SIMON SAID 'THUMBS UP'

RINGERS and their idiosyncrasies amuse or irritate the public. It is not merely by ringing bells in towers and on handbells under unusual circumstances that arouses curiosity, but by our very demeanour in refreshing memory of our art that we break through the barrier of normality into what the public might regard as absurd. Things seem to happen in Yorkshire—have they not a professor who keeps a watchful eye on the foibles of the Exercise—but this delightful sketch or satire in 'The Yorkshire Post' proclaims far and wide that we are a peculiar people. The incident reads:

'Travel, they say, broadens the mind. Mine was nearly unhinged on a short train journey I made the other day. There were four men in the compartment I got into. I thought it was funny that each of them had his hands lightly clenched on his knees, the thumbs lying straight out in line with his trouser creases.

'What was even odder, they suddenly began raising and lowering their thumbs in strict order, one after the other. All this was done without a word until one of them said, "Go, next time." (I was already in a state of go. Had it been a corridor train I would have gone into the next compartment.)

'Now instead of following each other with their thumb hoisting and lowering, they seemed to be moving them at any old time. After half a mile the garrulous member of the party said, "Bob." Whichever was Bob didn't answer to that name. A little later the gabby one again said "Bob" and followed it up with "Single."

'At this, one of them—Bob, maybe?—began to look flustered. His thumb movements became jerky, and the head of the gang told him sharply: "Take the third with the fifth, dodge three four up and go on to lead!"

'Watching thumbs bobbing up and down has a hypnotic effect on the mind after a time. I looked on in a sort of trance until the loquacious type said: "Stand." The thumbs stopped. The flustered man mopped his brow. "Well, that wasn't too bad," said the one who had done all the talking. "But if you're on the fifth this afternoon, George, you'll have watch those dodges." The browmopper nodded.

'I cleared my throat, George's boss must have seen I was about to burst with curiosity. "We're bell ringers," he said kindly. "We were just practising change ringing."

"With your thumbs?" "We were using them instead of handbells. I suppose it would look funny to you."

"It did."

'He then gave me a brief outline of bell ringing, throwing off terms like "dodge three four up," "lay your pull" and "take the lead." "Of course," he said, "that's in Plain Bob Major or Minor."

"Of course," I said. My campanological education was cut short by our arrival at my station. As I turned away from the train I saw that the thumb exercising had started again, and I hoped George was watching his dodges.

'I thought there ought to be special compartments marked "Bellringers." After exposure to an experience of this kind a nervous passenger, who was given no explanation, would totter out of the train feeling that his belfry was full of bats.'

We feel certain that this Yorkshire experience and the suggested remedy will be given full consideration by the Railwaymen's Guild. Perhaps the author of 'Belfrymanship' might, with his experience of railways, coupled with his wide knowledge of our art and its practising members, be induced to add to the quotation, 'And Simon said. . . .'

MEMORIAL SERVICE TO EDWIN H. LEWIS

RINGERS came on All Souls' Day (November 2nd) from distant Cornwall, from Lancashire and Yorkshire, and most parts of the country, to pay homage and respect for the life of Mr. Edwin Hugh Lewis at a service of thanksgiving held at St. Michael's, Cornhill, London. While the large congregation was assembling, the bells were being runn half-muffled to Stedman the large congregation was assembling, the bells were being rung half-muffled to Stedman Cinques by a representative band as follows:
J. Phillips. senior steward. A.S.C.Y.. treble;
Rev. P. N. Bond. who was taught to ring by Mr. Lewis, 2; F. W. Perrens, librarian, Central Council, 3; J. Freeman (conductor), vice-president, Central Council, 4; M. V. Chilcott. Master. A.S.C.Y., 5; F. Bibby, Chester Diocesan Guild, representing the Frodsham band, of which he was a former member, 6; J. E. Chilcott, secretary, A.S.C.Y., 7; Dr. P. A. F. Chalk, Cambridge University Guild, 8; G. W. Fletcher, past secretary and treasurer, Central Council, 9; A. D. Barker, member of Central Council since 1924, 10; P. A. Corby, secretary, Kent County Association, of which Mr. Lewis was one time chairman, 11; D. Beresford, Master of Society of Royal Cumberland Youths, tenor.

The service opened with the hymn 'Through all the changing scenes of life,' to be followed by the Sentences, read by Canon K, W. H. Felstead, Vicar of St. Michael's, Southampton, and a member of the Central Council. Psalm 23 was sung to the tune by Crimond, and then Mr. Frederick Sharpe, who succeeded Mr. Lewis as president of the Central Council, impressively read the lesson from Feclesiasticus. pressively read the lesson from Ecclesiasticus

A course of Plain Bob Major was then rung from the choir by the following members of the Council: Mrs. E. A. Barnett, assistant hon. secretary, 1-2; E. A. Barnett, secretary and treasurer, 3-4; J. F. Smallwood, member since 1939, 5-6; Walter Ayre, member since 1926, 7-8.

The address was given by Canon Gilbert Thurlow, Vicar of Great Yarmouth and president of the Central Council, to be followed by the hymn 'Guide me, O thou great Redeemer,' which was sung with great fervour to the organ accompaniment, played by the world-famous composer Dr. Harold Dark. Prayers offered by Canon Felstead preceded the great resurrection hymn. 'Jesus lives! no longer now.' and the congregation was dismissed by Canon Thurlow pronouncing the blessing.

