JUNK

I RECENTLY acquired a load of junk. How and where I got it doesn't really matter, but there was enough of it to fill the back seat of the car, almost obliterating the rear window, whilst some overspilled on to the floor. I called at the local grocer's shop and begged a couple of large cardboard boxes with a combined capacity of about a dozen cubic feet. When I arrived home I persuaded the junk to go inside the boxes and the boxes to go inside the house. Quite an operation.

For several days the boxes stood in the hall, one on top of the other, looking a trifle unsteady; they bulged at the sides, particularly the bottom one. When I found that I had a couple of hours to spare I decided to sort out the contents. I underestimated. It took several sessions of two hours. I remembered by instructions:

'You have more right to them than anyone else; keep what you want and burn the rest.'

There were church magazines, brochures and pamphlets from all the churches north of a line from Bristol to the Wash (and a few south of that line) at which various people had called to ring. There were dozens of old Association reports going back to the year 'dot.' Many of these were duplicated and bore signatures of different ringers. Among the books there was a 'Thackrah's,' almost falling to pieces, and a 'Troyte's' in slightly more respectable condition; Sottanstell's meaty tome, held together by string; the Rev. F. E. Robinson's 'Among the Bells,' in the pink of condition. Dorothy Sayers' 'Nine Tailors' was rubbing shoulders with a 1907 edition of the C.C. Collection of Minor Methods, with several editions of 'Standard Methods' in close attendance. A solitary bound edition of 'Church Bells,' 1881, with its name misspelt on the outside, occupied more room than was justified, by the information contained on the inside.

Other books there were of varying degrees of condition and interest.

Among the photographs I unearthed were some that I had forgotten but on which the most vacuous and inanely-looking face peering out from a crowd of ringers was, much to my surprise, my own! Could that little brat with the clean white collar and long knee trousers and the cherubic-looking face, who was holding a couple of hand-bells, be me?

To describe in detail all the items of interest that I discovered would be a task of immense proportions, though I trow the reader would tire before the writer, so I will content myself with selecting one or two items of interest to myself and hope, though care not overmuch, that they will prove interesting to others.

There was a 'Ringing Book,' beautifully written in copperplate by a Wath-on-Dearne ringer named William Finch, and dated 1825. This was nine years after the long peal at that tower, and the book contained all the 21 methods included in that peal. Each method showed two or three leads and then the lead-ends and lead-heads required to produce the 720. A veritable treasure house!

The book also contained particulars of a prize ringing contest held at Silkstone in 1832, and some information concerning, apparently, one of William's illustrious ancestors, a 'Colonel Savile Finch . . . of Thribergh . . . son of the Hon. John Finch, second son of the Earl of Ailsford, by Elizabeth, his wife . . . heiress of Thribergh.' The book boasted a short poem, entitled 'A Comparison,' with a familiar ring, of which I quote the last verse:

'I grieve not for the sweets that fade,
Since He in whom I trust,
Shall here protect with heavenly aid,
And rais me from the dust.'

Hidden away in a bundle of old papers I discovered a rule card of a 'West Riding Association,' a Society extinct now for over 85 years. Names of the officials caught my eye, having seen some of them inscribed on an earthenware jug recording a peal rung at Barnsley in 1879. The late J. R. Brearley, whose uncle was in the peal, once wrote to me when I was making some enquiries: 'I well remember George Tyas, a gaunt man, evidently a collier, who bent nearly down to the floor at every stroke—very tall and thin. "Bob" Sparks—short and fat, very red face—I believe he was a barman at a local pub.'

The 'Objects' of the Association fascinated me:—

- (1) The promotion of Change Ringing in every known method.
- (2) To give all Ringing Members an Annual Excursion free of cost.
- (3) To admit such Members free to the Annual Dinner to be held in Christmas week.

No wonder the subscription was 2s. 6d. per quarter!

And what can one say about the bulging, black-backed notebook of A.G.? I suppose it is typical of hundreds that have been compiled up and down the country over the years, most of which have disappeared, although occasionally odd ones turn up here and there. Each one represents the condensed ringing experience of a lifetime. All the peals are there; in this case 198 of them, together with compositions, news cuttings, photographs and odd snippets of information. And comments.

COVENTRY CATHEDRAL ALL-ENGLAND RALLY

It is important that all who have received tickets for the Cathedral service should confirm that they do require tea, as all teas ordered have to be paid for by the Guild. Tickets for tea will be sent to those applying. Those who have ordered tea already will receive tickets in due course. The tea will be in the Municipal Staff Canteen in Derby Lane, which is situated 50 yards west of the Cathedral, and is next door to the Public Library, and will be available from 4 to 6 p.m. To help the stewards, will you have 3s. 6d. ready to speed up the service.

CARS.—The West Orchard Car Park for several hundred cars is situated just off Broadgate. This is only 150 yards from the Cathedral. Cost 1s. for the whole day.

THE CATHEDRAL SERVICE.—Please be in your seats before 2.45 p.m., as the general public will be admitted to fill any empty seats. This will help the stewards with their job of seating you.

The response to this rally has been tremendous so any help you can give to make it run smoothly will be much appreciated by the undersigned.

