When the historian sets out upon his task he has to sift evidence, apply common-sense reasoning and put the facts into proper perspective. That is a thing which tradition seldom does. On the contrary, incidents of a distant past, and the association of ideas, often lose their trme proportions as they are handed on from generation to generation, and it is the business of the historian to separate the grain from the chaff. In this task Mr. Trollope has, we think, succeeded admirably. Never before has so much research been applied to an historical survey in connection with our art, and it has produced one result for which ringers must always be indebted to the author. Not only has he, as it were, clothed the ghosts of the past with flesh, and provided for us a descriplion of many of the men who laid the foundations of the Exercise and until now have been to us nothing but mere names, but he has brouglt to light others, hitherto unknown in history, who made important contributions to our art in their tine and passed into the shadows.

Mr. Trollope has done much good work in the cause of ringing during the past forty years, mainly through the Central Council. His share in producing many of its publications has been enormous, but nothing he has written up to the present has made such a wide appeal to ringers as this history of the College Youths should prove to have. Most of our readers have read articles by Mr. Trollope in these columns. They are familiar with th. Iuent style in which he is able to tell a story or make a (Continned on page 658.)

FOR BEGINNERS.

MPORTANGE ON BELL GONTROL

In the last two weeks thero has been a good deal said by normpondents upou how and what to teach begitmers. Begnuers then elves have probably read these letters witl interest, W'e do not propose to discuss what has been written; whether the first method hould be Plain Bob or Grandsire. The essential thing, to our mind, That before he gaes very lar in his change ringing career the beimmer should learn to xing bath. Given a ringer of average intelligence and an instrmetor who knows his johs it does nob seem to us ad started on Grandsire, Lhan he would to ring Grandsire after buring started an Plan Bob. But, whatever the explanation, it is a act that where there is a young band, as distinct from a single individual lenrning with a more or less proficient company, better ringing is obtained when thare is a tenor behind to keep a bent and give the other belis a leading point. And the public reed consideraion even when we would make excuses for a now band.
That leads us to the point that in many cases berinters are mot llowed to gain sufficient bell control before being pushed into change inging. Bell control is not merely being able to eateli the sally aud eep the bell up; it means being able to put it in its place this time, next time and all the time. Onily constant practice will do this, and and changes are a valuable step in enabling the begimen to gange the spacing over the big and small bells. Until he can place his bell with precision in call chauges he canat be expected to do so whel e is moving his position at every half-pull.
It is here that the ears must be brouryit into use; and the first thep in this clirection is most easily achieved if the luelis are few and the pace noto too quick. rihe slower beat will enable the beginner we ensily to piek ont the sound of his own boll and will emphasise he had blows. The number of betls can be increased aid the pace tickened when the learmer has proved his ability at the frst stage. This type of practice may be tame for the older laads, but patience 1. this juncture may make all the diference between turing out an conrate or a slovenly striker. If he has never been taught better, he annot be expected to do more than put his bell "somewhere" amone he rest; if the is taken along by simple stages and properly coaclied cull develop an ear' and accuracy.
This is not to say that he shonld not be started in the theory of ange ringing: The sooner he is given some elcmentary instruction paper the hetter; it will help to maintain his interest througly ho inay he termed the 'drudgery' period-that is the stage beeerl the time when he can pall a bell, and thinds he knows all chat it, and the time when he can strike a bell accurately and knows ren he doesn't.
Most instructors, we are afrajd, do too little in the way of teaching heory. Sometimes, even, it consists of only a verbal explanation and dinger of one hand making unintelligible signs in the palm of the ther. And from this the pupil is put on the end of a rope and guifed' through a course, so that at the end lie is, if auything, wre confused tilan when he stated.
Eike Columbus, as desoribod by an American, when he set ont lie id rot know wher he was going ; when he got there he didn't know here he was, and when he returned he didu't know where he'd been. Fietr instuctor should give his beginner paper and pencil work, ad, if he is mable to draw up some plan aud explanation for himlf, lie shonld obttin one of the several good elementary text books nrailable, and go through it with his pupil. It is far better to this than just hand the book to the begimer' and say, "Read that: may be sufficient for some apt learners, but quicker progress is arle when the instructor supplements the written word with verbal sistance.

CAMBRIDGE UNIVERSIIY GUILD

STRENUOUS AND SUCCESSMUL WFIG IN SOMERSEI".

This year the Gambridge Universiby Guild's anmual ringing week was held in Somerset, the headquaters being bat woll-known establishment, the Golden Lion Hotel, Wrington. Arrangemants were in the capable haids of Mr. Steplien $F$. Wood, who had prepared un excallent programme in this delightful ringing district. It was very unforthuate that more members could nol make the opportunity to be present, as the parly only just mumbered a peal baud, two members of which were on the sick lish for mosb of the time. Those who were unable to come through jllaess and business or lamily tiea ineluded six Surprise ringers, and even one or two of these would have made a great difference. The Guild was, however, mast pieased to have with then in addition four members who were making their first toury nnd these obtained much useful practice in the olemencary stages of change ringing.
Following the Guild's usual practice, one peal was attempted each day, the rest of the time being given wy to rinsing for short periods at two or thres other towers. Of the four tower-bell peals attempted, three were successful, while a Landbell peal on the last evening ennbled all who had been pregent for more than one day to score at least one penl.
The party assembled at various thmes during the week-end, and five, who arriverl eatly alrowg on Monday, werc joined ly members of the Bathand Wells Diocesan Association in a peal of Cambridge nt Ohewton Mendip in the evening
Two members of the peal band dia not mrrive until lunch time on the Taesday, so the norning was siven up to some intensive Brb Mitho and Major praclice for the bugiuners al Backwell (6), Nailsea (6) and Clevedon (8). A good peal of Boh Major was ring at Wraxall in tho aftemoon; and later in the evening menluers of the Guild had the pleasure of ringing on the ten ab Wrington with Major J. II. B Hesse and some of the local band.

REINFGRCEMENT ARRIVES.

On Wedcesday the party was reiuforeed for the day by the shrival of a reverend gentleman fresh from a protracted tan in Italy, who was visiting Bristol for the purpose of buying a typewriter. It is to bo hoped that this machine will earble him to keep up to dite with his list of the towers at which the has rung, as considerable adilitions were made during the day. In the morning a peal of Cambirlyo was successful on the excellent light eight at St. Ambrose's, Bristal, durins which the two invalids of the party were jopefully watening cach other for signs of collapse. Botli, however, stucls it nolyly aud the peal duly came wound
The afternoon's programme was a strenubus one, no less than mino of the numerous towers in the heart of Bristol being wisited hetween 3 and 8 o'clock. This was made possible by the williur heln of a number of Bristol ringers, who went ahead nud rased the bella, and special thanks are due to them for their tindmess as well as to the authorities who gave permission for their bells to be rung and the steeplekcepers who met and welcomed tho party. In tho evening a cinema show was given at the Golden Lion, one of the films including stots of several poll-known ringers who had been on another "week" at Wrington a manth previnusly.

On Thursday the peal band sustained a severe loss when kie Rev, B. F. Sheppard, who had been suffering from a bacly shramed hand, consulted a doctor, who forhade him to ring egain during the week. dll eredit is dan to him for the way he rang in two peals to avoid letting the band down, and for carrying on untid it was quite obvious that he could not possibly continue. In the moruing a peal of Bols Major (instoad of Donblo Norwich, as planned) wes rung at Biton, a fine eight which have been, recently augnented, uned and relnng. In this the president geored his first peal on cight in the tower whd his first tower-bell peal simce before the war. Later in tho day the Guild rang at Marshfield (8) and Swainswick, where a umique frame was inspected with interest-the six bells being hung in three tiers-and finished by ringing oll the magnificent heavy eight at Chew Magan. In tho evening an atienpta was wade for a liandbell peal, which came to a sudden erad after half an hour.
Friday started with Carporate Commurion at Wington at 7.30 , ath after breal fast tracks were made for Barrow Gurney, where some time was spent rebanging the bells prior lo starting for the peal! Tufortunately, however, this work proved to be 11 vair, as one of the band had to give up after Grandsire Eriples had been in progress for two hours. Later in the day the party drove across the Mendips vin Burvington Combe and Cheddar Gorge and rang on the line eight at Wedmore. Visits were paid to Wookey Fole Caves and Wells Cathedral, and the week finished with ringing at Binegan. In tiae eveling four members sat down with great determination and rang a Jandhell peal, which came round shoftly before midnight.

The party dispersed after breakfast on Saturday after a week which, though strenuous-owing to shortness of numbers there was practically none of the usual sitting ont and listening-lakd been most pleasant and enjoyable.

WEDDING BELIS

Pigott, ete.

After the toast of the King lian' been bonaured, 'Churchand Stato ' was proposed by Mr. C. A. Binyon (Badsey, Evesham), who said that everything that made life worlh liviug cane from two institutions, Ghurch and State. It was a splendid thing for the State to be jufluenced by the Chargh, but it was very often the wrong way round when the Chrirch was influenced by the State, Concluding, Mr. Binyou said, "The Ohurch needs nore freedow. She should wot be the plaything of any one party. It is her duty boldly to rebuke the tice of thing of ang ore party. It is high and low, rich and poor.'

A CHURCH SOCLETY

The Rev. E. G. Benson (Burghill, Hereford), who responded, srid he bad had close touch with the Worcestershive Assaciation when at Towkesbury, and recognised it as a church society. The Church, he said, neant not only hishops, deans, archdeacons and priests, but the whale body of Christian men and women, and we should be proud of existence long before there was a Stabe in this country, and the best relationship botween ancient Christinn society and the modern State Was when wo contd be loyal members of both. 'One of the clauses of Magne Charta," added Mr. Benson, "says that the Church shall to irea, but it is not alwars, the case, very seriously, sometimes, not the case. "there piay be dificullies in the future about this freedoun,' Concludirg, the speaker said, The ringivg of bells does somehow bring Church and Stata tagether, as, for instanice, at the Coronation this year, when we were symbalically shown the minon of the two.'
The next ioast, "The Worcestershive Association,' was proposed by the Cliairuan. The association, lo said, liad fulfilled its purposes and was contimuing to make progress. He was pleased to say this dinuer Newman said he would like to couple the names of three members Newnan said he would like to conple tho names of three members cently celebrated his golden wedding. He was sure they all wished many more yearg of happiness to Mr. and Mrs. Pritolett. The second namo was that of Mr. T. G. Knowles, who also hat recently celebrated his golden wedding. Boh Knowles fooks a picture of health athd lant got into his second wind at over 70 years of age. I aur sure we all wisla Mr. and Mrs. Knowles many wore happy jears together.' all wish Mr. and Mrs. Knowles many uore happy Jears together.'
The third persou to be coupled with this toast was Mr. W. Short, The third person to be coupled with this toast was Mr. W. Short, Master of the assechation. 'Wr congratulate him,' said the speaker, "upon being the firght Worcestershire ringer to ring 900 peals.

CHAIRMAN'S SFRVICES TO THE ASSOCIATION
After the toast had been enthusiantically druuk, Mr. W. B. Cart. wright (Selly Onk) responded, remarking that they wete all grateful to Mr. Newman for the nice things he had said. They all linew what their chairman had done for the association. It was true to say that during the zo years Mr. Nownan had beer general secretary tho association had advanced in all directions to what it is today, and, he added, "we will certainly do our best to keep the old flag fyying." A course of Grandsire Caters was then rung by W. Short 1-2 J. D.
Johnson $3-4$, Rev. E. G. Benson $5-6$, J. Bass $7-8$, and G. H. Woodberry John Proposing ${ }^{\text {G- Kindrerl Associntions, }}$ ' Mr. G. E. Large Wostern Branch secvelary) sald it was always a pleasant duty to welcome friends from neighbouring associations, They had with them that night representatives from the St. Martin's Guild, the Hereford Guild, the Forkshire Association and the Dudley and District Guild. Fe trusted that as hosts the association were doing their thity well enough to make their visitors want to come noain another year. Althormh they hard mo Jepresentative there from the Ancient Society of College Yontils, they had present many who were members of that great society, and lis fefit they conld not let the occasion pass withouth expressing their admiration for the nuique position which that society held to-day. In six weeks time they would be celebratityg their tercentenary by a great gathering in Loudon. In conelusion, Mr. Large

THE LINCOLNSHIRE TOUR.

Again they sound and mearer still,
Our anxious loourts with transports fill;
Hark! Hark! the strain that sweetly tells of home and frieuds, those distant bells!
ikichards.
The two towars for Friday wexa Caythorpe and Edenham; a prety drive in lavely weather and moro "distant spires." "The Eormer elatroh, dedicated to St. Fincent, lans a tall, closely crockebted spire. Donesdny unentions two churches here before the present one, but of these no trace remains.
There were Thectors from 1821, the earliest recorded Benedict Simon Melbourne, 1419. The present Rector Sherriefi is approaching 80 yeats of age, and is soon retiring. Ho kindly assented to our visit to the church-strictly limited to 3 hours 20 minutes-and spared his honsekeeper, Mrs. Simmons, to Lelp Mrs. Waller at the Red Lion witla our excellent dinner at 2 p.m. Wo had another Lincoln Surprise at the inn, the diameter of the joint disappearing under the skilful hasds of Carver Shepherd, who temded his flock liberally. It was al revelation to fiud how well a conntry village could provide for 14 hangry people at Ench short notied.
A good deal of ropaix work has been done here (in 1842 and 1896) to frane and fittings, etc. When the old bells were restored in 1744 sereral were retained with new ones by the Whitechapel Foundry (tenor 12 cwt.). The octave was marle in 1759 by the generesity of Wilkam Wilson, but no trace or fany record of the name or family can be discopered locally. In 1913 Messra. Taylor and Co. made a y'estaration, recasting the first four belfs. with new iron frame complete By $\Omega$ curious coincidence the oldest bell is dated Thke the Red Lion
Inn, 1639 . Forty yens ago tho Rer. E. Lewis was Viear and raised Inn 1639 . Forty years

INTERESTDNG CHURCI AT EDZNHAM.

Edenhan has a battemented tower with four corner pinnacles, no spire. The church stands on an eminence and effectively spreadz the sounds of these fine bells across the sparsely populated parish. Effigies of two monks of Edenham, carved in stone, are recumbent in the tower porch. An altar tomb, standing for years in the chureh yand, is now in the charch, Tatict 1307 . There is a brass, circa 1509. formerly iu a stone frame, on the tower face, probably of St. Thon a-Becket. A very large eircular font of quaint design and sone cypress trees in the yard are inberesting features. The chanch crowded with fine onred marblo statuary; that to Lord Willought de Eresby has the 'storied urm" in centre and seven "animated binsls in arched form on a slate background. With regard to the bells, Messrs. Taylor, who scem lo have been very active in Lincolnshive, carried ont restoration in 1931 , recasting two trebles and the tenor The old hall frame, made in 1807 , is stall in use.
The peal began at 4.30 , aud J lad the pleasure of listening to three Mr. glail to bollyatulate us upop the excellent ringing minger, was yery for the county was thus rumer on the same bells on which the late Rev. H. Jaw James rang his last touch of Stedman. Of the old bells there were three bollfomdere, The tenor, by Thomas Norvis 1636 , was repated to be made with metal from a former beli buouglat from the meighbouring Abber of Yallo Dei, $\ddagger$ Grimsthorpe Park. pleared for mutual co-operation on the big seale in order to nelneve the aims of every association, mud ended with the words, Take cal of the asseciations and the art will take care of itself.'
The Rev. F. B. S. Fowler, responding, said he was a minger from his little toe to the top of his head. When he came to Elmoley Cast they for three yeats rasig for Ascension Day as soon as the firs sam rays broke across the sky. He was certain that it was bells that played such a biu part in keeping up the Church's festivals: it wa belle, too, that helped to keep up the Sablath, and they shoukd and i hope you will luave learnd something from "that old fool, Fowler.

A full and varied musien prosramme was interspersed betwonn the tonsts. The Rev. F. B. S. Fowlex contributed some of his special brand of sougs and yarns, Miss C. HEath gave two piano-accordion solos and a pianoforte solo, and Mr. G. J. Hemming was in great form with a number of sougs. Fumorons songs were given by Mr A. L. Garbey, athd Mess's. V. T. Cullis and G. Vrorster, as ladips in sketich entitied "On the paral, brought fortin much laughter. Woliaston handbell band phyed a mumber of tures whirlt were

THE FINALE AT SURFLEET

I had a glance at his grandfather's notebook of 1851, which states the bells were relung in December, 1852, by William Pitts, of Edenj1ana, and opened January 12th, 1853 . A new set of handbells for the society was purchased in 1859 and sold to the Vicar in 1872. The old gentleman's writing was very noat and exact. He had evidently taken some six-bell methods out of the Clavis. He felt the lass of his son at an early age, consoling himself by carrying his young grandson up to the belfry on practice nights. Holmes and Hollis, the Grandsire composer, rang many peals together.
Mr. Bradiag, of Folkingham, came to meet us and hear the ringing. At its conclusion, the old inn, the Prive Bells, provided a rest and we left at 7 p.to. for Spalding 15 miles away.
For onr last alay we left the Cross Keys at 9 o'clock and got going in Double Norwich at Sutterton by 10 o'clock. This craciform church, in late Norman style arelitecture, has a central ringing room just below the bells and is very, very noisy, like many of the Hampshire ringing rooms. It is a large apartment, about 22ft, square, dark and ill-ventilated, the only lightitan ajr coming from the only door from off the transept roof. There is, however, a good circle of ropes and dranght, and the bells are til good soing order, recent work carried out by Taylors, who recast the 6th and 7th in 1920. Originally six by Penn in 1720, the trebles were added in 1797. Jolun Cabonm, a noted belthanger and donor of the trembe, died in 1813; and the donor of the 2nd, Vicar in 1792, was afterwards consecrated Bishop of Fildare. On conchading the peal the Vicar came to give us a welcome and a compliment. We all signed his visitors' book and lie had read "A Great Adventure.*
At lunch at The Angel, Sutterton. we recovered our norma? hearing again and the couductor cleared his throal. Having a naturally deep voice, we got on all right with his 'bobs,' but kept a sharp look out at the 'singles' for a diagram waved by his arm like an 'S.'
Tlie grand finale of the tour was at Surflect in the afternoon. An attempt for a peal of Grandsire Cimques began at $2.15 \mathrm{p} . \mathrm{m}$. We had to cross the river with its miniature Sydney Harbour briklge - a stream that once nearly saw the end of Frank Hairs and we recrossed it successfully, thents to Gabriel's musical brains and lungs. I lave only faken part in two of such peals during the past 40 years-rung many milos apart - and in these two peals 17 of my mates have been "starred. Like the leaning Lowet of Pisa, we Ieft St. Lawrence's stecple to hang over far perhaps another three or four centuries; but the old sundial on the south side looks a bit 'squify.' for they buitt it true vertically so as not to rob old "Tempus' of his honesty. Had the late Vicar of Surfect never joined the Cambridge Univergity Guild it is doubtful if 12 bells would ever have somided from its tower. I must not onit, to mention that we crossed the road-a few pards separate the Lower aud inn-to duink the healh of the Master of the Lincoln Diocesan G1sild on his birthday and ilnal: of the youngetb member of the Rayal family, Princess Margaret Rose-"May their shadows never grow less!

At Glyn Garth elianer was served at 7 oclocle, the old unthomany table being extended to suit the tittums extent in the home position. It was a greal parting about 11 p.m., after sceing the Rupert Oinematagraph, through the smoke, nud the farewell handshakes, in hearty appreciation of ail the hospitality shown by Mr. and Mrs. Richamdson. Jn and aromid London there are many ringers who hava heppy recollections of sunfeet, inchading onr Eritor. The Encolu air is so bracing that most ringers meet with an 'adventure' by car or rail when they come anongst the Fens. Host menhers of the Ladies' Guik are well domesticaled, judying by the number who hava Eajd, 'I will,' but how Mrs. Richarcson manged to knock off a peal of Cinghe between the busy preparations for lier guests is $\pi$ surfeet woncer.

LLANDAFF AND MONMOUTH ASSOCIATION.

A quarterly meeting was held at pemarth on snturdap, October 2nd, when about 50 members attended. The bells, a mew light peal of eight by Taylor, were kept going during the afternoon and evening except daring the service, tea and busincss meeting. The sorvice, fully choral, was conducted by the Rector (the Rev. G. P. Symonds), assisted by his curate. No sermon was preached, but a few words of hearty welcome were offered by the Rector. He said th was a great pleasure to him to see that a service in the church was a feature of the meeting, and lie would not hesitate to fell his friends and parishioners that practically every usmber attended.

Tea was very kindly prowided by the jingers, their wives and friends, who also waited at the tea tables.
The business meeting was presided over by the Rector, supported by the Master (the Rev. Ivor $\bar{J}$, Richards)
Insiructors ${ }^{3}$ roports were received, progress belug reported from ath Cowhridge and Elow Vale.
Augmentations and restal'alions reports were reeeized, the hon. secretary mentioning that the now peal at Ebbw Vale was rung by assaciation menhers at the dedication service, each member represeating a different tower affliated to the association in botl diaceses. دHr. John, of LangravFe, repotied that he thought aext year would see the completion of the getave in his bower.
The next Moumouthahire meeting is to he helel at Blatiavon, and the following Glanoorgan meeting at Baglan
Mr. O. Addams Williams, a keen supporter of the cluych, bells amf ringing, was umanimously elected on honorary life member.
The Master (the Rev. Ivor T. Richards) proposed a vote of thanles to the Rector nud to ait the churchworkers who lad helped to make such an ellpoyable and pleasant meeting. The Rector responded.

Among the distinguished grests who lave promised to attend the tercontenary dinner of the Ancient Society of College Youths on Novomber 6th are the Lord Mayor of Lowdon, the Lord Bishop of Loudon, the Duke of Argyll and the Earl of Sliaftesbury.
All the tickets for the dinuer have beon disposed of and further applications will be useless.
'A History of the Collage Youlhs' (by J. Armiger Trollope) is now on sale. It can be obtained direct from 'The Ringing World,' Lower Pyrford Road, Woking, price 5 s . 6d. post free.

Mucla regret will be felt that the Rev, H. S. T. Richardson has been seriously ill. He is making slow recovery at the residence of bis brother-in-law, Mr. E. H. Lewis, at Brasted, Kent. Mr. Richardson is Vicar of St. Nicholas', Hereford, and has done much good worb in the cause of ringing, which he entered with enthusiasm in bis Cambridge Uuiversity days.
Mr. Charles W. Clarke, of Bediord, now a qeteran in the Exercisc, is still to be numbered anong the conductors. He called a pead in seven Minar methods on Outober 2nd. He conducted the first peal in Bedfordshirg over 50 years ago, and although he does not ring as many live thousands mow as he used to do, he has an immense wotal to his credit. He has not kept a record, but it is thonght that his peals must number over a thousand.

CORONATION BELLS DEDICATED.

POOLE'S PEAL INCREASED TO TENT.
'Two new trebles have been isstulled af St. James' Church, Poole, to commemorate the Coronation of King Goorge VI., and were dedicated by the Dear of Salisbiny, the Very Rev. E. L. Henderson, D.D., oun Saturday, September 25ih. In spite af inclemeni weather, a congregation of nearly 500 was present, the Mayor and Corporation and other oivic heads aitending.
Immedtately after the lesson a well-struck course of Grandsire Triples was rumg on laadbelis by four members of the local band, When Collowed the liymn, 'Angel voices ever singing,' during which a procession, iucluding the Dean, the Rector, the Nayor and SLerif, preceded by macebearers, moved to the porch, where the two new ropes were suspended.
The Mayor handed the ropes to the Dean and requested him to dedicate the two rew bells 'to the glory of God, for the use of the church and to commemonate the Coronation of King Qeorge VI.'
After the dedicatory prayers a few well-struck rounds were rung by nembers of the local band, all of whom learned to ring in the tower, and five of whom are choristers, one churchwarden, ove vestry clerk and one sidesman.

The Dean gave a very appropriate addeess based on the text, "Wiat ye not that I must be in my Father's house.' During the interval between the service and tea un opening touch of Stedman Caters was rung, giving all present an opportunity to hear the ten at their best. Nearly 200 sat down to tea in tho Guildhall, where the Rector expressed lis pleasure at the way in whicli the people of Poole and old parishioners from all over the country and even abroad had responded to the appeal.
The Mayor said the people of Poole, whatever their demomination, loved to hear their bells.

The Mayoress also paid a compliment to the bells and belluingers of Bigland, and remarked that the bells of Poole could be heard to advantage at any point in the harbour or in the channel outside. Nothing was more beautifu, she said, than to hear the bells of England pealing across the hills and ualleys.
Mr. I. Davis, secretary and churchwarden, gave a brief resume of how the money had been collected, expressing his gratitude to Mr. F. Townsend, Ringing Master, for the great amount of help he had given in organising and collediug. He then asked the Rector to hand a cheque in Eull discharge of their acconnt to Mr. A. A. Fughes, of Messrb. Mears and Stambank, thanking him for the splendid way in which the work had been carried out.
The bellfounders have certainly vompleted their work admirably, not merely adding two trebles, but transforming a good eight into an excellent ien. Everyone agreed that the bells are a splendid splice, and it is interesting to note that seven of the old eight are maiden bells cast in 1821 by William Dobson, of Downham Market.
The founders were represented by Mr. A. A. Eughes, Mr. A. R MacDonald and Mr. J. Themas, who did the iustallation. Among others present were Mr. F. W. Rogers (bon. secretary of the Wirohester and Portsmouth Dionesan Guild), Mr. W. A. Cave (Bristol), Mr. Whitehead (Dover) and Mr. W. Wilson. One other entlusiast cycled from Portsmouth, a distance of 60 miles each way, in drizzling rain. About 50 ringers in all attended fron Bouraemouth (St. Johu's and St. Peter's), Cliristchurch, Wyke Regis, Lytchett Minster, Lytchett Matravers, Ringwoad, Wareham, Swanage and other towers, and ringing continued until 9 p.m., the melhods rung being Gragdsiro and Sterman Daters, Plain Bob, Kent Treble Bob and Cambridge Surprise Royal.

AUSTRALIAN TOURISTS' REUNION.  PRESIDENT OF HOBART ASSOCIATION ENTERTAINED.

Cifts For St. David's Cathedral

Three ycars aro, at this time, a litille band of ringers were on their way from the hotherland to Australia, to take part in the Melbourne coulenary celchrations and to wisit the scathered churches of the Commonwealth whero peals of bells exist. Each year since the party have heen able to gather for a reunion, and when they met for tho purpose last Saturday in London they lad the privilese of entertaining the Ven. Archicacon Blackwood, of Hobart, Tasmania, Mrs. Blackwood and Miss M. E. Blackwood, who came over for the Coronation and are eturning to their distant home a fortnight hence. It was a special pleasure to have them as grests, for the Archdeacon, as president of the Holy Trinity Bellringers' Association of Hobart, was, with Mr. Ray Wilson (the hon. searetary), behind the plaming of the wonderful Inspitality provided for the tourists when they were in Tasmunia, And it was as members of the Holy Trinity Association that the part.y bela tinis year's reunion.
They first of all met at St. George's Church, Sonthwark, for a peal of Stedman Tuiples, through the kindness of tho Rechor, and of Mr. W. Botirill, who made the arrangements for them. Dufortulately the penl was lost through a trip, which lad to a change course, but ather ringing took place afterwards and concluded with a quarter-peal of Stedman in honour of and to welcome the Arohdeacon, who arrived at the church while the bells were ringing. Mr. Bottrill stayed throughunt the afternoon and ins attentions weve very much appreciated.

Later the party gathered at the Howard Hotel, Norfolk Street, . G., for dimer, and were joined by other gutests. The company, presided over by the Rev. E. Bankes James, ineladed the Fen. Archdeason Blackwood, Mrs. Blackwood, Miss Blackwood, Mr. E. H. Lewis prebident of the Gentral Council), Mrs. A. A. Hughes, Miss. O. Peake and the following members of the party who, with the chairman, made the journey to Anstralia: Mr. Rupert Richardson, Mrs. Richardson nud Miss Enid Richardson (Surtleet, Lincs), Mr. W. H. Fussell (Slough, Bucks), Mr. R. Masde (Pudsey, Yorks), Mr. W, Liuter (Farehan, Hants), Mr. C. Sharples (Blackpool, Lancs), Mr. G. Martin (Maidenhead, Berlss), Mr. J. Hardcastie (Bradfoxd, Yorks), and Mr. J. S. Coldsmilh (Woking, Surrey). Mrs. Sharples was, unfortunately, prerented from being present. Before dinner began, Miss Enid Richardurn handed to Mrs. Blackwood a bouquet of chrysanthemums, brought by Mr. Fussell, and a cable of greeting and good wishes was dispatched the members of the association in Hobart. After the meal the gyal toast was honoured, and a cordial welcome was offered to the Hests.

WELCOME TO GUDSTS.

The Chaimman recalled the warm welcome given everywhere in nistralis to the ringing tourists on their visit, but nowhere, he said, id they receive a more cordial welcome than in Hobart. Be rememhered how, when their train frrived at the railway station, their frieuds rushed to greet them and handed them fres passes granted by The authorities to enable them to use the trams. Then they carried them off in motor-cars (laughter). Throughout their stay they were onised and everything was done to add to their enjoyment.
They were only soo pleased that evening, he continned, to welcome their midst in tins country the Arclideacon, Mrs. and Miss Blackood (applanse). It wes a great trent to lave them there as their nests, for they (the ringers) would never forget the kindnesses they ceived on their visit to Hobart (applatse).
The Chairman also welcomed Mr. Lewis as president of the Central Council, whom ha knew as a fellow-member of Cambridge University Guild Iong before he succeeded to his present official position. They niso welcomed Mrs. Hughes, a representative of the oldest firm in the whole of the city of London, Messrs. Mears and Stainbank, which had sant belin to every part of the world and cast the bells of Holy Triuity Hurch, Hobart, on which some of those present rang two peals while lhey were in Tasmania.
MT. J. S. Gaddmith, who supported the chairman's welcome, reminded those present that that was their third reuvion, and on each atiog they had had the privilege of eutertaining giests from overaeas. On the first occasion they had with them Mr. Malcolm Taylor, hi Hobart. Last year the Rev. R. and Mrs. Sherwood.were their eesls. Althongh they had just returned to settle in England, they ere at Melbourne during the ringers' visit, and Mr. Sherwoud was the link with the Cathedral Chapter. This year they were delighted a have with them the Auchdeacon, Mrs. zud Miss Blackwood, whose resence recalled again the wonderful hospitality and lavish entertainment glowered on them ju Tasmania and for which their indebtedness to the Archdencon nuld Mr. Wilson particularly could never be adequately repaifu. Mr. Goldsmith reminded the company of the parochial, civic and ecclesiastical welonmes which were extended to thent, the reception by the Governor (Sir F. Clarke), the exarsions to the beanty spots of the island and of the no less enjoyable but more intimate frolics at the homes of some of the ringers. Each of their party, le said, wou?d have liked to slow their visitors personal hospifality, but the strenuous activities of their time in England made this impossible, so the ringers asked them to accept this collective gesture of their delight at Javing tien among them. When they returned tre T'asmania, he asked them to convey thoir watmest greetings to their fellow-members in Hoburt and their good wishes in the uphild struggle they were haviug in mastering the art of change ringirg.

A RELIC OF TINTERN ABBEY
Nr. W. F. Fussell, in supplementing the welcome, also t'efersed to the magnificent reception giren to thg Enghish fingers in Thsthutit He said there was one incident which shack him pareicalary, and that was that the Goveruor ol Themania took the trouble to have the bell on tho rouf of Governicent Honse brought down, so that they hall aud he manayed to sound it and adil one mure to his list of interesting bells.
From the Governor, the Dean and Chapter of the Cathenata, the Rector of Holy Trinity and the Foly Trinity Association they received nothing but kiudness-indeed, their visit was one grand mareli, hu made him long to go baek, but he was afraid, at his time of life, he made him long bo go back, but he was afraid, at his time of life, he must not look forward to
Mr. Fussell reminded the company tiol Hobart was situated in the caurty of Buckingham. He did nat huow how it cande by hat name, but as he was borr in the county of Buckingham, England, he foll the Kindness they experienced there le was asking the Aroludencor to take back to St. Drvid's Cathedral a volume dealing with the history, tha founders and the inscriplions of the bells of Duckinghamshire, Englatad. If the book were placed in the Claples Lalrary it might prove very useful for reference and assist tho anthorities in Tasmania at any time they were going to consider puting up belts. Only 50 copies of this book, publighed in 1887, were printed, and it was, he thouglat, one of the best works on church bells ever whitten,
He hoped the Archdeacou would carry it bacla with him with ine beat wishes of the English ringers. He had also brought with bim another little gift for the Cathedral in the hope that it would be heasured there. It was an original tile from Thatern Abley, Monmonhbhire. The first service in the Abbey was held in 1268 , and the tile was ane of the paving pieces laid in the sanctuary. He suw it dug wn when workmen were cleaning the ground ronid the foundations. In St. Daria's Cathedral, Hobart, there wero olliel pieces from famans English ecclestastical huilditgs, and be boped this tile mighty find a place among them (applase).

They were mot again as a luppy family, cantimsed Mr. Thussell, glad to welcome thefr Tasmanian guests. They wore also pleased io have with them $n$ 'bell fonndress, whose foundry supplied the bells to Holy Trinity Chureh. Also they welcomed Mr. Lewis, who hat served the art in many ways. Nof only was be presidend of the Central Conncil, but his work had sayed many towers and belfries from being closed through structural diffenities. If they had a man like Mr. Lewis in Australia and Tammania, il might lead to the restarntion and augmentation of tha bells in many churehes.
The tomst of 'Ouy Guests' was drunk with musical honours

STIMULUS OF THE PIMGRIMAGE.

The Axchdencon replied. Everywhere they had gone in the 'homeland,' he said, they had received the warmest welcome. They hath lad a wonderful time, but beat of all was the condinlify of the welcome that nifht from their old ringing frienda who mude the pilgrimage in 1854. They approciaked to bhe full the extreme kindness of the thougint that wns bebind that reunion, It was one ol the greatest joys they had had in their trip to England to meet the old faces, and the young faces, that had grected them that night. They remembered the pleasant time they had when the ringers visited Hobart and the stimulus that was given to the local rityerg. They had not got as far as five thousand chunges jet, but they were unaing progress and foped to achieve il some day: The ringing at Holy Trinity had mach improved as a result of the visit. Another ditect result of the visit was that their splondid Cathedral, which was now complete with its new tower, lat eiglat bells that could be rung, that conld be turned upside down (haghter), as well as five that could be "rung a litile bit " (laughber). He beliaved that the eight ringing bells were due entirely to their wisit.
The Archdeacon added that ha was very pleased to meel Mrs. Hughes, who was connected with the ancient firm that catt the bells fer Hobrit 90 years ago. He loped Mrs. Huglies would confince her firm thab what they needed was a bell foundry in Australia. They were still 88 per cent, Britislı stock there and he hoped they wonld always remain a "white Australia." What they wanted was not farmers- they could already produce more thnu cnough from the land for their heeds-but industrialists who wond set no factories and bring out Gheir men and the families. Ho thought they would never go ahead with bells in Anstralia until they got a befl fonndry ont there, with, bebind it, the krowledge nate skill of craftsmen from home. At present there were high duties on bells inported into Anstralia and bhat made them very expensive adjuncts to the Claroh.
The Archdeacon spoke of the bells, which, he said, were so characteristic of England, and which he laad henrd in so many places dinthys his traveis He referred also to the splendid service which ringers wers rendering to the Church and to tho spirit of freenasoury whichz existed between them. Fe had that day received a letter from Mr. Malcolm Taylor, who was at present in Glasfow, and regretterl he could not join them. Who wrote of the way in which he had been (Continued in next column.)

COUNCIL PRESIDENT'S ADVICE

received by the vingers in England. They gave him a wouderfut welcome and particularly th kent he lud nuade many fiends.
Buthringerg, added the Archdeacols, were doing at great work for fiod and Fis Church. Thoy were holping to keep alive the sanse of God and relirion in the comblry to-day when there was a tendency to back away from it. In conclusion, he expressed the hope that anoliner visit of ringers would be paid to Australia and that it would not be muny yenrs before they in Tasmania would have the pleasure atal privitege of receiving them again.

Mr. E. H, Lewis expressed his gratitude at having been asked to join the 'family party.' He had heard a lot about fhe trip to Anstralia which hind mude lam feel eavious. Fe would liave liked to make the jourvey, but that was guite inpossible. He thought it was a very uood thing that the wisit was made. It must have stimulated ringing on the other side of the world. It would be a very good thing if similar visits cauld be mado to other distant places, such as Vancouve! or South Afrioa. Fe had lang had a wish to go over to America lo see something of the bells out tivere and to see if they could not stimulate ringing in the States. Receutly in 'The Ringing World " there was an article on this question of ringing in the outposts of the Empire and some opinions were expressed as to how huging might be enconvaged. But there was one thing he did not sce menshoned, fand, if ever a tour were mudertaken again, he hoped all effort would be made to give ringers an insight into hamdbell ringing. One of the diliculties was to kecp a band of riugers together. I.t was very rishentening, when they had cight ringers, for one ar two to drop out, and they hed tu start again right from the beginning. It might- take al year or two to buide up the band again. To maintain interest, there was nothing like handbell ringing, and if there were only three left they could still provide themselves with an infinite tumount of interest and amusement with the luadbells.
Continuing, Mr. Jewis said he felt he had some connection with the Holy Trinity Association, for, at Claristmas for the last two yans, he had received a curd from the ringers there and he npprectated it very much incied. It was rery nice to feet that they were in close totel with the ringers of this country (applause).
Mr. Goldimith annomecd letters of regret for zbsence from the Rev: R. Sherwood and Ganon Caleridge, and said ho had recently received a letter convayhag greetings from-Mr. Arthur Savage, of St. Pasi's Gatluedral Socioty, Melbourme.
After the speeches, the proceedings beonme quite jnformal, giving those present the opporlmity of mixing freely. Mrs. F.ughes, with Mirs. Poake at the piano, delighted the company with selestions or landbells, which all, and particularly the overseas visitors, greatiy appreciated. She played a mumber of pieces with that grace and allariu which has become so well known nmang ringers and which is now giving pleasure to vist audiences through a film in which Mrs. ILiglies performs on her bells.

During the evening Grandsire Cators and touches of Bob Major were rung on the handraells that made the jourmey to Australia with the tonrists and which were used during a service in Eoly Trinity Olmrch, Hobart. 'The evening would not lave been complete withant in repetition of the "turn' by Messrs. Fussel! and Martin, who, "four-iu-hnud, lad delighted many an audience ju dustralia and on the sens as wel.
Greak interest was taken in the copy of the first "Thinimalogia' (1667), whiclz Mr. Lewis bronght for inspection. It is the best preserveri of the only three copies now known. Altogether the party spent a rery happy evening, whioh drew to a close all too soon.

ESSEX AND SUFFOLK TOWERS VISITED

Dagenham mingers spent their anmual outing in visiting towers Essex and snffolis. They left at 8.15 a.nn. and called first. at. Sp. Panl s, Backing where everything was in readiness to start ringing on the fine peal of eight. Grandsire 'lriples and Bob Major were rung. and the youngest member, John Day. made his debut in the realms of eight-beil ritging with a very creditable performance, ringing the Weble to a toneh of Grandsire Triples. A vun thongla the Genitiful conntry on the horders of Essex and Suffolk brought the party to Lavenlanim at mitday. Some visited the historical places of this oldword lown, others climbed the great heipht of the magnificent charrh wower, which is a landmark for mony miles round.

After lund the wisitors rang on the celebrated bells-ane of the most glorions peals in England-tonches of Grandsire ayd Stedman Triples, Bob Majou and Kent Treble Bob. Leaving Lavenham with regrel, thes went on to Clare, reached by an hour's periect ride lhroush beantiful country, and, ceverything being found in readiness, fouches were rang on this mrand ring of bells (tenos 28 cwt .). After tea the journey wan continuerl to Castle Hedingiam. Here, there being no local ringers, the risitars had a cordial reception from the Vicar, and further good ringing, including Oxford Treble Bob, took place. After lowering the luths a ruu of 40 miles brought the party hack to Dagenlam, after a most enjopable excursion. The arrangements were made by Mr. James Bullock, ou behalf of the local secreLary, ant the Dagenham men desire to express their thanks to the eletgy and ringing masters at the varions towers visited.

WHEATHAMPSTEAD BELLS RECAST.

A WOODEN TRAME INSTALLED.
The bells of Whathanpastead Parish Church, Ferts, have been recast and rehurg by Messrs, J. Taylor and Co., Lutuliborough. The original ring of six was cast ly H . Whelps in 1717 , bitt the back five were recast in 1885 by Messrs. Warner and Sons. When, a year or so ego, upplication was made to tho Consistory Couxt to permit recasting the bells and relanging them in an iron frame on steel givders, the Ghancellor of the Diocese (Mr: Kenneth Macmorran) deelared that his whole nature rose up against the proposal to put sumb a frame in the belfry, and he said he was simply amazed that the Parochia! Church Comeil wanted to do it.
As reanlt the Bells Restoration Committee decided to have fresh plans prepared for a wooden frame and supports. Although this inthe find and the work has been oarrjed out.

The new frame, the bells und the fittings are an excellent cxamble of the work for whiel the lim of Messers. John Thytor is fameus The treble bell bears the inseriptian: Thomas Crouch trent

The tenor bell, which weighs $14 \mathrm{cwt}, 22 \mathrm{lb}$, bears the following inscription:

Richare Phelps made me 1717. Edward Wrake, D.D., Rectu Richard Gronch Geut, Thomas Street, Churchwardens. This ring wa partly recast and rehung A.D. 1885. Owen W. Davys, M. ${ }^{\text {A., Recter }}$ John Nast, Joln Ransome, Churchwardens.'
On the opposite side of the waist is the following: "This peal six bells was reeast July 23 rd, 1937. A. M. BairdSmikh, Rector
T. M. Oampbell, G. Norbury, Ohurehwardens.?

The bells were dedicated on Suraday moining, September 19th, the Bishop of Bedford. The service was conducted by the Rev. A. M Baird-Smith

The Bishop, in his address, spoke of tire summons of clumel hells and the growing apatly hownids chirch-going. In some ontspokn sentences the Bishop addressed thoss who were present for the specia occasion. "If everybody treated the clazth as you are in the habil of treating itb' he said, 'whal wonld happen to it?' The easiest, wa to deatroy a church was to do nothing ahaut it; just let it be. A increasing mumber of people were letting it be. One of the things that showed they appreciated their privileges was that they used them There was the chanch in their inidst; and he remineled them tha every privilege carried with its responsibilities
After the services the bells ware $\quad$ ung to Grandsine Doubles by the local band: W. Fulds (forman). F. Ivory, C. Buadley, F. G. Edminds W. Bygrave, F. Kelvey and S. Thormton.

The Bella Committee have presented a trable bell, suitably inscritued a replica of one in the towur and enst from the same metal, to M Leslie Carter, whose services as architect have proved of such valn They have also piven to Mr. W. T. Housden, the hon. seeretary inscribed silwer eigarette case in aratitude for the invaluable worl hit has done.

MESSINGKEYS.

FAIRFORD RJNGMRS OVERGOME DIFTMCULPTES.
The ringers of St. Mary's, Farford, with it few friends, held tho alumal outing ous Siturday, September 4th. ## DURHAM AND NEWCASTLE ASSOCIATION,

DIAMOND JUBIEEE GATEERING AT DUTHAM
The diamond jubilee festival of the Durham and Neweastla Diocesan Association was held in Durham on Saturday, September 25th. It was hppropriate that the festival should be held in this city in view of the fact that when the association wns founded in 1877, prior to the formation of the Diocese of Noweastle, it was called the " Durbam Diocessn Association of Ringers.
Favoured with fo fine day, & gatbering of 75 membors, representing 24 towers, assembled in the ancient cily. The [estival service was held in coujunction with the Cathedral evensong, and the music and singing of the far-famed choir was an inspiration to those whose good lortune it was to be present. The address was delivered by the Avel deacon of Auckland (the Ven. Leslie Owen), whe took for his text the words 'Remembrancers of Clurist." The Archdeacon pointed out how the work of ringers was in no small measure respousible for the spreading of the Gospel, and how much their work was appreciated by the Ghurch
The diuner, followed by the annual meeting, took place in the Three Tuns Fotel, and was presided over by the president (Councillor Athur Payne, O.B.E., J.P.), supported by tho Areltdeacon of Auckland, Canon Stephenson (Gatesliead), Mr. R. Park (lon, secretary) ML. W. N. Park (hon. treasurer), Mr. C. L. Rontledge (hon, editoria secretary), Mr. W. Story, J.P., and Mr. Jolin Anderson (past presidents).
In a message of walcome to the Archaleucon, the Iresident said how greatly the association appreciated his presence, as well as the very appropriate adduess given in the Cathedral. He extended the thanks of the members to the Archdeacon and to all the authorities of ilhe Cathedral who had co-operated in assuring the success of the service.
Tho Archdeacon respouded and apologised for the absence of the Dean of Durlam (Dr. Alington), who was uaforbunately indisposed. He went on to reiterate how the Charch appresiated the work of ringers, and said le nated with pleasurb the presence of many young vingers. He further stated that the sound of the bells always recalled hippy memokies, becanse it was to the sound of the bells of a CatheIral that, on the happiest day of his life, he walked for the firs tinne wibt his wife on his arm.

The secretary's anmual report was presented and adopted. This stated that the year had mot been too successful, especially in regard to the meetings, which were very meagrely ationded, and it was to lie hoped that the members would endeavour to ensure the suecess of the meetings to be held during the coming year.
The secretary pointed out that in past years the association had made ringing history, and urged the members to assimilate the truths contanined in the artiele entitled 'This means you,' published in 'The Tinging World, and reprinted in the associntion's last report by kind puermission of the Editol.
The treasurer's report showed a bulance in hand of 276 10s. 10 d .
The Sunday service ringing scheme mantained the level of the thyec preceding years. Whitley Bay topped the 8,70 and 12 bell section for the second successive year with $n$ score of 1,386 points, with North Slields a close secand, liaving jecorded 1.322 points. Holy Trinity, Dariington, again led the six-bell section with 1,543 points, an increase of 300 on last year, Benfieldside being second, having scored 988 points, 200 more than last year.

The peal leport, compiled by Mr. Routledge, stated that the number of peals rang during tho year was 23 , a decrease of five on last jear. Fourteen of last year's peals, however, were rung by the touring hant, so nctually the aumber of peala rung showed an increase of nine. 'There was not a monopoly in this direction, as a good number of ringers fook part, the conducting was eventy distributed, and the peals were rumo in about 56 per cent. of the towers in urion
In accovdance with rule, Mr. Payne relinquished the presidency at this meeting, and Mr. Murray D. Oubridge, of Gosforth, was manimously elected to this office. Mr. Oubridge asked the members to suoport him in his efforts, and said that he would endeavour to uphold the traditions of the association.

The hon. secretary, hou. treasurer, hon. editorial secretary and bon. anditor were re-elected en hloc, as were the Peal Referees Committee (Messrs. W. F. Barber, J, W. Parker, J. E. Keen and W. J. Davidson) A SURVIV1NG ORIGINAL MEMPLR.
The passing of three menbers during the yenn was noted with regret-tho Rev. IT. A. Mackenzie, Vicar of Benfeldside, an honorary member since 1925; Mr. W. Brown of Chester-le-Street, a member since 1884 and one of the fonders of the Weduesday Guild, and Mr T. Clark, of Darlington, anember since 1898 and a former vice president. To those fert behind the assoctation tendered their deepert sympailiy.
The members heard with plensure that Mr. Wilinm Newton, of Stockton-on-Tees, the sole surviving original meaber of the association, had reached his 81st birthday, and Mr. T. Wick, of Shildon, his 80th birthatay. Amidst applause, "Many happy returas" were wished these old friends.

Mr. W. Story proposer a vole of thanks to the retiring afficers, for whom Mr. C. h. Routledge responded. Mr. Story also addressed a welcome to Canou Stephenson, M.A. (Rector of Gateshend). a stanmeh supporfer of the rasociation, and the Canon lesponded in lus own inmitable style

THE FINE TOWER OF WREXHAM GHURGH

Toadmanters for the first three days was the Washugton Fotel, Chuster, a very comfortalile and centra] place, where every consideratiou was shown. By luncr time on Satuday, September Iith, most of 1.he party lad arrived, according to schedule, and at three o'clock met Mr. J. Swindley at St. Mnry's-without-the-Walls for the first peal. Fere there is a masical octave hy Mears and Stainbank, 1887, a Quecn Vintoria jubilee peal, the tellar weighing a few pounds undar a toriA mood [ual of Superlative turned out to he Rupert's 650 th peal, and at Mighl. the tewn was illuminated in lis honour !
The evening's entertuinment includer the first performanee (this year) of their fanous disappearing trick by 'The 'Two Leslies,' assisted by 'The Gay Lindy.' 'this performance was repented on many oneagions durins the following week, and never on any occasion failed to gain applanse, even if the applause was ouly an expression of relief at thelv reappearance when hope had almost been abandoned.
The programme for Susday included a visil to the Cathedral, where touches of Stedman Giters and Cambridge Royal were rung; witlst in the afteruoon a peal of Cambridge Major was rung at Pulfard, nfter $\begin{gathered}\text { wery cordial welcome had bean received from the }\end{gathered}$ Reverr, the Rev. P. G Lowndes.
thutortuately the afternoon and evening furned out very wet, and the illuminations (and ather attractions) in the town weye visibed only uy i few. During the evening i somewhat mysterious felephone message was received, which appeaved to come from a lady enjoying the zame of Birdwhistle, who was inquiring after a certain bachelor menaler of the party with a wiew to a meeting. The hachelor in question, on hearing of the messuge, panplly intinated that he World wot. go out again that evening for anytordy, and at once put 011 lis slippers as prool uf his determanation. It was strongly susperter that the ouco famous Kate lad tumed up again
On Monday, Seplember 23th, the programme included visits to Hecleston and Christleton. At the former place, with a band strengthened by the joclusion of Mr. J. C. E. Simpson, a good peal of Jondon was rung in 3 hours and 19 minutes. Mr. G. Jones, the tewerkecper, was courtegy itself, and did not forget to point out the memorial lablet to the late Henry W. Wilde, which is fired on the intier wall of the chinch at the base of the tower in which he did so mucil good work. The bells are a very fine eight by Taylor, with a tenor waipling 26 ewt.
At Chisistieten the party was joined by the Res. C. E. Wigg, and welcomed by Mr. Griffiths. Here Superlative was rumg in nine minutes minder three hours on bells recast at Lourbhorough in 1928 and now hatuging in lall bearings. After the peal the conpany, logether with friends from Chester, was entertained to tea by Mr. II. A. Heywood, cousim of the late Sir A. P. Heywood, and also met the Reciar, the Rev. A. A. Guest-Williams. Mr. Heywood was interested to hear that some of the visitors had known the late Sir Arthus

At Northop, Flintshire, the mext morning, the Rov. C. Moslyn Davies (Rector') getebed tho party, and on a musical octave from Whatechipel the first peal of Forkshire Surprise Majer by the North Wales Association was rung. Lumeh at the Chester headquartels was a prelude to a good-bye to that picturesque town and to the long run romd Wrles. Wrexlian, yeachet about 4.30 p.m., was found to bo gaily decorated, and even the botel proplo were in a state of yreat excilement. l'inst thoughts, howerer, turned out to be very wide of the mark-ilie truth being that a carnival was ta be held in the town inext day, whilst a wedding reception was takigg place at the lotel. A party of riugers was, therelore, of no account at all!

Tlie noble tower of St. Giles', Wrexham, contrins a fine peal of ten by Rudhall, which were zelumg in 1907 by Mears and Stainbank, and tho tenor asain later by Taylows. Mr. W. Jones (steaplekeeper and MIr. W. Cathrall (hon. secretary, North Wales Associetion) met the party in inte tower, and after the usual rope adjustments, ete., Ind been completed, a rery good penl of Stedman Caters was rung in 3 hours and 10 minutes.
Wednesday, September 15th, was the first of the really busy days, espechaly for the three car drivers, Messis. R. R. Pye and R. Richatid soll and the Rev. O. E. Wiste As over 60 miles had to be fravelled and two peals rung, an early departure [rom Wrexham was imperative. Rupert was therefore appointed O.C. transport for the rest of the week, with an exhortation that it wis his duty to see llat rumming times were adtrered to, add on no oucasion could it be said that le Eaited in his job.

A NARTOW ESCAPE.

Llaugollen was renched by 8.30 a.m., and by 9 oneloek Loudon was heing well struek on a pery fine toned peal by Taylor, 1887. Alas! by 10.30 all wats over-bine preal attempl was only att altempt. No time was lost, however, in vails regrets; it was decided ihat Barmonth, 50 miles wyay, stand be reached as early as possible. One car party uearly did not reach that town at all, for Rupert, on the way out of Liangollen, was almost run info by a car doing a litkle bit of red light shooting at high speed. Forthately, Rupert himself Was going slowly utd was atsle to pull up sharply, but only abauti a Furd separated his car party from a wasty bump, and perlaphs nove peris for that week, to say the least of it, Travellint past Bula Lake, through Dolgelly and over the picturesque road to Barmouth, with many needless 30 -mile limit signs on hills and doubles beuds, the latter town was reauhed by 3 o'clock. Here the towerlseeper meb the visitors, and a good peal of Cambridge wat rung in about 34 hours. Some of those resting had an entertaint ing tall with the Rector, Ganom R. Enghes Wiliams, during the promress of this peal, and could wish most sincerely that there were many move clergy with such an interest in bells as he proved to lave.
Next day anowher early start was necessar'j, Machynlleth being 26 miles away, through some very diffenlt country. At this church there is a mixed ring of eight, some by Barwell, und on these bells the first peal of Bristol im the county of Montgoucry was rung. Llanbadarin, near Aberystwyth, was the next objective, and at St. Padran's Church a peal of Superlative was completed, Six of the bells are Rendhali and two by Warner; all were rehurg on ball bearings b Mears and Stainbank about 15 years ago. They go very well, bat are bung in the niddle of a huqe tower with three small windows on eye level, consequently a good lirht is diffoult, especially will the sun shining through oue window. The Rector, the Rey. D. James Jones, met the rilgers after the peal, and gave ar special welcome to the lady member of the liand, and to Gabriel Lindoff, whom he remembered from a meeting about cight years ago.

During the prostess of this peal a bachelor, a real lady's man, escorted the two non-ringing lady members of the party on a trip to Devil's Bridge. We wonder what Miss Birdulhistle will say?
Portmudoc, 60 miles away, was reached by 10.45 next monning niter a run througly some very fine country, with the Cader Idris at first in front, then to the left and fanly, stifl towering, far in the rear. How diffeult it is to get away from such a piant! Another alitemptr for London was made at Portmadoc, on a light Warner netave, but this came to grief, curiously enough, in the same cour'se as at Lhatsolleat.
Every cloud has a silver lining, howevar, and the failure gave a little more time for the difficult journey to Bangor, 30 miles further oll. Pard of this journey was made through splendin mountainons country, wilh Smowion asway to the right, whilst further on a glimpee of Caerinarvon Castle was obtajised.
Bangor was reached by 3.50 , and here Mr. Wigg had to make his departure. laving received an urgent messuge which cansed his returb to his parish. The rest of the party very much regretted his poing. and wished him a safe won an his long journey gouth. At St. David's Clurch, Mr. A. E. Pegler had all ready, and a peal of Gambridge Major was risng in just mader 3 hours, on a ring of eight from Whitechapel in 1888 . This pena was Jim Shepherd's 400th. Mr. Pegler assisted by ringing the treble, and lelped to release the two Leslies and the Gay Lady for a really long disappearing act. Indeed, they disappeared all the way to Beanmaris, where they appear to have

It was just as well, too, for if the heavy top haki fallen in there would not have been much left of anybody malemeath, even of Rupert.
Shaturday, September 18th, the last day of the tour, bronght tie party to Llandudno, where, at Foly Trinity Clurch, Superlative was tung on a finc peal of eight from Joughborough in 1893. This was the linst Surprise peal on the bells, and Bob Pye's $1,800 \mathrm{th}$. These hells wore given by Herbert aud Catharine Kceliug and now hand memarial to the donors.
Previons to the penl being slatited, a touch of Grandsire Triples was tung, by request, with Mr. G. Bromley, a blind ringer, an the sixtl!. It was interesting to notice his keenness and enthusiasm and the way in which lue has conquered a great plysical handicap. He hould become quito a good ringer. He remaiued in the church, or tha vicinity of the Lower, for the whale of the peal, listening to musie of the dells. From a conversation with him it transpired hat his greatest difficulty is striking his bell properly when the other ils are not being rung wibh a good beat. It was quite evident from isevation, however, that lifs hearing is so acuto that his striking ould not spoil any ringing done by a band of good strikers.
After the peal the Fisitors, together with Mr. A. E. Peglar and Wh: Browis (tho towerkeeper), were entertained to lunch by the Rector (Canon Rowlands) and the churchwardens, Messrs. A. M. Davics and R. Royle.
Tlie last fixture of the tour had to be abandoned. Rllyl was the Thie ast fixture of the tour had to be nbandoned. Rliyl was the uterl, but very regretfully it was decided that it was too far away. Fight of the band, however, went to Bodelwyddan, near Elyyl, where the firmous narlble chnreh, and obtained permission for a short A. very musical peal was found, tenor $14 \frac{1}{2} \mathrm{cwt}$. . by Mears and inhank, the treble, fourih and tenor 1860, the others 1872 . StedTriples and Double Norwich were the methods rung, and a local nger entered the tower and said enthusiastically, "That's what I ringins.' With this the tour ended. Seven counties were visited, en peals rung out of thirteen attempts, whilst nine members of the nd shared in the conducting, eight proving successfu?
'The thanks of the whole pariy are due to Mr, Robert Sperring and James Swindley for arrungements made in Chester and distriel; - Mr. W. Catluall for so much trouble taken in fixing up peals in a strict where very few towers with bells are to be found; to the clergy and towerkeepers for their permission and assistance; ad to thege kind futends who grave hospitality at Cliristleton and inndudno. The three anr drivers, too, deserve most sincere thanhs the hard work put in. To drive anything from 50 to 100 miles, nd perhaps stand in two peals, is no bad day's work for any man. nat lrivers do mot see the best of the scenery, especially when a bend the road has to be negotiated about every 100 yards. So here's the drivers!

NORTH STAFFORDSHIRE ASSOCIATION.

meeting of the North Staftordshire Association was held at Itoxeter ou Satnrday, September 18th. Forty-five members and iends were present from 16 towers, namely, Appleby Magna, Asliby-Je-la-Zouel, Barslem, Burton-on-Trent, Gheadle, Derky, Exhall, Leek, .omgtou, Neweastle, Norton, Overseale, Uttoxeter, Stone, Stoke-onrent and Tunstull.
service was held conducted by the Rev. W. E. Charlton (Wicar Uttoxeter). The Vicar extended a warm welcome to all present nd referred to the loss of MLr. R. G. Lewis since the last meetimg it Utloxeter, Mr. R. G. Lewis was not only a good ringer, but a very wod churchman and had been greatly missed.
roto of thamks was accorded to the Vicar and ingers for the se of the bells.
Mr. J. W. Cotton, hon. secrelary of whe Burton-on-Trent Distriot tho Midland Comaties Association, expressed the pleasure of the isitors at being present.
Foul new members were elected, viz., F. G. Parker, L. A. Smart, F. L. Oliver and $F$. Oliver, all of Dtiozeter.
"Lauches in the following methods were rung during the afternoon and evening: Grandsire and Siedman Triples, Plain Bob, Kent and Oxford Treble Bob, Double Norwich Major, Leek and Cambridge Surprise Major.

Mr. A. D. Steel took over the offcial duty of Ringing Master for eight-bell towers, for the first time, and discharged the office very successfully

A RECORD OF FIFTY YEARS' SERVICE

PEAL BOARDS UNVEILED AT CHRLSHCHURCH jTRIORY. Tlwo inleresting peal boards were umweled at the Privery Clarrett, Clnistehureh, on september 18th. Oue tecorded the penl of Bab Maximus, mung by the local buad on April 14th, 1937, the first hy the Winchester and Portsmoulth Guitd, in homon? the jubitee of Mr. George Prestun, a vinger for 50 years at this chnreh. The other board recorded a peal of Grardsiro Cingues, its wach sax ringers rumg theit First peal on twelve belis.
Many visiting ringers atbended the ecremony, and among finse present were the Vicher of Ciatistchureh (Camon Gay, R.D., C. $\left.{ }^{\circ}\right)_{+}$, the Mayor and Mayoress of Cheistelnmeh (Alderman and Mrs. D. Cimtont), Mr. George Williams (Master of the Guild), Mr. F. W. Rogers (genernt secretary of the Guidi), Mr. W. Andrews (cnptain of the Winchester baud), Mr. George Preston (who is secretary of the Clavistelurels District of the Guild and ceptain of the local band), Mi. A. 'lroke and Mr. Wulter Theler (churchwardens).
The dedication was prefaced by a shurt service, couducted by Canon Gay, including prayers and liyms suitablo to the oceasion.
The tablet recording the attamment of the lomal band, covered by a Union Jack, was muveiled by the Mayoress, and tho obther, flrnped ly St. George's cross, was ceremonially clisclosed by Miss B. Stewarl, of Trendown, the daughter of Mr. Martin Stewart, the douor of the tablet, who took part in the peul. After the ceremony the memurials wero dedicated by Canon Ga

Following tea at the King's Amms Hotel, Mr. l'reseon thanker the Ficar and churchwardens for presanting the hoatd recording the peal of Bob Maximms, amg to commemorate his 50 years as a inger ut the Priory Church.
During that time, he said, I have seen many clianges, hut 1 can bonestly say I do not for one moment refret the time 1 have apent in the tower; in fact, I am prond of being a ringer at the Priory during my 50 years' service there $I$ have made many friends from all parts of Great Britair

I do regret, however, the fact that our young churchmen do not show more eagerness to learn the art of cumpmalogy, so as to chry ons the good work as the old ones rlie out ; if they would only come forward I should be ouly too plensed to welcome and leach (fien all I know concerning ringing. Although these young people are so Ely in coming forward, when the time comes that I lanve to lenve the tower, I think it may safely be sald that I shafl leave it much better tilan I fourd it."

CONGRATULATIONS TO MR. PRES'ION.
Mr. Preston extended his thanks to the Mayor and Mayoress for visiting the ringing chamber to mnvail the tablet, and to Mr. Shewart, of Ferudown, for presenting the borvi recording the peal of Grandsire Cinques, and to Miss Stewart, who had come to myeil it. ITe liacl Cinques, and to Miss Stewart, who lad come to unveil it.
Mr. Preston thanked Canon Gay for the trust and contidence which he always showed in the ringers, for his readiness at all times to granu him the use of the bells, and for dediating the two peal boards. He also extended his thanks to Mr. D. Llewellyn far assistance rendered witl repairs to the bells. Fiually he thanked the Priory ringers fine their loyally to him at all times, for without their co-operation, fo snid, he could net have done what he had.
Canon Gay referred with admisation to the work which had made the records possible, and satd fint much of the eathusiasim for bellringing in the diocese was due to $\mathrm{Mr}^{\text {r }}$. Preston, who lad instructed fo many people in the art.
The Mayor of Christcharch spoke of the pleasure which it had given the Mayoress and himself to be present, and he exiended to lis old friend, Mr. George Preston, his heartiest congratulations on the conapletion of 50 years' ringing in the Priory towtr. There was to doulst his fellow-ringers appreciated his leatership to the full aud that the officials of the church ralued his worl. He hed no doubt, also, that, the people of the Bolough of Christchurch would like to be associated will the congratulations.
Me. Marbin Stewart said Je always thoroughly enjoyed visiting the Priory, because the Christehurch ringers had a way of diffinsing inappiness to all.
In presenting oue of the tablets, he was only contributing is emull quota to a tower, the walls of which wero alroady becoming too small to hold the many memorials of past reeords. The Priory tower was the eentre of bellringing in this district, mad that was largely due to the great work of Mr. George Preston. It might be thoughit that a review of past years and records made them feel old. This whs not so.
One enjoys a kind of perpetual youth in bellinging:' he declared. Mr. George Williams (Master of the Guild) told his audicnee that he had rung in the Priory tower before many of them had been horn. It was in 1888 that he had come to Christelurel to ring the firsl peal on the bells.
Mr. F. W. Rogers (general gecretary of the Guild) congratulated the local ringers for the work they wero doing in twelve-bell ringing: As a memher of the Priory bellringers, Mr. F. A. Sparshott salid that they fully sppreciated the fine instruction and traininer they received from Mr. Preston, and they considered it a privilege to ring with him. It had been their greatest pleasure to give him loyal support.

DON'T SCRUB YOUR HANDS!

Cleanse and preserve your skin this simple way

To many people, the problem of getting the hands really clean without harming the skin is a serious one. Grease and grime, which become deeply ingrained into the pores of the skin, are extremely difficult to remove, and ordinary washing with soap or even scrubbing will fail to remove them completely. Housewives, particularly, who complain that their hands get ruined by the nature of their work, will find the preparation called DERMAFOAM, a real "godsend." DERMAFOAM just smoothes away dirt and grease without effort. It gets right down into the pores and removes every particle of grime, leaving skin beautifully supple and healthy.

Men, too-when you've finished that dirty job on the car, DERMAFOAM will quickly banish all grease and oil from your hands. It acts almost magically-working under and around the nails and into every minute crease, removing all trace of dirt in a flash.

Engineers, Painters, Car Mechanics, Printers - everyone - will welcome DERMAFOAM, the modern method of cleansing and protecting the hands.

Founders of the ## STEDMAN.

Among the many links which couple the Ancient Sociely of Collcge Youths with the distant past and the foundations of change ringing are Stedman-the man and the method. Stedman, the man, was not only a momber of the Society but the holder of office and, in one year, its Master. He held the society in high esteem, as indicated by the fact that when he published ' 'Tintinnalogia,' the first of all printed books on the art of change ringing, he dedicated it to the "Noble Society of Colledge-Y:ouths," and later, when 'Campanalogia' made its appearance, it was to his 'honoured and most esteemed friends, the members of the Society of Colledge Youths,' that he dedicated it. The College Youths were among the first, if not the first, to put Stedman, the method, into practice. From the society's early association with it, we can almost say that it is the College Youths' method, although, of course, it has never been in any sense their monopoly.

This week a suggestion is made in our columns that one way of marking the tercentenary of the society would lee to re-adapt the 'start ' of Stedman and to make rounds the last row of a ' six' instead of the fourth, as it now is, always in Doubles and Triples and usually in Caters and Cinques. That strange start of the method, although taken for granted, has aroused the curiosity of many thinkers, but no one is able to say precisely why it was adopted by the inventor. The Rev. C. D. P. Davies, in the first chapter of Snowdon's 'Stedman,' suggests that the reason for it was to make the first three rows identical with those in Grandsire Doubles. Be that as it may, the method, as Stedman left it with us, begins in this curious fashion. But Stedman would still be Stedman if it were begun from some other place in the 'six,' and there are frequent instances of this in peals of Caters and Cinques. To secure certain properties in composition or a particular number of changes, composers have taken all sorts of liberties, the most common one being to start with a full 'slow' six, which means going off with 2143, etc., instead of 21354 , etc. This 'tampering' with Stedman has never led to any protest, and, indeed, there is nothing to be said against it, except that it is not Stedman's way of beginning, although we must remember that Stedman produced it as a five-bell method pure and simple. But, having arlonitted that the method on nine and eleven bells may be begun with a full six, instead of with the last two changes of a six, there is no reason why the same 'going off ' should not be used on five and seven bells-except tradition and the fact that in Doubles and Triples there is nothing to be gained by it. On the higher numbers the alteration can be made to serve a purpose, on five (Continued on page 678.) and seven bells, when peals are rung, there is no question of special lengths; the extent has to be completed, and there is no inducement to start otherwise than as Stedman began. Moreover, in matters concerning ringing, tradition is hard to kill, and about the last people to kilf it would be the College Youths, in whose ranks tradition is cherished more than anywhere in the Exereise.

LINCOLN DIOCESAN GUILD

PRESENTATION TO FORMER BRANCH SECRETARY
The half-yearly meeting of the Northern Brameh, held at Melheringlum on Saturday, October Gnd, was well abtended, belween 50 and $60^{\circ}$ members being present, represeating 13 towers spread over the four disfriets of the brach, and now-resident menbers from Batuby-in-the-Willows, Notts and Treeton, Rotherham. The light rilly of ejghit were kept going during the afternoon and ovening to a variety of mehhods. The service was condueted by the Vical" (the Rev. C. W. Smith), whe, prior to an inferesting address, geve the membors a heirty welcome. Mr. T. Gullingworth presided at the organ.
Tea was provided in the Church Room followed by the business meeting presided over by the president of the branch, the Ven. Archteacon Parry. The fomal business was quickly disposed of, Lpworth being chosen for the noxt ladif-yeariy meeting.
An interesting event was the preseutation to Mr , F. $$$. W. Sutler, late lon. secretary, of a wallet containing sll subscribed by the members of the brancla.

The President, in making the preseatation, spoke of the very effient way Mr. Butler had carried out the daties during his 14 yeart in affice and referred 如difficulties existing when he look over, which were ably straightened out by him.
ML. J. A. Freeman, Brancl Ringing Master, and Mr. F. W. Stokes, Guild general secretary, also spoke of the conscientious work done by Mr. Butler.
A Iotter from Mr. Rupert Richardson, Guild Master, was read, paying tribute to Mr. Butler"s valumble sevvices and expressing a wish that they would have him with them at their meetings for many years to come.
Mr. Butler, who was very warmy applanded, thanked the members and said loe did not feel loe deserved any reward for what had beer to him a 'labour of love.'
Tates of thauks to the Ficar of Mebheringham for all loe had done, to the president for presiding, and to all who had in any way contuihuted to its success, lrought aw enjoyable meeting to a close.

A TWELVE-YEAR-OLD RINGER.

VARIETY AT COOKHAM

WAPPY OXEORD GUILD MEETING.
The Lasf Berlis and Soutli Butks Brancla of the Oxford Diocesum Gaild held a monthly meeting at Cowkhan on September 25th. To a visitor the gathering seemed to typily the real spirit for which ringing guilds wers created. The good fellowship hewween the yonng ringers and the 'old lands' sed the wheels of progress rolling.

Variety is the spice of life, so they say, and it certainly proved so at Cookham, for evoryone callen for his fivourite method, und rany it ( 44,005 of them), and though 6,5's at backstroke do not appenl to all, things ended happily.
Tea, thab important item, was well and truly served by mine host of the Royal Jxchange, The mumberg were pleased to welcome Unclo Joe Hawkins. They get to Fook for him at these country places, hut on this oconsion forgot to mquine what he had done with his fellowhikers.

A slkort interval of handbeli ringing with the help of Mr. .). Irmes udded move pariely, and on the return to the tower the bells were half muffled in respect for the momory of a local choirman.

The next meeling is suggested for Fughenden on October 30th. '1'his is a chance for biose hikers who appreciate the glories of the atituma in the Chiltern beech woods.

ESSEX ASSOCLATION

A very pleasant meeting of the North-Western Divigion of the Essex Association was held at Epping Upland on the eve of the havest [estival. The Ficar (the Rev. Rubie) offieiated at the ecrvice and also anconpanied the singing. Afterwards he conducted those present round the fine old church and pointed out its interesting and historical features.
Tea was generously provided by the Misses Marters in the gavden room adjoining the churchyard. It was a pity there wore so fes to shave the hospilality, althcugli perhaps the weather was partly to blame.
The District Master presided aver the usual business meeting, at the commencement of which tribute was paid to two old dietrict membere w ho had passed away, viz., Walter Hobbs, of Harlow, and Jolu I liorz of Stansted.
It whs decided to hold the next meeting at hendens Anuo on the first Saturday in November.
A vote of thanles was actorded to the Vicar for the nse of line bells, and to the Misses Martsrs for phoviding such a hountiful tea.
The towers represented werg Bishon's Stortford, Jarlow, Eavlew Comman, Kawbridgeworth, Roydon, Walthamstow, Loughtou, Berley, Hertford, Sawston and the local company.

THE START OF STEDMAN. SUGGESTED OHANGE.

To the Editor.
Dear Sir, -May I humbly suggest thab one way of marking the 300th anniversary of the Ancient Society of Collego Yonths would be to make a change in the stoart of Stedman.
I suggest that the first row after rounds should be the first row of an six' from now onwards, instead of the fifth row as it is at present. It would be very interesting to know the views of members of the Exercise on this point.

NEGLECTED ' WIFE SEEKS ENLIGHTENMENT,

To the Editor.
Sir-My busband is one of those who negleets his wife on Saturday aftermoons (and at ather times as well) for peal ringing. He said, when I asked him recently whether all this peal ringing was necessary to improve the standard of riuging for Sunclay service, that it was.
I then asked him, if that were the sole reason, why do some of tha most enthusiastic peal ringers mever ring for serwice? Why do ringers have long faces when they lose a pealp-my husband an example-as it would be immaterial if it were done to improve the Sunday ringing. But he wordr not give me an intelligent, answer:
Is it not true that the amassing of a large number of peals by individuals is really self-glorification, or is it conceit? Can someone enlighten me?