THE ADDRESS

Canon Thurlow, in the address, said: Nothing could encourage me more, in the task of paying tribute to Edwin Lewis, than the touch of Bob Major we have just heard. For that was the sound I heard when, as a terrified undergraduate 32 years ago, I first met Edwin in Mr. Boughey's rooms at Trinity. And one immediately realised, to some extent, the kind of man he was a Locald not in those each days appears. he was. I could not in those early days appreciate his brilliance, nor did I know that he had already been a member of the Towers and Belfries Committee of the Central Council for 20 years and had all that time been doing work of quite extraordinary value. But one immediately saw that here was a man humble enough kind enough, longsuffering and charitable enough to spend his time enduring the first miserable struggles of a big boy through Bob Major on handbells. So I learnt the most important thing about him. For whatever a man does, it is what he is that matters most. A man must leave his deeds behind him. The one thing he can keep for ever is himself. And a man who is humble, kind, longsuffering and charitable has within himself that with which he can for ever he with the Cod form when can for ever be with the God from whom these things come.

IMPRESSIVE ACHIEVEMENT

Edwin leaves behind him an impressive tale Edwin leaves behind him an impressive tale of achievement. His career in industry, as an engineer, was brilliant. He played a worthy part in the social, human side of industry. His work as a lay member of the Church in both Scotland and England was of great value, as the Archbishop of Canterbury was years ago glad to acknowledge. He was a brilliant linguist, one reminder of which is the Swedish version of 'The Nine Tailors.'

Born June 13th, 1881 Died September 4th, 1963

As a ringer he thoroughly deserved the honours which came to him. Having learnt to ring at Trowell in 1900, he joined the Cambridge University Guild in 1901 and represented it on the Central Council from 1908 to 1936. He was president of the Council from 1930 until 1957, and was a life member thereafter. 'As Vicar of Yarmouth, how pleased I was that he was able to be present with his wife, who is so much in our thoughts today, with the Council much in our thoughts today, with the Council in Yarmouth at Whitsun this year, and how deeply impressed the Council was with the speech he made at the meeting.

'A wise man makes provision for the future. He showed wisdom indeed in handing over not only the presidency of the Council but also the leadership of the Towers and Belfries Committee, with the immensely important and valuable work which that implies, to a brilliant successor, who we profoundly hope will carry on this work for many years to come. The other activity which has brought us to London today reminds us that Edwin was Master of the Ancient Society of College Youths in 1937, its tercentenary year, coronation year also, and he presided at its annual dinner over a great company, which included some of the highest in the land.

STRANGE ACTIVITY

It is indeed a strange activity which is ours It is indeed a strange activity which is ours. We shut ourselves up in some apartment perched on high, quiet and alone, raised above the noise and clamour of the city. We meet together almost as it were in secret to join with the sport of the centuries past, like Christ and His friends on the mountain top. Yet as those meetings result in fresh power to help the crowds, so the result of our meeting is the insistent message of the bells penetrating everywhere, irritating those who are irritated by God's call, lifting the hearts of all who long for God's coming.

The death of an active man poses the question which we think about on All Souls' Day— is human activity worth while? Man is cut down like a flower: he flees like a shadow. We live always in a state of tension. We each try to achieve something to make our mark—to work to write, to paint, to build, to leave an inheritance to shape the future, to make discoveries and lend to the path of progress: and just as we have achieved something we are cut down like a flower. The very thing our true nature desires, our outward form denies. In fact, if this life is all there is for man, nature is mock-ing us unmercifully, maddening the thoughtful man by its laughter

It is here that the Christian belief in the re-It is here that the Christian belief in the resurrection of the body and the life everlasting comes to man's rescue—not as a doubtful addition to the Christian story, not as a piece of wishful thinking, but as the only way by which the tension in which man lives can be resolved, the only way by which man's existence as an individual—thinking, planning, achieving, and yet imprisoned in a body which dies—can be seen to be a reasonable existence. The resurrection means that the individual lives differently in form, yet as an individual he is the ently in form, yet as an individual he is the 'Christ in His earthly lifetime taught, healed, befriended a few people in a small country, yet after His death and resurrection He marched after His death and resurrection He marched across the centuries and the world as a mighty power for good, continuing for ever, whilst the benefits the world invents come and go. Believing this, we can believe that our art of ringing, ever changing though it be, has yet a counterpart in eternity. Having once been it must ever be; and we can believe that the life of Edwin Hugh Lewis, like all who pass as pilogrims through this strange material state, continues to be in company with the source of all beauty and truth, and with all who because they are of the truth hear His voice.

MR. TOM MYERS

The many friends of Mr. Tom Myers. of Plymouth, will regret to know that he is a patient in the Scott Memorial Hospital, Plymouth, suffering from a bronchial ailment. We wish him a speedy recovery and hope he will soon be back 'on the box' at St. Andrew's. For 60 years there has never been a day but that a mer of the Myers family has been in the tower of St. Andrew's. Mr. Myers' late father attended to the clock chimes and carillon for many years, and when the climb became too muc Tom took over the job. His brothers, Bill and Fred. will carry on during his temporary absence. absence.

ST. ALBANS CAR RALLY

On October 26th the St. Albans District held its first car rally, in the north of the county. Unfortunately for their public relations, the committee gained first and second place—J. D. Chamberlain and G. Dodds and their families. Peter Coles was third; he couldn't be allowed to win as he had been in the Kimpton Cup winning team, organised by the same master brain as the rally. Robert Hardy and bird gained fourth prize. Before the uncharitable ones think there were only four entries, there were thirteen. thirteen

A most impartial starting place was chosen—Nomansland. Here revealing questions were asked on our knowledge of the Highway Code. The route took us through Kimpton of 'striking' memories, to Whitwell and its eight legged. 'major.' water tower. Beyond Great Wymondley was a memorial to two 'aviators' of 1912, still well cared for. William had a nasty question: 'Which was the best kept village in 1959?' The county arms were on a post on the green: but beware, unsuspecting rallyer, on closer inspection a list of winners was found under the arms—the answer being Preston.

winners was found under the arms—the answer being Preston.