J. L. GARNER-HAYWARD.

BACK FROM ANTARCTICA

A great welcome has been accorded Dr. Christopher Brown, the Wareham and Bristol University Society ringer, upon his return from the Antarctic.

While there he had an alarming experience of falling more than 50 feet into a crevasse, and breaking a rib and spraining his left ankle. With other scientists and technologists, he arrived at Southampton in the Danish ship, Kesta Dan. A picture of his welcome by his two daughters, Frances and Clare, appeared in 'The Daily Telegraph.'

Dr. Brown is also a member of the Ancient Society of College Youths, Mr. Donald G. Cliff and Mr. Wilfred Williams being responsible for his election.

GRANDSIRE DOUBLES

One of our younger ringers, Mr. N. R. Webber, of the Lord Weymouth School, Warminster, has been experimenting with Grandsire Doubles and points out that 240's with the 120 changes at hand- and at back-stroke can be obtained by calling alternate bobs and singles at every third lead. While this is not original and does not, we think, come within the definition of 240's acceptable by the Central Council for peals, some of our readers may find it useful for practice.

We would say, however, that a 240 can always be obtained by starting one of the standard ten 120's, then ringing another one and then completing the first one. As these arrangements and the recognised 240's by Morris and Pitman are all round blocks, they can be varied by starting the calling at any position. There is therefore a large number of 240's already available and we think that our young enthusiasts would find it more rewarding to experiment on the lines referred to in the letter from Mr. Sage (page 212—varying the hunts) which, by coincidence, appeared in the same week.

FORTY YEARS' RINGING AT HASLEMERE

MR. F. BOWDEN has completed 40 years as a Sunday service ringer in his native town, Haslemere, Surrey. He was taught to ring on the old eight at Haslemere by Mr. Richard Hayes.

The bells were recast and, at the opening ceremony in October, 1923, by the Rector (the Rev. W. Wragge), Mr. Bowden took part in the first touch. He was in another opening touch on November 16th, 1927, when the ring was augmented to 10. A peal he takes a just pride in was that of Grandsire Caters on Haslemere bells on January 28th, 1928, conducted by Mr. H. Langdon. This was the first peal of Caters for the Guildford Diocesan Guild.

Mr. Bowden has another 40th anniversary—of being a continuous subscriber to 'The Ringing World.' In that long period there was only one copy he missed—May 7th, 1926, the week of the General Strike. He has been captain at Haslemere since 1945, when Major John H. B. Hesse left for Wrington.

Mrs. Bowden has been ringing at Haslemere for 36 years, being taught to ring by Major Hesse. Her marriage at Haslemere Parish Church was on February 2nd, 1929.

In the photograph we reproduce, Mr. and Mrs. Bowden are the first two on the left of the seated ringers. It was taken on one of their summer outings, and contains no fewer than 14 of the over 60 pupils they had taught to ring at Haslemere.

COPENHAGEN BELLS

Those who have visited Copenhagen on holiday, and been privileged to worship in St. Alban's C. of E. Church, along the Esplanade, may have heard its bells. When heard last summer they were not being 'change rung,' but a hymn was being played, calling the people to worship.

Most of the Copenhagen churches appear to have one or more bells, but all—where multiple—were 'jangled' by British standards, or tune rung.

One church, where we were able to actually see the bells, was the Church of Our Saviour—the largest church of 'old Copenhagen.' The Reformation appears to have given particular impetus to church building in Denmark—judging by its capital. This particular church was consecrated in 1696. Above the clock (1699) hang two historic bells and three large 'peeling' bells, tuned in the Te Deum-motif: c-e flat-f. Seven big and 33 small bells in the lantern make up the carillon, which was erected 1717-34, at the request of the then organist. This number was later increased, and now totals 47 bells. The 'tenor' is dated 1931—and appears to be perhaps 30-35 cwt.

Copenhagen proved to be a happy holiday centre, but one which would not satisfy from the change ringing aspect—but, then, outside the United Kingdom, few places can!

TWYFORD GOLDEN JUBILEE

The bells of St. Mary's, Twyford, Berks, were first rung on Easter Sunday, March 23rd, 1913. To celebrate the jubilee, a peal board, recording the first peal on the bells by a local band, was dedicated on the afternoon of Sunday, March 24th, by the Vicar, the Rev. H. Hartley.

A number of parishioners, local and visiting ringers attended. These included Miss M. R. Cross, secretary of the Oxford Diocesan Guild, whose home tower this is.

Some of A. G.'s are both enlightening and edifying; not all are complimentary. I wonder what a famous conductor would have said to the opinion: 'Not very good ringing for Treble Bob'? One could write a series of articles on this notebook alone, but I cannot leave it without glancing once again at the footnote he added to the first peal of Major rung on the augmented bells of his home tower:—

'I am including this peal in my list of treasures.' And then the poignant addition: 'Should have liked to stand in.'

I remember he was unable to ring because of an accident at work: I know because I sat in his place. As I said at the beginning: I recently acquired a load of junk.

Quedgeley Surprise Royal

Central Council Proceedings

Dear Sir,—I am afraid the footnote to the peal of Quedgeley Surprise Royal rung at Loughborough Foundry on March 4th ('R.W.' page 197), claiming it as the first peal of Royal in the method, cannot be allowed to stand. Quedgeley was first rung to Royal at St. Michael's, Southampton, on September 1st, 1962: the peal was reported on page 618 of the 'R.W.' for that year.