THE 'PEAL' OF LIFE.

RINGENG PARSON'S ANALOGY.
A meeting of the Stookport Branch of the Chester Diocesau Guilat was held at Marple on Octoler 2nd. The day was a fine autumin one, and the bells, cast in 1731 by Rudhall, were sending their cadench over the surrounding dales very soon after three o'clock, touches iss several methods being rung prior to tho service. The Guild form whs used, as usual, and was conducted by the Rev. G. E. Bottomig (curate). Tlie lesson was read and a sliort walk given by the Rev. F. Bonner, a ringing member of the branch. Ho took as his texts Numbers x., 10. He likeued life to a peal and pointed out that the co-operation and comradeship to be found in the belfry could be well extended to atl walks of life. The individuality of each person was as necessary as were the different notes of a peal of bells, and just like a peal of bells, if all co-operated together, life could be quite as harmonions as the music which goes forth from our towers. Another point lae made was that whilst we are ready to submit our wills to an earthly conducion for three hours or so, how many of us are willing to submit ourselves to the greatest conductor of all, so thaf He mey order our lives, Who alone can correct the trips wo make in life and keep us in our true course?
Tea wes served in the Parish Hall, and 61 members and friends cnjoyed an excellent meal. The usual business meeting followed, under the chairmanghip of the Rev. G. E. Bottomloy, supported by tho branels cheirman, Mr. W. Wolstencroft.

The Chairman welcomed the branch to Marple on behalf of the Vicar, who was unforturately mable to be presenta, as he was attending the induction of the new Dean of Chester. He limself had only been in tha parish a few days and had had no experience of ringers ${ }^{n}$ meetings, but lie hoped the members would make themselpes welcome and that be would mect them all on many occasions.
The secretsry gave a short report of the proceedings at the annual festival for the benefit of those members who were uluable to attend
Three new members, all fram St. Peter's, Ashton, were eleched.
Yoles of tharks were extended to the Vicar and wardens for pelmission to hold the meeting, to the Rev. G. E. Bottomley for his services, to the organist, the ladies who prepared the tea, and also to the Rev. F. Bonner for the excelleat address.

This concluded the business of the meeting, and the memberg then adjonmed to the tower for further riuging -unlil a lato hour, the methods ranging from Oumbridge Surprise to Graudgire Doubles.

SIXTY-FIVE YEARS MARRIED

RINGER'S CONGRATULATIONS FROM KING AND QUEEN.

Calebration at Newent

The whole Lxercise will join un congratulating Mr, and Mus. Joseph Williams, of Newent, Glos., upon celebrating the 65th anniversary ol their wedding. They were married at St. Mary's Church, Chelfenluam, on Ochober 8th, 1872 , Bud have a fanily of four: oue son and three daughters. Both Mr. and Mrs. Witliams are 84 years of age and are in the best of health.
Mr. Williams served 32 years in the Gloucestershire Police Force and is still affectionalely known to many friends as "the Sergeant."
[n 1891, Mr. Williams weut to Newent in clarge of the Newent Petty Sessional Division, where he remained for 12 years up till his otirement
At the last Police Conrt he abLended before lis retirement he was presented by the chainman of the Bench witl a testimonial and a purse of 550 which had been fubseribed by the towaspeople of Newent.
After his relirement from the Police Force he was appainterl school a district, and remained in this post for 19 years.
One exciting incident in his police career is worth recalling. Tı 1387, while Mr. Willianss was a sergeant in (ilouester, information was received that a dangerous ganl-iveaker had taken the keys from a warder Brecon Prison and escaped.
This noforiots character made his way to Gloucester; and, while posiug us Capl. King alld holding a service was axested by Mr. Williams after a severe struggle.
King had previonaly escaped from sureral prisons in the Norlh, and when he was brought before the Beuch he had to be handetfed. Mr. Willians was complimentred and awanded 2 for hrving courageously made the arrest.
Mr. Williams, who has rung nearly two hundred peals, has also been a member of the choir at Newent for nearly 45 years.

GLD RENGING FRIENDS JOIN IN.
Last Friday's great event was celebrated with enthusiasm. Iu addjtion to a fanily gathering many of 'the Sergeant's ' ringing friends vere present. The bells of the Parish Church, a peal of six, which fad not beell rung since Easter, owing to their condition, had nevertheless to work overtime on this oceasion. The intention was to ring ${ }^{2}$ peal of Minor, but the 'go' was too much like donkey work for the full peal, aud 720 's were therefore rung, as well as Grandsire and Slednam Doubles. Six of the 'old boys' who did most of the ringiug Were J. Austin, Hed 74; Jolu Clark, 74 ; J. W. Jones, 72 ; J. Devies, 70 ; S. Romans, 68 ; and O . Sedler; 61 ; the total age of the six boing luas 419 years.
Telerrams of congratulations, including one from the King and Gueen at Balmoral, ponred in during the day. There were so many lint the siock of the special forms at the Post Offico was exhausted. The gitests numbered 40 , including the former Vicar of Nepent, llye Rev. A. T. Lovendes, now Vicar of Compton Abrale, and the Rev. N. E. Hope, Yienr of Chedworth, the latter taking part in the ringing in the aftemoon.
the afternonn reception a reproduction of the original wedding cake was cut and the health of both proposed. The general rejoicing, which inchoded the use of the handbells in change ringing and tang minging, was kept ur until a very late hour, several of the party not reaching home until the small hours. Mention. must, of course, be mado of the fact that the usual course of Thiples, four in hand and sitting hack to back, was rung by J. Austim and "the Scrgeant."
The ringers who took part will have happy recollections of the day and hope to repeat it on the cceasion of the 70th anniversary.

DEATH OF A GILLINGHAM RINGER

On Satimday, October 2nd, Mr. Edwin Friond, the secretary of the Gillinglam (Kent) band of ringers, died somewhat suddenly. Although le had been indisposed for geveral weeks, he had only been absent from work for just over a week.
'Erdy' had been a member of the Gillingham band of ringers for about 33 yerre, as well as a nember of the choir for 40 years. He will always be remembered by those with whom he came in contach for lis quict and very friendly manner.
On Thursdiny evening. October 7th, a quarter-penl of Qrandsire Triples was rung with the bells half-muffled by Messrs. Fone, Easter, Poulter, Allen. Shellock, Walker, Norris aud Farmer, and on the Sunday following, for the evoring service, witl the bells lablf-miffled, touches of Grandsire Triples were tung hy Miss Fooks, Mensrs. Easter', Figgess, Poulter, Hone, Harris, Shelluck and Cuhit.

NORWICH DIOCESAN ASSOCIATION

PROPOSED ENTRANCE FTEE FOR NEW MFMBERS
The last meating of the yuar of the West Norfolk Brauch of the Norwich Diocestar Association took place at King's Lyin on Sithurday, October 2nd, when ropresentatives wero present from Dersinglan, Fakeahan, Grywood, Gressenlarli, Swaflianm and the local band. Other members of the association wbre present from Finchian, Norwich and Wymondiam. Touches of Stedman "ryiples, hob Major", Treble Bob Major and Donble Norwich Major, Bob and treble Bob Royal were rung during the afternon and ovening at St. Margarel's Lower.
At the Jusiness meeting Mr. H. R. Feyloc (claiman of the brameh was supported by Mr. W. J. Eldred (branch secretary), Mr. Nolan Golden (general secretary and treasurer), and Messis. R. W. Cooke and 5. A. Godifrey (members of the committee).
It was decided to hold the annual meeting for the election of officers ou Jnmuary 1st, 1938, at Fakenhans.
Mr. N. Golden refered to the decision to inelude a record of ant the ringing doue on Coronation $D_{\text {ay }}$ in the repart of the current Jear, and the decision of the Standing Committee to adopt a fudge,
It was resolved that new member's on election should pay an entrance fee to cover the cost of a eerbifinte and a bidge in addition to the current yerr's subscription.
Mr. C. S. Tuthill (Fakenham) remarked on the fact that the flourishing town of King's Lynn had two rings of bells in need of atitention and thought something might be done to remely this unsatisfectory stata of affairs.
Thanks were accorded the curate-im-charge, the Rev. E. H. Lister, who combneted a service, and Mr. Hill for his services at the orgam.

SOUTH NORFOLK BRANCH SUPPORT

Meeting at Bergh Apton on Suturday, October 9th, the South Norfolk Branch endorsed the proposal for an entrance fee for new menters. Over 30 members took part in the ringing af Plain Boh, Kent, and Oxford Treble Job, Oxford Bob, Double Court, Cambridge and London Sinprise on the six bells and also at the neighbonring church of Brooke.
A sorvice was conducted by the Rector, the Rew. A. St. J. Fenrd.
After tea ab Thurton George and Dragon, bile business meetinur took place. In the absence of the hranch chairman, Mr. W. L. Duffeld, Mr. A. L. Coleman was voted to the chair. Ho was bupported hy Mr. A. G. Harrison (hranch secretary), Mr. N. Golden (general secretary and treasurer), Messre, E. G. Bemneti, C. T. More and J. Whiting (members of the committee) and representatives from Diss, Pullam, Redenhall, Saxlingham and Winfarthing. Other branches were represented by members from Ralvergate, Norwich, Norton Subcourse, Reediam, Wroxhana ind WTmondhan
Mr. N. Golden spoke with regard to the proposal to include a lisi of all ringing done in the diecese on Coronation Day in the chrrent year's report, and appealed to all tower masters or secretaries to send in tetails of the performances that day at lherr respective towers. So far, be said, the response had been very poor.
Details of the badge to be adopted wera then given by Mr. Golden, who explained his dasign.
In support of the West Noffolle Branclu's resolntion witly regard in an entrance fee, jt was ananjmonsly resolved 'that in the opinion of this meeting new members on election should pay an entrance fee to cover the cost of a certificate and badge, in addition to the current year's subscription.'
The anmal meeting for the election of offeers was fixed for Janury 15th at Diss.
The Rev. A. St. J. Heard was elected an honornry member, and the belfy election of Mr. T. W. Acicock, of Towestoft, was ratified.
The Rev. A. St. J. Beard was thanked for his services, and Miss M. T. Hepluru for ofliciating at the organ. Mr. I. C. Boggis, leader of the local band, which, incidentally, turned tip in full force, gave much help in making the arrangements for the meeting.

STEDMAN'S BELLS  MORE USE NEEDED.

The anmal meeting of tho Ely District of the Ely Diacesan Association was held at Cambuidge on Saturday, October 2nd, when thera was a good attendance of memberg from the district and ather branches, an oncouraging sign being the atendance of anmber of young ringers from some of the newly-formed bands in the district,
Ringing commenced at St. Bene'b's Church ab about 3 p.m., getvice also being held there, couducted by the Vicar (the Rev. N. Davey), who also took the chaiv at the meeting which followed in be vestry. In welcoming the ringers, the Vicar of St. Bere't's said he was prond to be connected with a church whieli held such a migue place in the history of ringing.
At the meeting the district secretary and commitlee were re-elected for the ensuing year.
After tea further use was made of the bells. Great St. Mary's bells were also rvailable during the evening
The interion of St. Bene't's has heen rodecortat and restored during the inctumbency of the phesent Ficat, while us to the bells, despite varions chmours that have appencod at tiones, no coniphants were heard at this meeting. ## ST MARTIN'S GULLD.

NEW VENUE FOR JOHNSON DINNER.
Ideal weather favoured the members of St. Martin's Guild when finey held thefl autumu quarterly meetiog ou Saturday, 2nd inst., at lle anciend Waswickshite village of Coleshill. The Parish Church stamds at the top of a hill, athd $f$ te tower and spire are a well-known landmark for miles around. Good use was made of the bellis both before service and again in the evening after the business meeting, the methods rune ranging from Grandire 'lriples to Cambridge Major, The Guild's special service was conducted by the Vicar, who also gave a very interesting and helpfinl address.

Betweer 40 and 50 sat down to tea, which was andimbly served lyy ladies sonmecter wilh the church.

The husiness meeting followed, at which the Master, Alderman J. S. Tritehett, presidet. He thatiked the Guild for the honour they had dume him in ringing a peal of Stedman Cingues on the occasion of the celebration of his golden wedding day. Such an honour had never before hem paid to a Birmingham cilizev, and it wotld be many a lonit day hefore another world be similarly honoured. To know what he had the esteem of his fellow-ringers, gheh an esteem as pronpted them to devote an evening to attempting a peal in his honour, was most gratifying to lim. He was particnlarly gratefal to Mi: W. H. Barher for havinor conducted the peal: he had rans with hin many fimes, the first occasion heing when he (IMr. Buther') was 14 years of age.
It was decided to hold the Henry Johoson Commenoration Dinner as usual neat year. The hon. secretary reported, however, that it would he impossible to lold this at the Tmperial Fotel as in former years, as it was definitely closing at the end of this year. The choice of a suitable room was very limited, but he had succeeded in securing The White Horse Restaurant No. 1 room for Saturday, March 5ih, 1938, and he felt sitre the propriptars would put on a good dimer. This aryangements was confirmed
The next dinner being the 50th, Mr. G. T. Swam proposed that tise Master, Alderman J. S. Pritchett, shotld preside. This was seconded by Mr. A. Walker and supported by Mu. Paddon Smith. Although the Master pointed out that he was getting old and his health might not permit him to attend, the resolution, on being put to the meeting, was carried umanimously
The Master expressed lis thentes for the honour confermed on him and promised to do his hest not to let then down.
The tower election of Mr. J. W. Davidson, of Newcastle-on-T'yne, as a life member was duly ratified.
The mext meeting being the ammal, it was resolved to hold this at headquarters as isual. The bi-guarterly meeting was lised fov Northfeld on Saturday, Novenber $13 t h$.
A hearty vote of thanks to the Vicar for the use of the bells and for his address in chmoh, to the organist who accompanied the service, and to the ladies who served tea, concluded the business.

NOISE' OF CHURCH BELLS

FSSFR V1UARS VIEWS

The Northern Division of the Essex Association had a very eujoyable meating adi Withan on Saturday, September 18th, when 52 ringers and friends, representing 21 towers, took advantage of the ideal afternoon. The hells were going soon after 2 o'olook, first for a weddiug and then the meeting and continned with the exception of a break for service and tea until 9 p.m. Service was conducted by the Vicar (the Rev. B. E. Payne). In bis address he welcomed the ringers and said they gave one of the most useful services to the church.
'Tor muny years,' ho continued, 'I had to endure a noisy one bell elanging, similar to a school bell. Fow different to listen to a good peal of bells.

Some complain about the noise of the bells when steps are being taken to abate ather excessive noises, but as long as J. an at Witham and you ring out your message on a Sunduy, I am going to alhow that noise to continue and very much so. It will be a very sad day for this cotutry when bells are rung mo more.

Tea, at the Clurch Hotise, was presided over ly the Vicar. The district secretary (Mr. F. Ridgwell) said the charge made for the tea was very small and would hot nearly cover the cost. They had to thank Miss Ayre and nthers who had made contributions towards the tea, and also the ladies who had rimdly prepared it,

BENEVOLENT TUND SUGGESTED.

DEATH OF OLD RAUNDS RINGER IN U.S.A

ONE OT 'IHE PATHEIS • OT THE PETERROROUGH GUWD. Many of the older ringers, and particularly those of Nothamptonshire and Bedfordshire, will learu wilh regree of tino death of irr. Fired Gilbett at Kalamyoo, Mich., U.EA.A., at the age of 71 years. Ho died on September zoth in hospital after a short illness.

Boty at Raumds, Northants, he early began his ringing career there on the then six bells, and was one of the foundation members of the Ramnds Ringily Society, when it was formed at Whitsum, 1883. He lang in the frrst peal of the socieby, one of seven methods, on septemiser $26 \mathrm{th}, 1883$, the hand heing Geovge Kirk 1, Fred Gilbert (ago 17) 2, W. J. Gilbert 3, W. Hall (age 19) 4, J. Wilmot 5, Henry Stublis (enductoy) 6.
The Rannds Ringing Society hater became the Raunds, Wellinghorough and District Socieby, then the Central Northants Association and finally the Peterborbugh Diocesan Guild.

A ringer and conductor of no mean ability, Mra', Gilbert ratg almost a hundred peals, and, on his leaping bhe conntry, was presented with a gold medal by che Centi'al Northants Association, which, at that time, presented them to members who had scored 100 peals for the association. Aithongli Mr. Gibhert's total fell just slon't of this mumber, lie was awarded the medal on his departure in recognition of his services.
His last peal was one of Eob Major on handbells in Peterborough Cathedral shortly hetore leaving the country

Younger bother of the late Willian J. Gilliert, he martied the ouly daughter of the late Georgo Kirk, and thus became the brother in-law of Mr. Frank Kirk, of Raunds, and noncle of Mr. Francis Kirk, of St. Albanc.
A shoemaker by trade, he emigrated to America in 1911, and except for a short visit in 1915, never returned to England, but Whronghout the whole of this period he closely followed the ringing activities throughs 'The Ringing World, and nothing deliglated him more thats to see the uames of bis relabives or riuring friends of byyone days appearing in this paper. Throughont last summer he was daily looking forward to lawing one of the gramophone records of the spliced handbell ringing, and news has been received that it arrived abont a month liefore his fatal illness.
He leaves a widow and ane son, his other som loving been killed in the wat

GATHERING OF THE CLANS AT LEYTONSTONE

ESSEX, HERTS AND MIDDLESIEX, ASSOGIATIONS AND LADIT GUILD.
The anmal grathering arvanged jointly between the Essex, Herls and $\operatorname{ld}$ iddlesex Associations and the Ladies' Guild was held at Jom's Church, Leytonstone, on Saturday, October End. Many monj berg, representing all Coln of the societies, attended including Mil. E. Batler (district seorefary) and Mr. A. Pritor (District Mastery), Fsses Association ; Mrr. W. H. Lawrence (distriet sectetary), Herts Associa tion; Mr. A. W. Coles (Master), Mr. C. T. Coles (joint lon, secretary $\mathrm{M}^{+}$. $G$. W. Fleteler (vice-president) and Mr. T. J. Lock (Districh Master), Hitadlesex Association; and MI'e. E. K. Fletcher (geneval secretary) and Mrs. R. F. Deal (vice-president), of the Ladies Guild. The ringing before service was in lhe bands of Ir'. A. W. Coles and many touches in all sortg of methons were rung.

The service was attended by sowe 60 ringers. The service was ruthducted by the Rer. E. W. Rowbotiam, of Sto. John's, and an interwst ing address was given by the Rev. Guy Warwick, Vicar of st. Luku's. Leytonstone.
Tea, prepared by miss Hiller, daurgter of the late Mr. Willian Mitler, was served iv the Church Hall. Wilh over 60 sitting down, after less than half that mumber had sent in their names, it was surprising that the was enoligh food to go round, bat eventually everybody was satisfled-at least, it appeared so. If there were myy otherwise, the blame belongs to those who did not send in their names!

There mes ro business meeting, but Mr. E. J. Butier proposed a vote of thanks to the Vicar, Canon Brown (who was unfortunately provented from attendingh, for the nse of the belle; to the preacher and curate for their services; and to Miss Miller and friends for preparing tea.
"This was supported by Mr. ©. H. Coles, Mr. W. H. Lawrence and Mrs. R. F. Deal, on behalf of the members of their respective soeieties. and carried with applause.
Mr. Coles took occasion to vemind those present that the wo trebles at St. Jom's were recently placed in the tower by the Exercise ass an memorinl to that great ringer, Willian Pye, for 25 years Master of the Middlesex Association, St. Join's, Leytomstone, was thus a mostr appropriate place for a meeting of that description, and it was sincerely hoped that many more would le beld.
Afterwards there was further ringing, under the gatidace of Ms. Alfed Prifor, and, whilst there werc several touches, inchading one of Splieed Surpxige, by mixed hands or bands composed of mere men, aut excellently struck course of Cambridge Surpribe Major was rung by eight members of the Ladies' Guild -just to show that they are by eight members of the Ladies Guid -just

BUCKFAST ABBEY.

FIRST PEAL ON THE NEW BELIS

Ln a beantiful setting in the upper part of the Dart Yalley in Devorshire stands Buckfast thbey, the home of a commanity of Benedictine monks. Centuries ago the Order oecupied a monastery Here, lout at the dissolution in 1539 , the building was dismantled and the accupants driver from the sountry. The Albey completely disappeared from the face of the land.

Nearly 350 years later, in 1882, anotley commanity of the same Ordel "eoceupied the site, starter excavating the nmeieat foundations, and upon ili, by their own hands, lave raised a magnificent new lutilding. Following the gromad plas of the former structure, it reproduces the transitional style of the Norman and Early English period, is $240 f \mathrm{f}_{\mathrm{i}}$, from west to cast and 62 ft . In width across the mave aud aisles. A massive central tower, the last part of the clurch to be completed, flominutes the building, the erowning glony of which are the bells, which were placed there in 1936.
In 1910 a peal of twelve bells, with two semi-tones, cast by Warner and Son, were solemmy blessed nuter the sladow of the ametent $A$ bbotis Tower (the colibity relic of former nagaificent buildings). They were 1he generous gift of the late Sir Robert Harvet, of Dundridge, neat Totaes, as a memorial to his fecersed wife, the late Lady Alida Ifurvey, and in few duys after the ceremony were hoisted to the top of the Abhat's 'lower, where they remained for ten years. Eventually they found their way to the uneenipleted central tower of the Abbey Chureh. They were hurg by Aggett aud Sons, of Chagford, find on Chistmas Fre, 1920, were chimed for tho first time in their hew ahode.

BUCKFAST ABBEY.
The tower is not ynt quite finished.
Before the tower was completed the old ring lung on the fioor of what is now the ringing chamber, and were rung from a narrow stone gullery 51 fl . From the foor of the Abbey. In October, 1930, the late Willam Pye took a band there and scored a peal of Stedman Cinques unter these diffieult ringing conditious.
Following the solemon consecration of the Abbey Chureh in 1932 by a Cardinal Eegate, it was decided that the tower must be finished, ant the Builder Brothers, who had already laboused incessuntly for 25 3eare, tobumed their work. A large bourdon bell was promised then Ats reward, and this oceasioned the reensting of the old bells. This was maried out by Meests. J. Taylor and Co. at their Lougliborough fonudry and magnifeently liave they completed their task. The gizint bourdon weighs 7 tons 9 cwt . 18 Ib , and strikes the lower F . It was the gift of Miss Hilda de Traftord in memory of her sisler, Lady Mildred Bellew. who died on Decmber 29th, 1934, and is named Easemina

The old bells with a wenov of 28 cuti. have been transformed itto a noble peal with a tenor of 41 ewt, 1 qr. 3 lts, in $G_{7}$ and these are lang ou one level round their big brother. The two semi-tones prowide a variety of 'peals,' including thre major eights.
The new beils, which bear the ummes and inseriptions of the eld Fing, werg blessed acconding to He oflicial rites of tho Charel, an March 25th, 1936 . So much for the history of tho modern hells of the Abbey

ONE OF THE PRIZES.

A peal an Buckfast Ablacy bells may well bo comatad one of the prizes of a ringer's career, and that hand who lush Salurday zamga peal of Stedman Cinques on them vabuod their opportunity and satucess by this measure. The "offeina "record of the peal will lye found in its appropriate column, but in wiow of the wide atea from which the company was drawn, it may be mod unmeresting foredera to give a list of the ringers and the places from which they came: it is Goldsmith (Waking, Surrey), A. Walker (Birminghany, C. T. Coles (Wallhamstow, Essex), F. W Pervers (Cuventry) G. It. PYe TRom ford, Essex), G. F. Swan (Birminghan), R. Richardson (Surfuel Tines), W. A. Cave (Bristol). F. J. 1Perbi (Coventry), A. B' Smifit (Birmjogham), E. P. Dufliela (Colehester; Essex), J. H. Sheplown (Swindon, Wilis). Six of this bend toof part in the peal of 1930.

The majority assentbled in Fixeter on Fruday erening, and complebed Whe jouney to IBnckiast on Sunnay moming, hating firt renewen acquaintance with the interior of Exeter's grand ald Callaedral, witl its maboken roof of fan vanting from wose to east, a fealure which the of the party duly impressed upon all nuld sundry Arriving at Bueltfast, ble compuny were welcomed lyy Ar. Anhey Bemmett, who had teen instrumbatial in getting permission for the peal atitempt, ind were joined by Mr. T? Laser, hou. secretary of the Devon- Guild. Three Iadies were also of the party-Mrs. Wallier, Wrs Coles and Mrs. Richardson.

Aitogether the fingers spent five hours in tho Abhey towor, I'lo first lour was occmied in raising the hells (the Erant eight beint pulted np in peal), adjusiing ropen und waiting for the terntination of a service. The ringing ihamber fis sitl in ationtinished sate, hub Lie foise of the bells just owerinead has hates admitably modulated by the provision of a sombledeatening ceiling. at present the walls are in their rough state, and thene is no stass in tine window apenings, but somo of these are hoatrled mp to vegist the nowe of the hella When the chamher is complied lla condilians in the tower shoult be perfect with regard to sommal. The cirule is not at patinubintls rood one, as the necessity for hanging the 14 bells round the bourctoin fas resulted in 2, $3,4,5$ and 6 lieing heng in a strajght tine. TVo cleventh on the other side of the big chamber looks isolated, and the tenor is rutg from a platform that stretehes ecross one side of thr ringing room.

However, the small diffenltios thus mresented did not provent an excellent peal being rung in 3 hours 47 mindedes, flae only maxiely to the conductor, eansed by a slow start, being whelher the peal wonld be finished by the stipulatod time, $6.50 \mathrm{p} . \mathrm{m}$. Fe, lowever, speeded up his ieam by just suflicient acceleration to bring tho bells round with three mimutes to spare.
Some of the monks were the first to congratulate the ringers upou their success and fine ringing, and each momber of the band was presented with a souvenir in the shape of a cham beariug the innge of St. Benedict.

Later on round the dinner table, Mr. Albert Falser thanken Mr, Benmalt for all the trouble he had taken in making arrargemants, and asked him also to convey tho warmest thank of the visitots to tho Father Abbot for permission to ring mat to other memhers of thr Community for the welcome extended.

Then the party gave themselves uls to celebrating the event by in musical' evening in which handbels mayed a part. Ahout 1 a.m. one of the company courteously said to the hostess, "I hope we ar not keeping you up."
The visitors-except two who hat vanished immediately after the peal in order to get home the same nigh--dispersed on their wirious long joumeys next morning, not only gratifind with their success, bui also happy in the reunion of old friends which it had bronght aboul

The bells of the Abbey are rung hy the monks for the principal services on Sundays. Usually cight are used, but sometimes They have nat yet got as fay as pint ble twolve in peal. There arn some 16 or 18 Tahhers and Brothers wiso can handlo a hell, but 1.1 m "calt' changes which thoy produce are lung from $\pi$ stand, on whinh numbers are interchanged by anotier Brother, who rings a emall handbell, when the ringers have to start upon the uow change.

DON'T SCRUB YOUR HANDS!

Cleanse and preserve your skin this simple way

To many people, the problem of getting the hands really clean without harming the skin is a serious one. Grease and grime, which become deeply ingrained into the pores of the skin, are extremely difficult to remove, and ordinary washing with soap or even scrubbing will fail to remove them completely. Housewives, par-. ticularly, who complain that their hands get ruined by the nature of their work, will find the preparation called DERMAFOAM, a real "godsend." DERMAFOAM just smoothes away dirt and grease without effort. It gets right down into the pores and removes every particle of grime, leaving skin beautifully supple and healthy.

Men, too-when you've finished that dirty job on the car, DERMAFOAM will quickly banish all grease and oil from your hands. It acts almost magically-working under and around the nails and into every minute crease, removing all trace of dirt in a flash.

Engineers, Painters, Car Mechanics, Printers - everyone - will welcome DERMAFOAM, the modern method of cleansing and protecting the hands.

THE LADIES' GUILD JUBILEE.

To-morrow the Ladies' Guild celebrates its silver jubilee, and the good wishes and congratulations of the Exercise will go out to the members upon this auspicious event. When the ladies set up their organisation in 1912 there were doubts among many ringers, not so much whether the numbers justified the action, as whether they could make their operations effective, in view of the fact that they were few and far between. In those days ladies had only just began to penetrate into the belfry, and they were, it was thought, already catered for in the existing territorial and diocesan associations. But the ladies had courage as well as faith, and they have proved that their optimism was justified. In these twenty-five years their numbers have grown nearly tenfold, and they have made for themselves an established place in the organisation of the Exercise.

It may be as well to recall the declared object of the Guild when it was founded, for it is an inclication of the serious purpose which the ladies set before themselves: 'To encourage ringing among church workers as a spititual, mental and physical exercise; to assist, when and where necessary, their brethren in the att of ringing; and to bring into a closer relationslip all women and girl ringers in the kingdom.' Despite the handicap of a comparatively sparse membership spread over the whole country, the link formed by the Guild has certainly drawn the ladies into closer association and enabled them to cooperate as a body with other organisations. No one can deny the valuable services which ladies have rendered in many towers, not only in the wat period but since, and those-and there are still a few-who are inclined to resent the presence of ladies in the beifry, are probably those who have not had the difficulty of keeping the bells going for service through depletion of man power. There are cases where the introduction of ladies has saved bands from virtual extinction and, even if the recruiting of this new material has not been due to the Guild, its existence must be an infuence with many ladies when they contemplate entering the art. That there is a Ladjes' Guild is one proof that bellringing is an occupation which they can becomingly take up.

The confinual growth of the Guild is evidence of its vitaliky, but no organisation of this kind can fourish without a great deal of unselfish labour on the part of the enthusiasts. Ever since the Guild was founded, Mrs. G. W. Fletcher has been the hon. secretary. Hers was the leading spirit in its formation; and she has served it not only with loyalty, but with skill and sticcess throughout the twenty-five years. Others, in varying capacities and (Continued on page 694.)

for shorter periods, have rendered service which has been invaluable to the Guild, but Mrs. Fletcher has carried the burden of the chief executive oflice throughout the whole of its life, a record for which the members, we are certain, are deeply grateful. Hers has not at all times been a thankful task, for the handling of such a scattered team is not always an onviable one, but the main success that has been achieved has been due to her perspicacity and guidance. Ringers to-day will unite in wishing the Ladies' Guild continued prosperity.

FOR BEGINNERS.

FROM CALL CHANGES TO HALF-PULL RINGING
Wo referred in our last articho to the great importance of gaining bell control before a begituer proceeds to half-pull ringing.
When thene are one or bo learners who are practising with ac competent band, the iime spent in reaching this stage ought not to be unduly long. 'l'he dilliculties arise when a young band are endeavonring to teach themselves. They will need patience and refulay practice and slsould seek any help they can gef from neighbouring ringers.

When they are able to strike rounds and call changes well, they can go on to half-pull rimying, but should not attempt to do so before they can strike accurately. The better they can 'strike' the easier they will fint it to ring changes, because nothing confuses a herinner more, when he is endenvouring to find his next to strike over, than two other ropes coming down together.
There will be very fow readers of these notes who do not understand what 'eall changes' are, but in case there are auy such, wo would explain that these are changes 'called' by the conductor. Usually he changes the positious of one pair of bells at a time by telling them ench which bell to pull over next, and when this has been done they go on ringing in the same order until the next alteration is made.

What happens to one pair of bells at intorvals in call changes happens to ns many pairs as possible at every pull when "change ringise ' is done, but while in the former the ringer may have ecveral whole pulls after one bell and thus, if he has ears, the opportunity of improving his accuracy before lie is moved again, in changes he has got to find the exact position for his bell at each pull on the rope, and, in addition, ingtead of being told which bell to pull over, he has got to find it for himself
Here is one way in which a young band cau approach change ringing, after havint Jearned to manage thair bells euccessfully in call changes. Instead of advancing all at once to half-pulls, they can change with the next bell at every whole pull, trying it at first by returnjog, at each alternate whole pull, to the previans position, Thus suppose they are ringing rounds on six hells, they can have alternate whole pulls (that is handstroke and hackstroke), in the order 214365 and 123456.
They can do this for a time until, at each handstroke, the change is cleanly made all ronnd. This accomplished, they can then do the same thing by making the change at backstroke and completing the whole pall nt handstroke.
This will give them experience in making the clange both ways af the rope.

From this stame the next should consist of whole pull ringing while clianging with the next bell opposite to the one that the previous change was made with, so that if, in the first, $1-2,3-4$ and $5-6$ respectively change, producing 214365 , in the next $1-4$ and $3-6$ change producing 241635 . At the following whole pull all three pairs will change, that is 2-4, 1-6, 3-5, and following this twa pairs 4-1 and 6-3. If this is contimued systematically the bells will come back into rounds in twelve changes. If the buginner can work these out on paper for himself, changing three pairs and two paits alternately, he will gee what liappens.

One advantage of beginning by ringing this in whole pulls is that it gives the learner more time to get his new position and piek out the next hell he has got fo change with. He will learn that when he has to put an additional bell between himself and the lead he must hold up a litite longer-a fraction of a second-because more bells have to strike round before his comes in; while, as he gets nearer the lead, he hes to pall in a little quicker to maintain the beat, becatise there is one less bell to strike before his own.
In going from the lead upward le will probably have no difficulty in finding the bell he will strike after at the next change, because it is following him in this one. But coming back to lead it is not so easy to see the next bell he will skrike over, because it is, in a sense, liddea by two others which are striking in between. If, however, he ean see the total number of bells in front of him, in other words, see that lie is pulling after five or four others for whatever the number may he), and if le then ignores the one he is striking over fund pulls in a trifle quicker to place hinself over the last of the otliers which lavo heen below, lie will have found the belf he wants. If he has not been quite nceurate at the first blow, he can further correct his position at the next before having to move again. That is the adpantage of beginning by ringing these simple clianges in whole pulle.
When this can be done, so that the movemeut is not only understood by the ringer, but the ringing jtself is good, then the young band can take the firat step in half-pull ringing by putting this method into practice in the proper way, and changing position at botli handstroke and hackatroke.
It is a good thing not always to ring the same bell at these practices, but to take a difterent one at different times. It gets one uged to making allowance in the striking for bells of different sizes. There is more 'space' required in striking a small bell over a large one than in striking a large one over a small one, assuming that they are all correotly clappered. But sometimes a bell inay not be evenly clappered, and then it is that the beginner must most particularly use his ents.

PEAL NOTES.

PEOPLE AND PERFORMANCES

The ring of six at Glaston, Ruthad, were augmented in honour of the Coromation, and the first peal-one of Grandsire Doubles-was rung by the local compauy. On October 11th the first of Minor was rang on then, and the band wish to thank Mr. and Mrs. King for their hospitality afterwards.

The bells at Glaston are ring from the foor of the church and the ringers stankl bebween the nave and chancel (as is also the case at Somerby, Leicestershire). Glaston tower, with its short Etone spire, is very quaiat and originally juad a small saucer bell for the clock hanging from the south light of the epire outside. This bell now adorns the Rector's lawn, reversed as a flower pot! The clock was dated 1739. Eyre, of Kettering, made bells of this shape, and this is, therefore, also the probable date of the bell. It was too dark after the peal for the conductor ( Mr . Emest Morris) to note any inscription
The peal at St. Mary's, Nottingham, recorded in our last issue, Mr. Romald Salter's first peal of Stedman and at birthday complimen to his mother, Mrs. F. A. Salter, and to Mr. George E. Foster was also Mr. F. A. Salter's 150 h peal and they all received the hearty congratulations of the band.

Fent Treble Bob Maximus las now been added to the methodis rung on the new twelve at Coydon, and in it six of the local men rato their first peal of Maximus. 'lhe peal, recorded last week, was a wel como to the new Viear, who succeeds the Bishop of Liuhfieta in th incumbancy. Croydon, surrouaded by tha Diocese of Southwart is an isolated part of the Dincese of Canterbury.

The bells of Poynton, Cheshire, were installed in 1887, but it was not until Saturday, October gth, that the first peal was rung them. They lape recently been rehung by Messrs. Taylor and The peal was Spliced Treble Bob Minor in 17 methods.
The Rev. Fruak Bonner took part in the peal. On the preceding Saturday be preached to the Stockport Buanch of the Guild, and h homaly address consisted of an analogy between a peal and life
The first peal on the bells at Wickwar, Glos., was rung on Oct. 12 it in three methods of Minor. For five of the six ringers it was the fir peal in more than one method, while two of the band rang thei;
On the occasion of the visit of the Duke of Kent to Birmangan on October 13th a peal of Kent Trehle Bob Major was rang at Hal borue. The Duke's visit was in connection with the sixth anmul conference of the Hospital Cuntributory Scheme.
Invidentally it may be mentioned that Mr. James George, who wil be 84 next month, rang the tellor. Well, boys will be boys!

The Sunday service ringers at St. James' Church, Church, Lance scored a peal of Double Nowwicil on October 9th, when two of tha band rang their first peal in the method. Eric Brunton, one of the rest of the band, is ouly 15 yeare of age. The peal was recorded las weets

A peal of Cambridge Surprise and Treble Tob Minor at Willinghams Cambs, on October 8th, was rung as a farewell to the Rector, Callor A. Hair. The peal dotzils appeared in our last issue. After the peal Mr. and Mrs. F. G. Glenves entortained the ringers. Mr. Gieave and the conductor, Mr. F. Wirrington, have ramg 125 peals togethe

Mr. Gordon Cifford Goodson, a member of the band at Claverley Shropshire, was married on Sjeptember 29th to Miss Rosamond Mat Switt, of Claverle.f. On October 12ts a wedding peal of Grandsirt Triples was rung for them.
A peal of Loncion Surprise Major, Yung at Framsden, Suffolk, o October 11th, was arranged for Mr. David Yincent, of Altrimehau Cheshire, and was Mr- L. C. Wightman's 400 th peal
In honour of the birth of a daughter to Mr. Leonard Williams, Stngsden, a peal of Minor in seven methods was rung on October 9tb Wlat is the meaning of the mystic letters, 'P.Gr.,' after the nam of Miss Sylyia Bowyer, in the report of a peal of Minor at Sproughton Surely they do not mean "Poal Gruhlier'1 Miss Bowyer has run more than 25 peals this Jear, vanging from Minor to Maximus.

A birthday compliment to Mr. W. Townsend, Riaging Master Lecklampton, Cheitenham, the peal of Stedman Titples jung at tha church ou October 9th was also in honour of the 65th wedding ann versary of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Williams, of Newent. We referve to this ouspicious event in our last issue.

Mr. W. Oakey, who rang lis first peal of Triples, in this perfo ance at Leckhampton, is leader of the ringers at Badgeworth, Glas
The tenorman in the peal at Alsager, Cheshire, on October gth stond in at almest a moment's notice, and the rest of the band extend their thanks to him.
Mr. Fred Doxter, one of Leicester's most popalar ringers, rane his two hundredth peal of Surprise when he took part in a peal of New Cambridge Royal at Louginlotongh Parish Church on Saturday
This peal was also Mr. 17. F. Elkington's two hundreath for the Midand Counties Associrtion. Such a double 'double' needed double celebration.
(Cantinued on next page.)

WHAT HAPPENED TO THE UMPIRE?

A handibell peal of Grandsire Tripies at Hinton-on-the-Green, Worcestershire, on October 16th, was specially arranged for Mr. F. S. Wilson, of West Esvington, Sussex, who formerly resided at Ludlow. The other three members of the batd were Mr. J. D. Johnen and two of his Eisters. Mr. Jolin Thomas was the ollicial umpire of the peal, but he was only prosent during the first and lant four-parts of Parker's twelve-part. He was missing during the rest of the performance, and investigation into his movements during this interval traced him to various garages and eventually to a football match at least thvee miles away. Joln must hawe even better ears than we suspected to hear the bells at 仿at distauce.
A peal of Double Norwich Major was rung at Burton Latimer on October 16 h as a welcome to the Rector (the Rev. R. W. Sharpley. It was also a birthday compliment to Mr. J. Saddington, whose son took part in the peal.
All the ringers, except the canductor, in the peal of Plain Bob and Grandsire Dotibles at Norton, Worcestarshire, on October 16th, were membors of the local baud, two of them ringing their first peal. It was the first peal on the bells sinco they were rehung by Messis, Taylor and Co.
The peal of Kent Treble Bab at Hythe, Kent, on October 16th, when Mr. T. E. Sone oalled another of Mr. Arthur' Kuights' compositions (No. 327) for the first time, was the conductor's 275 th peal. Of this tatal te has called 190.
The peal of Superlative at Wicken on October gth was rung as a birthday compliment to Mr . Ralph Foddy. The compositiou, by $G$. Lindoff, is published in the Peterborough Diacesan Guild's report for 1832, peal No. 474.
The first peal of Major on the bells at Sowton, Devon, was rung on Saturday, October Guh. It was arranged to enable Mr. W. H. Howe to ring a peal at his rative place and as a welcome to Mr. Clifford Vessey, who has gone from Nolts to reside in Devon.

ANSTEY BOYS' PERFORMANCE

On Sundry, October 17th, for evensong at St, Mary's Church, Anstey, Eeicestershire, a quarter-peal of Stedman Triples was rung : Jack E' Adams 1. F. Terry Smith 2, Mary L. Disney 3, George E. Bowler 4, R. S. William Sinith 5, Alban Disney 6, Redvers F. Khkingtou (conHuctor) 7, Eilean H. Cuffin 8. It was the first quarter-peal by ringers of 1,2 and 4 . who are aged 15,13 and 14 respectively and shartad to handle a bell only nine and a half months apo. This is beljeved to be the first quarter-peal ever ramg on the bells by an entirely local band.

KENT COUNTY ASSOCIATION

OANTERBURY DISTRICT'S INCREASE OF MEMBERSHPP
The anmual meetivg of the Canterbury District of the Kent County association was helid at, St. Dunstan's, Ganterbury, on Ochober 9tl.

Ringing took place at the three local towers, St. Stephea's, St. Alphera and St. Dunstan's, in the afternoon, and the nssociation's service beld in St. Dunstau's, conlucted by the Vicar (tho Rev. A. E. Millery, the lesson being read by Mr. E. Trendell.
Tea, provided by the association, was served in the larish Hall, we 83 membert present being presided over by the Vicar.
Owing to $n$ long stamding promise made by the Yicar, he was prevented from staying to the meeking but befove lie left he was heartily thanked for the use of the bells, for couducting the servito aud for all the help he lad given in making the day a success.
Mr. E. Trendell was voted to the chair. The secretary's report and balance sheet were read and adopted. The report showed an increase of 41 menbers over the previous year, the total of lyonorary and practising members in the distnict reaching the total of 291. The number of tower's in union had increased from 26 to 30 , tha total receipts in the district amounted to $£ 32$ 10s. 6a. and a balance was shawn of 22545
The district secretary (Mr. B. J. Lued) was re-elected, as wore the district representatives, Messrs. F. G. Brett and H. Whitelead. The former was also re-elected Ringing Master.
Faversham was chosen as the venue for the district's spring meeting St. Peter's, Thanet, for the summer meeting, attd Wickhaubreasux for the next by-meeting.

Votes of thanks were passed to the organist and to the lavies who had so splemdidy looked after the wants of all duriry the tea.

RINGERS' WIVES.

To the Editor.
Dear Sit'-Iu reply ta 'fingen's Wife,' I, too, an aneglected wife, with regard to peal ringing, but I am very pleased to bhink that my husband is interested in such a splendid lobby. When he is ringing I can always be sure he is in good company, for where can be lound a more friendly atmosphere than in the ringing chamber.
Recently i entertained a party of ringers who had come some distance to ring a peal, bud after several atiempts had to own they were defeated. Were there auy long faces? Not so, one couldn't have wished to be in the company of a happier party, and all were determined to have another try. They even went so far as to say there wouldn't be half so much pleasure in ringing if they won every peal. That's the spirit for "ringers."

INSTRUCTING BEGINNERS.

To the Editor.

Dear Sir,-When I wrote the article on the above subject in you issue of Sept. 24th I expected (as I said at the time) that a numbel of peoplie wauld disagree wilh my views. From the letters which appeared in the following issue, I gather that amourst these are numbered Mr. W. Shepherd and Mr. Fi. E. Dawo. But is ikeve really any need for them to be quite so rude about it? Have wo come to such a pass that no one who is too young to have rung peals at evory cathedral in the country is to be allowed to express his views in your columis, without being accused of "theusting his ideas down other people's throats " $\rho$
We are often reminded of the difficulty these days in persuading the joungor generation to become interested in bellinging, sind it is sometimes said in reply that when they do take up the ant they do not receive much encouragement from the older hands. This may only be true in certain isolated cases, but the tome of the two Ietters mentioned above is certainly not calculated to encourage the 'yonng practitioner'।
And as for this argument-if such it cra be calfed-hat Grandsire atast be the best method to teach first, becrase certuin instructors used to do so 50 years aso, this sounds to me suspiciously like the old ery, 'It must be right because grandfather did it,' which, to say the leasb of it, is never very convincing. The point is, did these men select Gravdsire as the first method to teach after careful thought as to the possible merits of other methods, or was it because it never ocerrred to them to start their pupils on anything else?
It would geem that Messrs. Shepherd's and Dawe's vision has boen go blinded with rage at the audaciby of one of my tender years daring to express an opinion not shared by them, that they havo been able to read into my article cortain passages which somelow or other failed to appear in my copy. Where, for instance, doos Mr. Dawe find the sanfence in which I atvacate starting learnerg in the discordant fangliug of tho unmusical Surprise methods"? And perliaps Mr Shepherd would point ont where I showed my avergion to Grandsire Triples as a nacthod. What I did say was that I had not found it so good as Bob Major or Minor for giving a beginuen a real gronnding ir the essential elements of good change ringing and I gave my reasons for forming this opinion in some detail and after considerable whaght. Mr. Shepherd, on the other hand, is contellt to state baldly that ${ }^{\text {i }}$ it is beyond question that Grandsire is the best method, elc., but I notice that he does not aftempt to substantiate this bald statement with a single concrete argument; in fact, I have scanned botil his lettes and Mr. Dawe's in vain [ob one word of coustructive criticism on the slightest attempt to refute any of the arguments I put forward.
Mr. Shepliercl then takes me to task for saying that good leading Is olntaned with the ears, and le asks, "Is this all?' The answer is in the affrmative, and I believe that most rood strikers will agree with me ewen if Mr. Shepherd doesn't.
I am more interested in Mr. Arthar Prince's letter, because he does at least cliscuss the subject of my arlicle and not its writer. But one or two of his statements seem to all for some comment as follows:(1) 'Most instructors teach the same method of hunting up, etc., Mr. Prince, I gather, is one of the exceptions, considering this a waste of time. But what is his a!ternative method? If I maderstand lim correctly, Le first teaches his pupils to make 2nd's and 3rd's places and then tolls them where to pass the trehle and when and how to clodge. But he does not tell us how he expects his pupils to carry out these iustructions before they have learut to plain hunt!
(2) 'Luarning to strike evenly over the other bells.' The point I was trying to make here was the necessity for finding out by practical obscrvation how much gap has to be left when striking over the heavier bells, harticularly the tenor. Mr. Prince says you learn this by ringing Rounds, Queen's, Tithoms and Whittinglon's. Perknps lae (3) Lens which hell strikes over the tenor in any one of these changes,
(3) 'Learning to lead.' Mr. Prince advocates doing this winile No. 2 is in progress, by the most advanced pupil taking the treble. But. is this guite fair to the others, who (presumalily less advanced) are learning to ring Rounds and Queon's on the other bells? I should have thouglat that to give them the lest chance it would he wiser to put your most competent man-possibly the ilsstructor himself-on the treble Furthermore, leading on the lreble in Ronnds is not quite the same thing as leading in changes.
(4) Finally Mr. Prince makes the somewhat curions gtatement that Stedman contains every pasition Fomown in ringing.' Stedman, like Graudsire. is an excellent method, lut I have yet to disconer where to contains dadging in $3-4$ or $5-6$ ar striking the tenor in ary position, all of which Mr. Prince will surely agree occur in quite a few other methods.
This subject of instruction is, fis $I$ feel sure atl your readers will agree, one of rital inportance; and it seems to me that an exchange of views and results of personal experience-be it long or short-by practsing instructors may well prove helpful to those most concerned, fud prodico somothing of real walue to the Excreise; and possibly, as We are discussing whether the odd or even bell methods are the best to teach first, the evidence of those who have tried both ways will carry mosib weiglat. But whatever our views may be, do for Heaven's sake, let us have more concrete avgument and fewer vague generalitics about 50 years ago, more constructive criticism and less personal abuse. Bristol.

STPPEEN H. WOOD

AN ADVOCATE OF EVEN-BELL METHODS FIRST

Denn Siw, It was with great interest that I read 3 our article on "Handicaps for Beginuen's in your issue of the 2Ath ult., and ulso MLT. S. H. Wood's excellent article. May I add it should give may obior rimgers canso for some hard thinking? I myseli have had during the past 44 yearg, $\pi$ fairly varied experimee of boginners and can, binerefore, claim to be able to express some gininion on tho subject. I cordially ayree with Mr. Wood thab it is far better to teach beginners oven nethod ringing first, for the simple reason the beginen has not always to lead alter the same bell, thad when the beginuer bas mastered leading off all the bells in tura it must be casicr to have always to lead of the tenor afterwards, althongh it may sound paradoxical. Eowever, I maintain and always have done that those whe learm oren wethod ringing first and odd method ringing afterwards moke tho best strikers, and that is, or shonld be, the objective wards moke th of all ringers.
I an sorely tenpted to think that tho sentence in vour article thal the hund, the ear and the eye are all needed, but that the ear' is most neglected, is true, and pity "bis 'lis trine. However, Lo a ecrtain extent I suppose we mnist grin and bear it.
There is also the poind you mention that instructors themselves ar sometimes bad or iudifferent strikers. That, too, is perfectly true. can give ons instance. Some years ago at certain rimel was engrged by a Vienm in my districl to bend a company on six bells, tenor ahout $7 \frac{1}{2}$ ewt., bells in good condition and plenty of opportmily to concl a batd. But as the rev. gentleman fimself was never a first rate hanaler and the instructor was one of the slovenliest handlers 1 ever met, nothing over eame of it, smply because it was a case of an squate peg iu a round hole. Furthes comment is needless.

STEDMAN RFCOMMENDED

Sir,-I have Jatd a good slare of teaching begimuers. Stedman is the best method. Leadiug 'whong' is as simple to tha novice ns Leading 'right' and the slow work is mastered easier than donble dodging. Old Grandsire ringers do double dodring ensier thi novices, but eanmot manage the slow work fuy better, if as well showing pupils how to strike handbells, they should be exor cised in leading, dodging and place-makiug; then plain hunting ly commencing on fout bely sud continuiut on the successive mumhers up to as far as is procticabie (leading is thus easily acquited whether from the tenor or nobl. It should be thone progressively-ane change al a time-repoated if necossary until the striking-afier bell is observednot remembered. Coursing down can be shawn after memorisilurp the zuming-out has been mastered. If anyone camot leam this way bliey never will Learn.
Then Stedman! Attempt only a six at a time, then recummence and thus progress by the successive sixes until the whole coutse is necomplished and a good fonmation lnid for all methods.

I have had leaners who could ring on landuchs three methods, viz. Stednan, Grandsize and Treble Bob, before they could properly hande the tower bells.

MIDLAND COUNTIES ASSOCIATION.  FUNDS CENTRALISED.

A quarterly meeting of the Midand Counties Association was held ol Saturday, October 2nd, at Burbage, near Fincklay, and, whether taken as a social, business or ringing gathering, was a great success. Although Burbage is somewhat 'off the beaten track,' a goodly company assembled and kept the eight bells going to various methods, and for a meeting the ringing was 工emarkably good and well struck.
The commiltee met in the Parish Room, and, arising from their business, the hon. treasurer reported that all invested furds and bank balanco had been centralised and now rested in one bans at Nottingbam instead of being scaftered as hitherto.

A short service was held in church, conducted by the Rector, the Rev. Fr. D. H. Pughe, who gave an inspiring address and an instructive talk on the church's history, ete. A retiring collection was made and 175. gd. given to the Assaciation Bell Repair Fund. About 60 members and friends afterwards sat down to tea. They were from Burton, Derloy, Loughborongh, Leicester, Hinckley and Nottingham districts, and a party from Ithlingborough, which included old friencis in Messis. A. Trler, W. Perkins and others, was also welcomed.

The general meeting was presidea over by Mr. E. Denison 'i'aylor (president), supported by the Reclor, Mr, W. E. White (ham. treasurer) and M1. Enmest Morvis (hon, secretary),
The President gave a review of the past quarter's peals, which he stated made a very good record, no less than 34 having been rung, hut none above Major and none on handbells. He referred to the associntion's loss by the death of an ariginal member, Mr. Herbert W. Needlam, whose obituary notice had recently appeared in 'The Ringing World.' The President thanked the Reclor for permission to come to Hurbage and for his splendid service ifs church; also the local bend for making this gathering sucls a success. -The Rector replied in a witty speech.
New mernbers proposed since the last quarterly meeting, viz, 23 ringing, twa rejoins, four life, were dnly elected.
Repton and wronld probably be January 15 th meeting was fixed for Repton and ronld probably be January 15 th, 1938.
Local sectotaries were asked to prepare a short accound of their dishrict activities for huclusion in the next ammal report, slating unmber of meetings lede, whether attendance had been good, new members elected, Sunday service ringing and any other items of interest.
This concluded the business and furtier ringing took place.

BURTON DISTRRICL SUCCESSTUL GATEERING,

A very plessant meeting of the Burton District of the Midand Counties Association was held at St. Peter's Church, Netherseale, on the eve of the Sunday lharvest festival.
The Rector (Canon $\mathbf{H}$. T. FitzHerbert) conducted a slort service, the lesson being read by the Rev. W. R. L. Jones, curate of Seales. An interesting adiress was given by the Rev. R. F. Wilkinson, Rectov of Ordsall, North Notts, in the course of which he spoke of the encouragement which should be given by ofder ringers to beginners and reminded them of the high standard of striking which shauld be maintained for Sunday service ringing.
Tea was generously provided by ihe Rector of Seales in the Fillage Hall and was admarably served by the ladies connected to the Churei Gouncil.

The Rector 7 resided over the business meeting which followed and read an apology froms Mr. W. W. Worthington, $\bar{J}$. P., chairman of the district and patron of the living of Seales, who, he regretted to say, was indisposed.
One honorary and ane ringing member were elected, and the next maeting fixed for Newhall on November 6th.

Mr. J. H. Swinfeld proposed thanks to the Rector for his hospitality and for the use of the bells. This was seconded by the Rev. R. Fi Wilkinson, who said he was delighted to be amongst old friends of Wilkinson, who said he was delighted to be amongst old friends of the Burton aud Derby Districts once again. He referred to the beantiful peals of bells within the Burfon District, especially mentioning the two peals of eirght in the parish of Seales and referring to the restoration of the church and bells at Nethersenle.

The motion laving been carried with applanse, Canon FitzHerbert replied thanking the ladies who had mrepared the tea and also those who had assisted in raising the $£ 1,100$ necessary for the restoration schenie. He espepially mentioned the magnificent grant from the Bell Repair Find of the Mid]and Counties Association.

Handbell ringing then added variety to the proceedings, and on the return to the tower the bells wore rung to various methods until the honr of curfew.
The towers represented were Burton St. Paul's, Ashby, Appleby, Measham. Overseale, Winshill, Newhall, Ticknall, Ibstacl, Rothcrlam, Derby Cathedral, Derby St. Audrew's, Walsall, Wolverhanıpton and the local company.

A JOINT SOCIAL GATHERING.

FUN AND FROLIC AT HLLLINGDON

Fin waxed fast aud furious at the anmual social beld at Hillingen on Seturday by the Middlesex Association, the Oxford Guald and the Ladies' Guild, The event attracted ringerg aud their friends from a wide area and altogether nearly a humdred wero present from ove 30 towers.
The proceerings Gegan in the afternoon with ringing ali St. John's (Hillingdon) and St. Andrew's (Uxbridge) Churches, and a congreag Lion numbering somewhere about seventy assembled in the former church for the customary service. They waited in vain for the arriva of a clergyman, and were mennwhile regated with organ music by Mr. A. W. Owen, arganist of Ruislip. After a quarter of an hou or so, the amouncement was made that the service would be abendoned and the onngregation fled out. No sooner had they dispersen than the eurabe (the Rev. B. Barron) arrived. There luad been a misunderstanding with regard to the time.
Tea was served in St. John's Hall, Mr'. J. A. Trollope (vice-president of the Middleser Association) presiding supportied by the Rev. B Barron, Mrs. R. F. Deal (vice-president of the Ladies' Guildy, Mr Q. T. Coles and M.I. T. W. Goodfellow (joint hon. secretaries of the Middleser Association), Mr. A. D. Barker (hon. secretary of the Eas Berks and Soutls Bucks Branch of the Oxtord Guid), Mrs. Barker Mrs. Coles, etc. The tea was served by Mrs. Goodfellow and Iedy fxionds.
Atterwards on behalf of the Fiear (the Rev. A. M. Beshford), the Rev. B. Barron welcomed the ringers to Hillirgdon and apologised for the misunderstanding with regard to the service.

CONGRATULATIONS TO THE LADIES

The Chairmas, in congratulating the Ladies Guild upon their silve jubilea, welcomed them and the Oxford Guild to the Widalesex Asso ciation's tower. He said he remembered the time when there were no lady ringers and when a tower-bell peal was first rung by a lady she was regarded by some people almost as a freak (laughter). Slie was, however, nat a freak, but a pioneer (hear, hear)- Ringers wero nraid in those days that if ladies came into the towers the standar of ringing would go down dreadfully, but he did not think it hat gone down very much as a result. Some of the ladies were very goon rimgers indeed. In the Middlesex $\Delta$ ssociation they wele very pleased to have the ladies nnong them, and they offered the Ladies' Guild their congratulations (applause).

Mrs. Deal, who replied, thanked Mr. Trollope for his good wishes Fears ago, she said, there were mixed feelings when a lady ringel went into a tower, but nowadays the ladies were absolutely certain of a kind welcome from most societies. The Ladies" Guild was de lighted to take part again in that joint meeting, and she was sure that the congratulations that had been offered would be mucl appreciaterl.
Mr. A. D. Bather supported Mr. Trollope in the congretulations to the ladies and expressed the pleasure of his branch in being abie to take part in that joint gathering.
Mr. Coles proposed a vote of thanks to the Vicars of Hillingdon and Urbridge for the use of the bells, to the Rev. B. Barror for his attendance, to Mr. A. W, Owen for coming from Ruislip to play the organ, to the local ringers, especially Mr. Pratt (enptain) and Mr Smith (steeplekeeper'), of St. Iohn's, and Mr. F. Corke, St. Andrew's also to the ladies, and partionarly $$$ Irs. Goodfellow, for prepating the tea.-This was carried by acclamation.

Albhough the tower bells were rung again after tea, there were rumber of gossips, handbell exponents and stage managers who re mained in the hall and made it look untidy. Eventually all the part seassembled to find a programme drawn up to last until about 10.30 but after Il o'clock the company whs still clamouring for more! The official programme was launchad shortly after 7.30 with a sing-song led by the Stoke handbell specialists under Mr. A. D. Barler. Later on this trio played more tunes, with all the variations deas to the hearts of tume ringers.
A course of Bob Major was rung on a set of very large haudbells. These bells, we were informed, were last rung in 1919 when the late Witliam PYe visited Hillirgtion for a peal to mark the peace celebrations.
Several sketches caused much amusement, especially the 'Opera tion ' (a silhouette, with sound and speech effects!) and the 'Secretarybloke ' Who had to wait for his wife (most umsual, we believel)- A violin selo skilfulty executed complefed the individual items.
Farious games caused much hilarity to players and ontookers alike The 'peal grabbers' had a high old time. A competition, arranged by Mrs. Barker, requined contesbants to draw a slip, bearing the name of a method, from a large pan, and find the correspoliding slip, pinned up somewhere in the room. The voumg and the not-soyouns started dasling about the hall in search of peals, and the winder was eventirally found to have "grabbed" vine.
The famons handball competition was contested in 10 flippant manner. Spectators saw the 'tough guys' 'sock' into one another in earnest, and ench match produced its casualties! Eighth teams elltered the contest from Conkham, Ealing, Hillingdon (two teams) Ruislip, Stoke Poges aud Uxloridge, together with a team of the Tower Snatchers Union (N.U.T.S.). Shortly before Il, Hillingdon 'A' and Uxbridge fought; ont the final, with the latter fairly easy victors
Mrs. Goodfehow thoughtfully provided refreshments during the evening and earned the thanks that were accorded to her.

NETHERTON LEADER'S RETIREMENT

LONG PAMILY CONNECTION WITH THE BELLS.

Mr. Albert Prestide has recently resigzed the leadership of the ingers at Sti. Andrew's Church, Netherton, an office which he has held for 20 years. Fe has had to give up ringing on account of rheumatism in the hands.
Mr. Prestidge Has been ringing at Netherton for 37 years and is the second generation of his family bo be connected wilh Netherton bells. His father, Joseph James Prestidge, and his uncle, Samuel, had learned to ring of. West Haddon, Northampton, and in 1870 , six years after they came to Netherton, six bells were given to the Parisli Ghurch. They at onco formed a band and Samucl became first leader of the belfiy. Fis brother afterwards succeeded to the leadership and held for some years until his death in 1917.
He had taught his two sons, Walter and Albert, and on his aleath the latter becane leader. For years Mr. Albert Prestidge strove to have the old bells reast and rehung and eventarly this was dono in 1935.

Two sons and two neplews now carry on the family tradibions. Mr. Prestidge was always chiefly concerned in maintaining service ringing at the chunch, but he has rumg 28 peale as follows: Bob Triples 1, Boli Majar 9 (onducted 2), Grandsire Thiples 5, Grandsire Gaters I. Treble Bol Major 8, Stedman Triples 3, Erin Triples 1.
Mr. Alfied Davies, of 19, Crescent Rond, Netherton, Dudley, has mow been appointed leader of the Netherton band, and applicatious for inging, ete., slould be sent to him for confrimation by the Vicar,

HUGHENDEN'S OLDEST RINGER.

DEATH OT MR. HARRY STRATFORD

By the lamented death of Mr . Fury Stratford, Huglenden has sen deprived of its oldest and one of ils most yespecter ringers. He was 78 yeat's of age.
Ever of a genial disposition, Mr. Stiratford was a most regular attendant both at services and practice while bis heath permitted. Althongh he had rather more than 60 peals to his credit, he was never au eathusiastic pral ringer, putting service rillging first. He took part in 1894 in the first peal of London Surprise for the Oxford Guild, in which the late Rev. F. E. Robinson also rang, the first peal of Superlative for the Guild, mul ane of the only wo peals of 'Allianee ever rung, Crawley ringing the other one on the prewious evening.
Sterman was his favourite methot, and nothing pieased him more han a well-struck guarter-peal.
In addition to his ringing abilities, he was a member of the church choir for a great many gears, and secretary of the Ghurch Helpars' Society from its inception down to his death. In fact, any project for the welfare of his beloved church had his wholehearted support, und a foumer Vicar declared that "Harr'y was worth two curates."

Iarge aud representative cougregation attended the funerel to pay their last respect to an estemed parishroner. The service was pinly choral, and a course of Grandsire Triples was rung over the grave, be tower bells afterwards being rung half-maffled. A well-struck quarter-peal of Stedman was rnog on the Sunday following by his fellow-members with the bells half-muffled as a tribute to a devoted flavcliman.
He will be greaty missed at Hughenden. A hackneyed expressiou, perhaps, but certainly true of Harry Stratiford.

DUDLEY AND DISTRICT GUILD

MONTHLY PRACTICES TO BT HELD
A quarterly meeting of the Dudley and Diştrict Guild was held at Enville, near Striurbridge, on Saturday, September 25th, in bearififul weather and with the countiry seeming to be at jts best. Ringiug began about three o'clock and later a gervice was leld, at which the Rev. W. F. O'N. Tisher (Rector) officiated and gave an interesting address. Mrs. Fisber kindly presided at the organ.
The Rector kindly placed his study at the disposal of the members tor the business meeting. The Rector presided and gave the Guild a hearty welcome to Enville.
It was propesed that the quarterly peal be attempted at Enville, the arrangements being lefl in the hands of the Ringing Mnster, the Rector kindly giving his consent to the attempt.
It was decided to hold the next meeting at OHd Fill, subject to the usual permission being obtained. Failing Old Hill it was left to the secretary to make other arrangements.
The guestion of holding a practico night for the Guild and others who might care to attend came in for a lengthy discussion. It was eventually proposed to lold a practice at St. 'Thomas' Church, Dudley ( 10 bells) on the firsi Monday evening in the month. It is boped that many members will avail themselves of this arrangement so that the practices may bo made successful.
Mr. S. J. Hughes proposed and Mr. §. H. Cox seconded a hearty rote of thanks to the Rector of Enville for his kiudness and to Mrs. Fibher for the musical part of the service.-The Recter briefly replied on behalf of his wife and himself and said that he hoped to have the pleasure of welcoming the Guild again.

ESSEX ASSOCIATION

METMTNG AT RTTTENDON

Although there was not a large muster at the South-Eastern Division meeting at Rettendon on Ochober Gih, those who atteaded had an wery pleasant and anjoyable time. Ringing bean at 3 p. m .
Service was comducted by the Rector (the Rev. W. R. Norment, the hymis were accompanied by Miss Meeson, and the lesson was reed by the hon. seeretary (Mr. H. W. Shadrack)
Toa was served in the Parisin Full, 20 sibiting down, presided over by the Rector:
It was mnnounced at the busivess meeting which followed that the unual divisional meeting would be held at Writtle on November 87 hh .
The Rector said that le fnd his ringers were very pleased to welcome the association and hoped they would enjoy their visit and the ringing.
Mr. H. W. Shadrack thanked the Rector for allowing the moeting to be held and also for his interesting address.
A vote of thanks to Miss Meeson, to the organ blower and to Mr. Jay and the local band was proposed lyy Mr. J. D. Buckiugham und carried witl applause,
After handbell ringing a rebirn was mede to the dower, where ringing coutimed in a variety of methodg, with rounds for two beginners who were present, until 9 g'clock.
The following towers were represented: Great Baddow Broomfield, Chelmsford, Fyyerning, Goldhanger, Maldon, Rettendon and Spingfield, also visitors from lriEtlewell.

RECTOR TO THE RESCDE.

On Saturday, October 16th, a meeting of the North- Eitstern Division of the Essex Association was, held at Great Bromley, when abont 30 members (including five lady lingers) attended from Tendring, Mistley, Dedham, Weeley aud St. Matibew's, Ipswich. Among other towers represented were Harwich, Colchester, Thorrington, St. Osyth's and Ipswicls. After a short service, conducted by lle ftector, it was found that tea was uot obtainable ato the usual place, so the Rector very kindly came to the rescue by inviting all to tea at the Rectory. Afterwards some retmined to the tower for mole vilging, while others went over to Little Bromley to ring on the four belle there, an thusian experience for the Surprise ringels. These bells were relung in 1898 and mothing bas heen done since. They had not been rung for many years until recently, when some ropes were oblained from a neighlouring tower and fun exthusiastic member from Mistley hnd spent some time in niling and making them ready. Quite a good timo Was spent here, ifter whichs ell feturned to Great. Brombey agail, where, during the day, some good ringing tools place in methods vanging from Stedman Doubles to Cambriage Surprise Minor.
On the way home some of the ringers were able to hayo it pull on the fine eirht at St. Peter's, Dolehester; which wele boing rung by an outing party.

At the meeting, after some dischssion, it was klecided to boln tho annual meeting agnin at Colchester in December.
Thanks are due to the gentleman who kindly lent this car and took those without cycles to Lithle Bromley, althougli 3 te is not now able to ring.

TWO ASSOCIATIONS MEET

HERTS AND BEDS RTNGERS AT JFIGHTON BUZZARD.

Hertfordshire and Bedfordshire ringers held a combimed megting on Saturday at All Sxints' Church, Leighton Buzzard. The fine peal of ten were set going to Stedman Caterg soon after 3 p.m., and riar ing was continued until 4 o'clock, when a short service was hek, conducted by the Vicar (tho Rev. A. I'. Stephens), who, in his address, spoke of the history of bells and described the important part ringers alay in the Church'e life. He thanked all ringers for the services they so freely gave for the extension of Clurist's Kingdom.
After service the whole party (very appropriately) ndjourner to the Golden Bell, where they enjoyed a very excellont ten. The Vicar welcomed the ringers from over the border.
Handbells were demonstrafed by the experts, spliced Litite and Plain Boh Major being splendidly struck. The pat'ty then returned to the tower, while a few want to Linslade to dry the light peal of eight. Ont their return, witir the help of Mr . Reutsen Sauders and othars, a grand course of Gambridge Royal was suecessfully completed, and a con'se of London Major was well struck. Methads from Grandsive Triples to Little Bob Royal were also in the programme, aud a very successful mecting was brought to close about o p.m. It is loped this may he one of a series of joint meetings of the two nssociations, and ringers in Bedfordshire look forward to a visit to #ertfordshire.

FIRST QUARTWR-PEALS.

SURREY ASSOCIATION AT LAMBETH

MASTER WELCOMED BACK.
Members of the Suriey Association who adtended the North-Western District meeting at Lambelh ou Saturday week had the preasure of seeing their Master, Mr. D. Kemeth G. Birt, back in his aceustomed place at the head of the table after his long illuess, and took the opporbunty of expressing their gratifioation. Mr. Birt, in opulniug the meeting, thanked them for their kind expressions of sympathy and welcome and said how lappy he was to be back with them once more. Coming over Lambeth Bridge this afternoon,' lie said, "I could not help feeling bow beautiful Lambelh bells sounded and what a happy contrast they provided to the tumoil of the present day and all the 4 we see going on around us, reminding us as they do of higher and Hobler thinge

Of all the minor arts,* he added, "I think we way regard the art of bellringing as the greatest and most wortly of encouragement, for we can rever really know what people feel or what help we are giving when we ring our bells. In these days of stress and strain I believe that heip to be very rery real.'
Mr. Birt said ho had been asked to convey to the meeting apologies for navoidable absence from their assistant meneral secretary, Mr. C. H. Kippin, and their District Master, Mr. D. Cooper, and others who were busily engaged in ringing a pall of welcome to the new Vigar of Croydon. He also extended a hearty welcome to their wisitors, amongst whom were the Sisuth and West District Mastrer of tine Middleser Assaciation, Mr. Fimest G. S. Tumer, and the Guildford District secretary of the Guildford Diocesan Guild, Mr. G. L. Grover; Mr, J. Herbert (Twickenham), Mr. O. I. Ashbrook (Isleworthi, Mr' E. B. Harlley (Whlesden), and Mr. F. H. Hicks and Wri. C. Brasicr (Rotherfield, Sussex).
Theo new mombers were elected-Mr. ㄱ. C. Cressy and Mr. Franeig P. Gato, of Imanuuel Church, Streabhan, and Mr. Johal R. Davisons of Mitcham Parisla Church.
There being no further business, a vote of thanks was accorted to the Viear for the use of the bells, to Mr. W. Hardy for having everything in y'cadiness in the tower and arranging the meeting, and to the ladies for the catering.
A return to the tower was then made, where ringing continued until 7.30 p.m., when evensong was said. Further ringing wook puace from 8 o'clock to 8.30 F.m. when another happy meeting terminated. The total attendance was 43 , representing anost of the towers in the district.

DON'T SCRUB YOUR HANDS!

Cleanse and preserve your skin this simple way

To many people, the problem of getting the hands really clean without harming the skin is a serious one. Grease and grime, which become deeply ingrained into the pores of the skin, are extremely difficult to remove, and ordinary washing with soap or even scrubbing will fail to remove them completely. Housewives, particularly, who complain that their hands get ruined by the nature of their work, will find the preparation called DERMAFOAM, a real "godsend." DERMAFOAM just smoothes away dirt and grease without effort. It gets right down into the pores and removes every particle of grime, leaving skin beautifully supple and healthy.

Men, too-when you've finished that dirty job on the car, DERMAFOAM will quickly banish all grease and oil from your hands. It acts almost magically-working under and around the nails and into every minute crease, removing all trace of dirt in a flash.

Engineers, Painters, Car Mechanics, Printers - everyone - will welcome DERMAFOAM, the modern method of cleansing and protecting the hands.

FALSE PEALS.

Last week two peals of Stedman Cinques were withdrawn because false compositions had been rung; this weck a false peal of Bob Major is similarly withdrawn. Within the last two years conductors have had to cancel quite a large number of peals, because they have used figures which have subsequently been found defective. It is always a matter of regret when performances of this kind are discovered to be worthless, because, in many instances, there have been involved not only the energies of the ringers in the actual ringing, but much organisation and travel. In both the Lincoln and the Surfleet peals many of the band had come from considerable distances, and this makes the disappointment all the greater. In both these peals, and in the one at Eastwood, which is withdrawn to-day, the compositions were by men of high standing among composers, and Mr. Arthur Knights, skilled and experienced as he is in the production of peals, admits, in a letter in another colunn, that a lapse of memory allowed him to step into a trap which was quite familiar to him.