Nobody noticed the sluice valve sign at Weston (not super-Mare), where our guardian angels, the organisers, had altered the route the day before to keep us out of sewer trenches. I wonder who would call their house Toggs? We went past it anyway on our way to Cromer (not on the East Coast), where the Wrights make Arrfdsh Zoider (we must try some of this).

Diaries were required to find out where Middleton's 5.600 of Cambridge was first rung. Luckily it was early in the year, on February 11th, 1873, at Bennington, Tea was taken at the Bell, where the organisers, John Cull and Amy Coburn, were congratulated on a first class afternoon.

Ringing in the evening at Bennington and Aston was for those competitors who were not mentally and physically exhausted, and, in fact, reached quite a high standard. Thank you. Amy and John, the venture was an unqualified success. Please do it again: we'll be looking forward to it.

pany the Society enjoyed a most successful meeting at Kingswinford on October 19th. St. Mary's bells (8) were kept going to a variety of methods, under the guidance of the Ringing Master, Mr. B. G. Key. before the service, at which the Society's form of Evensong was conducted by the Vicar, who addressed us. Our thanks are extended to the organist for his interest and playing the 'Variations on Holsworthy Bells' as a voluntary.

The ringers' wives and friends did us proud by providing a bountiful tea. After this meal the secretary announced that as many as possible of the annual reports had been distributed. The following new members were elected: Miss C. Turner (West Bromwich), Miss J. White (Great Barr). G. Griffiths (Bilston) and D. Braddock (Sedgley). The Vicar and Kingswinford ringers were sincerely thanked for all they had done to make this such a successful meeting. Further ringing on St. Mary's bells followed, and also on the six bells at Holy Trinity, Wordsley.

CHELSFIELD'S WEEK-END

The last week-end in September was something by the way of an experiment for Chelsfield ringers. Saturday took the form of the annual outing, and the party was completed at the first tower, Horsmonden, by several visitors from Kent and Surrey. A course of Bristol was among the methods rung here.

At Marden a touch of six spliced came home. Staplehurst bells proved a bit of a handful, especially for those who were not used to eight bells—but the ringing worked up a respectable appetite for lunch, which was taken while listening to the local band ring for a wedding.

Having sent several ringers to ring for a wedding at Cranbrook, the remainder moved to Headcorn, where a course of Lincolnshire was rung before the party was completed again. Smarden's were the only six of the day, and a very pleasant six too. A tea house raid in Biddenden resulted in 25 hungry, thirsty and none too quiet ringers descending on rather surprised proprietors

We joined the Hawkhurst and District Guild warmly wlcomed, and, among other things, good courses of London and Bristol were rung. Ringing for the day concluded on the easy going octave at Frittenden.

The company was then invited to the home of Mike and Dorothy Legg at Cranbrook, where a truly amazing spread awaited our cager attentions. Singing and conversation continued well into the evening and Chelsfield was reached in the small hours.

At seven-thirty on Sunday morning we were ringing again—our own bells this time—for ringers' Corporate Communion, at which all those on the outing attended. A quarter peal ringers Corporate Communion, at which all those on the outing attended. A quarter peal of London Surprise Minor was rung during the afternoon. At Evensong we welcomed back several of our former ringers who have moved out of the area, and now ring elsewhere. Ringers acted as sidesmen and read the lessons and the Rev. C. J. Ellingham, once a ringer, preached an inspiring sermon to a packed church. Further ringing after the service was watched by many of the congregation, while the intricacies were explained to those who were interested. All ringers were then welcomed home by the captain and the evening and ringers' week-end had passed all too quickly.

THE LADIES' GUILD Devon Branch

A large attendance of ringers of both sexes attended the Devon Branch's successful meetin at St. Peter's, Tiverton on October 26th. The ringing was under the supervision of Mrs. D E. Hood and consisted of touches of Grandsire and Stedman Triples and Plain Bob Major, with rounds and call changes for the less experienced ringers.

A service was later held in church which was conducted by the Rector (Rev. Chas. S. Nye), who welcomed the visitors and gave an address.

After tea at a local cafe, the gentlemen ringers returned to the belfry, whilst the branch members held their meeting under the chairmanship of Mrs. Hood, in the absence of the vice-president (Mrs. D. R. Bould). Seven new members were elected (six from Bampton and one from Dartmouth), and it was resolved to hold the annual meeting at Clyst Honiton on April 18th, with ringing at Clyst St. George in the evening, subject to permission. mission.

The usual votes of thanks concluded the meeting, and further ringing took place at Bickleigh.

SOME OF THE OUTINGS

ST. PETER-DE-WITTON, DROITWICH

Although they left Witton at 6.45 a.m., St. Peter's ringers and friends did not reach Bristol, the destination for their outing on October 5th, until 11 a.m. They were made very welcome at the Cathedral School practice and from the Cathedral were escorted to the Lord Mayor's Chapel. Lunch was eaten in the pouring rain before visiting St. John-on-the Wall (a lovely City church, with a good in a six). Our best ringing was there. St. Michael-on-the-Mount Without's 6 bells were more difficult. Philip and Joan Gray met the party at Stoke Bishop, and at Emmanuel, Clifton, Grandsire Triples was rung with local help. The return Journey by train was as uneventful as could be expected with 11 of us packed into one compartment of an otherwise empty train! Thanks are due to Philip Gray, who made the arrangements. P.C.

