafford joined the Association in 1931 and became secretary/treasurer in 1932. He had held the post since then except for a temporary break of about a year and a half.

As a small token of our esteem Mr. Stafford was unanimously elected honorary vice-president of the Association, and was also presented with a bellringer's silk scarf. D. M. G.-S.

CHELSEFIELD HAVE NEW BELFRY FLOOR

On Sunday, March 3rd, the Bishop of Rochester dedicated the new belfry floor at Chelsfield, Kent. This new floor shortens the rope draught by approximately 10 ft., and forms a gallery in the north wall of the church. The cost of all the materials for the floor and the labour has been donated by members of the congregation and the balustrade, seen from the church, has been beautifully made by a local craftsman and erected in memory of S. C. Manger, a former ringer and father of the present captain. The bells are much easier to handle and are no longer rung from the choir robing room.

Prior to the dedication service a quarter peal of Cambridge Surprise was rung, whilst immediately after the act of dedication a short touch was rung. D. C. M.

OBITUARY

MR. ALFRED MANN

With the sudden death from influenza of Mr. Alfred Mann, Christ Church, Epsom, has lost the last resident survivor of a family of eight ringers. He had just retired from working in a local hospital, at the age of 68.

Alf started ringing in 1912, when he was 17, and remained a regular ringer until he had to give it up due to his health, just after the war. He also wound the church clock until last July.

He was a very cheerful man, and often recalled with pride an occasion in 1925, when his father, who was captain, conducted a quarter rung by the family. From his house on Epsom Common he often listened to the bells of Christ Church, St. Martin's and Ashted. D. J. H.

MR. ERNEST STITCH

We regret to announce that Mr. Ernest Stitch, who was well known in South Wales and the Wolverhampton district, died suddenly at his home at 14, Rockfields, Nottage, Porthcawl, on March 10th. He was well liked in all parts of the country, having served for a long period of time as secretary of Southern Section of the Swansea and Brecon Guild. He had been Master of the Llandaff and Monmouth Diocesan Association, and served that Association on the Central Council from 1939 to 1950.

BILLINGSHURST, SUSSEX.—On Feb. 19th, 1,260 Plain Bob Triples: Janice Brown 1, R. Banner 2, H. F. Wood 3, E. F. Fosberry 4, B. G. Elliot 5, G. C. Rix 6, W. L. Weller (cond.) 7, I. Robinson 8. First of Bob Triples for 1, 2, 5 and 8. Rung half-muffled as last tribute to Rev. J. F. Schaefer.

HOLME PIERREPONT, NOTTS.—On Feb. 24th, 1,320 Plain Bob Doubles: Jane Dowse (first quarter) 1, R. Marsh 2, Ruth Blackshaw (first as cond.) 3, M. W. Harrison 4, J. Heaps 5. First of Doubles 2 and 5. Rung half-muffled in memory of Angela Keighley (aged 10 years) who died on February 20th.

Melbourne, Australia, ringers have had a gay week scoring the first peal of Surprise Major outside Great Britain, a peal of Plain Bob Royal, first since 'The Great Adventure,' and Bob Major 'in hand.' Visitors have included Tom and Margaret Goodyer and Bill Watson, from Sydney, and Brian Cox, for Adelaide. At the Wednesday practice, Cambridge, Superlative and Yorkshire Surprise Major were rung as well as Stedman Caters.

The Shebbear College Society inquire whether their peal at Dolton, Devon, was the first on the bells.

The quarter peal rung at Elstow, Beds, on January 13th was a birthday compliment to the Rev. P. Hartley and Mr. R. Law, and not as printed.

The peal rung by Manchester University Guild at Eccles on February 16th should read: 'A peal of 5,088 Spliced Surprise Major,' and not as printed. The error is regretted.

The band who rang the peal at Barton-on-Humber on February 23rd would wish it to be associated with the memory of Arthur W. Hoodless, captain of the local band, with whom the conductor (Mr. Walter Ayre) had been associated since his youth.

Ringers and friends of St. Mary's, Lewisham, rang Grandsire Caters before the afternoon Evensong at Southwark Cathedral on March 3rd. The Cathedral, like so many Central London churches, has no resident band of ringers and Lewisham ringers hope to make this visit to the Cathedral, to ring for service, a regular event.