The work of men of outstanding reputation is so seldom at fault that conductors rely implicitly upon their productions, but the risk is there, and these recent happenings go to show once more that the most reliable authors atre, after all, only fuman, and that there is nothing in peal compositions in which truth can be taken for granted without independent test. It is the eminence of the name which lulls one into a sense of security, for experienced concluctors generally take steps to check up the figures of the lesser lights before they call their compositions. But one wonders how many false peais really have been rung and have passed unnoticed.

There are those who think that the discovery of false peals some time after the performance should not invalidate the record, but with this view we camnot agree. [t would at once undermine the whole spirit of peal ringing, which, from the very beginning, has been based upon the strict truth of what is rung. To find out years afterwards, as in the case of the long peal of Stedman Cinques at Southwark, that the composition is false, does not detract from the credit of the ringers in putting up a fine ringing achievement, but such a performance cannot rank as a true peal. Neither, in our view, would it be righlt, when a false peal has been discovered, not to disclose the fact, particularly when the figures of the composition have been published. One of the main purposes of frankly withdrawing false peals is to prevent others ringing them again afterwards, aithough once the figures have been in print there can be no certainty that someone may not (Continued oll page 710.)

subsequently get hold of them，not knowing of the false－ ness，and repeat the performance．There is always that risk．It is quite possible，too，that many false composi－ thons have been rung，and handed on to others，which no one but the composers and those who have called them have seen，and everyone concerned is still in blissful ig－ norance that there is anything wrong with them．We do not for a moment intend to cast a general slur on unpub－ lished compositions，but when，as we have seen，men of reputation sometimes fail，it behoves all those who call peals by fesser－known composers to take every reasonable precaution to ascertain first of all that the figures are true．

PEAL NOTES.

LNAERESTLNG POINTS RROM PERFORMANCES
Members of the Surrey Association, conducted by Mr. C. H. Kippiu, added to their fine list of peals of Roynl hy ringing another of Loudhat Surprise (No. $3^{\text {'version }}$, at St. Peter's Chnucl, Croydon, oy Oct. 16th. Messrs. Bill Hewiti and Fred Collins sconed their first peal in the method.

With reference to the handbell peal rulig at Finton-on-the-Green on October 16th aud published in our |ast issue, it is interesting to mote that in 1915 Mr. F. S. Wison rang handbell peals of Grandsire Triples and Caters respectively witl) the late MI, F. .). Jolnson (fabher of the lalented fanily of rimgers) and with the late Miss Ellea M. Johnson, the eldest daghater, so that Mr. Wilson has now rung handbell peals with no less than five members of the Jolnson family.
At Lyminster, Sussex, on Saburday, the first peal was rung on the bells since they were retuned and relung by Messrs. Mears and Stafmbank.

Mr. T. Law, of Northmplon, Nang his one handredth peal on Saturday, and Mr. John H. Cluesman, of Greenbithe, his 150 th peal on Crayford bells on liriday.
The peal of Grandsire Doubles at Hampton-in-Arden, Warwickshire, rung by members of St. Edburgha's Society, Yardley, Birmingbam, was in celebration of the weclding of Mr. Rolnnd Edwards, at membel of the society, and to mark the relanging of the bells by Messrs. John Taylor and Co.
A peal of Grandsire Triples was Iuug on the back eight at Worsley. Lance, on October 20th, as a 'coming of age' compliment to Mr', J. K. Welsby. It was also the birthday of Mr. H. Allred, sen., and the wedding anniversary of $\mathbf{M r}$. $\mathbf{R}$. Allred. All of them received the congratulations of the rest of the bend.
The conducfor, Mr. J. H. Ridyard, has now rung every bell in the tower to a peal, and this was the quickest peal on the bells. It was rumg in exactly three hours; the tenor is 24 cwt.

Mr. William B. Duncan has now added Hethersett to the list of towers where he has "completed the circle.
October 2lst was the 26th anniversary of the first peal rung hy eiglyt brothers the Baileys, of Leiston, Suffolk. That peal was Allen F.'s first, aca be celebrated it on Thurgday week by calling a peal of Stedman Caters on haudbells at Stockport.

The Bailey brothers made history by the number of family peals they rang.
Odd-bob peals of Sterman Triples are a rave occurrence now that Maurice Swinfield and the Midland Connties' Wednesday band have ceased operations, but Mr. P. W. Cave called Carter's No. 2 at Halewood, Lanes, on Saturday.
Mr. W. H. Shuleer, hon. secrehary of the Laneashire Association, has just completed 50 years of ringing, and ou Saturday celebrated it by ringing his 150th peal.
In this peal of Stedman Triples, rung at Gorton, Manchester, Messrs. Alfred Barnes and Charles Ollier also took part, and both these have pat in over 50 years' serviee. It was the oue bundredth peal together by Messus P. Laflin and A. E. Bajley Sheila Gralham has begur to receive bintheay compliments early. To celebrate her first birthday, a peal was rung at Nor'bury (Haze) Grove), Chesluire, on the twelfth anniversary of the restoration of the bells.

The tenor at Kedington, Suffolk, was recast and the rest of the bells rehung in $a$ mow frame and fitings by Mr. R. White, of Apple. ton. The first peal was rung on them on Octolyer 17th

Mr. Sidney W. Arbon rang his first peal on eight bells on Saturday It, was Kent Treble Bob Major at Debenham, aud previous to the peal he lad not ruvg as much as a plain course in the method in the fower.
Mr. Bert Chutwers, who took part in the peal, and on the previous Saturday rang in a peal of Minor at Thornlam, Suffolk, has only olte arm. Despite this handicap, he can strike a bell really well.

Mr. Robert Sperring of Chester, rang bis 550th peal on Saturday when be called a peal of Grandsire Triples. He chose this method as his first peal, rung at Holt, Denbigbshire, in 1901, was Grandsime Doubles.

TEACHING BEGINNERS.

REPLIES TO WR. S. H. WOOD

To the Editar

Dear Sir,-Briefly, my replies to Mr. Wood's letter are:-

1. 'Method of lunting up, etc.' Returning to the lead after the making of 2nd place or 3rd place, the teaching of 'lnnting up' is incorporated in the work which follows, be bub iajor or Grandrite Triples.
2. No 2 is still my plan to "learn to strike evenly over other bells, as stated in my letter published in "Th'ho Ringing World" on Oct. Ist. 3. Learning to lead. For uy parti, I should not be satislied until each pupil had passed the instruction test of 'learuing to lead ' hy faking the treble, and I should not prolong the instruction by ringing the treble myself. mhe subject is "leaming to lead
3. 'Stedman' is the parent of Surprise methods, and, I claim, can lue taught a bared more easily than Grandsire.
The one thing which inspired Mr. Wuod to write lais first article in 'Tho Ringing World ' was to Lry to find out, ' whicls is the best nethet on which to start berinners, and at the amoment I cannot agree that a Major method is best. And why do anything to defract [rom the splendid sticles published eech week in "The Ringing World" for begimners?
May I refer Mr. Wood to April $25 t h, 1925$, and ask, was it encouraging and beneficial to greater efforts?

GRANDFATHERS WERE NOT ALWAFS WRONG

Sir-Beanse one happens to disarare with Mt' S. H. Wood and simply gave a few plain facts, in reply to his distorted nrgumends, he says he is subjected to rudeness and personal abuse, Mr. Wood dislikes being told straight, aud in the fewesi worde, that his article is neither new nor original, and, like a goot many other writers in various spheres, drags in the grandfather phrase. Onr graudfathers were not always wrong, and we owe much to them for their lard work, enterprise and splendid examples, especisally with rearard to good strikiug.
My vision is not blinded with rage, and becarase I do not choose to write page after page trying ta raise arguments, he. Wood says there is no constructive critjcism. When Mi: Wood puts forth a reasonable argument, I sliall be pleased to deal with the subject in a fuller manner. Having stated that ho leads only with lris ears and nothing more, I need not camment furtion.
Mr. Wood wants to know where le states his aversion to Grandsire Triples. My answer is, on pages 633 and 634 of 'The Ringing World.' I still say that Grandsine is the best melihod to teach beginnerg and it has been proved beyond question in many, ways, if Mr. Wood will only take tho trouble to find out. There is no argument about it whatsoever. I would refer Mr. Wood to page G63 of "The Ringing World,' which will give him some ideu of the correct method Io lemel beginners, and if he requires further information il can be obtained without much trouble. It is not for me to tell him how to get his proofs.
In conchiolin, I may say that, havingr reviewed both letters which are cimmed to be rude and ahusive, I fail to trace anything of enme in either of them, and when devoid of reasonathle aryment it is easy to slate that those who tieagree Hre capable of such measures.

BOYS' QUICK GRASP OF STEDMAN

Dear Sis', I have read Mr. Stephen Wood's two letwers on this important subject with considerable juterest. Mr. Wood srys he would like to hear results of personal experience in this mather, and in think that an expericnce we have lad ab our tower at Anstey, Lejcestershira, during the last ten montins may intereat him. Judging by this ex perience I should sey that, providing you have the right iwstructor and pupits of average intelligence, Stedman is the best metiod to start. a beginael with.
Last Guristmas holidays our Ringing Master, Mr. Redvers $F$. Elkington, who is well known in Midinnd ringing circles, started to teach three lads, who are scholars at the Boys whgeston Grammar School, Leicester, aud were then aged 12h, 14 and $14 \frac{1}{2}$ respectively. On Sunday, October 17th, these three rang in a good quartet-peal of Stedman Triples.
Their method of instruction was roughly as follows: First of all plenty of practice with the 'elapper-stays ' on to get them thoroughly masler of their bells; then romnds and 'calt changes, followed by 'plam hunting' commencing on four bells. While they were in the - plain hunving ${ }^{2}$ stage, Mr. Elkington taok pains to explain the Stedman nathod very thoroughly to these three Inds, so that when they came to rime it later on they found little diliculty with it.
M1. Wood's point about even-bell ringing for beginners is an interesting one. These three lenmers were given a certain amount of "plain hunting" on six bells, and after having the Kent Treble Bob method explained to thera they quickly mastered the Minor and were soon able to ring Kent Treble Bob Major-in fact, wwo of therr lad bad まuck recently as they rang very nearly to the and of a quarterpeal of Kent for the weekday harvest foctival service, a "trip" unforturately putting 'paid' to it about a conrse from home. We do not possess anv landbells, and all the instruction, therefore, hat to bo done on the tower befts:

SNOWDEN MEMORIAL DINNER.

RECORD GATHERING AT LEEDS.

The snnual dinner in commemoration of past ofticers of the Yorkshire Association was held at tho Leeds and Conty Conserwative Cub Gu Seturduy, October gih. This was a new venue. Whether the ehange had anything to do with the size of the gathariag it is impossible to say, but the fact remains thate a record number of 160 sat down to the excellent repast provided, at total which left the previous recoru hed by Shefficld far behind. A further gratifying feature was Lhat out this occasion by fir the grater percentago of those preseat were resident members of the Yorkshive Association, so that the usual plea of the president for a greater loyalty to thein own association was unnecessary, as indeed it shonld be.

Amongst those who sat down under the presideucy of Cazon C. C. Marshal! were the Right Rev. P. F. D. de Labilliere (Bishop Suffagan of Knaxesborough), the Rev. W. Thompson Elliot (Vicar of Leeds), the Rev. E. J. Lindley (Vicar of Burley), the Rev. 0.0 . Ellison and the Rev. J. H. Z. Andrews, Messrs. White and West (churchwardens of St. Chad's, Headingley), and Sohofield (churchwarden of St. Michael and All Angels, Headingley), Extra-territarial participants inclurled Mr . and Mrs. G. W. Fletcher (representing the Central Conncil and the Ladies' Guild respentively), Mr. and Mrs, W. H. Shuker (Lancashire Association), Mr. R. Perk (secretary of Hhe Durlian and Newcastle Association), Mr. N. Park (treasurex of the Durinan and Newcastle Associationy, Mrs. Park, Mr. J. O. Pollard and Mr. J. Reed (presidont and secretary respectively of the Cleveland and North Torkshire Association), and Mr. G. W. Park, of Darlington.

After the diuner, Councillor E. E. Bullus proposed the toast of "The Church and Statie.' In a shorts ann pointed clisconrse, Councillor Bullus suggested that, althougll to some disestaibish1mantarianjem night scem the anly solntion to the reconciliation of the Churcl and State on certain points, such os lad heen raised by the new Divorce Act, in which Elie Church had been placed in ann nnomalous position, he himself thanght, on the contrary, this was at time when there should be a closer uity, ana he appealed for suppoit to the Archbishop's recall to yeligion as un answer to the problems nlising from modere conditions of life.

Canon W. Thampson Elliat responded to the torst. He patid tribute to those, swem as the president, who bad done mach to raise and mainfain the status of ringing and ringers, and referred to the animue position that bells occupied in the paroclial life of Engtand. Indulging in reminiscences, lie said lie rememhered when a proposal to

ASPER W. SNOWDON.
Boltr 1844. Died 1885. rohang a peal of bells, in which he was interested, was opposed on the gronnds that there was ne canonical authority for more than three hells in a church and no authority whatsoever for bells to be used for recreative parposes. He was able to say, however, that the peal of hells was restored and no attention was paid to the remarks of the objector to the enterprise.
Rerretting that even to-day there are two classes of ringers, the one poing to service after ringing and the other going to drink beer, he hoped thal. (whilst again he had no canonical anthority for saying this) riagers would come to regard themselves as being members of a minor order of chatch ministers. He conchuded hy wishtug the association and the ringers themselves success in the work they were doing. A conree of Grandsire Cators was then rung by Messrs. S. F. Palmer 1-2, G. Lewis 3-4. P. J. Jolutson 5-6, W. Barton $7-8$ and J. Ambler 9-10. Canon C. Marshall then read it telegram which had been recejved fram Mrs, and Miss Suowdary, of Cartmel: "Best possible wishes to this cyenjing's meeting, und next called upan Mr. P. J. Johnson to propose the Loast of the evening, 'Jasper Whitfield Snowdon and Past Officers of the Yorkshire Association.'

NOTABLE PAST OFTICERS.
Mr: Johnson said that he considered it a signal honour to be able to propose on tosst to those early members of the association and whilst lie had no personal knowledse of Jasper Snowdon, he had been assaciated with many who knew him intimately as a true son of the Church. Yorkshire and the Yorkshire Association were proud of him who did more than any other single man to further fine cause of chnnge riaging by his witings. His brother. William Snowdon, he (Mr. Johngon) knew well, and he considered that his ability was insufficiently recognised, as he devoted himself wholeheartedly to the propagation of his brother's writings bliroughout tho Exercise.
Other officers known to mathy iacluded C. H. Hadtersley, of Sheffeid, a arandeot of a former ringer of that town-Wiliam Booth. A composer of great merit, Clarles Hattersley had left belind in Sheffield belfry a large manuscript collection, as well as numerons books, whith was highly treasured by the Sheffield ringers. Referring to Charles Jackson, of Hull, the speaker recalled that lie was a good story teller who was prepared to go peal ringing at any timo and every tine William Whittaker, of Leeds, and $G$. Bolland, of T'ong, were mets tioned for their excellent strikiug as well as for other virtues, before the speaker passed on to that well-known ringer and conductor, the late Mr. James Cotterell, who was treasurer of the association for many years, and a man of great ability, who commanded the respect of all who met him.

Mr. H. Lofthouse, secretary of the Leeds and District Society, wolcomed the visitors aud proposed tho toast to them. The toast, whicl was further supported by the president and replied to by tho Bislop of Knaresborourh and Alderman Bretherick.

CAMPANOLOGISTS' A HORRID TERM.

The Bishop said that he did not think that he was altogethen amongst strangers as, whilst lie was not a ringer, he was, what was probably the mext best thing, one who has tifed, but, after dangling at the end of a rope and then measuring his length, considered that ringing was not bis pocation (laughter). He would, however, rase two contentious questions, one from the point of wiew of an anti noise association, 'Do bells make a noise or a melodious sonnd?' He wauld suggest that the auswer to this question would depend mainly on the conscience of the person who was listening to the balls.
The second was whether the use of that horrid hybrid term, "Campanologists,' should be continued, as it savoured too much of the irew-Fangled terminology beloved of Americans, and recalled that he was taking to a chauffeur who land returicd from Salt Lake City, where he said that he bad been driving for a "mortition." He suggested, therefore, that this term was umworthy of the ringers of church bells, which had been ascribed with the power of driving away devils as long ago as 1552 -work which, he said, they could still do by working on the conscience of the hearer. 'May England,' he conf ctuded, "long continue to be known as the ringing isle.
In proposing the toast of the "Continued Prosperity of the Yorkshire Association,' Mr. W. Braton poinled out that this was an in portant toast, as it was a madter which concerned all the nembers of the association. Fe recounterl brielly the gradual growth of ringer's' societies from the early days of the art, and asked the members fo note that now, as then, the welfare of the society deprended upon the individual members and not upon the officers of the association, and that by obeying the rules of the society in such small items as paying their subscriptions promptly, they could facilitate the easy running of that body, whilist they would help themselves by attending meetirgs which were arranged for them.
Mr: G. W. Fetcher, in a short speech, deew abtention to the fact that the long overdue visit of the Central Council to Jueeds would take place next year, which would give Leeds an opportunity to show what it conld do. He was sure that Leeds people would not lef the Yorkshire $A$ ssociation down.
A course of Double Norwich Conre Bob Major then followed on haudbolls by W. Ambler, P. J. Jolmson, W. Bartan and J. Ambler. A vote of thanks to the chairman was poposed by Mr. E. White, who congratulated him on his suceessful juggling with the programme, -After the reply by Canon Marshall, in whtheh he promised the Centra Council a Yorkshire welcome. the company slowly disperged,
Mr. Nag the evening songs were rendered by Mr. J. Allerton and Mr. Naylor.

MIr. F. G. Sherwood is to be heartily conrratulated upon the ex cellent arraugements which he made for the ringing previous to the dimer and for the finner itself. Fo proved himself an able secretary for the occasion

HALIFAX ASSOCIATIONS SIX-BELL CONTEST.

LTVERSEDGE WIN

The quarterly meating and six-bell contest of the Halifax and District Association was held at Elland on October 16th. The contest consisted of 600 changes, with a plain course for practice, and the three teams that antered rang in the following order: Liversedge (who rang College Exarcise), New Mill (Oxford), Meltham (Oxford)

Tea was served in the Parochial Hall, to which about 30 visitors sat down, and after the competing teams had rung the meeting was held in the school.
The President (Mr. Earnshaw) moverl that the best thanks he accorded to the Yicar, churolwardens and local company at Elland for entertaining the association flat aftornoon.
In the absence of the Vient, the rurate (the Rev. F. R. Arnott replied. The judge, Mr. W. Tdle, gave his decision as follows: Liver sedqe. 98 faults: New Mill, 156 faults, rang oust; Meltham, 180 faults, 5 penalty, total 185 . Liversedge were, therefore, declared winners, and the Rev. F. R. Amptib presented the cup to the Liversedge conductor, Mr. F. Hoduson.

The next meeting is due to be helri nt New Mill on Marels 19th, and it was proposed that Kirlcheator be approached will at view to holding the contest there on April $23 \mathrm{rd}, 1938$.

KENT COUNTY ASSOCEATION.

LEWISHAM DISTRICT ANNUAL MEETING.
The amual meeting of Lewisham District was held at St. Mary's, Lewisham, on October 16th. Ringing was enjoyed by some 50 members during the afterupon and evening.

The association's service was conducted by the Vicar (the Rev. O. R. Cotter), and afterwards the mambers were entertained to tea in St . Mary's Hali by the Ticar, who presided, supported by bis churchwaxden, Mr. J. A. Musto.
At the meeting the charman and Mr. J. A. Musto extended a warm and renerous welcome to the visitors.
The secretary's report and bainnce sluee were read and adopted. It was suggested that such report be printed, liectograplied, or otherwise duplicated, in order that members mterested might obtain copies for future reference.

The election of one member previous to e peal was ratified.
Eitham was chosen for the next meeting, to be held, if possible, on Saturday, January 29th
The district secretary (Mr. A. G. Hill) and the Ringing Master (Mr. T. Groombridge, sen) were re-elected. The gelection of district representatives on the wanagement Committee led to the re-election of Mr. F. J. Cullum and the appointment of Mr. W. Snsith to surceed Mr. J. Wheadon.

Yoles of thanks were passed to the officers for their past services, the secretary being instructed to convey this expression of appreciation to Mr. Wheadon, who was unavoidably absent

Mr. F. M. Mitchell (the general gecretary) was invited by the chairman to addrass the meeting, and did so wisely, shortly and well, voicing tire general satisfaction felt in observing a good proportion of younger ringers among those attending.

A cordial voter of thanks was passed to the Vicar for the use of the bells, for his generous lrospitality, for conducting the service and presiding at tine business meeting, to the Vicar and churchwarden jointly for their welcome to Lewisham, to the organist and the caterers for their willing help, and to Mr. H. Warmett (steeplekeeper) and Mr. O. F. Walker (secrebary, St. Mary's ringers) for making such smooth working arrangements.-The Chairman replied, and further ringing on the tower bells terminated proceedings.

A Fter au excellent meal, the loyal toast was hononred on the call of the president.
Miss Sypin Tlursfield proposed the toast of "The Church, which, she suid, was vilally connected with the work of tha Guild. If they were to ask what point in their connection with the Chureh was most vitat, she would say, the fact that their worle and this Exercise with they so greaty onjoyed was privileged to talea ploce within the churehus and catisedrals. That day they were celebrating their silver jubilee. They had not got tho nutiquity which obler rimgiug enilds and socteties enjoyed, but could thoy imagine what migut possibly havo happened if women had started ringing, say, a hundred or more years ago? She thought it mirato easily lavo jeopardised hneir dannees for evor; thay might have been looked upon with such alam and coucern that they would never afterwards have stood much chanoe. lusterd, today, they had an esbiablished position and were not only recognised, but welcomed by the Church. That was due, she thoughit, very argely to the clergy. She came from one of the smallest distrituts of the Ladies' Guild, but from her experjence she could say that what they met with, from the chureb offeibls, was nat just a balance of avernge friendliness, but a definite lecegnition of the full valwe of tieir work. They had many friends among the elergy and that night they groathy welcomed Canon Coleridge, who had been a staunch supporter of the Guild ever since it started (applanse). Ringing parsons were one of the greatest assots they had got, but second to them glie put the nouringing parsons, whose interest, she thought, was lavgely due to the words which the ringing parsons put in for the ladies. The support which they got from the clergy was a whing they should realise and value. She hoped it might long continue and grow from year to yean, (applase)

HISTORY REPEATS ITSELF.

Canon Coleridge reminded the company bhint the 'Clurchi ' referred as mach to then as to himself. He lield ofite in one position in the Clurels, they held it in another and did an enormous anount of good, Fo looked back to the days when it was a very tare thing to find a lady in the belfry, but on those rave occasions when lye was now able to ring he was always delighted when he could geti a lady near nbie to ming he was always delighted when he could get an lady near him (langter). When he alled to mind bie many woikderful things which had been done by ladies in the beltries, he could not; but he very definite in expressing his warn flanlis and the thanks of atl connocted with the Glaurch for the wonder [ui worlk they lad done, were domp and would do in tho future for the Chareh. Soon aftel he listle thought then that it would develop is it had done. With such a healtiny looking lot of ladies in frout of him he did not think thlore was mach doubt they would attract whe young men to the belfry (langhter), and mary of them would no doubi find their true partner in life.

Continuing, Canon Coleridge said he had just read that delighiful litclo book brought out by Mr. 'Prollope-'A History of the College
Youths.' He adrised everyone to ret a copy sund read it, becanse it showed them how very different the Exerciso was merly $$ 00$ years ago to what it is at tha preseat day. Catran Coleridge reaci a short extract from the book in reforence to the occasion when the Collere naturally desired to commemorate it, and it was recorded that at monts afterwerds they repaired to The Meece and partook of 'a very haul some dinner in commemorabion of that monamled performance and were accomparied by mathy worthy genllemen who doltrght in the Exercise.' 'Does not history repent itself' ${ }^{2}$ ' added Canon Caleridge. He did not know exactly what 'a very handsome dinner was, but la saw many handsome faces round him that nirht. It was ecpualy thine that many worthy genllemen who delight in the Excrise wore present. on that oceasion, and it gave them the greatest possible pleasure to be thero (applatise).

Contining, Canon Coleritigo attributed many of the changes of recont years to the adminable example set by the lady singers. Thuy came to the front in the war time and filled lhe gaps and had kept on with a perseverance that was wonderfal. To iltustrate flag changos, the spenker quoted extracts from tho dinyy of a village tailar who wus also a singer at Thorverton, Devon, when be (Canon Coleridge) learned to ring there as a boy. It recorden, [or' instunce, in 1831, that 'this day Rev. Dr. Coleridge took the benefits and gave tire riogers f3, and a month after, 'Rex, Dr, Coleridge road hiseeff is today and gave the ringers a sovereign.' When his dangher was married bley received two sovercigns, and when the daughter gave birth to her first child he gavo the liagers o nound. On one occasion when a local yeoman farmer was narried he gave the rimgors 82 ia $\pi$, oney, threc rounds of beef (rounds of beef in those days were about 30 lb . ench) and 100 mallons of beer (langhter)
Canon Coleridge conchded hy thanking the ladies for the foast and said he trusted they would all go on to do the very best they could for the Church by every means in thair power.

FOUNDATION OF GUILD REGALEFD.

Mr. J. S Goldsmith submited the toast of "The Ladies' rusild.' ITe conmatulated the Guild on reaching its silver fubilee and said that it gnvo him special pleasure to propose the toast because lie took part in the formation of the Guild 25 years ano. Je was not onty present wher whe Guild was formed, but was privileged to talse the clail ot the innngural meeting. To that extont he was dresponsible for bringing it into the world. He dit not lnow whether they would eall lim the father of the Guid ar tho family physiona, but in watever the whole Exacoise had dolle, the growth of the Guild through the intervening years. Ee zecalled the discussion which took place at ilie first meebing as to whellice it shond be ealled the Ladjes' of the Women's Guild, and said he thought they had closen righly. But ite anty case the members were ladies by their conduct and uxumple in tho boliry, and women in fhe best sense of the term, by the way in whicll they were ready to fullil the duties laid upon thea by their adopted callpag and their readimess lo share on equal terms with the men the discipline which change ringing imposed.

He conld look hack, he said, to the days when ladies were unknown in the belfry as ringers, and he rementered the mild sensation which was eaused when Miss Alice White, as she then was, rang in the first peal on tower bella in which a lady lad taken part. Her performance Was greatly aduired, but it was generally felt to be just a passing incident. No one at that time imagined that the ladies would take up the art as seriously as they have done and in such numbers. But mary a chnreh lad reason to be grateful to tho ladies for the part thay played in helping to kcep the bells going duving the war period athd in mot a few cases since. The formation of the Guild in 1912 set the seal on their position in the Exercise. Ladies had been received in urost helfries with open arms, and the other essociations, with one (latugher). While sharing in the interests of other assaciations they had shown their independence by running their own Guild, whose activities wero bounded only by the seas and their aspirations by the honvens. And looking back over the last 25 Jears one wondered at the success which the Guild luad attained, in face of the diffentities which had roufronted it from the very stait-a serttered membership and the diffeulfy of maintaiuiug touch with each other. The formation of districts had helped parly to solve the problem, but not wholly, and thase wha knew somelhing of the organisation of ringiug associations marvelled at the way the Indies kept the Guild together under very diflicult conditions. They admired them for the tenncity with which they stuck to the task and hoped that in the coming year's they would reap the reward of still larger membership ana wider jufluence (applanse).
Proceeding, Mr. Goldsmith "disillusioned, the ladies who held the iclea that women lad ouly in comparatively recent years taken up ringing, and exused much amusement by ounting from some hitherto momblished (and manthenticated) pages of the dipary of Samuel Pepys, who fornd some ladies ringing at St. Olave's in 1670 and afterwards ancepted their invitation to a dinner.
In conchasion Mr. Goldsmith referred to the work which had beers done on belialf of the Ladies' Guild by a suecession of presidents and district oflicers, and to the devoted labours of Mrs. Fletcher. Slae, he srid, was one of the prime movers in founding the Gurild, ghe liad been Hanomary secretny and theasurer throughout the whole 25 years, and hat disnhryed the duties with increasing zeal and success; in fact she had largely made the Guid what it was to-flay. In asking them to drink to tho continued suceess and prosperity of tle Ladies 'Guid. he asked them also to drink to the heath of Mrs. Fletelher, theil guide, mildosopher, sacretary and friend

LADIES FIRST PEAL AND WHAT CAME OF II
Tise toast was enthusiastically homoured, and Mrs. Fletcher was cordially receited when she replied. She said that 25 years secmed quite a slont tinae compared witla the life of some of the societies iu warious parts of the counliy, ospecially the old society in London, which this yenr was celebrating its there mandredth anniversary, but Wheu they formed the Ladies Guild in 1912 it did not seem possibie that it would se grow that thes would be nble to have a meeting of that description 25 years affer. Wilh them that night they had five of the original memberg of the Guild and five who took part in the first ladies' peal at Cubitt Town on July 20th, 1912. The others, she was giad to say, were all alive and would have been present, but were prevented by ill-health. Mrs. Fleteher recalled that they struggled for five hours to ring that peal. They started in the afternoon, on a very lot day. They failed, and fried agaiv and failed. Then some wise woman suggested they should have a cup of tea. So they had their cup of tea and then started again, and after three hours they accom plished their peal (applause). They were all very tired and the blisters on some people's hands would have frightened some men (langhter). She rid not think she had ever secn blisters like it, On the way back to Londou someone sumested they should form a Guild. They advertised in "the Ringing World " rund had forly applications for membermater country. They held their mandinal mpeting at St. filles-in-the-Field in Octoler and started on ther way. Some of the mombers who were there on that day hat Pnssed awny, among them Miss Matgery Sampson and Miss Pigot of Smethwick. In iddilion, from those who joined at the time, they find lost Mrs. George Williams, the first lady over to ring a peal on Handhells, and Miss Nellie Johnson, of Evesham. They were fonr of the original members. Thes fonm it rery difficutt in those early days, Mrs. Fletcher contimed, becanse there were not enough memhers in the comntry to form dislricts, There was just one here and there. So they did their hest and lad meeting occasionally which were mot always very weil supported. Then came the Great War, but just before that they had enough memhers to be eligible for election to the Central Conncil. They were very dubious as to whether they would he admitted, put they had a velt good friend in the president it that lime, Sil Arthur Fieywaod, who, besides lelping them with a bin donation at the start of the Guild, did his utmost to get them rdmitted to the Council. In 1914 at the meeting at Winchester they were admitted to the Council, and there was ouly one man who raised his band against them (langhter). They sent one representative, but when their mombership ormw sufficiently they seat two, and this year they had suffient members to enable them next year to send three representatives (applause), During the war, contimited Mrs. Tietcher, many ladies started in the belfry and kept the bells going while the men were away, but after the war a mumber dropped out and the membership of the Guild fell a little. Afterwards they hegan to grow atrain, and they formed the districts one by one. The work which the district secretaries put in was really wonderful, for they had many disappointments and got precions littie support in some parts. But gradusily the Guild had spread and they hoped in time they would be able to have every part of the country in some district or other. Gontinuing Mrs. Fletcher said that the Guild had rumg 15 peals since the one rung at Cntbitt Town. They rang one peal of Grandsire Triples in 1915, and mother in 1918; a peal of Bol Minor in 1982; Stednatu Triples in 1924 and again in Ige5; Stedman Caters in 1926; Boh Major and Cambridge Surprise in 1928; Bob Major in 1929; Minol in thvee methods and Cambridge Surprise in 1930; Kent Treble Bob Major in 1931: Bob Major in 1932: Superlative Surprise in 1935: aud Stedmall Triples in 1936. Considering lheir difforlties, she did not think they had done bedly in regatd to peals (applange). In conchision, Mrs. Fleteher expressed appreciation of all that lad been said whout the Guild, and hoped that that wanderful gathering wonld make them atl determined to do more for the Guild in future.

GDFIS TO THE FON. STCRETARY

The Presideut said Mrs. Filetiler had told them a little about the work that had been done for the fuild. The members wanted to show some slight appreciation of what she lad pat into it. nod she asked her to accept their gift with their hest wishes. She hoped, when they held their 50th anniversary dinner, that M's. Fletchet wond still be their secretary and that they would see prosent in 25 years ${ }^{3}$ time all the faces that lad gathered there that: evening (lawghter aurl applause).
Mise Steele then handed to Mrs. Fletcher a very nice buther handbag, which, when opened by the tecipiont, was found to contan a pearl necklace, witb diamoind clasp, and a landsome gald wristlet wateh inscribed with a monorram and the date.
Mrs. Fletcher, who received the gift amid lond applange, was taken completely by surprise, and thanked the members from the bottom of her heart

THE HELP OF KINDRED SOCTFTLES.
Miss Kallileen Bowling gave the torst of "Kindred Societies, to wham she said the Lradies' Guild owed a tremendous debt of gratitude. Among the societies represented were the Ancient Society of College Youths, the Royal Cumberland Youths, the Middleses, Kent, Midand wickshire and Guildford Guilds aud the National Police Guild. They welcomed them very warmly and were glad to see 60 many friends joining in the ladies jubilae celebralion. They were specially honomed, she said, in having with them Mr. Lewis, both in his capacity as president of the Ceutral Conmeil and Master of the College Youths, to whom, through him, they would like to excend warmest Thgratilations upor their tercentenary aha best wishes for the future deal Ladies their brother ringers, more than they, perhaps, sometime realised. In the first place, they taught them to ring and certainly made it possible for them to hold suecessful distriet meotings. The ladies were so scattered that it would bo glmost impossible for them to hold district meetings with purely their own members, and the gentlemen were always an enormous telp in the ringing. There had been, said Miss Bowling, n good deal withen and said fram time to time about whether the presence of ladies was desirabie in the belfy or not. There wrere all sorts of opinions on the subject, but from her own experience she could say that ladies always met, with real friendiness in the beffry. They were most gratefit for all the help they had receiped from lindred sacieties through the 25 yerrs of their existence (applause)
Mr. E. H. Lewis, in reply, thanked Miss Bowling for her congratulatians to the Aucient Saciety which he represented Ehat night, and said lee would duly convey them to the members. The varions associations appreciated the help which the ladies anve at their meetings, said Mr. Lewis, find he went on to refer to some of the performances whiel they had put up. He recalled two particularly in which their sectetary was mancernet. In one year before the war, when they used, after the Central Council meeting in Jondon, to hold a social at the Westminster Hotel, Miss D. K. Parker rang the trehles to a courge of Boh Roval on bindbelly, and Sir Arthur Hewwood snid he had of Boh Roval on handbells, and Sir Arthur Beywood sad he had other merformance was by the same talented lady tecently when shm rang the 30 cint. tenor at Wedmore to a peal of Stedman Trizales and nfterwards was ancious to turn it in to a course of Poly Major, hut the seven men in front had had enough (laughter and applanse). In conchision, Mr. Lewis hoped the friendship between the Ladies' Guild and the other somiaties would long contirue.

Mrs. F. M. Mitchell submitted 'The Visitars,' wham she weleomed rem heartig. She was partionary pleased to see present her oing rienge, whas amon the earliest of ber ringing recollections. There was only one whoma she kuew better, and that was the late Rev. C. W. O. Jenkyn. They would probably be sur prised to know that ' Kate' had honoured them with her presence, Enidently gle thought there was safety in mumbers (laughter). And Francis Bacon, too, was there and appeared to be happy among the ladies (langhtar). They were highly hononred in having with them the nobed authoress, Miss Dorothy Sayers (applause), who in her book, - The Nine Tailors,' had enlightemed many yeaders wan the art of chnne ringing. it was worderful how she toiled over figures until she was able to pricli out Grandsire and Treble Bab without any previons knowledge of ringing. Members of the ringing fraternity might well lake example frow her by using more pencil and paper (langhter and applause). They were also pleased, suid Mrs. Mitchell, to wel come another nuthor, Mr. Trollope, who in his book on the bistory of the College Youths had shown them again how painstaking he was in what lie did for the leneft of the Exercise (applanse)

KINDNERSES FROM BELLRINGERS.

Miss Sayers, in responding to the toast, said she felt most amarrassed, for she must bave been chosen to reply because she was the most ignorant person in the assembly in regard to ringing. She only came info the bellringing world on the principle, as it were, of being amoug those who rush in where angels fear to tread (lauglatery. When she first quite rashly undertoak a book on belijinging, she knew thsolutely nothing about it, hut one thing she had learned since writing that book was that what she had always heard, about the great kindness and frimadiness in the bellinging world, was certainly a very ell-fommed tradition, for she had received an extraordinary amount indness from belluingers, since writing 'The Nine Trilors.' In that book she made the bells of Fenchurcla St. Panl kill a man who was left tied up in the belfig. She did not usually get kind invitations to dinner, for: example, from the Incorporated Society of Poisoners or the Ancient Socieby of Footpads and Higlwaymen (langhter). Robbers :ud gamsiers did mot ask lrer to 'go for d ride "with them, mor did the murderers ever let lier into their secrets (langliter), but the bellngers had heen most. kind to hev and offered to take her into wieir owers and show her the bells ringing. She was not sume whether it Was with sinister intention that they took lier iuto a bell elamber to alind as near as possible to bhe hells. It was true it was only for qout nine seconds, instead of nine haurs (langhter). Miss Sayers thanked her hostesses for a very deliglatful entertainment: the dimer had been 'handsome' in evary sense of the trord (laurliter'). A good al had been sait about the entries of ladies into bellringing, but she felt sure that in apite of the admirable extracts from Mr. Peprs' ffacy, which suggested that it might have been considered in the prost unsexing,' slae conld not believe that it was so, for looking at their programme she fonnd that the handbell ringing and the songs all lealt with the tender emotion of love (tanghter). Miss Sayers added that she hoped the Ladies' Guild and all the other guilds of ringers ould go on and prosper, that there wonld he more bells dedicated nud mare people tinging nad making a merry noise in the church. She never undergtood why the devil shontd lave all the best tunes and the loudest noises. He certainly hed a great many of them and she hs only too glad there was still one great noise which ther were plowed to make to the glory of God and their own enjoyment, in rite of the people who preferred the noise of petral engines and the ring of munleasant instruments (applanse).
HOW TADTES WERE ELECTED TO CENTRRAL COUNCIL
Mr. J. A. Trollope, whose manie war also coupled with the toast, fanked the Ladies' Guite on hehalf of the men for allowing them spend such a very cujoyable evening. Being a bacheint, be tarally only saw the hest side of ladies (laughter). Fis recollection, continmed, went back to the very first lady ringer (except those ferred to in Mr. Paprs' dinry). She was the danglitar of a Norfolk ergyman. After her came one or two athers, and then presently liey began to hear about a young Indy, a dauglter of Jim Parker, nging Loudon Surprise and calling from an inside bell. In those ars London Surprize was only tung by the tip-lop, exclnsire bands, ond it didn't seem right to some ringers that a gin should be doing that they couldn't do. So they got over it by saying they did not helieve she could do it (langhter'). Some of the old ones began to hake their heads and wonder what was going to happen when ladies ook up ringing. They snid there would be a great lowering of the tandird of ringiug and men would be pushed out of the fowers (rumgter), When it was gaid that these ginls were going to form a Trind of their own, and aftervards when it was said they were going In apply for membership of the Central Conncil, some of the older papple-they were all dead now-said that whs going a bit too far (laurliter'. What they expected the Council to so was to say: 'Oh, yes, we shall be very pleased indeed to have you, bint the time is not quite ripe (langlitery. Come back in ten years: in the menntime, just rin amay and play ' (lnutghter). He knew quite a dozen menthers of the Conncil whe had made up their minds to haye no fruck with the ladies, but they all roted for then at the finish, except one man (fanghter). Fte was a bachelar and they would be glad to linow he suffered afterwards for his frults. Fe was married now (langliter') Alt the things the nessimists prophesied had not come to pass. Certrinly the standard of riaging had not gone down. If the ladies wanted to lnow if there were any good ringers among them, they (Contilume in mest colmmo.'

should first look in the looking glass; and when in the tower look at each other, nud wheu they had done that they shonld look at Mrs. Fletcher. They wonld not find anywhere among ringers anyone whose knowledge of practical ringing was better than hers or one whoge opinfons on things appertainiag to vinging was bettor worth laviug (applansa). There had been one or two references that night to a person named Kate, and it had been hintod that ho mirhi know something about her. He conld assure thens he knew no more alout her than they did. He had certanly nover met her mat newer expected Lo. In fact, lie did not believe there was such it person. If there ever had been, he believed she was one of those hright spirits who had been sent down to this earth to cheer up mankind, and, having dome her jols, had disappenred (langhter).
The remaining toast was 'The Press,' proposed hy Wrs, Ricluardsoln, who referved in terms of apprecialion to the services rendered to the Exercise by 'The Ringing World.' Withont it, she suld, ringerg in one part of the country would not know what was lieing fone in ather parts and much of the interest would be lost. For that reason alone they should support 'The Ringing World' in far sreater degree. The Editor had shown his interest in the Ladies' Guild, and the Tarlies' Guid, in rebmm, shonld support the paper and act as missionaries in the districts in which they livert. 'The Ringing World ' linked un ringers not anly in this comntry, lut thronghont the Empire. Withont the paper ringers would be ati a loss, and she asked the members of the Ladies' Guild to do their share in getting others to support it.
The tonst was acknowledged by Mr. J. S. Goldsmith.
The President announced, anid applanse, that Miss Satyers lana joined the Guild as ath honorary member.
Miss Sayers, in acknowledging the election, said slie felt most unworthy of the homonr and thonght she must go and read 'Troyte ' all over again (laugliter and applause)

Fhe speeches were interspersed with some delightfin handiael! solos hy Mrs. A. A. Hughes and mome charming songs by Miss Enid Collius. Mrs. Bray. Mrs. Thomas, Mrs. Pletcher and Mrs. Riclaridson vang al tanch of Grandsire Triples, and Messis, Trollope, Lewis, Cross and Richardson rang a short tonch of 'Oxford and Kent' Treble Bobs.
The happy proceedings formally therminated with "Auld Lsumg Sye. but were contimed informally afterwards to a late honr. The gather iug achieved gread success and everyone responsible deserved the heanty commendations passed t1pon their efforts, especially the Fon, secrehary (Mrs. Fletcher) and the nenteers of the Dinser Committer Mrs. Deal, Mrs. Cross and Miss Bradford.

FORMER RINGER'S MUNIFICENT GIFT.

DEDICATION OF NEW HOWER AND BELLS AT STOULTON, WORCESTERSHIRE
Only turely does one hear of a lowey heing reluilt in order to fulfil its primitry function, and when such a seleme is made possible through the generusity of a former ringer, the subject becomes of double interegt. Yot this has happened at the wilnge of Stonlton, mear Pershore, sut by the dedication of the new tower and bells by the Lord Bishop of Worester at the evening service on Sunday, October 17th, 3et another las been added to the chain of six-bell towers surrounding Whe Bredon Fill.

Sibuaterl an an eminence a few yards from the main WorcesterLondon poad, the picturesque, old, ivy-clad tower bad been sowething of a landmark, fut the juy liad done its work too well, for, penelrating in places right tirough the walls, it lad caused irreparable danrge. Becoming ansafe for the ringing of the five bells it contained, these had been silent for the past 15 years.

These facts coming to the knowledge of Mr. Bruce Kingsford, of Cheltenham, the sou of a fromer Ficar of Stoulton and himself an old Worcestershire ringer, he made the magnificent offer of financing the building of a new tower, the recasting and relianging of the bells with the addition of a treble.
The new tower is built of Calswohd stone, similar to the main part ul the chureh, and follows the ald desigu except that it is sliguty higher and poskessed of more substantial buttresses. In the east arch and divadion the tower from the main body of the church is a handsome oak screcu, which finishes about $3 f$. above the ringing ehamber Honr, the ringers thits thing in full view from the chatch. This screen fears the following inscription:-

In 1935 the tower of this church was rebuit and the bells were recast and one rdded by Hamilon Bruce Kingsford, in memory of lijs Rathet, Hamilton Kingsford, M.A., Oxon., priest in charge of this parish, 1867-1912.
Tho bells, with a tenor of 7 cwt , lave been lung in a new cast iron frame. 'They ato mow at tulefal peal, all of solid tone and speaking out in a manner hardly to be anticipated from their weight. Even with everything lending itself to the perfece job, they reflect tine grentest credit on the fonnders, Mcssrs. Mears and Stainbank.

DONOR TAKES ] ART IN RINGING

A huge conrregation assembled for the dedication selvice, every available space being ubijised for extra seating, even to the yestries and the porch. Basing his address on II. Corintlians v. 17, "Therefore, if any man be in Clirist, lie is a now creafure; old dings are passed awry; behold all things are become new, the Bishop said they could draw two lessons from their yecast peal of bells. He could not say the sime of the tower becase the old one had gone too frr, but of the hulls live were not new, but were the old taplal, semonded, recast and retuned. Applying this to human natire, the Bishop said, - We are created as we are for a purpose. God takes us excetly es we are and remoulds, recreates us. Allow this creative epirit in your hearts and you are like to a peal of bells-riving out sweet sounds in complete harmouy with all around. Secondly,' he continued, 'tonight this churel is ernmmed-it is not always so. Those beautiful bells you have just heard send forth a message-calling, calling, calling. Woutd they consistentil responi to that call, first as individuals, then as n. proish and as a diocese, and so fulial the words of onv Lord, Ye shall be my witness "?"
Jomediately after tho wotds of dedication had been pronounced, the bells were rumg in rounds by a representative band of the Woreestershire Associntinn: S. T. Holt $1_{1}$ Mrs. J. Thomns 2 , W. Short 3, J. D. Iohnson 4, T. W. Juewis 5, C. Camm 6. Later a large gathering of ringers kept the bells going until nearly 9 p.m., an intereating touch being 120 Sterman Doubles, to which the donor rang the tenor. Two olhers of lhe band (Messis. W. Short and R. G. Khowles) rang with him some 40 years ngo. The fonnders were representod by Mrr, A. A. Fughes and Mr. J. Thomas (who carried out the worl in the tower).

A DAY ROUND OXFORD

CRAYFORD RINGTERS' EXCURSION.
The third amual outing of the Orayford zingers took place on Sunday, October 3rd. The ringers, nud friends from West Wickhant Chislehurst, Dartford and Beckenham, made the jommey by coach to Oxford. The bus left Crayford Church at the early hour of 7 a.m. And pieked up varions members of the party enl route. In spite of protest of the driver, who considered that here was one too anu in the velicle, the three-hour journey to Oxford was much enjoyed by all the parts.

Oxford was looking her best it the moning sull when the parig arrived about $10 \mathrm{am} . \mathrm{Mr}$. R. A. Post was patioutly waitisg nt thi car park ba lead the wayr to All Sinints' Church, where they were mel by Mr. Walter Judge. The fenor here weighs only just over 7 cwt., ant the bells are a really musical and easily bandicd peal. Keat mrebli Bob. Grandsire and a course of Cambriage went well, the last named only being completed in time to set the bells up at backstroke befor the morning service.
Coffee and biscuits were followed by a visit to the beautiful Chrisi Church Cathedral. The driver, havirg recovered from his tith gricvance, joined in the sightseeing tour, and alterwards at Stewart's Testanrant 23 enjoyed a yery good lumel.

Some of the party remained sightseeing in Oxford while others madk the jowney to the delighthid village of Appleton, where they were me: by Mr. Richard White and other 'Iong-pealers.' Stedman and Grandsire Caters. Treble Bob Royal and a convse of Cambridge on Lhe back ciglt formed the fare herc. 'I'he visitors secued to linve some difliculty with striking these bells, and, perlaps, the less saici about our per formance tere the betier. All were interested in the tablets recording the long peale, and in the photos of the bands, which they were given permission to view in the Thatohed Tnvern.
Returning to Oxford by another route, the Grayforlites were Inoly to "grab" anather tower. The Ficar of Cumnor, Berks, was kinc enongly to allow them to ving there for lialf an liour. Those are A rather heavy six of 193 cwt., and very musical. Treble Boh, Plain Bol, Grandsire and the inevitable Cambridgo wore rung. After tea the oxiond a move was made to St. Giles' where MIT. W. Bonmett and obler members of the local band grected the visitors. Stedman, Camhridge, Grandsire and Plain Bob were rung on this very ancielt, huf ansical peal, tenor 14 cwt. At 7.15 p.m. a visit was paid to the Ghurch of St. Mary the Virgin, witl its maguificent peal of six bells, tenor 27 cwt . The bells were first raised in peal, then Kcut Treble Bolu and a few romds were rung, and a fiting climax to a very enjoyable day was reached by a perfect course of Cambridge Minar, to whinh "Tubby' turued in the tenor. The gells were afterwards lowered in peal, sounding out with a tonching majesty across the ancient city wliere all hnd Epent sucle a happy day. A happy party arrived home about $11,30 \mathrm{p} . \mathrm{m}$. and wish to convey their thates to all inctubents and towerkeepers, those whose names are here mentioned snd those whose names are zot, and most of all to Mr. R. A. Post, who gnve up lis whole day to entertaining the excursionists.

WORCESTERSHIRE ASSOCIATION

WISTERN 1PHNCE ORTCERS SUCCESSFUL WORE

 Fourbeen towers were represented when the Westeru Branch of the Woucestershire and Districts Association held its anmual meeting at St. John's, Worcester, on Saturday, October 16th, and thougl the aitendauce was below expectations, the 34 members present formed an enthusiastic company. The Church of St. John the Baptist contalug a very pleasant ring of eight belts, bung on ball bearings, the tenor weighing 15 w cwt. These were made good use of from 3 ocelock until 4.15. when a sliort service, with address, was held, couducted by the Vicul', the Rev. C. P. Powell. Tea was served in the Parish Hall, where the business mecting was afterwards held.The Vicar presided, and supporting him were Messis. J. R. Newman and R. G. Knowles (vice-presidents), E. E. Barber and S. T. Holt (guditors), C. Camm (Branch Ringing Master), G. E. Large (hon. (gutitors), C . Camm (Branch Rangor (Gentral Committee) aud W. Secretary (Ringing Master, St. Jolmis). Apologies were read from Major M. F. S. Jewell (hom, member) and Mr. J. D. Johnson (geueral hon. secretary).
Abl the offeeng were re-elected and had many "bouquets ' handed to then. The Branch Ringing Master was camplimented on the way to looked after the ringiug a meetings. 'Chiarlie. Camm has held that office for many years and there seems to bo no desire for a change on the part of members. In another 20 years or so he will perhaps have qualificd for a grandmother clock, but he, being a modern ergion of Hercules, will donltitess require one of the graudfather ariety.
Messis. E. E. Barher and R. G. Knowles paid tribute to the work the hon. secretary, congratatating him upon the flourishing condion of the branch.
The Chairman eansed much amusenent hy saying: 'This esfeemed entlenan, the hon. secretary, has so mach correspondence to attend that he has to-day moved into a larger house.
Mr. G. E. Large, in reply, thanked the speakers for the nice things rey had said about him. As he had then confidence, lhe would be leased to hold the secretaryship of the branch another year.

- 1Fill ' Ranford was warmly thanked for his services ns representave to the Central Committee, but the chairman's efforts to get him speak failed, for 'Thatren' 'took refuge bohind an imaginary cold! if was reported that the quarterly peal attempted at Longdon had faled, Mr. W. Lewis was delegated to arrange the quarterly peal to e rung at St. John's. The secretary sail he had recived a strong vitation for the branch to hold its next meeting at Ripple, and there cto also invitations from Ombersley. This latter place was chosen $f$ ter same discassion, on accomit of its being nearer to the majority towers in the branch in the event of bad weather. Ripple was aced on the minutes as the first choice for the summer meetiog.
Three new members were elected and one re-elected.
Mr. J. R. Newman in propesing a vote of thanks to the Rev, $\mathrm{C}, \mathrm{T}$ owell, said it mave him extra pleasure to do so, because he had had ntimnte comections with St. John's all his life. He asked the chairhan to accept their sincere thanks for giving up so much of his time ant afternoon and evening.
To this the Fieat replied, saying it had given him pleasuve to do That he fad done. They were. ho knew, anxious to get back to the ower hefore the customary service at seven o'clock, after whinh they ould ring on tintil the police stropped them!
Methods rung diuring the day ranged from Oxford Bob Triples to anibridge Surprise. One or two of the experts were "floored' when mewber of the Doddertill band asked for Darlast:on Bob TriplesWTat's that?' and 'How does it go?' might have beer (but wasn't) nswered by 'This is where you get off!

A GAINSBOROUGH BRIDE.

TAKTS PART IN FER WEDDING RINGING
The wedeing took plate at Gainghorongh Parish Church on Satur , Oetober 9th, of Mr. Eric Grey and Miss Fthel Marshall, hoth of ainsborourly
Canon Witworth, vice-president of the Northem Braneh of the incoln Diocesan Guild, officiated, and the ceremony was witnessed by large number of friends and relations, iucludiug about a dozen inmers.
The bride is a wery popular ringer in the district and is thember of the Gainshourorg band. She las rung rbout 25 peals for the Cimeoln Diocesan Grild, the North Notts Association and the Jadies' Guild. A few years ago she was one of the hand of lady ringers who thas an peal of Bob Major at Handsworth, Yorka, nud in Fanuaty of this year she was one of the band of larlies who made an mosuccessful obtempt of Double Normich in the same towor.
A peal hari been suggested in honour of the event, hut as there were athers present besides tho peal band, and in order that the bride nould ring on her own wedding day, the idos ras fobandoned and the aftermaon was spent in ringing touches in rarions methods.
The couple received mumerous presents, and on behalf of the Gainsborough and districet ringers Mr. F. S. W. Butler, in a few well-chosen remarks, presented them with two cases of spoans and forks. He said how much the services of the bride had been appreciated as a ringer and wished the happy couple every success and liappiness in the inture.
The lioneymoon was spent in Boston, and Mry. and Mrs. Grey's home s now in Gainshorough,

SUGGESTED CHANGE FOR STEDMAN, GRANDSIRE, ETC

To the Editor

Dear Sit, - [ quife agree with IIr. H. Miles that a change in the start of Stedmats slould be made hiss year, for the reasou that ho rives and afso because there would be no dudge at the start if tho first row after rounds was the first row of a 'six.

1 have always thought it a campanological ervor that methods like Stedman, Grandsine, Oxford and Fent Treble Bob and Forward should stare with $&$ dodge; it is as houglt we were unwilling to leave rounda and pass oll to changes.
In my humble opiniov, the dodgo would sound better at the end of a Iead, plain course or tolncli instead of at the beginning. Probubly tie reason why the Plain Bob methot has such musical charm is becanse all the bells do a platin humb for as long as possible and also because the dodge comes at the end of a lead, when the treble is leading, therefore we ought to take the Plain Boh mgthod as outh crilerion.
In its present form, the dodging ocours in Graudsire when the bell in the hunt is leading. In my apinion, Grandsire would bo improved if the dadging occurred when the treble is leading. In order to achieve this, the bell in the hant would have to lead inmediately before the troble leads alway, and the bell what the bell in the hut turne from lead would have to make 3rd's place. The bell in the hunt in the plain course would be the 3 rd and nole the End. Starting Stedman with the first row of a quick "six "would ralke the ge off similar to this new start in Grandsire.

Turning to the even-bell methods, I would have a Plain Bab go off for Oxford, and nearly the samo for Kent and Fowward, except for the placs-making in 3-4.

LADY RINGER MARRIED

A pretty wedding of interest to ringers took place on Snturday, Octoler Gth, at St. George's Chureh, Brede, when Miss Joan Kingdon, secretary of the Brede beliry, was married to Mr. Rutin Home Mc.Can, solicitor, of Bexhill.
The bride, in her mother's wedding gown of heavy ivory satin, was attended by a page, in Kits of the McBeth wartan, and three briclesmaids wearing dresses of shot gold taffetn, caryying bouquets of golden brown chrysanthemums and dahlias mamed 'Joan Kington' after the bride.
Guides farmed a gutard of honout and the bells were ring before and after the service by members of the tower, and later a peal of Bob Minor by nembers of the Sussex Comty Association and Fastings District Guild was rung as recorded last week.
Miss Kingdon, with hev sisiter, learned to ring ab Worplesdon, Surrey, before removing to Brede ahout three years ago.

A MONMOUTHSHIRE TOUR.

On Saburday, Soptember 25th, a band of Monmoullistire ringers visited several towers in the neighthourhond of Raglan, Thegare (5 bells), Penrhos ( 4 bells), Llanarth ( 6 bells) aud Usic ( 8 bells). The party wers given a very hearty reception at Penrhos, where tea was provided for them, by the Ficar and his wife. Tho band, under tho leacership of the Rew. I. J. Richards, Master of the Jalandafi and Monmouth Diocesan Associntipn, were Miss G. M. Smith, Mesars. W. Powell, R. Smith, S. Bamford, G. John, of Jhanfrechfa, J. W. Jones, L. Bainham, of Alj Saints', Newport, A. Witlianis, Llanabiby, and G. Popnell, Bedwelty. Thanks are due to the Vicars and fower keepers of the tower's visited.

BRISTOL SURPRISE MAJOR

To the Editor
Sir,-Abont two years ago Mr. G. W. Roherte, of London, sent me a jeal of Bristol Sinprise with one lead short of the full extent of 4, 5 and $6 \mathrm{in} 6 \operatorname{th}^{\prime} \mathrm{s}$ in 13 canses, asking me if I could improve upon it. I sent the two following peals as my best contribution. In Folnt issice of September 10th you publisls a very good neal by Mr. T. B. Worslef on the same lines. Incidentally all these peals have one lead missing.

A RARE MEETING PLACE

WARYICKSHIRE GUIJD AT STRAIFORD-ON-AYON
hingug meelings ati Strationd-on-Avon are, of necessity, few and far belween, ouly four having ween held there during the last 30 years. However, despite the fact that stratford is right on the edge of the county, such meetings have always been found to be well attended and at the neeliag leld there on October 16ul by the Warwickshire Guild the attendance was above the uverage for quarterly meetings. Ringers akended from all parts of Warwichshire, towers represented including Bulkington, Keresley, Stoke, Chilvers Coton, Nuneaton, Leamington Eastings, Lillingtou, Erdington, Allesley, Exhall, Warwick, and menubers of tho local band. Welcome Fisitors included the Rev, E, s, and Mrs. Powell, of Staverton, Mr. E. Pearcon, of the Oxfori Guild, and athers from Banbury and Mickleton.

Before the business meeting the Rector, the Rev. Ganon W. G Mrlville, who has recently celebrated his jubilee in the priesthood arcended the tower and fir a short speecli welcomed the Guild and expressed the wish that they wonld 'come again.

At the husiness meating Mr, T. W. Perrens was chnirman, Meeting places were distussed and werc arranged as follows: November at Polesworth, December at Berkswell, and the Jannary quarterity meeting at Cliilvers Coton.
The following new menbers were elected: Messts. R. C. Chapman, R. Walker, S. Oumhton and S. J. Onghton. A wery welcome 'new member was Mr. J. F. Simpson. He whs a member of the Stoke Govendry, band from 1919 until 2925, when he went to reside jn Oxfordshive. Ha has now returned to live at Warwick.

Touches in warious methode from rounds and Bob Triples to Surprise were rung on the bells duriug the afticrncon and evening.

DON'T SCRUB YOUR HANDS!

Cleanse and preserve your skin this simple way

To many people, the problem of getting the hands really clean without harming the skin is a serious one. Grease and grime, which become deeply ingrained into the pores of the skin, are extremely difficult to remove, and ordinary washing with soap or even scrubbing will fail to remove them completely. Housewives, particularly, who complain that their hands get ruined by the nature of their work, will find the preparation called DERMAFOAM, a real "godsend." DERMAFOAM just smoothes away dirt and grease without effort. It gets right down into the pores and removes every particle of grime, leaving skin beautifully supple and healthy.

Men, too-when you've finished that dirty job on the car, DERMAFOAM will quickly banish all grease and oil from your hands. It acts almost magically-working under and around the nails and into every minute crease, removing all trace of dirt in a flash.

Engineers, Painters, Car Mechanics, Printers - everyone - will welcome DERMAFOAM, the modern method of cleansing and protecting the hands.

COLLEGE YOUTHS' TERCENTENARY.

To-day is the tercentenary of the Ancient Society of College Youths, which was founded on the fifth of Novenber, 1637. Three hundred years of unbroken existence is a wonderful and honourable record for any organisation, and the ringing Exercise is proud of the venerable society which has achieved this great distinction. The good wishes and sincere congratulations of ringers everywhere will go out to the society on this historic occasion, and the celebrations which take place in London to-morrow have, of course, a special interest and significance.

Among ancient guilds, the anmual 'feast' was the great event of the year. In the College Youths this social feature has been maintained for more than two and a half centuries, even if not from the very beginnings of the society, and this year's gathering promises to be by far the biggest in all the long line of similar festivities. In addition there are to be two other events of interest, ane the service in St. Paul's Cathedral, which confers a special honour on the society, whose members have always been responsible for the service ringing there since the present bells were installed nearly sixty years ago, and the other a tribute to the Master of 1685, Sir Henry Tulse, who was Lord Mayor of London in the same year that he was at the head of the College Youths.

The history of the society, as Mr. J. A. Trollope so well remarks in his recently published work, is an epitome of the history of the ringing Exercise. Its foundations go back to the very beginnings of the art of change ringing, and it is the one defnite connecting link which we have with those far-off days. Through all the changing and shifting fortunes of the centuries, the College Youths have gone on, not always, of course, without internal diffeculties and dissensions of their own, but unbroken in continuity, thus forming, as it were, a core round which the Exercise has grown and developed.

It has played in its time a vital part in the maintenance of the art, and the veneration in which it is held to-day is due to its share in the development of change ringing in the past as well as to the antiquity of the roots. If in these days of territorial organisations, other forces are moulding the Exercise, it does not detract from the admiration which is felt for the position which .he old society has filled through all the generations that have come and gone since Lord Brercton was elected the first Master, but a little fuller recognition of these forces in some quarters would expand rather than lessen the influence of the society in the future, and certainly its dignity would suffer no loss.

This tercentenary celebration should bring the society an increased prosperity. Under its present ordering it cannot compete with the activities of the 'modern' organisations, its scope is too circumscribed. Its membership is nation-wide, but its operations are really parochial, and there are those who would not have it otherwise. The special interest which this auspicious occasion is attracting to the society, however, can be turned to valuable account, and we hope the old society wil! continue to gather strength and influence as the years go by. Today every ringer will turn his thoughts to the College Youths and, in the terms of its time-honoured toast, wish it continued success and prosperity.

FOR BEGINNERS.

A SIMPLE LESGON IN CHANGE RINGING.

When you begiu change ringing the fewer bells you use at the stait, the tabier, olsvionsly, will it be to observe and understand what you are doing. For that leason some instructors prefer to start their young ringers on four bells only and others on five.
For the sake of the public it is often best to confine the four-bell practice to baudbells, if they are available, for this necessarily slow pirmiag which chagges on foul bells involves is not always appreciated. Nevertheless, clanges on four lulls anly are a valuable means of starting a heginner, because, uuless he is very dense, an explanation with paper and peucil, coupled with the practical demonstration, should quickly enable him lo grasp what is reguired of hum fnd to see something of the principles of change minging.

In tho previous article of this series (page 698), dealing with progress from call changes to half-pull ringing, we showed how plaiu lunting was effected; namely, how, wibla six bells, by changing first all three pairs and then the two middle pairs successively, a course ' of twelve charges was produced, which brouglat the bells back to rounds.

On any nimber of bells this method of pracedure will produce twice as many changes as there are halls employed. So that if you reduce your change ringing at the start to practice on four bells, your yourse will be eight changes. But having thus rumg a courso' until you can definitely see your way up and down-starting from the lead, first over one, then over two and nert over three bells until you are 'balind,' and then over three bells, over two bells and over one bell respectively until it is agaia your tum to lead-you will guickly want to so on to ring the rest of the 24 changes of which fonr bells are eapable.
To do this, each time the treble leads, the bell which led before its und then imraediately strikes over the trehle, lias another blow in 2nd's, making a'whole pili " over the wreble and then leads ogain. That is called making 2nd's place and it canses the other Lwo bells to make g "dodge'; that is, instead of continuing their course, after passing one another, they step back a place before golng on.

If, for instence, at the end of the hunting course no end's place is made you will have the hells striking in order in each clange as shown in $A$, but if 2utis place is made you get a new sucession of rows as shown in $B$

In $B$, the 2 nd is said to dodge in $4-3$ (sometimes described as $3-4$ down) nud the 4th fo 3-4 (otherwise 3-4 up). The one is a/ber a whole pull behind, the other before the whole pail hehind.
Tlis work daes not interfere with the "plain lunting' of the treble, and it is cyclipal for the other three bells. Each makes 2nd's, and dodges in $4-3$ and 34 in turn, but Ehey begin the cycle at different places. It cones in this otder after leading:-
2nd bell

| First lead | dodge $4-3$ | dodge 3-4 | 2nd's place |
| :--- | :--- | :--- | :--- |
| Second lend | dodge 3-4 | 2nd's place | dodge 4 -3 |
| Third lead | 2ad's placa | dodge $4-3$ | dodge $3-4$ |

Remmber when dodging ovar another bell you mast 'hold up' a little, and when dodging under you mast cill down just a little. Unless you do, you will break the yhythm. Your ears cen tell you wheliner you are too close or too wide. Use them.

HALESOWEN'S INTERESTING BELLS.

WORK OF AN OLD EDGBASTON FOUNDER

A successful meeting of the Northeru Branels of the Worcesterglaire Association was held at Falesowen, when over 50 ringers and friends were pregent.
Halesowen Parish Church is dedicatod to St. John the Baplist and constructed ju successive styles of architeotare, the tower boiug commenced nhout 1380 and completed in 1440 . The bells are particularly inLaresting, and $F$, W. Hackwood, local historian, gives the following details in his hook, 'Oldbury and round about.

Tho bells of Halesowen the at misical set of eight in the key of E jusily admired for their clearmess of tone. Six of these were placed on the steeple in the year 1707 and not improbably the old bels were recast at the same time. Some half-century after this a gentleman numed Skittletou on a visit from London, while admiring the sweetness of the tone in the bells, at the same time lamented that they were not a perfcot octeve find generously offered to rectify the fault by presenting the first and second bells. The offer was accepted and on the arnival of the new bells they were welcomed by a public demonstration. At first they were fixed in a frame over the other bells, but this arrangement. being fonnd incomvenient, they were afterwards fixet in a range, which was ingenjously effected by raising the carriages of the two largest bells.

The trebles were cast hy Lester and Pack, of London, in 1753, and the athers by Joseph Smith, of Fedgbaston, in 1707. Joseph Smith lived opposite the Swan Jun, at Edybaston, and his name appears on many bells in the Midaurls whioh were east in the envly 18t] century some of them, however, being no credit to his memory: The sixtl was subsequently recast by Rabert Wells, of Aldbourne, in 1778, and thereby hangs a tale.
It was an old enstom on Shrove Thesday immediately the hour of eleven in the morning had struck for the ringerg to strike the bells with hammers as well as ringing them. On one occasion the 6th was cracked and remaiged so until a woman named Susanyah Box indicted the churchwardens for having a eracked bell. They had it recast with their own names upon it in 1778.
The tenor is in the ragioll of $16-17$ cwt., and lias as number of William III. coins cast on it. It is iuscribed as follows:When the sound of bells doth pieree the ear, Come to church God's word to liear. My mouruful voice doth warning give, That bere men cannot always live.

The 5th is inseribed:-

Be it known to all that doth me see,
That Joseply Smill in Edgbaston made all we.'
There were evidently bells in Hulesowen as early as 1518, since the accounts for that year record the payment of 5 marks to a bell founder of Nottingham.
At the gathering of the Worcestershire Association the Rector (the Rev. J. T. Davies) condacted a service and gave a very lielpfil adtress. Afterwards the association was entertained to tea by tho Iocal ringers, and a collection taker for the Belfry Repairs Fund which realised 178.20 .
A business meeting followed, presided over by the Rector, supported by Mr. William Short (Association Ringing Master), Mr. Thomas Hemming (Brancl Ringiner Muster) and Mr. J. S. Mason (branch secretary).
The next meeting was arralaged to take place in January at Stomrbridge, and tion ariagements for the quarielly peal, to be attempted at Falesowen, were left in the hands of the Ringing Master.
The Branch Ringing Master expressed a wish to retire, and ha Johar Lloyr?, of Brierley Fill, was elected in his place.
The branch secrefary, Mr. J. S. Mason, and the Central Committof representative, Mr. Jolan Bass, were le-elected for another year.
The secretary-Iead a letter from Mr. Hector Bird, an honorary member, resigning from the assomintion, he having left the county His resignation left a vadncy for an honorary member on the Central Commitfee. and to overcome this Mr. W. B. Cartariglat, of Selly Onk Was elected an honorary member, his name being recommended hy tho branclh to fill the vacancy caused.

The Rector of Halesowon was elected an honorary member, and Messis. C. Tintern, of Wolliston, J. Knot and C. Skipton, of Wordsley as performing members. The theltry elections of Mr. W. J. Davidson, of Newcastle-on-Tyme, and Hir. T. J. Hinton, of Claverley, were duly ratified.
A vote of thanks to the bhairman and the local ringers was cantied with applanse, and Mr. W. H. Webb, replying, invited the association to come to Halesowen a little more often to ring peals.
Upon returning to the tower the ringing ranged from rounds to London and Bristol Surpuigo Major

LANCASHIRE VETERAN'S DEATH.

We refret to record the death of Mr. Josepla Wood, of Friezand Grecnfeld, near Oldham, who passed away on October $25 t h$. He had refrhed the adranced age of eiglity and had been a ringer for 64 yenrs.
He mang in a 720 of Oxford Trehle Bob on his birthday, and only a fortnight before his death wnlked two miles and rang a 504 for morning sorvice.

GUILDFORD DIOCESAN GUILD

JOINT MEETING WITH LADIES AT ALDERSHOT.
The Farmham District of the Guildiord Diocesan Guild was joined by the Southern District of the Eadies' Guild ab a meeting at Aldershot on Saturday, October 30 th . There was a large gathering of ringers and friends from various parts of the Guild, inchding Bagshat, YorkLown, Worplesdon, Guildford, Portsea, Clandon, Ghertsey, Ash, Old Woking. Farnham, Egham, Bentley, Hawhcy and the local tower During the aftornon and again in the evening the bells were rung to touches in the standard methods, with rounds for learacrs.

A fully choral service was conducted by the thev. J. B. Rowsell (Vicar of Aldershot), who gave an inspiring rddress on the work of the ringerg for the church and how the bels play an important part in the life of our country.

A splendid tea lad bean prepared in the Parish Fall by lady ringers of the Aldershot tower, and between 80 and 90 persons enjoyed the meal.

Mr. E. Gower expressed a welcome to the Vicar to the Guild meetings, it being the first meeting at Aldershot since Mr. Rowsell's induction as Vicar. Mr. Gower also thanked the Vicar for conducting the service. A suitable reply was made by Mr. Rowsell, who apologised for having to leave to take another service.

Mr . W. A. Dollinore (an honovary member) was in the chaje for the business.
The retiring officers were remominated for 1938, viz., Mr. R. Hasted (Ringing Master), Mr. O. W. Denyer (hon. secretary), Mr. P. Eidridge (auditor), Mr. W. A. Dollimove (hom. representative), and Messus. T. Upshall and F. Nye (ringing representatives on the Executive Committee).
The meeting stood in silence to the memory of an hon. member (Mr. E. J. Hickox, Mus.Bac., of Bapshot), who had passed away since the last meeting. The action of the secretary in sending a wreath for the funeral was confirmed.
Mr. G. L. Grover (Guildford District secretary) congutulated the Farnlani band on their ringing broadeast. It was gratifying to know that the only tower in the Guildford Guild to have had their bells broadcast had not let the Guild down, said Mr. Grover.
It was anmoned by the secretary that all tower captains had not yet replied regarding the number of ringers able to attend Weanesday a.fternoon meetings, so no decision could yet be reached.

Hearty thanks were extended to the organsl and clooir, and a special vote of thanks accordad the lady caterers.
The Ladies' Guild then held their bisiness meeting, at which Mrs. Brace (vice-president) presided and 16 ladies were present, Miss F. Pascoc, of Aldershot, was elected a member, and it was proposed to hold the next meeting, if possible, at Slialford, in February, 1938.

DURHAM AND NEWCASTLE ASSOCIATION.