EASTHAMPSTEAD AND WARFIELD

Easthampstead and Warfield ringers com-bined for a merry outing on sixes, on Septem-ber 28th

Fourteen ringers in a minibus set out before lunch for Sussex and Old Bosham, with our faithful captain at the wheel. Lunch in traditional manner, preceded trying Bosham bells. These were a slower six than we were used to, but after a couple of courses we had some nice striking—more striking, though, was the beautiful old church and the Harvest Festival flowers. Festival flowers

At Felpham we rang for a wedding and had a good variety of methods (from Plain Bob to Cambridge), but had difficulty in striking well. After tea and a short walk to snift the fragrance of scarced on the front we set of for Lyminster.

A lovely six in a lovely setting, was the general verdict, and here we had some good striking as well as a good number of methods. Very pleased we left for our last tower. Thakeham, which all of us enjoyed—the bells were easy on the hand and the ear, and the ringing reasonably good. Thakeham will also be remembered for the hospitality of its local—I can only say we had a real party—darts, singing, duncing, friendly faces and good drinks.

EXETER UNIVERSITY SOCIETY

The first outing of the newly-formed Exeter University Society was held on October 12th and started modestly with Bob Doubles at Aherington (6), followed by Grandsire Doubles and Bob Minor. At Northam (8) a local ringer appeared very interested in 'scientific' changes and was later persuaded to conduct some call changes. Lunch was eaten on the beach in warm sunshine at Westward Ho!

A baptism delayed the start of ringing at Swymbridge (6) where Little Bob Minor and Stedman Doubles were rung in addition to methods already mentioned. A short journey brought us to South Molton (8) and the long climb to the ringing chamber was well rewarded by these majestic bells. However, the striking in Grandsire Triples and Bob Major could have been improved.

could have been improved.

After tea the pleasant-sounding six at Cadeleigh were visited. The tenor proved difficult to handle, but was expertly turned in by one of the band to touches of Plain Bob and Kent T.B. Unfortunately at Broadclyst, the best bells of the day, there was only time for Grandstre Triples and Bob Major. Our thanks to Martin Lock for arranging the tour, to car drivers, incumbents and lower captains.

Ringers' Diary Apology

Dear Sir,—On double checking the figures I find that the 393 Stedman Caters is in fact correct. My apologies for the mistake to all concerned. However, the 387/651/915 Stedman Cinques is headed 213456 instead of 231456.

Swords and Pistols

Dear Sir.—It is with regret I see these tools returning to Leicester. They were much in use before the 1914 war, but I was under the impression that they were boxed and buried years ago. I have not the pleasure of knowing either of the two gentlemen and feel that the challenge is not much help to either Church or craft. I suggest they try and improve on some of the feats at Loughborough Parish Church, which would give them plenty to do other than find time to fall out over hearsay. Yours truly,

Changing Guild Officers

Changing Guild Officers

Dear Sir.—After my letter appeared in 'The Ringing World' (June 21st. page 431), concerning the changing of guild officers, periodically, I have received several letters both for and against the suggestion. Unfortunately, a few people misconstrued the meaning of one of my statements.

In my letter I stated that I would like to know what other ringers thought, especially those in the Lincoln Guild, to the proposition that an officer should retire for at least one year after serving three consecutive years. Several people (including one whole branch) accused me, of 'backbiting' statements about the officers of the Lincoln Guild.

There was nothing, so far as I could see, in my reference to the Guild, that could be interpreted as 'getting at' anyone. I would like to see all Guilds adopting this rule and one must put one's own house in order before trying to change others.

As far as the Lincoln Guild officers are concerned they are doing a grand job, but let's have a change.—Yours faithfully.

St. Peter-de-Witton, Droitwich

Dear Sir.—The temporary suspension of ringing at St. Peter-de-Witton has been advertised in this journal, and perhaps a few relevant notes may be of interest.

It was not until the captain of the local ringers put his foot through it that the floor of the chamber under the bells was found to be eaten away with worm. Removal of this floor has revealed the existence of a mediæval floor supported by a massive oak frame, work probably coeval with the tower. Unfortunately one of the main beams supporting this framework is completely decayed and it is feared that any vibration due to ringing might bring about two tons of oak crashing about the ringers' ears. It is hoped to repair and preserve this fine 15th century woodwork and expose it to view from below by removal of the ringing room ceiling.

We hope that it will not be too long before we can again welcome visitors to ring at St. Peter's.—Yours, etc.,

PAUL CATTERMOLE (Tower Captain, St. Peter-de-Witton).

The Minor Controversy

Dear Sir,—I was interested to read the article by E. C. S. on Dr. A. B. Carpenter, and subsequent comments by your correspondents.

In considering the controversy over 5,040's of Minor, one must understand exactly how these 5,040's were obtained. A band would these 5,040's were obtained. A band would learn 14 methods, and then ring 360 of each by the use of calls at Home; thus the tenors would not be parted and would do no more than ring plain courses. One does not need to be an expert in Minor ringing to realise that such performances were considerably easier to ring than peals in seven orthodox 720's. With the tenors fixed they were very easy to keep right. They made life very easy for the conductor, and he did not even have to learn the calling of a single 720! Such performances were not confined to Yorkshire, though they seem to have found more favour there than elsewhere; possibly because Yorkthough they seem to have found more favour there than elsewhere; possibly because Yorkshire bands were more enterprising in the number of methods rung, even if their conductors were less so in calling! The Central Council very properly ruled against such performances being recognised as peals. If the question was not actually asked, the feeling of the supporters of these performances must have been, 'If we cannot ring peals like this, how can we include 14 methods in a peal?' Since splicing was then unknown, Dr. Carpenter's answer to this question seems the only one possible at the time. Should it be termed 'naive'? And certainly it does not deserve the description of 'fatuous,' as applied by Mr. Moxon.