I should also, as conductor of the first peal rung in the method, like to correct the spelling of the name. In the three peals in the method reported in the 'R.W.' for March 22nd, the names was spelt as 'Quedgeley', omitting the second 'e.' Having several times myself misspelt the name when submitting reports of peals rung at Quedgeley, I had an awful feeling that it may all have been my fault, but a quick look through back numbers of the 'R.W.' reassured me.

Incidentally, am I correct in believing that the peal of Folkestone Surprise Major rung at Edenham, Lincs, on February 18th, was the first peal in the method, although not claimed as such? I have no record of any previous peal in the method, although I believe a Kent band was considering ringing one at Folkestone some ten or more years ago.—Yours sincerely,

CYRIL A. WRATTEN.

Cheltenham.

Dear Sir.—Mr. B. G. Warwick appears to have made an error in the reporting of one or both the peals which he conducted at the Bell Foundry Campanile during the first week of March (reported in 'R.W.' of 22/3/63). The peals in question are: (i) 5,056 Quedgeley S. Major rung on March 2nd, and (ii) 5,040 Quedgeley S. Royal rung on March 4th.

At first sight it would appear that it is merely a case of Mr. Warwick's spelling being at fault again (shades of Llanfair P.G.), and that the method actually rung in both cases was the variation of Yorkshire which has the name QUEDGELEY. Secondly, had the above peal of Major been in a new method called Quedgeley, I feel sure Mr. Warwick's footnote undoubtedly would have claimed it as such. The only claim made, however, was one of 'First in the method by all, on the bells and for the (Midland Counties) Guild.'

To the above peal of Royal is added the footnote, 'The first peal of Royal in the method.' If we assume that the method rung was in fact QUEDGELEY, then I fear that this footnote is the one which is incorrect, since the first peal of Quedgeley S. Royal was rung on September 1st, 1962, at St. Michael's Church, Southampton, for the Winchester and Portsmouth Diocesan Guild.

Perhaps Mr. Warwick can shed some light on the matter, if only by appending the place notation for an extension when he thinks he has rung it for the first time, a minor variation of 'old faithful' though it may be.—Yours faithfully,

R. ROGER SAVORY.

Southampton.
Note.—We thank D. T. Matkin and D. J. Forder who have also replied.—Ed.

Heaviest Four

Dear Sir.—With regard to the inquiry in 'The Ringing World' (page 196), if there has been a quarter peal of Minimus rung on a heavier ring of bells than Bishopthorpe, Yorks, tenor 14 cwt. 0 qr. 20 lb.:

I would like to point out that at Evington, Leicestershire, tenor 17 cwt. approx., a number of quarter peals have been rung by the local band.—Yours faithfully,

BRIAN C. LAW.

Blaby, Leics.

Mr. Stuart Edwards, of Evington, writes: 'During the past six months we have rung five quarter peals and one half peal on Evington bells. The most recent quarter was on March 25th in 37 minutes (a record on the bells), in which eight methods were rung.'

Dear Sir,—Just in case the Central Council meeting is accused again this year of being a bunch of old pals on a tower grab, it may be of interest to hear one ringer's views on the Whitsun scramble. Certainly committee members have very little chance to see much of the countryside, as a lot of the last-minute business is conducted on the Sunday and Monday. If this is fully thrashed out then, the full session on Tuesday should, in theory, go through rapidly, most of the controversial matters having been resolved.

Of course, this is rarely so and the president has his time cut out to keep the discussion to the point, and to move through the agenda in all too short a time. Reading the report in 'The Ringing World,' one is left with the impression that, after allowing for condensation in reporting, the business could not possibly take more than three hours, with perhaps half-an-hour for official welcoming.

On the other hand, the representatives come away with the impression that some items could have had more discussion, but had been virtually guillotined for lack of time. How then are the six hours spent and is any of it wasted (apart from the decisions with which one personally disagrees)?

Representatives reading 'The Ringing World' report notice that the opening speeches are considerably curtailed. This is so with nearly all routine speeches elsewhere (except in Hansard). There is one item which is not published in full—losses by death during the year of past representatives, when their names are read out and all stand in silence as a mark of respect. Then follow tributes to their memory by friends and officers of their Associations and Guilds. This is all much as occurs at almost any Guild A.G.M. The only difference is that it is on a much larger scale; in fact, anything up to three-quarters of an hour of tributes, many of which have already been made in 'The Ringing World' during the year.

No one would wish to prevent such tributes being paid to old and respected friends, but is there some way round using so much limited business time without causing offence? Would perhaps publication of names and subsequent tributes in 'The Ringing World' suffice as they occur?

Every three years large numbers of newly elected members are sponsored by older representatives, who introduced their charges to the president. This Parliamentary procedure is completed surprisingly quickly, due to very efficient organisation. Are there any other items of business which could be streamlined without loss of dignity or opportunity for full discussion?—Yours, etc.,

R. E. P.

Handbell Ringing—'A Good Advertisement'

Dear Sir.—The recent letters published giving details of handbell teams, mainly in the North of England, shed some light on one of the most interesting yet, I feel, sadly neglected branches of our art of ringing. This is certainly a pity as there is no doubt all that it is the only branch of ringing that is always appreciated.