ARCHDEACON'S APPEAL TO CLERGY
A special mecting of the association was held at the Parish Clurch, Biehop Auckland, on Saturday, October 23rd, on the invitation of tho Vicar and Raral Dean (Canon A. B. Parry-Evans). Only 22 wero present, but au enjoyable time was spent by all.
Following the afternoon's ringiug, a service was condincted by the Ficar, and at adjournment made for tea. The president (Mr. M. D. Oubridge, of Gosforth) thanked the Vicar for his hospitaliby, and Canou Parcy-Tvans, in his reply, welcomed the assochan to his tower. Fe regretted the apparent lack of ringers, and suggested that the associations and existing bands of ringors appeal through The Ringing Would 'and even the daly Press for members to come forward and attend couscientionsly to Sunday servico ringing. In tauching upon the present-dny opportmities for Sunday excursions, ele., the Canon said that he did zot condemn these, realising their value in broadening the mind and giving a means of escape from the daly task. He did, however, appenl for chusch worls to come first. God's purpose, he said, was for people to have liberty, but Ho did ask blem to put Him first, and it was here that bhe ringers could help in their devotion to duty
The tower was again visited, and after introductory renarks, the Canon called upon the Arelideacon of Auckland (the Ven. Lestie Owen) to muveil a peal board, recording it peal of Grandsire Priples rung to commemorale the Coronation. After the unveiling, the Archadeacon expressed his pleasure at being once nove amongst riugers, and, addressing the clergy presentiz hoped they would support the ringers in their efforts. The country, he snid, hed passed throtsgh a difficult time and he hoped all would pray for the success of the present reign.
Mr. Qubridge thanked the Archeacon for his remarks and assured him of the co-operation of riugers, and Mr, R. L. Patterson cited, as an instance, that during the weel a mission Jad been held in Sunderland and the vingers in that town had combined to lave the hells runt for service each evening during the week.

Two courses of Stedoan Triples wero cung for the benefit of the Archdencon, and the rewander of the evening was devoted to further ringing, Grandsire and Stedman Triples, Kent, Plain Bobs and Double Norwich Major being accomplished.
Two new members were elected at the meeting, and the following towers were represented: Gosforth, Darlington (Holy Trinity and St. Guthberd's), Shildon, Staindrop, Sunderiand (St. Ignatius'), Newastle Cathedral. Durham Gathedral, Heighington, Kirkby Stephen and the local band.

As the many processen to put the giant into commission proceeded, the belts sonnded throush the valley to rounds and "Queeo's, the newly-formed band not yet being able to do any actial change ringing. The event was a momentous one in the history of the town.

FALSE PEALS.

To the Editar.

Sir,-In your leading article on the above you use the following plarases: (1) 'One wonders how many false peals really have been rumg and liave passed unnoticed '; and (2) 'The whole spirit of peal ring ing. . . has been based upon the strict truth of what is ruag. ${ }^{\text {a }}$
Could one ever come across two more contradictory and yet, under present conditions, perfectily true statementa.

At preseat peals mecd not be true; the conductor only has to think they are-and the majority of conductors to-day have no real knowledge of proving a peal.
Nathing could better illustrate the haphazard consisteutly inconsistency of the Ceniral Council than its present attitude to peals and their compositions: They must be true, and yet anyone can string together the necessary bobs, or bobs and singles, to produce the required lensth, and, provided there is no visible repetition, it may be sung and rering and counted as a peal.
There would appear to bo two solutions: (1) The publication of the figures of all peals. (2) The formation of a peal proving commiteo to whom figures should be submitted for proof before being allowed.
Both these would entail a certain amount of expense-(1) for printinm, and (2) for 'search' fees; but composers slonild be willing to pay this in order to avoid subsequent disappointment by luaving peals withdrewn when someone finds the error.
I had intended raising this matier at the last Central Oouncil meeting at Canterbury-as I stated in a former letter to you-but was umavoidably absent. The matter will be raised at Leeds by myself if no one else puts forward a motion, but I hope that this inaportant matter will not be left to an unknown member of the Conncil. It would be better if someone whose name is a 'helfry' wowl in ringing circles would make the move. $\qquad$ J. K. ARMSTRONG.

WESTBURY TOWER REDEDICATED.

35,000 NEW SHINGLES ON SPIRE.

On Suaday last, October 31st, the 13 th century tower and spire of the Parish Church of SS. Peter and PauI, Westhury-on-Severn, was reopened and dedicated by the Lord Bishop of Gloucester (the Riglth Rev. Dr. A. C. Headlam). The spire has been completely rettored. The old shingles have been stripped off and new shingles to the pumhar of 35,000 have been placed on it, The entire scheme of repair has cost 21,000 and the money has been raised apart from about 890
After a shortened form of evensong, the chair, followed by the Ficar (the Rev. B. V. Borrouglis, M.A.), led the Lord Bishop out of the chirch to the detached bell tower.

In the course of the impressive ceremony at the tower the church wardens presented the key of the tower to the Lord Bishop, and his lordsitip, after throwing open the doors, deđicated afresh the belis and spirc to the glory of God and for the calling of the faithful to worship

After prayers the pingers rang 120 Grandsire Doubles to inform the worshippers inside the church (it was pouring with rain at the time) that the dedication had taken place.
The ringers were Aubrey Vernall 1, A. Burlingham 2, Maurico Watkins 3. E. Gleed 4, A. Gibson (conductor) 5, Victar Gibson 6 .

GRESFORD BELLS REOPENED.  ONE OT THE 'SEVHN WONDERS, OF WAL玉S

Gresford bells have the reputation of being "one of tho ecven wouders of Wales, and have been under restaration. They were reopened on Saturday, October 23 m . The wenther, being rather unkjud, pravented many ringers from attendiug, but a good minster, including riugers from Cheshire, Staffordshire and North Wales, took the opportunity of having a pull oo the bells. The towers represented were Wrexham, Ruabon, Mold, Chester, Frodsham, Handbridge, Wallasey, Wiatrastion and Crewe.

GRESFORD PARISH CHURCH.
Ringing commenced at 2.30 , and at a service in chareh, at which the Rev. Bowen officiated, an andiress was given by the Vicar (the Rev. W. Edwyn Jones), who expressed great pleasure in seeing so many ringers present
Tea was provided in the Church House, presided over by the Vicar, who was thanked by Mr. Bilbby on behalf of the visitors for inviting them to come and try the bells. It was, he said, always a pleasnre to come to Gresford. During the evening the belle were again in great demand for both call changes and method ringing.
Gongratulations hy all present were showered on Gresford bellringets on the gaod 'job' that liad been done, and it was regretted that Mr. Jack Reeves, of Messrs. Mears and Stainbank, was hot there to heer how delirinted all were with the excellent 'go' of the bells. Ringing ended about 8.30. Time fed too quickly, and everyone roted that even if the wenther was wet, a most enjoyable time had been spent.

ANSTON BAND'S RECORD

The popularity of the finmal dinner organised by tho Lancashire Associrtion was atain demonstrated on Saturday. The event has been moved from place to place in the contity, and this year the venue chosen was Blackpool, which, despite the fact that the "seasou' was over and the 'illuminations at an end, drew one of the largest gatherings of the series, which now extends to half a dozen. Members and friends eame by troin, car and conch from every bramch of the association, Liverpoal Branch contributioy [5, Bolton Branch 48 and others in lesser numberg. Owing to the event claching with the Blackpool Musical Teatival, which hook place at the Winter Garden near sit, John's Parisiz Chureh, only one ring of bells was apailable in the afternoon, namely, that at Lhe Romasi Catiolic Clureh of the Sacced Fieart, and they were well utilised by numerous hands.

Dinmer was seywed at the Imperial Hydro Hotel to a company numbering 250, genially presided over Ly the Rev. A. Scoti, who last year eucceded the late Canon H. J. Zisre as president. Among those who attended were the Mayor of Blackpon, the Vicar of St, John's, Blackpool (the Rev, W. Yates), the Rev. W, S. Mellor (Rumal Dean and Vicar of Poultoy), Canoul C. C. Marshall (president of the Yorkshine Association), Mr. C. Slanples (vice-president of the Lanctslize Associa (ions) and Mrs. Sharples, Mr. W. H. Shuker (hon, secretaty) and Mrs, Shuker Mr C I Davies (hon treasmrer), Mrs and Mise Davies, Conncilior W. Diekitem (Boltom), Mr. and Mrs. P. Crook (Bolton), Mr. and Mrs. S. Pamer (sheffeld), Mr, and Mrs. M. Wilson (Sheffield) Mrs. Cotterell and Mr. P. T. Johnson (Leedş), Mr. T. Maude (Pudsey) Mr. J. Hardesstle (Brad[ord), Mr. W. Holding (Orewe), Mr. S. Briges (Rotherham), Mr. J. S. Coldsmith (Lom, secretary, Guildford Diocesan Guild), Etc .

After dimuer the company honoured the loyal toast, given by the president to ${ }^{\text {"Fis Majesty }}$ the Kinc -Duke of Lapcaster.

MAYOR'S WELCOME.
The Mayor of likackpool geve the association a cotdial welcome to the town. Tt was the first time they had held the ammal dinner there, he sild, and ho hoped it was the first of many such visits. Fis Worship had some amnsing staries to tell, and conchnded by cxpressing the hope that from thal grihering they sould gain inspiration to calry on the good work they were doing.
The President thanked the Mavor for his weleone and said they were hanoured to linve his Worthip among them.
Tha President sad they had witio them that night, an ald friend, Who had for long years served the association well and truly as a member and latar, for 14 years, laflleld one of the imporlant offices; he referterl to Mr. Athur Towinson. Stome time aso Mr. Tomlinson wrote to him nfering his resignation from the post of ringmg sechetary. Fe was taking over a newsagent's business in Blackpool, which he knew wolld occupy most of his time, and he felt, after very much consideration, bound fo offer lis resignation. Althourt, dent) would linve liked to ask Mr, Tomlinson to reconsider his deasion, he linew lee would find his time fully occupied by his new business. Therefore, he (the president) felt that in fairness to Mr . Tompineon he conld not ask him to alter lis decision, and he felt compelled, with deep and sincere regret, to accept the resigation. He (the speaker) knew he was voicing the opinion of everyone present who hat any connection with the association that it wonld not be fitting to allow such a good friend io leave uffice, althongh they were mot losing him from the association, without some tangible expression of their respect for him. They haf, therefote, subseribed for a very handsome gold watch, which he was going to ask Mr. Tomlinson to receive as a token their affection and their appreniation. The watch was inseribed: Prosemfed ta Anthar Tonlinson by the Lancashire Association of Change Ringers as a token of affection and appreciation of his loyal and unselfish services as ringing secretary.
Mr. Tamlinson received the filt amid loud applanse. He expressed his deop thanks and snid he did not expect nnything for the services he had rendered. The time during which he had heen doing the work for the association had laean the happiest 14 yenrs of his life (applause). A SUCCESSTRUL ASSOCIATION.
Mr. J. S. Goldsmith submitted the toast of "Prosperity to the Lamashite $A$ ssociation,' and nongratulated then imon the manvificent gathering assembled that night. Fe reminded the mombers that theirs was one of the oldest of the territorial associations and that the ringing organisations of the South looked up to and admived the success whinh they had amheved. Since the days when the association was fonmed and when thew felf it necessnry to mention in their olydects that the association was fonnded becanse the rants of ringers have been sometimes of necessity fillet up by those who have brought scantal upon the profession,' times had changed very considerably. The work of the nssociation and of men like their late presinent. Cnnon Elsee, hed altered rill that. The Lancashire Association had had the loynlty ant support of same splendid stalwaris. and he had discovered that their list of members innluded at least 50 who jained the association over 45 vears ngo. Such a record of experience was bonnd to be of great help to their new president, who. he honedi, had a long nertod of iseful and suecessful work before him. He also hoped that theres was no lack of vouth coming on to take the place of the old hands, when, as it inevitably must, the time eame for them to pass on. He hoped they would give the associatiou every support and reminded them that they conld expect to get notling out of it muless hhey themselves first put sometling into it. In couclusion, Mr. Goldsmith referred to the splendid work done for the association by Mr. Shuker, Mr. Tomlinson, Mr. Sharples and the other offects, and wished tho association every success in the future.
The Rev. W. S. Mellor, who replied, said the association was engaged in a great work for God and the Clarch, a service which took up much of their time, in addilion to the time they had spent in attaining proficiency iu an arto which reģuired a great amont of slaill and stamina. He thanked the ringers for their services, in the name of the Oluwch, Fe also thanked Mr. Goldsmith, not olly for his speech hut for the very valuable services which he rendered to change ringers througls "The Ringiug World.' Tho speaker went on to refer bo the ocremony which was io take place in his own church at Poulton on the following day, when two new bells were to be dedicated by the Bishop of Blackbin. There luad been a frame for them ever since 1911. and wot the bells find been given by ayn anommons donor one to commemorate the reisn of King George $\bar{\nabla}$. and Quean Mary and the other the Coronation of King George Vi. and Queen Elizabeth. It was a splendid thing, he said, that they had good Christinn men who wonld come and help the Church in this way.

The Lancaslive Association, las added, appreciatied the lind words and good wishes that lad been expressed. Thele was a great amouvt of work to he done in the belfries, and he knew the assaciadion would do its best to see it completed (applause).

VALUE OF SOCIA, GATHPRINGS
Mr. G. R. Newton summitted the toust of 'On1" Guests,' and in doing EO spoke of the value of the social side of such meetings. Tefore the wat. he sadd, there were any two gatherings of that kind, one in Loudon and the other in Birmingham. Now there were quite a number held in varions parts of the cauntry. The incresse, he thought, was die to the preat fratermal spirit that pervaded the Exercisc. He had Gean a ringer long enongh to know that there was a far move friendly spirit prewailing amolng rimters aud between the waiolus societies mow than there was thirty or forty years ago. That was all to the good and dinners such as that were lepping towards that end. He hoped there would be more of them, far they did a great deal of good, and the develomment of the social side was often as important as the work in the belfry. Mr. Newton went on to welcome the visitors, especially the president of the Yorkshire Association (Camon Marslath), whom be congratulated upon havjurg the opportumity next Whitsuntide of welcoming the Central Commil to Jeeds
The Rev. W. Yates fist jcplied and sad how deliphted he was to linow that the assebiation hat honoured Mr. Charles Sharples by electing him wice-president. Mr. Shaples was captain of the belfry at his (the speakers) elutch all he kar known him all his tife. The honour conferred on linn mas vert well deserved (applanse)

Mr. Fates went on to say that he linew very little about bellringing except the fact Lhat bells in Filackpool weve very unpopular (laughter), especially when the Minsical Festiral was being held, as it was that weck (anghter). It was a singular thing, he contiuued, that they should have bells at the coming in of life and at the some out, and he wandered what life wonld be withont then. He thonctat the world would be a duller mace. In eonclision Mr. Yates expressed appreciation of the splendide work ringers were doing
Canon Mayshall. whe was cordially received, also respondec. He said he had long wanted to attend the Lancashire Association dinner first becmse of his great affection for their late president, Canon Elsee all scconaly henalle fo felt ho hat certain columentions wit Lancashire. But it was as *resident of the sister association that he was theve that nirint to offer them fraternal greetings and to express the hope that the very covdial relationship which had atways existed between tha two ascociations mighti contime under their new president as they did under fhe old president (applanse). It had always been a great pleasure to feel that these two great comaty associations could work site by side for the adyancement of the great art which they mractised, and loe hoped the same cordial feeling would long continue. He congratulated the Lancashire Association on that wonderfil gatherang, for it pote their. Fonlshine dimer in the shade in regard to numbers. He emphasised what the proposer had said with regaid to the valne of stmela gatherings. The friendship among ringers was an extraordinarily fine thing. A rincer, whether he was a good rincer o a had ringer, would find a welcome in any belfy and there existect anong ringers a friendship which he did not think they wonld find in any other class or community. He had been struck with it in his own cannty and was glad of it. Ringing also took one to all parts of the country, and he had leamed fay more about it than lae wonld otherwise have done. Tt had helned to convince him that Yorkshire was the bes county in Fingland (langhter and applanse). But in pursuit of ringiny it was also an education to ath to all the benutiful chumehes. Thete was nothing beside yinging which took them gEont in that way nat it was one of the things they shonld he thankful for (applanse).
Mr. P. Crook proposed 'The Ringing Press' and spake of the serviees rendered to the Exercise by "The Ringing World." Fe asked all those oresent to go back to their towers and endeavont to increase the circulation. He was very proud to gay that lie load taken the paper fiom the very first number, and he was very pleased last year when the list was puhlished, to see how many others had done likewise

Mr. J. S. Goldsmith acknowledged the toast, and remarked that the future of the paper depended upon the zingers themselyes.

NO LACK OF YOUNG MEN

Councilior Dickinson, in commendatory terms, proposed the health of the Chairman, who, in his reply, mentioned that anong those who had sent apologies were the Bishop of Blackburn, the Bishop of Lancaster and the Provost of Blackburn. Mention had been made, he said, of the fact that that association was among the first of the territorial societies formed and that they had still mumy stalwarts left in their ranks. Fe wonld like to tell them that one of the original fonnders of bibe associntion in 1876 , Mr. W. G. Manm, of Eiverpool, was still alive, althongh he was in considerable ill-liealth. They could he sure his heart was with them that night aud they wert glad to remember him on that occasion (applause). Auather old friend of the Lancashire Association was Archdeacon Fowson, of Liverpool, who was naw living in retirement at rubuey. In their namo he had sent him a telegram of good wishes. He was an old and valued friend of the associntion (applause).
Continuing, the Presjdent said that going about among the towers of Lancashire and attending the meetings lie felt thare would be no scrious lack of young men to follow in the steps of the older ones when they passed on. As far as he could see, those young men were keen and interested in ringing and in the work of the associalion, and that, he felt, was what they wanted to foster and eucourage as much as they conld. He knew that when he leaned to ring he mush have cansed endless anxiety and trouble to those responsible for teaching him. Let them remember, when they fele impatient, that they had all had to learn at some time, aud, therefore, they must be pationt with the younz ringers of to-day. Mnch of the future of that association and of rincing depended on the care, education and patience of the oldier peoplo with the peneration that is coming on.
The President referred with plaasure to the presence of Mr. Gold smith and said they were prond of the valuable work he was doing. They were also delighted to have Canon Marslall with them. Proceeding, he said he felt a considerable amount of responsibility was thrust upon him when they elected him president of that assaciation. It was no light task to endeavon to Eollow in the steps of Canos Elsee, who, far over 40 years, served them loyally and well and who had the affairs of the association at his firger tips. He load found it difficult to pick up the threads of the work his predecessor load done during Hint long period and he conld assure them the office was no sinceure. He was prond and pleased to take on to the full all the worla involved and he devoted considerable time to it, but the association coutd never prosper as it did without the lopal and enthusiastic work of the other officers. To Mr. Tomlinson they had expressed from tieir hearts what they felt with regard to his servieos. He had read in "The Ringing World 'that Mr. Shuker had just rung a peal in commeoration of his 50 years' ringing and it was his 150th pea]. They congratulated Mr. Sluker on that record and wished him many more happy years of ringiug and service to the association (applanse). To their vicepresident, Mr. Sharples, they owed a very special debt of gratitude for the able way in which he had arrangea that dinner. He congratulated Mr. Sharples and offered him their sincere thauks. The President added that, he wanted to thank all the members Eor the collabovation aud help which they had given to each other and to him in furthering the work of ringing in Lancaslive. He wanted them to know that lie was at the service of the association, and anything in which he conld serve ringers and further ringing in Lancashire he would be most pleased to do (applause)

During the evening handthell selections were given by Mr. J. Booth and Miss Booth, of Wigan, whose skilful rendering of parious pieces greatly relighted the ruflience. Vocal items were contributed by the Galentad Meistersingers (Miss Peggy Thompson, Mies Gladys Buy, Mr. Ton Browu and Mr . J. B. Tomlinson), who, in addition to some mopular gluatets, motividually rendered songs whinh were much chjoved. Mr. J. S. Warlurton was at the piano, and at the close the loved. My is. S. Warburton was at thes were thanked by ine president.
The large party spent a vervenjoyable evening, and Mr. C. Sbarples, who was solely zespousible for the arrangements, is leartily to be congratulated upon the success althained.

A CORRECTION.

To the Eutitor.

Dear Sir, -I owe my humble apologies to Mrs. Hairs for having in specech at the dinner of the Ladies ${ }^{3}$ Guild attributed to Mrs. Fletcher the perfect ringing of a course of Bob Royal at the Westminsler Palace Hotel in 1912.
Miss E. L. Bennett was the lady who received the well-merited tribute from $\mathrm{Sir}^{-}$Arthur Heywood.
My memory was at fault aud I am sure that Mrs, Fairs would be ready to admit that the result might lave been mnoh the same if Miss Parker had been ringing 1-2.

EDWIN F. LEWIS.
In also pointing ont this error, Mr. F. I. Hairs says: Apart from personal congtatulations from Sir Arthur on the evenng referred to, Miss Bennett also raceived a letter from Sir Arthur (dated Nov. 16th, 1912), from which I quote: ' '. I take my lati of to your and your performances, while $I$ also recall the neat handling of your bells aad performances, while I also recall the neat handling of yonr bells and yonr excellent, strikng at our Central Council evening.

A JUBILEE CELEBRATION

EAST DERBYSHIRE AND NOTIMNGHANSHIRE ASSOCIATION. Fifty Years of Gond Work
Tha jubitee of the East Derbyshive and Nottinghamshire Assaciations was eelehnased at Alfreton on Sntinrduy Oatober 23yd. Ringing hock place an the eight bells at the Parish Church, and a well-uttended service was hetd, conducted by the Vicar (the Rev. L. H. Do Cas), the address being given by the Rev. R. F. Birlavistle, a lormer winging member of the association. He spoke of the significence of thells and said that a ringer shonld be a good type of Christian. FE outlined maty lessons to be derived from ringing, such as regularity, perseverance, patience, hearty sewice, kindmess and forbearance, Team work was necessary for successiul ringint.
A substantial meal was afterwards served in the Church Eall. Mr, Wilson Dobl (president) owenpied the chair, supported by the Revs L. II. De Cas, R. E. Birtwistic, J. C. M1. Taggart and oficers of the association.
The Chaiman extonded a hearty weleome to members ond wisitors, and especially the Rev. R. E. Birtwistle, who joined the association as a ringing menber of Tibshelf tower in 1908. He also welconed Mr. F. Drafeoth, the oldest memher present, who joined in 1889. Fe had held the ropes for 48 yerrs und had a truly oreditable record. The Chairman remarked that the association was a happy fantily of churchworkers, and concluded by advising young ringers to always follow the advice and instinetions of their leader.
The Rev. R. E. Birtwistle, in an interesting speech, referved to the honour conferred upon hint by being asked to preach, and mentioned several rules concenmg ringerg and ringing of 100 years ago. He congratulated the association on the attainment of its jubilee.
The Thes. L. H. De Gas welomen the association to Alfreton. Te lad been told that bellinging was on the wane, and that there was not tha same interest taken in it as was the case many years ago. That, if true, was a great pity, and jt was up to this association and all chareligoers to stimalate joterest in beliringing

A REVIEW OF TIFTY YEARS

The hon, fecretary (Mr. J. W. England) ${ }^{\circ}$ ave an interesting resume of the records of the association, with a list of ofticerg since ila formation. The association was formed at a meeting held at Clay Cross on Octobuer 29th, 1887, and was confined to towers of not move than six bells. The annual meeting had to he held on Easter Monday ench year at Glay Cross, The name of the association was then the East Derbysltire Association, and it consistied of 45 member's from six towers. It was interesling to record thati eight members of the Eill fanily, of Sontls Nommanton, and font membars of the Beardow family, of Ashover, joineă the associntion. The Rev. Canon Massey was the first president aud held the office fon eight yenrs, being sncceeden by tho Req. J. B. Nodider, who is still Rectior of Ashovel. The vales were later anended to inchnde eight-bell towers, and in 1901 it was decided to change the venne of the annual meding. Later on, there was an unsuccessfirl attenpt to change the tuame to the Derloy Diocesan Association. In 1927 came affiliation to the Central Council, and in 1928 the alteration in mame to its present designation. The sectethry oloserved, with reference to the remarlis of the Rev. L. H. De Cas, that he could assure lim that bellinging, instead of being on the wane, was jmproving by leaps and hounds, and with the co-operation of those present, and particularly the joung ringers, would continne to do so in that district. Ha also mentioned the slerling qualities and work accomplisher by of oflicers and members, particularly the late Mi: T. Allibone, who was for 25 years secretary and five years president, Mr. J. W. Scott, Mr. T. Stimpson (17 Jears trensurer), Mr. O. I. Pardridge and Mr. G. Taylor, who lad now passed awny, and others who lad done uohle work in the district, among then heing Mr. T. Bettison, of Mansfield, che Butlan brothers, of Norlt Wingfield, Mr. J. A. Scott, of North Shielde, Mr. F. Watkinson, now of Eardsworth, whose names came yerdily to mind, aud their exmmple had heem an inspiration to the present officials to carry on the good work and 'keep the flag fying.
Mr. T. Clarke, Ringing Master, in the conige of an interesting speech, referred to the value of 'The Ringing World,' and appealed to all ringers to sive it their suppori and increase the circulation so that we conld have a better and cheaper jourmal Dinfing the evening vacal ifiems were rentered by Mr. T. Wrigld (who sang the song "Drinking, with such effect that seversi membels sndionly disappeared for a time), Mr. F. Cooke, Mr. A. Filiolt, Mr. F. Fradgley and Mr. J. W. Fogland. Mr. A. Lane nocompallied the singing, and con'ses of Toh Maiov were ming on handleells by the young memhers of the Kirkby-iti-Aslifield band.
A vote of thanks to the artistes, eaterers anal accompanists was movel by Mr. C. M. Heatheote (treasurer) and seconded by Mr. C. Carr, of Mansfield.
Mr. R. Walker and Mr. T. H. Marriote expressed the thantes of the non-ringing visitors, and wished the associntion every success. Over 60 memhers and friends were present, including Mr. J. Pagete (Derby), Mr. Fenguson (Reptosh) and Miss I. B. Thompson (Nottingham), and the gathering was a luge shceess.

DON'T SERUB YOUR HANDS!

Cleanse and preserve your

 skin this simple wayTo many people, the problem of getting the hands really clean without harming the skin is a serious one. Grease and grime, which become deeply ingrained into the pores of the skin, are extremely difficult to remove, and ordinary washing with soap or even scrubbing will fail to remove them completely. Housewives, particularly, who complain that their hands get ruined by the nature of their work, will find the preparation called DERMAFOAM, a real "godsend." DERMAFOAM just smoothes away dirt and grease without effort. It gets right down into the pores and removes every particle of grime, leaving skin beautifully supple and healthy.

Men, too-when you've finished that dirty job on the car, DERMAFOAM will quickly banish all grease and oil from your hands. It acts almost magically-working under and around the nails and into every minute crease, removing all trace of dirt in a flash.

Engineers, Painters, Car Mechanics, Printers - everyone - will welcome DERMAFOAM, the modern method of cleansing and protecting the hands.

A GREAT CELEBRATION.

Three hundred years of ringing history was celebrated in London on Saturday, and celebrated in a manner unparalleled in the whole story of the Exercise. The Ancient Society of College Youths was honoured, by its members and friends alike, in a manner befiting a great occasion and in a spirit characteristic of the freemasonry which underlies our craft. Not only was the celebration a bellingers' festival, the greatest of its kind ever staged, but it was a tribute to the respect in which the vencrable society is held throughout the length and breadth of the land wherever change ringing is practised. The Ancient Society of College Youths is regarded as the parent of change ringing, and to its support in its early days is probably due, in no small measure, the preservation and development of the art, which has become recognised, the world over, as so peculiarly English.

And Saturday's proceedings were also peculiarly English, marked as they were by a service of thanksgiving and a least. Few who werc present under the great dome of St. Paul's Cathedral will forget the impressive service, departing very liftle from the customary daily evensong, yot sufficienty distinguished in aletail to strike the appropriate note. And then the great gathering later an round the festive board, honoured by a distinguished company of guests and shared by ringers lirom nearly every corner of England, as well as Wales and Scotland. Never before has such a representative company of ringers dined logether, and this in itself was a tribute to the Society. The presmee of the Lord Nayor al London was a significant gesture, for, apart from the legendary association of the College Youths with Whittington, the society throughout its history has had a connecfion with the life of London, for its members have been responsible through the centuries for tinging many of the bells of the city on the great civic and royal occasions. And the link was strengthened on Saturclay by the little ceremony in the conrtyard of St. Dionis* Hall, where was unveiled the renovated tomb of Sir Henry Tulse, the only man who has been Master of the Society while filling the office of Lord Mayor.

For everyone who was present at the tercentenary celebration, the occasion was a great event; but many also felt it to be a parting of the ways. By his own desire, the Ancient Society is 'clropping the pilot.' On Tuesday Mr. William T. Cockerilt relinquished the office of hon. secretary after having served it for forty-six years, in the course of which he has earned not only the respect and esteem of the members, but has won the affection of those by whom he has been surrounded in the alfairs of the society.  G, PRRK ST., MIMEHERO, SOMERSETForty-six years is a lifetime of service; from first to last it has been filled with ability and efficiency. William Cockerill has been throughout the ringing life of most ringers the personification of the Ancient Society of College Youths; small wonder, therefore, that his departure is a matter of deep regret. The gift whici was made to him on Saturday, on his retirement, is but a very small token of the appreciation in which his long service is held, but the cheers which were given and the lustiness of the musical honours 'must have assured Mr. Cockerill, if any assurance were needed, of the place which he holds in the hearts of the members. Time is inexorable; another will follow Mr. Cockerill; the College Youths will gain a new inspiration from the tercentenary, and will, we hope, for yet further centuries, continue to be one of the pillars of the Exercise and the art of change ringing.

PEAL NOTES.

A peal-of Bob Major by Anmable was rung at Longfoa, Staffs, on October 30 th, when six of the ringers rang their first peal in the methed. IE was also the frest in the method and the quickest peal on the bells, the fime being 2 hours 50 minutes. It was Mr. William Cartawell's forticth peal.

As a birthtay compliment to Messrs. E, V. Rodenhurst (Hodnet), A. Tea, sen. (Wrexham) and W. J. Chesters (Market Drayton), a peai of Oxford Treble Bob Major was rung at Tarporley, Cineshire, on October 30 hh.

A peal of St, Clement's College Bob at. Widford, Issex, on Ootober 30 th , was rung as a birthday compliment to Mr. C. H. Howard, J.P., formerly Master of the Essex Association.
It was the firsL peal in the method by all the band and in the county and was zung without any previous practice. Moreover, il was Mar. Harry Oarter's first attempt for a peal of any kind.

Winh a peal of London Surprise at Farmston, Lincs, on October 30th. Mr. Jack Bray completed the "circle' of the tower.
A. silent peal of Cambridge Surprise Majar was rung lyy members of the Worcestershire Association at Bijerley Hill, Staffe, on October 30 th . It was the first silent Surprise peal by the association. As none of the baud recollect a peal of Cambridge Surprise Major being rung 'silent,' they would like to know if there has been one rugg before this.
Seven ont of the eight members of the bend at Drayton, Berke, on Octoher 301 l , rang their first peal of Bristol Surprise. The one anstared, member of the burd was the Eev. C. E. Wigg.
Mr. J. Walley rang his sixtieth peal on October 3oth when he took part fin seven 72d's of Surprise and Treble Bob Minor at Clieddetor, Stallot'dshive.
Tlie first peal of Grandsire Cinques at High Wycombe was tulg ou Sunday, October 31st, to colebrate the $28 i h$ annivereary of the dedicafion of the bells after cheir restoration and angmentation. It was the [inst peal of Grandsire Cinques by all the ringers except Mr. W. H. F"ussall, who last lod this dislinction in far off Melbourne.
The peal of Oxford Treble Boh Minar at Clifton, Beds, on November 1 st, was rung to congratulale Arthur Dilley (the ringer of the fourth) out tho lirth of a sons.

Withont having previously struck a blow in five of the methods, Francio Kirk rang his first penl in seven Surprise Minor mothods at Apsley End, Ferls, on November 1st, Forty-two six-scores of St. Simnn's Daubles were rung in a peal at Oakloy, Beds, on October 28th, as a compliment to Mr, and Mrs. H. L. Sarfow, on the 52nt anniversary of their wedding. The method was chosen because it was SS. Simon and Jude's Dny, and the performance is claimed as the first peal in the method in the county. We doubt if inother peal consisting exclnsively of this method has been mung anywhere before.
Mr. Doughas J. Pethard, R.Sc., a ringer, chorister and Sunday School teacher at Badsey, Worcestorshire, vecently lost ins life white bathing itn Atstria. On October 27th, the 24 h anniversary of his birth, a peal of Grandsire Triples in memoriam ' was rang at Sadsey. The bells wele rung open, at the reģuest of the relatives.

Geoffrey Harrison, of Loughborough, the youllg soll of Mr. Coin Harrison, has rung a peal of Minor and lis first pent of Treble Bo Royal within a week. Both were on the Bell Foundry bells, and it say much for his skill in "Laudling ${ }^{\text {a }}$ that be piloted the treble tintourg both. The Minor was rung on the front hells. Even the tenor of six weiglis only a fittle over $2 \frac{1}{4}$ ewt.
Following on this performance Geoffrey, rang lwo peals in one da last saburday. Five hours and a guarter's ringug for a boy of 24 a good proof of stamina.

A peal which the band believe to be the first peal of Stedman Triple! rung by all ' local ' members of the Ancient Society of Colloge Youth was rung at Prestbury, Gloucestershire, on November 3rd. Perhap someone can tell us if the clam is correot?
Mr. Sydney Fint, who now lives in Yorkshire, took part in a pens at Standish, Lancs, whicla was specially arranged for him, on Novem ber 3rd. His last previous peal in Lavcashire was rung 41 yens ago.
Mr. Fhilip Hodglin, of Headcorn, Kent, now in his 75th year, rang a peal of Kent Treble Bob Major on November 6th, arranged as a compliment to Kr . C. H. Sone for his 70th birthday.
A local baud of Royal Cumberiands at Burnham, Bucks, rang a peal of Oxford Treble Bob Major as a compliment to their "companological rivals, the Ancient Society of College Youths, on Saturday. Th, wa: the first peal on the bells by a local band and the first peal of Major by St. Peter's (Burnham) Saclety.
As a birthday compliment to Mr. F. J. Cheal and a farewell to Mr . W. N. Rayner, who is leaving the district to go to Maidstone, a peni of Bob Major was mup at Tamham, Kent, on Novenber 6th.

On November 6th an interesting anniversary was celebrated Redenliall, Norfolk. On that day in 1877 the first peal by the Norwich Diocesan Association, a peal of 5,152 Superlative Surprise Major, was rung. The same composition was rung last Saturday, couducted by Ernest Whiting, whose father took part in the first peal.
It is an musual thing to find jingers completing the series in a method from Doulles to Cinques, with Triples, but Messis. Alfred Buckley, who wang his first peal of Triples, and J. $s. Tastwood did this on November 4th at Bloxwich. They had previonsly rumg peals of Stedman Doubles, Caters and Cinques.

The peal was womg for the patronal festival of the church, the $5011_{1}$ anniversary of the bells and on the eve of the 45 th anniversary of M 2 . T. J. Eiton's first peal in the tower.

The ringer of the treble in the Ladies' Guild peal of Douhle Norwieh at Farlow Cemmon on Octohey 30 hh was Ellen ES, Davis.

HISTORIC CELEBRATIONS IN LONDON.

Ringers from all England Henour The Ancient Society.

With a series ef events of outstanding interest to ringers in every part of the warld, the Ancient Society of Gollage Youths, founded on November 5th, 1637, has celebrated its tercentenary. On Friday, the 30lth anniversary, wreaths of laurel were deposited in the appropriate churches in mamory of Lord Breraton, a founder and first Master of the Society ; Fabian Stedman, of Cambridge, Master in 1682, and Benjamin Annable, of London, Master in 1746.
On Saturday hundreds of ringers flacked to the Metropolis for the principal celebrations. Following ringing at many of the City Churches, the resfored memorial to Sir Henry Tulse (Lord Mayor and Masfer in 1684) was unveiled in what remains of the churchyard of St. Dionis Barkchurch.
Aftemwards a congregation of nearly two thousand joined in a service of thanksgiving at St. Paul's Cathedral, while, later on, a company of over feur hundred, including some distinguished guests, dined together af the Cannon Street Hotal. Many interesting speeches were made, and in the course of the proceedings there was a presentation to Mr W . T. Cockerill, the retiring homorary secretary, who has given forty-six years' service to the Ringers came from all pats of the country to take prate in the festivitics, and many spent the honrs betwen noon and three o'clock in a ronnd of frmons Loudon fowers to trke part in ringing. St. Marw-le-Bow andi St. Giles', Cripplegate, of tha welve-hell towers SL, Magnas', Lounton Bridge, and St. Clement. Danes (ten bells), and St, Lawrenes Jewry and St. Andrew's, Holboru (eight bells) were oper, each in charge of a anember of the society.

A ${ }^{7}$ DISTINGUISHED MASTER.

MEMORIAL TO SIR HENRY TSULSE.
|n a lithe courtyard opening off Lime Street, a narrow thoronghfare hetween Ferthureh and Leadenhall Streets, is the tombstone of one of the mambers of tho College Youths who in the tronblous days of lie Sthartas was liond Mayor of London rud ati the same time hefe the ulfice of Master of the Sacietw. Thriss litile Conttyard, this Daghwater of the busy city, is all that remains of the clarchyard of St. Dionjs Backeharel, at church rebuilt after the geeat fire of 1666 , but demolished about 70 years ago. When this demolition took place, most if the תנemorizl stolles were removed, but that of Su' Bemry Tulse, a renefacto: of the church where his remains rasted for 170 years, was left, and there il has remained, all but forgolten ever since. Po Mr. A. Alex Young, himself a Past Master of the society, is due the 'reliscovery" of the stone, and it was a fitting act on the part of the 'ollege Fouths to restome the inscription.
Cutin a large and straggling letfering, the original nemorial reads as fioliows: 一

this Stome Lyes Buryed the Rody of Sir Henry Tylise who Deqaiterl this Life the 31st day of Alugust 1689
The society has now added a bronze piake bearing the following nscription :-
'Sir Meury Tulse was a Benefactor of the Church of St. Dionis Buckchureh (formerly adjoining). He was also Gracel, Alderman and Lord Mayor of this City

In lis memory this tombstone was restored November, 1937, liy the Ancient Society of College Youths (during the zooth year of the Society's foumdation). He was Master of the Society during his Mayoralty in 1684.'
A gathering, which glmast filled the Conrtpard and jneluded the Master and many Prot Masters of tha society, fikembled for the unveiling feremony at three o'clock.
fanmels and flowerg stood at the liead of the tomb and on it was hid a simple bunch of violets bearing a card which said: "An affectionate Windte from a present Past Master to one who has gone before. 1637-1684-1937.'
The Rector of the parish of St. Entmunt the King, Lomprad Strect, wilh which the parish of st. Dionis now nowited, condocted the service, which was also attended by the Rev. W. H. Stewert Dumphreys, Vicrr of the fianghter church of St. Dionis, Parcons Gren. The ceremony opened with a course of Stedman Crters and three whole pulls in slow time rumg on lanadbells round the stone by Tirmingham distriet members of the saciety: Mesars. F. F. Hayres, F. F. Pervin, A. Walker, G. TF Swann and A. Paddon Smith.

Tho Rector then offered suitable prayers, ant Mr. E. A. Young read the lesson from Ecelesiasticus xliv., 1-15, beginning ; Let us now praise inmours men.
The Mnster, before unveiling the memorial, said they owed to Mr. Young's researelies their knowledge of the stone. The fnscription was almast iudecipherrble, hut luckily it was knowr what was written thereon, The society had, therefore, been able to have the origian inscription restored and to add a smull tablet to the stone. He wished to say how pleased they wero that the Rector and wirdens of St. Dionis had mot them in the matter and allowed them to pay that small tributs to one of theis former Mustors. They were sorry that the Master of the Grocers' Company, of which Sir Henry Tulse was a mamber, was nat able to be present throngh illuess.

Mr'. Lewis then withdrew the sheet which lad veiled the memorin].
The Rector, in an address, said those who had studied the subject. would have noticed that there was a marked diference between public life in this country and in all the Europeau conatries. It had been his lot to see something of public life in the great cities of Europe froni Paris to Constantinople, and lie had noticed two things. One was that it was not the eustom for men prominent in the life of those countries to render public service fredy in those great cities, and the secoud thing he had noticed was that they did not give freely of their substance to objects which, in this country, calied fortl gemerous support-hospitals, education, recrention of the people and maritable help of all kinds. Our traditions were different, and in consequence our public lifo was of a finer quality than anywhere else in the world. This itea of giving both service, and money if they were able, had had a profound infuence upon our national life. For centuries the City of London land given and still gave an example of public service whin the more intimately they of the city enace to know it the more deeply they respected it, and they held in high honour all those who had helped to make or uphold their tradtions of public life.

Such a one was Sir Fenry Tulse, in whose memory they had Guch at one ras Sir fenry Tulse, in whose memory
Abont Sir Henry's private life they knew very little, noli even the exact date of his birth. That was believed to liave been in the year 1625. He, was the son of Willian Tulse, described as 'gentlenan of Avon, Hampshire.
Tulse was born in a very difficult period of English bistory, as dificult as that in which we were living at the present time. The speaker gave a brief historical review of those troublous days is which Tulse lived and said thab Sir Henry was both a spectator and an actor and he played his part well. He had to react to the intrigue and subtle crossplay of Charles II., and then to the impatient bigotry of lis successor, James. It was more than interesting fu observe that he was "King's Fricnd' when nominated as a Rogalist Mayor to a disturbed city only just dispossessed of its ancieal Charter by Charles II. ; and, again, that later Tulse was to pose as tho Church's friend when James Il. removed him from the Aldermanic Courd for obstruction. But the fmal act was when William and Mary restored with honour Tulse and all those Aldermen who had heen ejected, of whatever party, in 1688.
In civic life, Tulse was rearded to hava entored the Worshipial Company of Grocers. He was admitted to the Freedom in 1643, was Warden in 1673 and served as Master in 1681 . In 1673 he was elected Alderman of Bread Street Ward, having probably already served several Years an the Court of Common Council. Jn the samo year he was elected Sheriff and served in the office of Mayor in 1683-84.
Fe had joined 'Tha Compary of College Youths! in 1659, was steward in 1674 nud Master during his Kiayoraluy in 1684. The Colloge Youtbs were Roy alists almost to a man, aud this was probably one of the links which msde "Pulso a 'King's man.' He was also a member of the committee of the Honommhle Tast India Compauy and president of Bethlem and Bridewell Hospitals. He died in 1689 and was huried in the Churb of St. Dionis-Backelimelı, then rewlyrebuilt after the Great Fire.

The intercsting ceremony concluded with futher prayer and the Benediction.

IN ST. PAUL'S CATHEDRAL.

A MEMORABTE THANKSGIVING SERVJGE.

At half-past three the bells of St. Panl's Cathedral, manned by the Cathedral company began to ring for the service in which the memhers were to join. Lryge numbers of ringers listened to the splendidly struck Stedman Cinques on this noble peal of bells, $n$ fitting prelude to tho memornble service which was to follow. Ringers and their friends to the numblaer of nearly two thousand had assembled unfer the mreat dome when the choil aud clergy, with the Bishop of London, ontered.

The service followed the ordinary form of evensong, but there were specially selected Psalms, crlv., I will magnify Thee, 0 God, my King: 'nnd el., so often associated with qiugers' moetings, 'O praise God in His holiness."

The first lesson was from Ecelesiasticus aliv., I-15, and the second lesson from St. Luke xiv., 15-04. The Magnifient and Nume Dimittis were sumg to stanford in B flat. Purcell's anthem, 'Rejoice iuthe Lord alway, was rendered and then for the first time in history liandbells were heard in the great Cathedral. Strnding in the choir, Messrs. W. Roughton, A. B. Peck, F. Langdon and W. Williams rang a course of Stedman Triples.
The preacher was the Fon. Archdeacon of Loudon, who took for his text the words. "Witly sood will de service as unto the Lord and not unto men, Ephesians vi., 7. 'We welcome at our evensong this afternoon, lie said, the "members of the Anciert Society of College Youths, an honourable institution, keeping their three lnudredtl| anniversary; a body of men who, ane after the other for 300 years, havo सiven continuous service to our Chureh. ' Your work is a gervice not always as nuch recognised and appreciated os it shonld be. I rdmire the tesm spirit amonest You. You cannot do without one anothor ; it is a service of united and lindred Epirits giving forth m message to all who hear your mnsic. Sometimes it is the music of joy and happiness; sometimes it is in mufled tones, speahing of sorrow and parsing, but more often Sillday by Sunday your music is $m$ call to worship. "O come let wS worship," ring out the bells, "come, for all things are now ready."
The treatment of the message, continued the Avohdeacor, might be as it was when onr Lord spoke in His parables of some who begrin to make cxcuses, but their message was clear, that the Houso of Gad was there, its, gates open to welcome them, and the opportisnity of worship awaiting them. Tf they would draw nigh to Him, He promised to draw nigh to them.
"Yon,' proceeded the Archdeacon, 'give the messtge: those who hear have the responsibility of accepting or rejecting it. And the giving of the message is r real service. Your message is heard not only in the cities and towas and country villages in our own land,

SIR HENRY TULSE.  LOKD MAYOR AND MASTER OF THE COLLEGE YOUTHS.

By J. Armiger Trollope.
Fun: members of the society of Gollege Youths have been Lou'cl Mayors of London, but tha'ee of them held that office after they had long since ceased to be actively connected with the societr. Sir Heny Tulse was Master of the Coltege Youths in the same year that be was Lovd Mayor.

He owed his importanee and his position to the political stroggles of the reign of Charles II.-the same struggles which (as I have pointerl out in my book) bronght another Gollege Youth, Sir Francis Withens, to the fore. The popular party, or the Whigs as they were afterwards called, were strong in London, and one of the main endeavours of the Government was to crush them and to get the control of tine city iuto the hands of the Tonies, or the Court party. Indse was a strong Tory, anki when he and Robert Geoffrey were elected Sherifis in 1673, Si, John Robiuson wrote to Joseph Williamson, the Secretary of Sitate. that they were "good' men. A littie later he qyvote, "We have sellled a Lord Mapor, 及ir William Hooker, who, I hope, will prove a good ong, with two Sllevifs, Aldermarr Tulee and Depaty Jefleries, houcst men.' 'Good " and 'homest," of conrse, meant that they would do what the Government wanted.

In 1681 the Gity drew up a petition to the King praying for enlling of a Parliament, and appointed anmber of leading citizens to present it. Tulse was one, but he refused to serve, and, when the deputation went to Windsor, he was not among them.
In the mext year lie was one of folly candidates for the office of Lord Mayar, two leing Whigs and two Tories. The two Whigs receiped 2,289 and 2,258 votes respectively. Pritchard, one of the Tories, received 2,233 , but Tulse ouly 236 . This was by arrangement so as not to split the Tory rote, and in the end, riter a scrutiny, Pritchard was declared clected.
The Government liad now secured cantrol of London, and, to make the control certain, bhey served at writ, quo warrento, calling on the City to show eause why its Charter should not be annulled on accome of itleged inregrianilies. The result was that the City lost its rights and privileges, which wore not restored until the lnst year of the reign of James 1T., so wlen Thlse was made Tord Mayor ins 1693 il was not hy a froe vote of bite cilizens, lut on the nomination of the Crown.
Some of Thise's opponents brought a legra nction against lum, alleg. ing that he and his fellow Sherifinad itlegally sold the post of Under Sherift; but, after a petition to the King, a watrant was issued to th Attomey General to punsh the proceedings.
Sir Henry Tulse was in henefautor of the parish of St. Bionis, Rarkclureh. When the rhurel was rebuilt, after the fire of 1666, he gave a marbie font and marble steps leading to $j$; tund, when lye died in 1689. he was buried inside the chnuch in his own watt. When the church was pulled down the font was removed to St. Dionis", Parsons Green, and the stone slab which had covered the grave wns transforment to the countyard which marks the site of the old chnvehyard, and there it is mow. It is this stona whioh has been renowted by the Ancient Society of College Youtlis.

BELERY GOSSIP.

The celebration, on Saturday, of the 300th anniversary of the founding of the Ancient Society of College Yauths, was one of the most historic events in all the centuries of church bellringing. This issue of 'The Ringing World,' enlarged for the purpose, is a 'Tercentenary Number,' and our readers, who will peruse with interest our full report of the warious ceremonies, will also, we feal sure, pardon us for holding ower ofher contributions which have been sent for publication this week.

It is customary for the stewards of the College Fouths' dinuer to wear a distinguishing badge, jdentified in some way with the Master for the year. The badge on this occasion consisted of an ingeniously contrived Portiand cenient button, with a rosette in the Oambridge University Guild colours of light blue and 'bell metal.'

The three lady members of the society attended the dinner and sat together at the top table, They are Mrs. E. Wilkius, Mrs. F. I. Hairs and Mrs. Cann.

About 50 members of the Central Council, including the president, hon. secrotary and hon. lihrarian, were present.

Among the oldest membels at dinner was Mr. Robert Mayaard, of Walthamstow, who joined in 1877, while the member who had travelled the grentest distance was Mr. B. H. Swinson, who bad come from ¥gypt!
Nearly every association and guild in the comntry was represented at the dinner, directly or indirectly.
The Australian gocieties were well repregenbed. Seven members of St. Peul'g Gathedral Socieby, Mulbourne, and of the Holy Trinity Association, Hobart, were precent at the celebration.

Another 'owerseas' ringer, who was present at Victoria, British Columbia, when the bells at the Gathedral there were opened last year, was among the company. He was Mr. A. E. Trotman, who mado the jouraey from Belfast to attend Saturday's celebrafions.

Many rimgers who were unable to attend the dinace travelled long distances to be prescut al the service at St. Paul's Cathedral.
The Gollbge Yonths' huge 'birlhday' cake, which ocenpied a conspicuous position in the reception roon at the Cannon Street Hotel and was afterwards cut up and consumed by the company, was made hy Miss A. T. Lewis (daughter of the Master), who holds the 'Cordon Blen ${ }^{\text {a }}$ of the National School of Cookery.
The design of the cake was stwiling. It was in three tiers, each appropriately decorated with panels and bells, and surmounted with an excellently modelled bell in suyar, complete with stock, wheel of correct design, and stay. Thic bell had actually been shaped with * miniature 'strickle board.'
The cake was a most artistic production, not only in appearance, but in its manufacture, and Miss Lewis, in her neat cookery "uniform and cap, carried in the top tier to the dining hall and handed it to the Master. Afterwards slie assisted in serving the cake.
The statement in official notices that the reception room at Oannon Street Hotel would be 'suiliably furnished' must have excited the curiosity of many people. The explanation was forthcoming after the guests had slaken hands with the Master. Tlae furnishings wete dispenseff in glasses.
Among the many messages of cougratulation received during the dinner there was speciel jnterest in these three all from ladies:-
'The Ladies' Guild of Change Ringers send heartiest congratulations on your tercentenary and besb wishes for successful evening. Fletcher, Honorary Secretary.

Hearty congratulations and frood wishes from Mrs. C. D. P. Davies, in heppy memory of C. D. P. D.'

- Good huating to you, nud may fou wever change but far the better. Hearty congratulations, -Dorothy L. Sayers.'

The seaior member of the College Youths is Alderman J. si. Pritchett, Master of St. Martin's Guild, who was elected in 1874. The oldest surviving Past Master, Mr. J. Martin Routh, now living at Tilehurst, who was elected in 1885, is 90 years of age.
Some of the visitors to London, like Mr. Charles Sharples, vicepresident of the Laucashite Association, had travelled all Friday night to reach London, and spent Saturday night (or rather the early hours of Sunday morning') travelling lome again,

M1. G. R. Newton, of Liverpool, brought with him the dinner ticket and menu card of 1901, which was the last he had attended until this year. The dimner on that occasion was held at the Bridge Fotel, Southwark, and Mr. F. E. Dawe was Master.

After a vain altempt, lasting nearly an hour, to find his hat and coat in the cleakroom and elsewhere after the dinner, Mr. O. Sharples had almost given up hopes of discovering his property when the missing articles were brought from the other end of the hotel, and Mr . Sharples was left with just time to catch his return train at $12.30 \mathrm{a} . \mathrm{m}$. to Blackpool. Mr. Shaples asks un to say that be was so relieved at the recovery of his belongings that he forgot to thank the finder sufficiently at the time, and desires now to do so.

sixy there was another living who was senior to linm, Mr. Jolm Martia Ronth, who had been elected to that office two years before he (Mr: Dawe) was. He had recently visited the old gentlemay at his home at Tilehurst and found him in excellent health and spirits. Although preseed to nttend this dinner, however, Mr. Kouth had declared lie mas not quite cqual to such ans undertakiug. He, however, wished to bo very kindly remembered to all his old friends of 50 and 60 years ago, and wished them all a very enjoyable evening. Mr. Dnwe went ou to esy that in talking over 'old fimes,' Mr. Routh wished lim to aunounce to that gathering that it was his intention to bequenth his valuable "ringing library" to the Ancient Society of College Youths! Kr. Dawe also stated thas as Mr. Ronth wonld in a very short time celebrate his 91 st birthday, lat was sure all present wonld heartily join him in wishing his old friend 'many hnppy returns of the day.
The Mastey also ! took wine ' with those who had been members of the society for more than 50 years, and it was gratifying to see tlaat there were more than a dozen present.
The Master, heiove proposing the toast of ' The Kiug,' pointed out that never had ingers shown their loyalty in such a practical form as they dia this year at the time of the Coronation of their Majesties. More than 240 completo penls wero rung on that occasion, a jumber which had never becr approached for any other event, as far os was lenown (applatise).

After 'The Kins,' the compauy, on the call of the Master, dravk to the toast of "The Queen, Queen Mary and the Royal Family.

THE SOCIETY'S CONNECTION WI'H THE CITY.

The Master, in submitting the loast of "The Lord Mayor, the Sheriffs ant the Corporation of the City of Loudon's said lie would like to say a little ahont the connertion of that society with the civic autlorities of London. This went baek to their orignal connection with a famons Lord Mayor, Sir Richard Whittington. Mr. Trollope, in his very excellent listory of the society, had rather discontuled the theory that the sociely toole its nane from the College on College Hill, but lie (the Master) thouglit if was rather nice to sfick to that num ilnus get that indirect and possibly rather legeadary connection with Dick Whittington. But Dick Whittington had another conluection wilh bells, lut not, he thought, with the clange which they knew as the Whittington change, hecruse if Whittington did sit on Hightate Hill and if he did hear Bow bells, he conld not have heard eight hells, because there were not eight belle in Bow steeple at that time What he hard was probably what we know as 'Queen's,' on six. which went quite well to the woris ' Turn again, whittington, thrice Lord Masor of London:

There had been, continued Mr. Lewis, several Lord Mnyors who had been members of the society, at Jeast four. In the case of one of them they had had a lititle cerenony that afternoon, but the society had probably rung for Lord Mayors on November 9th far longer than it had rung for the services of the Church. At the time the society was founded, the Clurch would not have much to do with ringiug, as far es itas servicea were concerited, aud sueh ringing as took plate was nearly all on secular or semi-secular occasions, including the election of the Lord Mayor on November 9th.

We are tuite sure, ${ }^{\text {a }}$ added the Master, ' that the whole world to-day admires the stable civic govartment of London (applause) just as it admires the financial stability of London, and I think you will agree with mes if I say we feel the present Lord Mayor has filled thal office in a memarkable way during a very remarkable year (applanse). Fre has nearly cone to the end of his "f tonch." Ho has, 1 helieve, only one andi analf nore official days after to-night, and, as the Dean of St. Pral's just now remarlked, it is as if we are ringing lim out of his office ' (аррlause).

LINK BETWEEN MANSION HOUSE AND BEILLRTNGERS.

 Tha Lord Mayor was given a very warm reception on rising to reply, and began his sperch by remarking, 1 am very pleased to be present at this tercenilenary hanquet of this Ancient Society of Callege Youlhsand to sec them wearing their old scliool ties, a comment which and to sec them wearing iheir old school ties, a comment which brought forth lond laughter. That gathering, he contiused, was most interesting to him because of the fact that a Lord Mayor of Tondon in 1684, in the reign of Chniles $\Pi$., was Master of that society, nut they had been honouring the lomb of that Lord Mayor, by unveiling a tablet upon it that day. He was giad, therefore, by being present that night, to continue the link betweent the Mansion House and the belrinme fraternity (applanse).
'T have horrd some most henutiful and melodious music from peals of hells,' continued the Eovid Mayor, 'and I have also heard some hells that have nlunose made onte feel like heing driven to crine sonaghter). We, in the cilp are forthmate in possessing what T may call ilie linst past, as already indirated by the Master, called boch Richard Whiltington to he Lord Mayor of London three times and which can now reach all parts of the world wherever the marrels of wireless are kilown ", saix the Lord Mayor, hani heen called the city of dreaminut spires. Lonlion was in Par ureater degree n city of spires, botlo actusil and symbolic, hut they conld not he called dremming ones: iles wetro vifal, they were ulert, pointing the way spiriturelly and to material success anid prosperity. Those who came into Londou were workers inherent in the beates of ahl English people, foumd expression iu go many of the eity's aucient celemonies and custome lt was no anere mann of the eits s incient ceremonies and chat, each Michachmas Dry, the Corporation of London ditended dirine worship and agled the bfessing of Amighty God upon their choice ol tle hew Lord Mayor; rather was it a tragible prool that tho dify's motto, 'Domine Dirige Nor,' mpplied to every plase of civic life. Tlie city was proud of the fact that, wherers the King of England went to Wegtulnster to be erowned, it was to the city they exue to retirm thanles (applanse).

As lie was just going out of office, the Lard Mayon said he khought i. might interest them to know one or two of the things he had sccomplished or had gone through furime his rear. He had entertained at The Mamsion Fouse 36,000 people; lie luad attended 34 vhureln services of traditional and ancient eustom, he had been commected at the Mansion Honse wibli 92 chnrilable meetings, and had attmuded 55 Emnctions converted whly the Army, Navy and Police. He lad brondtast seqen times, he had lad 40 Corporation meetings to attend, be had been present at 15 Coronalion finctions, 41 opening ceremonies of conferences, conglesses and new buildings, he had atiended 38 speech days, 14 meqal fumetions and 97 lmoheons and 177 dinmers (laurhter), In addition he had made 1,000 speeches, bad visited 27 ather towag and sat 152 times in the Mansion House Justice Roonn. That was a simmary of what erery Lord Mayor lad, diove or less; to go through, but when he told them that that represented ouls mbout 50 per cent. of bis ditios, it would give them & Fond idea o the stronnous time tha Lori Mayou fuad during his term of office.

The dinnew of the College Youths, he conclided, was the last dinmer Jo would attend officially as Lord Mayol, and, therefole, in greetimar them all, he had at the same tine to take a farewoll. He hoped the society would conbinme to add to ils age and would continue bo be prosperous and successful mad that it would still give enjoyment to all those who loved to lucar such lueautiful bells (applause).

Only bells appeared in tire masical programme, and Mrs. Hughes here contrihated handhell solos, once again to the delight of the audience. This music, so skilfally rendered, is an mever-ending sontce of pleasire to ringers, and having played, by request, "Solveig's Sang' (Grieg') and 'Hımoreske' (Dvorak), Mrs. Hughes responded Lo an irresistible encore with the old favonrite, "Land of hope and glory, in which the company joined lustily at the repetition of the chorise.

At the conclusion of 末er ehort programme, Mrs. Higles was presented my the Master with a handsome bouquef of roses, carnations and chrysinthemums.

In handing lier the flowors, the Master said he thought ther would "grec that as an artiste with handbelis Mrs. Huphes "takes the cake," and so, he acded, 'I am going to pronose that she takes it.
And with this, anid chcers, Mr. Lewis handed to her the top tier of tive birthder cake.
Mrs. Hughes, in a gracefuI little epeech, thavked the societs for the lovely fowers and said that with her father, husband and son, all menibers of the society, she felt jurtly proud to he asked to enterlain sncl in distinguished nssembly. She wished the society a happy continuation thughout the generations to come.

SOGTETY NOT 'TXCLUSITF.

Mr. W. Roughton proposed 'The Fisitors' and gave them n hearty welcome. It hat been said, he remarked, that their society wis rather exulusive. Tt was not true that they were exclusive about thoir ringing or their friends. They welcomed everybody. There was onle one thing which was exclnsive, and that was the tranitional ringing at St. Prils Oathedral for tho Envices. Unless an man was ppecially groot as a lufolve-bell ringer lie was vever ackeü to ring at St. Panl's on Sundays. Mr. Roughtou told the slary of a conndy visitor, who went to St. Paul's one Sunday and felt urgrieved because lie was not asked to ring. When later be voiced his semse of injnry to another member of the soctety, his friend replied, "Thero can be only two reasons, as far as I know, why you wero not asked to ring. Either they did not know you, ar else ili was because they do ' (laughter). Proceeding, Mr. Roughtou said: "We brve with us to-night lords civic, lords spinithal and lords tomporal, who are upholding the great twaditions of this dear country of ours, and I would like to say just, a word or two to the younger generation who are here in the midstiof this great ussembly: When pou take uver the control of this dear old suciety from the present generation, witi you remember that you will be madgeret by the Press, yout will bo bullied by factions, and worried by groups, who will want to alter the miles and regulations and traditions set up, after much theuyht, by older members, And when these questions arise, as arise they will, I beg of you to study them very carefully, weigh and consider them for a long time, and not lighty throw atay and destroy these rules and tradilions of the past (applause).
The Duke of Arcyll, who replied, admitted that he knew little of the art of riuging, tut what he was interested in was in the bells themselves. Ho had a library

THE SKIPPER

MR. WILLIAM T. COCKERILL Hon. Secretary of the Society for 46 years. which faclinded alt the rounty histories, and when his friends wanted to make him a little wift they sent jrim nost extrnordiaary little books, like algebra to him, dealing with the art in which those present that wirht were specially skillect. What he was interested in was the mucheology of the bells, which took them back beyond the Christian era. The Duke refered particularly to some interesting lrish bells of great age wfith which he was wetaminted, from one of wheh Trish kings had been christened. He also referved to the peal of hells whinh hee had secuued for the elinueh at Juveraray, his Scot-ish seat. Sever of these bella lye gave himsolf and the othens lie indaced his friends to provice. He loped at some time the Dolloge Youths would conse up and ring them (applause). He told mn anusing slory of how the bells reached Thwerary $y$. On aconut of the diffienties of transport, they liad to be left oue night by the roadside, nut one coltrager, asked by anotlier what they were, said they were his Grace's new bechives (langhter).
The Master said on hehalf of the society lie would nt once like to clinch the offer of tho Duke and suggest that some time next summer they should make up a band in London to go up and ring a peal on his bells (applanas)

SOCIFTY'S OLD TRADITIONS

Mr. Fi, P. Diffield proposed "Kindred Societies" and reforred to the good fellowship which was engendered and fostered by such gatherings as that. That was an Hssembly representing all walks of life and they were all there witl the same lore of bells. While they conld not claiun, perliaps, that tinging stond alone as an example of real brotherhood, at least there was nothing that could surpass it. It was in that spirit that lie asked them to receivo the toast. He asked them to pay no heed to some of the thinge they heard said about that old society. Old societies clung to old tradilions, and lie hoped that, even if some of those traditions might be obsolete in their manner and purpose, they would not take that as a reason for scrapping them fortliwith. They had, For instance, the rule that e member of the Society of Royal Cumlserland Youtha was by virtue of that membership disqualifed from membership of the College Youtlis, and the Cumberlands had a corresponding rule. Whatover may have been the position in the past, there was no bitter feeling between these two old London societies to day (applanse). Their society did not claim to be a territorial society and lie hoped no attempt would ever be made to pose it as such. There was a function for such societies as theirs, particularly in the centre of the Metropolis. A society which could bring together such a gathering as that could not bo said to be entirely territorial. On the other hand, they did apprecinte very mach the good feeling whinls existed between the ferritorial societies and their own. As oue whose privilege it had heen, more then many perhaps, to trovel and meet ringers in all pares of the country and to be given memberghip of a number of societies, it was a great privilege to give them the toast of kiudred cocieties. They liad pregent. that hirht a whole lost of representatives of those sociebies. Among Lhem was Conncillor Paddon Smith, of Birmingham, representing 5 . 'wartin's Guild, man who acceplet life's despongibilities, which was borme out by the fact that be was a member of the Corporation of the great city of Birminglam. It might well be that las got some of lis inspiration from that other great figure in the municipal life of Binmiagham, who was, be suppased, the senior member of the Collegre Youkhs, Alderman Prituett. He felt they could not do better than agk Mr. Smitla to corveg to this pentieman, who had How become gomewhat infirm under tho burden of yearg, the very cordial greetings of the company assembled that night (Epplause). He had to couple witl the toest, glso, the name of one of the brilliant Fownger members of the Exercise, Mr. Stephen Wood, who had been recognised by the Central Conacil, who had put him to work on some of the mathenutical problems which many af them took so seriously. If some of M 1: Wood's theories lad not been generally nceepted yet, aud they had had somo evidence of that lately (laughter), he did not ihink Mr. Wood need take any discouragement from that fact. He land never yet heurd of anyone whose theories had boen accepted by ererybody \{applantse\}.

THE ESSTNEE OF RINGING.
Mr. Paddon Smith, who firsb reaponded, undertook to convey the kind regnids of the gathering to the Mnstor of St. Martin's Guild, who, lie understood, was the oldest living member of the College Youths. Continaing, Mr, Smith said that was one of the largest and rertainly the most nistorie gathesings of ringers that had ever taken finase, and it could not have been Feld anywhere oulside London-for many reasons, one of them being, of course, that thera was 110 other sofiely actively pursuing the art of ringing that liad been in existence for 300 years. The one he had the honour to represent was, in comparison, but an infant in arms, only 182 years old. Bat they al! foolson up to the College Youths. He was ghad to hear one of the speakers refer to their traclition, and he would like to emplanise the fact that most of those who spont their time ontside London looked ap to the society, not for the number of methods they rang, nos for tho record perls they went for, and sometimes got (har, heary, bult because thoughout their long existence they had made good strukiug the real object of their existenco (applause). In his opiniou, and he was eure in the opinion of all competant ringers, striking was the most important thing coucerued with their art, and he for one wonle very much prefer to hear a peal of Graudgire or Stedman Triples well struck than a peal of London Surprise successfully achieved when tha riugeri said, 'We got it aftar all' (langhter and applause). Striking was thw very essence of behringing. In conclusion Mr: Smith thanked the soctety for providing members of kindrea aciefies witin a vety onjoy able time, Mr. Stephen Wood, who also replied, sniti although he bnd becar reminded very forcibly in recent issues of "The Rivging World ' of his extreme youth, he drew strength from the fact that that socielv, aucient though it be, by its very name was a gocicty of youths. Hi nsed that word in its bellinging senge to juclude ringers of all maes from nine to 1 incis. Mr. Wood added that be would like to and the tribute of the youmger generation to the work of Mr . Cockerill, who had always seemed to him, by tho skilful way in which ho combined the wisdom and experience of Years with the energy and enthasiasm of youth, to embody in himself all thet was best in tho spiriti and tradition of the College Youths (applause).

W.". Wood added that he lrought grectings to the society from the anly tindred society of greater antiquity. There was ans older society. St. Steplen's Guild of Ringors, in Bristol, to which he had recently been elected, was founded in or before tho year 1620 , but unfartuuately it had long ceased to have any active connection will practical finging. He believed he was the first member, for over 150 zears, who coult clam ever to have rung at St. Stephen's, but he was glad hat ther, ware anmaber, of people there that ovening who did ring regulacly at St. Stephen's and who Jeally had more claim than he Jad to call themselves St. Stephen's ringers, although they were wot members of that ancient Guid. Mr. Waod said he wauld lite to endorge what -Mr. Smith had mid that the provincial yingers looked up to the Collemi Yauths witl gratitude for the example which thes set in the high standard of ringing, eapecially that for the Snnday services at $$ 1$ Pauls Cathedral. He was surre that most of those present felt it : privilege to slmad outside St. Paul's that artemoon and liaten in Sledman Cingues ruig as it should be fung (applause).

MI'. J. 'T. Dyte proposed the remaining tonstir of "Ilue Press, and refered to the serviens whieh the Press lind rendered to the society. In the last few tiny, he said, they had had more press notices than evel before. Such articles as had appenred vecently in the rareat railies would create ith interest among the publig such as tuad newer existed before, and that was all to tho good. Mr. Dyke went on la juy a tribute to the servime rendered to ringing by "Tho Ringing World 'and of the important place whith the paper occupied in tho Excreise.

Mr. I, S. Goldanith (Editor of "The Ringing Worid ') replied, and the proceedings terminated with the singing of Auld Jang fiyme anul the National Anthem.
On Sunday morning, after the eustomary service rivering at the various London chanches, there was an informal social gabliexing al Anderton's Hotel, and a considerable number of London and vigitiur ringers were presell: Refieshmeats were served and handbell ringitg took place
Mr. T. IT. Reeves, hon. secretary of St. Martin's Guild. Birmingharn, thanked tie College Youths for their Lrospitality, nud this was acknow ledged by the Master.

SOME IMPRESSIONS.

finturday's proceedings loft lasting impressions on many people. Here aro some which remain with J. F. S.:-
The large andience listening to the three courges of Sterlmatl Cingues-the miljestic cadence of the bells-the large congregation of zingers inder the Dome the beatiful music of the service-the clearness of the handbells in Stedmau Triples: the wrong striking of the trebles in the first rounds ( $1-2$ were reversed) - the preacher's referencr: to the "College of Yonths"-the pager greetings of old friends at thin luatel-Lhe skifilk and ingenious piacing of the guests, a triumph of organisation-the splendonr of the Master's fandge-the henign expression of the Bishop of Loudon-the absence of the Lard Mayar" "Cor" poration,' in spite of hundreds of oflicial dinners and luncheone- the Dean's graceful compliment to the Master's danghter-the marvellous exposition of Spliced Surprise handbel ringung the good food; the cliffeulty of replenishing one's tankard-the delightful handhell solos by Mrs. Hughes, nud the unat. litile spoenh she made aflerwards-an rilogether wonderful evening-and, lastly, of a part of the Birmingham contingell who missed their drain!

A BROADOAST

In the J.B.C. 'news' on Sunday evening reference was made in the previons day's celebration, and there was a reproduction of St, Panl's Cathedral bells, recorded while the three conrses of Stedman Cingres wore rung, and of the handbolls in the Calhedrat.
The Master gave $a$ shorb talle on the society and its foundation in 1657, with a referemee to Sir Henry Tulse num the ceremony at St. Dionis.

The whole recording came over well, excopt the handbells, to mhich, apparently", the microphone was too cloge.

DON'T SCRUB YOUR HANDS!

Cleanse and preserve your skin this simple way

To many people, the problem of getting the hands really clean without harming the skin is a serious one. Grease and grime, which become deeply ingrained into the pores of the skin, are extremely difficult to remove, and ordinary washing with soap or even scrubbing will fail to remove them completely. Housewives, particularly, who complain that their hands get ruined by the nature of their work, will find the preparation called DERMAFOAM, a real "godsend." DERMAFOAM just smoothes away dirt and grease without effort. It gets right down into the pores and removes every particle of grime, leaving skin beautifully supple and healthy.

Men, too-when you've finished that dirty job on the car, DERMAliOAM will quickly banish all grease and oil from your hands. It acts almost magically-working under and around the nails and into every minute crease, removing all trace of dirt in a flash.

Engineers, Painters, Car Mechanics, Printers - everyane - will welcome DERMAFOAM, the modern method of cleansing and protecting the hands.

STUMBLING BLOCKS TO EFFICIENCY

The secretarial reports presented to two district meetings in Kent contain some outspoken remarks which, while written with local application, represent conditions which exist in not a few places outside that county. The secretary of the Tonbridge District not only regrets a falling membership but a lack of progress in method ringing, and a tendency to allow practices to drop, with a result that Sunday service ringing is suffering., All these things point to a falling-off in interest, which seems to occur in most areas from time to time. It is a phase which is difficult to guard against, and one which only collective effort can overcome. The dropping of practices is often the outcome of loss of membership, for where a band loses strength it frequently loses interest, and, in the end, practices are abandoncd.

Nothing, we think, leads quicker to decay in the quality of ringing than absence of regular practice. Efficiency in all things can only be obtained by practice, and ringing is no exception to the rule. If a band is so depleted that practice offers no prospect of progress, surely it is time that efforts were made to strengthen the company by bringing in and instructing new members. But often this lapse of practice is due first to the apathy of two or three members of a tower, and the rest, who may be moderately keen, have their interest blunted through the indifference and irregularity of the others. Too often, we are afraid, there are ringers who study their own conwenience first at the sacrifice of the convenience of others. The sutccess of any band can only be assured when everyone 'pulls his weight ' and realises that he owes a duty to the rest.
The Rochester District secretary, who has found, to his regret, indifferent striking in service ringing, puts some of it down to poor leadership. This is another cause that is almost bound to lead to a deterioration in a company. The leader of a band, unless he is the right man, can be a bugbear, not only to his own company, but to an association, and a formidable stumbling block to any advancement. He can stultify ringing in his own tower, and, by his influence, deffect the activities of other members of his band into ambitionless channels. The unfortunate part about most men of this type is that they generally dig themselves into their office, and win their way into the confidence of their incumbents, so that they are almost immovable and a constant drag on the wheels of progress for years. The Rochester secretary tells his members that in the cases of which he complains the state of things is likely to continue until there is suffcient general interest in the welfare of the local bands (Continued oll pago 766.)

and the courage to substitute more competent leaders． There is work to be done in other areas than Rochester in this direction．Most associations throughout the country can point to＇black spots．＇They form a very real problem not easy of solution，and yet，when the in－ efficiency and sometimes the stubborn obstinacy of these men lowers the standard of ringing，it is a great pity that something cannot be done．The root of the diffi－ culty，we think，lies in the fact that so few parsons know anything about ringing and belfry management，and it is in this，as much as in anything，that we need a wider interest on the part of the clergy．

PEAL NOTES.