Perhaps Mr. Moxon—whose letter seems.

Perhaps Mr. Moxon-whose letter seems bitter-could tell us what the answer strangely office—could tell us what the answer should have been, having regard to the state of ringing at that time; and also whether he would really like performances of this sort to be recognised as peals.

personality and à debater I cannot As a personality and a debater I cannot judge Dr. Carpenter; nor, I think. can Mr. Moxon. Few can now be living who actually remember him in action. To assert that the old Yorkshire members could not have been 'subdued' by him is beside the point. At least, in this debate, Dr. Carpenter was on the winning side.—Yours faithfully,

Dear Sir.—Can any historian in our midst tell me the origin of the words Minimus, Doubles, Minor, etc., to Maximus?

I have been asked this question by a non-printer and was unabled to give a set of form.

I have been asked this question by a non-ringer and was unable to give a satisfactory answer, except to say that, for example, Doubles meant two pairs of bells change places within themselves, and Triples meant three changing pairs, etc., but why are there the words Caters and Cinques? Is this a derivative from the French meaning four and five; if so, how and why has the French influenced our ringing?—Yours sincerely,

ALAN A. J. BUSWELL.

North Wales Adheres to Rules

Dear Sir,—In the 'Ringing World' of Oct. 25th, a number of peals were recorded for the North Wales Association. The peals were rung during a tour of North Wales in August last, under the leadership of Mr. R. G. Leale.

As none of the members of the party are members of the North Wales Association the peals cannot be accepted under the North Wales title and should have been recorded as Non-Association peals.

I have informed Mr. Leale to this effect, and pointing out to him the ruling that any non-member must be proposed and accepted prior to ringing a peal.—Yours sincerely,

W. CATHRALL.

ST. MARTIN'S GUILD

A quarterly meeting of the St. Martin's Guild for the Diocese of Birmingham was held at Perry Barr on October 16th. The eight bells, installed in 1869, are now in need of renovation, and as the clergy seem interested we may soon hear of a scheme to put the bells in order. After a long period of silence, the bells are now rung regularly by an enthusiastic hand of learners. by an enthusiastic band of learners.

At the business meeting the item which caused most discussion was the annual Henry Johnson Commemoration. For some years a considerable financial loss has been sustained on this function, and last year's depletion in the number of people attending resulted in a larger deficit than usual. Many different opinions were ventilated and it was finally decided to hire a smaller room, and limit the number to about fifty. The Provost of Birmingham (the Right Rev. Bishop Sinker) will be invited to occupy the chair.

It was reported that the donations to the Albert Walker Memorial tablet now amounted to £62 towards the £100 required.

The Vicar of Perry Barr (the Rev. Canon D. McLean, M.A.) was warmly thanked for taking the service in church, and for the use of the bells. Acknowledgments were also made to the Iadies who provided tea, and to Mr. David Purnell, who has undertaken the difficult task of teaching a band to ring at Perry Barr.

ST. ALKMUND'S BELLS, DERBY

The latest news on the future of the bells at St. Alkmund's, Derby—the church which is to be demolished to make way for the new inner ring goad—is that the bells will not be installed in the new St. Alkmund's Church which is to be built elsewhere. This is because the site of the new church is close to a hospital and it would be impossible to ring the bells to ring the bells.

At present members of the Derby Diocesan Association man St. Alkmund's bells once a month for Sunday service on a rota basis.

During consultations on these ringing arrangements the Vicar revealed that it was proposed to take only two of the bells from the present ring and install them in the new church. One would be used as an hour bell and other be used to call the congregation to worship.

The Derby Diocesan Association wrote to Canon A. Hopkins, secretary of the Advisory Committee to the Consistory Court, expressing dismay at the possibility of this fine ring being dispersed and asking whether he could confirm the Vicar's statement.

Canon Hopkins replied: 'I had not heard the suggestion that the bells of St. Alkmund's would be broken up, and they must not, even if they cannot be put in the new church.

'If they do have to leave St. Alkmund's have you any suggestion of any parish that could take them?'

The Derby Association have made some suggestions, and have asked for and been granted an interview with Canon Hopkins to discuss what positive active part the Association can play in the future of St. Alkmund's bells.

DORSET RINGING FESTIVAL

A record number attended this year's festival at Blandford, on October 26th, made possible under the will of a late citizen of Blandford, Samuel Francis Pond. Although 75 had notified their intention of coming, it was more like 100 who were present. While all ringers were welcome, it eases the catering if more precise numbers are known beforehand.

After coping with a clock hammer difficulty left by the clock repairers, ringing went merrily enough until the clapper of the 6th dropped off. This, naturally, interrupted proceedings for a few minutes, but all was well when we returned to the belfry after tea. Until, that is to say, a broken stay again held up affairs. Your correspondent left soon after this, but hopes there were no further alarums and excursions excursions

The festival service was attended by the Major of Blandford and other civic officials. The Rev. P. A. Unwin, Vicar of Canford Magna, preached, and other clergy taking part were the Rector of Blandford, Canon H. G. Goodall, and the Rev. R. N. Longridge, honorary secretary of the North Dorset Branch of the Salishawa Guild. of the Salisbury Guild.