Mention was made on page 156 of the tune ringing team I run at Ashton-under-Lyne Grammar School. Like the team at Ecclesfield Grammar School we have been ringing for the last four years, during which time we have played 'in public' on some couple of dozen times—often in school (Christmas parties, school fairs, etc.) and also locally (for such organisations as the National ETAO parties, school fairs, etc.), and also locally (for such organisations as the National Children's Homes, Inskip League, Rotary Club, etc.). The pleasure given to the various people, especially those in hospital, is something I don't think the girls themselves appreciate to the full.

Just as tower bell ringers receive help from neighbouring towers so we have received help from handbell ringers in the district. Your correspondent, Mr. Thomas Ogden, of Shaw, Oldham, has always been most helpful, especially in providing us with handbell music (anyone requiring 12-bell music should definitely contact him). Similarly, Mr. Norman Wilkinson, of Oldham, has arranged various tunes, especially for our 17 bells. Visits have been made to hear the Hazel Grove handbell ringers, and on a number of occasions to hear the Moorside handbell ringers (and, incidentally, we have even visited Loughborough Bell Foundry!). To all these people I would like to say a personal 'Thank you,' at the same time inviting any passing ringer to join in our practice at 4 p.m. most Tuesdays.

The reason for my writing in such detail is mainly to draw attention to a branch of ringing which is a good advertisement for ringers and ringing in general, and, after all, this is something that ought to be encouraged. Possibly we ringers in the teaching profession can help by forming tune ringing teams—and I can vouch that enthusiastic tower bell ringers can be found through this introduction to ringing.

I was most pleased to read of other school bands—possibly we could have a 'get together' sometime? If any other schools are interested then please contact me, and if there are enough interested I am quite willing to organise such an event.—Yours sincerely,

JOHN P. PARTINGTON.

RINGERS' NAMES, AND OTHERS

Dear Sir,—'Have a go' says 'A. Flat,' and no doubt Wilfrid Pickles would be 'tickled to death' to read a few of the names that appear from time to time in 'The Ringing World,' as in some of the Directories, too—not only of ringers, but of places, such as Giggleswick, Stratton Strawless, Swineshead, Isle of Muck (off Scotland), Merry Town, Tarts Barn, Willoughby Waterless, Appletree, Edith Weston, Pityme, Wallop and Nether Piddle, to quote a few that come to mind.

Then, in 1931, there was a peal rung by eight ringers, all the names of a colour—Fred White, William Brown, Albert Green, Robert Black, Alan Pink, Harold Hazell, William Rose and Nolan Golden.

I've both read and known of others, such as Edward Beir, Maurice Stout, Mansfield Ginn, Fred Larger, Bertram Waters; Agnes Duck, Michael Chicken, Maurice Hen, Albert Gooseman, Harold Peacock, Joshua Partridge, Frank Rabbit, Phyllis Hare (later Mrs. Poole), Frank Fox, Geoffrey Badger, Ronald Deer;

Betty Spice, Thomas Pepper, Frank Curry, Harold Peppercorn (and the name of the borough treasurer in the town of my birth is Leslie Salt), David Ginger;

Finally, I've seen together on one platform a George Nutt, with a Peter Bok, in addition to having met a Percy Spokes, George Rivett, Mary Tack, Gordon Staple and a Rev. Rust.

Somebody said to me a fortnight ago (a name that has been in your journal a lot these last three issues) that 'The Ringing World' needs gingering-up, that it is getting boring and dull. So now 'A. Flat'—beat the above—if you can. 'CRESCENDO.'

THE SPLICING OF ALLIANCE MINOR METHODS

It will be noted that although the original Alliance method is without a 2nds (or 6ths) place partner the rearranged parts are in all cases capable of two variations. If, therefore, both these are required, preparation must be made beforehand in order to obtain them.

Ringers can, of course, prepare their own arrangements if they wish, but it will be found that 720 No. 335 is suitable for Groups (1), (2) and (3), and 720 No. 325 for Groups (4) and (5).

The following procedure will serve as a guide.

- Place Alliance in the courses which bear their group letters.
- Place the Plain method in place of the Alliance in the remaining courses.
N.B.—The Plain method will have the same Capital Group letter as the Alliance which it is replacing.
- Make the alterations in the Little methods to allow for this substitution of Plain methods for Alliance.
- Choose one of the courses of Alliance and change to Plain, making the necessary adjustments to the Little.

The middle course of Norwood All. is changed to Lytham, otherwise the 720 is the same as the 3-part given above. The transposition to change the Little methods into Plain is 45263, and as an example of its use I have shown in detail the first course of Thelwall with identifying letters. The remaining Thelwall and the Lytham are similarly treated. Without the Lytham the extent would be a regular 3-part. (To be continued)

SURREY ASSOCIATION

The first quarterly meeting of the year of the Southern District was held on March 16th, at Limpsfield and the Chart.

Ringling started with a happy touch to a bride and bridegroom as they left the church, to be followed by a varied programme, which included Cambridge Surprise Minor, until Evensong in the church. The tea was kindly provided free of charge by local ladies.