CANON COLERIDGE'S & OH BIRTHDAY CELEBRATED

Canou G. F. Coleringe's 80 in bithday was fittingly celebrated on November IOti by a peal of Double Norwich Major at Caversham. This tower was selected because Canou Coleridge was instrumental in adding two trebles to the former ring of six in 1890, during lis curacy there. Mr. George Lessex and Mr. Harry Smith. who trok part in the peal, were members of the Caversham band at that time.
The peal was also in celebration of the tercentenary of the College Youths. It was crant under the auspices of hoth the Ancient Soctety, of which Canon Colcridge is one of the oldest merabers, and the Oxford Diocesan Guild, of which the Canou is Master.
Mr. TTon Rthbert called the peal and, interestingly, it coincided with the $76 t \mathrm{l}$ burthday of Mrs. Hibbert. Needless to say, the band drank with good wishes to the health of both celebrauts after the peal.
Ceuncillor Dr. Drabble, churchwarden at Bloxwich Parish Ohurch, was elected Mayor of Walsall ou November 9th, and in Lonour of the avent a peal of Stedman Ciuques was rung at Walsall Parish Church on the same day.
Many nccomplished ringers wait a long time for a peal in one of the simplo methods. Mr. Edward D. Snill, Master of the St. Jolm's, Ley lonstone, bend, has beeu peal ringing for more years than, jerhaps, ho cnres to remember, but it twas not until last week that he rang his first peal of Bob Major, the first in the method on the bells, nuade eight last year as a memorial to William Pye, who in all his great career uever, curionsly enougll, called a peal of Bob Major.
Mr. Walter Ayre must have been very satisfied with his receat week-end in Lincolnshire. A peal of Cambridge Surprise Major on Saturday, a handhell peal of Gainsborongh Lithe Bob on Sumday, and a peal in seven Minor methods on Monday. Not bad work for the hatf-terme holiday.
The Cambridge was rung in henour of the silver jubilee of the Jadies' Guild ard was M1. Jack Bray's 250th peal. Mr. George Dobbs, who rang his first peel in the method, had never previonsly struck a blow in it
Two youths, Philip Barnes, aged 14, and Fred Jeffery, 16, rang their first peal in seven methods at Burtou-on-$tather and both are to be heartily concratulated upon their performance
In the peal of Grandsire Doubles rung half-mufted at Ombersley on Armishice Day, five of the local band took part, two ringing their first paal and one his first 'inside.' In a similar peal tiang in September three rang their first pral and one his first "jnside." The Ombersley, band comptises nime activo members and were sow remain only two who haye yet to score their first peal.
Tlie Armistice Day peal at Erith was Mr. F. J. Cuilum's 125th peal on the bells.

An interesting imstance of ringers again taking part in a peal after a long lapse of years comes from Newton Nottage, Glamorganshire, A penl was ruug haff-muffled on Avmistice Day, the first peal at this church by a local service band since 1910. One of the ringers, Alfred E. Willinns, had not taken part in an attempt since he rang the same bell in the last " lacal " paal 27 yenrs ago, aud David Thomas rang his first peat for 25 years.
With reference to the question raised in our last issue as to whether the peal at Prestbury was the first 'local' peal rung as a CaHege Youths peal, Mr. R.T. Hiblert paints out that if this means a Sunday service lonnd, the Cavershana baud in 1900-1905 vang about 35 peals under the auspices of the College Youtils. If it means just a College Youths' hand in the neighliourhood, it has been done, he snys, many times. One was inng by keading members a few months ago.
Mr. Hibbept does not make it clear whether any of these peals were Stedman Triples, which is the point at issue.
Mr. Joseph Braitley, the Bratlford veteran, raug his 400th peal for the Yorkslire Association ou November 13til at Shipley. But Mr. Brondley's services to the nssociation cmnot be measured by the number of peals (great as it is) that ho lias rung. He joined the association in 1879, has held various offices, and has been one of the association's 'stalwarts.
The ringer of the 2nd in the peal of Treble Bob Minor nt Butter wick on October 23rd was Henry Tolnson, not Henry Jaha, as priated. Hemry Johnson is a great name to possess in ringug
Mr. Arthur Knightss peal of Grandsire Caters, No. 155, with the 5th and 6 th the full extent belind the $9 t h$, in 5,309 changes, was rung for the first time on November 13lh at Worsleg, Lancs. It was an Armistice peal with the bells half-mufled.
Mr. William Gill has completed 60 years' service as a riuger at All Scints' Church, Hutton, Essex. $\Delta \mathrm{s}$ a compliment to him a peal of Doubles wrs rimg on $\mathbb{N}$ ovember 6th, and his grandson, Charles E. Hill, rang the treble to his first peal. Afterwards Mr. and Mrs. W Hill extended their lospitality to the ringers.
A penl of Minor in four methods was rung at Enstwood, Rotherliam. on October 30th, after the band had met short for Major.

FTRST QUARTFR-PEAL

MDJON-NEXT-GRAVESEND, KFNT--On Sunday morning, Oct. 31st, & quarter-peal of Stedman Triples: C. M. Mitchell (first guarter peal in the method) 1, G. R. Ambrose 2, H. Argent 3, Tr. A. Mitchell 4. IT. Burles 5. R. A. Mrun B. F. M. Mitclell (condnctor) 7, G. Morrad 8. Rung on the 17 th anniversary of the wedding of the ringer of the 3 rd All are local Sunday service ringers.

FOR BEGINNERS.

EXTENDING CHANGES FROM FOUR TO FIVE BRLLN'.

A good deal has been written vecently in the columng of "The Ringing World" as to the relative advantages of teaching beginuers on ath odd and an even number of bells. In the last article of this serjes we showed how changes were producod on an even number oil bells, namely, four.
Let us now see how this four-bell ringing ean be simply applied fo five bells. There are two ways in which the method shown for the four bells can be adapted to five. Both have the same prinaiple of plain hunting for all the bells between the leads of treble. But while in one case, when the treble leads, 2nd's place is retainel, which causes one of the bells to lio four blows (two whole pulls) behind aver the dodging bells, in the otller the ' place' is pushed out to 3rd's and comes a hall-pull later. rhis, in turn, pushes the dodging from 34 to 4-5, and the extra bell is absorbed, if we can use the term, by continuous plain hunting, like the treble.
The following figures show the difference in the methods which occurs when the treble leads:-

| A | 13 | C |
| :---: | :---: | :---: |
|  | 53412 | 53412 |
| 3412 | 35142 | 35142 |
| 3142 | 31524 | 31524 |
| 1324 | 13254 | 13254 |
| 1342 | 13524 | 12345 |
| 3124 | 31254 | 21354 |
| 3214 | 32145 | 23145 |
|  | 23415 | 32415 |

A is the method we gave in the last article, which produces the extent of changes on four wells.
B is the same method applied to fiva bells, with its 2ud'e place, the dodging in 34 and the extra bell lying four blows behind. The three bell cycle of work in A becomes a four-bell cyele in $\mathbf{B}$, the four hlows behind occurring between the dodge in $4-3$ and the dodge in $3-4$
C is the method witio 3rd's instead of 2nd's. There are two hime ing bells fnstead of one, and, in practical ringing, when the treble is met, the other ' limnt bell is always the next to be looked for. There are only three bells in the working cycle, which can be compared wifh the changes on form bells thus:-

\begin{array}{lll}
\text { First lead } & \text { On } 4 \text { bells } & \text { On } 5 \text { bells } \\
\text { Second lead } & \text { 2nd's place } & \text { 3rd's place } \\
\text { Third lead } & \text { dodge } 4-3 & \text { dodge } 5-4 \\
& \text { dodire } 3-4 & \text { dodge } 4-5
\end{array}

We would like beginners to try constructing plain courses of these metheds on paper. Both ou four and live bells the method with gnt's place begins 2143 . In the method with 3 rd's, however, the placo falls not exactly at the wreble lead, but between the two hunts, that is to atay, with one blow when the treble leads and the other when the hant bell leads. This, therefore, requires 3rd's place to be made immediately upon starting, and the bells go off, not 21435. hut 21354.

Here are the first two or three rews of the methods

Now write out the plain courses, following the rules of constrmetion which require plain hunting except when the treble leads is $A$ and $B$, and immediately after the trebless lead in C.

SUDDEN DEATH OF MR. THOMAS WISE.

A VALUED MEMBER OF PETERBOROUGZ DIOCFSAN GUT1].
With much regret we recura the passing of Mr. Phomas Wise, of Collingtree, Northants, which took place in the early hon's of wicdiesday, October 27 th , at the age of 41 years.
A native of the nearby village of Woothon, deceased was instrumental in cloing much good work in that parish several years ago aud assisting at tho practices in other parishes in the vicimity on evory possible occasion. His enthusiosm was an inspiration to all.

Deceased had rung a number of peals, and, at the peak ol his activities, was a most valued member of the Peterborough Dionesan Guild. Many were the joung liands ho shepherded through their fisst peals, in methods of Doubles, Minor and Triples. He was a sale conductor.
An engineer by trade, Mr. Wise was able to turn his hand to alnost anything. He was keen on horticulture, und was exceptionally goud at both making and writing pral boards. Three of his works of art can be seeu jn the belfries of Wootton, the Charch of the Holy Sepulchre, Northampton, and the Parisli Church, Hanslope, Fincks, upor which his name whil ever recall his memory
It was oll July 14th, 1928, what he turned in the 22 cwt. tenm at Hanslope to a peal of Minor-one of his hardest earned yeals, and only on that occasion did he show any real sigu of the tronhle from which be died
Decensed was at work up to the day before his death, nud the minomencment of his passing in the local papers came as a shock to all his ofd comiades with whom he was extremely popular
He was iuterred on Triday, October $29 t$ l, when the bells al Collingtree and of his mative Wootton were rung to mufled tonches.

REMEMBRANCE.

COMMEMORATION OF ARMISTICE.
Much ringing was done wich halif-mufled belle to commemorate the fallen in the Great War, on the anuiversary of the Armistice. Our peal columins record a number of peals.

At Ibstock, Leicestershire, a half-peal of Bob Minor ( 2,520 changes) was rung, with 83 calls-this being the number of men from the village who laid down their lives in the Great War. ## LINCOLN DIOCESAN GUIED

SUCGESSFUL GATEGRING AT RIPPINGALE.
On Saturday, October 30th, a quarterly meeting of the Southerm Branch of the Lincoln Diocesan Guild was held at Rippingale, and about 40 ringers attended, the following towers being represcuted: Peterborough, Bourne, Market Deeping, Morton, Wdenham, Withani-oll-ile-Hill, Surfeet, Billingborongh, Hough-on-the-Hill, Caythorpe, Sleaford, Dylie, Folkingham and Rjppingale. The Rector (the Rov. Williems) kindly allowed the use of tho bells during the afternoon and evenits, and the visitors made good use of the opportunity of trying this splendid peal of six, lately restored by Messis. Taylor aud Co. A large variety of Minor methods was the order of the day, and was much enjoyed by those taking parti. Choral service was conducted by the Rector, the lesson being rend by Hr . S. Laxton, onptain of the local band.
In the course of his address the Rector extended a very hearly welcome to the visitors, and said ho was glad to gee so many towerr represented. The numerous ringing associations did excellent work for the clurch, and le faid particular tribute to his own ringers for tho splendid work they did beth in the belfry and the choir.

Teu, which was kindly provided by the Rippingale ringers, wns served in the Parish Hall, 36 siting down. Among those present were the Rector and Mrs. Williams, Mr. R. Richardson (Master of the Guild) and Mrs. Richarison.
At the business meeting which followed the Rector presided. It wes proposed that the annual meeting be held at Grantlinm, an amendmont was made in favour of Edenhmm, and, on being put to tha vote, Edenham secured the majority.

An appeal was made for two rastoration schemes, Hourlyam nna Sempringhan Abbey Ghurch, but it was decided that both nppeals be put on the agenda for the annual meeting.
Mr. B. FI. Dalton, of Billingborough, was elected a periorming member of the Southern Branch.

A very hearty vote of thanks was accorded to the Rector for the use of the bells and the service, and also to all who had taken part in the arrangemonte, and for the hospitality shown to the visitores.

Some afterwards took part in handbell ringing, others returned to the tower.
(Gontinued from previons columan.)

BELFRY GOSSIP.

The ringens of Knareshorough, Forkshire, bave resigned on account of a dibagreement with the Church Council regarding new rales.

The stumbling-block is a rule which says, Any misconduct in the belfry shall be reported at ance to the Vicar.' The ringers protest that tha rule is umecessary, as no one in bis senses misconducts himself in tile belfiry.
Geoffrey Harrison, of Loldghbrough, who has just rung two peaia in a day, was stated in our last issue to be 14 years old. Actually he is only 13, which makes his performance even more remarkable.
The Spliced Surprise Major rung at the College Youths' dinner ba November Gth consisted of six methots, Rutland being included in acldition to the five mentioned in onr report. The error was due to diffieulties of learing, for in the large hall the call of Ruthod" sounded like "London."
During the eight days of Itre jubilee celebrations of Truro Cathedral the balls were rung each evening for the special serrice, and for the Choral Eucharist, speciai's men's service and evensoug on the Sunday, the Cathedral company heing assisted by visiting ringers from various parislies in the diacese.
Fis many friends will regret to hear that Mr. I. E. Davis, of 118 , Sarsfeld Road, Baltam, is in hespital with a septic arm. He underwent an oporatiou on Thursday of last week, and, although in considerable pain, is, we learn, fairly comforfable. Mr. Davis is in charge of St. Botolph's, Bishopsrabe, tower, and the Monday evening practiees there are temporarily suspended.

Wibh regard to the non-conducted peal of Gambridge at Brierley Hill, Mr. E. Bannetw whites: 'A mon-conducted (or silent) peal of Cambridge Surprise was rung at Crayford on October 1163, 1929, and, if my memory is correol, Messis. Pye, Bennet出, Wigg and Co. raug one last year on a tour iu the North of England.'

PEAL ATTEMPT AT CHESTER CATHEDRAL.

DEAN'S MONENTARY FORGFTFULNESS BRLNGS TUNTJMELY END.
The attempt for the first peal on the ten bells at Chester Cathedral, rung by a representative band of the Diocesan Guild, came to en nuntimely end on Sisturday loy the sudflen failure of the electric light. The chamber was oaly in darknoss for a few secands before the light came again, but several of the band had set their helis and the ringing was abandolled. Invastigation brought ing satisfactory explanetion, for the Cathedral was fonnd to bo locked and in clarkness, as it was left belore asceuding the tower. After some consideration it was decided that the lateaces of the hour made a fusther attempt for the peal undesirable. and after ringing at touch of Kent Royal and a course of Cmmbridge Major the lells were lowered.
The 'mystery' was solved on Sinday morning, when the Chester branch secretary received'a telephone message from the Dean, who said that he was very concerned about the occurrence and more concermed to think that lie was the cause of it. He had taken a party into the Cathedral after the normal closing hour, and had urwittingly shat off the belfiy main switch with the others. Quickly realising the consequences lie had switched on again, but it was, of course, too late. He wishes to express to the band lis apologies and profound rearet, and hopes that the next attompt will be marred by no such unfortunate accident.
He las given permission for the peal-Kent Royal, conducted by Mr. R. Sperring-to be made ou Safn'dry, December 11th.

INVERARAY BELLS

To the Editor.
Sid,-Many who were at the College Xouths' dinner and treard the Duke of Argyll's invitation to ring at Inverariny will be interested to know something of those bells.
In Tume lasi the ringers of St. Mary's Cathedrat, Glasgow, obtained permission to visit there, and tonches of Triples and Caters were rang -it is beliered that they were the first on the bells. The "go ' was excellent. A few weeks ago I was informed loy the towerkeepor that the belis had not been rung up since then.

Although the tenor is about 42 cwt., there are no boxes for the ringers, 8 di the ropes are rotted and guite unreliable. The Glagove ringers, knowing the conditions, brought supplies of both with them. At least one of the stays is damaged. The church is very near to the water's edge and the bells aro not properly protected from tibe wet.

AN INCIDENT AT [VER.

To the Editor.
Dear Sir,-Will you please kindly allow me a little space wherein to warn anyoue who is thimking of trying to get a ring at St. Peter's, Iqer, Bucks, of laving a lost jonrney. On Sunday week, having read the natice in "The Ringing World' of the reopening of the bells, several riagers gathered there, but on entering the belfry (bath before and after the servica) were treatefi as intruders by the local call-change company, and were not asked to fake part in the ringing, or even to try one of the bells.

MR. W. T. COCKERILL'S RETIREMENT.

Election of New Secratary.

Election aight ' drew a large attendance of members of the Ancient Society of College Youths to headquarters on Tucsday of last week. The veason was not far to seek. Mr. W. T. Cockevill was retiring from the offen of hon. secyetary, and members desived to show their appreciation of lis long service to the society and express their good wishes to hims.
NL. Cockerill was vated to the chair while the election of officors took place, and, there being only one nomination for each ofice, the following were declared re-elected: Master, Mr. J. H. Lewis; hon, treastrer, Mr. A. A. Hughes; senior stevard, Mr, L. A. Porter; junior steward, Mr. J. A. Wangli; tristees, Messrs, C. F. Winney and $H$. $R$. Newton.
Mr. A. B. Peck was elected to succeed Mr. Cockerill, to whom many thibutes were paid for his long eat devoted services to the society. The Master proposed that the best thanks of the society be accorded to Mr. Gackerill and tiant the re solution be entered on the minutes. This was seconded by Mr. A. A. Hughes, and amone others whe spoke ware Messrs. J. G. Prioz; H. ware Messis. \%. G. Priol, H. Hoskins, F. R. Newtor, C. Watrelt and Rawlins.
Good wishes were also expressed by Mr. E. T. Duffield and otiters to Mr. Pecle in rudertaking the secretarias dulies.
The eustomary zoutine busimess, including the adoption of the lanlanee sheet for the vear', was disposed of und two mew members weve clected.

Mr. Alfyed B. Peek, who las succeeded Mr. Cockerill in the secretaryslip, las had a long connection with the Ancient Society and baen prominenlly identifed with its netivities. He was elected Master in 1910, after having served four yenrs as steward.
A uative of Bedford, Mr. Peck learned to hande a bell at sb. Mary's Church in that, town, but, coming to London in 1900, he was fortunate to make kis way to St. Stephen's. Westminster, where atb that time there was an accomplished band of Surprise ringers. He has taken narlit in many notable perfarmances, and at St. Pan's Cabledral, where he lias loug heria a member of the band, has turned the tenar in to Gambridgn Maximus. As this performance indicates, Mr. Peck is an accomplishod heavy-bell ringer, and among fins feats was ringing sonthwarls Cathedra? tenor, a bell of over 50 cwt., to the isl-fated record peal of Stadman Cigques, 12,675 changes, in 9 hours 47 minutes, on May 21st. 1923, the composition of which afterwards turned out to be false. M:' Peek was also a member of the company which rang the record lengtl bw one set of men, the 21,363 Stedman Caters at. Appleton on April 22nd, 1922.

THE LATE MR. A. E. WREAKS. RINGER』' MEMORIAL.

At St. James' Church, Paisley, Scotland, on Sunday, after moming ervice, dedication of a 'riners' memorial library" in memory of the late Mr. Alloert Fdward Wreaks, took place in tho belfry. Air. Wreaks was for many years the esteemed Master of the ringers.
The memoxial takes the form of a bookcase with books concerning bellinging, and should become a valuable acquisition to the ringers.
The Rev. Sydney C. Still, hi.A., who performed the brief ceremouy, said they had assembled to dedjerte the memorial in gratefin rememhrance of Albert Edward Wreaks, for 26 pears the beloved Master of Their association, whose name held an abiding place in their affections. Ha spoke of Mu'. Wrealis' work since comisg to teach the art of ringing at Paidey, and then unveiled the bookease and dediegted it witil suiluble prayers.

LIVERPOOL CATHEDRAL BELLS.  WORK TO BEGIN ON RING OF TWELVE.  A Four-ton Tenor.

The first part of the order Cor the lubla of the new Cabluedral at Liverpool has been placed with Messrg, Meave and Stambank, of the Whitechapel Foundry.
It consista of a ring of twelve, with a tonor of 80 cwt., and $a$ slatyp gecond bell to provide a light ootrave.

The Cathedral will thas have the heaviest rimging peal in the worlil.
It is uncertain when the bells will be hump, for the greal central tower is not yef finished, but prosumably ili will be at ne very distant date.

Ringers will anticipate with lively interest hearing a peal of belle of these majestic proportions.

TEACHING BEGINNERS. A MTSLNDERSTANDNG.  To the Ehitor

Dear Sil,-I was astonished beyond measure to note the tone of Mr, Steplen Woorl's letter in Jour issure of Octolser 2Rnd, for in any of your readers will kindly refer to the letter writien by me on the subject of the most suitable method on which to start a hegimer, they will see that I have never alluded to his letter in uny why, munh less mentioned bis name. Some maseen force nast, therefore, hrve altered the points, and put Mr. Woond entirely on the whong pair of rails! I have f far greater respect for his splend ability, but having regard to all the corvespondence on the subject, to shy nolling of the numerous dikeussions and expressions of opinton up and down the country, I veatured to express an opiaion, which I stial strouxly maintain and which was supported by a latre number af good ringers, that the much despised Grandsire method is certainly Lhe liest rar teaching a beghuer fitst, I mote tlent the opinious in favour of other methods mainly emante from inexperience anongst the class known as the 'rising generation'! Iu my long axperiences $I$ only linew of three towers where Bob Donblee and Major lave been emplayed-and each one lias proved a dismal failure!
I am very somy to note that Mr. Wood appeats to epeals slightinghy of old times, as pasf instructors certainly turned oub some goon rimgers, but do let me assure evervona concerned that there were some of the best achicvements by those good old ringerg, and $T$ hnve had the hononr of talfing part in several where the striking was simply perfect. The peal books of tha various societios ean werify this. No donht, Mr. Wood and others have atreceedecl in eclipsing lide ringing of that period, this putting everything alvendy tlone guile in the slande, but I have unfortanately missed the reports of ame in your waluable praper by some strange accident or other Anyliow, I am perfectly certain that the quality and accuracy of the actinal ringing was better in those days than that which ohlains generally at the present time-I mean before the 'crage' for new methods, more than enough to employ every liame in Brankhast's Guide witlo that ridiculous word "Surpuise" after it. Tho real surprise is how the heavily taxed ratepayers near al hana nut up with the discordant "jangles. Nowadays a rioger's copaliilities appear to bo fudged by amd consist of the mumber of nom methods he rul jamglo through without any consideration as to correct striking ant cnieful ringing. Much has been said about encoufnging young peaple, but, Tenlly it is anite umecessary, as they nppear lo be very well able to take care of and speak for themselves! I have never, fron lirst to last, said $n$ word agailust Mr. Wooders able advice, but linve spoken from a collective standpoint, so as to emborly the opinions of the majority. T really do hope that Mr. Wood will bot misurflerstand me in future. After all, when an apple cart las been upan quite unintentionally, surely it is an easy mattor to seb it up again all right

A COUNTRYMAN'S VIEW

To the Editor

Dear Zur- 1 be from the conntry and it weren't so lons since I larnt to ring neither, but I've taught a raod fow bny-chups simee then. I bain't much of a scholard but it do seem to J as snoue of thoy chaps as is writing about laners be geting a bit muggled. T reckon some be talking about how to teach bows to plan hunt, and f'others be on abnut how to Iarn 'em to ring a method.

Once yon've lamt 'em to hunt and to strike good while they be a'doing on it, and to see where they be a-moing on fons bells and thon on five or six, my hops say as it's just as casy to make scoonds as to make thirds, or to Ronge up along in 3-4 as it be in 4-5. It don'1 seem to make no difference to they $\cos$ ther knows where 'em be. If they conldn't find their way about proper int hunting, they'd make If they conldn't find their way hour proper Plain Boh Keep 'am as hig a mess o Grandsire as thay ould of elain how. Keep eurwhether the old tenor's a-dmmming belind or wheller she's coming in along o' the rest. My boys be only 11 or 12 weare old, but, it don'd take 'em lone to pick up hunting on 3 or 4 and then up.
And I'll tell 'ee summat else. They boys don't think much o' the masty letters inst lately. They reckon it's a poor job if people can't see more nor their own point o' view, and zemember as tis all loarms in different way, more like as not.

BAD LEADERSHIP AND BAD RINGING.  HETIREVG SECRETARY'S OUTSPOKEN GRITIGESM

Pointed temarks on striking and service ringity in the Rochester District of the Kent Coumly Association were made by blue retiring hon. secretary, Mr. Stanley Shellock, in his annual report presented to the members on October 30th, when the anoual mecting of the district was held at Rochester Cathedral, through the kindness of the Dean. The attendance was quite up to the standard, approximately 80 heing present from the following towers: Gravesend, Northfeet, Milton-uext-Gravesend, Frindsbury, Rochester, Chatham, Gillingham, Raiblam, Sittingbourne, Bohbing, Tonstall, Maidstome, Dartford, Beckenham, Hawkhurst sind Woodford.
Tho bells were available from 3 p.m. until 4 p.m., at whicl time evensong was slang in the Cathedral, whicli the inajority of the ringers took the opporturity to attend.

Ter was provided by the ussaciation at the City Cafe, and Mr. F. M. Mitehelf, general secretary of the association, was voted to the chail at the bnsiness meeting which followed. 'l'he balance sheet was read and edopted, and the secretary's report was also received, sithough, as the chairman remarked, it contnined af few biting references.

MORE CONPETENT LEADERS NEEDTD

In his report the hou. secretary said: 'I make no excuse for ngain hringing to yonr notice our main duty as churchworkers, which is to 13 our skill for ringing the bells for Sunday services. Nay I reiterate Hhose words "aur shill," because l have listeren and, at times, regret fully I must admit, even been compelled to be one of the company responsible for terrible striking, which is a travesty of change ringing; nuch exposition of ont art is to he regretted. It is mainly due to bad leadership and most certainly is likely to continue until we bnve sufficient general interest in ithe well-being of onr local bands and also Lhe courure to substitute these irresponsible persons by more competent lenders.

To the incumbents, their assigtants and lay officers of our churches I also again appeal to interest themselves in the ringens and ringing and to make up their mind that daring the coming year the actual ringing charabers, whilst the ringers are performing both on Sundays and on practice nights, will mora oiten be wisited. I do not surgest, however, that such visits shaula be made out of idle curiosity, but with a view to improvernent in uhe ringing, and would suggest inguiry betwoen the blows of ench leele is areater than that which is necessary when the rhythm is disjointed. This show of real interest will, I nu certain, be worth mand more than we can imagine, and will, if percertain, we worth mach more than we can imagine, and will, if perdesisably ligher level.'
The roport went on to say that the honorary members of the branch had doclined by me, to 19, and the practising members by 11, to 157. It wat hoped that an effort would be made to melie up the leeway during the succeading twelve montis. The secession of Milton Roory is had reduced the total of towers in mion to 19 . Meetings at Miltor-next-riavesend. Queenborongh nad Tunstall had all been bighly suc cessful and well attended, and thanks were recorded to Mr. and Mrs. Mitchell; the ringers and their iriends at Queenborougli; and the Rector of Tunstall for entertaining the members to ten

A HJT FELOW THE BELT

The hon, secrefary added that owing to a family bereavement he was debarred from attending the meeting at Milton-next-Gravesend, his only absence during the whole term he had occupied office. He ragretted that his absence should have been chosen suitable for a complaint regarding lack of zeporte in' 'The Ringing World' of their meetings. He resented this "hit below the belt," particularly as lie Ind been most crefof on the special occasions, and lie was sure the Fitor of 'The Ringing World' had given the Rochester District a very square deal in these matters.
The Hon. Seeretary said he liad summarised the attendances at district meetines over the list 20 years. It showed that 3,852 persons had attended 82 rueetings, an average of 47 for each meeting. During the last nine years the averoge attendane had been 54 , so that they had more than maintained thofr interest in a very vital branch of the aesociation's work.

Twenty-two peals laad luear rang in the hast year in soven towers in the district, with six conductors.

The gecretary went on to ask for some organised effort to improve servica ringing, for which, he thought, there was room. Many peals of bells were silent pither for monning or evening service, ard specially arranged quarter-pazls whs one way of tackling this problem. He asked tho members to think this over very serionsly and determine to mako amends. He heartily congratulated Mr . Frank Cheai, of Rainham, whs had, dinfing the past year, put in 106 attendances for Sunday ringing-uurombterlly at ver" ercditable performanec

SATISFACTORY FINANCE
The financial position of the district was very satisfactory, and it was hoperl that a simm of approximately 516 lO s. world he avaitable to tam over to the general ncconnt. The total contribution of the district to the Benevalent Find for the year was 83 16s. 7 fl .
The hon. secrelary expressed svimputhy with the Newington vingers at the enforced silence, generally. of their bells, due to want of structural remaits, and he commended their loyalty in retaining theit memhorehip throqgh sutit a period of trial.

The death of Lawrence Hales, of Hoo St. Werberg, and Edward Friend, of Gilliagham, was sympathetically referred to, and, in conclusion, the hon. secretary expressed his thanks to tho members for the trust they had reposed in him during his term of office, and, in ragretting he could no longer carry on the duties, appeated for all the halp the members could give to bis successor.
The election of the district officers resulted in both the retining district representatives, Messrs, Spice and Allem, being re-elected, and Mr. G. H. Spice was elected as district secretary, the retiring secretary, through domestic circumstances, being unable to continue
The Chairman proposed that a very hearty vote of thanks shonld bo accorded Mr. Shellock for his services as district secretary during the last aine pears, and this was unanimously carried. The retiring secretary thanked the company for their kind expressions and formed tham of his great regret in having to give up the post.
Daring the evening the bells were rung by mixed companies, and certainly Stedman did not go vory kindly. The closing touch of Bob Roval, which was a great improvement, indicated hov much betfer results could be obtained with a lititle more enterprise.

RETIRING SECRETARY'S THANKS.  To the Editor.

AFFAIRS IN THE TONBRIDGE DISTRICT.

HON. SECRETARY OALLS TOR A GREATER EFFORT.
The anuual roeeting of the Toubxidge District was held at Tonbridge and was atterded bF 60 nembers, representing 14 towers out of the 19 in union in the district. Ringing took place during the aftermon and evening in the standard methords, and, on the whole, the striking was very good. The usual service was held, conducted by the Rev. Canon F. Child. Tea at the Carlton Cafe wns followed by the business meeting, which whs presided aver by Mr. B. F. Lewis, president of the Central Comeil and vice-president of the association.

The hon. secretary (Mr. A. Richardson), in presenting his report for the year, said that for many years it had been a habit to commence the report with the words, 'I have ngain great pleasure in presenting my report," but the time bad unfortunately come when it was anything but a pleasure. He said he did not want to be thought a pessimist, but in putting the facts before the members in an optimistic mood he trusted they would be stirred to action, and would aphold the standra that the distrjet had enjoyed for so many years. The numbor of practising members lasd dropped to the low level of 165 . This figure was the lowest since 1920. The number of subseribing honorary members had zeached the low frgure of eight, unparalleled since 1918. There had been lack of progress in methed ringing, and the striking nf some meetings had left mich to be desired. In foo many towers practices had been allowed to lapse, and Snnday service ringing hand suffered correspondingly. He pointed out Rule No. 1 of the associat tion: "That this association. . bave for its object the establishment, maintenance anti encouragement of service ringing in all the churches in the country. So that it was up to everyone to take interest, not oulv in one's own tower, but in all the towers
The report caused considerable stir. Mr. T. Sannders, of East Peckham, said he ' Aid not think much of the report.' as it did nat praise the district up. Mr. Richardson said that they harl praised him for lis previous 7 reports, when he had painted a goon pirture, and the thonght it was up to then to do the same mhen he told the turnth, as it was for the ultimate rood of the district.

A RINGING MASTER ELFCTPD
Mr. Lewis puit the report, together with the balance sheet, to tine meeting, and their adoption was carried.

Mr. A. Richardson was re-elected loh. secretary for the ensuing year. Messrs. E. Everest and T. Sannders were elected district representatives.
The Chaiman pointed ont the maragraph in Rule 7 , which states that a ringing master may be elected
Mr. F. Wr. Housden saia ho thonght it was very mecesary for tho district to lave a ringing master, and put forward the name of Mr E. J. Ladd.

Mr. Edwards said that the peapresentatives of the district harl for years acted in the capacity of ringing masters, and he conld not gec any advantage in making ally alteration. -The Hon. Secretary remarked that thourla this shorlal have been so, it han herrly always heen left to him to make nin the ringing at meetines. Fe thourft that a vinging master slinult have hnowledge of ofther methods hesides Gradsire and be alole to conduct other melloods.

Mr. Edwarde reforted that surely it dia not neerl a F.cminn "gadmet to organise the ringing. as it was not necessary for a ringing master to stamf in all the dollcles.
Mr. Honsten's proposition was seconded by Mr. H. J. Ford, and Mr. E. J. Laded was elentad the Master for 1938.
Mr. C. Dailly, of Brasted, was elected a moctisinar momber, linving meviongly rung the treble in a fouch of Grandsire Triples, this hemp lis first experience on eight bells

ANOTHER SPLICED SURPRISE RECORD.  SIX METHODS RUNG ON HANDBEELS.  Hertfordshire Men's Great Achievement.

The Herfordshire handbell band fave created yet another record by ringing a poal of six Spliced Surprise Major methods, Rutland haviug now bean included witir London, Cambridge, Superlative, Bristol and Ealing.
One cen only cantinue to marvel at the skill of this talented quintette, to whose all-conguerjng achievements there seems no end. 'lucir performance at the College Youths' tercentenary gathering, when they rang these siz methods in the presence of a luge audience, was a revelation of their brilliance, and everyone commented upon the speed which the ringing was done. The whole peal last Friday was accomplished at the same reat pace, only a small fraction less than 38 clanges a minute.

The average mind has difficulty in gresping what this implies. Each man puttitur two bells in their piaces for two and a quarter houre, slipping with perfect smoothness 135 tines from one method to anolher, and striling the bells at an average rate of oyer five per second! The more the ordinary ringer thinks of it the more staggering it арpeste.
Here is the composition, by the conductor, Mr. Harald Cashmore, who, let 118 add, is something of a wizated with figures as well as with landbells. His share in the performance is colossal, for wot only had ho to ring liss own pair of bells, but to call 102 bobs and the 135 clangeg of method. One of the most brilliant ringing achievements of all time.

DON'T SCRUB YOUR HANDS!

Cleanse and preserve your skin this simple way

To many people, the problem of getting the hands really clean without harming the skin is a serious one. Grease and grime, which become deeply ingrained into the pores of the skin, are extremely difficult to remove, and ordinary washing with soap or even scrubbing will fail to remove them completely. Housewives, particularly, who complain that their hands get ruined by the nature of their work, will find the preparation called DERMAFOAM, a real "godsend." DERMAFOAM just smoothes away dirt and grease without effort. It gets right down into the pores and removes every particle of grime, leaving skin beautifully supple and healthy.

Men, too-when you've finished that dirty job on the car, DERMAFOAM will quickly banish all grease and oil from your hands. It acts almost magically-working under and around the nails and into every minute crease, removing all trace of dirt in a flash.

Engineers, Painters, Car Mechanics, Printers - everyone - will welcome DERMAFOAM, the modern method of cleansing and protecting the hands.

THE PLANNING OF MEETINGS.

There is a good deal of point in the matter raised by a district secretary elsewhere in this issue, in regard to the clashing of meetings in adjoining areas. It is just the outcome of lack of consultation between neighbouring secretaries, and could-as it is in some instances-bu easily avoided. Our correspondent quotes two cases of organisations arranging meetings for the same date at towers within two or three miles of each other: On the face of it, it seems absurd, for one or both meetings must suffer, or at any rate fail to be the success they otherwise might be. Even within the ranks of a single association there are often meetings which clash, through the more or less indiscriminate way in which the district secretaries arrange these gatherings. Sometimes, of course, it is unavoidable-dates cannot be made to fit. But even allowing for this, there is far too much overlapping.

There are some secretaries who are able to adhere to one particular Saturday a month, or quarter, as the case may be, for the meetings in his district, and neighbouring secretaries who know this, if they are wise, avoid these dates when making their own arrangements. Often, however, the selection of places and dates is a haphazard affair, with no settled plan-it depends on the whim of the members at the previous meeting. In some organisations a scheme of meetings for the whole year is drawn up, largely, of course, for internal convenience, but it is a plan which works well by preventing the clashing of events which inevitably happens otherwise. Similar arrangements could, we imagine, be made without much trouble between neighbouring associations by secretaries of adjoining districts. The essential point is to take the necessary steps in good time. When, as sometimes happens, the clashing is not known until the meetings are advertised, it is, of course, too late to clange the dates; it is only by preliminary co-operation that successful results can be achieved. It is the clashing of dates more than the selection of neighbouring towers that should be avoided, for even if the towers are twenty instead of two miles apart, there may still be, in these days of easy transport, some who would be prevented from attending both meetings, although they would like to do 50 .

We suggest that in the coming year associations might with advantage not only arrange the meetings in their own areas so that there is no overlapping, but co-operate with adjoining organisations to avoid; clashing. If neighbouring secretaries would make it part of their organising efforts to get into touch, advantageous and uscful results could be obtained. After all, the associations (Continued on pago 782.)

NEW BISEOP OF LICHFIELD BECOMES PATRON.
A meeting of the North Staffs and District Association was held at Burslem on Saturday, November 13th. Thirty-six members were preaent from Barslem, Buchnall, Brown Edqe, Biddulph, Draycott, Fenton, Kidsgrave, Kingsley, Leek, Longton, Norton, Neweastle, Stoke-on-Irent and Stone.

Tea was held in the Schoohroom, where a welcome to the association was exteuded by Mr. J. Husd, in the absence of the Rector.

A vote of thanks was accorded to the Rector and ringers for the use of the bells, and also the use of a room for a committee meeting.

Four new members were elected, wiz., C. Jackson, of Newcastle, and J. Snape, S. Till and G. Houublow, of Darlaston.

A lefter was read by the secretary from the Lord Bighop of Lichfield, in which lie said: I am rlad to succeed my predecessors as patron of the North Stafiordshire Association of Change Ringers. Plense tell them how interested I am to hear of the peal rung on the ocasion of my enthronement.'

MIDDLESEX ASSOCIATION AT TWICKENHAM.

PRESIDENT ACTS AS HOST.

On Saturday, November 13th, the South and West District of the Middesex County Association and Loudon Diocesan Guild visited St. Mary's Church, Twickenham. Ringers attended from a wide-area, including places as far apart as Crayfond and Watford, while district towers sent their representatives.
Shortened evensong was conducted by the president of the associathon, the Rey. W. P. Cole-Sheaue, who is also the Vicar of St. Mary's. The lesson was read by the vice-president, Mr. J. A. Trollope, and a ferture of the service was the singing of the new ringers' hymu, ' Ruislip Bells.'
Mrs. Bradford and Mrs. Lovell, both wives of local ringers, served a tasty tea in the Parish Hall. The Yicar presided, and was supported by all the sistrict oflicers.

Two new lady members from the Ruislip band were elected.
The hon. secretary (Mr. F. W. Goodfellow) read an appeal an novel lines from Mr. P. Amos, seeking funds for the aummelation of the bells for bell! it St. Andrew's, Northampton.

Before the tower was revisited, the company were entertaned to some change ringing on handbells. The keen air ontside kept an appreciative andience in close company to the stove unti] the last possible mament! The tower-bell ringing, varied in character as nemal, ranged from rounds and Grandsire Tripleg to London Surprise Major, under the direction of the Ringing Master, Mr. E. O. S. Turner.

OXEORD DIOCESAN GUILD

BUCCESSIUL MEETING AT EUGHENDEN.
Once rfain the young and the not so young joined forces to produce a most interesting mouthly practice of the East Berks and South Bucka Branch of the Oxford Diocesan Guild. As theve are no facilities for tea nearer Hughenden than High Wycombe, it was arranged thut those who could wonld meet at Lyons and there fortify themselves for the ovening's ringing. This was done by the usual stalwarts, who then foum their way by various maans to the tower, which, by tho way, really needs a summer's day for one to appreciate the full beauty of its setting.
Touches of Grandsiro and Stedman Triples and Bob Major wero soon rung, also, the experts having arrived, Doubla Norwicli, Suporlative, Loudon, Cambridge and Bristol were likewise disposed of.

An encouraging feature of this meeting was the number of towers represented and the presence of those member of the Guild who perform such road work in scoring peals, but who, alas, alre not often seen at montily practices. It was also gratifying to welcome visitors from other societies.
An smusing interlude was caused by one, who, on discovering in the pockets oi the jacket which fitted him so well several arucles which were unfamiliar to him, begran to bestow them one by one on a more suitable owner. Ou investigatiou he was fonnd to be the rightinl owner of the jacket as well. Furdker anusement was arused later by two other jackets being twin brothers.

Flain conrses of Graudsire were made fuli use of by keen beginnerg whilst others refreshed their anemory for a course of Torkshite. This was followed by Oxford Bob Triples and Little Bob Mijor, tho novelty and musio being enjoyed by novice and expert alike. Thren leads of Kent and a well-struch bob course of Stedman Triples brought to a close a happy and onjoyable cyening.

DEATH OF OAKLEY CAPTAIN.

We regret to record the passing of another of the Winchester and Portsmouth (Basingstoke District) members in Mr. William Hunt, for many years captain of Oakley tower, and a very highly lespected member of the Guild.

He was buried at Oakley Church, the service being conducted by the Rev. Judewine, Rector and chaiman of the Basingstoke Branch. A course of Grandsire Triples was rung on haudbelis around the grovo as a token of respect by members of the Basingstoke District: Rev. H. S. Marle 1, B. Garrett 2, J. Munday 3, F. Munday 4, J. Chesterman 5, F. Kıape 6, C. Ostler 7, H. Garrett 8.

BELERY GOSSIP

The jubilee dinner of the Ohester Diocesan Guild on Saturatioy was at great success. We hope to publish a report of the proceedings in uur next issue.

A ring of five bells at Corley, Goventry, which have been restored, are to be rededicated on Sunday at $6.30 \mathrm{p} . \mathrm{m}$.

Mr. Jantes Geonge, of Birmingham, will celebrate bis $84 t h$ birthday on Baturday. Many good wishes will, we are sure, find their way to 44, Cuckno Road, Necinells, tonnorrow.
Wo once heard Mr. George say be hoped to live to be 117. Well, he's doing his best. He is still a "tough guy" at the end of a bell rope, and is hoping to celebrate lis birthay next week by taking part in several peal attempis.
The denth has occumed of My. Thomas Hoad, a respected member of the band at, Salehurst, Sussex. The funeral took place on November $18 t h$ and two days later a half-muffled peal of Grandsire Triples was rung in his memory.
A ringer, wha recently called a peal of Stedman Triples, which was his first peal as conductar, thauks us for the help lie got from the Beginners' articles on Stedman a few montlis back. 'You pointed out fnets,' he says, "which ordiuary people like myself might not have seen in ten ycar's.'
Tomorrow a peal board memorial is to be unveiled ati Mitcham Parish Church to the late Mr. J. D. Drewett, J.F., Master of the Surrey Agsociation from 1913 to his death in 1928.

He was a member of Miteham Society for over 50 years; his father was a ringer for over 50 yenrs and his eldest son for over 20 years until killed in action in the Greas War.
Two lady ringers in Australia are to be warried shortly. Miss Joan Helen Kynaston, daugliter of the Vicar of Hambledon, Hants, who has been teaching the girls at Frenshan School the ard of change ringing, is to be married at Mittagong, New South Wales, on the last day of the year.
Early in the uew year the wedding is to lake place in Melhoures of Miss Frey Shimmin, the young Australian lady who took part in the peal of Grandsire Cinques at St, Paul's Cathedral, Melbourua, on Armistice Day, 1934

A few copies of 'The linging World, containing the full zeport of the College Youths' tercentenary celebrations, may still be obtained, price 3 d. each , post free, from 'The Ringiag World' Office, Lower Pyrford Road, Woking.

THE OLDEST SOCIETY OF RINGERS.

To the Editor.
Sir,-In the recent celebration of the tercenterary of the Ancient Society of Callege Youths the claim was made that it is the oldeat society of ringers in the world. Some years ago, when a similar claim was niade, I wrote to the 'Times' and pointed out blat the 'Company of Ringers of on Blessed Virgin Mary of Lincoln' has a still older history. But as the assertion of this other claim is still repented, I would agail call attention to the facts, which are as follows:-
In the Muniment Room of the Dean and Chapter of Limcoln there are two doctments, containitit (1) the Ordinances of the Ringers, dated 1612, together with the uames of the company, beginning with Roberi Sandye, scrivener (who was Master in 1614), and (2) the Letters Patent. of the Dean and Chapler to the Company of Ringers, dated September 23 rd, 1614.
The Ringers' Chapel by the soutli-west tower of Lincoln Cathedra] has painted upon its walls, witll omamental borders, a yist of the Masters of the ringers from 1614 to 1655 , as well as the names of the company in 1634, and in 1722-25.

A reprint of these documents, and a description of the lists paintef on the walls of the Ringers' Chapel, will be found in Bradshaw and Wordsworth's "Lincoln Crathedral Statutes, III.,' pp. 603-627.
It will thus be seen that, the Lincoln Company was establighed 23 years earlier lum the Society of College Youths.
J. H. SRAWLEY, Cuancellor of Lincolm.

THE SPLICED SURPRISE•SIX' ON HANDBELLS

To the Editar
Bear Sir,-Please allow me the space to congratulate Mr. Cashmorn and his colleagues on their latest and most wonderful perfomance. I agree that it is one of the most brilliant ringing achievements of all time. As a memher of the hand that rang the first peal in six Surprise Major methods at Willesden some few years ago I can remember the thrill which oame with success-but I feel sure that there musl be a double thrill after baving rung two bells through such a peal. That the minging is good goes without saying ; it wonld be impossible to correct a bad trip with so much to think about.

That this talented hand will go on to meny more successes is the wish of the great majority of ringers, I am sure, even though the names of the methods may be taken from Bradshaw's guide, ant contain tho ridiculaus word 'Surprise'-ridiculous, perhaps only to those who have to keep Plain.
O. T. COLES.

BOURNEMOUTH'S RECAST BELLS

DEDICATION BY BISHOP OF WINCHESTER.

A Memorial Sacring Bell.

St. Peter's Church, Bournenouth, now possesses a magnificent peal of eight hells wilh tenor of 20 cwt .2 gr . 7 lb . in E. The peal has beon recast and thaed on the 'true-harmonis' system, rehung in the old frame on modern fitcings by Messts. John Taylor and Co., of Loughborough. Thus the belts liave raceived long delayed attention which has transformed them into one of the finest eights on the South Const.
When the work was first discussed about a yoar ago it was felt, in view of the precarions state of the cluncin. funds, that work of relangiug the penl alone could be considered. Even this project suffered a setback when the church finances were examined at the end of the year, but the desire to instal a Sacring bell in menory of the late Archdeacon A. E. Daldy, Vicar of St. Peter's for 16 years, brichtenell the prospects of zestoration cousiderably.
The bells were originally cast by Messrs. Taylor in 1870, and, having heard them, Mr. E. Denson Taylor strongly recommended that they should be recast. Further, he supported his recommendation with a most generous offer to bear half the cost of stch work. The Vicar, Canon Hedley Burrows, thus enconraged by practical sympatiy, launched lis appeal to the towuspeople for the balance to enable complete restoration of the town's only peal of bells to commenorate Coronation year, 1937. He received the full support of the Covonation Mayor, Alderman T. V. Rebbeck, with the happy result that Capt. F. B. Nortan came forward to complete the fund with a generous cheque for 8400 . Other sums received since that date from warious organisations have ullowe for restoration of the belfry and other necessary extra work to enshre tio completeness of the peal.

DISTRICTS WTTHOUT CHURCHFS AND BELLS.
The rederlication service took place on siatruday Iast, the Lord Bishop of Winchester (Dr. Cyril Forster Garbett) offciating and giving the address. The service was frrly choral and whe church filled to capacity. Aiter an opening hymn, 'Unchanging God who livest,' prayers were offered by the Vicar; the Rural Dean (the Rev. F. C. Learoyd) rend the lesson, and to the singing of a speciel liymn, 'Ring out new hope and love and power,' the Bishop proceeded to the west door benealh lie tower for the rededication ceremony. He was escorted by the Vicar, the churchwardens, Messrs. E. Denison Taylor, J. P. Fider and V. G. Newton. After the cercmony under the tower the procession re-formed and rethrined to the sanctuary during the singing of Walmisley's nathem, 'From all that dwell below the skies.' In the sanctuary the Bishop dedirated the Sacring bell and strick it by pressing the electric confrol. Ronnds were then rung on the tower bells by the local company of ringers.
The Bishop delivered an interesting and appropriate address on the uses of bells, saying that where, in distant lands, the Clristian faith was hated and oppressed, no bells were lieard. For another cause, he sain, bells were not leard in our contitry, on country noted for its bells. It was hecause in many newly-developed areas here were as yot no churches in which to hang the bells. He appealed to the large eongregation to support his nffort to supply the need for new churches mud halls in the diocese, n meed which was felt almost within somn nuld halls in thie diocese, nimed which was feth
During the singing of the hynnes, 'Now, thank we all our God' and - Praise the Lord, Je heaveus adore Him,' a collection was taker for the Bishop's appral. The service conelnted with the National Anthem, and whils the congregation was dispersing Mr. T. D. Chandier, Mus.Bac, T.R.C.O., played the very approptiate 'Carillon' by Vieme on the organ.
The first "touch, on the recasi hells was rung by the following members of the local conpany: Messrs, H. Osborne, R. Dear, F. Framkland Tighy. H. Rolerts. W. Garrett, C. R. Forfite, P. W. Witham athd A . $\mathbf{V}$. Davis. Thea was then served at the Alesandra Hall, albont 250 guests sitting down.

GENTROUS DONORS.

In a short sjeech, the Depaty Mayor, Alderman T. V. Relbheck, outhined the luunching of the zppeal and the success it met with, thanking the donors, particulanty Capt. H. B. Norton and Mr. E. Denison Tavlor, for their senerosity, which resulted in the Parisli Clurch of Bonrmemouth possessing such a marnificeut peal of bells.
The Fiear addressed the gatherng in his usunl cheery manner and explained the inscriptions lie had had placed on the bells. He conoluded by thanking the captain of the loenl company, M1: Arilhur $V$. Davis, for lins nssistance in all matters pertaining to the work.
Mr: Davis responded on behaff of the yingers, saying that he knew his colleagues of St. Peter's tower felt that, their duty now lav perfectly clearly before them, to keep the bells of Bournemouth's Parish Church well and regularly rung.
Ringers unnbering rbout 80 were present from all parls of two counties of Hants rind Dorset, and the bells were kept going unti] 8.30 to Grandsire and Sledman Triples, Plain Bob ancl Kent Treble Bob Mnjor. Cambridqe, Sıperlative auta London Surprise, the striking being of high order throughout.

Arong those present were Mr. G. Williams (Master of the Winchester ant Portsmonth Guild), the Rev. R. F. Dundry (Master of the Galipbury Diocesan Guild), Mr. W. Andrews, Mr. C. Preston. Mr. A. F. Martin Stewart, the Rey. Eddrupp nnd the Rev. E. A. Phillips (Continued in next colunna.)

PEAL NOTES.  PARAGRAPHS ABOUT PEOPLE AND PERFORNANCES.  Peal in Six Surprise Methods.

Mr. Alfred Ballard rang his aftieth peal of Stedman on November 13 th at Fugglescota.

Messrs. C. V. Ebberson and R. W. Cooke 'completed the circle together at Fakenham, Narlok, wheu they took part in a peal of Kent Treble Bob arranged by Mr. Nolan Golden for Mr. Pat Catimon, It was the $75 h$ tower in which the latter has rung a peal and he has not rung many nore peals than that. Fresh towers ate his hobby.
After meeting short for a peal of Major at St. Stephen's Church, Canterbury, on November 15th, a peal of Minor in three methods was rung. Mr. R. G. Port kindy standing down. The peal was a birthday compliment to the Rector (the Rev. A. R. Barnes), who is an honorary member of the Kent Colnty Association, and in honour of the 22 md auniversary of the wedding of Mr. and Mrs. F. Wilsov.
The ringers of Hartlebury, Worcs., rang a peal at Clifton-on-Feme on Oct. Slst, and it was the hisst peal by five out of the six ringers. Hartleburs is jsolated from activa ringing centres in Worcestershire, but it is grabifying to know that this band is keeping change riuging going in a very diffenlt district. The success ecnieved in this peal should lead to increased enthusiasm.
A paal of Erith Little Boh Major figured on the Friday menu at Crayford last week. The method had been rugg there before, but thero were five 'firsts' on this occasion. The coniposition was by the late Sir Arthur Feywood, but he probably did rot know that such a method existed when he set down the figures.
Their' Majesty's visit to St. Paul's Walden, Herts, where the Queen was botr, was celchrated by the first peal on the five bells ai AII Saints' Chureh on November 13th, when their Majesties were present at the dedication of the organ.

LADIES RTNG ANOTHER PEAL

Another peal to colebrate the silver jubilee of the Ladies' Guild was rung on Saturday, at Harrow Weald. Eight ladies rang a peal of Kent Treble Bob Mrajor, the first in the methad for the Guild and, would You believe it? the first peai in the method which Mrs. E. K. Fleteler has conducted.
Mr . Janes E. Bailey called his first peal of Stedman, at the first atbempt, at Holy rrinity, llartford, on Novemher 16 th, and his wife, at the same time, rang her first peal in the mathod. Mr. G. J. Butcher rang the 3rd and thus' completed the circle io this tower. The peat was a birthilay compliment to the Viear (Canon C. Flliot Mitchell)

Another birthday peal by members of the Kent Association was rung 01 November 20th. This was for the 75th birthday of Mr. Richard Smith, who rang tive second to a peal of Cambridge Surprise Major at Gravesent.
The Norwich Diocesan Associalion has just rumg its first peal of Norwich Court Bols Major, at Alburgla on November 20th.
There has heen in 'hoodon' on the attempts which Mr. Reg Woodyatt, of the Worcestershire Association, has made to call his first peal. Fvery try for firandsire came to grief. Last Saturday at Claines he tricd Oxford Bob Triples to break the spell and got it the Brst time.

Messers. Sam Longbottom and Farold Ponce finished "the circle' at Quensbury, Forkshire, on Saturday, when they took part in a peal of Grandsing Triples as a farewell to the Rev. P. E. Handley. It was Mr. Longhottom's first penl of Grandsire, too, and three others of the bank scored their first in the method.
Seven aut of the eight ringers at Fitwmarsla on Saturdny rang their first peal of Purisey Surprise Major nant that after "meeting short.' Fortanntmly Mr. F. Pickering was abie to stand in and rang the treble.

The hells at West Glandon, Surrey, were angmented to eight in 1932 , hot the first peal on the octave was not rung until last Satirday. At one time Clandon was a Winchester Guild stronghold of six-hell ringing, lun just before the war the tower was devastated by fire, then came the war and oniy two peals of Minor were rung afterwards.
Satirday's peal was runt on the twelfth anniveracy of Mr. G. L. Grover's wedding. George lias put in a lot of work at West Clandon, as well as heing the districe secretary of the Guildford Diocesan Guid The mellhd ramg was Grandsire Triples, and, by a coincideace, it was 40 yearg almost to the day since the conductor (Mr. J. S. Goldsmithy fitsf called the same conposition-Parker's Twelve-Part.

The peal of New Cambridge Surprise Major rung at Coddenham on Novemher $20 t 1$ makes the eighth peal that Mr. C. Fi. Sedpley liss rung there in eirlit difereat methads, a somewhat rare performance.

A correspondent sats he belieyes we were wrong in assuming the letters 'P.G.' after Miss Bowyer's mame oll a recent occasion meant 'Paal Grabher." He thinks they really meant 'Pint Gug,' someone not fmowing how to spell "jug.

Believed to be the first meal of Stedman by a band of Sumday service ringers in the Rochdale Branch of the Laveashire Assoniation, a peal in this'method was rumg at Moarside, Oldham, on Novemher 81 h . The hells were half-muffled is a tolsen of resnect to the late Mr. J. H. Dunkerley. J.P., for more than 35 years Vicar's warden.
Megars. Frank Tawton and Joe Ogrten linve now ring peals in the Cour standard methods on Morside bells with a Sunday service ringing hand. That is sometling to be proud of.

In connection with the peal of Stedman Ginques at Leeds on Satur day, it is worthy of note thal the aggregate mileage travelled by the band was over 1,500 . Messrs. W. Woodhead and W. H. Barber, of Newerstle-on-IYne and Leeds respectively, ravg together in a peal of Stedman Cinques at Birmingham more tham 40 years ygo. Mr. A. Paddon Snith was elected in member of the Yorkshire Association during the preliminary raunds. The peal was, ineidentally, flae first occasion on which the conductor thed called a bob ou 12 bells.
A peal of Bob and Grandsire Minor on November 5 th was rumg by members of Cassington Belingers' Club. Belringera' chiss are seldom heard of ; in fact, the only other one we know of is at Baliarat Anstiralia, but there the members are not attached to any church, but ing the bells at the City Hall.
On the question of 'local' Collgge Youths' peals, Mr. R. T. Hibbert seuds us the further information that from 1900 to 1905 the Caversham band rang upwards of 30 peals for the old society, mostly Joondon, Gambridge and Superlative Surprise, but including five peals of Stedman Triples, also Donble Norwich, Kent Treble Bob, Bob Major and Grandsire Triples. That definitely puts out of court any later claizn to the first ' local ' peal of Stedman Sriples for the society.

We are, however, now informed that the claim of the Cheltenham ringers was to the firsto peal of Stedman Triples rung in the Cheltentam district by resident members of the Ancient Society. That ons not made clear in the original report.
AN AUSTRALTAN ECHO.

For the first time for eleven years a peal las been rung at Guildford Cathedral by a Sunday service batud. Time was when sumh a per formance was of frequent accurreace, but the vagaries of fortune bave prevented it since 1926. The peal was rung ou November 16 th.
Mr. Alfred Pulling has now got the company going agniu on a peal ringing basis, and it probably will wat be long before they get away fromz Grandsire Triples.
There were three frst peals, and it is not uninteresting lo note that in one case the Anstralian tour is responsible. Mr. T. W. White, who kindly madertook part of the editorial duties of "The Ringing World while the Editor was away, and knew nothing of the terhnicalities of ringing when he took over the responsibilities, had his interegt in the art so much stirred that he had learned to handle a bell at Foly Trinity Cathedral before the Editor returned.
Messrs. Urbnal W. Wildney and Alan And'ewg rang their twenty. fifth peal together on Novernber sth at Kirby-lesoken.
A peal of Doubles was ring at Marlesford, Suffolk, on Navember 9th, the first on the belln for over 30 yenss. It was ring by a band of local Sundry service ringers, which makes it all the more cieditnhle.

A peal of Danble Norwich was ring at Borcham, Esaes, oll Nov 13 th, specially arcanged for a sale of work and social, held at the Wil lage Fall. Four of the band rang selections on handbells at the social Four hachelors and twa spinetrors took part in a specially arrenged peal of Minor at Hintlesham, Suffols, on Novenber 15th.

FERTS RTNGERS REPEAT GREAT PERFORMANCT.

Yetanother Spliced Surprise Major, peal on handbells in six methots! Last Fridey at Oxhey the Hertfordshire band scored a further sucuess in the same methods that they rang a weele previously, and this time, Iwo minntes quicker. By the way, the earlier peal was rung on Friday, November 12th, not Sinturdny as printed.
They added another to the new methods ring on tower hells at Oxhef on Saturday, a peal of Eastbury Suprise, composed by Harold Cashmore and rung withont previous prastice. It was Mr". Manrieg Tibhert's 2sith peal, and the 50th peal together of Messrs. S. H. Honre and W. Apre.
Only one of the eight ringers who took part in a peal of St. Clement's Bob Major at-Swineshead, Lincs, on November 13ti, hat ever struck a blow in the wethod before. For the purposes of the Central Coluncil's Analysis Committee, however, this information conveyed in the footnote to the peal. doce not mako it cloar whether there were seven or eirht firstg in the method in this performance. It is a bittle noint on which correspondents should he precise,
A peal at St, Stephen's. St. Albans, on November $13 t h$, wns Mr , Walter Avre's 450th. He lias now called a peal in each of the four towers in St. Albans, and wishes this last peal to he associated with the memory of the late Jolin Malyan, for mavy years captain of St. Steohen's ringers
The six bells of Barnby-in-the-Willowe, Notts, have a tenor of ouly $6 \frac{1}{6}$ cwt. A peal was ming ou them on Armistice Day ing 2 hour 23 minntes-the auickest on the bells, Mr. R. H. M. Harvey, who celled the peal, has now 'circled' tho tower'.
An attempt fo ring a neal of Grandsire Caters at Mnnchocter Cathedral on November 13th to commemarate the birthday of Mr W. C. ## THE CLASHING OF MEETINGS.

To the Editor.
Dear' Sir,-While perusing the notice columns of "The Ringing World, on several occasions in the past, I have observed advertisements of meetings to be held on the same day ab towers which are within ten miles or less of each other. Apart from the fact that these meetings have siven me and other ringers an opportunity of ringing in two fresh towers on one afternoon, I have always failed to see the advantage to the districts themselves,

But within the last two weeks even more extraordinary arrangements have been advertised. On November 13 th a Ladies' Guild meeting was held at Isleworth, auk a Middesex (South and Wesc District) meeling was hold at Twickenham. These towers are not two miles npart! I was hoping that this was just an isolated case and would not occu: again, but was much surprised to see advertised in last Friday's issue a meeting of the Surrey Astocfation at Betchworth, aud a meeting of che Guildiord Guild at Dorking. Again these towers wre only threg miles apart!

Will eomeone please explain the beneft to the cause of ohange rinting which these avoidable clashes offer? It has always seemen to me that the idea of any meting was to enable the ringerg in the neighbourhood to meet together socially, and practise what they are unable to riug in their local towers. Perhape there is some other reason which I have not learnt yet. If so, I shall be most interested to know more about it, to assist me in my secretarial duties. Incidentally, as becretary of the Southern District of bie Luoudon Cannty Association, I slall always be pleased to co-operate with my neighbouring officials regarding dates of proposed meetings, and wonld buggest that this takes place in other parts of the country.

To anyone who can kindly answer my question, I would say, 'Please don't advance the old story, "Oh, the dates were fixed months ago, and the Vicar gave permission for that date, and we don't like to alter it." There are very few clergy, I ame sure, who would not also co-operate with the secretary, if matters were explained to them. Trusting that the respective secretaries of the above mentioned associations will forgive my commenting on their arrangements.

THE HONESTY OF CONDUCTORS.

To the EDitor.

sir, - 1 would like to trespass on your space in reply to Mr. J. K. Armstrong's letter in your jesme of Nov. 5th.
He says ' peals need not be true, the conduclor only lang to think they are, and with this there can be litile argument, but does not this statement cast a very grave reflection on the honesty of composers, which is, I think, mmerited?

Many men have given considerable time and thought to the problems of composition and the percentage of errors is very small.

His illustration that 'anyone can string bobs and singles together' to get a desired length and ring and re-ring it is, in my opinion, very far from the truth, as no ringer worthy of the name who entered into the realms of composition wonld allow his neme to foot a peal if he were not entirely satisfied that the composition was true. New composerg usually go to considerable leugths to make sure their compositions are true before circulating them, as they realise that one false peal at the ontset of their composing career will take years of herd work to live down and to regain the confidence of ringers.
The solutions he proposes are exellent, but, I think, unnecessary, for just as we have to rely on the intergity of the condurefor to call the peal correctly, sa must we rely on the integrity of the compeser to furnisla true figures. Conductors will readily supply the figures of eny peal they have called so that, if noy donbt were entertained as to the truth of a certain peal, that doubt could be set at rest by merely asking for the figures and having them proved.
The basis of the Exercise through the centuries has been truth, and it is a sorry thing for us to adnat that we crmot trust our fellowringers to maintain this tradition. An examination of the peal records will show that the percentage of peals withdrawn is very small when compared with the number of peals rung, the majority of which are entirely above suspicion.
The Central Council can, I am sure, find better ways of employing its finauces than to subsidise a composition revision committee, whinh, after all, interests only a very few ringers, and which would perforce be comprised of composers, and if there is, as might be essumed from Mr. Armstrong's letter, wholesale dishonesty amongst composers, then this committee wauld be useless.
In conclusion, I wonld advise him not to waste the Conncil's time with this matter and to trust his felow-ringers more. $C$. KENNETH LEWIS.

「GREAT YARMOUTH RINGER'S SILVER WEDDING.

On Satmiday, Novemher 6th, in honour of the silver wedding anitversary of Mr. Ferbert Jermy, towerkeeper of St. Nicholas' Ohurch, Yarmouth, 1.440 Cambridge Surprise Royal: J. G. W. Havwood 1, R. William Barber 2, N. Golden (conductor) 3, G. Mayers 4. R. W. Onson 5, F. G. Bennett 6, A. G. King 7, O. F. Sayer 8, F. Toake 9, W. Glover 10 .

GUILDFORD DIOCESAN GUILD

MEMBERS' RESPONSE TO DISTRIGT SEGRETARY.
A very successful meeting of the Guildford Distirict of the Guildiond Diocesan Guild was held ou Nov. I3th ati Shalford, where hast year the old six bells were recast into a very tuneful ring of eight ly Taylor and Co. Nearly 60 ringers were present. Whotler it was the attraction of the bells or the "pricking of conscience" after tile district semetary's pertinent jnquiry addressed to the members in his notice,
What bave you done for the Guild this year P' cannol be definitely stated-perhaps it was a litule of both-but the fact remains it was an unusually well-attended meeting, and nearly everybody saw tho secretary's joke and 'sent a postcard' to say thev were coming to ten.
Altogetleer it was a very happy gathering, despite a cold chureh (because the bailer had burst) and a cold loom (because there wasn't a boiler at all). But there was a warm welcome (rom the Viens, the Rev. W. Tobias, formerly an Army chaplain, who is not afraid of plan talking or makiag his congregation smile, and who is a great believor in cheerfuiness in life aud in religion. He paid a tribute to his own ringers, not only for their services in the belfry, but in the life of the chrirch is other ways.
At the business meeting, over which the Vicar presitled, the sistrict officers were all denominated. The district secretary was rendy to make way for 'anyone who would tale on the job,' lor, be reminded the meeting, he had done bine years. "Make it ten," said gomeote, and the secretary said it was that more than anything which would induce him to stand again. And so it was that Mr. G. I. Grover wrs renominated. Mr. C. Emest Smith was reneminated as Ringing Master, aud Mr. A. C. Hazelden as auditor.
Four nomilations were received for two vacancies on the Executive Committee.
The Vicar was elected, amid applane, as an honorary membor, and Mi. A. J. Brooker (Gadalming) a vingily member.

Bramley and Wonersh, Pirloright, Old Woking and Godalming were recommended for next jear's district meetings, and the proceedings terminated with the customary rote of thauks, moverl by the Master of the Guild (Major J. H. B. Hease).
Ringers were present from Guildford (two towers), Godnlming, Haslemere, Ewhurst, Shalford, Worplesdon, Pirbright, Woking, West Glandon nnd Cranleigh, in the district, and Ash, Aldersiow, Leatherhead, Chertsey, Hagshot and Portsea.

BATH RINGER'S DEATH

MR. ALEX EYANS WORK IN THE WFEST.
It is with deep regreb we linve to record the death of Mr. Alex Emata at Bath on Octolier 28th after an illness lasting 14 months. Mr. Fyans learnt his ringing in the Taunton district, being a nember of the St. James' band, umder the conductorship of Mr. J. Maddock. Ringing many of lis peals there, he conducted his first of Stedman Triples.
Fe resided for a fow years at Chippenham, Wilts, where le langht a band of young uwen to ring Grandsire Triples and condmeted their first peal. Moving to Exeter, he joined the Cathedral band nnd rant in the first peal of Grandsire Gaters on the bells by that company. His omployment then took him to Burnhmon Sea, Somorset, whero ho again worked very hard for rinping aud the Axhridse Deanery of the Bath and Wells Association, filing the post of local secretary for a. period.

About five years ago Mr. and Mrs. Evans (whom he also tanght to ring) went to reside in Bath to be near their Eriends. A hearty waloome was extended to them, and they were electer members of the Bath Abhey fompany. Mr. Evass quickly sel himself the task of learning Surprise ringing and soon rang peals in it.

He was an enthusiastic Sunday service ringer, alowys yeliable and pincturl. He loved good ringing and disliked bad striking. Fis total pumber of peals was nearly 100 . his last, a peal of Stedman Triples, bis favourite method, in Juty, 1936.
The funeral took place on November 2nd nt St, John's, Bathwick, All the towers in the Bath District were represented together, att among those ulso present were Messrs. W. Court (Burnlam-onSSa), J. T. Dyke (hon. secretary, Bath and Wells Association), W. A. Cave (Bristol), G. Fector, G. F. Hardiug and E. Parker (Trowhridge), and F. Targett (Clilcompton).
$A$ conrse of Grandsire Triples was rung over the grave ly W. J. Prescotl, J. T. Dyke, G. F. Harding and T. F, King.
In the evening malled ringiug on the bells of Batil Abbey and St. Mark, Lyncombe, took place.

WROXETER'S UNMUSICAL RING

The Shropshire Associntion paid their first wisit for some years to Wroxeter on October 30 th. Tt must be admitted that the hells are not very attractive, the first five being fairly tumeabla. but the tonor, when used, upset all notious of music and nlmosl defeated attempts to ring Minor. Individually the bells are tumeful, but the intervala are not correct.
Grandsire, Stedman and St, Simon's Doubles were rung and Plain Bolu and Kent Minor. A short service in the ancient clanch was conducted by the Rev. H. Hobbs, who afterwards presided at the tea and business meeting.

NO CHANGE RINGING FOR 100 YEARS.

DEDICATION OF NEW IFELLS AT RANWORTH, NORFOLK. In honour of the fallen, the cross of si. George flew at half-nast on the Church of St. Heleu, Ranworth, ou Remembrance Sunday, when the five vecast bells and an additional new treble were dedicated hy the Bishop of Norwich. In adrlition to the large mumber of parishioners, various cyeling clube of the district paid their anumal visit for divine service, and so large was the congregation that extra seating was necessary. Members of Yarmoith and Gorleston Wheclers, Fast Anglian Cycle Club, C.T.C. Norwich Cycle Clubs, hikers nud motor elnbs attended. The Rev. E. D. Everard (Vicar) was assisted by the former Yitar (Canan H. I, Einaght, of Lowestoft). The thells have not been rung in changes for aver 100 years, as fonr of the five had pieces broken out of them. The work of rehanging in a new teak frame and modern fitings las been excellently carried out by Mr. Alfred Bowell, of Jpswich, of which tomn the Vient is n native.
The restoration of the tower and lyells has cost $£ 040$, of which, thazks to the energy of tha Vicar aud the large number of summer visitors to the Norfolk Broads, only a small debt remuius. It is worthy of note that during the past 40 years $£ 10,000$ has been spent in restorations to the charch.
During the absence of the bells a lyand of sever men and ladies have heen learning to ring at the neighbouring towers of Reenham and South Walsham, and progressed so far that they were able to ring for the firsi time for the dedieation service
After service the bells were rung by ringers from Wroxham, hilharton and Acle.
Following encusang, tho firsb 720 of Ploin Bob was scored by visitors: Emest Benton 1, Miss W. E. Ditcham 2, Miss D. Ditelam 3, C. Bird 4 , R. Barher 5, G. Bailey (Wroxham) (endutetor) 6. The weight of the tenor is 12 cw . in Fo, and the Bronds district has now another handy cing. It is hoped that ringers will make good use of them and help the tocal hand

A DORSET BELL RESTORATION.

REDEDICATION OF THE BELLS AT TOLLER PORCORUM The delightinl and guantly mamed Dorseb rillage of Toiler Porcornm was the scene of considerable activily on the evening of November 1st, when the rededication of the bells was perforaed by the Rev. Lindsay Hartlett, $I_{1}$ Th., Rural Dean of Bridport.
The four lyelts, with a tenor of just under 9 cwt., have been carefully tumed and relnag with modern fidtings in a cast iron frame, the ernmons heing preserved by the use of spemally designed jron hendstacks. The framework has been provided to accommodate two trebles, as it is haped before long to complete the ring of six.
A large congragation assembled and the service was condicted by the Vicar, the Rov. R. H. White.