After tea, in the Town Hall, the ringers were welcomed by the Mayor, who spoke kindly of bells and ringers.

MR. R. A. FERGUSON

With the passing of Mr. R. A. Ferguson, at the age of 90, on August 25th, ends a family of ringers at Hilgay, Norfolk, of over 150 years. Up to this year he could be seen almost daily going to his office in Downham Market. He conducted a peal of Plain Bob Major by local ringers in 1896 and rang in several peals up to 1914.

He was buried in Hilgay Churchyard on August 28th, and the same evening a half-muffled quarter peal of 1.344 Plain Bob Major was rung by M. Bryan 1, W. Cousins 2. J. Fox 3, V. Bowen 4, E. Cousins 5, A. Rolfe 6, E. Mastin (cond.) 7, C. Cousins 8. First quarter by 1 and 5.

THOMAS H. TAFFENDER

AN APPRECIATION

How many youngsters rang their first quarters and first peals with 'Taff'? His Sunday night band, ringing for worship at many churches where the bells would otherwise have been silent, doubtless inspired local bands to be reformed. In spite of the very great loss his death means, it is good to know that, under the able leadership of Mr. Monty Meyer, the work that Thomas H. Taffender started at St. John's, Waterloo, is still being carried on.

On October 29th at St. John's, Waterloo, members of his Sunday night band of the London County Association rang a quarter peal of Grandsire Triples half-muffled. They were W. D. Grainger (conductor) 1, Miss N. Hales 2, Miss M. E. Powell 3, J. A. Hales 4, J. Hales 5, M. Meyer 6, L. W. Bullock 7, C. W. Ottley 8, It was extremely gratifying to find at Streatham Vale Cemetery that so many of his old colleagues came to pay their respects. They were the present Master (Mr. Wilfred Wilson), past Masters of the Cumberlands and College Youths, Messrs. Harold Rogers, Arthur Barker, Joe Hawkins, Jim Prior and that grand old Leytonstone veteran, Ted Smith.

ST. STEPHEN'S SOCIETY WESTMINSTER

Formed just three years ago, St. Stephen's Society, Westminster, has now 10 members and 2 beginners. Due entirely to the persistent hard work and infectious enthusiasm of the tower captain, Mr. Michael Moreton, the Society has continued to make steady progress. As three or four members will shortly be moving from London, the Society has instituted an annual dinner, the first being held on October 11th and proving to be a great success. great success.

The following morning, none the worse for wear, the Society held its bi-annual outing into Herts, Beds, and Bucks. Ringing started on the pleasant six at Redbourn, followed by St. Leonard's, Flamstead, with its 14th century wall paintings. Refreshments were taken at The Spotted Dog,' Flamstead, before ringing on the loud six at Houghton Regis.

A sandwich lunch at 'The Anchor,' Tilsworth, preceded ringing at the parish church, where, according to the vicar, the tenor bearings need replacement, which confirmed our opinion. The ropes at Stanbridge (5), the next tower, were far too low for people of normal stature. We were sorry to lose here Robin Leale and his fiancee, particularly as the eights were still to come.

The highlight of the day, a plain course of Westminster Surprise without our captain, was rung at Eaton Bray. Next came Edlesborough, where the church on a hill looks across Dunstable Downs at a huge lion cut into the hillside. There were disappointments at Totternhoe where two attempts to ring a course of Cambridge Surprise Major failed as also did Grandsire Triples. Although tired, we redeemed ourselves on Dunstable Priory's magnificent eight, with Stedman Triples and Plain Bob Major.

Our thanks to our secretary, Clive Simpson, for arranging the outing, and to incumbents and local ringers of churches visited.

50 YEARS AGO

'R.W.' November 7th, 1913 .-

'R.W.' November 7th, 1913.—
The small and ancient town of Southam is situated in a rather inaccessible part of the county of Warwickshire, but the Church of St. James now possesses a nice ring of eight bells, and the Rector, the Rev. J. Hart-Davies, is most anxious to see change ringing established firmly in the tower. The original ring was one of six bells, the first three of which were cast by Mears and Co. in 1863 while the last three are dated 1615, 1650 and 1676 respectively. The fourth is by Watts, of Leicester, the fifth by John Martin, of Worcester, and the tenor by Henry Bagles, Recently Messrs. Taylor, of Loughborough, were requisitioned to provide two new trebles and rehang the whole ring....

A somewhat unusual note is found in the churchwardens' accounts for 1641, as follows:

Paid to the King's footmen, who sealed up the church doors for not ringing when the King came to town 6s. 8d.

Paid als to them for not ringing when the King went out of the town 5s. 0d.

Assembly point was St. James's, Taunton, and Stedman Triples went best on this very pleasant ring. Despite our navigator we managed to find St. George's, Wilton, roughly on time. Here the light eight were hung too close together, but were otherwise very pleasant. Next came an unscheduled grab on a 'new' six at Holy Trinity, Taunton. The bells (tenor 4½ cwt.) have been bought from different sources and hung by local ringers. They are very loud and very untuneful. At Pitminster we were baffled for a time about the chiming hammer. Our last tower of the day was Angersleigh, where, despite three of the five bells being pre-Reformation, the tone of the bells is extremely clear. That evening we discovered a skittle alley at 'The Merry Harriers' and the Aberystwyth ringers were decisively beaten by 'The Rest.' Assembly point was St. James's, Taunton,

The following day we went into Devonshire and found three rings of an exceptionally high standard at Uffculme (8), Cullompton (10) and Ottery St. Mary (8). In Honiton we really had to work hard to ring the six at St. Michael's (tenor 23 cwt.). After tea a good quarter peal was rung quickly at Chard, and Shepton Beauchamp visited. Returning to Angersleigh, at the invitation of the Rector, we joined in the parish's harvest social. Colin Lewis, Peter Smith, Barry Couzens and Gill Graney gave a demonstration of handbell ringing, which earned loud applause.