A sad note was struck by the secretary announcing the sudden death the previous day of Mr. Frank Oakshot, a loyal member of the Association. The company stood in silence as a tribute to his memory. The election of four new members was the only other item of note. Ringling continued in both towers until 9 p.m.

Next meeting (quarterly), Old Coulsdon, June 22nd. K. G.

LIVERPOOL UNIVERSITY SOCIETY ANNUAL DINNER

THE second annual dinner of the Liverpool University Society was held on March 2nd. In the morning, members of the Society attempted a peal of Bob Major at Oxtol. Although this unfortunately came to grief, owing to the conductor missing out a course, two out of the three visitors' peals attempted were successful. In the afternoon, there was general ringing at four towers on the Wirral. The standard of this ringing was surprisingly high, with methods ranging from London Major to Grandire Doubles. A couple at St. Mary's, Birkenhead, were pleasantly surprised to hear the bells pealing out on the occasion of their wedding.

The dinner was held at the Prenton Hotel, Birkenhead, at 8 p.m.; 54 members and friends attending. After an excellent meal, the president (Mr. M. Pilgrim) having welcomed the visitors, especially those from Birmingham, Bristol, Hull and Nottingham, proposed the loyal toast, followed by that of 'The Church.' The Rev. E. A. Owen, Vicar of St. Mary's, Birkenhead, replied to the latter saying that he was not accustomed to making entertaining speeches, but rather those which the congregation seemed to regard as a time to regain lost sleep. Ringling was the traditional art of calling people to church, and he hoped that this was in fact true for campanologists, and not as in China, where bells are used to drive away evil spirits. He concluded by saying that he hoped that the Society would carry on its service to the Church with pride.

After the toast of 'The Visitors' had been proposed, Mr. Philip Tocock proposed that of 'The Society.' He said that as he was a soldier he had been stationed in many parts of the country, and had thus seen the work that universities did in manning silent towers. He was glad to note that that Society did its share of this work. After relating stories of students' high spirits, he registered his surprise at their ability to think about two things at once; a talent, which he said could be quite useful whilst ringing. Assuring the Society that it was always welcome at Liverpool Parish Church, he hoped that it would go from strength to strength, and produce, one day, a conductor who did not miss out courses.

In reply Mr. Roger Shea thanked Mr. Tocock for his remarks and advice. He gave details of the Society's achievements and remarked on the keenness of the learners. He hoped members would make more major peal attempts, and also widen the circle of their friends at the annual dinners and on the annual tours.

Handbells and good fellowship concluded the evening.

On Sunday, ringing took place at St. Nicholas', St. Francis Xavier's and Liverpool Cathedral, with the help of the local bands. The Society would like to thank the visitors for making this dinner such a success, and also the local ringers for the warm-hearted welcome that they gave to the visitors, both on Saturday and Sunday.

WORCESTERSHIRE & DISTRICTS ASSOCIATION

On March 2nd the Western Branch held a meeting at Kempsey, where the six fine bells were rung to methods up to London Surprise. The Vicar, in his address, told us that although often our homes, churches and bells were secondhand we must take care that our religion was not, and it was only by regularly taking part in the church services that our religion could be thoroughly first hand.

The tea and business meeting took place in the comfortable surroundings of the Vicarage. At the beginning of the meeting tribute was paid to the late Mr. Fred Hyde, and the company stood in silence. It was agreed that the next quarterly peal be associated with his memory. The gap which has been left by his passing will be hard to fill, and it is a tribute to his efficiency as Branch secretary to say that before his death he had completed arrangements for this meeting.

During the meeting, Bishop C. E. Stuart and Rev. C. J. Kay, Vicar of Welland, were elected clerical vice-presidents, and Mr. Arthur Jopp secretary. The perennial question of General Fund versus Belfry Repair Fund again reared its head and, despite impassioned support for the latter, a collection was made for the General Fund. (One muttered remark, overhead during the discussion, suggested that since the Belfry Repair Fund appeared to be in such a strong state, it should subsidise the straightening out of the apparently square wheels on Crowle bells to stop their slipping rope.)

On our return to the tower, ringing ranged from rounds to London, and even included a course of Worcester Surprise. P. C.

OXFORD DIOCESAN GUILDWitney and Woodstock Branch

Despite a stormy afternoon, there was a warm welcome at Cassington for a good number of ringers who attended the annual meeting of the Witney and Woodstock Branch on March 16th. The ringing was of a higher standard than usual.

The Master of the Guild (Canon C. Elliot Wigg), who conducted the service jointly with the Rev. Peter Wilkins, Vicar of Cassington, commented especially on the quality of the service touch. Mr. David Smith read the lesson, and the Vicar gave a short address.

Mrs. Wilkins and her helpers excelled themselves in the tea enjoyed by a company of 45. Canon Wigg was in the chair for the business meeting. The accounts, presented by Mr. Graham Orme, showed that funds had increased by over £9. A report on Branch activities from the honorary secretary stated that two peals and 17 quarters had been rung in the Branch in 1962. The only changes in the officers were the Rev. P. Wilkins as chairman and the Rev. H. P. Hudson as vice-chairman.

Mr. Alec Cantwell spoke about the proposed rehanging of Northmoor bells; about £800 was needed, including a new frame. The Branch decided to give £40.