Afler the dedication the Rural Dean prenched a thoughfful and interesting sermon, in which he urged n! ringers to remember that the real prupose of the bells wan to call people to the service of the clumel.

Other clergy preseut were the Rev. A. B. Hutton, of Bridport, the Rev. R. F. Farrow M.A., Wien of East hatworth, the Rev. E. S. Waruer, Rector of Rumpishour, and the Rev, R. B. H. Kay, B.A., curate of Bridport.

The lolls, whioh had been silent for 18 years, were oponed by the Maiden Newton band of ritgers. A namber if ringers from other towers also had a pull, athall expressed their appreciation of the excellent 'go' of the restored ming.
The woll has been adnatably catried out by Messrs. Cillet aud Johnston, of Croydon, whe were represented at tho service lyy Mr. Fi. C. W. Stevenson.

A'VICARAGE JUBILEE BELL

AN AUGMENTED BUCKS RING

In the little village of Langley Marish, Bucks, about two miles from Slough, old, heavy and tuneless five bells hate just been retined and rehung in ball beariogs, with the addition of a pew treble, the new bell behg known as 'The Vicarage Jubilee Bell.' It was given by the Vicar of Langley (the Rev. F. T. F. Sliepherd, M.A.) and his fawily to celebrate his $25 t h$ pear as incumbent of the parish. The Vicar, by the way, is brother of the well-known ringer, Mr. James FI, Shopherd, of Swindon.
The hells now make a very pleasing ring of six, with a tenor of about 18 cwt., and cerminly do credit to Messrs. Mears and stambant, who were entrusted with the work.
On Novemluer 1st (All Saints' Day) the St. Peter's Society, Burnhama, were invited to send a baud, which thoy did, aud rang the first 720 on the bells, the method being Oxford Treble Bob, which was thoronglily enjoyed by all.

After the ringing, the Vicar visited the tawer and tlanked and congrabulated the ringers on what he had heari. Those taking part were Johm E. Taylor (age 16), 1 Cyri1 A. Burgess (age 19) 2. Peter A. Blamey (age 17) 3, Mattin A. Blaniey (age 16) 4, Bryan O'Neill (age 16) 5. Gcorce Giliert (conductor) 6. Touches were also rung of Kent, St. Clement's, Canterbury, Single Oxford and Bob Minor, Steriman, Granäsire, Union aud Reverse Canterbury Daubles. Altogether n very enjoyable evening was spent, and the fondation has been laid for the locat men to take up change ringing.

DON'T SCRUB YOUR HANDS!

Cleanse and preserve your skin this simple way

To many people, the problen of getting the hands really clean without harming the skin is a serious one. Grease and grime, which become deeply ingrained into the pores of the skin, are extremely difficult to remove, and ordinary washing with soap or even scrubbing will fail to remove thern completely. Housewives, particularly, who complain that their hands get ruined by the nature of their work, will find the preparation called DERMAFOAM, a real "godsend." DERMAFOAM just smoothes away dirt and grease without effort. It gets right down into the pores and removes every particle of grime, leaving skin beautifully supple and healthy.

Men, too-when you've finished that dirty job on the car, DERMAFOAM will quickly banish all grease and oil from your hands. It acts almost magically-working under and around the nails and into every minute crease, removing all trace of dirt in a flash.

Engineers, Painters, Car Mechanics, Printers - everyone - will welcome DERMAFOAM, the modern method of cleansing and protecting the hands.

A STANDARD FOR GOOD STRIKING

What is good striking? That is the challenging question raised by a correspondent in a letter this week. There is no fixed standard by which it can be judged; it is something which good ringers recognise but whose limits they could scarcely define. And yet there is nothing in ringing to which more importance should be attached. One thing is certain, there are far too many rilugers who are content with a standard of stritking much below the best, although only the best should be their aim, first because only the best is worthy of the purpose for which bells are mainly rung; secondly, because there may be hundreds. of listeners whose cars are entitled to consideration. And this takes no account of the added pleasure which accrues to the ringers themselves when the ringing runs smoothly and with unbroken rhythm.

Is there a practical means of measuring that very rare achievement, the 'perfect ' touch or peal, by which perhaps a standard might be set? We think the Exercise has been brought very near to it in the recently made gramophone record of Spliced Surprise Major on handbells. It cannot be applied exactly to tower bell ringing, because the two things are not quite the same, but, of its kind, the ringing is the most perfect that anyone could hope to hear. If an equally perfect piece of tower bellringing could be recorded, there would then be a permanent example of the standard which every ringer should seek to achieve. No one for a moment expects that ringing generally would rise to such a level, any more than one expects an equal level of achievement in any other direction in which the human element enters. But when the question was asked, 'What is good striking?' we could turn on the record and say, 'Listen to this!' At present varying 'grades' of ringers have differing standards of what they would recognise as - good' striking-we are not referring to those, and unfortunately there are some, who have no standard at all and who are content with their work, whatever noise the bells are making. We are thinking rather of those 'medism' ringers who put varying values on striking, because they have been educated, in the ringing sense, only up to a limited level. These are the people who would benefit in their performances, if something could be done to show them in a practical way what is possible.

We are sometimes told that the advance of method ringing has brought with it a general lowering of the standard of striking. In some respects this may possibly be true, although it is a generalisation which is open to question. But the most competent companies ringing the more advanced methods to-day are, we are certain, (Contibued on page 798.)

equally as good in their striking as the best bands ringing the simpler methods were forty or fifty years ago. These men know what good striking is ; but the skill by which they accomplisil it cannot easily be conveyed to others. It is achieved by a co-ordination of hand and ear and cye, and the man who cannot co-ordinate them instinctively may spend a lifetime in ringing without realising that he is not a good striker. His standard of good ringing is, therefore, bound to be lower than the best, and it is because of this that any kind of agreement on what should be regarded as a minimum for good striking is almost impossible.

MIDDLESEX COUNTY ASSOCIATION

A USEFUH NORTH AND EASI DISTRICT MEETINE．
The meeting held at All Hallows＇Tottenham，on Saturday，Novem ber 20th，by the North and East District of the Middlesex Association was by no means overcrowded，not more than 30 ringers putting in an appearance during the alternoon aud evening．Quite a wumber of those present，howewer，were leamers in the strictest sease of the word，consequentiy＇rounds＇became the special method for the day， and much good work was done in coaching these young men，some for the fivat time with bells open．
A shord and enjoyable serwiee was held，with an aduress by the Rev Fenwood，after which tea，and the usual business meeting took place． At the latter，the chair was taken by Mr．T．J．Lock（District Mastar），the hon．secretary（Mr．C．T．Cales）explaining that the absence of the vice－president was due to his being away at Great Yarmouth on husiness．
It was amonnced that the district amaal meefing would be held at St．Giles－in－the－Fields on January 29 th ．
A cordial welcome was wiven to the several young ringers present， from various towers，including St．Ann＇s，Stamford Hill ；St．Michael＇s， Wood Green；St．Mark＇s，Dalston；and All Hallows＇，Tottenlam．The lon．secretary urged them to get as much practice as possible by attending association meetings，and promised them a welcome at any timae．

Fotes of thanks were accarded to the Vigar（the Rev．F．Denton Jones）for the use of the bells；to the Rev．Henwood for his address； and to Mr．H．W．H．Strickland and Mr．F．E．Platt for their joint efforts as organists．The hon．secretary said that Mr．Platt was learning to whag at，Dalston，and on this nccasion they were fortunate to have two capable orgauists，whereas at some meetings they had to sing byrms unaccompanied．

After the meeting the bells were again jung，rounds being much in evidence，besides Edmonton Bob Major，the real special method for the day，Bristol Surprise，Cambridge Surprise and other methods．

HALESOWEN BELLS

DEDIGATION OF PEAL BOARD
Ou Sunday，November 14th，at All Sainto＇Church，Steop，uear Petersfeld，Hents，the Vicar，the Rev．N．M．Livingstone，D．O．L．， M．A．，LL．B．，dedicated an oak board recording \＆peal，the first in which any local ringers lave taken part，$A$ company of ringeng and friends gathered in tho belfir at 3.30 p．m．，aud Mr，W．Higgins （captain of ringers），in a few words of introduction，described the efforts made to felieve their ultimate success，
＇lhe hoard was then uaveiled by iniss Pothecary，herself a local ringer，and slie congratulated the band who took part，saying that she hoped to sec ber own game on the next peal tablet erected in the tower．
The board is of light oak with the record in black lettering
The peal was in three methods of Doubles，viz．，Canterbury Pleasure， Plain Boh and Grandsire，and was rung by A，E．Warren，G．M． Hunt，Miss A．M．Robertson，W．Higgins and O．E．Bassett（con－ ductor）．It was the firsb peal on the hells by local mingers and a birthary compliment to My，J．Knight，for 50 years a service ringer at Steep Clumsh．The ringers of the treble and third scored their first peal．

The Vicas offered prayers of dedicabion and congratulated the havel who theu rang 120 Grandsive Doubles in tho peal positions，Other short touches were succesefully brought round，Mr．J．Knight taking part．

SUSSEX COUNTY ASSOCIATION．

A very successful meeting of the Jasfern Division was held at Brede on Saturday，November 6th．A goad number of members atiended from Battle，Hastings（St．Clement＇s，AlI Saints＇and Christ Chirch Blacklands），Fsilsham，Eastbourne（St．Saviour＇s），Hawklursi，Mr． W．Pickworth，of Hastings，together witly nembers of the local band． Owing to the absence of the Vicar there was no service．
Eacellent practice was held both in the afternoon and evening in Treble Bob，Plain Bob，efc．，and several members rang their first touches in the methon．

An excellent tea was provided in the Church Room，and Mr．W． Franks occupied the chair at the busisess meeling，at which the follow－ ing members were elected ：F．M．Gibbs，Brede，and W．H．Dartnell， of Cast Peckham，Kent，as a non－residert life member．

A vote of thanks was proposed by the hon．secretary，Mr．A．C． Pankhurst，to the Viear for the use of the bells，and to Mra．McCall for waking arraggements for the meeting－

The record performances at Cheltenlam, recalled by the tablet just unvelled conmemorating Mr. W. T. Pates' services to that church, is a reminder of the rivalry that weat on in the late 'eighties of last century between Cheltenham and Appleton.

Appleton, 12,041 Stedman Caters, February 5th, 1888; Chelteabam, 13,054 Sitedman Caters, March 21si, 1888; Appleton, 15,041 Stedman Caters, Decerober 316t, 1888.

Appleion, 13,265 Graudgire Cabers, April 11th, 1888; Clueltenham, 15,227 Grandsire Caters, April 22nd, 1889.
Incidentally mext Wednesday is the anniversary of the previous record of Stedman Caters, the 'five ones' (11,111) at Fulham in 1883. Messes. C. F. Winney and F. E. Dawe are the only survivors of that peal rung 54 years ago.
Their ringing friends will join in congratulating Mr. and Mrs. R. C. H. Connolly, of Watford, on the birth of a daughter. Mrs. Connolly learned to ring at Wollaston (Stourbridge) and rang her first peal there. Until recently Mr. Connolly was a member of the Nortla Stamelam band.

' GOOD STRIKING.

To the Fditor

Doar Sir, For some time now your columns have contained many references to the value of good striking, and I bave often wondered what is 'good striking'? I mean, what is the standard to aim at? I know what perfect ringing is. I have heard very, very little, and have rung. I think, in none. Twenty-five jears' experience has taught me to do certrin things, but I place myself within the "medium-topoor ' class of striker. And I ask myself: How many are there, whose striking is no better than mine, who are unable to realisa their limitation? Dozens and dozens-I have 'stood behind' and listened, with a pair of 'fair' ears.
What, ther, passes for good striking? In his many criticisms, the president of the Council and Master of the Coltege Youths, Mr. E. H. Lewis, has fayed us alive, and, for my personal satisfaction only, I hope, one dity, unknown to 'stand behind' bim! But, in the mearwime, I wonder if he would tell us whether the Caters from St. Clement Danes, in the recent brondeast 'Bellg over London,' should be considered 'perfect,' 'indifferent,' or merely 'good striking '? In such a case it sliould, of caurse, be 'perfect,' but I should be most interested to see it defined by the Master of the society.

GEORGE L. JOYCE.

WHAT CONSTITUTES A :LOCAL' PEAL ?  A VILLAGE PRORLEM.  To the Editor.

Dear Sir,-I wonder if you or any of your readers could help us to solve a little trouble arising out of e peal we contemplate ringing in the near fature. Fere is the argument: Ringer $A$ is a ringer residing in this parish, but is a member of a neighbouring ringing band. Ringer $B$ is a member of the local band, but resides in another parish. Ringer in is member of the facal band, but resides in another parish. local peal? Should we subskilute ringer $B$ for ringer A, would this still be called a local peal? What does constitute a local peal? I russt confess this friendly debate on the pros and cons of a local peal has caused a lot of deep thinking on the part of the ringers of this parislı.

VILLAGE RINGER.'

THE LEADER AND THE LEARNER.

To the Editor.
Sir, -I have been interested in reading the leiters on teaching and keeping beginners. Your leader of November 19th, together with the note in 'Belfy Gossip" relative to the action of the ringers at Knaresborough, Yorkshire, also provides interesting reading where the question of mantaining the personnel of the belfry is concerned. All three of these subjects have, more or less, a connecting link.
In the first instance, the cause of many a beginner losing heart is due to a leader who has not the patience to take part in simpler mathods for the benefit of his learner. No ringer who puta the art before self shonld be too proud to ting any method or any number of bells. There is one feature at meetings which reminds me of the fable of the stork dining with the wolf, where neither animal could get on with the other's crockery. Ringers from cight-bell towers are often dissatisfied if the mecting is at a five-bell tower, and ringers of Doubles feel rather out of it if they vigit a tower where they are expected to ring Stedman Triples or stand down.

Until all ringers are prepared to ring any bell or method, and with any other ringers, this stave of affairs will ever remain the same.

I admire the Kaaresborough ringers for the stand they have taken and consider that they have acted in the right manner. Too many people in these days seem to think they can treat ringing as something we are paid for doing. Hard and fast rules are not practicable in voluntary work of any kind.
Stringent ideas are generally the work of people who love to think themselves important. They are calculated to do more harm than good, and usually they are the first to 'grouse' if thore is a falling of ne tularnet.

SURREY ASSOCIATION

MEMORIAL TO THE LATE MR. J. D. DREWETT.  Tributes to Former Master.

On Saturday the Surey Association honoured the memory of a Cormer Master, the late Mr. James Douglus Dreweti, of Mitoham, where there was a formal unveiling of a board recording a muffled peal rung in the Parish Church after his death. Mr. Drewett, in 1913, surceeded the latib Dr. A. B. Garpenter as Master and accupied the office until his death in 1928.

But Mr. Drewett was more than a Master of the Surrey Association, his was a life of service to others. He served his Church in various offices, as ohurchwarden, as leader of the ringers, as stecplekeeper and in other capacities; he served his fellow-citizens in many ways and sht gin mumerous public bodies as their representative, but he was, withal, a fiumble man. There was no greater pointer to his kindly character than the fact that he gave up every Sunday afternoon to visiting lonely sick people in hospital.
He hed a lifelong association with Mitchan Parish Church and his rrandfatier and father before him were ringers. His eldest son, Douglus Walter Drewett, was following in his footsteps when he was killed in the last year of the Great War, and the proceedings on Saturday were almost unicue in that memorials to both were unveiled at the same service.
The oal peal board, written in gold on a black background, is worded as follows: In faithful remembrance of James Donglas Dreweti, J.P., 1854 1928. He was, following in the steps of his father aud grandfathor, for upwards of 50 years a fuithful and proficient member of Mitelam Parish Church Society of Change Ringers. Ringing Master of the Surrey Association 1913-1928; churchwarden 1928-1928. Called aside to higler things on the 27 Lh October, 1928. In memoriam, on All Saints' Day, 1928, in 3 hours, was rung on these bells a hall-muffled peal of Stedman Triples: Miss E. M. Stedman Triples: Miss E. M.
Moss, treble; William $$$. Langdoln, 2 : David Wríht, 3 ; Herbert Tourle, 4; Willian E. Joiner, 5: Thomas GroomMR. J. Q. DREWETT. bridge, selı, 6: William S. Smith, 7; Jolin Lotli, tenor. Gonducted by W. S. Smith.
Something like a hundred ringers attended the gathering, many of them, of course, old friends of the late Mr. Drewett, but the timited space of the ringing room, approached by a "Jacob's ladder," only held a small number for the actual unveiling, which was performed by the Vica. (Flev. C. A. Fiach). A short touch was rung on the bells and the remainder of the service took place in the church, where, first of all, a marble tablet bearing the following inscription was unveiled and dedicsted: ${ }^{\text {S Saced to the memory of Douglas Walter }}$ Drewett, 1 st Usmeron Highlanders, who fell in action near St. Quentin, Oetober 3rd, 1918. "Their' name shall remain for ever."' Above was the hadge of the Camerons and below the regimental badge.
The unveiling toak place in the presence of several members of the family, of the deceneed, and afterwards the bymu, "Let saints on earth, was sung. A sloort scrvice followed, the lesson being read by the Mastor of the association (Mr. D. K. C. Birt). The Vicar gave an appropriate adduess from the words, "Whatsocver ye do do it heartily as to tho Lord and not as to men.' He welcomed the Surrey Associathat whatever he did he did in the spirit of the text. Ringing, to him, was a piece of work for the Church; something done for God. He tried to wall worthily and he set an example of worship; for he came from the bell chamber down to the body of the ehurch. His example was one which ringers should emulate. They should ring act only for the entertainment aud satisfaction which they got out of it, but ring that God might be glorified.

After the servico the ringers wera entertained to tea in the Parish Hall, where Mr. D. K. C. J3irt presided, supported by the Vicar, the Rev. R. G. Calvert (curate) and the officers of the association. The towers represented were Ashtead, Banstead, Beddington, Benhilton, Croydon (St. John's and St. Peter's), Camberwell, Epsom (Christ Church), Kingston, Mitchani (Parish Church and Christ ChuTchi), Streatham. Wimbledon and visitors from Bishopseate, Kensington, Holloway, Finctiley, Nortll Nimms, ClerltenweII, Edmonton, etc.

The Master thanked the Vicar for his kindy welcome, for the ase of the bells and for his address. La also thanked Mr. Pothecary and the local band for their kind hospilality and the exceltent arrangements. It was a great pleasure, lye said, to see such a large gathering, and he liked, in particular, to feel that one of the rensons for it was that many had-come there to do honotr to the name and momol'y of a man who sa wall deserved their recognition, the late Mr. James Douglas Drewett. Fis services to the associablin, as mauy of the older members well kiow, were very grat indecd. The made it his business to be the personal friond of as meny of the members of tho aesociation as possible, and was extremely conscientions und faibiful in every kind of work lee undertook.
The Mester went on to welcome the nany visitors present, and said the tablet unveiled in the ringing chamber was the work of members of the Mitcham tower aud tire writing done by the Master of the Middesex Association (whu was presenty. It was pleasing to know the tablet was the work of ringers (appleusa)
The business meeting of the North-Western Branch of the Surrey Association was then beld, when the following dishrict officers were renominated: Master, Mr. D. Gopper; hon. treasurer, Mr. H. Simmoudis; hon. secretary, Mr. Fi. G. Woodiss; maditor, Mr. Roy Simmonds; committee, Messrs. W. H. Hewatt, F. V. Youug nud IMs. C. Kippin.
The Master said further nominations, duly proposed and seconded, could be received up to fourbeen days beforn the amual meeting of the district, which was to be held on Jantary 2941 .

COME UP HIGHER.
Mr. Charles Dean mado reference to the late Mr. Drewett. Fe said those who were able that afternoon to squeezo into the belliy at the Prrish Church might have naticed, painted ahove one of the peal boards, the werds 'come up higher.' That senteuce was arigiuaty, "Friend, come up higher,' and was eddressed by Mr. Drewetl to a visitor who was struggling up the ladder, which gives access to the belfry, and who hesitated until Mr. Drowett invited him in these terns. That invitation was typical of the man whase memory they were commemorating. It did not matter to whom he was addressing his remarks, they were always genial in tona and the weleomo was sincere. "The plirase," added Mr. Dean, 'is one which might be painted up in all the ringiug elambers in the conntry.
To the older men and women of the association Mr. Drewett wns thoroughly well krown, as, apart from his long nesocintion with Mitcham belfry, he was Master of the association from 1913, when ho succeeded Dr. Canpenter, and he continucd the Mastership until he died in 1928. Mr. Drewett was most assidnons in his aftention to the duties of his office. Not only did he alitend rergularly the meetinge of the association, but he also made it his bisibess, whers occasion required, to visit auy sick or distressed memher of the association, and this sense of duty extended to all tho pilblic oflees which he licld, and these were very uumerous. Fe was at one fime on over two hundred committees and was chaiman of seventeen. These committees had to do with the Surray Gounty Conncil, the Miteham [Trban Conncil, Crordon Bond of Guardians, ete. He was governor of the Secondary School for Boys and viee-chairman of the Mitchan School Managers, amongst a number of other putblic bodies.
A mutnal friend, who was ai oue time chairman of the Croydon Rural District Comeil, Leld him Lhat Jim Drewett was atways ont for his particular constituency, and if he could not gat all bint he wanted he became satisfied, for the time being, wilh what his followmembers granted. Mr. Drewett was referverl to as 'half a loaf' (laugliter).

Mr. Drewett was also a Tustice of the Poace, and sat on the Bench at Groydon for many years. He was mot withont a sense of hmour. On one aceasiou, when ho (Mr. Dean) was at his honse, Mr. Drewett was called to his hail door. When he returned he suid he had been asked by a young man and his wife to hoar a declazation which had to be made conceraing the vaccination of their chitd, and he said the comple were very thankfil for what he had done, and the young man. on shaking liands, said he hoped he would be able to do the samo for Mr. Drewett at some future time (laughter). Mr. Drewett was then about 70 years of gege.
In spite of the enormons responsibility which Mr. Drowelt had in connection with the public positious held by him, he was always very approachable, and even in the belfry one would tell ling that he had missed his third's or his 8-7-8, and ho would not resent

The association lost a very good man when he passed away, and the Mitcham rirgars had fetth his absence, as it lad been impossible to replace the services which he rendered to them during his many years as steeplekeeper.
In cammemorating the memory of Mr. Drewett, added Mr. Dean. one also bears in mind three other ringers whose names ate specially commemorated in Mitchani belfry: Douglas W. Drewett, who joined the Cameron Highlanders and lost his life in the war in 1918; Benjamin A. Morris, who was killed in the war in 1917; and stanley Smith, the son of Mr. William Strith, who was also killea in the war. Each of these men had been ringers at Mitcham Parialy Churcha, and Douglas Drewett, who had already rung there over twenty years, would doubtless have succeefed his father as steeplekeeper, as his father had succeeded his father many years previously.

The proceedings terminated with a vole of thanks to the Master for presiding, and during the evening ringing took place on the bells of the Parish Church.

PEAL, NOTES.

SUSSEX VETERAN'S PEAL RINGING JUBILEE.
Mr. Walter Clarman, of Warnham, a fine old Sussex stalwart, has seen half a century of peal ringing. Fe rang the 7 th to a peal of Bob Major at his parish church on Saturday on the fiftieth anniversary of his first peal.
Waller Chnrman laas taken part in some long lengths, including the 13,440 Canterbury Pleasure Major rung at Warnham in March, 1889. The first peal in the same method had been rung in the same tower in the previous December
They were halcyon days at Wanzlam, when the ringers could start for a peal every night of the week, and yo one objected.
Mr . Albert Relfe reached bis one hundredth peal as conductor on Saturday will a peal of Oxford Treble Bob Major at Rotherfield, Sussex. He was the only one of the band who had previously rung a peal in the method. It was Mr. J. G. Powell's 75th peal.
The peal of Kent Treble Bob Major at St. Andrew's, Hertford, on Saturday, was rong as a birthday compliment to Mr. Athlur Day, of Harpenden, and Mi. Joseph Ladleg, a very old member of the Hertford Collere Youths. It was also as a farewell complinent to Mr. B. H. Swinson, who is about to leave England on a business tour to South America. Mr. Barnard Palmore, of Great Munden, has now rang every bell in this tower to a peal.
The handbell peal of Spliced St, Clement's and Cravford Coilege Bols Major at Burton-on-Stather, Lines, was arranged with every course comprising a lead of St. Clement's, two leads of Crayford and two leads of St, Clement's.
The peal of St. Clement's Bob Major rung at Swineshead on Novemheir 13 th was first in the method by all the band.
Mr Samuel पuintin is another veteran who has just celeluated his birthday by ringing a peal. He is a member of the local band at Thatchan, Berks, and for his 75ths anniversary a peal of Grandsire Triples was rung on November 27th. Two nther members of tie local band who took patt rang their first peal.
The sccond of the peals of six Spliced Surprise melhods on haudbells was rung on Friday, November 19th. In the reportb published last week the dite was given as the 18 th . lull that was the diag on which tite first, peat was rung.
The date of the peal at, St. Stephen's, Canterbuty, was also wrongly given last week. It was sent as 'Saturary, November 15th.' Unlike a certain Guildford Grild secretary, we were not iu form ait guessing, and we guessel mrollg. We plinuped for Saturdny, the 13th, but the peal was rung on Monday, tile 15th.
The first penl by the All Saintsi Guild, Gresford, was rung by foundation members and cendueted by the Master, Mr. Ardlur Prince, of Bath. The secretary, Mr. George Willinms, was prevented from taking his ustal place in the baud thraugh illness. The members wish him a speedy recovery.
Mr. George Moss took part in a peal of Oxford Treble Bob Major at St. Margnret's, Ipswich, on November 20th, in celebration of the $59 t h$ armiversury of the wedding of his parents.
The Rectur of Fazelbury Bryan, Dorset (the Rev. J. L. Rhps) has completed 58 years in the ministry, and a peal of Grandsire Doubles was rung in lis honour on November 13 thi, It was the first attempt for a neal lyy three of the band.
For the wedding of Mr. G. P. Mitchell, one of the hand at St. John's, Hallingdon, Middleser, a peal of Bristol Surprise was rung at St. Andrew's, Fillingdon, on Saturday. It was also a birthday compliment to Miss Frances M. Gutteridge, of Iver Heath. It was the fiftieth peal in which Messrs. Fwnk Corke, of Oxbridge, and W. Henley, of Old Windsor, have taken part together.
The peal at Palgyave, Suffolk, on November 23rd, was a birthday compliment to the daughter of Mr. C. J. Morc, Master of the Diss company, and to Mr. A. G. Harrison, secretary of the Sauth Norfork Brancli of the Norwich Diocesan Association.

BOYS' QUCK PROGRESS

Fhaving had their first lesson in handling a bell only in Janunry of this year, three boys at Anstey, Leicestershire, have rung their first peal, and Stedman Triples nt that, at the second attermpt. George Bowler is 14. Terry Smitly 13 and Jolm Adams 15. Two others of ibe hand yang their first peal at the same time, Thomas Ison, and Miss Ivy Simpson, who rang the $10 \frac{1}{2} \mathrm{ewt}$ tevor.
The progress of these pupils of Mr. Redvers Flkington was referred, to in a letter in our issue of October 29th. They were 'brought up' on Stedman after being taught plain hurting. Congratulations both to tutor and pupils.

Completing the circle,' meaning, for the benefit of the uninitiated, ringing a peal on all the bells in a tower, is beeoming a popular pastime. We have remtly recorded mumerous instances. Mr. Gearge E. Teirn, of Bigby, Eines, has now rung peals on all the eight hells at Scumthome, Lincs. He 'completed the cirole ' on November 2 zrd by ringing the treble to a peal of Stedman Friples.
An attempl was made for a peal of Grandsire Triples at Clent, Worcestershire, on November 20th, it honour of Lhe wedding of Mr. George Blunt and Miss Rose Short, daughter of Mr. William ghort, the popular Ringing Master of the Worcestershire Association. Owing to the indisposilion of one of the band, however, ringing had to stop, -o a peal of Bob Minor, with the tenor belind, was rung.

MR. W. T. PATES' LONG SERVICE.  OHELTENHAM VETERAN HONODTED

The Cheltenham veteran, Mr. William T. Pates, who retired from active ringing last year, has been bonoured by the erection of a tablet in the belfry commernorating his 63 years of service to the Parish Church. Unveiled on Sunday, November 2lst, it bears the inscription:
'This tablet commenrirates 63 years of service vendered to the Parish Church by William Thomas Pates. From 1873 to 1936 he rang in this tower, and for 45 years of that period he was Ringing Master. Born 28th February, 1853.'
Mr. Pates was unable to attend the ceremony, but he was represented by lis daughters, Wrs. Clements and Miss Pates, and other members of the family.
The Rey. J. A. Barber (curate), addressing the compary in the bell tower, said it wes a very leindly thought on lhe part of tive Parochial Church Council to have the tablet erected during Mr. Pates' lifetime.

His retiring gracefully, enabling younger men to carry on the work was one of his greatest zecions,' said Mr. Barber, 'mad this tablet which will be here for all time, will remind us of his 63 yenrs' faitlifil service for the Church.'
The tablet was dedicated by the Rector (the Rev. J. B. Goodiffe), and after a few rounds had been rung on the bellis, a quarter-peal of Stedman Caters ( 1,285 clanges) was rung by $\Lambda$. W. Humphris 1 , Mrs. J. Thomas (London) 2, J. D. Johnson (Einton-oat-the-Green) (conductor) 3, O. Collier 4, S. T. Holk (Crowle) 5, W. Dyer 6, J. Thomas (London) 7, ex-Sergt. Aston 8, ©. Camm (Upton-on-Severn) 9, S. Hayward 10. Mr. Humphis rang a peal with Mr. Pates as long ego as 1883.
After the coremony the ringers were entertained to tea at Mr Pates' residence.
Mr. Pates rang his first neal at Chelfenlam Parish Church in 1876 , and he is the only survivor of that band. In his long career he has taken part in some notable peals, among them the 13,054 Stedman Caters at Oheltenham in 1888 and the 15,227 Grandsire Caters at the same tower in 1889, which he called. Both were records.

TRURO CATHEDRAL JUBILEE.

On Wednesday, November 2Oth, at Truro Cathedral, a quartel-peal of Grandsive Triples ( 1,260 changes) was rung to commemornte the 5011 anniversary of the consecration of the sanctuary and, chancel. The ringers were Miss M. Penrose 1, C. E. T.anxon 2, Miss E. J. C. Angwin 3, W. E. Minors 4, W. H. Sleeman 5, Rer W. H. I. Trevhella 6 , W. H. Southeard (conductor) 7, J. Treloar 8.

A PEAL AT BOSTON STUMP.  (Continued from previous colume.)

A peal at Boston 'Stump'-one wus rung there last Saturday-is always a remiader of the way in which modern methods can overcome difficulties in bellhanging. In this stately tower, 272 ft . higl, which seemed to be endangered when the bells were rung, the belis were increased in number and raised several fet, while the structure were so strengthened by a cencrete corbel course that nll dauger to the building was removed.
Members of the local band at Benfreldside, Co. Durham, rang a peal of Cambvidge Surprise and Oxford Bob Minor on October zind as a welcome to the new curate (the Rev. G. V. Casey), as a thanksgiving for the harvest and as a 2lst birthday compliment to Raymond Oliver
The peal of Cambridge Royal at $\mathrm{I}_{\mathrm{s}}$ wich on November 27th was Miss Bowyer's 36 th peal this year. She has now broken the record of peals by a lady in one vear. It also completed her series in the method on 6, 8,10 and 12 bells. Mr. F. J. Smith also achieved this distinction in this peal.
By the way, we are how informox that our correspondent was incorrect in his definition of the letters P.G. after Miss Bowyer's name in the report of a recent performance. The trith is out at last. Their meaning is 'Pretty Ginl.'

LAST OT AN ORIGINAL BAND.

Mr. J. Preston is the only member left of the original band at St. Barmabas' Clurch, Erdington, Birminglam, which was formed when the bells were put in 34 years 日go. He has been secretary throughout this period, and on Saturday a peal of Stedman Triples was rung there as a birthday compliment to him
The Dean of Rochester (Dr. Onderhill) has been appointed Bishop of Betz and Wells, and in honour of his elevation a peal of Stedrasn Cators was rung at Rochester Cathedral on Saturday. It was a composition by Mr. Louis Hend, and contalus the shortest possible starting and turning courses with the treble in 2nal's place sud the 6th in firth's. Having to start a slow six with a single caused some alarm until the conductor reminded the hand of the old saying. 'Third time fair.'
The peal came home in 3 hours 40 minutes, and, in addition to its main purpose, was also a. birthday compliment to Mrs. Norris, wife of Mr. O. E. J. Norris, who rang the Sth, and to Mr. Head, sea., fether of the conductor.
Peals in commemoration of the tercentenary of the Ancient Society of College Youths continte to be rung. This week we reard two, one rung at Barkway, Herts, by members residing in Essex, Canbridgeshire and Fertfordshire, tine other at Petersield, Hants, hy members living in Hants, Sussex and Surrey.

CHESTER DIOCESAN GUILD'S JUBILEE.

A SUCCESSFUL CELEBRATION

The jubilce dinner of the Chester Diocesan Guild attracted a large gathering to the ancient city on Saturday, November 20th. It seems fitting that the Guild's fiftielin birthday shond have been celebrated at a place only a few yards from the Cathedral jefectory, where the inaugural meeting was heid on Navember 12th, 1887, and which, accarding to the record of that neeting, 'was well attended by both clergymen and ringers.
Tho recently augmented ving at the Cathedral was available for ringing during the afternoon, as well as the eight at St. Mary's-within-the-Walls. A1s opporturity was thas afforded to many who bad previously not lieard the new trebles in the Cathedral tower, and the experience brought muny expressions of satisfaction.
Dihner was served at Clemmee's Restaurant in the Market Square. The Master, Mr. *. W. Miluer, presided, and there were atso present Wha Dean (Bishop Norman Tublis), the Archdencon of Chester (the Ven R. V. F. Bume), Mr. G. A. Heywood, the Rev. M. H. Ridgway (Guild secretary), the Rev. W. P. Ingham, the Rev. S. T. Stephens, the Rev. G. Ganghan, mid some 160 ringers from all parts of the diocese, North Wales and Lancashire. Among the apologies for absence were those from the Lord Bishop, the Archdeacon of Macclesfreld, Mr. J. IF. Lewis, Mr. J. S. Goldsunith and Mr. A. A. Hughes.

The loyal loast was hononed on the call of the Master, and the nousical part of the programme opened with a courge of Bols Royal on haudbells: A. Barnes 1-2, J. E. Bibby 3-4, F. Bibloy 5-6, P. Lafin 7-8, W. Bibivy 9.10.
The foast of the evenirg, "The Chester Diocesan Guild, was proposed ly the Dean, who spoke of the keen interest shown by bis predecessor, Dean Bennett, in the welfare of the Guild. For himself, he felt that the Guild had treated him very geacronsly in inviting bim to dinner at all, because lie had ouly a forlnight previonsly cammitied tioe 'unpardonable sin" of shubting off the main electric light cwitcls whilst an important peal was in progress at the Gathedral! (Gughter). He wished to express his deep regret.

BELLS' NOBLE TASK

Confessing lis ignorance of the art of ringing, the Dean said that athongh he had read "The Nine Tailors,' he still felt unequal to making a speech on the subject. He was, however, conscious that ringing was a very important part of clurch wor $\mathrm{K}_{3}$ and lie felt that it was up to the Guilds to see that the hells of England fhould continue to be ring in the cld-fashioned way and not by mechanical means. As a mun who hat spent a number of years abroad, he lenew that one of the things that the Britisher away from home longen for most was to hear again the sonnd of bells rung in the English way. This, almost wore than anything else, suggested "home. Bells, too, werg playing an important part in the reall to religion, and bad, he felt, always done much towards keeping this country Christian-a moble task.
In responding to the toast, the Rov. M. H. Ridgway, who last year suceened the Rev. W. R. Inyham as secretary, brieby reviewed the wark of the Guild during its landf-century of existence. Good service ringing and clean towers were now the order of the day. He loped that every effort would be made to get all towers in the diocese into naion, a most wosthy aim for this important year. The Guild, he felt, had celebrateri jts jubilee in a most fitting mammer-by the installation of two new bells as mad adifion to the Cathedral efght, thus giving Whe Mother Chircha a fine peal of toa bells.
M4. W. Wilcox, one of the original members of the Guild, proposed The jealth of the Master.' Mr. Milnor, ils making his reply, said that judging by the number of ringers present who were well aver 60 years of nge, ringing was a most healthy pursuit. The finest recreatiou was a chancre of occupation, and ringing not only gave pleasure to tho ringer, but also the listence. Fthe presence of a lave number' of "mere boys" gave him the assurance that the future of the Guild was safe.
In proposing "The Clergy, Mr. T. W. Clarlee emphasised the need of close co-operntion between clergy and ringers, and, quoting part of the raport of the first meeting of the Guild (mentioned at the beginning of this teport) said flat it would give great pleasure if such a phrase conld be used in the minute books to-day. He deprecated the use of "gramophoue bells, in churches where the conditions made the installation of a ringing neal possible. Such installations were a tragedy, and he appealed to the clergy, both by example and inforace, to discouraqe potied helts.'
In reply, the Archdeacon said that, in his opiuion, all members of the clergy should know something of hells and ringing, and instrurtion 11 these mattels should form an essential pari of bheir traning. He himself had lenmed to bandle a bell in his younger days, and although he conla not count himself $\pi$ change ringer, he did appreciate the excellent work done for the Ohurch by ringers.

FIVE ORTGNNAL MENBERS PRESENT.
On the call of the Master, original menbers present, five in all, stood. These veterans, Mr. H. A. Hepwood, Mr. W. Wilcox, hr. J. Morgan, Mr. E. Breeze and Mr. J. B. Wood, were greeted with much applause, and each in torn deliglited the company with reminiscences of bygore days.
The Rev. W. R. Ingham proposed "The Visitors.' In welcoming them he said that the success of that oceasion pointed to the flourisla(Continued in next column.)

BELLS OVER LONDON

AN INTERESTING WERELFSK PROGRAMME.
Under the tille of 'Bells over London,' the 13.B.C. devoted a Ewenty minute broadcast to bellringing and Lio Ancient Society of Collegy Youthe in the Regional prograume on Weduesday of last week, and the ftem was an informative and enjoyable ono. It also went out on the Midland, Welsh and Norbiern Ireland Regionals. Originally it was amonnced in the 'Radio Times' that the tren was devised by John Shand and Willie Roinghton, but berore it came on, Loudon Howspapers bed announced tisat Mr. Willie Roughton had rofused to callaborato becanse, so the newspapers said, a recorded " description of bellringing by Miss Dorothy Sayers from ber book, The Nine Tailors, was fo be introduced. It geve the papers, which dealt with the subject, the opportanity of vell-displaying Miss Sayers' mame ju the headines.
The R.B.C. when the programme opened anwonnced the withdrawal of Mr. Ronghton's collaloration, and it was stated that the item was devised by Jolin Shand and produced by F. L. Morrow. These gentiemen did their work well.
The narrator described the true art of bellringing as a kind of musical chess, and went on to explain how clangres wero produced, Change ringing, he said, was the most intricato end, to many, the most boatitiful form of bellringing.
Miss Sayers' description of it was introduced, aud, after a relorence to tho terminology of bellijnging, about which, the narrator anid, there was a touch of poetry, Mr. E. H. Tewis (Master of the College Youths) spoke upon the saciety's long bistory and the 'music' of change ringing, which was illustrated on haudbells by founds, 'Queen's.' Tittmms' and 'Whitingtion's, followed by the plain hunt on eigjt bells. Afterwards came a boh conrse of Stedman Triples, The handbell ringing was done by Messrs. E. H. Lewis, $3^{3}$. $\mathbf{t}^{\circ}$. Duffeld, H. Langdon and W. Williang.
At the beginning of the programme the bells of St. Paul's Cathedral were twice faded in,' and the proglamme terminated with a recordnd impression of the bells of St. Clement Danes.
Whe Exercise owes a debte to tie B.B.C. Eor the way in whin this [31ogrammo was organised and "put over."

AN APPRECIATION.

Sir-May I-a very humble 'vantluy' nember of the Collure Youths-say how much I enjoyed and appreciated the broadeasl. It came througly splendidfy, and the exposition of changes was perfeety done.
The thanks of the Exercise ate due to the organisers aud performers alike. Please let us liave more such broadcasts.

CLASHING MEETINGS.

the Editar

Wenr sir - I have always been wuder the impression tiant the primary object of district meetings was for the benefit of the members concermed in thoir arratrgement. With that in mind, my fixtures, made at the begjuning of each jear, seek to avoid any elashing with, not only the other tiree districts of this Guild, but ulso the Nerth West Dishrich of the Surrey Association, in whose nctivitus some of eur members liave a rote.
So it was with mixad feelings that I read your leadiug article last 47eek and be letier which prompted it, esperialy seeng that the letter camo fron Mr, Cannon, a promitent member of the Tower Grabbers" Union, who, when we held a meebing at Dorking, previously, ame there, had a ring, and then luad to be oft, to get a ring at some Londoul wwer where the reopening of the bells took place that afternoon. It wonld appear that a secretary wanld need to be a superman and see that no meetings took place within 50 miles on lis meeting dates, to save someone a pang of disappointment at being whable, through a feeling of loyalty, to get to a new tower. Perkaps some doy the idcal will come, but For the prosent my advice to Mr. Cannon is to bring the matter wh at the numual meetiag of his own association and see that none of their own meetings clash. Ours alo fixed at a committeo meating with the general secretary early in the year.
Wibl respad to the meetiners "under tha cland," hoth have for their chief busimess sanething eoncerming themselves, namely, the nominution of their offeers, and as no one member will be torn between two voles, I think thet tine Jonsiness interval ofters a good chance for visibors tro get from one place to the obluer, fud as they will be able to get a good variety at both places, tho mearness is really a blessing. ARTHUR F. SMITH,
Hon. Secretary, Leatherhead District. Guildford Diocesan Guild.

OVILRLAPPING ASSOCIATIONS.
Deat Sir, -While I cannot auswer Mtr. Cannon's question regarding the clasling of district meetings, I may perlaps be allowed to make H few comments on the matier raised.
Thete are two distinct points at issue, though they are not clearly ghown in Mrr, Ganmon's letter.
The first is when separate associations ar districts hold meetinga in towers in thein own areas, but those towers happen to be near each other. You have, perhups intentionaily, confured your editorial to this aspect of the matter, and, while I agree such a clash would be betiter ruvided, there is no reason why botla meetings should not the succusstul if Iully supported by each associatioy's own members. District secretaries liave a good deal to do and they cannot always find out the intentions of one or more surrounding associations.
What if far more objectionable is the casc where Association A holds a moeting at a tower affliated to Association $\mathbf{B}$ on the same day that Association $B$ is holding a meeting in its own area. I have been censidering for several montlos the best way of lriuging this matter before the Exarcise, aud hand deciden that, wather than seek the courtesy of your colurnes where only personal opinions can be expressed, I would broach the subject at the next Central Council meeting. Abont six weeks ago I drafted a motion to be put before the Council, and on Novemiser ist I asked another member of the Council to second it, All this was before the moelings held at Isleworth and Twickenham on November $13 t h$ and while there was atill a chauce of avoiding that clasli.

But the "ubiquitons Mr. Cannon' (your own adjeotive, Mr. Editor) has forestalled me, though I may still ask the Council to expresg an opinion on the matter next Whitsun.
The elash on Noveraber 33 th was the second in the South and West Middlesex District this year. In the summer the district hedd a meetang at Harlingtan, which is not an ensy place to get to, and unfortunalely another associatiok met at Chiswick on the same clay. Tren members of the Ghiswick tower are ringing members of the South and West District). The attendance at Farlington, as was to be expected, was less than double figures-a poor show not only for the district, but for the Exercise.

It seems to me ouly a matter of courtesy for a visiting association to get intu early touch with the secretary of the area to be visited, so as uot to upsct local arrangements. In most cases I am sure the local nesaciation would be pleased to avoid that date or gigree to a joint meeting. I realise that, an extra-territorial' association (such as the Ladies ${ }^{\text {a }}$ Gnild) would be affected more by thes thau would orkinary associations, but what is an extra letter or two compared with the snccess or failure of a meeting or the retention of good feeling between rasociations.

DON'T SERUB YOUR HANDS!

Cleanse and preserve your

 skin this simple wayTo many people, the problem of getting the hands really clean without harming the skin is a serious one. Grease and grime, which become deeply ingrained into the pores of the skin, are extremely difficult to remove, and ordinary washing with soap or even scrubbing will fail to remove them completely. Housewives, particularly, who complain that their hands get ruined by the nature of their work, will find the preparation calied DERMAFOAM, a real "godsend." DERMAFOAM just smoothes away dirt and grease without effort. It gets right down into the pores and removes every particle of grime, leaving skin beautifully supple and healthy.

Men, too-when you've finished that dirty job on the car, DERMAFOAM will quickly banish all grease and oil from your hands. It acts almost magically-working under and around the nails and into every minute crease, removing all trace of dirt in a flash.

Engineers, Painters, Car Mechanics, Printers - everyone - will welcome DERMAFOAM, the modern method of cleansing and protecting the hands.

THE GREATEST SIX-BELL ACHIEVEMENT

The Exercise will, we are sure, unite in congratulations to the Lincolushire band who, last Saturelay, created another 'splicing' record by ringing, in the course of seven 7 2o's, no fewer than eighty different methods. Only a few years ago this would have been regarded as an impossible feat, not only from the point of view of practical ringing, but because it was inconceivable that such a large number of methods could be crowded into seven true six-bell extents. With the rapid progress that has been made in this phase of ringing, however, composers have kept pace with the clemands of the ringers, and a peal in eighty methotis now becomes an accomplished fact. This is very close to the known limit ; but who can say where this elever manipulation uf methods will end?

Let us acknowledge the work of the men who have made such peals possible. The brothers Jaries were the first to see the possibilities of 'spliced ' ringing, although it was some years after their pioneer work in this direction that serious attention was given to composition on these lines. Mr. Joseph W. Parker, the late Mr. Henry Wilde, and Mr. E. H. Lewis contributed their share to developing the ground, but it was left to one who does very little practical ringing to bring out the really high lights of composition in splicing Minor methods. To Mr. A. G. Driver is due much of the credit for the investigathons which have made extents in a large number of methods possible. In the most painstaking manner he pushed out the scope of composition until well over a dozen methods were included in a single $7^{20}$, and compiled tables by which nther investigators could pursue the work upon a well-established foundation.

And in this latest performance at Algarkirk we have an instance of what has come of it, and, hoo, a very fine example of the good spirit which ought always to prevail among ringers. Until last Saturday the 'spliced' record was 73 methods rtng by a Cheshire band and conducted by Mr. Kenneth Lewis. One of the new 720's rung at Algarkirk, one containing the greatest number of methods (namely 19) yet included in an extent, was composed by Mr. Kenneth Lewis. Thus he facilitated, even if he alone clid not make possible, the beating of the record which he held with his Cheshire friends. There is a moral in this, which he who runs may read.

For the men, and particularly for the conductor, who rang the peal last Saturday, there will be nothing but admiration. It is a great feat to carry eighty methods in one's head, and to be able to step straight out of one into another at a word of command, especially when these (Continued on prye 814.$)$ commands, at times, follow one another every lwenty-five seconds or so. This is a business of quick thinking as well as accurate ringing. The Lincolnshire band of enterprising young men have striven hard for this crowning achievement. Success has been hard earned, and those, if there be any, who doubt the merit of the performance, would do well to try for themselves, for a start, Mr. Kennetl Lewis' new extent. We feel sure that the first to congratulate the Algarkirk band will be the men who rang the 73 methods at Buxton last June. Although they then rang the maximum number of Treble Bols methods which can be spliced into seven truc extents, we hope they will nat rest entirely on their laurels, but will give their friends in Lincolnshire something more to think about and perform. We salute both the Lincolnshire and Cheshire men upon their great achievements.

PEAL NOTES.

THTEEE SONS RING WITH FATHER FOR ROEh BIRJJJDAY.
On Nowember 28th Mr. William Einter, sen., of Swanmore, Fants, celebrated his 80th birtiday, and three dayg latur the ovent wis honoured by the first peal on the augmented bells of Bishop's Walthant Church.
It was, as it should be, very much of a family affair, for three at Mr. Linter's sons took part in the penl. The metLod was Rob Major and it was called by Mr. Linter's old friend, Mr. George Willians, himself past the tour-score merk.

Mr. Linter, sen.'s, first peal was called by hri. Williams at Goberton on Jume 21 st, 1889 , and that peal was also the first by Mr. Linter"s late brother, Robert. Another brother, Frawk, rang his first peal when George Wilians rang his first as conductor in Jauuary, 1885. In 1886 they were both members of the Reigate Society.

Anyhow, this birthdy peal was the event of a lifetime, and many interesting recollections wero brought to Iight over the teacups aftes the ringing, the participant: being enfertained by Mr. W. Linter, jun. (who was in ilfe Australian touring party). Thlue spleadid birlhday cako was kindly providerl by Mrs. T. S. Bayley.
Bishop's Waltham bells were recently retuned and restored by Messrs. Taylor and Co, who aliso added two trebles to pomplete the octave.
The members of the Linter family ring, in these days, at different towers; William Linter, sen., at Swanmore; William Linter, jun., at Farelain; Walter Linter at Bishop's Waltham; and Roy Linter at North Stonelam.

Curiously enough this was the first occasion upon which these faur members of the Linter [amily had all taken part in a peal together.
Congratulations to Miss Dorotly Vessey on riuging her 2 th peal on ber 18th hirtháa. She has only been ringing a jitile over 18 months and this performance-seven different 720 's of Minor-was her 21st peal this year.

A preal well 'spiced "was rung at Borden, Kent, on November 27th, when three generations of the Spice family, whose roots are in Trmstall, took part together in 'Prylor's six-part peal of Grandsire Triples. William Spice, sen. rang the treble, his son, George H. Spice, the fifth, and lis grandson, John E. Spice, the second to lus first peal at the first attempt. Victor Jarrett' (Musician, R.E.) salled his first peal on eight bells.

CHILDREN'S PEAL RTCALLED
Splieed Rols and Little Bob Maximus has been added to the variety of peals ring on the twelve at Kidderminster. It was rung on December 4th and was the first peal of Spliced Maximus by all the band. Each course consisted of one lead of Plain, one of Little and oue of Pain Boh. The composition was arranged, as well as couducted, by the hon. secretary of the Worcestershire Association, Mr. I. D Johnson.
Mr. Johnsou, three days earlier, was also the conductor of another interesting peal. On December 1st, 1912, he, with two of his sistera, Ellen and Ruth, rang a peal of Grardsire Doubles on liandbells Ellen, siluce deceasod. was then 12 aud rang 1-2. Joseph was 15 and called the peal from 3-4, and Ruth, oniy 10, rang 5-6. The peal was independently umpired.
On December 1st, 1937, twenty-five years after, Josepl, with thee sigters, called a handhell peal of Grandsire Triples to commemomate the amiversary The family party were Miss Kathleen Johnson, Mrs. John Thomas, Joseph Johnson aud Mrs. A. J. Martin, ringing in that order. How proud their father, the lato Mr. Frederich J. Johnson, would have been had he lived to seb this event.
Both living and dead were remembered in a peal rung at Leeck hampton, Ghelfenham, on November 29th. The peal was in memnrs of Mrs. Isobel Richardson, to whose memory the two treble bells were added in 1904, and in honour of the 84 th birthany of Mr . Tames George, of Birmingham.
As a farewell to the Vicar (the Req. J. L. Coursey), who was lenviug Christ Church, Sontlport, for Christ Chureh, Cheltenham, a peal of Grandsire Triples was Jung at the former clinreh on November 3nth.
It was the 49th anniversary of Mr. L. TYyldesley's first peal, and he cannot recollect any previous peal rung at Christ Church, Southporb, by a remular Sunduy service band.
As a "coming of age' compliment to Miss Kathleen Cheal, a member of the band at Rairlan, Kent, peal of Grandsire Triples was rung at that church on December 4th. Her brather took part in the peri, and afterwards Miss Cheal extended hospitality to the ringers. who wish to thank her for her kindness.

CURIOSITIES OF • STARS.

Many cuniosities occur in regard to 'starred' performances. Mr Harold Cashmore's name appears this weok with a'star' for ringing his first peal of Royal. And be is the man who calls peals in Spliced Surprise methods on liandbells! Other 'advanced' ringers are similarly "decorated" for the same peal, rung at St. Peter's Church, St. Albane.

Another instance comes from Manchester, where, at the Cuthedral, three of a band who have rung in a peal of 73 Spliced Treble Bob methods ring their first peal of Grandsire Caters on Saturday.
Resl attempts at Dodderhill, Droitwich, Worcestershire, are rare, throngh restrictions, but last Saturdey, the ban being lifted, a peal of Darlaston Bob Thiples was rung there, the band including five of tho local company, with three from Claines. The method was taken from 'The Glossary ' and had provionsly been practised as a change from Oxford Bob. The conductor found it necessary to send away for a compogition to Mr. J. Pigoth, to whom he is indebted. It was the first peal in the method by all the band and on the bells, and was rung at the first ratempt. The lonfr dodging behind probably accounted for its being a quick peal.

The first peal an the bells at Leighton Burzard, Bedfordshire, since they were rehung by Messrs. Taylor and Co. in 1935, was rung on Sgturday. It should have becn Boh Royal, but the band, meeting short, rang Bob Major.
On September 19h the dedication of Monmouthshire's heaviest and grandest ring of lells, installed by John Taylor and Co., took place at Eblow Vale. The first attempt for a peal was made on Saturday last and proved successful. The date wes specially chosen as it was the eve of the 72nd birthday of Mr. Jom W. Jones, hon. secretary of the Liandaff and Monmontil Diocesan Association and conductor of the peal.
Congratulations were extended to him. It is nearly 49 years ago since he rang his first peal, which was also Grandsire Triples.
Tea was kindly provided by the ladies of the parish, and thanks aro extended to them and to Mr. Alsop, the local lender, for his cindness in doing "the needful' at the tower. Phe new band at Ebbw Fale are making good progress.
Mr. and Mrs. Ezekiel Trarter, of Diss, Norfolk, have just celebrated the roth anniversary of their weddigg. No wonder the bells were rung for thent The wedaing took place at Diss Parish Church on Novenber 30th, 1867, and wiren the anniversury cance round last week a peal of Kent Treble Bob Major was rulus.
To mark the nompletion of lis 50 years' nembership of the Lapeashire Association, a peal of Bob Major in honour of Mi. William Brammer was runir at Gorton Thitarian Clureh, Manchester, on November 30h. It was also a hirthday peai for Miss Cyntha Dulson.

MR. JAMES GEORGE IS 84

LुOW FI: GELEBRATED EIS RIRTHDAY.
Mr. James George celebrated his 84th birthday as actively as a youth of 24 . In the afternoon he rang at Birmingham Cathedral tol the induction of the new Provost, who was installed by tho Bighop of Birmingham, at a very joprasive ceremony. Immediately afterwards, Mr. George, with seven others af the band, rang a peal of Stedmen Triples at Bishop Ryder's Church. The peal was a ploasure to ting, and a credit to Mr. George, who rang the seventli.

At the conclusion of tine peal the band, with five other ringers, were the guests of Mr. George at a dinuer. Many were the congrathantions that Mr. George received upon attaining ons more birthelay towards his century in such remarkably good health.

But Mr. George will not be satisfied with a century; he is deler mined to double his present age. 'I've mever felt hetter in ny life,' was his remert.

An unusual honour was accorded to Mi. George at St. Martin's Birmingham, where on November 30th a peal of 5,084 Stedman Cinques, spectally composed far the occasion by Mr. Gabriel Lindoff. was rung to eelebrate his birthday by members of Sit. Marin's Guid. Mr. George rang the 8th fauitlessly.
Unfortunabely he was not so successful with two other peal attempts. Stedman Triples on tho back eight at Burton-on-Trent on the day aftor the peal in the 'Bull Ring' was lost through a change course, and on the following day Double Narwich at Brierley Hill 'went west' affer eight courses.

Nevertheless, the lirthday was duly celebrated ons each occasion, and Mr. George, although there will be quite a few birthdays intervening, is now conterpplating where and what he will ring for his tooh birthday. Will it be Liverpool Cathedral teuor?

But, joking apart, Mr. George at 84 is physically and mentally n wonder to all his friends.
Last Saturday Mr. George capped his week's performances hy ringing the tenor at St. Audrew's, Derby, to a peal of Kent Trable Bob Royal. It was his 1,270 th peal. We are told he turned in the tenor with all his former accuracy and zesl, not fimished up 'as fresh as paint and jusit as pretty.

Peals on eight, ten and twelve bells within a week are not brit going, even for a jouth of 84.

Afber the unsuccestul attempt for a pent at Burton-nn-Trent, a quirter-peal of Stedman Triples was rung : M. Swiulield (conductor) 1, 5. H. Swinfield 2. E. W. Beadsmoore 3, S, Fiolloway 4, W. R. Drage 5, D. T. Mistkin 6, T. Gearge (composer) 7, G. T. Roden 8.

If you want to make suitable and lasting gift to a riuger for Cluristmas, send 5s. 6d. to 'The Ringing World,' Lower Pyfiord Road, Woking, for a copy of J. A. Trollope's interesting history of the College Youths.
Miss Dorothy L. Sayers, the novelist, was the guest of the Ancient Society of College Youtlis at the meeting at St. Paul's Cathedral, and atterwards at the Ooffce Pot, on Tuesday evening.
A. faculty has beell granted by the Rochester Diocesan Registry for the restoration of the bells at St. Mary's Church, Bexley, Kent. Messrs. Mears and Stainbank are to retune the six bells and reliang them in new fittings in a steel frame, with provision for two trables when funds are available.
Among the subscribers to the restoration fund is Her Majesty the Queen, whose grandparents were married at this church.
The Ladies' Guild made a gallant attempt for a peal of London Surprise Major on Saturday at Great Baddow, Essex. They had rung for 2 hours 45 minutes and only bad three courbes to go when the peal went west.' Hard litses, lades!
The ringers were Mrs. P. Humphreys 1, Mrs. J. E. Davis 2, Mrs. F. W. Housden 3, Mrs. R. Richardsan 4, Mrs. R. F. Deal 5, Mrs. G. W. Fleteher (coudveror) 6, Mrs. I'. Bothany 7, Miss H. Snowden 8. The ringing was excellent until tha fatal trip came.
It is said that, after the attempt, seven married ladies went to the railway station to catell a brain that didn't run. It js, however, not true that they then went to a cosy comer to drown their soriows. It was to get out of the cold while waiting for a train that did rurs. We have this information on the authority of an independent wituess.
Mr. Inmes George has received so many letters of congratulations upon his 84 th birthday that le finds it inpossible to reply to them individually. Fie desires to thank sincerely all those who have sent him such kindly messages.
Messrs. J. Trylor and Co.'s ammanack for 1938, which has just been distributed, again bears on ench page a photograph of some interesting cathedral or clurch where the Loughborough firm baye recently carried out restoration or new work. The almanack is suitable for hanging in any riuging room.
We remrelit to record the passing oll October 28 tl of Mr. Montagu Fenry Snith at Heyford, Nouthamptonshire, after & very short illness. He was a member of the Daventry Branch of the Pewerborough Guild. the meatings of which he regularly attended. He was always retudy to help the younder rugers and will be much missed.
The vonger of Rolvenden Church, Kent, who las also been a ringe, since Victorian duys, was 'In Town To-night' in the wireless programme of Saturday.
We regret that pressure on our space again necessibates the holeling over of scveral reports and letters to the Editor.

NATIONAL POLICE GUILD

#URTHER ORGANISATION IN MANCHESTER DLSTRICT.
A succesarful gathering of the National Police Guild took place in Manchester on Saturday last. About a score of members from Manchester, Liverpool, Balton, Stockport, and about another score of ringing friends mel at the Town Hall during the aftemoon for ringing. They then adjonmod to the new police headquarters, where tea was served in the restanrant. Afterwards a tour was made of the premises whivh are considered to be the most up-to-date in the couniry.
Further ringine was then indulged in until $8 \mathrm{p} . \mathrm{m}$, after which a quiet room was found in a local inn in which to discuss in an unofficial naxner, matters appertaining to the Guild.
The president of the Gunld, Supt. Williams, sent an apology for his absence. Several others were similarly absent owing to exigeacies of the service.
Sergt. Peter Crook, in reviewing the work of the Guild, said he luad noticed through 'The Ringing World, thati they lad wany capable members in the North, and los was very pleased to see some had heen ringing peals in the Surprise methods. After what he luad seen that efternoon in the tower he thonght more ourgit to be dave in the Guild's name, aud the only raason, as far as lee conld see, was that everybody was waiting for someone else to make a more. It showed what could be done when they looked at that day's gathering. The thanks for that meeting were due to Consiable William Pye, of Manchester. Fe thought an organisiag secretary would be a useful help in that direction.
Sergt. Crook, after a discussion, promised to act in that capacity The Town Fail bells are a fing peal of twelve, tenor 42 cwt., with an extra sharp bell in the trebles for a light eight.
Touches of Grandsire, Stedman, Treble Twelve and Double Norwich on the light eight were brought round.
A vote of thanks was passed to the Chief Constable for allowing the use of the restaurant, to Supt, Williams for the assistance he had given, to the Town Hall Superintendent for the uso of the bells, and to P.C. Pye for his splendid arraggements.

A WILTSHIRE RINGER'S SERVICE  MR. L. A. WILSON'S EFFORTS FOR BELL RESTORATION

Forty Years' Work in Calne Deanery.

Hew men can hnve done mors to promote bell restoration than Mr . 1. A. Wilson, of Wootton Bussett, Wilts. Mr. Wilson has just com pleted forty years as a ringer at Weotion Bassett, and well-deserverd uibutes were paid to his labours ut a meeting held at Wootton Bassett, when the Onlue and Devizes branches of the Salishury Guild fud the Swiudon Branch of the Gloucester and Bristol Diocesan Association joined forees tor the day.

Mr. Wilson first leatat ruging in Devonshive under the late Rev. Mailland Kelly. When he came to Wiltahire 40 years ago he took charge of the belis at Woattom Bassett and lias tayght many ringers. His early drillug in Grandsire in Devan did not prevent him troing on to morc advanced niethods, aud he owes a good donl of his progress to the encolragement of the late Mr. Trmest Bishop, of Swindon.

He has for many years been secrelary of the Calue Branch of the Salisbury Guild, ançl by lis efforts will the vurious incumbents the following long list of bell restorations has been effected in the district:-
Brembill (8), rehung ; Cinitie (8), rehung; Broad Hinton (6), relung; Lyzelaw (5), rehung; Patesbury (4) rehung and treblo added; Brink worth (5), rehung and treble adxed: ¥urton (5), reliungr and treble added; Lydiard Millicent, treble added; Filmartin (6), now being rehung; Wooition Bassett, relnury at his owa expense. This leaves anly thwee peals of five in the Calne Deanery not ringable, but, even so, a fund is being raised for the renanging of Heddington in the near future.

Mr. Wilson is the possesson of a sitver tea service given to him hy Whe padshioners of Broad Hintorn, and a sityer wateh presented by the pacishioners of Brinkworth for the services he las rendered.

At the joint meeting on Naventber $20 t i n$ singers were prosent from Swindou, Devizes, Bishops Canuinge, Melhsham, Holt, South Cerney, Bremlill, Lynehan, Brinkworth, Filmartin, Broad Hinton, Clyfie Pryard and Wootton Bassett, and amongst the clersy in attendance were Canon A. F. G. Peters, the Rev. C. E. L. Cowan, the Rev. R. V. White and the Rev. H. F. Barber, who conducted &f service in the Purish Charch.

Follawing tea in the Church of Rngland Schools, the Rev. H. V. White (ehamman of the Came Brancli) expressed thanks to all who hat mede the gatherings so successful.
Camon Peters, in the conrse of words of encourarement to the rimers, made special reference to the fact that Mr. L. A. Wilson had Llat day completed 40 geats of scrvice in the tower at Wootton Basett. He considered that Mr. Wilson had scrved the parish well and hoped he wouk be spared to continue for many more years.
Ms. Green (assistant general secretary of Salisbury Guid) mad Mr. Wr Truenen (Mraster of the Swindon Branch) spole of their long nssociation with Mr. Wilson, and refer'ed to his wholehearted work for the ringers, not only of his owu town, but of the surounding merishes. rhey hoped he would continue his work urtil he at least rached the age of that grand old linger, Mr. $\boldsymbol{A}$. Lawrence, of Swindon, who is 83 years old and was present at the meeting.
Mr. Wilson, in reply, appealed to the Youncr ringers to continue their work, and also urged otliers to take it up.

GOOD STRIKING

THE ST. CLEMENT DANES RECORD.

To the Editor.
Dear Sir:-Yon righty point out that uhe spliced Surpriso gramophone record is about as perfoct as riuging cat be. There is no reasou why tower-bull ringing should not be as perfect. I know that it ann be, having leard it a sruod many times.
In reply to Mz : Joyce, may [ say that, from what I leard through the headphones in the B.B.C. van, I shonld ugree wilt some of the band that the tonch of Grandsire Caters recorded aL Sb. Clement Danes was not perfect. I ennot crilicise in detail. us I was, at the time, muth move coucermed with the perfoct recording ol a conplete touch than with the recording of a perfect tonch. I did notice one or two close leads, probably caused by the slifght ding of the teno:
I do noti pretend to be an perfect shriker, lut I gencrally linaw whon my striking is at fanlt, and why. I hope 1 shall never be ton satisfied to leara to improve.
Brasted, Kont.

CRETICIEM LS NHOLSSAAY

Dear Sir, Mr. G. L. Joyce in his letict lo your, published in lasti weck's issue of 'Tlie Ringing World,' snys, 'lu his nony criticisma the president of the Conncil aud Master of the College Youtls, Mr. E. H. Jewis, has fayed us alive, and for my personal satishaction only I hope one day maknown to "stand holimd" lims." I wonder what Mr. Jovec is getting at? Every chunge cinger to-day should thank Mr. Lewis from the bottom of his heart for so fuying us. The only fault is that he has not flayed enough. As our president lie is doing his duty by taking such an active interest it us. We should thank him alsa for his propaganda work it briuging tho art so much hefore tho publit. Cuitisis in regard to striking wo mast have. If some people manipulated a musical instrument in an orchestrat a quarter as bad as some ringers manipalate a bell to a toush, they wonld be sloot onl alter a bar or two. Why must wo tolerate indifferent ringing without sajing something to the offeaders, and who is more competent than our president to do Ehis?
Now for tile next part of the prisgraph mentioned abovo. What does Mr. Joyce inngime he is going to find if and when lue does stand behind Mr. Lewjs (whether fnown or unknown) What in the world does it matiter what he finds? This is the pasilion: Sonne of uns ate trying to raise the standard of ringing. The president of the Central Commeil of Chureh Beilingers is supportint us in onn action. Mr. Joyce knows that the term, 'good slyiking' eathnot be monsared by dearees, but I am sure that after 25 years' experience, providing, n! course, that he can hear the actual changes lie takes part in, he also knows what groad striking weans.
There are some persoiss who tell me that they camot trear the individum hells they ara liclping to ring. It sonnds justi a jumble, they gat. In spite of this, they seem to get a centain anount of pleasmre ont of it, which, of course, is more than anyone else doos. These are the people we are up ayainsl. Fither they must be traned to hear, or prohibited to ritus. I shonk like also to say that in my opinion such a letter as kir. Foyce has written has no colnginetive valte whatever, and only tends to confuse the minds of the learners to whom we are trwing ta teach " good stuking.

ALEC E. RTCHARDSON.
Southborougli, Kicut.

UNITY COUNTS.

Sir, I lave read with interest your admirable aticle upon good striking and I agree entirely witl you.
Pergonally I feel that what is essentially needed in every tower is the eatholie spitil: that is, completely forgetting onegelf in the performance of the whole, and remembering that it is the unjty of the whale, which colunts.

For example, if there are seven men in atower, doine their best in strike well, their cfforts can be marreal by the fad striking of the eightt.
The Histener ontside does not hear the seven, who are doing thens best, but, irvitated by the bad striking of one, condemas the whole.
This grand principle applies lo all ringriug. It must be as eatholic in its outlook as in its practice. No company should be content to ring the same methods yenr in, year out.
The very art demands that it should go from strength to strengib, Our Lord commands, "Be ye therefore perfect. as nus Fatter in Heaven is perfect.

Therefore, let ns ringers remember that nothing but tho very best 5 worthy of God, to Whose glory we ring and Whose Gospel we proclain with every pull of our bell.

BELLS OVER LONDON.

GOMPLDMENTS AND CRITIOISM.

To the Editor.

Dear Sir, -While registering my appreciation of the recent broaduast in connection with the College Youths" tercentenary, I should like to say that it was with not a little surprise thab I discovered a complete absence of correspondence in last week's issue of 'The Ringing World' conceruing Mr, E. H, Lewis' talk in the ' Bells Over London hrondoast As nearly as I cen recollect, he stated that for a bellringer to be a member of tho Ancient Society of College Youths was syronymons wilh an oaraman belonging to Leander R.C. or a erieketer to the M.C.C.

As one who is quite nnprejuiliced, not having any connection with The Ancient Society or its rival organisation, I cennot but express ay deprecation of auch themark from the president of the Gertral Council, To this Council all the guilds and associatious throughout the Kingdom hold loyally, their unity being symbolised by the president's high office.

Fence I was grossly disappeinted to learn from Mr. Lewis' own lips that any one society should be considered superior among those which give their allegiance to the orgeusution of which be is the head. Such mnobbery I really could not understand, as it merely serves to togender resontment and ill-feelieg among ringers, especially in view of the fact that as it cama over the ether its heavers are unable to make reply. To broadcast such information to millions unaware of Ele existence of or the good worl cone by other similar organisations is, I feel, using the microphone as the Inte Canon "Dick" Sheppard described the pulpit, as a "coward's castle.
The chureh bells of this ceuntry are a glorions heritage, and their riaging a gacred trust, commitied to us by God. Let us, therefore, nne and all forget all pride and everything else which may separate 119 ons from another, atud wark with in united front to proclaim to the best of our ability the messnge of Christ from the belfries of our laud
W. BIRMINGTAM.

THE WITHEDAWN * COLLABORATION.
Dear Sir, I listened to the broadcast on November 24th and I experienced a feeling of slight disuppointmont when I heard the pre liminary anmouncentent that $\mathbf{M r}$. Wiblie Roughtou liad 'been unable 10 colliboiate, etc.

I had hoped to find some sort of 'officiel' explaration in 'The [kinging Worid " to-day, but all I can find is reference to something which appeared in the London newspapers, and, in the absence of comment, I assume that their explnuation is the correct one. If that the case I think it is deplrable, and, in my opinion, the sooner Willie Roughton withdraws lis collaboration from all matters apperInining to riliging and ringers the befter it will be for the Exercise as a whole. He might form hiznself into a society of olie and achieve that caelusiveness of which, judging by lis speech at the recent dinner of the Golitge Youthes, be is so proud.
Mis Sayers in writing her book 'The Nine Trailors' has probably done more good for ringigg than Mr. Rougbton and lis kind have done or will ever do.
Mr. T. GroGmbridge, by his efforts, did much te improve the rela tions between the Exercise and the B.B.C., and it now remains to be seen how much of that good work has been undone ly willie raoughton's latest attempt at having it all his own way
P. W. CATE.

AN APPTEECIATION.

Dear Sir, - I should like ta express my appreciation of the broadcast of 'Bells Over Landon' on November 24tl. I am quite sure that the description given by Mr. Lewis must have been most interesting to al] listences, whether loellyingers or not.
To bellringers it must be gratifying to know that the art of change Moging is being made more popular in tho eves of the public through the microphone, hs is shown by the several broadcasts given recenty in conmedtion with the tercentenary of the College Fouths.

A NEW RECORD IN SPLICING.  LINCS RINGERS' GREAT PERFORMANCE.  A Peal in $\mathbf{8 0}$ Methods.

Another now record in 'Spliced ' Minor has been set up by the Eincolnshire bend at Algarkirk, whers on Saturday a peal in 80 six-bell mathods was rung. It is an amazing achievement.

Our peal columns give the official details of the parformance, and comment upon it will be fonnd in our leading article. It will lue noted from the report that there was a ' witness ${ }^{\text {b }}$ to the peal, a departure new in this partieular phase of ringing-

Except for one 720, the peal was arranged by Mr. A. G. Driver. The exception was a 720 composed by Mr. Kenueth Lowis, of Stockport, and contains the greabest number of methods yet included in a trus extent. Mr. Lewis las incorporated no fewer flan 19 methods into the 720 , and in the 60 leats there aro 45 changes of method. There were 176 changes of method in the whole peal, and Sibsey and Gosberton Alliance were rung for the first time.
Mr. Kenneth Lewis' 780 is as follows:-

A REVIEW OF THE YEAR'S WORK

The annual meeting of the North Staffordshire Association was held at Stoke on Saturday. Although the weather was very bad, no fewer than 56 sat down to tea, and lwo arrived atterwards. Ringers came tram Barlaston, Bucknall, Burslem, Brown Edge, Coventry, Crewe, Cheadle, Draycott, Exhall, Hanley, Kmgeley, Longton, Jeek, Lawton, Niewastle, Norton, Stone, Stoke, Tunsiall, Utoxcter, Wistaston and Wellington, Salop.