On the final day of the tour we visited three magnificent eights at Wellington, Wiveliscombe and Bridgwater. The tour concluded at Huish Episcopi, with a peal attempt. Unfortunately the bells came into rounds after only half an hour, but a quarter peal of Bob Major was more successful.

The most notable achievement was that of

The most notable achievement was that of Susan Griffin, who rang at every tower on the tour after learning to handle only a few hours before the beginning of the tour.

TAYSOM'S TRAVELLERS IN DEVON

THIS year the week-end was held from October 11th to 13th and the party consisted of Barbara Dench (Corston), Terry Milsom. David Barnett, Jean and Alan Lee (Twerton), Ian Smith, Brian Metcalfe, Myra and Tony Gibbs, Rita and Bill Lampard and Henry Taysom (Warmley); Henry, as usual, acting as driver of the minibus. Lustleigh, the headquarters, was reached rather late on Friday night. Everyone was up early next morning to be greeted with what turned out to be one of the sunniest days of 1963—pleased to have David Burt, who had travelled from London. Aubrey Bennett (Buckfastleigh) and Margaret Bould Tavistock) joined us for the day. joined us for the day.

Tower No. 4. Kingskerswell (another little six, about 8 cwt.). Beverley well struck. Mr Bovey, local 1: ger, called changes and then dropped the treble for a good fall.

Tower No. 5, Churston Ferrers was reached via Torquay and Paignton. Mr. Teale was waiting and he joined us for a ring. Bells very pleasant (6, tenor 13 cwt. in A flat), rung from back of church.

Tower No. 7, St. Petrox's. Dartmouth (6), situated by the castle, in very charming surroundings. Bells rehung by Taylors in 1947; rung from the ground. Joined in our ringing by Miss Goss, who is mastering change ringing, and Mr. Newman, now 85 years old, who proved he had not forgotten Stedman Doubles, despite a serious illness last year.

Tower No. 8, St. Clement's, Dartmouth (6). Ringing room reached by iron ladder, Mr. Newman again showing the way up; not as difficult as we thought. Back three are pre-Reformation, last rehung 1908; need a little attention from the bell hanger. Joined by a visitor from Liverpool.

An excellent rise—just as well, as critical ears outside. All the party attended Holy Communion. In the afternoon Moreton Hampstead was visited. Mr. Bob Gale broke his peaceful afternoon to tend to our needs and made sure we have a good ring.

We said good-bye to Lustleigh for another year, and on the way home joined the Sampford Peverell (6) ringers for service ringing. The captain (Mr. F. Norman) allowed us half hour's ringing, and then showed us how to strike call changes. So our trip was over for another year.

Our thanks must go to Mr. and Mrs. Palmer and Miss Gay for looking after us so well and to the various incumbents and captains for their kindness, also Henry for driving, and Mr. Bennett for his choice of towers. In all 23 methods were rung.

It was fitting that a peal of Rutland Surprise Major should be rung at Oakham to celebrate Rutland's victory in her fight for independence. For two years the county has vigorously opposed the suggested amalgamation with Leicestershire, for administrative purposes, and at last won its independence.

The new secretary of the National Guild of Police Ringers is P.C. Richard Holt (Lancashire Constabulary), 16, Windsor Avenue, Newchurch, Rossendale, Lancs.

The bells of All Saints', Braywood, Berks, have been rehung at Beer, Devon. The first quarter on the bells in their new home was rung on October 13th.

As a 75th birthday compliment to Mr. Squire Croft, a quarter peal of Grandsire Caters was rung at Slough on October 27A. It was good, writes our correspondent, to see Mr. Croft looking so fit, and ringing like a young man again after his recovery from his operation.

In answer to a request from the Rev. A. T. Parker, Rector of St. Alban's, Kimberley. S.A., a quarter peal of Grandsire Caters for transmission was recorded on tape at Slough on October 27th, as Mr. Parker has but one bell in his church. Formerly, Mr. Parker was a ringer at Ealing, and the band consisted of five Ealing ringers, with five from Slough.

Conducted by Alan R. Pink, eight Alans rang a peal at Lavenham on October 26th. It was originally intended that Alan W. Payne should ring in the peal, but unfortunately he sprained his chest and had to drop out a few days previously. In associating his name with the peal, the band send him their best wishes for a speedy recovery.

The first quarter by a local band at Thurcaston, Leics, on October 23rd, is a reward for Mr. F. T. Bindley, who, now well over 70, has been teaching learners. As some of the band are too young to be allowed out for the evening practice, Fred arranges another on Saturday mornings. His band is now ringing Triples.

Three Kent stalwarts—
Messrs. R. J. Carlton, C. T.
Hillis and A. Waddington—returned to peal ringing after an absence of about a year, in a peal of Cambridge Surprise Minor at Willesborough, on October 26th. The peal honoured Miss Rosemary Gower, a ringer at Willesborough since her schooldays. It was for her wedding and a farewell to her in leaving the parish, Best wishes Rosemary!

Mr. Curil Watter Western

Mr. Cyril Watts was unable to do his duties as toastmaster at the College Youths' dinner. He is in Peking on a business engagement.