Evening ringing was at Cassington, Eynsham and Stanton Harcourt.

Ashford Parish Church—200th Anniversary

ON Saturday, March 16th, history was remembered when a peal was rung by eight members of the Kent County Association to commemorate the 200th anniversary of the first ring on the eight bells, and the first peal thereon.

The first definite mention of bells occurs in 1552, when 'V great bells, one lytell bell' are recorded in the inventory of church goods of this year. These may well have been given by Sir John Fogge, who rebuilt much of the church and raised the great central tower to its present height of 120 feet at the end of the 15th century; the latter was destined to become one of the most famous landmarks of the locality.

In 1620 at least three bells were recast by Joseph Hatch, who added a new treble to make six; it is more than likely, however, that the old bells were exchanged for a new ring of six, although the third bell of this ring was recast by Joseph in 1633, and the second by his nephew, William Hatch, in 1651. The inscriptions on these six were recorded as:

Treble.—IOSEPHVS HATCH ME FECIT 1620.

Second.—WILLIAM HATCH MADE ME O 1651.

Third.—IOSEPHVS HATCH ME FECIT O 1633 W.H.

Fourth.—IOSPEHVS HATCH ME FECIT O 1620.

Fifth.—PETRVS PARRIS CW IOSEPHVS HATCH ME FECIT O 1620.

Tenor.—IOHN ASHERST CW IOSEPHVS HATCH ME FECIT 1962.

For the dimensions of the other bells the tenor was probably about 19 cwt., somewhat lighter than the present tenor.

In 1762 two new trebles were cast by Lester and Pack, and the augmented ring was rehung in a massive wooden frame of the traditional 2—4—2 design, with 3, 4, 7, 8 hung in the middle row. A board in the ringing chamber depicts that the 'First ringing of the eight bells was on Monday, 14th March, 1763,' and the first peal on the bells was rung on the following day by a band from Leeds (Kent); this was 5,184 Oxford Treble Bob Major in 3 hours 23 minutes, conducted by the famous James Barham. The first peal by the local company was in 1765, and the present peal boards record performances in a variety of methods during the next few decades: there were even one or two remarkable peals of over 6,000 changes.

In 1795, the tenor bell sustained some injury; it was taken to Whitechapel, where it was recast by Thomas Mears I, and came back in 1796, weighing about 24 cwt.; possibly the previous bell was a little thin and weak compared with the rest of the ring.

In 1878 it was noted in the vestry minute book that the 6th bell was cracked in the crown, but nothing seems to have been done to rectify this for 20 years.

In 1885 the old chimes, which had been originally made by a local craftsman and had made Ashford famous, were completely restored by Gillett and Co., who also placed a new clock and striking mechanism in the tower. The new chimes necessitated the addition of two extra semi-tone bells, and these are fastened 'dead' to a beam above the main ring.

In 1898 the bells were thoroughly overhauled and rehung with new fittings throughout by Taylors, who recast the sixth bell, which was quite useless by now. The old bell weighed 12 cwt. 2 qr. 3 lb., while the new bell weighs 11 cwt. 3 qr. 23 lb., and is tuned on the Simpson 5-tone principle.

Finally, in 1924, the cannons were removed from the bells, which were hung with new (wooden) headstocks, clappers and ball bearings by Gillett and Johnston, who estimated the tenor as weighing 23 cwt. in E flat.

THE TENOR BELL OF 1796.

The bells at present are generally regarded as a good 'old-style' ring, and they go very easily, although one or two are somewhat odd-struck. This is remarkable when one considers that the bells have never been tuned together as a ring, and that they are still hung in the original framework of 1763. The chimes were regularly heard until the last decade, but they are now in need of a thorough overhaul; the clock, however, still gives good service, and is hand wound every day.

By kind permission of the Vicar (Canon Granville Sharpe) eight members of the Kent County Association were privileged to attempt a commemoration peal. At 4.30 p.m., after the local press had taken photographs, a start was made for 5,184 Oxford Treble Bob Major. This was stopped after a course of indifferent ringing, and Bob Major was substituted in an attempt to reconcile good striking with a method more familiar to the band. Accordingly a good peal was rung in the quick time of 2 hours 48 minutes. N. J. D.

A VISIT TO LANCASHIRE

On March 23rd, one of the first fine days that Yorkshire has seen this year, five ringers from Leeds Parish Church and one from All Saints', Pontefract, had a tour of Lancashire.

At St. Mark's, Preston (a rough-going six), we found the rope of the third just protruding through the ceiling. Nothing could be done about this, and we were reduced to ringing five, and adding the third with the Ellacombe chimes.

An excellent eight was sampled at Walton-le-Dale and at Leyland Parish Church we regretted the smallness of our numbers, when confronted with the majestic ten, and had to be content with the back six. Three of the local band joined us at St. James', Moss Side.

The 'go' did not match the tone of the bells at St. Michael's, Croston, but at Eccleston we felt we did justice to the bells. At Chorley and Adlington we were disappointed in not getting a ring, nevertheless, the day was enjoyable, and we thank Mr. C. Barrie Dove for organising the tour. J. W.