The Ven. Archdeacon Hartill, Rector of Stoke, extended a very liearty welcome to aII presenti and specially to thase who had travelled a distance on such a day.

A vote of thanks was proposed by Mr. J. E. Wheeldon to the Rector of Stoke for the use of the bells and the excellent tea he had given them. He thought, however, it would only be a little drop in the ocean after the Rector had paid his eight curates.-Mr. $. Churton seconded the motion.

The Rector, in responding, said his income, which raised comment in the London newspapers, was $£ 3,560$. After he had paid his curates and 5300 in travelling expenses, he could, however, still afford to pay for the tea without fear of bankruptoy.

Mr. A. D. Steel proposed a vate of thanks to the visitors, whom they wore always pleased to see, and he also spoke of a proposal to establish a local branch of the Police Gnik of Ringers, in comnection with which be had been in touch witl the Chef Constable of Stoke-on-Trent

The business meeting followed, with the president (the Rector of Stoke) in the chair, supported by the Rev. F. D. Gardner (clerieal secretary), Mr. Alldrew Thampson (hon. secretary) and Mr. Kenneth Thacker (assistant lon. secretary).

The commitee reported that at their amual meeting, held at Burslen on November 13th, the following report was preseated by the hon. secretary: Durin号 the patt year twelve meetings have been held, one for erery month, two at ten-bell towers, six at eight, and fout at six-bell towers. The average attendance liad bean 39, a decrease of two per meeting ou last year. Tive members had attended all the meetings, wiz., Messus. T. Hind, J. E. Wheeldon, E. Steele, S. Thompson and $A$, Thompson. Three of these fve attended them all in the peviane year as well. One hundred and twenty-six members liad attiended at least one meeting during the year, an increase of 23. T'linty-one new members had been elected, mamely, three honowary, 12 non-resident and 16 riuging, but with vegret the deakh of Mr. W.J., Woodward, honorary member, at Utioseter, and of Mr. R. G. Lewis, Tinging Master for eftht-bell tovers for over ten jeats, was recorded. Thwo committee meeting had leen held; onte ali Fenton to anvarue Coronation peals, the other at Kingsley, wherc it was decided to hold an association dinner in February, 1938. Mr. A. D. Steel was elected Ringing Master for eight-luell towers, and a suggestion was made that the assoriation should change its name to one which he regarded as more appropriate, namelJ, "The North Staffordshire Association of Change Ringers.

RECORD NUMBER OF PEALS.

Durink tho year, the secrelary stated, he had ugain wisited most of the towers in the district, and found them in very good condition. Silverdala tower had again been opened for Sunday ringing after heincr olosed for two years. Thirty peals laad been rung during the year, consisting of five of Mijor (one Plann Bob, one Kent Trehle Bob, one Little Boh, one Cambridge and one of Staffordshive), eight of Triples (one Stedman, and seven of Grandsire), 12 of Minor (two Bob Minor, ten of Treble Bob-nine in seven methots and one in five methods), five of Granasire Doubles. This was a record number of peals rung in one year for the association.

Ten ringers had rung their first peal and two latid ondtucted their first peal. The secretary added that he would very much like to see more young rimgers talking mare interesi in conducting, so that, as years go on, the number of peals mifhts be increased. Forty peals finoma be rung ly an associntion of their size each year. The most interesting peal footnotes are of Cambridge Major ruig at Newcastle in honour of Alderman S. Myott being elected Mayor for the third time, of obe ring in lianour of the erthronement of Dr. Woods as Lord Bislop of Lichfield, and of ten Coromation peals.

The association was represented at the Central Council meeting held at Canterbury on May 18 th , and a report of the meeting, the first given by a representative of the association, was presented by Mr. Andrew Thompson.
W. Wade, former leader of Lomoton, had completed his soth year as a tinger. The secretary added that althongh his suggestion regarding the advertising of meetings in 'The Ringing World' was not adopted, he hoped more interest would be taker in this great bellfinging paper: Ten reports of their meetings had appenced in it thig Yest.
The secretary was complimenticd on lis report by Morsrs. J. E. Wheeldon and G, E. Plant.

The statement of Bccounts was read and accepted, as was the auditor's report, in which it was stated that the Post Office Savings Bank book was oredited with 21545 ., and the cash in tho secretary's lands was $£ 10$ 14s. 3d. 'The increased balance on the year was 87 10s. 8 did.

KENT COUNTY ASSOCIATION

CANTIERBURY DISTRICT MEETING.
A successful and pleasant by-mecting of the Canterbiry Districe of the Kent Connty Association was held at Wicklambeany on Saturday, November 27th. Forly-five memhers were present, ropresenting Ash, Birchingtou, Canterbury (4), Dover, Eytilorue, Littielourne, Stury and Brabourne, in addition to the strong band of the locild tower.
Riuging was enjoyed on the peal of six bells during the atternoon and evening. The usual service was conducted by the Rector (the Mev, G. A. Blatkman), the lesson being read by Mr. W. JH. Shipton, ol Birchington, witile Mr. W. E. Pithuan presided st the organ. A number of local residents were also present at the service.
'Tea, by kind invitation of the Rector, followed in the Boys' Cluls.
Mr. W. E. Shipton and the Rev. Bulstrode (Nonington) were elected hon. meabers with enthusiasm. In thanking the members for electing him a member, Mr. Slipton said that was the first time he hat came into contact with ringers and ringing. He was more than interested in what they did, and combed it an honour to join the association
Two courses of Triples were rumg on the handlachs, and thien followed what all the young mentbers of Wickhambreanx had been wailing for, tunes by the Dover "twins," "Horatio and Herbaceous," who by now must be geting somewhat famons in the district both for their tune ringing and their difference in stature! Their tunes wert received with delight by all, especially the Rector and his friends, and all present, joined in singing two or three of the airs
I'hanks to the Fector were expressed for the nse of the bells and for tha service and address, and a refurn was bliell made to the tower for further ringing. Namerons mathods were prachised. There wers: many expressions of legret that Mr. Harcison Smith was mable to he presput at the meeding (in lis own tower) throngh the selions illness of his bretlier.

A CONTNG OF ACE' GATHERTNG

The R.Y.F. (otherwise the Fritht Young People, and not all of them so young at that) leld their moutlily praciice of November 27 th it Langley, where the bells have pecentiy been rehung and a mew treblo athied. Finging commented soon after the advertisea time with Gramsire Donbles, and as the compary inctensed so did the variety of metheds, London Surprise Minor being rung before adjourning for tea. This, the most important item of the afternoon, was served at Thin Chestnnts, whose fandord is foreman of the local ringers
During tea, Mus. A. D. Tarker prodiced an ieed cake, suitably inserithed, which she had made as a 21 st hintuday compliment to a buxom yonng lady who atway juils her weight at these meetings. Tresents rancing from a ' dummy' to 'something in pink' weto also presented amid laughter and cheers.
The necretary again impressed nyen the company the great impoptance of supporting their nalional paper, "The Ringing World," ancl expressed it hope that if there were any present who did not take the paper lliey would do so at nuce, as its future was entively in the hands of the riugers thomselves.
A vote of thanlts was passed to the Vicar for the use of the bells, and Denham suggested for the Desember prawice.
The tower was agnin visited, alithough a fow stayed bolind to try their skill at darts, aud, others to indulge iu that highly developed art of 'huying a postcard.
Thes bells were lowered in peal at 8.30 p .m., everyone delighted with the 'go,' and congratulating the bellhangers on making a good job out of an awtewnrd 1.5.2.4.3

a ${ }^{\prime}$ great' little man

DEATH OF A BEDFORDSHERE WORTHY.
Mr. William West, of Biddenban, Bedfordshire, has passed away in his 90 th year. He stanted to learn to rimr at the age of 12 and was madu a momber of the local buthd when 14 years old. He succeeded his father when he died as steeplekeeper, and was succeeded a year ngo hy his sion, Mr. R. West.
William West loved his bells and welcomed everyone who came to ring them, but they had to be well struck. Always ready and willing tn teach, most of the lads in this small village fearnt to riug under his tutorship. Swall of stature, William West was a 'great' little man.
A mufled peal which was attempted at Biddenham on December 4th ,y members of the Bedfordshire Association in memary of Mr. West unfortunately came to grief in the fifth 720 . E. S .

DON'T SCRUB YOUR HANDS!

Cleanse and preserve your skin this simple way

To many people, the problem of getting the hands really clean without harming the skin is a serious one. Grease and grime, which become deeply ingrained into the pores of the skin, are extremely difficult to remove, and ordinary washing with soap or even scrubbing will fail to remove them completely. Housewives, particularly, who complain that their hands get ruined by the nature of their work, will find the preparation called DERMAFOAM, a real "godsend." DERMAFOAM just smoothes away dirt and grease without effort. It gets right down into the pores and removes every particle of grime, leaving skin beautifully supple and healthy.

Men, too-when you've finished that dirty job on the car, DERMAFOAM will quickly banish all grease and oil from your hands. It acts almost magically-working under and around the nails and into every minute crease, removing all trace of dirt in a flash.

Engineers, Painters, Car Mechanics, Printers - everyone - will welcome DERMAFOAM, the modern method of cleansing and protecting the hands.

tration seem to be out of the question; and in these days of prolific production of peals the author's name alone, attached to a peal report, does not serve to identify what has been rung. One or two composers number their compositions, and conductors should be careful always to add this identification where possible. Could not this arrangement be further extended, so that all compositions (irrespective of the rights of authorship or clains to originality) could be collected and numbered and the identity of every peal performance thus accurately established? We know a great deal of labour would be involved, but would this not in the long run be one safeguard against losing all check upon what has been rung and a step towards the elimination of false peals?

A WORCESTERSHIRE RESTORATION

BISEAMPTON'S GREAT BFFORT.
Very largely by the untiring efforts of the Vicar (the Rev. 'J. Wilkinson), the tower and bells at St. James Parish Charch, Bishampton, near Pershore, Worcestershive, have been restored at a cost of nearly $£ 1,000$. The extensive work to the structure was completed last year, and now the bells have been set in order hy Messrs. J. Taylor and Co.
The dedication of the bells was precedcd by a parochial tea, at which the Vicar epoke of the progress of the fund for the restoration work, and the Bishop of Worcester paid warm fribute to the valuable work which the Vicar had done ja callecting such a large sum for the carrying out of the scheme. Aldernan J. Hemmintr (Hampton), on behalf of the Worcestershire Association, congratulated the parish on the restoration.
There was a large congregation at the dedication service, which was conducted by the Vicar, who expressed his gratitude to all who hed contributed to the fund. Genernl Sir Francis Daries and Major W, H. Taylor (Birtingham) read the Iessons
The dedication took place in the belfy, and before returuing to tho chancel the Bishop unveiled a marble tablet commemorating the restoration.
The Bishop, in bis subsequent address, spoke of the bistory and uses of bells, and referred to the extraordinarily rich inheritane which we have in Eugland in our old parish churches. 'Not only', he said, 'ara they often real gems of architecture, but more thar that you find they aro wituesses to the past love of God on the part of our forefathers, and they are witnesses to-dny that God is the ruler of th universe, of this nation and of each single individual.
The opelling ringing was done by J, D. Johnson thon. secyetary of the Worcesterslire Association), J. Hemming (Hampton), H. Midille ton (Norton), J. W. Herth (Willerses), G. A. Kirg (Endeey) and J. Hall (Bretfortor).
Others who attended were Messrs. T. Spiers (Gower Moor'), W Shelton (Birningham), S. T. Holt (Crowle). C. Canim (Dpton-on Severn), G. W. Cooper (Stonrbridre), B. Ashford (Olert), J. H Shepherd (Swindon), C. H. Webb (Coventry), E. T. Newbury and W. H. Harris (Beckford, J. E. Nemman and Miss I. D. Barner (Hivton-ou-the-Green), F. Furdman (Burton-on-Trent), S. Jones (Derby), G. N. Baylis and J. Beasley (Norton), E. S. Beasley (Stour bridge), Mr. J. P. Fidler (representing Messrs. Jolin Taylor and Co. and the members of the local baud, $G$. A Ainge (captajn), B. Ainge H. Ainge, P. R. Ainge, F. J. Ansell, E. Femming, C. Y. Hamis, J Harris, J. G. Ludlow, C. J. Salisbury, W, T. Shelton and F. Spiers.

Most of the bells were cast in 1690 and they have been tuned and ehung in a new frame. The tenor is $10 \%$ cwt. and the ingcriptione

1. Grlielmpa Keyt. Baronot. Hvns Maneris 1690.

A PLYMOUTH RINGER'S JUBILEE.

PRESENTATION TO MR. G. H. MYERS.
The 850th anniversary of St. Andrew's Glureh, Plymouth, provided an excellent opportunity of commemorating the 50 th year of ser'vice thero as a zinger by Mr. G. H. Myers.
At mn' At home 'held in the Abbey Hall, Mr. Myers was presented by the Bishop of Plymouth, on behalf of wite Church Council, wilis a solid silver bell, complete in oak frame and suitably iuseribed.

His Lordship commented on the fact that Mr. Myers rang at St. Andrew's for Queen Victoria's Jubilec, the Accession and Corouaion of Edward VII, and George V., the Silver Jubilee of George V., the Accession of Edward VIII. and, for the Coronation of our present King and Qneen, participated, together with his three sons, in-a pea] of Bob Royal at St. Andrew's. This peal was coaducted by Mr. T. G. Myers, and, incidentally, was the only peal rung in Devon for the Coronation.
The Bishop, in conclusion, wished Mr. Myers many more years af ringing at St. Andrew's, and the recipient suitably responded. to the Devon Guild.
O. L. G.

Mr. Myers recalls that lie was laughed at for suggesting that change ringing should be practised in Devon, but in spite of that lie persisted in his endenvours and can proudly point to the fact that he has now under his charge the most progressive band in the counly, who can ring Surpriss methons for Sinday service. That, in a part of the country where call change ringing is practically the order of the day, says much for his perscpermace, entansiasm and excellent teaching ability.
He has been captain of St. Andrew's baud for the last 25 years, and, although not a prolific peal vinger, has rung about 100 peals (of which lie has condneter about a quarter'). Most of these are credited io the Devon Guik.

In celebration of the 850th anniversany of St. Andrew's Church, Plymouth, a quarter-peal of 1,259 clanges of Grandsire Caters was rung on Sunday evening, November 28th: C. Holmes 1 , Mrs. Guy (longest length on 10 belis) 2 , Allen Weatherby 3 , J. Gluyas 4, A. W. Myers 5, A. Mitelelmore 6, W. Hamlyn 7, S. O'Sianghessy 8, G. F. Mvers (conductor) 9, G. Marshall 10.

RESTORATION OF ANCIENT WARWICKSHIRE RING

'PLAINTIVE MELODY' OF CORTEE BELLS UNTOUGUED.
The village of Corley situated shout four miles north-west of Coventry has an ancient church (dedication unknown) in the Norman and early decorated style with as small central tower of wood built m the roof ard containing five bells, which were in an unsafe state for many years. 'Ihe bells haye now been rehung in a new steel frume and new fittings, and on Sunday, November 28 th, at eveuing service, were rededicated by the Rev. E. G. Bowring, M.A., five members of the Warwicksbire Guild ringing a plain course of Grandsire Doubles as an opening tonch.
The Rector (tho Rev. T. Goring) expressed his gratitude to all who had helped with the work.

After the senvice 120 of Grandsire Doubles was rung: 0 . H. Webl $I_{1}$ M. C. Meivile 2, J. W. Taylor 3, J. H. Whito (conductor) 4, W. A. State 5. A number of ringers were present, including the presiden of the N.U.T.S., who had arrived the previous day and had obtained a ladder to get on to the roof of the church to find his way to measure tho tenor bell. He, bowever, found this & dificult job, as the bells mr* ruag in the centre of the nave, and it is ouly by going through a small trap door in the roof of the nave that ona can get to the bofle. However, throngh tjie kindness of a well-known ringer, late of Croft, lie fonnd access on the Sunday afternoon.
The bells are inscribed:-
2.-1410 Jolin De Colsale.
3.-1702 ت. Bazaley. Recast by Taylor and Co. 1937.
4.-(Aacient bell founder unknown, no marks).
5.-1631 T. Fancox, Weight 5 cwt. 1 gr. 18 it.

The work has been carriad out by Messrs. J. Taylor and Go., of Loughborolrgh, in their usual excellent manner. The firm was repyesented by Mr. J. P. FidIer.
The bells are a quaint rint not in perfect thne, but the architect recuested that the "quaint plaintive melody" of Corlex bells rmain maltered.

SWANSEA RINGER'S DEATH.

At St. Mary's, Swansea, on Sinday, Oecember 5th, as a last tribute to the memory of Mr. Jamis Hoare, e cinger and chorister nit this church, who passed away suddenly the previous weck, a quarter-peal of Grandsire Triples (Reeves') was 'ung half-mufflod by A. lidwntes 1. J. Withams 2, Reg Dobbins 3, Faydn Dobbins 4. F. Hanson 5. W: Dobbins 6, A. W, Dobbins (condietor) 7, A. Rose 8. Ringers of 1 and 8 belong to Swansea, tlie rest to Gorseinon.

BELFRY GOSSIP.

Mr. Stephen Wood, of Bristol, is a colt' among 'ringers' in the Antient Guild of St. Stephen's Ringers iz that Antient City. The fumy part about it is that Mr. Wood is the only member who knows anything about ringing, for the is whe first practising ringer to be adnitted since 1648!
The Antient Guild, which existed in Queen Elizabeth's kime, aud was granted a charter in 1620 , has nover ceased in its beneficent work of maintaining and beautifying the fabric of St. Stephen's Chureh and upholdirg the ordinances of its charter. Perhaps Mr. Wood can apow induce some of the members to become interested in the art they have so long negleuted.
Despite the proximity of a Sturey meeting at Betolnworth (three miles away), the meeting of Leatherhead District of the Guildford Diocesan Guild attracted 35 ringers, and the ringing included courses in tive Surprise methods as wall as humbler stuft.
The ouly complaint about the "clash was from ainger who, at 7 o'clock, learmed of fhe Betchworth meeting for the first fime and regretted he did not know of it emrlier. He was promptly told to Take "The Ringiug World,"
The many friends of pr. John H. Cheesman will be sorry to hear that he has had the misfortume to liveak an arm, and will wish him a speedy recovery. Mr. Cheeswan is one of the besti known North Kent ringers, and is one of the comparatively small mumber who have rung over & thousand peals.
The Hobart Holy Trinity Bellingers' Association have lost two of their menhers by removal to other parts of Tasmania. This is at serious hlow to ptogress in a place where whange ringing thes as yeb only a precmious existence.
Under the heading of 'Campanology,' the "Henley Standard' of December 3yd complimented the Wargrave riagers upon a seleution of bymn bunes giver on the bells ons the previous Sunday morning and evening, and asked for more. "rleere was a good attendance of aingers, said the newspaper, "and they are to De lieartily complimented mpon the able way in which they rang the bells.
The ringers of ike four towerg iu Oldham have decided to reform the Oldhem and District, Society. They will, of consse, retain their membership of the Laucashire Associabion.

DEATH OF MR. A. T. BAKER.  IREN $\mathbb{A U S}$ PISROR PASSES ON.

Years ago, in the early days of "The Ringing World, ${ }^{\text { }}$ there were frequent contribations by an anonymous conrespondent, Irenseus Pistor," who wielded a trenchath pen, and, with lis somewhat eyaical bumour, added relish to fuany a discussion. It is long now since Irengens Pistor.' was able to write for this paper, for the tervible affiction of blindness overbook him. And now alfred Townsend Baker is dead.
When Mr. Baker wrote for 'The Ringing World' he was living at Hilsborough, Shofficld, but when lie was ala longer able to work he removed to [lkeston, Derbyshire. About two years ago he lost his wife after a long illuess, and this was a severe blow to him.
On December thin he had a seizure, aud, without recovering conscionsuess, passed away in the early hours of December 7th, at the age of 60 years.
Through 'Fine Ringing World, whieh was faithenly read to him week bJ week, Mr. Baker hept contact with what was happening in the Exercise and was fulwaps keenly interested in the doings of his frients. It sems strange that only the nighe before his attack hes neplew finished reading "lhe Nine Tailors" to hiva.
The funeral tools place al Kirk Hallam Clutheh on Thuseday week. The spmpathr of all will go out to Mies Muriel Baker, the only ehitd, who is left to moun'r her loss. She has bees her' father's constant companion and solace durimg his affiction.
The bells at St. Mary's Church, 1lkeston, were rung half-muffled for hotll services on Sundiay as a mark of respect.

BELLS OVER LONDON. To the Datitor.

Dear sitw I reat with some shrprise My. P. W. Oave's letter in the current issue of 'The Ringing World,' and I suggest that it must lave been muiten rather hastily or he would hardy have allowed fimself to indulge in a personal attack on Mr. Roughton without, as In seems to admit, knowing nuch of the facts. His reference to the 'exclusiveness ' of the Collere Yonths is, according to my haring, the exnet opposite to the facts, for, as I heard Mr. Roughton, he emplasised that the Gollege Fouths were not exclusive, except ouly as regards the Simday ringing at St. Pal's. I hardly think, too, that many will geree with his remark that Miss Dorothy Sayers (however clever her book) has done more for ringing than Mr. Roughton.
As to the witherawal part of the business I do not propose to enter into much discussion at the moment, as the matter appears to be 'sub judice,' but I would suggrest that it would be more in accord with the best traditions of ringing if tinose who apparentiy disagree with Mr. Roughton werc to withhold judgment until they liave heard his side of the question; for I think that there is no one who lias worked harder in the past on behalf of the College Fouths, particularly in regard to troadcasting, than he has, and if and when the true facts appear, it mav be realised that Mr. Roughton has not been too well treated.

NORTHFLEET'S YOUNG RINGERS.

BOY'S AND GIRLS RECRUITED TO MAKE NEW BAND.

The shortacte of ringers in many places is a gource of serious concern to those who are responsiblo for mantaining service ringing. Nearly cverywhere the cry is that there ave so many connter-atsactions in Ilese days that young people wili not give to ringing the time mecessary to nuke thenselves proficient-indeed, they will not come into the belfry ${ }^{\text {at }}$ all

This year at Nortlifleet, it was decided to try to form a band of juniors, and the Vicar was approached reparding the choirhoys and the girls of the Bible Class. At first two chorboys cante ulong, but within Lwo weeks there were 10 boys and girls on the: degister.
Great eredit is due to Mr. George Bubcher, an entinisiast, whose activilies are well kown in North Rent. With one or two helpers he

At Nort:flect, Kent, however, a remarkably successfill effort has heen made to recruit the company with young people. During recent summers there was a decided slackness amongst members of the band. For about three months in the summer of last year no practice was passible, ouly two or three turning up even Sundav service ringing was out of the question on some oomsions. The ncisglubouring tower of Gravesend was in a similar might, and eventually it was decided to have a combined practice, to be leelit on the usital practice night of tile rerpective bands on alternate weelas. This, although of help to the enthusiasts, only gave the 'slackers' the opportanity of an exense on the Gravesend night, in the winter months, and also did not solve the problem of Sunday service ringiag.

Itas put an an enormous amount of time teachisg these poungstere, who now number twelve. It was a great day whon, on the onchsios of the dediation festival on Outober 10th, the juveniles vang entirely nnaided as a band, their aterage age being under 14 year's. Fiftern-year-old Phyllis Stacer ranm the 162 cwt. tenor. Service ringing is at prosent confined to well-strucls 'Stoney. The hand is also making root progress with tume ringing on Landbells, and the Vicar (the Res. T. A. Page) is arranging for them to zive a short piogramme of carols in church on December 26 th

Althongh the Vicar knew nothing of hells and ringing when foe went to Northfect three years ago, he has Lakell a deal of interesi m the ectivifies of the band and gives all the enconmagement he can.

THE BELLS OF ST. GEORGE-IN-THE-EAST

IONUON RECTOR"S APPEAL FOR HELP.

To the Editor
Bear Sir, As the "History of the Callege Youths' mentions that, fis the early days of bellringing, important peals wore rung at the I'arish Church of St. Gearge-in-the-East, I should be most grateful if you will allow me to appeal to yun readers and to all those interested In hellringing for their kind financial help to enable the cight bells of St, feorge-in-the-tast to peal ance again.
They are, and have heen for sume years, in a very ban state, and to put them into thorongh ringing condition will cost f317. Towards this sum I have been promised $£ 180$, so that there is $£ 137$ still re finired. The parish of St. Gearge-in-the-Gasl: is one of the poorest in Fatst London, and our own people have done their best and have given all they can.
I do, therefore, ask-with confidence-for the assistance of ally friends. All contributions should be adidressed to the Rector, the TRectory, 16. Cannon Street Road, St. Gearge-in-the-East, E. 1 , and ant adknowledgront and a receipt will lin sent to every kind donor.
R. BRTide FADIE, Rector, St. George-in-East.

GLOUCESTER AND BRISTOL DIOCESAN ASSOCIATION

The Girencester Branch of the Gloticester and Bristol Diocesan Association held its annual meeting at Cirencester on Satirday. December 4 th. Although the weather conditions were very had and most of the ringers lind to come from some distance, the meeting proved very successful. The following towers were represcuted: Northleach, Chedworth, Lechlade, Maisey Hampton, Fiarford, Sonth Cerney, Withington and Cirencester, and there were visitor's from Glwist Chnreh nud St. Mark's, Swindon, Faringdon and Rodbourne Cheney.
Tea at Messrs. Viner's Restaurant was followed by tife busibess meeting, the Rev. N. F. Hope presiding.
The lon. treasurer's report for the year was considered very satisfactory.
The officers were elected for 1938 as follows: Chirman, the Rex N. E. Hope: hon. secretary and treasurer, Mr. W. H. Hayward: nember on Management Commitlee, Mr. J. Hopa.

Watermoor bells were open in the afternoon and the Parish Churels bells (12) during the evening. Methode rusg ranged from frandsive Triples fo Boli Royal and some rounds on the twelve bells.

BRISTOL'S ANTIENT RINGERS' GUILD.

ELKABETHAN SOCIMTY HOLDS ITS FEAST.

Mr. S. H. Wood, First Ringing Member for Nearly 300 Years.
For tho first tinge since the year 1648 the Antiant Guild of St, Stephon's Ringers has a practising silger among its members. The old Dristol organisation, fonded under a charter of 16E0, which exishs to preserve the fabric of St. Stephou's Clutch, this year elected Mr. Stephen H. Wood as a "colt' or 'apprentice.

Queen Elizabeth exiended her royal favour to the socioty, which, on the occasion of a visit which she paid to Bristol, gave her noweome by the ringing of St, Stephen's bells. The charter was granted in the reign of her successor, and the Antient Guild stifl roaintains some of tibe quaint customs of its early days.

Every year it holds an annual feast, at which its ordinances are molemnly read and a new Master installed in traditional manaer by being carried to the ohair.
But althourli ringing now forms jo part of the Guilds activities, its work for St. Stephen's is of a very practical kind. For example since 1875110 less than $£ 11,000$ has been devoted to the restoration and enrichment of the church.

On the Surday preceding the feast a service was held, in accordance witz cuslom, in St. Stephen's Church. The Master (Mr. G: H. Boucher) presided at tho annual dinner, which was attended by the Lord Mayor and sherift of Briatol, Lord Waldegrave and the Dean of Bristol.

The traditional toasts were honoured, that of "The Antient Society of St. Stephen's Ringers and bhe Master' being proposed by the Lrord Mayos.
The Master, in respronding said: "Never has this society been regarded more lighly in the public esteem than it is to-day. People do appreciate the honour of being one of the 100 .
During the last 20 years they had put the tower into first-rate order for a period, they were fold, of 100 years. The very beautiful north pores was being put into perfect order and the vestries had been completely restored.
He was glad to say that the portion of the buildings now being domolished in Colston Avenue, adjoining the church, would be, by the groodness of the owners in conjunction with the city, set brack some 16it, so fhat people world be able to see the tower from the base riglat to the top so that the full glory of the tower would be exposed. The socicty would, he thought, be able to put the west end, which wauld be fully exposed, 1 bito good condition and to evoryone's satisfaction.
Mr. Sidney Cliford (senior warden) proposed 'The Fector and Churehwardeus of St. Steplaen's Church,' and 'The Preacher of the Day.'

TIMo Rev. S. E. Swank (Vinat of Redoliffe) replied. He said that St, Stephon's and St. Mary Redeliffe were closely associated in many ways. They had a rinf of 12 bells at $S t$. Mary Redeliffe for 40 yerrs, but on all ceromonial occasions St. Stepheats ringers rang their peals, ranry like to liave his own hand of ringers, and be rentrred to suggest that some of the distingushed members of the society instead of continuing to be 'speulative' ringers might become active ringers.
The Master pronosed the toast of "The New Master and New Wardons.' In tho traditional way the new master (Mr, Sidnet Cliford) was installed by being carried to tho chair. Mr. J. R. Ware was instelled senior warden, and Mr. H. G. Treasure junior warden.

To the Editor.

Sir, Mr. Kanneth Jewis, in his reply to me, las attempter to read into my letter something whinh was not intended to be there. I did not in any way inpuge the honesty of any compober. A treasurer does not consider his honesty or integrity in any way questioned by probably insist on it, My suggestion was the pre-audit of peal figures. It is a fact that practically all the peals withdrawn as false lave bean published. J[ they had not been published the erior wonld probably not liave loen discovered. For instance, the records at Painswick and Soulhwark wonld rrobably still be accepted as frue peale. Certain assochations, e.g., Gloucester mud Bristol, and Lincoln, thrays publish their peal figures. Why should not all do this?
The percentage of false peals to true is undoubtedly small, lut there is a percentage of such false figures, and it is probably higher io unpublighed figeres than in published, since the fignres by a known composer are given wider circulation than those by an miknown and usually find their war into priat.

If the Central Conncil insist, as they rightly do, that false peals must be witharawn, then they should insist that peal figures are made known or certified lyy some authorised body.
Mr. Lewis says this only interests a small section of the fraternity. It is of interest to every peal rimmel-might I say of much more interest than, perliops, hours of discussion over a word such as spiced. But, of course, this was hat waste of valuable time. I must npologise for ngsin using your valuable apace, but felt that I of fitw conpposer to go uncorrected.
J. F. ARMSTRONG.

TEACHING BEGINNERS.

Ta the Editor
Dear Sir,-I was interested to read Mr. F. E. Dawe's Ietter in your issue of November 19th in which lie points out that I had misunderstood the meaning of his previous letter.
It is quite true that he did not specifically mention my name or the article which I had contributed to your previous issue, but luis letter appeared between two others which quite defnitely did relate to my article, aud I confess that fhis led na-and incidentally a good many others as well-to read his letter in a similar light,

However, Mr. Dawe has given his assurance that this was not his intention, and it appears, ilherefore, that I dia him an injustice in including him in the remarks I felt bound to make regarding the tone of the letters concemed. If this is the case, I owe him an apology which I willingly make, because when I disagree with my elders-as disagree I must with Mr. Dawe on this subject-I would rery much rather do so in an amicable spirit.

Turning now to the rest of Mr. Dawe's letter, I notice that he is of the opinion that the idea of starting begimers on even-bell methods emanates mainly from inexperienced members of the rising seneration. I question mhether this is so; in the first place, I would point out that it is possible to have had quite a lot of experience of instruction and still be a member of the younger generation; and in the second place I could teli Mr. Dawe of many ringers of all aces who share my views on this matter and who, martover, put, them into practice regulariyand successfully-with their pupils. If he will turn to your issue of October 22nd lie will find it lebter from yonr correspoudent "Interested ' who states that he has had 44 years' experieace-almost as Iong as Mr. Dewe himself-and 'strongly ndrocates starting beginners on the even-beli methods first.
I am sory if I appeared to speak slightingly of old times, but possibly there is a little misunderstanding on Mr. Dawe's parit bere. Whint I intended to conver was that wiews held 50 years ago should not necessarily be accepted witlicut further argument to-day. There is muth that can be said in favour of both systems of instruction, but they should be considered on their own merits, and irrespective of any bias towards one method simply because it was the usual practice two generations घgo.

The opinions I have expressed are the results of my own practical experience-short though it has bean-of both systems. The most astonishing statement in Mr . Dawe's letter is that in all his vast experience he has only come across three cases in which Plain Boly was used as the first method. In view of this I hope he will for:pive my asking lim (with all respect and in a perfectly friendly spirit) to consider carefutly whether lie is really qualified to judge between the respective merits of two sfstems of instruction, of one of which-0n his own showing-lie is almost completely ignorant.
Bristol
STEPHEN नF WOOD.

SOUTHERN DHSTRICT SECRETARY RETMRING
A very successful quarterly meeting of the Sonthern Distrint of the Surrey Association was held at. Betrhworth on Satarday, December 4th. As a meeting was being held at Dorking at the same thre, same of the ringers were able to visit both towers in their "fyiug squad ' cars. Ringers were present from Reigate, Redhill, Mersthan, Buck land, Lingfield. Forley, Bletchiagley, Crawley, Tunbridge Wells, Betidington, Cropdon, Uekfield, Oxford and Thornton Heatl.
Service was conducted by the Rev. E. H. Kennedy, who gave a waim welcome to the ringers to Betchworth. A very welcome tea was served ab the Dolphin Inn, and afferwards tho business meeting took place, the Master (Mr. D. K. C. Birt) presiding.

The hon. secretary (Mr. W. Clnydon) referred to the denth of Mr. Fhomas Whitmore, of Horley, who passed away on October 22nd The members expressed condolence with the relatives by standing for a few moments in silence.
It was proposed to attempt thie next quarterly peal at Buctrand, the conductor to be Mr . R. Fuller.

The sectetary intimated that owing to pressure of business he would not seck re-election. He thanked everyone for the support they lad given him. Several names were received for tho secretaryship and committee. Election will be by hallot at the annual meting. which will be held at Horley on Saturday, Janamry 22nd
The bells were kept going till 9 p.m., ringing ranging from Grand sire Triples to Bristol Sumprise Major.

BOURNEMOUTH'S NEW BELLS

A quarter-peal of Grandsire Triples mas ruxg on the new bells at St. Peter's, Bourmemouth, by mambers of the Sunday service band on December 5th for a Confirmation seryied by tile Lord Bishop of Southampton : H. Oshorne 1, L. V. Davis 2, F. Frankland Riqby 3 , H. Roherts 4, A. V. Davis (conduetor) 5, O. R. Forfits 6, P. W. Witham 7. F. Garrett 8.
The bells were dedicated an November 20th, and prior to this service and in henour of the occasion a touch of Grandsire Triples was rung at Sil. James Church, Poole.
It is hoped to hold a meeting of the Glaristchurch District of the Winchester and Portsmouth Dioceran Guild at Bonrnemouth carly in the new year.

PEAL NOTES.

WHPGREIING NAORS ABOUT PERFORMANCES AND RINGFRS. some nemes given to methods sound, at lirst, 4 bit odd. To some peopla Bovelloy Surprise may bo among them. But Boveney (pranounced Buvewey) is an ancient parish near Windsor, and was aciopted as a method name when firsi rung by the enterprisilg band whase activities centre round the royal borough.

The method is by George Baker and is a half-hrother to Ashtead. It is, in fact, Ashtead wikhout 7th's place. Only one peal had been lung before last Saturday, when the Guildford Guild who rang the first peal of Aslitead) rang the scond of Boveney at Iwell.

It provided another example of the vexed question of authorship of compositions. The 5,024 was an adaptation of half a peal of Double Norwich by George Williams. Can it be stid that George Williams romposed the peal? Boveney had never been heard of when he set down the figures to Double Norwich. Boveney has a 4th's place bot, while Doulde Norwich has a Gth's place bob; consequently the conjs ends are not the sime. A bob at 5 in Double Norwich brings up the wourse end, a bob Before in Boveney outs it out. But the calling of the peal of Boveney was taken from George Williams peal of Double Norwich. So what about it?

Alan Pink called both peals of Bovenoy, and in the two peals there have been 15 firsts in the mothod. Incidentally it was Mr. Pink's une bundredha peal as conductor, and these peuls have been rung in a large number of methods - something fine 25 Sinprise metligds among thers. And here is another iuterceting point. With the excepLion of a peal of Edmonton Eob he has called a peal in every Major method he bes rung.

A distinctly fine performance was put up by Willian G. Newberry in this peal. He came to ring the treble, but owing to the indisposilon of one of the bund a new trebleman lad to be obtained (it was Mr. Arthur Hadley, who was for many years in charge of the tower at Arklow, Ireland), and Bill Newberry, with a knowledge of Ashtead, learat the molhod in the tower before taking on the 7 th.

Anotber ringer to score his one hundredih peal as conductor in recent days is Mr. William Barton, of Pudsey, who reached his century with a peal of Bob Major on handbells, rung on December 7th, It wus a belated birthday compliment to Mr. P. J. Johnson, bat this was the first opportunity of thus colebratigg the natal anniversary of Yorkshire's former secretary

FIGETY AND STILL GOJNG STRONG

A peal of Datble Norwich Major was rung sit North Stoneliam on December gth to celebrate the fortieth anniversary of the wedding of Mr, and Mrs. W. R. Melville

Mr. Melville was for many venrs member of Holy Trinity, after wards the Cathedral, baud, Guildford, where he was steeplekecper ior a time. He was also a very active District Master of the Guidford Diocesan Guild.
Since his ratirement from Messrs. Dennis Bros'. inotor factory, he has been living at King's Worthy, near Winchester. Since taking to a country life be sems to be growing younger, but he finds gardening on a chalky soit as lard as the work in a blauksmith's shop
Mr. George Whiliams, who called this 'wedding peal' aud reached a total of 1,450 , must be the oldest active conductor. He was 80 in May, but he still keeps going, and since rogistaring 'four score' has rung 28 peals and called thent dozen of them. He is one of the very few ringers who have conducted over a thonsand peals.
Mr. John Sturit, an old member of the Gateshead band, whose death we recorded last week, was burjed on November 29th, and a half-rumfled peal was rung after the funeral. Fe was leader of the local company for many years and is deeply mourned.
The Norlh Lincolnshire bond, of which Mr- Jack Bray is a leading spirit, rane their first peal in seven Surprise Minar methods of December 7th. And it was, also, the first by the Northern Branch of the Lincoln Diocesan Guild. They ran the peal at Elslam as a birthday compliment and a farewell to tho vicar, who is leaving the pariel.
A peal in seven Minor methods at Hope, Mintshire, on December $4 t h$, marked the 17 fh gnniversary of the bells, whilh were installed hy Messrs. Taylor and Co. in 1920 and constitate the wilage war memorial.
The six bells at Beentam, Bucks, have recently been rehuns, and the first peal on them since they were reoperied was rung on December Eth by a local band, who are all ex-Service men. The perl consisted of three methods of Minor, two 720's each of TKent and Oxforch and three of Plain Rob. Tlie 720's were rung alternately.

Two sisters, the Misses W. E. and D. L. Ditcham, members of si Giles", Norwich, tower, were among the three ringers who rang a peal of Double Norvich Major at the first, attempt it St. Giles' Church on December 1st

OANON HELMORE'S BIRTHDAY

Mr. Thamas E. Sone, of Paddock Wood, Kent, on Saturday rang his one hamirecth peal of Kent Treble Bob. This was at Aylesford, and the has now called a peal from all the bellg in no fewer than six towers.
The peal was a birthday compliment ta Canon F. T. O. Helmore of Canterbury, who was hon. secretary of the Kent County Associa tion for over 30 wears. Canan Helmore is 86 . A peal of Donble Norwieh in lonour of the event on the preceding Saturday at New Romney unfortunatoly failed.
With the peal of Stedman Triples on December 8th, Mr. G. H Pery has condicted peals from each bell at St. Illtwis, Bridgeud, and js believed to be the first to do so in any tower for the Landafl and Monmouth Association. 'Ilae variation of Brook's peal, which was the compasition used, starts as suggested in "The Kinging World recently, with rounds the last row of the six.
To call a peal of Bob Royal on landbells from $3-4$ as the first attempt at calling a peal of Royal is the mutable performace of Derek Shanp, at Crayford. &t the same time two other of the yolnger Craylora members, Teddy Barnett II. aud Geoflrey Y. Murphy, rung their fiftieth peal together.

Two peals of Yorkshire by the Yorkshire Association on the same day! It is another testimony to the growing popularity of this Surprise method. Thase twa peals wero rang on Deceuber 11 th al Handsworth and Eckington.

After a peal in honour of the golden wedding of tho Earl and Countess of Harrowby, at Stone, Stalis, on Sinturday, the baud were hospitably entertained by ML", and Mrs. Wilis Buckicy Thiree sixtecn-year-old ringers of St. Peter's Socicty, Buralam, took part in the first peal on the bells at Langley Marish, Bucks, on Decenber 6th, when seven 720's of Minol in seven diFerent methods were rung to mark the 25 th year of the incumbency of tho Hov, F. T. H. Shepherd, through whose gelicrosity the bells were increased from fivo to six.
Of the three youtlis, John E. Taylor rang his 25 th peal, and 13 yran Q'Neill his first peal in seven methods. The third, Marin Blamey, rang the treble
The Rector of Alwalton, Hunts, where there is a ring of five bells, is anxious to stir the interest of the paribhionets into forming as band of ringers. On December 4th, at his iavitation, a visiting company rang a peal in five methorls of Doubles as a piece of propayonde work, and afterwards were entertained to ter by the Rector (the Rew. F. G. Milnes). Visiting ringers are sure of a warm welcome at any time at Alwalton

CORNWALL'S YOUNGEST CONDUCTOR.

A very young conductor salled the peal of Doubles at Wenslam, Cornwall, on December 4tin. He celebrated his 12th birthduy ouly the day before, and bis perifomance was wortly of atyone trith oldel in years and experience, as be ouly rang his first peal just twelve monthe ago. Since ther, howevet, he has takel part in several, and is a very enpable rimper of (irandsite Triples and titedman-samely an achievement for a child
In honomr of the tetcentenury of the College Youtils, I Am members rang a peal of Loudon Surprise at Wexthoughion on Theent ber 4th.
What should have been a birthday peal at Holbrak. Nutiolk, on December 3rd, was bumed into a pen of mourning for the death of Brig.Gen. E. Huater Rodwetl, ehutelwaten and an honoraty onember of tho Suffolk Guild.
It was Ronald Steward's 17 th birthing, but the muffles were put, on and Doubles substituted for Miner. It was the first peal of Diunliles by all the banc

It is of interest that Miss Syluin Bowyer. who took part, has now rime peals on all mumbers from Doubles to Mayimus.
Three of the Sumday service ringers at Silton toote part on November 26 th in the first peal on the five bells at this Dorsef viliage. It wrac their first peal, too.

The first peal of Minor on the hells at Bodentam, Herefordshire, was rung as a 25 th birthday compliment to Mr. Tesclie Evans, one of the ringers.
A peal in two hours and liftreen minutes, even of Doubles, on $a$ ring of six clurch bells is mood going. At Rushalt, Staffs, 42 six-scores of Stedman wore rung in this time on Decmber 9th. It was the quicters peal on tho bells, the tenow of which is just under $7 t$ cont.
The conductor, Mr. Frank E. Haynes, who is Ringing Masker of St. Martin's Guild, has now called and Mr: D. PI Matkim loss riseg porls of Stedman from Ginques to Doulles. This peal, by the way, way rung for the Staff Archdeaconry Society.

COMPOSTA IN EGYPT
Mr. Bernard Swingon, who resided for some years iu Ligsptr workerl ant while there a variation of Carter's odd bob one-part peaj of Stedman Triples. It was aallenf for the first time onl Detember gth by Mr. Manvice F. R. Hibbert, at Bushey. Mr. Hibbert, like that other Manrice-Mancice Swinfield, of Finton-has a penclant for malling difficult penls.
The first penl of Major on the bells since they wele restored was rung at Netherseale, Derbyshire, on December 4tli.
The first peni on the six bells at Whenthampstead, Ficris, since they were recast and rehing by Messrs. J. Taylor and Co. was ratns on December 4th and was a birthday compliment to Mr. H. Goldjns Miss Richardson and the condictor (Mi: Walter Ayre).

Messre. C. V. Ebberson and Nolan Goldels rang their fftichs peal together when they took part in a peal of Mines in mine methods at Garveston, Norfolk. on December $\mathrm{g} / \mathrm{h}$ (the first in more tifan one method on the bells) as a birthday compliment to Mr. Tolin A. Godfrey, Rineing Muster of the West Norfolk Branch of the Norwich Diocnatn Association. It was the 80h tower in which Mr. Ebbergou hus inוag a pen

The new Vicar of Pytchley. Northants (Ehe Rer. H. A. J. R., Norfon) was welcomed with a peal of Daubles after his induction on Decmber 4th. It was rung in five methorls.

It did not take 3 hours and 50 minutes to ring the peal at Gombr, as ecorded last week, but only 2 hours 50 minutes.

YORKSHIRE ASSOCIATION.

WESTERN DIVISYON AT NORTHOWRAM.

In spite oi the very wintry contitions which existed practically dill over the country, the Western Division of the Forkshire Association held a very weil attended meeting at St. Matthew's, Northowram, on Siturday, December 11th. It sperks well for the enthusiasm of the members, when upwards of en attended frona a very wide arca. There hud beru a leavy fall of snow the puevions evening, and on several dr,ys during the week, so that travelling facilities were not at theur best.
The bentiful modern cinureh was greaty, admired, aud a special iten of interest was the 'Children's Gormer'. The belhs, which are a very nusical ring of eiflit, were kent moving thronthout the day in lares varjely of methodi, from call elanges to Cambeidgo and superlative Surprise. A very gratilying tcature was the number of younf ringers who were present-a guod atigury for the futu

A short servige was held durithe the nltierwoon, and Canon Watkinson, in a most delightfil anal interesting address, welcomed the visitore to Narthowrmm. He tonehed tupon the many old engtoms of ringing From the most early bines and concladed with an example of the early monting ringing on Fater Day-at chtom which he foped would nevor lapse.

TALGARTH RYNGER'S EARLY DEATH

It is wibl regret that we have to recond the death on Wednosday Sowember 24th, of Mr. Stanley Clarles Powell, at the early age of 32 vears after only a short illness.

Deceased was a very faithfut member of the Talgarth Church bellringers, always regititr at practices and for Sunday service ringing. He lat ouly rung two peala. In addition to being a belringar, he was aiso st sidesman, a nember of the Parochial Church Council and ol' the O.E.M.S.
The funersl took place on Saturday, Novenber 27th, when there Were between 300 and 400 people present. Mr. J. P. Hyett (district secretary) represented the Northern District of the Swansea and Brecon Guidd, and Mr. M. T. Davies, who is a member of the Central Caumail of the C.E.M.S., represented the socioty. Deceasea's fellowhullingers, Messer. D. H. Bernetl, B. H. Davies, C. M. Davies, J. L. Grynne, S. L. Speake and D. J. Griffhs, acted as bearers, the undertaker being Mr. W. D. Grifitiths, who is also captajn of the local ringers. Among the 65 wreaths from the family and friends was one from the bellingers, in the shape of $n$ foral bell lying on its side.
After the service some six-scores of Grandsire Doubles and call changes with the bells hali-muffled were rung as a last tribute of respect to ne whose place will be hard to fill. On December Ist a half-muffled peal of Grandsire Douhtea wis mus as a last tribute of hait-mint.

BELLS' IN NEW ZEALAND

DORKING CURATE DESCRIBES SUBSTITUTES.
In spite of the wintry weather, about 40 ringers put in an appearance at Dorking on Saturday week, when the Leatherhead District of the Guildford Diocesan Guild held the last meeting for the year, a welcome visitor being Mr. Alan Pink, from Hanwell, a former secretary of the district
The Guild's service wag conducted by the Vicar (the Rev. O. H. Funt), assisted by bis senior curate (the Rev. A. Dawson), and MrColes, the organist. The addrews was given by the Rev. A. Dawson, who said he thought the bells of Eugland were taken-almost sth conscionsly-as an accepted factor, and it was not until he went awny to New Zealand that be realisod what i real part they played in English Iffe. He west on iu describe some of the substitules he found in the country districts aut there, one place being well off with a set of iroll hars of various lengths. It was not unusual, however, to hear an iron bedslead or an emply kerosene can being banged it signify that it was noarly time for service

Tea was served in whe Chureh Room, and, ailthough theve were home-made cakes, the party of 35 failed to finish the course. Tho Viear was present aud took the ehair for the ensuing business meetiur
The retiring officers were all remomimated, the games of Nestrs. W Janes and W. J. Whiting being added to the represcutalives on the General Execulive Committec
The district secrelay (Mr. A. F. Smilh) advised the members of the Guild's dimer on Janwary gilt, and the meeting closed with leayty vote of thanles to the Vicar for the service and use of the bells, also for presiding, and to the Rev. A. Dawson for an interestinty and unisunl address.

Atber an interlude with inandbells, the tower bells were again mad, full use of until close on 9 a'clock. The variety of methods ranger From rounds, thronty Tripies, Plain Bob, Douhle Norwich, Oxford and Kent Treble Bob to Cumbridge, Sirperlative, London, Bristol and Yorkshire Surprise.

LADIES GUILD

SUCCESSFUL MJIBTNG TN BRISTOL

A very suncessfat meeling of the Western District of the Laries Guild was held at the $\mathrm{T}^{3}$ alish Chnreh, Clifton, on December 11t.l. T'lo attendance was good, numbers being present from Bath, 1bristol. Abbotsleigh, Duflicld, Mangotsfield, Portishead, Stoke Gifford, Westerleigh and Wrington. Touches of Grandsire, Stedman and Plain Boln were rang during the afternoon. The service was tondracted ly the Vicar, who exlended a hearly welconze to the Gatidi.
Thinty-two uembers and frients assembled alterwards in the Purisin Fall, where Mrs. Gremory had provided au excellent tea. This was followed by the business meeling, Mrs. Edwards, the vice-president, being in the chair. Miss Violet Smith, of Westerleigls, was elected a member of the Guild, and Mangotsfield was chosen for the next meeting, to he held on the second Saturday in March.
At the conclusion of tea a hearty vote of thanks was passed to the Vicar for the use of the bells, to Mr. Hedley Gregory for playing the organ, to Mrs. Gregors for providing the tea, and to those members of the local band who had kindly mate all the necessary arrangements for the neeting
A disappointment was experienced after tea. It bad been arrangen to ring af St, Mary-le-Port in the evening, but on arrival at the church it was discovered that one of the bells was ont of order and ringing impossible. After varions efiorts has been made to semre another tower, Miss Annie Brown came to the resche and carried of a large party to ring at St. Philip's, where they spent on very happy hour, and rang among other things, a niec course of Cambridge.

BRAINTREE VETERAN.

LANCASHIRE ASSOCIATION'S MEMBERSHIP.

The annual report of the Lancashire Association, which has just been published, states that the subscriptions ieceived from ringing members in the past year account for only 718 out of the 1,522 on the roll, that $$_{7}$ are two years in arrear, and that 54 have been crossed off. Knowing something of the work which is put into the association by its officials, this seems to us a rather lamentable state of affairs. Making every allowance for financial stringency among members in an industrial area like Lancashire, that more than one-third should be in arrears with their subscriptions points to a lack of appreciation of the relation which the members hoid to the association. No wonder, therefore, that the committee appeal to ali the members to be loyal to this side of the association's work.

In these days the banding together of ringers into associations for the promotion of their art and interests is so well established, that no one questions the necessity of it or the advantages to be derived. The growth of ringing to its present standard and the level of recognition which ringers have attained has been largely due to the organisation of the belfry personnel into a wider union than merely local bands, giving an impetus to the art and a higher conception of the ringers' duties both on the part of the ringers themselves and of the Church authorities. Without the associations the fabric of the Exercise would quickly crumble, but they can only exist by the support of the individuals. In every instance, of course, it is the enthusiasts who bear the brunt of the task and very largely carry the organisation to whatever success it may attain. And this is done often in the face of many discouragements.
Not everyone, perhaps, has the opportunity to put into a cause the energy which others are able to exert, but every ringer should feel it a duty to do the least that is required of him-pay his small annual subscription promptly. It may be that in many cases failure to do so is just negligence, but that does not make it any easier for the officers to carry on their work, and when the proportion of subscriptions left unpaid is as large as that in the Lancashire Association it becomes a severe handicap to the activities of the organisation. The 'defaulters' continue to enjoy all the privileges of membership, but do not contribute their share to the funds-and the individual subscription is such a small share, too. It should be a matter of honour among ringers, not only in Lancashire but everywhere, to pay their ducs promptly, as it is only by their so doing that the organisation can be kept efficient and carry on the work which it exists to perform.

SOUTH-EASTERN DIFISION OFFIOERS RE-ELECTTTD

The anmual meeting of the Sonth-Eastern Division of the Jisex Association, which was held at Wirithe, was a rery successtinl and pleasant gathering, there being present 55 ringers from 18 towers. Good use was made of the bells during the aftermoon and evening in a variety of methods, ineluding rounds for the beghmers.
The Vicar (the Rev, J. H. (Jpton) conducted the association form of service, and at the commencement of a very encouraging addless wimmly welcomed the zingors to Witible. He twisted that tile temperature of the clurch (the hembing apparatus having broken down) wonld not be faken as a sample of the wolcome
The singing of the hymus was lead by the deputy organist, and tho lesson read by the lion. secretary (Mr, H, W, Shadrack).

After a very welcome tea at the Rose and Grown, the business meedm inje was presided over by the Ficar.

The hon. secretary reported that during the year two members had passed away, A1: W. Slarpington, of Galleywood, and Mr. A. G. Maskell, an hon. member, of Chelnasford. Nine ringing and one honorary member lad been olected, nud fivo meetings had been held with an averame attendanco of 32 , this representing 16 towers in the division and visitors liwa 16 other towers Fifteen peats had hoen pung, the methods lieing Superlative, Cambridge Surprise, Donlole Norwich, St. Clement's, Plain Bols Mujor, Stcdunn and Grandsire Triples, 1 each; Kent Treble Bob Major, 5 ; Oxlord Treble Bob Major, 2; and Minor in four methods, 1. IMe conductors were $G$. Gruen, L. J. Clark and P. Green, 3 each; H. Erlwards, 2; W. Kceble, E. P. Duffeld, $\mathbb{B}$. Kempand $H$. Mansfield, 1 eachard. Five menhers liad rung their first peal, 28 their first in the methoal, and two their first is conductor in the method. The peal ai St. Clement's Major was tho first in the method for the association.

In conclusion, the lon. secretary thanked the Divisional Haster and hon. general secretary for their help and assistance, and the tower masters and sectetarics and all those who had hepped at and attended the meetings and made them successfus.
Mr. H. Mansfield was d'e-elected Divisioual Master, and Mr. H. W, Shadrack re-elected hon. secretary.
Four ringing members were elected, C. T. Jaģard, of Barehant F. Clark and D. A. Symons, of Chelmsford, nud A. Iishble, of All Saints', Maldon.
It was decided, sulajed to permission being grantod, to hold the next meeting at Broonfield on February 12th.
The visitors were welcomed by the Divisional Master (Mr. FI. Mansfield $\}$, and the Master (Dr. P. IT Spencer-Phillips) thanked the Viear for the use of the hells and for his address, the organist and organ blower, and Mr. T. Limcoln for makin the arrangements for tea.
The towers represented were Great Bnddow, Borcham, Broonffeld, Chelmaford. Danburs, Goldinmaer, Maldon, Rettenden, Sptingfield, Little Waltham, Widford and Wirittle, and visitors were present from Sudbury, Braintree, Halsted, Silule Bedinghan, Bocking and Farlow Common.

BELLS OVER LONDON  To the Editor.

Dear Sir,-With reference to the letter signed hy P. W. Cawr, Mr. Roughtor:, or anybody else for that matter, has a perfert. right to collaborate in a broaderst on the Ancient Society of College Yonthes, gud he las an equal right to withdraw from it if he wishes to do su. Such an arrazgement is an enlipely private atfair befween Mr. Roughtom and the B.B.C., and is for them, and them only, to agree or quarrel about as they choose. It wonld be different if Mr. Roughton had been nominated as the society's spokesman and had been instructed to withdraw on their behalf, but this is nots so and there should be mo misundershanding as to the rights of the individual in these circumstances.
If Mr. Cave thinks deeply ewough he will find that the most deplorable aspects of the whole thing are, firstly, the failure of the B.B.C. to obtain agreement with partierpants before publisluing thein programmes; secondy, the readiness of the thily Press to disseminate privabe differences, and, thirdly, the tearliness of some indiyiduals to make mountains oft of molelills, especially when concerning themselves over business which is in no way their own. It is vely dificult also to see what carthly good cen come from making spiteful personal references to the infividuals concerned. Glear tbinking and considered speaking are indeed virtues.

Also your corrospondent, Mr W. A. Birmingham, seems to be making over much of Mr. Lewis references to lihe Leander R.C. and the M.C.C. It must have been olvious to most people that our president was trying to illustrate the fact hat rivgers value membership of the A.S.C.Y. on account of its history and traditions. He said nothing to indicate superiority as such, and, indeed, I oannot see low any one of a number of welturenised associations can, of itgelf only. possess supariority over the otherts. It is traditions that impart a degree of distinction, and Mr. Lewis is fully justifed in trying in point out to his audience that the A.S.C.Y. possesses them.

There is talk of yet another peal boing increased to twelve. Efforts are being made at Beddingion, Surrey, to get permission to add two trebles to the existing peal of ten. The tenor at Beddingtion is 181 cwt.

The annual report of the Lencashire Association for 1936-37 has just been issued. It covers nearly 90 pages.
Broadcasting from Croydou Parish Church will be resumed in January. On the first Sunday in alternate months the bells will be heard on the National long wavelength, at 9.25 a.m. In the alternate month, the bells of Lichfield Cathedral will be heard prior to serpice Dr. Woods who, as Bishop of Croydon, formerly conducted the services at his Parish Chureh, is now Bishop of Lichfield.

A RINGER IN INDIA.

GOOD WISEES FROM KASHMIR.
To the Editor.
Dear Sir,-I once again wish you and all readers a merry Christmas aud a prosperous New Fear.' I also hope to hear over the 'air' some good 'striking' at Christmestide. How homely bells do sound to 118 so far away!
I have enclosed a few photos that I hope may interest you. I often think how W.H.F. would love to unearth some of the mysteries these old places must bide. I often delve deep to find that my search is in vain for ' Invincible Peal Shoes?'

I hape tried to get information ro bells from Burmah, Tibet, Russian aud Chinese Turkestan, etc. Hindus have given me information, obtained from their priests, where to get information. I bave sent stamped addressed reply enveiopes without any result whatsoever.

Not having seen, as yetr, any replies to 'Ringer's Wife," my advice to her would be, 'Learn to ring and so keep your husband company.' I fail to see where one can complain of man baving his few hours* ringing. He certainly is safe and in good corapany. Three weeks ago I had to leave my wife and clijdren for a journey over dangerous mountain roads, as I often lave to, but mever a word of complaint. I returned to find my house cracked and cornices fallen dowz by a terriblo earth-shake. How 'Ringers' Wives' can differ is evident to me.

I fail to see how some corrapondents in their letters advance the art of ringing. Constructive criticisra helps, but when it cames to throwing mud at each other it leads nowhere. Possibly "Trancis Bacon' has met this type of ringer, as ha geems to have caught a swarm in his net. His opinion as to ringere is the opposite to that of

NEARLY, BUT NOT QUITE.

To the Eaitor.

Dear Sir, Whilst not wishing, even in the smallest degree, to depreciate what ' C.L.G.' writes in to-day's issue of your paper about ringing at St. Andrew's, Plymouth, I feel that it is only doing justice to my own band to point out that the peal at St. Andrew's was not 'the only peal rung in Devon for the Coronation' seeing that on Coronation Day we scored the first local peal of Minor ever rung on the bells. With reference to the further remark that "Mr. Myers. . . has now under his charge the most protressive band in the caunty who can ring Surprise methods for Sunday service, my band-all the members of which live within the ecclesinstical parish of about 280 people-bas just scored its first 360 of Cambridge Surprise Minor, and has recently rung this method for Sunday services. We do not claim to be more progressive than St. Andraw's, but we would like to feel that we were allowed to share with St. Andrew's this progressive spirit, which I sincerely lope may saread in tho county. Already there are signs of this spirit in a few other towers.

May I conclude my letter by bearing my testimony to the magnificent work which Mr. G. H. Myers has been doing, in the cause of change ringing, for so many years, and place on record the esteem in which he is held by all members of our Guild.

DEATH OF MR．JOSEPH J．PARKER．

A GREAT COMPOSER．

Wo much regret to record the death of Mr．Joseph J．Parker，of Finchiam Rayal，Bucke，who，after having beea in failing health for somo time，passed away eazly on Tuesday moraing at the advanced zye of 84 years．
To the present aneneration his name is chiefly assaciated with the famous Twelve－part peal of Grandsire Triples，which has become sometifing of a classic，and，for its sim－ plicity and symmetribal qualities，has gained a popu－ lerity omong conductors un－ equalled by any other peal in the method．
Joseph J．Parker was one of the little group of men who，fifty or sixty years argo seriously set their minds to the then unsolved problems of composition．His work was contemporary with that of men lite C．D．P．Davies， Arthur Heywoad，A．B．Car－ penter and Earle Bulwer， whose researches were ley－ ing the foundation upois which much present－ifay knowledge is based．
Mr．Parker devoted him－ self principally to Triples methods－the most difficult of all ill which to get true peals－sind lic produced com－ positions in Grandsire，Sted－ man，Oxford Bob，Cour Bob and Union，Because of their more general practice his peals of Grandisire and Stelman are best known， and，indeed，his work in boll these methods won

MR．JOSEPH I．PARKER． bob these wethods won high preise from the composers und writers of that time．They showed an unexcelled insirghi into the subject and an unsnrpassed ingenuity of construction．Mr．Parker has left a legacy to the Exer－ cise the value of which it is impossible to over－estimate．

His services to practics！ringing were also great：Attached all his ife to Farmham Royal Church，ho not only kept a band going in his own tower，but went far and wide teaching change ringing at a time when pioneer work was an uphill struggle．He was one of the foumders of the Oxford Diocesan Guild，served on its committee and was one of its most esteemed members．
He was devoted to his Parish Church，and，in addition to being the leader of the belfry for many，many years，sang in the choir for forty years．Ill－health and the increasing infirmity of age kept him from lis belowed bells for about three years，but his interest in ringing was sustrined to the end

「＇le funeral took piace at Farnliana Royal jesterday（Thursday），

OLDHAM AND DISTRICT SOCIETY REVIVED． FOUR TOWHRS＇ACTION

As was briefy mentioned in our last tssue，the four towers in OIdham have resuccitated the Oldham and District Society．Rivgers of the four belfries held a meetine on December 10th at Witehead＇a Cafe， and after discussion decided to take tho necessary action to re－form the society．

The meeting was presided over by the Vicar of St．Mark＇s，Glod－ wick，and was well attended．In the effort that is being made the clergy are bebind tle project；in fact，they were the instigators of the meeting，to see if there could be some menns of improvernent in the social side of ringing，by bringing the ringers together more often， It is hoped，by making a pish in that direction，also to improve the ringing capabilities of the members，thus making for jadividual pro－ gress，tean spirit and service．Membership of the Lancashire Associa tion will still be retained
Mr．Ogden Moores，of 31，Roald Street，Clarksfeld，Ofdham，is the hon．secretary of the revived society，which inchudes the towers of St． Mary＇s（12 bells），and Glodwick，Leesfield and Moerside（each 8 bells）．

MUFFEED BELLS．

DEATH OF MR．JAMES DOWLER．

OLD SELLY OAK RINGEAR．

It is with regret that we have to record hac death on Friday， December 17th，of Mr．Eriest James Dowler：of Selly Oak，Bir mingham．

Jimmy＇Dowler cammenced lis ringillg at St．Mary＇s，Selly Onk， in 1884，on the old penl of six，and was an active membor of SL． Mary＇s Guild up to 1922，when ringing was stopped at St．Mas＇s Church owing to the tower being leported unsafe．Some time after this his health began to fail，and，in consequenco，lie land heen absent from ringing circles for the last few years，although lie has made one or two appearances since the bolls and tower weye restored．

He has rung peale in all the standard methods from Grandsire 10 London Surprise．He had accupied the position of Rincing Mrster at Selly Oak，and was fer some time secretary of the Northern Branch of the Worcestershire Association，retiring from this latter office in 1919.

In addition to a half－muffled penl of London Surprise Major rumg at Selly Gak on December 18th，there was rung at the same church orn Sundax，December 19th，for evensong，also lali－muffled，a quarter－peal of Grandsire Eriples by C．H．stanley 1，I．L．Boylin \＆，H．Haslan 3 ． William B．Cartwriflt（conductor）4，N．A．Goodman E，Fary Wiblers （composer）6，V．G．H．Hemus 7，Ed．Holt 8．（This quarter－pen］starls at baekstroke，f．e．witl the 3 rd in the hant and the 2nd mating 3rd＂s．）

RINGERS＇TRIBUTE TO LATE MAYOR．

NORTHAMPTON LOSES CHIEG MAGISTKATE

On Thesday，November 9th，at tue Guildhall，Northanpton， Aldarman J．V．Collier，J．P．，was elected Mayor of that boroughi for the succeeding twelve montlis．Suddenly within 34 days of his installa－ tion he was taken ill and died．Mr．Collier，who was 67 years of age， was the principal of a firm of eugineers and ironfoutaders．He was interred on Thursday，December 16ih，in the family grave at Dustom， Northampton，the funeral being attended by the civic anthorities amidst many impressive scenes．As the fanily momrners left the graveside，the following rang a quarter－peat of Doubles， 1,260 changes （comprising 720 of Gramdsire and 540 ol＇Plain Bob），upon the Duston Parish Church bella，wibl half－mufiled clappers：F．Burgess 1，I＇， Amos 2，J．Dunliley 3，J．Clifton（conductor）A，G．E．Perkins 5；D． Lovell 6 ．
It is sad to relato that only nine day⿴囗⿱一一儿丶 before the tragic occurrenco Mr．P．Amos paid a personal visit to His Worship，at the lnter＇s lome，for the purpose of soliciting his support towads bine fund tor the new bells for St．Andrew＇s Church，Northampton－the scheme for which Mr．Amos has initisted and had the satisfaction of semmit adopted by the Church Council．Mention lad beer mede of invilinf His Worship to givo one of tho new bellg to commemorate lis yost of office．For many years Mr．Collier represented the ward in which St．Andrew＇s Church is situated on the Town Council．Of recont yeare tragedy has seemed to overlang the Mayorntty in Northanpton．In 1933 the then Mayor＇（Councillor Percy F．Hanaty）coilapsed and alied while at a public function five months after taking office，and in 1931 a deputy was called upon to take the office of one who had breu selected as Mayor and died a few days before his formal election．

ST．STEPHEN＇S GULLD，BRISTOL

To the Editor．

Dear Sir，In the interests of listorical truth，it would be a．good thing if we were told what authority there is for the statoments made in pour last issue．I should think that it is extremely walikely that the society severed its connedtion with the belfiy so long ago as 1848，and the legend that it was founded by a clarter promiged by clizabeth and granted by James I．is brsed，I helieve，on no sounder foundatiou than some man＇s fancy．Ab any rate，there is no mecord among the patent rolls of any such charter having been granted．

I nossess a notobook written by Osborn in which is the following entry：＂Queen Elizlı arrived at Brishol on Safy Augt 141574 and the St．Stephen＇s Bells were rung to congratulate her on her armual， for which she promised the ringers a charter woh wns alterwds． granted by James Ist bearing date 17 Novr 1620．She was recd by John Young，the then Mayor of Bristel（afterwads Sir John Young）－hn resided at St．Augustine＇s back Bristol．

This has all the appearance of being fiction founded on facl．Wlay should Elimabeth reward the zingers？It was an umderstoon thing that，wherever sho weat，the bells should be rung．If they werc not the parish was fined．

The last occasion I know of on which a parish was fined for note ringing for royalty was at Twickenhau iu 1647 ．Readers who hure studied sevententh century history will realise the significance of the date．The King at the time was a prisoner and was passing by under ascort．

Probably the so－called＂charter＇was really the code of rules，which the St．Stephen＇s company，like the other sucieties of the time，drew up to regulate their proceediugs．Thero is nothing unique about them．

A RESTORED CHESHIRE RING.

HALLOWING OF CHEADLE BELLS

In February last, it was decided to cease ringing the peal of eighu at St. Mary's Church, Cheadle, Cheshire, in consequence of their dangerous condiliou. Estimates were obtained for a complete restoration, and Messis. Cillett and Johnston were entrusted with the contrat. The work was mado possible by the manificent ofer of Mr, Percy II. Shiers, of Brooklield, Cheadle, to dehray the entire cost in memory of his wife, Hilda Shiers, who died iu March, 1937.

The popular Reclor, the Rev. W. J. Wilkinson, M.A., does nothing by bulves. This was demonstrated when the bells were reopened by ki whole weck-end of thankggiving. Siaturday was given over as a vingors day when upwards of 40 shalwarts from warions towers in the distriet forefathered at Cheadle. The mumber would undoubtedly have been consimerably ereater but for the poincidence of the jubile dinner of tike Chester Diocesan Guik occurring on the same day.
The ceremonies opened on Saturday afternoon with a few rounds by the local bend, led by Mr, A. Garr, who has recently heen presented with an illmmated address by the parish in recognition of his 50 years of service as a ringer.

Following short toucles, which included wo well-struck courses of Stedman Triples, a special service for ringers was held in tive church, a freat mumber of the parishinners also attending. The sermon was preached by the Rev. R. D. Humplivies, Jumal Dean of Stoekport nad Vican of Nombury, why took rs liss text "In that day there shall be "pon the bells looliness tunto the Lord, ${ }^{3}$ from the book of Zacharimit.

After the serwice full justice was done to an excellent tea prowided in the Church Hall, M3. W. Wolstoncrofts expressing thanks on belahf of those present to the Rector anul This people. IRinging was tilen resmmed and coutinued intil a late bour.

On Sunday morning the hallowing and rededieation was pertomed by the Ven. Archdeacon of Macclesfield, Canon J. F. Armilstead N. A., assisted by the Rector.

Tha Archneacon, rlergy and clmrchwardens proceeded to the tower for the ceremony, at the conclusion of which the bells were rung in rounds by the Iocal hand : A. Cailns 1, H. Cook 2, L. Burrows 3, H Claydon 4, P. Cook 5, A. Mulliner 6, F. Carr 7, A. Cam 8.

The Archdeacon, adhressing the crowded congretation, told af the uses of bells and their importance to the Ohurch. He furdier said that the people of Cheadle were indebted to Almithly God for putting the tholight into the mind of Mr, Shiers to restore their bells in memory of his wife. He combl think, lie said, of no better form of memorial, and on behalf of the parish he thanked Mr. Shiers, who was present, for lis zanerosity.

At the cvening service anothev large congregation listened to most mintereating talk on wells, givelr by the Rev. F. H. Gibbs, B.A. Rectar of Christ Church, Salford. Mr. Gibbs, wiow is himgelf a ringer, raturall, give a most able exposition of the arts of bell founding and bell ringing.
The bells were set going arain after the service, the Rev. Gibbs himself taking part, thus happily concluding an interesting week-end. MIr. S. Roper, who represented Messus. (illett and Johnstow, was heartily conoratnlaterk an all sides on the splendid manner in whicl the firm had carried out the work of restoration, and for the great improvengent in the tone and tume of the bells. In spite of the long draught of repe, the 'go' and clapnering of the peal is perfect

Gheadle now possesses one of the finest rings of eight in the county, and with a tenor of 13 cwt; of a most handy size. Messrs. Cilleft and Jolnasion have rehmg them with the mosit modern fittings in a new elentrically wolded stecl frame of special design, ensuming an exceptionally rigid construction.

A SURFLEET TRAGEDY

Many ringers wifo linve wisited Surfleet will regret to hear of the death, under Iragie circumstances, of Miss Emma Wander, who for many yeary was honsekoeper fit the Vicarage to the late Rev. F. Law James, sund had since had the care of a cattage for his brather, the Rev. E. Tankes James. She wis 66 years of age.

It ampears that on Friday evening she went onl of the house and walked straight across the road ind into the side of a passing car. She only lived a few minutes.

The fineral took place on Mondiay, when, mong the wreaths, was one ' In respectinl memory, from the St. Lanrence Church Bellringers, on helatf of the many ringers of England who, in the past, have been entertained at Surfleot Vicarage.

LEEDS AND DISTRICT SOCIETY

SUCOESSEIUL MEETING AT BIRSTALL.

The November meeting of the Leeds and Disfrict $aciety was held at St. Peter's, Birstall. Ringing was enjoyed on the magnificent peai of eight bells. Owing to the fact that there is no cate near the church, the ringers were invited to have tea at tho church sale of wark, which was being held in the Day Schools. The business meeting was held in the tower in the evening, the president (Mr. Senior) being in the chair.
Two new members were elected, Messrs, J. H. Brothwell, of Rotherham, and William Hawley, of Sherburn-in-Elmet

Mr. W. F. Senior proposed a vote of thanks to the Vicar and churchwardens of Birstall and to the lonal company for the excellent arrangements throughout the day. This was seconded by Mr. Fi. H. Wigor, and Mr. H. Peel replied for the local company.