We are sorry to learn that Andrew Macve is temporarily indisposed and is condemned to lie on his back for a week or two, although this did not prevent him ringing a quarter peal of Bob Minor 'in hand' recently. We hope he will soon be quite fit and able to resume his ringing again in an upright position.

BELFRY GOSSIP

Mr. A. G. Lancefield left Perth, Western Australia, on March 4th to continue his tour of Australia. A farewell quarter was rung at the Cathedral on February 23rd. In it Jennifer Lees, who started learning to ring in November, rang her first quarter. Mr. B. J. Lawes writes that Mr. Lancefield will be greatly missed. He will be welcomed in any Australian tower he visits.

We are asked to state that the quarter peal rung by the Mancroft band was for Mr. Boar's 75th birthday, and not his 80th as published in the issue of March 1st.

Mr. Ronald K. Russ, of Reading, writes that he is not emigrating to Australia in the strict sense of the word, but is going out for three years.

The peal of Plain Bob Minor at Broadchalke, Wilts, on March 2nd is claimed to be the first peal on the bells, which have been a ring of six since 1659. The tenor was cast about 1350.

The following comment was heard after the long peal of Cambridge Surprise Royal on handbells had been successfully completed at Leicester, 'Not bad for kids! Considering also that they are blue liners.'

The band who accomplished the quarter peal of London Surprise Major at Raunds on February 18th regret the absence of Miss Shelagh Collins, who had been in several unsuccessful attempts. The conductor denies that this success is in any way a coincidence.

There are some promising youngsters in the Ashton-under-Lyne area. A peal at Mossley and a half peal at Oldham on the same day were rung by bands of average age 16 years 1 month. Both performances were conducted by Jeffrey Brannan.

Mr. Anthony Ager asks us to correct an impression that might be gained from the Henry Johnson dinner, that he was at Birmingham University. He came on accepting a post as brewer at Atkinson's Brewery, Ltd., Aston.

SWANSEA AND BRECON GUILD

Southern District

A very successful quarterly meeting was held at St. Mary's, Aberavon, on March 2nd, and the 50 members who attended represented most of the towers in the District. Some good ringing was enjoyed on the excellent eight, and the recent decorations in the belfry added to the pleasure.

The service was conducted by the Rev. Malcolm Beynon, and Mr. Collen Jones was organist. Tea was laid on in a cosy room in the Church Hall, and Mrs. Thomas, Mrs. Jenkins and Mrs. Williams were thanked for their kindness in supplying the meal and for the satisfactory arrangements made.

At the business meeting the chair was taken by the Guild's Master, Miss Hazel Way. Mr. W. Dobbins was still not well enough to attend, and also Mr. Harry Boyce, who had had a recent eye operation. A suggestion to revive the Guild's quarterly peal was carried, the first peal to be arranged by the Master during the next three months.

The meeting was reminded of the ringing competition in May, and full support was promised from at least four bands. Six new members were elected. After votes of thanks there was more ringing in the tower.

September meeting, Gorseinon; A.G.M., December, St. Mary's, Swansea. J.A.H.

Heanor's Example

We welcome 'The Belfry News,' the monthly newspaper of the Heanor bell-ringers (4d.), with Mr. G. M. Camm as Editor, and offices at 103, Thorpes Road, Heanor, Derbys. Commenting on the enthusiasm of the large band of young ringers at Heanor, Mr. Ben Roberts, in a foreword, writes:

'This revival has not been limited to the tower, for they are not content to summon others to worship which they do not intend to share themselves. They almost form a second choir, encouraging the congregation from behind, and lowering considerably our average.'

To the distinction of being the only tower in the diocese to have two practice nights a week they now add the production of their own magazine.

'The Belfry News' is a bright production with a strong local interest. There is a feature article on the bells of the Cathedral Church of All Saints, Derby.

SHEFFIELD & DISTRICT SOCIETY

Sheffield and District Society at its annual meeting at Rannmoor on March 2nd elected its first lady president—Mrs. D. Kelly. In handing over the office to her, Mr. F. Brunt said that he did not know another lady who was quite so popular among ringers as Mrs. Kelly and how right it was that she should be the first lady president.