HERTS COUNTY ASSOCIATION

On March 16th the St. Albans District visited the Houses of Parliament to see Big Ben. Even we ringers found the steps a few over the eight, but the view from the belfry was tremendous. We knew he (Ben is male, isn't he?) had a crack, but it looked more as if mice had been at him.

On regaining terra firma, just after the hour, we were conducted round the historic chambers where our destiny is decided. Our congratulations to our guide who had been doing a grand job for exactly 43 years.

After ringing at two London towers, there was singing, etc., on the coach, the tunes coming from Harpenden, while most noise came from one particular member from Wheathampstead. J. D. C.

50 YEARS AGO

'R.W.' April 4th, 1913.—

At last four peals have been rung in a day by the same band, and the honour falls to the six-bell men of the Kent Association. They accomplished this performance on Easter Monday, when four separate 5,040's were rung each in seven Minor methods....

This performance recalls an episode in Sussex about 14 years ago, when four ringers took part in five 5,000's, which were completed in less than 31 hours.

CIRENCESTER GRAMMAR SCHOOL

On March 29th, the bells of Cirencester Parish Church were rung by members of the Grammar School's Ringing Society, before the annual Founder's Day service. Such an event has now become a well established part of the Society's activities.

The first time the bells were rung for the Founder's Day service was on the occasion of the school's quinqucentenary celebration, when a band was formed consisting of past and present ringers from the school. Now the school is able to form a band made up entirely of pupils from the school.

This year, to everybody's horror, a photographer from one of the local papers appeared in the tower, claiming that he had been sent by the headmaster. Despite protests, especially from one of the fair sex, who claimed that having been caught unawares she was not looking her best, a photograph was taken. The visitor then left to go and worry the choir. The remainder of the band, presumably having been warned of the presence of the photographer, then arrived and the back eight bells were rung to Triples. M. D. D.

OLD ALBANIAN SOCIETY

On March 23rd five past and five present members of St. Albans School spent an enjoyable afternoon in Northern Hertfordshire. Ringing up to Surprise Minor took place at four towers, this being the first outing of the Society.

At Hinxworth, a quaint church with lovely bells, the rail to the ringers' gallery seemed to be better arranged to trip one up than for safety.

Wallington will always be remembered as the place where one driver didn't notice the duck pond until too late. The Master had to tow him out. J. D. C.

BEDFORDSHIRE ASSOCIATION

A meeting of the Biggleswade District was held at St. Peter's, Arlesey, on March 9th. There was ringing during the afternoon before a short service, conducted by the Vicar, Rev. E. Edgell. An excellent tea was provided in St. Peter's Hall by lady church workers, and a short business meeting followed, with the Rev. E. Edgell in the chair.

Ringling continued after tea until 8.15 p.m. and the standard of ringing was moderately good.

Next meeting: Silsoe, April 20th.

MRS. LEWIS COCKEY

The sympathy of many friends is extended to Mr. J. Lewis Cockey on the death of his wife, Mrs. Annie Gordon Cockey, which was very peaceful at Stratton Hospital, Swindon.

A native of Holmsdale, Sutherlandshire, Mrs. Cockey (née Bruce) was a distant relative, on her mother's side, of the late President Grant, of the U.S.A. She met Mr. Cockey while serving as a student nurse in Sheffield, and served much of World War I in the Army Nursing Service. Her marriage was on July 22nd, 1919, at St. Andrew's Cathedral, Inverness, the Bishop of Moray (the Rt. Rev. A. J. McLean) being the officiating clergyman. The Second World War saw her again in service, this time as a warden at Ealing, where her nursing experience was of much value in a number of incidents.

Although not a ringer, Mrs. Cockey took a great interest in bells and loved to entertain people after peals and other functions. There was a welcome for everyone at her home at Dore, near Sheffield.

In 1955, when she was ailing somewhat, she had a great desire to be with her daughter in Winnipeg. Mr. and Mrs. Cockey emigrated and intended to live there permanently. Unfortunately, after a time, she suffered a seizure and became so weak that it seemed better to return to England. Her last few happy years were spent at Swindon near relatives. A further seizure necessitated her removal to Stratton Hospital, where she was quite happy and normal except for great weakness.

APPRECIATION

His ringing friends will have seen with great regret the notice of the death of Mrs. Annie Gordon Cockey, wife of Mr. J. E. Lewis Cockey, of Swindon, and formerly of Ealing and Dore. She will be remembered by us because of her interest in ringing and her kind hospitality on many occasions after ringing, and we would assure Mr. Cockey of our sympathy in his loss.

OBITUARYMR. W. C. RHODES
AN APPRECIATION

Mr. Rhodes will be missed by many over a wide area. He assisted the ringers of Kingsbury from call changes to Surprise Minor, attended most practice nights and apologised if he could not come. He was always ready to assist in a peal, ring for weddings, or go on outings. Indeed, we at Kingsbury have lost a very dear friend.

G. H. L.

MR. WILLIAM SHARPE

Ringers in the Melton District of the Leicester Diocesan Guild heard with great regret of the death of Mr. William Sharpe, of Hose, on March 18th, after a long illness. He was born in 1877 and had been a ringer at St. Michael's, Hose, for 60 years, and for over 50 of these tower captain. He was the oldest member of the Framland Association; a member of the Midland Counties Association and the Leicester Guild.