Mr. Fred Pickard, a ringer at Southwell Minster for over 50 years, died on October 16th, aged 81.

All Saints', East Meon, Hants, has a regular Sunday service ringer in Mr. R. Fisher. For his 97th birthday a quarter peal was rung on October 29th. He must be our oldest ringer.

The Swansea and Brecon Guild is 40 years old. The anniversary was commemorated by a peal of Double Norwich Court Bob Major at St. Mary's, Swansea.

The peal attempt for Stedman Triples at Crediton for Martin F. Lock's 21st birthday was lost after an hour's good ringing. Compensation was a quarter of Plain Bob Major at Newton St. Cyres.

Mr. W. S. Childs, a ringer for over 60 years at St. Mary's Church, Denham, Bucks, died on October 26th, aged 86 years. A quarter peal was rung by his friends on October 30th with bells half-muffled.

The first peal attempt on the 12 bells at Liverpool Cathedral was made last Saturday. Grandsire Cinques was attempted with two men on the tenor and two on the eleventh. We are informed that 'Stand' was called after 40 minutes.

Master Tommy Harvey, the four-year old son of Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Harvey of Topsham, is already showing an interest in ringing. On the recent Torre outing he insisted on ringing a bell at Musbury with the help of his father, and again at the practice at Buckfast Abbey on October 23rd.

ADVICE TO A YOUNG RINGER You've learned to ring the treble very well.

And ringing rounds you feel is rather nice.
But method ringing you will find much more

you will make a note of this advice If you can keep your place when all about you Are losing theirs and blaming it on you. The leader looks as if he wants to clout you And the others are all frowning at you too. If you'll persist though there is none to love

And realise to them you are fair game, In time you'll understand they're glad to have you,

It gives them somewhere they can lay the blame.

They start you off, dear learner, on the hunt bell And though you think they're helpful when you're new You'll see at length when you have learnt to hunt well

That you're the quarry—they are hunting you!
But, if you can keep your irritation under,
And not be daunted when they criticise,
And realise that even they can blunder And realise that even they can blunder Although they talk so big and look so wise. One day, when on the inside they must fit you, A novice you can put the blame upon. Will cover the mistakes you won't admit to. And—by this you'll know—
You are a Ringer, son!
With apologies to R. K. M. S. M. (Composed when feeling all twisted and bitter after attending a disappointing practice night).

THE HESSE WEEK-END

The peal attempts to honour the memory of the late Major J. H. B. Hesse were arranged at Yatton and Wrington respectively during the week-end of October 18th–19th. An attempt for Plain Bob on Friday evening at Yatton was unpressed by the American Triples. successful, but a quarter peal of Stedman Triples was rung afterwards.

A peal of Stedman Caters was rung at Wrington on Saturday, and afterwards the company were entertained to tea by Mrs. Hesse, who thanked the ringers, and said how much she enjoyed meeting them each year on this occasion, Mr. H. Sanger suitably replied on behalf of the company. Those present were Rev. B. Lee (Rector of Wrington). Mrs. Hesse, Rev. R. O. Fry. Mr. and Mrs. J. Chilcott, Mr. and Mrs. H. W. Knight, Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Kingcott and Messrs, H. G. Bird, L. Derrick, G. Hawkins, E. T. Lee, G. Pullin, G. Prescott, S. G. Smith and H. J. Sanger. A peal of Stedman Caters was rung at Wring-

SURREY AND SUSSEX JOINT MEETING

The annual joint meeting of the Southern District of the Surrey Association and the Northern Division of the Sussex Association was held at Capel and Ockley on October 19th. The sun deigned to shine and lured a somewhat larger crowd than could have been expected due to the rather awkward situation of the two Ringing took place at Ockley from 3 to 4.15. The bells were found somewhat hard to handle and difficult to strike and, on being run down, the tenor came down rather quicker than expected, the cause being a broken gudgeon.

After Evensong at Capel, the company sat down to a hearty tea in the saloon bar of The King's Head. Ringing then continued in the somewhat cramped conditions of Capel belfry, which was rapidly filled to capacity and, as the evening progressed. became very warm. In spite of the heat, the ringing maintained a good standard, and methods rung ranged from Grandsire Doubles to London Surprise Minor.

Chew Branch

A tribute to the Rev. H. S. Urch, former Rector of Backwell, to whose memory a half-muffled quarter peal was rung, was paid by Mr. J. Brain at the quarterly meeting of the Chew Branch at Chew Magna on October 26th. He was a ringer and a great friend of ringers, said Mr. Brain. The decision of the Association's peal secretary not to stand for re-election was announced, and two new members from Post announced, and two new members from Port-bury and one from Easton-in-Gordano were

The service was conducted by the Rev. C. M. Luxmore-Ball, and an excellent tea provided by the ladies for 41 members and friends.

ST. MARY MAGDALENE'S, WOOLWICH

About two years ago the fine ring of eight at St. Mary Magdalene's, Woolwich, became silent. No one would ring on Sundays and only three or four arrived for practice. The young people of the church made an appeal for volunteers to learn to ring; their plea was answered and many hours have been spent teaching recruits. St. Mary's has now a team of 14, ten of whom are new to the art, recruited in the last ten months.

'We are not pretending to be top class ringers,' write John D. Curtis and Trevor Gibb.

but we are improving by leaps and bounds—due to regular practice. We also ring on Sundays before Evensong for an hour. At least, we ring rounds and call-changes as they should be

They are also learning handbells, and hope to be able to go out at Christmas and collect for the old people of Woolwich.