Mr. J. J. L. Gilbert was voted president-elect, and Mr. C. Rusby and Mr. Gilbert the new auditors. Apart from these changes the other officers remained the same as last year. A new office, that of peal secretary, was created—an appointment Mr. N. Chaddock accepted with the request that a copy of all peals should be sent to him.

The afternoon's ringing included Bristol, London and Stedman Caters, and in the evening eight Spliced Major. A splendid tea was served in the Church Hall.

Next meeting (provisional). Staveley on Easter Monday. A. M. T.

KENT COUNTY ASSOCIATION

Rochester District

A very successful meeting of the Rochester District was held at Cliffe-at-Hoo on March 2nd. Ringing commenced at 3 p.m. and was followed by the service, tea and a lengthy business meeting. About 65 members and friends were present.

Business included the District representative's report on the committee meetings and a discussion on the report by the sub-committee on the Association's finances. The possibility of a District magazine was also discussed, and the District secretary was asked to make arrangements, if possible, to take a party to the Loughborough Bell Foundry. After votes of thanks a return was made to the belfry for further ringing. L. M.

A BROADCAST FROM FROME

In the middle of the B.B.C. Television broadcast on Sunday, March 24th, starting 10.30 a.m., to illustrate the work of the Church, the bells of St. John the Baptist, Frome, Somerset, will be heard and probably some of the ringers seen ringing six whole pulls of rounds.

The ringers are Francis M. Massey treble, Mrs. Hilda M. Massey 2, D. G. Massey 3, B. A. Payne 4, R. J. Baker 5, N. T. Abbott 6, D. H. Flower (captain) 7, H. Vennell sen. tenor. Alan Payne will read the ringers' Collect.

Partly due to lack of space in the ringing room for all the T.V. apparatus, the rounds were not too good. The fifth bell was particularly difficult to handle, as the rope normally falls in front of the door where the T.V. camera had to stand.

The bells were pulled up at 6.45 p.m. expecting to be recorded at 8.30 p.m. after the service rehearsal. By the time other problems were solved the ringers started their part at 10.15 p.m., spending 4 hours in the church.

The recording was outside as well as inside the belfry, and it is expected the outside 'sound' will be imposed on the picture to avoid the noise of rope rattle.

NORTHANTS RINGERS' WEDDING

The wedding took place at Eydon Parish Church, Northamptonshire, on February 23rd of Miss Dorothy Williams, of Eydon, and Mr. Victor A. Perry, of Weedon Bec. The bride and bridegroom are both members of the Culworth Branch and ring at Byfield.

The Vicar, the Rev. G. Neville (president, Culworth Branch), officiated. The bridesmaid was Miss Betty Mansfield (Towcester Branch), and the best man Mr. Frederick W. Hutt (Daventry Branch). The organist was Mr. Eric Walker (secretary and treasurer, Culworth Branch).

In the evening a quarter peal of Doubles was rung at Byfield by the local band to mark the occasion.

BATH AND WELLS DIOCESAN ASSOCIATION

Chew Branch Striking Competition

In an attempt to emphasise the importance of good striking, the Chew Deanery Branch decided to arrange a striking competition, and the first experimental competition was held at Chew Stoke on February 23rd, when Mr. H. J. Sanger, of Evercreech, judged the ringing of five Chew Deanery Sunday service teams from a bungalow situated next to the church. The test piece was '120 changes of Doubles or Minor,' preceded by not more than 2 minutes of unmarked rounds.

At the conclusion the 45 ringers and friends enjoyed an excellent tea in the Village Hall, during which Mr. Sanger placed the teams as follows: 1 Wrington (66 faults), 2 Yatton (70), 3 Portbury (74), 4 Winford (76), 5 Wraaxall (100). A scratch team made up on the spot from the spectators, but, of course, not eligible for the competition, scored only 40 faults. The judge, in his remarks, said that the ringing was of a fairly equal standard, but generally he felt it was too slow, with bad backstroke leads and lack of rhythm the chief faults. He hoped that other Bath and Wells Branches would be inspired to arrange similar meetings.

Thanks were expressed to the Rector for his co-operation, to Mr. Sanger and Tony for their hard work (they even played all the ringing back with a tape recorder to check the markings) and to those who helped with the local arrangements.

Further ringing was enjoyed at Chew Stoke after tea and later Chew Magna bells were available. M. J. H.