Mr. Sharpe was the leading figure in getting Hose bells rehung in 1898, and again in 1928, when they were all recast. He conducted the only peal on the old five in May, 1927, in which his old friend, Mr. Ernest Morris, took part. A very good Ringing Master, he insisted on good striking and belfry discipline. But above all this, he was a great churchman, and had held many offices in the church, having been Vicar's warden for 25 years.

Many friends attended the funeral on March 21st, which was conducted by the Rev. A. Willcock. Messrs. Edward Tinsley, R. Caunt sen., R. Caunt jun., E. Caunt and J. W. Kirtton represented the ringers. Wreaths were sent from the Framland Association and the Leicester Diocesan Guild.

In the evening, 1,260 Doubles (Plain Bob and Grandsire) were rung half-muffled by R. Caunt 1, J. H. Cook (cond.) 2, E. Tinsley 3, H. Clayton 4, R. H. Cook 5.

ST. VEDAST'S CHURCH—ONLY TWO PEALS

The recent two peals at St. Vedast's, Foster Lane, London, are the first on the bells. 'As far as can be ascertained,' writes Dr. D. E. Sibson, 'the bells had not been rung this century up to when the church was damaged in the war. For many years there had been eight bells in the tower, although originally it was a six-bell tower. Where the other two came from is apparently unknown, but they were put in in such a way as to make it impossible to ring the original six. Neither Canon K. W. H. Felstead nor Mr. F. T. Blagrove knows of any other record of a peal having been rung at this church, beyond the two recent peals.'

The peal that is published under the title Stormy Weather Surprise Minor is a very old one and was formerly known as College Bob V, but this name has been replaced, and the correct title, writes Mr. Frank T. Blagrove, is Luton Surprise Minor. It is an irregular method and not related to the regular method, Luton Surprise Royal.

The band who rang a peal of Durham Surprise Minor at Wigston, Leicester, have now rung Durham from Minor to Maximus!

We regret that the peal of Warwickshire Surprise Major rung at Shepshed on February 16th and published in the issue of March 22nd was a duplicate of a peal published on March 15th.

In connection with the peal at Rowde, Wilts, on March 16th, Mr. R. J. Purnell, of Chippenham, asks us to thank the Vicar and Mr. Amor, the tower captain, for making the necessary arrangements.

This year's Grantley Hall (Yorks) Bell-ringing Course will be from Friday night, October 25th, to Sunday, October 27th, and will be limited to 30 students. Details will be advertised in due course.

Mr. and Mrs. H. B. Schofield, of Bradford, Yorks, rang their 50th peal together at Liversedge on March 23rd. It was called by their daughter, Gillian, and Barry was also in the band.

In ringing his 120th peal of Double Norwich Court Bob Major at Ashted, Mr. A. Patrick Cannon informs us that this is the first time he has duplicated a tower for a peal in this method.

Will readers please ignore the composition of 5,201 Grandsire Caters by Brian Downes on page 207. Unfortunately the first line under bracket A, 1-2-3 2345 is out of place. It should be the last line in the bracket. The error is regretted.

Capt. N. Denson, C.A., after a spell in Germany, has been posted to the R.N. Air Station, Lossiemouth, Morayshire. While on the Continent Capt. Denson kept a watchful eye for bells and contributes to our column an article on Copenhagen bells.

BELFRY GOSSIP

2nd. It would be interesting to learn whether the late Mr. Ernest Morris rang more than 1,250 peals for the Leicester Diocesan Guild. He certainly rang more than 1,250 in Leicestershire, but the Leicester Guild was not formed until 1946, and its predecessor, the Midland Counties Association, of which Ernest was secretary for 21 years, was then also divided between Midland Counties Guild, Derbyshire Association and Southwell Diocesan Guild.

The youngest member, of Godalming, Surrey, 12-year-old Nicoli Stroud, has called her first quarter of Grandsire Triples—and faultlessly, too, writes her mentor.

Owing to leaks in the balancing tank at St. Albans Cathedral, caused by the severe winter, the tank had to be emptied and it was only considered safe to ring the front bells. Rumour has it that dexterous use of large quantities of chewing gum has now committed all the bells to be rung again.

In a tube train between Charing Cross and Euston, via Victoria, High Street Kensington, Paddington, Edgware Road and Baker Street, on March 6th a quarter peal of Plain Bob Minor was rung 'in hand' by Mary Taylor 1-2, P. Cattermole (cond.) 3-4, J. C. Eisel 5-6. Umpires: Pauline Fennell and Yvonne Edwards. This is believed to be the first 'in hand' on an underground train, and possibly the first mobile quarter in London. It was rung during London University Rag Week.

Old Tom Dexter, one of the leading bell founders of his day, has a fine testimonial to his work at Leeds Parish Church. Despite a long draught, a very rocking tower and great weight, no trouble was experienced by a band, which included five minors, in scoring a peal of Bob Major on the back eight after meeting short for Royal. Tom Dexter, writes R.H.D., hung the present ring in 1932, and the tenor again in 1949. Strangely, he was not a ringer in the true sense, but he raised and set the 42 cwt. bell by the wheel, to the amazement of the spectators.