The next meeting will be hold in Jannary, and membors are asked to watch the columne of "The Rincring World' for details, Memlers and friends were present from Armey, Batley, Bradford Cathedral. Burley, Drighlingtors, Hendiugley (St. Chad's and St, Michael's), Idle, Leeds Parich Chuzch, Rothertan, Rothwell, Sherburn, Shipley, Handsworth and the local company.

Methods rung were Plain Bob, Littla Bob, Kent Treble Bob and Double Norwich Major, Stedman 'l'riples, Cambridge Surprise, Superlative Surprise and Loudon Sarprise Major:

LADIES' GUILD

CENATAL DIFTRICT AT 1SLEWORTH

A meeting of the Ceutral Distict of the Ladies" Guild was heid at All Saints', Isloworth, ou a recont इaburday, and was vely well attended. The service was conducted by the Rev. P. W. ShepherdSmith, assisted, at the hamonium, by Mrs. Steplerd-Smith.

A very enjoyable tea was partaken of in the Church Hall, the Vicar being present among the part.w, numbering 35 .
Following tea a short lusiness meeting was held, Mirs. R. F. Deal presiding.
St. George's, Southwark, was confirmed as the place of the next meeting, to be held on Jinumy 1st.

Erith was proposed for the neefing to be held ont the second Satanday in Murch, providing permission be granted.
Mrs. Fletcher (ble general secretary) announced that she would have he anumal reports ont is about three weeks time.
A Ietter of thanks was rend from Mrs. Fatcher for the presentation she receired at the Guild dinner
A hearby wote of thanks was accorded to the Vicar for his services, and to Sister Cates for the tea.
The members then adjourned to the fower. where further ringing took place inntil 8 p.m.
Three leads of Treble Bob Royal were rung by a completa band of ladies, and a course of Cambridge Royal, abont two-thirds of the band being members. Grandsire and Stedman Caters wero also rung, with the addition of a few rounds for beginners.

LONDON COUNTY ASSOCIATION

GRATJFYING ATTENDANGE AT SOUTHERN DISTRICT MEETTNG.

The meeting of the Southern District of the London County Association, lueld at Putney and Pulham orn a recent Saturday, was exceptionally well attended, as duriog the afternoon and evening some 45 members and friends appeared, which was a considerable jmprovement on previous mectings, and an eaconragement to the officers. Ringing commenced at Pumey at 3 p.m. nad continued until 5 p.m.. when the business mecting twas held in the tower, the District Master, Mr. H. Mance, presiding.

Two new members were elceted, viz., Mr. W. W. Wehb, of Heston, and Mr. F. Wicks, of Putney. The place of the anninal meeting was fixed for st. Giles', Camberwelt, the date being Saturday, January 15th. As the Bishop of Southwark las lindly promised to preach at the service, it is hoped that as many member's and friends will avtent as possible
Mr. J. Herbert was appointed the auditor of the year's accounte.
Fullam for the use of the bells at their respective churches, and also Messrs. T. Bolton and H. M. Page, the Lowerkeepers, for their kind welcome. A party of 30 sat down to tea at Lyons'

At 7 p.m. the bells of Fulham were nvailable for one honr, and goodi use was made of them, the belfry heing filled to overflowing.

During the day the following methods were ring: Grandsire and Stedman Triples and Caters, Bob Major, Treble Bols Wajor and Royal, Double Norwich, Superlative and Gambridge Major and Royal. It is hoped that the good attendnace at this meeting will ha continned at every meeting during 1938 .

A PIRST 'SPLICED' 720 .

At Sb, Werburgh's Churen, Kingsley, Staffordshire, on November 9th, a 720 Spliced Treble Boh Minor in five methods, viz. Capel, Sandal, Oxfond, London Scholers' Pleasure and Kingelon Trebie Boh, was rang by H, Garmwell 1, F. Twige 2, T. Edwards 3 , J. G. Cartlidge (conductor) 4. W. Edwards 5, W. Camwell 6. This was the first eplicen 720 by all the band.

PEAL NOTES.

TIRST PEAL ON OHTSSTER CAITEDRAL PEN.

Fach branch of the Ghester Diocesan Guild was represented in the first peal on the ten bells at the Cathedral, rung on December Ilth for the first anniversary of His Majestry's qucession.
Tho two treble bells, it will be remembered, were given by the Gritu to commemorate its jubiles. A previous attempt for a peal was lost through the Dean iandvertently switehing off the electric liglit.

The peal, successfully rung, on Saturday week was not withont incident. When the ringins luat been in progress for about half an hour, the seventh aut its clapper parted company. IRepair wark was commenced immediately, and after pressing a piece of wire into service the hell was pronounced safe. It was then 6.20 p.17. The jmpartunt question was "Is it too late to start again " but Mr. J. Worth's reply that he womd 'push her along' tecided the matter, and a good peal was bronglat round in the rather astonisling time of 3 loours 24 minutes. Great credit is due to the "back-enders." The tenor is 30 cwt.
'This peal was Mr. James Morgan's 2501 h and rung almost exactly on the fftieth unniversary of lis firsi, which was a peal of Bob Minor at Pationd on Decenber 19th, 1887.
On Tuestay of last week he fithingy cetehraised the 'jubilee.' Mr. Morgan, who called his own frrst peal, called the same exteats at Waverton and again rang the tenol. Mr, Walter Thonas, who had alno rumr his first peal at tho same lime, 50 yerrs ago, once more rang the fownill in the eommemoration performance.

If must be a nutten of satisfaction to these two velerang to have the pleasire of celphrating together the fiftieth anniversary of their first peal.
Mr. Morgan's 250 neals consist of 1 of Donhies; 38 of Minor; 51 of Triples, in ten methods; 141 af Major, in 23 methods; 6 of Caters; 11 of Ropal; and 1 each of Cingues and Maximus.

FALSE PEAL REPLACED.

The peal of Keul Treble Boh at Netherton on December 11th wras specialy arranged to replace the false pea] (p. Robinson's composition in shortened formy rung on December Gth, 1907, at this church. The available original members of the hand lexcept Mr. Harry Price, who could not stand in at the lnst minute, nud Mr. C. Rollinson, who has given up ringing thok the same places ats biney did 30 years ago. These were Messrs, Perkins, Nathews, Whatwove and Gass, the remainder of the band being made up by loun friends. It was rerrectied 1 hat Mri. Price was atot present, as it was at this chureht he ranty ins first peal 40 years ago this month.

Rechoy's warden for nearlw 40 years, Mr. T. Excell, of Willeshoroush, kent, has just celchaled lis 88th birtinday and a peal of Minor was mang in howar of the event on December 11th.
the birthday of another churchwavden, Mr. Charles W. Sinfield, of Mitulder, Beds, was also commemorated with a 5,040 of Miror at his Parish Church. It was Reginala 7. Houghton's twenty-ffitl peal.
On the 200th anmiversnry of the death of Whe Rev. John Strype ageci 94 years, whowas Vicar of Jeytoy for 68 years, a half-muffled penl of Bob Major was wing at St. Mary's Church on December Inth. previous to the peal the Leyton Antiquarian Society commemorated the bi-centenezy with a service in the church.

Tho peal was also a tribute to the memory of the Rt. Rev. Guy Bullen, Assistant Bishop of the Sudan, who was killed in an air crash on December Th?. Bishop Bullen was a mative of Leyton. The Vicar of Levton is having a tablet placed in the church lo recond the peal.

ALL TENORS.'

'Ele bells of the village of Privett, Hants, on whicla a peal of Yorkshive Surprise Major was rimg on Saturday, were something of an 'exhibition piece' when they were put up some fifty years or so ago. They werc one of the best peals of eight of their day, and, despite the fact that they are on the "light 'side, were described by Henry Haley, at rreat nuthority on ball tones, as 'a peal of all tenors.'

Stars' atached to names in peal reports are always interesting. Tf. as wns indicated lnet weele, they do nat always marle the siages of a ringer's prorress, they indicato something fresh. Mr. Frank Warrington, who is tho leading conductor in the Over district of Cambridgeshirn and has called methods up to Johadon Surprise, "wears a decoration" this week for his first peal of Grancisire Triples away from the tenorl Fo oalled Taylor's six-parts at Whittlesey on Decemiver 10thas a farewell to the Vicar (the Rev. A. E. T. Newman). A previous attempt for the peal on November 20th came round at the end of the fourth part.

Twice anrint the peal of Bristol Surprisa at Barwell, Leicestershire, on Saturday, the electric light went, out, after well ower a lalf of the peal had been rung. Fappily it was only out for the duration of a few changes on ench occasion, and although there were one of two fanlty blows during the total darkness, the light came on anain just fanlty blows during the total in time ta save the situation.

Mr. Seymonr R. Barker, who was honoured with a birthday peai nt Cardiff on December 16th, has rung nearly a litudred peals on the tenor. Ho hes lind charge of the bells at Sit. Jolu's Church for many rears and the 'go' of them speaks well for tho way he has cared for them. It is beiween thinty and forty Fears since Messrs. Taylor resfored them. There is always a hearty welcome at St: Jom's, Cardff, by Mr. Barker to any ringer.

The first peul of Major by a loual hand at Halewood, Lancashire, was rung on Decewher 13th, when 5,088 Bob MLajor was brought roumd. It was bot only rung by the lacal band, but also composed by ono of them (Mr. Herkert Ludkin).

The donor' of the bells at St. Aidan's Chavel, Blachbill, Co. Durham, Mrs. Aunie Lee, of Seymonr Fonse, Conseht, died recently at the advanced uge of 91 years. The lirst halin-mufled peal on the halls was rums to her memory on December 4 hh, and iucluded in the band were fonr of the regilar service wingers, one of them, Mr. Heury Rawlings, ringing his first peal ati the first attemp
Another lady who gave grent service to tho Church has passed away at, Buxton, Norfolk, ut the age of 66 years. She was Miss Margarel Jewell, who spent her life in helpina others, and after her fineral on November 20 th a half-mufled peal was mag at Buxton.
The bells at Ranworth, Nariolk, ware angmented to six and hamg in a teak fume by Mr. Alcred Bowell, of Ipswich. The first peal on them was rang on December It1h in four Whinor methods, and the band who took part are extremely gratefit for the welcome oxtusded to thera by the ficar (the Rev. E. D. Everard)

LINCOLN OATHEDRAL COMPANY'S ACHEVEMENT'.

Congratulations to the Lincolu Calhedral company upon semins their first peal of Spliced Siurprige Major. It is still a rare performance for a band belonging to one towor to ring a peal of this kins 1 which is an outstanding achievencent at any lime.
We are asked to bay that the band desire to assoaiate with Uulu peal the name of Donovan White, a member of the Gatliedral conpany. Mr. White is one of those keen ringers whose accupation prevents him from ringing peals on Saturdayg, but he has been a ver'y great help on practice nights
[t, was the first Spliced Surprise peal in the connty of Lincoln and by the Diocesan Guild as well as by all the band, fnd was rung ou the weddine anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. J. Wulden,

A peal at Gravesend, Keat, ou December 11th, was a delnyed birthday compliment to Mr. lis. G. Morran, a peal, previously arrangeal. having had to be posiponed at the Insb minute. Mr, Richard Collsance, who rang the tenor, has now rung a peal on each bell in the Mr. R. G. Key ranr his fiftieth peal for the Societs for the Archtenconry of Stafore when he enaled a peal of Doubles in three methodx on December 11th at Trysull, Stafls
The peal of Treble Bob Royal at Bradford Cathedral on Devembe 146h whs arranged for Mr Evesham, Warcestershire.
Mr. Joe Brosdley, one of Yorkshire's oldest ringers, still 'kepps his end up' with the rest and rang the treble to this peal. He has ming over 400 peals for the Forkshme Association, which he joined in 1879! Thes care of Bradioted Cathedral bells has been one of Joe's greatest joys in life.

HATEWELJ'S OLD BELTS

The peal of Stedman 'triples at, Harwell, Berks, on Sabrlday, whintended to be rung for the Coilege Yoaths 10 connemorate thas torcentenary, but owing to various reasons it was found impossible to get sufficient members to complete the band.
J. W. Waslibtrole, whose composition was rumgr always held a high opining of the Harwell tenor, which he "turned ins to Minor in the first Minar rung on the bells, when they were rehang in 1886 by Bond and Son, of Burfort, and when they were funf from the ground floor. The rest of the band consisted of the late Rev. F. E. Thominant, the fate W. Newell (Reading), the late W. Napper (Hagbonme), the (Cnversinm).

Thero was an ling of six at Earwell in 1615, and these belts are the same now as then, with the exacption that they lave had theip cannons removed and been tuned.
Mr. Raymond Wood, jum., on Siturday, 'completed the circle' af the tower at Warnham, Sussex, which recalls the fact that the Editor of 'The Ringing World ' (long before there was a ' Ringing Worlti ' did the same thing in this lower, in eight consecutive peals rutg in $^{\text {in }}$ seven visits to the village.

Oxford Boh Triples is receiving more attention than it used to clo. ant on Saturday a band ringing at Tuntridge Wells all scored kleir first peal in the method at. the first attempt. Oxford Bob is nn intereating chante from Grandsire. The peal was a birthday compliment to Mrs. A. J. Battin, whose hushand rang the trelle.

Battle, Sussex, where a peal of Jnndon, the first peal in a Surprisn metliod on the bells, was rumg last week, is one of the few places nutside the Cabhedrals of the conntry where the incumbent has thu title of Deau. Mr. Gearge Williams will very probably recall ihe fatal interruption of "Lhe Very Reverend" almont at the end of whaf wonld have been the first peal of Stedman on the bells, just atont forty yerrs ago.
The Helmin.
The Helminglina men lave added another to their bong list af penlnf 'frst ever,' in the Surprise elass, by ringing 'Monevdon' Surprise last Friday. The methad is Mr. Gabriel Lindoffs No. 67 and was given its name at the request of Mr. Joseph Tarrant, an old ringer at Monewdon. Mr. J. H. Arbon, who took part in the peal, Alsn belongs to that parish.

Manewdon is the twentieth new method on tower hells rung this year.

INSTRUCTION

SOME OF THE DLFICLLTLES OF IHE BEGINNER.

 To the Editor.Sir, While areeing with the arguments in Mr. Stephen Woad's excellent articles, I canoot ugree with his conclusion, Although he rather toys with the jdea of four and six bell ringing, evidently he really thinks every tinger should begin his change ringing on eight bells.

Now just think what this means. Wirst, it is absolutely essential to bave eighig ringers who are sufficiently expert to ring correctly with n beginner, aud, moreover, who ute willing to spend time in doiug this. There may be two or timee such bunds in this county. Then you havo to bring the baginner's to them. In this county the distance may be anpthing up to 40 miles. A little calculation will show that if the teaching bands were to do zothing else but teach beginners, and wore to spend every night of the year at it, including Sundays, they would not be able to keep our present numbers going. No, I fear that the ringers who can lean to ring on eight bells must always ha so small and select a band that their tuition can never be an example to oulhers. If Mr. Wood were ta suy that berinners should learn all their eatly change ringing on four bells I should be with him all the time.

I think most riugers about here must lave smiled when they read What be wrote about the majority of ringer's startiug their change ringing or Grandsire Triples. While it is passible that one or two in this caupty lave done this, it is pructically universal isere to begin mather Grandsire or Plain Doutales, Again, practical considerations lave to be tahen into account. Plain Doubles are ouly rugg where it is traditional to ring thet and nothing else, and need not furthet delag us. But Grandsire Dubles is rung as the first method in all obher towers for the simple reason thet a Doubles method with two lunts only rueds three workiug ringers for the ather bells. When good ringers are few in number, and are needed for practising higher netheds, the fewer that can be employed for teaching beginners, the more advance there will be made by the band as a whole. My arguneni, and I gather I ahall have Mr. Wood on my side, is that four bells takes 110 more skilled ringers tian five, and is infinitely superior in leaphing goad striking. No pupil of mine goes on to hunting on higlner numberg urtil he knows how be strike bit bell in "the Eight," i.e., the eight changes of plain humting an four bells. And, if possible, none goes on to an inside bell on hifher numbers until he can ring any bell in the 'Four and Twenty' on four. I say if possible, as. so often circumstances prevent one following the ideal order of totiching.

Thice Mr. Wiood sayg emphatically that wo ought to tell people that they are bad ringers. But he omits to say what possible goot that can do. If I were told this, my reaction would be to whink how stupid it was to say anything so molielpinl, and I should not be dikely to pay any very great attention to such an inslructor in future. If I am open to recefve instruction on, say, ringing, it means that I know that I am a bad ringel, nad to tell me that $I \mathrm{am}$ is, to say Ihe lenst, a waste of time, when I an anxious to be told what to do to improve matters. If I am not aurious, beiug told that I amin bad ringer is the last thing that will wake me any better.

Wo all know men who are good ringers, but who are impatient with logingers, hsually without kowing it. We have to do our besf to keep them apart! Also there are those who have found learuing easy und bavo mever understood the difficulties that others find. I diways think that the best teachers are those who (ike mygelf) have found ringing very difficult, and have made such slow progress that they an yot only sympathise with each diffcultr a beginner meets with, hut have not forgotiten the remedy. On the other hand, there are those who are at the top of the tree themselves, and are able and Willing to tell to others who are nearly there what course to follow if they are to sncceed. In other spheres we call these latter" coaches ${ }^{\text {a }}$ and it would, I think, be greatly to tha advantage of ringing had two classes of instructors-teachers and coaches.
There are a few of our נumber, who are not only capable of both spleses of work, but do carry both out with success. But is it not wiwnys a waste both of manpower and of time? At first sight one the result would acturelly ne chouzh of us to go romud as it is. But, unmber of good ringens, but there would be a more regular guccession of learners and experts. Each tower would have two companies of ringers, not necessarily a full company in either case; indeed, often the junior company would contain only one or two members, with a separate practice aight, when the bells wonld usually be rung silent; and sometimes a service on Sundays would be allotted to round ringing only. Many towers have already some such arrangement, which works very well, and might be in universal practice. What is new is the suggestion that ovary tower should have both a recognised Teacher as well as a Coach.
Now with regard to the unknown teacher who has my initials. I have known bands wha profess to have begun with Stedman, and have wondered how it is done. "H.D.." however, ils seems, does not really berin with Stedman, but witl? the first seven changes of Plain Minimus. I can suggest a way in which beginners would really start with Stedman. Ont conductor lately, anxious not to lose any time, when only three ringers had arrived, shawed how we three could ring the 36 changes of Stedman, including the full slow and quick work oll each af the three tower bells. A teacher could by this teach two beginners all the front work of Stedman (if negessary, each could be triblit by bimself). When someone elso strived le might be put to ring the tenor behind. When a fifth has come, two ringers can te taught double dodging, with the three bells in front ringing rounds. Would this satisfy Mr. Wood? Alhhough it would seem to fill most of his requirements, the beginner starts on an odd number of bells.
It is, however, time to get to the true conclusion from Mr. Wood's argaments. It is that every ringer should be carefully taught how to ring changes on eight bells, and not allowed (as at present) to fall into any habits, good ol bad, that-may be in his way. Sparking for myself, I was mever taught anything on this difficult step; and thongla I have watched quite a number of riogers taking this step for the first time, never once have I heard any special instiruction given them. in whatever part of conntry I have happened to be. It seems to be thought tlat if anyoue has got as far as seven bell riucging, they may be then safely lefi to thenselves to find ont what is necessary. would hardly do to treat them, now whey lave got so far, as beginners, or even as learmers.

In my own case the result is that I can now tell, by listening outsicie Eho tower (if I can take my time), whelher it is Stedman or Grondsire which is beng rung ; at any rate, I have some ider what the music of the two methods shonld be in each case. This, of course, helps me in the tower. I see where I ought to pull wy rope, aud, lawing done so, and while looking for my next place, I ath listeniur to the music of the changes, and I hear whether my bell has dropped slick inta its place, as it shomld have done, or not.
This is so, provided the bells are nicely quiet. If the bells are noisy in the tower, I cannot distiuguish my own bell, and anz coutent to rely ouly on sight; the result is not ulways wery pleasant! I expect this may be a defect of my hearing, as some ingers seem to profer noisy bells!
But on eight bells, no one has told me what to listen for, and try as I may, I cannot distinguish the music of the difforent methods. I can, of course, fell if the bells are well rung or not, but do not distinguigh even the leads, or where to start from in listening. Thlie result in the tower is that I have to riug only with my eyes; I do nat oven know when I am leading properly. Perhaps I aw exaggerating One does not always exactly know gne's own reactions. But, at any rate, I oanot manage eight bell ringing as I shonld jike to da. It may be that eight bell ringiog is in taste that has to be acquired, for I know some very good rimgers who are not ashamed to confess ilat they do not care either wo ring it or to listen to it. At present I ihm decidedly of that opinion!
I do not see how it would help matters to teach eight bell ringing before seven bells; even if it were practically possible, which it is not. It would mean that in the ease of some of us we should never learn change ringing at all, as the first step would be sucha a difficult one. I can imagine that there ure some ringets who wonld heave a sigh of relief, and say, oven if undor their breath, 'so much the better.'. Indeed, it may, have been Mr. Stephen Wood's Eell purpose to try to keep the Exercise to the select few, as in years gone by, If, however, his is not so, and we bunaies may still be allowed to ring, and even to teach, may wo be told what it is we outht to look out for in oxder io lead properly with eight bells? I have never ruly with Mr. Wood. and it may be that be is move of a coach than a teacher, and can anty say, 'You must look out for the lend and leep an even distrnce,' In that case will someone who can sec my difficulty try to solve it? so, I tlink I know same helplul exercises.
In the meartime would it help, if it were made the practice, never to let a rimger attempt five, or a hirhor number of bells, in changes, mutil he was fairly satisfactory in leading, in the changes on fow Wells, without any bell or bolls as cover?

RINGING IN DISTANT LANDS  THE ART OVEFSEAS

Fo the Editor

Dear Sir -I have read the letter of Mr. A. E. F. Trotman and your aricle of September 17th last witl greab inberest, To those resident in the Britisli Isles, who love the urt for its own sake, the subject is of vital importance, foz all such inevitably desire to sce campanology spread to other lands. In the mair, I agree with the riews expressed, hut one point, I think, has beeu overlooked. It is this. When bells have been received in Anstralia, hung in the tower and duly blessed or consecrated, those in authority and in whese aare the bells were placed by generous doners, in most if not all instances appear to loge interest thereir and fail to recognise any responsibility for their upheep or ringing in clanges. In this State of Victoria, except in one instance (tine Ballarat City Hall), this vefers to church authorities.
Here in this great citry of Melbourae bells, as you are aware, are nugy in changes in two places of worship oaly-(1) at Stt. Paul's Cathedral, atid (2) at St. Patrick's Cathedral. At the latter piace the lolls are not attractive, and the 'ro' of fve bells out of the ring of eight is misatisfactory. But we have three other peals of eight in or around Melbourne, and in each iustance the bells are chimed. At Geelong and at Bendigo attractive peals of eiglat exist, and at Ballarat fwo peals exist, one of six bells and one of eight, and at each place the bells are also chimed. This, out of a total of mine peals of bells in Viatoria, no less than seven of them are subject to the woeful system called chiming. In Sydney a similar state of things exists Tu Queasland there are two instances-one at Brisbane and one at Maryborough. It is incredible to think that, did eluruch or other anthorities realise the past octan between chiming and change ringing, they would be content with or aven permit the former. Yet such is the case, and the question arises how can this state of things be remedjed How many of these peals of bells are now fit for changes I cannot state off-hand. As bells left lianging in a tower year after Year without receiving the slightegt altention soon becomre unfie for 'ringing, probably none of these 'chinred' peals could now be rung without first receiving a tharough, and probably costly, overhatul.

Pergonally I often bhink that did we possess one or more ringing parsons among us tlie position would in tine right itself, and so far as possible I have made an effot in this direction, but to date withou eflect. I wont to the extent af turuing np "The Ringing World containing a full account of the last spandid, carthly tribute paid to the late Rev. Charles D. P. Davies at Tewkesbury Abbey some three and a haff pears ago by the ringers of the British Isles. Trurther, mentioned somethiug (a little only, for "The Ringing World' di the rest) of the great work he didl so well; low lie loved and worlsed unceasingly for the science, and for those who wang the bells in clanges. I also mentioned the visit of the Rev. E. Bankes James with the tourists of 1934 , nine men who travelled 25,000 miles at their own expense to show us ringers in Australia what could be done and to try to help us do it. I then mentioned that a cleric, the late Rev. F. Te. Robinson, was the first nann to ring 1,000 peals, and that the number who had taken up the ant and becomo nctive ringers themselves was legion. All saw nothing derogatory in change ringing and mixed with men as ringers and equals, and made zime to do it. All this was for the goon of the Church, of the seience and of all ringers concermed, whether clerical or lay. It failed, howewer, to move the gentleman in question. If other means exist of changing the state of things hers briefly narrated, many ringers here would be glad to know thereof, and any help or suggestions through the colnmas of "The Ringing Wozld "wonld be slady welcomed.

With reference to the sliggestion of taranferring bolls no longer regnired to Australasia or my other Dominion, nimless an alisolute whrantee is ziven that such bells will be cared for and a band formen lo ring them in changres, I shall certainly oppose any such scheme: for the last condition would be worse than the first. Furtier, I will do evorything possible to prevent any generous man or woman donating a peal of bells to any church, ciky or town in Australasia until the syarantee mentioned is forthcoming.
Without going into details, I do not think we Australians can be iustly termed a bancward race. One has only to look and think a litite to prove to the contrary. But in clange ringing we linve never had a chance, and as shown herein, largely owing to the apathy if not complete indifference of throse in whose possession the bells were placed.
Other views might hele be mentioned, but, being of a somewhat sonlentious nature, I refrain for the present from doing so.

DON'T SERUB YOUR HANDS!

Cleanse and preserve your skin this simple way

To many people, the problem of getting the hands really clean without harming the skin is a serious one. Grease and grime, which become deeply ingrained into the pores of the skin, are extremely difficult to remove, and ordinary washing with soap or even scrubbing will fail to remove them completely. Housewives, particularly, who complain that their hands get ruined by the nature of their work, will find the preparation called DERMAFOAM, a real "godsend." DERMAFOAM just smoothes away dirt and grease without effort. It gets right down into the pores and removes every particle of grime, leaving skin beautifully supple and healthy.

Men, too-when you've finished that dirty job on the car, DERMAFOAM will quickly banish all grease and oil from your hands. It acts almost magically-working under and around the nails and into every minute crease, removing all trace of dirt in a flash.

Engineers, Painters, Car Mechanics, Printers - everyone - will welcome DERMAFOAM, the modern method of cleansing and protecting the hands.

THEY HAVE PASSED ON.

During the past year there have been a great many losses to the Exercise by death, and this Christmastide has emphasised the toll that has been taken by the passing of two notable personalities, who have, in their respective spheres, rendered inestimable service to the art. Last week we recorded the passing of Mr. Joseph J. Parker; this week it is a melancholy duty to announce the death of the Rev. H. S. T. Richardson. The former had reached a ripe old age, and his main work for the advancement of ringing was done more than a generation ago. The results of those eflorts are perhaps to-day taken for granted, but, in those now somewhat distant years, they were only achieved by patience and diligence. Mr. Parker was contemporary in his work with other great figures in the Excrcise, men who left their mark on the art, but in his particular sphere of investigation he had no superior. The peals which he produced in all the Triples methods showed his complete mastery over the problems which many before him had endeavoured in vain to solve. Joseph Parker was another illustration of the fact that in ringing, even on its theoretical side, it is not always the men with the highest educational attainments who achieve the greatest ends. He gained his place in the Exercise by following up a keen curiosity for investigation with a painstaking pursuit of a subject which had previously bafled some of the ablest ringers, and, white his labours were applauded by those who could value his achievements, we doulbt if, particularly in recent years, the Exercise has shown the appreciation of his work that it merits. But Joseph Pariker was a modest man; he was content in the knowledge of a task well done.

The services which Harold Richardson rendered to ringing were in another category. He was of a later generation, and his work was unobtrusively done in the Central Council. As a member of the Peals Collection Committee, of which in later years he was convener, he undertook the proof of the thousands of Treble Bob peal compositions in the collection in the Council's Library. That in itself was a great task, and, in addition, Mr. Richardson carried on the other work of the committee, and was for some years hon. sec. of the Hereford Guild. Apart, however, from the position which he held in the Council, Mr. Richardson was one of that band of clerical riagers who seem to be rapidly diminishing in the Exercise. They were men who stood out in the efforts they made to put ringers and ringing in the place they ought rightly to occupy, and who were themselves among the leaders of our art. It may be that, in course of time, (Continued on pagy 862.)

another generation wilt take their places, but recent years seen to have robbed us of a body of clergy who were honoured, not only because they were members of the cloth, but because of the real service which they rendered to the advancement of ringing and the building up of the Exercise. ## PEAL NOTES.

AN INCLDENT AT APSLEY END.

The first peal by the Hertiond County Association in eleven Surprise Minor methods was rung at Apsley Fad on December 20th. Four of the 720 's were rung with two methads apiece and altogether there were 54 changes of method.
The band, of course, locked themselves in the tower, and at the finish, having lowered the bells in peal, descended the stairs. Someone tumbled with the key; failed to move the bolt of the lock, and then huoke the key! Tha position reghired a 'eouncil of war,' which was duly convened and the question of escape disenssed.
Fortunately the tower is connected to the body of the church by a dat roof. The lightest member of the party was lowered to the ground (alout 20ft. below) by a spare rope. Fo proceeded to the Vicarage, sume distance away, for a duplicate key. On arrival-na key! Returning to the outside of the door, he was ordered to go and find a large sirrewdriver. This he did and tho implement whs hauhed up, taken rown and, iortunately, "did the triek; being sufficiently stroug to trmove old screws.

By this timo 10 p.ra. had struth, which, we gather, was another bit of had lucts.
After a peal of Grandsire Triples on Decenber 18th at St. Joln the 13aptigl's Clurch, Devizes, rumg as as welcomes to the new Rector (the Kew. E. S. Dabbs) and a birtaday ampliment to Mr'. Jesse Stone, the Intier hindy eatertamed the band to ten. The peal was called by Mr. W. C. West, hom, searetary of the Dewizes Franch of the Salisbury Cinild, and it was his fiftieth peal as comituctor:
Derek M. Sharp rang at peal of Treble Ten at Leeds, Kent, on Decenber 18th, and thus completed peals of Kent Treble Bob from Winor to Maximas on tower bells. It was Tom Saunders' 175th peal, and Tom Sone called a composition, not hitherto rung, by Pat Cannon. Incidentally, Pat was engaged on the same day ringing the 45 cht. 1enor at Beverley Minster te Treble Ten, but the job had to be packed up, after two and a half hours owing to the "go" of the bell. Mr. William A. Wood rany lis fiftietl pend for the Midand Connties Association when he took part in seven 720 s of Oambridge surprise Winor at Thurlaston on December I8th. Thuree of the band rags their first Surpriso peal and two oflurg their firsi of Cambridge Surprise Mhor-all of them at the first attempt.
Mr. Fenyr Gayton, of Farrold, Bets, raug his 3001 h peal at shamslifoot, Beds, on December 18th. He called it from the 5tin, the hell on which le mang his first and his one bundredth peal.
Ulifford Vassey nud Jack Mithonse rany Whai 401 h peal together on December: 23 rd when the lafter called tive first peal in seven Minor mettrods on the bells at Netilehem, Lines.
The Worcestershire Associntion's תnaual peal was rung at Worcester Catbedral on Boxing Day, when Mr. Sid Holt called a peal of SLedman Cinques, A peal on these liels is amory tho 'big jobs,' and Mre. Jack Wausla, who is the jnaior sieward of the College Fouths, rang the tener:

On the same day a party of twelve paid a fying yisit to Birmingham and scored a peal of Stedman Cincpues in the Huil Fiug. Half a dozen went from the Loudon end and the sume aumber from Bristol district, and the peal was mug for the College Youths.

They wore given a welcome wnd a send-of by a mumber of Birmingham ringers, including Messus. Albert Walkev, Trank Perpin, Farry nnd George Tearm, and the youthful weteran, James Geonge.
A peal armanged as a birthday camplimenl, to ML. W. WT. Worthington, of Mraple Hayes, Lickfeld, and rung at Netherseal, Derbyshive, has alse a sombewhat pathetic touch. Mr. Maurice Swjufield called Josepla T. Payker's threepart peal of Stedman Triples (No. 2).
The conposilion was rung for the first time, and it is thought that this was the last peal of Stedman Triples composed by Mr. Parker, Those death took place only two days before the peal was runf

The penl of Cambridge Minor at Bramford, Suflolk, on Clristmas Jive, was rung at the request of the Rector, and was brought round just hefore tha 11.30 p-m. service. It was Trban W. Wildney's fiftieth peal.
The peal at Holbrook, Suffolts; on December 3rd, was Ronald W. Steward's $17 t h$ peal and wss rung an hits $17 t h$ birthday. An interesting coincidence.

Fhe peal of Grandsire Triples at Chathan an Boxing Day was iung as a birthinay compliment to the daughter of the conductor (Mr. W. A. J. Knight), ant on the wedding anniversurs of IIr. C. E. J. Norris, who ranser the firth.

Another White, of the well-known Appleton family, has become a peal ringer. On December 23rd, Francis A. White, son of Mr. Richard White, the bellhanger, stored his frst peat, in which seven other menbers of the family took part, including BIr. F. Stednan White, who rang his first peal of Grandsire Caters 62 years ago.
We hops the nowest addition of this family so long associated with the bells at Appleton will prove a worthy representative in the ringing sense. Fo has started well by the uausual performance of Gaters for his fivst penl.
Incidentally the peal was rung on the 33rd anniversaly of the wedaing of Mr. Fiven White and the 320 a annvensury of the wedding of Mr. Arthur FI. White.

OXFORD DIOCESAN GUILD

NORTE BUGKS BRANGI.

A guarterly meeting of the North Bucks Brancl of the Oxford Diacesan Guild was held at Buckiughrm on December' 41 l . In apita of the wretohed weather, $n$ smowstarm being in full foree, over 30 members attended, and thu bells were rung in various methods. Service was conducted by the Rev. C. D. Read, of Tingewick, and at the meeting after tea the sectebary reported bhat he had been approached by the secretary of the Latom District of the Benfordehire Association as to whether a joint mecting could be arranged at a later date. IIe thought that it would do good. It was left to him to arrange the mecting at gome convenient date.

The secretary apolagised for the absence of the chairman (the Rev. F. Adean Byard, of Newport Pagtlell), and thanked the Rev. Read, of Tingewick, for coming at short notice to oftiate at tho service and for taking the chair at the meeting.

The qecretaries of the Central Bucks and Banbary Branch atteaded the meeting, and a very hearty welcomo extended to them.

Another wedding peal was rung on Saturdby weels al Jungley, Bucks, the bride leeng Miss Mary Leach, of Langley, and the bridegroom Mr. Geo. H. Linmer, member of St. Peter's Sociedy, Burnham.
Miss Sylvia Bowyer and Mr. Georgo Meming rang their twenty-hfth? peal together on Saturday week, wher they book part iv a peal of Kent Treble Bob Major at St, Margareb's, Ipswich.

As a birthday compliment to Chesterficid's veteran composer, Mr. Arthur Kriohtas, peal of Keat Treble Bob was rung at Fickington, Derbyshire, on Saturday week.

Mr. Knights took part and the peal was called by his sen Percival. Another of his compositions, No. 219, was rung for the frist time.

A peal of Doubles in four methods was rung on the back six at the Bell Foundı, Loughborongin, on Saturary week. John H. Fill rang the tenor and scered his first peal at the first attempt, at the age of 13 years. The peal was conducted by Mr. Emest Morris, hon, secretary of tho Midland Counties Aesociation, who las now calied peals of Donlileb, Minor, Triples, Major, Caters and Royal on these bells.

THE HERTFORD COLLEGE YOUTHS.

THE HISTORY OF AN ANCIENT SOCIETY.

By J. A. Trolzope.

Hertford possessed one of the earliest peal ringing bands that we know of, and as early as December, 1724 , a month before Annable and the College Youths scored their first five-thousand, they rang 'the whole peal of Tripples.' Then follows a blank, and we hear no more about the doings in the town until September 5th, 1767 , when some young and excelient ringers formed themselves into a company and called themselves the Hertford Collegre Youths.

They were not a branch of the London Society, and had no other connection with it than that they borrowed its name, a thing at the time not unusual with provincial bands.

They numbered fourteen, and, so far as we can tell, they belonged to much the same class as do ringers today. The principal officer of the company was the Beadle, for, though the society had a Master and Stewards, they were, as we shall see presently, not ringers, and had nothing to do with the the belfry. There was also a Treasurer and Clerk.

Candidates for election as 'steeple ringers' must have previously rung at least 1,000 changes, and they were ballotted for by 'such of the other stecple ringers as shali be particularly summoned for that purpose.' An entrance fee of one shilling was to be paid to the Beadle. All money received for paid ringing was handed to the treasurer and was shared out on the first club night after Christmas, and upon the feast day, but nothing was paid to anyone who had not rung r,ooo changes. The fines and forfeits were spent on the evening of the first Thursday after Christmas.

The Society rang its first peal two months after its foundation, one of Bob Major at All Saints' Church; a month later they rang 7,056 in the same method; and between then and December, 1788 , ten more of Plain Bob and Oxford Treble Bob. Two of these were six-thousands and one was conducted by Thomas Blakemore, the junior partner in the firm of authors who wrote the Clavis.

The society shared the exclusive spirit common to the ringers of the time. They paid visits to the St. Alban's Zollege Youths and received return visits, but they did not allow their members to associate with the ringers of the other towers in Hertford, and when it was brought to their notice that Edward Baker had rung several times at St. Andrew's stecple for hire, it was resolved that he be expelled; and he was expelled accordingly.

Like all these old bands they had their quarrels and dissensions. Isaac Spencer, senior, was their most prominent member; at any rate, he was the first to sign the roll when the society was founded. When the first Beadle died he succeeded to the job, but a twelve-month later, at a meeting in All Saints' belfry, it was unanimously resolved that he, having at divers times illiberally reflected upon several members of the society, be expelled; and he was accordingly expelled.

William Hillier took his place, but he did not fare very much better. After three years' service, a mecting, held at the World's End, suspended hira from executing the office of warner or beadle 'for having ill-treated and abused several members at their meeting last night in All Saints' steeple.'

We can imagine that there was a pretty rough house and not much ringing on that occasion.

However, Hillier made a public submission and was reinstated, but only on very severe terms. 'If in future the said William Hillier shall refuse to obey the reasonable requisitions of the majority of the members or behave to the said members in an unbecoming manner, he shail be immediately discharged and expelled the Society, and if, after such expulsion, any member shall again proposi: or move for his readmission, such member shall be expelled himself.'

But Hillier had his own party, and later on a general meeting was called which included the stewards, steeple ringers, and handbell ringers, and the last-resolution was expunged. Isaac Spencer was also readmitted.
Another original member, Thomas Phenix, fell out with the company and told tliem to strike his name off the list, which they did. But some years later he was ringing peals with them.
The steeple ringers were only a section of the Society of Hertford College Youths. There is a reference, noted above, to the handbell ringers who would be tune players, but are not again mentioned. And there were other members whose only interest in the society was the annua! feast. In fact, the society was an excuse for a number of the principal men of the town and some of the surrounding country gentleman and parsons to meet once a year and have a good dinner. The first of these feasts was held in 1770 , and they continued yearly until 1808 . To arrange and manage them there were a Master and four Stewards. The Master, of course, took the chair, and the Stewards were the people who made themselves responsible for the arrangements and the finance.

In the handbook of the Ancient Society of College Youths we are told that the chair was usually taken by the Marquis of Salisbury, supported by Lord Dacre and others of the old country families. That, however, is (to put it mildiy) an exaggeration. The chair was not once taken by the Marguis of Salisbury, though that nobleman, when he was as yet only an earl, did attend on one occasion. Lord Fairford was then the Master, and these two are the only noble names that occur, for there is no mention of Lord Dacre. There is mention of a certain Alderman Baron Nathaniel Dimsdale, who was three times Master, but Baron was his Christian name. Three Members of Parliament were Masters and several aldermen, but never one of the steeple ringers.
After the first few years some of the London College Youths attended the feast and sometimes acted as stewards. Thomas Blakemore's name appears in ri76 ${ }^{6}$, and afterwards James Darquit, John Lyford, Robert Bly, William Lyford, John Lyford and others. John Briant, the Hertford bell founder, was also a steward on one occasion.
I imagine that what happened here was similar to what happened at St. Stephen's, Bristol. The feast began as a ringers' function, but eventually became an end in itself.
The society made two subscriptions, both for worthy purposes. One of $f 15$ was towards the cost of recasting the two trebles at All Saints' ; the other of $f$ io ros. towards the payment of the National Debt. No doubt this last amount seems somewhat inadequate to the purpose, but, as was said on an historic occasion, 'every little is a help.'

The last feast was held in 1808 , and it seems that before then the ringing in the tower had cleclined, and soon afterwards practically came to an end; but on Easter Monday, April 2oth, r829, an attempt was made to resuscitate the society and twenty-six men signed as members. They included Edward John Osborn, who was born a Hertford man, and who had already rung his only peal, Grandsire Triples, at St. Andrew's. But it came to nothing, and Osborn, who shortly afterwards left for London, wrote lugubriousiy, 'It is no longer itself. Friendship gone. Pleasure crash'd. Science lost. And all gone for ever.'

Mention has been made of the first Marquis of Salisbury. He was the first respectable member of the family since Robert Cecil, the first earl, and he owed much to a very remarkable wife who, in old age, was burnt to death in a fire at Hatfield. Osborn says that he was interested in belis and ringing and had sent a fat buck to the Hertford College Youths for their feast. In 1786 he recast the six bells at Hatfield and made them into a heavy ring of eight. The London College Youths were invited to ring the first peal. They stayed three days and, owing to the hot weather, had several unsuccessful attempts before they succeeded. The peal was 5,280 changes of Treble Bob. John Povey conducted, Samuel Muggeridge rang the tenor, and the band included James Darquit, William Lyford, James Worster and Joseph Holdsworth. During their stay they were entertained to dinner at the Salisbury Arms by the Marquis, who presided.

SALISBURY DIOCESAN GUILD.

MONTHLY MEETINGS IN WIMBORNE BRANOH.
A meeting of the Wimborme Branch of the Salistury Diocesan Guiki was held on Saturday, December 18th, at St. James', Poole, 51 uambers attending. After the service, wh which the Rector gave the address, tea was partaken of at tho Clurch Fouse and was followed by the business mecting.

The lon. secretary's report was vary gratifying. It showed a record year, in the course of which 13 peals were rung by the brauch. Poole bells had been augmonted to ten and one otber peal was ruyg in tile branch by mombers of the Ancient Society of Uollege Youlis to commemorate the tercentenary of that society.

The mouthly meetings throughout the ybar had not been too well altended, but it was decided to carry on with them for another year, and all meetings were fixed for tho fourth Saturday in each monih.

The officers were re-clected en bloc, and each made a suitable reply,
The Guild Riuging Master (the Rov. R. H. Gundry) was present, and congratulated the branch on the year's work. They bed, be gaid. a record to encourage them to even greater efforts for the coming year.

Visitors included Mr. G. Preston, secretary of the Christehurch branch of the Winchester and Portsmouth Diocesan Guild, Mr. C. H. Jennings, secrebary of the Dorchester Branch of the Salisbury Guild, Other fowerg represented were Wimbonne, Poole, Bournemouth (St. John's and St. Peter's), Corfe Mfullen, Lytchatt Minster and Lytchett Matravers, Dorchester, Lulwortland Swanago.

Several new members were elcoted.
The ringing was of a very good standard generally, and the methods rung were rounds, Grandsire Triples, Cambridge Major, Grandsive and Stedman Catera, Plain Bob and Kent Treble Bob Royal. Nany of those present heard the ten belis for the first time, and many remaris were passed about the splendid splice made by Messle. Mears nud Stainbank. The ten belis pare lowered in peal at the close of a very successful meeting.

BELERY GOSSIP.

A Happy and Prosperous New Fear to all readers of "The Ringing World.

Mr. A. B. Peck, hon. secretary of the Ancient Society of College Youths, wishes all mombers of the Society and ringing friends a happy and prosparaus New Year.
During ringing at Woodstock, Oxfordshire, on Bank Haliday, a gudgeon of the 17 cwt , tenor broke aut the bell fell into the frame.

Naturally the ringers had a fright when the crash came, but it was an exagger'ation to say, as did some newspapers, that the ringers ' Tnu for their lives.?
The Bishop of Manchestor has appointed the Rev. Arthur Scotto president of the Lancashira Association, to be the Rector of St. Luke's, Miles Platting, Manchester. The Rev. Arthur Scott is at present Lecturer of Boltou and senior curate of Bolton Farish Church,

It frequently occura that someone loses either a glove or umbrella in a belfry, but after the opening of Thetford bells one ringer found himself in possession of seven hats, providing him with one for each day of the week, unless they have smee been elaimed.

RINGERS' HANDBOOK:'

NEW EDIHION OT THE EIGHT-BELL VOLUME,
The best evidence that the 'Ringers' Handbook' fulfils a very useful purpose is the fact that the first print of the complete volume has sold out, and the authors (the Rev. E. S. and Mrs. Powell) have published a new edition. The matter has been carefully revised and some slight changes made, notably in thre peals of Grandsire Triples. Holt's Ten-Patt disappears, Parker's Twelve-Past is given with transpositions, and a peal by the Rev. 羔. J. James included.

The book is on excellent instructor. It carries the crabject from handling a bell up to the four standard methods-Grandsire and Stedman Triples; Plain Bob and Treble Bob Major-and explains the may to call them. A wariety of peals, with explanatory notes, is included. This revised edition is published at 2s. 9d., or six copies for 15s. It can be obtained only from the Rev. E. S. Powell, Staverton Vicarage, Daventry. The sis-bell section, as a separate publication, has not yet etatered a second edition.

CLASHING OF MEETINGS.

To the Editor.
Dear Sir, I was pleased to see two replies to my letter regarding the clashing of meetings. I am also pleased to hear that Mr. A. H. Smith's meetings are fixed early in the year. As a matier of fact, I knew this already, and consequently as I also know that the Surrey Association meetings are fixed early in the year, it was a still greater amazement to me to see that they would clasl. No secrefary is asked to know enything about anotlier's mectings of 50 miles distant, but I think it only to the mutual adrantage of everyone trat they sloould know something about those held within three miles. It Was known that this clash would take plece, probably eight montlis ago, and, therefore, there is absolutely no excuse whatever for aither secretary. It showed an extreme lack of co-operation. Anyway, I sincerely hopa that both meetings wero well attended, and that each tower enjoyed a course of London.

Regarding the Twielrenlam and Isleworth 'clash,' I am sorry this is the second one this year. Mr. W. G. Wilson apparentily thans lie Las canght mo napping, but I expected someone to bring up about the unfortuate clash bebween Lie London County Association, Southern District, meeting at Chiswick and the Soutio and West Middlesex District at Harinjoton on July 17 thr. The London County meetings are fixed for the bhird Saburday in alternate montbe, and the South and West Middesex aro fixed for the second Saturday. I kept to my Saturdey and knew nothing of the Marlington meeting untii I saw the notice in 'The Ringing World.' I did, however, mention the date of our next meeting in 'The Ringing World ' for June 4 th; so facts speak for themselves. Also, as I purposely took note of everyone who attanded at Chiswick (it was a very poar attendance, only 18), I learnt thei no one at my meetring would have attended at Fiarlingtion in any case. Further comment is unnecessary.
I might add, in passing that I am greatly against any association regarding a tower as in their own territory. A moeting is leld at a tower through the courtesy of the lecal incumbent and the captain of the ringers, and to my way of thinking it matters nothing under whose auspices the meeting is held. But whoever arwanges a meeting should first make suro that it does not clash with a neighbouring society, and this can be done by everybody leẹping ta fixed dates as far bs pessible, and, if the date has to be altered, getting into communication with the society that has kept to its date. Good feeling will then be retained.

OLDEST COLLEGE YOUTH.

The oldest member of the Ancient Society of College Youths and Master of the sociefy in 1885, Mr. J. Martin Routh, now liring at Tilehurst, Berks, celehrated his 9lst birthday on Monday.
Manbers of St. Michael's. Tilehurst, rang a quarter-peal of Grandsire Triples in his honour on December 28th: J. Marsh 1, H. Hunt 2, F. Lavgley 3, H. Goodger 4. A. Faines 5, J. Lewendon 6, R. Rumham (conductor) 7, D. Seliar 8 .

DEATH OF THE REV. H. S. T. RICHARDSON.

HON. SECRETARY OF HLREFORD DIOCESAN GUILD.
We deeply regret to announce the death of the Rev. F. ©. T Richardson, Reotor of St. Nicholas', Hereford, and hon. secretary of We #ereford Diocesall Guild, which took place on December 23rd at Moorcocks, Brasted, Kent, the residence of his brother-in-law, Mr. F. H. Lewis. Mr. Richardson had beeu seriously ill for some monkhs, and his resisnation of the living of St. Nicholas was already in the hands of the Bishop and wonld have taken effect from tho end of the year. He was 55 years of age and leaves a widow and four daughters, to whom, as to his sigter, Mrs. Lewis, the sympatly of the whole Exercise will be extended.
Harold Samuel remple Richardson was the son of the Venerable John Gray Richardson, some time Archdeacon of Nottingham and Rector of Southwell Cathedral. He was at Notingham Hirls School, und became a Scholar of Trinity College, Cambridge, in 1901. He took a first class in the Classical Tripos 1904, when he took his B.A., a second class in the Theological Tripos in 1906, and proceeded to his M.A. in 1910.

After leaving Ciambridge, where he spent five years, be went to Thishop's Hostel, Bishop Auckland, and was ordained deacon in 1907 and priest in 1908. He was curate of Holy Trinity, Darlington, 1907-8, and domestic chaplain to the Bishop of Durham and head of the Bishop's Hostel, Bishop Auckland, 1908-1911.

He then went to St. Mary the Great, Cambridge, under the late Rev. A. IF, F. Boughey, where he spent about a year, and afterwards became organising secretary of the Church of England Sinday Schoot Institate, which position he beld from 1912 to 1917. Returning to parochial work, he was curate of St, George's, Camberwell, 1917 to 1919 and cur'ate at Ashburton, Devon, 1919 to 1921. In the latter year he married Miss Edith Bond, kauthter of the Vicar of Ashburton, and became Rectar of Hopesay, where he remained until 1987, when he hecame Rector of St. Nicholas', Hereford.
Mr. Richardson's interest in ringinr began when he went up to Cambridge, where he joined the Cambridge University Guild in the same year as Mr. E. H. Lewis, Dr. F. S. Poole and the late Rev. B. H. Tyrwhitt-Drake.
He became treasume of the Guilk in 1902 and held the office of Master in 1903, 1904 and 1905. His first peal was rung with the Guild on June 17th, 1903, a peal of Bob Major at St, Andrew's, Cambridge. Afterwards lie took part in many pcal perfarmances both for the University Guild and other societies.
He was elected an honorary member of the Central Coumeil in 1908 and devoted a great deal of labour to the work of the Peals Collection Committee. Acong the tasks he undertook was the proving of the housnmds of peals of Treble Bob, from Major to Maximus, which are in the Council's Library. He was not always able to attend the Council meetings, burt whenover he took part in debate, his opinions carried corsiderabie weight among the members.
After he took up residence in Herefordshire he was elected hon. secretary of the Diocesan Guild, and he held this offee and his membership of the Council up to his death.
The funeral took place at Brasted on Tuesday afternoon.

LONDON COUNTY ASSOCIATION

HREP FOR ST. GEORGE'S BELL FUND.
A meeting of the Northern District of the London County Association was held ou Saturday, December 18th, at the Church of St. John at Hackney. The bells at this church are a peal that po well if the band ringing "knows them,' so that, as might be expected, the striking nt times was not particularly good. Farious methods were rung before the tea interval, when the services of 'Lyons' were requisitioned.
At the business meeting, held in the tower, five new members were elected, and it was announced that the district annual meeting would bo held in the city of London on January 8th at St. Lawrence Jewry.
The district secretary (Mr. J. G. A. Prior) announced that he would not seel re-election for the coming rear.
A discussion took place regarding the appeal by the Rector of St. George-in-the-East for assistance towards the restoration of the ring of eight at his church. A clonation from the distriet funds of 10 s . was agreed upon and a collection realised the anm of 30s. Other plans for assisting the appeal were disoussed, and a committee of three was appointed to co-operate with the authorities at St. Gearge-in-the-East.
The District Master then proposed a vote of thanks to the Rector for tho use of the belle, and to Mr, Frank Start, Master of the Eackney hand, for making the arrangements.-phis was carried by acclanation, and Mr. Start briefy replied.

Further ringing then took place in methods up to Cambridge and Superlative.

A pleasing featire of the menting was that the attendance was comprised almost entirely of districl members. Tisifors are always very welcome at Northern Districi, mentings, but in the past the success of the meetings has depended largely upon the support of nondistrict members, a state of affairs that had not reflected much credit on the district mombers.

BELLS OVER LONDON

MLSS DOROI'HY L. SAYERS AND THE DISיITE WITM TFE B.B.C.

To the Editor.

Sir,-Mr. J. A. Waugh has, I think, in your last iesue, put his finger on the real source of the trouble in this unfortunate dispute, viz., 'the failure of the B.B.C. to obtain asreement with the particiDants before poblishing their programmes. I slabuld lile to explain that all I kuew of bio mather was that I was asken by the 13, J3.C. to take part in a programme arwanged (ns I was infommed) wy them in comjuction with the A.S.C.I. The passage selected from my book was not my own choice, and I said athe thme thet I thonght it inl chosen; but I naturally supposed wat it had been decided upon by bollh parbies concerned. I knew nothing whatover about any disanreement until I was rung up by 'The Star', and informed, mueh to my surprise, that (fecording to "The Daily Hemad ") 1 was involred in a 'row af the B.B.C.' Needless to say, had I imagined for one mament that any objection to my part in the programme had been raised by Mr. Roughton or any other member of the Ancient Sacety, 1 slonk have refnsed to collaborate. I strongly deprecate the suggeation that has (probably unintentionally) been conveyed that I lind or lave any intention of puttine myself forward as an atuthority on change ringing: nothing could be farther from the truth. I an extrewely sory that I should have been made to appear in any way disporrieous to the society, who have gons out of their way to do me every possinle kindness.

LANCASHERE ASSOCIATEON.

IS IT TOO JIG FOR EFFTGTENT ADMTNTSTRARTON

To the Editor.

Dear- Sir,-I am sure your trenchant criticism in the last issue of "The Ritoging World' will be welcomed by all those who have the welfare of the Lancashire Association at hearti. tille picture is roally blacker than yon have painted it: silent towers on Sundrys (there are at least three in the Manchester taref und ono in Presion arear no interest shown by most of the towers.

If we exchude the Liverpool area (which is farily purasperous), then we can say that the decline in Lancaslire is partoty goneral. I rm noto criticising our offeials, but I wonder if they lave ever điscnsged ways and means of combating this insidious lethargy which has taken possession in the county. I ask, in all seriousiness, is onrl association too big and unwieldy for offient administration? There are three dioceses in Lancashire; would it be better to form linree sepmrato guilds instead of one?
Some few years ago my own bunch tabled a mation that ench brazeln should be allowed to control 75 per cent. of its own funds. The commitiee moved and carried that the motion be allowed to lie on the table." Yet bhis is already done in the most progressive associations. I mention this to show that there will have to be at difforent spirit from the commitice downwards if this deche is to he orreated. Your leader will make the enthusiastic members think serionsly, Let us hope their thought will be transferved into vigorons action.

Prestan.

A NEW EIGFY TN THE FYLDE BRANCH.

The monthly meeting of the Fylde Brancl of the Limenashive Assochition was hold af Poultou on Snturday, December 18th. The big adituaction was the new octave by the recent addition of I wo trebles to the ancipat riag of six. All the bells have been cust by Ments and Stainbank and much interest was itroused in the branch as to the success or otherwise of the "splice.
The tenor being only around 8 cwt , Poullon can now elain to have the lightest ring of eight bells for many miles abousd. Owiag to the light weitht of the bells and easy muning (except the tenor), it took quite a long time to bring round easy touches of Boh Major or Grandsite.
Great mbthusianm exists among some of the local ringers for change ringing, and, althongl they have not yot scored a plain couse of Bob Major, the leader has hopas of scoring pa peal by about Easter gext. Touches of Bob Major, Grandsire Triples and Stedman Triples wero suceessfult brought round, the bells being rung down in peal at 7 p.m. after an enjoyable meeting.
Jit was decided to hold the next meeting af Bisplam in January.

A TASMANIAN BELL FOUNDER.

In a letter to E Hobart newspaper, Mr. W. Eltham, of Sandy Bay, wrote: On the occasion of a reception in Encland by English bellingers, Archdeacon Blackwood expressed a wisli that wo had a bell foundry in Arustralia. It will be news to many to learn that a bell foundry existed in Hobart in the 1860's. It was in Barrack Street, and later was used as an engineeriny factory bp Davidson nad Brown. J. Swein was the bell fomnder, and many of his eastings still exist in Tasmania, including two of the most sonorous and full-toned bells in Anstralia, still in inse at the St. Joseph's Ohurch nud St. George's Church. Tho Swain family were stameh adherents of St. Georve's Olurch. It is generally understood that Swair was the only bell caster in Australia.

RESTORED PEAL AT THETFORD, NORFOLK.

SDCCESSFUL REORENING MEETING.

After a silence of nearly tro years, St. Peter's bells wera heard again on Saturday, December 18th, on the occasion of the rededication of the restored peal by the Rev. Canon J. K. Jolnston, Rural Dean, Vicar af St. Cuthinet's, Thetford.
The Rector of St. Peter's, the Rev. S. C. Webb, conducted the service, which took the form of a shortencd evensong.

Canon Johnston gave an address, in the course of which he referred to St. Peter's bells as not only being of interest to the parish of St. Pelier's, but 4 personal concern of everyone in the ancient borough of Thetford. He expressed the belief that the tones of the bells mingled with the emotjons of all, sometines glady sometimes sadly, and evcryone rejoiced wat the restored peal conld now fulfil its accustonoed task.
Following the address, a procession was formed, congisting of the Rev. Canor H. K. Johnston (Vicar of St. Cuthbert's), the Rev, S. C. Wehb (Rector of St, Peler's), tho churchwardens (Messis. T. E Rudling and W. C. Goodman), and proceeded to the ringing clamber, where the ringers were wailing.

After the dedicatory prayers, and whilst the clergy and churchwardens returned from the tower, eight local ringers rang younds to announce that the bells were asgin in use.
At the conclusion of the gervice, various touches were rung by visitars, and over 40 proceeded to St. Peter's Church Room, where tea wis provited, and the Rurai Dean, the Rector, charchwasdens, and Mr. S. R. Roper', representing Messrs. Gillete and Johuston, were present.
The bells hare been inned and cleaned and rehung is the strengthenen oak frame, complete with ball benrings and modern fitiugs. Everyone expressed their appreciation of the way in which the restaration had been carried throurli to a highly successiful conclusion and of huving the peal in perfect vinging order once egain.

Gratifieation was also expressed at the Improvemont effected by the tuning of the bells, and the visiting ringers voimed their complete salisfaction with the "go" of the peal, both of which facts reflect eredit on the bellfounders.

After tea all the ringers returned to the tower and indulged in Prain Bob, Kent and Oxford Treble Bob, Grandsire and Stedman Triples, Double Norwich Court Bob, Cambridge and Superlative Surprise.
The meeting, which was rieclared the nost snecessful that conld be desired, was attended by Ihree district secretaries of the Norwich Tiocesan Association, Messrs. H. Tooke (North), A, G. ## WHERE LORD BRERETON IS BURIED.

THE COLLEGE YOUTHS' FIRST MASTER

The Pariel Church of St. Oswald at Brereton, near Orewe, in Cheshire, has a special interest for ringers, for it was the burial place of William, Lord Brereton, the founder and first Master of the Society of College Youths. Until recently nothing was known about Lord Brevetoy, but when writing the bistory of the Coliege Youtis, Mr. J. A. Trollope made researches among the state papers and other souvces of information, and discovered that Brercton in his time was at the time; and the Treasury Books contain eatries which show how much some of tio cauntry gentlemen had suffered and how they cxpected to be compensated. Lord Breretor asked for a logal office, which appacently le did not get. He also applied for a grant of the customs of French wines at the port of Chester and was rolusad. The did get a money grant from the King.
There are five bells at Brereton Churcl, and we cannot doubt that there Lord Brereton did most of his actual ringing, but unfortumately a person of very considerable importance. He was one of the local leaders of the Royalistr party in the Civil War, and after suffering for his loyalty. during the Comnonwenlth, was rewarded after the Restoration by being made Lod Lithtenant of Cheshire; but he did not live to enjoy his honours very loug.

Among the papers at the Recoud Office are one or two autograph letters of Breretou to the Secretary of State, which throw Iight, not only on the man himself, but on the political condition of the country no record now exists of any actual performances by hin dither in Oheshire or in Jondon among the College Youths. The church contains no memorial to him, but on the tercentenary the College Fouths sent a wreath in commemoration of his connection with the society, and a peal of Donbles was rung by Choshire members of the society, conducted by Mr. Albart Crawley.

A LEICESTERSHIRE RING RESTORED

COPT OAK BELIS REDEDICATED.

A service of thanksgiving and the rededication of the bells uf the Church of St. Peter, Copt Oak, Leicestershire, took place on Surday, December 19th. The special service, which followed evening prayer, was modelled upon the form used at Leicester Cathedral last April. After intercessions and thanksgivings had been said, Psalm 150 was sung and a procession was made to the tower for the hallowing ceremony, which was performed by the Archdeacon of Loughborough (Ven. W. P. Furrell, M.A.). After he lad charged the ringers to see that the bellis were vung with reverence and devotion to a sacred trust, the bells were raised in peal by the following members of the Hugglesroto band: F. O. Over 1, W. Johnson 2. J. F. Dean 3, J. Oadle 4. E. J. Tovell 5, A. E. Rowley 6. Meanwhile the procession Jeturned tu the chancel. The Archdeacon gave an inspiring address on the history of bells, their uses and their beauty.

After the service short tomehes of Grandsire Doubles, 33ob Minor and Kenl: Troble Boh Minor gave an opportunity to all desinous of trying the improvements.
The bells have been relump on ball bearings and providea with new ropes through the generosity of the Baruan Bell Trust, who have defrayed the whole cost. The work has been carried out by Messus. J. Thylar and Co., of Loughborougl, who have cartied nut the work wilh 1 he highest efliciency.

RINGERS SEE THEMSELVES IN FILM.

PICTU廹 TAKEN JN LOWESTOFT BELFRY
Members of St, Margaret's Seciety, Lowestoft, with the IRector (Canon H. F. Jinraght, M.A.), Mr. T. Woodser (secretary of the society) and Mrs. Woodger, had the pleasure of being ontertained by at well-known resident, Mr. Sydney Taylor, nad Mrs. Taylor at theit residence, Eillingdou, Gumton Cliff.
A month previous, by the kind permission of the Rector, and with the assistance of the SL, Margaret's ringers, Mr. Taylor took an film of the ringers at work in their helfyy, with the result that n very unique firm was obtaned. The entertainment opened with views in Switzerland taken ly ihe Jost when on holiday there, then a film ol scemes at $\AA$ recent wedding at Fakenham. The 'plece de resistauce followed, and the ringers expressed the view that it was a success. The ringers who are shown in the film, ringing two shont tonctas of

The conpany afterwards partuok of refreshments, and at the conclusion of the evening the Rector, on belalf of the ringers, thanked Mr. ami Mra. Taylor for the entertainment they had provided, and also for their linspitality.

RINGER, KNOW THYSELF!

BY GEORGE L. JOYCD, HORNCHURGH

it is a great pity that everybody caunot believe that most of us have a genuine desire to better our art, and that we write, perhaps mistakenly, only with the idea of helping. I am grateful for Mr. Latwis' balanced and restrained reply to my letter about 'good striking: which held nothisg intended to be personal to him as a ringer. As 'first ringer in the land" bis name was used impersonally, but it so happened that he aiso is Master of the society which broad, ast exhibition ringing that I humbly consider to have been 'peor striking.'
The letter from Mr. Alec E, Richardson is an excellent example of the necessity to "know thyself.' Devoid of any vistage of constructive matiter, it compluins blat I wrile without construction! I am prepured to try to construct in its place, lut we plain fact is that so many of us think it is all the otiner fellow, whife we, ourselves, are helping towned the imperfection of the whole. And who is there to led the 'older bands ' of this? How many wotld up and tell a men of the stendieg and known opinions of (say) Mr. Lewis to shove her tlong at back, do!'-even if the critic were tolerably sure of his sround?
Time and again the "old "uns" bully the youngsters in the circle, or the meekest there-usiamlly there is a "goat. ${ }^{\text {a }}$ I suppose we cannot resist the temptation, but it is an unpleasant fact. My own experience has taght me that it is moli meant unkindly. But who has not suffored rus feared the big fellow 'on the box, who hellows'. . pull it, man, path it : . . ' to the nelvous offender? secredary who, when we thy Stedman Cingues once in a while, helps us so libtla with' A don't dray those little bells... '? Who does not remember the $\mathrm{l}^{3} . \mathrm{M}$. of the College Youths who, eses to the ground, ulaintively (zet fiercely withaly would bleat *...stri-i-i-li'm Is this sor of thing conshructive leap Contrast it mith the gentle numbegy of the populay Master of a Middesex Association, who, from huhind, will whigper, ". now thirtl's, ant she is a litte slow at hand. . . So wonder that he is popmar!
I cannot rempmber ever reading a definition of 'good striking '; in fuct, most aubhorities have shied nt, one. Constructively to be the fuol 'where angels fear to fread, let me liy. Twenty-live years ago I spent a day in Hornchurch Dell and ihe fields aronnd, reading and lacing in the sun, mainly wo please a cortain ' 1 il " of' lady.' Thus, it luppened thet $I_{\text {, a }}$ young and kean ringer, on May 27th, 1912, for norily ten hours listened to the record peal of Bristol. The monotony of the clockwork striking almost sent us to sleep. Rumour has it thit Isaag Shade missed his 1-2-1, and tirere came a monant whea yhybum was broken, quickly to be richited. Say for-what? -a minute or less? Somothing under a mindte in ter homs!
On the other hand. Twenty-five years later a competent musician mit with me and listened to the College Youths' broadeast; althongh 7no ringer, he "knew' ringing. His verdict of the St. Ciement's record rapt "The monotong if shond have expected from cexbibition ringing was decidedly poor. One bell in phificular was in the first quarter uf his time-umit the whole way through." In other words, he was shoving her tan much.
Thes is how I would define 'poor strikivg.' Not the man who momentarily iorgets bis places; not the beginuer feeling his way; not lise Foungster whe 'Erops her' now and then. But that persistent horror of the clip-clip-cip to the bitter end. And the worst of it is tile hest of us are prome.
A few months back, working in my grrden some 200 yards or so from Hounchuch tower, I histened to a peal of Canbridge four locals sud fowr visitorg "up." Asked by a local what I thouglat of it, $I$ said il might have been better if the - th had been rung ly a visting "xpert. "But it was, rang it," I wat told. And so, for three solid lours, a mar of wido experifence and many peals liad clipped lis loortid way throngh Gambridge Major. Curionsiy ezoushl, two of those visitors have been awnrded highest honours.
And the catse of bad striking? Ola timers recently have written fut it is dire to the 'Bradshav-ghide-surprise-jangling,' which, from n broad view, is utier nomsense. I ean 'bee" anything on six and eipht belle, provided I know the diagram and the others 'ring' it. "lins I ring Londion and Plain Beb with equal facility, and strike the one no worse than the obher. A priceless gift to a ringer also, forInnately, is mine-the ability to isolate the mind danuel whieli grides ' the rope (everr to the extent of conversing aside). I beliove, in fact I hmow, that this 'isolation' is an essenliai step toward the dovelopment of the 'listening channel.' On ten and twelve bells it is not so clearly mine. There I num compelten to concentrate on ropeson search ' as opposed to 'seeing all ' without effort (due, I suppose, to lack of practice). Cousegreatly the listening suffers, and striking worse than usual.
Mnch bas been writen about ears. Tars for what? The average Fonngster is under the impression that he lass to pich out the mate of his bell from emonest the fangle. In a belfry I nould not do that in a hundrod sears. What I do hear is the 'thump, (of any old note in tonel which mu listening channel registers at a fraction of lime after my dijding channel puts tine rope into a given place. Thus, when dodging in $3-4$ up. I hear: 'drm-dum-Mine': 'dum-dum-fumMine "; 'dum-dirn-Mine'-and so on.

BATH AND WELLS DIOCESAN ASSOCIATION  GHANGE OF OFFIUERS IN TAUNTON DEANERY  Mr. P. Mersan Retires from 'Secretaryship.

The annual meeting of the 'Inninton Deanery Branch of the Bath and Wells Diocesan Association was Ield at Wilton Cmach, Tanton, on Decentber 11th, Service was held in the cturch, conducted by the Yicar, the address being given by his brotleer, the Very Rev. F. S. N. Benueti, formelly Dean of Chester.
Tea was served and the meeting held in the Parish Fall, the presitent (the Rev. P. I. Grosvener') heing in the clair. The secrotary (Mr, P. Merson) presented the balance shect and gave his annual In lis report, Mr. Merson stated that the year liad been a quiet one and that the peals rung had reached the lowest figure since the war, only three leing recorded. He thanked the president for his services duriag the past five years and alse thanked the veriong incumbents for the use of their towers and others who had assisted him, He concluded by hoping that some special effort would be made during the coming year to help those towets which were somewhat backward.
The report was adopted and the secretary thanked for lis work. FThe mecting then went ons to the election of oflicers, and the Rev. aro. Grosvener amonnced that tre wonld be hnable to carry on as prosident of the Deanery. In a survey of his term of office as president, ho said that he had found ringers were not suel a mad Merson for the help whieh he had rendered him.
On a proposal by Mr. Coles, seconded by Mr. Merson, the Deanery's appreciation of the president's worl for them was recorded.
The Rer. W. H. Heaton-Renslaw, Vicar of St. Mary's Church. Taunton, was proposed by Mr. Merson and seconded by Mr. J. Hint as president, and his election was carried with acclanation. Mr. Heaton-Renslıaw said that his reasous for accepling the post were his admiration of the retiring president and his apprceiation of the work of lis own ringers at St. Mary's.

Merson said that after 27 years as gecretary he thought that someone else should take on the duties, and proposed by Mr. $\mathbb{R}$. Wy. Fayward, of Wilton, as his successor. In making this proposal, Mr. Merson said that Mr. Haywrrd came from an old fanily of ringers, was himself a good rimger, and, moveover, had vouth on lifs side. The proposal was sccended by Mr. Huat and cartied.
Mr. Hayward, althongh nearly overcome by the praise he liad heard of himself: managed to thank those present and hoped that he would not let the Deancry down.
Mr. Coles proposed the re-election of Mr. Funt as Ringius Master, saying that they could not pussibly olbain a better one, and this was agreed to.
On the motion of Mr. Funt, Mr. Fayward was elected as representative on the General Conmittee of the association.
Combo Florey, Wiveliscombe and West Monlton were selected as places for the quarterly meetings for the coning year, with Ashbrittle as rabstitute if one of these places cannot be obtained
The President thanked the Vicar of Wilton for his hospitality and those who had provided the tea for their services.

Touches, ranging up to Kent Treble Bob Major, were rung on the bells.

I believe that this can easily be developed, once the concentrated effort to "see" has heen overcome, provided the learner is told what to listen for. And, with practice, it becomes ingtinctive. From that point it is purely a matter cf plysical ability-which I lack to a very marked degree.
There seems to be 九 lot about me: but who else can I analyse? I am trying to 'know myself.' Go, thou, and do likewise and Many Happry New Peals to you!

Cleanse and preserve your skin this simple way

To many people, the problem of getting the hands really clean without harming the skin is a serious one. Grease and grime, which become deeply ingrained into the pores of the skin, are extremely difficult to remove, and ordinary washing with soap or even scrubbing will fail to remove them completely. Housewives, particularly, who complain that their hands get ruined by the nature of their work, will find the preparation called DERMAFOAM, a real "godsend." DERMAFOAM just smoothes away dirt and grease without effort. It gets right down into the pores and removes every particle of grime, leaving skin beautifully supple and healthy.

Men, too-when you've finished that dirty job on the car, DERMAFOAM will quickly banish all grease and oil from your hands. It acts almost magically-working under and around the nails and into every minute crease, removing all trace of dirt in a flash.

Engineers, Painters, Car Mechanics, Printers - everyons - will welcome DERMAFOAM, the modern method of cleansing and protecting the hands.
